GEN

WORLD BIOGRAPHY

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY
3 1833 01218 6356

GC
929
W877
V.2,
PT.2,
NA-SG

1948

FOURTH EDITION of the
BIOGRAPHICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE WORLD

INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH IN BIOGRAPHY
(Incorporated 1934)
296 BROADWAY
NEW YORK 7, N. Y.

Amer. Soc. of Geneticists; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists. Author of 3 monographs and numerous papers on heredity. Address: Zoology Department, Kansas State College, Manhattan, Kans.

NABRIT, Rev. Dr. JAMES MADISON, American Church Official; born Sept. 17, 1877, Atlanta, Ga.; son of J. Clark and Margaret (Petty) Nabrit; received A.B. and D.D. degrees from Morehouse College; A.M. from Virginia Theological Seminary; LL.D., Selma Univ.; graduate student of Chicago Univ.; married Augusta G. West, May 5, 1899; eight children. Began career as Teacher, 1898; Dean of Central City College, Macon, Ga., 1899, and Pastor of St. James Baptist Church, Forsyth, Ga. In 1907 became Pastor of Bethesda at Americus, and Teacher in Americus Inst.; Pastor at Springfield, Augusta, Ga., and Instructor in Walker Baptist Inst., 1912-21; Pastor, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., 1921-38. President of Georgia Baptist Convention, 1922-38; Secy., National Baptist Convention, Inc., since 1931; Pastor, First Baptist Church, Memphis, Tenn., 1943—. Trustee, Atlanta University; Member of Executive Com., World's Baptist Alliance, and Executive Com. of the Federal Council of Churches; held offices in the N.A.A.C.P., the Urban League, Atlanta Branch, Odd Fellows, Pythians and Masons. Publications: "The Lord's Supper And Who Shall Take It." Address: 682 S. Lauderdale St., Memphis 5, Tenn.

NABUCO, MAURICIO, Brazilian Diplomat; born May 10, 1891, London, England. Attaché, Office of Foreign Relations of Brazil, 1913; served in various posts in that department since then. Member of numerous advisory committees and councils. Author of a plan of civil service reform in Brazil put into effect, 1937. Brazilian Ambassador to Chile, 1937-39; Appointed Secretary-General of Ministry of Foreign Relations, Brazil, 1939. Received LL.D. from Norwich University, 1935. Ambassador to Holy See, 1945—. Address: Brazilian Embassy, Vatican City, Rome, Italy.

NACCACHE, ALFRED GEORGE, Lebanese Statesman; born May 6, 1886, Beyrouth, Lebanon; son of George and Latife (Dumany) Naccache; educated at Saint Joseph Univ.; Licencié, Faculté de Droit de Paris; married Alice Yared, May 1919; two children. Lawyer, Cairo, Egypt, 1910. Lawyer of Lebanese Customs, Régie of Tobacco, Crédit Foncier, etc., 1919. Counselor of High Court of Justice, Beyrouth, 1927; later Pres. of Appeal Court and Conseil d'Etat. Chief of Lebanese State, 1941. President of the Republic, 1942. Deputy of Beyrouth (elected), 1943-47; Member of Opposition and Chief of Parti Populaire; now Chief of Opposition. Pres.: Red Cross (Lebanon), 1934-38; Catholic Action, 1938-41. Awarded: Grand Cordon du Cédre (Lebanon); Grand Cordon Ourmeyades (Syria); Commandeur de l'Ordre de St. Grégoire le Grand (Papal decoration). Author of many publications in reviews and newspapers of Lebanon, Egypt and Europe. Address: 54 Sursock St., Beyrouth, Lebanon.

NACHAT, Dr. HASSAN PACHA, Egyptian Diplomat; born Feb. 20, 1889, Egypt; son of Ibrahim Nachat; educated at Royal School of Law, Cairo, 1908; Dijon School of Law, Dr. in Juridical Science and in Economics, 1913; married Patricia Priest, Oct. 24, 1944. Teacher, Royal School of Law, Cairo, 1913-19; at Ministry of Justice, 1919; Director, Arabic Section of the Royal Cabinet, 1921; Sub-Chief of the Royal Cabinet until 1923; Royal Counsel, Minister of Agriculture, 1923; Under-Secy. of State, Ministry of Wafks, 1923-24. Minister to Spain, 1925; to Iran, then to Germany, 1929-38; Ambassador to Great Britain, 1938-44. Residence: Villa Nachat, 14 Bahgat Ali Pasha St., Zamalek, Egypt.

NADAI, Dr. A. L., American Consulting Mechanical Engineer; born Apr. 3, 1883, Budapest, Hungary; educated at Federal Swiss Polytechnic Inst., Zurich, M.E. 1906; Technical Univ. of Berlin, Dr. Engr. 1911; married Elisabeth V. Witte, Sept. 20, 1913. Mechanical Engineer since 1906. Asst. at Technical Univ. of Berlin, 1909-12. 1st Lieut., Austrian Army, World War I. Associated with Dr. L. Prandtl at Inst. of Applied Mechanics, Univ. of Goettingen, 1919; Assoc. Prof. of Mechanics, 1926-29; on staff of Westinghouse Research Laboratories, since 1929. Member: Amer. Soc. Testing of Materials; Soc. of Rheology; Amer. Geophysical Union; Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers (Chairman, Research Com. on Plasticity, 1930). Edgar Marburg Lecturer, 1931. Consultant for Navy Dept., David Taylor Model Basin, Washington, D. C. Author: Die elastischen Platten, 1925; Plasticity, 1913; many papers on theory of elasticity, plasticity, strength of materials and advanced mechanics. Address: Westinghouse Research Laboratories, E. Pittsburgh, Pa.

NADAL, Dr. THOMAS WILLIAM, American Theologian and Educator; born June 17, 1875, Millroy, Ind.; son of Benjamin Franklin and Jerusha (Richey) Nadal; educated at DePauw Univ., A.B. 1898, LL.D. 1924; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1903, Ph.D. 1909; Michigan State Normal College, M.Pd. 1917; Olivet College, LL.D. 1919; Drury College, Litt.D. 1940; married Kathryne Wyckoff, June 1909; four children. Instructor in English and Oratory, Olivet College, 1898; Prof., 1900-17; Dean, 1904-17; Pres., Drury College, 1917-40; Emeritus since 1940. Member, Michigan State Board of Education. 1911-17; Pres., 1915-17. Minister, First Congregational Church, Olivet, Mich. Author: Chaucer's Muiopotmus and Spencer's Daphnaida, 1908; Baccalaureate Addresses, 1925, '28, '33, '39. Address: 307 East St., Olivet, Mich.

NADANYI, PAUL, Hungarian-American Editor; born Oct. 13, 1903, Hungary; educated at high school in Budapest; attended Budapest Univ., law faculty; married Marcella Picard, 1931; two children. Reporter in Budapest, 1923; Political Reporter, staff of Esti Kurir, Hungarian liberal daily, 1924-26; Vienna Correspondent of three Budapest newspapers, 1926-28; American Correspondent of same papers, 1929-30; editorial writer, Amerikai Magyar Napszava, 1931-34; Editor since 1934. Member: Board of Directors, Amer. Hungarian Relief, Inc.; Amer. Hungarian Federation. Author: The Free Hungary Movement, 1942; Hungary at the Crossroads of Invasions, 1943; Merre, magyarok? 1945. Address: 380 Second Ave., New York, N. Y.

NADEAU, Prof. JEAN-MARIE, Canadian Historian, Lawyer; born Dec. 8, 1906, St. Césaire, Quebec; son of Rodolphe and Georgianna (Ducharme) Nadeau; educated at Univ. of Montreal (Licence in Law and Social, Economic and Political Sciences); Univ. of Rennes (Licence in Letters); Univ. of Paris, 1930-34 (Diploma in Law); married Pauline Mignault, May 29, 1935; three children. Began career as journalist and lawyer, 1934; Prof. of History and Political Economy, Univ. of Montreal, 1938; Joint Director of Studies, School of Social, Economic, and Political Science, Univ. of Montreal, 1940—. Curator of St. Sulpice Library, 1942-44. Member: Historical Soc. of Montreal; Amer. Library Assn. Publications: La Canalisation du Saint-Laurent, 1942; Le Sénat et le Problème des Chemins de fer Canadiens, 1939.

Horizons d'Après-Guerre, 1944; Enterprise privée et Socialisme, 1944. Residence: 3192 rue Tremblay. Office: 159 St. West, Montreal, Que., Canada.

NADHMI, JAMAL UMAR, Iraqi Governor; born Sept. 12, 1914, Baghdad, Iraq; son of Omar Nadhmi and Fakhriyyah; educated at American Univ. of Beirut, B.A. with distinction in Political Science; married Sajida, Jan. 12, 1940; two children. Asst. Secy., Council of Ministers, 1937. Qaimmaqam (Sub-Governor): Khalis, 1940; Kademain, 1943; Musayyab, 1946. Acting Governor of Arbil, 1946. Governor of Arbil, since 1947. Awarded Order of Chevalier, National Cedar Honor (Lebanon Republic). Address: Arbil, Iraq.

NADHMI, UMAR, Iraqi Minister of Justice; born 1893, Kifri, Iraq; son of Hasan Safimat and A'isha Nadhmi; educated at Law College; married; three sons. Judge, 1921; Vice-Pres., Criminal Court, 1924; Pres. of Court, 1926; Governor, 1927; Administrative Inspector, 1933; Director General of Revenues, 1937; Minister of Economics and Communications, 1938; Minister of the Interior, 1939; Minister of Justice, 1946-1948. Member of Iraqi Senate. Awarded Rafidain Order, 2nd class. Address: c/o Ministry of Justice, Baghdad, Iraq.

NADJAKOV, Prof. GEORGE, Bulgarian University Rector; born Dec. 26, 1896, Doupnitza, Bulgaria; son of Stefan and Vassilka (Bozadjieva) Nadjakov; educated at Univ. of Sofia, 1920; special course at laboratory of Prof. Langevin and at Radium Inst. of Mme. M. Curie, Paris, 1925-26; married Vera Postompirova, Apr. 22, 1928; two children. Asst. in Experimental Physics, Univ. of Sofia, 1921; Reader in Experimental Physics, 1927; Assoc. Prof., 1932; Prof. of Experimental Physics, 1937; Dean, Faculty of Sciences, 1940, 1944, 1945, 1946; Rector, Univ. of Sofia, since 1947. President: United Nations Organization Soc. of Bulgaria (since its foundation, 1948); Bulgarian Assn. of Physicists and Mathematicians. Vice-President: Bulgarian Acad. of Sciences; Union of Scientific Workers. Corresp. Member, Göttingen Acad. of Sciences. Author of various scientific articles in field of photo-electrical phenomena, electrostatics, etc. Residence: Oborishte 23. Office: University, Sofia, Bulgaria.

NADJM, ABOLGHASSEM, Iranian Minister of Finance. Served as Ambassador of Iran to Afghanistan, 1946. Appointed Minister of Finance in Cabinet of Premier Ibrahim Hakimi, Dec. 1947. Address: Ministry of Finance, Teheran, Iran.

NADLER, Dr. MARCUS, American Professor of Finance; born Aug. 29, 1895, Austria; son of Mayer and Pepi (Javetz) Nadler; educated at Columbia Univ., B.S. 1922; George Washington Univ., 1923-24; New York Univ., J.D. 1926; married Cecilia Sachs, Feb. 25, 1927; two children. Research Asst., Federal Reserve Board, 1921-24; Asst. Economist, Natl. Bank of Commerce, 1924-26; Chief of Foreign Division, Federal Reserve Board, 1926-27; Consulting Economist: Alexander Hamilton Inst., since 1928; Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., since 1936. Research Director, Inst. of Internatl. Finance, since 1927. Asst., Assoc. and Prof. of Finance, New York Univ., since 1927. Director, United Merchants & Manufacturers, Inc. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science. Author: Corporate Consolidations and Reorganizations, 1930. Co-author: Foreign Securities, 1929; Banking Crisis, 1933; International Money Markets, 1935; America's Experience as a Creditor Nation, 1936; Money and Banking (revised ed. 1940). Address: New York University, 90 Trinity Place, New York, N. Y.

NAEF, Dr. ADOLF, Swiss Zoologist; born May 1, 1883, Herisau, Switzerland; son of Martin and Berta (Rutz) Naef; educated at Inst. Steinegg, Herisau, 1900; Evangelical Seminary, Zurich, 1903; Univ. of Zurich, Ph.D. 1908; married Maria Bendiner, July 22, 1924; two daughters. Research Worker, Zoological Station, Naples, 1910; Privatdocent, Univ. of Zurich, 1914; Prosector and Asst. Prof., Univ. of Zagreb, 1922; Prof. of Zoology, Univ. of Cairo, 1927; Visiting Prof. of Comparative Anatomy and Embryology, Faculty of Science, Univ. of Cairo, since 1940. Director, Zoological Dept., Univ. of Cairo, 1929-40. Member: Swiss Assn. of Zoology; Swiss Assn. of Natural Science; Cairo Scientific Soc. Author: Studien zur generellen Morphologie der Mollusken III, 1924; Zur Diskussion des Homologie-Begriffes (Biologisches Zentralblatt, 1926); Studien zur systematischen Morphologie und Stammesgeschichte der Wirbeltiere (Erg. Forthschr. Zool. 1926); Notizen zur Morphologie und Stammesgeschichte der Wirbeltiere (Zoologisches Jahrbuch, 1927); Die Cephalopoden II. Fauna und Flora des Golfes von Neapel, 1928; Phylogenie der Tiere (Handbuch der Vererbungsl., 1931); Die Gestalt als Begriff und Idee (Handbuch der vergleichenden Anatomie, 1931); Morphologie der Tiere (Handwörterbuch der Naturwissenschaft, 1932); Die Vorstufen der Menschwerdung, 1933; Die Entwicklung der Kiementaschen und Nephridien beim larvalen und metamorphosierenden Lanzettfrischichen (Zoologisches Jahrbuch, 1939); Textbook on Vertebrate Zoology, 1948. Address: Faculty of Science, Abbassia, Cairo, Egypt.

NAEF, Dr. HENRI, Swiss Museum Director, Historian; born March 15, 1889, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Ernest and Jeanne (Gielly) Naef; educated at Calvin College, B.A.; Univ. of Geneva, B.D.; Univ. of Neuchâtel, Litt.D. Director of Musée Gruérien, Bulle, Switzerland, since 1923; Prof. of History, Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Geneva, since 1940; Vice-Pres., Swiss Costumes Soc.; Vice-Pres., Switzerland's Home Front; Vice-Pres., Soc. of History of French Switzerland. Member, Dijon Academy of Sciences (France). Decorated Knight, French Legion of Honor; Officer of Academy. Awarded: French Reconnaissance Medal; Prize by Inst. of France; Prize by Geneva Consistory. Author: La Personne de Jésus comme objet de la foi, 1914; La conjuration d'Amboise et Genève, 1922; Fribourg au secours de Genève, 1927; Les origines de la Réforme à Genève, 1936; Guillaume Tell et les Trois Suisses, 1942; La vie et les travaux de Jean Duvet, le Maître à la Licorne, 1934; Un trophée fribourgeois; les chapes aux armes de Charles le Téméraire, 1942; Le Poignard contre soi, 1945; La jeunesse de Jean Bodin, 1946; L'alchimiste de Michel comte de Gruyère, 1946. Residence: Musée Gruérien, Bulle, Canton de Fribourg, Switzerland.

NAEF, Dr. KARL, Swiss Writer; born Oct. 11, 1894, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Hans and Johanna (Stocker) Naef; educated at Univs. of Zurich, Berlin and Berne; J.D.; married Olga Schmidhauser, Apr. 8, 1920; one son. Lawyer, 1916-20; Amtsvormund, 1921. Executive Secretary: Soc. of Swiss Authors; Soc. of Swiss Dramatists; Swiss Artists Union, 1922-40. Chief, Dept. of Festival Organization, Swiss National Exhibition, 1938-39; Secy. General, Arbeitsgemeinschaft Pro Helvetia, Zurich, since 1940. Ex-Vice-Pres., Swiss Film Chamber; Hon. Member, Swiss Soc. of Authors. Member, Gesellschaft für schweizerische Theaterkultur; P.E.N. Club. Author: Unterlassungsanspruch und Unterlassungsklage im sweizerischen Recht; Zensur?; numerous articles on copyright, cultural politics, literature. Editor, Der Geistesarbeiter (periodical). Residence: Oetlisbergstrasse 40, Zurich-Witikon. Office: Hirschengraben 22, Zurich, Switzerland.

NAEGELEN, MARCEL EDMOND, French Administrator; Governor of Algeria; born Jan. 17, 1892, Belfort, France; son of Joseph Naegelen and Marie Ober (Alsatians); educated at the Lycée de Belfort; Ecole Normale Supérieure de St. Cloud; married Marcelle Mouledous; one son. Joined French Army, Inf., during World War I; Member of Socialist Party (Paris District), 1919; Prof., Ecole Normale d'Instituteurs, Strasbourg, 1919; Municipal Councillor since 1925. Asst. to Mayor of Strasbourg, 1925-29, and since 1935; General Councillor, Strasbourg, since 1937; conducted evacuation of Strasbourg's population, 1939; in charge of Alsatian refugees during German occupation; elected Delegate to Consultative Assembly after liberation; re-elected First Asst. to Mayor of Strasbourg; General Councillor and Deputy for Bas-Rhin District, Constituent Assembly; Pres., Socialist Group, French Parliament. Pres., Supreme Court of Justice until 1946; Minister of National Education, 1946-48; Governor of Algeria, 1948—. Awarded Blessé et décoré de la Médaille Militaire, de la Légion d'Honneur et de la Croix de Guerre. Author: La Conversion de Georges Burckardt, instituteur alsacien (Jean Revel prix); Le Revenant; Histoires et Figures d'Alsace; various plays. Pres., Société des Ecrivains d'Alsace et Lorraine. Residence: 19 A Avenue de la Paix, Strasbourg, France. Office: Governor of Algeria, Algiers, Algeria.

NAESLUND, CARL ALBERT, Swedish Professor of Preventive Medicine; born in Ornskoldsvik, Sweden, Apr. 9, 1892; son of Christoffer and Hedvig (Saflund) Naeslund; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, M.D. 1918; Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm; Statens Bakteriologiska Laboratorium, Stockholm; Robert Koch Inst., Berlin, 1922; Johns Hopkins, 1922-25; L'Institut Pasteur, Paris, 1925-26; married Eivor Emma Kristina Jeansson, Apr. 31, 1922: three children. Asst. Prof. at Univ. of Uppsala, 1920-27; Temporary Prof. of Bacteriology and Hygiene, 1928-32. Prof. of Preventive Medicine at Karolinska Institutet since 1932. Member, State Medical Board of Health, since 1933; Head Chief, Dept. of the State Inst. for Public Health, Stockholm, since 1938. Official representative of Sweden at Internatl. Congresses at Warsaw, 1922, Dresden, 1930, Paris, 1924, Oslo, 1930, and New York, 1939. Second leader of Red Cross Ambulance Corps in Poland, Jan.-July, 1920; holds Swedish and Polish Red Cross medals and Haller War Medal. Author of numerous publications, especially in reference to silicosis, actinomycosis, arsenic compound, sterilization and disinfectants. Residence: Stocksund. Office: Stockholm, Sweden.

NAESLUND, Dr. JOHN PETRUS, Swedish Professor of Gynaecology and Obstetrics; born Jan. 6, 1894, Ornskoldsvik, Sweden; son of Christoffer and Hedvig (Saflund) Naeslund; matriculated in Umea H.S., 1913; M.D. and Docent in Anatomic Pathology, 1925; married Jane Skoglund, 1937; one son. Acting Prof. in Pathology, Uppsala Univ., 1925, 1926, 1927; Acting Prof. in Gynecology and Obstetrics, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, 1931-35; Professorship of Gynecology & Obstetrics, Uppsala Univ., since 1935. Author: Investigations into the transit of reducing substances from mother to foetus in alimentary hyperglycaemi, 1928; Studies on the influence of the corpus luteum on lactation and the like, 1939; Diseases of the kidneys with increase of total non-protein nitrogen in connection with pregnancy, 1943; Investigations of the permeability of the placenta by means of, inter alia, blood group determinations radio-actively labelled blood corpuscles and elliptocytes, 1946, etc. Address: Akademiska Sjukhuset, Uppsala, Sweden.

NÄF, Dr. WERNER, Swiss University Rector; born June 6, 1894, St. Gall, Switzerland; son of Gustav and Hermine (Billwiller) Näf; educated at Univs. of Geneva, Munich, Berlin, Zurich; Ph.D. (Munich), 1917; married Hanna Linder, 1920. Prof. of History, Univ. of Berne, since 1925; Rector of the Univ., 1947-48. Author: Kriegsursachen und Kriegsschuldfrage von 1914, 1932; Staat und Staatsgedanke, 1935; Vadian und seine Stadt St. Gallen, 1944; Die Epochen der neueren Geschichte, 2 vols., 1945, 1946. Published Schweizer Beiträge zur Allgemeinen Geschichte; Quellen zur neueren Geschichte. Residence: Gümligen near Berne. Office: Universität Berne, Berne, Switzerland.

NAFFZIGER, Dr. HOWARD CHRISTIAN, American Surgeon; born May 6, 1884, Nevada City, Calif.; son of Christian Jacob and Lizzie (Scott) Naffziger; educated at Univ. of Calif., B.S. 1907, M.S. 1908, M.D. 1909; married Louise McNear, 1919; three children. Asst. Resident Surgeon, Johns Hopkins Hospital, 1911-12; Faculty, Univ. of Calif. Medical School, 1913-24; Clinical Prof. of Surgery (Neurological), Univ. of Calif. Med. School, 1924. Prof. of Surgery and Chairman of Dept., since 1929. Surgeon-in-Chief, Univ. Hospital; Out-Patient Dept. Consulting Surgeon: San Francisco Hosp., Langley Porter Clinic; Letterman General Hosp.; U. S. Veterans' Facility; U. S. Naval Hospital (Vallejo, Calif.). Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: Com. on Inter-Amer. Relations; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Neurological Assn.; Soc. of Neurological Surgeons; Amer. Surgical Assn.; Internatl. Neurological Assn.; Internatl. Surgical Assn.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Board of Trustees, Inter-Amer. Student Exchanges; Editorial Board, Annals of Surgery; Editorial Board, Amer. Journal of Surgery. Fellow (Hon.), Royal College of Surgeons; Chairman, Amer. Board of Neurological Surgery. Address: University of California Hospital, San Francisco, Calif.

NAFZIGER, RALPH Le ROY, American Business Executive; born Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 17, 1886; son of Edward and Johanna (Forster) Nafziger; studied at Rensselaer Polytechnic Inst., Troy, N. Y., two years; married Nathalie Madeline Schaefer, Aug. 12, 1906; two children. Started a bakery in the basement of a church upon leaving school; opened up and formed Nafziger Baking Company, Kansas City, Mo., 1910; Nafziger Baking Co., St. Louis, Mo., 1917; Nafziger Baking Co., Sedalia, Mo., 1918; Nafziger Baking Co., Burlington Ia.; Nafziger Baking Co., Springfield, Mo.; Nafziger Baking Co., Muskogee, Okla., and Nafziger Baking Co., Decatur, Ill., 1919; Nafziger Baking Co., Wichita Falls, Tex., 1920, and Winklemann Baking Co., Memphis, Tenn., 1923. Served as President of these companies until 1925, when became Vice-President and General Sales and Advertising Manager of the Purity Bakeries Corp. President of the Schulze Baking Co. since 1927 and the Interstate Bakeries Corp. since 1930. Chairman of Board, Western Bakeries Corp., Ltd., Los Angeles. President, R. L. Nafziger Investment Co. Director: Weber Baking Co. Ltd., Cramer Baking Co. Ld., Suydam Baking Co. Ltd., Four-S Baking Co. Ltd., Log Cabin Bread

Co. Ltd., Dolly Madison Corp. Ltd., and the Kilpatrick Baking Co. Ltd. Member, Bd. of Govs., Amer. Baking Assn. (Treas., 1918-19). An inventor, author of the following patents granted in the United States Patent Office: Nafziger Governor for Automobile Motors, Electro Vac Governor for Automobile Motors, "Idlestop" time switch for automobile motors, Nafziger Dough Process Machinery, Nafziger Roll Machine. Member, Amer. Remount Assn., Masters of Fox Hounds of America, Natl. Assn. of Manufacturers. Address: 5225 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.

NAG, Dr. UPENDRA CHANDRA, Indian Educator; Principal, Central Hindu College; Prof. of English, Benares Hindu Univ.; born 1890, Madhupura, Bihar, India; son of Shibchandra Nag and Hemantakumari Ghosh; educated at K. N. College, B.A.; Presidency College of Calcutta, M.A.; East London (now Queen Mary) College of the University of London, Ph.D. in English. Lecturer in English, Sanskrit College of Calcutta, 1912; became Senior Professor, Carmichael College of Rangpur, 1918; Lecturer in English, Decca University, 1921-28; Research Student, East London College, 1925; Lecturer (pro tem) in Bengali, School of Oriental Studies of London University, 1925-27. Professor of English and Modern European Languages and Head of Department in Benares Hindu University since 1928; Principal, Central Hindu College, since 1940. Member, Senate, Syndicate and Council of Benares Hindu University; Editor, Journal (of the university), since 1938. Address: Benares Hindu University, Benares, India.

NAGAR, MADAN MOHAN, Hindu Curator and Archaeologist; born July 1, 1908, Allahabad, India; son of Mathura Das and Gioma Devi Nagar; educated at Allahabad Univ., B.A. 1929; Benares Hindu Univ., M.A. 1936; married Jamna Devi, 1934; two children. Curator: Sarnath Museum of Archaeology, Benares, 1931-39; Curzon Museum of Archaeology, Muttra, 1939-46; Provincial Museum, Lucknow, since 1946. Secy., Braj Sahitya Mandal, Muttra, 1943-44. Member: Museums Assn., London; Numismatic Soc. of India; Bihar Research Soc., Patna; U. P. Historical Soc., Lucknow. Author: Guide to Sarnath, 1940; Editor, Vikrama Volume, 1945; articles on Indian history and archaeology. Address: Provincial Museum, Lucknow, U.P., India.

NAGEL, Dr. ERNEST, American Philosopher; born 1901. Professor of Philosophy, Columbia University. Author: On The Logic of Measurement, 1930; An Introduction to Logic and Scientific Method (with Morris R. Cohen), 1934. Residence: 301 W. 108th St. Office: Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

NAGELL, FRANK JOSEPH, American Manufacturer; born Feb. 4, 1894, Baltimore, Md.; son of William and Anna (Eirich) Nagell; educated in Baltimore public schools; Baltimore City College; Sadlers Bryant & Stratton College; Johns Hopkins Univ.; married Mildred McCrea, Nov. 26, 1936. Began career in father's business as a bookkeeper, 1914-18; with Black & Decker Mfg. Co. since 1920, when started as a Cost Accountant. Accountant, 1922-24; Asst. Treas., 1924-30, appointed Treas., since 1930; also a Director. Treas., Black & Decker Mfg. Co., Ltd., Canada; Director, Black & Decker (Australasia) Pty. Ltd. of Sydney, Australia. Served in U. S. Army in France, 1918-19. Residence: 1271 Riverside Ave. Office: East Pennsylvania Ave., Towson, Md.

NAGELL, Dr. TRYGVE, Swedish Mathematician; born July 13, 1895, Oslo, Norway; son of Otto and Marie (Olsen) Nagell; educated at Oslo Univ., Cand. real. 1920, Ph.D. 1926; Univs. of Hamburg, Paris, Goettingen, Strasbourg, Berlin, Basle, Bologna, 1921-30; Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, 1925-26; Christian Michelson Foundation, 1928-30; married (1st) Bianca Guiduzzi, 1930; (2nd) Anna Lisa Lundevall, 1943; two children. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Oslo, 1921-28; Docent of Mathematics, 1930-31; Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Uppsala, since 1931; also Director, Inst. of Mathematics. Member: Royal Acad. of Science of Oslo; Royal Soc. of Science of Uppsala; Royal Acad. of Science, Stockholm. Created Knight of Royal Swedish Polar Star; received 1946 King Haakon VII's Freedom Cross (Norwegian). Author of sixty pamphlets and essays on mathematical topics (algebra, arithmetic, theory of numbers, etc.). Address: Institute of Mathematics, University, Uppsala, Sweden.

NAGER, Dr. FELIX (ROBERT), Swiss Otolaryngologist; born Dec. 9, 1877, Lucerne, Switzerland; son of Dr. Gustav and Josephine (Schmid) Nager; educated at Gymnasium, Lucerne; Univs. of Basle; Heidelberg; Zurich (M.D.), 1904; married Emma B. Reinhart, July 18, 1915; seven children. Asst. at Pathological Inst., Univ. of Zurich, 1903; Asst. Physician, Otolaryngological Clinic, Univ. of Basel, 1904-08; Privat Docent in Otolaryngology, Univ. of Zurich, 1908; Asst. Prof. and First Otolaryngologist, since 1927. Director, Otolaryngological Clinic, Univ. of Zurich, since 1919. Member of Swiss, English, French, German and Amer. scientific societies. Awarded: Gujot Prize, Univ. of Groningen. Semon lecturer, London, 1940. Contributor to medical literature. Address: Freiestrasse 30, Zurich, Swithzerland.

NAGGIAR, PAUL ÉMILE, French Diplomat; born May 3, 1883; educated at École des Sciences Politiques; received degrees of Licence ès Lettres and Licence en Droit. In Consular Service, holding various posts in China and Canada, 1912-21; held post in Central Administration of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, also in Department of Commercial Relations, and in Department of Asiatic and Oceanic Affairs, 1927. Minister to Yugoslavia, 1932-35; Minister to Czechoslovakia, 1935-36; Ambassador to China, 1936-38; Ambassador to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 1938-40. Participated in Resistance movement during Second World War. Chairman of Delegation to Conference of Institute on Pacific Relations, Hot Springs, Va., Jan. 1945; Member, French Delegation, United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945; U. N. General Assembly, 1946. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris, France.

NAGLE, ALEXANDER C., American Banker; born 1891. President and Director, First National Bank of New York. Director: American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp., New York City; Federal Insurance Co., Vigilant Insurance Co., New York Central R.R.; United States Steel Corp.; National Biscuit Co. Chairman, Clearing House Com. of the New York Clearing House, 1946—. Residence: 1 Oak Lane, Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 2 Wall St., New York 5, N. Y.

NAGLE, JOHN J., American Manufacturer; born 1892, New York, N. Y. Vice-Pres., Secy., Asst. Treasurer and Director, Cem Securities Corp.; Vice-Pres., Treasurer, Asst. Secy. and Director, Crown Cork International Corp.; Asst. Secy., Asst. Treasurer and Director, Crown Can Co. Director, Crown Cork Co. Pres., Crown Cork & Seal Co., since 1936; elected Chmn. of Bd., 1946—. Residence: Spring Lake, N. J. Office: Crown Cork & Seal Co., 60 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

NAGLE, Hon. RAYMOND T., American Lawyer; born June 2, 1897, Helena, Mont.; son of Thomas P. and Mary Ann (Toole) Nagle; educated at Univ. of Montana, LL.B. 1923; married Margaret Anne Walsh, Oct. 5, 1925; three sons. Junior Partner, Walsh & Nagle, Helena, Mont., 1923, Partner, 1924. Member, House of Representatives of Montana, 1925, 1927, 1929; Democratic Floor Leader, 1929. City Atty., Helena, Mont., 1929-33. Attorney General, State of Montana, 1933-36. Member of firm, Nagle & Jones, 1933-36. Director, Attorney General's Section, Council of State Governments, Chicago, Ill., 1936-37. Special Asst. to the Attorney General of the U. S., 1937-43. Commissioner, U. S. Court of Claims, Washington, D. C., 1943—. Residence: 6622 Broad St., N.W. Office: U. S. Court of Claims, Washington 6, District of Columbia.

NAGLER, EDITH KROGER, American Painter; born 1890, New York, N. Y.; daughter of Henry and Marie (Martens) Kroger; educated at National Acad. of Design; Art Students League; married Fred Nagler, Aug. 1918; one child. One-man shows: (first) Ainslie Galleries, 1928; Delphic Studios and Midtown Galleries; also in Texas, Mass., etc. Exhibited at Corcoran Biennials; Natl. Acad. of Design; Art Inst. of Chicago, etc. Represented in permanent collections of: Hartford Museum; Springfield Museum; Dallas, Texas, etc.; also many private collections. Portrait of Judge E. Brewster in Federal Court, Boston. Member, Bd. of Control, Art Student's League, 1916—. Awards: Crowninshield Prize for Water Color, Stockbridge, 1932; Water Color Prize, Springfield Art League, 1934. Address: Alderbrook Road, Riverdale, New York 63, New York.

NAGLER, FRED, American Artist; born 1891, West Springfield, Mass.; son of Frederick August and Kate (Wild) Nagler; educated at Art Students League, New York, N. Y., 1914-18, under Henri, Bridgman, Du Mond; married Edith Kroger, Aug. 3, 1918; one son. Held seven one-man shows at Midtown Galleries, N. Y. Exhibited at: Corcoran Gallery; Carnegie Inst.; Pennsylvania Acad.; National Acad.; Detroit Inst.; Albright Gallery; State University of Iowa Museum; Whitney Museum; Cincinnati Museum; Metropolitan Museum. Also held exhibitions in Canada and in Europe; New York World's Fair. Represented in: Metropolitan Museum (N. Y.); Richmond (Va.) Museum; Philips Acad. Gallery; Springfield (Mass.) Museum; Carl Milles Collection; Mrs. John D. Rockefeller Collection, etc. Awards: Hallgarten Prize, Natl. Acad. of Design; Second Prize, Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D. C.; John Barton Payne Award, Virginia Museum, Richmond, Va.; First Prize, Springfield Art League. Address: Alderbrook Road, Riverdale, New York 63, New York.

NAGORSKI, Dr. ZYGMUNT JULJAN, Polish Jurist; born June 14, 1884, Warsaw, Poland; son of Adam and Valentina (Kietlinska) Nagorski; educated at Faculty of Law, Warsaw, 1902-05; Faculty of Law, Berlin, 1906; Faculty of Law, Zurich, doctor iuris utriusque, 1907; Faculty of Law, Charkoff, Russia, 1st class diploma 1909; married Maria Zofja Cederbaum, Oct. 28, 1911; two sons. Advocate's Substitute, 1910; admitted to Bar, Warsaw, 1915; Councillor, Legislative Dept., Ministry of Justice, 1918; Legal Adviser, Ministry of Agriculture, 1918; Vice-Pres., Commn. for Agrarian Reform, 1919-20; Legal Adviser, Ministry of Finance, 1923-25; Deputy Pres., Supreme State Audit, since 1940. Lecturer of Civil Law, Univ. of Warsaw, 1918-24, and Polish Faculty of Law, Oxford, since 1943. Member and Vice-Chairman, Council of Warsaw Bar, 1920-36. Member: Supreme Council, Bar of Poland, 1938-39; Commn. for Codification of Law, since 1923. Member, Polish Inst. for Nationalities Problems, 1926-39; Chairman, Polish Assn. for League of Nations, 1930-34; Chairman, Polish Assn. for Internatl. Cooperation, London, since 1939. Member: Polish Law Soc.; Internatl. Law Assn. (Chairman, Polish Group, London). Acting Pres., World League of Poles Abroad, London, 1947. Decorated Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur, France, 1925. Author: Legal Situation of Illegitimate Children, 1907; Gifts in Civil Law, 1908; Registers of Land Property, 1913; Agrarian Reform of 1920, 1921; French Social Legislation, 1908; Geneva Protocol, 1925; The Kellogg Pact, 1930; The Organization of Tribunals in Poland, 1933. Co-editor: Themis Polska, Quarterly Law Review, 1913-39; Quarterly Review of Private Law, 1937-39. Address: World League of Poles Abroad, 38, Beaufort Gardens, London, S.W. 3, England.

NAGY, FERENC FRANCIS, Hungarian Political Leader; born 1903, Bisse, a village in Hungary; educated in elementary school; married; three children. Worked as a peasant on twelve hectares of land until age 28. Writer on small country newspaper. Founded (with Zoltan Tildy, now Pres. of Hungarian Republic), Independent Smallholders' Party, 1930. Member of Parliament since 1939. Active member of Resistance Movement against Germany and prisoner of Gestapo many months. After liberation, served as Member of Natl. Com. of Budapest; Minister of Reconstruction, 1945; Pres. of Smallholders Party, 1945; Pres., Hungarian Natl. Assembly, 1945. Prime Minister, First Republican Govt., 1946-47; forced out of office by Communists. Author: The Struggle Behind the Iron Curtain, 1948. Address: Herndon, Va.

NAGY, IMRE, Hungarian Political Leader. Appointed Minister of Communications of Hungary in Cabinet of Zoltan Tildy, 1945; Member, National Legislative Assembly of Hungary, 1946; elected Speaker of House of the new Hungarian Parliament, 1947—. Member of Hungarian Communist Party. Address: Hungarian Parliament, Budapest, Hungary.

NAGY, IVAN G., Hungarian Foreign Service Officer; born Jan. 23, 1920, Budapest, Hungary; son of (Dr.) Gyula and Erzsebet Nagy; educated in High School, Junior College, Kecskemet (Hungary) College; special study in England, 1938-40; helped organize International Univ. (Confédération Internationale des Etudiants); Budapest Univ., studied Modern European History; Diplomatic History and International Law, and special research in Inter-relation of Problems of Sociology and Public Psychology; passed Diplomatic Examination. Entered Foreign Office, and assigned to Cultural Section, 1942; held British-American desk and dealt with inter-cultural relations and handled affairs concerning international social science and organizations; after Germans invaded Hungary in 1944, left Foreign Office and became active in underground movement; after liberation, continued in Foreign Office; Secy. of Hungarian Legation in Washington, D. C., 1946; First Secy. of the Legation, 1947—. Lectured at Univ. of Chicago, Northwestern Univ., Pittsburgh, George Washington, Swarthmore and Columbia Univs., 1946. Spoke in U. S. Senate on two occasions concerning issues in Central and Eastern Europe. Delegate, United Nations Appeal for Children, 1947. Residence: 4503 Rockspring Rd., Arlington, Va. Office: Legation of Hungary, 2129 LeRoy Pl., N.W., Washington 8, D. C.

NAHAS, Pasha, MOUSTAPHA El, Egyptian Political Leader; born June 15, 1879; educated in Nasriah School; Khediviah School; Khedivial School of Law (License in Law, 1900); married Zeinab El-Wakil, 1934. Lawyer, 1906: appointed Judge, 1914. General Secretary of Wafd (organization fighting for Egyptian independence), 1918; exiled to Seychelles Islands, 1921; released 1923; Minister of Communications, Zagloul Pasha Government, 1924; Chairman of Wafd and President, Chamber of Deputies, 1927; Prime Minister, 1928, 1930, 1936; President, delegation of Anglo-Egyptian Treaty of Alliance, 1936, and to Capitulations Conference at Montreux. Prime Minister of Egypt from 1942 to Sept. 1944. Decorated with Collier Fouad (1st Class); Grand Cordon de Mohamed Aly and Grand Cordon du Nil; also received decorations from Belgium, England, Afghanistan, Chile and Greece. Address: Garden City, Cairo, Egypt. Office: Présidence du Conseil des Ministres, Cairo, Egypt.

NAHAS, NICOLAS, Egyptian Editor; born Dec. 21, 1904, Mansourah, Egypt; son of Elias and Helen Nahas; awarded French Secondary Education degree; Master Printer Technical Diploma; married Renée Gallad, June 1931; two children. Columnist and Sub-Editor, "La Liberté" (a daily) until 1935; Managing Editor, "Le Journal d'Égypte," since 1936. Member, Union of Egyptian Journalists. Residence: 39 Kasr El-Nil St. Office: Le Journal d'Égypte, 26 Wabour El-Nour El-Guedid St., Cairo, Egypt.

NAI, Dr. DESIDERIO DINO, Italian Animal Pathologist; born Oct. 13, 1894, Arsiero, Vicenza, Italy; son of Pietro and Angela (Nordio) Nai; educated at Univ. of Milan, 1913-15; Univ. of Bologna, M.V.D. 1917; married Cesarina Bruscalupi, Jan. 11, 1939. Asst., Univ. of Pisa, 1924; Asst. to Prof. Alberto Ascoli, Serum Inst., Milan, 1920; Asst., Inst. of Animal Hygiene, Veterinary School, Modena, 1924; Fellow, Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, New York, 1929. Prof. of Animal Pathology, Parma Univ., 1934-36; at Perugia Univ., 1936-42; Prof. of Animal Hygiene, Perugia Univ., since 1942. Dean, Veterinary Faculty, Perugia Univ., 1940-44. Member: Società Italiana di Biologia sperimentale; Accademia Veterinaria Italiana; Società Medico-Chirurgica di Parma; Società Medico-Chirurgica di Perugia; Società Italiana per il Progresso delle Scienze. Author: Una particolare lesione della imofisi nella vacca pelosa, 1936; Le tossinfezioni alimentari, 1937; La Malattio d'Hodgkin esiste anche negli animali, 1939. Address: Via S. Costanzo 2, Perugia, Italy.

NAICKER, Dr. GANGATHURA MOHAMBRY, Natal Indian Congress President; born Sept. 30, 1910, Durban, South Africa; son of Papiah Gangathura Naicker and Dhanamal; educated at Skerry's College, Edinburgh; Edinburgh Univ., M.B., Ch.B. 1934; Dublin, L.M. 1934; married Mariemuthu, Nov. 29, 1936; two children. Medical practitioner, 1935—. Served as Chmn., Nationalist Block; Chmn., Anti-Segregation Council. Now Pres. of Natal Indian Congress; Chmn., Passive Resistance Council. Author: Historical Synopsis of the Indian Question in South Africa. Residence: 551 Stamford Hill Rd. Office: 24 Short St., Durban, Natal, South Africa.

NAIK, KHANDUBHAI MANIBHAI, Indian Insurance Executive; born Feb. 18, 1898, Surat District, Bombay Presidency, India; son of Manibhai and Ambadevi Naik; University education (diploma in accountancy and registered accountant); married Parvati Naik, Feb. 16, 1916; four children. Began career as assistant to Messrs. Batliboi & Purojit, Inc., accountants; joined National Insurance Co., Ltd., 1929; became Partner in the firm of Managers, 1931; Director, 1934; Manager of the company, 1938, and Director-in-Charge since 1945. Also Director-in-Charge, National Fire & General Insurance Co., Ltd. (since 1945), Director of Local Committee, Bank of Baroda, Ltd. Ex-President and Member of Executive Committee, The Indian Life Assurance Offices Assn.; President, Indian Insurance Companies Assn., Calcutta; Indian Insurance Society. Member of Executive Committee, Indian Chamber of Commerce, Calcutta; Member of Insurance Advisory Committee, Government of India; Member of Postwar Sub-Committee (insurance), Government of India. Residence: 36b Dr. Rajendra Rd., P.O. Elgin Rd. Office: National Insurance Bldg., 7 Council House St., Calcutta, India.

NAIM, WADIH, Lebanese Political Leader; born 1885, Shiyah, Lebanon; son of Antoine and Katherine (Zakkuri) Naim; educated at Collège de la Sagesse, Beirut, Baccalaureate, 1902, Law Licentiate, 1906; married Adele Baddurah, Nov. 5, 1916; six children. Deputy of Mount Lebanon, 1943; served as Member of Finance Committee, Member of Committee of Justice and President of Finance Committee. Appointed Minister of the Interior and Minister of Public Instruction and Fine Arts, Jan. 1945; also (ad interim) Minister of Foreign Affairs, of Justice and of Finance. Chairman, Delegation of Lebanon to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Chairman, Board of Directors, Syrian-Lebanon Oil Co. and Electricity Co. of Sidon; Chairman of Board, Maronite Charity Schools; Chairman, Maronite Charity Society, Alumni Association of the Collège de la Sagesse and Lebanon Bar Association. Residence: Shihadah St. Office: Imm. Fakhry Bey, Tarablous St., Beirut, Lebanon.

NAIR, Rt. Hon. Sir C. MADHAVAN, Kt., P.C., Indian Jurist; born 1879; educated at Victoria College, Palghat, Pachaiyappas; Christian College, Madras; Law College, Madras; University College, London; Middle Temple, London; married Sreemathi Palat Parukutty Ammah Nair, 1907. Began career as Barrister-at-Law. Advocate, Madras High Court, 1904; Vice-Principal, Madras Law College, 1909; Law Reporter, High Court, 1915-16; Prof., Law College, 1916-20; Govt. Pleader, 1919-23; Advocate-General, Madras, 1923-24; Judge, Madras High Court, 1924-39. Pres., Railway Rates Advisory Com., Calcutta, 1940-41. Member, Judicial Com., Privy Council, London. Address: Lynwood, Nugumbaken, Madras, India.

NAIRN, Sir MICHAEL, Scottish Manufacturer; born Feb. 19, 1874, Kirkcaldy, Scotland; son of Michael B. and Emily Frances (Spencer) Nairn; educated at Edinburgh Acad.; Marburg Univ., Germany; married Mildred Margaret Neish, June 12, 1901; five children. In business since 1895. Chairman, Michael Nairn & Greenwich, Ltd. Vice-Chairman, Congoleum-Nairn Inc., Newark, N. J. Director: Dominion Oilcloth and Linoleum Co. Ltd., Montreal; Bank of Scotland; Dundee, Perth and London Shipping Co. Ltd.; Fife Coal Co. Ltd., and Union Assurance Soc., Ltd. Address: Elie House, Fife, Scotland.

NAISH, HAROLD WALTER, British Coal Board Director; born June 24, 1889, Harcourt Terrace, Salisbury, Wilts., England; son of William John and Annie Louisa (Walter) Naish; educated at Salisbury School; married Gladys Marion Stone, Mar. 5, 1918; two children. Felt manufacturer, 1907. Articled pupil to chartered accountant, 1908; first intermediate examination, 1911; third final examination, 1913; practiced as chartered accountant. Deputy Asst. Director, Ministry of Munitions, 1916; Director of Trench Warfare, 1917. Asst. Controller of Finance, 1918; Deputy Controller, 1919. Divisional Chief Accountant, Mines Dept., 1921; Chief Accountant, 1924. Chief Finance and Establishment Officer, Coal Mines Reorganization Commn., 1930; Chief Finance and Establishment Officer, Coal Commn., England, since 1938; Director of Establishments (Finance), Natl. Coal Board, 1946. Member: Church of England Pensions Board, since 1943; Inst. of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. Created M.B.E., 1918. Author: Formulae for Use in Connection with Valuation of Mineral Properties, 1940. Address: 29 Chester Sq., London, England.

NAISH, J. CARROLL, American Actor; born in New York, N. Y.; son of Patrick Sarsfield and Kate (Moran) Naish; educated at New York High School of Commerce; St. Cecilia's Academy, New York City; married Gladys Heaney, Feb. 10, 1930; one child. Stage appearances include: Shanghai Gesture, 1929; The Queen's Husband, 1929; Scotland Yard, 1930. Motion pictures: Hatchet Man, 1931; Tiger Shark, 1932; Robin Hood of Eldorado, 1933; Beau Geste, 1939; Blood and Sand, 1938; Road To Rio, 1939; Down Argentine Way, 1940; Behind the Rising Sun, 1941; Gung-Ho, 1942; Sahara, 1943; A Medal For Benny, 1944. Singer in Paris, 1920-21; The Southerner, 1945; Humoresque, 1946; Bad Bascomb, 1946. Appeared on radio shows "Lux Radio Theater" and "Suspense." Received Catholic Universities Award, 1944, for best character actor; also nominated for Academy Award, 1943 and 1945; won World Foreign Correspondents' Award for best character actor of 1945. Made phonograph recordings, 1946. Residence: 5254 Los Feliz Blvd., Los Angeles, California.

NALIVKIN, Prof. DMITRI, Soviet Palaeontologist. Director of the Lake Laboratory, Leningrad. Corresponding Member, Geologo-Geographical Branch, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R.; elected a full member of the Academy, 1946. Member, All Union Geological Society. Address: Lake Laboratory, Leningrad, U.S.S.R.

NALKOWSKA, ZOFJA, Polish Author; born 1885. Author: Women (translated from Polish by Michael Henry Dziewicki), 1920; Choucas, 1927; Dzien jego powrotu, 1931; Sciany swiata, 1931, etc. Address: c/o Gebethner i Wolff, Warsaw, Poland.

NALL, TORNEY OTTO, JR., American Religious Editor; born May 23, 1900, Terre Haute, Ind.; son of T. O. and Alta Mae (Stokes) Nall; studied in Hamline Univ., St. Paul, A.B., 1921; Univ. of Minnesota; Garrett Biblical Inst. of Evanston, Ill., B.D. 1925; married Frances M. Mahaffie, Feb. 2, 1929. Ordained Methodist Minister. 1924. Assistant Editor of Epworth Herald, 1922-34; Representative at Cincinnati Editorial Board of Christian Advocate, 1934-39; Editor, Northwestern and Central Editions, Christian Advocate, 1939-40; Managing Editor since 1940. Trustee of Chicago Temple Bldg. Methodist Representative to National Conference of Christians and Jews. Pres., Methodist Press Assn. since 1944. Holds D.D.'s from Garrett and Hamline; Litt.D. from Adrian. Author of Youth's Work in the New World (1936); New Occupations for Youth (1938); Vital Religion (editor, 1938); Move on, Youth (1940); Jobs for Today's Youth (1941); These Prophetic Voices (editor, 1941). With U. S. Army, First World War. Residence: 2748 Marcy Ave., Evanston, Ill. Office: 740 Rush St., Chicago, Ill.

NALLY, EDWARD JULIAN, American Radio Executive; born Apr. 11, 1859, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Patrick and Mary (Cullen) Nally; educated at common schools; married Lee Warren Redd, June 10, 1887; two children. Chief Clerk to Supt., 8th District, Western Union Telegraph Co., 1881. Asst. General Supt., Western Division, Postal Telegraph Cable Co., Chicago, 1890; General Supt., 1894; elected Vice-Pres., transferred to New York, 1906; Director, First Vice-Pres. and and General Manager. Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of Amer., 1913 (the first man with broad telegraph experience to undertake to build up wireless as competitor to old established land and cable companies for trans-oceanic and point to point communication). Coorganizer, Radio Corp. of America, 1919; Pres., American Marconi Co., 1919-23. Director of Internatl. Relations and Director, Consortium of American, English, French and German wireless headquarters in Paris, France, for mobilization of patents and establishment of world-wide wireless, 1923-25. Director: R.C.A.; Natl. Broadcasting Co.; R.C.A. Manufacturing Co., Inc.; R.C.A. Communications, Inc. Trustee, Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of Amer. Hon. Member, Wireless Veterans' Assn. Member: Japan Soc.; Friendly Sons of St. Patrick; Ends of the Earth Soc.; Amer. Irish Historical Soc. Awards: Officer of Polonia Restituta, Poland, 1923. Address: Radio Corporation of America, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

NAMETKIN, Prof. SERGEI S., Soviet Metallurgist; born 1876. Director, Inst. of Combustible Minerals, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Awarded: 1st Prize, Stalin Award "for many years of outstanding activities in science and technology," 1943; Order of Lenin, 1946. Member, Branch of Chemical Sciences and of Branch of Technical Sciences, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: Institute of Combustible Minerals, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NAMIER, Prof. LEWIS BERNSTEIN, British Historian; born June 1888, Russian subject, naturalized British, 1913; son of Joseph Namierowski; educated at Balliol College, Oxford, 1st class modern history, 1911; joint holder of Beit Essay Prize, 1912. Member, British Propaganda Dept., 1915-17; Member, Political Intelligence Bureau, Dept. of Information, 1917-18; Member, Political Intelligence Dept. of Foreign Office, 1918-20; Lecturer in Modern History, Balliol College, 1920-21. Engaged in business again, 1921-23; in historical research, until 1929. Political Secy., Jewish Agency for Palestine, 1929-31; Ford's Lecturer, Univ. of Oxford, 1933-34; Prof. of Modern History, Manchester Univ., since 1931. Fellow, British Acad., 1944. Author: Germany and Eastern Europe, 1915; Chapter on "Downfall of the Hapsburg Monarchy" in vol. IV of Major Temperley's "History of the Peace Conference of Paris," 1921; The Structure of Politics at the Accession of George III, 1929; England in the Age of the American Revolution, 1st vol. 1930; Skyscrapers and other Essays, 1931; Additions and Corrections of Sir John Fortescue's Edition of The Correspondence of King George III, vol. 1, 1937; In the Margin of History, 1939; Conflicts, 1942. Address: The University, Manchester, England.

NAMIQ, Lieutenant-General ISMA'IL IBRAHIM, Iraqi Senator; born July 5, 1892, Baghdad, Iraq; son of Ibrahim Namiq and Sadiqa Isma'il; educated in Primary Military School, Baghdad, 1904; Military Secondary School, Baghdad, 1909; Military College, Constantinople, 1910; Senior Officers Course, Baghdad, 1928; married Karima Mahmud, July 1, 1937; four children. Began military career 1912, when commissioned cavalry officer in Ottoman Army with rank of 2nd Lieut. Joined Jim'iyat al 'Aahd" (secret brotherhood of Arabian officers in Turkish Army). Took part in Balkan War; also First World War; awarded War Medal and Distinguished Service Medal, Turkish Army. Left Ottoman Army and joined Arab forces in Hijaz in accordance with principles of 'Aahd Community. Fought against Turks for eighteen months before Armistice; also in battles in that theatre of war; after Armistice served in Arab Army in Damascus during regime of late King Faisal. When French occupied Syria, went to Egypt; returned to Iraq. Joined army as soon as it was formed, serving as D. J. A. G., 1921; Provost Marshal; O.C., Cavalry School, 1924; O.C., Cavalry School and Depot, 1925; O.C., 1st Cavalry Regiment, 1926; Commandant, Staff College, 1931; President of Military Courts, 1931; Acting O.C., Eastern District, 1932; O.C., Baz Column (Barzan), 1932; Quartermaster-General, 1932; O.C., Iraqi Royal Air Force, 1933; Officer Commanding, Cavalry, 1936; O.C., Euphrates District, 1937; Officer Commanding, 3rd Division, 1938; Director-General of Administration, 1940; Acting Chief, General Staff, 1941; Minister of Defense, 1944-46; Member of the Senate, 1945 —. Residence: Waziriyah St. Address: The Senate House, Baghdad, Iraq.

NAMM, BENJAMIN H., American Business Executive; born Nov. 29, 1888, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Adolph and Cecilia Namm; educated at Peekskill Military Acad., 1905; Brooklyn Polytechnic Inst., 1906-07; married Margaret Wolf, 1922; two children. Salesman, The Namm Store, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1910; Pres., 1916; Chmn. of Board, since 1946. Chmn. of Bd., Arebec Realty Corp. Director: Aviation Corp.; New Idea Farm Machinery Co. Chmn., Retail Advisory Com. of U. S. Treasury, 1941. Special Asst. to Director of U. S. Office of Civilian Defense, 1942. Exec. Dir., U. S. Purchasing Commn. for Brazil, 1943. Consultant to State Dept. at U. N. Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Observer to U. N. Conf., Lake Success. Pres., Natl. Retail Dry Goods Assn. (winner of Gold Medal, 1941). Vice-Pres., Downtown Brooklyn Assn. Public Governor, The New York Curb Exchange. Chmn., Bd. of Trustees, N. Y. State Inst. of Applied Arts and Sciences in New York City. Member: Advisory Com., New York University School of Retailing; Domestic Distribution Com., U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Author: Advertising the Retail Store (with a foreword by Arthur Brisbane). Residence: 116 E. 68th St., New York. Office: The Namm Store, 452 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

NANAVATI, Sir MANILAL BALABHAI, Kt., Indian Agricultural Economist; born Jan. 11, 1877; educated at Baroda; St. Xavier's College, Bombay, LL.B.; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Finance, M.A. Joined Baroda State Service, 1904; held various posts in Judicial and Commerce Depts. until 1912; Registrar, Co-operative Socs., Director of Commerce and Industries, Development Commnr., Collector and Accountant General, 1912-31; Secy. and later Pres. of Okha Harbour Bd., 1926-30; Revenue Commnr., 1932-33; Member of Exec. Council, 1934-35; Deputy Governor, Reserve Bank of India, 1936-41. Pres., Indian Soc. of Agricultural Economics. Member, Indian Food Delegations to United Kingdom and U.S.A., 1946. Author of numerous works on agricultural economics, etc. Address: "Leela," Juhu, Bombay, India.

NANAVATI, ROMESH CHANDRA MOTILAL, F.C.I., F.F.C.S., F.R.Econ.S., F.S.S. (London), Indian Economist; born January 25, 1908, Surat, Bombay, India; son of Motilal Thakordas Nananati and Sharda Vakilna; educated at Institute of Commerce, Birmingham; qualified as Corporate Secretary by obtaining Fellowship Diploma of Faculty of Secretaries Ltd.; also received Fellowship Diploma of Association of Commercial Science, Hull; The Royal Economic Society, and Royal Statistical Society; married Vasumati Ratilal Parekh, Dec. 11, 1930; two sons and two daughters. Joined Brunner Mond & Co. (India) Ltd., 1927, as Asst. in Accounts and Stock Dept.; was Asst. Secretary to H.H. Maharana of Dharampur, becoming full Secretary; instrumental in bringing many reforms in the State. Entered Nagod State service as Political Secretary; served Nagod State until end of 1943 as Senior Member of the State Council and Vice-President of the State's Legislative Assembly; was also engaged in political chamber work advising various Indian states. Publications: The War of Today; Task Before the Princes; Our Indian States; Planning for a Happy Marriage; The Art of India; Industrial Arts of India; Finland: The Cynosure of Europe Today; India, Awake. Assisted the Maharana of Dharampur in writing his monumental work on Indian music, Sangit Bhava. Residence: Khalsa Cottage, 14th Rd., Khar, Bombay, 21, India. Office: Sir Vithaldas Chambers, 16 Apollo St., Fort, Bombay, India.

NANIN, ANDRÉ, French Chamber of Commerce Executive; born Mar. 18, 1891, Berlaimont, France; son of Charles and Elise (Frémery) Nanin; educated at École Centrale des Arts et Manufactures, 1912; Lic.Law, 1921; married Jeanne Leclercq, May 6, 1919; four children. Commercial Inspector, Chemin de fer du Nord (Northern Railway), 1919; Secy. General, Ie Région Économique, Lille, since 1920. Manager, Union Générale du Nord (Insurance). Member, Société Industrielle du Nord, Lille. Hon. Lieut., Artillery, World War I; wounded, 1917. Residence: 47 rue de Valmy. Office: Palais de la Bourse, Lille, Nord, France.

NANITA, ABELARD RENÉ, Dominican Senator; born Dec. 13, 1884, Ingenio San Luis, Dominican Republic; son of General Abelardo Nanita and Aurelia de León de Nanita; married Aurora Peña, Jan. 8, 1915; four children. Began career as journalist; founding Editor of the bi-weekly "La Opinión"; later founded and directed "El Imparcial," was Director of the Bulletin of the Chamber of Commerce, and later its Secretary and President. In 1923 he founded the illustrated magazine "La Opinión," and is now President and Director of "La Opinión C. por A." Secy., Dominican Legation, The Hague, 1915; elected National Senator for the Province of Espaillat in 1924, and until 1930 served as Vice-President of the Senate, as well as President (pro-tem) of that body. In 1930 he became Administrative Consultant to the President of the Republic, and held that post until his election as National Deputy for the Province of Barahona. He is presently Senator for the Province of Bahoruco. In 1937 he was Secretary of State of the Presidency; President of the Chamber of Deputies, 1940-42. Decorations: Medalla del Homenaje de Alfonso XIII (Spain); Grand Officer of the Order of Merit Juan Pablo Duarte; Grand Officer of the Order of Honor and Merit of the Republic of Haiti. He is the author of La Crisis; Una Provincia que aparece; Triptico; Trujillo de Cuerpo Entero (3 edns., translated into English), and Trujillo y la Posta Guerra. Address: Calle Doctor Baez No. 28, Trujillo, Dominican Republic.

NANNFELDT, Dr. JOHAN AXEL FRITHIOF, Swedish Botanist; born Jan. 18, 1904, Trälleborg, Sweden; son of Frithiof and Antonia Andersson Nannfeldt; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, Phil. Kand. 1925, Phil. Lic. 1931, Phil. Dr. 1932; married Ragnhild Birgitta Grundell, July 13, 1935. Asst. in Botanical Garden, Uppsala, 1923-26; Asst. Prof. (Docent) in Botany, 1932-39; Prof. of Botany, since 1939; Director, Botanic Museum and Garden since 1939. Member: Kungl. Vetenskapsocieteten; Svensk Botanisk Förening; Svenska Linnésällskapet; British Mycological Soc., etc. Received Vetenskapssocieteten's Linné Prize, 1932; Author: U.d. Morphologie und Systematik d. Discomyceten (1932); Taxonomical a. Plant. Geogr. of Poa laxa (1935); On the Polymorphy of Poa artica (1940); and The Geoglossaceae of Sweden (1942), etc. Address: Botanic Garden, University of Uppsala, Uppsala, Sweden.

NANPARA and MOHAMDI, Raja of, (Syed M. Saadat Ali Khan), born 1905, son of M. Ashfaq Ali Khan Sahib); educated at Colvin Taluqdars Coll., Lucknow, U.P., India; married; four sons and four daughters. Ruler of Nanpara and Mohamdi Estates in the United Provinces of India. Served as Member of Legislative Assembly of the United Provinces. Founder and maintainer of the Saadat High School in Nanpara and patron of several other educational institutions in India. Address: Nanpara Palace, Lucknow; Saadat Palace, Nanpara, U.P., India.

NAPIER, Dr. CHARLES DWIGHT, Orthopedic Surgeon; educated at Yale Univ., A.B. 1885; College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., M.D. 1890. Consulting Orthopedic Surgeon: St. Giles Orthopedic; St. John's; St. Mary's; King's County; Long Island College; Caledonian; Wyckoff Heights Hospitals, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Southampton Hospital, Long Island, N. Y. Member: New York State Medical Soc.; Amer. Orthopedic Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Orthopedic Surgeons. Address: 100 Lafayette Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

NAPIER, Hon. Sir JOHN MELLIS, K.C.M.G., British Jurist; born October 24, 1882, Dunbar, Scotland; educated at the City of London School and University of Adelaide, LL.B. 1902; married Dorothy Bell Kay; three sons. Admitted to practice before Supreme Court of South Australia, 1903; K.C., 1922; Chairman of Federal Royal Commission on Banking, 1936-37. Justice of the Supreme Court of South Australia, 1924-41; Chief Justice since 1942. Lieutenant-Governor of South Australia, 1942—. Address: Summit Rd., Crafers, Adelaide, South Australia.

NAPIER, Sir JOSEPH WILLIAM LENNOX, Bt., British Director of Companies; born Aug. 1, 1895, London, England; son of Sir William Lennox and Mabel E. G. (Forster) Napier; educated at Rugby School; Jesus College, Cambridge; married Isabel Muriel Surtees, Feb. 12, 1931; two sons. Served with South Wales Borderers at Gallipoli and Mesopotamia, 1914-19; wounded three times and taken prisoner of war by Turks in Kurdestan; served in Royal Field Artillery, Territorial Army, 1920-24; served in Reserve of Officers, Royal Artillery, Territorial Army. With firm of Whinney Smith & Whinney, chartered accountants, until 1923; business and financial experience with various firms, later professional company director, particularly with companies associated with Lord St. Davids group of trust companies. Chairman: Simpson & Godlee, Ltd.; Yorkshire Dyeing & Proofing Co.; Brough Nicholson & Hall. Director: Aboukir Co.; Brocklehurst Whiston Amalgamated; McNeill & Co.; General Cable Co.; Laundry Services; Wycombe Marsh Paper Mills; Know Mill Printing Co. Sewing Silks, Ltd.; Staveley Trust Ltd.; Mitchell Cotts & Co. (Middle East). Residence: 3 Culford Gardens, London, S.W. and Parklands, Forest Green, Surrey. Office: Winchester House, Old Broad St., London, E.C., England.

NAPOLITANO, Prof. EMILIO ANGEL, Argentine Violinist, Composer and Teacher; born Nov. 12, 1907, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Emilio and Angela (Cabrit) Napolitano; studied at National Conservatory of Music and Drama; Central Natl. College, Buenos Aires; married Sara P. Poggi, Apr. 14, 1932; two children. Violinist, Orchestra, Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires, since 1922; Prof. of Violin, Natl. Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art, since 1939; Prof. of Chamber Music, since 1945; Artistic Director, Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires; Founder, First Violinist and Director, Cuarteto de Cuerdas, Natl. Soc. of Music (now Argentine Assn. of Composers). Member: Argentine Assn. of Composers; Symphonic Assn. of Buenos Aires. Compositions include: Sonata for violin and piano; Quartet for flute, clarinet, fagot and piano; Suite Argentina for string quartet; Mi cansion for soprano and orchestra; La Canción del Saldán for voice and chamber orchestra; Apurimac, ballet; La Mariposa, Canción de Cuna, Serenata, La Cenicienta, Flor de Cardón, Picaflor, La Suyuqueña, for voice and piano; Vidalita de la Sierra Triste for choir; Gato for piano; Triste for piano; many school songs. Received Gold Medal, Ministry of Justice and Public Instruction, 1936; Award, Natl. Cultural Commn., 1936-38; Municipal Prize, Buenos Aires, 1937. Address: Cerrito 618 (Teatro Colón), Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NAQUIN, WALTER PIERRE, American Business Executive; born Aug. 22, 1883, Thibadaux, Louisiana; educated at Audubon Sugar School, New Orleans; Louisiana State Univ., B.S. 1907; married Ethel Keating, 1915; three children. Chemist at Audubon Sugar School; Agriculturist chemist with Olaa (Hawaii) Sugar Co., 1908-11. Agriculturist with Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Assn. until 1916. Vice-Pres. and Manager, Honokaa Sugar Co., 1916-44; Vice-Pres. and Supt., Hawaiian Irrigation Co. Ltd. Postmaster at Kukuihaele, Hawaii, 1916-44. Chairman, Hamakua Draft Board, World War I; Coordinator between Military and Civilian Government for his District, World War II. First Agricultural Chemist to become associated with Hawaiian Sugar Industry; played an important part in scientific development of sugar industry of Hawaii. Member: Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Assn.; Internatl. Soc. of Sugar Technologists; Hawaiian Sugar Technologists; Hilo Chamber of Commerce. Author of many important papers during past thirty years dealing mainly with sugar. Residence: 1514 Waianuenue Ave., Hilo, Hawaii.

NARANG, Sir GOKUL CHAND, Indian Industrialist; Permanent Chairman of Nawabganj Sugar Mills Co. Ltd.; Chmn. of Punjab Sugar Mills Co. Ltd., Basti Sugar Mills Co. Ltd., Great Sugar Combine Ltd., Shri Yadavendra Sugar Mills Co. Ltd., Ratlam Sugar Mills Co. Ltd., Saraswati Insurance Co. Ltd., Narang Bank of India Ltd. and Narang Industries Ltd.; Director of Gokulnagar Sugar Mills Co. Ltd.; born Nov. 15, 1878; only son of Lala Mool Raj Narang; M.A. from Punjab, 1901, and Calcutta, 1902. Called to Bar, 1910, from Lincoln's Inn; practiced at High Court of Judicature. Lahore, 1911-30. Member of Punjab Legislative Assembly, 1923-46. Minister for Industries and Local Self Government, 1930-37. Fellow, Punjab University; connected with educational institutions; President, Victoria Diamond Jubilee Hindu Technical Institute, Punjab. In politics represents the Hindu Mahasabha school. Author: Message of the Vedas; Transformation of Sikhism; Real Hinduism. Residence: 5 Montgomery Rd. Office: 3 Montgomery Rd., Lahore, Punjab, India.

NARANJO, VICTOR MANUEL, Ecuadorian Consul; born Dec. 3, 1885, Quito, Ecuador; son of Manuel Octavio Naranjo and Rosario Lavayen; educated at Seminary College, Quito; Military School of Chilean Republic; married Mary Salvador. Oct. 29, 1928; two children. Lieut., Field Artillery, Chilean Army; Lieut. Col., Ecuadorian Army; Commercial Attaché, Ecuadorian Legation, Panama, 1936-37. Consul in Calcutta, British India, 1937-38. Consul: Cali, Republic of Colombia, 1938-39; Paita, Republic of Peru, 1939-41; Arica, Republic of Chile, 1941-42; Concepción, Chile, 1942-45; Seattle, United States, since 1945. Government Delegate, Postal Congress of Spain and Americas, held in Panama, 1935; Attaché, Ecuadorian Embassy, Panama, 1936; Government Delegate, Internatl Labor Conf., Seattle, 1946. Governor, Galapagos Islands (Ecuador), 1927; Director General, Ecuadorian Oriental Provinces, 1931. Decorated with Gold Medal, Ecuadorian Confederation of Labor, Guayas. Contributor to El Republicano, El Diario del Ecuador, El Comercio, El Dia, El Universo. Director and Owner, El Abanderado, Quito, Ecuador. Author: History (political and military) of Ecuador. Address: 1308 Seneca St., Seattle 1, Washington.

NARASINGA RAO, Dr. AMUR, Indian Mathematical Physicist; born Dec. 8, 1893, Kumbakonam, Madras Presidency; son of Narayana Rao and Padmavati; educated at Madras Christian College, 1910-12; Presidency College, Madras, B.A. (Hons.) 1915; Univ. of Madras, D.Sc.; married Namagiri Bai, June 13, 1909; one child. Lecturer in Mathematics, Christian College, Madras, 1915-22; Lecturer in Math., Engineering College, Guindy, 1922-24; at Presidency College, Madras, 1924-28; Research Fellow, Madras Univ., 1928-29; Head of Dept. of Mathematics, Annamalai Univ., 1929-46; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Mathematical Physics, Andhra Univ., Waltair, since July 1946. Member of Senate, Academic Council of Annamalai Univ., and former member of Syndicate; Member, Managing Com. of Indian Mathematical Soc. Fellow, Indian Acad. of Science, Bangalore. Contributed to Revue semestrielle des publications mathématiques, Amsterdam. Editor, The Mathematics Student. Author of various papers in Proceedings of Indian Acad. of Sciences, Journal of Indian Math. Soc., Mathematische Zeitschrift, Proc. Camb. Phil. Soc., Congresso internazionale dei matematici, Bologna, etc. Address: Andhra University, Waltair, Madras Presidency, India.

NARAYAN, JAYAPRAKASH, Indian Political Leader; born 1900; attended four American universities. Leader of Congress Party's Socialist Revolutionary wing. Nominated to Congress Party's Working Committee, 1946—. Chief Spokesman for Left-Wing elements in Congress Party. Address: Working Committee of the Congress Party, New Delhi, India.

NARAYANA, Dr. BASUDEVA, Indian Physiologist; born Nov. 19, 1898, Chapra, India; son of Rai Bahadur Sukhdeva Narayana and Shrimati Gulab Devi; educated at Patna College, 1915-17; Presidency College, Calcutta, 1917-21; Medical College at Calcutta, 1919-24, B.Sc. (with honours in physiology), 1919, M.Sc. 1921, M.B. 1924; Univ. of Edinburgh, Ph.D. 1934; married Shyam Nandani, June 1919; three daughters. Demonstrator of Physiology, Prince of Wales Medical College, Patna, 1926; Lecturer in Physiology, 1928-35 (on leave of absence 1932-34); Prof. of Physiology since 1935; Principal since Nov. 1945. Demonstrator of Physiology, Univ. of Edinburgh, Oct.-Dec. 1934. Member: Senate and Syndicate, Patna Univ. Medical Faculty, Boards of Studies in Medicine, Domestic Science and Psychology, Patna Univ. Member: British Medical Assn.; Indian Medical Assn.; Physiological Soc. of Great Britain; Physiological Soc. of India; Indian Science Congress Assn. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Assoc. Serving Brother, Order of St. John of Jerusalem. Physiology Section, Indian Science Congress, 1943. Contributor to Quarterly Journal of Experimental Physiology, Journal of Physiology, Biochemical Journal, Indian Journal of Medical Research, Patna Journal of Medicine. Address: Prince of Wales Medical College, Patna, Bihar, India.

NARAYANASWAMY, Rao Bahadur Dr. BIJIATY VENKATA, Indian Economist; born Mar. 11, 1901, Madras, India; son of B. Devarajnem Neidu Narayanaswamy; educated at Edinburgh Univ., M.A., B.Com., Ph.D.; Middle Temple, England, Barrister at Law; married Lechavattiy Narayanaswamy; three sons. Prof. of Economics, Annamalai Univ., 1930; Dean of Faculty of Arts, Syndicate, 1934-40; Vice-Chancellor, 1939. Member, Royal Seema Enquiry Com., Government of Madras, 1945; Economist to enquire into rural debts, 1945; now Principal, Pachaiyappa's College, Kilpauk, Madras. Dir., Muthialpet High School, Madras; Member, Executive Council, Madras Mayors Civic Assn. Member: Board of Studies in Economics at Madras Univ.; Mysore Univ.; Andhra Univ.; Annamalai Univ.; Syndicate, Senate, Madras Univ. Pres., Faculty of Commerce, Madras Univ. Member of Senate, Annamalai Univ.; Travancore Univ. Awarded Titles: Rao Bahadur, 1945, Rao Sahib, 1942. Author: Indian Foreign Trade; Sales Tax; Madras Agricultural Relief; Groundnut; Economics of Indian Agriculture; Tāndava Lakshman. Address: Pachaiyappa's College, Kilpauk, P.O. Madras, India.

NARDI, Hon. LUIGI, Italian Diplomat; born Aug. 8, 1899, Rome, Italy; son of Enrico and Virginia (Pavese) Nardi; educated at Univ. of Rome, law degree, 1921; degree in French studies, Institut d'études françaises de Touraine (Poitiers), 1923; married Gunhild Stoltenberg-Lerche, Feb. 4, 1931; two children. Consular Attaché, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1923; Secy., Italian Delegation, Xth Assembly, League of Nations, Geneva, 1929; assigned to Gratz, 1930; Cardiff, 1933. Secy. of Italian Delegation, Naval Conference, London, 1935-36; with Ministry, 1936. Delegate to Internatl. Conference of Telecommunications, Cairo, 1938; Consul General in Galatz, Roumania, and Deputy Delegate to C.E.D., 1938; Consul General, Cologne, 1940-43; Asst. General Director, D.I.E., 1945; Consul General, New York, since Feb. 1946. Knight of SS Maurizio and Lazzaro; Commendatore, Crown of Italy. Address: 7 E. 84th St., New York, N. Y.

NARDIN RIVAS, LUIS, Mayor of La Paz, Bolivia; born in La Paz; son of Julio Nardin and María Rivas de N.; educated at Colegio Nacional Ayacucho and the Colegio San Calixto; married Mercedes Ergueta, Oct. 2, 1921; three children. Correspondent, Banco Nacional de Bolivia, 1921; Cashier, Banco Aleman, 1924. Director, Cervecería Boliviana Nacional, Lloyd Aero-Boliviano, the Sociedad Rural Boliviana, the Crédito Hipotecario de Bolivia and the Banco Central de Bolivia. Secy.-Gen., Bolivian Red Cross; Hon. Consul of Poland. Created Knight of the Order of St. Sylvester. Residence: Avda. 16 de Julio No. 120. Office: Alcaldía Municipal, La Paz, Bolivia.

NARDIN, WILLIAM T., American Business Executive, Banker; born Oct. 2, 1874, Schuyler County, Ill.; son of James F. and Sarah Ellen Nardin; educated at Univ. of Missouri, A.B., A.M. and LL.B.; married Mary Ellen Conway, Oct. 27, 1910; two sons. Began career as lawyer in St. Louis, practicing from 1907 to 1920. Vice-President and General Manager, Pet Milk Co., 1920—. Chairman of Board, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, 1937—. Member, Missouri State Social Security Commission, 1937-41 (Chairman, 1941-44). Residence: 6253 Westminster Pl. Office: Arcade Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

NARENDRA, K(UMAR), Indian Publisher; born Apr. 24, 1914, Lahore, India; son of Mr. and Mrs. Krishna; educated at Punjab Univ., M.A.; Forman Christian and Govt. Colleges, Lahore; Law College, Lahore; married Kamala Malhotra, 1944; one son. Served as reporter on local papers; then editor of college magazine; now Proprietor, The Daily Pratap, Lahore. Member: All India Newspapers Editors Conf.; Indian and Eastern Newspaper Soc., New Delhi. Residence: 41 Nisbet Rd., Lahore. Office: Pratap Bldgs., Chamberlain Rd., Lahore, India.

NARIMAN, MAHMMOUD, Iranian Financial Official; born May, 1893, Teheran, Iran; son of Hassan Jezayeri and Mariam Jezayeri; educated in England and Switzerland; graduated from Geneva University in commercial sciences, also high commercial studies; married Own Jezayire; two sons and two daughters. Employed at Ministry of Public Works in Dept. of Commerce, and later at Ministry of Finance, serving as Chief Cashier of Treasury General, 1923; Chief Accountant of Treasury General, 1924; Deputy Treas.-Gen., 1927; Deputy General Manager of Internal Revenue Dept., 1931; Director of Economic Department of Ministry of Finance, 1934. In December, 1935, appointed one of three Directors of Agricultural and Industrial Bank of Iran; in 1937, also appointed Acting President of Exchange Control Commission, later becoming President. Was Director of the Imperial Mint; Inspector General, Ministry of Finance; Director of Centralization and Auditing, State Accounts Dept.; Director, Indirect Taxes Dept., and Director General of Internal Revenues. Minister of Finance, 1944; Minister of Roads and Communications and Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, 1944-45; Mayor of Teheran, 1945. Address: Teheran, Iran.

NARSINGARH, His Highness Raja Shri Sir VIKRAW SINGHJI Sahib Bahadur, K.C.I.E., Indian Ruler; born Sept. 21, 1909; educated at Daly College, Indore and Mayo College, Ajmer; passed Mayo College Diploma Examination, 1927; received administrative training in Mysore State; married. Succeeded father as Ruler of Narsingarh State, C. I., 1924; invested with full ruling powers, 1929. Effected many reforms in Narsingarh State including legislation preventing child-marriages; local self-government given to people, etc. Address: Narsingarh, Central India.

NASALLI ROCCA DI CORNELIANO, GIOVANNI BATTISTA, Cardinal, Roman Catholic Archbishop; born Aug. 27, 1872, Piacenza, Italy; son of Conte Pietro Nasalli Rocca di Corneliano and Angiola Bovarini; educated at Collegio Lombardo, Rome; Accademia dei Nobili Ecclesiastici; Gregorian Univ., Rome; Th.D., 1895; Dr. of Canon Law, 1898. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest at Piacenza, June 8, 1895; Canon, Basilica S. Maria Maggiore, Rome, 1899; Visitor Apostolic, 1904-06; Bishop of Gubbio, 1907-16; Archbishop of Thebes and private chaplain to H. H. Benedict XV, 1916; Canon, Vatican Basilica; Asst. at the Papal Throne; Archbishop of Bologna, since 1921; Cardinal di S.R.C. del tit. di S. Maria in Traspontina, May 23, 1923. Recipient, Military Order of Malta; Grand Cross, Order Holy Sepulchre; Grand Cross, Order Costantiniano; Order Isabella Catolica; Commander, St. Olav Order. Author: Lettere Pastorali, Mia Madre, 1938; Commemorazioni (Pio IX, Pio X, Benedetto XV), Litanie del S. Cuore, 1946. Address: Via Altabella 4, Bologna, Italy.

NASCENTES, ANTENOR, Brazilian Philologist; born June 17, 1886, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; educated at the Ginasio Nacional (now Colegio Pedro II), Sc.B. and Litt.B. 1902; Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences, Rio de Janeiro, LL.B. 1908. Served as official at the Secretariat, Ministry of Justice. Professor, Colegio Pedro II, since 1919. Made Officier d'Académie, Official da Ordem da Instrucão Publica de Portugal. Author: Un ensaio de fonetica diferencial luso-castellana; Dos elementos gregor que se encontram no espanhol, 1919; Gramatica da Lingua Espanhola, 1921; O Linguajar Carioca, 1922; Traducar do Teatro de Beaumarchais, 1923; Traducar de El Buscapie, atribuido a Cervantes, 1929; Dicionario Etimologico da Lingua Portuguesa, 1932; O Idioma, Nacional, Num Pais Fabuloso, 1933; America do sol, 1937; Estudos Filologicos, 1939; Antologia Espanhola e Hispano-Americana, 1943; O Probleme de Regencia, 1944; Tesouro da Fraseologia Brasileira, 1945; Lexico de Nomenclatura Gramatical Brasileira, 1946. Residence: Rua Ernesto Sousa 60A, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

NÄSGÅRD, BERNHARD, Swedish Senator; born Apr. 16, 1891, Österfärnebo, Sweden; son of Johan Olof Eriksson and Christina (Jansdotter) Näsgård; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, fil. kand. 1926; married Ellen Nilsson, 1923. Journalist, 1914-23; Political Secy., Bondeförbundet, 1924-36; Under-Secy. of State, Agricultural Dept., 1936-44; Member of Swedish Senate since 1944. Engaged in farming. Decorated Commander 1st class, North Star Order and Finnish Lion Order. Author: Bondeförbundarna i riksdagen, 1936. Address: Österfärnebo, Sweden.

NASH, Dr. MELL ACHILLES, American Educator; born July 20, 1890, Texas; son of Newton and Susie (Moody) Nash; educated at Teachers College, Oklahoma Univ.; Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1919, M.A. 1923, LL.D. 1927; married Mae Clarke, 1916; five children. Teacher, 1908; Principal of schools in Granite, Idabel, Madill; City Supt. of Schools, Idabel and Madill; State High School Inspector, Oklahoma; State Supt. of Public Instruction, Oklahoma, 1922; Pres., State Board of Education; Pres., Oklahoma Education Assn.; Ex-Pres., Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha; now Chancellor, Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. Address: Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, Oklahoma City, Okla.

NASH, Dr. NORMAN BURDETT, American Theologian and Educator; born June 5, 1888, Bangor, Me.; son of Henry Sylvester and Bessie (Keefler) Nash; educated at Cambridge Latin School, 1900-05; Harvard Univ., A.B. 1909; Harvard Univ. Law School, 1910-11; Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, B.D. 1915; Cambridge Univ., England, 1915-16; Western Theological Seminary, 1933; Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., (Hon.) S.T.D. 1939; Williams College, 1940; married Marian Noble, Oct. 8, 1917; three children. Ordained Deacon, Protestant Episcopal Church, 1915; Priest, 1916; Instructor, Episcopal Theological School, 1916-19; Asst. Prof. of New Testament, 1919-27; Prof. of Christian Social Ethics, 1927-39; Rector, St. Anne's Church, South Lincoln, Mass., 1916-23; Pres., Mass. Council of Churches, 1936-38; Rector, St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., since 1939. Trustee of Holderness School, Plymouth, N. H. Elected Bishop, Dec. 1946. Address: St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.

NASH, OGDEN, American Author; born 1902. Author: Hard Lines, 1931; Happy Days, 1933; The Primrose Path, 1935; The Bad Parents' Garden of Verse, 1936; I'm a Stranger Here Myself, 1938; The Face Is Familiar (selected verse), 1940; Good Intentions, 1942; One Touch of Venus (with Sidney Joseph Perelman), 1944; Many Long Years Ago, 1945, etc. Address: c/o Little, Brown & Co., Boston, Mass.

NASH, Dr. THOMAS PALMER, JR., American Biological Chemist; born June 15, 1890, Elizabeth City, N. C.; son of Thomas Palmer and Mattie (Forbes) Nash; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, A.B. 1910, A.M. 1911; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1922; married Edith Lyle Peatross, Mar. 1, 1919; two children. Instructor in Chemistry, Univ. of North Carolina, 1910-11; Univ. of Tennessee, College of Medicine, 1915-17; Acting Prof. of Chemistry, 1917-19; Instructor in Chemistry, Cornell Medical College, 1919-22; Prof. of Chemistry, Univ. of Tennessee, Colleges of Medicine and Dentistry, and Schools of Pharmacy and Nursing, 1922-27; Prof. of Chemistry, Univ. of Tennessee, School of Biological Sciences, since 1928. Chief of Division of Chemistry and Physiology, 1928-42; Chief, Division of Chemistry and Pharmacology, 1942-44; Chief, Division of Chemistry since 1945; Dean, School of Biological Sciences, since 1928. Member: Federation of Amer. Socs. for Experimental Biology; Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists; Amer. Chemical Soc. Author of scientific papers in field of ammonia metabolism, phlorhizin diabetes, intermediary metabolism. Sergeant, Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, 1918-19. Address: 875 Monroe Ave., Memphis 3, Tenn.

NASH, Rt. Hon. WALTER, P.C., New Zealand Political Leader; born Feb. 12, 1882, Kidderminster, England; son of Alfred Arthur and Amelia (Randle) Nash; educated at Church School, Kidderminster; Hon. LL.D., Tufts College (Cambridge, U. S. A.); Temple Univ. (Philadelphia); Cambridge (England); married Lottie May Eaton, June 16, 1906; two children. Went to New Zealand, 1909; New Zealand Delegate, International Labour Conf., Geneva, 1920; Secy., N. Z. Labour Party, 1922-32; Member, Natl. Exec., N. Z. Labour Party, 1919-37; Pres., 1935-36; Leader, N. Z. Delegation to Inst. of Pacific Relations Confs., Honolulu, 1927, Banff, 1933; M.P. for Hutt, since 1929; Del. Commonwealth Relations Conf., Toronto, 1933; N. Z. Rept., Conf. of Pacific Port Authorities, Toronto, 1933; a founder and Vice-Pres., N. Z. Branch Royal Inst. of International Affairs, since 1936; N. Z. Rept., Imperial Conference, London, 1937; Minister of Social Security, 1938; Minister of Marketing, 1936-41; Minister of Finance, Customs and Stamp Duties, since 1935; member, N. Z. War Cabinet, 1939-45; Deputy Prime Minister since 1940; N. Z. Minister to U. S. A., 1942-44; Member, Pacific War Council, Washington, 1942-44; Pres., International Labour Conf., Philadelphia, 1944; Leader, N. Z. Delegation, Internatl. Monetary Conf., Bretton Woods, U. S. A., 1944; N. Z. Rept., Prime Ministers' Conf., London, 1946. N. Z. Rept., U. N. Economic and Social Council, 1947. Author: New Zealand — A Working Democracy. Residence: 14 St. Albans Grove, Lower Hutt, New Zealand. Office: Parliament Buildings, Wellington, New Zealand.

NASON, Dr. JOHN WILLIAM, American College President; born Feb. 9. 1905, St. Paul, Minn.; son of Albert John and Mary Ethel (Eaton) Nason; educated at Carleton College, B.A. 1926; Yale Divinity School, 1926-27; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1928; Oriel College of Univ. of Oxford, England, B.A. 1931; Univ. of Pennsylvania, LL.D. 1941; Muhlenberg College, Litt.D. 1943; Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Philadelphia, Litt.D. 1943; married Bertha Dean White, June 15, 1935; two sons. Instructor in Philosophy, 1931-34; Asst. Prof., Swarthmore College, 1934-40; Pres. since 1940. Asst. to Amer. Secretary of Rhodes Trust since 1935. Fellow, Natl. Council on Religion in Higher Education, (Member of Board since 1941, Pres. since 1943). Pres., United Nations Council of Phila., 1943-42; Vice-Pres., 1945-47; Chmn. of Board, 1947 —. Trustee: The Edward W. Hazen Foundation, Inc.; Phillips Exeter Acad. Author of articles on Leibniz and educational topics. Address: Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.

NASON, LEONARD HASTINGS, American Author; born 1895. Author: Chevrons, 1926; Three Lights from a Match, 1927; Sergeant Eadie, 1928; The Incomplete Mariner, 1929; A Corporal Once, 1930; Among the Trumpets, 1932; Approach to Battle, 1941. Address: c/o Doubleday & Co., Inc., 14 W. 49th St., New York, N. Y.

NASON, THOMAS W., American Artist. Specializes in graphic arts. Exhibited at various shows. Represented in leading museums. Member: National Academy of Design; National Institute of Arts and Letters. Address: Lyme, Conn.

NASR, Dr. VALI-UL-LAH, Iranian Educator; born 1877, Kashan, Iran; son of Dr. Ahmad and Bagum Nasr; educated at Darol-fonoon College, 1895, Medical College, 1901 (M.D.); married Zia Kia Nasr, 1931; two sons. Prof. at Darol-fonoon College; later Prof. at Medical College of Teheran; appointed Dean of School, 1926. Member of Parliament, 1908; Director of Political Sciences School, 1910; Under-Secy. of Ministry of Justice, 1921; Chief Director, Ministry of Education, 1922; Prof., Law School of Teheran, 1936; Director-General, Ministry of Education, until 1945. Member: Iranian Academy; High Council of Education; University Council of Teheran Univ. Awarded highest decoration of the Ministry of Education. Address: Shir-Zad, Teheran, Iran.

NASRULLAH, KHAN, Afghan Public Works Official; born Apr. 10, 1904, Komangar Luhard, Kabul, Afghanistan; son of Nawab Khan and Hamtoo M. Bakhsh; educated privately; married Mahbuhak M. Anwar, 1931; six children. Aide-de-Camp to His late Majesty Nadir Shah, 1918-19. Occupied various official positions, including that of Governor of Anjuman in Badakhsha, 1919-28. Awarded Good Service Medal during civil disturbances in Southern Provinces, 1925. Participated in every engagement against the rebels during civil war, 1929. Appointed Commissioner of Police in Mazari Sharif; Acting General Governor of Eastern State (Djilal Abad), 1932. Transferred to Southern Province as General Governor, 1932; Deputy Minister to Ministry of Interior, 1933. Deputy Minister of Public Works since 1933. Address: Ministry of Public Works, Kabul, Afghanistan.

NASSAU, Dr. JASON JOHN, American Astronomer; born Mar. 29, 1893, Smyrna, Asia Minor; son of John and Maria (Christie) Nassau; educated at Syracuse

Univ., C.E. and M.S. 1915, Ph.D. 1920, Sc.D. 1940; Columbia, summers of 1913 and 1914; Univ. of Edinburgh, 1919; Cambridge, 1927-28; married Laura Alice Johnson, June 27, 1920; two sons. Instructor in Mathematics and Astronomy, Syracuse Univ., 1919-21; Asst. Prof. of Astronomy, Case School of Applied Science, 1921-24; Assoc. Prof., 1924-29; Prof. of Astronomy, since 1929. Chairman, Graduate Div. of C.S.A.S., 1936-40; Acting Chairman, Dept. of Physics, 1942-45; Director, Warner and Swasey Observatory since 1924. Fellow: Royal Astronomical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (member of Council, Section 4, Vice-Pres. 1945-46). Member: Council of Amer. Astronomical Soc.; Mathematical Assn. of America; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Astronomical Soc. (Member of Council since 1943, Treas. since 1946). Author: (textbook) Practical Astronomy, 1932. Contributor to chapter on Theory of Determinants, 1930, and many research papers to scientific journals. Served with A.E.F. in France, World War I. Lt. Comdr., U. S. Coast Guard R.T., World War II. Address: Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland 6, Ohio.

NASSO, Dr. IVO, Italian Pediatrician: born Aug. 21, 1892, Trieste, Italy; son of Giacchino and Adele (Coschier) Nasso; educated at Univ. of Prague; Univ. of Naples, Faculty of Medicine and Surgery, M.D. 1918; married Countess Maria D'Adda, 1919; two children. Medical Asst., Clinic of Pediatrics, Univ. of Naples, 1918; Vice-Director. Director, Pediatric Clinic, Univ. of Perugia, 1926; Univ. of Messina, 1929; Univ. of Milan, since 1931. Author: Manuale di Pediatria. Director: Medical review Medicina Italiana. Residence: Viale L. Majno 26. Office: Via Commenda 9, Milan, Italy.

NASSR, SEYED ALI, Iranian Minister of Post, Telephone and Telegraph; born 1895, Teheran, Iran; son of Seyed Ahmad and Beygom Khanom Nassr; educated at College Elmieh; Alliance Française; married Assia Khanom, 1915; three children. Began as Teacher, 1910. Director of Land Survey, 1926; Director of Revenues, 1928; Director General of Opium Monopoly, 1929; Director General of Finances, Isphahan, 1931; Khorassan, 1931; Dir.-Gen. of Tobacco Monopoly, 1932; Governor Gen. Mazendéran, 1936; Under-Secy. of State, Ministry of Industries and Mines, 1937; Under-Secy. of State, Ministry of the Interior, 1942; Minister to China, 1943; now Minister of Post, Telephone and Telegraph. Creator and Director, École des Artistes (Theatre), Teheran. Awarded: Decoration by Ministry of Public Instruction; Coronation Medal of H. M. Shah Pahlevi; Order of Brilliant Star with Grand Cordon, China. Author of 21 textbooks for schools and colleges; 32 plays; 31 monologues; books on Khorassan, Mazenderan, Isphahan, Kerman, Khouzestan, ports of Southern Iran, China, etc. Address: Ministry of Post, Telephone and Telegraphs, Teheran, Iran.

NASSR, Dr. TAGHI, Iranian Economist; born June 6, 1906, Tehran, Iran; son of Mohammad Nassr and Marzieh Nassr; educated at Univ. of Paris, Doctor of Law and Economics, 1933; School of Political Sciences, Tehran; married Bibi Nassr, 1936; one daughter and one son. Teacher, 1924; Director, Economic Dept., Iranian Ministry of Finance, 1935; Pres., Agricultural and Industrial Bank of Iran, 1937; Prof. of Political Economy, Univ. of Tehran, 1935; Director, Iranian Trade and Economic Commn. in United States, 1942-46; Director General, Iranian Ministry of Finance, since 1938. Hon. Pres., Iran Amer. Merchants Assn. Iranian Delegate to: United Nations Conf. on Food and Agriculture, 1943; Conf. of United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, 1943; United Nations Monetary and Financial Conf., 1944; Internatl. Civil Aviation Conf., 1944; Internatl. Monetary Fund and Internatl. Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 1946. Awarded Iran's First Class Scientific Medal. Author: Essai Sur l'Histoire du Droit Persian des l'Origine à l'Invasion Arabe, 1933 (Treatise on Economics in Persian-Land Taxes in Persia). Address: (U.S.A.) 30 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.; Ministry of Finance, Tehran, Iran.

NASYROVA, KHALIMA, Soviet Opera Singer; born 1913, Talik, Uzbekustan; daughter of Mohammed Nassyr; educated at Tashkent High School; Baku Theatre Academy; studied music at Moscow Conservatory; married Kamil Yashen, 1928. Debut as professional actress, 1927; became member of Uzbek State Theatre of Music; sang many operatic roles. Awarded: title of People's Artist of the Soviet Union; Order of the Red Banner of Labor; Stalin Prize in Dramatic Art, 1942. Elected Deputy to Supreme Council of Uzbek S.S.R., 1938. Member, Stalin Prize Com. on Arts. Address: Uzbek State Theatre of Music, Tashkent, Uzbek S.S.R.

NASZKOWSKI, Colonel MARIAN, Polish Diplomat; born in 1913. Served in various posts with Polish Army. Active in political affairs as member of the Polish Workers Party. Appointed Polish Ambassador to Russia, April 1947. Address: Polish Embassy, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NATALEVICH, N. Y., Soviet Political Leader. Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the Byelorussian S.S.R., 1944-48. Vice-Chairman, Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. Address: Supreme Soviet, Minsk, Byelorussian S.S.R.

NATESAN, Rao Bahadur GANAPATIAGRAHARAM ANNADORAIAYER, Indian Editor; born Aug. 24, 1873, Ganapatiagraharam, India; son of Annadoraiayer; educated at Town High School, Kumbakonam; St. Joseph's School, Trichinopoly; Hindu High School, Madras; Presidency College, Madras; married Mangalambal; two sons. Established G. A. Natesan & Co., Printers and Publishers, 1897; founder and Editor, Indian Review Monthly (magazine in English), since 1900. Councillor of Madras Corp., 1914-34; Member, Senate and Syndicate of Madras Univ., 25 years; Member, Council of State, 1923-33. Visited Canada with Empire Parliamentary Delegation, 1928; attended Universities Conf., 1929. Chairman, Retrenchment Com. for Stores, Printing and Stationery; Member, Indian Tariff Board, 1933; Sheriff of Madras, 1938. Director, Buckingham and Carnatic Mills; Chairman, Madras War Propaganda Com. Member: All India Newspaper Editors Conf.; Indian Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Author: What India Wants: Autonomy Within the Empire. Edited Sanskrit classics with English translations. Address: Indian Review, Madras, India.

NATH, Wazir-ud-Daula Col., DINA, Indian Political Leader; born March 13, 1884, Rawalpindi City, Punjab, India; educated at Government College, Lahore, India; Exeter College, Oxford; Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law. Assistant Private Secretary and Huzur Secretary of H.H. Maharaja Holkar of Indore, 1914-19; High Court Judge in Patiala State, 1920-23. Foreign Minister of Patiala State, 1923-24; Superintendent, Minority Administration in Mandi State and Chief Minister of Mandi State, 1924-30. Served as Maharaja Holkar's Vakil with the Viceroy and Minister without Portfolio, Holkar State Cabinet, 1930-33; Minister of Education and Industries of Patiala

State, 1933-36. Minister-in-Waiting to Maharaja Holkar, 1937-39; Prime Minister, 1939-42. Regional Food Commissioner to Government of India since 1943. Address: 11 Aurangzeb Rd., New Delhi, India.

NATH, Prof. RADHA GOVINDA, Indian Mathematician; born Feb. 1879, Basuduhita, Baraitala, Dist. Noakhali, India; son of Srijut Chandramani Nath and Srimati Braja Sundari Debi; educated at Calcutta Univ., General Assembly's Inst., B.A. with honours in mathematics, 1904, M.A. in mathematics, 1905; married Srimati Pyari Sundari Debi, 1893; one son and three daughters. Taught mathematics at Central College, Calcutta, 1906-07; C.M.S. College, Calcutta, 1906-08; Comilla Victoria College, Comilla, Bengal, 1908-43; Principal, Comilla Victoria College, 1931; retired 1943. Principal and Prof. of Mathematics, Chaumuhani College, since 1943. Director: Nath Bank Ltd.; Comilla Union Bank, Ltd. Trustee, Dalalbazar N.K. High English School, Noakhali, Bengal. Author: Matriculation Algebra; Matriculation Arithmetic; Plane Geometry; Conic Sections and Solid Geometry; also several other Treatises on Mathematics, and A Survey of Chaitanya Movement; Elaborate Annotations, named Gour-Kripa-Tika of Sri Sri Chaitanya Charitamrita. Address: Chaumuhani College, P.O. Chaumuhani, District Noakhali, Bengal, India.

NATHAN of CHURT, 1st Baron, (Harry Louis Nathan), P.C., British Supreme Court Solicitor; born Feb. 2, 1889, London, England; son of Michael Henry Nathan; educated at St. Paul's School, London; married Eleanor Joan Clara Stettauer, March 27, 1919; two children. Member of Parliament for North-East Bethnal Green, 1929-35. Member of Parliament for Central Wandsworth, 1937-40; created a Peer, 1940. Hon. Colonel of 33rd Searchlight Regiment, R.A.; Hon. Air Commodore of No. 906 Squadron, R.A.F. Chairman of National Defence Public Interest Com. Parliamentary Under-Secy. of State for War and Vice-Pres. of Army Council, 1945-47; Minister of Civil Aviation, 1946—. Chairman, London County Council, 1947-48. Fellow: Royal Statistical Soc.; Royal Geographical Soc.; Royal Economic Soc. Residence: 55 Park Lane. Office: 20 Copthall Ave., London, E.C. 2, England.

NATHAN, Mrs. ADELE (GUTMAN), American Writer. Author: The Iron Horse (with Margaret J. Ernst), 1931; The Farmer Sows His Wheat, 1932; Attack (a pageant of a small industrial town; with Blevins Davis), 1942; We Hold These Truths (a pageant; with Blevins Davis), 1943, etc. Address: 157 W. 57th Street, New York, N. Y.

NATHAN, Hon. EDGAR J., Jr., American Jurist; born Aug. 28, 1891, New York, N. Y.; son of Edgar Joshua and Sara (Solis) Nathan; educated at Williams College, A.B. 1913; Columbia University Law School, LL.B. 1916; married Mabel Unterberg, June 11, 1917; two sons. Admitted to the Bar in 1917; associated with Cardozo & Nathan, 1917-23; Partner, 1923-41; Borough President of Manhattan, N. Y., 1942-45; Member, law firm of Gale, Bernays, Falk, Eisner & Nathan, 1946; Justice of the Supreme Court, First Judicial District, N. Y. C., 1946—. Director: Goodwill Industries of N. Y.; Jewish Theological Seminary; The Judeans. Trustee: Knickerbocker Hospital. Member: Amer. and New York State Bar Assns.; Assn. of the Bar of the City of New York, etc. Residence: 21 Central Park West, New York, N. Y.

NATHAN, GEORGE JEAN, American Critic, Author; born Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 14, 1882; son of Charles-Narét and Ella (Nixon-Nirdlinger) Nathan; educated at Cornell University, B.A. 1904; University of Bologna, Italy, 1905. Reporter on the New York Herald, 1905. Later co-editor, The Smart Set Magazine, co-editor and co-founder, The American Mercury and co-editor and founder, The American Spectator. Contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica and Britannica Yearbook. Author: The Entertainment of a Nation. Editor, Encyclopedia of the Theatre." Author: The Critic and the Drama; Passing Judgments; The American Credo; The Morning After the First Night; Materia Critica; The Autobiography of An Attitude; The Theatre Book of the Year, etc. Address: 44 W. 44th St., New York, N. Y.

NATHAN, Dr. OTTO, American Economist; born July 15, 1893, Bingen, Germany; son of Jacob and Sara (Freiberg) Nathan; educated at Univs. of Wurzburg, Freiburg and Munich, Germany; worked in banks in Brussels, Belgium and London, England; Ph.D. 1920. Economic Adviser, Federal Govt. of Germany, 1920-33; Director of Internatl. Research, Inst. for Business Cycle Research; Delegate, League of Nations, Internatl. Labor Office, etc.; Faculty Member, Hochschule für Politik, Berlin. Fellow, Inst. of Economics, Washington, D. C., 1930-31; Special Economic Adviser, Pres. Hoover's Emergency Com. on Employment; Visiting Lecturer, Princeton Univ., 1933-35; Assoc. Prof., New York Univ., since 1935. Consultant, U. S. Natl. Defense Commn., 1940-41; Prof., Vassar College, 1942-44; Chief Economic Analyst, U. S. Treasury Dept., 1944-45; Instructor, Biarritz Amer. Univ., U. S. Army, 1945-46; Visiting Prof., Howard Univ., and Consultant on Economic Literature, Library of Congress, since 1946. Member: Board of Trustees, Albert Einstein Foundation, Inc.; Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer Statistical Assn.; Amer. Political Science Assn.; Acad. of Political Science; Foreign Policy Assn.; Royal Economic Soc., London. Author: The Nazi Economic System, 1944; Nazi War Finance and Banking, 1944. Editor: Die Wirtschaft des Auslandes, 1900-27; Die Wirtschaft des Auslandes, 1928. Residence: 55 E. 10th St. Office: New York University, Washington Sq., New York, N. Y.

NATHAN, ROBERT, American Author, Poet; born Jan. 2, 1894, New York, N. Y.; son of Harold and Sarah (Gruntal) Nathan; educated at Harvard College, 1912-15; married Janet McMillen, May 20, 1940; two children. Instructor in Poetry, New York University Extension, 1924-25. Writer for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer since 1943. Member, Advisory Council Writers War Board, since 1942; Writer for Treasury War Loan, U.S.O., Red Cross, etc. Silver Medal, Treasury Award. Charter Member, Internatl. P.E.N. Club (Pres. 1940-43); Member, Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters (Vice-Pres., 1937-39). Author of 21 novels and 5 books of poetry, including: Autumn, 1920; One More Spring, 1933; Portrait of Jennie, 1939; Morning in Iowa, 1944. Residence: 125 S. Carmelina Ave., Los Angeles 24, Calif. Office: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Culver City, Calif.

NATHAN, ROBERT R., American Economist; born Dec. 25, 1908, Dayton, Ohio; son of Louis and Hannah (Schnee) Nathan; educated at University of Pennsylvania, B.S. M.A., 1927-33; Georgetown University, L.L.B. 1933-38. Research Assistant, University of Pennsylvania, 1931-33; Assistant Chief, U. S. Dept. of Commerce, 1933-35, Chief, 1935-40. Assistant Director, Research and Statistics, O.P.M., 1940-42; Chairman, Planning Committee, W.P.B., 1942-43; Consulting Economist, 1943-45; Deputy Director in Charge of Reconversion, Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, 1945; now Pres., Robert R. Nathan Associates, Inc., consulting economists. Vice-Pres., Amer. Statistical Assn., 1940; Member, Bd. of Trustees, Natl. Planning Assn., 1937-39; Executive Committee, National Income Conference, 1937-40. Private, U. S. Army, 1943. Residence: 2500 Que St., N.W. Office: 3 Thomas Circle, N.W., Washington, 25, D. C.

NATTRASS, Dr. FREDERICK JOHN, British Neurologist; born Aug. 8, 1891, Great Bridge, Staffordshire; son of Rev. J. Conder Nattrass; educated at Univ. of Durham, M.B., B.S. 1914, M.D. 1920; married Gladys Vickers, 1915; three children. Asst. Physician, Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle, 1921; Physician, 1935. Regional Consultant in Neurology to Ministry of Health; Editor, Newcastle Medical Journal, 1920-36. Now Neurologist, Newcastle Eye Hospital, and Newcastle Throat, Nose and Ear Hospital. Prof. of Medicine, Univ. of Durham, since 1941. Member: Assn. of Physicians of Great Britain and Ireland; Assn. of British Neurologists. Author: The Commoner Nervous Diseases, 1931. Contributor to medical journals. Capt., R.A.M.C., 1915-20; with B.E.F. in France, 1916-18; Prisoner of War, 1918. Address: King's College, Newcastle upon Tyne, England.

NATUSCH, GUY, Australian Editor; born Dec. 9, 1893, Masterton, New Zealand; son of Charles Tilleard and Ada (Spencer) Natusch; educated at Wellington College, Wellington, New Zealand; married Zoe Torrance Irvine, June 3, 1919; one son. Cadet reporter, Evening News Danne-Virve, N. Z., 1911; Political Roundsman, New Zealand Herald, 1918; Political Roundsman, Evening Post, Wellington, N. Z., 1919-23; Assoc. Editor, Daily Guardian, Sydney, Aust., 1930-31; Columnist, Daily Telegraph, Sydney, Aust., 1932-33; Editor, "The Examiner," Tasmania, 1934-38; Sub-Editor, "The Sun," Sydney, Aust., 1939-41; Editor, "Woman," Sydney, Australia, since 1942. Ex-Vice-Pres., Australian Journalists Assn. Lieut., New Zealand Expeditionary Force, World War I; Australian Volunteer Defence Force, World War II. Address: 60-70 Elizabeth St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

NATVIG, GUSTAV JOHANNES, Norwegian Shipowner; born June 7, 1869, Kristiansand, Norway; son of Henrik and Augusta Mathilde (Hanssen) Natvig; married Augusta Hanssen, 1902; four children. Shipmaster, 1894. Shipowner, under firm name of H. Natvig, since 1898. Member of Board, Den Norske Amerikalinje; Chairman, Kristiansands Sparebank, 28 years. Chairman of Board, Norges Rederforening. Member, Norwegian Parliament, 1909-12. Member and Chairman of various industrial arts and insurance companies. Address: Kristiansand, Norway.

NATVIG, LEIF REINHARDT, Norwegian Entomologist; born Mar. 8, 1894, Oslo, Norway; son of Dr. J. J. Reinhardt and Valborg (Ödegaard) Natvig; educated at Univ. of Oslo. exam. zoology, 1922; Inst. Schiffs-u. Trop. Krankh., Hamburg; course in exot. pathology and parasitology, 1927; married Karen Inger Laake, Sept. 7, 1933; one daughter. Asst. to Director of Zoological Museum, 1914; Curator, Entomological Section of Museum, Oslo, since 1916; Expert Governmental Commn. on Reindeer Grazing, 1916; Substitutional Lecturer, Syst. Entomology, Univ. of Oslo, since 1919; Substitutional Director of Zoolog. Museum, Oslo, 1925-26; Librarian, Zoolog. Museum, 1923-30; Official Govt. Delegate to Fourth Internatl. Congress on Entomology, Ithaca, N. Y., 1928. Official Delegate Govt. to VII Internatl. Kongr. Entomolog., Berlin, 1938. Chairman, Norsk Entomologisk Forening, since 1938. Member: Kunsthistorisk Forening, Oslo, since 1935; Japan Soc., London, since 1933. Awarded Czechoslovak Order White Lion, 1926; Office of Order, 1931. Corresponding Member: Société Tchécoslovaque de Zoologie, 1930; Inst. Scandinave et Néerlandais, 1931; Tromsö Museum, Norway, 1936; Entomolog. Förening, Helsinki, 1942. Author (books): Norske Insekter I, 1928; Japanske Tresnitt (Jap. color prints), 1935; (pamphlets): Om Kubremsene og deres optereden i Norge, 1937; Insekter i hus og heim, 1939; Entomologien ved Det. Kgl. Frederiks Universitet I, 1943. Address: Zoological Museum, Oslo 45, Norway.

NAU, Dr. CARL AUGUST, American Physician and Hygienist; born June 25, 1903, Yorktown, Texas; son of Ernest and Louise (Ladner) Nau; educated at Univ. of Texas, B.A. 1923, M.A. 1924; Univ. of Wis., 1927; Univ. of Texas Med. Branch; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1935; married Veva Peterson, May 22, 1925; two sons. Asst. in Chemistry, 1922; Asst. Prof. of Chemistry, College of Pharmacy, Univ. of Texas, 1925-27; Asst. Prof. of Physiol., School of Med., 1927-30; and at Univ. of Okla. School of Med., 1930-32; Assoc. Prof. of Physiol., 1933-36; Dir., Div. of Industrial Hygiene and Chemical Laboratories, Texas State Dept. of Health, 1936-41; Prof. of Preventive Med. and Public Health, and Chairman of Dept., Univ. of Texas, since 1942. Fellow, Amer. Public Health Assn.; Member: Texas State and Southern Med. Assns.; Amer. Assn. of Industrial Physicians and Surgeons; Texas Public Health Assn.; Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists; Anti-Tuberculosis Assn. Contributor to medical literature. Address: 915 Ave. B., Galveston, Texas.

NAU NIHAL SINGH MANN, Sardar, Indian National Defence Council Member; born September 30, 1899; son of Sardar Mangal Singh and Sardarni Kishan Kaur; educated at Punjab University, 1918; Dyal Singh College, Lahore; married Sardarni Gurdial Kaur, Apr. 19, 1919; three sons. Hon. Magistrate and Sr. Vice-Chmn. of District Bd., 1925; Assistant Recruiting Officer of Lahore Recruiting Area, 1939. Director of Simbhaoli Sugar Mills Ltd. since 1932; Director of People's Insurance Co. Ltd. since 1940; Trustee, Sardar Dyal Singh Majithia Trust, since 1941; Director, Simbhaoli Industries Ltd., since 1942. Member, Communications Board of Punjab, 1929, 1935. Member, Central Interview Board for Selection of Officers in Army, 1942. Member, Selection Board, Indian Police Service, since 1939; also Member, Punjab Fruit Development Board; Member, Selection Board for selecting Indian students for higher technical education in U. K. and U. S. A., 1945; also Additional Member, Federal Public Service Commn. and subsequently Member, Punjab and N.W.F.P. Joint Public Service Commn., 1946-47. Commissioned in Indian Army, 1931; promoted to Capt., 1941, and Major, 1945. Residence: Mananwala District, Sheikhupura, India. Office: Qilla Sheikhupura, Punjab, India.

NAUCKHOFF, Dr. SIGURD ADOLF, Swedish Engineer; born Sept. 14, 1879, Grangesberg, Sweden; son of Dr. Gustaf and Klara (Sandström) Nauckhoff; educated at Royal Technical College in Stockholm; Ph.D. honoris causa, University of Uppsala, 1942; married Gerda Rosén, 1907; two children. Associated with A/B Express-Dynamit Grangesberg, 1900; with Nitroglycerin A/B Vinterviken, 1906-21; Chief Engineer and Managing Director, Nitroglycerin A/B, 1921-45. Member of the Board, Swedish Federation of Industry. Ex-President, Society of Swedish Engineers. President, Royal Swedish Engineering Academy of Sciences, 1945. Address: Östermalmsgatan 45, Stockholm, Swedn.

NAUDÉ, Dr. STEFAN MEIRING, South African Physicist; born Dec. 31, 1904, Worcester District, South Africa; son of Charles François Naudé; educated at Univ. of Stellenbosch, B.Sc. 1924, M.Sc. 1925; Univ. of Berlin, Ph.D. 1928; Univ. of Chicago, and Physikalisch-Technische Reichsanstalt of Charlottenburg; married Josephine Ziervogel, June 22, 1929; six children. Instructor, Univ. of Chicago, 1929-30; Research Fellow, 1931. Senior Lecturer in Physics, Univ. of Cape Town, 1931-33; Prof. of Experimental Physics, Univ. of Stellenbosch, 1934-45; Director, National Physical Laboratory, 1946—. Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; Deutsche Physikalische Gesellschaft; Royal Soc. of South Africa; So. African Assn. for Advancement of Science; Suid-Afrikaanse Akademie Vir Kuns En Wetenskap. Residence: 56 Herold St., Hillcrest. Office: National Physical Laboratory, Pretoria, South Africa.

NAUERT, ROBERT WILLIAM, American Insurance Executive; born Sept. 15, 1901, Boscobel, Wis.; son of Joseph B. and Matilda (Dilger) Nauert; graduated from public schools and specialized in insurance training; married Irene H. Huepenbecker, Sept. 5, 1923; three children. Began career as insurance and investment broker in 1921, owning and operating general insurance and investment agency until 1932; also dealt in real estate; went to Rockford, Ill., 1932, and since then has served as President, General Manager and Director of the Geo. Rogers Clark Casualty Co., as Executive Vice-President, General Manager, Treasurer and Director of Pioneer Life Insurance Co. and as President and Director of Personal Indemnity Co. of Milwaukee, Wis. Author of various articles published in professional periodicals. Residence: South Shore Drive, Delavan Lake, Delavan, Wis.; (city home) 1020 N. Second St. Office: Insurance Exchange Bldg., Rockford, Ill.

NAUTA, Prof. DOEDE, Dutch Church Historian; born Apr. 11, 1898, Feerwerd (Gr.), The Netherlands; son of Ties and Jantje (Werkema) Nauta; educated at Free Univ. of Amsterdam, Theological Faculty, 1917, D.D. (with honors, 1935); married Jeltje Sijtsma, May 20, 1927; six children. Curate, Reformed Church, Alphenad Rijn, 1922; Minister, Reformed Church, Woubrugge, 1927; Prof. of Church History and Church Policy, Free Univ. of Amsterdam, since 1936. Member, Historical Soc. Author: Samuel Maresius, 1935; De Nederlandsche Gereformeerden en het Independentisme in de zeventiende eeuw, 1936; De Statenvertaling, 1637-1937, 1937; Geochiedenisder Kerk, 1941; also articles in various Dutch journals. Address: Vondelstraat 182, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

NAVAI, GHADIMY, Iranian Diplomat; born July 25, 1897, Teheran, Persia; son of Ghadimy-Naval; educated at Univ. of Paris, Doctor of Law and Doctor of Political Sciences; married Madeleine Maujean, 1923 (deceased); one son—Kian. Attaché at the Legation in Paris, 1918; 3rd Secretary of Legation, 1920. Appointed Director, Persian League of National Office at Geneva, 1926; Director of Section of the League of Nations at the Ministry of Foreign Office, Teheran, 1929; Chargé d'Affaires at Stockholm, where he established first Legation, 1932; Consul General at New York, where he organized the first Consulate General, 1934; Consul in Prague and Chargé d'Affaires at Berne, 1936. 1937; Director in Teheran, 1938; Chargé d'Affaires with rank of Minister at Berne, Switzerland, since 1940. Author: The Finances of Persia. Residence: Iranian Legation, Helvetiastrasse 39, Berne, Switzerland.

NAVARRO-BORRAS, Dr. FRANCISCO, Spanish Scientist; born Jan. 30, 1905, Spain; son of Francisco Navarro and Francisca Borras de Navarro; educated at Universities of Zaragoza, Barcelona (Licentiate in Natural Science, 1927) and Madrid (Dr. in Natural Science, 1929; Arch. 1931); married (1st) Mercedes Roncal, Dec. 6, 1930; (2nd) Manuela Suner, Mar. 26, 1942; eight children by both marriages. Assistant Professor, University of Barcelona, 1927; became Ordinary Professor in Madrid, 1930, and has been Professor in the Schools of Aerotechnics and Architecture. Chief Architect, Ministry of National Education, 1941; Dean of Faculty of Sciences of Madrid, 1942. Director, Instituto Jorge Juan de Matemáticas, since 1942. Served on Administrative Council of S.A.E.T.A., Banco Inmobiliario de Marruecos. Vice-President, Sociedad Matemática Española, Asociación Española para el Progreso de las Ciencias; Director, Revista Matemática Hispano-Americana. Member: Royal Academy of Sciences of Madrid; (Correspondent) Hispano-American Academy of Sciences and Arts of Cadiz and of Royal Academy of Sciences and Arts of Barcelona. Author of technical courses in mathematics, mathematical analysis, applied mathematics and the theory of integral equations. Address: Calle de Espalter No. 15, Madrid, Spain.

NAVARRO, FRANCISCO, Nicaraguan Minister of Agriculture and Labor; born July 27, 1895, Managua, Nicaragua; son of Julian Navarro and María Dolores Alvarado; married Lucia Richardson, June 17, 1914; seven children. Elected to Senate, 1936; Vice-Pres. of the Republic of Nicaragua, 1937; re-elected to Senate, 1947; now Minister of Agriculture and Labor. Member of the Board, National Bank of Nicaragua. Residence: Matagalpa, Nicaragua. Office: Palacio Nacional, Managua D. N., Nicaragua.

NAVARRO TAILLACQ, Dr. JORGE, Cuban Educator; born May 12, 1888, Cienfuegos, Cuba; son of Federico Navarro and Angela Taillacq; educated at Jesuits School in Cienfuegos, 1896-1905; University of Havana, degrees in Civil Engineering, Agronomy and a Doctorate of Science, 1905-11. Agronomical Engineer, 1910; Assistant Professor of School of Sciences, University of Havana, 1908-11. Chief of Projects, Ministry of Agriculture, 1911-12; Professor and Director, Granja Escuela de Matanzas, 1912-14; Professor, Granja Escuela de Pinar del Rio, 1914-15; Professor of Sciences and Agriculture at Normal College, Havana; Associate Professor of Agronomy, University of Havana, 1916; Titular Professor of Microbiology, Agriculture and Pathological Vegetation, 1920-43; Dean, School of Sciences and Letters, University of Havana, 1933-35; General Director, Industries of the Ministry of Agriculture, 1935-36; Dean, School of Agronomy, University of Havana, 1936-39. Author: Técnica General Microbiológica, 1918; Ejercicios de Microbiología Agrícola, 1920; Fitopatología Tropical, 1920. Residence: Steinhart No. 7. Office: Quinta de los Molinos, Carlos III, Havana, Cuba.

NAVARRO y ENRÍQUEZ, JOSÉ GABRIEL, Ecuadorean Art Historian; born Dec. 3, 1883, Quito, Ecuador; son of Rafael Navarro and Joaquina Enríquez de N.; educated at Colegio Seminario de San Luis, Licentiate in Jurisprudence, 1905, law degree, 1908; married Eugenia Mera, 1911; (2nd) María Cecilia Lynn, May 7, 1945. Under-Secretary of the Senate, 1909-10; appointed Director, Escuela Nacional de Bellas Artes, 1911; Professor of History, Institutos Normales of Quito, 1926; Consul-General in Madrid, 1928. Appointed Professor of History of Hispano-American Art in the University of Seville, 1930; Member of the Congress of Spanish Municipalities in Valencia, 1931; Professor of History, Faculty of Letters of the University of Quito, 1931; appointed to the Consulting Board to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1933; became Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1934. Professor, History of American Art, in Panama, 1936; in Chile, 1937; in Uruguay, 1938. Organized and became Director, Instituto de Pedagogía, 1939; appointed Director of Boundaries for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1940. Presidential Adviser, Boundary Commission with Peru, 1942. Ambassador, Special Mission to Brazil, 1947. Decorated by various foreign governments. Author: Curiosa Ordenación Arquitectónica en el Convento de San Agustín de Quito, 1928; La Escultura en el Ecuador durante los Siglos XVI al XVIII (honored by many important Spanish groups, 1938); La Iglesia de la Compañía en Quito, 1929; Un Pintor Quiteño y un Cuadro Admirable en el Museo Arqueológico de Madrid, 1929; La Medicina y los Médicos en Quito durante la Época Virreinal, 1930; La Descendencia de Atahualpa, 1930; Arte de Hacer el Estuco en el Siglo XVIII, 1932; Artes Plásticas Ecuatorianas, 1946, etc. Address: Avenida Doce de Octubre, 1568, P.O. Box 282, Quito, Ecuador.

NAVARRO, NICOLÁS E., Titular Bishop of Usula; Vicar General of Archbishopric of Caracas, Venezuela; born Nov. 14, 1867, Valle del Espiritu Santo, Isla de Margarita; son of Domingo Navarro Rojas and Consolación Ortega de Navarro; educated in Porlamar and Carupano; Escuela de Francisco Manuel González and Colegio Santa Rosa; Colegio Nacional de Cumana, Ph.B. 1884; ecclesiastical studies at Escuela Episcopal in Caracas, and Universidad Central, D.D. 1890. Ordained Priest, 1890. Curate at Macuto, 1891-92; Maiquetia, 1892-93, and Santa Rosalia, 1897-1904 (all in diocese of Caracas). Chaplain in the Internado de las Hermanas de San José de Tarbes, 1893-97. With the Catholic daily paper, "La Religión," 1893-95; later Editor and collaborator; Director, 1901-16. Recording Secretary of the Concilio Plenario de la América Latina, 1899. Administrator of the Seminario de Caracas since 1902; Rector, 1905-16; also taught Dogmatic Moral Theology, Holy Scripture, Philosophy and the Humanities. Assisted in organization of new teaching methods and was appointed Member of Consejo Nacional de Instrucción, 1914; re-elected twice, and during last period became President of Council. President, Facultad de Ciencias Eclesiásticas, Seminario de Caracas, and Member, Consejo Universitario de la Universidad Central de Venezuela; also Dean of the Faculty. Received Medalla de Honor de la Instrucción Pública, 1920. Secretary, Episcopal Conferences in Caracas, 1904. Received title of Apostolic Prothonotary, 1912; nominated Dean of the Chapter of Caracas, 1913. Secretary, Episcopal Confs. in Caracas, 1923, 1928, 1934. Apostolic Visitor for all Seminaries of the Republic of Venezuela, 1933. Titular Bishop of Usula since 1943. Charter Member, Academia Nacional de la Historia (Director); Academia de Ciencias Políticas y Sociales (former Vice-President); Academia Venezolana Correspondiente de la Real Española de la Lengua; Sociedad Bolivariana de Venezuela (President, 1942; Vice-President, 1941); Hon. Member, Sociedad Boliviana del Perú. Member: Sociedad Benéfica "Industriales del Mercado," Caracas; Sociedad Bolivariana de Costa Rica, San José; Academia Nacional de Historia de Colombia, Bogotá, etc. Honors: Commander of Orden de Boyaca (Colombia); Orden del Libertador (Venezuela); Orden de Vasco Núñez de Balboa (Panama); Orden de El Sol del Perú. Author of more than eighty books and pamphlets on asceticism, catechetics, worship, devotion, liturgy, history, polemics, Catholic propaganda, etc., also of numerous articles. Address: Av. E.N. 15, Caracas, Venezuela.

NAVARRO, Dr. TOMÁS, Spanish Philologist; born April 12, 1884, La Roda, Albacete, Spain; son of Juan Navarro and Joaquina Tomás de Navarro; educated at Instituto de Segunda Enseñanza de Alicante, B.A. equivalent, 1899; Universidad de Madrid, M.A. equivalent, 1903, Ph.D. 1905. Officer, Historical Archives of Madrid. Professor of Phonetics at the Centro de Estudios Históricos de Madrid, 1914-36; Managing Editor, Revista de Filología Española, 1914-24; Visiting Professor at Stanford University, 1927, and at University of Puerto Rico, 1928. Professor, Spanish Phonetics, Universidad de Madrid, 1930-36; Director, Biblioteca Nacional de Madrid, 1936-38. Professor of Spanish Philology, Columbia University, since 1939. Director of Publications, Hispanic Institute of New York. Awarded Ph.D. (honoris causa), Middlebury College, 1940. Member of Spanish Academy. Author: Manual de Pronunciación española (1918); Pronunciación guipuzcoana—contribución al estudio de la fonética vasca (1925); El acento castellano (1935); Cuestionario lingüístico hispanoamericano (1943): Manual de entonación española (1944); Estudios de Fonología Española (1946). Address: Columbia University (Philosophy Hall), New York, New York.

NAVASWAT, Rear Admiral THAWAN DHAMRONG, Siamese Naval Officer, Statesman. Succeeded Nai Pridi Phanomjong as Prime Minister of Siam, 1946—; was candidate of coalition of the Cooperative Party and Constitutional Front Party. Address: Bangkok, Siam.

NAVILLE, Prof. FRANÇOIS, Swiss Professor of Legal Medicine; born June 14, 1883; educated at Univs. of Geneva, Berne, Paris, Heidelberg and Würzburg, M.D. Physician, Geneva Hospital; Prof., Inst. of Pedagogical Sciences. Prof., Univ. of Geneva; Prof. of Legal Medicine, since 1929. Pres., Psychiatric Council. Ex-Pres., Swiss Neurological Soc.; Med. Soc. of Geneva. Member: French Soc. of Legal Medicine; Soc. of Neurology, Paris; Soc. of Psychiatry, Paris; Internatl. Inst. of Criminology and Legal Medicine. Contributor to medical literature. Address: Champel, Geneva, Switzerland.

NAVILLE, ROBERT, Swiss Engineer; born Feb. 10, 1884, Geneva, Switzerland; educated at Gymnasium, Zurich; Federal Inst. of Technology, Zurich; Engineer (Zurich), 1907; married Emy Vogel, 1909; three children. Began career with paper factory, Reisholz; Director and Member of Board, Paper Factory Cham A.G., Cham, since 1912. Pres., A.G. für Unternehmungen der Papierindustrie, St. Moritz. Member, Cantonal Council, Zug, 1914-42; Pres., two terms. Member, National Council, 1920-22. Pres., Soc. of Swiss Paper Manufacturers, 1932-37 and since 1945. Member, Board, Aluminium Industrie A.G. Address: Cham (Zug), Switzerland.

NAWANAGAR, Maharaja Jam Saheb of, Col. H. H. Maharaja Jam Shri Sir DIGVIJAYSINHJI RANJITSINHJI JADEJA, G.C.I.E., K.C.S.I.; Hon. A.D.C. to the King since 1936; born Sept. 1, 1895; married daughter of H. H. Maharao of Sirohi, 1935; educated at Rajkumar College, Rajkot; Malvern College; London Univ. Joined Indian Army, 1918; saw active service in Egypt and N.W.F.P.; held King's Commission for over 12 years. Chancellor of Chamber of Princes for 7 years; Representative, British War Cabinet and Pacific War

Council, 1942-43. Address: Nawanagar, W. India.

NAWAZ, Begum JAHAN ARA SHAH, Indian Political Leader; born Baghbanpura, Lahore Dist., Apr. 7, 1896; daughter of Sir Mian Mohd Shafi and Amir-un-Nisa; educated at Queen Mary's College, Lahore; married Mian Mohd Shah Nawaz, Apr. 14, 1911; three children. Secretary to her father at the Imperial Conference, London, 1930. Delegate to the First (1930) and Second (1931) Round Table Conferences, London; only woman delegate to the Joint Select Committee in London, 1933; representative of Government of India to the International Labour Conference, Geneva, 1935. Parliamentary Secretary for Education, Public Health and Medical Relief to the Punjab Government since 1937; Secretary, Punjab Unionist Party. Member, Council of the All-India Muslim League, since 1931. President, Central Punjab branch of the All India Women's Conference, since 1937; President, Punjab Muslim Women's League; Convener, Punjab Group of the National Planning Com., 1939. Unofficial Delegate, United Nations General Assembly, 1946, representing all Moslem women of India. Residence: 53 Lawrence Road, Lahore. Office: Civil Secretariat, Lahore, India.

NAYLOR, ALBERT E., Canadian Financier; born Jan. 23, 1895, Chatham, Ont., Canada; son of Harry P. and Jane W. (Sheldrick) Naylor; educated at Province of Manitoba Public Schools; married Edith F. McDonald, Sept. 5, 1922; two children. Sales clerk, Ford Motor Co. of Canada, 1913; Asst. Branch Sales Manager, 1921. With Traders Finance Corp. Ltd., Winnipeg, since 1921; Asst. to Pres., 1930; General Manager, 1934; Pres. and General Manager, since 1943. Pres.: Canadian General Insurance Co.; Toronto General Insurance Co.; Victoria Motors Ltd. Vice-Pres.: Canadian Insurance Shares Ltd.; Canadian General Securities Ltd. Partner, D. E. Stewart & Co. Members of Montreal Stock Exchange). Director: Third Canadian General Investment Trust Ltd.; Silverwood Dairies (Western) Ltd. Flying Officer, R.F.C. and R.C.A.F., World War I; with Dept. of Munitions and Supply, Ottawa, also War Productions Board, Ottawa, World War II. O.B.E., 1946. Residence: 77 Baby Point Rd. Office: 320 Bay St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

NAYLOR, NORMAN CHARLES, American Manufacturer; born June 3, 1881, Rochester, N. Y.; son of J. William and Arabella Elizabeth (Price) Naylor; educated in public schools; married Jean Florence Lightner, Nov. 22, 1905. Stenographer with McKee Fuller Co., 1895-1904; salesman with Railway Steel-Spring Co., 1904-16. Sales Agent in Charge, Chicago Office, 1916-26. When company was absorbed by American Locomotive Co., became District Sales Manager, and elected Vice-Pres. in Charge of Western Business, 1930 and Director, 1938; Vice-Pres., directing sales of all Divisions, since 1947. Pres., Railway Supply Mfrs. Assn. Residence: 299 Park Ave., New York. Office: 30 Church St., New York, New York.

NAYLOR, RUTH WINIFRED, Australian Operatic Soprano; born Adelaide, South Australia; daughter of John William and Eliza Caroline (Hawkes) Naylor; educated at University Conservatorium, Adelaide; A.M., University of Adelaide (Associate of Music). Sang (International Seasons) at Covent Garden, Royal Opera, London; later Sadler's Wells Opera and Royal Carl Rosa Opera, London; Strand Theatre, 1942 and Palace Theatre, London, 1945-46. Address: 65 Hamilton Terrace, St. John's Wod, London, N.W. 8, England.

NAZAR ANCHORENA, BENITO A., Argentine Jurist; born Nov. 21, 1884, Buenos Aires, Argentina. Secy. to the Federal Justice of Capital, 1910; appointed Prosecuting Attorney, 1913; Prof. and Dean, Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences, Natl. Univ. of La Plata, 1917 and 1920; Pres. of Univ., 1921-27. Appointed to Bench of the Federal Chamber of Appellations, 1919; Minister, Supreme Court of Justice, 1934-1946. Address: Ministerio de la Corte Suprema de Justicia, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NAZAROV, Prof. IVAN NIKOLAEVICH, Soviet Chemist. A pupil of the late Prof. A. Favorsky. Known for work as a pioneer in the production of carbinol glue (used extensively for war repairs). Awarded: Order of Red Banner, 1944; Stalin Prize, 1st class "for research on acetylene," 1946. Address: Branch of Chemical Sciences, Academy of Sciences of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NAZIMUDIN, The Hon. Sir KHWAJA, K.C.I.E., Indian Political Leader; born July, 1894; educated at Algirah and Cambridge (Trinity College). Chairman of Dacca Municipal Council, 1922-29; Member of Executive Council of Dacca University, 1924-29. Member of Executive Council, Government of Bengal, 1934-37; Minister of Education, 1929-34; Minister for Home Affairs, 1937-43; Chief Minister since 1943. Address: 7 Hungerford St., Calcutta, India.

NEAGLE, ANNA (Marjorie Robertson), British Actress; born Oct. 20, 1908, Forestgate, Essex, England; married Herbert Wilcox. Began career as dancer on London stage. Films include: The Little Damozel; Bitter Sweet; Nell Gwynn; Peg of Old Drury; The Three Maxims; Victoria The Great; Nurse Edith Cavell; Sunny; Yellow Canary; Yank in London; Forever and a Day, etc. Winner of 2nd Prize, British Best Actors and Actresses Poll, 1947. Address: c/o RKO-Radio Studios, Hollywood, Calif.

NEAL, ALFRED GORMAN, American Utilities Executive; born August 22, 1886, Upper Marlboro, Md.; son of John T. and Mary S. (Robinson) Neal; educated at elementary school (Md.); public school, Baltimore, Md.; McDonogh School (Md.); married Louise Cook Clayton, Feb. 22, 1945. With National Biscuit Co., 1903-17, mostly as Traveling Auditor and finally as Asst. General Auditor; became Junior Officer of Washington Railway and Electric Co's system, which includes Potomac Electric Power Co., 1918; President, Potomac Electric Power Co., since 1939. Director of North American Co., Capital Transit Co., and Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Co. Director, D. C. Chapter, American Red Cross, Washington Board of Trade, Community War Fund. Residence: 3726 Military Rd., N. W. Office: 10th & E Sts., N.W., Washington 4, D. C.

NEAL, Rear Admiral GEORGE FRANKLIN, Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy (retired); born May 2, 1879, Rhea Springs, Tenn.; son of John Randolph and Mary E. C. (Brown) Neal; educated at Univ. of Tennessee, Naval Acad.; LL.D., Neal School of Law; married Mattie Milton, Jan. 5, 1910; two children. Midshipman, 1897, passed through all grades to rank of Rear Admiral, 1934. Ships: Monongahela; Chesapeake; Newport; Kearsarge; Leyden; Castine; Cincinnati; Cheyenne; South Carolina; North Carolina; Navajo; Mississippi; Ramapo; Pennsylvania; California; Seattle; Texas; Cummins; Stewart; Dorsey; New York. Commanded: Mine Force, U. S. Fleet; Head of Dept., Electrical Engineering and Physics, Naval Acad.; Aid to Secy. of Navy; commanded Naval Training Station Hingham; with War College; Pres., West Coast Board of Inspection and Survey; Pres., Naval Court Martial, 12th District; commanded Cumming and Dorsey, Queenstown, during World War I. Awarded: Distinguished Service Order of Great Britain; Navy Cross, Spanish American War. Address: 830 Adella, Coronado, Calif.

NEAL, HAROLD, Member of British Parliament; born July 23, 1895, Langley Mill, England; son of Joseph and Caroline (Holliss) Neal; educated at Nottingham University College; married Daisy Dallison, Apr. 1938; three children. Coal miner, 1908; held official posts in Miners Trade Union in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire coal fields; subsequently became Vice-President, Derbyshire Miners' Assn. Member, Heanor Urban District Council, 1931-44; Chairman, 1938-39. First Miners' Parliamentary Representative for Clay Cross Division. Member of Labour Party. Address: "Anneslea," Langley Mill, Derbyshire, England.

NEAL, LAWRENCE (EDWARD), British Company Director; born Oct. 27, 1895, London, England; son of Eugene George and Evelyn Annie (Davey) Neal; educated at St. John's College, Oxford (scholar); married Jean Frances Guthrie-Smith, May 1, 1918; three children. Lieut., Wiltshire Regt., 1916-19. Joined Daniel Neal & Sons Ltd., 1920; Director and Secy., 1922; Managing Director, 1932; Chairman, since 1939. Member, Sea Fish Commn., 1933-35. First Vice-Chairman, Natl. Joint Industrial Council for England and Wales, for Drapery Outfitting & Footwear Group of Retail Distributive Trades; First Chairman, Employers' Side, 1941-42. Member, Retail Trade Com. of Board of Trade, 1941-42; Deputy Secy., Ministry of Town and Country Planning, 1942-46; Deputy Chairman, London Planning Administration Com. (appointed by Minister of Town and Country Planning), 1946. Author: Retailing and the Public, 1932. Residence: 5 Holland Villas Road, London, W. 14. Office: 3/7 Orchard Court, Portman Sq., London, W. 1, England.

NEAL, Dr. M(ARCUS) PINSON, American Pathologist; born Sept. 23, 1887, Heflin, Ala.; son of William Alexander and Ella Jane (Pinson) Neal; educated at Univ. of Ala., 1904-07; Univ. College of Med., Richmond, Va., M.D. 1912; married Mathilde Frances Evers, Apr. 25, 1917; one son. Asst. in Pathol., Bacteriol., Serol. and Clinical Pathol., Von Ruck Research Laboratory for Tuberculosis and at Winyah Sanatorium, Asheville, N. C., 1913-16; Instructor in Pathol. and Clinical Pathol., Northwestern Univ. Med. School, Chicago, 1916-20; Assoc. in Pathol., 1920; Asst. Bacteriol. (part time), Chicago Bd. of Health, 1916-17; Asst. Prof. of Pathol. and Bacteriol., Univ. of Iowa College of Med. and Dentistry, Iowa City, 1920-22. Prof. of Pathol. and Dir. of University Hosp. Laboratories, Univ. of Mo., Columbia, Mo., since 1922; Consultant in Pathol., Ellis Fischel Cancer Hosp. (Missouri). Diplomate of Amer. Bd. of Pathol. Member: Amer. Med. Assn. (Delegate, 1935, 1937); Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathols.; Mississippi Valley Med. Soc. (Pres. 1939; received Distinguished Service Award, 1940); Southern Med. Assn. (Chairman of Council, 1936; Pres. 1941); Amer. Soc. for Control of Cancer, etc. Author of numerous articles in various medical journals. 1st Lieut., Med. O.R.C., 1917-18; Capt., Med. Reserve, 1918-19; advanced to Major, Feb. 1919. Address: University of Missouri School of Medicine, Columbia, Missouri.

NEAL, Dr. PAUL A., U. S. Public Health Service Officer; born June 25, 1901, West Point, Tenn.; son of Paul Ardeen (M.D.) and Madge (Calloway) Neal; educated at Vanderbilt Univ., 1921-27, M.D.; married Beatrice Maude Whitaker, Sept. 29, 1932; two sons. With U. S. Marine Hospital: New Orleans, La., 1927-28; Mobile, Ala., 1928-29. Commissioned Officer, U. S. Public Health Service, assigned to various U. S. Consulates in Italy, France, Poland, Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Canada, Ireland, England, 1929-33; with Division of Industrial Hygiene, U.S.P.H.S., 1933-36; Chief, Industrial Hygiene Research Laboratory, National Inst. of Health, U. S. Public Health Service, 1936-47; Chief, Laboratory of Physical Biology, Natl. Inst of Health, U.S.P.H.S., with rank of Medical Director, 1947—. Author of numerous contributions to medical literature. Residence: 6601 River Road. Office: National Institute of Health, U. S. Public Health Service, Bethesda 14, Md.

NEAL, WILLIAM MERTON, Canadian Railway Executive; born June 20, 1886, Toronto, Ont., Canada; son of Merton William and Elizabeth (Holmes) O'Neil (name altered to Neal); educated at Wellesley School, Toronto, 1893-1901; married Frances Scott, Apr. 23, 1910; two children. Clerk, Superintendent's Office, Toronto, Canadian Pacific Railway Co., 1902; successively advanced; Assistant to Vice-Pres. of the Company, Montreal, 1924; General Manager of Western Lines, Winnipeg, 1927; Vice-Pres. of same, 1934; elected Vice-Pres. of the Company and a Director, Montreal, 1942; Member of Exec. Com., 1942; Chmn. and President of the Company, 1947-48. Called to Government Service during World War II as Canadian Representative on Transportation Equipment Com. of Combined Production and Resources Board of Canada, the United Kingdom and the U. S.; now Chmn. of similar committee with Ministry of Reconstruction. Elected Vice-Pres., United Air Service, 1941; Canadian Pacific Airlines, 1942; Pres. and Chief Exec. Officer of the latter, 1946; Chmn., 1947. Chmn.: Canadian Pacific Steamships and Associated Screen News. President: Canadian Australasian Line; Community Association. Alternately Pres. and Vice-Pres. of Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Ry., Northern Alberta Rys. and Vancouver Hotel Co. Director: Canadian Pacific Express Co.; Canadian Marconi Co., Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Ry.; Chateau Frontenac Co.; Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, Royal Exchange Assurance; Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. of Canada, Ltd.; New Brunswick Cold Storage Co. Member of Exec. Com., Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Montreal; Council Member, Montreal Bd. of Trade; Hon. President, Canadian Pacific Branch, Canadian Legion, Montreal; Hon. Vice-Pres., Montreal Boy Scouts Assn.; Chmn., St. John's Red Cross Joint Bd. of Management for Prov. of Quebec; Member, Bd. of Govs., Royal Victoria Hosp. Created Commander, Order of British Empire, 1944; Commander (Brother), Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, 1943. Residence: 1227 Sherbrooke St., W. Office: Windsor Station, Montreal, Que., Canada.

NEALE, Prof. JOHN ERNEST, British Historian; born Dec. 7, 1890, Liverpool, England; educated at Liverpool Univ., M.A.; University College, London; married Elfreda Skelton, 1932; one daughter. Asst. in History Dept., University College, London, 1919-25; Prof. of Modern History, Univ. of Manchester, 1925-27; Ford's Lecturer in English History, Oxford Univ., 1941-42. Astor Prof. of English History, Univ. of London, since 1927. Member, British Government Treasury

Com. on House of Commons Records, 1929. Trustee, London Museum, since 1945. Fellow, Royal Historical Soc. Member, Historical Assn. Author: Queen Elizabeth (awarded James Tait Black Memorial Prize), 1934; The Age of Catherine de Medici, 1943; also articles on Tudor history in The English Historical Review; History; Transactions of the Royal Historical Soc., and Tudor Studies. Address: University College, Gower St., London, W.C. 1, England.

NEALE, Prof. MERVIN GORDON, American Educator; born 1887. Prof. of School Administration, Univ. of Minnesota. Author: The Great Neck School Survey (with George D. Strayer), 1917; School Reports as a Means of Securing Additional Support for Education in American Cities, 1921; A School Building Program for the City of Winona, Minn. (with S. B. Severson), 1922; A School Building Program for the City of Duluth, Minn. (with S. B. Severson), 1922; Studies of Instruction in the Austin (Minn.) Public Schools, 1923; A School Building Program for Columbia, Mo., 1925; A School Building Program for Joplin, Mo., 1925; The University School of Education as an Institution for the Professional Training of Educational Workers, 1930. Address: University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

NEAMAN, PEARSON E., American Lawyer; born Nov. 29, 1903, Pittsburgh, Pa.; son of Harry I. and Sophia B. (Frankle) Neaman; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1924; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1927; married Annabel B. Neiman, Sept. 15, 1927; two children. Began as a law clerk, 1927; member of Battle, Levy, Fowler & Neaman, since 1932. Vice-President and Secretary, Freeport Sulphur Co. and Nicaro Nickel Co. Member: Bar Assn. of the City of New York; New York County Lawyers Assn. Residence: 1200 Fifth Ave. Office: 30 Broad St., New York 4, N. Y.

NEAME, Lt. Gen. Sir PHILIP, V.C., K.B.E., C.B., D.S.O., British Army Officer; born Dec. 12, 1888, Faversham, England; son of Frederick and Kathleen (Stunt) Neame; educated at Cheltenham College; Royal Military Acad.; married Berta Drew, April 12, 1934; four children. Lieut., 1908; Capt., 1914; Brevet Lt.-Col., 1919; Major, 1925; Colonel, 1926; Brigadier, 1934; Maj.-Gen., 1937; Lieut.-Gen. since 1940. During World War I, served as Adjutant with Royal Engineers, and was General Staff Officer of Division, Corps and Army, H.Q. Chief of Staff in Waziristan, India, 1932; Eastern Command, India, 1934-38; Commandant of Royal Military Academy, 1938-39; appointed Deputy Chief of Gen. Staff, B.E.F., France, 1939; Commander, 4th Indian Division of Middle East, Feb., 1940, General Officer, Commanding (Lt.-Gen.), Palestine, Trans-Jordan and Cyprus, Aug., 1940. Early in 1941 General Officer Commanding-in-Chief and Military Governor of Cyrenaica until Apr., 1941; became a prisoner of war; escaped from Italy in 1943 and returned to England. Lt. Governor of Guernsey, 1945—. Address: Government House, Guernsey, Channel Islands, U. K.

NEANDER, Dr. HERMAN, Swedish Clergyman; born Mar. 19, 1885, Finnerödja, Sweden; son of Jacob and Kristina (Eriksson) Neander; educated at University of Uppsala; Teologie Kandidat, 1909; Teologie licentiat, 1924; Honorary Doctor of Theology at University of Marburg-Lahn, Germany, 1925; married Hildur Andersson, September 20, 1913; two children. In Greece. Palestine and Russia studying the Greek Orthodox Church, 1910-11; Pastor in Ockelbo, Sweden, 1912-20; Rector of Estuna, Sweden, 1920-34; Rector of St. Staffan Cathedral, Gevle, since 1935. Delegate of Swedish Red Cross in Germany, Russia, Siberia and Japan among prisoners of war, 1915-18; worked in ecumenical movement as Secretary of Archbishop Nathan Söderblom and with Professor Rudolf Otto Marburg-Lahn, striving for cooperation among religions of the world, 1920-30, etc. Delegate: Second Parliament of Religions, Chicago World's Fair, 1933; World Congress of Faiths' Conference, London, 1946. Honors: Royal Swedish Vasa Order; Greek Order of the Saviour; Swedish Red Cross Sign of Merit; German Red Cross and Austro-Hungarian Red Cross Sign of Merit. Author: Among Prisoners of War, 1915; Among Prisoners of War in Russia, Siberia and Japan, 1920; The Thinker of Jasnaja Poljana (Leo Tolstoi), 1928; The Churches of the Orient and the Ecumenical Thought, 1926; Twenty Years With Nathan Söderblom, 1931. Address: Islandsplan 1, Gevle, Sweden.

NEARING, Dr. SCOTT, American Economist; born Aug. 6, 1883, Morris Run, Pa.; son of Louis and Minnie (Zabriskie) Nearing; educated at Temple Univ., B.A. 1905; Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.Sc. 1905, Ph.D. 1909; married Nellie M. Seeds, June 20, 1908; two sons. Instructor, Temple Univ., 1903; Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1906-14; Asst. Prof. in Economics, 1914-15; Instructor, Swarthmore College, 1909-13; Prof., Social Science and Dean of College of Arts and Sciences, Toledo Univ., 1916-17; Secy. of Pennsylvania Child Labor Com., 1904-06. Member, Amer. Sociological Soc. Author: Income, 1912; American Empire, 1920; Next Stop, 1921; Twilight of Empire, 1929; Must We Starve? 1932; Fascism, 1933; United World, 1944; Democracy is not Enough, 1945. Tragedy of Empire, 1946. Address: Jamaica, Vt.

NEAVE, Dr. SHEFFIELD AIREY, British Zoologist; born April 20, 1879, Dunstable, Bedfordshire, England; son of Sheffield H. M. and Gertrude Talbot (Airey) Neave; educated at Eton College, 1892-98; Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1902; M.A., B.Sc. 1906, D.Sc. 1918; married Dorothy Middleton (dec.) 1916; five children. Entomologist, 1903; Naturalist, Geodetic Survey of Northern Rhodesia, 1904-06; Entomologist, Katanga Med. Comn., 1906-09; Entomologist, Entomological Research Committee (Tropical Africa), 1909-14. Assistant Director, Imperial Institute of Entomology, 1914-42; Director, 1942-46. Secretary, Zoological Soc. of London, 1946—. Hon. Secretary, Association of Economic Biologists, 1917-21 and Royal Entomological Society of London, 1919-33; President, Royal Entomological Society of London, 1933-34; Chairman, World List of Scientific Periodicals, since 1936; Hon. Secretary, Zoological Society of London since 1942. Fellow of Zoological Soc. of London; Royal Entomological Soc.; Royal Geographical Soc.; Royal Horticultural Soc. and Royal Philatelic Soc. of London. Hon. Member, Cercle Zoologique Congolais. Created Companion of St. Michael and St. George; Officer of British Empire. Interested in agriculture, horticulture and philately. Clubs: Athenaeum, Oxford and Cambridge. Author of papers on Fauna of Africa and medical entomology, 1906-18; A Summary of Data relating to Economic Entomology in the British Empire, 1930; The History of the Entomological Society of London, 1933; Nomenclator Zoologicus, 1758-1935, 4 vols., 1939-40. Editor, Review of Applied Entomology, 1914-46. Residence: Mill Green Park, Ingatestone, Essex. Office: Royal Zoological Society of London, Regent's Park, London, N.W. 8, England.

NEBLETT, Hon. COLIN, United States District Judge; born July 6, 1875, Brunswick County, Virginia; son of Norman M. and Fannie (Matthews) Neblett; educated at Washington & Lee University, LL.B. 1897; married (2nd) Adelaide Lamb, June 16, 1943; one daughter. Began career as a lawyer, 1897. Member, New Mexico Territorial Legislature, 1905; County School Superintendent, Grant County, New Mexico, 1906-11; Judge, 6th Judicial District of New Mexico, 1912-16. U. S. District Judge, New Mexico, since 1917. Office: Federal Bldg., Santa Fe, New Mexico.

NECHKINA, Prof. M. V., Soviet Historian. Awarded degree of Doctor of Historical Sciences. Professor at Institute of History, Academy of Sciences of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Moscow. Nominated for Deputy in general elections, 1948. Address: Faculty of History, University of Moscow, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NECKER, Dr. WILHELM (FRIEDRICH LUDWIG OTTO), German Author and Journalist; born Apr. 21, 1897, Dortmund, Germany; son of Wilhelm and Caroline (Schneider) Necker; educated at Univ. of Frankfurt, Dr.rer.pol. 1920; married Katherine Strober; four children. Legal and Financial Adviser, Trade Union of Railwaymen, Berlin, 1921; Economic Adviser, State Bank Thuringia, 1923-24; Manager, Bauhaus, Weimar, 1924-25; Sub-Editor, Börsencourier, Berlin, 1926-29; Chief-Editor, Wirtschaftlicher Ratgeber, Berlin, 1929-30; with Office for Financial Advice, Berlin, 1920-33; journalist and author in Czechoslovakia and England, 1933-46; General Manager, DANA News Agency, Bad Nauheim, since 1946; Military Correspondent, Die Zeitung, London, 1941-44. Served with U. S. Office of Strategic Services in England, France, Belgium and Germany, 1944-45. Member, German Anti-Nazi Section, Pen Club, London. Author: Commentaries to laws of railwaymen and civil servants, 1921-22; Nazi Germany Can't Win, 1939 (3rd ed.); This Bewildering War, 1940; Hitler's War Machine, 1941; The German Army of To-day, 1942; Invasion Tactics, 1944; Der Neue Anfang, 1946; Es War Doch So Schön, 1947; Die Bewegung (novel), 1947. Wrote chapters in I Was Lucky to Escape, 1940; In Tyrannos, 1944. Contributor, Evening Standard, Daily Mail, Reynolds News, etc. Address: DANA News Agency, Auguste-Victoria St., Bad Nauheim, Hesse, Germany.

NEE, THOMAS GEORGE, American Industrialist; born March 5, 1879, Fort Atkinson, Wis.; son of David and Mary (Griffin) Nee; graduate of University of Wisconsin. Began career with Chicago Telephone Co., 1900. Assistant General Manager of Mexican Telephone and Telegraph Co., 1905-08; Chief Engineer, 1908-11; Chief Engineer and Vice-President, 1911-17. Vice-President of Allied Machinery Co. of America, 1918-26, and in same period served as President of Horne Co., Ltd. in Japan. President and a Director of Acme Wire Co. since 1928; now Chmn. of Bd. Director: New Haven Gas Light Co.; United Illuminating Co. Residence: 221 Church St. Office: 1255 Dixwell Ave., New Haven, Conn.

NEEDHAM, DANIEL, American Lawyer; born Feb. 5, 1891, Groton, Mass.; son of Daniel and Ellen Mary (Brigham) Needham; educated at Phillips Academy (Andover, Mass.); Harvard University, A.B 1913; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1916; married Frances Sarah Topping, Apr. 27, 1921; two children. Began law career, 1917. Member, firm of Sherburne, Powers & Needham, since 1919. Commissioner of Public Safety for Massachusetts, 1933-34 Member, Massachusetts Board of Probation, 1938-44. Director, Protection Division, Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety from 1940. Director: National Fireworks, Inc.; American Fireworks of Massachusetts; Clark-Babbitt Industries, Inc.; Hiram Ricker & Sons; Howard Johnson Co.; Samson United Corporation; Doten-Dunton Desk Co. Past-President, National Guard Assn. of Massachusetts; Army & Navy Club of Boston, 1932-35; Society of Sons of Revolution, 1937-40; Scoutlanc, Inc., 1938-40. Member, Committee on National Defense, American Bar Assn. Member, American, Boston and Massachusetts Bar Assns. Recipient of two citations for bravery, July, 1918, World War I; medal for 1933 given by U. S. Flag Assn. for greatest contribution to law enforcement and suppression of crime. During World War I, served as 1st Lieut., Capt., 26th Div., 1917-18. Major General, 26th Div., Mass. National Guard, 1934-39. Residence: 343 Highland St., West Newton, Mass. Office: 75 Federal St., Boston, Mass.

NEEDHAM, Dr. JAMES GEORGE, American Entomologist; born Mar. 18, 1869, on a farm near Virginia, Ill.; son of John and Barbara (Cooper) Needham; educated at Knox College, B.S. 1891, M.S. 1893, Litt.D. 1921; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1898; Lake Forest College, Sc.D. 1930; married Anna Belle Taylor, July 26, 1894; four children. Instructor in Biology, Knox College, 1895-96. Prof. of Biology, Lake Forest College, 1898-1907; Asst. Prof. of Limnology, Cornell Univ., 1907-11; Prof. of Entomology and Limnology, 1911-36. Ex-Vice-Pres., Ecological Soc. of America; Pres. of Limnological Soc. of America; Pres. of the Okefinikee Soc.; Hon. Member, Entomological Soc. of China, etc. Author: Elementary Lessons in Zoology, 1895; Outdoor Studies, 1898; General Biology, 1909; Natural History of the Farm, 1913; (with J. T. Lloyd) Life of Inland Waters, 1915; (with P. W. Claassen) A Monograph on the Plecoptera of North America, 1925; Guide to the Study of Fresh-Water Biology (with P. R. Needham), 1928; (with Frost and Tothill) Leaf-Mining Insects, 1928; Elementary Lessons on Insects, 1928; A Handbook of the Dragonflies of North America (with H. B. Heywood), 1929; A Manual of the Dragonflies of China, 1929; The Animal World, 1930; A Survey Course in General Biology, 1932; The Biology of Mayflies (with Traver and Hsu), 1935; Culture Methods for Invertebrate Animals (with others), 1937; About Ourselves: A Survey of Human Nature from the Zoological Viewpoint, 1941. Address: 6 Needham Place, Ithaca, N. Y.

NEEDHAM, JOSEPH, Sc.D., F.R.S., British Biochemist; born December 9, 1900, London, England; son of Joseph and Alicia A. Needham; educated at Oundle School; married Dorothy Mary Moyle, 1924. Benn Levy Student in Biochemistry, Univ. of Cambridge, 1922-24; Fellow, Gonville and Caius College since 1924. Univ. Demonstrator in Biochemistry, Cambridge, 1928-33; Visiting Prof. of Biochemistry, Stanford Univ., Calif., 1929; Terry and Carmalt Lecturer, Yale Univ.; Goldwyn-Smith Lecturer, Cornell Univ.; Mead Swing Lecturer, Oberlin College, Ohio, 1935; Oliver Sharpey Lecturer, Royal College of Physicians, London, 1935-36; Herbert Spencer Lecturer, Oxford Univ., 1936-37; Lecturer for Polskie Towarzystwo Biologicznej, Univs. of Warsaw, Lwow, Krakow and Wilno, 1937; Comte Memorial Lecturer, London, 1940; Schiff Lecturer, Cornell Univ., 1940. Sir William Dunn Reader in Biochemistry, Univ. of Cambridge, since 1933; Head, British Scientific Mission in China and Counsellor of the British Embassy, Chungking, 1942-46; now Head, Division of Natural Sciences, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), Paris. Member: Editorial Coms. of Biological Reviews; Gorwth; Revue Canadienne de Biologie; Modern Quarterly; Science and Soc.; Chinese Natl. Acad. (Foreign); Natl. Acad. of Peiping; Société de Biologie de France (Corresponding); Société Philomathique de Paris. Thurston Medallist, Caius College, 1934. Publications; Science, Religion and Reality (edited), 1925; Man a Machine, 1927; The Sceptical Biologist (10 essays), 1929; Chemical Embryology (3 vols.), 1931; The Great Amphibium, 1932; A History of Embryology, 1935; Order and Life, 1935; Christianity and the Social Revolution (edited), 1935; Adventures before Birth (translated), 1936; Perspectives in Biochemistry (edited), 1937; Background to Modern Science (edited), 1938; Biochemistry and Morphogenesis, 1942; Time, the Refreshing River, 1942; History is On Our Side, 1945; The Teacher of Nations (edited), 1942; Science in the Soviet Union (edited), 1942; Chinese Science (photographs), 1946; Science Outpost, 1946; Chart to Illustrate History of Physiology and Biochemistry, 1926. Address: (permanent) Caius College, Cambridge, England; (temporary) UNESCO House, 19 Ave. Kléber, Paris XVIe, France.

NEEF, Dr. FREDERICK MIL, American Surgeon; born July 11, 1872, Springfield, Ill.; son of Emil and Caroline (Armbruster) Neef; educated at Univ. of Notre Dame, B.Sc. 1892, B.Litt. 1893, M.Litt. 1895; Columbia Univ., M.D. 1904; studied abroad, 1895-1900; married Kathryn M. E. Brandt, Oct. 11, 1912; four chidlren. Chief of Anesthesia Dept., German (Lenox Hill) Hosp., 1907; began work in First Surg. Clinic of this hospital where later became Chief of Clinic. He was Junior Surgeon of Lincoln Hosp., and on Teaching Staff in Gynecol., Fordham Univ. School of Med., later Instructor, Lecturer, Prof. of Gynecol., and Dean of Dept. of Obstet. and Gynecol. (1907-20). He was Attending Surgeon, St. Elizabeth's Hosp.; Attending Surgeon, later Attending Gynecol., Misericordia Hosp.; Attending Surgeon, N. Y. Cancer Inst., in charge of Div. of Women from 1923 to 1929; Pres. of Med. Bd., Misericordia Hosp., 1936-39. Now Director of Gynecol. at Misericordia Hosp.; Consulting Gynecol., Lenox Hill Dispensary, Rockaway Beach Hosp., and St. Francis Hosp. Fellow of Amer. College of Surgeons. Author: Practical Points in Anesthesia, 1908; Guiding Principles in Surgical Practice, 1914; Textbook on Surgical Nursing, 1933; also numerous monographs on cancer. Res.: 28 Sage Terrace, Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 133 W. 72nd St., New York, N. Y.

NÉEL, Prof. LOUIS, French Physicist; born Nov. 22, 1904, Lyon, France; son of Louis and Marie (Hartmayer) Néel; educated at Ecole Normale Supérieure; Univ. of Strasbourg, Sc.D.; married Hélène Hourticq, Sept. 15, 1931. Asst.. Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Strasbourg; Lecturer, 1932-38; Prof., 1938-45; Prof., Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Grenoble since 1945. Director, Laboratoire d'Electrostatique et de Physique du Métal, Grenoble; Laboratoire des Essais Mécaniques et physiques, Inst. of Polytechnics, Grenoble. Member: French Physical Soc.; French Soc. of Electricians. Created Knight, Legion of Honor; received Croix de Guerre. Address: Institut Fourier, Place du Doyen Gosse, Grenoble, France.

NEELANDS, A. R., M.C., B.A., M.E., British Engineer; born 1881, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada; son of James Adam and Jane Oliphant (Butchart) Neelands; educated at Manitoba Univ., 1904; Toronto Univ., 1906; married Kathleen Agnew, 1919; three children. Mining engineer, 1906; student with British Columbia Copper Co.; Surveyor Student, Canadian Pacific Railway; engaged in government survey, Dominion of Canada, 1910-15. 1st Lieut., Capt. and Co. Commander, Canadian Engineers, 1915-19. Engineer: The Mexican Corp., 1919; Persian Mining Syndicate, 1920; with François Cementation Co., since 1921 (now Cementation Co. Ltd.), Managing Director, and Director of subsidiary and associated corporations in England and overseas. Director: Howkwod Estate, Ltd.; John Thom, Ltd.; Quickset Water Sealers, Ltd.; Les Travaux Souterrains, Paris; Cía. Española de Cementaciones y Sondeos, Madrid. Member: Royal Soc. of Arts; Inst. of Mining and Metallurgy; Inst. of Structural Engineers; Inst. of Industrial Administration; So. Wales Inst. of Engineers; Iron and Steel Natl. Inst.; Inst. of Metals; Reinforced Concrete Assn. Major, Home Guard and A.R.P., 1939-44. Address: Bentley Works, Doncaster, England.

NEELD, Rev. GEORGE AVERY, American Clergyman; born Oct. 28, 1882, Cawnpore, India; son of Frank L. and Emma L. (Avery) Neeld; educated at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, A.B. 1905, A.M. 1913; Drew Theological Seminary, B.D. 1908; Harvard University, A.M. 1933; studied International Relations, summers of 1927, 1931, 1935 and 1939 at Paris, Rome, Venice, London, Berne, Geneva, The Hague and Rhineland. Supply Preacher in London, England, summer of 1927; married Sarah A. Scudder, 1908; one daughter. Minister, Methodist Episcopal Church, 1910. Asst. Dir., Metropolitan Survey with the Interchurch World Movement, 1919-20. Pastor, Oakland Methodist Episcopal Church of Pittsburgh, Pa. 1914-20. Dir., Ohio School of Religion, Ohio State Univ., 1920-21; Minister, Claremont Community Church, Seat of Pomona College, Calif., 1921-23. Transferred to Congregational Church. Minister: No. Congregational Church, St. Johnsbury, Vt., 1924-40; First Church of Christ (Congregational), New London, Conn., since 1941. University Preacher, University of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Carnegie Institute of Technology of Pittsburgh; Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio; Wheaton College, Norton, Mass.; Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.; and Conn. College, New London, Conn. Director, Boston Seamen's Friend Society; Member, Board of Trustees, Learned Mission and twice of the Vermont Congregational Conference. Trustee, Smith Memorial Home. Member, Board of Directors and of the Committee on International Relations, Connecticut Council of Churches. Served as Vice-President, League of Nations Assn. of Vermont. Delegate to the General Council of Congregational Churches, three times. Member, New London Federation of Churches. State Delegate to the 6th International Congregational Council, 1940. Member: American Historical Society; American Academy of Political and Social Science; American Society of International Law; Church History Soc. Residence: 50 Granada Terrace, New London, Conn.

NEELY, MATTHEW MANSFIELD, American Lawyer; born in Grove, W. Va.; son of Alfred and Mary (Morris) Neely; educated at Salem College; West Virginia University, A.B. 1901, LL.B. 1902; Waynesburg College, 1938; West Virginia University, LL.D. 1941; Salem College, D.Lit. 1942; married Alberta Claire Ramage, Oct. 21, 1903; three children. Began practice of law in Fairmont, 1902. Mayor of Fairmont, 1908-10; Clerk of West Virginia House of Delegates, 1911-13. Member of the 63rd to 66th Congresses from First West Virginia District, 1913-21; Member, U. S. Senate, 1923-29, 1931-41. Delegate-at-large to the Democratic National Conventions, 1932, 1936, 1940 and 1944. Elected Governor of West Virginia, Nov. 1940; resigned seat in U. S. Senate to become Governor, Jan. 12, 1941. Elected Member, 79th Congress from 1st Congressional District of West Virginia for term ending Jan. 3, 1947. Private, West Virginia Volunteers, Spanish-American War, 1898. Residence: 225 Watson Ave. Office Home Savings Bank Bldg., Fairmont, W. Va.

NEFF, Dr. JOHN ULRIC, American Historian; born July 13, 1899, Chicago, Ill.; educated at Harvard University, S.B. 1920; Robert Brookings Graduate School, Ph.D. 1927. Assistant Professor of Economics, Swarthmore College, 1927-28; at University of Chicago, 1929-31; Assoc. Prof., 1931-35; Assoc. Prof. of Economic History, 1935-36. Prof. of Economic History, Univ. of Chicago, since 1936; Chairman, Committee on Social Thought, since 1944. Vice-President, Economic History Assn., 1942-44. Decorated with Order of the Phoenix, Greece. Author: The Rise of the British Coal Industry, 2 vols., 1932; Industry and Government in France and England, 1540-1640, 1940; The United States and Civilization, 1942; The Universities Look for Unity, 1943, etc. Address: University of Chicago, 1126 E. 59th St., Chicago, Ill.

NEFF, HAROLD HOPKINS, American Lawyer; born Oct. 8, 1891, Harrisonburg, Va.; son of Dr. John H. and Brownie (Morrison) Neff; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.S. 1912, M.A. 1913, LL.B. 1921; Univs. of Berlin, Marburg, Germany; Caen, France; married Henriette Thomas, 1918; three children. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Virginia, 1924-26; practiced law, Paris, France, 1926-30. Rept. of American interests in Europe, liquidation of Kreuger Cos., 1932; Asst. Chief, Securities Division, Federal Trade Commission, 1933-34; Asst. General Counsel, Securities and Exchange Commn., 1934-35; First Director, Forms and Regulations Division, Foreign Expert, S.E.C., 1936-41. Member: Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law; Amer. Acad. of Political Science. Address: Pentagon Bldg., Arlington, Va.

NEFF, Dr. PAT MORRIS, American Educator and Statesman; born Nov. 26, 1871, McGregor, McLennan County, Texas; son of Noah and Isabella (Shepherd) Neff; educated at Baylor Univ., B.A. 1894, M.A. 1908; Univ. of Texas, LL.B. 1897; Hon. LL.D. from Baylor Univ., Howard-Payne College, Austin College, Mercer Univ., Georgetown Univ. and Kentucky; Litt.D. from Southern Univ. of Florida; married Myrtle Mainer, May 31, 1899; two children. Practicing attorney, Waco, Texas, 1897-1921. Member, Texas Legislature, 1901-05. Speaker, House of Representatives (the youngest Speaker), 1903-05. Prosecuting Attorney, McLennan County, Texas, 1906-12; Governor of Texas for two terms, 1921-25; Member, Natl. Board of Mediation, 1927-29; Chairman, Railroad Commn. of Texas, 1929-31; Pres. of Baylor Univ. since 1932. Member, Board of Directors, Texas Power and Light Co., since 1935; Pres., Board of Trustees of Baylor Univ., 1903-32. Pres., Southern Baptist Convention, 1942-46; Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masonic Lodge of Texas since 1945. Address: Baylor University, Waco, Texas.

NEFF, PAUL J., American Railroad Executive; born July 14, 1884, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Will T. and Annie Elizabeth (Sills) Neff; educated at Kansas Univ., B.S. (Mining Eng.) and C.E. 1906; married Margaret Philbrook, Apr. 9, 1910; three daughters. Engineer of Construction, SLSF Ry., 1910-17; District Engnr., 1917-18; Corporate Chief Engnr., 1918-20. General Manager, Wichita Falls, Ranger & Ft. Worth R.R., 1920-21. Chief Engnr., SLSF Ry., Texas Lines, 1921-22. Asst. to Pres., IGN R.R., 1922-25; Asst. Exec. Vice-Pres., 1925-26. General Supt., Eastern District, Missouri Pacific R.R., 1926-28; Asst. to the Pres., Sept.-Nov. 1928; Asst. to the Pres., Missouri Pacific R.R., and Vice-Pres. and General Mgr., Missouri Pacific Transportation Co., 1928-31; Asst. Vice-Pres., Traffic, Missouri Pacific R.R.; Vice-Pres. and General Mgr., Missouri Pacific Transportation Co., 1931-43. Senior Exec. Asst., Missouri Pacific Lines, 1943-46; Pres. and Chief Exec. Officer, Missouri Pacific Lines, 1946—. Director: Missouri Pacific R.R.; Missouri Pacific Transportation Co.; New Orleans, Texas & Mexico Ry.; St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Ry.; International-Great Northern R.R.; American Refrigerator Transit Co.; National Bank of Commerce, Houston. Pres., Houston Chamber of Commerce, 1945-46. Dir., Municipal Opera Assn., St. Louis, 1946-47. Residence: Park Plaza Hotel. Office: Missouri Pacific Lines, 2200 Missouri Pacific Bldg., St. Louis 3, Mo.

NEFF, WARD ANDREW, American Publisher; born Feb. 11, 1891, Kansas City; educated at Baker Univ.; Univ. of Missouri, B.S. in Journalism 1913; married Lylian Bingham, Apr. 1925. Reporter with Daily Drovers Telegram, Kansas City, 1913, editor of news and telegraph, 1914-15. Now General Manager, Corn Belt Farm Dailies, comprising Chicago Daily Drovers Journal, K. C. Daily Drovers Telegram, Omaha Daily Journal-Stockman, and St. Louis Daily Livestock Reporter. Pres., Drovers Journal Publishing Co.; also General Manager, Drovers Journal Press, and Radio Station WAAF. Director: Employers Reinsurance Corp.; Central Safety & Insurance Corp.; Central Surety Fire Corp., all Kansas City, Mo. Private in 164th Depot Brigade, 1918; 2nd Class Seaman, U. S. Navy. Residence: 6740 Oglesby Ave. Office: 836 Exchange Ave., Chicago, Ill.

NEGOVSKI, Dr. VLADIMIR ALEKSANDROVICH, Soviet Physiologist; born Mar. 19, 1909, Kozelets, Chernigov Region, Russia; son of Aleksandr Timofeyevich and Varvara Semenovna (Gulyanitskaya) Negovski; educated at Moscow Medical Inst., grad. 1933, Dr. Med. Sc., 1943; married Praskovya Yakovleva Snezhkina, 1933; one daughter. Physician, workers' settlement, near Moscow, 1934; Junior Physician, Central Inst. of Blood Transfusion, Moscow, 1934-35; Junior Physician, Inst. of Experimental Physiology and Therapy, Moscow, 1935-36; Chief, Laboratory of Experimental Physiology, Inst. of Neurosurgery, Acad. of Medical Sciences, Russia, since 1936. Taught Pathophysiology, Second Moscow Medical Inst., 1942-45. Member: All Union Soc. of Physiologists; Moscow Soc. of Pathophysiologists; Moscow House of Scientists. Awarded: Order of Red Star, 1945. Author: Agonal States and Clinical Death; Problems in Revival of Organisms, 1943; Experiment in Therapy of Agonal States and Clinical Death at Front, 1945. Residence: Bolshaya Kaluzhskaya 16. Office: Institute of Neurosurgery, 5 Tverskaya Yamskaya dom 5, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NEGRE, MAURICE, French Journalist. General Manager of French news agency France Presse. Imprisoned in Rumania, 1940; escaped to France and again arrested by Germans; liberated by U. S. forces from Buchenwald. Awarded Rosette of the Resistance. Address: c/o France Presse, Paris, France.

NEGRONI, Dr. PABLO, Argentine Professor of Mycology and Industrial Microbiology; born June 3, 1904, Buenos Aires; son of Antonio and Agata (Rava) Negroni; educated at National College, Univ. of Buenos Aires, M.D. 1926; married Consuelo Briz, Oct. 24, 1931; three children. Asst. at Inst. of Bacteriology, National Dept. of Hygiene, 1922; Bacteriologist since 1926; Chief of Section of My-cology since 1945. Chief of Laboratory, Clinica Dermatosifilográfica of Medical School, 1930; Mycologist since 1933. Prof. of Mycology and Industrial Microbiology, Univ. of La Plata, since 1937; Adjunct Prof. of Microbiology, School of Medicine, Univ. of Buenos Aires, since 1939. Member: Asociación Médica Argentina; Asociación Argentina de Dermatología y Sifilología (Pres.); Asociación Argentina para el Progreso de las Ciencias; Sociedad de Alergía; Comité Argentino de la Sociedad Interamericana de Bacteriología. Commissioned by Argentine Government to study mycology in Brazil, U.S.A. and France, 1927-29; awarded Second Prize by Natl. Commn. for Culture, 1942-44. Author: Estudio micológico sobre 50 casos de micosis, 1931; Morfología y Biología de los hongos (Técnica Micológica), 1938; Dermatomicosis, 1942; Micosis cutaneas y Viscerales, 1944; also 100 original papers and 21 lectures. Address: Pichincha 830, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NEHAL CHAND, Indian Government Official; born in Delhi, Jan. 1881; son of Rai Phul Chand; educated at Muir Central College, Allahabad, M.A., LL.B.; married Bibi Ganesh Devi, 1912; three children. Private Secy. to Prime Minister of Indore, 1907; served as Commnr. of Customs and Excise of Indore; Asst. Revenue Minister; Collector and District Magistrate; Commissioner Abkari and Sayar and Opium Officer; Member of Board of Revenue; Abkari Commissioner and Opium Officer; Member of Indore State Cabinet; Director of Commerce and Industries and Inspector General of Customs and Excise, Bikaner State; Dewan of Shahpura State, Rajputana; now Dir. of Commerce and Industries and Development Officer, Alwar State. Made Muntazim Bahadur, Muntazim Khan Bahadur of Indore and received Bikaner Golden Jubilee Medal. Author of various technical and commercial notes and reports. Residence: Karol Bagh, Delhi. Office: Pavalion, Alwar, Alwar State, India.

NEHER, Dr. (HENRY) VICTOR, American Physicist; born Nov. 4, 1904, Kansas; son of John A. and Lena Florence (Kuns) Neher; educated at Pomona College, A.B. 1926; California Inst. of Technology, Ph.D. 1931; married Sara Elizabeth Yoder, 1929; five children. Instructor in Physics, California Inst. of Technology, 1931; Asst. Prof., 1937; Assoc. Prof., 1940; Prof. since 1944. With Radiation Laboratory, Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, 1940-45. Coauthor: Procedures in Experimental Physics. Address: California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif.

NEHRU, The Hon. Pandit JAWAHRALAL, Indian Prime Minister; born Nov. 14, 1889, Allahabad, India; son of Motilal Nehru and Swarup Rani; educated at Harrow School; Trinity College, Cambridge, England, M.A.; Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law; married Kamala, Feb. 7, 1916 (dec.); one child. Barrister-at-Law, 1912, and since active in Indian political affairs. Became one of staunchest followers of late Mohandas K. Gandhi; joined Gandhi's civil disobedience campaign, 1921; imprisoned for ten years on nine occasions for political offenses. Served as Secretary-General for ten years and President four times, Indian National Congress; Chairman, National Planning Co. Vice-President and Minister for External Affairs and Commonwealth Relations, Interim Govt. of India, 1946-47. Prime Minister, Dominion Govt. of India, Aug. 1947—. Residence: Anand Bhawan, Allahabad, India. Office: Government House, New Delhi, India.

NEHRU, RATAN, Indian Diplomat; born Oct. 10, 1902, Allahabad, India; son of Mohanlal and Kamala Nehru; educated at Allahabad Univ., 1918-19; Exeter College, Oxford, 1920-25, B.A.; married Rajan, Feb. 28, 1928; two children. Indian Civil Service Officer, 1925; Asst. Commissioner, C. P., India, 1925-27; Political Under-Secy., C. P., India, 1928, Deputy Commnr., C. P., 1929-33; Asst., then Collector of Customs, Calcutta, Bombay and Madras, 1934-36; Deputy Secy., Govt. of India, Depts. of Finance and Commerce, 1937-39; Commnr., Salt and Central Excises, 1939-42; Joint Secy., Dept. of Supply, India, 1942-44; Joint Secy., Dept. of Commerce, India, 1944-46; Leader of Indian Delegation to International Trade Conf., London, 1946; Member, United Nations Economic and Employment Commn. and Economic Commission for Asia and Far East, 1947; Delegate, U. N. Economic and Social Council, 1947. Chmn., Central Bd. of Revenue, India, 1947; Secy., Ministry of Communications, India, 1947-48; Minister to the U. S., 1948—. Residence: Shoreham Hotel. Office: Embassy of India, Washington, District of Columbia.

NEICHEV, Dr. MINCHO, Bulgarian Statesman; born 1888; studied law. Univ. of Geneva, Switzerland; philosophy, Univ. of Berne, Switzerland; LL.D., Brussels, Belgium. Joined Communist Party in early youth; engaged in private law practice; defense counsel in many Communist trials; tried and often imprisoned for political activities. Organized Fatherland Front Committees during World War II; Minister of Justice, 1944; Minister of Education in Govt. of Georgi Dimitrov; President of the Presidium, Grand National Assembly of Bulgaria, since Dec. 1947. Address: Grand National Assembly, Sofia, Bulgaria.

NEIHARDT, JOHN G., American Poet; born Jan. 8, 1881, Sharpsburg, Ill.; son of Nicholas N. and Alice May (Culler) Neihardt; educated at Nebraska Normal College, B.S. 1897; Univ. of Nebraska, Hon. Litt.D. 1917; Creighton Univ., Hon. LL.D. 1928; married Mona Martinsen, Nov. 8, 1908; four children. Reporter, Omaha Daily News, 1900-01; Literary Editor, Minneapolis Journal, 1912-22; St. Louis Post-Dispatch, 1926-38; Director of Division of Information, Office of Indian Affairs, since 1944. Prof. of Poetry, Univ. of Nebraska, 1923; named Poet Laureate of Nebraska (by act of State Legislature), 1921. Member, Order of the Indian Wards of the U. S. Received National Poetry Soc. Prize (1919); National Poetry Center Gold Scroll Medal of Honor (1936); Friends of American Writers Foundation Award (1936). Elected Member, Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters, 1943. Author: The Divine Enchantment (1900); Lonesome Trail (1907); A Bundle of Myrhh (1907); Man Song (1909); The River and I (1910); The Dawn Builder (1911); The Stranger at the Gate (1912); The Death of Agrippina (1913); Life's Lure (1914); The Song of Hugh Glass (1915); The Quest (1916); The Song of Three Friends (1919); The Splendid Wayfaring (1920); Two Mothers (1921); The Song of the Indian Wars (1925); Collected Poems (1926); River and I, 1910 (revised 1927); Black Elk Speaks (1932); The Song of the Messiah (1935); The Song of Jed Smith (1941); A Cycle of the West. Residence: Branson, Mo. Office: Merchandise Mart, Chicago, Ill.

NEIKOV, DIMITER M., Bulgarian Political Leader. Served as Minister of Commerce, 1944-47; Vice-President of the Presidium, General National Assembly, Dec. 1947—. Member of Socialist Party. Address: Grand National Assembly, Sofia, Bulgaria.

NEIL, Hon. ALBERT BRAMLET, American Jurist; born February 28, 1873, Lewisburg, Tenn.; son of Dr. James B. and Talitha J. (McCord) Neil; educated at Cumberland University, LL.B., LL.D.

1935; married Josephine Pendleton, Sept. 9, 1911; three children. Admitted to Bar, 1896. Presidential Elector, 1900; appointed Judge, Criminal Court (10th District of Tenn.), 1910; Judge, Second Circuit Court, 1918-42; Associate Justice Supreme Court since 1942. Chairman, Judicial Council of Tennessee. Member: Nashville Bar; Tennessee Bar; American Bar Assn.; American Judicature Society. Residence: Enquirer Ave. Office: Supreme Court Bldg., Nashville, Tennessee.

NEIL, Dr. JAMES HARDIE, New Zealand Otolaryngologist; born 1875, Dunedin, New Zealand; son of J. and Ann (Hardie) Neil; educated at New Zealand Univ. Medical School, Dunedin, M.B., Ch.B. 1899, M.R.C.S. Eng. 1902, F.A.C.S. 1926, F.R.A.C.S.; married Mary Elizabeth Coates, 1904; five children. Ear, Nose and Throat Surgeon, Auckland Hosp., 1902-15 and since 1918; Lecturer to students since 1940. Surgeon, Mater Hosp., since 1935. Pres., Pan-Pacific Surgical Assn., 1939; Auckland Service Officers Club, 1926-32; New Zealand League for Hard of Hearing since 1932. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. College of Chest Physicians; Ex-Pres., Auckland Clinical Soc. (1st Pres.); Auckland Section, British Medical Assn. Awards: Distinguished Service Order, 1918; Croix de Guerre, 1918. Author: Field Ambulance Organization and Administration, 1918; Ear, Nose and Throat Surgery, 1912, 1920, 1942. Commanded a Field Ambulance, World War II; Regional Deputy, Recruiting and Boarding, Auckland Area, since 1941. Address: 64 Symonds St., Auckland, New Zealand.

NEILL, Dr. JAMES MAFFETT, American Bacteriologist; born July 6, 1894, Clarion, Pa.; son of William A. and Sara Dales (Moorhead) Neill; educated at Allegheny College, B.S. 1917, Sc.D. 1940; Massachusetts Agricultural College, Ph.D. 1921; married Jessie A. Stratton, Apr. 4, 1917. Asst. in Microbiology, Mass. Agricultural College, 1917-20. Asst., Hospital of Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, 1920-24. Fellow, General Education Board, 1924. Assoc. Prof. of Bacteriology and Immunology, Vanderbilt Univ. Medical School, 1925-26; Prof. of Bacteriology and Immunology, 1926-31. Prof. of Bacteriology and Immunology, Cornell Univ. Medical College, since 1931. Member: Soc. of Amer. Bacteriologists; Assn. of Pathologists and Bacteriologists; Amer. Assn. of Immunologists; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Harvey Soc. Author of numerous articles in various scientific periodicals. Address: Cornell University Medical College, 1300 York Ave., New York, N. Y.

NEILLY, BALMER, Canadian Mining Engineer; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. Sc., M.E., LL.D. Manager, Penn-Canadian Mine, Cobalt, 1912-20. Secy., Ontario Mining Assn., 1920-24. With McIntyre Porcupine Mines, Ltd. since 1924; now Pres. and Director. Director, Castle-Trethewey Mines Ltd.; Pres., Blue Diamond Coal Co., Ltd. Director: Temiskaining Mining Co., Ltd.; Belleterre Quebec Mines, Ltd.; McIntyre Research, Ltd. Governor, Univ. of Toronto; Trustee, Toronto General Hospital. Residence: 256 Riverside Dr., Swansea, Ont. Office: 25 King St., West, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

NEILS, PAUL, American Business Executive; born June 25, 1886, Spencer, Wis.; educated at Concordia College (St. Paul, Minn.); married; four children. Retail salesman for J. Neils Lumber Co., 1904; elected Vice-Pres., 1912, and Pres., 1934. Pres. and Director, Klickitat Log & Lumber Co.; Pres., Montana Light & Power Co.; Director, First National Bank of Portland (Ore.). Residence: 2350 N.W. Westover Rd. Office: 1300 American Bank Bldg., Portland, Ore.

NEILSON, Dr. CHARLES HUGH, American Professor of Medicine; born July 19, 1871, Berkshire, Ohio; son of Arthur Wright and Nellie Alice (Schanck) Neilson; educated at Ohio Wesleyan Univ., B.A. 1894, M.A. 1897; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1903; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1905; post-grad. work, Germany, 1906; England and France, 1911; married Ebba Amelia Anderson, June 11, 1903; two children. Assoc. in Physiol., Univ. of Chicago, 1901-04; Assoc. Prof. of Biochemistry, 1904-07. Prof., St. Louis Univ. School of Med., 1907-11. Dir. and Prof., Dept. of Med., 1911-24. Became Staff Member, St. Mary's Infirmary, 1907; Secy., Executive Council, since 1938. Chief of Staff, Alexian Bros. Hosp., 1909-21; Physician to St. Louis City Hosp., 1912-35. Dir., St. Louis Univ. Staff since 1935; Chief of Staff, St. John's Hosp., since 1924, Member of Council since 1924; Member of Council, St. Anthony's Hosp. since 1931; Physician to University Group Hosp. since 1933; now Assoc. Dean, St. Louis Univ. School of Med.; Prof. of Medicine; Pres., Missouri State Bd. of Health. Certified by Bd. of Internal Med.; Member, St. Louis Med. Soc. (Pres. 1938); St. Louis Soc. of Internal Med. (Ex-Pres.); Mo. State Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Soc. of Biol. Chemists; Amer. Therapeutic Soc.; Southern Med. Assn.; Assn. of Amer. Med. Colleges; Natl. Bd. of Med. Examiners. Author of many pamphlets in chemical, physiological and clinical research, and medical education and hospital management. Residence: 6319 Alexander St. Office: Humboldt Bldg., St. Louis 3, Mo.

NEISNER, FRED, American Industrialist; born March 30, 1909, White Plains, N. Y.; son of Joseph and Hattie (Plaut) Neisner; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania (1927-31); married Eileen Mann, April 23, 1936; two children. Began career as stockman, 1931; elected Vice-President and Director of Neisner Bros., Inc., 1935; President since 1942. Residence: 1151 Clover St. Office: 49 East Ave., Rochester, N. Y.

NEISSER, HANS P., Economist; born Sept. 30, 1895, Breslau, Germany; son of Gustav and Else (Silberstein) Neisser; educated at Univ. of Breslau, U.J.D. 1919, Soc. Sc.D. 1921; Univs. of Munich, Freiburg; married Charlotte Schroeter, 1923; two children. Economist, Government Commns., Germany, 1922-24; 1926-27; Editor of an Economic Weekly, 1925-26; Lecturer, Univ. of Kiel; Deputy Head of Research Dept., Inst. of Internatl. Economics, Kiel, 1927-33. Prof. of Monetary Theory, Wharton School, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1933-43; Principal Economist, Research Division, O.P.A., 1941-43; Research Principal, Inst. of World Affairs, New School for Social Research, and Prof. of Economics in Graduate Faculty, since 1943. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Econometric Soc. Author: Exchange Value of Money, 1927; International Aspects of the Business Cycle, 1936. Address: 66 Fifth Ave., New York 11, New York.

NEITSHEV, Dr. MINTCHO, Bulgarian Political Leader. Minister of Education. Head of the Bulgarian Delegation to the Conference of the Interparliamentary Union Meeting in Cairo, March-April, 1947. Address: Ministry of Education, Sofia, Bulgaria.

NEJEDLY, ZDENEK, Czechoslovak Political Leader, Musician; born 1878, Bohemia; studied philosophy, history and art, particularly music. Became first Czech university professor of musical science, 1908; historian, founder of Czech musical science, and one of foremost writers on history of music. Principal works: biography of the composer Frederick Smetana; large works on the Hussite movement and Hussite songs; biographies of T. G. Masaryk and V. I. Lenin. Served as member of Czech Scientific Soc. and of Czech Acad. After signing of the Munich Pact resided in Moscow, continuing his literary and scientific work as member of the Acad of U.S.S.R., serving as Vice-Chairman of All-Slav Com. First Czechoslovak Minister of Education and Popular Enlightment in first Cabinet of Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, 1945. Member, Natl. Constituent Assembly. Minister of Social Welfare, 1947-48; Minister of Education, 1948—. Pres., Czech Acad. of Science; Chairman, All-Slav Com. in Prague; Chairman, Soc. for Establishment of Cultural and Economic Relations with U. S. S. R. Lecturer in Faculties of Philosophy and Pedagogics. Preparing scientific work, "Czech History." Residence: Smetanová Ia, Prague XVI, Czechoslovakia.

NEKRASOV, VICTOR, Soviet Author. Served as an officer of engineers and participated in the battle of Stalingrad. Author of a number of novels. Awarded Stalin Prize for novel "In Stalingrad Trenches," 1947. Address: All Union of Soviet Writers, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NEL, Prof. BAREND FREDERIK, South African Educator; born Dec. 16, 1905, Kokstad, Cape Province, South Africa; son of Barend Frederik and Louisa Maria (Maartens) Nel; educated at Voortrekker High School, 1920-23; Normal College, Pretoria; Univ. of Pretoria (Teachers' Certificate, 1926, B.A. 1927); Univ. of South Africa, Higher Education Diploma, 1928, Master in Education, 1930; Univ. of Amsterdam, Holland, Litt.D. 1933, Ph.D. 1935; Univ. of South Africa, Ph.D. 1945; married Anna Barbara Pretorius, Sept. 30, 1933; four daughters. Teacher, 1928; research work on fatigue values of school subjects and mentality of South African natives; studied in Holland, 1933-35; Research Worker, Union Education Dept., 1936; Lecturer in Educational Psychology, Normal College, Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, 1936-37; Vocational Guidance Officer, Dept. of Education, Orange Free State, 1937-38; Senior Lecturer in Educational Psychology and Educational Sociology, Univ. of Pretoria, Transvaal, 1939-43; Prof., Educational Psychology, 1944; Dean, Faculty of Education, 1945. Director, Child Guidance Clinic, Univ. of Pretoria. Won prize for essay, "The Psychology of the Teacher." Contributor to literature on education. Address: University of Pretoria, Pretoria, Transvaal, South Africa.

NEL, Dr. LOUIS TAYLOR, South African Geologist; born Feb. 24, 1895, Wolmaranstad, Transvaal, South Africa; son of Rev. Paul and Mabel Agnes (Taylor) Nel; educated at Univ. of Stellenbosch, M.Sc. (cum laude), 1920, D.Sc. 1927; refresher courses at Freiburg (Breisgau) and Bonn Univs., Germany, 1930; married Muriel Isabelle Malherbe, Mar. 15, 1932; three children. Junior Geologist, Geological Survey of Union of South Africa at Pretoria, 1920; Asst. Director; Acting Director, 1944 and 1945 during absence of Director overseas. Member, Board of Trustees, Transvaal Museum; Fellow, Geological Soc. of London; Member of Council, Geological Soc. of South Africa (Pres. 1932); Member, Suid-Afrikaanse Akademie vir Wetenskap en Kuns. Awarded Prix Spendiaroff by Internatl. Geological Congress; Draper Memorial Medal, Geological Soc. of South Africa, 1943. Author: The Geology of the Country Around Vredefort; The Geology of the Postmasburg Manganese Deposits; The Geology of the Klerksdorp-Ventersdorp Area; Wonderstone; A New Occurence of Zunyite Near Postmasburg; The Witwatersrand System Outside the Rand; also various other papers. Address: P.O. Box 401, Pretoria, Transvaal, South Africa.

NELISSEN, Dr. ANDREAS ANGELUS MARIE, Dutch Physician; born Oct. 24, 1883, Rotterdam, Holland; son of Godefridus Eugenius and Louise (Maas) Nelissen; educated at Univ. of Leiden, physician's certificate, 1908, M.D. 1934; married Maria Joanna Henriette Meeuws, Sept. 28, 1909; three children. Asst. to Prof. Kan, Univ. of Leiden, 1908; Asst. to Prof. Kilian and Prof. von Eycken at Freiburg, Breisgau; specialist in Rotterdam, 1910; collaborator with Prof. Quix at Utrecht, since 1929. Member of Board, Nederlandsche Keel., and Neus-Oorheelkundige Vereeniging, 1927-31; Genootschap van Nederlandsche Keel, Neus, Oorartssen, since 1936. Chief, Dept. of Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases, Sint Franciscus Gasthuis, Rotterdam; Leader of courses on Ear, Nose and Throat Diseases, Nederlandsche Medisch Missie Comite. Secy., R.C. Probation; Treas., Central Policlinic; Expert, Netherlands Pension Council. Created Knight, Order of St. Gregory the Great; awarded Loretto Cross, 1st class; Mobilization Cross. Author: Labyrinth Reactions on Eyes and Limbs Aroused by Rectilinear Forces and by Constant Centrifugal Forces; Collaborator of Rassegna Internazionale di Oto-rino-laringologia; head, ear, nose and throat diseases, Catholic Encyclopaedia; chapter on ear, nose and throat diseases, Manual for Missionaries. Address: Mauritsweg 57, Rotterdam, Holland.

NELLES, Admiral PERCY WALKER, Canadian Naval Officer; born Jan. 7, 1892, Brantford, Ont., Canada; son of Brigadier General Charles Macklem and Ida (Walker) Nelles; educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ont.; Univ. of Toronto, LL.D. 1946; married Helen Schuyler Allen, May 17, 1915; two sons. Cadet, Royal Canadian Navy, 1908; Midshipman, 1910; Sub-Lieut., 1912; Lieut., 1914; Lieut. Commander, 1922; Commander, 1925; Capt., 1933; Commodore, 1934; Rear Admiral, 1938; Vice-Admiral, 1941, and Admiral, 1945. With Royal Naval Staff College, England, 1924; Imperial Defense College, London, England, 1933; Director, Naval Service of Canada, 1934; appointed Chief, Naval Staff of Canada, 1938; Senior Canadian Naval Officer (overseas), London, England, 1944; retired 1945. Made Companion of the Bath (Military), 1942; Commander, U. S. Legion of Merit, 1946. Residence: 7 Rideau Gate, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

NELSON, Dr. AXEL HERMAN, Swedish Librarian; born Sept. 11, 1880, Norrköping, Sweden; son of August and Anna Paulina (Ahlborg) Nelson; educated at University of Uppsala, Ph.D. 1909; married Barbro Ekholm, May 20, 1916; two sons. Assistant Librarian, Uppsala University Library, 1909; Associate Librarian, 1912; Librarian since 1914; Keeper, Department of Manuscripts, since 1928. President, Board of Trustees, Uppsala Public Library, 1931-41. Member: The Medieval Academy of America; The Royal Swedish Manuscript Society; The Royal Society of Letters at Uppsala. Honors: Knight, Royal Order of the Polar Star of Sweden, 1925; Officer of the Royal Order of the Crown of Belgium, 1925. Author: Die Hippokratische Schrift peri physon, 1909; Richard de Bury's Philobiblon (Latin text and Swedish translation), 1922; Gallimatias, 1922; Medeltidens Latinska bok och skrift, 1924; Om Uppsala Universitet under medeltiden, 1927; Teckenspraiket i Vadstena Kloster, 1935; O. Rudbeck's Atlantica, 1937-39; Vita et Miracula Sancti Erici regis Sueciae, 1944. Address: Uppsala University Library, Uppsala, Sweden.

NELSON, DONALD MARR, American Industrialist; born Nov. 17, 1888, Hannibal, Mo.; son of Quincy Marr and Mary Ann (MacDonald) Nelson; educated at University of Missouri, B.S. 1911; married Marguerite S. Coulbourn, February 14, 1945. With Sears Roebuck & Co., 1912-42, starting as chemical engineer; became manager of mens and boys clothing department, 1921; assistant in general merchandise office, 1926; General Merchandise Manager, 1927; Vice-President in charge of merchandising, 1930; Executive Vice-President and Chairman of Executive Committee, 1939. He was on leave as Acting Director of Procurement, United States Treasurey, May-Sept. 1940; Coordinator, National Defense Purchases, Sept. 1940-Jan. 1941; Director of Purchases, Office of Production Management, Jan.-July, 1941; Executive Director, Supply Priorities and Allocation Board, and Director of Priorities, Office of Production Management, July, 1941-Jan. 1942. Resigned from Sears, Roebuck & Co., 1942, to become Chairman of the War Production Board, until Sept. 30, 1944. Personal Representative to the President of the United States, with cabinet rank, Oct. 1944 to May 1945. Head of Economic Mission to Russia, 1943, and China, 1944. Pres., Soc. of Independent Motion Picture Producers, 1945—. Received Hon. LL.D. from Harvard (1942), Northwestern Univ., Univ. of Missouri and Pennsylvania Military College; Eng.D., Stevens Inst. of Technology. Residence: 219 S. Mapleton Dr., Holmby Hills, Los Angeles, Calif.

NELSON, ERNESTO, Argentine Educator; born Sept. 25, 1873, Buenos Aires, Argentina; educated in Argentina and at Columbia University (New York); married Ernestina Adriana López; one daughter; (2nd) Dr. Carlos M. Padilla. Called by Natl. Univ. of La Plata to organize the experimental University School, "Ulpi"; Professor, Faculty of Education, La Plata University, and former Member of Academic Council. General Inspector of Secondary, Normal and Special Education, 1913-16; Inspector and Chief of Section of the Ministry of Public Instruction, 1923-39. Delegate to Pan-American Scientific Congress, 1916; Congress of Education in Chile, 1924, etc. Honorary Vice-President, Congress of Infantile Psychiatry, Paris, 1937; took an important part in the first Latin-American Congress of Criminology, 1938. Member, Advisory Council on Child Protection, 1944-45. Pres., Argentine-North Amer. Cultural Inst. Author: Plan de Reformas a la Enseñanza Secundaria; Hacia la Universidad Futura; Nuestros Males Universitarios; Las Bibliotecas en los Estados Unidos; La Delincuencia Juvenil; La Protección Social de la Salud del Niño; El Analfabetismo en la República Argentina —Interpretación de sus Estadisticas; Los Tesoros del Martin Fierro. Address: Campichuelo 338, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NELSON, Sir GEORGE HORATIO, British Engineer; born Oct. 26, 1887, London, England; son of George and Emily (Walsh) Nelson; educated at City and Guilds Tech. College, London (now Faculty of University of London), Fellowship, 1944; awarded Mitchell Exhibition Diploma and Brush post-studentship; married Florence Mabel Howe, 1913; two children. Began as designer of elec. machines for Brush Electrical Engn. Co. Ltd., England, 1907, becoming Chief Outside Engineer, 1909. Chief Electrical Supt., British Westinghouse Co., 1914; Manager, Sheffield Works, Metropolitan Vickers Electrical Co., 1920. Managing Director, The English Electric Co. Ltd., 1930; Chairman and Managing Director since 1933. Chairman, The English Electric Export & Trading Co. Ltd., 1938. Became Director of The Power & Traction Finance Co. Ltd., The Power & Traction Finance Co. (Poland) Ltd., and The Micanite & Insulators Co. Ltd., 1932, and The Associated Manufacturers of Electric Traction Equipment, Ltd., 1935. Chairman, D. Napier & Son Ltd. since 1943. Chairman, Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., and associated companies, 1946—; Chairman, Power & Traction Finance Co. Ltd. Chairman, United Kingdom Tank Missions to Canada and America, 1942. Member of Board of Trade Advisory Council; Higher Technological Education Com., 1944; Advisory Mechanical Engineering Com., Central Register, 1942; Reconstruction Joint Advisory Council, Ministry of Reconstruction, 1943; Finance and Membership Committees, Institution of Mechanical Engineers; Royal Inst. of International Affairs Reconstruction and Finance Com. Pres., Federation of British Industries, 1943-45; Chairman of Council, British Electrical and Allied Manufacturers' Assn., 1947. Member, Council of British Aircraft Constructors; State Advisory Com., Engineering and Allied Employers Natl. Federation. Member of Governing Body, Queen Mary's College (Univ. of London), 1945; Hon. Fellow, 1947. Life Member, Inst. of Marine Engineers Guild of Benevolence and Royal Empire Soc. Chmn., Census of Production Com., 1945; Member of Council, Town and Country Planning Assn., 1945; Member of General Bd. and Exec. Com., National Physical Laboratory, 1945; Member of Technical Com., Lloyds Register of Shipping, 1945. Captain and Adjutant, 4th Manchester Volunteer Regiment and 2nd Volunteer Battalion, Lancashire Regiment, 1914-18; granted hon. captaincy on retirement, 1918. Residence: Grosvenor House, Park Lane, London, W. 1; The New Hough, Stafford, Staffordshire. Office: Queens House, Kingsway, London, W.C. 2, Eng.

NELSON, GODFREY N., American Publisher; born 1878. Vice-President, Secretary and Director, The New York Times Co. Secretary, Treasurer and Director, Times Telephoto Equipment, Inc. Chairman of Board and Director, Chattanooga Publishing Co. Secretary and Director, Interstate Broadcasting Co. Director, Spruce Falls Power & Paper Co., Ltd. Residence: 10 Gracie Square. Office: The New York Times, 229 W. 43rd Street, New York, N. Y.

NELSON, Rev. Dr. GÖSTA, Swedish Theologian; born Nov. 30, 1890, Fritsla, Sweden; son of Levin and Gerda (Hakansson) Nelson; educated at Univ. of Gothenburg, teol. phil. 1910; Univ. of Uppsala, teol. cand. 1912; Univ. of Lund, D.D. 1941; married Signa Maria Lundell, Nov. 8, 1916; four sons. Ordained, 1913; Perpetual Curate, Istorp, 1919; Rector, Bokenas, 1923; Court Chaplain, 1939. Pres., Clergymen's Meeting, Diocese of Gothenburg, 1939; called by King to revise Prayer Book, 1939; Member of Com., Diocesan Annals of Gothenburg, 1939. Address: Bokenas, Sweden.

NELSON, Dr. HAROLD HAYDEN, American Orientalist; born 1878. Prof. Emeritus, Dept. of Oriental Languages and Literature, Univ. of Chicago. Author: The Battle of Megiddo, 1921; Work in Western Thebes, 1931-33 (with Uvo Holscher; also a chapter by Siegfried Scott), 1934; Key Plans Showing Locations of Theban Decorations, 1941; also numerous reports on various surveys. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

NELSON, Dr. HARRY MONROE, American Obstetrician and Gynecologist; born Mar. 29, 1895, Kane, Pa.; son of Samuel and Anna (Mickelson) Nelson; educated at Univ. of Mich., M.S. 1918, M.D. 1920; married Elizabeth Jones, 1928; two sons. Instructor in Surgery, Univ. of Mich., 1922; Assoc. in Obstet. and Gynecol., Henry Ford Hosp., 1923-31; Chief Gynecol., Woman's Hosp., 1935; Attending Obstet. since 1935; Chief of Staff since 1939; Attending Gynecol. and Obstet., Henry Ford Hosp., since 1931. Extra Mural Lecturer in Gynecol., Univ. of Mich.; Assoc. Prof. of Gynecol., Wayne Univ. Med. School, since 1937. Vice-Pres., Bd. of Trustees, Detroit Inst. for Cancer Research, since 1943; Executive Chairman, Amer. Cancer Soc., since 1938. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Mich. Soc. of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (Pres., 1939); Central States Gynecol. and Obstet. Soc., and Wayne County Med. Soc. Address: 3001 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich.

NELSON, HERBERT UNDEEN, American Association Executive; born 1886, Ellsworth, Wis.; son of Rev. Charles Gustaf and Hannah Elizabeth (Undeen) Nelson; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, A.B. 1910; married Marion Lawrence, June 7, 1913; three sons. Supt., Boys Club of Minneapolis, 1911; Executive Secy., Juvenile Protective League, Hennepin County, 1912-15; Minneapolis Citizens Club, 1916-17; Minneapolis Real Estate Board and Minneapolis Rotary Club, 1917-21. Secy., Minneapolis Planning Commission and Minneapolis Auditorium Commission, 1917-21; Secy., Minnesota Real Estate Assn., 1919-21; Executive Secy., National Assn. of Real Estate Boards, 1922-37; Executive Vice-Pres., since 1937. Organizer and Trustee, Urban Land Inst.; Executive Com. Member, National Real Estate Foundation. Consultant, Defense Housing Coordinator, 1940; Member, Subcom. on Large Scale Operations of Pres. Hoover's Conf. on Home Ownership and Home Bldg., 1932. Member: Amer. Inst. of Real Estate Appraisers; Inst. of Real Estate Management; Soc. of Industrial Realtors; National Inst. of Real Estate Brokers; Realtors' Washington Com. Author: Real Estate Board Administration; New Homes in Old Countries (with Marion L. Nelson). Residence: 373 Sunset Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 1737 K St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

NELSON, HJALMAR E(NGELBERT), Swedish Editor; born Oct. 19, 1887, Arboga, Västmanland, Sweden; son of E. G. and Ida N. (Almström) Nelson; educated at Olika School, and in foreign countries; married Nean N. Ericson, 1912; one daughter. Journalist in U. S., 1903-05; Editor, Katrineholms Tidning, 1910-18; Westmanlands Allehanda, 1918-30; Chief Editor, Södermanlands Läns Tidning, since 1933. Pres.: Mell. Sveriges Pressförening, 1923-42; Mell. Sveriges Tidningsutgivareförening, since 1944. Member of the Board, Sveriges Tidningsutg. förening, 1934-44; Delegate to press meetings; Member, Board of Publicistklubbens; Pres., Nyköpings Höger-förening; City Deputy, etc. Award: Knight, Vasa Order. Author: Solsidans Frestelse, 1924; Hennes Majesats Koloni, 1926. Address: Södermanlands Läns Tidning, Nyköping, Sörmland, Sweden.

NELSON, J. ARTHUR, American Insurance Executive; born Jan. 27, 1876, Baltimore County, Md.; son of Benjamin L. and Alice (Boyd) Nelson; studied at the McDonough School; married (1st) Katie Leon Triplett, Oct. 7, 1896 (died May 13, 1938); (2nd) Elizabeth S. Sisson, May 22, 1939; four children. Entered Firemen's Insurance Co. of Baltimore as a stenographer, 1893, and occupied various posts until 1899, when resigned as Chief Accountant; Asst. Secy., United Fire Insurance Co. of Baltimore, 1900; entered Fidelity & Deposit Co. of Maryland as Special Agent, 1902, resigning as Vice-Pres., 1912; organized Amer. Indemnity Co. of Baltimore, 1913, of which is President. Pres., New Amsterdam Casualty Co., since 1914. Partner in Baltimore Gas Light Co., 1901-38. Pres., U. S. Casualty Co. of New York, since 1940. Director: Amer. Indemnity Co.; F. X. Hooper Co. Ex-President, Assn. of Casualty and Surety Executives and of the International Assn. of Casualty and Surety Underwriters. Fellow, Insurance Inst. of America. Residence: 211 Goodwood Gardens, Roland Park. Office: 227 St. Paul St., Baltimore, Md.

NELSON, Dr. JOHN MAURICE, American Chemist; born Oct. 19, 1876, West Point, Nebr.; son of John Peter and Hedda (Lindstrom) Nelson; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, B.S. 1901; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1907; married Katharine L. Hunley, Dec. 26, 1907; one daughter. Chemist, Nebraska Pure Food Commn., 1901-02. Instr., Rose Polytechnic Inst., 1902-04 Instr., Rensselaer Polytechnic Inst., 1907-08, Tutor, Columbia Univ., 1908-15; Asst. Prof., 1915-16; Assoc. Prof., 1916-22; Prof. of Organic Chemistry, 1922-48; Emeritus Prof., 1948—. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Soc. of Biological Chemists. Awarded William H. Nichols Medal, 1940 (by New York Section of Amer. Chemical Soc.). Author of many papers in chemical journals on organic chemistry and chemistry of enzymes. Address: 39 Claremont Ave., New York 27, New York.

NELSON, Dr. LOWRY, American Agricultural Sociologist; born Apr. 16, 1893, Ferron, Utah; son of Hyrum A. and Mary (Lowry) Nelson; educated at Utah State Agricultural College, B.S. 1916; Univ. of Wisconsin, M.S. 1924, Ph.D. 1929; married Florence Newell, Feb. 13, 1924; three children. Secy. to Pres., Utah State Agricultural College, 1916; Asst. State Co. Agent Ldr., 1917-18; County Agricultural Agent, Sanpete Co., Utah, 1919; Agriculturist, Peoples Sugar Co., Utah, 1920; Editor, Utah Farmer, Lehi, Utah, 1920-22. Director, Extension Division, Brigham Young Univ. 1921-35; Dean, College of Applied Science and Prof. of Rural Social Economics, 1929-35; Regional Adviser, Rural Rehabilitation Division, FERA, 1934-35; Asst. Director, Rural Resettlement Division, Res. Adm., Washington, D. C., 1935-36; Director, Utah Agracultural Experiment Station, 1936-37; Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of Minnesota, since 1937. Rural Sociologist, Dept. of State, making study of rural life in Caribbean, 1945-46. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Sociological Soc.; Rural Sociological Soc. (Pres. 1944); Natl. Planning Assn.; Sociological Research Assn. Author: A Social Survey of Escalante, 1925; The Utah Farm Village of Ephraim, 1928; Some Social and Economic Factors in American Fork, Utah, 1931; Rural Sociology, 1947. Address: University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

NELSON, OSCAR, American Industrialist; born March 2, 1879, Sweden; son of Eric and Sophia (Carlson) Nilsson; educated in the public schools of Hvena, Sweden; married Harriet Engstrom, Dec. 4, 1918; four children. Pres. and General Manager, United Carbon Co., since 1925. President of United Carbon Co., Inc.; United Producing Co., Inc.; Combined Carbon Co., Inc.; Westoak Gasoline Co., Inc.; United Gas Co. of W. Va.; Vice-Pres., Texas Carbon Industries, Inc.; Kosmos Carbon Co.; Eastern Carbon Black Co.; National Gas Products Assn.; Director of Mississippi River Fuel Corp. and Carbon Black Export, Inc. President of Oscar Nelson, Inc., engaged in breeding of Hereford cattle, and in farming at Morlunda Farms in Greenbrier County,

W. Va. Member: Amer. Soc. of Swedish Engineers; Board of Governors, Amer. Swedish Historical Museum. Residence: Charleston and Lewisburg, W. Va. Office: United Carbon Bldg., Charleston, W. Va.

NELSON, Dr. WILLIAM STUART, American Theologian and Educator; born Oct. 15, 1895, Paris, Ky.; son of William Henry and Emma (Kersands) Nelson; educated at Howard Univ., A.B. 1920, LL.D. 1936; Union Theological Seminary, 1920-21; Yale Divinity School, B.D. 1924; Sorbonne and Protestant Theological Seminary, Paris, 1921-22; Univ. of Marburg and Univ. of Berlin, 1922-23; Shaw Univ., LL.D. 1936; married Blanche Louise Wright, May 5, 1926. Instructor in Religion and Philosophy, 1924-26; Asst. Prof., 1926-29; Assoc. Prof. and Asst. to Pres., Howard Univ., 1929-31. Pres., Shaw Univ., 1931-36; Pres., Dillard Univ., 1936-40. Dean, School of Religion, Howard Univ., since 1940. Member, Board of Directors, Washington Federation of Churches; Fellow, Natl. Council for Religion in Higher Education; Member: Religious Education Assn.; Soc. for Advancement of Education; Conference on Science, Philosophy and Religion; Citizens Com. on Race Relations. Author: La Race Noire dans la Democratie Americaine (Paris), 1921; Editor, The Journal of Religious Thought. Address: Howard University, Washington, D. C.

NEMCHINOV, Prof. V. S., Soviet Agriculturalist. Director, Lenin Agricultural Academy. Acting Member, Byelorussian Academy of Sciences. Elected Member, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., 1946. Awarded: Stalin Prize, 1946. Served as Delegate to the United Nations Conference on Food and Agriculture at Hot Springs, Va. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NÉMEC, FRANTISEK, Czechoslovak Diplomat; born May 20, 1898, Libisany, Czechoslovakia; son of Jan Némec and Anna (Stejskalová) Némec; educated at secondary schools; married Jirina Maresová, July 1, 1920; one daughter. Editor, 1919-32. Member, Bd. of Administration, Czech State Railways, 1932-33; Secy. General to the Union of Czechoslovak Railwaymen, 1933-35. Member of Parliament, 1935-39; Minister of Social Welfare in the Government-in-Exile (London), 1940-42. Minister of Economic Reconstruction (also in charge of Commerce and Industry) 1942-44. Named Government Delegate to Liberated Territories of Czechoslovakia, Aug. 1944. Minister to Canada, 1947-48. Address: Room 405, 104 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

NEMEJC, Dr. FRANTISEK, Czechoslovak Geologist and Palaeontologist; born June 12, 1901, Hrusov, Silesia, Czechoslovakia; son of Ing. F. and Eleonora (Mauerová) Nemejc; educated at Charles Univ., Sc.D. 1924. Docent in Palaeobotany, 1929, Prof. of Palaeobotany, 1935; married Olga Sourková, 1940. Teacher of Natural History and Chemistry, Real School, Prague, 1923; Gymnasium, Hradec Králové, 1924. Asst., Geological and Palaeontological Dept., National Museum, Prague, 1924; Keeper, Palaeontological Collections, 1925; Head of Geological and Palaeontological Dept., since 1939. Secy., Com. for Research in Physiography of Bohemia. Member: French Geological Soc.; Czechoslovak Soc. of Mineralogy and Geology; Czechoslovak Botanical Soc.; Royal Soc. of Sciences. Address: National Museum, Václavské námesti, Prague II, Czechoslovakia.

NEMENOFF, GENIA, Pianist; born Nov. 28, 1908, Paris, France; daughter of Aaron and Marie (Jacob) Nemenoff; studied with Jean Hure and Philippe at Paris Conservatory; married Pierre Luboshutz. Debut as a member of duo-pianists team Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff at Carnegie Hall, New York, 1935; concertized throughout the United States and Canada since 1935. Played with major symphony orchestras including New York Philharmonic, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Detroit, Baltimore, Washington orchestras. Residence: 120 E. 89th St., New York, N. Y.

NEMEROV, DAVID, American Merchant; born July 6, 1895, New York, N. Y.; son of Meyer and Fannie (Bain) Nemerov; educated at New York public schools; married Gertrude Russek, April 28, 1920; three children. Began career as stock boy, 1910; Secy., Russeks 5th Ave., Inc., 1920-29; Director since 1924. Vice-President, 1929-31, Executive Vice-President since 1931, Vice-Pres. and Director, 390 5th Ave. Corp., since 1924; President, Fashion Firsts, Inc., 1936; President, Fashion Life, Inc., 1936; Executive Vice-President, Russeks Wholesale, Inc., 1939-43; President, Bridco Realty Corp., since 1944. Active in Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, Joint Defense Appeal (Chairman, Retail Division); Chairman, Board of Governors, Home and Hospital of the Daughters of Jacob; Director: Anti-Defamation League Member: National Retail Dry Goods Assn.; Fifth Ave. Assn.; Mercantile Section, New York Board of Trade. During First World War, served as Lieutenant, U. S. Army. Residence: 888 Park Ave. Office: 390 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

NEMOURS, General ALFRED, Haitian Political Leader; born 1883, Camp Haitien; educated at Lycées Condorcet and Louis le Grand in Paris, Univ. of Paris, French Military Acad. at St. Cyr. Served in Haitian Army, 1905-15; entered diplomatic service as Counsellor of State, 1918; Chargé d'Affaires at Legation in Holland, 1922-25; President, Haitian Council of State, 1925-26; Minister to France, 1926-29. Haitian Delegate to League of Nations; Vice-President of Sixth Commission of League of Nations, 1926, and Vice-President of Assembly of League of Nations, 1927; Delegate to International Commission for Air Navigation in Paris, 1929; Member, Haitian Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Appointed Secretary of the Interior, 1940; elected a Senator and President of the Senate, 1941. Address: The Senate, Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

NEMRY, The Hon. LÉON C., Belgian Ambassador to the Netherlands; born Sept. 5, 1882, Beauraing, Belgium; educated at University of Liège; married M. L. de Thenen; two children. Author: The Low Countries After the World War, 1925; The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg; Studies on Former German Colonies, on the Philippines, etc. Residence: Jacob Catslaan 14. Office 38, Nassauplein, The Hague, Netherlands.

NENNI, PIETRO, Italian Statesman; born Feb. 9, 1891, Faenza, Italy; son of Giuseppe and Angela (Castellani) Nenni; married Carmen Emiliani, Mar. 9, 1911; four children. Chief Editor, Lucifero, Ancona, 1911-14; served in Italian Army, World War I; Director of Giornale del Mattino, Bologna, 1918-19; Editor, Secolo (democratic journal), Milan, 1920; Editor-in-Chief and later Director, Avanti (socialist paper), 1921-26 and 1947—; in exile in Paris, 1927-43. Contributor to Quotidien, Populaire, Peuple, etc. Dir., Nuovo Avanti, Paris, eight years; Political Commissary, Spanish Civil War, 1936-38; arrested in France, 1942, imprisoned at Saint Flour; arrested by Germans, 1943, deported to Italy, imprisoned at Rome; liberated same year. Secy.-General, Italian Socialist Party, 1943-44; Pres. until 1947. High Commissioner, Commn. against Fascism; Vice-Pres., Council of Ministers; Minister of Foreign Affairs. Member, Constituent Assembly. Vice-Premier in Cabinet formed by Premier Ferruccio Parri, June 1945. Minister in Cabinet of Premier Alcide de Gasperi, Dec. 1945; Foreign Affairs Minister in 2nd Cabinet of Premier Alcide de Gasperi, July 1946; Vice-Premier until 1947. Member of Executive, International Socialist Workers. Author: Sei anni di guerra civile in Italia; Storia di quattro anni; Stori della lotta di classe in Italia. Residence: Corso Trieste 42. Office: Palazzo Viminale, Piazza Viminale, Rome, Italy.

NEOGY, KSHITISH CHANDRA, Indian Advocate; born 1888, Dacca, Eastern Bengal, India; son of late Sj. Satish Chandra Neogy and Sja. Kunja Sashi Devi; educated at Presidency College of Calcutta University, M.A. 1910, LL.B. 1911; married Lila Neogy; three children. Began career as a journalist; later admitted to the Bar of the Calcutta High Court. Legal and Political Adviser to several Indian States since 1918; Legal Adviser to the Chamber of Princes since 1942. Elected Member of the Central Legislative Assembly for Dacca Division General Constituency, 1920; thrice re-elected (until 1934). Chief Minister of Mayurbhanj State, 1935-40; Member of the Ministers' Committee of the Chamber of Princes, 1940-41. Chairman, Committee of Ministers of the Eastern States, 1940-41; re-elected to the Central Legislative Assembly for Dacca Division, 1942; on the panel of Chairmen of the Central Legislative Assembly. Attended three of the Indian Round Table Conferences held in London as an Adviser to the Indian States Delegation. Member of Committee of the Indian Council of World Affairs. Indian Rept., U. N. Commission on Human Rights, 1946. Member, Indian Legislative Assembly, 1946-47; Chmn., Planning Advisory Bd.; Chmn., Indian Railway Enquiry Com., 1947. Minister, Govt. of India, in charge of Relief and Rehabilitation, 1947—. Residence: 13-A Southern Ave., Calcutta, India.

NEOVIUS, NILS HJALMAR, Finnish Jurist; born March 21, 1877, Joensuu, Finland; son of August and Tilda (Arppe) Neovius; married Elsa Jäppinen, 1919; one daughter. Civil Servant, Court of Appeals, Wiborg, 1908; imprisoned in Kresty, St. Petersburg for opposition to Russian oppression in Finland, 1913-14. Engaged in private law practice at Wiborg; Councilor, Court of Appeal, after World War I; Member of Supreme Court, Helsinki, 1918-40; Pres., Supreme Court of Finland, 1940-45. Awarded: Freedom Cross 2nd class; Finnish White Rose Great Cross. Address: Kulosaari, Helsinki, Finland.

NEPAL, His Highness Maharaja PADMA SHUMSHERE Jung Bahadur Rana, G.C.S.I., G.B.E., Nepalese Prime Minister; born Dec. 31, 1882; son of Their late Highnesses Maharaja Bhim Shumshere Jung Bahadur Rana and Jetha Bada Maharani; educated at Durbar School, Kathmandu; married, 1899; six children. Lieut. General, 1898; General, 1901; Northern Command, 1914; Southern Command, 1929; Western Command, 1932; Commander-in-Chief, Nepalese Army, 1934. Prime Minister and Supreme Commander-in-Chief of Nepal, since 1945. Supervised construction of first Hydro-Electric Installation, first Aerial Ropeway and first Railway in Nepal; also the Motor Road from Amlekhganj to Bhimphedi, and Telephone Line linking the Capital to the Frontier; Director-General in Charge of these Depts., 1910-15, 1919-32; General Officer Commanding Nepalese Contingent stationed in North West Frontier, World War I, 1915-19; commanded Nepalese Contingent during 3rd Afghan War, 1919 (despatches; British War Medal; Indian General Service Medal with clasp); supervised despatch of Nepalese Contingent to India, World War II, 1939-45, and saw troops off beyond the Frontier. Signed an Agreement of Commerce and Friendship with the U.S.A., 1947. Appointed Hon. Lieut. General, British Army and Hon. Col. of all Gurkha Rifle Regiments in Indian Army, 1946. Awarded numerous decorations. Address: Bisal Nagar Durbar, Kathmandu, Nepal.

NERÉN, Capt. JOHN, Swedish Editor and Author; born September 2, 1871, Stora Mellösa, Örebro län, Sweden; son of Jan Erik Erikson and Hilda Ahlström; passed sea captain's examination, 1895; married Valborg Edberg, Oct. 12, 1896; three sons and two daughters. Began career as a sailor, 1892; barman at Royal Hotel, Capetown, 1895; bookkeeper, Johannesburg, Transvaal, 1896; Assistant Manager, South African Tobacco Co., 1896; Manager of Swedish Exporting Co., Johannesburg, 1902; Detachment Chief, Wiklunds, Stockholm, 1907; Manager, John Nerén & Co., 1910; Editor-in-Chief of "Motor," 1914; of "Motor" and of "Svensk Motor Tidning" (official publication of Royal Automobile Club of Sweden), 1923; Editor-in-Chief of Motor-Encyclopedi since 1926. Official Assayer, 1918-42; estimated the value of motor cars, lorries and motor cycles (for the Government), 1942-44. Taught navigation at private navigation school, 1910-14, and during World War I at Training School for Swedish Coast Guard, 1916; also taught at drivers school, 1910-14. Recipient of "Night Cup" for first victory in night regatta; Gold Medal as winner of "Winter Cup," 1912 (650 miles through ice and snow); Gold Medal as gentleman driver; Golden Plate awarded by Royal Automobile Club and Royal Motor Boat Club of Sweden. Author of thirty books including Nerens Loggbok, 1910 (2d ed., 1912); Nerens Bil-Bok (several eds.), 1911-25; Motor Cycle Manual (2 vols.), 1924-26; Encyclopedia of Motoring, 1927 (supplements up to date); Motor Dictionary (in four languages: Swedish, English, French and German, 1928); Korkortsprovet, 1928 (18th ed., 1945); The History of the Automobile, 1937; Historical Book on Home Parish (awarded 7,000 crowns), 1944; Memoirs (16 years at sea, in the Brazilian forest primeval and in the South African goldfields), 1945. Address: Agnegatan 38, Stockholm, Sweden.

NERMAN, AKE PIHLGREN, Swedish Manufacturer; born Oct. 13, 1866, Karlstad, Sweden; son of Axel Nerman and Anne Pihlgren; educated at secondary schools of Karlstad and later studied abroad; married Greta Samuelson, Mar. 24, 1919; three children. Owner, firm of Hjalmar Peterson & Co., Karlstad, 1914-35; founded and became owner of Nermans Trycksaker, 1920 and of Nermans Stampler, 1921. Managing Director: A.B. Svensk Pappersexport; Ake Nerman A.B., Karlstad. Member, Board of Directors, Wermlands Enskilds Bank, A.B., Karlstad. Appointed Vice-Consul, Republic of Latvia, 1928, Consul in Karlstad since 1929. Chairman of Board, Wermlands Enskilds Banks 75-year Fund, 1929; Representative of Depositors in Management of Karlstads Sparbank, 1927. Member, Board of Directors, Wermlands Stadshypotesforening, 1929; Member, Board of Administration, Wermlands Tourist Traffic Soc., 1925, Secy.-Treas. and Vice-Chairman, Exec. Com., 1937-38. Awarded several decorations, including Gold Medal of Fylgia. Author of two books on Latvia. Residence: Strandvägen 14. Office: Västra, Torggatan 15, Karlstad, Sweden.

NERMAN, EINAR, Swedish Cartoonist, Illustrator and Portrait Painter; born

Oct. 6, 1888, Norrköping, Sweden; studied art in Stockholm under Prof. Bergh; in Paris under Matisse; married Kajsa Erikson-Tramcourt; one son and two daughters. Cartoonist for the Tatler, 1921-30. Illustrator of several works in Swedish literature; painted several portraits and many decorative and other pictures; sketched and executed scenic designs for theatrical productions, including: The Foolish Virgins of the Swedish Ballet (produced in London). Made numerous posters (many displayed in London); also illustrated book and music covers. Executed sculptures and other pieces of decorative art. Caricaturist in Sweden for many years. Illustrated for Vogue, Femina, Cinema, La Vie Parisienne, The New Yorker and others; painted portraits of stars of London stage; made decorations in 50-50 Club, Swedish Club in London; held exhibition in Alpine Club Gallery, 1925 and 1927. Studied choreographic art under Anna Behle, Dalcroze system and ballet dancing; many exhibitions on tours in Sweden; appeared in London Coliseum. Resides in New York City since 1939, working as a portrait painter and illustrator for book publishers and newspapers. Author of several volumes of caricatures; nursery books with texts and illustrations; illustrated fairy tales of H. C. Andersen; made sets of artistic playing cards; illustrated Fredman's Epistles by C. M. Bellman and Gösta Berling's Saga, also other works by Selma Lagerlöf. Address: Hersbyholm, Lidingö, Sweden.

NESBIT, Dr. REED MILLER, American Surgeon; born Dec. 8, 1898, Concord, Calif.; son of Rev. Edward T. and Effie A. Nesbit; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1921, M.D. 1925; married Mabel O. Wilkins, Apr. 7, 1928; three daughters. Instructor of Surgery, Univ. of Mich. Med. School, 1926-29; Asst. Prof., 1929-32; Assoc. Prof., 1932-43; Prof. of Surgery since 1943. In charge of Section on Urol., University Hosp., since 1930. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons; Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Urol. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Genito-Urinary Surgeons; Internatl. Urol. Soc.; Clinical Soc. of Genito-Urinary Surgeons. Author: Fundamentals of Urology, 1942; Transurethral Prostatectomy, 1943. Address: University Hosp., Ann Arbor, Mich.

NESMEIANOV, Prof. ALEKSANDER NIKOLAYEVICH, Soviet University President; born 1899. Outstanding worker in chemistry of organometallic compounds; reported first research into decomposition of double salts of mercury and diazonium halogenides which under certain conditions lead to formation of either iodinium salts or to organometallic compounds of mercury, 1929; studied the addition of halogenides of certain elements to unsaturated compounds; advanced new method of synthesis of acid fluorides and prepared formyl fluoride, the first representative of formyl halogenides. Director, Institute of Organic Chemistry of Acad. of Sciences of U.S.S.R., 1939—; Secy. of Chemistry Dept., Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., 1946—. President, Moscow State Univ., 1948—. Member, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Awarded Stalin Prize, 1st class, 1943. Vice-Pres., Internatl. Chemical Assn., 1947—. Address: Moscow State University, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NESSE, JOHS, Norwegian Editor: born Sept. 26, 1891, Alversun, Norway; son of Anders and Anna (Rydland) Nesse; educated at Superior War Acad.; married Torill Bjornaraa, Mar. 18, 1918; three children. Officer, Editorial Dept., Aftenposten, 1917-21; Night Editor, 1924; Political Editor, 1928; Chief Editor, since 1930. Vice-Pres., Norsk Telegrambyraa, since 1932. President: Norsk Pressefor-bund, 1936-38; Oslo Redaktoerforening, 1939. Member, Conservative Party, since 1928. Member, P.E.N. Club. Author: Tidsanden son knekket var okonomi, 1927; Et alvarlig valg, 1928. Residence: Thomas Heftyesgate 24. Office: Akersgaten 51, Oslo, Norway.

NESTEROV, MIKHAIL, Soviet Economist. President of the U.S.S.R. Chamber of Commerce since 1943. Chairman of the new Foreign Trade Arbitration Board of Chamber of Commerce, 1946—. Address: Chamber of Commerce of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NESTEROVA, I. SETKINA, Soviet Film Producer. Associated with film production industry many years. Awarded Stalin Prize for documentary film production "Defeat in Japan." Address: Ministry of Cinematography, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NESTOR de BARROS RIBEIRO, Prof. ODILON, Brazilian Lawyer; born Feb. 26, 1876, Teixeira, State of Parahyba, Brazil; son of José Jeronimo de Barros Ribeiro and Marcionila Ribeiro; educated at Law Faculty, Univ. of Recife. Public Atty., 1901; Prof., Faculty of Law, Univ. of Recife, 1907-42; Dir., 1936, 1937. Engaged in private law practice at Recife. President, French-Brazilian Cultural Assn. Member, Brazilian Order of Lawyers. Author: Juvenilia (poetry), 1906; Responsibilidade Civil do Estado, 1912; Condição dos estrangeiros na Antiguidade, 1918; Historia da Faculdade de direito de Recife, 1930; Aproximações ensaios, 1933; Atenas, Roma e Yesus (essays), 1943; O Barqueiro das Sombras (poetry), 1945. Address: Rua Conde da Boa Vista 1612, Recife, Brazil.

NETHERCOT, Dr. ARTHUR HOBART, American Professor of English; born Apr. 20, 1895, Chicago, Ill.; son of Charles Walter and Anna Louise (Hobart) Nethercot; educated at Northwestern Univ., B.A. 1915, M.A. 1916; Oxford Univ., 1919; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1922; married Mary Josephine Macdougall, 1922; two sons. Instructor of English, Northwestern Univ., 1919-24; Asst. Prof., 1924-31; Assoc. Prof., 1931-39; Prof. of English since 1939. Member of Modern Language Assn. (Secy. of Drama Group, 1940-44); Modern Humanities Research Assn., etc. Author: Abraham Cowley, 1930; Sir William D'Avenant, 1938; The Road to Tryermaine, 1939; Elizabethan and Stuart Plays, 1934; Book of Long Stories, 1927; also articles on metaphysical poets, Oscar Wilde, and the American drama. Address: Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

NETOUSEK, Prof. Dr. MILOS, Czechoslovak Professor of Medicine; born Dec. 1, 1889, Slavkov, Czechoslovakia; son of Albín and Marie (Chobolová) Netousek; educated at Medical Faculty, Prague, 1907-12, M.D.; married Milada Pecháckova, June 22, 1935. Prof. of Physiology, Univ. of Bratislava, 1920-26; Prof. of Medicine, 1927-38. Prof. of Medicine: Masaryk Univ., Brno, 1938-39; Charles Univ., Prague, since 1945. Dean of Medical Faculty, Bratislava, 1930-31. Director of State Hospital, Prague XVII, 1943-45. Hon. Member: Internatl. Gastroenterological Soc., Brussels; Medical Soc., Sofia; Soc. of Military Medicine, Paris. Officer, Legion of Honor, France. Author: Pathologická Fysiologie, 3 vols., 1924, 1925; Klinická Fysiologie, 1929; Fysiologie ve vnitrním lekarství, 1941; Choroby krvetvorného ustrojí, 1941; Krevní prevod, 1944; Pathologie a therapie vnitrních nemocí, 1947; Nauka o krvi, 1948. Residence: 28 Václavské námestí. Office: State Hospital, City of Prague, Prague XVII, Czechoslovakia.

NETTL, Dr. PAUL, Czechoslovak Musicologist and Music Educator; born Jan. 10.

1899, Hohenelbe, Czechoslovakia; son of Karl and Jenny (Beckova) Nettl; educated at Universities of Prague and Vienna, Ph.D. and LL.D., 1913 and 1915; married Gertrude Hutter, March 28, 1928; one child. Assistant Professor at University of Prague since 1922. Head of Musicological Department at University of Prague, 1927-31; Director of Music Department, Czechoslovak Broadcasting System (Prague II). Professor of Westminster Choir College since 1939; teacher at the Music Settlement School in Philadelphia, Pa., since 1943. Prof. of Musicology, Indiana Univ., 1946 —. Member, Amer. Musicological Society; American Research Lodge. Author: Mozart in Bohemia, 1938; Vienna Dance Music in the 17th Century, 1923; Mozart and Royal Art, 1926; Musical Baroque Period in Bohemia and Moravia, 1927; Vienna Baroque Song, 1934; The Musical History of the Dance, 1945; Luther and Music, 1946. Contributor to many magazines and papers. Address: School of Music, Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.

NETTLEFOLD, Sir THOMAS SYDNEY, Australian Administrator; born November 11, 1879, Baden, Tasmania; son of Thomas and Susan (Brindley) Nettlefold; educated at Gruncell's Private School, Hobart, Tasmania; married Gertrude E. Sargison, Feb. 1905; three children. Chairman of Board of Directors: T. N. Nettlefold & Sons, Pty., Ltd.; Cement Distributors, Pty., Ltd.; Royal Insurance Co., Ltd.; Woodall-Duckham, Pty., Ltd.; Director of Pyrox, Pty., Ltd.; The Mutual Store, Ltd. Lord Mayor of Melbourne City Council, 1942-45. Member of City Council since 1930. Awarded Order of British Empire; created Knight Bachelor, Jan. 1, 1945. Office: Goliath House, 189 King St., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

NETTLETON, Dr. GEORGE HENRY, American Literary Historian; born 1874. Lampson Prof. of English, Yale Univ. Author: English Drama of the Restoration and Eighteenth Century (1642-1780), 1921; Sheridan et la comédie de moeurs, 1931. Editor: Old Testament Narratives, 1909; The Book of the Yale Pageant (in commemoration of the 200th Anniversary of the removal of Yale College to New Haven), 1916; Yale in the World War, 1925; British Dramatists from Dryden to Sheridan (with Arthur E. Case), 1939. Compiler, Triennial Record of the Class of 1896 in Yale College, 1899. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

NETZEN, GÖSTA, Swedish Editor; born Jan. 30, 1908, Valbo, Sweden; son of E. P. Netzen and T. Olsson; educated at public schools; married Margit Eliasson, 1936; one daughter. Journalist, 1928; Editor. Lantarbetaren, 1935; now Editor-in-Chief of Arbetet, Malmö. Recipient, King Christian's Freedom Medal. Residence: Erikstorpsgatan 18. Office: Bergsgatan 20, Malmö, Sweden.

NEUBERG, Dr. CARL, German Biochemist; born July 29, 1879, Hannover, Germany; son of Julius Neuberg and Alma (Niemann) Neuberg; educated at Univs. of Berlin and Wurzberg (Ph.D. 1900); married Hela Lewinski, 1907; two children. Assistant, Pathological Institute of Berlin, 1899; Chief of Department of Physiological Chemistry, Institute for Animal Physiology, College of Agriculture of Berlin, 1909-13; Second Director, Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Experimental Therapy, 1913-19; Director, Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Biochemistry, 1919-37. Privat Dozent, 1903; Professor, 1906; full Professor, 1916, University of Berlin. Honorary Member, Scientific Academies of Göttingen, Prague, Rome, Upsala, Lund, Barcelona, Vienna, Copenhagen and Lisbon; Chemical and Medical Societies of Budapest, Stockholm, Moscow and Amsterdam. Medallist, Soc. Chim. de France, Soc. de Biochimie de France, l'Institut Pasteur (Paris), Verein Deutscher Chemiker and Chemical and Medical Societies of Sweden. Received honorary doctorates from the Universities of Breslau, St. Petersburg, Danzig, Catania and St. Andrews. Editor and Founder, Biochemische Zeitschrift, 1906-38. Address: New York University, New York, N. Y.

NEUBURGER, Dr. MAX, Medical Historian; born Dec. 8, 1868, Vienna, Austria; son of Ferdinand Max and Helen (Defflis) Neuberger; educated at Univ. of Vienna, M.D. 1893, Ph.D. 1917; married Johanna Ruth Conrad, May 2, 1899 (dec. 1930); two sons. Neuropathologist in Vienna, 1896; Asst., Poliklinik of Vienna, until 1904. Privatdocent of Med. History, Univ. of Vienna, 1898-1904; Prof. Extraordinary, 1904-17; Prof. of History of Medicine and Director of Historical Medical Museum, 1917-38. Adviser to Wellcome Historical Medical Museum, London, since 1939. Member: Deutsche Akademie der Naturforscher und Aerzte (Halle); Academia de Sciencia de Lisbôa; Hon. Doctor of Medicine, Universidad de Madrid. Hon. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Medicine of London; Academia Nacional de Medicina of Mexico. Corresponding Member of German, Swiss, Italian, Spanish, Swedish Medical Socs. Author: Die Entwicklung der experimentellen Gehirnphysiologie, 1897; Geschichte der Medizin, 1906; Die Lehre von der Heilkraft der Natur, 1926; British Medicine and the Vienna Medical School, 1943. Address: Wellcome Historical Museum, 183 Euston Road, London, N.W. 1, England.

NEUGEBAUER, Dr. O. E., Austrian Mathematician; born in Inssbruck, Austria, May 26, 1899; son of R. and J. (Richter) Neugebauer; educated at Graz, Munich and Göttingen (Ph.D. 1926); LL.D., St. Andrews (Scotland), 1938. Assistant in Mathematics, Göttingen, 1923; became Professor, 1928; Professor at Copenhagen, 1934; Professor of Mathematics at Brown University since 1939. Editor, "Zentralblatt für Mathematik," 1931-38; Co-Editor, "Quellen u. Studien z. Geschichte d. Mathematik," 1930-38. Managing Editor, "Mathematical Review," since 1939. Member: Royal Danish Acad. (1934); Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences (1946). Address: Brown University, Providence, R. I.

NEUGER, Dr. KONRAD, American Chorus Director (Opera), Pianist, Conductor; born Oct. 18, 1890, Krakow, Poland; son of Konrad and Helena (Patzau) Neuger; educated at Univ. of Krakow, Poland; Univ. of Vienna, Doctor of Music; studied with famous T. Leschetizky in Vienna; married Marie Scheling, 1935. Conducted "Traviata" in Bavaria at age of 18. Gave first piano recital at 11 in Krakow, Poland. Went to Vienna to study and was Asst. Conductor and Chorus Master at Vienna Volksoper. Appointed Chorus Master by Dr. Bruno Walter at Munich-Staats Opera, where remained 10 years; in Leipzig, 5 years. Accompanied Richard Tauber, Ruffo, Kiepura; ten years at Metropolitan Opera; now Conductor, Hull House Opera Workshop and Head of Opera Dept., Chicago Musical College; Chorus Master, Chicago Opera. Member, Leschetizky Assn. of America. Residence: Hull House, Chicago 7, Ill.

NEUHÄUSLER, Most Rev. JOHANN, Roman Catholic Bishop; born Jan. 27, 1888, Eisenhofen, Bavaria, Germany; son of Georg and Magdalena (Fuchsbüchler) Neuhäusler; educated at Univ. of Munich, graduate, awarded Hon. Dr. degree. Ordained Priest, 1913; consecrated Bishop, April 20, 1947. Chaplain, Oberaudorf, 1913-

17; Vice-Pres., Catholic Craftsmen, Munich, 1917-18; Pres., Ludwig Missionsverein (Soc. for Propagation of Faith), 1918-32; Canon, Cathedral of Munich; Reporter on ecclesiastical-political affairs for Archbishop of Munich, 1932; in concentration camps of Sachsenhausen and Dachau, 1941-45; Auxiliary Bishop to Cardinal Faulhaber, since 1947. Editor, Die Weltmission der katholischen Kirche (review), 1923-32; Kreuz und Hakenkreuz (Missionsatlas); The Struggle of National Socialism against the Catholic Church and the ecclesiastical Resistance, 1945. Residence: Werdenfelsstr. 19. Office: Promenaderplatz 2, Munich, Bavaria, Germany.

NEUHOF, Dr. HAROLD, American Surgeon; educated at Columbia Univ. College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. 1905. Clinical Prof. of Surgery, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ. Attending Surgeon, Mount Sinai Hospital. Consulting Surgeon, Montefiore Hospital for Chronic Diseases. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Address: College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, New York 32, N. Y.

NEUHUYS, PAUL, Belgian Author; born Sept. 16, 1897, Antwerp, Belgium; son of Auguste and Anna (Bürgi) Neuhuys; educated at Sorbonne, Paris; married Georgette Nyssens, Dec. 31, 1924; two children. Began as poet in 1913. Author: Le Marchand de Sable; La Fontaine de Jouvence; Le Secrétaire d'Acajou; L'Herbier Magique (all poetry); Marnix de Sainte Aldegonde, Erasme, Charles-Quint (historical essays); Médée; Prométhée, Verlaine (plays). Address: Cruys Ave. 62, Deurne, Antwerp, Belgium.

NEUMAN, Dr. LESTER, American Clinical Pathologist; born Oct. 24, 1888, Washington, D. C.; son of Isaac and Ella (Offenheimer) Neuman; educated at Georgetown Univ., M.D. 1913, B.S. 1917; married Janet Nusbaum, Feb. 22, 1918; two children. Prof. of Histol. and Embryol., 1914-15; Assoc. Prof. of Path., Georgetown Univ. Med. School, 1915-37; Assoc. Path., Georgetown Univ. Hosp. until 1937. Path., Gallinger Municipal Hosp., 1919-30; Providence Hosp., 1940. Now Path. at Emergency Hosp., Glenn Dale Sanitarium; Doctors Hosp. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Path. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Physicians; Member: Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathologists; Internatl. Med. Club. Address: 1835 Eye St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

NEUMANN, Dr. ABRAHAM AARON, American College President; born Sept. 23, 1890, in Austria; son of Max and Rachel (Rose) Neuman; educated at Columbia Univ., B.S. 1909, M.A. 1912; Jewish Theological Seminary of America. Rabbi, 1912, H.L.D. 1914; LL.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1945. Instructor of History, Teachers Institute, Jewish Theological Seminary of America, New York, 1912. Instructor in History, Dropsie College, 1913-23; Associate Professor, 1923-34; President since 1941. Rabbi: Congregation B'Nai Jeshurun, Philadelphia, 1919-27; Congregation Mikveh Israel (the second oldest Jewish congregation in the United States), 1927-43; elected Honorary Rabbi, 1943. Editor, Jewish Quarterly Review; Trustee and Chairman of College Committee and Vice-President, Board of Overseers, Gratz College, Philadelphia. Recording Secretary, American Jewish Historical Society; Revising Editor, Universal Jewish Encyclopedia. Honorary Fellow, Jewish Academy of Arts and Sciences; Honorary Member, American Academy for Jewish Research. Author: The Jews in Spain; Their Social, Political and Cultural Life During the Middle Ages (2 vols.), 1942; Cyrus Adler, a Biographical Sketch, 1940; Relation of the Hebrew Scriptures to American Institutions; Shebet Yehudah and Sixteenth Century Historiography, 1945; Samuel Usque: Marrano Historian of the Sixteenth Century, 1946; Judaism in The Great Religions of the Modern World, 1946. Address: Dropsie College, Philadelphia, Pa.

NEUMANN, ALFRED, American Author; born Oct. 15, 1895, Lautenberg, Germany; son of Wolff and Malvina (Joseph) Neumann; educated at Berlin, Rostock, Munich, etc.; married Katharina Schatzberger-Mueller, 1924. Exiled by Nazis, 1933; now a U. S. citizen. Works (translated into many languages) include (novels): The Patriot, 1924; King Haber, 1925; The Devil (Kleist Prize), 1926; Rebels, 1927; Guerra, 1928; The Hero, 1930; Mirror of Fools, 1932; Another Caesar, 1934; The Gaudy Empire, 1936; Die Goldquelle, 1937; The Friends of People, 1940; Six of Them, 1945. Biographies: Alfred de Musset, 1920; Christine of Sweden, 1934. Plays: Patriot, 1927; Koenigsmaske, 1928; Frauenschuh, 1930; Haus Danieli, 1931; War and Peace (Tolstoy), dramatised by A. Neumann (published by Erwin Piscator, New York, 1942), 1938; Abel, 1945. Motion pictures based on his works: The Patriot, 1928 and 1937; La Tragédie Impériale, 1937; Conflict, 1942; None Shall Escape, 1943; The Return of Monte Cristo, 1945; Nobel (for Paul Muni), 1946; Matto, 1946. Address: 1517 N. Genesee Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

NEUMANN, ERNEST KARL, American Lawyer; born in Delavan, Ill., Dec. 15, 1898; son of Ernest W. and Lina S. (Baessler) Neumann; educated at Univ. of Kansas, LL.B. 1923; married Elizabeth Ellen Hogue, Dec. 2, 1931. Entered law practice at Carlsbad, N. M., 1923. Police Judge, 1923-24; City Attorney, 1926-31. Member and Democratic Leader, House of Representatives of New Mexico, 1927-29; Attorney General of New Mexico and Interstate River Commissioner of New Mexico, 1931-35. Chairman, Board of Supervisors, Board of the New Mexico State Police, 1933-35. Appointed attorney in charge of general litigation, Home Owners Loan Corp., Washington, 1935; Asst. General Counsel, 1939-40; Assoc. General Counsel, 1940. Assoc. General Counsel of Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, 1941-42. Member of Board of Directors: H.O.L.C.; Federal Credit Union, Washington. General Counsel for Group Health Assn., Inc. of Washington. Member, Amer., Federal and New Mexico Bar Assns. Served in U. S. Navy, 1917-19. Lt. Cmdr. in U. S. Naval Reserves, 1936-41; commissioned in U. S. Army Air Forces; on overseas service as Lt. Col., A. C., assigned as Director of Public Safety, Office of Military Government, Greater Hesse, Germany. Residence: Carlsbad, N. M., and 4408 Brandywine N.W., Washington, D. C.

NEUMANN, Dr. FRANZ L., American Political Scientist; born May 23, 1900, Katowice, Poland; son of Josef and Gertrud (Gutherz) Neumann; educated at Breslau, Leipzig, Rostock, Frankfurt, 1918-21; J. D. (Frankfurt) 1923; London School of Economics, 1934-36, Ph.D. 1936; married Inge S. Werner, Jan. 1, 1937; two sons. Member, Berlin Bar, 1927-33. Counsel, Trade Unions, Berlin, 1927-33. Lecturer, German School of Politics, 1928-33. Member, Inst. of Social Research, 1936-42. Special Asst., Office of Strategic Services, 1943-45. Chief, German Research Section, Dept. of State, 1945-47; Consultant, Dept. of State, 1947—. Visiting Prof. of Government, Columbia Univ., 1947—. Visiting Prof. of Government, Columbia Univ., 1947—. Member: Amer. Political Science Assn.; Amer. Sociological Soc.; Amer. Assn. for International Law; Acad. of Political Science. Author: Behemoth: The Structure and Practice of National Socialism, 1942, 2nd edition, 1944. Residence: 2780 Arlington Ave., New York. Office: Fayerweather Hall, Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

NEUMANN, HANS, Swiss Labor Leader; born Mar. 8, 1897, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Johann and Christine (Vöhringer) Neumann; educated in public schools of Zurich, Trade School, Zurich; attended courses at Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule and Univ. of Zurich; married Frieda Heller. Began career as an electrician; later became Union Representative; Secy., Union's Legal Dept.; Secy. of Verband der Handels- Transport- und Lebensmittelarbeiter (Union). Secy. of Swiss Centre of Workers Education, Berne, since 1932. Member: Swiss Film Board; Work Soc. Pro Helvetia. Pres., Schweizerische Genossenschaftsbuchhandlungen; Verband der Handels-Transports- und Lebensmittelarbeiter der Schweiz. Author: Der Gesamtarbeitsvertrag, 1943; Freizeit des Arbeiters, 1944; and articles in various professional and cultural periodicals. Residence: Bellevuestrasse 104. Office: Monbijoustrasse 61, Berne, Switzerland.

NEUMANN, HERMAN, American Musician; born in New York City; son of Herman and Matilda Neuman; educated at public schools; Columbia Univ.; studied piano with Edwin Hughes; theory with Rubin Goldmark and John van Broekhoven; married Mary Stuart Jopp, 1925. Toured Europe, 1918-36; accompanist for Lucrezia Bori, Frieda Hempel, Anne Roselle, Benjamino Gigli, Bonelli, Manen, etc. Musical Director of radio station WYNC, since 1924. Created Masterwork Hour and other programs. Conducted WYNC Concert Orchestra in special series: Around the World of Music, Evolution of the Concerto, Evolution of the Opera, Haydn London Symphonies Series, Mozart Symphony Series, Music for Young People. Made European tour, 1936, presenting American music at key radio stations at invitation of foreign governments. Conducted radio concerts in Oslo, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Warsaw, Prague (Czech Philharmonic Orchestra), Vienna. Guest Conductor: Carnegie Pops Orchestra, New York City Symphony, Brooklyn Symphony Orchestra, Bridgeport Symphony. Arranged broadcasts for Treasury Dept. War Bond Drives, U.S.O., Red Cross. Member of Bohemians. Address: 16 Dover St., Manhattan Beach, Brooklyn 29, N. Y.

NEUMANN, ROBERT, Austro-English Author; born May 22, 1897, Vienna, Austria; son of Samuel and Josephine (Pilpel) Neumann; educated at Vienna Univ.; married Stefanie Grunwald; (2nd) Rolly Becker; one son (dec.). Worked as a bank clerk, stock broker's assistant, manager of banking branch of industrial concern, managing director of an importers firm, jobbing accountant, swimming trainer, supercargo in Dutch merchant ship, etc. Author: Die Pest von Lianora; Mit Fremden Federn; Jagd Auf Menschen und Gespenster; Sinflut (Flood, 1931); Passion (1932); Panopticum; Hochstapler novelle; Karriere (On the Make, 1932); Die Blinden Passagiere; Das Schiff Espérance (Ship in the Night, 1933); Die Macht (Mammon, 1933); Unter Falscher Flagge; Zaharoff (1934); Struensee (The Queen's Doctor, 1935); Eine Frau hat geschrien (A Woman Screamed, 1938); An den Wassern von Babylon (By the Waters of Babylon, 1939); Scene in Passing (Mr. Tibbs Passes Through, 1942); The Inquest, 1944; Children of Vienna (1946). English titles up to 1939 are translations from German, All later books written in English. Address: The P.E.N., The Porch, Tring, Herts, England.

NEUMARK, IGNACE, Polish Conductor; born July 27, 1888, Plock, Poland; son of Rudolf and Sabine (Ciechanowiecki) Neumark; educated at Royal Conservatory of Music, Leipzig, 1906-10; studied piano with Prof. Wendling; conducting with Arthur Nikisch; theory and composition with Stefan Krehl and Max Reger; married Baroness Anne Tindal Leyds, Aug. 17, 1946. Asst. Conductor, Royal Opera House, Karlsruhe, Germany, 1910; debut as conductor with Philharmonic Orchestra in Warsaw, 1911; Theatre and Opera Conductor in Germany (Jena, Bielefeld, Berlin), 1914-16; Guest Conductor in Scandinavia; Conductor of Music Soc., Oslo; Permanent Conductor, Philharmonic Orchestra, Oslo, 1919-22; Hague Residentie Orchestra (Scheveningen concerts), 1922-39. Conducted in the United States during World War II; returned to the Netherlands after liberation and resumed his work as Conductor of Hague Residentie Orchestra. Awarded: Orange Nassau Order, 1939; Poloniae Restituta, 1939. Residence: Hotel Kurhaus, Scheveningen, The Hague, The Netherlands.

NEUN, WALTER J. G., American Lawyer; born June 17, 1881, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Charles H. and Augusta (Scharringhaus) Neun; educated at Smith Acad.; Washington Univ., LL.B. and O.D.K.; married Marie Edna Nagel, Jan. 23, 1909; two sons. Began practice with Percy Werner and George L. Edwards, Lawyers, 1902; Attorney for Simmons Hardware Co., St. Louis, Mo.; Attorney for National Bank of Commerce; Asst. Circuit Attorney; Circuit Judge; Pres., Board of Aldermen, St. Louis, 1923-35; Acting Mayor of St. Louis, 1931-35. Pres., Carrie Elligson Gietner Home, Secy., Shriners Hosp. for Crippled Children; Pres., Widows & Orphans Fund Assn. Chmn., Republican City Central Com., 1922; Republican Nominee for Mayor, 1933. Member: St. Louis Bar Assn. (formerly Secy., Treasurer, Vice-Pres.); Missouri Bar Assn., Amer. Bar. Assn. Residence: 6245 Westminster Pl. Office: 418 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo.

NEURAY, PAUL M. F., Belgian Publisher; born Aug. 19, 1901, Brussels, Belgium; son of Fernand and Julie (Hislaire) Neuray; educated at Univ. of Brussels; married Marcelle Darbier, June 11, 1925; two children. Editor, Journal "La Nation Belge," Brussels, 1924; later Secy. of Editorial Board; Director of journal, since 1934; also Member of Administrative Council. Member: Association Générale de la Presse Belge; Cercle Mars et Mercure; Comité Franco-Belgique; Union Nationale des Officiers de Réserve; Fédération Nationale des Prisonniers de Guerre. Knight, Order of Leopold; Crown Order and Order of Lion; Order Polonia Restituta; Commander, Crown of Italy; St. Sava Order, Yugoslavia; Officer, Order of Christ, Portugal. Awarded: Médaille Commémorative de guerre, 1940; Gold Medal, Red Cross of Belgium. Capt. Belgian Cavalry (Reserve), World War II; Prisoner of War, five years. Residence: 129 Chaussée de Boendael. Office: 50 Place de Brouckère, Brussels, Belgium.

NEURDENBURG, Dr. MARINUS GERARDUS, Dutch Statistician; born Aug. 1, 1901, Rotterdam, The Netherlands; son of Daniel and M. W. (van der Straate) Neurdenburg; educated at Gymnasium Erasmianum, Rotterdam, 1913-18; Univ. of Leiden, M.D. 1925; Univ. of Amsterdam, postgraduate course in public health, 1926-27; married W. Haver Schmidt, Dec. 21, 1926. Statistician: Life Insurance, 1925; Medical Statistician, Municipal Public Health Dept., Amsterdam, 1926-36; Senior Medical Statistician, since 1937; Member of several Municipal Coms. on Sickness

Insurance; Teacher on Public Health Administration, School for Social Workers, Amsterdam, since 1940; Hon. Secy. General, Netherlands Soc. of Public Health and Social Medicine, 1930-46. So-editor-in-Chief, Tijdschrift voor Sociale Geneeskunde, since 1947. Member of Board, Netherlands Statistical Soc., since 1946. Secy.-Treas., Foundation Natl. Congress Public Health, 1946; Secy., Com. on Public Health Organisation, 1936-39. Editor, Report on Infant Mortality Statistics. Member: Second Com. on Public Health Organisation, 1940-41; Com. on Population Forecasts in connection with state insurance, since 1944. Fellow, Inst. of Mathematical Statistics. Member: Nederlandsch Instituut voor Documentatie en Registratuur Nider; Societeit "De Koepel," Amsterdam; Amer. Statistical Assn.; Amer. Public Health Assn.; Royal Statistical Soc. (London). Author: Doodsoorzaak en Statistiek; Medische Ervaringen in Oorlogstijd; several reports in Tijdschrift voor Sociale Geneeskunde. Address: Nieuwe Achtergracht 100, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

NEUSCHLOSZ, Dr. SIMÓN MARCELO, Argentine Professor of Medicine; born Feb. 5, 1893, Budapest, Hungary; son of Marcel Neuschlosz and Rosa Hirschler; educated at Univs. of Budapest, Berlin, Freiburg, Kiel and Goettingen, Sc.D. 1914, M.D. 1915; married (2nd) Elene Nagy, 1942; one daughter. Substitute Prof., Univ. of Budapest, 1914-19; Free Docent, Univ. of Frankfurt, Germany, 1920-22; Chief of Section, Inst. of Experimental Medicine, Univ. of Buenos Aires, 1923-24; Prof., National Univ. of the Litoral, since 1924. Author of some one hundred papers on biology, physical chemistry and philosophy; Tratado de Física Biológica, 1928-37; Bases físico-químicas de los fenomenos vitales, 1933; La física contemporanea en sus relaciones con la filosofía de la razón pura, 1937; Análisis del conocimiento científico, 1939; El hombre y su mundo a través de los siglos, 1942; La Medicina como ciencia y actividad social, 1944; Ciencia y cultura, 1944; Principios de la Biologia Moderna, 1945. Address: Facultad de Medicina, Rosario, Argentina.

NEUTRA, RICHARD J., American Architect, Planner and Consultant; born Apr. 8, 1892, Vienna, Austria; son of Sam and Elizabeth (Glaser) Neutra; educated at Univ. of Vienna, Polytechnic College (post-graduate work); Univ. of Zurich; married Dione Niederman, 1922; three children. Exhibited at Zurich, 1925 and later at Museum of Modern Art and other museums in U. S., Sweden, France, South America, Switzerland. Engaged in practice of architecture, also housing expert, city planner and consultant in New York, Chicago, Zurich, Vienna, Los Angeles, San Francisco, etc. Lectured at Columbia, Princeton, Harvard and numerous colleges in U. S., Mexico, Cuba, Peru, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Japan and European countries. Consultant to U. S. Treasury Dept., U. S. Natl. Youth Administration, U. S. Housing Authority. Architect and Consultant to Government of Puerto Rico; Chairman, California State Planning Board. Member, U. S. Advisory Council on School Planning; Amer. Delegate for Internatl. Congress for New Building, 1944; Pres. of CIAM (Congrès International d'Architecture Moderne). Awards: 1st Prize Business Center, Haifa, 1922; 1st Special Prize, House Beautiful Comp., 1935; Gold Medal, Better Homes in America, 1935; two First Prizes, Better Homes in America, 1935; 2nd Prize, General Electric Competition, 1935; 1st Prize, House Beautiful Competition, 1937; 2nd Prize, Ladies Home Journal, 1938; 1st Prize, House Beautiful Competition, 1938; Honor Medal, French Government, World Exposition, 1939; Honorary Award, Republic of Uruguay, 1940, etc. Hon. Member, Hall of Fame, New York World Exposition, 1940. Two works selected by a national jury among fifty outstanding examples of American architecture of the last decade, 1944. Author: How America Builds, 1927; America, New Building in the World, 1929. Co-author: The Circle, England; National Planning Methods of Mass Housing; House and Home (new ed. 1935); Preface to a Master Plan, 1942. Co-Editor: American Dictionary of Arts and Architecture. Contributor to Encyclopedia Britannica, 1939 and 1946, and to leading publications in U.S.A., Switzerland, England, France and Argentina. Address: 2300 Silverlake Blvd., Los Angeles 26, Calif.

NEUWEILER, Dr. WALTER, Swiss Gynecologist; born Dec. 12, 1898, Môtiers, Switzerland; son of Arnold and Emilie (Comte) Neuweiler; educated at Univ. of Berne, M.D. 1923; married Magda Witte, 1927; one daughter. Asst. Pathological Inst., Berne, 1924; with Women's Clinics, Univs. of Zurich, Vienna and Berne; Chief Physician, Women's Clinic, Univ. of Berne since 1931; Privatdocent of Gynecology, Univ. of Berne, 1933; Prof. since 1942. Member: Swiss Gynecological Soc. (Pres., 1940-42). Books: Die Vitamine der Milch, 1936; Chapters on "Konstitutionsstörungen und Wachstumsstörungen" in Handbuch für Gynaekologie "Biologie und Pathologie des Weibes," 1943; Guggisberg: Lehrbuch der Gynaekologie (co-publisher), 1946; Lehrbuch der Gynaekologischen Diagnostik, 1946; also papers on gynecology, internal secretion and vitamins. Co-publisher, Therapeutische Rundschau. Address: Universitäts-Frauenklinik, Berne, Switzerland.

NEVANLINNA, Dr. ROLF HERMAN, Finnish Mathematician; born 1895. Joensuu, Finland; son of Otto Wilhelm and Margareta (Romberg) Nevanlinna; educated at Univ. of Helsinki. Mag. phil. 1917, Dr. Phil. 1919; Hon. Dr., Univ. of Heidelberg; Univ. of Bucarest (Rumania); married Mary Selin, 1919; four children. Docent of Mathematics, Univ. of Helsinki, 1922; Prof. of Mathematics, since 1926; Dean, Faculty of Sciences, 1933-36, 1938-39; Rector, 1941-45. Prof., Polytechinikum Zurich, 1928-29; Univ. of Göttingen, 1936-37; Univ. of Zurich, 1946. Pres.: Sibelius Acad., 1940-45; Suom Tiedeakatemia, 1940-41; Math. Soc. of Finland since 1945. Member, Academia Scient. Fennica; Societas scient. Fenn; Vetanskapsociteten i Uppsala; Vitterhetssällsk i Göteborg; Ges. der Wissensch. Goettingen; Press Akademie der Wissensch.; Naturforsch. Gesellschaft Marburg. Author: Théoreme de Picard-Borel et la théorie des fonctions meromorphes, 1927; Eindeutige analytische Functionen, 1936. Address: University of Helsinki, Helsinki, Finland.

NEVAREZ, Dr. ROBERTO, Ecuadorian Director General of Health; born Nov. 14, 1911, Guayaquil, Ecuador; son of Roberto and Rosalia (Vasquez) Nevarez; educated at Colegio Vicente Rocafuerte, Sc.B. 1925-31; of Guayaquil, M.D. 1939; married Ana Ycaza, July 23, 1941; four children. Asst., Diagnostic Laboratory, Hospital General, Guayaquil, 1933-36; Assoc. Chief, Plant for Milk Sterilization, 1936-39; Prof. of Botany, Colegio de Segunda enseñanza Vicente Rocafuerte, 1937-39. Fellow: Pan American Sanitary Bureau, 1941-42; Rockefeller Foundation, 1942-43. Chief of Biological Production Section, National Hygienic Inst., since 1943; Prof. of Bacteriology, Univ. of Guayaquil since 1944; Director General of Health, Ecuador, since 1945. Governor, Province of Guayas, 1945. Ecuadorian Representative to: World Health

Conf., New York, 1946; Pan-American Sanitary Conf., Caracas, 1947; Internatl. Agreement (with Peruvian Government) on Health Measures. Decorated with Orden del Sol, Peru (Grand Officer). Author: Virus as etiological agent of encephalitis, 1947; Antigens of Influenza Virus. Address: Rosendo Aviles 200, Guayaquil, Ecuador.

NEVE de MÉVERGNIES, Dr. PAUL, Belgian Philosopher; born May 4, 1882, Ghent, Belgium; son of Léon and Delphine (Cools) Nève de Mévergnies; educated at Collège Sainte Barbe, Ghent; Faculty of Law, Univ. of Louvain, LL.D.; Superior Inst. of Philosophy, Univ. of Louvain, Ph.D.; married Caroline Capelle, June 10, 1914; six children. Lecturer, Univ. of Liège, 1908-19; Prof. of Philosophy, since 1919. Secy. General, Société libre d'émulation, since 1939; Administrator and Delegate, Memorial Interallié de Cointe, Liège, since 1938. Member, Belgian Com. of History of Sciences, Univ. Foundation, Brussels. Commander, Order of Leopold; Belgian Crown Order. Awarded Croix de Guerre with palm, 1914-18; Prix Binoux, Inst. of France. Author: La Philosophie de Taine, 1908; Leçons de Logique, Fed. 1920-47; Jean-Baptiste Van Helmont, Philosophe par le feu, 1935. Address: Université de Liège, Place du XX aout, Liège, Belgium.

NEVEN-SPENCE, Major Sir BASIL HAMILTON HEBDEN, Member of British Parliament; born June 12, 1888, Shetland, Great Britain; son of Thomas William Leisk Spence and Henrietta Fanny Hebden; educated at Edinburgh Acad.; Univ. of Edinburgh, M.B., Ch.B. 1911, M.D. 1924, M.R.C.P. Ed. 1924, F.R.C.P. Ed. 1927; married Margaret Alice Mackenzie, 1916; three children. Physician, Royal Army Medical Corps, 1911-27; Egyptian Army and Sudan Medical Service, 1914-24; Bacteriologist, Sudan Government; organized sleeping sickness campaign, Bahr El Ghazal. Special Physician, Aldershot Command, 1926. Vice-Chairman, Shetland County Council, 1934-35; Deputy Lieut. for Shetland. Member of Parliament for Shetland and Orkney since 1935. Fellow, Royal Geographical Soc. Awards: Order of Nile, 4th class; Knight Bachelor, 1945. Chairman, Com. on Scottish White Fishing Industry (report published), 1946; Member, Com. on Scottish Lunacy and Mental Deficiency Laws (report published), 1946. Address: 15 Ashley Pl., London, S.W. 1, England.

NEVES, Dr. CARL ALBERT, American Physician; born Dec. 24, 1886, Greenville, S. C.; son of Benjamin Franklin and Lucinda Elizabeth (McKinney) Neves; educated at Hartsville Military Acad., 1903-05; Emory Univ., M.D. June 1910; certificate, Army Sanitary School, Langres, France, 1918; post-graduate certificate, Fellowship of Medicine, London, England, 1919; married Edna Mildred Boyd, Dec. 24, 1924. Commissioned 1st Lieut., Medical Corps, U. S. Army, 1917; Captain, 1918; assigned as Commanding Officer, Ambulance Co. 323; served with Base Hospital Unit No. 15, McKay-Roosevelt Unit, Chaumont, France, Sept.-Oct. 1918; Commanding Officer, 321st Field Hospital, Meuse-Argonne Drive, Nov. 1918; Major, 1918-19. Agent, Treasury Dept., 1919-22; Senior Physician, National Soldiers Home, Tenn., 1922-24; Clinical Director, 1924-28; Chief Medical Officer, 1928-30; Lieut.-Col., Medical Reserve Corps, 1928; Manager, Veterans Administration Hosp., Hot Springs, S. D., 1930-34; Chief, Admissions and Operations, Soldiers Home, Washington, D. C., 1934-40; Director, Soldiers Home, 1940-45; Manager, Veterans Admin. Center, Hot Springs, S. D., since 1945; Col., Medical Corps, Army of U. S., 1942-44. Member: Amer. Medical Assn.; Assn. of Military Surgeons; Military Order of World Wars. Trustee, North Greenville Baptist Acad. Address: Veterans Administration Center, Hot Springs, South Dakota.

NEVES da FONTOURA, JOÃO, Brazilian Diplomat. Served as leader during Vargas revolt of 1930. Ambassador to Portugal, 1942-46; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1946—. Residence: Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil. Office: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

NEVILLE, GLENN, American Newspaper Editor. Served on staffs of various newspapers. New Excutive Editor, New York Mirror. Member of Commission of Newsmen to view U. S. Military Govt. in Austria, 1946. Member, American Society of Newspaper Editors. Address: The Daily Mirror, 235 E. 45th St., New York, N. Y.

NEVILLE, KENNETH P. R., Canadian Classicist and University Administrator; born Aug. 26, 1876, Newburgh, Ont., Canada; son of Chester Wilson and Mary Eleanor (Sharpe) Neville; educated at Queen's Univ., Kingston, Ont., B.A. 1896, M.A. 1897; Harvard Univ., A.B. 1898, A.M. 1899; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1901; married Jean Thompson, Aug. 14, 1912; one daughter. Instructor in Classics, Univ. of Illinois, 1901; Prof. of Classics, Univ. of Western Ontario, 1908; Registrar, 1917; Dean, Faculty of Arts and Science, 1927. Member: Boards of Management, Alma College, St. Thomas, Ont.; Trustee, Queen's Theological College, Kingston, Ont.; Colleges and Secondary Schools, United Church of Canada; Secy.-Treas., Natl. Conference of Canadian Univs., 1937-42; Vice-Pres., 1942-46. Member: Amer. Assn. of Collegiate Registrars (Pres., 1934-35); Ontario Education Assn. (Pres., College Section, 1926; Pres., Classics Section, 1928; Amer. Philological Assn.; Classical Assn. of Great Britain. Author: Latin Poetry Book, 1931; Latin Prose Selections, 1935. Address: University of Western Ontario, London, Ont., Canada.

NEVILS, Rev. Dr. W. COLEMAN, S. J., American Educator, Editor; born May 29, 1878, Philadelphia, Pa. Joined Soc. of Jesus, 1896. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, 1911. Instr. in Latin and Greek, Boston College and Loyola School, New York; Prof. of Rhetoric, St. Andrews-on-Hudson, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Prof. of Philosophy, Holy Cross College; Lecturer in Sociology, Georgetown Univ., becoming successively Dean and Chancellor, 1918-24; served during last four years as Regent of School for Foreign Service; Dean of Shadowbrook Jesuit House of Studies, four years; returned to Georgetown Univ., 1928; Chancellor, until 1935; Rector, Loyola School of Regis High School and of St. Ignatius Church; Pres., Univ. of Scranton, 1942. Pres. of America Press and head of "America," internationally circulated Catholic publication, 1947—. Address: c/o "America," Grand Central Terminal, New York, N. Y.

NEVIN, Rt. Rev. Monsgr. JOHN J., Irish Theologian and Educator; born Feb. 6, 1886, Tynagh, Co. Galway, Ireland; son of Timothy and Cecilia (Noonan) Nevin; educated at St. Joseph's College, Ballinasloe, Ireland; Collegio de Propaganda Fide, Rome, Ph.D. 1907, D.D. 1911, D.C.L. 1914. Ordained Catholic Priest, 1911; specialized studies, 1911-14; Parochial duties, 1914-16. Prof., Moral Theology and Canon Law, St. Patrick's College, Manly, N.S.W., since 1919; Pres., 1929-43. Domestic Prelate to His Holiness the Pope, 1933; Prothonotary Apostolic, 1937. Awarded: Croix de Guerre avec Palmes. Address: 13 Parker St., Rockdale, N.S.W., Australia.

NEVINS, Prof. ALLAN, American Historian; born May 20, 1890, Camp Point, Ill.; son of Joseph A. and Emma (Stahl) Nevins; educated at Univ. of Illinois, B.A. 1912, M.A. 1913; married Mary R. Nevins; two children. Journalist, The Nation, Evening Post, 1913; Member, Editorial Staff, New York Sun, New York World. Prof. of American History, Cornell Univ., 1927-28; Prof. at Columbia Univ., 1931—; now serving as De Witt Clinton Prof. of History. Harmsworth Prof., Oxford, 1940-41. Chief Public Affairs Officer, Amer. Embassy, London, 1946, 1947. Member: English-Speaking Union; Theodore Roosevelt Foundation. Pres., American Books Across the Sea. Author: Life of Robert Rogers, 1914; Illinois, 1917; The Evening Post — A Century of Journalism, 1922; The American States During and After the Revolution, 1924; The Emergence of Modern America, 1927; Frémont, the West's Greatest Adventurer, 1927 (rewritten and enlarged in 1939 as Frémont, Pathfinder of the West); Henry White — Thirty Years of American Diplomacy, 1920; Grover Cleveland — A Study in Courage, 1932 (awarded Pulitzer Prize in biography, 1933); Abram S. Hewitt, with Some Account of Peter Cooper, 1935; Hamilton Fish — The Inner History of the Grant Administration, 1936 (Pulitzer Prize Award in biography, 1937); The Gateway to History, 1938; John D. Rockefeller: The Heroic Age of American Business, 1940; America in World Affairs, 1941; This Is England Today, 1941; America, The Story of a Free People, 1942; A Brief History of Britain (with J. B. Brenber), 1943; Ordeal of the Union (awarded $10,000 Scribner prize in American History by Soc. of Amer. Historians, 1946), 1947. Address: Columbia University, Dept. of History, New York 27, New York.

NEW, CHARLES GEORGE MORLEY, British Engineer; born 1879, Cardiff, S. Wales, England; son of George and May New; married Ethel May Hammond, 1904; two children. Junior Asst. Engineer, Leeds Corp., 1900; Deputy Electrical Engineer-Manager, Cardiff Corp., 1907; City Electricity Manager, 1920; Electricity Commnr. of England since 1935. Chairman, Western Centre of the Institution of Electrical Engineers, 1927; Council Member, 1927-28. Pres., Inc. Municipal Electrical Assn., 1931-32 (Council Member, 1929-35); Council Member, Electrical and Allied Industries Research Assn., since 1936; Electrical Development Assn., 1921-35; Member, British Goodwill Trade Mission to Egypt, 1945. Member, Inst. of Electrical Engineers. Residence: Five Firs, Pelham Walk, Esher, Surrey. Office: Savoy Court, Strand, London, England.

NEW, Dr. GORDON BALGARNIE, American Physician; born November 6, 1885, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada; son of Henry and Marian (Balgarnie) New; educated at Univ. of Toronto, D.D.S. 1906, M.B. 1909, M.D. 1915; married Ethel Bailey, June 28, 1914; two children. Began as physician and surgeon, 1910; now Head of Section on Laryngology, Oral and Plastic Surgery at the Mayo Clinic; Professor of Laryngol. and Oral and Plastic Surg. at The Mayo Foundation since 1921. Member of many medical organizations. Author of numerous original papers read at medical meetings and published in leading medical Journals. Res.: 822 Ninth Ave., S.W. Office: 102 Second Ave., S.W., Rochester, Minn.

NEWALL, Marshal Sir CYRUS LOUIS NORTON, G.C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., British Administrator; born Feb. 15, 1886; son of Lieut.-Col. William Potter Newall, I. A.; educated at Bedford School and Royal Mil. College, Sandhurst; married Olive Tennyson Foster, 1925; one son and two daughters. Joined Royal Warwickshire Regiment in 1905; transferred to Second K.E.O. Gurkhas, Indian Army, 1908; served with the Zakkha Khel Expedition, 1908; during World War I commanded a Brigade of the Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Air Force. Deputy Director of Personnel at Air Ministry, 1919-22; A.D.C. to His Majesty the King, 1923-24. Director of Operations and Intelligence and Deputy Chief of Air Staff, 1926-31; additional member, Air Council, 1930-31; Air Officer Commanding the Wessex Bombing Area, 1931; Air Officer Commanding the Royal Air Force, Middle East, 1931-34; appointed Member of the Air Council for Supply and Organization, 1935-37; Head of the British Air Forces, 1937-41; Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand, 1941-46. Awards: Albert Medal, 1st Class; Belgian Croix de Guerre and Officer of the French Legion of Honor, Crown of Italy and Leopold of Belgium. Address: Government House, Wellington, New Zealand.

NEWALL, Dr. HUGH FRANK, British Astronomer; born 1857, Gateshead-on-Tyne; educated at Rugby School; Trinity College, Cambridge; M.A.; D.Sc. (hon.) Durham. Director, Solar Physics Observatory, 1913-28. Prof. of Astrophysics, Cambridge, 1909-28; now Prof. Emeritus. Pres.: Royal Astronomical Soc., 1907-09; Cambridge Philosophical Soc., 1914-16. Fellow. Royal Soc. (Council Member, 1905-07, 1922-24). Address: Madingley Rise, Madingley Road, Cambridge, England.

NEWBERRY, FARRAR, American Insurance Executive; born July 30, 1887, Gurdon, Ark.; son of Lawrence C. and Mattie A. (Harris) Newberry; educated at Henderson College, B.A.; Vanderbilt Univ., M.A.; married Lila Lee Thomasson, June 22, 1911; two sons. School Teacher, 1908; later engaged in private law practice for one year. Served in Arkansas Legislature (one term), and became a Woodmen field worker in 1915; elected Woodmen State President of Arkansas, 1915; Woodmen State Manager of Arkansas, 1918-35; appointed a Director, 1932; elected W. O. W. Secretary, 1937; President, since 1943. Director, Greater Omaha Assn. and of Community Chest. Dir., Covered Wagon Council, B.S.A.; Past President, Omaha Chamber of Commerce Member of Exec. Com., Natl. Fraternal Congress of America (two terms), then served as President. Author: A Life of Mr. Garland of Arkansas; The Life of J. C. Root and the Glories of Perfected Woodcraft, and James K. Jones, the Plumed Knight of Arkansas. Residence: 143 N. Elmwood Rd. Office: 17th & Farnam St., Omaha, Neb.

NEWBERRY, JOHN STOUGHTON, JR., American Curator of Graphic Arts; born January 16, 1910, Detroit, Mich.; son of John S. and Edith (Stanton) Newberry; educated at St. Mark's School of Southborough, Mass. (1923-29); Harvard (A.B. 1933); University of London (1934-35). Honorary Curator of Prints, Detroit Inst. of Arts, 1936; Assistant to Dr. W. R. Valentiner, Director of the "Masterpieces of Art" exhibition at the New York World's Fair of 1939; Curator, Alger House Museum, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., 1940-41. Lieut., U. S. Naval Reserve, 1941-43. Field Director, Amer. Red Cross, 1943-45. Curator of Graphic Arts, Detroit Inst. of Arts, 1946—. Director of the Detroit Steel Casting Co., and Secretary of the Newberry Estate, Inc.; Trustee of the Founders' Society of the Detroit Museum of Art since 1939; Member of the Special Jury of the Detroit Artists' Market since 1938; Treasurer of the Society of Arts and Crafts of Detroit. Residence: 99 Lake Shore Rd. Office: Detroit Institute of Arts, Detroit 2, Mich.

NEWBOLD, FLEMING, American Newspaper Publisher; born Apr. 11, 1873, Dayton, Ohio; son of Col. Charles and Frances Kemper (Lowe) Newbold; married Ethel Seckendorff, Nov. 21, 1906; two daughters. With Washington Star, since 1890; Manager of Evening Star Newspaper Co., 1910—; also serving as Vice-President. Director: The Evening Star Newspaper Co.; Evening Star Broadcasting Co.; Merchants Transfer & Storage Co.; Columbia Planograph Co.; Riggs National Bank. Residence: 1720 Massachusetts Ave. Office: The Evening Star Newspaper Co., 11th St. and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

NEWBOLD, JAMES LITTLE, American Association Executive; born Dec. 17, 1900, New Orleans, La.; son of John L. and Effie A. (Hall) Newbold; educated at Syracuse Univ., 1918-19; Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1919-21; married Ruth L. Fulcher, Jan. 28, 1928; two sons. Asst. Sales Manager, United Fuel & Supply Co., Detroit, Mich., 1924-27; Sales Manager, Germain Coal Co., Detroit, 1927-29. District Manager, Continental Collieries, Detroit, 1930-37; Pres. and Treas., Malcomson Coal Co., Detroit, 1937-43. Exec. Vice-Pres., American Retail Coal Assn., since 1943, also a Director. Chairman, Natl. War Council, Retail Solid Fuel Industry; Retail Member, Solid Fuels Advisory War Council; Chairman, Natl. Wage and Hour Retail Advisory Council. Member: Natl. Solid Fuels Retail Advisory Com.; Natl. ODT Retail Advisory Com.; Natl. OPA Retail Solid Fuel Dealers Advisory Com.; Retail Advisory Com., Dept. of Commerce. Author of numerous trade publication articles. Residence: 711 Norway Drive, Chevy Chase, Md. Office: 701 Tower Bldg., Washington 5, D. C.

NEWBURGH, Dr. LOUIS HARRY, American Physician; born 1883; educated at Harvard University Medical School, M.D. 1908. Prof. of Clinical Investigation, Dept. of Internal Medicine, Univ. of Michigan Medical School. Assoc. Editor, The Journal of Nutrition. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Internal Medicine. Trustee, Amer. Diabetes Assn. Residence: 3076 Geddes Road. Office: University of Michigan Medical School, Ann Arbor, Mich.

NEWBURN, Dr. HARRY K., American University President; born Jan. 1, 1906, Cuba, Ill.; son of Charles R. and Alice (Bayless) Newburn; educated at Western Illinois Teachers College, 1923-25. B.E. 1928; State Univ. of Iowa, A.M. 1931, Ph.D. 1933; married Wandalee Brady, June 16, 1928; three children. Supt. of Schools, Pearl City, Ill., 1928-30. Principal, Township High School, Bradford, Ill., 1930-31. Principal of University High School, State Univ. of Iowa, 1931-38; Asst. Prof. of Education, State Univ. of Iowa, 1934-36; Assoc. Prof., 1936-41; Director of University High School, 1938-41; Dean and Prof., College of Liberal Arts, 1941-45. Pres., Univ. of Oregon, 1945—. Member: Natl. Education Assn. (Member, Exec. Com., Dept. of Higher Education); Amer. Council on Education (Member, Pacific Coast Com.); Phi Delta Kappa; Kappa Delta Pi. Member, President's Commn. on Higher Education. Member-at-Large, Natl. Council of Boy Scouts of America. Author of numerous contributions to various educational journals. Address: University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore.

NEWCOMB, Dr. JOHN LLOYD, American University President; born Dec. 18, 1881, Sassafras, Va.; son of Benjamin Cary and Martha Coleman Newcomb; educated at the College of William and Mary (A.B. 1900); University of Virginia (C.E. 1903); Washington & Lee University (D.Sc. 1933); George Washington University (LL.D. 1934); Duke University (LL.D. 1935); William and Mary (LL.D. 1935); married Grace Shields Russell, Oct. 24, 1924 (deceased). Began career in the Engineer's Office, Rapid Transit Subway Construction Co., New York (1902); later served in engineering departments, Norfolk & Southern Railroad, until 1905. Adjunct Professor of Civil Engineering, University of Virginia, 1905-07; Associate Professor, 1907-10; Professor, 1910-33; Dean, Department, 1925-33. Acting President, 1931-33; President since 1933. Trustee: Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching; Board of Visitors to the U. S. Naval Academy. Pres., Natl. Assn. of State Univs. Address: University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va.

NEWCOMB, Prof. REXFORD, American Architect and Educator; born Apr. 24, 1886, Independence, Kans.; son of Frederick Exeller and Margaret (Salathiel) Newcomb; educated at Univ. of Illinois, B.S. 1911, M.Arch. 1918; Univ. of Southern California, M.A. 1915; married Ruth Howell Bergen, Oct. 24, 1911; three children. Head of Dept. of Fine and Applied Arts, Long Beach, Calif. Polytechnic, 1912-17; Principal, Polytechnic Evening School, 1913-17; Adjunct Prof. of History of Art and Architecture, Univ. of Southern California, 1916-17; Asst. Prof. and later Acting Prof. of Architecture and College Architect, Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, 1917-18; Asst. Prof. of Architecture, 1918-19; Asst. Prof. of History of Architecture, 1919-21; Prof. of History of Architecture, Univ. of Illinois, since 1921. Dean, College of Fine and Applied Arts, since 1932; Director of Bureau of Community Planning since 1934. Architectural Editor, Western Architect, Chicago, 1923-30; Editor-in-Chief, 1930-31. Past Pres., Amer. Soc. of Architectural Historians. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Inst. of Architects. Author: Franciscan Mission Architecture of Alta California, 1916; The Volute in Architecture and Architectural Decoration, 1921; Old Mission Churches and Historic Houses of California, 1925; Architectural Monographs on Tiles and Tilework (series of seven), 1924-28; Outlines of the History of Architecture (3 vols.), 1922-25 (enlarged and revised into 4 vols.), 1932-39; The Spanish House for America, 1927; Mediterranean Domestic Architecture in the United States, 1928; In the Lincoln Country, 1928; Home Architecture (with W. A. Foster), 1932; The Colonial and Federal House, 1933; Spanish Colonial Architecture in the United States, 1937; Old Kentucky Architecture, 1940; Modern Architecture, 1942, etc. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

NEWCOMBE, Prof. JAMES ARTHUR, Canadian Metallurgist; born Oct. 28, 1892, Kingston, Surrey, England; son of James John and Edith (Beattie) Newcombe; educated at Woolwich Polytechnic Inst., London, 1912-18; Univ. of London and Royal School of Mines, London, 1918-21 (Engineer); married Doris Norfolk, 1923; one son. Asst. Metallurgist, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, 1913-18; Lecturer in Metallurgy, Univ. of Liverpool, England, 1921-25; Prof. of Metallurgical Engineering, Univ. of Toronto since 1925. Fellow, Royal Inst. of Chemistry. Member: Inst. of Metals (British); Amer. Soc. for Metals; Amer. Soc. for the Promotion of Engineering Education. Address: Dept. of Metallurgy, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

NEWCOMBE, Dr. LUXMOORE, C.B.E., British Librarian; born Jan. 12, 1880, Crediton, Devon.; son of Henry and Mary (Websdale) Newcombe; educated at Exeter School; Durham, hon. M.A.; Manchester, hon. Litt.D.; married Joan Stigings; two children. Began as Librarian, 1901; Librarian, University College, London, 1922-26; Assistant Director, University of London School of Librarianship, 1919-26. Librarian, The Natl. Central Library, 1926-44. Vice-Pres., Library Assn., 1938-45. Author, The Univ. and College Libraries of Great Britain and Ireland, 1927; Library Co-operation in the British Isles, 1937; also special chapters in books on librarianship; articles to various journals. Commandant, School of Instruction for Officer Cadets, Perivale, 1914-15; in The Green Howards, 1915-19; late Colonel Commanding University of London Officers Training Corps. Address: The National Central Library, Malet Pl., London, W.C. 1, Eng.

NEWCOMER, Dr. MABEL, American Economist; born July 2, 1891, Oregon, Ill.; daughter of Alphonso Gerald and Carrie Jackson) Newcomer; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1913, A.M. 1914; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1917; Hon. LL.D., Smith College, 1945; Hon. LL.D., New Jersey College for Women, 1945; Hon. LL.D., Russell Sage College, 1945. Instr. in Economics, Vassar College, 1917; now Prof. of Economics and Chmn., Dept. of Economics, Sociology and Anthropology. Visiting Prof., Univ. of Chicago; Columbia Univ., 1943-44. U. S. Delegate, Monetary and Financial Conf., Bretton Woods, 1944; Chief, Taxation Division, Finance Dept., Office of Military Government of U. S., in Berlin, Germany, since 1946. Member: California and New York States Tax Commissions; Governor Dewey's Tax Advisory Com., 1943. Consulting Expert, U. S. Treasury Dept., 1941-42. Author: Separation of State and Local Revenues in U. S., 1917; Chemical Industry in N. Y., 1924; Central and Local Finance in Germany and England, 1937; Studies in Current Tax Problems (with others), 1937; Facing Tax Problem (co-author), 1937; You Are a Taxpayer, 1940; Taxation and Fiscal Policy, 1940; Federal, State and Local Government Fiscal Relations (with others), 1943. Address: Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, New York.

NEWELL, Prof. JOSEPH SHIPLEY, American Aeronautical Engineer; born Aug. 10, 1897, Springfield, Mass.; son of Frederick W. and Emma F. (Shipley) Newell; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1918; Harvard Univ., B.S. 1919; married Lena M. Dwelley, Aug. 29, 1922; four children. Asst. Engineer, Frigorifico Armour de La Plata, La Plata, Argentina, 1919-20. Asst., Dept. of Civil Engineering, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1920-21. Junior Highway Engnr., Carbondale, Ill., 1921-22. Asst. Aeronautical Engineer, McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, 1922-27. Instr., Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof., and (now) Prof., Aeronautical Structural Engineering, also Exec. Officer, Dept. of Aeronautical Engineering, and Secy. of Faculty, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1927—. Member, Exec. Com., Column Research Council, Engineering Foundation, New York City. Fellow, Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences. Author: Airplane Structures (with Alfred S. Niles), 1927, 2nd ed., 1938, 3rd ed., 1943; Airworthiness Requirements, 1928. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge 39, Mass.

NEWELL, Dr. ROBERT REID, American Radiologist; born Jan. 21, 1892, Stockton, Calif.; son of Allan Hovey and Lucy Annette (Reid) Newell; educated at Univ. of Calif., M.D. 1916; married Jeannette LeValley, Nov. 11, 1922; two children. Instructor in Radiol. at Stanford, 1920; Prof. of Radiol. since 1932. Visiting Radiol. to San Francisco Hosp. and Laguna Honda Home since 1920. Visiting Radiol. to Shriners Hosp. for Crippled Children since 1925. Consultant Radiol. to U. S. Veterans Service, Palo Alto, 1928-30. Residence: 50 Yerba Buena Ave. Office: 2361 Clay St., San Francisco, Calif.

NEWELL, STERLING, American Lawyer; born May 21, 1884, Central City, Colo.; son of Lyne Sterling and Elizabeth (Harker) Newell; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1906, and Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1909; married Evelyn E. Walker, May 26, 1914; four children. Began career as a practicing lawyer, 1910; now Member of law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey. Chairman of Board, Ferro Enamel Corp., since 1936; Director of Central National Bank of Cleveland, Wood Shovel & Tool Co., Kilby Manufacturing Co., Maynard H. Murch Co., Hampden Corp., Upson Water Co., Enos Coal Mining Co., and Algers, Winslow and Western Railway Co. Residence: 17845 Lake Rd., Lakewood, Ohio. Office: Union Commerce Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

NEWELL, WILLIAM S., American Shipbuilder; born May 31, 1878, Albany, N. Y.; son of Wm. C. and Ellen A. (Doane) Newell; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1895-99, B.S.; M.S. (hon. Bowdoin College; LL.D. (hon.), Colby College; Dr.Eng. (hon.), Univ. of Maine, and Stevens Inst.; married Caroline E. Moulton, Feb. 2, 1907; three children. Began career in 1898 as a shipyard employee; in Machinery Dept. of Sparrows Pt., Md., 1899. With Bath Iron Works since 1900, starting as draughtsman, serving at sea, 1901, and in the plant, 1902-07; Asst. Supt. Engineer, 1907-14, and Engineer and Works Manager, 1914-25. General Manager, New York Shipbuilding Co., 1926-27; returned to Bath Iron Works as President, 1927. President of Bath Water District, 1915-40, and Bath Savings Institution, 1933-41. President, South Portland Shipbuilding Corp., 1941-43. President: Todd-Bath Iron Shipbuilding Corp.; Kennebec Towage Co.; Eastern Maine Towage Co. Chairman, Centennial Broadcasting Co., Station WPOR, 1945—. Director: Bath Trust Co.; Bath Savings Institution; Maine Central Railroad; Union Mutual Life Ins. Co.; Mack Trucks, Inc.; Shipbuilders Council of America; Maine Port Authority; Bates Mfg. Co. President, United Seamen's Service, Inc., 1944—. President, Soc. of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers. Member: Institution of Naval Architects, Great Britain; North East Coast Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders, Great Britain. Life Member, Corporation of Mass. Inst. of Technology; Trustee: Colby College; Webb Inst. of Naval Architecture. Member, President Truman's Evaluation Com. for Bikini Bomb Tests. Residence: 1080 Washington St. Office: Bath, Maine.

NEWGASS, GEORGE W., American Lawyer; born Feb. 22, 1876, New York, N. Y.; son of Lewis and Emilie (Blumenthal) Newgass; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1896; Columbia Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1899; married Eleanor Sanderson, Oct. 19, 1922. Member: Franc, Neuman, Frank & Newgass, succeeded by Franc, Neuman & Newgass, 1900-11; Neuman & Newgass, 1911-23; private practice, 1923-24; Newgass, Nayfack & Waldheim, 1924-39; Newgass & Nayfack, 1939-44; Newgass & Frisch, since 1944. Director, Resistoflex Corp., Belleville, N. J. Member: New York State and Amer. Bar Assns. Address: 350 Madison Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

NEWHALL, BEAUMONT, American Art Historian; born 1908, Lynn, Mass.; educated at Phillips Acad., Andover, 1925; Harvard College, A.B. 1930, A.M. 1931; Inst. of Art and Archaeology, Univ. of Paris, summer 1933; Courtauld Inst. of Art, Univ. of London, summer 1934; University Fellow, Harvard, 1931; Carnegie Scholar, 1933, 1934; Guggenheim Fellow, 1947-48. Asst., Fogg Art Museum, Cambridge, Mass., 1928; Lecturer, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1931; Asst., Dept. of Decorative Arts, Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1932-33; Assoc. Supervisor, Mass. ERA Art Project, 1935; Librarian, Museum of Modern Art, 1935-42; Curator, Dept. of Photography, Museum of Modern Art, 1940-42 and 1945-46. Visiting Lecturer: Black Mountain College, 1946 and 1947; Inst. of Design in Chicago, 1946. Author: Photography, A Short Critical History, 1938; American Daguerreotypes and Their Makers; articles and reviews in national magazines. Co-author (with L. Kirstein), The Photographs of Henri Cartier-Bresson, 1947. Major, U. S. Army Air Corps, World War II. Address: 41 W. 53rd St., New York 19, New York.

NEWHOUSE, EDGAR L., JR., American Industrialist; born 1890, Canada; son of Edgar L. and Mary (McSweeney) Newhouse; educated at Columbia Univ., 1911; married Elizabeth Fry, 1914; two sons. Chemist, American Smelting & Refining Co. at East Helena Plant, 1912; progressively, Manager, 1916-26; Asst. to Exec. Vice-Pres., 1926-39. Pres., Federated Metals Div., since 1941. Director, Federal Mining & Smelting Co.; Member, Board of Directors of Exec. Com. since 1936. Director, Revere Copper & Brass Co., since 1946. Residence: 30 E. 72nd St. Office: 120 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

NEWITT, Prof. DUDLEY MAURICE, British Chemist. Courtaulds Professor of Chemical Engineering at University of London, since 1945. Fellow, Royal Society; Chemical Society. Member, Institution of Chemical Engineers. Address: Imperial College of Sciences and Technology, London, England.

NEWLAND, Sir HENRY SIMPSON, K.B., Australian Surgeon; born Nov. 24, 1873, Adelaide, Australia; son of Simpson and Jane Isabel Newland; educated at St. Peters College and Adelaide Univ. (M.B., B.S., 1897, M.S. 1902); married Ellen Mary Lindon, July 14, 1910; three children. House Surgeon and Physician and Surgical Registrar. London Hosp. (Whitechapel), 1900-01; later Asst. Surgeon and Surgeon, Adelaide Hosp. and Children's Hosp.; Lecturer on Surgery, Univ. of Adelaide. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Medicine, London. Dir., National Mutual Life Assn. of Australasia, Ltd.; Gov., Wyatt Benevolent Inst. Pres., South Australian Branch of The Royal Empire Society; Ex-Pres., Royal Soc. of St. George; Vice-Pres., 1932, Pres. of Federal Council, 1928-45, British Med. Assn. Fellow: Surg. Assn. of England; Royal College of Surgeons of England; (Hon.) Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh; Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (Pres., 1928-34); Amer. College of Surgeons. Residence: Lee Lodge, 118 Strangways Terrace. Office: 163 Bank of New South Wales Chambers, Adelaide, South Australia.

NEWLIN, GURNEY ELWOOD, American Lawyer; born November 11, 1880, Lawrence, Kansas; son of Thomas Elwood Newlin and Laurie (Hadley) Newlin; educated at Haverford College; University of California; Harvard Law School. Began legal career at Los Angeles, Calif., 1905; member, law firm of Newlin, Holley, Sandmeyer & Coleman. Director: Union Oil Co. of California; Member, Executive Committee and Board of Directors, Security-First National Bank of Los Angeles. Federal Wage Examiner of Southern California for the United States Shipping Board, 1918. Member: American Bar Assn. (member, Executive Committee, 1925-27, Pres., 1928-29); State Bar of Calif.; Amer. Law Inst. Hon. Member: Kansas State Bar Assn.; Iowa State Bar Assn.; West Virginia Bar Assn.; Canadian Bar Assn.; Bar Assn. of the City of New York. Residence: 3 Berkeley Square. Office: 601 W. Fifth St., Los Angeles, Calif.

NEWLUN, Dr. CHESTER OTTO, American College President; born Mar. 27, 1888, Vernon County, Wis.; son of Richard M. and Mary L. (Brown) Newlun; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.B. 1924, Ph.M. 1926; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1929; married Hazel G. Hayes, June 24, 1913. Principal, Union School, Waukesha, Wis., 1912-13. High School Principal: Hillsboro, Wis., 1913-15; Sauk City, Wis., 1915-18. Prof. of Education and Director of Teacher Training, Univ. of Oklahoma, 1929-39. President: Northwestern State College, Alva, Okla., 1939-43; State Teachers College, Platteville, Wis., 1943—. Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Wisconsin Education Assn.; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Assn. of University Professors; Phi Delta Kappa. Member, Oklahoma Univ. Graduate Council, 1935-39. Author: Problems in First Semester Apprentice Teaching; Problems in Second Semester Apprentice Teaching; My Own Language, 1935, 1936, 1938; Language Work-Books (with Lucy Helen Meacham). Address: 709 W. Main St., Platteville, Wis.

NEWMAN, Dr. ALBERT B., American Chemical Engineer. Professor of Chemical Engineering and former Dean of Engineering, College of the City of New York. Elected President of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, Nov. 1947. Address: College of the City of New York, New York, N. Y.

NEWMAN, Dr. ALLEN THURMAN, American Oral Surgeon; born Mar. 18, 1888, Hebron, Nebr.; son of A. Harry and Hulda (Binger) Newman; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, B.Sc. 1912; Univ. of Minnesota, M.Sc. 1916; Univ. of Minnesota Dental School, D.D.S. 1921; married twice; one daughter. Instructor, Univ. of Minnesota, 1916. Supt., Dental School and Instructor in Orthodontics, 1921-23. Dean, Dental School, Univ. of Denver, 1923-29; Prof., Crown & Bridge Work, 1925-28; Lecturer, Dental Metallurgy, 1924-29; Dean, Dental School, New York Univ., 1929-44. Member: New York State and Amer. Dental Assns.; Pan Amer. Odontological Assn.; Internatl. Assn. for Dental Research. Pres., Pan Amer. Odontological Assn.; Ex-Pres., Amer. Assn. of Dental Schools, 1943-44. Address: 133 E. 58th St., New York, N. Y.

NEWMAN, BERNARD CHARLES, British Author; born May 8, 1897, Ibstock, Leicestershire, England; son of William Betteridge and Annie (Garner) Newman; educated at Market Bosworth Grammar School, 1908-14; married Marjorie Edith Donald, Aug. 23, 1923; three daughters. Served with British Army, World War I; Staff Officer, Office of Works, 1920-38; Lecturer, British Expeditionary Forces and French Army, 1939-40; Staff Lecturer, British Ministry of Information, 1940-44. Author of 50 books published since 1928, many of which have gained wide popularity not only in England and the U. S. but throughout continental Europe. Author: The Cavalry Went Through, 1930; Armoured Doves, 1931; Death of a Harlot, 1934; Spy, 1935; Secret Servant, 1935; German Spy, 1936; The Mussolini Murder Plot, 1936; Death Under Gibraltar, 1938; Maginot Line Murder, 1939; Death to the Spy, 1939; Siegfried Spy, 1940; Second Front—Front Spy, 1944; The Spy in Brown Derby, 1945; Dead Man Murder, 1946; also some 36 other volumes. Member: Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; P.E.N.; Soc. of Authors. Address: 3 Gerard Rd., Harrow, England.

NEWMAN, Hon. BERTRAM L., American Jurist; born Sept. 18, 1885, Little Falls, N. Y.; son of William H. and Cecilia (Sprague) Newman; educated at public schools of Elmira, N. Y.; married Nellie G. Suffern, June 22, 1911; four children. Admitted to Bar, 1908; Member, law firm of Mandeville, Personis & Newman, Elmira, N. Y., 1910-24; Chemung County Judge and Surrogate, 1924-25; Justice, Supreme Court, by appointment of Gov. Dewey, since 1945. Residence: 666 Euclid Ave. Office: Supreme Court Chambers, Elmira, N. Y.

NEWMAN, CHARLES PERCY, British Industrialist; born 1875; educated at Wycliffe College, Stonehouse, Glos., England; married 1908; two children. Chairman: Newman Hender & Co. Ltd., Woodchester, Glos.; Wright, Bindley & Gell, Ltd., Birmingham, and LeGrand, Sutcliff & Gell Ltd., Southall, Mdlsx.; Management Journals Ltd., London. Director: S. Smith & Sons (England) Ltd.; S. Smith & Sons (Cheltenham) Ltd. Member: Grand Council, Federation of British Industries; Council of British Engineers Assn. Vice-Pres. and Fellow, Works Managements Assn. Address: The Knoll, Amberley, Glos., England.

NEWMAN, Dr. EDWIN B., American Psychologist; born July 10, 1908, Baltimore, Md.; son of Herman and Emma J. (Broomell) Newman; educated at Penn College, Iowa, 1924-27; Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1928, M.A. 1930; Univs. of Frankfurt and Berlin, 1931-32; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1934; married Mary B. Temple, Mar. 30, 1938. Exchange Fellow, Inst. of Internatl. Education, 1931-32; Natl. Research Council Fellow, Harvard Univ. and Columbia Univ., 1934-35; Instructor in Psychology, Swarthmore College, 1935-38; Asst. Prof. of Psychology, Swarthmore College, 1938-46; Special Research Assoc., Harvard Univ., 1942-44; Assoc. Director, Psycho-Acoustic Laboratory, Harvard Univ., 1944-46. Lecturer on Psychology and Assoc. Director, Psychological Laboratories, Harvard Univ. since 1946. Member: Amer. Psychological Assn.; Acoustical Soc. of Amer.; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Address: Memorial Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts.

NEWMAN, ERNEST, British Music Critic; born Nov. 30, 1868; educated at Liverpool College; Liverpool Univ.; married Kate Eleanor Woollett (dec. 1918); (2nd) Vera Hands. Staff Member, Midland Inst., Birmingham, 1903; Music Critic: Manchester Guardian, 1905; Birmingham Post, 1906-19; now Sunday Times, in London. Author: Gluck and the Opera, 1895; A Study of Wagner, 1899; Wagner, 1904; Musical Studies, 1905; Elgar, 1906; Hugo Wolf, 1907; Richard Strauss, 1908; Wagner as Man and Artist, 1914 (rev. and enlarged ed., 1924); A Musical Motley, 1919; The Piano-Player and its Music, 1920; A Musical Critic's Holiday, 1925; The Unconscious Beethoven, 1927; Fact and Fiction about Wagner, 1931; The Life of Richard Wagner: vol. I, 1813-48, 1933; vol. II, 1848-60, 1937; vol. III, 1860-66, 1941; vol. IV, 1866-83, 1946; The Man Liszt, 1934, etc. Translated: Über das Dirigieren, Weingartner; J. S. Bach, Schweitzer; Wagner's Librettos for the Breitkopf and Härtel edition; Romain Rolland's Beethoven. Editor, The New Library of Music. Address: c/o The Sunday Times, London, England.

NEWMAN, Dr. ERNST (CONRAD), Swedish Theologian and Educator; born Dec. 11, 1889, Vittsjö, Sweden; son of P. N. and Nellie (Christensson) Newman; educated at Univ. of Lund, fil. kand. 1914, Th.D. 1926; married Elsa Didoff, July 10, 1920; one daughter. Docent, Univ. of Lund, 1925-30; Prof. of Church History, Abo Akademi, Abo, Finland, 1930; Prof. in Pastoral Theology, Univ. of Lund, 1938; Dean and Vice-Preses, Chapter of Diocese of Lund, since 1941. Member: Select Vestry in Lund, 1926-30; Helsingfors, 1937-39; Kungliga Humanistiska Vetenskapssamfundet, Lund, since 1939. Pres. of Cathedral Council (Domkyrkorådet) Lund, since 1941. Author: Nordskånska väckelserörelser under 1800-talet, 1925; Den Waldenströmska försoningsläran, 1932; Evangeliska alliansen, 1937; Gemenskaps och Frihets-Strävanden i svenskt fromhetsliv 1809-1855, 1939. Editor, Lunds domkyrks historia 1811-1893, 1946. Address: Kiliansgatan 3, Lund, Sweden.

NEWMAN, Dr. HORATIO HACKETT, American Zoologist; born Mar. 19, 1875, near Seale, Ala.; son of Albert Henry and Mary Augusta (Ware) Newman; educated at McMaster Univ., B.A. 1896; Univ. of Toronto, 1896-97 (special student); Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1905; McMaster Univ., Sc.D. 1933; married Isobel Currie Marshall, Aug. 1, 1907; two children. Prof. of Biology, Des Moines College, 1897-98; Instructor in Biology and Chemistry, Culver Military Acad., 1900-04; Instructor in Zoology, Univ. of Michigan, 1905-08; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Zoology, Univ. of Texas, 1908-11. Univ. of Chicago: Assoc. Prof. of Zoology and Embryology, 1911-17; Dean, College of Science, 1915-22; Prof. of Zoology, 1917-40; Prof. Emeritus since 1940. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Genetics Assn.; Amer. Naturalists, etc. Author: The Biology of Twins, 1917; Readings in Evolution, Genetics and Eugenics, 1921; Vertebrate Zoology, 1920; The Physiology of Twinning, 1923; Outlines of General Zoology, 1924; The Gist of Evolution, 1926; The Nature of the World and of Man (Editor and contributor), 1926; Evolution Yesterday and Today, 1932; Twins: A Study of Heredity and Environment (with F. N. Freeman and K. J. Holzinger), 1939; The Phylum Chordata, 1939; Multiple Human Births, 1940. Address: 173 Devon Drive, Clearwater, Fla.

NEWMAN, JACOB LOUIS, American Lawyer; born Feb. 13, 1875, Newark, N. J.; son of Meier and Bella (Schwartz) Newman; educated at New York University, B.Sc. 1895, B.L. 1897, LL.D. John Marshall College; married Flora Stern, June 28, 1905. Began career with Colie and Swayze (law firm); admitted to the New Jersey Bar, 1897; became a Counsellor, 1900; admitted to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court, 1920. Appointed Supreme Court Commissioner of New Jersey, 1905; named Special Master in Chancery, 1912; Advisory Master pro hac vice. Appointed Prosecutor of Pleas for Essex County, 1916. Chairman, Special Committee of New Jersey State Bar Assn., which opposed certain proposed changes in the U. S. Supreme Court. Former President and Chairman, Judiciary Committee, Essex County Bar Assn. Member: American Bar Assn.; Lambda Alpha Phi Fraternity (Hon.); The New Jersey Historical Society (Hon.); J.O.U.A.M.; Elks; Masons (Shriner); Essex County Lawyers Club (President, 1919-20). Address: 810 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

NEWMAN, JOHN CAVERHILL, Canadian Industrialist; born 1878, Montreal, Quebec; son of Thomas Henry and Catherine Gibson (Brown) Newman; educated at Montreal High School; married Amy Mildred Kavanagh (dec.), 1904; (2nd) Margaret Talbot, 1940; two daughters—Mrs. W. W. Eakin and Mrs. Douglas Cowans, Jr. Mr. Newman began as office boy, 1893; Manager of McClary Mfg. Co., 1910-27; President, General Steel Wares Ltd., 1927-46; Chmn., 1946—. Dir.: Anglo-Canadian Tel.

Co.; J. S. Mitchell & Co., Ltd. (President); Canadian Car & Foundry Co. Ltd.; Carter White Lead Co. of Canada Ltd.; Montreal Trust Co.; Price Bros. & Co. Ltd.; Sherwin Williams Co. Ltd.; Canadian Bank of Commerce and Baldwins, Montreal, Ltd. (President). President, Verdun Protestant Hospital Governor, McGill Univ. Residence: 634 Sydenham Ave., Westmount, Que., Canada. Office: 1416 Royal Bank Bldg., Montreal, Que., Canada.

NEWMAN, Rev. Dr. LOUIS I., American Clergyman; born Dec. 20, 1893, Providence, R. I.; son of Paul and Antonia (Hecker) Newman; educated at Brown Univ., A.B. 1913, D.D. 1942; Univ. of California, M.A. 1917; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1924; married Lucile Helene Uhry, 1923; three sons. Asst. to Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Free Synagogue, New York, 1916; Rabbi, Bronx Free Synagogue, 1917-21; Assoc. Rabbi, Temple Israel, N. Y., 1921-24; Rabbi, Temple Emanu-El, San Francisco, 1924-30; Temple Rodeph Sholom, N. Y., since 1930. Ex-Pres., Intercollegiate Menorah Assn. Rept. of Temple House movement and program of Jewish Revival inspired by Zionism and new Jewish folk movements. Observer, Central Conference of Amer. Rabbis, at Security Council, U.N.O., since 1946. Member: Amer. Church History Soc.; Soc. for Biblical Literature and Exegesis; Amer. Oriental Soc.; Societas Spinozana; Amer. Acad. of Jewish Research; Judeans; Rhode Island Historical Soc. Author: Jewish Influence on Christian Reform Movements; A Chief Rabbi of Rome Becomes a Catholic; The Sectarian Invasion of Our Public Schools; A Jewish University in America?; The Jewish People, Faith and Life, a Manual for Newcomers Into Judaism; Studies in Biblical Parallelism; Biting on Granite, 1946. Co-author: The Hasidic Anthology (with Spitz); The Talmudic Anthology (with Spitz). Address: 7 W. 83rd St., New York, N. Y.

NEWMAN, MAXWELL HERMAN ALEXANDER, British Mathematician; born 1897; educated at City of London School; St. John's College, Cambridge; Univ. of Vienna, 1922-23. Fellow, St. John's College, Cambridge, 1923—. Rockefeller Research Fellow, Princeton Univ., 1928-29. University Lecturer in Mathematics, Cambridge Univ., 1927—. Fellow, Royal Soc. Address: St. John's College, Cambridge, England.

NEWNES, Sir FRANK HILLYARD, British Publisher; born Sept. 28, 1876, Manchester, Eng.; son of Sir George and Priscilla (Hillyard) Newnes; educated at Clare College, Cambridge, M.A., LL.B.; married L. de Rutzen, 1913 (dec. 1939); (2nd) Delmar Morgan, July 1946. Called to English Bar, and entered firm of George Newnes Ltd., 1898; Chairman since 1910. Chairman, Country Life Ltd.; Director, C. Arthur Pearson Ltd.; Chairman, Associated Weavers Ltd., and Armoride Ltd. Director: City and Commercial Investment Trust Ltd., London; Director, Norwich Union Life and Norwich Union Fire Insurance Socs.; Associated London Properties, Ltd. Liberal Member of Parliament, 1906-10. Member: Com. of Management, and Council of School of Medicine, Royal Free Hospital, London; Voluntary Hospitals Com. for London; Weekly Periodical & Trade Paper Assn. (Vice-Pres.); Council, Empire Press Union; Pilgrims and English Speaking Union. Delegate, Imperial Press Conferences, Canada, 1920; Australia, 1925; London, 1930 and 1946. Address: Southampton St., London, W.C. 2, England.

NEWSOM, Dr. ISAAC ERNEST, American Veterinarian; born Apr. 13, 1883, Colorado City, Texas; son of Eli and Lydia (Russell) Newsom; educated at Colo. State College, B.S. 1904; San Francisco Veterinary College, D.V.S. 1906; Kansas City Veterinary College, D.V.S. 1909; Univ. of Colo., D.Sc. 1941; married Jessie Woods, July 8, 1905 (deceased); two children. Married (2nd) Mrs. Dorothy Kick, July 8, 1944. Asst. in Veterinary Med., Colo. State College, 1904; Asst. Prof. of Anatomy, 1905; Asst. Prof. of Path., 1919; Path., Larimer County Hosp., 1929-38; Bacteriol. for the City of Fort Collins, 1916-38. Dean of Div. of Veterinary Med., Colo. State College, since 1934; Acting Dir. of Experimental Station, 1939-41; Vice-Pres., 1939—; Dean, Grad. School, 1941. Dir. of Agricultural Research Foundation, Colo. Experiment Station; Member: Colo. State Bd. of Examiners in Basic Sciences since 1937 (Pres. 1943); Amer. Veterinary Med. Assn. Author of bulletins of Colo. Experiment Station; also numerous scientific articles. Address: Colorado State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, Fort Collins, Colo.

NEWSOME, Dr. ALBERT RAY, American Historian; born June 4, 1894, Marshville, N. C.; son of Richard Clyde and Julia (Ross) Newsome; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, A.B. 1911-15; Columbia Univ., summers 1920-21; Univ. of Michigan, A.M. 1922, Ph.D. 1929; married Frances Elizabeth Vaughan, June 4, 1917; two children. Teacher in high schools, Elizabeth City, N. C., 1915-16; Wilmington, N. C., 1916-18. Prof. of History, Bessie Tift College, Forsyth, Ga., 1919-21; Instructor in History, Univ. of Michigan, 1921-23; Asst. Prof. of History, Univ. of North Carolina, 1923-26. Secy., North Carolina Historical Commn.; Editor, North Carolina Historical Review, 1926-35. Prof. and Head of Dept. of History, Univ. of North Carolina, since 1935. Prof. (summer semester), Duke Univ., 1940; North Carolina College for Negroes, 1942-44. Pres., Natl. Conference of Historical Socs., 1928-29; Chairman of Public Archives Commn., Amer. Historical Assn., 1932-34; Charter Member and First Pres., Soc. of Amer. Archivists, 1936-39; Amer. Historical Assn. Address: University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.

NEWSON-SMITH, FRANK (EDWIN), British Stockbroker; born Mar. 25, 1879, London, England; son of Henry and Elizabeth (Powning) Newson-Smith; educated at Univ. College School and in Paris; Oxford Univ., Hon. M.A. 1943; Hon. D.C.L. 1944; married Lillian Dorothy Tozer, 1904; one son and two daughters. Director: United Trustees Investment Co., Ltd.; London and Bombay United Investments Ltd.; Londinium Property Investment Co., Ltd. Appointed Member of H.M. Commn. of Lt., 1929, Chief Commoner, 1930. Chairman, Bridge-House Estates Com., 1933; elected Alderman of Farringdon Within Ward, 1938. Member, Honourable Artillery Co. since 1896; elected to Court of Asssts., Hon. Artillery Co., 1944. Master of Worshipful Company of Turners, 1933; elected to Court of Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers, 1944. Knighted 1941, Baronetcy, 1944; Sheriff, City of London, 1939-40; Lord Mayor of London, 1943-44. Chairman, Govt.'s Com. on Training for Business Administration, 1945. Residence: Lynwood Court, Totteride Lane, Herts. Office: 9 Basinghall St., London, E.C. 2, England.

NEWSTETTER, WILBER IRVIN, American Social Worker; born Nov. 30, 1896, Massillon, Ohio; son of Wm. M. and Laura C. (Vogt) Newstetter; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, A.B. 1919; Western Reserve Univ., A.M. 1922; married Jessie Hinds Hayden, Aug. 25, 1921; three children. Asst. Purchasing Agent, Glidden Co., 1919. Social worker and Director, Woodland Center, Cleveland, Ohio, 1920-26; Director, Univ. Neighborhood Centers, Cleveland, 1928-38; Asst. Prof. of Group Work, Western Reserve Univ., 1926-30; Assoc. Prof. until 1934; Prof., 1934-38; Acting Dean, 1938. Dean, School of Applied Social Sciences and Prof. of Social Administration, Univ. of Pittsburgh, since 1938. Visiting Prof., Pennsylvania School of Social Work; Univ. of Toronto. Director: Harkness and Wawokiye Camps, 1920-33; Camp Northland, Haliburton, Ont., 1934-43; Assoc. Director, Social Study of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, 1934-36; Pres., Treas., Moose Lake Camps, Inc. Member: Amer. Assn. of Schools of Social Works (Pres. 1938-40); Amer. Assn. of Social Workers; Natl. Conference of Social Work; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Author: Wawokiye Camp —A Research Project in Group Work; Group Adjustment—A Study in Experimental Sociology. Address: St. James Place, Fox Chapel, Pittsburgh 15, Pa.

NEWTON, ALGERNON, British Landscape Painter; born Feb. 23, 1880, Hampstead, London, England; son of Arthur Henry and Georgiana (Nicholls) Newton; educated at Farnborough School and Clare College, Cambridge; married (1st) Marjorie Emelia Balfour Rider, 1903; (2nd) Elsie Mary Willmott Richards, 1921; four children. Began career as landscape painter, 1903. Royal Academician since 1943. Represented in Natl. Gallery of New South Wales; Pietermaritzburg Gallery; Minneapolis Inst. of Art; Brighton Corp. Art Gallery; Birmingham Art Gallery; Art Gallery, Melburn; Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool; Fennens Art Gallery, Hull; Kelvin Grove Gallery, Glasgow; Nottingham Art Gallery; Art Gallery, Preston. During World War I served in Royal First Devon Yeomanry, and in Royal Naval Division, 1914-16. Address: Beckhole, Goathland, York, England; also 16 Vicarage Gate, London, W. 8, England.

NEWTON, Sir BASIL COCHRANE, K.C.M.G., British Diplomat; born July 25, 1889. Clerk, Foreign Office, 1912; First Secretary, 1922. Representative at Special China Tariff Conf., Peking, 1925-26; transferred to Washington, D. C. (did not proceed); to Peking, 1927 (given rank of Acting Counsellor, 1927). Counsellor of Embassy, Berlin, 1929, and acted as Chargé d'Affaires, 1930, 1931, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936. E.E. and M.P.: Germany, 1935; Czechoslovakia, 1937. A.E. and P., Iraq, 1939. In Foreign Office with rank of Ambassador, 1942—. Address: The Foreign Office, London, England.

NEWTON, CARL ELBRIDGE, American Lawyer; born Somerville, Mass., 1898; educated at Dartmouth College, 1920; Oxford University, 1923. Partner, law firm of Donovan, Leisure, Newton & Lumbard, New York City. Member of Board of Directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway; President, 1942-46. Residence: Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 2 Wall St., New York, New York.

NEWTON, Sir CHARLES HENRY, British Railway Manager; born June 6, 1882, London, England; son of Henry and H. E. (Halsey) Newton; Brunel Medal, London School of Economics, Univ. of London; married Hilda Blanche Smith, 1917. Railway Accountant, 1897; Asst. to Comptroller of Great Eastern Railway, 1916; Asst. Accountant, 1919; Chief Accountant, 1922. Asst. Accountant of London and North Eastern Railway, 1923; Chief Accountant, 1928; Divisional General Manager (Southern Area), 1936; Chief General Manager, since 1939. Director: Pickfords, Ltd.; Carter Peterson & Co.; Hull & Netherlands Steamship Co.; Wilson's and North Eastern Railway Shipping Co. Member: Royal Empire Soc., Inst. of Transport. Commander (Brother), Order of St. John of Jerusalem. Author: Railway Accounts, 1930. Colonel, Engineer and Railway Staff Corps, Royal Engineer (T.D.), since 1939. Residence: Furzefield, Furze Lane, East Grinstead, Sussex, England. Office: Dorset Square, London, N.W. 1, England.

NEWTON, Dr. FRANCIS CHANDLER, American Surgeon; born June 30, 1893, Winchester, Mass.; son of Darius Augustine and Marion C. (Stone) Newton; educated at Amherst College, 1915; Harvard Med. School, 1919; married Helen Lindsay Prentiss, June 28, 1924; four sons. Voluntary Asst. at Physiological Inst. of Berne, Switzerland, 1923-24; Assoc. in Surgery at Brigham Hosp., 1924-28. Senior Assoc. (1928-40), Surgeon (1940-43), Peter Bent Brigham Hosp., and Acting Surgeon-in-Chief, 1943-45; Surgeon, 1945—. Asst. in Surgery at Harvard, 1920-23, and Moseley Traveling Fellow (Harvard), 1923-24; Supervisor of Surg. Laboratory, Harvard, 1925-32; Faculty Instructor, 1928-35; Assoc. in Surgery, 1935-39; Asst. Prof. of Surgery, 1939—. Consulting Surgeon to New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, 1926—; Consultant Surgeon, Boston Psychopathic Hosp., 1944—; Consultant in Surgery, Veterans Administration Hosp., West Roxbury, 1944—. Consultant at Children's Hosp., Boston, 1945—. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: Amer. Surg. Assn.; Eastern Surg. Soc.; La Société Internationale de Chirurgie; Amer. Med. Assn.; Founders Group of Amer. Bd. of Surg., etc. Author of numerous contributions to medical journals. Address: 319 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass.

NEWTON, Sir (HIBBERT) ALAN STEPHEN, Kt., M.S., F.R.C.S., F.R.A.C.S., F.A.C.S., Australian Surgeon; born Apr. 30, 1887, Melbourne, Victoria; son of Henry Hibbert and Clara Violet (Stephen) Newton; educated at Haileybury College; Melbourne Univ., 1905-09, and London Hosp., 1919; married Mary Cicely Wickstead, June 5, 1919; two children. Resident Med. Officer, Royal Melbourne Hosp., 1910; Registrar, 1911. Research work in England and U.S.A. 1912-13; Surgeon to Out-Patients at Royal Melbourne Hosp., 1913-27; Demonstrator in Surg., Univ. of Melbourne, 1913-15, and Lecturer in Surg. Anatomy, 1920-27; Surgeon to In-Patients at Royal Melbourne Hosp. and Clinical Lecturer in Surg. at Univ. of Melbourne, since 1927. Member of Royal Australasian College of Surgeons since 1929; Censor in Chief, 1933; Vice-Pres., 1937; Pres. since 1943. Dir., National Mutual Life Assn. of Australasia, Ltd.; The Trustees Executors and Agency Co., Ltd., and The Fourth Victoria Permanent Bldg., Soc. Pres., St. John Ambulance Assn., Victoria Center; etc. During First World War served in A.A.M.C., A.I.F., Captain to Major, 1916-19; Colonel in A.A.M.C. Reserve, and Chairman of Med. Equipment Control Committee, Dept. of Defence, since 1940. Residence: 272 Domain Rd., South Yarra, Melbourne. Office: 14 Parliament Pl., Melbourne, C. 2, Victoria, Australia.

NEWTON, Vice-Admiral JOHN HENRY, American Naval Officer; born Dec. 13, 1881, Pittston, Pa.; son of John Henry and Elizabeth (Moon) Newton; educated at U. S. Naval Academy, grad. 1905; married Elise Curry, Apr. 27, 1915; one son. Served with U. S. Asiatic Fleet, 1905-08; various assignments, 1908-39. Commander, Cruiser Division Four, 1939-41; Commander, Cruisers, Scouting Force, 1941-42; Sub-Chief, Naval Operations, 1942-43; Deputy Commander-in-Chief, Pacific Fleet and Pacific Ocean Areas, 1943-44; Deputy Commander, South Pacific Area and Force (9 months), 1944; Commander, South Pacific Area and Force, 1944-45; Inspector General, Pacific Fleet and Pacific Ocean Areas, since 1945. Awards: Navy Cross, Legion of Merit, Cuban Pacification Medal, Mexican Service Medal, Haitian Campaign Medal (1915), Victory Medal (with Destroyer Clasp), American Defense Service Medal (with one star), Pacific Theater Medal. Address: Navy Dept., Washington, D. C.

NEWTON, Rev. Dr. LOUIE DEVOTIE, American Clergyman; born Apr. 27, 1892, Screven County, Ga.; son of William Moore and Dicie Elizabeth (Robbins) Newton; educated at Mercer Univ., A.B. 1913; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1915; Oglethorpe Univ., D.D. (hon.), 1929; married Julia Winn Carstarphan, Apr. 30, 1915; two children. Prof. of History, Mercer Univ., 1915-17. Educational Director, Natl. War Camp Council, Camp Wheeler, Ga., 1917-18. Editor, The Christian Index, 1920-29. Ordained Baptist Minister, 1929. Pastor, Druid Hills Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga., since 1929. President: Southern Baptist Convention, 1946—; Exec. Bd., Georgia Baptist Convention, 1940-46. Assoc. Secy., Baptist World Alliance, since 1939. Chief of Chaplains (rank of Lieut.-Col.), Georgia State Guard. Conductor of a daily column in several newspapers, Good Morning, and a weekly column in various newspapers, Today and Tomorrow. Author: An American Churchman in the Soviet Union. Residence: 1011 Oakdale Rd., N.E. Office: 1085 Ponce de Leon Ave., N.E., Atlanta, Georgia.

NEWTON, Dr. ROBERT, Canadian Agriculturist and University President; born Feb. 7, 1889, Montreal, Quebec; son of John and Elizabeth (Brown) Newton; educated at McGill Univ., B.S.A. 1912; Univ. of Minnesota, M.S. 1921, Ph.D. 1923; Univ. of Alberta, D.Sc. 1933; married Emma Read, July 31, 1914. District Agriculturist, McGill Univ., 1912-13; Chief Asst. Cerealist, Dominion Experiment Farms, 1913-14; Director, Agricultural Instruction, New Brunswick, 1914-15; Asst. Prof. of Field Husbandry, Univ. of Alberta, 1919-20; Prof., Plant Biochemistry, 1922-24; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Field Crops, 1924-32; Acting Director, Division of Biology and Agriculture, Natl. Research Council of Canada, 1928-32; Director, 1932-40; Dean, Faculty of Agriculture, Univ. of Alberta, 1940-41; Pres., since 1941. Governor, Arctic Inst. of North America; Vice-Pres. Edmonton Museum of Arts. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Canada; Canadian Soc. of Technical Agriculturists; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Canadian Geographical Soc. Member, Canadian Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Canadian Delegate, Commonwealth Scientific Conference, 1946. Contributor to agricultural literature. Address: 1 University Campus, Edmonton, Alberta.

NEWTON, ROY CHESTER, American Chemist; born May 8, 1896, El Reno, Okla.; son of S. W. and Katie (Webb) Newton; educated at Oklahoma A. & M. College, 1921; Univ. of Chicago, 1924; married Ruth Ellen Watkins, May 22, 1930; three children. Research Chemist, Swift & Co., 1924; Chief Chemist, 1932-41; Vice-Pres. in charge of Scientific Research Laboratories since 1941. Past Chairman, Division of Agricultural and Food Chemistry, Amer. Chemical Soc. (Chairman, Chicago Section, 1942-43). Ex-Pres., Inst. of Food Technologists, 1943; Chairman, First Natl. Chemical Exposition. Member: Amer. Oil Chemists Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Scientific Adv. Com. of The Nutrition Foundation. Chairman, Natl. Natl. Research Council Com. on Veterinary Service for Farm Animals. Address: Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

NEYMAN, Dr. JERZY, Polish-American Mathematician; born Apr. 16, 1894, Bendery, Russia; son of Czeslaw and Kazimiera (Lutoslawska) Neyman; educated at Univ. of Kharkov, Russia, 1912-16; Univ. of Warsaw, Poland, Ph.D. 1923; Univ. of London, 1925-26; Univ. of Paris, 1926-27; married Olga Solodovnikova, May 4, 1920; one son. Lectured at Inst. of Technology, Kharkov, 1917-21; Statistician, Inst. of Agriculture, Bydgoszcz, Poland, 1921-23. Lecturer, College of Agriculture, Warsaw, 1928-34; Special Lecturer, University College, London, 1934-35; Reader in Statistics, 1935-38. Special Lecturer, Univ. of Paris, 1936; Prof. of Mathematics in charge of Statistical Laboratory, Univ. of California, 1938-41; Director, Statistical Laboratory, and Prof. of Mathematics since 1941. Technical Representative, Univ. of California, on defense project at Statistical Laboratory under contract with Natl. Defense Research Com. since 1942. Member: Amer. and French Mathematical Socs.; Polish Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Statistical Assn.; Inst. of Mathematical Statistics; Royal Statistical Soc.; Econometric Soc., etc. Author: Outline of a Theory of Statistical Estimation Based on the Classical Theory of Probability, 1937; L'estimation statistique traitée comme un problème classique de probabilité, 1938; On the Problem of the Most Efficient Tests of Statistical Hypotheses (jointly with E. S. Pearson), 1933. Co-Editor, Statistical Research Memoirs and Annals of Mathematical Statistics. Address: University of California, Berkeley 4, Calif.

NEYMANN, Dr. CLARENCE ADOLPH, American Psychiatrist; born Nov. 7, 1887, Chicago; son of A. M. and Emma (Huscher) Neymann; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1909; Heidelberg, M.D. 1914; married Virginia Hall, May 7, 1927. Assoc. in Psych., Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1915; Dir. of Laboratory of Internal Medicine, Phipps Clinic, until 1918; Supt. of Cook County Psychopathic Hosp., 1919-22; Member of Attending Staff, 1922-38; Chief of Staff since 1938. Member of Attending Staff, Wesley Memorial Hosp. (1930—); Attending Neurol. and Psych., Ill. Charitable Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Infirmary (1923-35); Attending Neurol. and Psych., Chicago Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium, 1928-35; Instructor in Psych. at Phipps Clinic, Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1915-18; Asst. Prof. of Psych., Rush Med. College, 1919-21; Assoc. Prof. of Psych., Northwestern Univ. Med. School (1921—). Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Royal Soc. of Medicine, London, England; Member: Central Neuropsych. Assn.; Chicago Neurol. Soc.; Ill. Psych. Soc.; Amer. Psychopath. Assn.; Med. Soc. of Yucatan (hon.); Belgian League of Honor. Awarded: Officer of the Belgian Order de la Couronne, 1937. Exchange Prof. to Univs. of Liege, Brussels, Louvain, and Ghent, 1935; Hon. Prof. of Medicine, Natl. Univ. of Mexico, 1933. Contributor to medical literature. Address: 104 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

NGAI, Dr. JOHN SHIH-KUANG, Chinese Pathologist; born Apr. 25, 1906, Wuchang, Hupeh, China; son of Chi-Feng and Shen-Sze Ngai; educated at Boone Univ.; Yale-in-China; Hunan-Yale College of Medicine, M.D. 1929; married Lily S. Zia, July 15, 1932. Interned at Peiping Union Medical College Hosp., 1928-29; Pathologist, Peiping Union Medical College, 1929-34; Chief of Laboratories and Pathol., Central Hosp., Nanking, 1934-35; Technical Expert for Central Field Health Station, Natl. Economic Council, Nanking; Lecturer in Pathol., Army Medical College, Nanking; Assoc. Prof. of Pathol., National Medical College of Shanghai, Shanghai, 1935-39; Medical Director of Sino-Foreign Clinic, Shanghai, 1939-40; Assoc. Prof. of Pathol., West China Union University Medical College, 1940-41; Visiting Surgeon, United Hosp. of Associated Universities, Chengtu, 1940-41. Chest Surgeon, Toronto Hosp., Weston, Ont., 1941—. Fellow, Toronto Acad. of Medicine. Life Member, Chinese Medical Assn. of Shanghai. Member: Ontario and Canadian Medical Assns.; Laennec Soc. of Canada. Author of articles on pathology published in Chinese and American medical journals. Residence: 540 Russell Hill Rd. Office: 139 Queen St., W., Toronto 1, Ont., Canada.

NIAL, HAKAN, Swedish Professor of Law; born Feb. 28, 1899, Skara, Sweden; son of Judge August Nilsson and Anna Landtmanson; educated at Universities of Stockholm, 1918-22, 1927-29; Paris, 1925; Leipzig, 1925; New York and Washington, 1931; Berlin, The Hague and Paris, 1938. Began career as an Asst. Circuit Judge, 1922. Asst. at the Court of Appeal, Stockholm, 1925-27; Lecturer, University of Stockholm, 1929-37; Assistant Professor at the University of Commerce, Stockholm, 1930-37; Professor of Private and International Law at the University of Stockholm since 1937. Member, Permanent Law Committee, 1933-41. Chairman, banking firm "Bankiraktiebolaget E. Banck" in Stockholm. Awarded the Order of the Pole Star (Swedish). Author of books on company law, international law, and articles in Swedish and foreign journals. Residence: Moravaegen 13, Nockeby, Stockholm, Sweden.

NIBOYET, Prof. JEAN, French Professor of International Law; born Oct. 29, 1886, Paris, France; son of Jean and Stéphanie (Leser) Niboyet; educated at Univ. of Paris, Law Faculty, LL.D. 1912; Univ. of Montreal, hon. LL.D.; married Juliette Blociszewski, Dec. 23, 1927; three children. Lecturer, civil law, Univs. of Lyon and Algiers, 1913; Prof. of Internatl. Private Law, Univ. of Strasbourg, 1919; Univ. of Lille, 1926; Prof., Internatl. Law, Univ. of Paris since 1929; Lecturer on Civil Law and Comparative Law, 1929-39; and Private Internatl. Law, since 1940. Pres., French Com. of Internatl. Private Law; Secy. General, Assn. Henri Capitant pour la culture juridique Française; Assoc. Director, Institut des Hautes Etudes Internationales, Univ. of Paris. Member, Commn. for Reform of French Civil Code; Assoc. Member, Inst. of Internatl. Law; Member, Soc. for Study of Legislation; Vice-Pres., Soc. of Comparative Legislation. Pres. of CITEJA (1945). Pres., French Assn. for Air Law. Created Knight, Legion of Honor (mil.), 1930; Order of Leopold, Belgium, 1939; received Croix de Guerre with three stars, 1915-18; Croix des Services Militaires volontaires (Silver Star). Author: Traité de Droit International Privé, 3 vols. 1938-43; Manuel de Droit international privé, 1st ed. 1926, 2nd ed. 1928; Cours de Droit international privé, 1st ed. 1946. Co-Director, Répertoire de Droit international (10 vols.), 1928, 1932. Served as an officer, World War I; Col. in French Army, Judge Advocate Corps, 1939-40, 1944-45. Address: 77 rue Madame, Paris VI, France.

NICCOLINI, LORENZO, Italian Financier; born April 29, 1884, Ponsacco, Pisa, Italy; son of Eugenio and Cristina (Maldini) Niccolini; educated at Univ. of Pisa; Engineering School, Rome, C.E. 1908; married Ludovica Valperca; five children. Civil Engineer, 1908; Chairman, Managing Bd.: Fondiaria Fire; Fondiaria Accident; Fondiaria Life (insurance company), Florence, since 1944. Chairman, Savings Bank, Florence; Chairman of Council, Bank of Italy (Florence Branch). Pres., Inst. for the Deaf and Dumb; Pres., Agricultural Union, Florence. Served in Italian Army during three war campaigns; Lieutenant Col., Engineering Corps; received War Cross. Address: La Fondiaria, Piazza Vittorio Emanuele No. 6, Florence, Italy.

NICE, Dr. LEONARD BLAINE, American Physiologist and Pharmacologist; born May 1, 1882, Marshfield, Ohio; son of Frederick H. and Romina A. (Adams) Nice; educated at Ohio Univ., Ph.B. 1908; Clark Univ., Ph.D. 1911; married Margaret Morse, Aug. 12, 1909; four daughters. Asst. in Physiol., Clark Univ., 1908-11; Instructor in Physiol., Harvard Med. School, 1911-12; Prof. of Physiol., Univ. of Okla., 1913-27; Prof. of Physiol., Ohio State Univ., 1927-36; Prof. of Physiol. and Pharmacol., Chicago Med. School, 1936—. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physiol. Soc.; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Wilson Ornithological Club; Amer. Naturalists Soc. Contributor to scientific literature. Co-Author: The Birds of Oklahoma, 1924. Address: 710 S. Wolcott Ave., Chicago 12, Ill.

NICEFORO, Prof. ALFREDO, Italian Statistician; born Jan. 23, 1876, Castiglione, Sicily, Italy; son of Nicola and Clotilde (Campioni) Niceforo; educated at Univ. of Naples, Dr. degree, 1897; married Margherita Sicorè, Oct. 9, 1900; one daughter. Privatdocent in Criminology, Univ. of Lausanne, Switzerland, 1902; New University, Brussels, Belgium, 1907. Prof. of Statistics: Superior School of Economics, Turin, 1914; Univ. of Naples, 1919. Exchange Prof., Sorbonne, Paris, 1919-20; Prof. of Statistics, Univ. of Rome, since 1930. Member: Italian Superior Council of Statistics; Commissione Statistica di Igiene, League of Nations, 1923. Pres., Italian Anthropological Soc. Author: L'enquête judiciaire scientifique, 1907; Le génie del' argot; essai sur les Langages spéciaux; Les argots et les parlers magiques; Anthropologie der nichtbesitzenden Klassen, 1910; Les Germains: histoire d'un idée et d'une race, 1919; La méthode statistique: théorie et applications aux sciences naturelles, aux sciences sociales et à l'art, 1924; La race et le cancer en Europe, 1924; La mortalità per tuberculosi in Italia, 1931; Il censimento delle abitazioni in Italia, 1931; Lezioni di demografia, 1922; Lezioni di statistica economica, 1940; Criminologia: L'uomo delinquente, 1941; Ambiente e criminalità, 1943; Die Kriminalpolizei und ihre Hilfswissenschaften, Berlin, 1909; Kultur und Fortschritt im Spiegel der Zahlen, Wien, Prag, Leipzig, 1930; Les indices numériques de la civilisation et du progrès, 1924. Residence: Via di Villa Patrizi 18. Office: University, Rome, Italy.

NICHOL, FREDERICK WILLIAM, American Industrialist; born March 8, 1892, Ottawa, Ont., Canada; son of William Robert and Jemima (Davis) Nichol; educated at public and commercial schools in Ottawa; LL.D., Hartwick College, 1944; married Rose Eichel, July 20, 1921. Began as clerk with N. Y. Central R. R. in Ottawa, 1906. Secretary to President of International Business Machines Corp., N. Y., 1914-17; then became Executive Secretary. Served in U. S. Army, 1917-19; mustered out as Major. He was appointed Executive Secretary of International Business Machines Co. Ltd. of Canada in 1924, and in December of that year became Assistant General Manager. He returned to New York in 1926 as Manager of the Business Service Department. He was then made Assistant to the Vice-President in Charge of Sales of International Business Machines Corp. In June, 1927, he became President and Director of the Dayton Scale Co., a former Division of International Business Machines Corp.; Asst. to President, 1929-33; Vice-President, 1933; Director, Vice-President and General Manager since 1935; also member of Executive and Finance Committees since 1936. Directing Head of Department of Logistics and a Member of Board of Education of IBM. Vice-Pres. and Dir., Electromatic Typewriters, Inc. and Internatl. Business Machines Co. of Delaware; Director of Maquinas Comerciales Watson de Mexico, S.A.; International Business Machines Co. Ltd. of Canada, Yugoslovensko Watson, A. D.; Watson Belge, S.A., and Empire Trust Co. of New York. Residence: 480 Park Ave. Office: 590 Madison Ave., New York, New York.

NICHOLAS, Hon. Mr. Justice HAROLD SPRENT, Australian Jurist; born Jan. 8, 1877, Hobart, Tasmania; son of William A. Nicholas; educated at Hutchins School, Hobart; Oxford University, M.A.; married Mabel Woodhead, April 13, 1914; two children. Barrister, Inner Temple, 1901. Journalist, Sydney Morning Herald. Member, Legislative Council, N.S.W., 1930. Chief Judge in Equity (New South Wales), 1936. Justice, Supreme Court, N.S.W. Pres., British Drama League of Australia. Vice-Pres., Classical Assn. (Australia). Editor, Australian Quarterly. Residence: Beresford Road, Rose Bay. Office: The Supreme Court, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

NICHOLAS, Prof. JOHN SPANGLER, American Biologist; born 1893; educated at Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1921. Member of Faculty of Yale Univ., since 1926; now Sterling Prof. of Biology; Chairman of Dept. of Zoology; Master of Trumbull College, Yale; Director, Osborn Zoological Laboratory. Consultant to Natl. Research Council and to Natl. Resources Planning Board. Science Personnel Adviser to War Manpower Commission, World War II. Author: Goethe, The Layman in Science, 1933 and of numerous publications on original research in experimental biology and neurology. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

NICHOLL, JOHN STORER, C.B.E., British Chartered Accountant; born Sept. 6, 1888, London, England; son of William and Sarah Dacres (Robson) Nicholl; educated at Sutton Valence, Kent; married Constance Cornforth, 1913; one child. Member, Head Office of Union Castle Line, 1904; subsequently served in Western Canada as Office Manager to Chief Engineer of Hudson Bay & Pacific Railway; qualified as Chartered Accountant and practiced in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Joined McNamara & Co., Ltd., Road Carriers, London, 1920, Deputy Chairman since 1943. Partner, Maxwell Hicks & Co., Chartered Accountants. Director, Allied Transports Ltd., Birmingham. Member of numerous Ministry of War Transport Coms., and on Transport Advisory Council, 1934-43. Member: Inst. of Transport (Pres., 1941-43, Gold Medal, 1934-35); Dominion Assn. of Chartered Accountants (Canada); Inst. of Chartered Accountants of Saskatchewan. Vice-Pres., Commercial Motor Users Assn. Chairman: Highways Transport Sub Com.; British Natl. Com. of Internatl. Chamber of Commerce. Received Coronation Medal, 1937; created C.B.E., 1939. Author of numerous papers on road transport and subjects. Served with Imperial Munitions Board, Ottawa, later Deputy Auditor and Controller, World War I. Residence: 38 Ravenscroft Ave., London, N.W. 11. Office: 3 Bonhill St., London, E.C. 2, England.

NICHOLLS, Dr. AUBREY GORDON, Australian Biologist; born Nov. 21, 1904, Mentone, A.M., France; son of George Edward and Amy Sarah (Walton) Nicholls; educated at King's College School, London; Univ. of Western Australia, B.Sc. 1929; Univ. College, London, Ph.D. 1932; married Mabel Ashmere Borden, Apr. 25, 1932; three children. Member, Great Barrier Reef Expedition, 1928-29; holder of C.S.I.R. Studentship, Plymouth Marine Laboratory, 1929-31; Asst. Naturalist, Marine Biological Station, Millport, Scotland, 1931-38; Research Fellow in Marine Biology, Univ. of Western Australia, since 1939. Member: Marine Biological Assn. of United Kingdom; Soc. for Experimental Biology; Royal Soc. of Western Australia (Secy., 1942-45, Vice-Pres., 1945-46, Pres., 1946-47); Australian Natl. Research Council. Author of various scientific publications in various journals. Address: University of Western Australia, Perth, W. Australia.

NICHOLLS, BERTRAM, British Artist; born 1883, Didsbury, Lancashire; son of William Andrews and Mary (Allen) Nicholls; educated at Univ. College, London, 1901-04; married Mary Laura Eva Phillips, 1912; one son. Began career as an artist. Held one-man shows at Barbizon House, London, The Fine Art Society, London. Represented at: National Gallery, Millbank, Metropolitan Museum, New York; National Gallery of Canada; British Museum; Guildhall Gallery; Dublin Municipal Gallery; Adelaide, Auckland, Ottawa and principal public galleries in England. President, Royal Society of British Artists, since 1931. Awarded General Service Medal of 1914-18; Victory Medal of 1918; Jubilee Medal and Coronation Medal. Author: Painting in Oils, 1939. Address: Hardham House, Steyning, Sussex, England.

NICHOLLS, Hon. GEORGE HEATON, P.C., South African High Commissioner; born 1876, Hounslow, England; son of George Heaton Nicholls; educated at Rotherham; married Ruby Hitchins, 1911; one son and two daughters. Served in British Army in India, Burma and Tira campaigns; went to South Africa from Ceylon during South African War; District Commissioner, N.W. Rhodesia. Magistrate for territory of Papua (New Guinea). Returned to South Africa to engage in sugar farming in Umfolozi; elected to Union Parliament for Zululand constituency, 1920; leader of Natal Parliamentary Group; Senator, 1939. Member, Indian Round Table Conf., Cape Town; Member, Indian Colonization Commn.; Administrator, Natal, 1942-44. Author: Bayete! Leader of South African Delegation to the Preparatory Commn., United Nations, Nov.-Dec. 1945, and of first part of first session of General Assembly, Jan. 1946. Delegate, U. N. General Assembly, N. Y., 1946. Named Privy Councilor, 1948—. Address: South Africa House, Trafalgar Sq., London, W.C.2, England.

NICHOLLS, JESSE CLYDE, American Civic Leader; born August 23, 1880, Olathe, Kansas; son of Jesse Thomas and Josie (Jackson) Nichols; educated at Kansas University, A.B. 1902; Harvard, A.B. 1903; married Jessie Eleanor Miller, June 28, 1905; three children. Began career in 1904 as a land developer. President, J. C. Nichols Co. until Aug. 1940; now Chairman of the Board. Director: Commerce Trust Co.; Kansas City Title & Trust; Business Men's Assurance Co.; Plaza Bank of Commerce; Kansas City Fire & Marine Insurance Co. Chairman, University Trustees of William Rockhill Nelson Trust, a $12,000,000 fund for purchase and display of works of art. Organizer and Chairman of Midwest Research Council in Kansas City; Vice-President, Missouri River Navigation Assn.; Member, National Capital Park & Planning Commission, appointed by President Coolidge, 1926; re-appointed by President Hoover, 1930; twice by President Roosevelt, 1936 and 1942. Member of Business Advisory Council for Department of Commerce. Director, American Planning and Civic Assn.; National Assn. of Real Estate Boards; Provident Assn. of Kansas City; Mississippi Valley Assn. Served for 13 months as a Dollar-a-Year-Man heading Miscellaneous Equipment Division under National Defense Council, O.P.M.; served 6 months as Adviser to Public Buildings Administration in Washington, D. C., 1941. President, Midwest Foreign Trade Assn. Chairman, Board of Trustees, Midwest Research Institute. Hon. Member, Amer. Inst. of Architects. Residence: 1214 W. 55th St. Office: Nichols Bldg., Kansas City 2, Mo.

NICHOLLS, The Hon. Sir ROBERT DOVE, M.P., J.P., Australian Political Leader; born June 27, 1889, in Nantawarra, South Australia; son of James and Florence Bailey (Dove) Nicholls; educated at public schools; married Rose Evelyn Marshall Cowan, Dec. 4, 1915; four children. Began as a grazier and wheatgrower, 1907. Director of South Australian Farmers' Co-Op. Union Limited since 1922, and a Director of Farmers' Co-Op., Executors and Trustees Limited since 1922. Speaker, House of Assembly, since 1933. President of Australian American Movement (S.A. Branch); Chairman of Advisory Committee of Royal Adelaide Hospital and University; Member of Council of School of Mines and Industries; Member of the Council of Institutes Association, and a Member of the Board of Governors of the Botanic Gardens. Author: "From the Speaker's Chair," 1936. Residence: Woodville Road, Woodville, South Australia. Office: Parliament House, North Terrace, Adelaide, South Australia.

NICHOLS, BEVERLY, British Writer; born 1899. Author: Prelude, 1920; 25 (being a young man's candid recollections of his elders and betters), 1926; Crazy Pavements, 1927; The Star-spangled Manner, 1928; Women and Children Last, 1931; Down the Garden Path, 1932; Evensong, 1932; For Adults Only, 1932; Failure (three plays), 1933; Cry Havoc! 1933; A Thatched Roof, 1933; A Village in a Valley, 1934; The Fool Hath Said, 1936; No Place Like Home, 1936; Mesmer, 1937; News of England (or A Country Without a Hero), 1938; Self, 1938; Green Grows the City, 1939; Revue, 1939; Men Do Not Weep, 1941; Verdict on India, 1944. Address: c/o J. Cape, 30 Bedford Square, London, England.

NICHOLS, CLARK A., American Law Writer; born Jan. 28, 1875, Warner, N. Y.; son of Erwin F. and Eunice D. (Clark) Nichols; educated at Syracuse Univ.; Denver Univ.; Univ. of Colorado, LL.B.; married Gladys Ruggles, Feb. 24, 1934. Law Editor, West Publishing Co., St. Paul, 1938; later Contributing Editor to Cyc. and Corpus Juris, Law Writer for Callaghan & Co., Chicago, 30 years. Author: Nichols New York Practice, 1902; Nichols Applied Evidence; Nichols Cyclopedia of Legal Forms, 1936; Nichols Illinois Practice, 1940. Contributing Editor: Fletcher Cyclopedia of Corporations; Nichols-Cahill Annotated New Yok Civil Practice Acts; Cyclopedia of Federal Procedure; Callaghan's Michigan Pleading and Practice; Corpus Juris. Address: 1121 Balboa, Burlingame, Calif.

NICHOLS, DUDLEY, American Motion Picture Writer-Director; born April 6, 1895, Wapakoneta, Ohio; son of Dr. Grant Byron and Mary (Means) Nichols; educated at Univ. of Michigan, 1915-17; married Esta Gooch-Collings, June 1, 1924. With New York Evening Post, 1919; Star reporter and foreign correspondent, The World, 1925-29; Screen Writer for Fox Film Corp., 1929; wrote screen plays for various studios in Hollywood; produced and directed films for RKO; now founder and officer, Independent Artists, Inc., sharing services with this company and RKO studio. Author: (motion pictures) The Informer; The Bells of St. Mary's; Stagecoach, etc. Wrote and produced This Land is Mine; wrote, produced and directed Sister Kenny; Mourning Becomes Electra. Vice-Pres., Independent Artists, Inc., Hollywood. Ex-Pres., Screen Writers' Guild, Hollywood, two terms. Received many awards for motion pictures. Served in U. S. Navy, 1917-19. Co-Editor (with John Gassner): Twenty Best Film Plays; Best Film Plays, 1945; Best Film Plays, 1946 (annual series). Residence: 504 S. Plymouth Boulevard, Los Angeles. Office: RKO Studio, 700 Gower St., Hollywood, California.

NICHOLS, JOHN FRANCIS, British Archaeologist; born May 16, 1890, Surrey, England; son of Francis and Emma J. Algar Nichols; educated at King's College, Univ. of London, B.A. 1911, M.A. 1922, Ph.D. 1930; Oxford Univ.; married Clara K. Brimson, Nov. 27, 1915; two sons. General Secy., Historical Assn., 1935-43; Director, British Archaeological Assn., since 1936. Fellow: Soc. of Antiquaries; Royal Historical Soc. Vice-Pres., Historical Assn. Major, Middlesex Regiment and Machine Gun Corps, World War I; commanded Company of Home Guard, World War II. Awarded Military Cross, 1918. Address: 11 Chandos St., Cavendish Sq., London, W. 1, England.

NICHOLS, HOBART, Painter; born May 1, 1869, Washington, D. C.; son of Hobart and Indiana (Jay) Nichols; educated at Academy Julian, Paris, and under Castelluchio; married Wilhelmina von Stosch, Apr. 20, 1895; two children. Held first exhibition at Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D. C.; participated in leading annual exhibitions throughout the U. S. Gave one-man shows in New York, Washington, and the South. Assistant Director, Fine Arts of U. S. Commission to Paris Exposition, 1900. Director, Tiffany Foundation, since 1934; President, National Academy of Design, since 1939; Trustee, Metropolitan Museum, since 1939; Trustee, Tiffany Foundation (also Vice-President), since 1934. Executive Director of Tiffany Foundation doing war work for Government, 1942-45. Member: Institute of Arts and Letters; National Academy of Design; American Watercolor Society; Allied Artists of America, etc. Received life fellowship, Metropolitan Museum; awarded Medal of Honor, Salmagundi Club, Silver and Bronze Medals, National Arts Club, and many prize awards for painting. Address: 41 Sunnybrook Rd., Bronxville, N. Y.

NICHOLS, Col. KENNETH D., American Army Officer; graduate of West Point Military Academy, 1929. Second Lieut., 1929; advanced through ranks to Colonel. Acad., 1937-41; area engineer of air Instructor in Engineering, West Point depot, Rome, N. Y., the Pennsylvania Ordnance Works; former engineer for Manhattan Dist. Atomic Project; engaged in research and development, construction and operation of plants producing uranium and U-235. Consultant to Liaison Com. and Consultant to the U. S. Delegation to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission; Prof. of Mechanics, West Point, 1947-48; appointed Head of Armed Forces Special Weapons Project, Feb. 1948. Recommended for promotion to temporary rank of Major General by President Truman. Address: Armed Forces Special Weapons Project, War Dept., Washington, District of Columbia.

NICHOLS, Dr. MARK LOVEL, American Agronomist; born Jan. 24, 1888, Bellevue, Ohio; son of Dr. Mark Richard and Allie (McCrillis) Nichols; educated at Ohio

State Univ., B.S. Agr. Eng 1912; Delaware Univ., M.S. Soils 1916; Clemson (S. C.) College, Sc.D. Soils research, 1937; married Nina Griffin, Jan. 24, 1913; two children. Instructor in Agronomy and Agr. Engineering, T. N. Vail Agricultural School, Lyndenville, Vt., 1914-15; Asst. Prof. of Agronomy, Univ. of Delaware, 1915-17; Exten. Agricultural Engineer, Virginia Polytechnic Inst., 1917-19; Prof. of Agricultural Engineering, Alabama Polytechnic Inst. and Head of Dept. and Research Engineering Experimental Station, 1919-35; Regional Engineer, Southeast, Soil Conservation Service, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1936-37; Asst. Chief of Research, Soil Conservation Service, 1937-39; Chief of Research, since 1939. Pres., Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers, 1946-47. Awarded McCormick Medal by Amer. Soc. of Agricultural Engineers. Residence: 3309 Stephenson Place, N.W. Office: U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

NICHOLS, Sir PHILIP BOUVERIE BOWYER, K.C.M.G., M.C., British Diplomat; born Sept. 7, 1894; educated at Royal Naval College, Osborne, Winchester and Balliol College, Oxford. Third Secy., Dipomatic Service, 1920; appointed to Vienna, 1920; 2nd Secy., 1923; with Foreign Office, 1923; Secretary to British Agent before British and American Claims Arbitration Tribunal, London, 1923; seconded for service, New Zealand, 1928; 1st Secretary, 1930; with Foreign Office, 1930; transferred to Rome, 1933; with Foreign Office, 1937; Acting Counsellor, 1939. Minister, Czechoslovakian Govt. in London, 1941; Ambassador, 1942-47. Ambassador to The Netherlands, 1947 —. Address: British Embassy, The Hague, The Netherlands.

NICHOLS, Dr. ROBERT HASTINGS, Church Historian; born Oct. 2, 1873, Rochester, N. Y.; son of Rev. G. Parsons and Delia (Briggs) Nichols; educated at Yale University, B.A. 1894, Ph.D. 1896; Auburn Theological Seminary, graduated 1901; Mansfield College, Oxford University; Hon. D.D., George Washington University, 1922; married Marjorie Newton Wallace, June 9, 1910 (died 1923); married (2nd) Winifred Hoyt, Aug. 8, 1925; four children. Pastor, Presbyterian Church in Undilla, N. Y., 1901-02; Trinity Presbyterian Church, South Orange, N. J., 1902-10; Assistant Professor, Church History, Auburn Theological Seminary, 1910-13; Professor, 1913-39; Professor, Church History, Union Theological Seminary, 1939-44. Member, Faculty of Political Science of Columbia University. Stated Clerk, Synod of New York of the Presbyterian Church, since 1922; Treasurer and Past President, American Society of Church History. Editor, "Church History," since 1932. Secretary, Presbyterian Colleagues, Inc., publishers of "The Presbyterian Tribune" and "Church Times"; Associate Editor, "The Presbyterian Tribune." Member, Permanent Judicial Commission, 1931-37; Secretary, Committee on Revision of the Book of Common Worship, 1928-32. Author: The Growth of the Christian Church, 1914 (revised edition, 1941); Ancient Christianity, 1923; Medieval Christianity, 1925; The Age of the Protestant Reformation, 1928, etc. Address: 21 Claremont Ave., New York 27, New York.

NICHOLS, Dr. ROY FRANKLIN, American Historian; born Mar. 3, 1896, Newark, N. J.; son of Franklin C. and Anna (Cairns) Nichols; educated at Rutgers Univ., A.B. 1918, A.M. 1919; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1923; Franklin & Marshall College, Litt.D. 1937; hon. L.H.D., Rutgers Univ., 1941; married Jeanette Paddock, 1920. Instr. in History, Columbia Univ., 1922-25. Asst. Prof. of History, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1925-30; Prof. of History, since 1930. Trustee, Rutgers Univ., 1944-47. Member: Social Science Research Council; Amer. Historical Assn. (Member of Council); Middle States Assn. of History Teachers (Pres. 1932-33); Pa. Historical Assn. (Pres. 1936-39); Pa. Fed. of Historical Societies (Pres. 1940-42); Pa. Historical Commission (1940-43); Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: The Democratic Machine (1850-1923), 1923; Syllabus for History of Civilization (Joint Author), 1927; The Republic of the U. S.: A History (with J. P. Nichols) 1941-42; Franklin Pierce, 1931; America Yesterday and Today (with C. A. Beard and W. C. Bagley), 1938; Growth of American Democracy (with J. P. Nichols), 1939; Short History of American Democracy, 1943; Disruption of American Democracy, 1947. Address: University of Pennsylvania, 208 College Hall, Philadelphia 4, Pa.

NICHOLS, RUTH ROWLAND, American Aviatrix; born Feb. 23, 1901, New York City; daughter of Erickson Norman and Edith Corlies (Haines) Nichols; educated at Wellesley College, B.A. 1924; Hon. Sc.D. from Beaver College, 1939. Set the First Non-Stop Flight from New York to Miami with Capt. Harry Rogers and Major M. K. Lee, and as a result, became associated with the Fairchild Aviation Corp. in sales promotion as first women executive of a million dollar aviation corp. Made a 12,000 mile 48-State Air Tour, 1929-30; founded Sportsman Pilot magazine; set three world records for women, 1930 and 1931; Traffic Manager and Reserve Pilot for New York and New England Airlines, 1932. Executive Director of Relief Wings, Inc., 1939-42; Consultant Director, Dayton School of Aviation, 1943; Director, Institute of International Relations, Whittier, Calif., 1944; Flight Instructor and Director of Public Relations, White Plains (N. Y.) Hospital, 1945-46. First American Woman awarded National Championship of International Fédération Aeronautique. Cited as one of 52 outstanding women of the world by Gen. Fed. of Women's Clubs, 1940. Author of many articles in national magazines and newspapers. Address: 162 Hill St., Rye, N. Y.

NICHOLS, Rt. Rev. SHIRLEY HALL, American Bishop; born September 26, 1884, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Walter and Frances Russell (Hall) Nichols; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1905; General Theological Seminary, 1908-11, hon. S.T.D. 1928; married Hasu Gardiner, June 20, 1916; four children. Ordained Deacon, 1911; sent to Japan as a Missionary; ordained Priest, 1912. Worked in Northern part of Japan, 1914-26; Bishop of Kyoto, 1926-40; Bishop Missionary District of Salina, Kansas, since 1941. Address: Bishop's House, 156 South 8th St., Salina, Kansas.

NICHOLS, WILLIAM ICHABOD, American Editor; born June 27, 1905, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of William Ichabod and Minerva (Parker) Nichols; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1926; Balliol College, Oxford; married Marie Thérèse Brollova Pereire, Sept. 6, 1942. Advertising and Publicity Mgr., Natl. Electric Power Co., 1929-32; Director, Harvard Univ. News office, 1932-34; Director of Electrical Development of Tennessee Valley Authority, 1935-37; Editor, Sunset Magazine of San Francisco, 1937-39; Managing Editor, This Week, 1939-43; Editor since 1943. Consultant to Office of War Utilities, War Production Board. Residence: 381 Park Ave., New York 21. Office: 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

NICHOLSON, Dr. ALEXANDER JOHN, Australian Entomologist; born Mar. 25, 1895, Co. Meath, Ireland; son of Alexander and Agnes Hannah (Smith) Nicholson; educated at Univ. of Birmingham, England, B.Sc. 1915, M.Sc. 1920, D.Sc. (Sydney) 1927; married Phyllis Heather Jarrett, 1933; two sons. Lecturer in Entomology, Univ. of Sydney, 1921-30; Deputy Chief, Division of Economic Entomology Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, Australia, 1930-36; Chief since 1936. Fellow, Royal Entomological Soc. of London. Author of various papers on entomological subjects and animal populations, including: "The Balance of Animal Populations" (Journal of Animal Ecology), 1933. Address: Division of Economic Entomology, Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, Canberra, A.C.T. Australia.

NICHOLSON, Dr. EVELYN RILEY, Honorary President of World Federation of Methodist Women; born June 30, 1873, Jackson, Minn.; daughter of Rev. Albert T. and Otilia P. (Maag) Riley; educated at DePauw Univ., A.B. 1897, M.A. 1898, Litt.D. 1939; Cornell Univ.; Univ. of Michigan; Amer. School of Classical Studies, Rome, Italy; Morningside College, L.H.D. 1928; Cornell College, LL.D. 1939; married Bishop Thomas Nicholson, June 19, 1917. Teacher in Florida and Indiana, 1895; Head of Latin Dept., Marion, Ind. High School, 1898-1901; Assoc. Prof. of Latin, Cornell College, 1901-02; English Teacher, Crandon Istituto Internazionale, Rome, Italy, 1903-04; Head of Latin Dept. of Cornell College, 1906-17; Natl. Pres., Woman's Foreign Missionary Soc., Methodist Episcopal Church, 1921-40; elected Pres. of World Federation of Methodist Women, 1939; now Hon. Pres. Author: Thinking It Through, 1927; The Way to a Warless World, 1924; also of numerous articles on art, archaeology, travel, missions, status of women and world peace. Editor, "The Roman World", 1903-04. Residence: 1305 N. Cleveland Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

NICHOLSON, Sir FRANK, Kt., C.B.E., D.L., J.P., British Company Director; born Nov. 1875, Sunderland, England; son of Henry and Annie (Williams) Nicholson; educated privately in Sunderland; married Amy Vaux, 1900; three children. Chartered Accountant, 1897. Director: Vaux and Associated Breweries; C. Vaux & Sons; North Eastern Breweries; Thos. Lamb & Sons; (Hetton-le-Hole); Bryth & Tyne Brewery Co.; Lamimer & Clark; Ridley, Cutter & Firth; Berwick Breweries; R. Edgar & Co.; Hepworth & Co.; Allsopp Brewery Investments; Licenses & General Insurance Co. (Newcastle Board); Northern Assurance Co. (Newcastle Board). Chairman, River Wear Commnrs., Durham County War Agricultural Exec. Com., Sunderland District, War Pensions Com. and Local Employment Com. (Ministry of Labour). Residence: Southill Hall, near Chester-le-Street, England.

NICHOLSON, Dr. FREDRIC MAX, American Physican and Surgeon; born Aug. 8, 1889, Clinton, Iowa; son of Peter Henry and Dora Maria (Brenningsen) Nicholaisen; attended Fremont College (Nebr.), 1907; Boyles College, Omaha (Nebr.), 1908-09; Lewis Institute of Chicago, Ill., 1913-17; Univ. of Chicago, Sc.B. 1918, Ph.D. 1921; Rush Medical College, University of Chicago, M.D. 1926; married Louise Sophia Anderson, May 4, 1928; two children. Assistant in Anatomy and Neurology, Univ. of Chicago, 1918-20; Assoc. in Anatomy and Neurol., 1920-21; Asst. in Pathol. and Bacteriol., The Rockefeller Institute for Med. Research, N. Y., 1921-23; Assoc. in Pathol. and Bacteriol., 1924; Night Physician to Inland Steel Co., Indiana Harbor, Ind., 1925-26; interned at Norwegian-American Hosp. in Chicago, 1926-27. Since 1927 has been engaged in private practice of Med., Surgery, Obstet., Gynecol. and Neurol. Also active Staff Member of Norwegian-American Hosp.; Permanent Chairman of Com. on Nursing Education. Fellow of Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Med. Assn.; Royal Microscopic Soc. of London; Member of Sigma Xi Scientific Soc.; Gamma Alpha Graduate Scientific Fraternity; Ill. State Acad. of Science; The Harvey Soc. of N. Y.; Chicago Med. Soc.; Ill. State Med. Soc.; N. Y. Acad. of Sciences; The Amer. Museum of Natural History (Assoc. Member); Alpha Omega Alpha Hon. Med. Soc.; Nu Sigma Nu Med. Fraternity, Assn. of Doctors of Philosophy, Univ. of Chicago; Chicago Danish Club. Member of Natl. Amer. Denmark Assn., Amer.-Scandinavian Foundation, Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, Natl. Geographic Soc., and Amer. Physicians Art Assn. Contributor to medical literature. During First World War served in Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917-18; awarded Victory Medal. Residence: 1312 N. Kedzie Ave., Chicago 51, Ill. Office: 3215 W. North Ave., Chicago 47, Illinois.

NICHOLSON, JAMES THOMAS, American Red Cross Official; born October 31, 1893, Leominster, Massachusetts; son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Ayers) Nicholson; educated at Massachusetts State College, B.Sc. 1916; married Marguerite Dobson, Nov. 9, 1918; two children. Division Director, Junior Red Cross, 1919; Assistant National Director, 1922-24. Asst. Manager, American Red Cross, 1924-30; Manager of Chicago Chapter, American Red Cross, 1939; National Director, American Junior Red Cross, 1939-42; Vice-Chairman, American National Red Cross, since 1942. American Red Cross Delegate to International Conference of Social Work, Paris, 1928; Member, American Red Cross Congress, Tokyo, 1934; Chairman of American Red Cross Delegation to International Conference of Social Work, London, 1938; Delegate of American Red Cross to Germany for Poland, 1939-40; American Red Cross Delegate to U.S.S.R., 1941. Received Chilean and Bulgarian Red Cross decorations; Hon. Member of Brazilian Red Cross. Awarded Parents Magazine Medal for outstanding service to children, 1944. Residence: 4717 Fulton St., N.W. Office: 17th and D Sts., N.W., Washington, D. C.

NICHOLSON, JOHN HENRY, British Educator; born Sept. 21, 1889, Scarborough, England; educated at Scarborough College, 1904-08; Christ College, Oxford, B.A. 1911 (1st class honors in history, and 1st class honors in theology in 1913); M.A. in Education, Bristol, 1921. Tutorial Class Tutor for Liverpool Univ., 1913-15; Tutor, Ordination Test School, Knutsford, 1919-20; Lecturer in Education, Bristol Univ., 1920-33. Director, Extra-Mural Studies, Bristol Univ., 1925-33; Professor of Education, Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne, 1933-35. Albert Kahn Fellow, 1922-23. Principal, University College, Hull, since 1935. Vice-President, Workers Educational Assn. Author: The Remaking of the Nations, 1925; School Care Committees, 1925; Education and Modern Needs, 1936. Address: University College, Hull, England.

NICHOLSON, Rt. Rev. PATRICK JOSEPH, Ph.D., Canadian University President, Physicist; born September 8, 1887, Beaver Cove, N. S., Canada; son of George and Catharine (Johnston) Nicholson; educated at St. Francis Xavier College, B.A. 1909; Johns Hopkins University, M.A. 1911, and Ph.D. 1913; Grand Seminary (theology), Montreal, 1913-14; St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, 1914-16. Began career, Sept. 1912; Prof. of Physics, St. Francis Xavier Univ.; Dean of Studies, 1936-44; President since 1944. Lecturer at Cape Breton Gaelic College; Editor of Gaelic Column in Antigonish Casket, 1919-44. Defensor Vinculi in the Diocesan Matrimonial Court. Member: American Physical Society; American Assn. of Physics Teachers. Fellow, American Assn. for Advancement of Science. Residence (and Office): St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N.S., Canada.

NICHOLSON, RALPH, American Newspaper Publisher; born Feb. 12, 1899, Greens Fork, Ind.; son of F. C. and Fannie (Davis) Nicholson; educated at Earlham College, A.B. 1920; Harvard, 1921-22, M.A. 1941; married Jane E. B. Harvey, Apr. 5, 1926; two daughters. Newspaper carrier-boy at Richmond, Ind., 1912-16; part-time reporter, Richmond Item, 1916-20, and European Correspondent, Philadelphia Public Ledger, 1920-21. Vice-Pres. and Treas., Editorial Research Assn. of New York, 1923-25; Production Manager, New York Evening Post, 1925-27. General Manager, Japan Advertiser and Trans-Pacific Advertising Agency, Tokyo, 1927-28; Production Manager, New York Telegram, 1928-29; Asst. Business Manager, Pittsburgh Press, 1929-30. Joined General Motors Corp., 1930; Manager of its Dept. on Public Relations until 1931. General Manager, McFadden Newspapers, 1932; Asst. Publisher, New York Daily Mirror, 1932-33. General Manager and Treas., Tampa Times Co. (Tampa Daily Times, Radio Station WDAE), 1933-41; Vice-Pres. and Director since 1933. Pres.-Publisher, Treas. and Director, Item Co., Inc., New Orleans, since 1941. Chairman, Exec. Board, All Florida Com., 1935-36; Director, Tampa Chamber of Commerce, 1934-41; Vice-Pres., Tampa Horseshow Assn., 1935-40; Pres., 1940-41. Vice-Pres., Associated Dailies of Florida, 1936-37, Pres., 1937-38; Chairman, Business Affairs Com. of Southern Newspaper Publishers Assn., 1936-37; Chairman, Public Relations Com., 1941-45, Director, 1937-39. Residence: 1550 Dufossat St. Office: 722 Union St., New Orleans 4, Louisiana.

NICHOLSON, Dr. SETH BARNES, American Astronomer; born 1891. Astronomer, Mt. Wilson Observatory, Pasadena, Calif. Author: The Ninth Satellite of Jupiter, 1917; The Magnetic Polarity of Sun-Spots (with others), 1919; On the Spectral Lines of a Pulsating Star (with Harlow Shapley), 1919; On Systematic Displacements of Lines in Spectra of Venus (with Charles E. St. John), 1921; The Absence of Oxygen and Water Vapor Lines from the Spectrum of Venus (with Charles E. St. John), 1922; The Application of Vacuum Thermocouples to Problems in Astrophysics (with Edison Pettit), 1922; Radiation Measurements of the Solar Corona, Jan. 24, 1925 (with Edison Pettit), 1925; The Law of Sun-spot Polarity (with George E. Hale), 1925; On the Theory of the Continuous Spectrum of the Corona (with Edison Pettit), 1926; Magnetic Observations of Sun-Spots, 1917-1924 (with George E. Hale), 1938, etc. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member, National Acad. of Sciences. Address: Mount Wilson Observatory, Pasadena 4, California.

NICHOLSON, STEWART, British Journalist; born in Scotland. Member, Inst. of Journalists since 1925; elected Fellow, 1936. General Secy., Inst. of British Journalists, since 1936. Editor "The Journal" (official organ of Institute) and of "Grey Book" (official yearbook). Journalistic experience in London, Manchester, Leeds, Newcastle-on-Tyne, etc. Residence: Grey Lodge, Ridgeway, Epsom, Surrey, England. Office: 2 and 4 Tudor St., London, E.C. 4, England.

NICHOLSON, Dr. WILLIAM RUFUS, American Gynecologist and Obstetrician; born Feb. 26, 1868, Boston, Mass.; son of the Rt. Rev. William R. and Kate S. (Parker) Nicholson; educated at Univ. of Pa., A.B. 1890, M.D. 1893; married Celia Justine Bolles, July 14, 1904. Prof. of Obstet. and Gynecol. at Grad. School of Med. of Univ. of Pa., since 1906. Vice-Dean of the Dept. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Obstet. and Gynecol. Member: College of Physicians of Philadelphia; Amer. Med. Assn. Contributor to medical literature. Address: 1930 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

NICKELL, Dr. VERNON L., American Educator; born March 2, 1891, Bellflower, Ill.; son of Elias D. and Ida Mae (Lewis) Nickell; educated at Illinois Wesleyan Acad., grad. 1914; Illinois Wesleyan Univ., three years; Illinois State Normal Univ., B.E. 1929; Univ. of Illinois, M.A. 1932; Illinois Wesleyan Univ., E.D. (hon.); married Leta O. Nofzigger, 1916; two daughters. Rural school teacher, 1909. Supt. of Schools, Champaign, Ill., 1930-43. State Supt. of Schools, State of Illinois, 1943—. Chairman: Illinois State Examining Bd.; Illinois State Teachers' Reading Circle Bd. Pres., State Teachers' Retirement System Staff. Executive-Officer, Bd. for Vocational Education. Member, Bd. of Education for the Blind and Deaf and Dumb. Secy. of Bd., Division of State Rehabilitation Staff. Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Illinois Education Assn. (Ex-Pres.): Kappa Phi Kappa; Phi Delta Kappa; Kappa Delta Pi; Boy Scouts of Amer. (Ex-Pres. of Arrowhead Council); Nursing School Com., Burnham City Hospital; County Tuberculosis Assn. (Pres.). Co-author: Illinois: Cross Roads of the Nation. Residence: 802 West Daniel St., Champaign. Office: Room 100, Centennial Building, Springfield, Ill.

NICKERSON, J. RUTH, American Sculptor; born Nov. 23, 1905, Appleton, Wis.; daughter of Robert W. and Kate Mary (Ellis) Nickerson; educated at Simcoe Collegiate Inst., Canada; studied under Robert Aitken and Ivan Olinsky at Natl. Acad. of Design; private instruction in stone carving with Ahron Ben-Shmuel; married Edmund Graecen, Jr., Dec. 30, 1935; two daughters. One-man show, Roerich Museum, New York City, 1934. Exhibited in all major New York exhibitions since 1932, and in the Metropolitan, Brooklyn, Modern Art, Whitney, Newark and Montclair Museums. Represented in permanent collection: Newark Museum; Cedar Rapids Art Assn.; New Brunswick (N. J.) Post Office; Brooklyn Children's Library; Leaksville (N. C.) Post Office. Member: Natl. Assn. of Women Artists; Natl. Sculpture Soc. Assoc.; Natl. Acad. of Design. Guggenheim Fellow, 1946-47. Awards: Saltus Gold Medal, 1933; National Arts Club Medal, 1933; American Artists Professional League Medal, 1936; Montclair Museum Medal, 1939; Sculpture Prize, National Assn. of Women's Exhibitions, 1946. Address: 106 Woodcrest Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

NICKERSON, JOHN, American Utilities Executive; born July 22, 1883, St. Louis, Mo.; son of John and Mary Wyman (King) Nickerson; educated at Princeton Univ., B.S. 1905; married Elizabeth L. Smith, June 3, 1907; three children. Broker, 1906. Director: Arkansas Power & Light Co.; Louisiana Power & Light Co.; Mississippi Power & Light Co.; Southern Power & Light Co., 1920-26; Associated Gas & Electric Co., 1924-27; American Solvents and Chemical Co., 1923-32. Pres. and Director, Guardian Safe Deposit Co., 1928-44; Director, Utilities Coal Co., 1927-44. Pres. and Director, John Nickerson & Co., and Standard Utilities Co. Member of Investment Bankers Assn. Residence: New Water Lane, Noroton, Conn. Office: 61 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

NICOD, Prof. JEAN-LOUIS, Swiss Professor of Pathological Anatomy; born Mar. 24, 1895, Lausanne, Switzerland; son of Henri and Adèle (Bristlen) Nicod; educated at Payerne, Sion and Einsiedeln; Univ. of Lausanne, M.D.; married Thérèse du Fay de Lavallaz, 1929; four children. Pathologist and Asst. to Prof. von Meyenburg, Lausanne, 1921. Asst. to Prof. C. Sternberg, Vienna, 1923-24; Prof. Widal, Paris, 1924; Prof. P. Masson, Strasbourg, 1924-25; Asst. Lecturer, Medical Faculty, Univ. of Lausanne, 1925-26; Asst. Prof., 1926; Prof. of Pathological Anatomy, since 1926. Dean, Medical Faculty, 1938-40; Director, Institute for Pathological Anatomy, Lausanne, since 1925. Author of various papers on pathological anatomy. Residence: Bd. de Grancy No. 7. Office: Institut d'Anatomie Pathologique, Lausanne, Switzerland.

NICODEMUS, FRANK COURTNEY, JR., American Lawyer; born Dec. 11, 1881, Baltimore, Md.; son of Frank Courtney and Mary Field (Weeks) Nicodemus; educated at Dickenson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa.; Rockville (Md.) Acad.; Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1901; married Dorothy Harcourt Townsend, Dec. 20, 1913; four children. With law firm of J. Alexander Breston & Sons, Baltimore, 1901-05; in Law Dept. of Western Maryland R.R. Co. (Baltimore and N. Y.), 1905. Admitted to Bar of N. Y. 1905; practiced with Pierce & Greer, since 1905, partner since 1920. Held positions in legal departments of various corporations and represented: Wabash Railway Co.; Ann Arbor R.R. Co.; St. Louis Southwestern Railway Co.; Denver & Rio Grande Western R.R. Co.; Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific R.R. Participated in organization of the Railway Express Agency, Inc., 1929. Receiver, Wabash Railway Co., 1931-42. Member: Assn. of the Bar of the City of N. Y. Address: 44 Wall St., New York, New York.

NICODEMUS, FRANK MILTON, American Financier; born Oct. 29, 1888, Baltimore, Md.; son of John Jeremiah and Elizabeth Copes (Eareckson) Nicodemus; educated at Baltimore Primary Schools, 1900, and McDonogh, 1900-06; married Bessie Warrington Mills, May 5, 1928; two daughters. Accountant for Pennsylvania Railroad until 1908, and for Consolidated Gas Electric Light & Power Co., Baltimore, Md., 1908-12. With Commercial Credit Co. since 1912; Vice-Pres., of Commercial Credit Co.; Pres. and Director, Commercial Credit Co., Inc. (Baltimore, Md.); Member of Baltimore Assn. of Commerce. Residence: Carroll Rd., My Ladys Manor, Monkton, Md. Office: Light & Redwoods Sts., Baltimore, Md.

NICOL, ALEXANDER, British Editor; born in Aberdeen, Scotland; educated at Univ. of Aberdeen, M.A.; married Maud Leslie Crombie, 1919; three sons. Sub-Editor, Aberdeen Free Press; Editor, The Daily Dispatch, since 1931. Address: Kemsley House, Manchester, England.

NICOL, Dr. EDUARDO, Spanish Philosopher; born Dec. 18, 1907, Barcelona, Spain; educated at Univ. of Barcelona, 1929-33, Ph.D. degree. Became Mexican citizen, 1940. Secretary-General, Bernat Metge Foundation, Barcelona, 1928-38. Asst. Prof. of Philosophy, Univ. of Mexico, 1940-46; Full Prof., since 1946. Secy. and Co-Founder, Centro de Estudios Filosóficos, Univ. of Mexico, 1940-46. Visiting Scholar, Columbia Univ., 1943. Member of International Phenomenological Assn. (and Member of Staff of its official organ Philosophy and Phenomenological Research). Author: Psicología de las Situaciones Vitales, 1941; La Idea del Hombre, 1946; also many translations, introductions, essays, in various philosophical journals. Residence: Antonio Sola 5. Office: Facultad de Filosofía, University of Mexico, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

NICOL, ERIC ARTHUR, American Administrator; born December 3, 1898, Wellington, New Zealand; son of Arthur W. and Elizabeth (Stoupe) Nicol; educated at Otago University, 1920-21; Columbia University, 1921-23; married Winifred Joy Bardsley, Sept. 16, 1924. Community and Boys' Work Secretary, Y. M. C. A., New Zealand and New York City, 1917-25. Personnel Manager, Western Union Telegraph Co., 1926-32; Personnel and Labor Relations Manager, Philadelphia Gas Co., 1932-37; Assistant Director of Employee Relations, People's Gas, Light & Coke Co., 1937-39; Member of Administration Management Staff, Executive Office, U. S. President, 1939-41; Executive Assistant to Sidney Hillman, Labor Director of O.P.M., 1941-42; Chief of Lend-Lease Mission to Australia, 1942-43. Vice-President in charge of Personnel, United Drug, Inc. (now Rexall Drug Co., Inc.) since 1943; Director, Liggett Drug Company, Inc. Civil Administrator, North American Aviation Co., during government control; Member of Personnel Committee of National Council, Y.M.C.A. Member: American Management Assn.; Society of Advancement Management; Public Administration Assn.; Civil Service Assembly; Philadelphia Industrial Relations Assn.; National Personnel Committee; Amer. Gas Assn. Residence: 624 Westholme Drive. Office: 314 W. 6th St., Los Angeles 14, Calif.

NICOL, JOHN, American Industrialist; born Nov. 7, 1880, Detroit, Mich.; son of John M. and Clara (Glover) Nicol; educated at Detroit Univ.; Univ. of Michigan; married Verna Blish, Oct. 16, 1912; two children. With Detroit Ypsilanti Ann Arbor & Jackson Ry. as a stockkeeper, 1902; then dispatcher and Asst. Supt. Engineer Salesman, New Process Refrigerating Co., 1905-07. General Manager, Tacoma Water Supply Co., 1907-12. Supt. of Construction with W. N. Coler & Co., N. Y., 1912-15. Pres. and Treas., John Nicol Co., Distribution of Federal Trucks, 1915-23. Manager in Northwest for General Motor Truck Co., 1923-27. Pres. and General Manager, Divco Detroit Corp., 1927-32; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Continental-Divco, 1932-36. Pres., General Manager and Director, Divco-Twin Truck Corp., since 1936. Director, Twin Coach Co. of Kent, Ohio. Residence: Leonard, Mich. Office: 22000 Hoover Road, Detroit, Michigan.

NICOL, Dr. THOMAS, British Anatomist; born Aug. 4, 1900, Lanarkshire, Scotland; son of William and Mary Wilson (Gilmour) Nicol; educated at Univ. of Glasgow, M.B., Ch.B. 1922, D.Sc. 1934, M.D. (Hons. & Bellahouston Gold Medal 1935, Struthers Gold Medal & Prize, Univ. of Glasgow, 1935); D.Sc., Univ. of London, 1938; married Evelyn Bertha Keeling, Dec. 1927; one daughter and one son. Demonstrator of Anatomy, Univ. of Glasgow, 1922-27; Senior Lecturer in Anatomy, 1927-35; Prof. of Anatomy, Univ. of London, King's College, since 1936; sometime Chairman of Board of Studies in Human Anatomy and Morphology, Univ. of London. Examiner for Univs. of London, Birmingham, Durham, St. Andrews, Royal College Physicians, London; Royal College Surgeons, Edinburgh. John Hunter Lecturer in Applied Anatomy, St. George's Hospital Medical School, London; Malcolm McHardy Lecturer, Royal Eye Hospital, London; Lecturer, Inst. of Laryngology and Otology; Scientific Adviser and Member, Board of Governors, Inst. of Ophthalmology. Member: Anatomical Soc. of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

(Vice-Pres., 1942-43); Physiological Soc.; British Medical Assn. Author of scientific papers on female reproductive system, in Proceedings and Transactions of Royal Soc. of Edinburgh, and in Journal of Anatomy. Address: King's College, Strand, London, England.

NICOLA, Dr. ORSINI FRANCISCO FERRUCCIO, Argentine Chemist; born July 25, 1888, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Orsini Nicola and Teresa Devoto de Nicola; educated at Colegio de La Salle; Faculties of Medical Science, and of Exact, Physical and Natural Sciences, Univ. of Buenos Aires; married Norah Ponti Aghina, Feb. 3, 1930; two children. Adjunct Prof. of Physical Chemistry, Faculty of Exact, Physical and Natural Sciences of Buenos Aires, 1916-31; Chief of Practical Works, 1919-30. Adjunct Prof. of General Chemistry, Faculty of Agronomy and Veterinary, 1918; Prof. of Test and Control Medication, 1934; Prof. of Pharmaceutical Industries, Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacy of Natl. Univ. of La Plata, since 1942. Director, Farmacia y Laboratorios "Orsini Nicola," 1919-38. Director, Chemical and Pharmacological Section of the Instituto Massone, since 1929; Technical Director, Instituto Massone, since 1944. Member: Asociación Química Argentina; Asociación Farmaceútica y Bioquímica Argentina. Author of numerous studies in the field of physical chemistry, and of test and control Medication. Residence: Teodoro Garcia 2020, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NICOLAS, Dr. GUSTAVE, French Botanist; born June 28, 1879, Nans, Doubs, France; son of Victor and Marguerite (Gandar) Nicolas; educated at Lyceum of Besançon, 1897-98; Univ. of Toulouse, 1902-04; Univ. of Paris, Sc.D. 1909; married Charlotte Brouard, Oct. 3, 1911; two sons. Asst. Prof., College of Blida, Algeria, 1898-1900; Lyceums of Oran and Algiers, 1901-06; Asst. in Botany, Faculty of Sciences, Algiers, 1907-09; Chief of Botanical Studies, same faculty, 1910-19; Lecturer, Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Nancy, 1920; Prof. of Botany, Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Toulouse, 1921-27; Prof. of Agricultural Botany, Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Toulouse, 1928-45. Director of Agricultural Inst., 1925-45. Member: French Assn. for Advancement of Sciences; French Assn. of Selection of Plants; French Botanical Soc.; French Mycological Soc.; Soc. of Plant Pathology; North African Soc. of Natural History (Algiers). Corresponding Member: Natl. Soc. of Mathematical and Natural Sciences, Cherbourg, 1925; French Acad. of Agriculture, 1927. Assoc., Acad. of Sciences, Toulouse, 1927; Corresponding Member: Natl. Biological Soc., 1934; Acad. of Sciences, Besançon, 1945. Author of more than three hundred scientific papers on various subjects in French periodicals. Address: Université, Toulouse, France.

NICOLAU D'OLWER, Dr. LLUIS, Spanish Ambassador to Mexico; born Jan. 20, 1888, Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain; son of Joaquim and Anna (d'Olwer) Nicolau; educated at Univs. of Barcelona and Madrid, lic. law, 1909; Ph.D., 1910; married Palma Guillén, 1946. Municipal Councillor, Barcelona, 1918-22; Deputy of Mancomunitat de Catalunya, 1923-24; Minister of National Economy, 1931; Deputy of Barcelona, Natl. Assembly, 1931-33. Pres., Spanish Delegation to World Economic and Monetary Conf., London, 1933; Deputy of Barcelona, Natl. Assembly, 1936-39; Governor, Bank of Spain, 1936-39; Spanish Delegate, League of Nations Assemblies, 1937, 1938; Minister of State, Spanish Republican Govt., 1945-46; Ambassador to Mexico, since 1946. Prof., Univ. of Barcelona. Member: Inst. of Catalonian Studies (Philological Section); Union Académique Internationale (Pres., 1935-37); Internatl. Com. of Historical Sciences; Atenu Barcelones (Pres., 1933-34); Assn. of Greek Studies, Paris; Soc. of Latin Studies, Paris. Decorations: Knight, Legion of Honor, France, 1922; Order of Spanish Republic, 1934. Author: El Teatro de Menandro, 1911; Literatura Catalana, 1917, 1927; L'Expansió de Catalunya a la Mediterrània Oriental, 1926; El Pont de la Mar Blava, 1928, 1945; Paisatges de la nosrra historia, 1929; La lliçó de la Dictadura, 1931; Del Patriotisme i de la Democracia, en el procès constitutiu de la Catalunya antiga, 1934; Després del 19 de Juliol, 1938. Address: Londres 7, México, D. F., Mexico.

NICOLAYSEN, Dr. NIELS AARS, Norwegian Surgeon; born Jan. 14, 1885, Bergen, Norway; son of Niels Aars and Karen Louise Nicolaysen; educated at Oslo Univ., Medical Doctor 1910, Scientific degree Dr. Med. 1925; married Mimi Koren, Feb. 10, 1911; three children. Asst., Surgical Hospital, Eau Claire, Wis., 1911-14; Practitioner and Surgeon, Rjukan, Norway, 1914-18; Resident Surgeon, Municipal Hospital, Bergen, 1918-21; Surgeon, Surgical Hospital, Bergen, since 1922. Medical Officer, Norwegian Army, since 1910; Medical Officer in Chief, Bergen Division, War in Norway, as Major, 1940. Member: Medicinsk Selskap i Bergen (Chairman, 1933-35); Norsk Kirusgisk forening (Executive Board 1930-35); Den norske Legeforening (Executive Board 1932-36); Editorial Staff, journal Norsk Medicin, since 1936. Author: Hypertrophy of Prostate, its Patho-physiological Aspects, 1925; also numerous papers on medical subjects. Address: Christies gate 5-7, Bergen Norway.

NICOLAYSEN, Dr. RAGNAR, Norwegian Physiologist; born Aug. 9, 1902, Oslo, Norway; son of Peter M. S. and Ragna (Schnitler) Nicolaysen; educated at Oslo, M.D. 1928, dr. of medicine, 1935; married Elisabeth Johanssen, Aug. 24, 1931; three children. Associated with Pharmacol. Inst., Univ. of Oslo, 1930-31; at Physiol. Inst., 1931-36; Rockefeller grant, Ntr. Lab., Cambridge, England, 1936; at Physiol. Inst., Univ. of Oslo, 1937-40; Prof. of Nutrition and Director, Dept. of Nutrition, Univ. of Oslo, since 1940. In Norwegian Army Medical Corps, since 1925; attached to Staff in U.K., 1943-45. Member: Norwegian Acad. of Science; British Biochem. Soc.; British Physiol. Soc.; Scandinavian Physiol. Soc., etc. Author of a series of papers on physiology of calcium, mode of action, of vitamin D, bone formation, etc. Address: Karl Johans gt. 47, Oslo, Norway.

NICOLE, LÉON, Swiss Politician and Journalist; born 1887. Deputy, Socialist Party; Director and Editor, Socialist dailies Le Travail, Geneva, and Le Droit du Peuple, Lausanne; prosecuted for part played in Geneva uprising, 1932-33; Member, National Council; Member, State Council, Canton Geneva, since 1933; opponent of new defense measures; expelled from Swiss Socialist Party for Russian sympathies, Sept. 1939. Address: Le Travail, 39 rue de Lausanne, Geneva, Switzerland.

NICOLINI, OSCAR L. M., Argentine Postmaster General; born Mar. 5, 1899, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Juan Félix Fortunato and Elvira (Armanino) Nicolini; educated at Escuela Carlos Pellegrini; Instituto José M. Estrada, B.A.; Colegio Nacional Bernardino Rivadavia, 1916; Faculty of Medicine; married Emma Fazzari, Jan. 31, 1929; two children. Entered military service, 1920; 2nd Lieut., 1924; entered Dept. of Post and Telegraphs as an Assistant, 1921; appointed Prof. of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene, 1926; Asst. Prof. of Physics, National College Nicolás Avellaneda, 1927-34; Prof., Escuela Superior de Comercio de Mujeres, 1931; Docent, Escuela Hipólito Vieytes; with Dept. of Posts and Telegraphs, holding various positions including Post of Director of Personnel, 1941; Chief of Personnel, 1943; Private Secy. to Director General of Posts and Telegraphs, 1943; Chief of Dept. of Despatches, 1943; Director of Personnel, Inspector General, 1944; Private Secy. and Technical Asst. to President of Dept. of Postal Savings; Head of Dept. of Information, Press and Propaganda, 1944; Asst. Director General of Radiodiffusion, 1944; Director General, 1944; Director General of Posts and Telegraphs and Director General of Radiodiffusion, 1945; Govt. Delegate, Third Inter-Amer. Conf. of Radiocommunications, Rio de Janeiro, 1945; Postmaster General of Argentina, since 1946. Address: Administrador General de Correos y Telecomunicaciones, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NICOLL, ALFRED HARRIS, American Business Executive; born July 30, 1889, San Francisco, Calif.; son of Benjamin William and Helena (Harris) Nicoll; married Gladys Hazelrigg, June 1, 1913; one son. Clerk, Graybar Electric Co. since 1911; transferred to Salt Lake Office, 1912 as a salesman, and appointed Sales Manager, 1918; returned to San Francisco, 1920 as Telephone Specialist; appointed District Manager of Sales, 1925; District Manager of Northern California and Utah, 1932. Transferred to New York as Asst. to Pres., 1939; Vice-Pres., 1940, and Pres. since 1942, also a Director. Residence: 17 Locust Lane, Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 420 Lexington Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

NICOLL, JOHN RAMSAY ALLARDYCE, British Literary Historian; born June 28, 1894, Glasgow, Scotland; son of David B. and Elsie (Allardyce) Nicoll; educated at Glasgow University, M.A.; married Josephine Calina. Lecturer, Loughborough College, 1920; Lecturer in English, King's College, London; University Professor, English Language and Literature, University of London; Professor, History of Drama and Chairman, Dept. of Drama, Yale University, 1933-45; Professor of English Language and Literature, University of Birmingham. Author: History of Restoration Drama, 1923-39; History of Early 18th Century Drama, 1925, 1929; History of Late 18th Century Drama, 1927; History of Early 19th Century Drama, 1930; History of Late 19th Century Drama, 1946; The Development of the Theatre, 1927, 1936; Masks, Mimes and Miracles, 1931; Studies in Shakespeare, 1927; The English Stage, 1928; An Introduction to Dramatic Theory, 1923; The Theory of Drama, 1934; British Drama, 1934; Readings From British Drama, 1928; Film and Theatre, 1936; The English Theatre, 1936; Stuart Masques and the Renaissance Stage, 1937; William Blake, 1932; John Dryden, 1923, and The Editors of Shakespeare from First Folio to Malone, 1925. Edited Sharpham's Cupid's Whirligig, Carell's Osmond the Great Turk and the Fool Would Be a Favourite, 1926; Eighteenth Century Comedies, 1928; The Works of Cyril Tourneur, 1930. Address: University of Birmingham, Birmingham, England.

NICOLSON, Hon. HAROLD, C.M.G., British Writer, Diplomat; born November 21, 1886, Teheran, Persia; son of Lord Carnock and Rowan Hamilton; educated at Balliol College, Oxford; married Victoria Sackville-West, Oct. 1, 1913; two sons. Began career in the Foreign Office, 1909; appointed to H.M. Embassy, Madrid, 1910; in Constantinople, 1911; transferred to the Foreign Office, 1914; British Delegate to the Peace Conference, 1919; 2nd Secretary of Diplomatic Service, 1919; 1st Secretary, 1920. Returned to Foreign Office, 1920; Counsellor, 1925; with H.M. Legation in Teheran, 1925; in Berlin, 1927; resigned 1929. Employed on Editor Staff, Evening Standard, 1930. Contested combined Universities as New Party candidate, 1931. Parliamentary Secretary to Ministry of Information, 1940-41; National Labour Member of Parliament, 1935-45. Governor of British Broadcasting Corp., 1941. Received Hon. degree of Doctor from Univ. of Athens, Greece. Author: The Desire to Please, 1943; The Congress of Vienna, 1946, etc. Residence: Sissinghurst Castle, Kent, England.

NICOLSON, Dr. MARJORIE HOPE, American University Professor; born Feb. 18, 1894, Yonkers, N. Y.; daughter of Charles Butler and Lissie Hope (Morris) Nicolson; educated at Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1914, A.M. 1918; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1920; Johns Hopkins Univ., 1923-26; Hon. Litt.D., Mt. Holyoke College, 1933, Univ. of Michigan, 1937, Middlebury Univ., 1941, Princeton Univ., 1946; Hon. L.H.D., Wilson College, 1940, Univ. of Vermont, 1941; Wesleyan Univ., 1943; Hon. LL.D., Goucher College, 1940, Smith College, 1941, and Elmira College, 1944. Instructor, Univ. of Minnesota, 1920-22; Asst. Prof., 1922-23. Asst. Prof., Goucher College, 1923-26. Assoc. Prof., Smith College, 1926-29; Prof., 1928-41; Dean, 1929-41. Prof. of English, Graduate School, Columbia Univ., since 1941. Member: Modern Language Assn. of Amer. (Vice-Pres., 1937-38); Phi Beta Kappa (Senator since 1937); Pres., United Chapter, 1940-46); John Simon Guggenheim Foundation (Com. on Award, 1930-35, 1936-37). Received John Addison Porter Prize, Yale Univ., 1920; Amer. Philosophical Soc. Award, 1941. Author: Art of Description, 1926; Conway Letters, 1930; Microscope and English Imagination, 1935; World in Moon, 1937; Newton Demands the Muse (awarded Rose Crawshay Prize of British Acad.) 1946. Editor and Consulting Editor, The American Scholar; Journal of History of Ideas. Address: 612 Philosophy Hall, Columbia University, New York, N. Y. New York.

NIDECKER, Dr. HEINRICH (ALBERT), Swiss Librarian; born Sept. 24, 1894, Grafenstaden, Alsace; son of Georg and Lucinda Rose (Cooper) Nidecker; educated at Gymnasium, Mülhausen, Alsace; Cantonal School, St. Gall; Univ. of Basle, Ph.D. 1924; married Marguerite Estermann, June 6, 1931; one son. Asst. Librarian, Univ. Library, Basel, 1927; now Librarian. Member: Swiss Association por Occidental; Soc. of Swiss Librarians; Schweizerische Gesellschaft für Volkskunde. Author: Praeliminarien zur Neuausgabe der Abhandlung über die Lebenstheorie von Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1924; numerous pamphlets and articles on free economy, universal language, history of music, etc. Residence: 27 Nullenweg, Arlesheim. Office: University Library, Basel, Switzerland.

NIEASS, FRANK KEEN, Australian Labor Leader and Member of Parliament; born Oct. 25, 1886, Hindmarsh, South Australia; son of John and Elizabeth Nieass; educated at Brompton School and under private tutors; married Violet Lang, Dec. 23, 1909; three children. General Secy., Australian Govt. Workers' Assn., since 1914. Trustee, Bowden Scout Hall. Member, Hindmarsh Council, 1911-38; Mayor, 1925-27. Member of Parliament, 1930-33, 1938-41, and since 1944. Staff Officer, Emergency Fire Services, 1939. Pres., Norwood Electorate, Australian Labor Party. Member: Boy Scout Council; Boy Fitness Council; Bowden Boy Scout Group; Printing Employees Union. J.P. Editor, Solidarity, since 1923. Address: Trades Hall, Grote St., Adelaide, South Australia.

NIEBANK, C. GEORGE, American Banker; born March 30, 1901, Jersey City, N. J.; son of Fred and Grace (Beilby) Neibank; educated at Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers Univ.; married Rose V. Murphy, Feb. 26, 1924; three children. State Bank Examiner, 1923; Executive Vice-President, Genesee (N. Y.) Valley National Bank & Trust Company, 1929. With Bank of Jamestown since 1932, first as Vice-President; President since 1933; also Director. Chairman, Chautauqua County War Finance Com.; Pres., New York State Bankers Assn., 1944-45. Director, Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Buffalo Branch; member, Executive Council, Amer. Bankers Assn. Residence: 39 Westminster Dr. Office: 39 N. Main St., Jamestown, N. Y.

NIEBUHR, Dr. REINHOLD, American Theologian; born Wright City, Missouri, June 21, 1892; son of Gustav and Lydia (Hosto) Niebuhr; educated at Elmhurst College, B.A.; Eden Theological Seminary, St. Louis; Yale Divinity School, M.A., B.D.; D.D., University of Pennsylvania, 1938, Amherst, 1941, Yale, 1942, Oxford Univ. (England), 1943, Harvard, 1944, Princeton, 1946; LL.D. Occidental College, 1945; New York Univ., 1947; married Ursula M. Keppel-Compton, Dec. 21, 1931; one son and one daughter. Ordained Minister, Evangelical Synod of North America, 1915; Pastor at Detroit, Mich., until 1928; joined Union Theological Seminary as Associate Professor of Christian Ethics, 1928; Professor since 1929. Nathaniel Taylor Lecturer, Yale University; Rauschenbush Lecturer, Rochester Colgate Divinity School, 1933; Gifford Lecturer in Natural Theology, Edinburth University, 1938-40; Dunkin Lecturer in Philosophy, Manchester College, Oxford, 1939; Lyman Beecher Lecturer, Yale, 1945. One of Editors, World Tomorrow, 1928-34. Author: Does Civilization Need Religion? Leaves from the Notebook of a Tamed Cynic, Moral Man and Immoral Society, Reflections on the End of An Era, Interpretation of Christian Ethics; Beyond Tragedy; and The Nature and Destiny of Man, Vol. 1, 1941; Vol. II, 1943; Children of Light and Children of Darkness, 1944; Discerning the Signs of the Times, 1946. Residence: 606 W. 122nd St. Office: 3041 Broadway, New York 27, New York.

NIEDERHAUSER, Dr. RUDOLF PETER, Swiss Lawyer; born Mar. 15, 1881, Cannstadt, Germany; son of Rudolf Albert and Rosina (Haas) Niederhauser; educated at Univs. of Basel, Vienna and Berlin; married Martha Freivogel, Oct. 18, 1915; one daughter. Editor, Basler Volksblatt, 1906-08; Secy., Allgemeiner Consumverein, Basel, 1908-11; Member of Directorate, Allgemeiner Consumuerein, 1911-19; Member of Cantonal Council, Basel Stadt, 1919-35; Private law practice since 1935. Member and Pres., Grand Council, Kanton Baselstadt; Pres., German-Swiss Finance Commn. for Rhine Regulation; Member, Swiss Natl. Council since 1938. Address: Eulerstrasse 14, Basel, Switzerland.

NIEDERMANN, Dr. MAX, Swiss Philologist; born May 19, 1874, Winterthur, Switzerland; son of Jacques and Suzanne (Stolz) Niedermann; educated at Univ. of Zurich, 1893-94; Univ. of Basel, 1894-97, Ph.D.; Univ. of Paris, 1897-99; Univ. of Freiburg, Germany, 1899; hon. Litt.D., Univ. of Geneva and Univ. of Riga; married Jeanne Pierrehumbert, 1901; two children. Prof. of Greek and Latin, Gymnasium, La Chaux-de-Fonds, 1900-06; Prof. of Linguistics, Univ. of Neuchâtel, 1907-09; Univ. of Basel, 1909-25; Prof. of Latin Language and Literature, and General Linguistics, Univ. of Neuchâtel, 1925-44. Author: Studien zur lateinischen Wortbildung, 1899; Contributions à la critique et à l'explication des gloses latines, 1905; Précis de phonétique historique du latin, 1906, 2nd ed. 1931; Proben aus der sogenannten Mulomedicina Chironis, 1910; Marcelli de medicamentis liber, 1916; Essais d'étymologie et de critique verbale latines, 1919; Wörterbuch der litauischen Schriftsprache (with M. Alfred Senn), 1926; Consentii de barbarismis et metaplasmis, 1947; Plauti Aulularia Menaechmi Mostellaria, 1947; Quintiliani Institutionis oratoriae libri prima capita de grammatica, 1947, etc. Address: 6 Avenue de la Gare, Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

NIEDRINGHAUS, (GEORGE) HAYWARD, American Industrialist; born May 11, 1891, St. Louis, Mo.; son of George Wallace and Fanita (Hayward) Niedringhaus; educated in the Smith Academy (St. Louis), and the Lake Placid School for Boys; married Lorna Tweedy, Sept. 18, 1917; one daughter. With the Granite City Steel Co. since 1911, starting as a Laboratory Assistant; Personnel Director, 1916-17; Works Manager, 1920-23, and Managing Director from 1924; Vice-President and General Manager, 1925-28; President and General Manager since 1929; also a Director. Vice-Pres. and Secy., National Enamel & Stamping Co., 1927-29; now Director and Executive Com. Member. Pres. and Director of the Granite City, St. Louis and Eastern Belt Line Railroad, Granite City Culvert Co. Director, Granite City Realty & Investment Co. and Chairman of First Granite City National Bank; Vice-President and Director of Wm. F. Niedringhaus Investment Co.; Black Mountain Land Co. and W. Calumet Mining Co. Director of American Zinc, Lead & Smelting Co.; Director, Mississippi Valley Trust Co., Missouri Shipbuilding Corp. Serves as a Director of American Iron & Steel Institute and of Iron & Steel Institute of Great Britain. Member: National Council, Boy Scouts of America; Com. for Economic Development. Residence: 7 Sunningdale Dr., Clayton, Mo. Office: 20th & Madison Sts., Granite City, Illinois.

NIEH, YU-CHAN (Vera), Chinese Nurse; born May 23, 1906, Funing, Hopei, China; daughter of Chi-hsun Nieh and Feng-lou Kuo; educated at Teachers College, Columbia Univ., B.S. 1931; Univ. of Michigan, M.S. 1938. Instr. in Public Health Nursing, PUMC School of Nursing, and Asst. Supervisor of Public Health Nursing, First Health Station, Peiping, 1928-29; Instr. in Public Health Nursing, and Supervisor of Public Health Nursing, First Health Station, Peiping, 1931-32. Director of Public Health Nursing, First Health Station, Peiping, 1932-34. Secy., Commn. on Nursing Education, Ministry of Education, Nanking, 1934-35. Asst. Dean, PUMC School of Nursing, 1939-40; Dean, 1940-42. Dean, PUMC School of Nursing, and General Supt. of Nurses, West China Union University Hosp., Chengtu, 1943-46. Dean, PUMC School of Nursing, Peiping, since 1946. Pres., Nurses' Assn. of China, since 1946. Member of Board, College of Women, Yenching Univ., Peiping, China. Address: School of Nursing, Peiping Union Medical Colege, Peiping, China.

NIEHUSS, MARVIN L., American Lawyer and University Vice-President; born Jan. 2, 1903, Louisville, Ky.; son of Ira and Emily (Steen) Niehuss; educated at Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1925, LL.B. 1930; married Lois Markham, Aug. 29, 1930; two children. Instructor of Economics, Univ. of Michigan, 1930-32; Research Assoc. in Real Estate, Business School, 1932-34; Instructor, Law School 1934. Assoc. Prof. of Law, 1935-43; Prof. and Vice-Pres. of Univ., since 1944. Member, Defrees, Buckingham, Jones & Hoffman (Chicago), 1934-36. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Michigan State Bar. Co-author: Catalog of Detroit Long-Term Leases (with Ernest Fisher), 1929; Problems of Long-Term Leases, 1930. Address: 316 Hutchins Hall, Ann Arbor, Mich.

NIELD, Lt. Col. BASIL EDWARD, M.B.E., K.C., British Member of Parliament; born May 7, 1903, London, England; son of Charles Edwin and F. E. Lilian (Whalley) Nield; educated at Harrow School; Magdalen College, Oxford, M.A. Called to the Bar by Inner Temple, 1925. Studied under His Honor Judge Procter in Liverpool, and went into Chambers with Sir David Maxwell Fyfe, later Attorney General. Chairman, Chester Conservation Association, 1930-40. Elected Member of Parliament for Chester, 1940. Parliamentary Chairman of Docks and Harbors Authorities. Address: Upton Grange, Upton-by-Chester, England; 39 Eaton Place, London, S.W. 1, England.

NIELSEN, ARTHUR CHARLES, American Business Executive; born Sept. 5, 1897, Chicago, Ill.; son of Rasmus and Harriet Burr (Gunn) Nielsen; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. (in E.E.) 1918; married Gertrude B. Smith, June 15, 1918; five children. Entered Isko Co. of Chicago as an Electrical Engineer, 1919; Engineer, H. P. Gould Co., Chicago, 1920-23. Founded A. C. Nielsen Co., marketing research, operators of the Nielsen Food, Drug and Radio Index services, and has served as President since 1923. Founded A. C. Nielsen Co. Ltd., London, England, and has continued as Chairman of Board, 1939 —; in 1944 established A. C. Nielsen Company of Canada Limited, Toronto, of which is Chairman of Board. Awarded Silver Medal, 1936, by Annual Advertising Awards Com.: also award by Chicago Federated Advertising Club, 1940. During First World War served as Ensign, U.S.N.R. Residence: 720 Ardsley Rd., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 2101 Howard St., Chicago, Ill.

NIELSEN, Dr. AXEL, Danish Political Scientist; born Dec. 30, 1880, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of J. and Emilie (Rønne) Nielsen; educated at Copenhagen Univ., cand. mag. degree and Dr. Polit. degree; awarded University's Gold Medal; married Else Müller, 1916. Librarian, Royal Library; Prof. of Political Economy, since 1911; Rector, Copenhagen Univ., 1935-36. Vice-Chairman, Board of Danmarks Nationalbank; Chairman, Examination Board for Chartered Accountants. Member: Acad. of Technical Science; Royal Danish Soc. of Sciences. Ex-Pres., Nationaløkonomisk Forening. Author: Den skandinaviske Møntunion, 1917; Bankpolitik, 1923-30; Dänische Wirtschaftsgeschichte, 1933; Industriens Historie i Danmark, 1820-70, I-II, 1944. Address: Wilh. Smidts V. 7, Gentofte, Denmark.

NIELSEN, FRED KENELM, American Lawyer; born in Denmark, April 22, 1879; son of Henry and Mary Nielsen; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, A.B. 1902, LL.B. 1904, LL.D. 1929; Georgetown University, LL.M. 1907, LL.D. 1937. Began practice of law, 1904. Plenipotentiary Delegate of the U. S. to International Conference on Spitzbergen, Christiania, 1914. Legal expert to American Delegation to Paris Peace Conference, 1919; appointed Solicitor, U. S. Dept. of State, 1920. Agent and Senior Counsel for the U. S. in a General Arbitration between the U. S. and Great Britain, 1922-26. American Member, Arbitral Tribunal in General Arbitration between Mexico and the U. S., 1926; Agent and Senior Counsel for the U. S. in Palmas Island Arbitration between the U. S. and The Netherlands, 1927. American Member of Arbitral Tribunal in special claims arbitration between the U. S. and Mexico. Legal Adviser to American Delegation to Economic and Financial Conference, London, 1933. American Plenipotentiary for Adjustment of claims between the U. S. and Turkey, 1934. Chairman of Committee of Legal Experts at Conference on Limitation of Armaments, Washington, D. C., 1922. Professor of International Law at Georgetown Univ., since 1924. International law consultant, War Dept., Tokyo, 1946. Author of three volumes on Problems of International Law. Residence: Cairo Hotel. Office: Union Trust Bldg., Washington, District of Columbia.

NIELSEN, FREDE, Danish Editor; Member of Parliament; born May 5, 1891, Aalsö, Denmark; son of Konrad and Anna (Rasmussen) Nielsen; educated at public school and Askov High School; married Tekla Sörensen, Sept. 24, 1920; two children. Journalist, since 1917; Editor of "Nyköbing Social Demokrat", 1925; Editor, "Sönderjyden", 1930. Elected Member, Danish Parliament (Folketinget). Chairman, Arbeiderbevaegelsens Sönderjydske Landsforening. Member, Socialdemokratisk Redaktörforening. Author: Fra udmark til forpost, 1938; Danmark i besaettelsestiden, 1946. Residence and Office: Sönderborg, Denmark.

NIELSEN, FREDERIK, Danish Business Executive; born May 27, 1881, Rödding, Denmark; son of Hans Kr. and Ane Dorthea (Andersen) Nielsen; educated at De Brockske Handelshøjskoler, Copenhagen, 1902-04; with commercial firms in Liverpool and Hamburg; married Johanne Louise Raaschou, Nov. 13, 1909; five children. Asst. in F.D.B. (Danish Co-operative Wholesale Soc.), 1898-1902; proxy (confidential clerk), 1907-11. Appointed Branch Manager, 1911 and Manager, 1913; General Manager since 1937. General Manager, (N.A.F.) Nordisk Andelsforbund (Scandinavian Co-operative Wholesale Society), since 1918; Member, Board of Directors, N.A.F. Member, Maritime and Commercial Court; Foreign Exchange Council and of various committees established by state owing to recent war in Europe. Member, committee for building of memorial church for Bishop Grundtvig, and of Advisory Com. for Commercial Schools in Denmark. Residence: Stagers Alle 24. Office: Njalsgade 16, Copenhagen (S), Denmark.

NIELSEN, GUNNAR, Danish Journalist; born Sept. 17, 1889, Skovby, Denmark; son of Jens S. and Petrea Nielsen; educated at Mellerup and Askov Popular Academies; married Annalise Bang, Feb. 5, 1915; three children. Journalist at press bureau Centralen, 1913; Correspondent, various press bureaus, 1913-27; Editor, Fyns Venstreblad, 1927-29. Contributor to Politiken since 1929. Director, Journalist Assn., 1922-27, since 1930; Chairman since 1938. Member, Danish Press Council, 1930-37; Chairman, Copenhagen Journalists' Pension Fund, 1941. Editor, The Journalist, 1922-27. Director, Radio News Com.; Director, Danish Press Telegram Com., since 1940. Chairman, Danish Journalists Representation, 1942. Residence: Strandvej 8. Office: Journalistförbundet, Axeltory 6, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NIELSEN, HARALD, Danish Author; born Apr. 20, 1879, Copenhagen; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, M.A. 1905; married Johanne Hauch, Nov. 26, 1914. Sub-Editor, Ill. Tidende, 1902. Contributor to "Tilskueren"; Editor of "Ugens Tilskuer," 1910-20; administrating member, "Köbenhavn" (daily), 1917-22. Author: Moderne Litteratur, 1904; En moderne Reaktionaer, 1911; Usurpatoren, 1922; Holberg I Nutidsbelysning, 1923; Litteraere Mirakler, 1933; Penge og Personlighed, 1941; Europas Fremtid, 1942. Residence: Villa Sölyst, Birkeröd, Denmark.

NIELSEN, JAIS, Danish Painter and Ceramist; born Apr. 23, 1885, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Knud and Ane (Ottesen) Nielsen; painter's apprentice in Copenhagen, 1901-06; studied at Zartmann's Art School, 1906-09; married Ville Oppenheim, Nov. 6, 1920; three children. Represented with ceramic works in: Musée des Arts Décoratifs (Louvre), Paris; Musée de Lyon; Victoria and Albert Museum, London; Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Munich and Milan; collection of Mr. Augustino, Alexandria; Museums in Oslo, Göteborg, Stockholm and Copenhagen. Member, Royal Acad., Copenhagen; Com. of Danish Film Assn. Knight, Danish Dannebrog Order; Dannebrogsmand; French Legion of Honor. Awarded: Grand Prize and Gold Medals, Paris, Milan, Brussels; Annual Medal, Royal Academy, Copenhagen. Author: The Pearl, Friend Gaston and other strange stories from Paris, 1947. Address: Vingaardsalle 40, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NIELSEN, KNUD, Danish Manufacturer; born Feb. 16, 1891, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Vilhelm and Kristine (Hansen) Nielsen; married Bertha Amalie Petersen, 1920; one child. Member, Board of Directors, Frederiksborg Handelsbank and Member of Board of numerous commercial organizations, including: Frederiksberg Købmandsforening (Chairman); Forsikringsselskabet "Nordlyset" (Member of Board of Directors). Asst. Judge, Court of Trade. Member, Price-Control Com. of Copenhagen. Address: Forchhammersv. 1, Copenhagen V, Denmark.

NIELSEN, MADS, Danish Poet and Chemist; born Feb. 27, 1879, Langaa, Denmark; son of Kristen Nielsen Bonde and Nielsine Madsdatter; educated at Pharmaceutical Inst., Pharm.B. 1904; married Henriette Klingberg, Aug. 1, 1906; two children. Chemist since 1895. Author: Vej og sti (poetry), 1910; Dansk sommer, 1911; De glade i landet, 1914; Paa kirkesti, 1917; Breve fra Groftekanten (prose), 1923; Dagene, 1925; De gamle gaarde, 1927; Der er bag alt, 1938; Under vejs (prose), 1944; Hører du vejenes stemme? 1946. Member: Danish Authors' Assn.; Dansk Apotekerforening. Address: Sonderbro Apotek, Kolding, Denmark.

NIELSEN, MAX, Danish Insurance Executive; born Nov. 24, 1886, Roskilde, Denmark; son of Julius and Frederikke (Stegmann) Nielsen; married Esther Thykier, 1916. With Genforsikrings A/S Skandinavia, 1902; with Forsikrings A/S National, 1906-15. General Manager: Assurance-Compagniet Baltica A/S since 1915; De Baltiske Assuranderer since 1917. Director, A/S Pensions- og Livrente Institutet af 1919. Chairman, Forsikringsforeningen. Member, Board of Foreningen of Danske Söassurandörer; Member, Assurandör-Societetets Komite. Residence: Gronningen 17. Office: Bredgade 42, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NIELSEN, Dr. NIELS, Danish Geographer; born Oct. 3, 1893, Silkeborg, Denmark; son of Sören Peter and Karen (Rasmussen) Nielsen; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, M.Sc. 1917, Ph.D. 1924; married Jutta Heegaard, Jan. 25, 1929. High School Teacher, Copenhagen, 1918-35; Leader of Expeditions in Central Iceland, 1923, 1924, 1927, 1934, 1936; founded Skalling Laboratory, Inst. for Research in Dune. Salt marsh and Tidal areas, 1930; Secy. General, Royal Danish Geographical Soc., since 1930. Prof. of Geography, Univ. of Copenhagen, since 1939; Head of Geographical Dept.. Director, Skalling Laboratory. Master of Students College Nordisk Kollegium, since 1945. Leader of Students Assn., Copenhagen, 1943-45. Member: Royal Danish Acad. of Sciences and Letters; Royal Physiographic Soc., Lund. Hon. and Corresponding Member, Geographical Socs. in Norway, Finland, Stockholm and Lund. Knight, Danish Dannebrog Order, Islands Falk Order, Finnish White Rose Order. Author: La production du fer en Jutland septentrionale, 1926; Contributions to the Physiography of Iceland, 1932; Eine Methode zur exakten sedimentationsmessung, 1935; Vatnajökull, 1937. Address: Geographical Institute, University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NIELSEN, OLAF, Danish Banker; born May 10, 1880, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Anton and Martine (Frederiksen) Nielsen; educated at Gregersen's Middle-Class School, Copenhagen; married Signe Moeller, Dec. 4, 1917; one son. Clerk with Kjobenhavns Handelsbank, Copenhagen, 1896, later Branch Auditor until 1914. Manager of Aalborg Diskontobank, since 1914; Chairman of Board, Aalborg Ny Dampmoelle, since 1925. Member of Board, De Danske Provinsbankers (Assn. of Danish Provincial Banks), 1916-26; Chairman of Board, 1921-26. Member of Board, Assns. Pensionskaase since 1937. Address: Gl. Torv. 10, Aalborg, Denmark.

NIELSEN, ORSEN NORMAN, American Foreign Service Officer; born Sept. 22, 1892, Beloit, Wis.; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, 2½ years; Univ. of Berlin, 1921-22; married. Vice-Consul: Moscow, 1918; Stockholm, 1918, 1919. With Office of American Commnr. at Berlin, 1921. Vice-Consul, Berlin, 1921. Consul: Dublin, 1924; Teheran, 1926; at State Dept., 1928. Second Secy., Warsaw, 1932; First Secy., 1935; at State Dept., 1936; Asst. Chief, Div. of Eastern European Affairs, 1936; Asst. Chief, Div. of European Affairs, 1937. Consul General, Munich, 1938. First Secy., Berlin, 1941; at State Dept., 1941; Member, Com. on Neutral Trade of Bd. of Economic Warfare, 1942; Asst. Chief, Blockade and Supply Division, 1943-44; Adviser, War Areas Economic Div., 1944; Counsellor of Embassy and Consul General to Govt. of Norway established in England, 1944; at Oslo, 1945—. Address: Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

NIELSEN, Major SVEN, Norwegian Political Leader; born March 18, 1883, Stavanger, Norway; educated at University. Became officer in Norwegian Army, 1906; promoted to Captain, 1911; now Major. Served as Principal, High Schools in Narvik District, 1913; Administrative Director, Kysten Insurance Co., Harstad, 1917, and for Stavanger Insurance Co., 1925. Elected Mayor of Harstad, 1923; later Director, Stavanger Light and Power Co.; elected to Parliament, 1934; joined Nygaardsvold Government as Minister without Portfolio, 1940; became Minister of Commerce in 1945. Address: Stortinget, Oslo, Norway.

NIEMANN, Dr. CARL, American Chemist; born July 6, 1908, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Julius H. and E. (Danner) Niemann; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.S. 1931, Ph.D. 1934; married Mary Parkhurst, Aug. 15, 1934; two daughters. Fellow, General Education Bd., 1935-36; Asst., Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, 1936-37; Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, 1937-38. Asst. Prof. of Organic Chemistry, California Inst. of Technology, 1937-43; Assoc. Prof., 1943-45; Prof., since 1945. Official Investigator, N.D.R.C., 1942-46; Chmn., 1945; Division Member, in charge of Section 9 : 3, 1943-46. Expert Consultant, O.F.S., 1945. Author of scientific papers in various journals since 1930. Address: Gates & Crellin Laboratories, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena 4, California.

NIEMEYER, Dr. GERHART, American Political Scientist; born Feb. 15, 1907, Essen, Germany, son of Victor and Kaete (Ley) Niemeyer; educated at Cambridge, Munich, Kiel, Doctor juris, Kiel, 1932; married Lucie Lenzner, 1931; five children. Asst., Univ. of Frankfurt, 1932; Lecturer, Law Faculty, Univ. of Madrid, 1933-34; Research Assoc., Inst. for International & Economic Studies, Madrid, 1934-36; Prof., Federación de Asociaciónes Españolas de Estudios Internacionales, Madrid, 1935-36; Lecturer in Politics, Princeton Univ., 1937-40; Asst. Prof., 1941-44; Prof. of Political Science, Oglethorpe Univ., Ga., since 1944; Visiting Lecturer, Yale Univ., 1942, Assoc. Prof., summer session, 1946. Member: Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law; Amer. Political Science Assn. Editor: Hermann Heller, Staatslehre, 1934. Author: The Significance of Function in Legal Theory, 1940; Law Without Force, 1941; (co-author) The Second Chance, 1944. Address: Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga.

NIEMEYER, OSCAR, Brazilian Architect; born 1908. Considered one of the greatest architects living today. Designs include: Ministry of Education and Health Building, Rio de Janeiro (regarded as one of the most beautiful public buildings in the world); a block of deluxe duplex apartments, each having a private garden, Rio de Janeiro; a theater, Belo Horizonte; yacht club, restaurant and casino, Pampulha; Brazilian Pavilion at N. Y. World's Fair. Member, Brazilian Communist Party. Member, United Nations Board of Design Consultants (representing Brazil), 1947—. Address: United Nations Board of Design Consultants, Lake Success, N. Y.

NIEMEYER, Sir OTTO ERNST, G.B.E., K.C.B., Director, Bank of England; born in Streatham Hill, Surrey, England, Nov. 23, 1883; son of E. A. W. and Ethel (Rayner) Niemeyer; educated at St. Paul's School, London, and at Balliol College, Oxford; married Sophie Benedict Niemeyer; three sons and one daughter. Entered the Treasury, 1906; Controller of Finance, 1922-27. Member of Financial Committee, League of Nations, 1922-37; Chairman, 1927. Joined Bank of England, 1927; elected Director, 1938. Served on financial missions to Australia and New Zealand, 1930; Brazil, 1931; Argentine, 1933; India, 1935; China, 1941. Director, Vickers - Armstrong, 1928-35; Deputy Chairman, Agricultural Mortgage Corp., 1929-38. Director, Bank for International Settlements; Director, National Bank of Egypt and the Banque des Pays de l'Europe Centrale (Member of Council of Foreign Bondholders). Member of Council, Marlborough College; Chairman, National Council for Mental Health; Chairman of the Governors, London School of Economics. Residence: Cookhams, Sharpthorne, Sussex. Office: Bank of England, London, England.

NIEMOELLER, Rev. Dr. MARTIN, German Clergyman; born Jan. 14, 1892, Lippstadt, Wesphalia, Germany; son of Heinrich and Paula (Mueller) Niemoeller; educated at Univ. of Münster, Theological Faculty, 1920-23; Eden Theological Seminary, hon. D.D., 1935; Pineville Divinity Hall, hon. D.D., 1946; Theological Faculty, Univ. of Göttingen, hon. D.D., 1946; married Else Bremer, Apr. 20, 1919; seven children. Naval Officer, Imperial Navy, 1910-20; Officer and Commander of Submarine, 1916-18; Farm Laborer, 1919; Ordained Minister, Evangelical Church, 1924; Director of Home Mission, Prov. of Westphalia, 1923-31; Pastor, Lutheran Parish, Berlin-Dahlem, 1931-45; Founder, Pastors Emergency League to resist Hitlerism, 1933; Political Prisoner, Concentration Camps of Sachsenhausen and Dachau, 1937-45; Vice-Pres., Evangelical Church in Germany, and Chmn. of Church Foreign Affairs Office, since 1945. Standing Deputy, Provisional Com., World Council of Churches, since 1945. Addressed biennial meetings in Seattle, Wash. at invitation of Federal Council of Churches, Dec. 1946. Author: From U-Boat to Pulpit, 1934; The First Commandment (sermons), 1934; God Is My Führer (collection of sermons), 1939; Dachau Sermons, 1946. Address: Buedingen Schloss, Buedingen, Greater Hesse, Germany.

NIENBURG, BERTHA M. von der, American Economist; born Apr. 2, 1890, San Francisco, Calif.; daughter of William A. and Rebecca (Brunswick) von der Nienburg; educated at Univ. of California, B.L. 1911. Investigator, Industrial Conditions, U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 1912-15; Consultant on Wage Problems, Calif. Industrial Welfare Commn., 1916-20; Administrator of Awards, Natl. War Labor Board, 1918. Assoc. Director, Industrial Survey and Research Service, 1919-30; Economist since 1946. Director, Retail Price and Cost of Living Decision, U. S. Coal Commn., 1922-23; Economic Adviser, General Federation of Women's Clubs, 1926-30; Economic Consultant, U. S. Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, 1930-31. Chief Economist and Asst. Director, Women's Bureau, Dept. of Labor, 1934-45. Author: Reemployment of New England Women in Private Industry; Potential Earning Power of Southern Mountaineer Handicrafts. Address: 1725 New Hampshire Ave., Washington, D. C.

NIER, Dr. ALFRED O. C., American Physicist; born May 28, 1911, St. Paul, Minn.; son of August C. and Anna J. (Stoll) Nier; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.E.E. 1931, M.S.E.E. 1933, Ph.D. 1936; married Ruth E. Andersen, June 19, 1937; one daughter. Natl. Research Fellow, Harvard Univ., 1936-38; Asst. Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Minnesota, 1938-40; Assoc. Prof., 1940-43; Division Engineer, Kellex Corp., N. Y. C., 1943-45; Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Minnesota since 1945. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Soc. Contributor to physical literature on the detection, measurement and separation of isotopes. Address: University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

NIETHAMMER, Dr. THEODOR, Swiss Astronomer; born Apr. 2, 1876, Böblingen, Württemberg; son of Christian Albrecht and Dorothea (Mayer) Niethammer; educated at Univ. of Basle, Ph.D.; married Minna Im Obersteg, 1926. Observer, Swiss Geodetic Commn., 1899-1918; Prof. of Astronomy, Univ. of Basle, since 1914; also Head of Astronomisch-Meteorologische Anstalt. Member: Schweizerische geodätische Kommission; Eidgenössische meteorologische Kommission; Internatl. Astronomical Union; Commns. of Internatl. Geodetic Assn. Author: Astronomisch-geodätische Arbeiten in der Schweiz, vol. 20, 1939; Der Basler Universalseismograph, 1937; Untersuchungen über die isostatische Reduktion der Schwerebeschleunigungen in der Schweiz; Ueber die Reduktion des Präzisisionsnivellements und über Fragen der astronomisch-geographischen Ortsbestimmung. Address: Binningen, near Basle, Switzerland.

NIETO CABALLERO, Dr. AGUSTÍN, Colombian Educator; born Aug. 17, 1889, Bogota, Colombia; son of Agustin and Paulina (Caballero) Nieto; educated in Switzerland; England; School of Law, Paris; Sorbonne; Teachers College, Columbia University; married Adelaida Cano, 1915; five children. Founded Gimnasio

Moderno de Bogotá, 1914, school that started progressive educational movement in South America; also founded Junior Red Cross (President) and Restaurants and Camps for Needy Children of Public Schools. Represented Colombia in International Congress of Press; Madrid, 1931 and at League of Nations, 1931, 1934. Director General of Education, Colombia, 1932-36. Professor of Comparative Education, Escuela Normal Superior de Bogotá. Guest of Honor, World Congress of Education, Cheltenham, England, 1936; President, Fifth International Conference of Public Instruction, Geneva, 1936; Rector, Universidad Nacional de Colombia, 1938-41. President, Colombian Delegation to 8th American Scientific Congress, Washington, 1940 and Conference of Educators at University of Michigan, 1941. Ambassador of Colombia to Chile, 1942-43, returning to Direction of Gimnasio Moderno de Bogotá, 1944. Head of Colombian Delegation, UNESCO Conference, Mexico City, 1947. Address: Gimnasio Moderno, Bogotá, Colombia.

NIETO NAVARRO, CARLOS, Bolivian Physician and Surgeon; born Sept. 14, 1885, La Paz, Bolivia; son of Emiliana Nieto Navarro; educated at Universidad de San Andrés de La Paz (Med. Degree, 1915); married Teresa García, 1930; one daughter—Lily. Began career as a physician, 1915. Served in the Municipal Laboratory, and National Institute of Bacteriology. Dir. of Public Health; Commissioner for the struggle against Typhoid in the Dept. of Cochabamba and La Paz and in many provinces. Physician of the Office of Epidemics and Vaccines; Police Physician; Prof. in the Faculty of Law, and of Physiology in the Faculty of Medicine; Univ. Delegate for the Med. Examinations. Founder, first Posta de Maternidad. Physician of the Gen. Hosp. of Miraflores. Alternate Deputy in the Dept. of La Paz. Served as Pres. of the Junta de Vecinos de San Sebastian, of La Paz and of the Sociedad de Protección Mutua de Abogados and various Labor Societies, Titular Physician for a number of social, mutual benefit and labor groups. Author: Dipteria en La Paz; El Peligro Blenorrájico. Editor, Revista de Bacteriología e Higiene. Address: Calle Evaristo Valle No. 40, La Paz, Bolivia.

NIETO del RIO, Dr. FELIX, Chilean Diplomat; born Dec. 2, 1888, Cauquenes, Province of Maule, Chile; educated at Univ. of Chile and Catholic Univ. of Santiago; Bach. of Laws and Political Sciences; Univ. of Southern California, LL.D.; married Luz Perez de Castro; two children (by first marriage). Attaché, Special Mission to Buenos Aires, 1915; Attaché, Legation in Cuba, 1917; Attaché, 1918-20, Secy. ad-interim, 1920, Embassy in Washington, D. C.; Consul General, Vienna, Austria, 1925; Secy., Brussels, Belgium, 1926; Secy., Chilean Delegation to League of Nations, 1926; Minister Resident, Director of Diplomatic Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1927-30; Minister on Special Mission to Peru, 1929; Under-Secy. of Foreign Affairs, 1930-31; Political Adviser of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1932-36; Special Envoy Plenipotentiary to Bolivia to prepare mediation of Chaco War, 1935; Delegate with rank of Ambassador to Chaco Peace Conference, Buenos Aires, 1935-38; A.E. and P. to Brazil, 1936-39; Political Adviser of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1941-42; Member, Inter-American Juridical Commission of Rio de Janeiro, 1942-46; Plenipotentiary Delegate to Inter-American Conference on Problems of War and Peace, Mexico, 1945; Permanent Delegate with rank of Ambassador, to United Nations, 1946; President, Chilean Delegation to Second Part of First Assembly of U. N., 1946; A. E. and P. to U. S., 1947—. Member of Bd. of Administration, Chilean Soc. of History and Geography; President, Chilean Inst. of International Studies. Contributing Editor, "El Mercurio," Santiago. Ex-Director, "Revista Chilena." Address: Chilean Embassy, Washington, D. C.

NIEUWENHUIS, Dr. IGNATIUS I.A.M., Dutch Pharmacist; born Oct. 5, 1887, Oldenzaal, The Netherlands; son of Antonius A.F. and Maria (Meyer) Nieuwenhuis; educated at Willibrordus College, Katwyk aan Ryn, 1906; Univ. of Amsterdam, pharm. cand. 1911, Pharm.D. 1914, Pharmacist, 1915; married Louisa J. M. H. Schrynen, Sept. 21, 1915; nine children. Pharmacist in Oldenzaal since 1915; Member of Board, Pharmaceutical Dept., Overysel, 1920-44 (Pres., 1944). Member of Board, Nederlandsche Maatschappy ter bevordering der Pharmacie (N.M.P.), 1936-39 (Pres., 1939-47). Member of Board, Inst. of Archaeological Research, Oldenzaal, 1920-42 (Pres. since 1942). Attended Netherlands Public Health Congress, 1939. Member: Public Health Dept., 1939; Central Board of Public Health, 1946; Board for Protection of Minors, 1928. Founder and Pres., Sick Fund, 1925; Pres., Soc. for Child Protection, 1925; Board Member, Industrial School for Neglected Children, Harreveld, 1934; City Councillor, 1929-36. Founder, Association White-Yellow Cross (public health), 1919; Secretary, 1919-46; Pres., since 1946. Member: Nederlandsche Maatschappij tet bevordering der Pharmacie; Fédération Internationale Pharmaceutique; Katholiek Wetenschappelijke Vereeniging. Address: Steenstraat 30, Oldenzaal, The Netherlands.

NIEUWENHUIS, Dr. Ir. J.G.J.C., Dutch Economist, Transportation Executive; born Jan. 15, 1882, Raalte, Holland; son of J. G. Nieuwenhuis and E. J. C. van Duyl; educated at Univ. of Delft, certificate as an electrotechnical engineer of technology, 1919; doctorate in technical sciences, 1932; married J. W. Weygers, Nov. 16, 1906; one son. Draftsman, 1898; served successively as surveyor, superintendent and electrotechnical engineer, Dutch Railways, until 1919. Now Director and General Manager, Electric Tramways of Rotterdam. Leader, political economy monthly paper, "Het Nederlandsche Volk" (publication suspended since war). Pres., Dutch Union for Tramways and Motor transport services, since 1935. Member, Direction Com. and of Exec. Com., International Union of Public Transport. Author: Het Loonvraagstuk (The Problem of Wages; Economisch Verooer (Economical Transport); Interlocale Tramen autobusverbindingen met Rotterdam (Interurban Tramways and Omnibus Junctions with Rotterdam); Politiek Alarm (Political Alarm); Principeele Scheidslijnen (Fundamental Partitions), etc. Address: Josef Israelslaan 2, Rotterdam Noord, The Netherlands.

NIEVES BELTRAN, IGNACIO (NEFERO), Mexican Painter; born July 31, 1920, Tampico, Tamps., Mexico; son of Vicente Nieves and Albina Beltrán; educated at Escuela de Artes Plásticas San Carlos. Exhibited at Gama Art Gallery and painting "El niño" was shown at Exposición Plástica Mexicana held at Benjamin Franklin Library and Exposición de la Pintura mexicana held in Cuba, 1946, and represented in collections of Emilio Portes Gil (Ex-Pres. of Mexico); Margarita Nelcken; Antonio Luna Arroyo; Gama Art Gallery; Juan Manuel Ruiz Esparza; Waldo Romo (Mexican Ambassador to Russia), etc. Prof. of Painting, Escuela de Pintura y Escultura de la Sria. de Educación Pública de México. Address: Puente de Alvarado 45, Depto. 5, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

NIFENECKER, EUGENE ALEXANDER, American Educator; born 1882; educated at College of City of New York, B.A. 1901; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1906. Director of Reference, Research and Statistics, Public Schools of City of New York, 1920—. Author: The School Assembly, 1907; The Measurement of Educational Products (with others), 1918; Statistical Reference Data Showing School Background Conditions, Factors, Trends and Problems (1900-1936), 1936; Maladjustment and Delinquency (report of Joint Com. on Maladjustment and Delinquency), 1936-1938, etc. Member, American Assn. of School Administrators. Address: 110 Livingston Street, Brooklyn 2, N. Y.

NIGAM, KALI SAHAI, Rai Bahadur, Indian Professor of Surgery; born Dec. 1897, Lucknow, U.P., India; son of L. B. and Lakshmikuar Nigam; educated at Allahabad Univ., M.B., B.S. 1916, M.D. 1918; Fellow, Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, 1920; graduate of London School of Tropical Medicine, D.T.M. 1920; married Shrimati Indrani Kuar, 1916; four children. Gazetted Officer in Provincial Medical Service; Lecturer in Practical Surgery, Medical School, 1917-18. Captain in Indian Medical Service for three years; became Prof. of Anatomy, K. G. College, 1920; Lecturer in Surgery, 1921-27; Reader in Surgery, 1927-32; Prof. of Surgery at Lucknow Univ. since 1932. Secy., Anti-Tuberculosis League, since 1922; U.P. Tuberculosis Assn. since 1939. Pres. of K. G. Medical College Clinical Soc. since 1940; Member of Executive Council, Lucknow Univ., since 1942; Member of Academic Council since 1925; Examiner in Surgery, Lahore, Patna, Lucknow and Usmania Univs. Inspector of Examination in Surgery and Ophthalmology, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Bombay; Member of War Board, U.P., since its foundation; Foundation Member of All India Tuberculosis Assn. Foundation Member of Surgeons Assn. of India. Member: Indian Medical Assn.; Lucknow Medical Assn.; British Medical Assn., etc. Given title of Rai Bahadur, 1933. Address: King George's Medical College, University of Lucknow, 8 Shahmina Rd., Lucknow, U.P., India.

NIGGLI, MARTHA, Swiss Author; born Sept. 6, 1889, Aarburg, Switzerland; daughter of Johann Gottlieb and Anna (Häfeli) Niggli; educated at Seminary and Gymnasium, Aarau; Univ. of Berne. Author: Der Rödendalhof (novel), 1941; Der Knabe mit der Schalmei (novel), 1945; Zielsucher (novel), 1918; Die Langhälse (novel), 1921; Schönscharz, 1928; Zwischen zwanzig und dreissig (novel), 1930; Von hohen Bergen (novelette), 1939; Die Schwestern (novelette), 1943; Gerti (book for young girls), 1943; Flug in die Welt (book for young girls), 1945; Frau Marianna (translated from Swedish); numerous novelettes, short stories, published in newspapers and periodicals. Collaborator, Schweiz. Jugenschriftenwerk (SJW). Address: Högerli, Aarburg, Switzerland.

NIGGLI, Prof. PAUL, Swiss Professor of Mineralogy and Petrology; born June 26, 1888, Zofingen, Switzerland; son of Eduard and Sophie (Hofer) Niggli; educated at Technische Hochschule, Zurich (diploma as teacher in natural sciences); Univ. of Zurich, Ph.D.; Technische Hochschule, Karlsruhe; Geophysical Laboratory, Washington, D. C.; married Hedwig Dübendorfer, 1915; two children. Asst., Technische Hochschule, Zurich, 1913; Privatdocent, 1913; at Univ. of Zurich, 1914; Prof. of Physical-Chemical Mineralogy, Univ. of Leipzig, 1915-18; Prof. of Mineralogy and Petrology, Univ. of Tübingen, 1918-20; Prof. of Mineralogy and Petrology, Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule and Univ. of Zurich since 1920. Rector of Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule, Zurich, 1929-32; of Univ. of Zurich, 1940-42. Director, Mineralogical Inst. of Swiss Federal Technical High School; Pres., Geotechnical Commn. Member: Polish, Indian and Belgian Academies; Academies at Leipzig, Halle, Göttingen, Stockholm, Bucharest, Leningrad, New York and Paris; Geological Soc. of America; Mineralogical Soc. of America; Société Royale des Sciences de Liège; Société géologique de la France; Natl. Inst. of Sciences of India; Mineralogical Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland; Geological Soc. of London; Société géologique de Belgique; Sociedad española de Historia Natural at Barcelona; Geologiska Föreningens at Stockholm; Koninklyk Instituut van Ingenieurs. Awarded Hon. Dr. degrees, Univ. of Sofia, and Univs. of Geneva and Budapest; Dr. Ing., Technische Hochschule, Stuttgart. Author: Geometrische Kristallographie des Diskontinuums, 1919; Die leichtflüchtigen Bestandteile im Magma, 1920; Das Magma und seine Produkte, 1937; La loi des phases en minéralogie et pétrographie, 1938; Lehrbuch der Mineralogie, 1920, 2nd ed. 1924-26, 3rd ed. 1941-42; Tabellen zur allgemeinen und speziellen Mineralogie, 1927; Gesteins- und Mineralprovinzen, 1923; Die Gesteinsmetamorphose (with U. Grubenmann), 1924; Krystallographische und strukturtheoretische Grundbegriffe, 1928; Ore deposits of magmatic origin, 1929; Die Mineralien der Schweizeralpen (with J. Königsberger and R. L. Parker), 1940; Grundlagen der Stereochemie, 1945; Die jungen Eruptivgesteine des mediterranen Orogens (with C. Burri), 1945. Received Hayden Memorial Geological Award of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1947. Address: Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule, Sonneggstrasse 5, Zurich, Switzerland.

NIHLÉN, Dr. JOHN VALFRID, Swedish Educator; born Mar. 8, 1903, Kristinehamn, Sweden; son of Nils and Britta (Björnsson) Nihlén; educated at Uppsala College, cand.phil. 1922, lic.phil. 1926, Ph.D. 1927; married Gunvor Nordell, 1926; six children. Leader of several archaeological expeditions to Gotland Island, 1925-27; engaged in scientific research on iron, Jernkontroet. Lecturer, Federation of Popular Education; Secy. and Managing Director, Homestead Assn. Chairman, The New School, Stockholm. Editor, Country and Nature. Author: Gotlands stenåldersboplatser, 1927; Sagornas ö, 1928; Under rutat segel, 1928; Från det okända Gotland, 1929; Studier rörande äldre svensk järnhantering, 1932; Gotländska gårdar och byar under äldre järnåldern (with G. Boëthius), 1933; Äldre järntillverkning i Sydsverige, 1939; Gotland Sv. Touristass (book of travels), 1940; Varulven, 1945; Röda Fåglar, 1946. Address: Mäster Samuelsgatan 3, Stockholm, Sweden.

NIHOUL, RENÉ ARMAND E. L., Belgian Civil Engineer; born June 6, 1909, Brussels, Belgium; son of Armand and Renée (Dalebroux) Nihoul; educated at Athenaeum, Ixelles, 1926-27; Univ. of Ghent, School of Engineering, 1928-41; married Hélène Fox, Aug. 25, 1932; three children. Consulting Civil Engineer, Brussels, 1932-33; Engineer, Centre Belgo-Luxembourgeois d'information de l'acier, Brussels, since 1933; Manager of firm since 1945: Manager, Fédération de l'Industrie des fabrications métalliques, Brussels, 1940. Director: Institut Belge de Normalisation; Institut Belge de Soudure; Bureau pour la sécurité de la construction SECO. Member: Royal Belgian Soc. of Engineers and Industrialists (Hon. Secy.); Assoc. Member, Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers. Lieut., Belgian Army, Artillery, World War II; Member of Secret Army during German occupation. Residence: 36 Avenue des Phalènes, Ixelles, Brussels, Belgium. Office: 38 Boulevard Bischoffsheim, Brussels, Belgium.

NIINILUOTO, YRJÖ EMIL, Finnish Editor; born Feb. 9, 1900, Tampere, Finland; son of Karl Emil and Aino Lydia (Grönlund) Niiniluoto; educated at Helsinki Univ., M.A. (Modern Languages), 1924; married Marja Annikki Linturi, Oct. 17, 1942; three children. Journalist on staff of Helsingin Sanomat, Helsinki, since 1925; Correspondent for Helsingin Sanomat, London, 1933-36; Asst. Editor, Helsingin Sanomat and Ilta-Sanomat, 1936; Editor since 1938. Member, Finnish Journalists' Federation. Commander. Order of the Lion, Finland. Author: This was England, 1944. Address: Ludviginkatu 6, Helsinki, Finland.

NIJHOFF, MARTINUS, Dutch Poet; born Apr. 20, 1894, 's-Gravenhagen, The Netherlands; studied law, Univ. of Amsterdam. Editor, De Gids; Winner of Poetry Prize, Amsterdam, 1925. Author: De Wandelaar, 1916; Pierrot aan de lantaren, 1919, 2nd ed., 1936; Vormen, 1924, 3rd ed., 1931; De pen op paier, 1927; De Vliegende Hollander, 1930; Gedachten op Dinsdag, een keuze uit kritieken, 1931; Nieuwe gedichten, 1934, 2nd ed., 1937. Address: Kleine Kaserstraat Ia, The Hague, The Netherlands.

NIJHOFF, PAUL, Dutch Publisher; born Aug. 26, 1868, The Hague, The Netherlands; son of Martinus and E. J. H. (Cool) Nijhoff. Director of Scheltema & Holkema's Boekhandel, Amsterdam. Hon. Member of Dutch Booksellers Assn. Residence: Legrasweg 2, Laren, The Netherlands. Office: Rokin 74-76, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

NIJHOFF, PZN. WOUTER, Dutch Publisher; born July 21, 1895, Amsterdam, Holland. President, Martinus Nijhoff, Inc., Publishing, International booksellers, The Hague, Holland. Vice-Pres., Netherlands Publishers Assn.; Pres., Netherlands Book Import Bureau; Hon. Secy., Queen Wilhelmina Lectureship; Hon. Secy., Linschoten Soc.; Member of Board, Netherlands American Foundation. Office: Martinus Nijhoff, Inc., 9 Lange Voorhout, The Hague, Holland.

NIJINSKY, Mme. BRONISLAWA, Choreographer and Ballerina; daughter of Thomas and Eleonora (Bereda) Nijinsky. Appeared with Diaghilev Ballet, Paris Opéra Comique, Colón, Buenos Aires, etc. Now Choreographer for ballet companies appearing in the United States. Sister of Vaslav Nijinsky. Addres: 855 South La Brea Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

NIJINSKY, VASLAV, Russian Dancer and Choreographer; born Dec. 29, 1889, Kiev, Russia; son of Thomas and Eleonora (Bereda) Nijinsky; educated at Imperial Dancing Acad., St. Petersburg; married Romola de Pulszky, Sept. 10, 1913; one child. Member, Imperial Opera House, St. Petersburg; danced in Paris Grand Opera, Monte Carlo, Covent Garden, Drury Lane, London, Metropolitan Opera House, N. Y., and Theatre Colón, Buenos Aires. Star of original Russian Ballet; composer, Ballets Sacre du Printemps, Jeux, L'après midi d'un Faune; Founder, Modern School of Dancing; invented systems of annotation of dancing; creator of star part in ballets Carnaval, Schéhérézade, Spectre de la Rose, Sylphides, Petruschka; danced at coronation of King George V, also numerous charity performances. Awarded Palm Académique, French Republic; Soloist of Tsar. Author: Diary of Nijinsky, 1936; System of Annotation of Human Movements, 1919. Address: Mittersill Castle, Mittersill, Austria.

NIKIFOROFF, Dr. CONSTANTIN C., Soil Scientist; born Aug. 3, 1886, Pskov, Russia; son of C. G. Nikiforoff and A. I. Grudzinskaya Nikiforoff; educated at Imperial Univ. of St. Petersburg, Ph.D. 1912; married Myrtle L. Culbert, June 30, 1934. Geographer and soil scientist and conducted research in eastern Siberia, 1909; with Dept. of Agriculture of Russia, 1909-14; with Imperial Russian Army, 1914-19. Came to U S. in 1923; naturalized in 1929. Prof. of Soils, Univ. of Minnesota, 1928-30; with U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Washington since 1930; on furlough with Office of Strategic Services as Senior Research Analyst, World War II. Member: Assn. of Amer. Geographers; Amer. Geographical Soc.; New York Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Soc. of Agronomy; Soil Science Soc. of America; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Internatl. Soc. of Soil Science, etc. Author of numerous technical articles on subjects in soil science and geography in scientific and geographical journals. Address: U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, District of Columbia.

NIKIFOROV, Prof. PAVEL MIKHAILOVICH, Soviet Scientist; born 1884. Prof. and Corresponding Member of Academy of Sciences of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Awarded Order of the Red Banner of Labor, 1944. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NIKIFOROVA, Prof. E., Soviet Surgeon. Professor at Central Institute of Traumatology and Orthopedia, Moscow. Awarded Stalin Prize for contributions to medical science. Address: Central Institute of Traumatology and Orthopedics, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NIKITHENKO, Major General IOLA T., Soviet Jurist. Deputy President, Supreme Court of the U.S.S.R. Appointed Soviet Member of International Tribunal trying major war criminals of Europe, Sept. 1945. Address: Ministry of Justice, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NIKITIN, Colonel General ALEKSEI VASILIEVICH, Soviet Air Force Officer. Advanced through various grades to Col. General of Aviation, 1943. Assistant Commander of Red Army Air Force, 1944. Awarded: Order of Kutuzov, 1st class, 1944; American Military Medal for "service in shuttle bombing," 1944. Address: Soviet Air Force, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NIKITIN, Prof. N. I., Soviet Chemist. Professor at Forest Technical Academy, Moscow. Corresponding Member of Branch of Chemical Sciences of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: Leningrad 18, Forest Technical Academy, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NIKITIN, Prof. VASILII PETR, Soviet Electrical Engineer. Director of Section on Scientific Elaboration of Problems of Electrical Communications, Moscow. Member of Branch of Technical Sciences of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: Section on Scientific Elaboration of Problems of Electrical Communications, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NIKLASSON, Dr. NILS (HERMAN), Swedish Archaeologist; born Jan. 20, 1890, Goeteborg, Sweden; son of Herman and Anna Sofia (Johansdotter) Niklasson; educated at Univ. of Goeteborg, 1909-10; Univ. of Stockholm, 1912-16; Univ. of Halle, Germany, Ph.D. 1924; married Hildur Maria (Maja) Johanna Storck, July 25, 1920; three children. Asst. at Museum of Halle, Germany, 1916-29; Director, Archaeological Museum of Goeteborg, since 1929; Assoc. Prof., Univ. of Goeteborg. Corresponding Member, Archaeological

Soc. of Germany, 1936; Prehistoric Soc. of Great Britain, 1937. Knight, Swedish Royal Order of Vasa. Author: Studien ueber die Walternienburg-Bernburger Kultur, 1925; Stenåldersboplatsen på Sandarna vid Goeteborg (The Archaeological Research), 1934. Address: Museum of Goeteborg, Goeteborg, Sweden.

NIKOLADE, YAKOV, Georgian Sculptor. Exhibited works at various art centers in Georgian S.S.R. and other Soviet Republics. Awarded Stalin Prize for bust of Georgian classic poet, Chakh Nikoladze, 1946. Address: All Union of Georgian Sculptors, Tiflis, Georgian S.S.R.

NIKOLAEV, Vice Admiral ALEKSANDR ANDREEVICH, Soviet Naval Officer. Advanced through grades to rank of Rear Admiral, 1944; promoted to Vice Admiral, 1944. Awarded Order of Lenin, 1944. Address: Soviet Ministry of the Navy, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NIKOLAI, Most. Rev., Metropolitan of Kiev and Galicia, Soviet Religious Leader; born 1892. Ordained 1914; tutor in a theological seminary; Custodian of the Alexander Nevsky Monastery (one of the largest in Russia); later Bishop of Peterhof; then Exarch of Western Ukraine and Byelorussia and Exarch of the Ukraine; placed in charge of the offices of the Moscow Patriarchate. Appointed by Soviet Govt. as Member of Special State Commn. which investigated infamies perpetrated by German invaders, World War II. Address: Moscow Patriarchate, Russian Orthodox Church, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NIKOLSKY, Prof. NIKOLAI M., Soviet Historian. Spent two years in German-occupied Minsk during World War II, escaping to Moscow, 1944. Made studies of the ancient East, The Bible and the history of religion. Head of Institute of History, Byelorussian Academy of Sciences. Member, Byelorussian Academy of Sciences. Supervised the compilation of a "History of Byelorussia"; edited and wrote historical textbooks. Address: Institute of History, Byelorussian Academy of Sciences, Minsk, Byelorussian S.S.R.

NIKPOUR, ABDOL HOSSEIN, Iranian Parliament Member, Industrialist; born 1894; son of Hadja Mohammad Hassan; married; four sons and one daughter. Chairman of Board, Telephone Corporation of Iran. Responsible for founding of several corporations in Iran, including Glass Corp., Textile Corp., Paper Corp., Iron Corp., Spinning Corp., and Dried Fruit Corp. Member of Iranian Parliament, 5 years; re-elected Deputy of Teheran, 1947. Founded Iranian Glass Factory, 1936; President. Chamber of Commerce of Teheran, since 1934. Member, Teheran City Council. Attended many economic conferences; travelled to foreign countries for expansion of commerce. Address: Teheran Chamber of Commerce, Kouye Kasra, Avenue Jami, Teheran, Iran.

NILES, Mrs. BLAIR (Mary Blair Rice), American Author; born in Coles Ferry, Va.; daughter of Henry Crenshaw and M. Gordon (Pryor) Rice, and a descendant of the Randolphs, Blands, Bacons, Pryors and Rices of Virginia, dating back to the 17th century on James River. Married Robert Niles. Author: Casual Wanderings in Ecuador, 1923; Colombia, 1924; Black Haiti, 1926; Condemned to Devil's Island, 1928; Free (novel) 1930; Strange Brother, (novel), 1934; Day of Immense Sun (novel), 1936; Peruvian Pageant, 1937; The James, 1939; East By Day (novel), 1941; Passengers to Mexico: The Last Invasion of the Americas, 1943; The James: from Iron Gate to the Sea, 1945; Journeys In Time; From the Halls of Montezuma to the Plains of Patagonia, 1946. Member: Authors League; Authors Guild of America; P.E.N.; Society of Woman Geographers; (Fellow) Society of American Historians. Received the Gold Medal of the City of Lima, Peru; Constance Lindsay Skinner Medal of Achievement; Gold Medal of the Society of Woman Geographers. Address: 59 E. 54th St., New York 2, N. Y.

NILES, Hon. EMORY HAMILTON, American Jurist; born Oct. 15, 1892, Baltimore, Md.; son of Alfred S. and Mary Hamilton (Waters) Niles; educated at Baltimore Polytechnic Inst., 1905-09; Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1913; Rhodes Scholor, Oxford Univ., England, 1913-16, A.B., M.A., B.C.L.; Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1917; married Anne Whitridge Williams, Nov. 4, 1922; three children. Lawyer, 1919. Member, law firm of Niles, Barton, Marrow & Yost, 1925. Lecturer in Law, Univ. of Maryland, since 1925; Lecturer on Law of Admiralty, since 1926; Lecturer on Evidence, since 1941. Assoc. Judge, Supreme Branch of Baltimore City, since 1938. Trustee, Goucher College, since 1934; Pres. of Board, 1936-46. Secy., Rhodes Scholarship Com. for Maryland. Member, Judicial Council of Maryland, 1923-34. Pres., Baltimore Criminal Justice Commn., 1933-34. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (Vice-Pres., 1935-36); Amer. Law Inst.; Maritime Law Assn. of the U. S. Founder and Editor: American Maritime Cases, since 1923; United States Aviation Reports, since 1928. Residence: 5600 Waycrest Lane. Office: Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, Court House, Baltimore 2, Md.

NILES, JOHN JACOB, American Folk Singer, Composer; born Apr. 28, 1892, Louisville, Ky.; son of John Thomas and Lula Sarah (Reisch) Niles; educated at Cincinnati Conservatory; Schola Cantorum, Paris; Univ. of Lyon (France); studied under Vincent d'Indy; married Rena Lipetz, Mar. 21, 1936; two sons. Started singing publicly at age of six. Toured extensively in England, Holland, France and Germany. Appeared at most of important colleges and universities of the country in recitals of American folk music. Lectured at Harvard, Univ. of Chicago, Eastman School of Music, Juilliard, Curtis Inst., etc. Member: ASCAP; Amer. Folklore Soc. Aviator (1st Lieut.), World War I. Author: One Man's War; Singing Soldiers; Songs My Mother Never Taught Me. Composer of many original works, folk-song adaptations and arrangements. Address: Boot Hill Farm, R.F.D. 7, Lexington, Ky.

NILES, Dr. STANLEY B., American College President; born Jan. 22, 1896, Nashville, Mich.; son of Fred Lewis and Carrie A. (Barnum) Niles; educated at Albion College, A.B. 1919; Garrett Biblical Inst., B.D. 1923; Northwestern Univ., M.A. 1923; Drew Univ., Th.D. 1927; Still College of Osteopathy, LL.D. 1947; married Velma A. Thomas, Apr. 11. 1919; three children. Pastor of churches in Illinois, Michigan and New York, 1914-38. Instr. at Albion College, 1923-35. Pres., Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, 1938—. Member: Iowa Acad. of Science; Delta Sigma Rho; Delta Sigma Phi; American Legion. Residence: 609 E. Washington St. Office: Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

NILSON, (ADOLF) ALFRED (HILMER), Swedish Artist and Restorer; born Apr. 8, 1888. Stockholm, Sweden; son of Adolf and Hilma (Lindstedt) Nilson; married Margareta Ohlson; two children. Began career as an artist in the art school of Althin, 1912. Restored many pictures and other art objects belonging to State of Sweden and to private persons, including Royal Palace, Stockholm; Karlberg Palace, Stockholm; Läckö Castle, Lidköping; many churches, etc. Director: Hallwyl's Museum, Stockholm; Thiel's Museum, Stockholm; Valdemarsudde (Prince Eugen's art collection). Member of Soc. of History of Art and many other art societies. Awarded Royal Vasa Order. Author of an article in Hantverkets bok, Måleri (on restoring). Residence: Nockebyvägen 68, Nockeby. Studio: Banérgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden.

NILSON, Dr. LARS GUNNAR EDVARD, Swedish Naval Medical Officer; born Sept. 28, 1872, Uppsala, Sweden; son of Prof. L. F. and Alva (Forssman) Nilson; educated at Uppsala Univ., 1890-96; Carolinska Inst., Stockholm, 1896-99; Univ. of Lund, M.D. 1911; married Clara Sofia Naumann, Jan. 6, 1906; two sons and three daughters. Amanuensis of Pathology, Univ. of Uppsala, 1894-95; entered Royal Swedish Navy as Surgeon, with rank of Lieut., 1898; Chief Surgeon, Surgical Section, Naval Hospital at Carlskrona, 1903; Inspector General, Royal Naval Sanitary Service, 1917-37; retired in 1937. Hon. Secy., Swedish Medical Soc., 1919-40; Delegate, Swedish Government at Red Cross Internatl. Conferences, 1925, 1928-30, etc.; Chief Surgeon, Reserve Hospital XV, Vienna, during World War (1916). Member, Royal Örlogsmannasallskapet, Royal War Science Acad.; Hon. Member, Swedish Medical Soc. Created Knight Commander, 1st class, Royal Vasa and North Star Orders. Author: Sjökrigets kirugi, 1913; Marinens Hälso-och sjukvård, 1924; Helso-och sjukvård till sjöss, 1938; Berömda svenska läkare, 1945; some hundred papers and pamphlets on hygiene, surgery, etc. Residence: Riddaregatan 76, 1, Stockholm, Sweden.

NILSSON, GUSTAF-ADOLF, Swedish Author; born Dec. 10, 1889, Hälsingborg, Sweden; son of Gustaf and Annette Nilsson; privately educated; married Ida Rosenberg, 1912; three children. Journalist in Hälsingborg, 1908; Dagens Nyheter, Stockholm, 1918; Göteborgs Handels-och Sjöfartstidning, Gothenburg, 1920. Correspondent from Berlin, 1928-33; Stockholm since 1933. Dramatic Critic for Göteborgs-Tidningen. Member: Scandinavian Circle of Artists; Swedish Soc. of Authors; Publicist Club; Swedish Journalist Union; Radiotjänst. Author: Köpmanshus i Kärnestad (novel), 1936; Vinet Mognar (novel), 1938; Buketten som sprängdes (novel), 1939; Skånsk Palett, 1942; Skogen går (radio drama), 1943; Birger Sjöberg och Frida, 1943; Nilla (novel), 1944; Janusansiktet (3 act play), 1945; Varubvar (postwar Nazi-Werwolves), 1946; Solmängt och Saltstänkt (short stories), 1947. Address: Narvavägen 29, Stockholm, Sweden.

NILSSON, Hon. JOHAN, Swedish Senator; born August 21, 1873, Färlöv, Sweden; son of Ake and Bengta (Persson) Nilsson; educated at public and private schools; married Signe Johnsson, Dec. 29, 1901. Governor of Kristianstad County, 1923-38; Speaker of the Swedish Senate. Chairman: A/B Skånebryggerier; Strömsnäs Bruks A/B; Knislinge Skofabriks A/B; Södra Sveriges Angpanneförening; Svenska Lifförsäkrings A/B; Svenska Sockerfabriks A/B; A/B Qualitas; Stockholms Superfosfat A/B; A/B Saltsjöqvarn; A/B Marten Pehrsons Valsqvarn; Allm. Svenska Utsädes A/B. Address: Kristianstad, Sweden.

NILSSON, NILS FRITIOF ADAM, Swedish Author; born Dec. 4, 1895, Wollsjo, Sweden; son of Johan and Lovisa (Lenander) Nilsson; educated at Univ. of Lund, LL.B.; married Tora Mansson, Apr. 5, 1939; one child. Lawyer, 1919-31. Author: Bombi Bitt och jag, 1932; Bock i Örtagard, 1933; Småländsk Tragedi, 1936; Bokhandlaren som slutade bada, 1937; Historier från Färs, 1940; Tre Terminer, 1943; Bombi Bitt och Nick Carter, 1946. Address: Kivik, Sweden.

NILSSON, Prof. NILS MARTIN PERSSON, Swedish Educator; born July 12, 1874, Ballingslöv, Sweden; educated at Lund, 1892-1900; Basle, 1897; Berlin, 1897-98. Docent, University of Lund, 1900; Professor, Classical Archaeology and Ancient History, 1910-39; now Emeritus Professor. Rector, University of Lund, 1938-39; Trustee, Humanistic Foundation in Stockholm, since 1934. Trustee, Längman's Foundation, 1928-46; Honorary Secretary, Royal Society of Letters, 1918-45. Member: American Philosophical Society; (Honorary) American Academy of Arts and Sciences, Hellenic Society, London; Archaeological Society, Athens. Corresponding Member, Academies of Copenhagen, Oslo, Berlin, Munich and Prague, and Fellow of the British Academy. Author: A History of the Greek Religion, 1925; The Minoan-Mycenaean Religion, 1927; The Mycenaean Origin of Greek Mythology, 1932; Homer and Mycenae, 1933; Greek Popular Religion, 1940; Geschichte der griechischen Religion, Vol. 1, 1941. Address: Bredgatan 25, Lund, Sweden.

NILSSON-TANNÉR, PER (EMANUEL), Swedish Author; born Feb. 9, 1904, Tandsbyn, Jämtlands län, Sweden; son of Nils-Erik Persson and Kristina Eliasson Nilsson-Tannér; educated in public school and commercial school; married Betty Persson, 1927; one daughter. Began journalistic career at Östersund, 1923; Reporter during Finnish War, 1939-40. Author: Nordanfrån, 1926; Det onda året, 1927; Det sjätte sinnet, 1927; Byn vid Berget, 1928; Rammensfolket, 1930; Det Nya Eden, 1934; Bångens pojkar, 1936; Inger Grannes, 1939; Ingen vänder åter, 1941; Väderhane vakar, 1942; De sådde sol och aska, 1944; En fågel i min hand, 1945; Kårleken söker icke sitt, 1946. Member, Swedish Authors' Assn. Captain, Swedish Air Force. Address: Tandsbyn, Jämtlands län, Sweden.

NIMITZ, Fleet Admiral CHESTER WILLIAM, American Naval Officer; born Feb. 24, 1885, Fredericksburg, Tex.; son of Chester Bernard and Anna (Henke) Nimitz; educated at U. S. Naval Academy, B.S. 1905; hon. degrees from Univs. of Calif., Notre Dame, Hawaii, So. Carolina, Northwestern, Harvard, Williams College, Univ. of Richmond, Tulane Univ., Syracuse University; Southwestern Univ.; married Catherine Vance Freeman, Apr. 9, 1913; four children. Ensign, 1907; Lieut., 1910; Lieut.-Commander, 1916; Commander, 1918; Captain, 1927; Rear Admiral, 1938. Commander, Atlantic Submarine Flotilla, 1912; at New York Navy Yard, 1913-16; Executive Officer and Engineer Officer, U.S.S. Maumee, 1916; Aide to Commander, Atlantic Fleet Submarine Force, 1917; Chief of Staff to the Commander, Submarine Force, Atlantic Fleet, 1918; Executive Officer, U.S.S. South Carolina, 1919, U.S.S. Chicago, 1920. Commander, No. 14 Submarine Division, 1920. Aide to Commander-in-Chief, Battle Fleet, Asst. Chief of Staff, 1923; Aide to Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Fleet, 1925; Professor of Naval Science and Tactics, University of California, 1926-29; in command No. 20, Submarine Division, 1929; No. 12 Submarine Division, 1931; in command, U.S.S. Rigel and destroyers out of commission, 1931-33; U.S.S. Augusta, 1933-35; Asst. Chief, Bureau of Navigation, Navy Dept., 1935-38. Commander, Cruiser Division, 2nd Battle Force, July-Sept., 1938; Battleship Div. I, 1938-39. Chief, Bureau of Navigation, 1939-41. Commander-in-Chief, Pacific Fleet, 1941-44; Chief of Naval Operations, Dec. 1945-Dec. 1947. Awarded numerous decorations. Member, Bd. of Regents, Univ. of California, 1948—. Address: U. S. Navy Dept., Washington, D. C.

NIMMO, HENRY, British Electrical Engineer; born 1885, Cambusnethan, Scotland; son of Gavin Witherspoon and Margaret (Shearer) Nimmo; educated at Airdrie Acad. & Coatbridge Technical School; married Una Kathleen Barron, 1921; two children. Apprentice mechanical engineer, 1900-05; Improver, Bruce Peebles Electrical Works, Edinburgh, 1905-06; Erection Engineer, British Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co., 1906-07; Electrical Engineer, Oakbank Oil Co., Scotland, 1907-09; Irrawaddy Flotilla Co., Rangoon, 1909-12; Asst. Engineer, Rangoon Electric Trams & Supply Co., 1912-14; Electrical Adviser, Burma Govt., 1914-15; Electrical Adviser, Burma Govt., 1919-29; Chief Engineering Inspector, Electricity Commn., 1929-45. Electricity Commnr. since 1945. Member, Institution of Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineers. Captain, London Electrical Engineers Regiment, 1916-19. Residence: Wingates, Matching Green, Harlow Essex. Office: 2 Savoy Court, Strand, London, England.

NIMS, HARRY DWIGHT, American Lawyer; born Jan. 9, 1875, Keene, N. H.; son of Marshall W. and Ella M. (Goodnow) Nims; educated at Williams College, B.A. 1898, Hon. M.A. 1915; married Emma Collier Grant, June 8, 1907; three children. Lawyer since 1901; specializes in unfair competition and trade mark law. Secy., Commn. on Administration of Justice, New York State, 1931-34; Member, Judicial Council, N. Y. S., since 1934; Secy., Natl. Conf. of Judicial Councils, 1939-41; Member, Board of Directors, Gerry Estates, Inc.; Vice-Pres. and Secy., N. Y. Soc. for Prevention of Cruelty to Children; Vice-Pres., Amer. Humane Soc.; Director, Legal and Price Divisions. U. S. Fuel Administration, 1917-18. Director, Amer. Judicature Soc., 1946. Member: Amer. and New York State Bar Assns.; Amer. Law Inst.; Bar Assn. of City of New York. Author: Nims on Unfair Competition and Trade Marks, 1909, 4th ed. 1947; also magazine articles on law and related subjects. Private, C.A.C., U. S. Army, 1918. Residence: 15 Elm Rock Rd., Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 60 E. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

NIN y CASTELLANOS, Prof. JOAQUÍN, Cuban Composer, Pianist; born 1879, Havana, Cuba; studied with Carlos Vidiella in Barcelona, Spain; under M. Moszkowski in Paris; d'Indy at Schola Cantorum. Taught in schools in Berlin, Havana and Brussels. Pianist on many tours of Europe. Prof. at National Conservatory of Music, Havana. Compositions include pieces for violin, pianoforte, violoncello and women's chorus, etc. Author of books on musical criticism, etc. Address: National Conservatory of Music, Havana, Cuba.

NINA y SANTANA, FEDERICO, Dominican Lawyer; Congressman; born Sept. 30, 1900, Ciudad Trujillo, Santo Domingo; son of Federico Nina Tejeda and Gregoria Santana; educated at Inst. of Social Studies, Trujillo, 1914-15; Univ. of Santo Domingo, Trujillo, 1916-23; married Blanca Mota, Jan. 21, 1925; two children. Pres., Court of First Instance, San Pedro de Macorís, 1924; Prof., Normal School, San Pedro de Macorís, 1924-28; Civil Governor, Province of San Pedro de Macorís, 1930; Legal Consultant, Municipal Government, San Pedro de Macorís, 1934-36; Deputy, National Constituent Assembly, 1934; Deputy to National Congress, since 1946. Secy., House of Representatives. Engaged in private law practice at San Pedro de Macorís. Author of various political papers. Residence: Avenida Julia Molina 116. Office: Calle Rafael Deligne 32, San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

NINIC, MOMCILO, Yugoslav Politician; born Belgrade, Yugoslavia, 1876; educated at college in Belgrade; married Spomena Milosevic; Professor of Political Economy and Financial Science, University of Belgrade, 1899. Served as Deputy of Parliament. Became Minister of Serbian Finances, 1915; first Yugoslavian Minister of Finances, 1918; became Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1922; Chairman of Yugoslavian Delegation to the League of Nations, 1926. Minister of Foreign Affairs of Yugoslavian Government in London, 1941-43; sentenced to imprisonment by Belgrade Court, 1946.

NININGER, Dr. HARVEY H., American Scientist; born Jan. 17, 1887, Conway, Kansas; son of James Buchanan and Mary Ann (Bower) Nininger; educated at Oklahoma State Teacher's College, 1907-09; McPherson College, A.B. 1914, D.Sc. 1937; Pomona College, M.S. 1916; Univ. of California, summers 1915, 1918; married Addie Delp, 1914; three children. Acting Head, Dept. of Biology, State Teacher's College, Alva, Okla., 1912-13; Prof. of Biology, La Verne College, 1914-18; Asst., Dept. of Zoology, Univ. of California, summer 1918; Special Field Agent, U. S. Dept. of Entomology, 1918-19; Prof. of Biology, Southwestern College, 1919-20; at McPherson College, 1920-30; Curator of Meteorites, Colorado Museum of Natural History, 1930-46; Director, Nininger Laboratory, Amer. Meteorite Laboratory, 1930-46; Director, Amer. Meteorite Museum, since 1946. Pres.: Soc. for Research on Meteorites, 1937-41; Kansas Acad. of Science, 1924-25. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member, Amer. Astronomical Union. Author: Our Stone Pelted Planet, 1933; A Comet Strikes the Earth, 1942; Chips From the Moon, 1946; Birds of Central Kansas, 1929. Address: Box 32, Flagstaff, Ariz.

NINNIS, FREDERICK CHARLES, American Industrialist; born Sept. 11, 1880, Atlantic, Mich.; son of William Henry and Susanna (Doidge) Ninnis; educated at Univ. of Nevada, 1906-07; married; one son. Engaged in placer mining in Alaska, 1902-03; mining in Nevada, 1903-06, 1907-17; Mill Supt., Nevada Milling Co., Tonopah, 1917-26; Pres., West End Opoteca Mining Co., Honduras, 1926—. Pres.: Tonopah Seventy-Six Mining Co.; West End Extension Mining Co. Address: Drawer B., Tonopah, Nevada.

NIQUILLE, Dr. JEANNE, Swiss State Archivist; born 1894, Fribourg, Switzerland; daughter of Casimir and Pauline (Quartenoud) Niquille; educated at Theresianum, Ingebohl, 1910-11; Cantonal Lyceum for Young Girls, Fribourg, 1911-14, Sc.B. 1914; Univ. of Fribourg, Litt.D. 1918. Archivist, State of Fribourg, since 1919. Member: Swiss General Soc. of History; Société d'histoire de la Suisse romande; Soc. of History of Canton Fribourg; Swiss Soc. for Genealogical Studies; Soc. of History of Art, Switzerland. Author: L'hôpital de Notre-Dame à Fribourg, 1921; La confrérie du Saint-Esprit de Fribourg, 1925; Les débuts de la presse politique, 1930; La chronique fribourgeoise du doyen Fuchs, 1933; Un siècle d'histoire fribourgeoise, 1941. Residence: 102 rue Zaehringen, Fribourg, Switzerland. Office: Archives de l'Etat, les Augustins, Fribourg, Switzerland.

NISBET, ROBERT H(OGG), American Artist; born Aug. 25, 1879, Providence, R. I.; son of William Douglas and Isabella (Hogg) Nisbet; educated at Rhode Island School of Design; Art Students

League of New York, Scholarship Prize, pupil of Du Mond; pupil of Henry B. Snell in England; married Marguerite de Pourtalès, June 29, 1910. Represented by paintings in: Rhode Island School of Design; Rhode Island Hosp.; Plantations Club, Providence, R. I.; Telfair Acad. of Arts and Sciences, Savannah, Ga.; Butler Art Inst., Youngstown, Ohio; Connecticut State Agricultural College, Kingston, R. I.; National Arts Club; Lotos Club; Sherman (Conn.) Library). Represented by etchings in: Metropolitan Museum of Art; New York Public Library; Brooklyn Museum; Milwaukee Museum; Detroit Museum; Univ. of Nebraska; Oberlin College; Art Council, New York City; Yale Univ.; Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, France; National Gallery, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.; Library of Congress. One-man shows in galleries and museums. National Academician. Member: Allied Artists of America; Art Students League (Pres., 1909-10; Hon. and Life Member); Natl. Arts Club (Artist Life Member); Lotos Club (Artist Life Member); Salmagundi Club; Amer. Water Color Soc. Awards: Silver Medal, Pan Pacific Exposition, painting; Dunham Prize, Conn. Acad. of Fine Arts, painting; Halgarten Prize, Natl. Acad. of Design, painting; Bryan Prize for best American Print, Sixth Internatl. Print Makers Exhibition, Los Angeles, Calif.; Natl. Arts Club Prize and Medal, painting; Talcott Prize, Ex-Palmer Memorial (Marine) Prize, $1,000, Natl. Acad. of Design, painting, etc. Address: South Kent, Conn.

NISHIO, SUEHIRO, Japanese Political Leader. Served as Chief Secretary of the Liberal Party of Japan, 1947; appointed Minister Without Portfolio in Cabinet of Premier Ashida, March 10, 1948. Address: Government Palace, Tokyo, Japan.

NISHTAR, Hon. Sardar ABDUR RAB Khan, Indian Statesman; born June 13, 1899; educated at Aligarh Univ., A.B., LL.B. Began as Advocate, Peshawar. Served as Municipal Commissioner, 1929-38 (resigned); Senior Vice-Chairman in 1933 and Member, Legislative Assembly, North West Frontier Province, 1937; Finance Minister, N.W.F. Province, 1943-45; Minister of Communications, Interim Govt. of India, 1946-47. Member, Working Com., All-India Muslim League. Address: Peshawar, N. F. W. Province, India.

NISOT, Dr. JOSEPH, Belgian Diplomat; born 1894, Charleroi; educated at Univs. of Ghent, Cambridge, Geneva, Freiburg and Harvard; received LL.D. Asst. Legal Consultant, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1919-22; Legal Adviser, Secretariat of League of Nations, 1922-40; Member, Com. of Jurists and of Conf. for Revision of Statutes of Permanent Court of Internatl. Justice, Geneva, 1929; Member, Harvard Research Group in Internatl. Law, 1940-42; Counsellor, Belgian Embassy, Washington, D. C., 1942—. Member, Belgian Delegation, United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Alternate Representative, Belgian Delegation; United Nations General Assembly, 1946; U. N. Economic and Social Council, 1946; First Special Session of General Assembly, 1947; U. N. Security Council, 1947; U. N. Commissioner for Conventional Armaments, 1947. E. E. and M. P. Legal Adviser of Belgian Embassy in Washington, and Belgian Rept., U. N. Atomic Energy Commn., 1947—. Address: Belgian Embassy, 1715 22nd St., Washington, D. C.

NISSEN, Dr. KARL, British Orthopaedic Surgeon; born Apr. 4, 1906, Milton, New Zealand; son of Christian and Caroline Nissen; educated at Univ. of Otago Medical School, B.Sc. 1929, M.B., Ch.B. 1933, M.D. 1934; married Honor Schofield, 1935; two children. Demonstrator in Anatomy, Otago Medical School, 1934; House Surgeon, Wellington Hosp., 1935, and Royal Natl. Orthopaedic Hosp., 1936; Resident Surgical Officer, Hillingdon County Hosp., 1937; Registrar, Royal Natl. Orthopaedic Hosp., 1938-39; Orthopaedic Surgeon, Emergency Medical Service, Stanmore, 1940-43; Orthopaedic Surgeon, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, 1943-46. Executive Member, Post Graduate Medical Soc.; Teacher, Medical School of Royal Natl. Orthopaedic Hosp., London. Member: British Medical Assn.; Royal Soc. of Medicine; British Orthopaedic Assn. Residence: 5 Hilltop Way, Stanmore, Middlesex, England. Address: 140, Harley St., London, W. 1, England.

NISSEN, Dr. RUDOLF, Surgeon; born Sept. 9, 1896, Neisse, Germany; son of Franz and Margarete (Borchert) Nissen; educated at Gymnasium, Neisse; Univs. of Munich, Breslau, M.D. 1920; and Marburg, Germany; married Ruth Becherer, May 29, 1933; two children. Asst. in Med. Dept., Univ. of Breslau, 1920; Asst. in Dept. of Path., Univ. of Freiburg, 1920-21; Asst. in Surg. Dept. of Univ. of Munich, 1921-27; Instructor in Surgery, 1926-27. Instructor in Surgery, Univ. of Berlin, 1927-30; Head Surgeon of Surg. Dept., 1927-33; Assoc. Prof. of Surgery, 1930-33; Prof. and Head of Surg. Dept., Univ. of Istanbul, Turkey, 1933-39; Surgical Director, Cerrah Pasha Hosp., Istanbul; Research Fellow in Surgery, Mass. General Hosp., Boston, Mass., 1939-40. Attending Surgeon to Brooklyn Jewish Hosp. Senior Attending Surgeon, West Side Hosp. and Dispensary, New York; Chief Surgeon, Israel Zion Hosp. Member of Bd. of Trustees, Internatl. College of Surgeons; Hon. Member of Accademia Lancisiana di Roma; Corresponding Member of Greek Surg. Soc.; Member, Internatl. Surg. Soc., and Amer. Med. Assn. Assoc. Member, Medical Advisory Board, Natl. Jewish Hosp., Denver, Colo. Author: Textbook of General Surgery (with F. Sauerbruch), 1933; Surgical Indications, 1937; Surgical Pathology, 1938; Cineplastic Operations (with E. Bergmann), 1942; Surgery of the Mediastinum (with A. Brunner), 1932; Surgical Treatment of Tuberculosis of Bones and Joints, 1929; Surgical Treatment of Lung Tuberculosis, 1932; Surgery of Duodenal and Jejunal Ulcer, 1944. Address: 116 E. 58th St., New York, N. Y.

NISTOR, Dr. ION, Rumanian Political Leader; born 1876, Vicovul de Sus, Radauti, Rumania; educated at Universities of Vienna, Munich, Bucharest and Cernauti. Privatdocent, Univ. of Vienna, 1913; Prof. of History, Cernauti Univ., 1913-33; Rector, 1929-21. Editor, Iunimea Literara, 1904-32, and of Codrul Cosminului, 1924-32. Minister of Public Works, 1927-28; Minister of Public Health and Labour, 1934; Minister of Culture, 1939-40; Minister of State, 1940. Member of Rumanian Academy, 1915—. Director of the Library of the Rumanian Academy, 1945—. Address: Calea Victoriei 125, Bucharest, Rumania.

NITTI, Dr. FRANCESCO SAVERIO, Italian Statesman; born 1868; obtained LL.D. Former Prof. of Finance, Univ. of Naples; Member of Parliament, Liberal Party, 1904-22; Minister of Commerce and Agriculture, Giolitti Cabinet, 1911-14; Minister of Finance, Orlando Cabinet, 1917-19; Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior, 1919-20; in exile during Fascist regime; asked to form new Cabinet, May 1947. Member, National Democratic Union Party. Author: Europa senza pace, 1921; The Decadence of Europe, 1922; L'inquiétude du monde, 1934. Address: National Assembly, Rome, Italy.

NITZE, Dr. WILLIAM ALBERT, American Philologist; born 1876. Andrew MacLeish Distinguished Service Prof. Emeritus of Romance Languages and Literature, Univ. of Chicago. Prof. of French, Univ. of Calif., Los Angeles. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member, Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: The Sister's Son and the Conte del Graal, 1912; A Handful of French Phonetics (with Ernest H. Wilkins, and exercises by Clarence E. Parmenter), 1918; A History of French Literature from the Earliest Times to the Great War (with E. Preston Dargan), 1922; revised ed., 1927; Lancelot and Guenevere (with Tom Peete Cross), 1930; Arthurian Romance and Modern Poetry and Music, 1940. Editor, Le haut libre du graal (Perlesvaus), 1932-1937 (with T. Atkinson Jenkins). Address: University of California, Los Angeles, Calif.

NIU, Rev. JOHN, Catholic Chancellor, Archdiocese of Nanking; born Sept. 13, 1899, Chengting, Hopeh, China; son of Joseph and Maria (Kuo) Niu; educated at Fujen Univ., Literature Dept. Ordained Catholic priest, 1924; Priest, Chengtingfu, 1924-26; Director, Scholae in Chengting, 1927-31; Secy. General, Catholic Action in China, 1934-40; Director, Catholic daily, I Shih Pao, 1938-42; Editor, I Shih Pao, since 1942; Chancellor, Archdiocese of Nanking. Author: Shung Pao Lu; Summary of Catholic Action; Report of Meeting of Catholic Action, 1935. Address: 100 Shih Ku Lu, Nanking, China.

NIU KKANEN, JUHO, Finnish Parliament Member; born in Kirvu, Finland, July 27, 1888; son of Kustaa and Maria (Apuhen) Niukkanen; educated at District School and at People's High School; married Vivi Hupli, June 24, 1918; three children. Deputy Minister of Agriculture, 1921-22 and 1922-24; Minister of Transport and Public Works, 1925-26. Minister of Finance, 1927-28 and 1936-37. Minister of Defense, 1929-30; Minister of Transportation and Public Works, 1931-32; Minister of Defense, 1937-40. Address: Finnish Parliament, Helsinki, Finland.

NIU YUNG-CHIEN, Chinese Diplomat; born 1870, Shanghai. Civil Governor of Kiangsu, 1923. Chairman, Kiangsu Provincial Govt., 1928-32. Served as Acting Minister of the Interior; Chairman, Bd. of Personnel, Examination Yuan; Vice-Chairman, National Opium Suppression Commission; Legislative Member, Legislative Yuan; Vice Pres., Examination Yuan, 1932. Kuomingtang Party Member of State Council, Nanking, 1947—. Address: The Kuomingtang, Nanking, China.

NIVEN, Dr. CHARLES D., British Physicist; born July 16, 1897, Aberdeen, Scotland; son of (Prof.) Charles and Mary (Stewart) Niven; educated at Aberdeen Univ., Scotland, 1914-18, B.Sc., M.A.; Univ. of Toronto, Canada, 1924-28, M.A., Ph.D. Departmental Manager in Aberdeen Comb Works Co. Ltd. 1920-24. With National Research Council of Canada (heat section, Division of Physics), 1930—; now Associate Research Physicist. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Residence: Devenick Lodge, Quarries, Ont. Office: National Research Council of Canada, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

NIVEN, DAVID, British Motion Picture Actor; born 1911; married Primula Rollo (dec.); two children; (2nd) Tjordis Tersmeden, Jan. 14, 1948. Served in British Army, World War II. Films include: Dodsworth; Beloved Enemy; Charge of the Light Brigade; The Prisoner of Zenda; Four Men and a Prayer; Dawn Patrol; Wuthering Heights; Raffles; Bachelor Mother; Stairway to Heaven; The Magnificent Doll; The Other Love; The Bishop's Wife, etc. Address: United Artists Studios, Hollywood, Calif.

NIVEN, Sir JOHN, British Shipowner; born Jan. 8, 1877, Glasgow, Scotland; son of John and Marie Niven; educated at Overnewton School and Glasgow High School; married Annie Margarite, Sept. 17, 1910. Partner, Andrew Weir & Co. Director: Bank Line, Ltd.; McAndrews & Co.; Chadwick Weir & Co.; Andrew Weir Insurance Co.; Wilmer Grain Co. Chairman, Baltic Exchange, London, 1935-37; Director, Commercial Services. Ministry of War Transport, 1937-41. Member of Council, Chamber of Shipping since 1921; Member of Advisory Council, Export Credits Corp., 1937-45. Pres., Inst. of Chartered Shipbrokers. Residence: 28 Kepplestone, Eastbourne, Sussex, England. Office: 21 Bury St., London, England.

NIVOIX, PAUL, French Dramatic Author; born Dec. 24, 1899, Saint Denis, Seine, France; son of Eugène and Alice (Chailloux) Nivoix; educated at Sainte Barbe, Paris, Lic.Litt.; married Lucienne Musso, April 21, 1945; two children. Vice-Pres., Soc. of French Dramatic Authors and Composers. Member, Pen Club. Author: Les Marchands de gloire, 1925; Eve Toute Nue; Echec à la Reine; Amours; La Maison d'en Face; Un Homme Fort; La Victoire de Paris; L'Ecole des Faisans; Girouette; Je t'aimais inconstant; Les nouveaux maitres, etc. Wrote numerous film scripts. Knight, Legion of Honor. Served in French Army, World War I; wounded. Address: 2 bis rue de Buzenval, Saint-Cloud, Seine et Oise, France.

NIX, ABIT, American Lawyer; born July 3, 1888; son of John M. and Dora (Bennett) Nix; educated at Univ. of Georgia, A.B.; Univ. of Georgia Law School, LL.B.; Harvard Law School; married Eunice Little, Dec. 23, 1913; two daughters. Assoc. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Georgia, 1914-18; Referee in Bankruptcy, 1918-20; Member, Erwin, Erwin & Nix, since 1918. Director: Citizens & Southern Natl. Bank; Progressive Life Ins. Co.; Athens Manufacturing Co.; New Holman Hotel Co.; Climas Hosiery Mill. Pres., Athens Chamber of Commerce. Member: Board of Regents, Univ. System of Georgia; Amer. and Georgia Bar Assns. Director, Rotary Internatl., 1931, 1932; Grand Master, Masons (Georgia), 1935; Delegate, Democratic Natl. Convention, 1940. Address: Southern Mutual Bldg., Athens, Ga.

NIXON, Dr. HERMAN CLARENCE, American Social Scientist; born Dec. 29, 1886, Merrellton, Ala.; son of Wm. Dawson and Nancy (Green) Nixon; educated at Alabama Polytechnic Inst., B.S. 1909; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D., 1925; married Anne Trice, 1927; three children. Instructor, Alabama State Teachers College, 1910-13; associated with Iowa State College, 1922-25; Asst. Prof., Vanderbilt Univ., 1925-28; Assoc. Prof., Tulane Univ., 1928-31, Prof., 1931-38; Visiting Prof. at Univ. of Missouri, 1939-40. Lecturer in Social Science at Vanderbilt Univ. since 1940; Director, Vanderbilt Univ. Press, since 1942. Pres., Southern Political Assn. Author: "Forty Acres and Steel Mules," 1938; "Possum Trot," 1941. Contributor to "I'll Take my Stand," 1930; "Culture in the South," 1934; "Essays in Honor of William E. Dodd," 1935. Address: Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

NIXON, Dr. PAUL, American Classicist and College Dean; born May 23, 1882, Des Moines, Iowa; son of William Goodin and Helen (Andrews) Nixon; educated at Wesleyan Univ., A.B. 1904, A.M. 1905, L.H.D. 1927; Oxford Univ., 1904-07; Colby College, LL.D. 1938; Bowdoin College,

L.H.D. 1943; married (1st) Dorothea Margaret Thompson July 30, 1907 (dec.); (2nd) Mathilde C. Spengler, July 7, 1919; two children. Instructor in Classics, Princeton Univ., 1907; Dartmouth College, 1908-09; Asst. Prof., Bowdoin College, 1909; Prof., 1911-18; Dean, since 1918. Prof. of Latin, Univ. of Chicago (summer session), 1912. Director, New England Council, 1943-46; Pres., New England Classical Assn., 1924-25. Member: Amer. Philological Assn. Author: A Roman Wit (1911); Martial and the Modern Epigram (1927); Plautus (trans. for Loeb Classical Library, 5 vols.); etc. Address: 260 Maine St., Brunswick, Maine.

NIYAZI, Azerbaijan Composer and Conductor; born 1912; son of Zyulfugar Hajibekov; received musical education in a Russian School; studied under Mikhail Gnesin. Wrote first symphonic work by an Azerbaijan composer, "Zakataly Suite"; later wrote revolutionary opera "1920" and music for fifteen dramas and several films. Revised screen version of Uzeir Hajibekov's musical comedy "Arshin mal Alan," 1945. Wrote lyrical and romantic opera: "Khosrov and Shirin." Permanent Conductor, Baku Opera House; also conducts many symphony concerts. Repertory includes modern Azerbaijan music, Russian and Western-European classics and Soviet symphonies. Address: Baku Opera House, Baku, Azerbaijan S. S. R.

NIZAMUDDIN, Dr. MUHAMMAD, Indian Curator; born 1899, Hyderabad-Deccan, India; son of M. Ghyasuddin; educated at Nizar College, Hyderabad, and University of Cambridge (highest diplomas in Arabic and Persian), Ph.D. 1924; married 1927. State Scholar, 1921; Professor and Head of Department of Persian at Osmania University, 1927—; took over the charge of the Compilation and Translation Bureau, Osmania Univ. as Curator, 1944. Member, Osmania Univ. Senate and other academic bodies since 1927; Foundation Member of Govt. of Hyderabad Publication Committee, 1927; Member of Editorial Board of Bombay Historical Society; Member of Oriental Board of Studies, University of Madras; Coopted Member, Indian Historical Records Commission, 1939; President of Islamic Section, All-India Oriental Conference, Mysore, 1935, and of Sessions of the Idará-Maarif-i-Islamiyya, Delhi, 1938; Examiner of highest examinations in several Indian Universities and of the Government of India, Departmental Services, 1943-44; Hon. Senior Librarian, Osmania University, 1934-44; General Secretary, All-India Oriental Conference, 1943-45; Hon. Secretary, Students Advisory Bureau, Osmania University, 1945. Organized the Osmania University Library and introduced Dewey Decimal system of classication for 30,000 oriental books in various languages; organized the work of Hyderabad Session of All-India Oriental Conference as Local Secretary, 1937-45 Elected Honorary Member, Iranian Acad., 1945. Editor and Compiler of various textbooks and contributor to standard Oriental journals. Author: Introduction to the Jawamiul-Hikayat of Muhammad "Awfi" (Gibb Memorial Series, Cambridge), 1929. Residence: "Lalazar," Lallaguda-Dn. N.S.R., India. Office: Compilation and Translation Bureau, Osmania University, Hyderabad-Deccan, H.E.H. the Nizam's State, India.

NIZBORSKY, General ANTONIN HASAL, Czechoslovakian Army Officer; born 1893, in Nova Hut Pod Nizborem, District of Rakovnik; educated at Military Academy. During First World War fought with Czechoslovak Legion in Russia; won many distinctions, including the Knight Order of the French Legion of Honor. In exile during Second World War, held the post of Head of the Military Department of the President's Chancellory; accompanied President Benes to Moscow, 1943; commissioned to reorganize Czech Army during and after the war, 1944. Appointed Minister of Transport in the Cabinet of Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, 1945. Address: Czechoslovak Armed Forces, Prague, Czechoslovakia.

NIZER, LOUIS, American Lawyer; born Feb. 6, 1902, London, England; son of Joseph and Bella (Bialestock) Nizer; educated at Columbia College, B.A. 1922; Columbia Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1924; married Mildred Mantel, June, 1939. Admitted to the Bar, 1925; Member, firm of Phillips & Nizer, thereafter Phillips, Nizer, Benjamin & Krim, since 1926. Attorney for the New York Film Board of Trade. Represents various stars and executives of the stage, screen and radio. Member: American Bar Assn.; Bar Assn. of the City of New York. Author: New Courts of Industry; Legal Essays; Analysis of Standard Exhibition Contract; Analysis of Motion Picture Code; New Concepts in the Law of Radio; An Analysis of the Wagner Act; Recent Developments in the Law of Plagiarism; The Law of Proprietary Interest; The Right of Privacy; Thinking On Your Feet and What To Do With Germany, etc. Residence: 180 W. 58th St. Office: 1501 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

NIZSALOVSKY, Prof. ANDREW, Hungarian Professor of Private Law; born Sept. 25, 1894, Békéscsaba, Hungary; son of Andrew and Mary (Medvigy) Nizsalovsky; educated at Univ. of Debrecen and Univ. of Berlin; LL.D. (Debrecen), 1917; married Gabriella Kun, July 21, 1922; three chidlren. With Section of Codification, Hungarian Ministry of Justice, 1920; Member of Council for drafting Civil Code, 1921; Secy., Council for Drafting Civil Code, 1922; Councillor of Section, 1928; Prof. of Commercial Law, Univ. of Debrecen, 1930-34; Prof. of Private and Commercial Law, Technical and Economic Univ., Budapest, 1934-38; Prof. of Law of Procedure, Pázmány Péter Univ., Budapest, 1938-43; Prof. of Private Law, since 1943. Member, Board of Directors, Hungarian Sugar Industry Co., Ltd. Member: Hungarian Acad. of Science; Acad. St. Stephen. Pres. of Section, Civil Law, Hungarian Law Assn. Author: Commentaries and Mortgage Act, 1927; Das Neue Gesetz über das Hypothekenrecht, 1929; Der Erwerb unbeweglichen Eigentums in ungarischen Recht, 1933; Die gesetzliche Regelung der Aufwertug in Ungarn, 1928; Lois Hongroises concernant l'institution des livres foncières, 1930; Loi Hongroise de la valorisation des dettes; Legal Interests and Charges, 1941; Le partage des propriétés foncières d'après la récente législation Hongroise, 1942. Residence: Borbolya St. 5. Office: Szerb St., 10, Budapest, Hungary.

NOBBS, PERCY ERSKINE, M.A., R.C.A., F.R.I.B.A., F.R.S.A., Architect; born Aug. 11, 1875, Haddington, Scotland; son of John L. Nobbs and Agnes Fletcher Brown; educated at Edinburgh Collegiate School; Edinburgh Univ.; pupil of Sir Robert Lorimer, R.S.A.; married Mary Cecilia Shepherd; two children. Prof. in Architecture, McGill Univ., 1903-40; Ex-Pres.: Province of Quebec Assn. of Architects; Town Planning Inst. of Canada; Royal Architectural Inst. of Canada; Royal Canadian Acad.; Province of Quebec Assn. for Protection of Fish and Game. Works: The Union and Macdonald Engineering Building at McGill; Univ. Club, and Protestant Board Schools, Montreal; Arts Building, Univ. of Alberta, Edmonton. Author: Salmon Tactics; Fencing Tactics; Design. Address: Nobbs & Valentine, 1240 Union Ave., Montreal, Canada.

NOBILE, Prof. UMBERTO, Italian Aeronautical Engineer and Arctic Explorer; born Jan. 21, 1885, Lauro, Italy. Director, Stabilimento di Construzione Aeronautica; participated in expedition to Spitzbergen, Alaska, North Pole, 1926; engaged in scientific investigations, Arctic Expedition, two years; conducted aeronautical studies in Russia, Ministry of Aeronautics, 1933. Prof. of Aeronautical Construction, Royal Engineering School, Naples. Deputy, National Parliament, 1947. Author: In volo alla conquista del segreto polare, 1927, 5th ed. 1928; L'Italia al Polo Nord, 1929, 4th ed., 1930. Contributor of numerous scientific studies on mechanics and aeronautics to Ingenieria ferrov., Giornale del Genio Cic., Riviste tecn. di aeron., Aviation, Riv. aeron., etc. Address: Via G. Ferrari 4, Rome, Italy.

NOBILE, Prof. VITTORIO, Italian Astronomer; born Oct. 27, 1875, Naples, Italy; son of Arminio and Emma (von Sommer) Nobile; educated at Univ. of Naples, Sc.D. 1898; married Dr. Carolina Fiore, Apr. 21, 1938. Asst., Royal Astronomical Observatory, Naples, later Asst. Astronomer; Prof., Industrial Inst., Naples; Asst. Prof. of Analytical Geometry, Descriptive Geometry and Rational Mechanics, Univ. of Naples; taught astronomy and geodesy, 1925-35; Prof. of Astronomy, also in charge of courses on High Mechanics and Mathematical Physics, since 1935. Director, Inst. of Astronomy and Geodesy. Corresponding Fellow: Natl. Acad. Lincei, Rome; Royal Acad. of Sciences, Naples. Fellow, Accademia Pontaniana, Naples. Awarded Royal Prize in Astronomy, Royal Natl. Acad. Lincei, Rome, 1931. Author: Postulati fondamentali e sistemi di riferimento per la dinamica dell' ammasso galattico, 1928; Preliminari per una necessaria revisione della teoria della aberrazione annua, 1938; Il termine solare dell' aberrazione e la struttura del sistema planetario, 1940; Sulla maniera di intendere e di trattare il problema della rotazione galattica, 1943. Astronomia e Geodesia, Università Napoli, Naples, Italy.

NOBLE, ALLAN HERBERT PERCY, Member of British Parliament; born May 2, 1908, England; son of Admiral Sir Percy and late Diamentina (Campbell) Noble; educated at Radley College; married Barbara Janet Margaret Gabbett, 1938. Naval Officer, 1926; A.D.C. to Viceroy of India, 1936-38; commanded destroyers Newport, Fernie and Quentin, 1940-42; attended Quebec and Yalta conferences on Naval Staff. Awards: Distinguished Service Order, 1943; Distinguished Service Cross, 1941; mentioned in despatches. Conservative Member of Parliament for Chelsea since 1945. British Government Observer at Bikini Atomic Bomb Tests, 1946. Residence: 37 Sloane Ave. Office: House of Commons, S.W. 1, London, England.

NOBLE, EDWARD JOHN, American Radio Executive; born Aug. 8, 1882, Gouverneur, N. Y.; son of Harvey H. and Edna L. (Wood) Noble; educated at Yale, A.B. 1906; St. Lawrence Univ., LL.D.; married Ethel Louise Tinkham, 1920; two daughters. Chairman of Bd., Life Savers Corp., 1936-43. Purchased Blue Network (WJZ) for $8,000,000 in 1943 and is now owner (network now called Amer. Broadcasting Co.). Pres. and Director: Heart Island Operating Co., Inc.; Heart Island Transportation Corp., Inc. Director: WMCA, Inc.; Commercial National Bank & Trust Co. of New York. Founder and Trustee, Edward John Noble Foundation. Pres., Bd. of Trustees, St. Lawrence Univ. Chmn., Civil Aeronautics Authority, 1938-39; Under-Secretary of Commerce, 1939-40. Member, Industrial Advisory Com. of Federal Reserve Bank of New York. Owner of Thousand Islands Club. Major, Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, World War I. Residence: Round Hill Road, Greenwich, Conn. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

NOBLE, HOWARD SCOTT, American Accounting Professor and College Dean; born June 21, 1893, Indianola, Iowa; son of Laughlin Scott and Elizabeth Rachel (Parr) Noble; educated at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, A.B. 1914; Harvard Univ., M.B.A. 1919; married Josephine Hiatt, Jan. 1, 1919; three children. High school teacher, Des Moines, Iowa and St. Louis, Mo., 1914-17. Asst. Prof. of Accounting, Univ. of Minnesota, 1919-22; on teaching staff, Univ. of California, Los Angeles Campus, 1922. Asst. Prof. of Accounting, Univ. of Calif, 1922-24; Assoc. Prof., 1924-35; Prof. of Accounting and Dean, College of Business Administration, since 1935. Assoc., Amer. Inst. of Accountants; Member: Amer. Accounting Assn. (Pres., 1935); California State Soc. of Certified Public Accountants; Pacific Coast Economic Assn. (Pres., 1929). Author: Accounting Principles (with James G. McKinsey), 1935, 1939, 1945; Advanced Accounting (with Karrenbrock and Simons), 1941. Address: University of California, 405 Hilgard Ave., Los Angeles 24, Calif.

NOBLE, JULIO ARGENTINO, Argentine Civil Engineer; born July 9, 1896, Rosario de Santa Fé, Argentina; son of Pedro Jorge Noble and María Larrosa de N.; studied at the Primary School of University of La Plata; Colegio Nacional Nicolás Avellaneda; received degree of Civil Engineer from Faculty of Exact, Physical and Natural Science, University of Buenos Aires, 1920; married María Helena Mitre, Apr. 26, 1938; one child. Vice Pres., Radio Belgrano and syndicate of The River Plate Supply. Pres., Centro de Estudiantes de Ingenieria de Buenos Aires, 1919-20; Federación Universitaria de Buenos Aires, 1919-20; Vice-Pres., Centro Nacional de Ingenieros, 1927; President, Convención Nacional del Partido Democrata Progresista, 1931; President, Aero Club Argentino, 1939-42. National Deputy for Province of Santa Fé, 1932-34 and 1934-38; Vice-President of the Chamber of Deputies, 1936-37. Founded and was President of Acción Argentina. President, Argentine Aviation Board, 1940-42. Editor and staff writer for the newspaper "La Nación" since 1912; planned and directed construction of the City Hotel of Buenos Aires and of many private works; now planning the monumental Bristol Hotel of Mar del Plata. Author: De la Torre y el 90; Poincaré; Los capitales británicos en la Argentina (1942); Los británicos en la Argentina y en la guerra (1941); Alem (1947). Residence: Callao 1777. Office: Victoria 850, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NOBLE, KENNETH FREDERIC, Canadian Trade Commissioner; born April 9, 1908, Vancouver, B. C., Canada; son of Joseph Frederic and (Large) Noble; educated at Univ. of British Columbia, B.A. 1928; Univ. of California, post-graduate work, 1929-30; married Jessie Elizabeth MacPhail, Sept. 16, 1934; three children. Junior Trade Commissioner, Dept. of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Ont., 1931; Asst. Trade Commissioner, Hong Kong, 1933-37; Asst. Trade Commissioner, Singapore, 1937-39; Acting Trade Commissioner, Bombay, 1940; Asst. Trade Commissioner, Singapore, 1941-42; Asst. Trade Commissioner, Sydney, Australia, 1942, Acting Trade Commisioner, 1943-44, Trade Commissioner, 1945-46; Canadian Trade Commissioner at Hong Kong, at present. Residence: Peninsula Hotel, Kowloon. Office: Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank Building, Hong Kong, China.

NOBLE, Dr. RALPH EDWARD, American Educator; born 1899; educated at Dartmouth College, A.B. 1923; Univ. of Vermont, M.A. 1932, Ed.M. 1940; Middlebury College, Ph.D. 1942. State Commissioner of Education of Vermont, 1940—. Editor, Vermont and Its Opportunities, 1944. Member, American Assn. of School Administrators. Address: Montpelier, Vt.

NOBLE, Dr. ROBERT JACKSON, Australian Agricultural Scientist; born May 17, 1894, Five Dock, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia; son of Alexander and Renetta (Murphy) Noble; educated at Univ. of Sydney, B.Sc.Agr. 1915; Univ. of Minnesota (U.S.), M.S. 1922, Ph.D. 1923; married Joan Doris Bullen, Mar. 12, 1930; two sons. Agricultural Cadet, Dept. of Agriculture, N.S.W., 1913; Asst. Biologist, 1920; Principal Asst. Biologist, 1923; Chief Biologist, 1927; Under-Secy. and Director since 1940. Collaborator, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1921-23; Lecturer on Mycology, Univ. of Sydney, 1930; Examiner in Dairy Bacteriology, Hawkesbury Agricultural College, N.S.W., 1927-39. Trustee: Botanic Gardens, Sydney; Taronga Zoological Park, Sydney; Ben Fuller Scholarship Fund, Univ. of Sydney; Farrer Memorial Fund (Chairman). Member, N.S.W. Com., Council for Scientific and Industrial Research, 1933; Chairman, Sir Edgeworth David Memorial Appeal, 1935-36. Member: Royal Soc. of N.S.W. (Hon. Secy., 1929-34; Pres., 1934); Linnean Soc. of N.S.W.; Australian Natl. Research Council; Australian Inst. of Agricultural Science (Pres., N.S.W. branch, 1936). Fellow: Australian and New Zealand Assn. for Advancement of Science; Inst. of Public Administration. Author of papers on research in plant pathology and on aspects of problems in agriculture in scientific journals in Australia, England and America. Address: Department of Agriculture, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

NOBLE, ROBERTO J., Argentine Diplomat; born Sept. 2, 1902, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Pedro Noble and Moria Larrosa; educated at National University of Buenos Aires, degree of Lawyer, 1928. Director of "La Libertad" and of "Concordancia," 1926-29. National Deputy, 1930-31; President of the Chamber of Deputies, 1931-35. Ambassador General of the Argentine Republic to the Warsaw Congress of Political Science, 1935-36. Minister of Government in the Provincial Cabinet of Buenos Aires, 1936-39. Residence: Sarmiento 2627. Office: Suipacha 280, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NOBLE, Rev. WALTER JAMES, British Clergyman; born Feb. 2, 1879, Darlington, England; son of James and Ellen (Browning) Noble; educated at Didsbury College, Manchester, 1898-1900; married Elizabeth Annie Bewick, Sept. 7, 1904; four children. Ordained Methodist Minister, 1900. Missionary in Ceylon, 1900-22; appointed General Secy. for overseas missions with headquarters in London; now Senior General Secy. and Chairman of Officers Meeting. Pres. of Conference of Methodist Church in Great Britain, 1942. Member: Internatl. Missionary Council; British and Foreign Bible Soc. Chairman, Standing Com. of Conference of Missionary Socs. in Great Britain and Ireland, 1937-42. Vice-Pres., Council of Churches. Author: Christ and the Changing World, 1927; World Service, 1929; Ploughing the Rock, 1931; The Black Trek, 1932; Flood Tide in India, 1937; Guidance, 1939; Christian Union in South India, 1938. Address: 25 Marylebone Rd., London, Eng.

NOBS, ERNST, Swiss Federal Counsellor; born July 14, 1886, Seedorf, near Aarberg, Switzerland. Began as primary school teacher; Editor of Socialist newspapers at Lucerne and St. Gall; Principal Editor, Socialist newspaper of Zurich, Volkesrecht, 1915-35; Minister of Public Economy, Canton of Zurich, 1935-42; Lord Mayor of the Town of Zurich, 1942-43; Federal Counsellor and Head of the Dept. of Finance, 1944—. National Counsellor, 1919-43. Address: Bundesgasse 3, Berne, Switzerland.

NOCK, Prof. ARTHUR DARBY, American Religious Historian; born Feb. 21, 1902, Portsmouth, England; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, 1922, B.A., M.A. 1926, Hon. LL.D., Birmingham (England), 1934. Fellow, Clare College, Cambridge, 1923-30; Visiting Lecturer, Harvard, 1929. Frothingham Professor of History of Religion, Harvard University, since 1930. Editor, Harvard Theological Review, since 1933; Senior Fellow, Harvard Society of Fellows, since 1937. Donnellan Lecturer, Trinity College, Dublin, 1931; Lowell Lecturer, 1933; Swander Lecturer at Lancaster, Pa., 1938; Gifford Lecturer at Aberdeen, 1939-40; Haskell Lecturer at Oberlin, 1941-42. Member, American Philosophical Society; Archaeological Institute; Society of Biblical Literature, etc. Corresponding Fellow, British Acad. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Sallustius, 1926; Conversion, 1933; St. Paul, 1938. Address: 573 Widener Library, Cambridge, Mass.

NOCK, Hon. HORACE KEYWORTH, Australian Company Director; born Oct. 26, 1879, Salisbury, S. A., Australia; son of Joseph and Eliza Jane (Keyworth) Nock; educated at Prince Alfred College, Adelaide; married Queenie Clarke, Feb. 19, 1908; three children. Shop hand in father's business in Tarlee, S. A., 1896; purchased business, 1904; sold out, 1914. Bought Nelungaloo Station, N.S.W., 1914; Pres., New South Wales Farmers & Settlers Assn. during 1928-31, and Treas. since 1940. Member, Federal House of Representatives as Country Party Member for Riverina, 1931-40. Minister for External Territories, 1940. Member, Australian Wool Board, since 1939. Governing Director, Nelungaloo Pty., Ltd. Chairman of Directors, Western Newspapers, Ltd.; Director, Land Newspapers of New South Wales, and also of Australian Pastoral Research. Residence: 56 Wentworth Rd., Burwood, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

NOCK, Sir NORMAN LINDFIELD, Australian Merchant; born 1899, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia; son of Thomas and Eliza Jane (Simmonds) Nock; educated at Sydney Church of England Grammar School; married Ethel Bradford, 1927; one child. Began as salesman, 1915; gained retail store experience in England and America after World War I. Managing Dir., Nock & Kirby, Ltd., since 1925; Chmn. of Dirs., Wentworth Hotel, Ltd., since 1932. Chmn. of Directors, Automatic Electric Telephones, Ltd.; David Jones, Ltd.; Australian Guarantee Corp., Ltd.; Transport and General Insurance Co., Ltd. Chairman, Board of Directors, Royal North Shore Hospital, since 1940; President, Retail Traders Association of New South Wales, 1932-33. Lord Mayor of Sydney, 1938-39; Alderman, City of Sydney, 1934-40; Chairman, Australian Comforts Fund, since 1939; Chairman, City of Sydney Boy Scouts Association, 1932-39. Residence: 63 Wentworth Rd., Vaucluse, Sydney. Office: Nock & Kirby, Ltd., 417-21 George St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

NOE, SYDNEY PHILIP, American Numismatist; born Apr. 4, 1885, Woodbridge, N. J.; son of Miles C. and Magdalena Noe; educated at Rutgers Univ., B.Sc. 1910, M.A. 1913; married Laura Elizabeth Wilber, Sept. 11, 1926; three children. Assistant Librarian, New Brunswick Theological Seminary, 1910-15; Librarian, American Numismatic Society, 1915-38; Secretary since 1917; Curator since 1938; Editor, 1922-44; awarded society's Archer M. Huntington Medal, 1938. Author: Coin Hoards (1921); Medallic Work of A. A. Weinman (1921); A Bibliography of Greek Coin Hoards (1925 and 1937); The Mende (Kallandra) Hoard (1926); The Coinage of Metapontum (1927 and 1931); The Thurian Di-Staters (1935); The Castine Deposit—An American Hoard (1942); The New England and Willow Tree Coinages of Massachusetts (1943). Residence: 5 Bishop Pl., New Brunswick, N. J. Office: Broadway at 156th St., New York, N. Y.

NOEL, MARIE (Marie Rouget), French Writer; born Feb. 16, 1883, Auxerre, France; daughter of Prof. Louis and Emélie (Barat) Rouget; educated at Lyceum for Young Girls, Auxerre, 1895-1900 (diplôme de fin d'etudes secondaires, Brevet Supérieure de l'Enseignement primaire). Author: Les Chansons et les Heures; Les Chants de la Merci; Le Rosaire des Joies (poems); Les Contes (prose); St. Joseph cherchant les trois Rois (prose); Le Noël de l'Avent; La Complainte des Trois Poissons; La Berceuse de la Mère-Dieu; Les Chants Sauvages; Cantique de Pâques (poems wtih music); Chants et Psaumes d'Automne; Le Chemin d'Anna Bargeton (in preparation), etc. Member: Société des Gens de Lettres de France; Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters, Dijon; Academy Ronsard. Archon Despérousy Prize (French Acad.), 1923; Hérédia Prize (French Acad.); A. L. Barthou Prize (French Acad.) 1940; Isabelle Mallet Prize; Semaine de Bonté. Address: 27 rue Milliaux, Auxerre, yonne, France.

NOEL-BAKER, Capt. FRANCIS, Member of British Parliament; born Jan. 7, 1920, London, England; son of Philip John and Irene (Noel) Noel-Baker; educated at King's College, Cambridge, 1st class honours in history. Temporary Major, Middle East and Great Britain, 1945. Elected to Parliament, 1945. Member, Labour Party Parliamentary Foreign Affairs Com. Member: Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; United Nations Assn. of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (Executive Com.); Internatl. P.E.N. Club; Soc. of Authors. Author: Greece—The Whole Story, 1946. Residence: 16 South Eaton Pl. Office: House of Commons, London, England.

NOEL-BAKER, Rt. Hon. PHILIP JOHN, P.C., M.P., British Political Leader; born Nov. 1, 1889, London, England; son of Joseph Allen and Elizabeth (Moscrip) Baker; educated at Haverford College, Pa., 1906-07; King's College, Cambridge, 1908-12; University Whewell Scholarship in International Law, 1911; Munich University, 1913; married Irene Noel, June 12, 1915; one child. Principal Assistant to Lord Robert Cecil at Peace Conference in Paris, 1919. Principal Assistant to Sir Eric Drummond, First General Secretary of the League of Nations, until 1922. Private Secretary to British Representative to Council and Assembly of League of Nations, 1922-24; First Cassell Professor of International Relations at London University, 1924-29; Member of Parliament for Coventry, 1929-31. Asst. to Arthur Henderson, President of Disarmament Conference, 1932-33; Member of British Delegation to British Commonwealth Relations Conference, Toronto, 1933. Principal Assistant to Dr. Nansen in his prisoners of war and relief work; British Delegate to League of Nations; Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of War Transport, 1942-45; Minister of State, 1945-46; Minister of State for Air, 1946-47; Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, 1947—. U. K. Rept., Exec. Com., United Nations Preparatory Commn., 1945; Delegate, U. N. General Assembly, 1946; U. K. Rept. on U. N. Security Council and the Economic and Social Council, 1946. Elected Chairman, Labour Party, 1946. Address: 16 South Eaton Place, London, S.W. 1, England.

NOEL-BUXTON, Lord, NOEL EDWARD NOEL-BUXTON, P.C., British Political Leader; born Jan. 9, 1869, London, England; son of Sir Fowell Buxton and Lady Victoria (Noel) Buxton; studied at Harrow and Trinity College, Cambridge M.A. 1893; married Lucy Pelham-Burn, 1914; five children. Began career in business, 1889. Entered Parliament, 1905. Liberal Member of Parliament, 1910-18; Labor Member, 1922-30. Minister of Agriculture, 1924-29. Elevated to the Peerage, 1930. Author: Europe and the Turks, 1907; With the Bulgarian Staff, 1913; Travel and Politics in Armenia, 1914; and Travels and Reflections, 1930. Residence: Upshire Bury Waltham Abbey, Essex. Office: House of Lords, London, England.

NOETZEL, BENJAMIN DANIEL, American Mining Executive; born Feb. 28, 1882, Forestville, Wis.; son of Charles Ludwig and Emma (Witt) Noetzel; attended public schools; married Lila Brown, May 27, 1903. Began career as clerk in the Centennial Copper Co. mine office, 1899; chief clerk, Trimountain Mining Co., 1904; Purchasing Agent, Copper Range Co., 1928. With Isle Royale Copper Co. since 1937, when became Director and Secretary; Treasurer and Managing Director since 1940; Member of Board of Directors. Clerk of the Adams Township, Houghton County, 1905-08; Treasurer, Public Schools of Adams Township, 1913-16. Member: Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Lake Superior Mining Inst.; Upper Peninsula Development Bureau of Michigan; Houghton Assn. of Commerce. Address: Isle Royal Copper Co., Houghton, Michigan.

NOGARA, Baron, (BARTOLOMEO), Vatican Director General of Pontifical Museums and Galleries; born Apr. 28, 1868, Bellano, Lake Como, Italy; son of Giovanni and Giulia (Vitali) Nogara; educated at Royal Acad. of Sciences and Letters, Milan, Litt.D. 1891; Univ. of Genoa, J.D. 1895; married Maria Albani, Aug. 16, 1913; one son. With Vatican Library, 1900; Director of Etruscan Museum, Vatican City, 1900-20; Director General of Pontifical Museums and Galleries since 1920. Participated in International Congresses on Archaeology and History of Art. Collaborator, Corpus Inscriptionum Etruscarum since 1903. Former State Counsellor, Vatican City. Member: General Board of Antiquities and Fine Arts; National Inst. of Archaeology and History of Art; Municipal Com. of History of Art, Rome. Pres., Pontificia Accademia dei Virtuosi al Pantheon; Vice-Pres., Pontifical Roman Acad. of Archaeology. Hon. Director, Civic Museum; Chiusi; International Union, Inst. of Archaeology, History, and History of Art, Rome; International Assn. of Classical Archaeology, Rome. Author: Le Nozze Aldobrandine i paesaggi con scene dell' Odissea e le altre pitture murali antiche dei Palazzi Pontifici, 1906; I Mosaici antichi conservati nei Palazzi del Vaticano e del Laterano, 1910; Bibliothecae Aposolicae Vaticanae Codices Vaticani latini, 1912; Le stanze di Raffaello; stanza della Segnatura, 1921; Scritti inediti e rari di Biondi Flavio, 1927; Gli Etruschi e la Loro civiltà, 1933. Residence: Palazzo Vaticano. Office: Monument i Musei e Gallerie Pontificie, Citta del Vaticano, Italy.

NOGARO, Dr. BERTRAND, French Political Economist; born Apr. 5, 1880, La Chapelle la Reine, France; son of Hippolyte and Léonie (Rodier) Nogaro; educated at Faculty of Letters and Faculty of Law, Paris; Lic.Litt., LL.D. (juridical and economic sciences); married Jeanne Rozé, Oct. 3, 1901; two children. Lectured at Univ. of Paris, Law Faculty, 1906-08; Asst. Prof., Law Faculty, Univ. of Montpellier, 1908-12; Prof., Law Faculty, Univ. of Caen, 1912-21; Lecturer, Political Economy, Univ. of Paris, 1921; later Asst. Prof. and now Prof. of Political Economy. Member, French Chamber of Deputies, 1924-34. Member, French Delegation to League of Nations, 1925; Minister of Public Instruction, 1926. Author: Le rôle de la monnaie dans le commerce international, 1904; L'arbitrage obligatoire dans les conflits collectifs en Australasie, 1906; Les régimes douaniers (with Moye), 1910; L'évolution du commerce, du crédit et des transports depuis 150 ans (with Oualid), 1913; Eléments d'économie politique (2 vols.), 1913-14; Réparations, dettes interalliées et restauration monétaire, 1923; La Monnaie et les phénomènes monétaires contemporains, 1924 (English translation, "Modern Currency Systems", 1927); Les principes fondamentaires du droit monétaire français, 1930; Les prix agricoles mondiaux et la crise, 1936; La crise économique dans le monde et en France, 1936; La méthode de l'économie politique, 1939; Problèmes contemporains de finances publiques, 1940; Principes de théorie économique, 1943; Le développement de la pensée économique, 1944; La monnaie et les systèmes monétaires, 1945; Les grands problèmes de l'économie contemporaine, 1945; Le financement des dépenses publiques et la liquidation des dépenses de guerre, 1945; Cours d'économie politique, 4th ed., 1947; La valeur logique des théories économiques, 1947. Officer, Legion of Honor; awarded Grand Croix du Nicham Alaouite. Address: Faculté de Droit, 12 Place du Panthéon, Paris, France.

NOGUEIRA, Dr. PEDRO, Cuban Public Health Service Officer; born in Havana, Cuba; son of José and Antonia; educated at Univ. of Havana; married Celeste Carnet, May 28, 1936; one son. Interne, Hospital Calixto Garcia, 1934; Hospital for Infectious Diseases, 1935; Director, Malaria Commission of Cuba (cooperative work with Rockefeller Foundation), 1935; Director of Marianao Health Unit since 1937. Director General of Health in Cuba, 1944-47. Director, Extermination Services Corr. in Latin America, 1947. Cuban Delegate to World Health Organization, 1946; Delegate to Council Com. and Executive Com., Pan American Sanitary Bureau, 1947. Pres., Marianao Red Cross. Member: Amer. Public Health Assn.; Amer. Chest Physicians; Amer. Soc. of Tropical Medicine; Amer. Mosquito Control; Cuban Health Soc.; Cuban Pediatric Soc.; Assn. of Laboratory Physicians. Alternate Socy., Pan-American Medical Confederation. Author: Renal Tests in Pediatrics, 1934; Blood Sediment in Infantile Tuberculosis, 1935; Malaria Control in Marianao, 1938; Tuberculin test in the survey of tuberculosis, 1946; Annual Reports of Marianao Health Unit, 1937-47. Address: Marti 219, Quemados, Marianao, Havana, Cuba.

NOGUERA, EDUARDO, Mexican Archaeologist; born Mar. 1896, Mexico City, Mexico; son of Eduardo and Josefa (Auza) Noguera; special student in anthropology, Harvard Univ., 1917-20; Ecole d'Anthropologie, Paris, 1921-23; married Margarita Torres, Feb. 3, 1925; one daughter. Engaged in exploring archaeological sites and research work in various parts of Mexico since 1924. Director, Natl. Museum of Mexico. Member: Sociedad Mexicana de Geografía y Estadística; Mexican Soc. of Anthropology; Anthropological Soc. of Harvard Univ.; Société des Américanistes de Paris. Author of some 100 papers on archaeology and related subjects. Residence: Liverpool 27. Office: Museo Nacional, Moneda 13, Mexico City, Mexico.

NOGUERAS RIVERA, NICOLÁS, Puerto Rican Labor Leader; born Sept. 10, 1902, Cayey, Puerto Rico; son of Higinio Nogueras and Leocadia Rivera de N.; studied in elementary and secondary schools, Cayey; Univ. of Puerto Rico; married Berta Cartagena, 1934; two children. Taught for a number of years in elementary schools in Puerto Rico. In 1932 he was elected to the House of Representatives of Puerto Rico for the Socialist Party, and served until 1936. He was President of the Unión Protectora del Trabajo de Cayey, an affiliate of the Federación Libre de los Trabajadores de Puerto Rico, 1931-36. In 1936 he was appointed General Secretary of the Federación Libre, and sreved until 1939. General Secretary-Treasurer, 1939 —. Founded First Teacherss Union. Initiator, Executive Director and Secretary of the First Statehood Congress of Puerto Rico held in San Juan, P. R., May 2, 1943, with an attendance of 2400 delegates; elected Vice-President at large of the Socialist Party at the Convention held in Arecibo, P. R., Sept. 1943, and appointed Member of the Joint Committee of the Coalition of the Partido Union Republicana y Partido Socialista de Puerto Rico. He was Director of the weekly "Boletin del Trabajo Organizado" and is presently Director of the weekly "La Hora" and President of the Insular Council of Agricultural Unions (1939 —). Residence: Avda. Taft No. 53, Santurce, P. R. Office: Calle Allen No. 7, P. O. Box No. 270, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

NOGUERES, Hon. LOUIS, French Jurist. Served as Presiding Judge at Chautemps Trial, 1947. Member, National Constituent Assembly, Paris, 1946. Member, French Socialist Party. President, High Court of Justice, Paris, France. Address: The Supreme Court of France, Paris, France.

NOKRASHY, Pasha MAHMOUD FAHM, Egyptian Prime Minister; born April 26, 1888, Alexandria, Egypt; son of Aly Nokrashy Effendi and Mme. Hanifa El Safty; received Egyptian Secondary Education Certificate, Part II, 1906; received Teaching Diploma from Nottingham Day Training College, 1909; married Alliya Hanem Zaki, April 19, 1934; one son and one daughter. Teacher, 1909; Headmaster, 1914; Director of Education, 1919. Director, Administrative and Statistical Dept., Ministry of Agriculture, 1923. Inspector, Ministry of Education, 1933; Asst. Secretary-General, 1924. Sub-Governor, Cairo City, 1924. Under-Secretary of State, Ministry of the Interior, 1924. Minister of Communications, 1930; the Interior, 1938; Education, 1939; Finance, 1940; Foreign Affairs, 1944. Prime Minister of Egypt, 1945, and since Dec. 1946. Leader of the Saadist Party. President of the Egyptian Soc. for Blind Welfare. Decorations: Grand Cordon, Crown of Belgium, 1930; Order of the Nile, 1st Class, 1936; Grand Cordon of Merit, Yugoslavia, 1942; Grand Cordon of the Order of Mohamed Aly, 1946. Residence: 9, Ramses St., Heliopolis. Office: Council of Ministry, Lazeghly Square, Cairo, Egypt.

NOLAN, Miss JEAN, Irish Singer; born in Dublin, Eire; daughter of James and Katherine (Kearns) Nolan; educated at Loreto Abbey, Dalkey, County Dublin. Studied singing in London with Francis Korbay; in Paris with Jules Chevalier. Recitals in London and Dublin with Plunket Greene, Cyril Scott, John Coates, London String Quartet, Birmingham String Quartet, Harriet Cohen, etc. Recitals in The Aeolian Hall and Town Hall, New York, also in Boston, 1924-25. Recitals in Dublin, 1943; recital in Paris; became Hon. Secretary, Feis Ceóil, 1939; Registrar since 1940; sang part of Angel in The Dream of Gerontius for Dublin Philharmonic Society, 1936. Address: 44, St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, Ireland.

NOLAN, JOHN H., American Lawyer; born Aug. 26, 1892, Newport, R. I.; son of Frank F. and Mary A. (Carey) Nolan; educated at Brown Univ., A.B. 1915; Harvard Law School, 1915-17; married Natalie D. Sheehan, Aug. 4, 1936. Asst. Attorney General (R. I.), 1923-24; State Senator (R. I.), 1929-30; Asst. Attorney General, 1933-39; Attorney General, since 1941. Member: Newport County and Amer. Bar Assns.; Medical Soc. of Rhode Island (Legal). Address: 250 Thames St., Newport, R. I.

NOLAN, JOHN JAMES, Irish Physicist; born Dec. 28, 1888, Omagh, Co. Tyrone, Ireland; son of Martin and Bridget (Owens) Nolan; educated at St. Macartan's Seminary; Univ. College, B.A. 1909, M.A. 1910, M.Sc. 1912, D.Sc. 1917; married Teresa Hurley, Dec. 28, 1914; four children. Asst., Dept. of Experimental Physics, Univ. College, 1909; Prof. of Experimental Physics, 1920. College Registrar since 1940. Member: Senate of Natl. Univ. of Ireland; Governing Body, Univ. College; Royal Irish Acad. (Council and Secy.); Council of Royal Dublin Soc. Address: University College, Dublin, Ireland.

NOLAN, ROBERT ALLEN, Irish Publisher; born Dec. 6, 1912, Dublin, Eire; son of William R. and Hilda (Johnson) Nolan; educated at Downside School; Trinity College, Dublin and in France. Joint Managing Director, Browne & Nolan Ltd., 1937; Managing Director on death of father, 1938. Chairman, Dublin Master Printers Assn., 1942-44; member of the Joint Industrial Council for Printing Industry. Director, Irish Catholic Church Property Insurance Co. Ltd. Served in Irish Local Defence Force, 1940-44. Member: Royal Dublin Soc.; Royal Zoological Soc. Residence: 25 Upper Pembroke St., Dublin. Office: Richview Press, Clonskeagh, Dublin, Eire.

NOLAN, WILLIAM LEO, American Merchant; born Sept. 4, 1887, New Castle, Pa.; son of Edward T. and Bridget (Curran) Nolan; educated at Catholic schools; married Eleanor Ratterman, June 1916 (deceased); one son. Began career in variety store field, 1905. Associated with McLellan Stores Co., holding successive positions of Store Manager, District Supt., Merchandising Manager, Vice Pres., Pres. and Chairman of Board. Director, McLellan Stores Co. Residence: 20 Fifth Ave. Office: McLellan Stores Co., 55 Fifth Ave., New York 3, N. Y.

NOLAND, STEPHEN CROAN, American Editor; born 1887. Editor of the Indianapolis (Ind.) News. Author: Sam Blick's Diary, 1922. As Secretary of the Indianapolis Literary Club, compiled Summarized Record, 1877-1934 (including an essay on the Club), 1934. Address: The Indianapolis News, Indianapolis, Ind.

NOLBANDOV, SERGEI, Motion Picture Writer, Director and Producer; born 1895, Moscow, Russia; son of Sergei and Maria Nalbandoff; educated at Moscow Univ.; married Grace Hood, 1925. Formerly Assoc. with London Film Productions; Associated Sound Film Industries, Ltd.; British Sound Film Productions, Wembley Park; Gloria Swanson British Productions; Warner, Criterion, British Cine Alliance; Ealing Films. Production Executive, Amateur Gentleman; Co-Author: Fire Over England; Four Just Men; Bullet in the Ballet. Co-Author and Assoc. Producer; There Ain't No Justice; Proud Valley; Convoy. Co-Author and Director: Ships with Wings; Undercover. Executive Producer in charge of film production for Liberated Territories Section, Ministry of Information, London; Producer, This Modern Age, monthly film review of J. Arthur Rank Organisation. Author: Arabesque; Heroes in Plain Wrapper (play); Was the Murderer Guilty (play). Co-Translator: The Fiery Angel (V. Briussov); Soviet River (L. Leonov); Benia Krik (Babel); The Cinematographic Principle and Japanese Culture (S. M. Eisenstein); Film Technique (Pudovkin). Address: 18 Old Burlington St., London, England.

NOLDE, Rev. Dr. O. FREDERICK, American University Dean; born June 30, 1899, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Antone Harry and Ida (Fuchs) Nolde; educated at Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa., A.B. 1920, D.D. 1932, LL.D. 1946; Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, B.D. 1923; Univ. of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. 1928; married Ellen Jarden, June 21, 1927; four children. Instructor in Religious Education, Lutheran Theological Seminary, 1925-28; Asst. Prof., 1928-31; Prof., since 1931. Instr. in Religious Education, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1925-28; Asst. Prof., 1929-35; Lecturer, 1935-43; Dean of Graduate School, Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, since 1943. Assoc. Director, Commn. of the Churches on International Affairs; Assoc. Consultant, U. S. Delegation at United Nations Organization Conf., San Francisco, 1945. Exec. Secy., Joint Com. on Religious Liberty. Member: Commn. on a Just and Durable Peace; Commn. to Study Organization of Peace. Author: Guidebook in Catechetical Instruction, 1932; Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow, 1933; The Church Worker (with Paul J. Hoh), 1934; Truth and Life, 1937; Christian World Action, 1942; Christian Messages to the Peoples of the World, 1943; Power for Peace, 1946; Toward World-Wide Christianity (Editor), 1946. Residence: 7602 East Lane, Philadelphia 18, Pa. Offices: 7301 Germantown Ave., Philadelphia 19, Pa., and 297 Fourth Ave., New York 10, N. Y.

NOLF, Dr. PIERRE ADRIEN, Belgian Physiologist; born July 26, 1873, Ypres, Belgium; son of Emile and Helena (Dujardin) Nolf; educated at Univ. of Liège, M.D. Asst. of Clinical Medicine, Univ. of Liège, 1897-99; Asst. in Physiology, 1899-1901; Prof. of Pediatry, 1901-19; Prof. of Experimental Medicine, 1919-43. Director, Fondation Médicale Reine Elisabeth, Brussels, since 1926. Minister, Sciences and Arts, 1922-25; Pres., Belgian Red Cross, 1925-45. Member: Académie royale de Médecine de Belgique; Académie de Médecine de Paris; Académie Nationale de Médecine de Mexico; Académie de Médecine du Brésil; Associé étranger de la Société de biologie, Paris. Hon. Member, Physiological Soc., London. Awarded Grand Cordon de l'Ordre de Léopold, Belgium; Grand Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, France; Commander, Order of St. Michael and St. George, England. Author: Notions de Physio-pathologie humaine. 5th ed., 1943. Col., Belgian Army Medical Corps, 1917-19. Address: 3 Avenue Jean Crocq, Brussels, Belgium.

NOLL, Most Rev. JOHN F., Catholic Bishop; born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 25, 1875; son of John G. and Anna (Ford) Noll; educated at St. Lawrence College, Mt. Calvary, Wis.; Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati; Notre Dame University, LL.D. Ordained Priest, June 4, 1898. Associated with St. Vincent's Church, Elkhart, Ind., 1898-99; Ligonier and Kendallville, Ind., 1899-1902; Besancon, Ind., 1902-06; Hartford City, Ind., 1906-10; Huntington, Ind., 1910-25. Appointed Bishop of Fort Wayne, May 13, 1925; consecrated, June 30, 1925. Treasurer, American Board of Catholic Missions; Episcopal Chairman, Lay Organizations under the National Catholic Welfare Conference. Author: The Fairest Argument; Catholic Facts; Father Smith Instructs Jackson; The Decline of Nations; Builders of Civilization; Our National Enemy Number One; History of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, etc. Address: 1415 W. Washington Blvd., Fort Wayne, Ind.

NOLLA, Dr. JOSÉ A(NTONIO) B(ERNABÉ), Puerto Rican Agronomist; born May 24, 1902, Gamuy, Puerto Rico; son of José Nolla Colón and Rosa Cabrera; educated at College of Agriculture, B.S.A. 1923; Cornell Univ., Ithaca, N. Y., M.S. 1926, Ph.D. 1932; married Olga Ramírez de Arellano, Aug. 21, 1937; two children. Deputy Inspector of Agriculture, 1923; Asst. Plant Pathologist, Agricultural Experiment Station, 1924-30; Asst. Commissioner of Agriculture, 1933-38; Director, Tobacco Inst. of Puerto Rico, 1935-38; Director, Agricultural Experiment Station of Puerto Rico, 1938-43; Member, Agricultural Mission to Colombia, S. A., summer of 1929; Guggenheim Memorial Fellow, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1932-33. Pres., Sugar Technological Assn. of Puerto Rico, 1938-40; Special Adviser, Ministry of Agriculture, Venezuela, summer of 1936; Vice-Chairman, Section IV, 8th American Scientific Congress, Washington, D. C., 1940; U. S. Consulting Delegate to 2nd Inter-American Conf. on Agriculture, Mexico City, 1942. Director: Central Ingualdad, Inc.; Okeelanta Growers and Processors Cooperative, Miami, Fla. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member, Amer. Phytopathological Soc. of Amer. Author of various papers on plant diseases and plant breeding. Address: 191 Méndez Virgo, Mayagüez, Puerto Rico.

NOLLEN, GERARD SCHOLTE, American Insurance Executive; born August 29, 1880, Pella, Ia.; son of John and Johanna Sara (Scholte) Nollen; educated at Grinnell College (Ph.B. 1902); married Laura Whitman, Oct. 6, 1908 (died Aug. 28, 1912); (2nd) Helen Witmer, Nov. 11, 1914 (died March 6, 1940); two daughters. Began as clerk in an insurance office, 1902. Actuary, Equitable Life Insurance Co. of Iowa, 1908-12. Actuary, Bankers Life Co., 1912; Director and Secretary, 1913; Vice-President, 1919; President, 1926-46; Chairman of Board, 1946—. Ex-Director and Chairman, Inst. of Life Insurance; Director and Ex-President: Life Insurance Assn. of America; American Life Convention. Director and Member of Executive Com. of Des Moines Bureau of Municipal Research; Director and Past President of Greater Des Moines Com. One of Organizers and Past President, Community Chest of Des Moines. Residence: 2900 W. Grand Ave. Office: 711 High St., Des Moines, Iowa.

NOLLER, Dr. CARL ROBERT, American Chemist; born Nov. 10, 1900, St. Louis, Mo.; son of Charles and Mary T. (Laessig) Noller; educated at Washington Univ., B.S. 1922, M.S. 1923; Univ. of Illinois, Ph.D. 1926; married Edna A. Rasmussen, Apr. 16, 1927; three children. Instructor in Chemistry, Univ. of Illinois, 1926; Northwestern Univ., 1926-27; Chemist, Eastman Kodak Co., 1927-29; Asst. Prof., Stanford Univ.; Assoc. Prof.; Prof. of Chemistry, 1929. John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Fellow for Research in Europe, 1933; Visiting Lecturer, Harvard Univ., 1938-39. Official Investigator, Division 9, Natl. Defence Research Com., 1940-45. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Contributor to literature of organic chemistry. Editor, Organic Syntheses, Vol. XV, 1935; Assoc. Editor, Annual Reviews of Biochemistry, Vol. VII, 1938. Address: Stanford University, Calif.

NOLTING, ERNEST FORD, American Banker; born Nov. 27, 1890, San Jose, Calif.; educated at Santa Clara College; Univ. of Calif. (1910-14); married and has two children. Cashier, Brazil Railway Co. and subsidiaries, Rio de Janeiro, 1915; later Treasurer, and then Treasurer and Asst. Accountant General until 1919. Chief Accountant, and later Asst. Auditor, Sinclair Refining Co., Chicago, 1920-24; Asst. Comptroller of the Chicago Motor Coach Co., 1925-26; Treasurer, Comptroller and Director of the Electric Public Service Co. and Subsidiaries, 1926-30. Cashier, Bank of Beaumont, 1930; Pres. and Director, 1933. Pres. and Director of the Pasadena-First National Bank since 1945. President, Pasadena Clearing House Assn., 1941. Address: 132 E. Colorado St., Pasadena, California.

NOMBLOT-BRUNEAU, Prof. ALFRED MAISON, French Horticulturist; born Jan. 25, 1868, Le Creusot, France; son of Antoine and Anne (Duverne) Nomblot; educated at Ecole nationale d'horticulture, Versailles (diploma); married Henriette Bruneau, June 12, 1894. Horticulturist since 1894; has grown numerous new varieties of fruits; participated in all international expositions; Member or Chairman of Com. of Awards; also Member of Jury at Expositions at St. Petersburg, 1894, 1899; St. Louis, 1904; Liège, 1905, 1930; Milan, 1906; Saragossa, 1908; London, 1908; Brussels, 1910, 1935; Turin, 1910; Ghent, 1913; Barcelona, 1929. Prof. of Arboriculture: Paris, 1896-1900; Ecole Nationale d'Horticulture, Versailles, 1910-28. Member, Superior Council of Agriculture, 1922-40; Pres., Dept. of Agriculture and Chamber of Agriculture, since 1921. Member: Acad. of Agriculture (Ex-Pres.); French Natl. Soc. of Horticulture (Secy. General and Pres.); Natl. Federation of Horticultural Socs. of France (Pres.); Com. of Agriculture and Horticulture, Internatl. Expositions (Pres.). Pres. of Congress, Société Pomologique de France. Created Commander, French Legion of Honor, 1926. Awards: Order of Leopold, Belgium; Orange-Nassau Order, The Netherlands; Officer, Polonia Restituta, Poland; Croix de Guerre, 1915; Grand Cross with Star. Received numerous prizes at various international expositions. Author: Les meilleurs fruits au début du 20e siècle; various papers on arboriculture and pomology. Address: 146 Grande Rue, Bourg-la-Reine, France.

NOME, Dr. JOHN, Norwegian Editor; born Oct. 2, 1904, Oyslebo, Norway; son of O. J. and Veline (Oudal) Nome; educated at Univ. of Oslo, B.A. 1926; Congregational Faculty of Divinity, cand. theol. 1932; Universities of Heidelberg, Tübingen and Berlin, 1935-36, 1938; Univ. of Oslo, Ph.D. 1938; married Hallidis Lunde, June 30, 1934; two children. Lecturer, Univ. of Oslo, 1934-39; writer of philosophy and history since 1939; Docent, Norwegian Missionary College, 1941-45; Editor, History of Norwegian Missionary Soc., 1942-43; Editor, daily paper Vårt Land, Oslo, since 1945. Awarded H. M. King Haakon's Gold Medal, 1930; Univ. of Oslo Gold Medal in Literature, 1933. Author: Bjornsons Dikterproblem, 1934; Filosofisk Kultur, 1937; Mennesket og Kulturen, 1938; Demringstid i Norge, 1942; Det Norske Misjonsselskaps Historie i norsk kirkeliv, 1943. Residence:

Blommenholm. Office: Vårt Land, Nytorget 2 B, Oslo, Norway.

NOOE, Rev. Dr. ROGER T., American Clergyman; born Sept. 25, 1881, Wilmore, Ky.; son of Theophilus and Jemima (Holladay) Nooe; educated at Asbury College, A.B.; Transylvania College, 1901, D.D. 1932; College of the Bible, 1903; Univ. of Chicago; married Nancy Mitchell, Dec. 10, 1903; three children. Pastor: Crestwood, Ky., 1903-07; Crescent Hill Church, Louisville, 1907-11; Frankfort, Ky., 1911-25; Minister, Vine St. Christian Church, since 1925. Prof. of Pastoral Theology, and Lecturer, Vanderbilt School of Religion, 1925-33; Lectured and preached in Europe, 1918. Trustee: Colegio Ward, Buenos Aires; Church Peace Union; Assn. for Promotion of Christian Unity; Disciples of Christ Board of Education; Chairman, Commn. on World Order of Disciples of Christ; Member, Amer. Section of World Council of Churches. Pres., Internatl. Convention of Disciples of Christ, 1939; Delegate: Stockholm Conference, 1925; Lausanne Conference, 1927; World Sunday School Assn., 1932; Oxford Conference, 1937; World Convention of Disciples of Christ, England, 1935. Address: 140 7th Ave., N., Nashville, Tenn.

NOON, Malik Sir FIROZ Khan, K.C.S.I., K.C.I.E., Indian Political Leader; born in Hamoka, May 7, 1893; son of Nawab Sir Mohammad Hayat Khan Noon, C.S.I. and Malikani Bhagbhari; educated at Chief's College, Lahore; Wadham College, Oxford, B.A. 1916, M.A. 1920. Hon. Fellow, 1939; University of Toronto, LL.D. 1938; Barrister-at-Law, Inner Temple; married Alam Khatoon, 1912; three sons. Practiced as advocate, 1918-26. Elected a member of Punjab Legislature, 1921; Minister of Education, Medicine and Public Health, 1927-36. High Commissioner for India in London, 1936-41; Member of the Viceroy's Executive Council, in charge of Labor Department, 1936-41; in charge of Defence Department, 1941-45. Member, Indian Delegation to the United Nations Conference, San Francisco, Apr.-June, 1945. Author: Canada and India, 1939; Wisdom from Fools; India Illustrated; Scented Dust. Residence: 20 Akbar Rd. Office: Government Secretariat, New Delhi, India.

NOON, PAUL A. T., American Librarian; born 1905. Librarian, Lansing (Mich.) Public Library. Author: Report of a Survey of the Michigan State Library for the Michigan State Board for Libraries (for American Library Assn.; with Leon Carnovsky and Stewart W. Smith), 1938; Report of a Survey of the Texas State Library for the Texas Library and Historical Commission, July 1940 (for American Library Assn.), 1940. Address: Public Library, Lansing, Mich.

NOONAN, HERBERT C., S.J., Theologian and Educator; born Sept. 7, 1875, Oconto, Wis.; son of John and Mary (Moroney) Noonan; educated at Marquette Univ., A.B. 1896; St. Louis Univ., A.M. 1900, Ph.D. 1902; Innsbruck Univ., Austria, D.D. 1910; Gregorian Univ., Rome, Ph.D. 1931. Prof. of Ancient Classics and Athletic Director, Creighton Univ., 1902-03; Prof. of Philosophy, St. Mary's College, 1903-06; Ordained Priest, Roman Catholic Church, 1909; Prof. of Philosophy and Religion; College of Arts, St. Louis Univ., 1911-12; Prof. of Ethics, Graduate School, 1912-15. Pres. and Lecturer of Ethics, Professional schools, Marquette Univ., 1915-22; Rector of St. Ignatius High School, Chicago, 1923-30; Prof. of Philosophy, Creighton Univ. since 1931; Head of Dept, since 1936. Delegate, 27th and 28th General Congregations of Jesuit Order, Rome, 1923, 1938; Organizer (with Dr. Melvin Brannon, Pres. of Beloit College) of Wisconsin Colleges, Associated, 1919. Pres., Miss. Valley Jesuit Philosophical Assn., 1937-40. Member, Assn. of Pres. and Deans of Wisconsin Colleges. Contributor to literature on sociological subjects. Address: Creighton University, Omaha 2, Nebr.

NOONAN, Dr. JOSEPH F., American College President; born June 28, 1891, Zerbe, Pa.; son of Joseph C. and Ellen (Hepler) Noonan; educated at Millersville State Normal School, Pd.B. 1912, Pd.M. 1913; Muhlenberg College, Ph.B. 1923; New York Univ., M.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1926; married Helene Schmidt, Aug. 18, 1920. Supervising Principal, Duncannon, Pa., 1910-11. Instr. in high school, Rahway, N. J., 1911-14. Supt. of Schools, Mahonoy Township, Pa., 1914-37. Supt. of Schools, Mahonoy City, Pa., 1935-37. Pres.: State Teachers College, Mansfield, Pa., 1937-39; State Teachers College, East Stroudsburg, Pa., 1939—. Life Member: Natl. Education Assn.; Pennsylvania State Education Assn. (Pres., 1928-29); Pennsylvania Soc. Author of numerous articles in various magazines. Address: State Teachers College, East Stroudsburg, Pa.

NOONAN, Hon. THOMAS HAZARD, American Jurist; born Dec. 17, 1865, Ferrisburgh, Vermont; son of Thomas Robert and Mary Esther (Anthony) Noonan; educated at Middlebury College, B.A. 1891, LL.D. 1941; married Eleanor L'Hommedieu, July 2, 1909; two children. Attorney in Buffalo, N. Y., 1894; Assoc. Judge, City Court of Buffalo, 1912-19; Judge, Erie County, 1920-25; Justice, Supreme Court, 1926-35; served as Official Referee, Supreme Court, since 1935. Address: Erie County Hall, Buffalo, N. Y.

NOOTHOVEN VAN GOOR, ISAAC, Netherlands Publisher; born Feb. 22, 1879, Gouda, Netherlands; son of J. M. van Goor and Roest (van Limburg) Noothoven; educated at Rijks Hoogre Burger School; married Ch. P. A. Wunder, Aug. 28, 1903; one daughter. Began career as publisher in 1897; Managing Director, G. B. van Goor Zonen's Uitgeversmaatschapappij N.V. President, "Nederlandsche Uitgeversbond"; Chairman, "Vereeniging ter Bevordering van de Belangen des Boekhandels," 1939-46. Residence: Stadhouderslaan 47. Office: Frankenslag 173, The Hague, Netherlands.

NOPSANEN, AULIS, Finnish Author; born June 2, 1915, Pori, Suomi, Finland; son of Kaarlo Hjalmar and Ida Maria (Makkonen) Nopsanen; passed entrance examination for Helsinki Univ., 1934; married Phyllis Winifred Clauss, Oct. 2, 1945. Sub-Editor, "Helsingin Sanomat," 1937-40. Finnish Correspondent: "The Scandinavian Review," London; "The Baltic Times," Tallinn, 1937-39; Editorial Secy., "Länsi-Uusimaa," 1941. Served on front as Lieut. of Artillery, 1941-44; freelance journalist and writer, since 1945. Silver Member, "Nuoren Voiman Liitto," Literary Assn. of Finland; Member: "Nuorten Kiria" Literary Assn.; Finnish-British Soc.; Finnish-Amer. Soc.; Assn. of Reserve Officers of Finland. Awards: Memorial Badges of the Wars, 1939-40 and 1941-44; two Crosses of Liberty, Fourth Class, 1941 and 1942; Cross of Liberty, Third Class, 1944. Author: The Tale of an Old Pine, 1946; A Concise Collection of English Phrases, 1946, etc. Wrote Finnish translations of R. L. Stevenson's Treasure Island, 1945; J. B. Priestley's Let the People Sing, 1946; Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray, 1946; English translations of Larin-Kyösti's, Heikki Asunta's works, etc. Represented in Hungarian anthology of Finnish poetry (Északi Fény), Budapest, 1938. Address: Linnankatu 5.A.5, Helsinki, Suomi, Finland.

NORBERG, Dr. BO MAGNUS FREDRIK, Swedish Chemist; born Oct. 9, 1911, Strängnäs, Sweden; son of Dr. Otto and Gunhild (Rappe) Norberg; educated at Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, M.B. 1933, M.D. 1942; married Marianne von Otter, Jan. 7, 1939; two daughters. Taught Physical Chemistry, Karolinska Institutet, 1937-43; Lecturer in Medical Chemistry, 1943; Chief of Medical Division, Research Inst. of Natl. Defense, 1941-45; Chief, Clinical Laboratory, Sabbatsberg Hospital, Stockholm, 1943; studies at Dept. of Physical Chemistry, Carlsberg Laboratory, 1936 and at Harvard Medical School, Boston, Mass., 1946-47. Member: Societas Medicorum Suecanae; Amer. Chemical Soc. Author: On the histo- and cytochemical determination of phosphorus (Acta Physiolog. Scand. 1942); articles on analytical chemistry and physiology, in professional journals. Address: Chemical Dept., Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORBERG-HAGBERG, EVA ELISABET, Swedish Poet; born Dec. 24, 1915, Stockholm, Sweden; daughter of Hjalmar and Elsa (Lindqvist) Norberg; educated at High School, Sigtuna, 1934-35; married Rev. Karl Erik Hagberg, Sept. 3, 1944; two sons. Asst. in a book store until 1944. Author (poetry): Evig låga, 1941; Tidig vår, 1943; Kvast, 1945. Address: Valhallagatan 8, Flen, Sweden.

NORBLAD, (OLOF) LENNART (GEIJER), Swedish Bookdealer; born Mar. 18, 1874, Västerås, Sweden; son of Anders and Alice (Geijer) Norblad; educated at Högre Allmänna Läroverk in Kristinehamn and Karlstad, 1883-90; married Valborg Geijer, Apr. 23, 1908; four children. Founded L. Norblads Bokhandel, Uppsala, 1903 (changed to Aktiebolaget L. Norblads Bokhandel, 1914), Managing Director since 1914. Pres.: Svenska Bokhandlareföreningen, 1920-43; Uppsala Handelförening (ten years); Handelundervisningonämden of Uppsala Stads Handelsskola and Lärlings Skola for Handel, since 1917. Member of Board and Vice-Pres., Uppsala Enskilda Läroverk since 1924. Member, Borgarskapets Älste; Member, Board of Uppsala Sparbank, 1920-29; Member, Uppsala Stads Fattigvårdsstyrelsen, 1913-40 (Vice-Pres., 1931-40); Member, Uppsala Stads Barnav, Nämnd, 1924-40; Member and Vice-Pres., 3rd Pensions District, since 1917; Secy., Sällskapet Pauvres Honteux; Vice-Pres., Stiftelsen Gillbergska Barnhemmet. Member: Svenska Bokhandlareföreningen; Sveriges Köpmannaförbund; Uppsala Handelsförening; Carl-Johansförbundet; Svenska Frimurareorden; Svenska Turistföreningen. Decorated Officer, French Legion of Honour, 1923; Royal Vasa Order, 1924; Gold Medal, Patr. Sälls. Stora, 1943; Silver Medal, Sv. Turistföreningen, 1923. Residence: Drottningatan 7. Office: Asgränd 4 B, Uppsala, Sweden.

NORBLAD, Hon. WALTER, United States Congressman; born Sept. 12, 1908, Escanaba, Mich.; son of Albin W. and Edna (Cates) Norblad; educated at Univ. of Oregon, B.S. 1930, J.D. 1932; Harvard Law School, grad. work, 1932-33; married Elizabeth Bendstrup, Nov. 14, 1936; one son. Elected State Representative (Oregon), 1934; re-elected and served until 1939. Elected Delegate, GOP Natl. Convention, 1940 (Secy. of Rules Com.). Entered military service, 1942; discharged in 1945; served in ETO; awarded air medal for combat flights. Elected Representative, U. S. Congress from 1st District of Oregon, in a special election, Jan. 1946; re-elected to 80th U. S. Congress, Nov. 1946—. Trustee, Linfield College (Oregon). Residence: 715 Grand Ave., Astoria, Ore. Office: 1518 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

NORBY, EINAR, Danish Opera Singer; born May 8, 1896, Thisted, Denmark; son of Niels and Kirstine (Maltesen) Norby; studied voice with Vald. Lincke, Copenhagen; M. Huberty, Paris; married Guldborg Laursen, Feb. 7, 1931; two children. Debut at Royal Theatre, Copenhagen, May 13, 1928; apepared as Ramfis in Aida; Leporello in Don Giovanni; Gremin in Onegin; Mefisto in Faust; Figaro in Figaro's Marriage; Johnny in Johnny spielt auf; Henrik in Maskarade; Pogner in Meistersinger; Landgraf in Tannhäuser; Sparafucile in Rigoletto; König Heinrich in Lohengrin; Sarastro in Magic Flute; Osmin in Abduction from the Seraglio; Plunnkett in Martha; Daland in Flying Dutchman; Porgy in Porgy and Bess, etc. Sang in Stockholm, Oslo, Helsingfors, Riga, Berlin, Reykjavik, Budapest, Vienna. Under contract to Royal Opera, Copenhagen, since 1928. Decorated Knight, Danish Dannebrog Order; received title of Kammersänger. Residence: Nyhavn 10. Studio: Royal Theatre, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NORCROSS, Hon. FRANK HERBERT, American Jurist; born May 11, 1869, Truckie Meadows, near Reno, Nevada; son of Thomas Whitney and Caroline B. (Sherman) Norcross; educated at University of Nevada; A.B. 1891, LL.D. 1911; Georgetown University (Washington, D.C). LL.B. 1894; married Adeline Louise Morton, 1895; one daughter. Elected District Attorney and Ex-Officio Superintendent of Public Schools (Washoe County, Nev.), 1895-96. Member: (Chairman, Committees, Judiciary and Education) of Assembly of Nevada Legislature, 1897-98. Elected Justice, Supreme Court of Nevada, 1905-16; Chief Justice, 1909-10, 1915-16. U. S. District Judge, District of Nevada, 1928-46. Chmn., Bd. of Trustees, Reno Free Public Library, 1899-1908. Member: Amer., Nevada (Pres., 1918), and California Bar Assns.; American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, etc. Elector, New York University Hall of Fame, since 1909. Author: Christianity and Divorce; Introduction to American Edition of "Criminality and Economic Conditions" by Dr. Bonger, University of Amsterdam), 1916. Residence: 462 Court St., Reno, Nev.

NORDAHL, KONRAD, Norwegian Labor Leader; born Sept. 25, 1897, Lakoevarg, Norway; son of Mons and Johanna (Ravenöe) Nordahl; educated in public schools and colleges; married Constance Hole, May 13, 1923; two children. Pres.: Norwegian Fed. of Labor, since 1939; Norwegian Metal Workers' Union, 1931-34. Vice-Pres., Norwegian Fed. of Labor, 1935-39. Member of Governing Body, International Labor Office; Chairman of Board, Norwegian Bank of Industry; Member of Norwegian Delegation to United Nations General Assembly, 1946, 1947. Residence: Fagerheimsgatan 9. Office: Folket Hus, Oslo, Norway.

NORDAL, Dr. SIGURDUR, Icelandic Professor of Literature; born Sept. 14, 1886, Eyjolfsstadir, Iceland; son of Johannes Nordal and Bjorg Sigurdardottir; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, 1906-14, M.A. 1912, Ph.D. 1914; Univ. of Berlin, 1916; Univ. of Oxford, 1917-18; Hon. Ph.D., Oslo, 1937, Gothenburg, 1941; Litt.D., Leeds, 1947; LL.D. Aberdeen, 1947; married Aloef Jonsdottir, May 20, 1922; two sons. Prof. of Icelandic Literature at Reykjavik, 1918; Charles Eliot Norton Prof. of Poetry, Harvard Univ., 1931-32; Editor-in-Chief, Islenzk Fornrit, since 1933; Studia Islandica, since 1937; Editor of numerous sagas and works of Icelandic poets. Decorated Commander, Icelandic Falcon Order; Swedish Vasa Order; Danish Dannebrog Order. Author: Om Olaf ben helliges saga, 1914; Snorr; Sturluson, 1920; Voluspa, 1923; Islenzk menning I, 1942; Afangar I-II, 1943-44; Fornar astir (stories) 1919; Uppstigning (play) 1946. Residence: Baldursgata 33. Office: University of Iceland, Reykjavik, Iceland.

NORDBERG, TORD (KARL GUSTAF OLSSON), Swedish Museum Curator; born Jan. 18, 1898, Stockholm, Sweden; son of K. L. and Ida Nordberg; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1928; married Rigmor Wickman, 1938; two children. Asst. Curator, State Antiquarian Dept., 1925-31; Asst. Com. for Preservation of Monuments, Stockholm, 1925-31; Curator, Stockholm City Museum, 1931-37; Chief Curator since 1937. Manager of Excavations, Blackfriars Monastery; Mediaeval Ship in Riddarholmskanalen; Royal Castle, all in Stockholm. Secy., Assn. of Swedish Museums, 1932-40 (Treasurer, 1940-45). Author: De gamla byggnaderna i kvarteret Björnen, 1931; Söderport och Slussen, 1935; Stockholms slotts historia under 1600-talet, 1940; Katarina kyrkas byggnadshistoria, 1944; Karlsbergs slott, 1945; Stockholm i tolv vandringar, 1946. Editor, Svenska Museer, 1933-42. Residence: Södermalmstorg 6. Office: Götgatan I, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENDAHL, EINAR HENRIK, Swedish Civil Engineer; born Sept. 6, 1879, Boraas, Sweden; son of Carl and Charlotte (Hellgren) Nordendahl; educated at Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, C.E. Asst. Engineer, Subway Construction, water works, water power plants, in the U. S., 1902-05; in Sweden since 1906; Asst. Engineer, Water Power Plants, 1906-08; Municipal Engineer, 1909-17; Chief Engineer, 2,700 foot Lidingoe Bridge, Stockholm, 1918-25; Consulting Engineer for Road Construction Research, Regional and City Planning, Stockholm, since 1926. Planned surroundings in Stockholm in association with city authorities. Lecturer, Industrial Organization, Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1919-31. Member: Swedish Govt. Traffic Board, 1942-43; Street (Public Work) Board, Stockholm, 1943-46. Member: Svenska Teknologföreningen, American Soc. of Swedish Engineers, Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences. Created Knight, Swedish Vasa and North Star Orders. Author of numerous papers on traffic and Regional and City Planning. Residence: Bredbol, Oesmo. Office: Sveavägen 33, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENFALK, Dr. CARL, Swedish Museum Keeper; born Dec. 13, 1907, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Baron J. and H. (Reuterskiöld) Nordenfalk; educated at Univ. of Upsala, fil. kand. 1928; fil. lic., Univ. of Stockholm, 1932; Gothenburg Univ., Ph.D. 1938; married Cecilia Leijonhufvud, 1935; three children. Asst. Keeper, Art Museum, Gothenburg, 1935-44; Docent, Univ. of Gothenburg, 1939-44; First Keeper, Natl. Museum, Stockholm, since 1944; Docent, Univ. of Stockholm since 1945. Decorated Officer, Orange-Nassau Order, The Netherlands. Author: Die spätantiken Kanontafeln (2 vols.), 1938; Katalog över Conrad M. Pineus konstsamling, 1940; Vincent van Gogh, 1943 (new editions 1946, 1947; Dutch edition, 1947); Konstnärer i Kungälv, 1947. Sub-Lieut., Swedish Army, World War II. Residence: Karlavägen 1. Office: Nationalmuseum, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENMARK, Prof. NILS VIKTOR EMANUEL, Swedish Astronomer; born Apr. 15, 1867, Hammerdal, Sweden; son of Sven and Anna (Nilsson) Nordenmark; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, Ph.D. 1895 (Dr. Jubile, 1945); married Sigrid Nordström, July 13, 1922; one son. Asst. Astronomer, Uppsala, 1890; Actuary of Insurance, State Dept., 1902; Director General, Bore Insurance Co., 1918-30; Editor, Popular Astronomisk Tidskrift, since 1919. Member: Svenska Astronomiska Sällskapet; Internatl. Astronomical Union (5th Commn.). Created Knight, North Star Order. Author: Popular Astronomy (3rd ed.), 1927; also biographies of the astronomers Spole, Anders Celsius, P. W. Warzentin, Hiorter, Sturner, Mallet, Melandertjelm, 1931-46. Address: Birger Jarlsgatan 62, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSKIOLD, Lieutenant General BENGT G., Commander-in-Chief, Swedish Air Force; born Sept. 6, 1891, Sundsvall, Sweden; son of Baron G. H. and Ester (Andersson) Nordenskiold; Naval Cadet, 1906-08; student examinations at Lund, 1910; Army Cadet, 1910-12; Staff College (Krigshögskolan), 1922-24; married (1st) Dagmar Werner, Oct. 1916; (2nd) Marie Louise Lambert-Mueller, 1934; one son and a daughter. Lieut. (First Infantry Guard), 1912; Capt., General Staff, 1928; Air Observer, 1931; Instructor, Army Staff College, 1933; Major in General Staff, 1934; pilot (Flying School), 1934-36; Chief, Air Staff (Swedish Air Force), 1936; promoted Col., 1937; commanded First Wing, 1939; advanced to Major-General, 1941; Lieut. General and Commander-in-Chief, Swedish Air Force, since 1942. Awarded numerous decorations. Residence: Strandvägen 39. Office: Flygvapnet, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSKJÖLD, Baron (CARL JOHAN KNUT) HENRIC, Swedish Jurist; born Apr. 18, 1876, Sjötorp, Sweden; son of Carl Casper Reinhold and Maria (Hagelin) Nordenskjöld; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, LL.B. 1900; married Margareta Svahn, Sept. 17, 1919; two children. Clerk, District Court, 1900; Reporting Clerk, Court of Appeal of Svea, Stockholm, 1910; Councillor, 1913; Pres. of a Division, 1933; Pres. of Military and Naval Court of Appeal, 1937; Temporary Pres., Court of Exchequer, Stockholm, 1943-46. Pres. of an Arbitration Court (between employers and workers) since 1929; Member, Commn. for Supervision of Aliens, since 1938. Pres. of a Com. in charge of elaborating a new law concerning Low-Church and Dissenters, since 1943; Parochial Councillor and Church Warden, French Church in Stockholm, since 1926; Pres., Alliance Française of Stockholm, since 1945; Member of Board, House of Nobility, 1938-44. Judge, Mixed Courts of Egypt (Pres. of Court of Mansouhra during two years), 1917-25; Pres., Turkish-Roumanian Court of Arbitration and Turkish-Greek Court of Arbitration, 1925-28. Decorated Knight Commander, North Star, Vasa Order, Legion of Honor, Greek Order of Phoenix, Roumanian Order of the Crown, and Knight Companion, Egyptian Order of Nile. Residence: Karlavägen 30, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSON, Dr. HARALD, Swedish Parliament Member; Chemical Engineer; born Aug. 10, 1886, Göttingen, Germany; son of Erik Vilhelm and Bertha Harriet (Kleman) Nordenson; educated at Upsala, Ph.D. 1914; married Clare Lagercrantz, June 3, 1914; four children. Lecturer of Phys. Chem., Univ. of Upsala, 1914-19; Chief Technical Administrator, Liljeholmens Stearinfabriks AB, Ltd., 1917-29; Managing Director, Liljeholmens Stearinfabriks AB, Ltd., since 1929. Pres. of Board: Stockholms Superforfat Fabriks A/B Ltd.; Nitroglycerin A/B, Ltd.; A/B Kema, Ltd.; Svenska Dagbladet, Ltd. Member: The Thule Life Insurance Co., Ltd.; A/B Svenska Handelsbanken, Ltd. Member, 1st Chamber of Swedish Parliament since 1938. Pres., Royal Dramatic Theatre, 1933-38; Chamber of Commerce of Stockholm, since 1939. Member: Royal Acad. of Engineering Sciences, since 1931; Royal Acad. of Sciences of Upsala. Address: Danviksgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSON, Dr. JOHAN WILHELM, Swedish Ophthalmologist; born 1883, Paris, France; son of Erik and Bertha (Kleman) Nordenson; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, M.D. 1913, D.Sc. 1918; Caroline Inst., Stockholm; married 1924. Lecturer on Ophthalmology, Uppsala Univ., 1915; Prof., 1922-31. Prof. of Ophthalmology, Stockholm Univ., since 1931. Pres. of Board, Royal Central Gymnastical Inst., Stockholm, 1933-36. Member: Royal Swedish Acad. of Science; Hon. Member, Ophthalmological Soc. of United Kingdom; Société Française d'Ophthalmologie; Ophthalmological Soc. of Mexico; Ophthalmological Soc. of Egypt; Finnish Medical Soc.; Hungarian Soc. of Medicine; German Acad. of Science. Pres., Internatl. Council of Ophthalmology, since 1933. Author: Ophthalmometrie (in Graefe und Saemisch Handbuch der Augenheilkunde); Augenhintergrundphotographie (in Abderhalden: Handbuch der biologischen Arbeitsmethoden). Residence: Grefgatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSON, Dr. NILS GÖRAN, Swedish Physician; born Jan. 6, 1906, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Dr. Göran and Märta (Bagge) Nordenson; educated at Karolinska Institutet, M.D. 1933, Sc.D. 1935; married Ingrid Lindvall, 1936; four children. Asst., 4th Medical Dept., St. Eriks Hospital, 1933-37; First Asst. Physician, 1st Medical Dept., 1937-39; First Asst. at Medical Clinic, Karolinska sjukhuset, 1939-41; Lecturer on Haematology, 1939; on Medicine, 1941. First Asst. Physician, Medical Dept., Maria Hospital, 1941-43; at Second Medical Clinic, Södersjukhuset, 1943-46; Chief Physician, Medical Polyclinic, Södersjukhuset, since 1946. Medical Expert, Inst. of Radiophysics, Karolinska sjukhuset, since 1943; Physician, National Insurance Board, since 1943. Author: Textbook on Haematology, 1944. Address: Södersjukhuset, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDENSWAN, GUSTAF MAGNUS, Finnish Electrical Engineer; born Nov. 27, 1886, Kuopio, Finland; son of Karl Magnus and Matilda (Aberg) Nordenswan; educated at Kuopio High School, grad. 1904; Mittweida College of Technology, Germany, degree in Electrical Engineering, 1907; married Elvi Schmidt, June 18, 1910; three children. Draftsman, Nordberg Mfg. Co., Milwaukee, Wis., 1908, later designer; with Allis Chalmers Co., until 1910; with Stone and Webster Engineering Corp., Reno, Nevada, and Keokuk, Iowa, 1910-13. Associated with Municipal Electric Works of Helsinki, 1913, first as transmission engineer and later as Asst. Manager. Manager, Sykfinska Kraft A/B (South Finland Power Co.), 1917-37. General Manager, Nokia Aktiebolag, ince 1929. Pres., Vastra Finlands Kraft A/B (West Finland Power Co.) and the Kolsi O/Y since 1934 and of Hava O/Y since 1946. Director: Tammerfors Linen and Iron Mfg. Co.; Kolsinki O/Y. Formerly a member, Board of Directors of O/Y Abborfors A/B, O/Y Rouhiala A/B and O/Y Mankala A/B. Chairman, Soc. of Electrical Engineers of Finland since 1926 and of Finland Water Power Assn. since 1942. Member: Board of Directors, Finnish Electric Plant Assn.; Electrical Inspectorate of Finland; Finnish Paper Mills' Assn., Section II; Finnish Wood Pulp Union. Address: Nokia, Finland.

NORDGREN, (ERIK) OLOF, Swedish Insurance Director; born Sept. 15, 1882, Jareda, Sweden; son of C. J. Carlsson and Ida (Ljungberg) Nordgren; educated at Commercial High School; married Greta Zettersten, Sept. 20, 1910; two children. Clerk, 1902; later Managing Clerk; Partner, firm of Alrik Sunden-Cullberg, 1910. General Manager, Stella Insurance Co., and of Hansa Insurance Co., 1936. Chairman: Marine Insurance Union; Machinery Insurance Union; Accident Insurance Pool. Vice-Pres., Swedish Tariff Union. Member of Board, Northern Pool for Aviation Insurance and Swedish Insurance Companies Union. Awarded Nordstjarne Order and Vasa Order. Residence: 11 Karlapan. Office: Arsenalsgatan 8, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDGREN, Dr. GUNNAR OLOF, Swedish Physician; born 1911, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Olof N. and Greta Nordgren; educated at Caroline Medical Inst., M.D. 1939; married Ingegerd Arvén, 1934; two children. Laboratory Asst., Caroline Medical Inst., 1935; Asst. Prof., 1941; Asst. Prof., State Inst. for Health, 1942; Head, Dept. of Common Health, 1942. Head, Dept. of Common Health, Swedish Army, Navy and Air Force, as Lt. Col., 1944; in private practice of medicine since 1946. Member: Swedish Medical Assn.; Stockholm Physicians Assn. Author of over 30 scientific works; also 50 works on cultural, political and artistic questions. Address: Valhallavägen 132, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDHAGEN, Dr. ROLF, Norwegian Botanist; born Oct. 21, 1894, Oslo, Norway; son of Johan and Christine Magdalene (Johansen) Nordhagen; educated at Univ. of Oslo, Ph.D. 1922; studied in Uppsala, Sweden, 1919-20; Munich and Zurich, 1921-23; married Elisabeth Marie Myhre, 1925; two sons. Asst. Botanical Garden, Oslo, 1915; Fellow, Univ. of Oslo, 1920-25; Prof. of Botany (taxonomy and plant geography), Bergens Museum, 1925-45; Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Oslo, since 1946. Director of Botanical Garden and Botanical Museum. Author: Kalktuff-studier i Gudbransdalen, 1921; The Flora and Vegetation of the Sylene-district, 1928; Arneria humifusa Wo, 1935; Studies in the monotypic genus Calluna, 1937; Norsk Flora, 1940; Sikilsdalen and the Alpine pastures of Norway, 1943; books on the flora of Norway during last ice-age and on post-glacial climatic changes in Europe. Address: Botanical Garden, Oslo, Norway.

NORDHEIM, Dr. LOTHAR WOLFGANG, Physicist; born Nov. 7, 1899, Munich, Germany; son of Moritz and Anna (Tandler) Nordheim; educated at Univ. of Hamburg; Munich; Göttingen, Ph.D. 1923; married Gertrud Pösohl, Jan. 12, 1935; one son. Asst., Inst. of Mathematics, Univ. of Göttingen, 1923-27; Rockefeller Research Fellow, Cambridge, England; Copenhagen, Denmark, 1927-28; Lecturer, Univ. of Göttingen, 1928-33; Visiting Prof., Ohio State Univ., 1930; Univ. of Moscow, Russia, 1932; Assoc., Institut H. Poincaré, Paris, 1933-34; Lorentz Research Fellow, Holland, 1934-35; Visiting Prof. of Physics, Purdue Univ., 1935-37; Prof. of Physics, Duke Univ., since 1937. Official Investigator and Consultant, N.D.R.C., since 1942; Principal Physicist, Clinton Laboratories, 1943-45; Director of Physics Division since 1945. Fellow, Amer. Physical Soc.; Member: Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs.; North Carolina Acad. of Sciences. Contributor to literature of physics. Address: Clinton Laboratories, P.O. Box 1991, Knoxville, Tenn.

NORDHOFF, CHARLES, American Author; born 1887. Author (with James Norman Hall): Falcons of France, 1929; Mutiny on the Bounty, 1932; Pticairn's Island, 1934; Men Against the Sea, 1934; The Hurricane, 1936; The Dark River, 1938; No More Gas, 1940; Botany Bay, 1941; Men Without Country, 1942; The High Barbaree, 1945; (alone) The Fledgling, 1919; Lagoon, 1924; Picaro, 1924; The Derelict, 1928. Address: Hope Ranch, Santa Barbara, Calif.

NORDHOLM, (OSCAR) GUNNAR, Swedish Association Director; born Jan. 7, 1902, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Adolf and Hulda (Carlsson) Nordholm; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, LL.B. 1924; married Agathe Lovisa Nordenfelt, 1932; three children. Amanuensis and Asst. Secretary, Ministries of Communications and Justice, 1928-30; Relator, Royal Pensions Board, 1929-30; Attorney for Swedish Ironmongers Assn., 1930. Managing Director, Swedish Ironmongers Employers Assn., 1930; Managing Director, Commercial Employers' Assn., since 1936. Managing Director: Swedish Book- and Paper-sellers' Assns.; Swedish Film and Cinema Proprietors Assn.; Fed. of Theatres; two real estate companies. Member of Board, Scandinavian Assn. (Föreningen Norden). Chairman, Com. for Establishment of new ironmongeries, since 1936. Member: Labor Council since 1939; Council, State Labor Market Commission, since 1942; Advisory Council, Swedish Employers' Assn., since 1942; Supervisory Board, Swedish Staff Pension Fund, since 1942; Council, Swedish Inst. for Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries, since 1945; Technical and Industrial Inst. of Arbitration, since 1946; Royal Com. for Investigation of pensions to employees in private services, since 1947. Residence: Sturegatan 12. Office: Birger Jarlsgatan 53, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDIN, JOHN WILHELM, Swedish Director General and President of Labour Council; born July 27, 1882, Skara, Sweden; son of Wilhelm and Emma (Stohlander) Nordin; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, Sweden, LL.B. 1906; married Hildur Inez Augusta Versteegh, Jan. 27, 1914; two children. Amanuensis, Office of Governor General of Sweden, 1910; articles clerk, State Insurance Institution of Sweden, 1914; Secy., 1916; Member of Institution, 1917; Secy. and Stater, Labour Council of Sweden, 1920; Member of Council, 1924; Pres., Council since 1926; Director General since 1944. Member of Delegation, Internatl. Collaboration in Social Questions, 1940. Pres., Soc. for Protection of Workers, 1945. Author: Disablement and Accident Injuries, 1932; Accident Injury and Disease, 1935; Industrial Accidents, 1936; Occupational Diseases, 1943, 1947. Residence: Sturgatan 24. Office: Kungsgatan 2, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDING, WILLIAM, Swedish Artist; born July 4, 1884, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Eric and Charlotte (Peterson) Nording; educated at Konstnärsförbundets skola, under Richard Bergh and Karl Nordström; École Matisse, Paris; various schools in Stockholm, Düsseldorf and Paris; married Maja Uddenberg, April 14, 1935. Exhibited at Uppsala, 1916; one-man shows in Stockholm, 1933, 1939, 1946. Represented in National Museum, Stockholm; Gothenburg Museum; various other Swedish museums; collection of Fritz Eriksson, Stockholm; H.R.H. Prince Eugen collection, Waldemarsudde, Stockholm. Member: Färg och form (artistic group); Konstnärsklubben; Royal Academy of Arts, Stockholm. Residence: Heleneborgsgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden. Studio: Vickleby, Öland, Sweden.

NORDLINGER, HENRY HAROLD, American Lawyer; born Oct. 25, 1893, New York, N. Y.; son of Edwin H. and Henriette (Bacharach) Nordlinger; educated at Columbia Univ., B.A. 1912, Law School, LL.B. 1914; married Elise Lehrburger, Nov. 8, 1924; three children. Practiced law since 1915. Member, Com. on Law Reform, N. Y. C. Bar Assn., 1925-35; Secy., 1927-35; Chairman, Com. on Arbitration, 1935-39; Member, Grievance Com., since 1942. Chairman, Com. on Arbitration and Conciliation, N. Y. County Lawyers Assn., since 1942. Member of Nordlinger & Riegelman, now Nordlinger, Riegelman & Benetar, since 1919. Member: Amer. Judicature Soc.; (Past) Law Review Com., Arbitration Journal. Contributor to legal literature. Address: 420 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

NORDMAN, Dr. CARL AXEL, Finnish Museum Director; born Jan. 28, 1892, Helsinki, Finland; son of Johan Alfred and Sigrid (de la Chapelle) Nordman; educated at Helsinki Univ., cand. phil. 1914, Ph.D. 1918; married Elin Müller, 1915; two children. Asst., University Library, Helsinki, 1910-12; Asst., Danish Natl. Museum, 1912-19; Keeper of Coins and Medals, Natl. Museum, Helsinki, 1920-30; Lecturer in Prehistory, Helsinki Univ., 1921-36; Keeper of Historical Dept., Natl. Museum, Helsinki, 1930-36; Chief Inspector of Monuments and Director of Natl. Museum since 1936. Pres.: Finnish Museum Assn. since 1940; Archives on Folk Culture; Swedish Literary Soc., Finland, since 1936. Vice-Pres.: Soc. of Antiquities of Finland, since 1938; Swedish Literary Soc. in Finland since 1943 (Secy. 1935-42). Member: Finnish Soc. of Sciences, 1942; Lund Soc. of Sciences. Corresponding Member, Acad. of Literature and Antiquities, Stockholm; Hon. Member, Swedish Soc. of Antiquities, Stockholm; Hon. Corresponding Member, Prehistoric Soc. of London, 1937. Commander, Finnish White Rose Order. Author: Studier över gånggriftskulturen i Danmark, 1918; The Megalithic Culture of Northern Europe, 1935; Anglo-Saxon coins found in Finland, 1921; Karelska järnåldersstudier, 1924; papers on prehistory and medieval art. Address: National Museum, Mannerheimvägen, Helsinki, Finland.

NORDMEYER, Hon. ARNOLD HENRY, New Zealand Minister of Health; born 1901, in Dunedin, New Zealand; son of Arnold and (Walker) Nordmeyer; educated at Otago University; Knox Theological Hall, B.A. and Diploma of Social Sciences; married Frances Kernahan, 1931; two children. Began career in 1925 as a Presbyterian Minister. Member of Parliament for Oamaru since 1935. Minister of Health; Minister in charge of Mental Hospitals, Friendly Societies and National Provident Fund Departments of New Zealand. Residence: Devon Terrace, Oamaru, N. Z. Office: Parliament Bldgs., Wellington, New Zealand.

NORDMEYER, Dr. HENRY W., American Professor of German; born July 2, 1891, Magdeburg, Germany; son of Ernst A. and Mary Barker (Andrews) Nordmeyer; educated at Univ. of Leipzig, 1910-13; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.D. 1914; married Mrs. Frieda Ida (Zimmermann) Altvater, June 18, 1932; two stepsons. Asst. in German, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1913-14; Instructor in German, Ohio State Univ., 1914-15; Univ. of Illinois, 1915-18. With Open Court Publishing Co., 1918-20; Univ. of Chicago Press, 1920-21. Prof. of Modern Languages, Grand Rapids (Mich.) Junior College, 1921-24; Asst. Prof. of German, Swarthmore College, 1924-25; Washington Univ. (St. Louis, Mo.), 1925-29. Assoc. Prof. of German and Chairman of German Dept., New York Univ., 1929-32; Prof. and Chairman, 1932-35; Prof. and Chairman, German Dept., Univ. of Michigan, since 1935. Member: Modern Language Assn. of Amer. (Editorial Com, 1930-40, Bibliography, Germanic Section, since 1929); Soc. for Advancement of Scandinavian Study, Amer. Assn. of Teachers of German (Exec. Com., 1941-44); Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs. Author: Introduction to Commercial German (with K. E. Richter), 1931; translation into German verse, Edward Fitzgerald's Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, 1926. Address: Ann Arbor, Mich.

NORDOFF, Prof. PAUL, American Composer, Pianist, Educator; born June 4, 1909, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Paul and Kathryn (Huntington) Nordoff; educated at Philadelphia Conservatory of Music; Juilliard Graduate School; studied with D. Hendrik Ezerman; Olga Samaroff; Rubin Goldmark; married Sabina Zay, Sept. 1, 1945; one son. Head of Composition Dept., Phila. Conservatory of Music, 1936-42. Composition "Secular Mass" for chorus and orchestra performed by Eugene Ormandy, Minneapolis, 1937, Philadelphia, 1939. Prelude and Fugues by Stokowski, Concerto by Kindler, songs by Dorothy Maynor, Eva Gauthier, Povla Frijsch, etc. Lecture tours in many states. Prof. in Lit. and Fine Arts, Michigan State College, 1945-46. Member: Amer. Composers Alliance; The League of Composers; Anthroposophical Soc. Awarded Guggenheim Fellowship, 1933 and 1935; Bearns Prize (Columbia Univ.), 1933; Pulitzer Prize, 1940. Author: Minute Stories of the Opera (with Paul Grabbe), 1934. Compositions: (opera) "Mr. Fortune"; works for Martha Graham, Agnes de Mille; Chamber Music works, Concerti, 200 songs. Residence: Threefold Farm, Spring Valley, N. Y.

NORDQVIST, Prof. GUSTAF, Swedish Composer and Organist; born Feb. 12, 1886, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Anders and Augusta (Johansson) Nordqvist; educated at Swedish Acad. of Music, Stockholm, 1901-10; studied in Berlin, 1913; married Lilly Falk, 1924; one daughter. Made debut as an organist at Stockholm, 1912; Organist, Adolf Fredriks Church, 1914; Teacher of Harmony, Swedish Univ. of Music, Stockholm; Prof. since 1944. Compositions include about two hundred songs; Sonata for violin and piano; chorus works; piano and organ pieces; cantatas, etc. Address: Rörstrandsgatan 9, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORDSTRÖM-BONNIER, TORA, Swedish Columnist and Editorial Writer; born Nov. 1, 1895, Straengnaes, Sweden; daughter of Tor and Ida (Halvorsen) Nordström; married Tor Bonnier, Dec. 18, 1928; one son by a previous marriage; two sons by second marriage. Journalist, Svenska Dagbladet, Stockholm, 1915-18; Goeteborgs Morgonpost, Gothenburg, 1918-22; Dagens Nyheter, Stockholm, 1926-32; Columnist and Editorial Writer, Expressen, Stockholm, since 1944. Member: Pen Club; Sveriges Foerfattarförening; Swedish Editors' Club. Author: Juninatten, 1933; Vanlig anstaendighet, 1935; Emma Smiths diamant, 1938; Upplaendsk kvinnospegel, 1941; Aret runt paa Bisslinge, 1944; Just for Fun, 1946. Address: Expressen, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORFOLK, 16th Duke of, (Bernard Marmaduke FitzAlan-Howard), K.G., P.C., G.C.V.O., Earl Marshal of England; born May 30, 1908. Served as Mayor of Arundel, 1935-36; saw active service, 1940; Joint Parliamentary Secretary to Ministry of Agriculture, 1941-45, and to Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, 1945. Address: Arundel Castle, Sussex, England.

NORIEGA-MORALES, Dr. MANUEL, Guatemalan Banker, Statesman; born Sept. 15, 1907, Antigua, Guatemala; son of Manuel J. Noriega and Fidelia Morales; educated at National School of Commerce, public accounting degree, 1928; Univ. of Guatemala, D.Sc.E., 1943; Harvard Univ., B.S. of Public Adm., 1944, M.P.A., 1944; married Graciela Herrarte, May 3, 1942; three children. Official, Direction of Internal Revenue, 1925-31; Auditor, Court of Accounts, 1932-34; Chief, Bureau of Budget, 1935-38; Division Head, General Accounting Office, 1939-43; Director, Monetary and Banking Dept., two months; Minister of National Economy, 1945-46; President, Bank of Guatemala, and Chairman, Monetary Board, since 1946. Attended: World Monetary Conf., Bretton Woods, 1944; Interamerican Conf., Chapultepec, Mexico, 1945; United Nations Conf., San Francisco, 1945; Inaugural Meeting, Board of Governors, World Fund and Bank, Savannah, 1946; 1st annual meeting, Board of Governors, World Fund Bank, Washington, 1946. Vice-Chairman, Board of Directors, Guatemalan Inst. of Social Security; Governor, International Monetary Fund and International Bank for Reconstruction and Development; Prof. and Lecturer of Public Finance, Money and Banking, Univ. of Guatemala. Awarded Gold Medal, National School of Commerce. Author of numerous articles in various journals. Residence: 13 Calle Poniente No. 14. Office: Bank of Guatemala, Guatemala City, Guatemala, C. A.

NORIEGA, Dr. PAUL, Mexican Diplomat. Appointed Ambassador Plenipotentiary attached to the Mexican Delegation to the United Nations. Alternate Representative of Mexico on United Nations Interim Committee of the General Assembly, Dec. 1947—. Address: Mexican Embassy, Washington, D. C.

NORIN, Dr. ERIK (STEPHAN), Swedish Geologist; born Mar. 15, 1895, Karlshamn, Sweden; son of Emil and Wendla (Eriksson) Norin; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, B.Sc. 1916, M.A. 1923; Univ. of Lund, Doctor of Science, May 31, 1937; married Anna Ambolt, Mar. 24, 1936; two children. Science Asst. at Analytical Laboratory, Univ. of Stockholm, 1917-19; Geological explorations in Prov. of Shansi, China, 1920-22; in Kashmir and Ladakh, N.W. Himalayas, 1924-26; Chief Geologist in Dr. Sven Hedin's expeditions in Central Asia, 1927-35; Docent of Geology and Mineralogy, Univ. of Lund, 1937-44; Prof. of Geology (mineralogy and petrology), Univ. of Uppsala, since 1945. Director, Mineralogical Inst., Univ. of Uppsala. Author: Geology of Western Quruq-tagh, Eastern Tien shan, 1937; Geologic Reconnaissances in the Chinese Tien-shan, 1942; Geological Explorations in Western Tibet, 1946. Address: Mineralogical Institute, University of Uppsala, Sweden.

NORIN, Dr. ROLF, Swedish Geologist; born May 14, 1906, Karlshamn, Sweden; son of Emil Fr. and Vendla (Ericson) Norin; educated at Univ. of Lund, B.Sc. 1927, M.Sc. 1929, D.Sc. 1934; married Karin Ambolt, 1934; three children. Lecturer in Geology, Univ. of Lund, 1934; Director, Ceramic Research Laboratory, Hoganas-Billesholms, AB., Hoganas, since 1937. Member: Geologiska Föreningen, Stockholm; Lunds Geologiska Faltklubb. Author: Geology of the Basalts in S. Sweden, 1934; Contributions to the Geology of Western Blekinge, 1936; Problems Concerning the Volcanic Ash Layers of the Lower Tertiary of Denmark, 1940; Notes on a Chrome Amphibole from Turkey, 1940; Thermal Analysis Applied to Clays and Water-Containing Minerals, 1941. Notes on the Reversibility of Water Content of Some Different Clay Types, 1942; Thuringit from Skälsta, 1942; Some Dates Concerning the Grafite Occurrence at Skälsta, 1943; On the Reaction Products of Kaolinite on Heating, 1944; Experiments in Calculating the Actual Mineralogical Composition of Ceramic Silica Bricks by the Aid of Differential Thermal Analysis, 1944. Address: Höganäsbolaget, Höganäs, Sweden.

NORINDER, Dr. (ERNST) HARALD, Swedish Electrical Engineer; born Mar. 3, 1888, Norrköping, Sweden; son of Norinder Ernst and Ellen Sofia (Jonsson) Norinder; Student at Uppsala Univ., 1908, Filosofie kandidat 1915, Filosofie licentiat 1921, Ph.D. 1921; married Eva Malmqvist, Oct. 15, 1915; one son. Physicist, 1920; Leader of a Research Laboratory of Lightning Discharges and Lightning Surges on High Tension Lines of the Swedish Royal Board of Waterfalls, since 1922; Asst. Prof. of Experimental Electrophysics, Univ. of Uppsala, 1928. Consulting Engineer, Westinghouse Electric and Mfg. Co., East Pittsburgh, 1928-31; Research Prof. of Electrophysics, Univ. of Uppsala, since 1932. Director, Inst. of High Tension Research, Univ. of Uppsala, since 1932. Member: Svenska Teknologföreningen, Stockholm; Amer. Inst. of Electrical Engineers; Amer. Physical Soc.; Physical Soc. of London; Royal Soc. of Science, Uppsala; Royal Swedish Acad. of Technical Science; Swedish Natl. Coms. of Physics, Scientific Radio (URSI); Internatl. Engineering Conferences, Geodesy and Geophysics. Received Gold Medal, Royal Swedish Acad. of Technical Sciences, 1926. Edited about 60 papers of physical geophysical and electrotechnical content dealing with physical aspects of atmospheric electricity, of lightning discharges, lightning surges on high tension transmission lines and atmospheric disturbances in radio receiving. Residence: The Directors Building, Institutet för högspänningsforskning, Uppsala universitet, Uppsala, Sweden.

NORLANDER, EVERETT, American Editor; born Nov. 4, 1894, Chicago, Ill.; son of John Hjalmer and Hilda (Ostrom) Norlander; educated at Lake Forest College, 1916-17; Univ. of Missouri, 1919; married Anna Hall, Sept. 12, 1923; two sons. Reporter, City News Bureau, Chicago, 1919-21; Reporter, Chicago Daily Journal, 1921-24; Reporter, Chicago Daily News, 1924-37; Political Editor, Chicago Daily News, 1937-39, News Editor, 1939-44, Managing Editor, since 1944. Director, City News Bureau of Chicago. Corporal, U. S. Army, World War I. Address: 400 W. Madison St., Chicago, Ill.

NORLÉN, Dr. GÖSTA, Swedish Neurosurgeon; born Aug. 15, 1906, Sundsvall, Sweden; son of Johan and Hulda (Bengtsson) Norlén; Student 1925, Med.kand. 1929 at Uppsala Univ., Med.lic., 1933, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, Med. Dr., Karolinska Inst., 1945; married Gunvor Bentgsson, July 31, 1938; two sons. Asst. Surgeon, Surgical Clinic, Serafimerlasarettet, 1934; Asst., Radiological Dept., Örebro Hospital, 1935; Asst., Surgical Clinic, Serafimerlasarettet, 1936; Asst., Surgical Clinic, Örebro Hospital, 1937-38; Asst., Neurosurgical Clinic, Serafimerlasarettet, 1938-42; Assoc. Chief, Neurosurgical Clinic since 1942. Assoc. Prof. in Neurosurgery, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, since 1945. Author: War Lesions of the Spinal Cord and Peripheral Nerves, 1939; Familiar Occurrence of Cerebellar Angioma, 1941; Root Section in Arthrosis Deformans Coxae, 1944; On the Value of the Neurological Symptoms in Sciatica for Localization of a Lumbar Disc Herniation, 1944; Surgical Aspect on Lobotomy in Treatment of Certain Psychoses, 1945; Treatment of Torticollis with Lobotomy, 1946, etc. Address: Serafimerlasarettet, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORLIE, Dr. OLAF MORGAN, American Educator; born January 11, 1876, Sioux City, Iowa; son of Ole H. and Martha Karoline (Juel) Norlie; educated at St. Olaf College, A.B. 1898; Wisconsin University, A.M. 1901; Minnesota University, Ph.D. 1908; United Church Seminary, C.T. 1907; Augustana Seminary, S.T.D. 1917; Dixon College, Pd.D. 1910; Wittenberg College, Litt.D. 1917; Chicago College of Music, Mus.D. 1932; married Anna Louise Bonhus, Aug. 27, 1902; six children. High School teacher and superintendent, 1895-1907; Pastor at Atwater, Minn., 1907-15; Book Editor, Augsburg Publishing House, Minneapolis, Minn., 1915-19; Professor of Biology and Psychology, Luther College, 1919-28; Dean, Hartwick College, 1928-32; Director, Graduate School, Hartwick Seminary, 1932-33; Professor of Psychology and Education, Luther College, 1933-41; Exchange Professor of Psychology, Pacific Lutheran College, 1939-40. Classifier and Instructor of Greek, St. Olaf College, since 1941. President of Atwater School Board, 1912-15; Treasurer, St. Paul Convalescent Home, 1916-19; President, American Lutheran Statistical Assn., 1917-33; Secretary, Educational Assn. of the Norwegian Lutheran Church, 1919-21; Secretary, Slooper Society of America, 1927-42. Fellow of American Assn. for Advancement of Science; American Geographical Society; Iowa Academy of Science. Member of American Psychological Assn.; American Mathematical Society and American Philological Assn., etc. Author of Elementary Christian Psychology; History of the Norwegian People in America; Gospel of St. John in Modern English; Outlined Bible; Menighetskalenderen; Den Forenede Kirke; Prestekalenderen; Academy for Princes; Principles of Expressive Reading; Glasoes Omsorg for Sine Egne; Lutheran World Almanacs, 1921-1937; School Calendar; Presternes Saga; The Bible in 1,000 Tongues; Eielsen Was First; English Bibles; After Supper; Ho Ga Te Me; Antiquarian Books; Norwegian-American Papers; some 100 others. Residence: 818 Forest Ave. Office: St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota.

NORLIN, KNUT OSCAR, Swedish Industrialist; born Feb. 21, 1892, Uddevalla, Sweden; son of Franz Oscar and Josefina (Wallentin) Norlin; educated at Commercial High School, 1910; married Effie Helge Sjöman; three children. Asst. Manager and Sales Director, Billeruds Co., Ltd., 1910-20. In agency business, France and England, 1920-23. Sales Director and Director of Industries, Royal Swedish State Forestry Dept., 1923-41. Managing Director, Swedish State Forest Industries Co., Ltd. (Aktiebolaget Statens Skogsindustrier), Stockholm, Sweden, since 1942. Member: Swedish Timber Exporters Assn.; Swedish Cellulose Producers Assn. Member, Board of Directors (as State Representative), Luossavarra-Kirunavaara Aktiebolag. Address: 48 Drottninggatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORLIN, PER ADOLF, Swedish Airlines President; born Jan. 23, 1905, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Karl Teofil and Ingrid Helena (Söderman) Norlin; educated at Commercial High School, matriculation; married Eva de Champs, Sept. 21, 1933; one daughter, two sons. With AB Aerotransport, 1924; Asst. to the Managing Director of Aerotransport, 1927. Pres.: Swedish Intercontinental Airlines, since 1943; Scandinavian Airlines System, since 1946. Member of Executive Com., International Air Transport Association (IATA). Residence: Johannesgatan 22. Office: Scandinavian Airlines System, Kommendörsgatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORLIND, ERNST LUDVIG, Swedish Painter and Writer; born Apr. 25, 1877, Vellinge, Sweden; son of Lars and Johanna (Christensson) Norlind; educated at College of Lund, 1895-98; married Hanna Larsson, Oct. 1908; one child. Began career as painter, 1898. Studied painting at Dachau, 1899-1900 and 1902-03; at Paris, 1905. Member, Skanska Konstarslaget (Assn. of Swedish Artists), 1900; Pres., Italian Soc. in Lund, 1944. Author of Poems, Intermezzos and Bagatelles, Notebook, 1911; The Windowlight, 1912; Johan Fredrik Hall, 1913; New Poems and Songs, 1915; The Inheritance of the Dead

Lady, 1918; Among Beggars and Thinkers, 1923; The Silver Brooch, 1924; The Aquamarine, 1928; The Memories, 1929; The Right Hon. Cyldengranath (w.ill., ballad), 1930; Borgeby Memories, 1939; Franciscan Years, Early Artist Years, Life Overture. Residence: Castle Borgeby. Office: Flaedie, Village Borgeby, Sweden.

NORLIND, Dr. JOHAN HENRIK TOBIAS, Swedish Musicologist; born May 6, 1879, Vellinge near Malmö, Sweden; son of Lars Christensson and Johanna Norlind; educated at Univs. of Lund, Uppsala, Munich, Berlin and Paris; Lund Univ., Ph.D. 1909; married Anna Lind, Dec. 9, 1904; one daughter. Director, People's High School, Tomelilla, 1907-14; at Ö. Grevie, 1914-17, and Stockholm, 1919-31. Docent of Music History, Univ. of Lund, 1909-19. Prof., Royal Acad. of Music, Stockholm, 1918-45. Director, Museum of Music History, Stockholm, since 1919. Decorated Knight, Nordstjaerne Order, Vasa Order and St. Olavs Order. Author: Svensk Musikhistoria, 1901, 1918, 1932; Latinska Skolsånger, 1909; Allmänt Musiklexikon, 1916, 1929; Svenska Allmogens Liv, 1912, 1924; E. G. Geijer, 1919; Jenny Lind, 1919; Kristina Nilsson, 1923; Musikaliska Akademiens Historia, 1921; Beethoven och hans tid., 1924-25; Hovkapellets Historia, 1926; Allmän Musikhistoria, 1922; En Bok om Musikinstrument, 1928; Svensk Folkmusik, 1930; Addresskalender över Sveriges Musiker, 1928; Systematik der Saiteninstrument, 1936, 1939; Musikinstrumentens Historia, 1941; Dansens Historia, 1941; Dirigeringskonstens Historia, 1944; Svensk Musikens Historia, 1520-1720 (I-III), 1944-45; Tagnér i musiken, 1946; Bilder ur Svenska medeltidens musikhistoria, 1947. Residence: Valhallavägen 73. Office: Musikhistoriska Museet, Stockholm, Sweden.

NÖRLUND, Dr. NIELS ERIK, Danish Mathematician; born Oct. 26, 1885, Slagelse, Denmark; son of Alfred and Sophie (Holm) Nörlund; educated at Univs. of Copenhagen, Paris and Cambridge; Ph.D. (Copenhagen), 1910; Univ. of London, Hon. Sc.D. 1937; Univ. of Lund, Hon. Ph.D. 1941; married Agnete Weaver, Dec. 28, 1912; two daughters. Asst. Astronomer, Observatory at Copenhagen, 1908; Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Lund, 1912-22; Prof. of Mathematics, Univ. of Copenhagen, since 1922. Director, Danish Geodetic Inst., since 1923. Editor, Acta Mathematica; Pres., Internatl. Time Commission. Former Rector, Univ. of Copenhagen; Ex-Pres., Internatl. Council of Scientific Unions; Ex-Pres., Baltic Geodetic Commn. With Internatl. Commn. for Intellectual Cooperation, 1936-38. Pres., Rask-Örsted Foundation. Ex-Pres., Royal Danish Acad. of Science. Foreign Member: Royal Soc. of London; Royal Astronomical Soc.; Acad. of Sciences, Paris, Rome, Stockholm, Helsinki and Naples. Vice-Pres., Royal Danish Geographical Soc. Decorated Commander, French Legion of Honor. Author: Leçons sur les séries d'interpolation, 1926; Sur la somme d'une fonction, 1927; Leçons sur les équations aux différences finies, 1929; The Map of Denmark, 1942. Address: Geodetic Institute, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NÖRLUND, Dr. POUL, Danish National Museum Director; born Nov. 4, 1888, Slagelse, Denmark; son of Alfred C. and Sophie (Holm) Nörlund; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, Ph.D. 1920; Univ. of Oslo, hon. Ph.D.; married Nanna B. Möller, Aug. 22, 1916; three children. Asst. Keeper, Natl. Museum, 1917; Member, Com. on Scientific Research in Greenland, 1926; Chairman, Com. for Historical Monuments in Denmark, 1939; now Director of Danish Natl. Museum, Copenhagen. Hon. Member, Archaeological Socs. of Sweden, Norway and Iceland; Corresponding Member, Socs. of Letters in Lund, Stockholm and Oslo. Member: Royal Danish Acad. of Science and Letters; Royal Danish Soc. of Natl. History. Author: Buried Norsemen at Herjolfsnes, 1924; Golden Altars, 1926; Norse Ruins at Gardar, 1929; Brattahlid, 1934; Viking Settlers in Greenland, 1936; Romanesque Wall Paintings, 1945. Address: Frederiksholm Kanal 12, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NORMAN, JONATHAN VAN DYKE, American Lawyer; born Aug. 13, 1877, Normandy, Ky.; son of Abner E. and Kate L. (Barry) Norman; educated at Central Univ., B.A. 1898, LL.B. 1899; married Mary Cecil, Oct. 12, 1904; three children. Member: Chandler & Norman, 1899-1908; McChord, Hines & Norman, 1908-11; Hines & Norman, 1911-18; Norman, Quirk & Graham, since 1923. Chief, Amer. Protective League, World War I; Chairman, War Fund Campaign, 1942, '43 and '44. Member: Louisville, Kentucky State and Amer. Bar Assns.; Amer. Law Inst. Contributor to legal periodicals. Address: 1512 Kentucky Home Life Bldg., Louisville, Ky.

NORMAN, MONTAGU COLLET, 1st Baron of St. Clere, P.C., D.S.O., British Banker; born 1871; son of F. H. Norman; educated at Eton and King's College, Cambridge; married Priscilla Reyntiens, 1933. Served in South Africa with Bedfordshire Regiment, 4th Battalion, 1900-01. Governor, Bank of England, 1920-44. Address: Thorpe Lodge, Campden Hill, London W. 8, England.

NORMAND, Lord, (WILFRID GUILD NORMAND), P.C., K.C., British Jurist; born May 16, 1884, Aberdour, Fife, Scotland; son of Patrick Hill and Ellen (Prentice) Normand; educated at the Fettes College; Oriel College, Oxford, B.A. 1906, M.A. 1934; Ecole des Sciences Politiques, Paris, 1906-07; Edinburgh University, LL.B. 1910; married Gertrude Lawson, 1913 (died 1923); two children; married (2nd) Marion Bell Gilchrist Cunningham, 1927. Began career as an Advocate, 1910; King's Counsel, 1925; Solicitor General for Scotland, 1929 and 1931-33; Lord Advocate, 1933-35; became Privy Councillor, 1933. Member of Parliament for the Western Division of Edinburgh, 1931-35; Lord Justice General and Lord President of the Court of Session, 1935-46; Lord of Appeal in Ordinary, 1947—. Honorary Fellow, Oriel College, Oxford; Honorary Bencher of the Middle Temple, London. Received Hon. LL.D. from Edinburgh University. Editor of Juridical Review, 1920. Address: 100 Northgate, Regents Park, London, N.W. 8, England.

NORMAND, Sir CHARLES WILLIAM BLYTH, C.I.E., British Scientist; born Sept. 10, 1889, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of John H. and Mary (Baxter) Normand; educated at Edinburgh Univ., M.A. with honors, B.Sc. 1911, D.Sc. 1920; married Alison McLennan, 1920; two children. Began career as a meteorologist, 1913. Officer in the Indian Army during the First World War, 1916-19; Imperial Meteorologist, Simla, India, 1919-26; Director-General, Observatories, India, 1927-44; Officer on special duty with Govt. of India, 1944-45; engaged in meteorological research at Cambridge, England, 1945-46; engaged in organizing Ozone Survey for N. W. Europe, 1946—. Twice elected President, Section of Mathematics and Physics, Indian Science Congress. Founder Fellow, Natl. Inst. of Sciences, India; Fellow, Royal Meterological Society; National Academy of Sciences of India. Awarded the Symons Gold Medal, Royal Meteorological Society, London, 1944. Address: c/o Midland Bank, Gloucester Rd., London, S.W. 7, England.

NORONHA, Admiral SYLVIO de, Brazilian Minister of Marine; born 1884, Rio de Janeiro; educated at Colegio MMe. Lardy and Colegio Militar do Rio de Janeiro; graduated from Brazilian Naval Acad. at Rio, 1902. Became 2nd Lieut. in Navy, 1905; 1st Lieut., 1911; successively promoted; commanded battleship "Minas Gerais." Served as Port Captain of the State of São Paulo; President, Brazilian-Paraguayan Commission for the Study of Navigation Conditions on the Paraguayan River, etc. Rear Admiral, 1942; Vice Admiral, 1945; Commander-in-Chief, Brazilian Fleet, Jan. 1946; Chief of Naval Operations, 1946; Admiral of the Fleet, September, 1946; Minister of Marine, October, 1946—. Member of Brazilian Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Recipient of many decorations. Author of various works and articles on naval matters. Address: Ministry of Marine, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

NORRBOM, Dr. SVEN ERIK, Swedish Educator; born Aug. 30, 1889, Norrköping, Sweden; son of Nils and Mathilda (Blom) Norrbom; educated at Univs. of Uppsala and Hamburg, Ph.D. 1921; married Edith Dahl, 1915; one son. Taught languages at high schools of Södertälje, 1919-21, Linköping, 1921-27, and Västeras, 1927-29. Headmaster: Gefle, 1929; Nya elementarskolan, Stockholm, 1934; Norra Latinläroverklat, Stockholm, since 1939. Vice-Pres., Assn. of State Headmasters, since 1945; Trustee, Sunnerdahl's Practical Schools, since 1936. Created Knight, Order of North Star, 1939. Address: Drottninggatan 71B, Stockholm, Sweden.

NÖRREGAARD, Dr. JENS, Danish University Rector; born May 16, 1887, Rye, Denmark; son of Nicolaj and Mathilde (Skouboe) Nörregaard; educated at Univs. of Copenhagen, Tübingen, Berlin, Edinburgh, Cambridge and Oxford; cand.theol. (Copenhagen) 1910; D.P. (Copenhagen) 1920; Uppsala Univ., hon. D.D. 1932; Univ. of Oslo, hon. D.D. 1945. Prof. of Church History, Univ. of Copenhagen, since 1923. Rector of Univ. of Copenhagen, since 1942. Member: Continuation Com., Faith and Order Movement, 1937; Managing Board, Scandinavian Ecumenical Inst., Sigtuna, 1940. Author: Augustins religiöse Gennembrud, 1920; Augustins Vej til Kristendommen, 1928; Kirkehistorie I-III (with Hj. Holmquist), 1931-40; Kristendommens Historie i Romantikens, Liberalismens og Realismens Tidsalder, I-II, 1939. Residence: Vodroffsvej, Copenhagen. Office: University, Copenhagen, Denmark.

NORRIS, ALFRED GRAHAM, South African Pharmaceutical Chemist; born Feb 18, 1892, Aliwal North, Cape Province, South Africa; son of Alfred and Elizabeth (Marshall) Norris. Began career with Lennon Limited, 1907, and after qualifying as chemist and druggist became branch manager and later was elected to Board of Directors; appointed Managing Director of the company, 1932, and its Chairman, 1936. Director: Rand Provident Building Soc.; Federated Employers Mutual Assurance Company Limited; also several companies comprising Unit Securities group of Managed Investment Companies in Union of South Africa. Ex-Pres., Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce and Transvaal Pharmaceutical Soc. Chairman, South African Wholesale Pharmaceutical Trade Assn. Fellow: Royal Soc. for Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce of Great Britain. Residence: 2, North Road, Dunkeld West. Office: 15, Pritchard Street, Johannesburg, Transvaal, Union of South Africa.

NORRIS, Dr. CHARLES CAMBLOS, American Obstetrician and Gynecologist; born June 1, 1876, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of William Pepper and Laura (Camblos) Norris; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania Medical School, M.D. 1898; married Helen E. Walsh, Jan. 12, 1928. Instructor in Clinical Gynecology, Univ. of Pa. Medical School, 1902-11; Asst. in Gynecologic Pathology, 1907-21; Instructor in Gynecology, 1911-22; Asst. Prof., 1922-27; Prof. of Obstetrics and Gynecology and head of Dept., 1926-41; now Emeritus. Director, Gynecean Hosp. Inst. of Gynecologic Research; also Prof. of Gynecology, Univ. of Pa. Graduate School; retired from medical practice, 1941. Attending Obstetrician and Gynecologist, Univ. of Pa. Hosp.; Assoc. Obstetrician and Gynecologist-in-Chief, Pa. Hosp., and Consulting Obstetrician and Gynecologist, Henry Phipps Inst. and Children's Hosp., Philadelphia. Pres., Amer. Gynecological Soc., 1930; Philadelphia Obstetrical Soc., 1929-30; Amer. Neisserian Medical Soc., 1937. Author: Gonorrhea in Women, 1913; Gynecological and Obstetrical Tuberculosis, 1921 (revised 1931); Uterine Tumors, 1930; Radium in Gynecology (with Dr. J. G. Clark), 1927. Address: Goshen and Darby Rds., Bryn Mawr, Pa.

NORRIS, ERNEST EDEN, American Railway Executive; born Hoopeston, Ill., Jan. 21, 1882; son of Luther Calvin and Amanda (Lightner) Norris; educated at Hoopeston public schools; married Kathryn Callan, 1905; two sons. Telegraph operator for Western Union Telegraph Co., 1899, and for I.&C.&N.W. R.R., 1900-02. Entered service of Southern Railway as car service agent in Washington, D. C., 1902; successively trainmaster; Asst. Supt. and Supt., Knoxville, Tenn.; Supt., Atlanta, Ga., and General Supt. at Knoxville. In 1918 became Asst. to the President. Elected Vice-Pres. of the M.&O. R.R. in 1919, and appointed Receiver in 1932. Elected Vice President (Operation) of the Southern Railway System, 1933; Pres. since 1937. Dir., Riggs Natl. Bank (Washington, D. C.), Western Union Telegraph Co., Railway Express Agency, Assn. of American Railroads, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Chmn., Southeastern (Railroad) President's Conf.; Trustee, Natl. Geographic Soc. Member of Advisory Council, Southern Research Inst. Address: Southern Railroad Executive Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

NORRIS, Dr. GEORGE WILLIAM, American Physician; born Jan. 1, 1875, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of William Fisher (M.D.) and Rosa C. (Buchmann) Norris; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.A. 1895, M.D. 1899. Physician to: Episcopal Hospital, 1901-08; Henry Phipps Inst., 1903-07; Philadelphia General Hospital, 1904-08; Pennsylvania Hospital, 1909-21 (Chief of Medical Service A, 1921-32). Member of Faculty, Univ. of Pennsylvania Medical School, since 1911; Prof. of Clinical Medicine, 1921-32. Trustee, Mutual Assurance Co., Philadelphia, 1908 (now Chairman of Board). Director, Philadelphia Health Council, 1925. Major, Med. Col. U. S. Army, 1917; Lt. Col. and Col., 1919. Member: Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Medical Assn. Received Citation from General Pershing for exceptional meritorious services during World War I. Author: Studies in Cardiac Pathology, 1911: Croupous Pneumonia (Osler & McCrae System), 1913; Blood Pressure, its Clinical Applications, 4th ed. 1927; Diseases of the Chest and the Principles of Physical Diagnosis (with Dr. H. R. M. Landis), 6th ed. 1933. Contributor to various medical journals. Address: Dimock, Pa.

NORRIS, JAMES, American Grain Merchant; born in Montreal, Canada, Dec. 10, 1878; son of James S. and Eleanor (Waud) Norris; educated at Tucker's School; married; four children. Formerly an executive of Richardson & Co. (later Harris Scotten & Co.); formed the Norris Grain Co., 1906, and has continued as its Pres. and Dir.; also Pres. and Dir. of Chicago Grain Corp., Chicago Stadium Corp., and Olympia, Inc., Detroit. Director: First Natl. Bank of Chicago; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific R.R. Co.; St. Louis Arena Corp.; Madison Square Garden Corp., Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co., Three Rivers Grain and Elevator Co., Upper Lakes and St. Lawrence Transportation Co., and Toronto Elevators, Ltd. Residence: 899 W. Deerpath Rd., Lake Forest, Ill. Office: 141 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

NORRIS, JOHN STEWART, Canadian Utilities Executive; born Jan. 6, 1874, Montreal, Que., Canada; son of William Norris of Birmingham, England, and Sarah (Stewart) Norris of County Down, Ireland; educated at Royal Arthur School and Bishop's College School, Montreal; married Eveline Owens, Sept. 12, 1900; one son. Associated with Guarantee Co. of North America; later with Bell Telephone Co., 1888-96; joined Montreal Light, Heat and Power Co., 1896; Pres. since 1932. Pres., Montreal Island Power Co. Vice-Pres.: Canadian Light & Power Co.; United Securities, Ltd. Director: Montreal Trust Co.; Royal Bank of Canada; Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada; Montreal Coke & Manufacturing Co. Governor, Children's Memorial Hospital; Life Governor of Montreal General Homeopathic and Notre Dame Hospitals. Residence: Hudson Heights, Que. Office: Royal Bank Building, Montreal, Que., Canada.

NORRIS, KATHLEEN (Thompson), American Author; born 1880. Author: Mother, 1911; The Treasure, 1914; The Story of Julia Page, 1916; The Heart of Rachael, 1916; Martie, the Unconquered, 1917; Josselyn's Wife, 1918; Sisters, 1919; Harriet and the Piper, 1920; The Beloved Woman, 1921; Lucretia Lombard, 1922; Certain People of Importance, 1922; Butterfly, 1923; Little Ships, 1925; Undertown, 1926; The Sea Gull, 1927; The Kelly Kid (with Dan Totheroh), 1927; Storm House, 1929; Red Silence, 1929; The Lucky Lawrences, 1930; Margaret Yorke 1930; Passion Flower, 1930; Belle-mère, 1931; Hands Full of Living (talks with American Women), 1931; Treehaven, 1932; My San Francisco, 1932; My California, 1933; Walls of Gold, 1933; Maiden Voyage, 1934; Manhattan Love Song, 1934; Victoria (play) 1934; Woman in Love, 1935; Beauty's Daughter, 1935; Secret Marriage, 1936; The American Flaggs, 1936; You Can't Have Everything, 1937; Bread Into Roses, 1937; The Angel in the House, 1938; Baker's Dozen, 1939; The Runaway, 1939; One Nation Indivisible (a poem), 1942; An Apple for Eve, 1942; Dina Cashman, 1942; Burned Fingers, 1945, etc. Address: La Estancia, Saratoga, Calif.

NORRIS, ROBERT OPIE, JR., American Lawyer; born Nov. 4, 1880, Lively, Lancaster County, Va.; son of Robert Opie and Alice (Chilton) Norris; educated at Univ. of Richmond, B.A., B.L.; married Lelia Fauntleroy Claybrook, Feb. 4, 1922; two children. In practice of law since 1902; Member of firm, Norris and Watkins, Lively and Kilmarnock, Va. President and Director, Chesapeake Baking Co., Lively; Vice-President and Director, Bank of Lancaster, Kilmarnock. Member, Governor's Advisory Committee on State Budget, 1918-22. State Senator since 1928; Chairman, Judicial Committee, since 1934. Elected President Pro-tem of Virginia State Senate, Jan. 1944, for term of four years. Member of Virginia Bar Assn. (President, 1939); American Bar Assn.; Virginia Historical Society; Masons. Address: Lively, Va.

NORRIS - ELYE, LEONARD TOWNE STERNDALE, Canadian Museum Director; born in Orsett, Essex, England; son of L. C. C. R. and Katharine Maria (Brown) Norris-Elye; educated at Derby School; Selwyn College, Cambridge; married Edith Gladys Tarbolton, Feb. 20, 1920; two sons. Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Great Britain, 1911. Admitted to rolls in Manitoba; practiced law, 1912-18; Trust Co. Estates Manager, 1918-30; Science Teacher, Private School, 1930-38; Director, The Manitoba Museum, since 1938. Pres.: Winnipeg Gramophone Soc.; Winnipeg String Orchestra; Royal Astronomical Soc. of Canada (Winnipeg Centre); Pres., Natural History Soc. of Manitoba. Author of contributions to scientific journals. Address: Civic Auditorium, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

NORRISH, Prof. RONALD GEORGE WREYFORD, British Chemist; born Nov. 9, 1897, Cambridge, England; son of Herbert and Amy (Norris) Norrish; educated at Emmanuel College, Cambridge, F.R.S. 1936, Sc.D., Ph.D. (Cantab.), F.I.C.: married Annie Smith, 1926; two daughters. Research Fellow, Emmanuel College, 1925-31; Humphrey Owen Jones Lecturer in Physical Chemistry, Cambridge Univ., 1930-36; Prof. of Physical Chemistry. Fellow: Royal Soc.; Chemical Soc.; Royal Inst. of Chemistry; Soc. for Chemical Industry; Faraday Soc. Member of Council, Chemical Soc. and Faraday Soc., 1933-36; Council of Senate, Univ. of Cambridge, 1938-41. Awards: Meldola Medal of Inst. of Chemistry, 1926; Leverhulme Research Fellow, 1935. Author of numerous scientific papers in Proceedings of Royal Soc., Journal of Chemical Soc., Transactions of the Faraday Soc., etc. Address: University of Cambridge, Cambridge, England.

NORRMAN, SUNE, Swedish Chancellor of the Exchequer; born May 20, 1883, Uppsala, Sweden; son of Johan and Emma (Löfving) Norman; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, 1905; married Elisabet Ekermann, Dec. 12, 1910; three children. Notary, Treasury Dept., 1912; Secretary, Prison Board, 1915; Secy., Treasury Dept., 1917; Council Member, same Court, 1918; Pres., Court of Exchequer; since 1945. Secy., Swedish Parliament, House of Representatives, 1938-45. Member of the Board: Svenska Fattigvårds- och Barnavårdsförbundet; Föreningen för bistånd åt lytta och vanföra, Stockholm, 1931-43; Hammarskiöld-Rizellschöldska Foundation, 1938-47. Author: Krigskonjunkturskatt, 1918; Fattigvårdsprocessen, 1931; 1933 års allmänna fastighetstaering, 1932; Mantalsskrivning, 1933; Rätt mantalsskrivningsort, 1944; Folkbokföring, 1947. Residence: Värtavägen 8. Office: Birger Jarlstorgatan 13, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORSBO, HANS FREDRIK, Swedish Etcher and Painter; born Jan. 5 1897, Falun, Sweden; son of Hans Johanson and Anna Maria (Hagström) Norsbo; educated at Acad. of Fine Arts, Stockholm, 1915-18; studied in France, Italy, Germany and Austria, 1920-22; Italy, 1926-29; married Asta Wiklund, Oct. 4, 1919; one son. First exhibition at Stockholm, 1931. Represented in: National Museum; Crown Prince of Sweden's collection; Prince Eugen's collection; collection of Uppsala Univ.; collections of most of Swedish museums, Danish and Finnish State collections, several English Museums, Chicago Art Museum, etc. Member: Club of Artists; Graphic Soc.; Club of Swedish Artists; Wallin Söc. Illustrator of Poets and Prophets (by Sven Stolpe), 1942. Residence: Norsbo, Sweden. Studio: Gruvbacken 4, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORSTAD, Lieut. General LAURIS, American Air Force Officer; born 1907.

Advanced through grades to Lieut. General, 1947. Directed 20th Air Force, World War II; Director of Plans and Operations, War Dept. General Staff, until 1947; Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, U. S. Air Force, 1947—. Address: U. S. Air Force, War Department, Washington, District of Columbia.

NORSTRÖM, ERIC, Swedish Artist; born Aug. 18, 1882, Vaxholm, Sweden; son of Axel and N. Augusta (Richter) Norström; educated at Tekniska Skolan; Kungl. Akademien för de fria konsterna; Kungl. Musikkonservatoriet, Stockholm; married Ragnhild N. Schwabe-Hansen, June 20, 1914; two children. Exhibited at Sveriges Allm. Konstförening, Stockholm, 1905; artist for many daily newspapers, weekly journals and publishing enterprises in Stockholm, since 1907; Professional Church Singer, 1915-42; Keeper of Records, Konstnärsklubben, since 1925; Intendant of Art Galleries, 1937-44. Gave first one-man exhibition, Stockholm, 1947. With Konstnärsklubben since 1910; Artisternas och Litteratörenas Pensionsförening, since 1932; Stiftelsen Konstnärarnas Hjelpfond, since 1938; Stiftelsen Gustaf och Ida Unmans donationsfond, since 1943. Awards: Gold Medal, Royal Soc. Pro Patria; Gold Medal, Royal Patriotic Soc.; Honor Medal, Konstnärsklubben. Created Knight, Kungl. Vasa Order. Address: St. Eriksgatan 19, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORSTROM, VILHELM (FREDRIK ANDRE), Swedish Industrialist; born Jan. 7, 1883, Gefle, Sweden; son of Sten Otto and Jenny (Elfstrand) Nordstrom; educated at Royal Technical Univ. of Technology, 1905; Univ. College, Stockholm, 1912; married Dagmar Brehmer, Apr. 15, 1915; one daughter and two sons; married (2nd) Carin Sandström, July 3, 1944. Asst. to Prof. J. E. Cederblom, 1905-11. Joined De Laval Steam Turbine Co., Stockholm, 1912; Managing Director since 1938. Member: Rotary Club, Stockholm; Stockholm Kopmanklubb; Svenska Teknologforeningen. Residence: Kommendorsgatan 7. Office: P.O. Box 15025, Stockholm, Sweden.

NORTH, Dr. EMERSON ARTHUR, American Psychiatrist; born Feb. 14, 1880, Patriot, Ind.; son of William F. and Abbie A. (Humphrey) North; educated at Purdue Univ.; Univ. of Cincinnati, M.D.; married Edna Irene Schwarm, Nov. 29, 1911; one daughter. Asst. to Prof. of Skin and Genito-Urinary Diseases, Univ. of Cincinnati, 1907-08. Resident Physician, Longview State Hosp., 1908-11; Cincinnati Sanitarium, 1913-17; Supt., Longview State Hosp., 1917-23; Dir., Central Clinic (Mental Hygiene), 1923-40; Dir. and Prof. of Psych., Univ. of Cincinnati, 1935-40. Member of Psychiatric Staffs of the General, Christ, Jewish, Children's Hosps. and the Cincinnati Sanitarium; Member: Amer. Psych. Assn., Central Neuro-Psych. Assn.; Ohio State Med. Soc. Author: Syphilis of the Nervous System: Its Mode of Attack, Diagnosis and Treatment (1914); Relative Merits of Treatment in Syphilis and the Possible Influence Upon Nervous Involvement (1924); What Is a Normal Child Mentally (1928); Ohio Mental Hygiene Needs (1931). Address: Rising Sun, Indi.

NORTH, Dr. ERIC McCOY, American Church Official; born June 22, 1888, Middletown, Conn.; son of Rev. Dr. Frank Mason and Louise J. (McCoy) North; educated at Wesleyan University, 1909, D.D. 1931; Union Theological Seminary; Columbia University, M.A. 1910, Ph.D. 1914; married Gladys Haven, Apr. 17, 1920; three children. Assistant in Systematic Theology, Union Theological Seminary, 1913-14. Asst. Professor, History of Christianity, Ohio Wesleyan University, 1915-17; Associate Editor, Sunday School Publications of Methodist Episcopal Church, until 1926. A Department Secretary in the Board of Foreign Missions of Methodist Episcopal Church, 1919-26; Secretary, China Union Universities, 1924-27. Associate Secretary, 1927-28. General Secretary of American Bible Society, since 1928. Trustee: Yenching University, Harvard Yenching Institute; Drew University. Author: Early Methodist Philanthropy, 1915; Organization and Administration of Sunday School (with J. L. Cunninggim, 1917); The Kingdom and Nations, 1921; The Worker and His Church (with Louise M. North), 1921, etc. Editor of the Book of a Thousand Tongues, 1939. Residence: 32 Badeau Ave., Summit, N. J. Office: 450 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

NORTH, JAMES MORTIMER, JR., American Editor; born Aug. 29, 1886, Jef-Univ. of Texas; married Lottie Record, Aug. 18, 1914; one son. Reporter, Fort Worth Star, 1906-07; City Editor, 1907-08; Managing Editor, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, 1909-23; Editor since 1923. Vice-President, Earle North Buick Co., Houston, Texas. Director: Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce; Fort Worth Community Chest, Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. Member, Associated Press. Ex-Director, Amer. Soc. of Newspaper Editors. Residence: 2136 Pembroke Dr. Office: 400 West Seventh St., Fort Worth, Texas.

NORTH, Hon. WALTER H., American Jurist; born Nov. 1, 1871, Somerset, Michigan; son of William and Amarantha (Harper) North; educated at Hillsdale College, A.B. 1896, M.A. 1929 (hon.); University of Michigan Law School, LL.B. 1899, LL.D. 1942; married Myrta M. Phelps, 1901; four children. Began practice of law, Battle Creek, 1899. Circuit Judge of Calhoun County, Mich., 1906-27; Justice, Michigan Supreme Court, since Oct. 1927; re-elected for term expiring Dec. 31, 1953. Governor, Cook Foundation, Univ. of Michigan. Residence: 504 M. A. C. Ave., East Lansing, Mich. Address: State Capitol, Lansing, Mich.

NORTHCOTE, Sir GEOFFRY ALEXANDER STAFFORD, K.C.M.G., Kt.G.St.J., British Colonial Official; born Feb. 9, 1881, London, England; son of Rev Canon the Hon. Arthur F. Northcote and Mary Arabella (Toller) Northcote; educated at Balliol College, Oxford; married Edith Juliet Mary Adams, Oct. 27, 1910. Began career in 1904 as Administrative Officer in Kenya Service. Chief Secretary for Northern Rhodesia, 1927; Gold Coast, 1930; Governor of British Guiana, 1934; Hongkong, 1937; retired in 1941. Now Representative of British Central Office of Information in East Africa, Nairobi. Kenya Colony. Residence: Woodlands Rd., Box 827, Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa.

NORTHCOTT, Lieut.-General JOHN, Australian Administrator; born March 24, 1890, Creswick, Australia; son of John and Victoria (Dean) Northcott; educated at Grenville College, Ballarat; Melbourne University; married Winifred Mary Paton, Sept. 14, 1915; two children. Lieut., 9th A.L.H. Regiment, 1908; Adjutant, 12th Battalion, A.I.F., 1914; severely wounded at Gallipoli, 1915. Director, Transport and Supply, Australian Headquarters, 1926-27; Chairman, Commonwealth Transport Committee, 1927-28; G.S.O., 3rd Division, 1929-31; at War Office in London, 1933; with 44th Division, Woolwich, 1933-34; at Committee of Imperial Defense, 1936; special duty in U. S. and Canada, 1936-37; Director, Military Operations and Intelligence, 1938-39; Deputy Chief of General Staff, 1939-40. Military Adviser, Dominions War Conference, London, 1939; Acting Chief, General Staff, Australia, 1940; General Officer Commanding, 1st Armored Division, 1941; commanding, 2nd Australian Corps, 1942; Chief, General Staff, Allied Land Forces, Australia, 1942-45; Commander, British Commonwealth Occupation Force, Japan, 1945-46; Governor of New South Wales, 1946 —. Address: Government House, Sydney, Australia.

NORTHCROFT, Hon. Mr. Justice ERIMA HARVEY, D.S.O., V.D., New Zealand Jurist; born Dec. 2, 1884, Hokitika, N. Z.; son of Leonard Northcroft; educated at Wellington College; Auckland Univ. College, University of New Zealand; married Violet Constance Mitchell, Dec. 2, 1908; two daughters. Qualified as a barrister and solicitor, 1907; practiced in Hamilton, New Zealand, 1907-23; and in Auckland, 1923-35. Justice, Supreme Court, since 1935. Member for New Zealand, Internatl. Military Tribunal for the Far East, Tokyo, 1946-47. Member of Council, Soc. of Comparative Legislation (England). Residence: 383 Montreal St., Christchurch. Office: Judge's Chambers, Supreme Court, Christchurch, New Zealand.

NORTHEY, JAMES ALEXANDER, Canadian Manufacturer; born July 10, 1886, Toronto, Ont., Canada; son of Robert and Elizabeth Jane (Boggs) Northey; educated at Harbord Collegiate Inst.; married Marjorie Park Alexander, Dec. 26, 1912; two children. General Manager, Telfer Paper Box Co., Ltd., 1921; Vice-Pres., 1924; Pres. since 1935. Pres., Northey Printing, Ltd., since 1939. Director: Canadian Natl. Rys.; Trans-Canada Air Lines; Canadian Natl. Steamships and Toronto Terminals Co., Ltd.; Wellington Fire Insurance So.; Continental Life Insurance Co. Pres., Gyro Internatl.; Chairman, Toronto Centennial Com., 1934; Chairman, West End Y.M.C.A. since 1942; Member, Board of Governors, Toronto Y.M.C.A. since 1935 (Vice-Pres., 1946). Chairman, Exec. Com., Natl. Council of Y.M.C.A. Member: Toronto Board of Trade; Canadian Paper Box Mfrs. Assn.; Royal Canadian Inst. Vice-Pres., Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Residence: Hyfields, R.R. No. 1, Todmorden, Ont. Office: 14 Duncan St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

NORTHEY, Rev. JAMES DOUGLAS, Australian Theologian and Educator; born Mar. 26, 1890, Adelaide, South Australia; son of James and Mary E. (Davis) Northey; educated at Kyre College; Parkin College; Adelaide Univ., A.B. 1919; Melbourne College of Divinity, B.D. 1936; married Eva J. Hannaford, Dec. 20, 1916; three children. Pastor: Kensington Gardens Congregational Church, S. A. 1916-21; Newland Memorial Church, Victor Harbor, 1921-29; Canterbury Congregational Church, Victoria, 1929-39. Principal, Congregational College of Victoria, since 1940. Chairman, Congregational Union of Victoria, 1934-35; Pres., Council of Churches of Victoria, 1936-37; Pres., Victoria Christian Endeavor Union, 1939-40. Grand Chaplain, Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Victoria, since 1942; Pres., Melbourne College of Divinity, 1944-46. Member, Theological Teachers Assn. of Victoria. Author: The Kingdom of God and History, 1939. Address: Independent Hall, Collins St., Melbourne, Vict., Australia.

NORTHROP, Dr. EUGENE P., American Mathematician; born July 12, 1908, Danbury, Conn.; son of Henry E. and Lydia E. (Alvord) Northrop; educated at Robert College, Istanbul, Turkey, 1926-28; Yale Univ., B.S. 1930, M.A. 1932, Ph.D. 1934; married Marion W. Lyon, June 30, 1931; two sons. Asst. and Instr. in Mathematics, Yale Univ., 1930-35. Master in Mathematics, Hotchkiss School, Lakeville, Conn., 1935-43. Asst. Prof. of Mathematics in the College, Univ. of Chicago, 1943-45; Assoc. Prof. and Chairman, College Mathematical Staff, Univ. of Chicago, 1945 —. Assoc. Dean of the College, Univ. of Chicago, 1946 —. Member: Mathematical Assn. of Amer.; Amer. Mathematical Soc. Author: (books) Fundamental Mathematics, 1944-45, 1946; Riddles in Mathematics, 1944; also miscellaneous articles in research and on teaching in various mathematical periodicals. Address: University of Chicago, Chicago 37, Ill.

NORTHROP, Dr. FILMER STUART CUCKOW, American Philosopher; born November 27, 1893, Janesville, Wisconsin; educated at Beloit College, B.A. 1915, Yale University, M.A. 1919; Harvard University, M.A. 1922, Ph.D. 1924; University of Freiburg, Germany, 1922; Trinity College, Cambridge University; Imperial College of Science and Technology, London, 1922-23. With the International Committee of Y.M.C.A., Hong Kong, 1919-20. Instructor at Yale, 1923-36, Asst. Professor, 1926-29; Associate Professor, 1929-32; Professor since 1932; Master of Silliman College since 1940. Fellow and Member: Council of American Assn. for Advancement of Science; American Philosophical Assn.; and Assn. of Symbolic Logic. Author: Science and First Principles, 1931; The Meeting of East and West, 1946; also many articles. Address: Silliman College, Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

NORTHROP, Dr. JOHN HOWARD, American Chemist; born July 5, 1891, Yonkers, N. Y.; son of John L. and Alice (Rich) Northrop; educated at Columbia University, B.S. 1912, A.M. 1913, Ph.D. 1915; married Louise Walker, 1917; two children. With the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research since beginning of career, 1916, when he started as Assistant, becoming an Associate, 1917; Associate Member, 1920; Member since 1924. Trustee, Marine Biological Laboratory; Official Investigator, National Defense Research Committee, since 1941. Member of National Academy of Sciences; American Association for Advancement of Science; Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine; American Society of Biological Chemists; Harvey Society; American Philosophical Society; Akademie der Naturforscher; Société Philomathique, Paris; Sigma Xi; Phi Lambda Upsilon. W. B. Cutting Traveling Fellow of Columbia University; Jesup Lecturer, Columbia University; Hitchcock Lecturer, University of California; Thayer Lecturer, Johns Hopkins University. Awarded Stevens Prize, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University; Giraud Medal, Natl. Acad. of Sciences, 1941; Nobel Laureate in Chemistry, 1946. Sc.D., Harvard, Columbia, Yale and Rutgers Universities; D.Sc. Princeton. LL.D., Universtiy of California. Author of Crystalline Enzymes, 1939; also papers on physical chemistry of proteins, agglutination of bacteria, kinetics of enzyme reactions, and isolation and chemical nature of enzymes. On Editorial Boards, The Journal of General Physiology, and Experimental Biology Monographs. Captain, Chemical Warfare Service, 1917-18. Address: The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, Princeton, New Jersey.

NORTHROP, JOHN K., American Aircraft Manufacturer; born Nov. 10, 1895, Newark, N. J.; son of Charles W. and Helen C. (Knudsen); educated at Santa Barbara High School, 1913; married Inez Harmer, Jan. 30, 1918; three children. Draftsman with Lockheed Bros., 1916-19. Co-designer of successful 7 Passenger twin engine flying boat; co-designer of single place plane incorporating monocoque wooden fuselage. Designer, Project Engineer, Douglas Aircraft, Inc.,

1923-27; Co-founder and Chief Engineer, Lockheed Aircraft Co., 1927-28, designed Lockheed Vega. Co-founder and Chief Engineer, Northrop Aircraft Corp., 1929-31; designed Northrop Alpha, low-wing monoplane. Vice-Pres. and Chief Engineer, Northrop Corp., 1932-37; designed Northrop Gamma Delta, A-17, etc. Pres., Northrop Aircraft, Inc., since 1939. Pres., Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences, 1948—. Director, Northrop Aircraft, Inc.; Northrop-Hendy Co.; Normac, Inc. Private, U. S. Army Signal Corps, Aviation Division, 1917-18. Address: Northrop Field, Hawthorne, California.

NORTHWAY, JOHN A., Canadian Industrialist; born April 4, 1875, Tillsonburg, Ont.; son of John and Catherine (McKay) Northway; educated at college; married Alice Love, Oct. 26, 1901. Clerk, 1891; later Asst. Manager, Manager and now Pres., John Northway and Son, Ltd. Director: Imperial Bank of Canada; General Accident Assurance Co.; Scottish Canadian Assurance Co.; Howey Gold Mines; Canadian Canners. Governor, McMaster Univ. Residence: 24 Old Forest Hill Rd. Office: 240 Yonge St., Toronto 2, Canada.

NORTON, Miss ANDRE ALICE MARY, American Librarian and Author; born in Cleveland, Ohio; daughter of Adelbert and Bertha (Stemm) Norton; educated at Western Reserve Univ. Asst., Cleveland Public Library, 1931-42; Librarian, National Citizenship Education Program, Washington, D. C., 1941-42; Asst. in Children's Department, Cleveland (Ohio) Public Library, since 1943. Author: The Prince Commands, 1934; Ralestone Luck, 1938; Follow the Drum, 1942; The Sword Is Drawn, 1944. Residence: 1829 Mannering Rd. Office: Public Library, Cleveland, Ohio.

NORTON, Sir CLIFFORD JOHN, K.C.M.G., C.V.O., British Diplomat; born July 17, 1891; son of Rev. George Norton and Clara Dewey; educated at Rugby School and Queen's College, Oxford, M.A. 1915; married Noel Evelyn Hughes, 1927. Served with Suffolk Regiment, 1914, in Gallipoli and Palestine; Captain, General Staff, 1917; Political Officer, Damascus, Deraa, Haifa, 1919-20; entered Diplomatic Service, 1921; Private Secretary to the Permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 1930-37; First Secretary, 1933; Counsellor, British Embasy, Warsaw, 1937-39; with Foreign Office, 1939-42; Minister to Switzerland, 1942-46; Ambassador to Greece, 1946—. Address: British Embassy, Athens, Greece.

NORTON, EDWARD LEE, American Radio Executive; born June 13, 1892, Blountsville, Ala.; son of John Wells and Martha (Maddux) Norton; educated at Birmingham Southern College, B.S. 1913; University of Alabama, 1913-14; married Jessie Anna Stead, June 15, 1922. Private Secretary to R. S. Munger, 1915-23; Executive Vice-President, Munger Realty Co., 1924-37, and Munger Mortgage Co., 1926-39. Chairman of Board, Birmingham Branch, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, 1939; President, Birmingham Baseball Club, 1939. Chairman of Board, Florida Broadcasting Co. (WMBR), Jacksonville, Fla., since 1934, and of Voice of Alabama, Inc. (WAPI), Birmingham, since 1936. Chmn. of Bd., Fountain of Youth Broadcasting Co. (WFOY), St. Augustine, Fla., since 1940. Chmn., Board of Trustees, Birmingham Southern College; Trustee, Miles Memorial College (Chairman Executive Committee, Board of Trustees); Ex-Chairman, Birmingham Branch, American Red Cross. Coordinator for Alabama for Defense Contract Service, Office of Production Management. Member: Alabama Advisory Committee, Reconstruction Finance Corp.; Alabama Planning Commission; Birmingham Chamber of Commerce; General Education Board, Rockefeller Foundation. Pres., Coosa River Newsprint Co. Director: Avondale Mills; First Natl. Bank of Birmingham. Residence: 3226 Country Club Rd., Birmingham, Alabama.

NORTON, EVERMONT HOPE, American Industrialist; born Oct. 10, 1873, Louisville, Ky.; son of Presley Evermont and Lillie (Hope) Norton; educated at University of Virginia, 1895; married Lily Morrison Carr (dec.), May 1, 1899; four children; (2nd) Marionne Vosburgh Taylor, June 5, 1943. Began career as organizer of Norton & Tunstall (brokers), 1896. President and Director of The Guayaquil & Quito Ry. Co., 1911-22. President of The Ecuadorian Corp., Ltd.; International Products Corp. (manufacturing company in South America) and Norton, Inc. Residence: Asunción, Paraguay. Office: 29 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

NORTON, Prof. FREDERICK H., American Physicist; born Oct. 23, 1896, Manchester, Mass.; son of Charles L. and Frances (Torrey) Norton; educated at Mass. Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1918; married Ann Harris, 1922; two daughters, one son. Aero research, Natl. Advisory Com. for Aeronautics, 1919; Assoc. Physicist, 1920; Chief Physicist, 1921. Engaged in research work, Babcock & Wilcox Co., 1924; at Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1927. Prof. of Ceramics, Mass. Inst. of Technology, since 1930. Fellow: Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Ceramic Soc. Author: Creep of Steel, 1929; Refactories, 1942. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

NORTON, Hon. GARRISON, American State Department Official. Served as Director of the Office of Transport and Communications, until 1947. Assistant Secretary of State for Aviation, Shipping and Telecommunications Activities, 1947—. Address: Department of State, Washington, District of Columbia.

NORTON, HENRY KITTREDGE, American Railroad Trustee; born Oct. 14, 1884, Chicago, Ill.; son of Thomas S. and Caroline (Jackson) Norton; educated at Dartmouth College, B.S. 1905; Pomona College, M.A. 1913; Univ. of California, 1914-15. Admitted to California Bar, 1908; maintained own law office, 1908-18; 1st Lieut., U. S. Army Air Service, 1918-19; Executive Officer, California Immigration Commission, 1919-20; newspaper work in Japan, China, Siberia and Europe, 1920-23; Asst. to General Counsel, Armour & Co., 1923-24; newspaper work in New York, 1924-33; Press Liaison Officer under Charles Evans Hughes, Pan American Conf., Havana, 1928; represented Carnegie Endowment for International Peace in South America, 1931; Treasurer, National Broadcasting Co., 1933-34; Asst. to Pres., Radio Corp. of America, 1934-36; Vice-Pres., Radiomarine Corp., 1935-36; Executive Officer to Trustee, New York, Susquehanna & Western Railroad Co., 1937-43; Trustee, 1943. Pres. and Director: Passaic & New York Railroad Co.; Hackensack & Lodi R.R. Co., Lodi Branch R.R. Co.; Vice-Pres., Susquehanna Connecting Railroad Co.; Treasurer and Director, Walter Kidde & Co., Inc. Director: Walter Kidde Constructors, Inc.; Bloomfield Tool Corp., Kidde Manufacturing Co., Inc.; Youngstown Miller Co.; Film Automatic Machine Co.; First Paterson National Bank & Trust Co.; The American Short Line Railroad Assn. Author: The Story of California, 1913; The Far Eastern Republic of Siberia, 1921; Occidental Interpretations of the Far Eastern Problem (with Woodhead and Arnold), 1926; China and the Powers, 1927; Back of War, 1928;

The United States in the Caribbean (with Jones and Moon), 1929; Foreign Office Organization, 1929; Investing in Wages (with A. L. Deane) 1932; The Coming of South America, 1932; The Background of Foreign Affairs, 1924-31. Residence: 78 Macdougal St. Office: 140 Cedar St., New York 6, N. Y.

NORTON, Hon. JAMES EDWARD, American Jurist; born Apr. 4, 1867, Davenport, Ia.; son of Ambrose L. and Katherine (Tolles) Norton; educated at District School; Attica, N. Y. High School; married Ellen C. Wright, Sept. 8, 1892; two daughters. Justice of Peace, Attica, 1897-98; County Judge and Surrogate, Wyoming, N. Y., 1899-1922; Justice, Supreme Court of New York, 1923-37; Official Referee, Supreme Court, since 1938. Address: 49 State St., Warsaw, N. Y.

NORTON, Dr. JOHN KELLEY, American Educator; born April 16, 1893, Santa Clara County, Calif.; educated at Stanford University, A.B. 1916, A.M. 1917; Columbia University, Ph.D. 1926. Principal of an elementary school, Oakland, Calif., 1920. Director, Bureau of Extension and Research, State Teachers College, San Jose, Calif., 1921; Director of Research, National Education Assn. and Editor, Research Bulletin, 1922-31. Professor, Teachers College, Columbia University, since 1931; Director, Division of Organization and Administration, since 1942. Member: Committee on Education and Government of American Council on Education (Chairman); American Education Research Assn. (President, 1927-28), etc. Author: Ability of States to Support Education, 1926. Co-author: Foundations of Curriculum Building, 1936; Wealth, Children, and Education, 1937. Author: Education and Economic Well-Being (Educ. Pol. Com.); An Inventory of Public School Expenditures in the United States, 1944. Co-author: Unfinished Business in American Education, 1945. Address: Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

NORTON, Mrs. MARY TERESA, Member of Congress of United States; born and educated in Jersey City, N. J.; widow of Robert F. Norton. Vice-Chairman, State Democratic Committee, 1921-32; Chairman, 1932. Delegate-at-Large to Democratic National Conventions of 1924, 1928, 1932, 1936, 1940 and 1944. Elected to U. S. House of Representatives, 1924; re-elected to succeeding Congresses. First woman elected to Congress from Democratic Party. Chairman, House Committee on Labor. Introduced first resolution in Congress to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment. Residence: Jersey City, N. J. Office: House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

NORTON, RALPH HUBBARD, American Industrialist; born Dec. 27, 1875, Chicago, Ill.; son of Oliver W. and Lucy (Fanning) Norton; educated at Univ. of Chicago; married Elizabeth Calhoun, May 9, 1908; four children. Joined Acme Steel Co. as engineer, 1901; President, since 1923. Dir. of Arens Controls, Inc. Hon. Pres., Chautauqua (N. Y.) Institution; Trustee and Executive Com. Member, Orchestral Assn. of Chicago; Governing Life Member, Art Institute of Chicago; Member of the Board of Directors, Chicago Galleries Assn.; Trustee, Illinois Institute of Technology; Director, Associated Employers of Illinois, and Honorary President of Palm Beach Art League, West Palm Beach, Fla. Residence: 4930 Woodlawn Ave. Office: 2840 Archer Ave., Chicago 8, Illinois.

NORTON, TOM, Welsh Business Executive; born Sept. 6, 1870, Newtown, Wales; son of William and Elizabeth (Phillips) Norton; educated by tutors; married Elsie Cummins, Sept. 26, 1910; four children. Began business career, 1886; started on own account, 1899; now Managing Director of The Automobile Palace, Ltd.; developed automobile, farm tractor and implement business; turnover approximately £500,000 per annum. Chairman: Llandrindod Wells Mineral Waters, Ltd.; Plas Winton Hotel, Ltd., and Victoria Hall, Ltd. Member and Chairman, Urban District Council; County Magistrate since 1915; Chairman, since 1942; nominated as High Sheriff of Radnorshire, 1945-49. Member: Soc. of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT); Motor Agents Assn. (MAA); Agricultural Machinery and Tractor Dealers Assn. Chairman, Brecon and Radnor Conservative Assn. Member, Wye Board of Conservators. Address: Bryn Morfa, Llandrindod Wells, Radnorshire, Wales.

NORTON, VICTOR, South African Editor; born 1906, Johannesburg, South Africa; son of S. and E. (Lynd) Norton; married Molly McClurg; two children. Reporter, The Star, 1926; with Rhodesian newspapers of Argus Co., five years; joined Cape Times, 1932, now Editor. Address: The Cape Times, Burg St., Cape Town, South Africa.

NORTON, Hon. WILLIAM, Irish Political Leader. Member of the Dail, 1926-27, 1932 —. Leader of the Labour Party in the Dail. Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Social Services in Costello Cabinet, 1948 —. Address: 6 Merlyn Park, Ballsbridge, Dublin, Ireland.

NORTON, Dr. WILLIAM JOHN, American Social Worker; born Apr. 8, 1883, White Head Island, Me.; son of Horace Foster and Asaeneth (Elwell) Norton; educated at Bowdoin College, A.B. 1905; Wayne Univ., LL.D. 1934; Bowdoin College, Sc.D. 1938; Univ. of Michigan, LL.D. 1941; married Effie Comstock, Sept. 3, 1908; four children. Entered field of social service, 1905; social settlement work in Brooklyn, N. Y., Cleveland, Ohio, 1905-10. Secy., Dept. of Charities and Corrections, Cleveland, 1910-12; Council of Social Agencies, Cincinnati, 1913-17; Detroit Community Fund, 1917-30; Executive Vice-Pres., Children's Fund of Michigan, since 1930. Pres., Natl. Conference of Social Work, 1925. Author: Cooperative Movement in Social Work. Address: 56 Ridge Rd., Pleasant Ridge, Mich.

NORVAL, WILLEM DIXON, South African Government Official; born May 2, 1893, Wepener, Orange Free State; son of A. J. and E. R. (Adendorff) Norvel; married Estella Horst, Aug. 24, 1921; two children. Junior Clerk, Dept. of Lands, 1913-19; Clerk, Union Dept. of Education, 1919-24; Private Secy. to Minister of Education, Interior and Public Health, 1924-27; Clerk, Dept. of Agriculture, 1927-29; Mining Commnr., Dept. of Mines, 1929-32; Under Secy. for Labor, Dept. of Labor, 1933-42; Chairman, Union Lender & Supplies Board, 1943-45; Chairman, Central Road Motor Transportation Board, since 1946. Served on Pauper Relief Com., 1937; Social Security Com., 1943; Readjustment Board for Disabled Soldiers, 1943; Inter-Departmental Com. on Deviate Children, 1943-45; War Stores Disposal Board, 1944-45; Commn. of Inquiry into Road Motor Transportation, 1945-46. Govt. Delegate: Internatl. Labor Conf., Geneva, 1935; Conf. on Industrial Diseases, Brussels, 1935; Internatl. Labor Conf., Geneva, 1939. Residence: 188 Marais St., Pretoria. Office: P.O. Box 1077, Sanlam Bldg., Andries St., Pretoria, Union of South Africa.

NORVELL, WILLIAM EDMUND, JR., American Lawyer; born Mar. 1, 1885, Mobile, Ala.; son of W. E., Jr. and Elizabeth M. Norvell; educated at Vanderbilt Univ.,

B.S. 1906, LL.B. 1910; married Martha Washington Tillman, Dec. 12, 1917. Member: Douglas, Norvell & Thurston, 1910-11; Douglas & Norvell, 1911-19; Norvell & Minick since 1936. Director: Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway; Commerce Union Bank; Nashville Machine & Supply Co. Member, Board of Governors, Transportation Assn. of America; Nashville, Tennessee and American Bar Assns.; Advisory Com., Repeal Assn. Address: 706 Harry Nichol Bldg., Nashville, Tenn.

NORVILLE, LEO TILLMAN, American Lawyer; born 1905, Farmville, N. C.; son of Richard Tillman and Martha (Worthington) Norville; educated at Univ. of Michigan, B.A. 1930, J.D. 1932; married Marion O'Boyle, June 8, 1935; two children. Assoc. with Hopkins, Starr & Gardner, Chicago, 1932-38; Partner, law firm of Dickinson, Sprowl, Norville & James, 1938-44; Member, law firm of Bowden, Taylor & Norville, since 1944. Director: Kropp Forge Co.; Ceraseal Chemical Corp. Residence: 7356 S. Shore Dr. Office: 105 W. Adams St., Chicago, Illinois.

NORWEB, Hon. R. HENRY, American Diplomat; born May 31, 1894, Nottingham, England; naturalized; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1916; married. In American Embassy, Paris, 1916-17; Secretary of Embassy, 1917; with the Department of State, 1921-23; assigned to Tokyo, 1923; Foreign Service Officer, 1924; First Secretary, The Hague, 1925; First Secretary at Santiago, Chile, 1929; with State Department, 1929-30; Counsellor of Embassy at Santiago, 1930; at Mexico City, 1933; Counsellor to American Delegation, 7th International Conference of American States, Montevideo, 1933. Minister to Bolivia, 1936; Special Adviser, Inter-American Conference for Maintenance of Peace, Buenos Aires, 1936; Minister to the Dominican Republic, 1937; Delegate to First Inter-American Radio Conference, Havana, 1937; Delegate, 8th Inter-American Conference of American States, Lima, 1938; Delegate, 2nd Inter-American Radio Conference, Santiago, 1940. Ambassador to Peru, 1940; Chairman, U. S. Delegation to 3rd General Assembly, Pan American Institute of Geography and History, Lima, 1941; Ambassador to Portugal, 1942-44; Ambassador to Panama, Jan.-May, 1945. Appointed Ambassador to Cuba by President Truman, May 1945. Address: American Embassy, Havana, Cuba.

NORWID-NEUGEBAUER, Lieut. Gen. MIECZYSLAW, Polish Army Officer; born Feb. 5, 1889, Rzejowice, Piotrkow Dist., Poland; son of Jozef and Anzelma (Szalay) Neugebauer; educated at General Chrzanowski's College, Warsaw; Technical College at Lwow University, and in France; married Wanda Leskiewicz. Commanded battalions, regiments and brigades during the First World War, 1914-18, and was thrice wounded. In 1917 he was interned for his activities in safeguarding independent character of Pilsudski's Legions. In independent Poland, on Oct. 2, 1918, took over the command of the Wolyn Group. During 1919-21 he became Chief of Staff of the Kielce District, later of the Poznan District, and Quartermaster-General of the Lithuanian-White Russian Front; then Chief Administrator of General Headquarters; received rank of Major General, May 20, 1920; promoted to Lieutenant General, Aug. 15, 1924. Commanded the 28th Infantry Division, 1921-23; then Head of the Supply and Pay Military Department. Inspector for Lwow, 1926, and later Torun. Sent to Great Britain as Head of the Polish Military Mission, Sept. 1, 1939; Chief Administrator of the Polish Forces since Oct. 31, 1942. Minister of Public Works, 1930-32. Residence: 14 Eton Hall, Eton College Rd., London, N.W. 8, England.

NORWOOD, Sir CHARLES (JOHN BOYD), New Zealand Company Chairman; born 1871, Gympie, Queensland, Australia; son of John Boyd and Marion Norwood; educated at Normal Schools, Gympie; Queensland and Maryborough (Australia); married Rosina Ann Tattle, 1904; three children. Came to Wellington, New Zealand, 1897. Joined staff of Wellington Gas Co. Ltd., subsequently appointed to Exec. Staff, resigned, 1912. Founded Dominion Motors Ltd., 1912; now Chairman. Chairman: National Electrical & Engineering Co. Ltd.; New Zealand Insulators Ltd. Governing Director, C. R. Norwood Ltd. Director: Wellington Gas Co. Ltd.; Briscoe E. W. Mills & Co., Ltd. Mayor of Wellington, 1925-27. Founder and Chairman, Wellington Milk Dept. Founder and Chairman, Wellington Fire Board. Chairman, Wellington Harbour Board (Member 1918-35, and since 1938). Founder and Pres., Wellington Free Ambulance; Pres., Wellington Show Assn. Ex-Pres., Wellington Mfrs. Assn.; Ex-Pres., Wellington Chamber of Commerce. Pres., Wellington Navy League. Knighted 1937. Residence: 9 Upland Rd., Kelburn, Wellington, W. 1. Office: 65 Courtenay Pl., Wellington, New Zealand.

NORWOOD, Sir CYRIL, British Educator; born September 15, 1875, Whalley, Lancashire, England; son of the Rev. Samuel and Elizabeth Emma (Sparkes) Norwood; educated at St. John's College, Oxford, B.A. 1898, M.A. 1901; Hon.D.Litt., Bristol University, 1910; Hon. M.A., Sydney University, 1937; married Catherine Margaret Kilner, Dec. 19, 1901; three children. Master, Leeds Grammar School, 1903-06; Headmaster, Bristol Grammar School, 1906-16; Master of Marlborough College, 1917-26; Headmaster, Harrow School, 1926-34; President, St. John's College, Oxford, 1934-46. Ex-Chairman of Committee of Rural Economy; Chairman, Secondary Schools' Examinations Council; was Chairman, Committee appointed by the President of the Board of Education to report on Curriculum and Examinations in Secondary Schools, 1943. Knighted in 1938. Author: Higher Education of Boys in England (1909) and English Tradition of Education (1928). Residence: The Homestead, Iwerne Minster, Blandford, Dorset, England.

NORWOOD, Dr. GILBERT, Canadian Professor of Classics; born Nov. 23, 1880, Sheffield, England; son of Leonard and Helen Mary (Dutton) Norwood; educated at Cambridge, M.A. 1906; Hon. D.Litt., Wales, 1933; Scholar and Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge; Powis Medal, 1900; Porson Prize, 1901, 1903; Members' Latin Essay Prize, 1901; Chancellor's Medal, 1903; married twice; six children. Asst. Lecturer in Classics, Univ. of Manchester, 1903-08. Prof. of Greek, Univ. College, Cardiff, 1908-26; Prof. of Latin, Univ. College, Toronto, 1926; now Prof. of Classics and Director of Classical Studies. Author: Greek Tragedy, 1920, 1928; The Writers of Greece, 1925; The Wooden Man, 1926; Greek Comedy, 1931; The Art of Terence, 1923; Euripides and Shaw, other Essays, 1921; Pindar, 1945. Address: The University, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

NOSAKA, SANZO, Japanese Parliament Member; Communist Party Leader; born March 30, 1892, City of Hagi, Japan; educated at Keio Univ. One of leaders of Friendship Soc., forerunner of General Federation of Labor, 1912; studied labor questions in England, France, Germany, Soviet Union, two years; joined English Communist Party, 1923; imprisoned three times for party activities; Representative of Japanese Communist Party in Moscow, 1931. Member of Presidium, Comintern, 1935; organized anti-war movement in North China, 1940; re-education of Japanese War Prisoners; established Labor-Farmer School for Japanese War Prisoners, Yenan, 1940; organized League for Liberation of Japanese People, 1943; returned to Japan, 1946; elected Member of Central Com. and Member of Political Bureau, 5th Congress of Communist Party of Japan, 1946; elected to House of Representatives (Chief of Communist Group), 1946; re-elected, 1947. Address: Communist Office: 714, 4-chome, Sendagaya, Shibuya-Ku, Tokyo, Japan.

NOSEK, Dr. JINDRICH, Czechoslovakian Diplomat; born 1896, Novy Bydzov, Czechoslovakia; son of Antonin and Ruzena (Belikova) Nosek; educated at Charles Univ., Prague, J. D.; married Zdenka Nemcova, 1925. Secy., 3rd class, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1920; Vice-Consul in Drazdany, 1925-28; Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Dept. of League of Nations, 1929-33; 1st Secy., Czechoslovak Legation, Paris, 1934-40; Head, Political Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, London, 1940-44; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, Czechoslovak Legation, Paris, since 1944; Ambassador, Czechoslovak Embassy, Paris, since 1945. Delegate, Peace Conf., Paris, 1946. Residence: 17 Ave. Charles Floquet. Office: 15 Ave. Charles Floquet, Paris 7e, France.

NOSEK, VÁCLAV, Czechoslovak Minister of Interior; born Sept. 26, 1892, Velká Dobra, Czechoslovikia; married (2nd) Feb. 1, 1946; one son. Began as coal miner in Kladno; Secretary, Miners Trade Union, 1924; Chairman of the Centre, Industrial Trade Unions. After the occupation of Prague by German troops, 1939, went to Poland and then to England, via Sweden, becoming Vice-Chairman of the Czechoslovak State Council; Chairman, Czechoslovak Communist Party in London, until 1945. Minister of the Interior, 1945—. Member of Parliament; Chairman, "Lidice Shall Live Society"; Member of Executive Com., Czechoslovak Communist Party. Member, Masaryk Soc., Lany. Awarded French decoration "de la Resistance." Residence: 14 Roosevelt St. Office: Letenské nám 69, Prague, Czechoslovakia.

NOSENKO, IVAN ISIDOROVICH, Soviet Minister of Transport Engineering. Elected Alternate Member of Central Committee of the Communist Party, 1941. Commissar for Shipbuilding of the U.S.S.R., 1940-47; appointed Minister of Transport Engineering, Dec. 1947—. Address: Ministry of Transport Engineering, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NOSOV, GRIGORII IVANOVICH, Soviet Engineer; born in the Urals; son of Ivan Nosov (a blacksmith at a South Urals plant); educated at elementary school; worker's high school; Tomsk Technological Inst. In charge of laboratory at Tomsk Inst. and lecturer in chemistry; shift engineer, furnace shop of iron and steel mill in Kuznetsk, 1933; advanced foreman, supt. of furnace group, asst. shop supt., shop supt., and chief engineer until 1939; in charge of construction of one of largest metallurgical plants in the Soviet Union at Magnitogorsk, in the Urals; now Director of plant. Awarded three Orders of Lenin (first presented in 1941; second and third decorations presented for production of new grades of steel, boosting production capacity and increasing the output of steel for various war plants). Address: Magnitogorsk Metallurgical Plant, Magnitogorsk, Urals, U.S.S.R.

NOSRAT, Hon. MOSTAFA, Egyptian Senator; born February 2, 1893, Cairo, Egypt; son of Radwan; educated at Glasgow University, B.Sc. 1913; married Zeinab Zaki, July 24, 1921; three children. Engineer with the Mesopotamia Irrigation Works, 1914; Assistant Chief Engineer in Vilayet of Konia, 1918. Elected Deputy to the Egyptian Parliament, 1936 and 1941; Minister of Civil Defense, 1942; Minister of Agriculture, 1943-44. Senator, 1947—. Residence: 21 Sharia Ismail Pacha, Garden City, Cairo, Egypt.

NOSWORTHY, Sir RICHARD LYSLE, K.C.M.G.; British Diplomat; born Nov. 20, 1885; educated at Christ Church, Oxford, B.A. 1907. Vice-Consul, New York, 1910; H.M. Vice-Consul, New York, 1913; Acting Consul General, 1914. With Dept. of Overseas Trade, Foreign Office, 1917. Private Secy. to Sir Arthur Steel-Maitland, Asst. Under-Secy. of State for Foreign Affairs, Feb.-Nov. 1918. Promoted Consul at St. Pierre et Miquelon, 1919, but continued in Dept. of Overseas Trade. Acting Commercial Secy. at Washington, D. C., March-Sept. 1920; with Dept. of Overseas Trade, 1920-22; called to Bar, Inner Temple, 1921. Consul, Turin, 1922; seconded for special service in Berlin, 1927-30; transferred to Los Angeles, 1930. E. E. and M. P., Bolivia, and Consul General, 1931. Commercial Counsellor, Rio de Janeiro, 1942. Minister (Commercial) to Italy, 1945—. Address: British Embassy, Rome, Italy.

NOTENSTEIN, Dr. FRANK WALLACE, American Demographer. Professor, Director, Office of Population Research in the School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University. Member, American Philosophical Soc. Address: Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

NOTENSTEIN, Dr. WALLACE, American Literary Historian; born December 16, 1879, Wooster, Ohio; son of Jonas O. and Margaret (Wallace) Notenstein; educated at Wooster College, B.A. 1900; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1908; Harvard Univ., hon. Litt.D. Asst. Prof. at Kansas Univ., 1905-07; successively Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof. and Prof. at Univ. of Minnesota, 1908-20; Prof. of English History at Cornell Univ., 1920-28; Sterling Prof. of English History at Yale. Director of Yale Press. Councilor of Guggenheim Foundation and of A.C.L.S. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

NOTHIN, TORSTEN KARL VIKTOR, LL.D., Swedish Political Leader; born in Voxtorp, Jönköping, Sweden, February 16, 1884; son of J. and Anna (Bengtson) Nothin; married Vera Akerman, 1925; one daughter. Called to the Bar, 1905. Appointed Counsellor of the Lower Court of Appeal, 1917; of the Supreme Court of Judicature, 1920; Deputy, 1921-28; Minister without portfolio, 1920 and 1921-23. Minister of Justice, 1924-26; Director-General and Chief of the Swedish Land Survey, 1926-33; Minister without Portfolio in the Hanson Cabinet, 1932-33; Governor-General of Stockholm, since 1933. Author: Stadernas sarskilda skyldigheter och rattigheter i forhallande till staten. Address: Slottsbacken 4, Stockholm, Sweden.

NOTHOMB, Baron, (PIERRE), Belgian Senator; born March 28, 1887; son of André and Eugénie (de le Court) Nothomb; educated at Catholic Univ., Louvain; married Ghislaine Montens d'Oosterwyck; twelve children. Engaged in private law practice at Brussels; served in Belgian Army as volunteer, World War I; Member of Cabinet of Minister of Justice, 1917; identified with Belgian Legation in Berne, Switzerland, 1918; Secy. General, Com. of National Politics; Director, La Politique et l'Action Nationale (journal), 1919-28; Member of Municipal Council, St. Josse-ten-Noode (Brussels), 1931-36; Habay-la-Neuve, 1936. Member of Belgian Senate since 1936; Secy. of Foreign Affairs Committee. Member, Royal Acad. of French Literature. Author of about fifty volumes of poetry, novels, history, politics and essays. Residence: Chateau du Pont d'Oye, Habay la Neuve, Prov. Luxembourg. Office: 72 rue d'Arlon, Brussels, Belgium.

NOTMAN, ARTHUR, American Consulting Engineer; born April 28, 1883, New York, N. Y.; son of George Notman and Katharine Parker (Howard) Notman; educated at Brooklyn Polytech. Inst.; Harvard, B.S. 1903, E.M. 1908; graduate study, Columbia, 1905-07; married Florence Hancock, Apr. 22, 1913; one son. Employed by Phelps Dodge Corp., in various capacities, 1908-23; Consulting Engineer. since 1923. Director, MacLeod Cockshutt Gold Mines, Ltd.; Hasaga Gold Mines Ltd.; Starratt-Olsen Gold Mines Ltd., Magma Copper Co. Ltd. Member, Harriman Mission, London, representing the War Production Board, 1942; represented War Shipping Administration on Harriman Mission and its successor Mission for Economic Affairs, London, 1942-44. Ex-Pres., Mining & Metallurgical Soc. of America. Residence: Circle Rd., Dongan Hills, S. I., N. Y. Address: 40 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

NOTT-BOWER, Sir (WILLIAM) GUY, C.B.E., C.B., British Government Official; born October 9, 1890, Liverpool, England; son of Sir William and Florence (Harrison) Nott-Bower; educated at Cheltenham College; Brasenose College, Oxford, B.A.; married Winifred Matthews, Nov. 1914; three children. Began as Civil Servant, 1914; served with Board of Inland Revenue, 1916; Home Office, 1920; Ministry of Labour, 1920; Mines Department, 1921; Air Ministry, 1938. Joined the Ministry of Fuel and Power, 1942; now Deputy Secretary. Residence: 31 Lingfield Rd., Wimbledon. Office: Ministry of Fuel and Power, Millbank, London, S.W. 1, England.

NOTTINGHAM, Dr. WAYNE B(UCKLES), American Physicist; born Apr. 17, 1899, Tipton, Ind.; son of Otis W. and Gertrude (McCrea) Nottingham; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S.E.E. 1920 Uppsala, Sweden; Princeton Univ., M.A. 1926, Ph.D. 1929; Purdue Univ., E.E. 1929; married Vivian Keplinger, June 11, 1922; one son. Benjamin Franklin Fellow, Amer. Scandinavian Foundation, Uppsala, 1920-21; Engineer, Western Electric and Bell Telephone Laboratories, 1921-25; Research Fellow, Bartol Research Foundation, 1926-31; Dept. of Physics, Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, since 1931; now Prof. Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; Optical Soc. of America; Inst. of Radio Engineers; Franklin Inst.; Amer. Assn. of Physics Teachers. Awarded Levi Medal, Franklin Inst. Contributor to literature of physics. Address: Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 77 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

NOUERA, ABD EL HALIM, Egyptian Composer and Conductor; born June 19, 1916, Salhia, Sharkia, Egypt; son of Abd Allah and Nefisa (Ibrahim) Nouera; educated at Royal Inst. (diploma). Prof., Higher Inst. of Music; Musical Inspector, Ministry of Education. Wrote music for various Egyptian films, including Zahra, Antar & Ablah, The Future's Man, The Sin, Two Minded Man, A Wife for Hire, etc. Member: Egyptian Music Syndicate; Artists' House. Assoc. Member, Cinematographic Syndicate. Compositions include: The Green Valley; Nabata; Accidents in Fire; Symphony in D minor; Chorale of the Farmer; Piano Concerto with Orchestra. Address: 2 Ganzouri St., Abbasia, Cairo, Egypt.

NOURSE, Dr. EDWIN GRISWOLD, American Economist; born May 20, 1883, Lockport, N. Y.; son of Edwin Henry and Harriet Augusta (Beaman) Nourse; educated at Lewis Institute, Chicago; Cornell Univ., A.B. 1906; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1915; married Ray Marie Tyler, Aug. 17, 1910; one son. Instr. in Finance, Wharton School, Pa., 1909-10; Prof. and Head, Dept. of Economics and Sociology, University of South Dakota, 1910-12; at University of Arkansas, 1915-18. Professor, Agricultural Economics, Iowa State College, and Chief, Agricultural Economics Section, Iowa Agriculture Experiment Station, 1918-23. Chief of Agriculture Division, 1923-29; Director, Institute of Economics of the Brooking Institution, 1929-42; Vice-President, The Brookings Institution, 1942-46. Chairman, Council of Economic Advisers, Executive Office of the President, 1946 —. Member: American Economic Assn. (President, 1942); American Academy of Arts and Sciences; American Farm Economic Assn. (President, 1924); Social Science Research Council (Chairman, 1942-46). Author: Chicago Produce Market, 1918; American Agriculture and the European Market, 1924; The Legal Status of Agricultural Co-operation, 1927; America's Capacity to Produce (with associates), 1934; Marketing Agreements Under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, 1935; Three Years of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration (with J. S. Davis and J. D. Black), 1937; Industrial Price Policies and Economic Progress (with H. B. Dury), 1938; Price Making in a Democracy, 1944. Residence: 3802 Jocelyn St., N.W. Office: Executive Office of the President, State Department Bldg., Washington-District of Columbia.

NOURSE, Hon. JOHN THOMAS, American Jurist; born Mar. 3, 1877, Academia, Pa.; son of John T. and Eleanor (Pomeroy) Nourse; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1900; married Ruth Hoppin, June 11, 1908; two children. Asst. City Attorney of San Francisco, 1904; Deputy Attorney General, 1911; Judge, Superior Court, 1917; Justice, Dist. Court of Appeal, 1919; Presiding Justice, Dist. Court of Appeal, since 1930. Trustee, Stanford Univ., since 1920. Residence: 666 Tennyson Ave., Palo Alto, Calif. Office: State Building, San Francisco, Calif.

NOVACKY, Dr. JÁN MARTIN, Czechoslovak Botanist; born 1899, Tvrdtosin, Kosice, Czechoslovakia; son of Anton and Adalberta (Kysel) Novacky; educated at Univs. of Budapest and Prague, Sc.D.; married Catherine Fisher, July 9, 1932; three children. Gymnasium Teacher at Kosice, Breclav, Rimavská Sobota, Bratislava, 1923-35; Director of Gymnasium Prievidza, Zilina, Bratislava, 1936-44; Prof. of Botany, College of Agriculture and Forestry, Kosice, since 1946. Docent of Geobotany, Univ. of Bratislava. 1947. Rector, College of Agriculture and Forestry, Kosice. Author of many papers on botany; textbooks on botany for Gymnasium, Bratislava, 1943; Phytogeographical and floristical studies of Moor St. Jur, 1941; Flora Slovaca, 1943; Conditiones phytogeographicae Nitriae Superioris St. Martin, 1946. Residence: Modlitebná Str. 1. Office: Zbrojnicka No. 7, Kosice, Czechoslovakia.

NOVAK, EMIL, American Gynecologist and Obstetrician; born Mar. 8, 1884, Baltimore, Md.; son of Joseph and Mary (Hajek) Novak; educated at Loyola Univ., A.B. 1912; Univ. of Maryland, M.D. 1904; married Elizabeth G. Rogers, Mar. 24, 1913; three children. Assoc., later Assoc. Prof. of Gynecol., Baltimore Med. College, 1905-09; Assoc. Prof. of Gynecol., College of Physicians and Surgeons, until 1915. Asst. Prof. of Gynecol., Johns Hopkins, since 1915; Assoc. Prof. of Obstet., Univ. of Maryland, since 1925 Dir. of Passano Foundation for Med. Research. Member, Bd. of Supervisors, City Charities of Baltimore, 1928-36. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons; Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Obstet. and Gynecol. Member: Amer. Gynecol. Soc. (Past Vice-Pres.); Amer. Assn. of Obstet. and Gynecol.; Southern Surgical Soc.; Assn. for Study of Internal Secretions; Central Assn. of Obstets. and Gynecols. (Hon.); Amer. Med. Assn.; (Honorary Fellow) Société française de Gynécologie; Royal Inst. of Med. (Budapest); Soc. of Obstet. and Gynecol. (Buenos Aires). Awarded (hon.) D.Sc., Trinity College, Dublin, 1933. Author: Textbook of Gynecology, 2nd ed., 1944; Gynecological and Obstetrical Pathology, 1941 Menstruation and Its Disorders, 1932; The Woman Asks the Doctor (2nd ed., 1945); also some 300 articles. Address: 26 E. Preston St., Baltimore, Md.

NOVÁK, Dr. FRANTISEK A., Czechoslovak Botanist; born Oct. 20, 1892, Chotebuz, Czechoslovakia; son of Frantisek and Frantiska (Kalousová) Novák; educated at Charles Univ., Prague, Ph.D. 1919; married Ludmila Hallová, Jan. 28, 1922. Research Asst. in Botany, Charles Univ., Prague, 1919-21; Docent in Botany, 1921-27; Assoc. Prof. of Botany, 1927-34; Prof. of Botany since 1934; Head of Botanical Inst. and Director of Botanical Gardens, since 1945; Dean, Faculty of Natural Sciences, 1945-46. Member: Royal Bohemian Soc. of Doctrines; Masaryk Acad. of Work; Natl. Research Council; National Biological Com.; Bulgarian Botanical Soc. (Foreign Member). Hon. Member: Soc. of Czech Pharmaceutical Students; Soc. of Students of Natural Sciences; Czechoslovak Botanical Soc. (Vice-Pres.). Author: Monography of the European Species of the Genus Dianthus, 6 vols. 1924-27; Systematic Botany, I, 1930; II, 1943; about three hundred papers on Taxonomy, plant geography, ecology, morphology, protection of nature, useful and medical plants, flora of Czechoslovak Republic and Balkan Peninsula. Residence: Podskalská - 3. Office: Institute of Botany, Benátská 2. Prague, Czechoslovakia.

NOVAK, Dr. JOSEF, American Surgeon; born Feb. 28, 1879, Hostomice, Czechoslovakia; son of Moritz and Katharina (Engel) Novak; educated at Univ. of Prague, M.D. 1903; married Hertha Wallnstorfer, Dec. 20, 1921; three children. Privatdocent, Univ. of Vienna, 1916. Prof. of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Columbia Univ., 1939—. Research and Clinical Staff, Mt. Sinai Hospital, since 1939. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Bd. of Obstetrics and Gynecology; Virchow Soc.; Medical Circle. Author of 200 publications on gynecology and obstetrics. Residence: 1212 Fifth Ave. Office: 112 E. 74th St., New York 21, N. Y.

NOVAK, Dr. MILAN VACLAV, American Bacteriologist; born Dec. 24, 1907, Cobb, Wis.; son of Philip and Barbara (Vavrina) Novak; educated at Macalester College, A.B. 1929; Univ. of Minn., M.S. 1930, Ph.D. 1932, B.S. 1936, B.M. 1938, M.D. 1938; married Dorothy Flint, July 28, 1934; two children. Asst. Prof. of Bacteriol., Univ. of Tenn., 1932; Research Asst. in Pharmacol., Univ. of Minn., 1933-34; Instructor in Bacteriol., Extension Division, 1934-38 Dir. of Blood Bank and Clinical Bacteriol., Laboratory of Univ. Hosp., and Instructor in Bacteriol. and Immunol., 1938-40. Assoc. Prof. of Bacteriol. and Public Health, Univ. of Illinois, 1940-43; Dir. of Blood Bank, Research Hosp., since 1942; Prof. and Acting Head of Dept. of Bacteriol. and Public Health, 1943, and Head of Dept. since 1944. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Soc. of Experimental Biol. and Med.; Soc. of Amer. Bacteriologists; Amer. Public Health Assn. Contributor to medical literature. Office: 1853 W. Polk St., Chicago 12, Illinois.

NOVAK, Dr. VITEZSLAV, Czechoslovak Composer; born Dec. 5, 1870, Kamenice, Bohemia; son of Dr. Jakub and Marie (Pollenska) Novak; educated at Philosophical Faculty, Univ. of Prague; Musical Acad., School of Composition; pupil of Antonin Dvorak; married Marie Praskova, July 8, 1912; one son. Hon. member, Swedish Royal Acad. Musical compositions: operas, ballets, orchestral works, chamber music, choral music, songs, piano music. Residence: Prague II, Riegrovo 12, Czechoslovakia.

NOVELLI, Prof. ARMANDO, Argentine Chemist; born Nov. 17, 1901; son of Pedro Novelli and Maria Hermida de Novelli; educated at Univ. of Buenos Aires; Univ. of Illinois, U. S. A., 1933-34 (under a scholarship of Rockefeller Foundation); married María Della Pérez, Jan. 12, 1928. Prof. of Organic Chemistry, Univ. of Buenos Aires since 1935 and at Univ. of La Plata since 1938. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Chemical Soc. of France, etc. Author of numerous works and publications relating to the synthesis of drugs and matters chemical. Address: Junin 952, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

NOVELLI, ENRICO, (pen name: Yambo), Italian Journalist; born June 5, 1876, Pisa, Italy; son of Ermete and Lina (Marazzi) Novelli. Director, Sancio Pancia; Pupazzetto; Editor, Nazione; now Director, N. Giornale, Florence; Founder, Teatro di Fantocci (for children). Author: Atlantide, 1900; Ciuffettino, 1902; I fratelli della mano rossa, 1902; Il giro del mondo in automobile, 1904; Manoscritto trovato in una Bottiglia, 1905; Il tesoro degli Incas, 1905; Gil esplorat. dell' Infinito, 1906; Il teatro dei burattini, 1906; Le avventure del cap. Bombax, 1907; La colonia lunare, 1908; La rivincita di Lissa, 1909; Lo scimiottino verde, 1909; La banda di Carlo Rousset, 1911; Fiorenza mia, 1911; Gomitolino, 1913; Ciuffettino alla guerra, 1916; Un viaggio al centro dell' universo invisible, 1919; Il libro delle Bimbe, 1920; Mestolino, 1923; Fiamma su la balzana (novel), 1926; Tutto di tutto, 1928; Il giro del mondo in 80 mesi, 1928; L'Arcipelago delle fantasia, 1929; Il Talismano delle 100,000 disgrazie, 1929; Il diavolo nella cupola (novel), 1930; (plays) Cagliostro; La novella del calcio; Papa Gennaro; Fiorenza mia; numerous adventure books for juveniles. Address: Via Ricasoli 8, Florence, Italy.

NOVELLO, IVOR, British Actor, Composer, Playwright; born 1894. Author: The Rat (with Constance Collier), 1924; Down Hill, 1926; The Truth Game, 1928; Symphony in Two Flats, 1929; I Lived with You, 1932; Party, 1932; Flies in the Sun, 1933; Murder in Mayfair, 1934; Fresh Fields, 1935; Sunshine Sisters, 1935; Glamorous Night, 1935; Careless Rapture, 1936; Full House, 1936; Crest of the Wave, 1937; The Dancing Years (achieved a run of eight years), 1939; Breakaway, 1941; Perchance to Dream, 1945, etc. Composed Keep the Home Fires Burning; We'll Gather Lilacs; also numerous songs in various plays starred in. Appeared in most of own plays; also: Old Heidelberg; Iris; Firebrand; etc.; also in a few silent Hollywood films, and in British talking pictures. Address: 11 Aldwych, London, W.C. 2, England.

NOVIKOV, Air Marshal ALEKSANDR ALEKSANDROVICH, Soviet Air Force Officer; born 1900, near town of Kostroma.

Village schoolmaster at age 18; entered Army at age 19, and fought on fronts of Civil War, 1919. Joined Communist Party, 1920. Commanded platoon for six years; graduate, Frunze Military Acad. Appointed chief of operational dept. of a large Army unit stationed at Smolensk; later transferred to the Air Force and made Chief of Staff of an air unit; became air navigator and commanded bomber unit for three years. Chief of Air Staff, Leningrad Military District, Soviet-Finnish War of 1939-40. During first six months of Soviet-German war commanded air force at Leningrad front; later took over command of all Red Army air forces; directed operations of air units in battle of Stalingrad, the air war over the Kuban, the struggle on the Kursk bulge, the battles in the Ukraine and Byelorussia, the assaults on the Vistula & Oder, the siege of Koenigsberg, and the Berlin engagement. Commanded air forces in Far East campaign, 1945. Named 1st Asst. in command of Air Forces of Red Army, 1942; Commander, 1942; promoted to Col. General, 1943, Marshal, 1943, Chief Air Marshal, 1944. Air Chief until 1946. Received Order of Suvorov, 1st degree, 1943 and 1944; Order of Kutuzov, 1st class, 1944; title of Hero of the Soviet Union, 1945; Order of Lenin, 1945; Gold Star Medal, 1945. Elected to Supreme Soviet of U.S.S.R., 1946 —. Address: Soviet Air Force, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NOVIKOV, ANATOLI, Soviet Composer. Wrote numerous musical works. Awarded Stalin Prize in 1946 for musical contributions. Address: All Union of Soviet Composers, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NOVIKOV, KIRIL VASILEVICH, Soviet Diplomat; born 1905; educated at Leningrad Univ. Counsellor, Soviet Embassy in London, 1942-45; Chief, Second European Section, Soviet Foreign Office dealing with affairs of Great Britain and the British Commonwealth, 1945. Soviet Representative at Moscow Conf., 1943 and at Crimean Conf., 1945. Member of Soviet Delegation to Tripartite Conf. in Berlin, 1945. Deputy Member and General Secy., Soviet Delegation to United Nations, 1946; Delegate, Paris Peace Conf., 1946; Soviet Representative on Four Power Com. of Experts on Austrian Peace Treaty, 1947. Ambassador to India, Nov. 1947 —. Address: Soviet Embassy, New Delhi, India.

NOVIKOV, NIKOLAI VASILIEVICH, Soviet Diplomat; born February 7, 1903, Leningrad, U.S.S.R., son of Vasili and Pelagheya (Volkova) Novikov; educated at Oriental Inst., Leningrad, 1930; Inst. Profs. of World Economics and Politics, Moscow, 1935-38; married Lidia Ivanovna Kovaleva, Aug. 29, 1936; two children. With People's Ministry for Foreign Affairs, 1938; Deputy Director of First Eastern Dept., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1938; Director, Near Eastern Dept., 1939; Director, Balkan Dept., 1940; Director, Fourth European Dept., 1941; Ambassador to Greek and Yugoslavian Govts.; Minister to Egypt, 1943-44; Minister-Counsellor, USSR Embassy, Washington, D. C., 1944; Chargé d'Affaires, Feb.-Apr. 1945; Ambassador to the United States, 1946-1947. Soviet representative, Far Eastern Commn. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, Order of Patriotoc War 1st Class. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

NOVO CAMPELO, Dr. ANTONIO, Spanish Physician; born 1878, Muros, Spain; son of Antonio Novo Trigo and Josefa Campelo Sanmartin; educated at Univ. of Santiago, B.A., Lic. Med., M.D., C.M.; married María González Fernández, 1905; three children. Served interneship, 1896; became Asst. Prof. at Faculty of Medicine, 1907; Professor of Pharmacology, 1909; appointed Royal Commissary of Medical Schools and Veterinary Offices, 1910. Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, Universidad de Santiago, since 1933. Member, Sociedad Internacional de Hidrología. Honors: Commendador de la Orden de Instrucción Pública of Portugal and Commendador de la Orden Medhania de su Alteza el Jalifa of Marocco. Author: Tratado de Farmacologia y Terapeútica (3rd ed.); Empleo Terapeútico de las Aguas Minero-Medicinales; Tratamiento de los Reumatismos Crónicos; Tratamiento Crenotevápico de la Litiasis Venal; Tratamiento de los Enfermedades de Origen Reumático del Corazón. Residence: Santiago de Compostela. Office: Carrera del Conde 9, Santiago, Coruna, Spain.

NOVO, Dr. SALVADOR, Mexican Writer; born July 30, 1904, Mexico City, Mexico; son of Andrés and Amelia (López Espino) Novo; educated at National Univ. of Mexico, Ph.D. Radio Commentator, British Broadcasting Corporation, London, 1943-44; XEOY, Mexico, 1942-45; Film Producer for CISA, 1938-40; Script Writer, for RAMEX, since 1945. Author of theatrical version of Don Quixote, produced at Palace of Fine Arts, Mexico City, 1947. Head of Publicity Dept., Ministry of Education, 1924-32; Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1932-34; Head of Theater Dept., Natl. Inst. of Fine Arts, since 1947. Received City of Mexico Award for best monograph on Mexico City, 1946. Author: Return Ticket, 1928; Continente Vacio, 1935; Nuevo Amor (poetry), 1933; Nueva Grandeza Mexicana, 1946, etc. Residence: 138 Avda. Juárez-Coyoacán, Mexico, D. F. Office: Sullivan 27-1, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

NOVOA, CARLOS, Mexican Lawyer, Banker and Financier; son of Eduardo Novoa and Margarita Roumagnac; educated at National High School of Mexico; National Law School of Mexico; married Eugenia Allard, June 25, 1926; one son. Counsel, Dept. of Finance and Public Credit, 1924-28; Head of Legal Dept., Loan Bank for Irrigation Works and Agricultural Development. President: Adjustment Commn. of Public Debt, 1932; Natl. Banking Commn., 1933. Counsel, General Credit Divison and Attorney in charge of supervising liquidation of old Issue Banks, 1933; Head of Legal Dept., Nacional Financiera S.A., 1933-35 (Organizer of same, 1933); maintained own law office, 1935-37; Manager, Mexican Bankers' Assn. and Manager of Banco Industrial, 1941. Pres., Mexican Bankers' Assn., 1946; Director General, Banco de México S.A., since 1946. Member: Sugar Convention, 1931; Natl. Economic Advisory Bd., 1940, 1946. Director, Asociación Méxicana de Cultura. Member of Bd. of Directors: Nacional Financiera S. A.; Banco Cinematográfico, S.A.; Comisión Nacional de Valores; Junta de Administración y Vigilancia de la Propiedad Extranjera; Banco Industrial S.A.; Financiera Industrial Azucarera S.A.; Financiera de las Artes Gráficas S.A.; Crédito Minero y Mercantil S.A.; Nacional de Drogas S.A.; Crédito Afianzador, S.A.; Crédito Central S.A. Pres., Bd. of Dirs., Banco Interamericano S.A. and Banco del Ahorro Nacional S.A. Address: 5 de Mayo 2, Mexico City, Mexico.

NOVOTNA, JARMILA, Czechoslovak Opera Singer; born in Prague; daughter of Joseph and Josepha (Zajickova) Novotna; educated at Conservatory of Music, Prague; studied singing in Milan, Italy; married George de Daubek, July 16, 1931; two children. Debut as Violetta in Traviata, Natl. Opera House, Prague, 1927-28; sang in Milan and summer festivals in Verona Arena (Rigoletto with Lauri-Volpi), 1929; San Carlo Opera, Naples, 1930; leading soprano of opera houses in Prague, Berlin, Vienna, Warsaw, Paris, Milan, etc., 1930-38; sang at Salzburg Festival under Toscanini and at Maggio Fiorentino in Florence under Bruno Walter. Made several concert tours throughout Europe and received the honorary title of Kammersaengerin. American debut as Madame Butterfly with San Francisco Opera Co., 1939; appeared in New York at Carnegie Hall in Beethoven's 9th Symphony under Arturo Toscanini; made debut as Mimi in La Bohème, Metropolitan Opera House, Jan. 13, 1940; sang at Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires; Teatro Municipal, Rio de Janeiro, and Santiago, Chile. Created role of Helen in Broadway production of "Helen Goes to Troy" (with music by Offenbach). Address: c/o S. Hurok, 711 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

NOVY, Dr. FREDERICK GEORGE, American Bacteriologist; born Dec. 9, 1864, Chicago; son of Joseph and Frances (Janota) Novy; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S., 1886, M.S. 1887, Sc.D. 1890, M.D. 1891; Hon. LL.D., Cincinnati, 1920; Michigan, 1936. He studied at Koch's Laboratory, Berlin, 1888; Pathol. Institute, Prague, 1894; Pasteur Institute, Paris, 1897. On June 30, 1891 he married Grace Garwood; five children. Assistant in Organic Chemistry, 1886; Instructor in Hygiene and Physiol. Chemistry, 1887-91; Asst. Prof., 1891-93; Junior Prof., 1893-1902; Prof. of Bacteriol., 1902-35, and Dir. of Hygienic Laboratory, 1909-35, at Univ. of Mich.; Chairman of Executive Committee and Faculty of its School, 1930-35. He was Russel Lecturer, 1927; Kober Lecturer, 1931. In 1901 he was Member of U. S. Commission to Investigate Plague, San Francisco; Member of State Bd. of Health, 1897-99. In 1931 he received Testimonial from the Michigan Legislature, 1936 awarded the 250,000th Bausch and Lomb Microscope by the Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science. He was Hon. President of 3rd International Congress for Microbiology, 1939. From 1904 to 1930 he was Member of Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry of Amer. Med. Assn. He is a Member of Natl. Acad. of Science; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Hon. Fellow of New York Acad. of Med., etc. Awarded Gold Medal, Amer. Med. Assn., 1930; decorated Chevalier, Legion of Honor, France; Order of White Lion, Czechoslovakia. Author: Cocaine and its Derivatives, 1887; Laboratory Work in Bacteriol., 1898; Laboratory Work in Physiological Chemistry, 1899; Cellular Toxins (with Dr. V. C. Vaughan), 1902. Address: 721 S. Forest Ave., Ann Arbor, Mich.

NOWAK, Dr. JERZY, Polish Economist; born May 5, 1898, Kielce, Poland; son of Leon and Stanislawa Swiecka Nowak; studied in Warsaw School of Economics; University of Paris (Doctor in Law, Political and Economic Sciences, 1924); married Jadwiga Lewinska, 1936; two children—Danuta-Maria and Janusz-Zegota. Dr. Nowak began in Polish Ministry of Finance, 1927; became Chief, Foreign Credit Section, 1931. Deputy Director, Monetary and Credit Department, 1932 and Director, Economic Department, Prime Minister's Office, 1934. Manager, Bank of Poland, and Chief, Credits Department, since 1936. Prof. Polish Univ. College, London, 1946 —. Member. League of Nations Financial Com. Lieutenant in Polish Legion, then Polish Army, 1918-21. Decorated with Polish Military Cross; Independence Cross; Order of Polonia Restituta; Legion of Honor of France; Order of Crown of Rumania. Clubs: Royal Automobile and Allies of London. Hobby is book-collecting. Author of Favoured Nation Clause (1921); L'idée de l'autarchie économique en France (1924). Address: "The Rowans," 28 Hillside Grove, London, N.W. 7, England.

NOWAKOWSKI Dr. ZYGMUT, Polish Novelist, Playwright and Journalist; born Jan. 22, 1891, Cracow, Poland; son of Blaise and Helene Nowakowski; educated at Univ. of Cracow. Began career as theatre manager in Cracow. Author of 27 volumes of novels, plays, children's books, essays, and articles. Novel "The Cape of Good Hope," translated into English, German, Dutch, Swedish and Czech. Chairman, Soc. of Friends of Animals, Cracow. Hon. Chairman, Polish Stage Artists Union in Exile; Chairman, Polish Journalists Union in London (five years); Member, Polish Natl. Council, 1939-41. Awarded Polish Gold Cross of Merit. Served as 2nd Lieut., Polish Army, Infantry. Address: 22 Hollycroft Ave., London, N.W. 3, England.

NOWELL, CHARLES, British Librarian; born 1890; educated at Kendal Grammar School; Manchester Univ., M.A. (hon.). Chief Librarian, Manchester Public Libraries, 1932—. Member of Library Assn. (President of North Western Branch, 1938-42). Author of numerous publications on library service. Address: Central Library, Manchester 2, England.

NOWOWIEJSKI, FELIX, Polish Composer; born Feb. 7, 1877, Wartenburg, East Prussia; son of Francis and Catherine (Falk) Nowowiejski; educated at Conservatory of Music, Berlin; Acad. of Church Music, Ratisbon, Germany; Royal Acad. of Music. Made professional debut in 1902 with Berlin Philharmonic. Director of Musical Assn. in Cracow, 1909-14; Director, State Musical Conservatory, Poznan, 1921-27. Awarded numerous prizes for musical works. Composer: (oratorios) Quo Vadis (work performed in hundreds of cities in Europe and the U. S.); Finding of the Cross; The Prodigal Son; (Masses) Missa pro pace; Missa de Lisieux; Missa Maria Claramontanae; Symphony in B flat for orchestra; nine sonatas for organ solo; (operas) The Legend of the Baltic; The Emigrants; also numerous other works. Address: Poznan, Poland.

NOWROUZ, MOHAMMAD, Khan, Afghan Diplomat; born March 17, 1896, Loghard, Afghanistan; son of Mohammad Abbas Khan; educated privately; married, 1918. Served with Finance Dept., 1915; with Justice Dept., 1916; Chief of Protocol, Royal Court, 1919; Second Secy. to the King, 1921; Director of Public Works Dept., 1922; Director General, same Dept., 1926; First Secy. to the King, 1929; Ambassador to Teheran, 1939; Minister of the Interior, 1943; Minister of Finance, 1946; Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Russia since 1946. Minister of Public Works and Acting Court Minister, 1930-39. Editor, Nowrouz (newspaper), 1928; Chief Editor and Organizer, Islah (newspaper), 1929; Pres., Literary Soc., Kabul. Awarded Sardare Allah decoration, 1946. Address: 42 Vorovsky St., Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

NOYELLE, Prof. HENRI, French Political Economist; born Nov. 2, 1882, Orsay (Seine-Oise), France; married; two children. Prof., Faculty of Caen, 1922; Prof. of Political Economy, Faculty of Paris, since 1934. Created Knight, French Legion of Honor. Author: Les idées monétaires de Hawtrey, 1922; L'idée de justice dans l'oeuvre économique de Proudhon, 1923; Le change et les facteurs psychologiques, 1924; Dévalorisation et revalorisation, 1924; Aspect social de la Rationalisation, 1926; Le chomage et la loi économique, 1928; La crise doctrinale du Socialisme, 1929; Utopie libérale chimère socialiste, 1934; Les plans de réconstruction économique et sociale, 1939; La monnaie et le crédit au service de l'économie nationale, 1940; Révolution politique et révolution économique, 1945. During World War I served in French Army, 1914-18. Residence: 6 rue Valentin-Haüy, Paris, France.

NOYES, ALFRED, C.B.E., British Poet and Critic; born Sept. 16, 1880, Staffordshire, England; son of Alfred and Amelia Adams (Rowley) Noyes; educated at Oxford University; Glasgow University (LL.D.); Yale (Litt.D.) and Syracuse (D.H.L.); University of California (LL.D.); married (1st) Garnett Daniels (deceased); (2nd) Mary Weld-Blundell; three children. Contributed to Blackwoods Magazine, North American Review, Fortnightly Review, and Fortune Magazine. Author: Collected Poems (3 vols.); Tales of the Mermaid Tavern; The Torchbearers (3 vols.); No Other Man (novel); Aspects of Modern Poetry (critique); The Unknown God (the author's apologia); The Secret of Pooduck Island (juvenile); The Edge of Abyss (study), Voltaire, etc. Member: Council of the Society of Authors of London; Royal Literary Fund of London, Gallery of Living Catholic Authors. Residence: Hope Ranch, Santa Barbara, California.; St. Lawrence, Isle of Wight, British Isles.

NOYES, CHARLES P., American Lawyer; born Feb. 18, 1911, St. Paul, Minn.; educated at Univ. of Minnesota; Yale Univ., A.B. 1933; Yale Law School, p.g. work; LL.B. 1936. Associted with law firm of Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts, 1936-41. Joined Legal Staff of Lend-Lease Administration, 1941. Executive Asst. to Averell Harriman, 1942; later to Philip Reed at Amer. Embassy in London. Asst. to Secy. of State (Edward R. Stettinius), 1945; participated in United Nations Conf. for Internatl. Organization, San Francisco. Asst. to Secy. of State Stettinius at meetings of the Executive Com. of the Aug.-Oct. 1945, and at first part of First U. N. Preparatory Commission in London, Session, U. N. General Assembly, Jan. 1946. Adviser to U. S. Delegation, U. N. Security Council, 1946. U. S. Representative on Con. of Experts of U. N. Security Council, 1947. Address: United States Delegation, United Nations, 2 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

NOYES, FRANK BRETT, American Newspaper Publisher; born July 7, 1863, Washington, D. C.; son of Crosby Stuart and Elizabeth S. (Williams) Noyes; educated at Columbian College; Yale Univ., Hon. A.M. 1932; Hon. LL.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1928, George Washington Univ., 1925, Univ. of Maryland, and Central High School Alumni, 1934; married Janet Thurston Newbold, Sept. 17, 1888 (dec.); three children. Began as Manager, The Evening Star Newspaper Co., Washington, D. C.; Pres., since 1910. Editor, Chicago Record-Herald, 1902-09. Director, Executive Com., Associated Press, since 1894; Pres., 1900-38; Hon. Pres., since 1943. Decorated Officer, Legion of Honor, France; Commander, Order of Crown, Roumania; Commander, Order of Leopold, Belgium; Commander, Order of White Eagle, Serbia; Commander, Order of Crown of Italy; Commander, Order of Nichan Iftikhar, Tunis; Commander, Order of Merit Juan Pablo Duarte, Dominican Republic. Residence: 2339 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. Office: 11th St. and Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

NOYES, Dr. FREDERICK BOGUE, American Orthodontist; born in Chicago, Ill., Aug. 22, 1872; son of Edmund and Elizabeth (Miller) Noyes; educated at Johns Hopkins, A.B. 1893; Northwestern Dental School, D.D.S. 1895; took Dr. Edward H. Angle's course in Orthodontia, 1908; married Mary Ellen Judd, Sept. 8, 1897; two sons. Prof. of Histology, Northwestern Dental School, 1896-1914; Professor of Histology and Orthodontia at University of Illinois, 1915-26; Professor of Orthodontia and Dean of Dental School, 1927-40. He is a Member of Chicago Dental Society, Illinois State Dental Society (President 1922), American Dental Assn., Chicago Assn. of Orthodontists (President 1927), Odontographical Society of Chicago (President 1903-04), International Assn. for Dental Research (President 1926-27); Kappa Alpha (Past International President); Inst. of Medicine of Chicago (President 1943), etc. Author of textbook, Dental Histology and Embryology, 1914, now in its 5th edition. Residence: 621 Park Pl., Park Ridge, Ill. Office: 55 E. Washington St., Chicago, Illinois.

NOYES, Dr. GEORGE RAPALL, American University Professor; Prof. of Slavic Languages, Univ. of Calif; born 1873. Author: The Essential Elements in Tolstoy's Ethical System, 1913; Tolstoy, 1918; An Elementary Guide to Russian Pronunciation (with G. Z. Patrick), 1944. Editor and Translator: Konrad Wallenrod and Other Writings of Adam Mieckiewicz (with Sewell Parish, Dorothea Prall Radin and others), 1925; Poems by Rochanowski (with Dorothea Prall Radin and others), 1928; Masterpieces of the Russian Drama, 1933. Translator: Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard (with Camilla Chapin Daniels), 1904; Andreyev L. Nikolayevich's Professor Storitsyn (with others), 1912; Heroic Ballads of Servia (translated into English verse; with L. Bacon), 1913; Jirasek's Dobromila Rettig (with Bernice Herman), 1920; Fredro's Ladies and Hussars (with Florence Noyes), 1925; Sholom Asch's Sabbatai Zevi (with Florence Whyte), 1930; Fonvizin D. Ivanovich's The Young Hopeful (with George Z. Patrick), 1933. Editor, Hymns Attributed to John Dryden (with George Ruben Potter), 1937. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Address: University of California, Berkeley, Calif.

NOYES, Rev. Dr. MORGAN PHELPS, American Theologian and Educator; born Mar. 29, 1891; son of Charles Henry and Effie (Morgan) Noyes; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1914, D.D. 1938; Union Theological Seminary, 1920; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1922; married Marjorie Bradford Clarke, July 24, 1926; two children. Minister: Presbyterian Church, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., 1920-25; First Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., 1925-32; Central Presbyterian Church, Montclair, N. J., since 1932; Assoc. Prof. of Practical Theology, Union Theological Seminary, N. Y. C., since 1945. Member, Graduate Advisory Board, Yale Univ.; Christian Assn.; Yale Corporation. Trustee, Montclair Art Museum. Secy., Y.M.C.A., with Russian and Czechoslovakian Armies, 1917-19. Author: Preaching the Word of God (Lyman Beecher Lectures), 1943. Editor, Prayers for Services, 1934. Address: 46 Park St., Montclair, N. J.

NOYES, NICHOLAS H., American Pharmaceutical Manufacturer; born Aug. 8, 1883, Dansville, N. Y.; son of Frederick W. and Emma C. (Hartman) Noyes; educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) School; Cornell Univ.; married Marguerite Lilly, Nov. 18, 1908; one son and one daughter. With Crowell Publishing Co. and McClure's Magazine Co., 1906-10. Joined Eli Lilly & Co., 1910, serving successively as Cashier, Asst. Treas., Treas., Secy. and Treas., and Vice-Pres. and Treas. Director of Company since 1913. Pres., Paper Package Co. of Indianapolis, a subsidiary. Director: Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago; Trustee, Cornell Univ., and Member of Finance Com. Pres., American Drug Mfrs. Assn., 1931-33. Director: Indiana Bell Telephone Co.; Indiana State Chamber of Commerce. Member of Business Advisory Council, U. S. Dept. of Commerce, several years. Residence: 5625 Sunset Lane. Office: 740 South Alabama St., Indianapolis, Ind.

NOYES, PIERREPONT BURT, American Manufacturer, Author; born Aug. 18, 1870, Oneida, N. Y.; son of John Humphrey and Harriet (Worden) Noyes; educated at Colgate, 1889-90; Harvard; Colgate Univ., hon. L.H.D., 1940; married; three children. Placed in charge depts. Oneida Community, Ltd., 1895, Pres., since 1910; originated "Community Plate" and developed special system eliminating the ordinary labor problems. Director, Syracuse Trust Co.; Chairman, Saratoga Springs Commission, 1930-31; Pres., Saratoga Springs Authority since 1933. Asst. Fuel Administrator with H. A. Garfield at Washington, D. C., 1917-18, World War; Amer. Member, Interallied Rhineland Comm., Coblenz, 1919-20; created Officiale del Suo Ordine della Corona (Italian), 1921. Trustee Colgate Univ. until 1946. Author: While Europe Waits for Peace, 1921; The Pallid Giant (novel), 1927; My Father's House (autobiography), 1937; Gentlemen: You are Mad! (novel), 1946. Address: Oneida, New York.

NOYES, Dr. W(ILLIAM) ALBERT, JR., American Chemist; born Apr. 18, 1898, Terre Haute, Ind.; son of William A. and Flora (Collier) Noyes; educated at Grinnell College, B.A. 1919, D.Sc. 1946; Univ. of Illinois, 1916-17; Univ. of Paris, Sc.D. 1920; Univ. of California, 1920-21; Grinnell College, (Hon.) Sc.D. 1946; married Sabine Onillon, June 10, 1921; one son. Instructor, Univ. of California, 1921-22; Univ. of Chicago, 1922-23; Asst. Prof., 1923-29; Assoc. Prof., Brown Univ., 1929-35; Prof., 1935-38; Prof., Univ. of Rochester, since 1938; Chairman, Chemistry Dept., since 1939. Section Chairman, Natl. Defense Research Com., 1940-42; Division Chief, 1942-46. Member: Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Soc.; Illinois, New York and Amer. Acads. of Arts and Science; Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Chemical Soc. (Director since 1944). Author: Photochemistry of Gases (with P. A. Leighton, 1941; Modern Alchemy (with W. A. Noyes), 1932; Traité de Chimie Physique (with H. Weiss), 1925; also some 75 scientific articles. Awarded "His Majesty's Medal for service in the cause of freedom" by British Govt., 1948. Address: University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y.

NUBOER, Dr. JOHANNES, Dutch Surgeon; born Feb. 6, 1900, Batavia, Netherlands East Indies; son of Johannes F. W. and Ida Elisabeth (Staelman) Nuboer; educated at Utrecht Univ., 1922; M.D. (Thesis), 1928; married Elisabeth Catharina Immink, Aug. 16, 1923; three children. Resident in Pathology, 1923; Resident in Surgery, University Clinic, Utrecht, 1925-35; Head of Surgical Dept., Municipal Hosp., Hertogenbosch, 1935; Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Utrecht since 1942. Member: Dutch Surgical Assn.; Internatl. Soc. of Surgery; French Surgical Assn.; Royal Soc. of Medicine. Recipient, Order of Merit, Netherlands Red Cross. Author of numerous publications on surgical and pathological subjects. Residence: Kromme Nieuwe Gracht 43. Office: Surgical University Clinic, Catharyne Singel 101, Utrecht, The Netherlands.

NUCETE-SARDI, JOSÉ, Venezuelan Writer and Deputy; born Aug. 4, 1897, Merida, Venezuela; son of Diego Nucete-Guerrero and Josefa H. Sardi de N.; educated at Colegio Federal de Merida; Colegio Santo Tomás de Aquino; Universidad de los Andes; University of Brussels, Belgium; married Julia Salas, May 8, 1926; four children. Officer of the Cia. de Navegación Venezolana, 1916-20; Spanish Secretary (Correspondent) in a commercial office in New York, 1920-21. Member of editorial staff of El Universal de Caracas, 1922-36; Director, Venezuelan Press Bureau, 1936-37; General Inspector of Consulates of Venezuela, 1937-38. Secretary of the Venezuelan delegation to the League of Nations, 1937; First Secretary of the Legation in Germany, 1938-40; Director of Culture and Fine Arts of the Ministry of Education, 1940-44; Delegate of Venezuela to the Conference of Intellectual Cooperation of Havana, 1941, and to the Conference of Ministers and Directors of Education in Panama, 1943; invited to tour the U. S. by the State Department, 1943. President: Asociación de Escritores de Venezuela (re-elected two terms); Instituto Cultural Venezolano-Britanico. Vice-Pres., Ateneo de Caracas. Deputy, Natl. Assembly, 1947 —. Awarded Medalla Cultural de Venezuela (1937) and the Premio de La Raza (Madrid, 1940). Author: El Hombre de Alla Lejos (tales); Cartas de Queiroz; El Escritor y Civilizador Simón Bolívar (1930); La Defensa de Cain (novelette), 1933; Aventura y Tragedia de Don Francisco de Miranda (1935); Cuadernos de Indagación y de Impolítica (1937); Notas sobre La Pintura y la Escultura en Venezuela (1940); Osadia y Leyenda de Roberto Cunninghame-Graham (biography), 1942; Viaje a las Regiones Equinocciales del Nuevo Continente (translation from French of A. de Humboldt, fifth volume), (1942); Setenta Dias con Su Excelencia (Diario de Bucaramanga in novel form), Bogotá, Venezuela, 1944. Co-Editor (with Ramón Hurtado) of "Lectura Dominical" in Caracas, 1926. Also Director, "El Relator," Caracas, 1927. At present, Director, Proprietor and Editor (with Jacinto Fombona Pachano) of "Diagonal," a literary and political publication. Residence: Villa Las Rosas, El Paraíso, Caracas, Venezuela.

NUCKOLLS, Dr. JAMES, American Dental Surgeon, Educator and Researcher; born Oct. 18, 1902, Ukiah, Calif.; son of Frank Hughes and Mary Katherine Nuckolls Brown; educated at Univ. of California, D.D.S. 1927; married Gladys Leach Wilson, Dec. 25, 1929; one son. Member of Faculty, Univ. of California, College of Dentistry, San Francisco, 1929 —; Asst. in Dental Anatomy, 1928-30; Instr. in Dental Anatomy, 1931-32; Chairman, Section of Oral Pathology, 1939 —; Prof. of Operative Dentistry, and Chairman of Div. of Operative Dentistry, 1941-47; Prof. of Operative Dentistry, Chmn. of Div. of Preclinical Sciences, 1947 —. Member: Amer. Assn. of Dental Schools (member of Graduate Study Com. 1946-47); California State Dental Assn. (Member of Journal Com., 1946; Amer. Dental Assn.; International Assn. for Dental Research; (Fellow) Amer. College of Dentists; Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine; (Fellow) Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Fédération Dentaire Internationale; Amer. Acad. of Periodontology. Expert Consultant, Letterman General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco, California, 1947. Asst. Editor, Amer. College of Dentists, 1944, 1946. Consultant, Army Specialized Training Division, Ft. Douglas, Utah, 1942. Author of numerous books, scientific publications, etc. Contributor to various dental journals. Residence: 358 Parnassus Ave. Office: University of California College of Dentistry, The Medical Center, San Francisco 22, Calif.

NUDELMAN, ALEKSANDR E., Soviet Engineer. Engaged on various engineering projects, particularly on design of guns. Awarded Stalin Prize for work on new plane gun, 1946. Address: Ministry of Munitions, Moscow, U. S. S. R.

NUELLE, JOSEPH HENRY, American Railway Executive; born 1881, Chicago, Ill.; educated at Dartmouth College and Princeton Univ. (1906). President, Member of Executive Committee and Director, Delaware & Hudson R.R.; also Pres., Exec. Com. Member and Director of other companies, including Hudson Coal Co., Napierville Junction Railway, Delaware & Hudson Co., Northern Coal & Iron Co. and Ticonderoga Railroad. President, Rutland & Whitehall R.R., Cold Run Water Co., etc. Residence: Middleton, N. Y. Office: 230 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

NUFER, ALBERT F., American Diplomat; born Oct. 21, 1894, New York, N. Y.; educated at Buurmann's Inst., Bremen, Germany; business school in Germany; married. Clerk in American Consulates in Bremen and Barmen, 1910-16. Vice Consul: Erfurt, 1916-17; Cienfuegos, 1917-19. Engaged in business in Cienfuegos, 1919-28. Trade Commissioner at Mexico City, 1928. Asst. Commercial Attaché Mexico City, 1928; at Havana, 1932; in Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 1934-35. Commercial Attaché, Madrid, 1935; at Havana, 1937. Counsellor of Embassy for Economic Affairs, Havana, 1942. Ambassador to El Salvador, 1947 —. Address: American Embassy, San Salvador, El Salvador.

NUFFER, JOSEPH HENRY, American Industrialist; born Jan. 18, 1894, Toledo, Ohio; son of Joseph and Anna (Schomburg) Nuffer; educated in the Toledo High School (1 yr.); married Hazel Hacker, June 28, 1919; two sons. Began career as messenger boy for T. & O. C. Railroad, 1909; with T. & O.C. R.R. and Pennsylvania Railroad until 1915; in Sales Dept. of Toledo Scale Co., 1915-17. During First World War served as Sergeant, Infantry, U. S. Army, 1917-19 (one year overseas). In Sales Dept. of Willys Farm Lighting Plant Co., 1920-21; re-joined Toledo Scale Co., Sales Dept., 1922. With Air-Way Electric Appliance Corp, since 1923, starting as salesman; successively, Trainer, Branch Manager, Branch Business Manager, Comptroller, Assistant General Sales Manager, General Sales Manager; Pres., Air-Way Electric Appliance Corp. and subsidiary companies, 1936 —. Director: Air-Way Electric Appliance Corp.; Air-Way Branches, Inc.; Air-Way, Ltd. (Canada), and Air-Way, Ltd. (England). Pres., Toledo Research Bureau, Inc.; Industry Rept., Toledo Labor-Management Commn. Trustee: Toledo Research Bureau; Toledo Chamber of Commerce; Vice-Chmn., Toledo Airport Commn.; Member, Area Council of Boy Scouts of America, Inc. Residence: 3106 Kenwood Blvd. Office: 2101 Auburn Ave., Toledo, Ohio.

NUFFIELD, Viscount, William Richard Morris, British Manufacturer; born Oct. 10, 1877; son of Frederick Morris; educated at Cowley, Oxford; married Elizabeth Maud Anstey, 1904. Chairman: Morris Motors Ltd.; Wolseley Motors Ltd.; Morris Commercial Cars, Ltd.; The M. G. Car Co., Ltd.; Nuffield Exports Ltd. and its subsidiaries; Riley (Coventry) Ltd.; The S. U. Carburettor Co. Ltd.; Nuffield Press Ltd.; Nuffield Mechanizations Ltd.; Morris Garages Ltd. Created 1st Viscount of Nuffield, 1938; 1st Baron, 1934; 1st Bt., 1929; G.B.E., O.B.E., F.R.S.; M.A., Hon. D.C.L., Oxon.; Hon. LL.D., Sydney and Birmingham. Deputy Lieutenant for County of Oxfordshire, 1943; Knight of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem. Hon. Freeman of cities of Coventry, Worcester and Cardiff, and of Worshipful Society of Apothecaries of London. Treasurer of Guy's Hospital; Vice-President, Oxford Society; Life Governor or Vice-President of many hospitals and charitable institutions in Great Britain and Dominions. Awarded Albert Gold Medal by Royal Society of Arts and Commerce, 1937; Honorary Medal of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, 1942. Address: Nuffield Place, near Henley-on-Thames, England.

NUGENT, ELLIOTT, American Playwright; born 1900. Author: Kempy (with J. C. Nugent), 1924; The Poor Nut (with J. C. Nugent), 1925; Apartment to Let (with Howard Lindsay), 1926; Money to Burn (with J. C. Nugent, 1930; Knockout (with J. C. Nugent), 1940; The Male Animal (with James Thurber), 1940; A Place of Your Own, 1945. Address: c/o Random House, 457 Madison Avenue, New York, New York.

NUGENT, JAMES ANTHONY, F.C.I.I., Irish Company Director; born Aug. 1, 1899, Dublin, Eire; son of John D. and Mary (Nolan) Nugent; educated at Rockwell College, Tipperary, Eire; Fellow, Chartered Insurance Inst. (London); married Lillian Gallagher, Apr. 26, 1926. Insurance official since 1916. Managing Director, Irish Life & General Assurance Co., Ltd. Director: O'Leary & Co., Ltd.; Associate Trading Assurance Co. Ltd.; Industrial & Life Assurance Offices; Association Ltd.; Mineral Properties Ltd.; The Irish Assurance Co. Ltd. Former Pres., Irish Insurance Federation and of Rockwell College Union. Natl. Secy., Ancient Order of Hibernians, Friendly Society. Residence: "Glendhu," 127 Cabra Rd. Office: 31 Parnell Sq., Dublin, Eire.

NUGENT, Major Rt. Hon. Sir ROLAND THOMAS, Northern Ireland Political Leader; born June 19, 1886; educated at Eton, Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A., and University of Bonn; married; two sons and a daughter. In diplomatic service, 1910-18; with Grenadier Guards, 1918, 1940. Served as Director, Federation of British Industries. Minister without Portfolio, 1945; Minister of Commerce and Leader of the Senate of Northern Ireland, 1946 —. Address: Portaferry House, Belfast, County Down, Northern Ireland.

NUGENT, Rev. Dr. WALTER HENRY, American Clergyman; born Dec. 20, 1877, near Omemee, Ont., Canada; son of Henry and Mary Jane (Cork) Nugent; educated at Albert College, Belleville, Ont., 1898; Chicago Law School, B.C.L. 1904; Chicago Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art, B.O. 1904; Midland University, Chicago, Ph.D. 1905; Chicago Theological Seminary, B.D. 1906; Wheaton College, D.D. 1918; married Harriet Louise Whitcomb, Apr. 16, 1907; two children. Entered ministry of Canadian Methodist Church, 1898; served in Manitoba and North West Conference until 1901. Pastor, Methodist Episcopal Church, Lester, Iowa, 1901-03. Assistant to Bishop Samuel Fellows, Reformed Episcopal Church, Chicago, 1903-05. Minister, Fifth Avenue Congregational Church, Minneapolis, 1906-10; Central Congregational Church, Newburyport, Mass., 1910-20; Central Presbyterian Church, Portland, Ore., 1920-28; Austin Presbyterian Church, Chicago, since 1928. Lectured with Lyceum Bureaus, 1904-07, 1912-20. Four Minute Speaker, World War I. Moderator, Portland Presbytery, 1923. President, Portland Ministers Association, 1925. Chairman, Headquarter's Committee, The Oregon Anti-Saloon League, 1920-28. Trustee, Albany College, Ore., 1921-28. Trustee, Westminster Foundation of Synod of Oregon, 1922-28; Secretary, General Assembly's Committee on Apportionment, 1925-28. Now President, Board of Trustees of Chicago Presbytery. Director: Presbyterian College of Christian Education, Chicago; Presbyterian Home, Evanston, Ill. Trustee, Chicago Church Federation. Residence: 212 N. Waller Ave. Office: 5720 Fulton St., Chicago, Ill.

NUGENT, Sir WALTER RICHARD, Bart., Irish Company Director; born Dec. 12, 1865; son of Sir Walter, 2nd Bart., and Maria O'Farrall; educated at Downside College; Univ. College, Dublin; married Aileen Gladys O'Malley, June 15, 1916; one son and two daughters. Chairman, Great Southern Railways Company, 1925-42; Chairman of Freeman's Journal, Ltd., 1912-16. Deputy-Chairman, Fishguard and Rosslare Railways Harbours Co., 1926-42. Member, Irish Railway Clearing House, 1925, Chairman, 1926. Member, English Railways Clearing House and Railway Superannuation Com., Euston. Pres., Dublin Chamber of Commerce, 1929; Director, Bank of Ireland, 1920 (Deputy Governor, 1924). Director, Northern Assurance Co. Member of Parliament for South Westmeath, 1907-18; Peace Commissioner, Irish Free State, 1924. Member, Senate, Irish Free State, 1928. Address: Donore, Multyfarnham, Co. Westmeath, Ireland.

NUNAN, Hon. SEAN, Irish Diplomat. Served as First Secretary, Eire Legation, Washington, D. C., 1946; Consul General, New York City, 1946-47. Minister to the United States, March 1947—. Address: Irish Legation, 2310 Tracy Place, Washington, D. C.

NUNES DA SILVA, MANUEL VAZ, Portuguese Diplomat; born Oct. 19, 1897, Lisbon, Portugal; son of João Nunes da Silva and María Benedicta Pinto Vaz; educated at Technical Univ., Lisbon (Lic. in economical and financial sciences); married Gabriela de Carvalho, Apr. 25, 1929. Attaché of Legation, 1926; Third Secy. to Legation, 1927; Second Secy., Portuguese Embassy at Madrid, 1930-35; Second Secy., Portuguese Legation at Paris, 1935-41; Second Secy., Foreign Office, 1941-45; First Secy., Portuguese Embassy to the Holy See since 1945. Secy., Portuguese Delegation to Conf. of Nine Powers at Brussels, 1932. Knight, Belgian Crown Order; Legion of Honor (France); Officer, Military Order of Christ; Order of the Spanish Republic. Residence: Lungotevere Flaminio 18. Office: Via del Portoghese 2, Rome, Italy.

NUÑEZ PORTUONDO, Dr. EMILIO, Cuban Senator; born Sept. 14, 1898, Philadelphia, Pa., U. S.; son of General Emilio Nuñez and Dolores Portuondo de N.; studied in the Instituto de Segunda Enseñanza de la Habana, and received his Doctorates in Civil and Public Law in the Universidad de la Habana; married Olga Fabrega, Dec. 3, 1937; five children. Began career in 1920 as Attorney for the Municipality of La Habana; became President of the Civil Service Commission of the Republic in 1924, and in 1931 was elected to the House of Representatives for Las Villas. He was Minister in Panama (1936), Lima (1938); Ambassador in Panama, 1939. In 1940 he was re-elected to the House, serving as Chairman of the Justice Commission. Elected National Senator, 1944—. Leader of the Liberal Party and Member of Senate Foreign Relations Com. Plenipotentiary Delegate to the Panamerican Conference of Lima, to the First Inter-American Meeting of Foreign Ministers in Panama, to the First Congress of the Democracies in Montevideo, and was President of the First Inter-American Reunion of the Caribbean. He is Official Consultant to the FF.CC. Consolidados de Cuba; Member of the Colegio de Abogados de la Habana, and Asociación de Escritores y Artistas Americanos. Decorations: Orders of Balboa of Panama, Sun of Peru, Honor and Merit of Cuba, Merit of Ecuador, Merit of Haiti, and Merit of Chile; Heraldic Order of Christopher Columbus of the Dominican Republic; Orden del Libertador de Venezuela; Orden Juan Pablo Duarte de la República Dominicana. Publications: Alrededor del Emprestito; Tres Discursos; Una Sola Idea; Una Campaña Democrática. Residence: Quinta Avda. y 36, Miramar, Marianao. Office: Edificio la Metropolitana, Havana, Cuba.

NUÑEZ y DOMÍNGUEZ, JOSÉ de J., Mexican Minister to Belgium; born Apr. 27, 1887, Papantla, Vera Cruz, Mexico; son of José de J. Nuñez and Zenaida Domínguez; educated at Escuela Nacional Preparatoria de México, 1902-08; National Univ.; École du Louvre of Paris; married Gracia Córdova, Oct. 12, 1936. Writer for "El Imparcial", Mexico, D.F.; Director, "El Mercurio Ilustrado", 1909; Editor-in-Chief, "El Resúmen", 1910. Editor: "Revista Moderna de México", 1910; (Director) "Revista de Revistas", 1912-24; "Excelsior", 1917-24; "El Universal Gráfico", etc. Director, France-Libre (Mexico City), 1940-45. Prof. of History: Escuela Nacional Preparatoria; Escuela Normal de Profesores; Facultad de Filosofía y Letras; French Inst. of Latin America. Director, Museo Nacional de Historia of Mexico. Now Minister Plenipotentiary to Brussels. Academician, Spanish Royal Acad. of History and Language. Member: Historical Acads. of Peru, Venezuela, Cuba, Colombia; Société des Américanistes de Paris; Société des Hommes des Lettres. Author of books of history, poetry, biography, criticism, etc. Address: Légation du Mexique 54, Rue de Commerce, Brussels, Belgium.

NÚÑEZ PONTE, Dr. JOSÉ MANUEL, Venezuelan College President and Author; born May 5, 1870, Caracas, Venezuela; son of José Manuel Núñez and Mercedes Ponte; educated at Colegio Sucre; Central Univ. of Venezuela; Valencia Univ., LL.D. 1897; married María Isabel Pérez, May 8, 1902; two sons. Engaged in private teaching; later Prof. at various municipal and national institutes; Prof. of Philosophy and Literature, Univ. of Valencia; Prof. Perceptive Literature and Spanish Literature, Univ. of Caracas; Prof. of Pedagogical Psychology and Castilian, Escuela Normal de Maestros (teachers' college), and various other schools. President of Colegio Sucre, since 1899. Dir., Munitoria (organ of School Teachers Union). Pres. and Spanish Correspondent, Venezuelan Acad.; 1st Vice-Pres., Sociedad Bolivariana de Venezuela; took part in 8th Amer. Science Congress. Decorated Commander, Order San Gregorio Magno; Order Isabel La Católica; Order of Merit, Ecuador; received Honor Medal in Public Instruction; Cross pro ecclesia et pontifice; Merit Medal 1st class, Chile. Author: Ensayo Histórico acerca de la abolición de la esclavitud, 2nd ed., 1911; Ensayo Criticobiográfico del doctor José Gregorio Hernández, 2nd ed., 1944; Al través de un siglo, 1909; Importancia cultural del Castellano, 1931; Nuestro Gran Apóstol, 1939; San Francisco del Asis, 1945; Tópicos de Educación, 1941; many papers, orations and public lectures on various subjects. Address: Avenida Este No. 148, Caracas, Venezuela.

NÚÑEZ y PORTUONDO, Dr. JOSÉ RICARDO, Cuban Physician; born Sept. 27, 1893, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Emilio Nuñez and Dolores Portuondo de N.; educated at Colegio la Gran Antilla; Instituto de la Habaña; Universidad de la Habaña, M.D. 1915; married Dulce M. Bueno y López, September 12, 1918; one son. Physician, Municipal Services of Havana, 1915-18; post-grad. work at Lankenau Hosp. of Philadelphia and Post-Grad. Hosp. of N. Y.; Vice-Treas., Colegio Médico de La Habaña, 1927; Prof., Inst. of Clinical Surgery, Universidad de la Habaña, 1923-28; Asst. Prof. of Operative Technique, 1928; now Head of Clinical Therapeutics and Operative Technique. Consulting Surgeon and Chief of Surgical Services, Clínica Joaquín Albarrán; Consulting Surgeon to Sanatorio "La Esperanza" and National Police Hospital; Surgeon to Hosp. Nacional "Gral. Calixto García"; Honorary President, Consulting Commission to 8th National Med. Congress; Pres., Sociedad Nacional de Cirurgía, 1939-40; Vice-Pres., Sección Latino-Americana de Cirujía General, 7th Pan-American Med. Congress; Pres., Federación Médica Cubana, 1933, 1940-41 and 1942-43; Member of National Commission for Study of Post-War Problems of Cuba. Member of many medical organizations. Residence: Paseo No. 207, Vedado, Havana, Cuba.

NUÑEZ, Dr. LUIS TEOFILO, Venezuelan Writer, Diplomat; born and educated in Venezuela; in charge of El Universal (publication) for the last twenty-five years; Ambassador to Argentina, 1943; President of State of Sucre, 1945. Address: El Universal, Caracas, Venezuela.

NÚÑEZ REGUEIRO Dr. MANUEL, Uruguayan Diplomat; born March 21, 1883, Montevideo, Uruguay; son of Francisco Núñez and Josefa Regueiro de N.; educated at Montevideo, Buenos Aires, and Rosario de Santa Fé (Universidad del Litoral), Doctorate in Diplomacy; married Beatriz Anca Rey, Apr. 7, 1932; three children. Began career, 1915 as Uruguayan Consul in Rosario de Santa Fé; now First Class Consul. Titular Professor of General Philosophy, National University of the Litoral (Rosario de Santa Fé). Dean of the diplomatic corps in Rosario. Honorary Adscript, Instituto de Historia Antiqua y Medioeval of Buenos Aires. Founder and Director, Círculo de Altos Estudios. Member: International Law Association; Asociación de Escritores y Artistas Americanos de la Habaña; Grupo América de Cuba. Corresponding Member: Instituto de Coimbra (Portugal); Sociedad Argentina de Escritores, etc. Publications: La Honda Inquietud; Conocimiento y Creencia; El Libro de los Poemas; Fundamentos de la Anterosofía; Anterosofía Racional; De Nuevo Habló Jesús; Del Conocimiento y Progreso de sí mismo; Tratado de Metalogía; Filosofía Integral; Suma contra una nueva Edad Media; Metafísica y Ciencia; Tratado de Filosofía General; Historia Crítica de la Filosofía, etc. Residence: Calle Pte. Roca No. 1754, Rosario de Santa Fé, Argentina.

NÚÑEZ del PRADO, MARINA, Bolivian Sculptor; born Oct. 17, La Paz, Bolivia; daughter of Gral. Guillermo Núñez del Prado and Sara Nunez del Prado; studied in Academia de Bellas Artes de La Paz, 1930. Prof. of Sculpture and Artistic Anatomy, Acad. of Fine Arts of La Paz, 1930-40; Prof. of Indo-American Art, Amer. Inst. of La Paz, 1935-36. Exhibited throughout North and South America and Europe. Representative for Bolivia, Peoples Mandate Com., and Liga Internacional Pro-Paz y Libertad. Head of Art Dept., Ateneo Femenino of Bolivia. Awards: Gold Medal of Municipality of La Paz (1930); First Prize and Gold Medal, Exposición Indianista of La Paz (1931); Gold Medal, Concurso Bolivariano of Caracas (1934); First Prize and Gold Medal, Sixth Exhibition of Argentine Women (1936); Gold Medal, Internatl. Exposition of Arts in Berlin (1938); National Assn. Medal (N.A.W.A., New York), 1946. Address: (Temporary) 215 E. 57th St., New York, N. Y.; (Permanent) Casilla 172, La Paz, Bolivia.

NUÑEZ, Dr. SOLON, Costa Rican Minister of Public Health; born Apr. 1885, San José, Costa Rica; son of J. P. Nuñez and Juana Frutos; educated at Geneva Medical School (Switzerland); Johns Hopkins Univ., School of Hygiene, 1924-25; married Oliva Rojas, Dec. 20, 1906; two children. Inspector of Schools; Prof. at Colegio Superior de Señoritas; Member of Board of Qualification (for Docents); Govt. Delegate for examination of complementary schools; Physician, Hospital St. Louis, Lyon, France, during World War I; Pres., Board of Education, San José; Pres., Faculty of Medicine of Costa Rica; Pres., Costa Rican Red Cross; Member, Superior Council of Public Education; Chief, Sanitary Service of Costa Rica, 1917-36; Asst. Dir., Departamento de Anquilostomiasis, Rockefeller Foundation, 1917-22; Under-Secy. of State, 1922-25; Minister of Public Health and Social Welfare, 1925-36 and since 1943. Formerly Prof. of Hygiene, Liceo de Costa Rica; Prof. of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene, Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Costa Rica. Delegate of League of Nations, observing hygienic organizations; Delegate of Costa Rica to Second Medical Congress, Havana, 1922; 8th Sanitary Conf., Lima, 1927; 9th Conf., Buenos Aires, 1934; 11th Conf., Rio de Janeiro, 1942; First Inter-American Medical Congress, Rio de Janeiro, 1946; Congress of Hospitals, Atlantic City, N. J., 1929; Internatl. Conf. on Tuberculosis, Atlantic City, 1929; 2nd Internatl. Conf. of Directors of Public Health, Washington, 1931; 3rd Internatl. Conf., Washington, 1936. Commissioned by Pan-American Sanitary Office to prepare international sanitary code, 1945; Delegate of Costa Rica to Congress on Nutrition, Guatemala, 1946. Chairman, Pan-American Sanitary Office, Lima Conf., 1927; Chairman, Pan-American Sanitary Office, Buenos Aires Conf., 1934. Grand Officer, Orden de Finlay; awarded Academic Palms, France; Grand Cross, Cuban Red Cross. Author: Disciplina Escolar (1st Prize, Flower Festivals, 1908); Anquilostomiasis en Costa Rica (1st Prize, Medical Contest in Central America, 1921); Organización Sanitaria de Costa Rica; Sanitary Legislation in Costa Rica, 1916-36 and 1940-46. Address: Ministerio de Salubridad Pública y Protección social, San José, Costa Rica.

NURI as-SAID, General, Iraqi Army Officer, Statesman; born 1888, Baghdad, Iraq; graduated Constantinople Military College. Junior Officer in Turkish Army, 1906; resigned in 1914. Joined Shariffian Forces in 1916 and served under General Allenby as Chief of Staff in the Hejaz, Trans-Jordan, and in Syria; Military Adviser to Amir Faisal at Paris Peace Conf., 1919. Chief of Staff, Iraqi Army, 1920; Acting Minister of Defence, 1922; Minister of Defence, 1923-30; Member of Parliament for Baghdad, 1924-33; appointed Senator, 1933; Prime Minister of Iraq, 1930-32, 1938-40, 1941-44, 1946-47; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1933-36, 1936-41; elected President of the Senate, 1946; re-elected, 1947—. Represented Iraq at Assemblies of League of Nations, 1920, 1931, 1932. Head of Iraqi Delegation to United Nations General Assembly, 1947. Address: The Senate, Baghdad, Iraq.

NURKSE, Prof. RAGNAR, Economist; born Oct. 5, 1907, Estonia; son of William and Victoria (Clanman) Nurske; educated at Tartu Univ., 1926-28; Edinburgh Univ., 1928-32; Univ. of Vienna, 1932-34; married Henriette Berger, Sept. 14, 1946; one son. Member of Section, Economic and Financial Dept., League of Nations, 1934-45. Visiting Lecturer, Columbia Univ., 1945-46. Member, Inst. for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J., 1946-47. Prof. of Economics, Columbia Univ., 1947—. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; The Econometric Soc.; Acad. of Political Science; Royal Economic Soc. Author: Internationale Kapitalbewegungen, 1935; International Currency Experience, 1944; Conditions of International Monetary Equilibrium, 1945. Address: Columbia University, New York 27, New York.

NUROCK, Dr. MORDECAI, Latvian Rabbi. World Jewish Congress Leader. Formerly Minority Leader in Latvian Parliament. Served as Chief Rabbi of Latvia. Asked King Haakon for the admission of Jewish displaced persons into Norway; request was granted and 600 Jews were permitted to enter, 1946. Address: Yeshiva College, Amsterdam Ave. & 186th St., New York, N. Y.

NÜSCHELER, Dr. HENRY EDWARD, Swiss Banker; born Jan. 22, 1873, Doncaster, Yorkshire, England; son of Mathias Albert and Frances (Appleyard) Nüscheler; educated at London School of Economics; Univ. of Zurich, D.P.L. and Pol. Sc. 1905; married Minnie Whittle, Oct. 20, 1908. Secy. to Board of Directors, Swiss Bank Corp., 1906; Secy. General, 1920; General Manager, 1929-39; Secy. and Director: Société Suisse pour Valeurs de Placement, Basle, 1907-44; Société Suisse pour Valeurs de Métaux, Basle, 1910-41. Director: Lona Electric & Chemical Works, Gampel, Visp and Basle, 1939; Société Anonyme Leu & Co., Zurich, 1921-47; Société Suisse d'Electricité et de Traction, Basle, 1932. Director and Chairman, Crédit Foncier de Bâle, 1925. Vice-Chairman: Dätwyler Ltd., Swiss Cable & Rubber Works, Altdorf-Uri, 1935; Fabrique de Produits Firestone S.A., Pratteln, Switzerland, 1940. Member, Swiss Bankers Assn., etc. Author: History of the Zurich State Bank, 1871-1904 (2 vols.); Mortgage Bank and Note-issuing Bank, 1905, etc. Address: 24 St. Jakobstrasse, Basle, Switzerland.

NUSRAT AL-FARSY, SAYID, Iraqi Political Leader; born 1894, Baghdad; educated at Law College of Baghdad, 1914. Practicing lawyer; elected to Parliament, 1925—. Director-General of Justice, 1928; later President, Codification Department of Iraq; Minister of Finance, 1932; Minister of Foreign Affairs and Economics several times; Permanent Delegate to League of Nations. Member, Iraqi Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Iraqi Parliament, Baghdad, Iraq.

NUSSBAUM, Dr. ARTHUR, German Jurist; born Jan. 31, 1877, Berlin, Germany; son of Bernard and Bernardine (Schuster) Nussbaum; educated at Univ. of Berlin, Law Faculty, J.D. 1898; married Gertrud Eyck, 1906; three daughters. Member, Berlin Bar, 1904; privatdocent, Berlin Univ., Law Faculty, 1914; Prof. of Law, since 1918. Dismissed as non-Aryan by Hitler Government, 1933; Lecturer at Academy of International Law, Hague, 1933; Visiting Professor of Law, Columbia University, since 1934; Research Professor of Public Law, since 1939. Author: Der Polnaer Ritualmordprozess (2nd ed.) 1906; Kommentar zum Boersengesetz, 1910; Die Rechtstatsachenforschung, 1914; Deutsches Hypothekenwesen, 1921 (2nd edition, translated into Spanish and Japanese); Das Deutsche Wirtschaftsrecht (2nd edition), 1922; Das Ausgleichsverfahren des Versailler Vertrages, 1923; Das Geld in Theorie und Praxis des Deutschen and auslaendischen Rechtes, 1925; Aktionaer and Verwaltung, 1928; Deutsches Internationales Privatrecht, 1932; Money in the Law, 1939; Principles of Private International Law (translated into Spanish), 1943; Concise History of the Law of Nations, 1947. Residence: 468 Riverside Drive. Office: 421 West 117th St., New York, N. Y.

NUSSBAUM, Prof. Dr. FRITZ, Swiss Geographer; born Aug. 2, 1879, Flamatt, Canton Freiburg, Switzerland; son of Samuel Karl and Maria (Blaser) Nussbaum; educated at State Normal School, Hofwil; Univ. of Berne; married Marguerite Gäumann, Mar. 30, 1901; three children. Privatdocent in Geography, Univ. of Berne, 1914; Extraordinary Prof., 1922; Prof. of Geography, since 1944. Director, Geographical Inst., since 1940. Editor, Der Schweizer Geograph, 1923-45. Pres.: Berne Geographical Soc., since 1923; Assn. of Swiss Geographical Socs., 1935-38. Corresp. Member, Geneva and Neuchâtel Geographical Socs. Author: Heimatkunde des Kantons Bern, 1915; Erzählungen aus der heimatlichen Geschichte, 1921; Lehrbuch der Schweizergeographie, 1922; Die Täler der Schweizeralpen, 1910; Die Seen der Pyrenäen, 1934; Geographische und morphologische Untersuchungen in den östlichen Pyrenäen, 1946. Residence: Wahlackerstrasse, Zollikofen, Berne. Office: Falkenplatz 18, Berne, Switzerland.

NUSSBAUM, Dr. THEODOR, Czechoslovak Jurist; born Dec. 29, 1880, Boskovice, Czechoslovakia; son of Antony and Mary (Svobodová) Nussbaum; educated at First Czech College, Brno; Univ. of Vienna, LL.D.; married Irena Kancnyrová, 1910; one daughter. Asst. Judge and Judge, 1900-12; Deputy Public Prosecutor, 1912-19; Counsellor and later Pres., Senate of Supreme Court, 1923-39; Chief of Supreme Court, 1939-46; Pres. of Senate, Supreme Court, and Asst. Pres of Supreme Court, 1946-47. Pres., Moravian Union of Jurists. Residence: Konecného nám. No. 1. Office: Nejvyssi soud, Rooseveltová 16, Brno, Czechoslovakia.

NUSSBAUMER, ALBERT CHARLES, Swiss Banker; born Sept. 19, 1893, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Charles and Agnes (Munch) Nussbaumer; married Elsa Schneeli; two daughters. Head of a Swiss Manufacturing company in Moscow, 1915-19; Head, Swiss manufacturing concern, Milan, 1920-23; Manager, Credito Italiano, Milan and Naples, 1923-27; General Manager, leading artificial silk concern, Milan, 1928-30; Manager, Swiss Bank Corp., London, 1930-40; General Manager, Swiss Bank Corp., Basle, Switzerland, since 1940. Chmn., International Pirelli Holding, Basle; Vice-Chmn., Adolph Saurer, Motor Vehicles, Arbon. Dir., Schindler & Cie., Lucerne. Chmn., Schindler Rail Car Factory, Basle; Nitrochemie, Basle. Dir.: Société pour la Fabrication de Pâte de Bois, Basle; Danzas & Cie., Basle. Residence: Blumenrain 8. Office: 1 Aeschenvorstadt, Basle, Switzerland.

NUTTER, Very Rev. EDMONDSON JOHN MASTERS, American Theologian; born 1879, Bradford, England; educated at Inst. of Chartered Accountants and at Leeds Univ., England; Nashotah House, Wis., B.D. 1912, D.D. 1925, D.C.L. 1943. Ordained Priest, Episcopal Church, 1911. Appointed Asst. Priest, Grace Church, Chicago, 1911; Rector of St. John's Church, Chicago, 1913. Sub-Dean, St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, 1917; Rector, Church of the Messiah, Detroit, 1918. Pres., Faculty of Nashotah House since 1925. Contributor to Natl. Dictionary of American Biography, American Church Monthly, The Living Church, etc. Address: Nashotah House, Nashotah, Wis.

NUTTING, Dr. PERLEY GILMAN, American Geophysicist; born Aug. 22, 1873, Randolph, Wis.; son of Charles and Cordelia (Gilman) Nutting; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1897; Univ. of California, M.S. 1898; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1903; married Eva Lightfoot, 1906; (2nd) Julia Stouffer, 1928; four children. Asst. in Physics, Stanford Univ., 1897-98; Univ. of California, 1898-1902; optic research and testing with Bureau of Standards, 1903-12; Asst. Director, Eastman Research Laboratory, 1913-16; Director of Research, Westinghouse, 1916-20; Consulting Illuminating Engineer (motion pictures), 1920-24; Geophysicist, U. S. Geological Survey, 1924-43. Member: Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Illuminating Engineering Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Optical Soc. (Founder, 1913); Washington Acad. of Sciences; Geophysical Union; Mineralogical Soc.; Philosophical Soc. Author: Outlines of Applied Optics, 1912; some 172 articles. Address: 3216 Oliver St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

NUVOLONE, Dr. PIETRO, Italian Lawyer and Professor of Law; born Feb. 3, 1917, Bergamo, Italy; son of Francesco and Palmira (Tallone) Nuvolone; educated at Univ. of Pavia, LL.D. 1938; Asst., Univ. of Pavia, 1938-39; Fellow, Inst. of Criminal Law, Univ. of Berlin, 1938-39; Asst. in Criminal Law, Catholic Univ., Milan, 1939-42; Prof. of Criminal Law, Univ. of Urbino, 1942-47; Univ. of Pavia since 1945. Editor, political Section, La Libertà (daily). Member, Lawyers Assn., Piacenza. Author: L'infedeltà patrimoniale nel diritto penale, 1941; Il possesso nel diritto penale, 1942; Contributo alla teoria della sentenza istruttoria penale, 1943; La punizione dei crimini di guerra, 1945; I limiti taciti della norma penale, 1947. Residence: Corso Vittorio Emanuele No. 146. Office: Via Pavone No. 3, Piacenza, Italy.

NYÁRÁDI, Dr. NICHOLAS, Hungarian Minister of Finance; born May 21, 1905, Budapest, Hungary; son of Gustave and Margarete (Hevesi) Nyárádi; educated at Univ. of Budapest (law and political sciences), LL.B., judge's diploma, 1933; married Eve Roskoványi, Aug. 18, 1947. Clerk, First National Savings Bank Corp., Pécs, 1928; Attorney of Bank, 1936; Chief Attorney, 1942; Managing Director and Legal Adviser, after liberation of Hungary. High Commissioner for Restitution of Hungarian properties taken by the Germans, 1946; Under-Secy., Ministry of Finance; returned thirty million dollars gold Reserve from Frankfurt. Minister of Finance since Mar. 1947. Residence: Kecskeméti utca 2, Budapest IV. Office: Szabadság ter 14, Budapest V, Hungary.

NYBERG, Dr. H(ENRIK) S(AMUEL), Swedish Professor of Semitic Languages; born Dec. 28, 1889, Söderbärke, Sweden; son of Anders Fredrik and Ida Mathilda (Jansson) Nyberg; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, Ph.D. 1920; married Fanny Hasselberg, Dec. 26, 1920; five children. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Uppsala, 1920; Prof. of Semitic Languages, since 1931. Inspector, Västmanlands-Dala Nation, Uppsala, since 1932; also Fjellstedt School, 1932-44. Member: Humanistiska Vetenskapssamfundet, Uppsala; Kungl. Vitterhets Historie och Antikvitets Akademien, Stockholm; Swedish Royal Acad. of Science, Stockholm; Det Kongl. Danske Videnskabernes Selskab, Copenhagen; Société Asiatique of Paris (Hon.); Société de Linguistique, Paris; Societas Soederblomiana, Uppsala; Royal Asiatic Soc. of London. Author: Kleinere Schriften des Ibn al arabi, 1919; The Pahlavi Documents from Avroman, 1923; Livre du triomphe et de la réfutation d'Ibn-er-Rawendi, 1925; Hilfsbuch des Pehlevi, 1928-31; La légende de Keresaspa, 1933; Questions de cosmogonie et de cosmologie mazdéennes, 1929-31; Texte zum mazdayasnischen Kalender, 1934; Studien zum Hoseabuche, 1935; Die Religionen des alten Iran, 1938; Studien zum Religionskampf in Alten Testament, 1939; Smärtornas man, en studie till Jes.52, 13-53, 1942. Address: University of Uppsala, Uppsala, Sweden.

NYBURG, SIDNEY L., American Lawyer; born Dec. 8, 1880, Baltimore, Md.; son of Simon S. and Rebecca (Lauer) Nyburg; educated at Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1901; married Henrietta E. Lauphheimer, Jan. 9, 1907; one son. Lawyer in Baltimore since 1902. Member, Nyburg, Goldman & Walter. Author: The Final Verdict, 1914; The Conquest, 1916; The Chosen People, 1917; The Gate of Ivory, 1920; The Buried Rose, 1931. Address: First National Bank Bldg., Baltimore, Maryland.

NYCANDER, (ERIK) GUNNAR, Swedish Neuropsychiatrist; born July 27, 1900, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Oscar and Elin (Mellgren) Nycander; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, med. kand. 1923, med. lic. 1931; married Aina Nancy Elise Bratt, Sept. 29, 1928; three children. Various hospital and teaching positions, 1923-33. Amanuensis in Neurology, Karolinska Inst., Stockholm, 1933-34; Resident Physician, Board of Pensions' Inst. for Nervous Diseases, Nynäshamn, 1934; received Medical Stipendium, 1928; Lieut., Swedish Navy, Medical Corps, 1931; Capt., 1939. Cofounder, Erica Stiftelsen (first Child Guidance Clinic in Sweden), 1934; Head of Therapeutic Dept., 1935-45; Instructor, Pedagogical Seminary, same institute, since 1937; Chief of Inst., 1941-45. In private practice of neuro-psychiatry, Stockholm, since 1935. Secy., Natl. Assn. for Sex Education; Pres., Swedish Psychoanalytic Assn., since 1947. Author: En sjukdom, som bestraffas, 1933; Personlighet och Moral, 1943; articles in pedagogical and medical journals. Address: 9 Rådmansgatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYCE, PETER QUICK, American Lawyer; born Sept. 2, 1889, Caldwell, Kans.; son of John William and Margaret Anne (Quick) Nyce; educated at Univ. of Michigan, LL.B. 1912; married Mary Phillips Cowherd, Sept. 21, 1925; one son. Senior Member, Long, St. Lewis & Nyce, Washington, D. C. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (Secy. of Mineral Section since 1926); District of Columbia Bar Assn.; Natl. Press Club. Address: 1266 National Press Bldg., Washington 4, D. C.

NYCOP, CARL-ADAM, Swedish Editor; born July 24, 1909, Helsinki, Finland; son of Olof and Annalisa (Tilgman) Nycop; educated at Lundsberg College; Nya Svenska Laroverket; married Margot Benon, Oct. 9, 1946; one son (former marriage), Alf. Sportwriter in Idrottsbladet, Hufvulstadsbladet, 1928-34; sports editor, Eskilstuna-Kuriren, 1934-35; reporter, Göteborgs Norgontidningen, 1936-37; sports editor, Nya Daglig Allehanda, Stockholm, 1937-38; Editor in Chief for Sweden's first picture magazine "SE," 1934-44; Editor in Chief, Sweden's first pocket-sized monthly "Allt," 1941-44; Editor in Chief, Sweden's evening daily "Expressen," since 1944. Member: Svenska Publicistklubben; Svenska Journalistforeningen. Author (novels): Vinthunden, 1936; I skottlinjen, 1938; Sju öden, 1941; Idrottsboken (sports), 1934; Finlands slutkamp, 1940; De Stora kanonerna, 1943; Kriget, 1944. Address: Expressen, Klara Södre kyrokogata 7, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYE, Lieut. General Sir ARCHIBALD EDWARD, K.B.E., C.B., M.C., British Administrator; born Apr. 23, 1895, Dublin, Ireland; son of Charles and Mary (Sexton) Nye; educated at Duke of York's School; married Una Sheila Colleen Knox, May 2, 1939. Enlisted in the ranks, Oct. 7, 1914; 2nd Lieut., 1915; Lieut., 1916; Capt., 1923; Brevet Major, 1930; Brevet Lieut.-Col., 1934; Major, South Lancashire Regt., 1935; Lieut.-Col., R. Warwickshire Regt., 1937; Col. (temp. Brigadier), 1939; Major-General (acting), 1940; Major-General (substantive), 1941; Lieut.-General (acting), 1941; Lieut.-General (substantive), Sept., 1944. Commander, Nowshera Brigade, 1939; Deputy Director, Staff Duties, 1940; Director, Staff Duties, 1940. Vice-Chief, Imperial General Staff, 1941-45. Governor of Madras, 1945 —. Residence: United Services Club, Pall Mall, London, S.W. 1, England.

NYE, Dr. ARTHUR W., American Physicist; born Jan. 28, 1882, Canton, Ohio; son of Charles N. and Harriett F. (Wickes) Nye; educated at Case School of Applied Science, B.S. 1904, M.E. 1907; Univ. of California, Ph.D. 1935; married Alice L. Bird, Sept. 3, 1907. Designer, Morgan Engineering Co.; with General Electric Co., 1905-06; Pacific Light and Power Co., 1907; taught at Univ. of California summer session, 1917; Director, Acad. of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, 1928; at Univ. of Southern California since 1907, now Prof. of Physics. Director, Western Inst. of Light and Vision. Member: Illuminating Engineering Soc.; Acoustical Soc. of America; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Assn. of Physics Teachers, etc. Author: Experiments in Physics; Recording Sound for Motion Pictures (with others). In Ordnance Dept., U. S. Army, 1918-19. Address: University of Southern California, Los Angeles, Calif.

NYE, Hon. GERALD P., American Politician; born in Hortonville, Wis., Dec. 19, 1892. Published newspapers in Hortonville, Wis., Creston, Iowa, and Fryburg and Cooperstown, N. D. Independent Candidate for Second District to U. S. House of Representatives, 1924; appointed to U. S. Senate, 1925; elected to U. S. Senate, 1926; re-elected in 1932 and 1938. Served as Chairman, Senate Com. appointed to investigate the munitions industry and causes of war. Sponsored neutrality legislation. Address: Cooperstown, N. D.

NYGAARD, FREDRIK CHRISTIAN, Danish Author, Poet and Journalist; born 1897, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Axel and Harriet (Meyer) Nygaard; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen; divorced; one son. Began as journalist on Politiken, 1918; then on weekly papers and Berlingke Tidende. Travelling Journalist in Russia, Spain and Balkans. Member: Soc. of Danish Authors; Soc. of Journalists; Soc. of Danish Playwrights. Awarded various citations by Carl Möller, Emma Baerentzen, P. Mariager, and State of Denmark. Author of various anthologies including Pejseild, Evropaskitser, Gnister, Besögstid, etc.; (prose) Kvaernen, Athens Nar; (ballets and operas) Sommerfugle, Stepan, Leonardo da Vinci, Maria Grubbe. Plays performed at Royal Theatre, Copenhagen, Belgium and Germany. Author: Svaling fra Havet (poems); Jeg ser en Skov, der grönnes (novel), with Gudrun Mejse. Address: c/o poste restante, Köbmagergades, Denmark.

NYGAARD, MADS WIEL, Norwegian Publisher; born 1898, Oslo, Norway; son of William Martin and Constance (Wiel) Nygaard; educated in Sweden, France, Germany; M.A. 1926; married Margrethe Louise Kildal, 1934; three children. Confidential clerk, H. Aschehoug & Co., 1928; Managing Director, 1940. Vice-Pres., Union of Norwegian Publishers; Vice-Pres., P.E. N. Club. Board Member, Saubgrugsforeningen, Halden. Address: A/S, Sehesteds Plass 3, Oslo, Norway.

NYGAARD, WILLIAM MARTIN, Norwegian Publisher; born 1865, Kristiansand, Norway; son of Marius and Elisabeth (Martin) Nygaard; educated at Univ. of Oslo; married Constance Wiel, 1889; seven children. Asst., H. Aschehoug & Co., Oslo, 1887; owner since 1888. Founded Union of Norwegian Publishers, 1895; Pres., 1895-1922, 1925-29. Member, Norwegian Parliament, 1922-25. Decorated Knight Commander, Order of St. Olav; Knight Commander, Order of Dannebrog; Knight, Legion of Honor; Knight, Finlands White Rose; Knight, Czechoslovakian White Lion. Address: A/S Sehesteds Plass 3, Oslo, Norway.

NYGAARDSVOLD, Hon. JOHAN, Norwegian Statesman; born in Hommelvik, Norway, Sept. 6, 1879; son of Anders N. and Andrea (Ratvold) Nygaardsvold; married Albine Brandsleth, 1901. Began as a sawmill worker, 1891, and was also engaged in brick manufacturing and farm work until 1901; railroad construction worker in the U. S., 1901-07; timber and cellulose worker at Hommelvik, 1908. Member, Norwegian Labor Party, since 1909. Chairman, Hommelvik Labor Party, 1925-26; Sør-Trøndelag Labor Party, 1924-26; Member, National Council of the Party, since 1924. Member of all Parliaments since 1916; President, Lagting, since 1928. President, Sorting, 1934-35. Minister of Agriculture in the Labor Government, Jan. and Feb. 1928; Prime Minister and Minister of Public Works, 1935-39; Prime Minister without portfolio, 1939-45. Member of the State Directorate of Waterways and Electricity. Secretary of the Parliamentary Group of the Labor Party since 1923; Chairman, 1932-35. Address: Oslo, Norway.

NYGARD-NILSSEN, Dr. ARNE, Norwegian Antiquarian; born Apr. 5, 1899, Bergen, Norway; son of Nicolai Nilssen and Olivia (Halvorsen); educated at Univ. of Oslo, mag. art, 1927, Ph.D. 1945; married Maja Refsum, Nov. 6, 1928; two daughters. Asst. State Antiquarian, 1922-36; Antiquarian, 1936-46; State Antiquarian since 1946. Secy., Soc. for Preservation of Norwegian Antiquities, 1929-46; Sub-Editor, Art and Culture, 1927-42, Editor (with Harry Fett) since 1946. Director, Com. for Ancient Buildings; Trustee, Norwegian Soc. for Art of Book and various other organizations. Member, Det Norske Videnskaps-Akademi, Oslo. Author: The Sculpture of Norway in the 19th and 20th Century, 1927; Modern Wall Painting of Norway, 1928; The Working Life as Reproduced in Art, 1934; Publisher's Bindings (in Norway), 1937; Norwegian Iron Sculpture I-II, 1944. Address: Kirkegaten 14-18, Oslo, Norway.

NYGH, EDUARD, Dutch Company Director; born Jan. 24, 1900, Malang, Dutch East Indies; son of Ed. and Elisabeth Nygh; married Muriel Poole; three children. With Van Es & Van Ommeren, Amsterdam, 1918-19; Van Ommeren (London) Ltd., 1919-21; Van Ommeren, New York, 1921-22; Paris, 1922-24; Netherlands East Indies, 1924-25; Hamburg, 1925-30; South and East Africa, 1930-31; Hamburg, 1931-34; Netherlands Indies-Far East, 1934-35; Rotterdam, 1935-39. In military service, 1939-40; resumed position with Phs. Van Ommeren's Scheepvaartbedryf N.V., Rotterdam, 1940; in British India and Australia, 1946; Managing Director of Company in Rotterdam since 1947. Director: Netherlands State Bank, Amsterdam; Rotterdamsche Bank, Rotterdam; United Netherlands Navigation Co., The Hague; British & Continental Steamship Co., Ltd., Liverpool; Eerste Nederlandsche Scheepsverband Mij., Rotterdam; Shipbuilding Yard "De Schelde," Flushing; Insurance Co. "De Zeven Provincien," The Hague. Member, Chamber of Commerce (Chmn. of Shipping Section). Captain, Netherlands Army (Artillery). Residence: Laan van Woudestein 7. Office: Westerlaan 10, Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

NYGREN, Rev. Dr. ANDERS, Swedish Theologian and Educator; born Nov. 15, 1890, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Samuel and Anna Maria (Lundstrom) Nygren; Cand. Theol. 1912, Lic. Theol. 1921, D.D. 1923, Univ. of Lund, Sweden; married Irmgard Brandin, June 4, 1921. Curate, 1912; Docent of Philosophy of Religion, 1921; Prof., 1924. Member: Kungl. Humanistiska Vetenskapssamfundet i Lund, 1924; Delegate, Ecumenical Council, Lausanne, 1927; Oxford, 1937; Edinburgh, 1937. Awarded L.N.O. 1932; R.D.D.O. 1934; K.N.O. 1945. Residence: Lund, Sweden.

NYGREN, ERIK WILHELM, Swedish Company Director; born Mar. 28, 1897, Alvesta, Sweden; son of O. M. and Elin (Johansson) Nygren; educated at Trade School, 1918; married Greta Ingeborg Carlsson, 1920; three children. Secy., Sverige Köpmannafoerbund, 1922-31; Asst. Director, Hakonbalaget, 1931-42; Director, Sveriges Järnhandlareförbund, Stockholm, since 1942. Member, Swedish Parliament, 1929-32. Residence: Önskeringsvägen 22, Smedslätten, Sweden. Office: Drottninggatan 68, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYGREN, Dr. ERNST LUDVIG, Swedish Editor; born June 14, 1889, Karlstad, Sweden; son of Olof Emanuel and Emma Catherina (Magnusson) Nygren; educated at University of Uppsala, B.A. 1911, M.A. (history), 1919; University of Stockholm, Doctor h. c., 1947. Entered Landsarkivet, Uppsala, 1919; Riksarkivet, 1920; became Archivist, 1921; First Archivist, 1928; Country Archivist at Vadstena, 1933-37; Editor of "Diplomatarium Suecanum" of Vitterhets Historie och Antikvitets Akademien since 1937. Member of Samfundet för utgivande av handskrifter rörande Skandinaviens historia; Corresponding Member of Vitterhets Historie och Antikvitets Akademien. Knight of Swedish North Star Order and Norwegian St. Olaf's Order. Author: Våra kyrkoarkiv, 1924; Riksarkivet, Stockholm, 1931; Det svenska diplomatarieverket, 1938; Registra ecclesiae Lincopensis, 1941, 1944. Address: Riksarkivet, Arkivgatan 3, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYGREN, Gen. OSCAR (EUGENE), Swedish Army Officer; born Sept. 26, 1872, Gavle, Sweden; son of Richard and Thekla (Engelmark) Nygren; received military education; married Jenny Ohgren, 1905; four children. Subt-Lt., Halsinge, 1892. Aspirant, General Staff, 1898-1901; Lt., 1902; Capt., 1904; Adjutant to Ministry of State, 1907-10; Major, 1913; Chief of Staff of III Army Corps, 1913; Head of Military High School, 1917; Col., General Staff, 1919; Major Gen., 1929; Commander of Upper Norrland Prov., 1930. Chief of General Staff, 1933; Lt. Gen., Commander in Chief of Swedish Army, 1936. Retired 1937 and appointed General of the Army. Military Member, Supreme Court of Judicature. Swedish Military Rept., League of Nations, Geneva, 1923-33. Member, Board of Directors, Allmanna Pensionsforsakringsbolaget. Address: Stockholm, Sweden.

NYHOLM, JENS, American Librarian; born July 24, 1900, Hjørring, Denmark; son of Johannes Peter and Ellen Marie (Bartsch) Nyholm; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, cand. phil. 1920; Columbia Univ., New York, B.S. 1928; George Washington Univ., Washington, D. C., M.A. 1934; married Amy Wood, July 26, 1941. Asst., Public Library of Copenhagen, 1919-21. Asst. Librarian, Nordjyske Landsbibliotek, Aalborg, Denmark, 1923-27. Asst., Library of Congress, Washington, D. C., 1928-37. Head, Catalog Dept., Univ. of California at Los Angeles, 1938-39. Asst. Librarian, Univ. of California, Berkeley, 1939-44. University Librarian, Northwestern Univ., since 1944. Member: Amer. Library Assn.; Bibliographical Soc. of America; Modern Language Assn.; American-Scandinavian Foundation. Awarded Fellowship by American-Scandinavian Foundation, 1927-28. Contributor to professional, literary, and scholarly journals in the United States and Denmark. Served in Danish Army, 1921-22. Address: Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

NYIRI, WILLIAM ANTHONY, Internist; born Mar. 3, 1893, Vienna, Austria; son of Alexander and Marie (Sladecek) von Nyiri; educated at Med. School, State Univ. in Vienna, M.D. 1916; married Anne T. Gruich, Sept. 7, 1929; two children. Assoc. Attending Physician, Med. Service, Wieden Hosp., Vienna, 1918-26; Asst. Prof. of Internal Med., Univ. of Vienna, 1926-27. Lecturer in Bio-sciences, 1927-30, and Prof. of Experimental Pathol., 1930—; Rutgers Univ. College of Pharmacy. Asst. Attending Physician on Metabolic Service, Newark (N. J.) City Hosp., 1927-38; Chief of Metabolic Service, Newark City Hosp.; Consulting Physician on Metabolic Diseases at Newark Eye & Ear Infirmary, 1937—; Med. Attending Physician, St. Michael's Hosp., Newark; St. Mary's Hosp., Orange, N. J., 1936. Certified by the Amer. Board of Internal Medicine. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Diabetes Assn. Author: Thiosulfate Kidney Function Test, 1923. Address: 863 S. 12th St., Newark, N. J.

NYIRJESY, Dr. SÁNDOR, Hungarian Parliament Member; born May 26, 1892, Mátészalka, Hungary; son of István and Mária (Tóth) Nyirjesy; educated at College (summa cum laude 1932); Univ. of Agricultural Sciences, Sc.D. summa cum laude 1934; married (1st) Margit Janescár, 1922 (2nd) Margit Bertalan, 1927; two children, Margit (Mrs. Tomasics Donneé) and István. Teacher and School Director in Ópályi, 1911-16; in military service during World War I; Prisoner in France; High School Teacher, 1920-34; Member, School Commissioners' Council, 1935-45; School Commissioner, 1943; Deputy for Székesfehérvár (Smallholders' Party) to National Assembly, 1945; left the party, 1947. Pres., Education Council, Hungarian Parliament; Member of Economic and Agricultural Committees. Member of Red Cross Committee (Pres., 1946). Pres.: Catholic Bank, Székesfehérvár, 1945-47; Smallholders' Party in Székesfehérvár, 1904. Living in Austria, since Aug. 15, 1947. Awarded Badge of Merit, World War I; Signum laudis for civic activities. Author: Reform of the Hungarian Economic Literature, 1934; various books on agriculture, economics and sociological science. Residence: Dózsa György tér 23. 1, 2, Székesfehervar, Hungary. Office: Josef körút 44, Budapest, Hungary.

NYLANDER, (KARL) LENNART (HJALMAR), Swedish Consul General in New York, N. Y.; born Sept. 4, 1901, Edefors, Sweden; son of Emil and Hedvig (von Post) Nylander; educated at Uppsala Univ., LL.B. 1925, B.A. 1928; married Margareta Fjellander, Oct. 16, 1929; four children. Attaché, Swedish Foreign Office, 1928; Attaché at Consulate General in N. Y., 1928; Legation in Berne, 1930; at Foreign Office, 1931-36; 1st Secy., Swedish Legation, Riga, Reval and Rovno, 1936-38; Chief, Passport Division, Foreign Office, 1938-40; Counselor, Legation in Moscow, 1940-42; Commercial Counselor and Counselor of Legation in Berlin, 1942-45; Swedish Consul General in N. Y., since 1945. Awarded numerous decorations. Residence: 600 Park Ave. Office: 630 Fifth Ave., New York. N. Y.

NYLÉN, Dr. CARL OLOF SIGGESSON, Swedish Physician; born June 30, 1892, Uppsala, Sweden; son of C. E. S. Nylén and A. O. Chöler; passed student examination at Jönköping, 1910; then began medical studies; received license to practice, 1918; won Med.Dr., 1923; married Elisabet Bengston, Oct. 22, 1917; seven children. Asst. Prof., Serafimer Hosp. and Caroline Institute, Stockholm, 1925-35; Professor of Medicine, University of Uppsala, 1935-37. Ordinarius Professor of Medicine, Academic Hospital, University of Uppsala, since 1937. Member of Swedish and Uppsala Medical Assns. and Collegium Otorhinolaryngological Internationale. Secretary, Swedish Oto-Rhino-Laryngological Assn., 1928-31 and Nordic Oto-Rhino-Laryngological Assn., 1926-33, since Committee Member. Pres., Medical Assn., 1946; President, Academiska Sällskapet, 1943-46; President of Föreningen Norden, Uppsala, 1938-43; Vice-President, Nordic Oto-Rhino-Laryngological Congress, Stockholm, 1947; Inspector of Smalands nation in Uppsala, 1940. Author of medical publications on labyrint and tumors of cerebrum. Residence: Arosplan 5. Office: Akademiska Sjukhuset, Uppsala, Sweden.

NYLÉN, Dr. PAUL, Swedish Chemist; born Sept. 8, 1892, Bälaryd, Sweden; son of Johannes and Alma Dorotea Nylén; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, fil. kand. 1914, fil. mag. 1917, fil. lic. 1920, Ph.D. 1930; married Helene Ahlford, Sept. 10, 1932; two children. Lecturer in Chemistry, Faculty of Medicine, Uppsala, 1918-34; Docent in Chemistry, Faculty of Philosophy, Uppsala, 1930-37; temporary Prof. of Organic Chemistry, Polytechnic Univ. of Norway, Trondheim, 1937-39; Chief Chemist, Askim Gummivarefabriker, Norway, 1939-40; Chief of Laboratory, Swedish Govt. Inst. for Handicrafts, since 1940; Research Manager, Central Research Laboratory, Swedish Paint and Varnish Industries, since 1944; Docent in Paint Chemistry, Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm, since 1944. Chairman, Chemical Soc. of Uppsala, 1934-37. Member: Chemical Assn. in Stockholm; Amer. Chemical Soc. Author of over 30 scientific books and papers on general and organic chemistry; also textbooks and popular pamphlets. Address: Sandbacksgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYLIN, Dr. GUSTAV, Swedish Physician; born Dec. 18, 1892, London, England; son of Frithiof and Alva (Aberg) Nylin; educated at College of Uppsala, med.lic. 1922, Caroline Inst. at Stockholm, M.D. 1930; married Ingrid Björck, 1924; two daughters. In general medical practice at Spånga, 1924-30; Asst. Physician, Royal Serafimer Hospital, Stockholm, 1930-37; Assoc. Prof. of Medicine, Caroline Inst., Stockholm, specializing in heart diseases and electrocardiography, 1936—. Prof. of Medicine at Royal Serafimer Hospital, 1937-39; Chief of II Med. Clinics, Sabbatsbergs Hospital, Stockholm, 1939-46; Chief of II Med. Clinic, Södersjukhuset, Stockholm, 1946—. Honorary Professor, 1946—. Studied heart diseases in Vienna and the United States; attended medical meetings in Wiesbaden, Oslo, Copenhagen, Helsinki, Bristol and Atlantic City. Lectured on heart diseases in Nauheim, New York Acad. of Medicine, Boston, Detroit, Ann Arbor, and Helsingfors. Guest of Honor, Second Inter-American Congress of Cardiology, Mexico City, 1946; Hanna Lecturer, Western Reserve Univ., Cleveland, 1946; Mayo Foundation Lecturer, Rochester, Minn., 1946. Author: Periodical Variations in Growth, Standard Metabolism, Oxygen Capacity of the Blood in Children, 1929; also articles on clinical tests of heart functions, heart volume, electrocardiography, circulation studies with the aid of radio-active phosphorus, etc. Residence: Cardellgatan 1. Office: Södersjukhuset, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYPELS, Dr. LEOPOLD AUGUST, Dutch Jurist; born Dec. 29, 1888, Maastricht, The Netherlands; son of Dr. Armand Nypels and Elisabeth Roest van Limburg; educated at Univ. of Leiden, LL.D. 1911; married Jenneke Kamerlingh Onnes, June 21, 1921; four daughters. Barrister, The Hague, 1911; Partner, law firm of Telders, Nypels & Westerouen van Meeteren; Judge, Dutch Supreme Court since 1931. Member: State Commn. for International Private Law, 1937; Central Polling Com., 1935. Pres. and Curator, Gymnasium, The Hague; Member of Control Bd., N.V. Philips Gloeilampenfabrieger, Eindhoven. Former Pres., Assn. of Fiscal Science; Member of Bd., Internatl. Juridical Inst., The Hague. Knight, Order of Netherlands Lion; Orange Nassau Order. Residence: Vroenhof, Warmond. Office: Plein No. 2, The Hague, The Netherlands.

NYSTEDT, Rev. BENGT OLOF (OLLE), Swedish Pastor Primarius; born Mar. 24, 1888, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Bengt Johan Salomon and Anna (Svensson) Nystedt; Theol. Cand. 1912, Uppsala Univ.; married Gurli Karin Vilhelmina Nordling, July 12, 1913; six children. Parson, Deaconess Establishment of Uppsala, 1913; Secy., Board of Diakoni of Swedish Church, 1913; Rector, Dala, Diocese of Skara, 1920; Asst. Clergyman, Oscar's Parish of Stockholm, 1929; Curate, St. John's Parish of Stockholm, 1935; Dean of Gothenburg, 1937; Court Chaplain, 1937; Pastor Primarius, Dean of Stockholm, 1942. Vice-Head, Chapter of Stockholm; Vice-Pres., Soc. Pro Fide et Christianissimo; Pres., Swedish Mission for the Jews; Pres., Social Council, Church of Stockholm; Pres., Cure of Sailors of Church of Stockholm; Secy., Swedish Bible Soc. Member: Royal Acad. of Science and Literature of Gothenburg. Hon. Member, British and Foreign Bible Soc. Royal Order of Pole Star. Author: Jeremiah the Prophet, 1918; Nathan Soderblom, 1931; An Ecclesiastic Year, 1933; From the Student's Crusade to the Institution of Sigtuna, 1936; Stockholm Clergymen, 1937; When the Day Begins, 1941; From the Pulpit of the Cathedral of Gothenburg, 1943. Residence: Stortorget 1, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYSTÉN, HOLGER, Finnish Association Executive; born May 15, 1905, Wasa, Finland; son of Alarik and Lilly (Hjulman) Nystén; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, law degree; married Anita Furuhjelm, May 13, 1932; three children. Asst. Manager, Finnish Paper Mills Assn., 1930-37; Managing Director, Scankraft, Stockholm, 1937-39. General Manager, Finnish Paper Mills Assn., 1939-44; Chairman, Board of Directors, since 1944. Member, Supervisory Board, Helsingfors Aktiebank; Board Member, Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish Paper Assns., Scankraft, Scangreaseproof, Scansulfit, Scanfin and Scanpergamyn, and M. G. Cape & Tissue Conventions. Awarded Finnish Cross of Liberty, 2nd class (twice); Knight Commander, White Rose, Finland. Reserve Officer, Finnish Army, 1926-28, 1939-40, 1941-44 (Major). Residence: Kavallvagen, Grankulla, Finland. Office: S. Espalanadg. 2, Helsinki, Finland.

NYSTROEM, GÖSTA, Swedish Composer, Music Critic; born Oct. 13, 1890, Silfberg, Sweden; son of Carl Johan Nystroem; educated at High School and Conservatorium, Stockholm; studied counterpoint, fugue and piano with Prof. Liebermann, Copenhagen, 1916; composition with Vincent d'Indy; theory and instrumentation with Leonid Sabaneff; orchestral technique and conducting with Camille Chevillard, 1920-32; married Gladys Heyman, July 23, 1921; three daughters. Music critic, Göteborgs Handelstidning, Göteborg, since 1932; also Editor, Music Dept. Member, Royal Acad. of Music, Sweden. Composer of Sinfonia Breve, Sinfonia Espressiva, Concerto for string orchestra, Concerto for viola and orchestra, Concerto for violoncello and orchestra, Symphonic poems, theatre music and songs with orchestra. Residence: Konsthallen, Götaplatsen, Göteborg, Sweden. Studio: Göteborgs Handels- och Sjöfarts- Tidning, Göteborg, Sweden.

NYSTRÖM, Dr. BERTIL, Swedish Economist; born Oct. 4, 1883, Nora, Sweden; son of Emil and Anna Marie (Brandberg) Nyström; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, Ph.D. 1922; married Gertrud Wendel, Nov. 5, 1914; two children. Asst., Royal Economic Board; Actuary, Royal Social Board, 1910; Chief of Bureau, Royal Social Bd., since 1919. Dir., Statistical Bureau. Head of official inquiries concerning collective agreements, wages, cost of living, housing. Member of International Statistical Inst. Hon. Member of Statistical Socs. of Finland and Hungary. Swedish Representative at several meetings at International Labour Bureau, Geneva, 1921-37. Commander, Swedish Vasa Order; Knight, North Star. Author: The Labour Question in House Building in Sweden, 1922; How Labour is Paid (2nd ed., 1932); The Labour Question in Swedish Agriculture, 1930; Banks as Employers, 1929. Residence: Äppelbovägen 10, Höglands Torget, Stockholm. Office: Socialstyrelsen, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYSTRÖM, Dr. (ERIK) GUNNAR, Swedish Surgeon; born April 19, 1877, Stockholm; son of Carl L. H. Nyström, Ph.D., M.D., and Emily Skjöldebrand; educated at Norra Latinläroverket and studied medicine at Caroline Institute, Stockholm, and at Univ. of Uppsala; married Eva Schenström, June 18, 1907. Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Caroline Institute, 1908-16 and 1918-21, and at Univ. of Uppsala, 1916-18; Chief of Surg. Dept., Sabbatsberg Hosp., Stockholm, 1919-21; Chief, Acad. Hosp., Uppsala, 1923-35; Prof. of Surg., Univ. of Uppsala, 1921-42. Abraham Flexner Lecturer at Vanderbilt Univ., 1935. Author of numerous publications. Pres.: Swedish Surgical Soc., 1938-42; Soc. of Sciences in Uppsala, 1942-43; Swedish Med. Soc., 1942-43; Swedish Committee of European Student Relief Fund (Geneva), since 1943; Nurses Home and School of Uppsala, since 1923; Swedish Acad. Relief Com., since 1945. Member of Swedish State Com. for Internatl. Relief (Pres. of Medical Section since 1944). Author of more than 100 surgical pamphlets and books. Hon. Member, Corresponding Member, Fellow and Member of numerous medical and scientific organizations. Address: Börjegatan 5A, Uppsala, Sweden.

NYSTRÖM, ERIK (TORSTEN), Swedish Scientist; born July 5, 1879, Österplana, Sweden; son of Carl and Emily (Skjöldebrand) Nyström; educated at Royal Univ. of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden, diploma 1900; Stockholm Univ., M.A. 1919; Hon. Ph.D., Uppsala Univ., 1927; married Harriet Nyström, Sept. 1914; one son. Chemical Engineer, Ganz & Co., Budapest, Hungary, 1901. Organizer, Prof. and Dean, Science Dept., Shansi Government Univ., China, 1902-11. Second in command, Shansi Relief Expedition; Commander, Swedish Government Relief Expedition to rescue foreigners isolated by revolution, 1912. With Natl. Geological Survey of China, 1914-17. Prof., Shansi Univ., 1920-29; established Nyström Inst. for Scientific Research, Shansi Univ.; Internatl. Famine Relief, 1928-30; Prof., Yenching Univ., 1932. With British and Swiss firms in China since 1933. Did journalistic work for Stockholms Tidningen; Pres. of Swedish Assn., Peiping. Trustee and Treas., Peking Union Church. Rept., Royal Swedish Consulate in China. Fellow, Royal Geographical Soc. of London; Swedish Geological Soc.; Chinese Geological Soc.; Swedish Technological Soc. Awards: Rank of Mandarin with Blue Button of third degree; Double Dragon; Order of Excellent Crop (China); Royal North Star Order (Sweden). Author: Det Nya Kina, 1913; Det Nyaste Kina, 1936; Det Underbara Kina, 1936; Kinas Kvinnor, 1940, etc. Address: 4 Rue Marco Polo, Ex-Legation Quarter, Peiping, China.

NYSTRÖM, HARRY GOTTHARD, Swedish Civil Engineer; born July 27, 1898, Kristinehamn, Sweden; son of Marcus and Anna (Lundgren) Nyström; educated at Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1920, C.E.; married Maertha Svenson, 1930; one son. With A/B Gasaccumulator, Madrid, 1924-25; Managing Director, Swedish Electrical Manufacturers Assn., since 1925; Secy. General, Swedish Elec. Standardizing Com., since 1925; Chmn., Swedish Plastic Federation, since 1942; Secy. General, Swedish Federation for Electrical Development, since 1927. Chmn.,: Svenska Låsmutter A/B; Inreco A/B; A/B Ekonomiregister. Vice-Chmn., A/B Kraftemballage. Member: Svenska Teknologföreningen; Sveriges Tekniskt-Industriella Skiljedomsinstitut (Bd. Member). Awarded many decorations. Author: Segel, 1933; Havsörnen, 1929-30. Residence: Bellmansgatan 6. Office: Malmorgatan 10, Stockholm, Sweden.

NYSTROM, Dr. PAUL HENRY, American Economist; born Jan. 25, 1878, Maiden Rock, Wis.; son of Andrew and Christine (Westmann) Nystrom; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.B. 1909, M.A. 1910, Ph.D. 1914; married Mildred C. Chicker, Aug. 26, 1903. Asst. Prof. of Political Economy, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1909-14; Assoc. Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Minnesota, 1914-15. Director of Market Research and Asst. to Pres., U. S. Rubber Co., 1915-17. Sales Manager, International Mag. Co., 1917-21. Director of Retail Research Assn. and Associated Merchandising Corp., 1921-27. Prof. of Marketing, Columbia Univ., 1926—. Pres., Limited Price Variety Stores Assn., 1933—. Pres., Amer. Marketing Soc., 1933-34. Vice-Pres., Amer. Statistical Assn., 1933-34. Author: Economics of Retailing (two vols.); Economics of Fashion; Economic Principles of Consumption; Fashion Merchandising; Chain Stores. Residence: Spring Valley, N. Y. Office: 25 W. 43rd St., New York, New York.

NYUN, U SO, Burmese Diplomat. Served as Mayor of the City of Rangoon. Commissioner of the Rangoon Corporation, until 1947. Appointed first Burmese Ambassador to the United States, Sept., 1947—. Address: Embassy of Burma, Washington, District of Columbia.

O

OAKES, CHARLES ERNEST, American Electrical Engineer; born Nov. 23, 1892, Pendleton, Ore.; son of Henry E. and Margaret (Siderius) Oakes; educated at Oregon State College, B.S. 1915; Cornell Univ., M.M.E. 1917; married Anna M. Buckley, Mar. 15, 1923; two children. Electrical Engineer, National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., 1917; Electrical Engineer, Federal Power Commn., 1921-23. Engineer, Rate Dept., Pennsylvania Power & Light Co., 1923-25; Special Asst. to Pres., 1925-27, then Division Manager, 1927-39. Pres., Birmingham Electric Co., 1939-45. Pres., Allentown Chamber of Commerce, 1932-35. Director, Associated Industries of Alabama; Vice-Pres. and Director, Birmingham (Ala.) Chamber of Commerce. Member, American Inst. of Electrical Engineers, etc. Residence: 2803 Chew St., Allentown, Pa.

OAKLEY, VIOLET, American Mural Painter; born 1874, New York; studied at Art Students League, New York; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts; Paris; London. Designer of numerous mural paintings; exhibited at many academies and art galleries. Member, National Academy of Design. Hon. Member, American Inst. of Architects. Address: "Lower Cogslea," St. George's Road above Allen Lane, Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa.

OAKSEY, Rt. Hon. Baron (Sir GEOFFREY LAWRENCE), P.C., K.C., D.S.O., British Jurist; born 1880, educated at Haileybury and New College, Oxford; married Marjorie Robinson, 1921; four children. Called to Bar, Inner Temple, 1906; K.C. 1925; Counsel to Jockey Club, 1922-32; Recorder of Oxford, 1924-32; Examiner in Ecclesiastical Causes, 1927-32; Atty.-Gen. to the Prince of Wales and a Member of the Council, 1928-32; Judge, High Court of Justice (King's Bench Division), 1932-44; Lord Justice of Appeal), 1944; Lord of Appeal in Ordinary, 1947—. British Member and President of international tribunal to try major war criminals of Europe, 1945. Address: Hill Farm, Oaksey, Swindon, England.

OATES, JAMES F., JR., American Lawyer; born Nov. 11, 1899, Evanston, Ill.; son of James F. and Henrietta (Jennings) Oates; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1921; Northwestern University, School of Law, J.D. 1924; married Rosalind Wright, June 19, 1925; two children. Associated with Cutting, Moore & Sidley, 1924; member of firm, 1931-42; legal advisor, Chicago Ordnance District, War Department, 1942; became Chief, Purchase Policy Branch, Legal Division, Office; Chief of Ordnance. Washington, D. C., Dec., 1942-Aug. 1, 1944; resumed membership in firm of Sidley, Austin, Burgess and Harper, Aug. 1, 1944. Trustee (Vice-Pres.), Lake Forest Acad.; President, Young Men's Christian Assn. of Chicago. Member: Chicago Bar Assn. (President); Illinois State Bar Assn.; American Bar Assn. Residence: 881 Church Rd., Lake Forest, Ill. Office: 11 S. LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill.

OATES, Dr. WHITNEY JENNINGS, American Philologist; born Mar. 26, 1904, Princeton, N. J.; son of James F. and Henrietta (Jennings) Oates; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1926, M.A. 1927, Ph.D. 1931; married Virginia Hill, Sept. 1, 1927; one child. Member of Faculty, Princeton Univ., since 1927; Instructor, 1927; Asst. Prof., 1931-40; Assoc. Prof., 1940-45; Ewing Prof. of Greek Languages and Literature, since 1945. Member: Amer. Philological Assn.; Classical Assn. of the Atlantic States. Author: The Influence of Simonides of Ceos Upon Horace, 1932. Editor: (with Eugene O'Neill, Jr.) The Complete Greek Drama, 2 vols., 1938; The Stoic and Epicurean Philosophers, 1940; (with C. T. Murphy) Greek Literature in Translation, 1946; (with C. T. Murphy & K. Guinagh) Greek and Roman Classics in Translation, 1947. Address: Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

OBBINK, Dr. HERMAN THEODORUS, Dutch Theologian; born Jan. 23, 1869, Aalten, Holland; son of Hendrik Willem and Elisabeth (Doornink) Obbink; educated at Univ. of Utrecht, Th.D.; Hon. Dr., Univ. of Debrecen, Hungary; married Jeantine ten Kate, Apr. 22, 1897; three sons. Pastor at Hogersmilde until 1900; at Kampvereen, 1900-03; Middelburg, 1903-06; The Hague, 1906-10; Prof. at Univ. of Amsterdam, 1910; taught History of Religion, Assyriology and Egyptology at Univ. of Utrecht, 1914-39. Pres. of a committee for a new translation of the Old Testament; appointed Chaplain to the Queen, 1929; Hon. Prof., high school at Papa, Hungary. Director, Provincial Soc. of Science, Utrecht. Member: Dutch Soc. of Science, Haarlem; Provincial Zealand Soc. of Science, Middelburg. Created Knight, Order of Dutch Lion; Commander, Huisorde van Oranje; Order of Merit of Hungary with Star. Wrote a new translation of the Old Testament. Author: Op Bijbelschen Bodem (On Biblical Ground, Egypt, Palestine, Syria), 1924; Introduction to the Bible, 1935; De heilige oorlog (The Holy War), 1901; De Godsdienst in zijn verschijningsvormen (Religion in Its Various Appearances), 1933; Het Bijbelsch Paradijsverhaal (The Biblical Narration of Paradise), 1917; The Book of Job (Het boek Job), 1935; Survival, 1929; Oostersch en Westersch denken (The Eastern and Western Mind), 1936. Address: Dillenburgstreet 29, Utrecht, Holland.

OBBOFF, ALEXANDER CHRISTOFF, Bulgarian Statesman; born Feb. 2, 1887, Pleven, Bulgaria; son of Christo Nikoloff and Ivanka N. (Dianková) Obboff; studied agriculture in Pleven, and law at Univ. of Sofia; married Theodora N. Jelezarová, 1910; three daughters. Publicist, 1905; Minister of Agriculture, 1920; Political exile in Europe, 1923-37; imprisoned in concentration camps for anti-fascist activities, 1941; Pres. of Administrative Council, Bulgarian Agrarian National Union, 1944; Minister without portfolio, 1945; Vice-Pres., Ministerial Council and Minister of Agriculture, 1946; Minister without portfolio, 1947; Secy. General, Bulgarian Agarian National Union, since 1945. Member of Resistance Movement, 1939-45; Chief of Center of Resistance. Hon. Citizen, Sofia. Awarded: Civic Merit Order, 1st class; Military Order, 4th class. Author: La Bulgarie sous le régime de l'assassinat, 1925; Editor, Narodna Volia (magazine), 1927-28 and 1928-29 (Paris). Captain, Bulgarian Army, World War I. Address: 7, Mizia St., Sofia 4, Bulgaria.

OBER, Dr. FRANK ROBERTS, American Surgeon; born June 1, 1881, Mt. Desert, Me.; son of Otis Meriam and Josephine (Roberts) Ober; educated at Westbrook Seminary; Tufts College, M.D. 1905, D.Sc. Hon. 1943; married Ina Spurling, Nov. 14, 1907. In general practice, 1906-13; Junior Asst. and Assoc. Surgeon, Children's Hosp., of Boston, 1915-31, and Chief Surgeon of Orthopedic Dept. since 1931; now Emeritus; Asst. Prof. of Orthopedic Surgery, Harvard Med. School, 1915-31: now John B. and Buckminster Brown Clinical Professor of Orthopedic Surgery Emeritus; Surgeon-in-Chief Emeritus, New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children; Surgeon, Vt. State Infantile Paralysis Dept.; Orthopaedic Surgeon, Peter Bent Brigham Hosp. 1st Lt., Capt. and Major, Med. Corps, U. S. Army, France, during First World War; later Lt. Col., Med. Corps Reserve, U.S.A. Pres., American Orthopedic Assn., 1943; Ex-Pres., Mass. State Med. Soc. Member of many other medical societies. Author of many articles on orthopedic subjects. Edited with Dr. Allison and Mr. Platt, Jones & Lovett's "Orthopedic Surgery," 2nd ed., and with Dr. Brewster, Dr. Lovett's "Lateral Curvature of Spine and Round Shoulders," 5th edition. He is contributor to Nelson's Loose Leaf, Dr. Christopher's Textbook of Surgery, and Practitioner's Library of Medicine and Surgery. Res.: 1038 Beacon St., Brookline, Mass. Office: 234 Marlborough St., Boston 16, Mass.

OBERFELL, GEORGE G., American Engineer; born Aug. 7, 1885; son of George W. and Louisa Ellen (Howe) Oberfell; educated at Miami Univ., Oxford, Ohio, B.A. 1910; Chicago and Pittsburgh Universities; married Lucille Wimmer, May 24, 1930. Instructor in Chemistry, Miami

Univ., 1910-12; Junior Chemist, U. S. Bureau of Mines (Natural Gas By-Products), Pittsburgh, until 1914; Chemist, Ohio Fuel Supply Co., Columbus, 1916-17; Research Engineer, Chestnut & Smith Corp., Tulsa, Okla., 1920-21; Consulting Natural Gasoline Engineer, Seeley-Overfield Corp. Consulting, Designing and Sales Engineer, Hope Engineering & Supply Co., Tulsa, 1924; Director and Vice-Pres. in charge of Research and Development Dept., Phillips Petroleum Co. Member: Chemical Soc.; Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Amer. Petroleum Inst.; Soc. of Automotive Engineers. Co-author (with R. C. Aldeh), Natural Gasoline. Address: Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Okla.

ÖBERG, JOSEF REINHOLD, Swedish Artist; born Jan. 16, 1896, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Emanuel and Ida (Bergquist) Oberg; married Astrid Isaksson, 1924. Participated in exhibitions with group "The Nine Youngs" (Liljevalchs, 1924); The Swedish-French Gallery, 1930; Charlottenborg, Copenhagen, 1932; Exhibition Hall, Gothenburg, 1936-1938; Stockholm, 1942. Represented in National Museum and Museum of the City of Stockholm. Illustrated (book), "Flowers," 1937. Address: Hallebergsvägen 25, Stockholm, Sweden.

OBERHOLTZER, Dr. EDISON ELLSWORTH, American University President; born May 6, 1880, Owen County, Ind.; son of Augustus and Mary A. (Collins) Oberholtzer; educated at Indiana Teachers College, Terre Haute, Ind., A.B. 1907; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1910, M.A. 1915; Univ. of Tulsa, LL.D. 1931; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1934; married Myrtle May Barr, Mar. 26, 1899; three children. Supt. of Schools, Carbon, Ind., 1900-03; Instructor in Mathematics, Indiana State Normal School, 1906; Supervising Principal of Schools, Terre Haute, 1906-09; District Supt. of Schools, Evansville, Ind., 1909; Supt. of Schools, Clinton, Ind., 1911-13; Prof. of Education, Illinois State Normal Univ., summer of 1913; Supt. of Schools, Tulsa, Okla., 1913-25; Supt. of Schools, Houston, Texas, 1924-45; since then he has been President of Univ. of Houston, Texas. Special Lecturer at George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., summer of 1905; summer school of Nova Scotia, 1909. Trustee, Library of Houston, Texas; Chairman, Yearbook Commun., Amer. Assn. of School Administrators, 1938. Member: Gulf States Regional Council; Natl. Advisory Council of School Problems; Natl. Council of Education; Natl. Com. on Illiteracy; Natl. Education Assn.; Natl. Soc. for Study of Education. Author: An Integrated Curriculum in Practice. Co-author: Modern Life Speller; Language Arts for Modern Youth. Address: University of Houston, 3801 St. Bernard St., Houston, Texas.

OBERLIN, JOHN FREDERIC, American Patent Lawyer; born Aug. 28, 1880, Stark County, Ohio; son of Adam W. and Marietta (Gans) Oberlin; educated at College and Law School of Western Reserve Univ., Ph.B. 1904; married Myrtle Cameron, Apr. 22, 1913; two children. Member since 1906: Pay & Oberlin; Pay, Oberlin & Pay; Oberlin, Limbach & Pay; Cleveland, Ohio. Vice-Pres. and Director, Electric Railway Improvement Co. Member: Amer., Ohio and Cleveland Bar Assns.; Amer. and Cleveland Patent Law Assns.; Amer. Judicature Assn.; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Engineering Council (1921-22). Author of various articles and papers on patent law, and has been special lecturer on patent law, Western Reserve Univ., since 1916. Contributor to patent law literature. Address: Leader Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

OBERLING, Dr. CHARLES, French Pathologist; born July 31, 1895, Metz, France; son of Charles and Catherine Oberling; educated at Univ. of Strasbourg, 1913-19; married Marthe Stäubli, Mar. 13, 1936; two sons. Asst., Pathological Inst., Strasbourg, 1920-27; Assoc. Prof. of Pathological Anatomy, Univ. of Paris, 1927-37; Prof. of Bacteriology, Univ. of Strasbourg, 1937-40; Dean of Medical Faculty, Univ. of Teheran, Iran, 1940-46; Director of Dept. of Cancer Research, Univ. of Paris, since 1946. Dir. of Hygiene Inst., Strasbourg, 1937-39. Member of numerous medical societies in France, United States, Germany, Netherlands, Argentine, Hungary and Romania. Author: The Riddle of Cancer, 1944. Residence: 14bis rue des Boules, Villejuif (Seine). Office: University of Paris, Dept. of Cancer Research, Paris, France.

OBERMAYER, Dr. MAXIMILIAN F., American Dermatologist; born Jan. 6, 1896, Leoben, Austria; son of Hermann and Auguste (Pichler) Obermayer; educated at Univ. of Graz, Austria, M.D. 1924. Asst. Prof. of Med., Univ. of Chicago, 1930-41; Assoc. Prof. of Dermatology, Univ. of Southern California, 1941-45; Clinical Prof. and Chairman of Dept., since 1945. Member of Staff: Los Angeles County General Hosp.; St. Vincent's Hosp. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Dermatol. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Los Angeles Dermatol. Soc.; Inst. of Med. of Chicago; Chicago Dermatol. Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Dermatol.; Soc. of Investigative Dermatol. Served on Adv. Com. on Registry of Dermal Pathology of National Research Council. Author: Modern Dermatology and Syphilology (with Dr. Becker), 1946; numerous papers dealing with various phases of dermatology and syphilology. 1st Lieut. in Imperial Austrian Army, World War I; wounded and decorated for bravery. Address: 2007 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.

OBERNAUER, HAROLD, American Lawyer; born Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 2, 1887; son of Herman and Bertha (Dinch) Obernauer; A.B., Yale, 1910; LL.B., Univ. of Pittsburgh Law School, 1912. Admitted to Penna. Bar, 1912; also admitted to Supreme and Superior Courts of Penna. and all Federal courts. Chairman, Legal Advisory Board, District No. 2, Pittsburgh, World War I; Chairman, Selective Service Appeal Board A, Area 9, Penna., since 1940; Vice Chairman, Board of Law Examiners, Allegheny County, 1936-43. Member: Y M & Y W H A of Pittsburgh (Director, 1929-35 and 1939-42); Hebrew Free Loan Assn. (Director, 1934-37); Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of Pittsburgh (Dir., 1933-36); Trustee, Irene Kaufmann Settlement, Pittsburgh, since 1941. Member, Better Traffic Com., City of Pittsburgh, 1939-41. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (Com. on Public Relations, 1937-40; Penna. Bar Assn. (Regional Director 6th Zone, 1941-42); Chairman, Com. on Public Relations, 1936-37 and 1940-44); Allegheny County Bar Assn. (Pres., 1938-40; Trustee since 1942; Chairman, Com. on Judiciary since 1945); Univ. of Pittsburgh Alumni Assn. (Pres., 1935-36); Univ. of Pittsburgh Law School Alumni Assn. (Organizer and Director); Boy Scouts of America (Vice-Pres., Allegheny County, 1917-23); Pittsburgh Charter Plan (Executive Com.); Pittsburgh Defense Council (Law Enforcement Com.), etc. Residence: 906 Arlington Apartments. Office: 2108 Law and Finance Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa.

OBERNDORF, Dr. CLARENCE PAUL, American Psychiatrist; born Feb. 16, 1882, New York, N. Y.; son of Joseph and Augusta (Hammerstein) Oberndorf; educated at Cornell Univ., A.B. 1904, M.D. 1906. Dr. Oberndorf was Instructor in Neurol. at Cornell Med. School, 1914-20;

Adjunct Neurol. at Bellevue Hosp., 1915-20, and Assoc. Psych., Mt. Sinai Hosp., 1925-39. Since 1936 he has been Clinical Prof. of Psych. at Columbia. He has served as Asst. Editor, International Journal of Psychoanalysis, since 1922. He is a Contributing Editor to Psychoanalytic Review, and the Journal of Criminal Psychopathology; Dir. of New York Assn. for Jewish Children; Dir. of Soc. of Hillside Hosp., and Member of Com. for Mental Hygiene among Negroes. He is a Member of New York Psychoanalytic Soc. (Ex-Pres.); Amer. Neurol. Assn.; Amer. Psychoanalytic Assn. (Ex-Pres.); Amer. Psych. Assn.; New York Neurol. Soc. (Ex-Pres.); New York Soc. for Clinical Psych. (Ex-Pres.); New York Psych. Soc.; Soc. for Psychotherapy and Psychopathology (Pres.); New York Acad. of Med. (Past Chairman of Section on Neurol. and Psych.); Bellevue Alumni Soc., and Phi Kappa Tau. Publications: Psychiatric Novels of Oliver Wendell Holmes (Columbia Univ. Press), 1943; papers on "Depersonalization in Relation to Erotization of Thought," 1934 "History of Psychoanalytic Movement in America," 1927; "Co-Conscious Mentation," 1941; "Erroneous Recognition," 1941; "Time—Its Relation to Reality and Purpose"; "The Psychoanalytic Insight of Nathaniel Hawthorne," 1943; numerous other articles published in various medical journals. Address: 40 W. 59th St., New York, N. Y.

OBERON, MERLE (Merle O'Brien Thompson), Screen Actress; born Feb. 19, 1914, Tasmania, Australia; daughter of Arthur and Constance (Selby) Thompson; educated at La Martiniere College of Calcutta, India; married Sir Alexander Korda, June 3, 1939 (divorced 1945); (2nd) Lucien Kieth Ballard, June 1945. Began career under contract to London Film Productions, 1932; first major role was Anne Boleyn in "The Private Life of Henry VIII." Came to U. S. and has appeared in many film productions, including "Night Song" and "Berlin Express," 1948. Address: 385 Copa de Oro Rd., Bel-Air, Los Angeles, Calif.

OBERT de THIEUSIES, Vicomte, (ALAIN), Belgian Diplomat; born Mar. 10, 1888, Brussels, Belgium; son of Vicomte Amaury Obert de Thieusies and Comtesse L. de Ribaucourt; educated at Maredsous Abbey (Benedictine); Stonyhurst College, Doctor of Law; married Baronne Yolanda Romano Avezzana, Feb. 12, 1927; three sons. Diplomat since 1910. Secy. of Belgian Embassies and Legations at Madrid, Belgrade, Sofia and Rio de Janeiro. Counsellor at Paris Embassy, 1931. M.P., 1930. Consul General, Tangiers, 1930. Accredited Minister in Prague, 1932. Minister in Belgrade, 1938. Director General. Commerce Extérieur, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (in London), 1941. Chmn., Liquidation Com. of Belgian Government Services in Great Britain, and Head of Belgian Economic Mission, 1944. A.E. and P. to Court of St. James, since 1946. Residence: 36 Belgrave Sq., London, S.W. 1, England.

OBERWARTH, C. JULIAN, American Architect; born Mar. 1, 1900, Frankfort, Ky.; son of Leo L. and Ruth Buckner (Hawkins) Oberwarth; educated at Univ. of Kentucky, 1919; School of Architecture, Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.S. in Arch. 1924; married Lillian Murray Wiard, 1935; three daughters. In practice of Architecture, Frankfort, Ky., since 1925. Secured passage of Kentucky Architectural Registration Law, 1929; Corporate Member, Amer. Inst. of Architects, 1927; Member, 1st Registration Bd., 1930, then Secy. and Treas. until 1944. Pres., Kentucky Chapter, Amer. Inst. of Architects, 1933; Chmn., A.I.A. Natl. Com. on Registration, 1935-41; Member, Bd. of Directors, and Regional Director, Great Lakes Dist., A.I.A., 1941-43; Chmn., A.I.A. Com. on Awards and Scholarships, 1942; elected Fellow, AI.A., 1942; Membership Secy., A.I.A., 1943-46. Author of numerous articles for press and architectural publications. Address: 301 2nd St., Frankfort, Kentucky.

OBEY, ANDRÉ, French Author; born May 8, 1892, Douai, Nord, France; son of Oscar and Elizabeth (Hisette) Obey; educated at Lyceum of Douai and Conservatory of Music until 1910; Univ. of Lille, Nord, 1910-13; lic.litt., lic.law, won 1st prize in piano; married Jeanne Moreau Dupuy; one daughter. Director of Festivals, Ministry of National Education, 1944; Manager of Comédie française, 1945-47. Author: L'Enfant Inquiet, 1919; Savreux Vainqueur, 1920; L'apprenti sorcier, 1921; Le joueur de Triangle, 1922; L'Orgue du Stade, 1924; Noé (play), 1929; Le viol de Lucrèce (play), 1930; Loire (play), 1931; La Bataille de la Marne (play), 1931; Le Trompeur de Seville (play), 1936; Ultimatum (play), 1938; Revenue de l'Etoile (play), 1939; La Nuit des Temps (play), 1940; Maria (play), 1944. Member: Pen Club; Société des Gens de Lettres; Soc. of Authors and Composers. Knight, French Legion of Honor. Address: 17 Avenue Mac Mahon, Paris XVII, France.

OBNORSKY, Academician SERGEI, Soviet Philologist. Director of the Russian Language Institute, Moscow. Member, Branch of History and Philosophy and of Branch of Literature and Language, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Author of more than fifty works, including: On the History of Word Formation in Russian Literary Language; Notes on Russian Dialectology. Awarded: Order of Lenin, 1945; Stalin Prize, 1946. Address: Bolshaja Kaluzskaja 14, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OBOLER, ARCH, Playwright-Director; born Dec. 6, 1909, Chicago, Ill.; son of Leo and Clara Oboler; educated at University of Chicago; married Eleanor Helfand; one son. Wrote over 500 plays for broadcasting, used by Bette Davis, Nazimova, James Cagney, Ronald Colman, etc. Wrote and directed the photoplay, "Alter Ego" for M-G-M, 1945; Arch Oboler's Plays; Plays for Americans for NBC; To The President; Free World Theatre, series for Blue Network. Also wrote "Escape" for M-G-M, 1940. Winner of national award for best commercial dramatic play "This Precious Freedom" (starring Raymond Massey), 1941; national award of 13th Institute for Education by Radio for best dramatic broadcast of 1942, "Johnny Quinn" (starring Olivia de Havilland); national award for best service broadcast, 1942. Author: This Freedom (book of anti-Fascist plays), 1941; Ivory Tower, 1940; Plays For Americans, 1942; Free World Theatre, 1944; Oboler Omnibus, 1945; Fourteen Plays by Arch Oboler, 1940. Winner: Peabody Award Radio Drama, 1945; 1st Annual AEP Award, 1945. Residence: Cornell, Calif.

OBORIN, Prof. LEV N., Soviet Pianist; born 1907, Moscow; studied piano at Gnesin Music School; under Prof. Igumov at Moscow Conservatory. Gave first concert in Leningrad, 1924; won first prize at First International Chopin Contest, 1927. Now Prof. at Moscow Conservatory. One of six Soviet musicians scheduled to play in Soviet Pavilion at New York World's Fair (plans interrupted by war). Awarded Order of Lenin for contributions to Soviet music, 1947. Address: Moscow Conservatory, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

O'BOYLE, Most Rev. PATRICK A., Roman Catholic Archbishop of Washington, D. C.; born July 18, 1896, Scranton, Pa.; educated at St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, 1921. Executive Director, Catholic Guardian Soc., 1926-33; Asst. Director, Child Care Dept., Catholic Charities of Archdiocese of New York, 1933-36; Exec. Dir., Mission of Immaculate Virgin, Mount Loretto, Staten Island, 1936-43; Exec. Dir., War Relief Services, Catholic Welfare Conf., 1943-47; Asst. Dir., Catholic Charities, Archdiocese of New York, 1945 and Exec. Dir., 1947; Archbishop of Washington, D. C., 1948— (becoming the Capital's first Catholic Archbishop). Address: Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle, Washington, D. C.

O'BRADY, Mademoiselle (Gertrude McBrady), American Artist; born 1907, Evanston, Ill. Went to Paris in 1938 and has lived there since; held in concentration camp by Nazis. First Paris exhibition, May 1946; exhibited at Maeght Gallery, 1948, etc. Paintings include portraits of Jean Cocteau, Paul Eluard and John Steinbeck; "Violette de Parme," etc. Address: c/o Maeght Gallery, Paris, France.

O'BRAONAIN, SEAMUS, Irish Radio Station Director; born Jan. 21, 1881, Laoighis, Eire; son of Padraig and Mary (Bergin) O'Braonain; educated at St. Mary's College, Rathmines; married Brigid Dillon, 1913; six children. Civil Servant, Dept. of Education, Dublin, 35 years; Secy., Commn. on Irish in Civil Service, 3 years; Deputy Director, Radio Eireann, 2 years; Director, Radio Eireann, 5 years. Residence: 51 Beaumont Rd., Dublin. Office: Radio Eireann, Dublin, Ireland.

OBRAZTSOV, SERGEI, Soviet Artist. Organizer and Director, Central Puppet Theatre, Moscow, 1930. Theatre produced numerous plays and has given thousands of performances; toured throughout Soviet Union. Awarded Order of the Red Banner of Labor, 1946. Address: The Puppet Theatre, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

OBRAZTSOV, Prof. VLADIMIR NIKOLAIEVICH, Soviet Engineer; born 1874. Began scientific career as lecturer at Moscow Engineering Inst., 1901. Published numerous papers outlining reforms for modernizing and developing country's railway system. One of founders of Moscow Technical High School, 1907, which later became Moscow Technicum, and subsequently the Kuibyshev Building Inst., of which is now a Professor. Specialist in designing railroad stations; Consultant, Moscow Subway. Founded the Complete Transport School. Author: Station Design and Calculation; Railways in Cities, 1932; Transportation and City Planning, 1934; Planning of Transport in Residential Districts, 1936; Stations and Junctions, 1935 and 1938. Consultant in planning transportation systems of Stalingrad, Magnitogorsk, Baku, Sverdlovsk and Black Sea coast regions. Elected Member, Acad. of Sciences of U.S.S.R., 1938; established a section for study of transportation problems. Deputy to Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., 1938—; also Deputy to the Moscow City Soviet. Awarded two Stalin Prizes; Order of Lenin. Now General Director of Transport. Address: Director of Transport, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OBREGÓN SANTACILIA, Señora ADELA FORMOSO de, Mexican Feminist Leader. Founder and Director of The Women's University of Mexico (the first institution of higher learning for women established in Mexico), 1943—. Vice-Pres., Latin American Feminine Union. Pres., Mexican Soc. for Prevention of Blindness. Member, Mexican Delegation, United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Guest of U. S. Dept. of State, seeking to establish scholarships for interchange of Mexican and American students, 1946. Address: The Women's University of Mexico City, Mexico City, Mexico.

OBREGÓN, MAURICIO T., Colombian Director General of Civil Aeronautics; born Jan. 24, 1921, Barcelona, Spain; son of Mauricio and Madron A. (Andreu) Obregón; educated at Stonyhurst College, England, 1930-36; post-graduate work in science, Stonyhurst College, 1936-38; Oxford Univ., 1938-39; Industrial School, Barcelona, 1940; Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1940-41; Harvard Univ., A.B. (aeronautical engineering), 1941-43; C. P. T. pilot's license. Asst. Engineer, Fábrica de Tejidos Obregón, Barranquilla, 1939-40; Stress Analysis Engnr., Grumman Aircraft, 1944-45 (Asst. Chief Stress Engineer of F.7F. "Tigercat" Fighter), Bethpage, L. I., N. Y.; Vice-Pres. and Chief Engineer, Lansa Airline, Barranquilla, 1946-47; First Director General of Civil Aeronautics (Colombian Government), since March 1947. Pres. of Colombian Delegation to International Aviation Conferences at Montreal, Lima, Geneva. Director of Semana (Colombian news magazine). Founder and Pres., Aeroclub Colombia; Hon. Member, Soc. of Engineers, Santander. Member, Aircraft Owners and Pilots Assn.; (U. S. A.); Sociedad de Ingenieros de Colombia. Author: The New Civil Aviation Code of Colombia. Residence: Carrera 5 A. 25 A 38. Office: Dirección General de Aeronautica Civil, Bogotá, Colombia.

OBREIMOV, Prof. IVAN VASILYEVICH, Soviet Chemist. Director, Organic Chemistry Laboratory, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. (Member of Branch of Physics-Mathematics). Awarded first Stalin prize for achievements in field of physics and mathematics for work in sphere of optics and crystal physics. Developed new method of measuring refraction indicants which became the basic method of control in all Soviet plants manufacturing optical glass. Address: Organic Chemistry Laboratory, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OBRESHKOVE, Dr. VASIL, Bulgarian Physiologist; born May 11, 1890, Shoumla, Bulgaria; son of Obreshko Petkov and Maria Dimiter; educated at Syracuse Univ., B.S., M.S. 1916; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1920; married Charlene Law, June 20, 1931. Research Asst., Carnegie Station for Experimental Evolution, Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., 1917; Teaching Fellow, Harvard, 1918; Instructor in Zoology, Syracuse Univ., 1920-23; Assoc. Prof., 1923-25. Assoc. Prof., St. Stephen's College of Columbia, 1925-27; Prof. of Biology, Bard College, Columbia, since 1927; Member of Univ. Council and Director of Studies at Bard College. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Soc. of Amer. Zoologists; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Sigma Xi; Phi Beta Kappa. Author of studies and monographs largely in the field of physiology. Address: Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, New York.

OBRETENOV, ALEXANDER, Bulgarian Cultural Leader. Served as President of the Cultural Chamber of Commerce of Bulgaria (responsible for promotion of cultural activities). Appointed Assistant Minister for Science, Art and Culture of Bulgaria, 1948—. Address: Ministry of Culture, Sofia, Bulgaria.

OBRETENOV, SVETOSLAV, Bulgarian Composer and Conductor; born Nov. 25, Provadia, Bulgaria; son of Obreten Popov and Nevena Kondakova; educated at State Acad. of Music, Sofia; married Pavlina Yashmakova, Sept. 4, 1940; one daughter. Conductor of State Radio Chorus; conducted chorus at Democratic Youth Festival, Prague, summer of 1947. Compositions include: Symphonic Poem (performed by National Philharmonic Orchestra under Asen Naydenov, Sofia, 1941); Symphonic Dances (premiered by State Symphony Orchestra, 1944); Cantata for chorus and orchestra "At Parting," 1945; Heroic Overture "George Dimitrov," 1946 (played by State Symphony Orchestra under Sasha Popov); numerous chorus works; pieces for violin and piano, for voice and piano, also works for symphony orchestras and small orchestras. Member: Managing Com., State Chamber of Culture; Union of Composers, Concert Artists and Musicians. Awarded Medal 9th of September, 3rd class (award for "Heroic Overture," presented by Chamber of National Culture, 1947). Author: books of chorus songs, 1941, 1945; album of piano music, 1945. Residence. Svetoslav Terter II. Office: Radio-Sofia, Sofia, Bulgaria.

Ó BRIAIN, Father FELIM, O.F.M., Professor of Philosophy; born Nov. 5, 1895, Cong, Co. Mayo, Ireland; son of Diarmuid and Catherine (Moran) Ó Briain; educated at Cross Natl. School, Franciscan College, Multyfarnham; Gregorian Univ., Rome, Ph.D. 1924, B.C.L. 1925, D.D. 1928; Catholic Univ., Louvain, Lic. in History, 1930. Entered Franciscan Order, 1921; ordained Priest, 1927; Tutor in Philosophy, Louvain, 1930-33; St. Anthony's College, Galway, 1933-37; Prof. of Philosophy, Univ. College, Galway, since 1937. Member, Irish Historical Soc. Author: The Hagiography of Leinster, 1940; The Expansion of Irish Christianity to 1200, 1943; Irish Hagiography: Historiography and Method, 1944; contributed reviews and articles to Revue d'Histoire Ecclésiastique, Louvain; Irish Ecclesiastical Record, Dublin; Irish Historical Studies, Dublin; Dictionnaire d'Histoire et de Géographie Ecclésiastiques, Paris; De Katholiek Encyclopaedie, Amsterdam, etc. Address: University College, Galway, Ireland.

O'BRIAN, JOHN LORD, American Lawyer. Partner in law firm, O'Brian, Hillings, Ulsh & Morey, Buffalo, N. Y. Counsel to Covington, Burling, Rublee, Acheson & Shorb, Washington, D. C. General Counsel, War Production Board and its predecessor, Office of Production Management, 1941-44. Member, Amer. Law Inst., Amer. Bar Assn. Address: 505 Iroquois Building, Buffalo, N. Y.

O'BRIEN, Dr. CECIL STARLING, American Ophthalmologist; born Sept. 27, 1889, Manhattan, Ind.; son of William M. and Clara (Carver) O'Brien; educated at Central Normal College, 1905-08; Indiana Univ., M.D. 1913; married (2nd) Lillian Chatham, Nov. 8, 1939; one daughter. Prof. and Head of Dept. of Ophthalmol., State Univ. of Iowa; Chief of Eye Clinic, Univ. Hosps., since 1925. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol.; Amer. Ophthalmol. Soc.; Assn. for Research in Ophthalmol.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Contributor to medical literature. Address: University Hospital, Iowa City, Iowa.

O'BRIEN, Dr. EDWARD JAMES, American Surgeon; born April 28, 1887, Hatley, Wis.; son of James and Elizabeth (Hayes) O'Brien; educated at Wayne Univ., M.D. 1909; married Marion Robb, Nov. 11, 1911; two daughters. Head of Division and Chief Surgeon at Harper Hosp.; Chief Surgeon at Herman Kiefer Hosp.; Consulting Surgeon to St. Joseph's and Chenik Hosps., Detroit, and to Northern Mich. Sanitorium, Gaylord, Mich.; Chief Surgeon at Amer. Legion Hosp., Battle Creek, Mich., Saginaw Tuberculosis Hosp., and Maybury Sanitorium, Northville, Mich.; Prof. of Thoracic Surg., Wayne Univ., 1933—. He is Member of Council, Amer. Thoracic Soc.; Pres., Mich. Sanitorium Com.; Member, Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Chest Physicians; Mich. State Med. Soc.; Wayne County Med. Soc., etc. Residence: 19185 Strathcona Dr. Office: 307 David Whitney Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

O'BRIEN, FRANK J., American Industrialist; born Feb. 10, 1888, North Andover, Mass.; son of James and Frances (Minahan) O'Brien; graduated Dartmouth College, 1909; married Helen J. Costello, Dec. 26, 1912; three children. Teacher, 1909. Took student's training course at Western Electric Co.; entered New York office for special work. Later served as Industrial Engineer with Sonneborn & Co. Joined Southern Can Co., 1914, as Industrial Engineer; later made Vice-Pres. and General Manager. Joined Continental Can Co., Inc., 1928, as Asst. to Vice-Pres., became Exec. Vice-Pres. and Director, resigning 1944. Pres. and Director, Metal Thermit Corp. Director: American Rutile Corp.; Chromium Corp. of America; United Chromium Inc.; Weber Metals Corp. Member, Board of Governors, New Rochelle Hospital. Residence: 620 Ely Ave., Pelham Manor, N. Y. Office: 120 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

O'BRIEN, Hon. GEORGE D., U. S. Congressman; born Jan. 1, 1900, Detroit, Mich.; son of John P. and Ellen (O'Donoghue) O'Brien; educated at Univ. of Detroit, A.B. 1921, LL.B. 1924; married Margaret Foley, Apr. 29, 1937; four children. Elected to 75th, 77th, 78th and 79th Congresses; Delegate, Democratic Natl. Convention, 1944; Chairman, Com. on Post Office and Post Roads, House of Representatives. Member, Detroit Bar Assn. Residence: 1622 Lysander St., Detroit, Mich.

O'BRIEN, JOHN AMBROSE, Canadian Industrialist; born May 27, 1885, Renfrew, Ont.; son of Michael John and Jennie O'Brien; educated at Separate School and Collegiate, Renfrew; School of Practical Science, Toronto; married Adele Gorman, Jan. 29, 1914; five sons. Pres. and Managing Director, M. J. O'Brien Ltd., Ottawa, Ont. Pres.: Deloro Smelting & Refining Co. Ltd., Deloro, Ont.; Great Lakes Dredging and Contracting Co. Ltd., Port Arthur, Ont.; Missouri-Cobalt Co., Fredericktown, Mo.; Canada & Gulf Terminal Railway Co., Montreal; Eastern Securities Corp., Wilmington, Del. Director: O'Brien Gold Mines Ltd. (N.P.L.); Canadian Flint & Spar Co. Ltd, Ottawa, Ont. Address: 453 Laurier Ave. East, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

O'BRIEN, Rev. JOHN ANTHONY, American Theologian and Educator; born Jan. 20, 1893, Peoria, Ill.; son of John F. and Elizabeth T. (Powers) O'Brien; educated at St. Viator College, A.B. 1913, A.M. 1914, LL.D. 1935; Univ. of Illinois, Ph.D. 1920; Univ. of Chicago; Catholic Univ. of America; Oxford Univ. (Research Scholar, 1939-40). Chaplain to Catholic students, Univ. of Illinois, 1917; Director, Newman Foundation; Prof. of Philosophy of Religion, 1920-39. Founded Newman Foundation, 1920; Cardinal Newman Award for Distinguished Service, 1931. Editor, Catholic School Interests, 1923-28; Supt. of Parochial Schools, Peoria Diocese, 1925-32. Pastor, St. John's Church for Univ. Students, 1918-39. Now Prof., Philosophy of Religion, Univ. of Notre Dame, Ind. Author: The Faith of Millions; Religion in a Changing World; Evolution and Religion; Silent Reading; Reading: Its Psychology and Pedagogy; The Power of Love; The Church and Marriage: God: Can We Find Him?; The White Harvest, a symposium. Editor:

Catholics and Scholarship, a symposium; The Priesthood in a Changing World; Natural Birth Control; The Cathedral Readers: Truths Men Live By. Address: University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Indiana.

O'BRIEN, JOHN JOSEPH, Irish Barrister; born Jan. 31, 1910, Dublin, Ireland; son of Henry J. and Mary Josephine (Byrne) O'Brien; educated at Belvedere College, Dublin, Matriculation; National Univ. of Ireland, B.A. (honours); Society of King's Inns, Barrister-at-Law; married Claire O'Brien, Oct. 16, 1940; two sons, one daughter. Secy., Federated Employers Limited and Associated Bodies, 1937-42. General Secy., The Federated Union of Employers, 1942—. Technical Adviser to Employers' Delegation to International Labour Conf., Paris, 1945, in Montreal, 1946. Irish Employers' Delegate to International Labour Conf., Geneva, 1947. Director: Jury's Hotel Ltd., Dublin; Moira Hotel, Dublin. Member: The Irish Bar; The Statistical and Social Enquiry Soc. of Ireland. Residence: St. Margarets, Castlepark Road, Glenageary. Office: 15, Kildare St., Dublin, Ireland.

O'BRIEN, Rt. Rev. Monsignor JOSEPH LAURENCE, Priest; born Apr. 30, 1884, at Avoca, Pa.; son of Thomas Francis and Sarah Louise (Morahan) O'Brien; educated at Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, B.A. 1910; International Catholic Univ., Fribourg, Switzerland, 1910-14, M.A. 1912; ordained priest at Fribourg, Dec. 15, 1912; graduate studies in Scripture and Literature until June, 1914; S.T.D., Spring Hill College, 1930; LL.D., College of Charleston, 1938. Appointed to Cathedral at Charleston, 1914; founded Bishop England High School, a free school for Catholic boys and girls, and has been Rector and teacher, 1915—. Appointd Pastor of St. Patricks, Charleston, 1929, and was named Domestic Prelate by Pope Pius XI in 1934. He was Lecturer at Marywood College summer school, 1919-33; at Slovak Sisters Summer School, Danville, Pa., 1933-39, at Junior College Sisters OLM, Charleston since 1939, and at Misericordia College, Dallas, Pa., 1946—. Superintendent of Catholic Schools, Charleston, and Preacher on the Charleston radio stations since their opening; gives special course on The Book of Psalms, station WTMA. He is a Member of the Academy of Social and Political Science, Freedom House, and Poetry Society of Charleston. Publications: John England, Apostle of Democracy, 1934; Chronicle History of Saint Patrick's, 1937; numerous pamphlets and monographs, literary reviews and articles. Residence: 136 Saint Philip St., Charleston, S. C.

O'BRIEN, KATE, Irish Author; born 1898. Author: Distinguished Villa, 1926; Without My Cloak, 1931; Farewell, Spain, 1937; Pray for the Wanderer, 1938; The Land of Spices, 1942; English Diaries and Journals, 1943; The Last of Summer, 1943; For One Sweet Grape, 1947, etc. Address: c/o W. Heinemann Ltd., London, England.

O'BRIEN, Hon. KENNETH, American Jurist; born March, 15, 1895, New York, N. Y.; son of Morgan J. and Rose M. (Crimmins) O'Brien; educated at Yale University, A.B. 1917; Fordham, LL.B. 1922; married Katherine Mackay, Sept. 21, 1922; two daughters and one son. Admitted to the New York Bar, 1922; member, firm of O'Brien, Boardman, Conboy, Memhard & Early. Appointed Justice, Supreme Court to fill a vacancy in Feb. 1934; elected Justice, 1st Judicial District in November, 1934. Residence: 60 E. 67th St. Office: Supreme Court of New York, 60 Centre St., New York, N. Y.

O'BRIEN, MARGARET, American Motion Picture Actress; born Jan. 15, 1937, Los Angeles, Calif. Films include: Lost Angel; Journey for Margaret; Meet Me in St. Louis; Music for Millions; Our Vines Have Tender Grapes; Bad Bascomb; Three Wise Fools; Unfinished Dance, etc. Address: c/o Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studios, Culver City, Calif.

O'BRIEN, Most Rev. MICHAEL JOSEPH, Roman Catholic Archbishop; born July 29, 1874, Peterboro, Ont.; son of James and Honorah (Creagan) O'Brien; educated at Collegiate Inst.; St. Michael's College, Toronto; Grand Seminary, Montreal; Propaganda Univ., Rome. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, 1897; Bishop of Peterboro, Ont., 1913-29; Coadjutor Archbishop, Kingston, Ont., 1929; Archbishop of Kingston, 1938—; Roman Count and Asst. at the Pontifical Throne, Sept. 1938—. Address: Archbishop's House, Kingston, Ont., Canada.

O'BRIEN, Dean MORROUGH PARKER, American Engineering Educator; born September 21, 1902, Hammond, Indiana; son of Morrough and Lulu (Parker) O'Brien; educated at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, B.S. 1925; married Roberta Libbey, May 16, 1931; two children. Junior Engineer, Hudson River Regulating District, 1925; Research Assistant, Purdue University, 1926-27; Freeman Scholar, American Society, Civil Engineers, 1927-28; Assistant, Royal College of Engineering, Stockholm, Sweden, 1927-28. Served successively as Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, and Professor, University of California, since 1928. Chairman, Department of Mechanical Engineering, 1937-43; Dean, College of Engineering, University of California, since 1943. Address: College of Engineering, University of California, 1409 Scenic Ave., Berkeley 4, Calif.

O'BRIEN, PAT, American Screen Actor; born November 11, 1899, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of William J. and Margaret O'Brien; educated at Marquette Univ.; married Eloise Taylor, Jan. 21, 1931; three children. Motion pictures featured in include: Twenty Million Sweethearts; Oil For the Lamps of China; Ceiling Zero; The Making of O'Malley; Submarine D-1; Garden of the Moon; Angels With Dirty Faces; The Fighting 69th; Indianapolis Speedway; Knute Rockne; Escape to Glory; The Navy Comes Through; Devil Dogs of the Air; Bombardier; Marine Raiders; Here Comes the Navy; The Irish In Us; China Clipper; Women Are Like That; Cowboy From Brooklyn; Boy Meets Girl; Years Without Days; Two Yanks In Trinidad; The Kid From Kokomo; All-American; Flight Lieutenant; Flirtation Walk; In Caliente; The Iron Major; Pile Buck; Perilous Holiday; Having Wonderful Crime; Crackup; Marine Raiders. Residence: Brentwood, Calif. Office: RKO Pictures, Hollywood, Calif.

O'BRIEN, SEUMAS, Sculptor and Author; born Apr. 26, 1880, Glenbrook, County Cork, Eire; son of John and Elizabeth Harding (Aherne) O'Brien; educated at Cork School of Art; Cork School of Music; Natl. College of Art, Dublin; Royal College of Art, London; studied under Sir William Orpen, R.A., Oliver Shepherd, R.H.A., and James Ward, R.H.A., A.R.C.A. Exhibited at Royal Hibernian Acad., Dublin, Eire, 1911. Creator of statuette, The Leprechaun, and of the group, The Rising of the Moon, a scene from Lady Gregory's play, in foyer of Abbey Theatre, Dublin. Taught art at Cork School of Art, Cobh Technical School, National College of Art, Dublin; Newark (N. J.) School of Fine and Industrial Arts. Member: Amer. Irish Historical Soc.; Institut Littéraire et Artistique de France. Author: The Whale and the Grasshopper; Duty and Other Irish Comedies, 1916; (plays) The Cobbler's Den; The Bird-Catcher; The Wild Boar; The Black Bottle; Blind; Queen Puff-Puff; The Well. Address: 37 Hathaway Pl., Glen Ridge, New Jersey.

O'BRIEN, THOMAS, British Parliament Member; General Secretary, National Association of Theatrical and Kine Employees; born August 17, 1900, Llanelly, South Wales; son of John and Ann (Lewis) O'Brien; educated at St. Mary's School, Llanelly; married Josephine McKelvie, 1922; four children—Terence, Patricia, Michael and Bernadette. Mr. O'Brien began as errand boy, 1913. Joined British Army, 1915; saw active service with 4th Battalion, Welsh Regiment in Dardanelles and Gallipoli, 1915-16; discharged from Army because of age; worked in munition factory until 1917. With his father at Llanelly Gas Works; subsequently entered Theatre, Vints Palace, Llanelly, 1918-20. Branch Secretary of National Association of Theatrical and Kine Employees, 1922; District Organizer for South Wales and West of England for the Union; National Organizer in Great Britain, 1924; General Secretary, 1932. Appointed to War Office Directorate of Army Kinematography, as Major, 1942. President of Federation of Theatre Unions and Film Industry Employees Council. Member, General Council, Trades Union Congress; Advisory Council to Minister of Information; Executive Council, National Playing Fields Association; Government Committee, Cinematograph Films Council. Ex-President of Workers Film Association. Elected M. P. for Western Division of the City of Nottingham, 1945—. Residence: 57 Parliament Hill, Hampstead, London, N.W. 3. Office: Russell House, 71 South End Rd., London, N.W. 3, England.

O'BRIEN, WILLIAM J., American Chemist; Manufacturer; born Mar. 21, 1888, Rosendale, N. Y.; son of James and Elizabeth (King) O'Brien; educated at Kingston (N. Y.) Acad.; Cornell Univ. (B. Chem.); married Helen M. Scott, Feb. 19, 1925; one daughter. Chemist, 1911; with Geneva Experimental Station, 1911-14; Scientist, Dept. of Agriculture, 1914-18. In charge of Research, Grasselli Chemical Co., Grasselli, N. J., 1918-20. Manager, Chemical & Pigment Co., 1920-25. With The Glidden Co. since 1925, elected a Director; Vice-Pres. in Charge of Manufacture and a Director since 1930. Director and Vice-Pres., Zinc Chemical Co., Inc. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Cleveland Chamber of Commerce. Residence: Berkshire Rd., Gates Mills, Ohio. Office: 1396 Union Commerce Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

O'BRIEN, Hon. WILLIAM SMITH, American State Government Official; born Jan. 8, 1862, Audra, Barbour Co., W. Va.; son of Emmet Jones and Martha Ann (Hall) O'Brien; educated at West Virginia Univ., LL.B. 1891; married Emma White, Oct. 14, 1896; four children. Newspaper editor and lawyer, Buckhannon, W. Va., 1892-1913; Judge, Circuit Court of Upshur-Webster Circuit, 1912-20; Member, Seventieth Congress, Third Congressional District of West Virginia, 1926-29; Secy. of State, West Virginia, 1933-37, 1937-41, 1941-45, 1945-49. Address: State Capitol Building, Charleston 5, W. Va.

OBRUCHEV, Prof. VLADIMIR A., Soviet Geologist; born Oct. 19, 1863; studied natural wealth of Russia for more than sixty years. Director, Inst. for Study of Frozen Soil. Pres., All Union Geological Soc., 1946. Hon. Pres., 194—. Member: Branch of Geologo-Geographical Sciences, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R.; Amer. Geological Soc. (Corresponding Member); Amer. Geographical Soc. (hon.) U.S.S.R. Soc. for Scientific Knowledge, 1948, and many Soviet and foreign scientific societies. Awarded: title of Hero of Socialist Labor; Merited Scientist of the Russian S.F.S.R.; Order of Lenin, 1943; Stalin Prize; Alexander Karpinsky Medal for Geological Studies, 1947. Author: Geology of Siberia (3 vols.); The History of Geological Research in Siberia; also some four hundred monographs, essays and articles on geology of Siberia and Central Asia, on theoretical questions regarding tectonics of ore deposits and origin of the forests. Address: Institute for the Study of Frozen Soils, Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

O'BRYAN, Hon. NORMAN, Australian Jurist; born Oct. 16, 1894, South Melbourne, Victoria, Australia; son of Michael John and Mary Anne (Gleeson) O'Bryan; educated at Christian Brothers Colleges, Melbourne; Univ. of Melbourne, LL.B. 1914; married Elsa Duncan, June 1, 1921 (dec.); (2nd) Violet Duncan, Dec. 14, 1929; six children. Admitted to practice as Barrister, 1916. Lecturer, Private Internatl. Law, Melbourne Univ., 1928-32; member, Melbourne Bar Council of Victoria, 1934-39. Member, Faculty of Law, Univ. of Melbourne, since 1928. Judge, Supreme Court of Victoria. Member, Electoral College and Chairman, Advisory Council, St. Vincent's Public Hospital, Melbourne. Appointed King's Counsel, 1937. Member of 1st A.I.F. (Field Artillery) and after the Armistice, Educational Officer, 1916-19. Address: Judge's Chambers, William St., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

O'BYRNE, Mother ELEANOR MARY, American College President; born Sept. 12, 1896, Savannah, Ga.; daughter of Michael A. and Marie (McDonough) O'Byrne; educated at Manhattanville College of Sacred Heart, A.B. 1921; Fordham Univ., M.A. 1926; Oxford Univ., B.A. 1933, M.A. 1936. Directress of Studies: Convent of Sacred Heart, Overbrook, Pa., 1924-28; Convent of Sacred Heart, Washington, D. C., 1928-29; on leave for residence and study abroad, 1930-33. Prof. of History and Warden of Freshmen, Manhattanville College of Sacred Heart, New York, N. Y., 1933-34; Dean, 1934-45; Pres., since 1945. Trustee, Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart, since 1934. Member: Amer. Catholic Historical Assn.; Amer. Catholic Philosophical Assn.; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Archaeological Inst. of Amer.; Catholic Assn. for International Peace; Catholic Commission on Intellectual and Cultural Affairs; National Catholic Rural Life Conf.; National Commission on Christian Higher Education of Assn. of Amer. Colleges; United States Catholic Historical Soc., etc. Address: Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart, Convent Ave. and 133rd St., New York 27, N. Y.

O'BYRNE, Hon. JOHN, Irish Jurist; born April 24, 1884, Seskin, County Wicklow, Ireland; son of Patrick and Mary (Tallon O'Byrne; educated at St. Patrick's Seminary, Tullow; University College, Dublin, B.A. 1907; M.A. 1908; Studentship Mental and Moral Science, 1908; called to the Bar by Honorable Society of King's Inns, Dublin, 1911; married Marjorie McGuire, Mar. 19, 1924; five children. Began career as barrister-at-law, 1911. Member of Constitution Committee, 1922 and of the Judicary Committee, 1924; appointed King's Counsel, 1924; Attorney-General, 1924-26. Delegate to League of Nations in 1924. Became Judge, High Court, 1926; Judge of the Supreme Court, since 1940. Trustee, Natl. Library of Ireland. Address: Four Courts, Dublin, Eire.

O'BYRNE, Mrs. ROSCOE C., American Civic Leader. Has been active in the Daughters of the American Revolution since 1910; President-General, May 1947 —. Address: Brookville, Ind.

OCAMPO HEREDIA, MARIA LUISA, Mexican Librarian and Playwright; born Nov. 24, 1907, Chilpancingo, Guerrero, Mexico; daughter of Melchor Ocampo and Isaura Heredia de O.; educated at Escuela Superior de Comercio; Escuela Preparatoria. Theatrical Writer, 1923; Under-Chief, Office of Correspondence, Office of Comptroller General, 1925-29; Chief, Boletin de Informaciones, 1929-30; Chief, Popular Recreational Activities, 1930; Under-Chief, Office of Correspondence, Secretariat of Agriculture, 1930-31; in charge, Volante del Libro y el Pueblo, Secretariat of Education, 1932-34; Chief of Bibliographical Section, since 1934. Author (plays): Cosas de la vida; La Noguera; La Jauría; Sin alas; Sed en el desierto; Castillos en el aire; El corrido de Juan Saavreda; Más allá de los hombres; La casa en ruinas; Llena vida de mujer; La Virgen Fuerte; Fe us hermanas; Másea mes. Address: Palacio de Bellas Artes, Mexico, D.F.

OCAMPO GIMENEZ, RAFAEL, Argentine Ambassador to Italy; born June 2, 1899, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Manuel Ocampo and Adela Gimenez; educated at College San José, Buenos Aires, B.A.; Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, National Univ., Buenos Aires, LL.B. 1922; married Martina Casco, Dec. 15, 1924; one son. Engaged in private law practice, 1922; Attorney for the poor, Bahía Blanca, 1924; Public Attorney (civil and commercial cases), La Plata, 1926; Criminal Judge, La Plata, 1930; Federal Comptroller, Province of Rioja, 1945; Ambassador to Italy since 1946. Address: Argentine Embassy, Piazza Esquilino 2, Rome, Italy.

OCAMPO, Señora VICTORIA, Argentine Writer; born in Buenos Aires, Argentina; daughter of Manuel S. Ocampo and Ramona Aguirre de O.; descended from an old Spanish family, which settled first in Cuzco, Peru, and went to Buenos Aires in 17th century; privately educated; married Luis B. de Estrada (deceased). Ex-Pres. of the Directorate of Teatro Colón of Buenos Aires. Director of the magazine, Sur, the Editorial Sur; staff writer for La Prensa. Founding President of the Unión Argentina de Mujeres; leading figure in the feminist movement in Argentina. Published works in Spanish and French include De Francesca a Beatrice; Testimonios; Supremacía del Alma y de La Sangre; La Mujer y su Expresión; Domingos en Hyde Park; Emily Bronte; Testimonios III; T.E. 338.171; Le Vert Paradis, etc. Created Officer, Légion d'Honneur of France. Residence: Villa Ocampo, San Isidro. Office: Calle San Martin 689, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OCAMPOS, Dr. BERNARDO, Paraguayan Professor of Law; born Aug. 20, 1898, Villarrica, Paraguay; son of José O. and Gregoria C. de Ocampos; educated at Colegio Nacional, Villarrica; Faculty of Law and Social Sciences; married María Leonor Arbo, Aug. 4, 1934; two sons. Judge, Civil Court of 1st Instance, 1927-31; Deputy, 1932; Military Judge during Chaco War with rank of Major, 1934. Prof. of Civil and Commercial Law Procedure, Universidad de Asunción, since 1936; Member of Governing Body, Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, since 1945; Dean of Faculty, 1945. Active in Natl. Republican Party for 25 years. Pres., College of Lawyers, 1945. Member: Peruvian Inst. of Law Procedure; Mexican Inst. of Law Procedure. Organizing Member, Internatl. Inst. of Law Procedure. Author: Historia del Derecho Procesal del Paraguay y su estado áctual, 1944. Residence: Fariña 251, Asunción, Paraguay OCARANZA, FERNANDO, D.Sc., Mexican Surgeon; born May 30, 1876, Mexico City; son of Ramon and Antonia (Carmona) Ocaranza; educated at Inst. of Science and Literature at Toluca, Mexico, and National School of Medicine, Mexico City; married Loreto Esquer, December 25, 1901; one son. Director of Municipal Hosp. at Guaymas, 1908-10; served as Head of Physiol. Laboratory, Institute of Bio., 1915-18. Since 1915 he has been with National School of Med., as Prof. of Physiol., and Prof. of Clinical Med. since 1926; Secy. of Faculty, 1917-20 and Dir., 1925-32, and again in 1934; Dir. of Hygienic Institute, 1922-23. He held post of Rector of Natl. Univ. of Mexico, 1934-35. Member: Natl. Acad. of Med., Mexico; Corresponding Member of Academies of Med. at Valladolid (Spain), Lima (Peru), Buenos Aires (Argentine) and Concepcion (Chile); Knight, French Legion of Honor; received "Palmas Academicas" of France,; made Commander of Order of Boyaca (Colom.). Author: Fisiologia Humana; Fisiologia General; Biologia General; Sinoptica Clinica; and contributed some 150 articles to medical journals. He served as Colonel in Med. Corps, Mexican Army. Res.: Flores 16, Villa Obregon, D.F. Office: Colon 1, Dep. 2, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

O'CASEY, SEÁN, Irish Playwright; born 1883, Dublin. Author of the following plays: The Shadow of a Gunman, 1925; Juno and the Paycock, 1925; The Plough and the Stars, 1926; The Silver Tassie, 1929; Within the Gates, 1933; Windfalls, 1934; The Star Turns Red, 1940; Purpose Dust, 1940; Red Roses for Me, 1944; Drums Under the Window, 1946; also essays, autobiography etc. Member of Editorial Board, Daily Worker, since 1940. Address: Tingrith, Station Rd., Totnes, Devon, England.

OCFEMIA, Dr. GERARDO OFFIMARIA, Philippine Plant Pathologist; born April 23, 1891, Guinobatan, Albay, P. I.; son of Rufo and Juana (Offimaria) Ocfemia; educated at College of Agric., Univ. of the Philippines, B.Agr. 1915, M.S.A. 1920; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.D. 1923; married Epifania San Valentin, Oct. 1, 1923; four children. Member of Faculty, College of Agriculture, Univ. of the Philippines, since 1915; Student Asst. in Agronomy, 1915; Asst. in Agronomy, 1916, Asst. in Botany, 1917; Asst. in Plant Pathology, 1918; Instructor in Plant Pathology, 1920; Univ. of the Philippines Fellow in U. S., 1920-23; Asst. Prof. of Plant Pathology, 1924; Acting Head, Dept. of Plant Pathology, 1928; Assoc. Prof. of Plant Pathology, 1932; Head of Dept. of Plant Pathology, since 1933; Prof. of Plant Pathology, since 1945. Member: Amer. Phytopathological Soc.; Botanical Soc. of Amer.; Los Baños Biological Club (Secy., 1929, Pres., 1930); Soc. for Advancement of Research (Charter Member; Pres., 1933); National Research Council of the Philippines (Charter Member). Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member, Com. on Diseases, Sixth International Congress of Sugar Cane Technologists, Baton Rouge, La., 1938. Delegate, Sixth Pacific Science Congress, San Francisco, Berkeley, and Stanford, Calif., 1939. Managing Editor, The Philippine Agriculturist, since 1938. Author: Some recent findings regarding Fiji disease of sugar cane in the Philippines (with M. S. Celino), 1938; Transmission of abacá mosaic, 1938; The behavior of POJ 2878 sugar cane in relation to Fiji disease and transmission of the virus by nymphs of Perkinsiella vastatrix (with M. S. Celino), 1938; Geographical distribution of virus diseases of plants with special reference to the Philippines, 1939; Experimental transmission of the mosaic of Canna indica (with I. S. Macaspac and Hsieh Feng Yuan), 1941; Further studies on transmission of bunchy-top and mosaic of abacá (Manila hemp), separation of the two diseases, and mechanics of inoculation by Pentalonia nigronervosa Coquerel (with M. S. Celino and F. J. Garcia), 1947, etc. Residence: Los Baños, Laguna. Office: College of Agriculture, University of the Philippines, Los Bañas, Laguna, Philippines.

OCHOA, Dr. SEVERO, Spanish Pharmacologist; born in Luarca, Spain; educated at Malaga, Spain, B.A.; Medical School, Univ. of Madrid, M.D. 1929. Came to the U. S. in 1940 as Instr., Washington Univ. School of Medicine, St. Louis, Mo. Member of Faculty, New York University College of Medicine, 1942—; Research Assoc. in Medicine, 1942 and later appointed Asst. Prof. of Biochemistry; now Prof. of Pharmacology and since 1946 Chairman, Dept. of Pharmacology. Authority in field of enzyme chemistry and physiology. Author of numerous works on pharmacology and other medical subjects. Address: New York University College of Medicine, Washington Square, New York, N. Y.

OCHOTERENA MENDIETA, Dr. ISAAC, Mexican Biologist; born Nov. 28, 1885, Atlixco, Puebla, Mexico; son of Pedro Ochoterena and Virginia Mendieta de O.; educated at National University of Mexico, Dr. of Biological Sciences. Director, Institute of Biology of the National Autonomous University of Mexico, since 1929. Hon. Professor, Escuela Médica Michoacana. Founding Professor, Chair of Histology, Escuela Médico-Militar of Mexico. Member: National Academy of Medicine; Doctor honoris causa, Universidad Nacional de México. Honorary Member, Sociedad Botánica de México; Hon. President, Sociedad Mexico de Zoología. Corresponding Foreign Member, Academia Nacional de Medicina de Lima (Peru); Corresponding Member: Sociedad de Biología de Concepción, Chile; Academia Chilena de Ciencias Naturales; Centro de Sciencias, Letras e Artes de Campinas, São Paulo, Brazil; Societas Scientiarum Naturalium "Caldas" of Medellín, Colombia; Sociedad Internacional de Investigaciones Científicas of Bolivia, etc. Hon. Member: Physikalisch Medizinische Gesellschaft of Würzburg, Germany; Société Mycologique de France; Institute of Applied Botany and New Cultures of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics of Leningrad; Société Nationale d'Acclimatation de France; Corresponding Foreign Academician, Academia de Ciencias Exactas, Físicas y Naturales of Madrid. Author of numerous articles on biological, medical and physiological subjects. Residence: Calle de Gabriel Mancera 227. Office: Chapultepec, Casa del Lago, Mexico, D.F.

OCHS, MILTON BARLOW, American Newspaper Publisher; born Jan. 29, 1864, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Julius and Bertha (Levy) Ochs; educated in public schools of Knoxville; Univ. of Tennessee; Chickering Inst. (Cincinnati); married Fannie Van Dyke, Apr. 26, 1893; three children. Newsboy at Knoxville, 1876. Joined brother, Adolph S. Ochs, in Chattanooga, 1878; Advertising Solicitor, Collector, Reporter, Managing Editor for the Chattanooga Times, 1878-90. Publisher, Nashville (Tenn.) American, 1910. General Manager, Philadelphia Public Ledger, 1912; when the Ledger was sold to Cyrus Curtis, rejoined the Chattanooga Times as Managing Editor; retired and was succeeded by son, Adolph Shelby Ochs. Vice-President and Director, Times Printing Co., since 1915. Residence: "Northcrest." Office: Ochs Bldg., Chattanooga, Tenn.

OCHSNER, Dr. (EDWARD WILLIAM) ALTON, American Surgeon; born May 4, 1896, Kimball, S. D.; son of Edward Philip and Clara (Shontz) Ochsner. He was educated at Univ. of South Dakota, B.A. 1918; Washington Univ., M.D. 1920. He married Isabel K. Lockwood, September 13, 1923; four children. Medical Interne and Asst. Resident at Barnes Hosp., 1920-21; Surgical Interne at Augustana Hosp., 1921-22; Exchange Surgical Asst. at Univ. of Zurich, Switzerland, 1922-23, and until 1924 Exchange Surgical Asst. at Univ. of Frankfurt. He visited European and American Surgical Clinics, 1924 25, and engaged in private practice of surgery in Chicago, with Dr. D. A. Orth, 1925-26, concurrently serving as Instructor in Surgery and Surgical Pathol. at Northwestern Univ., and as Visiting Surgeon to St. Mary's and Columbus Hosps. He was Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Wisconsin; Asst. Visiting Surgeon, State of Wisconsin General Hosp., 1926-27. Prof. of Surgery and Head of Dept. of Surgery, Tulane, 1927-38; now William Henderson Professor of Surgery and Head of Department of Surgery. Director of Division of Surgery, Ochsner Clinic, New Orleans; Senior Visiting Surgeon and Dir. of Tulane Surgical Unit at Charity Hosp.; Senior Surgeon, Touro Infirmary; Consulting Surgeon, Illinois Central Hosp.; Consultant in Thoracic Surgery, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hosp., New Orleans; Attending Specialist in Chest Surgery, Marine Hospital. Regent of the American College of Surgeons and a Member of its committee on Inter-American Relations; Pres., Southern Surgical Assn. (Secy., 1935-43); Councillor, Amer. Assn. for Thoracic Surgery; Member, Amer. Med. Assn. (Secy. of Section on Surgery, General and Abdominal), etc. Member of Bd. of Trustees of Amer. Cancer Soc.; Chief Editor of International Surgical Digest; Co-Editor of "Surgery"; Associate Editor, Lewis' Practice of Surgery; Member, Editorial Board, Archives of Surgery, and Journal of Digestive Diseases. Author: Varicose Veins, 1939; also 200 articles published in current medical journals. Residence: 1347 Exposition Blvd. Offices: 1430 Tulane Ave., and Ochsner Clinic, New Orleans, La.

OCHSNER-CHRISTEN, Dr. FRITZ, Swiss Educator; born Dec. 29, 1899, Winterthur, Switzerland; son of Kaspar and Emma (Thommen) Ochsner; educated at Federal Inst. of Technology, Zurich (teacher's diploma), 1925; Univ. of Montpellier, 1924, 1932, 1934; Sc.D. (Zurich) 1928. Teacher, District School, Wohlen, Aargau, 1927-33; Teacher of Natural Sciences and Mathematics, District School Muri, Aargau, since 1933. Scientific Collaborator, Federal Commission on National Parks. Member, Swiss Botanial Soc.; Aargau Soc. of Natural Sciences; Cantonal Commission for Protection of Nature, Aargau. Author: Studien über die Epiphyten-Vegetation der Schweiz, 1928; Verdunstungsmessungen an Epiphytenstandorten, 1933, 1935; Études sur quelques associations épiphytes du Languedoc, 1934; Réserves des Cévennes, Réserve d'Héric, observations sur la végétation muscinale, 1936; Notizen über die Moosvegetation des Medels, 1937-38; Studien über die Epiphytenvegetation eines Schweiz. Obstbaugebietes, 1942. Address: Spitalstrasse, Muri, Aargau, Switzerland.

OCHTMAN, DOROTHY, (Mrs. William A. del Mar), American Artist; born 1892, Greenwich, Conn.; daughter of Leonard and Mina (Fonda) Ochtman; educated at Smith College, A.B., graduate work at Bryn Mawr College; studied at National Acad. of Design Art Schools; with Leonard Ochtman; at Ecole Américaine at Fontainebleau and Académie Despujols, Paris (Guggenheim Fellowship); married Wm. A. Del Mar, 1945. Exhibited at National Acad. of Design, 1918. Gave one-man shows at Grand Central Galleries, 1931 and 1946, Pasadena Art Museum, 1931. Exhibited at National Assn. of Women Artists; Allied Artists of America; Corcoran Gallery; Chicago Art Inst.; Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Art. Represented in many private collections. Awards: Shaw Prize, 1921, Third Hallgarten Prize, 1924, National Acad. of Design; First Prize, Exposition Women's Art and Industries, 1927; Guggenheim Fellowship, 1927; Friends of Art, First Prize, Greenwich Soc. of Artists, 1930; First Prize, Fontainebleau Alumnae Assn., 1937; Cooper Prize, Natl. Assn. of Women Painters and Sculptors, 1941; Second Prize, Greenwich Soc. of Artists, 1945. Elected Assoc., Natl. Acad. of Design, 1929. Member: Natl. Assn. of Women Artists; Allied Artists of Amer.; Audubon Artists; Greenwich Soc. of Artists. Residence: Stanwich Lane, Greenwich, Conn.

OCKENGA, Rev. Dr. HAROLD JOHN, American Clergyman; born July 6, 1905, Chicago, Ill.; son of Herman and Angelina (Tetzlaff) Ockenga; educated at Taylor Univ., A.B., D.D.; Princeton Theological Seminary; Westminster Theological Seminary, Th.B.; Univ. of Pittsburgh, M.A. 1934, Ph.D. 1939; Suffolk Univ., Litt.D. 1939; Bob Jones Univ., Hum. D. 1944; married Audrey L. Williamson, Aug. 6, 1935; two daughters. Asst. Minister, First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1930-31; Minister, Point Breeze Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, 1931-36; Park Street Church, Boston, Mass., since 1936. Trustee: Gordon College; Suffolk Univ., Boston. Pres., Natl. Assn. of Evangelicals for United Action, 1942-44. Author: These Religious Affections; Our Protestant Heritage; Have You Met These Women?; To Every One That Believeth; The Comfort of God; Our Evangelical Faith; The Spirit of the Living God; etc. Address: Park Street Church, Boston, Mass.

O'COLLINS, Most Rev. JAMES PATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Ballarat, Victoria; born Mar. 31, 1892, Melbourne, Australia; son of Patrick James and Ellen Mary (Fitzgerald) O'Collins; educated at St. Columba's College, Springwood; St. Patrick's College, Manly, N.S.W.; Collegio Urbano, Rome. Ordained Priest, Dec. 23, 1922; Asst. Priest, 1924; appointed Bishop of Geraldton, Western Australia, Feb. 11, 1930; consecrated, May 11, 1930; transferred to the See of Ballarat, Dec. 23, 1941. Address: Bishop's House, 1444 Sturt St., Ballarat, Victoria, Australia.

O'CONNELL, Hon. AMBROSE, American Jurist; born July 8, 1881, Wapello County, Ia.; son of Peter and Mary (Masterson) O'Connell; educated at Notre Dame University, Ph.B. 1907; Columbia University School of Law, LL.B. 1910; married Hedwig Heide, May 11, 1912; four children. Began career as a lawyer and newspaper man; associated with Guaranty Trust Co., New York. Correspondent for Chicago Tribune, Chicago Record-Herald, Chronicle and American, Indianapolis News, South Bend Tribune and South Bend Times-News. Appointed Special Assistant to Postmaster-General, 1933; Executive Assistant, 1934; Second Assistant Postmaster-General, 1938; First Assistant Postmaster-General, 1940. Appointed Executive Vice-Chairman, Democratic National Committee, Feb. 15, 1943. Appointed Judge, Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, June 27, 1944. Residence: Mayflower Hotel. Office: Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, Washington, D. C.

O'CONNELL, CHARLES, American Conductor and Writer; born Apr. 22, 1900, Chicopee, Mass.; son of Maurice Aloysius and Rose (MacMahon) O'Connell; educated at Holy Cross College, A.B. 1922; married Donalda Poirier, Feb. 24, 1928; two children. Editorial Writer and Music Critic, Springfield Republican-Daily News, 1922-24; Writer and Supervisor of Recording, Victor Talking Machine Co., and later RCA Victor, 1924-31; Music Director since 1931. Author: Victor Book of the Symphony, 1935; Victor Book of the Opera (editor). Residence: 321 South Smedley St., Philadelphia, Pa.

O'CONNELL, Rev. DANIEL J. K., S.J., Australian Astronomer; born July 25, 1896, Rugby, Warwickshire, England; son of Daniel O'Connell, and Rose Kelly O'Connell; educated at Clongowes Wood College, Ireland; Univ. College, Dublin (M.Sc. 1920); Ignatius-Kolleg of Valkenburg; Harvard College Observatory. Astronomer, Seismologist, and Asst. Director of the Riverview College Observatory, New South Wales, 1923; Director of Observatory since 1938. Member: Amer. Astronomical Soc.; British Astronomical Assn.; Australian Natl. Research Council; Seismological Soc. of Amer.; Australian Natl. Com. on Astronomy. Fellow, Royal Astronomical Soc. Author: Easter Cycles in the Early Irish Church, 1936; papers in Astronomic Journals and Observatory Publication. Admitted to Soc. of Jesus, 1913. Residence: Riverview College Observatory, Riverview, N.S.W., Australia.

O'CONNELL, Hon. JEREMIAH EDWARD, American Jurist; born July 8, 1883, Wakefield, Mass.; son of Jeremiah and Margaret R. (Lynch) O'Connell; educated at Boston Univ., A.B. 1906, LL.B., J.M. 1908, LL.D. 1931; Providence College, LL.D. 1933; Bryant College, M.Sc. 1939; Calvin Coolidge College, Litt.D. 1940; married Madeline Loretta Gannon, July 14, 1931; five children. Member: Common Council of Providence, 1913-19; Board of Aldermen, 1919-21; U. S. House of Repts., 1923-27, 1929-30; Justice, Rhode Island Superior Court, since 1930; Presiding Justice, since 1935. Member, Directorate, since 1937; now Pres., Narragansett Council. Trustee: Calvin Coolidge College; Portia Law School (since 1936). Secy., Democratic Natl. Congressional Com., 1925-27. Address: Providence County Court House, Providence, R. I.

O'CONNELL, JOSEPH J., JR., American Lawyer; born 1906, Saranac Lake, N. Y. Engaged in practice of law since start of career; associated with the Public Works Administration. Joined U. S. Treasury Dept. in 1938 and served in various legal positions; General Counsel, 1944-47. Engaged in practice of law in Washington, D. C., 1947-48. Nominated Chairman, Civil Aeronautics Board by President Truman, March 1948. Address: Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D. C.

O'CONNELL, PATRICK AUGUSTIN, American Business Executive; born Feb. 13, 1871, Lawrence, Mass.; son of Daniel P. and Catherine (Dolan) O'Connell; educated in public schools; married Mary Frances O'Brien, Jan. 12, 1904. President, Treasurer, General Manager and Director, E. T. Slattery Co. Member, Bd. of Investment, Union Savings Bank of Boston. Member, Advisory Council, Boston College. Trustee, Boston Univ. Director: National Shawmut Bank of Boston; Boston Elevated Ry.; Liberty Mutual Insurance Co.; Boston Consolidated Gas Co.; Specialty Stores Assn. Vice-Pres., Boston Chamber of Commerce. Vice-Pres. and Director, Boston Shopping News. Address: 154 Tremont St., Boston 11, Mass.

O'CONNELL, PERCY D., American Business Executive. Vice President and Director of The American News Co., until 1947; President and Director, 1947—. Address: The American News Co., 131 Varick St., New York, N. Y.

O'CONNELL, Dr. THOMAS JOSEPH, Irish Educator; born Nov. 28, 1882, Bekan, County Mayo, Ireland; son of Thomas O'Connell and Maria Biesty O'Connell; educated at Bekan National School; St. Patrick's College of Drumcondra. Began career as teacher, 1902; Member, Central Executive, Irish National Teachers Organization, until 1911; Secretary General, Irish National Teachers Organization, since 1916. Member, Dail Eireann (Parliament), 1922-32; Seanad Eireann (Senate), 1941-44. Member, Board of Governors, University College, Galway. Director of World Federation of Education Assns. Awarded Hon. Doctorate from the National University of Ireland. Fellow, Educational Institute of Scotland. Author of numerous articles and pamphlets. Residence: Laurel Hill, Rathfarnham, Co. Dublin, Eire. Office: 9 Gardiner Pl., Dublin, Eire.

O'CONNELL-MAHER, J., Canadian Provincial Government Official; born Feb. 9, 1909, Cedars, P. Q., Canada; son of James and C. (Montgrain) O'Maher; educated at St. Mary's College, Montreal, P. Q.; Loyola College, Montreal, B.A.; Univ. of Montreal; married Loretta Guiboro, Sept. 8, 1934. Began as a newspaper man, 1931. Attended International Labour Conf., New York, 1942; International Labour Conf. at Philadelphia, 1944. Now Assoc. Deputy Minister of Labour for Province of Quebec; Vice-Chairman, Regional War Labor Board for Quebec and Asst. Director of Industrial Relations Department, Faculty of Social Sciences, Laval Univ. Residence: 21 Sheppard, Apt. 10. Office: Parliament Buildings, Quebec, Canada.

O'CONNOR, BASIL, American Lawyer; born Taunton, Mass., Jan. 8, 1892; son of Daniel Basil and Elizabeth Ann (O'Gorman) O'Connor; educated at Dartmouth College, B.A. 1912; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1915; St. John's Univ., LL.D. 1941; Blackburn College, LL.D. 1941, and Dartmouth College, LL.D. 1946; married Elvira R. Miller, August 31, 1918; two daughters. Admitted to Massachusetts Bar, 1915, and to New York Bar, 1916, and since engaged in practice of law. Associated with Cravath & Henderson, New York, 1915-16; with Streeter & Holmes, Boston, 1916-19; practiced under own name, New York, 1919-25; partner, Roosevelt & O'Connor, New York, until 1933; Senior Member, O'Connor & Farber, 1933—. President: National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc.; Georgia Warm Springs Foundation; Franklin D. Roosevelt Library; Finlay Inst. of the Americas; Johnson O'Connor Research Foundation; Human Engineering Laboratory. Chairman: Amer. Natl. Red Cross; League of Red Cross Societies; Board of Trustees of Tuskegee Inst.; Executive Com. of Bd. of Directors of National Conf. of Christians and Jews; Board of the International Inst. of Health Education. Honorary Chairman, FDR Warm Springs Memorial Commn. Vice-President, New York County Lawyers' Assn. Treasurer, Amer. Museum of Health. Dir. or Trustee: American Reserve Insurance Co.; Schering Corp.; West Indies Sugar Corp.; Westhampton Assn.; Horowitz Foundation; La Rabida Sanitarium. Member: Amer. Bar Assn. (Com. on Bill of Rights); New York State Bar Assn.; Assn. of the Bar of the City of New York; Amer. Irish Historical Soc.; Natl. Inst. of Social Science, etc. Commander, National Order of the Legion of Honor; received Medal of Merit, French Red Cross; Medal of the Belgian Red Cross of the 1st Class; Bulgarian Gold Red Cross Medal; Grand Cross; highest grade of the Order of Honor of Merit (Cuban Red Cross); Carlos Finlay Decoration (Cuba); medal from Danish Red Cross; Cross of Commander of the Order of the Crown (Belgium). Residence: 49 East 96th St. Office: 120 Broadway, New York 5, New York.

O'CONNOR, FRANK (pseud. of Michael O'Donovan), British Author; born Sept. 17, 1903, Cork, Ireland; son of Michael and Mary (O'Connor) O'Donovan; married Evelyn Bowen, 1939; three children. Librarian: Cork County Library, 1925-28; Pembroke Public Library, Dublin, 1928-38. Author: Guests of the Nation, 1931; The Wild Bird's Nest, 1931; The Saint and Mary Kate, 1932; Bones of Contention, 1936; The Big Fellow, 1937; Three Old Brothers, 1937; Lords and Commons, 1938; Fountain of Magic, 1939; Dutch Interior, 1940; Lament for Art O'Leary, 1940; Three Tales, 1941; Picture Book, 1943; Crab Apple Jelly, 1944; Midnight Court, 1945; Literature, 1945; Selected Stories, 1946; Irish Miles, 1947; Art of the Theatre, 1947; The Common Chord, 1947; The Road to Stratford, 1948. Address: 57 Strand Road, Sandymount, Dublin, Ireland.

O'CONNOR, Hon. GEORGE BLIGH, Canadian Jurist; born Mar. 16, 1883, Walkerton, Ont., Canada; son of Frederic S. and Maria I. (Hamilton) O'Connor; educated at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, 1903-05; married Hannah Margaret Fairlie, Oct. 28, 1913; one daughter. Called to Ontario Bar, 1905, Alberta Bar, 1905-40. Bencher, Law Soc., Alberta, 1936-40; Chairman of Western Labour Board, 1943; Chairman, Industrial Disputes Inquiry Commission, Alberta and B. C., coal strike, 1943-44; Chairman, Wartime Labor Relations Board of Ottawa, 1943-47. Justice of Appeal, Supreme Court of Alberta, 1941—. Residence: 36 St. George's Crescent, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Office: 161 Confederation Bldg., Ottawa, Canada.

O'CONNOR, HARVEY, American Writer; born March 29, 1897, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of James J. and Jessie (Kenney) O'Connor; married Jessie Lloyd, 1930; two children. Editor, International Weekly, Seattle, Wash., 1918; Labor Editor, Seattle Daily Union Record, 1919-24; Asst. Editor, Locomotive Engineers Journal, Cleveland, Ohio, 1924-27; Eastern Bureau Manager, Federated Press, New York, 1927-30. Publicity Director, Oil Workers International Union (CIO), since 1944. Director, Federated Press; Member, Amer. Newspaper Guild (CIO); Chairman, Residents Committee, Hull House, Chicago, 1942-44. Author: Mellon's Millions, 1934; Steel Dictator, 1936; The Guggenheims, 1937; The Astors, 1939. Volunteer, U. S. Merchant Marine, 1917-18. Residence: 1329 Clarence St. Office: 306 Ledger Building, Ft. Worth, Texas.

O'CONNOR, HENRY M., American Portrait Painter; born Mar. 5, 1892, Brookline, Mass.; son of Patrick and Julia (Courtney) O'Connor; educated at Mass. Normal Art School; Museum Art School, Boston, Mass.; Asst. to Abbott H. Thayer, Dublin, N. H.; Julien's Acad., Paris; married Regina Summers, Feb. 21, 1928. Exhibited at Chicago Soc. of Etchers, 1916; Natl. Acad. of Design; Centennial Exhibition, Phila.; Amer. Water Color Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Etchers; Salmagundi Club, etc. Illustrator, James B. Connolly's Navy Men, and Story of Gloucester Fishermen. Treas., Artists Fellowship, 1939-43; Pres., 1943-46. Secy., Salmagundi Club, 1941-46; Pres., since 1946. Member, Executive Council, Amer. Irish Historical Soc. Address: 6 East 15th St., New York, N. Y.

O'CONNOR, JACK, American Author; born 1902. Author: Boom Town, 1938; Game in the Desert, 1939; Hunting in the Southwest, 1945. Address: c/o Alfred A. Knopf, 501 Madison Avenue, New York, New York.

O'CONNOR, JOHN JEREMIAH, Canadian Lawyer; born Jan. 26, 1887, Orillia, Ont., Canada; son of James J. and Mary (Larkin) O'Connor; educated at Univ. of Manitoba, LL.B. 1914; Univ. of Alberta, LL.B. 1916; married Sadie May Blackey, Oct. 18, 1916; three children. Barrister-at-law, Board, City of Calgary, 1916. Private practice since 1918. King's Counsel, since 1939. Founder, Ex-Vice-Pres., Youkon Southern Airways, Ltd.; transferred to Canadian Pacific Ry. Co., 1940. Now Pres., Western Securities, Ltd. Member: Calgary and Alberta Bar Assns. Address: 200 Lancaster Bldg., Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

O'CONNOR, Prof. JOHNSON, American Psychologist; born Jan. 22, 1891, Chicago, Ill.; son of John and Nellie (Johnson) O'Connor; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1913, A.M. 1914; married Ruth Davis, Dec. 17, 1913 (deceased); married (2nd) Eleanor Manning, June 3, 1931; one son. Engaged in research with The American Steel and Wire Co., 1918-20; electrical engineer, General Electric Co., The West Lynn Works, 1920-33. Organized Human Engineering Laboratory, 1922. Lecturer in Psychology, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1928-31; Asst. Prof., 1931-34; Assoc. Prof. and Director of Psychological Studies, Stevens Inst. of Technology, since 1931. Organized Human Engineering Laboratory, Boston, 1930; at Stevens Inst., 1939; at Glessner House, Illinois Inst. of Technology, Chicago, 1938; at Philadelphia, 1941; in New York City, under name of Johnson O'Connor Research Foundation, Inc., 1943. Established laboratories in Fort Worth, Texas, St. Louis, Mo., Tulsa, Okla., and Los Angeles, Calif. Author: Born That Way, 1928; Psychometrics, 1934; Johnson O'Connor English Vocabulary Builder, 1937; Unsolved Business Problems, 1940; The Too-Many Aptitude Woman, 1941; Structural Visualization, 1943; Aptitudes and The Languages, 1944; Ideaphoria, 1945. Residence: 381 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. Office: 11 E. 62nd St., New York, N. Y.

O'CONNOR, Most Rev. MARTIN J., Catholic Bishop; served as Auxiliary Bishop of Scranton, Pa. until 1946. Rector of the North American College in Rome, 1946—. Address: North American College, Rome, Italy.

O'CONNOR, MARY (JANES), American Poet and Artist; born Nov. 8, 1899, Cleveland, Ohio; daughter of Hylas Sabin and Lula (Van Valkenburgh) Janes; educated at Cleveland College; Huntington Polytechnic; Laurel School; studied art at Boston Museum and Chicago Inst.; married Albert J. O'Connor, Sept. 9, 1921; three children. Sang with Cleveland Orchestra Opera, 1933-38; also with Philharmonic Chorus in Cleveland. Played in Handel Wadsworth's Light Opera Group for several years; made pen sketches of Metropolitan Opera artists, which have appeared in various newspapers. Author: Reservoir of Thought, 1942; Thought Clusters, 1943; More Thought Clusters, 1944; over 1,100 poetry and story publications in 250 magazines, papers and anthologies. Won some 65 state and national first and second prizes in poetry, also Palmer Sargent House Pub. Radio Award. Poetry and Art works are included in Ohioana Library of Columbus, Raven Poetry Shrine and New Jersey Natl. Poetry Shrine. Won Embers Poet Laureateship of Pennsylvania, 1945. Staff artist on one magazine and co-editor of another. Member: Amer. Pen Women; Midwest Poetry League; Poet's Haven of California Chapparal Poets; Literary Guild; Modern Bards; League for Sanity in Poetry; Song and Story Guild (Poet Laureate); Palmer Prize Winners' Chap. Poets. Contest Chmn., Philadelphia Pen Women. Author of more than 1,000 published poems, stories and articles. Address: Belmont and Conshohocken Aves., Philadelphia 31, Pa.

O'CONNOR, General Sir RICHARD NUGENT, British Army Officer; born Aug. 21, 1889, Sinagar, Kashmir; son of Major M. N. O'Connor; educated at Wellington College; R.M.C., Sandhurst; married Jean Ross, Dec. 21, 1935. Commissioned in Cameronians, Sept. 18, 1909; served in France and Italy, World War I; mentioned in despatches nine times; G.S.O. at War Office, 1932-35; at Imperial Defence College, 1935; Commander, Peshawar Brigade, 1936-38; Military Governor of Jerusalem, 1938-39; commanded Western Desert Force in successful Libyan campaign, 1940-41; G.O.C. in Chief, British Troops, Egypt, 1941; subsequently taken prisoner of war in Libya, Apr. 1941; escaped three times; commanded 8th Corps, Normandy, Holland and Belgium; G.O.C.-in-C., Eastern and Northern Command, India, 1945-46; appointed Adjutant General to Forces, 1946; A.D.C. General to the King, 1946. Decorated K.C.B.; D.S.O. with Bar; M.C.; Chevalier, Légion d'Honneur; Croix de Guerre; Italian Silver Star for Valour. Residence: 39 Alexandra Court, Kensington, England. Office: The War Office, London, England.

O'CONNOR, Most Rev. WILLIAM PATRICK, Roman Catholic Bishop; born Oct. 18, 1886, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Patrick D. and Ellen (McCarthy) O'Connor; educated at Marquette Univ., A.B. 1916; Catholic Univ. of America, Ph.D. 1921; Notre Dame Univ., LL.D. 1942; Loras College, LL.D. 1947. Ordained Roman Catholic Priest, 1912. At St. Rose Parish, Milwaukee, Wis., 1912-16. Prof. of Philosophy, St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee, Wis., 1921-1940. Archdiocesan Director, Holy Name, C. Y. O., Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, 1940-42. At St. Thomas Parish, Milwaukee, 1940-42. Bishop of Superior, Wis., 1942-46. Bishop of Madison, Wis., since 1946. Pres.: Amer. Catholic Philosophical Assn., 1940; Chicago Soc. of Catholic Psychologists, 1940. Senior Chaplain, 32nd Division, A.E.F., 1918-19. Author: Concept of Soul — According to St. Augustine, 1921. Address: Diocese of Madison, P.O. Box 111, 15 E. Madison St., Madison 1, Wisconsin.

O'CONOR, HERBERT R., United States Senator; born November 17, 1896, Baltimore, Md.; son of James P. A. and Mary (Galvin) O'Conor; educated at Loyola College, B.A. 1917, LL.D. 1924; Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1920; married M. Eugenia Byrnes, Nov. 24, 1920; five children. Asst. State's Atty., 1921. People's Counsel of Public Service Commn., 1923; elected State's Attorney for Baltimore City, 1923, and re-elected 1926 and 1930; elected Attorney General, Nov. 1934; elected Governor, Nov. 1938, and re-elected 1942. Elected U. S. Senator, 1946. Pres., Council of State Governments, 1942-43; Ex-Pres., National Assn. of Attorneys General. Member: American Bar, Maryland State and Baltimore City Bar Assns. Recipient of Honorary LL.D. degrees from University of Maryland, Loyola College (Baltimore), Villanova College of Pennsylvania, Georgetown University of Washington, D. C., and Washington College (Chestertown, Md.). Served in World War I (U. S. Navy), 1917-18. Residence: 16 Charlcote Rd., Baltimore 18, Md. Office: 248 Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

O'CONOR, NORREYS JEPHSON, American Author; born Dec. 31, 1885, New York City; son of John Christopher and Maria J. (Post) O'Conor; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1907, M.A. 1911; married Evangelia H. Waller, Oct. 30, 1935; one daughter. Publisher in New York City, 1908.

Asst. in English, Harvard Univ., 1911-13. Instr. in English, Radcliffe College, 1918-19. Asst. Prof. of English, Grinnell College, 1922-23. Assoc. Prof. of English Literature, Mt. Holyoke College, 1923-24. Assoc. Prof. of English Composition, Bryn Mawr College, 1924-26. Member: P.E.N.; California Writers' Guild. Author: Celtic Memories, 1913; Beside the Blackwater, 1914; The Fairy Bride, 1916, 1926; Songs of the Celtic Past, 1918; Battles and Enchantments, 1924; There Was Magic in Those Days, 1928; Godes Peace and the Queenes, 1934; A Servant of the Crown, 1938. Address: 2357 Lambert Drive, Pasadena 8, California.

ÓDÁLAIGH, CEARBHALL, Irish Attorney General; born Feb. 12, 1911, Brí Chualann, Co. Wicklow; son of Risteárd Ó Dálaigh and Úna Ní Dhroighneáin; educated at Univ. College, Dublin, B.A. in Celtic studies, 1933; King's Inns, Dublin, B.L. 1934; married Mairín Nic Dhiarmada, June 16, 1934. Admitted to Bar in Michaelmas Term, 1934; practiced law at Dublin; admitted to Inner Bar in Hilary Term, 1945; appointed Attorney General, April, 1946; elected Bencher, King's Inns, Dublin, Oct., 1946. Member, Radio Advisory Com. (Cóiste Cómhairleach am Radio). Member, An Cumann Ealaíon; An Combar Dramatiochta. Volunteer, later Corporal, Fórsa Cosanta Áitiúil, 1940-45. Residence: 38 Merrion Square, Dublin. Office: Government Buildings, Merrion St., Dublin, Ireland.

O'DANIEL, W. LEE, United States Senator; born March 11, 1890, Malta, Ohio; son of William A. and Alice Ann (Thompson) O'Daniel; educated at public grade and high schools, Arlington, Kans.; business college, Hutchinson, Kans.; married Merle Estella Butcher of Granada, Colo.; three children. Engaged in flour milling and grain business, 1909-38. Petitioned to run for the Office of Governor of Texas by 59,499 Texas citizens; elected Governor in first primary with 573,166 votes, a clear majority over 12 opponents, 1938; re-elected for second term in 1940 first primary with 645,646 votes, a clear majority over 6 opponents; elected to U. S. Senate at special election, June 28, 1941 to fill vacancy caused by death of Hon. Morris Sheppard; took seat Aug. 4, 1941; re-elected Nov. 3, 1942, for the term ending Jan. 3, 1949. Residence: Fort Worth, Texas. Office: United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

ODEBERG, Rev. Dr. HUGO, Swedish Theologian; born May 7, 1898, Amal, Sweden; son of Olson O. and Olson J. Odeberg; educated at Univ. of Upsala, B.A. 1919, B.D. 1921, D.D. 1932; Univ. of London (King's College), Ph.D. 1924; married Elsa Ringqvist, Feb. 28, 1927; five children. Began career as Journalist, 1919. Rector at Bjorklinge, 1926-33; Univ. Lecturer in Exegesis, Univ. of Upsala, 1928-33; Prof. in N.T. Exegesis, Univ. of Lund, since Aug. 1, 1933. Member: Royal Humanistic Soc. of Lund; Societas Studiorum Novi Testamenti (Engl.). Pres. of Erevna Soc. for New Testament Research, Lund. Recipient of N.O. Author: 3 Enoch or the Hebrew Book of Enoch, 1928; The Fourth Gospel, 1929; Trito Isaiah, 1930; Qoheleth, 1931; Aramaic Portions of Bereshith Rabba, 1939; Grammar of Galilean Aramaic, 1939; Fariseism Och kristendom, 1943; Tillbaka till bibeln, 1944; Korintierbreven, 1944; Samla Testamentet om det Nya, 1946. Editor, "Erevna" (quarterly). Residence: Stilgjutaregatan 2. Office: Fack 91, Lund, Sweden.

ODEGAARD, Dr. PETER HERMAN, Norwegian Hospital Administrator; born Oct. 10, 1880, Halden, Norway; son of Chr. and Mina (Fösk) Odegaard; married Signe Lund, July 2, 1907; one daughter and three sons. Physician since 1906; Surgeon in Army, 1911. Appointed Head of special section devoted to general public health in Directorate of Public Health, 1928; County Medical Officer, 1933; Director, Univ. Hospital, Oslo, since 1938. Residence: Lönnhaugen Allé 2, Vinderen. Office: Rikshospitalet, Oslo, Norway.

ODEGARD, Dr. PETER, American College President; born April 5, 1901, Kalispell, Mont.; son of Thorvald Julius and Hulda (Johnson) Odegard; educated at Univ. of Washington, A.B. 1922, M.A. 1923; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1928; Amherst College, M.A. (hon.) 1939; married Eleanor Warren Burrows, May 8, 1925; two sons. Lecturer in Govt., Columbia Univ., 1924-25; Instructor, 1925-28. Asst. Prof. of Govt., Williams College, 1928-30. Prof. of Political Science, 1930-38, Dwight W. Morrow Prof. of Political Science, Amherst, 1941-45. Pres., Reed College, Portland, Ore., since 1945. Visiting Prof. of Political Science, Stanford Univ., 1934. Consulting Expert to Secy. of Treasury, 1941-42; Asst. to Secy. of the Treasury, 1942-43; Consultant, 1944-45. Author: Pressure Politics, The Story of the Anti-Saloon League, 1928; The American Public Mind, 1930; Peace or War, 1937; American Politics, A Study in Political Dynamics (with E. A. Helms), 1938; Prologue to November, 1940, 1940. Contributor to Democracy in Transition, 1937 and to other publications. Residence: 2859 S. E. Woodstock. Office: Reed College, Portland, Ore.

ODELBERG, Dr. AXEL A-son, Swedish Surgeon; born Sept. 19, 1892, Karlskrona, Sweden; son of Axel and Sigrid (Lindberg) Odelberg; educated at Karolinska Institutet; Uppsala Univ., Med. Kand 1914, Med. Lic. 1918; married Margareta Louise Maria Froelich, 1924; one son. Second Asst. in Surgery, Seraphim Hospital, Stockholm, 1916, and of Maria Hospital, Stockholm, 1918-19; First Asst. in Surgery, St. Goran Hospital, Stockholm Section, Surgical Tuberculosis, 1919-23; Sabbatsbergs Hospital, 1923-28. Surgeon in Chief, Military Hospital, Boden, 1929-31, and of Central Hospital, Ostersund, since 1931. Member, Exec. Com., County Representation of Jamtland, since 1938; Member, Swedish Com. for Hospital rationalisation. Expert to Swedish Com. for Norrland, for Orthopedic, Bone and Joint Surgery. Chairman of and expert to various local committees for planning and building of hospitals. Vice-Pres., Red Cross Board for County of Jamtland, since 1934; Chief, two Swedish Red Cross Expeditions to Russia, 1920 and 1921; Second in Command, First Swedish Ambulance to Finland (Winter War), 1939; Chief, Second Swedish Ambulance to Finland Winter War, 1940. Member: Swedish Assn. of Physicians; Swedish Surgical Soc.; Deutsche Gesellschaft fuer Chirurgie; Russian Surgical Pirogoff Soc.; Assn. Chirurgicale de France; Société Internationale de Chirurgie. Knight, Swedish Order of Northern Star; Commander, Finnish Order of White Rose; Knight of Finnish Cross of Liberty III Class. Awarded Gold Medal of Swedish Red Cross; Finlands War Medal in Iron. Author of many publications on surgical and hospital subjects. Office: Central Hospital, Ostersund, Sweden.

ODELL, WALLACE, American Publisher; born May 18, 1876, Tarrytown, N. Y.; son of Lewis C. and Mary Frances (Wallace) Odell; educated in Tarrytown public schools; married Emily Hubbel, March 26, 1903. Began writing for New York newspapers at 16. Westchester Correspondent for New York Herald for many years, also Times, World and other papers and press associations. Reporter for Yonkers Record, Mt. Vernon News and started the Mt. Pleasant News (weekly), 1897. Started Tarrytown Daily News in 1912; sold paper in 1926. Vice Pres., Westchester County Publishers, Inc. (8 dailies and 4 weeklies in Westchester County) since 1926. Pres., New York State Publishers Assn., 1943. Pres., National Editorial Assn., 1924—. Secretary Treasurer, Press Congress of the World, 1926-28. Residence: 38 S. Broadway, Tarrytown, N. Y. Office: Westchester County Publishers, Inc., Larkin Plaza, Yonkers 1, N. Y.

ODETS, CLIFFORD, American Playwright; born 1906. Author: Waiting for Lefty, 1935; Awake and Sing, 1935; The Awakening of the American Theatre, 1936; Paradise Lost, 1936; Till the Day I Die, 1936; Golden Boy, 1937; Rocket to the Moon, 1938; Music by Night, 1940. Wrote numerous Hollywood screenplays, including "None But the Lonely Heart" (from novel of Richard Llewellyn; also directed picture), etc. Address: c/o Random House, 20 E. 57th St., New York 22, N. Y.

ODFJELL, FREDRIK, Norwegian Shipowner; born Bergen, Norway, April 8, 1878, son of Bernt Daniel Olsen and Anna Tønnessen (Odfjell); educated at high school; took mates' and masters' examinations; went to sea in 1895 and became Captain in 1903; married Ingeborg Flood, Oct. 12, 1907; five children. Shipowner since 1913. President: Norges Skibshypotek A/S, Fana; Bergens Skibsassurancerforening; Bergens Kreditbank A/S; Norsk Bjergningskompagni. Pres., Baltic & International Maritime Conf. Pres., Norwegian Shipowners Assn., 1933-36. Represented Norwegian Shipowners at meetings of International Labour Office, Genoa, 1920; Geneva, 1926, 1935 and 1936. Norwegian Shipowners' Representative in International Shipping Federation; Vice-Pres., seven years. Commissioner-General of Norway's participation in the New York World's Fair, 1939. Norwegian Representative in Washington in United Maritime Authorities' "Executive Board," 1945; Norwegian representative in Contributory Nations Com., 1946; Norwegian Government representative in United Nations' Transport and Communications Commission, 1947. Author: "Vi Gaar Ombord" (reminiscences from his period at sea); The Road We Travel. Address: Minde pr. Bergen, Norway.

ODGERS, Dr. MERLE MIDDLETON, American College President; born Apr. 21, 1900, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of David and Elizabeth (Ramsay) Odgers; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, A.B. 1922, A.M. 1924, Ph.D. 1928; Temple Univ., L.H.D. 1937; Ursinus College, LL.D. 1943; married Frances Bartram Bunting, June 28, 1927; two children. He was Instructor in Latin at the University of Pennsylvania, 1922-28; Asst. Prof., 1928; Prof., 1936; Asst. Director of Admissions, 1926-33; Dean, Faculty of College of Liberal Arts for Women, 1933-36; Pres. of Girard College, since 1936. Trustee: Free Library of Philadelphia; Presser Foundation; Edwin Forrest Home. Member: Board of Managers, Western Saving Fund Soc. of Philadelphia; Board of Directors, Chamber of Commerce; Board of Trade of Philadelphia. Member: Amer. Philological Assn.; Natl. Education Assn.; Assn. of Amer. Univ. Profs.; Headmasters' Club; L'Association Guillaume Budé of Paris; Numismatic and Antiquarian Soc. of Philadelphia. Author: Latin Parens: Its Meaning and Uses, 1929; Fifteen Hundred Looking On, 1944; Brothers of Girard, 1945. Address: Girard College, Philadelphia 21, Pa.

ODGERS, WALTER BLAKE, K.C., British Jurist; born Dec. 14, 1880, Hampstead, London, England; son of William Blake Odgers, K.C., LL.D., M.A. and Frances (Hudson); educated at Sedbergh School; Balliol College, Oxford, M.A. 1905; married Janet Fortune Cleghorn, Sept. 17, 1914. Began as Barrister-at-Law. 1906; Recorder of Southampton, 1937-41; created King's Counsel, 1938; Metropolitan Magistrate since 1941. Member, General Council, London, Bar, 1926-41. Senior Editor: Odgers on Pleading and Practice (13th ed.), 1946; Odgers on the Common Law; Odgers on Libel and Slander (6th ed.); Warburton's Criminal Cases (6th ed.). Served in British Army during World War I; received two War Medals. Residence: Warwick Lodge, Tunbridge Wells, Kent, England. Office: North London Magistrate's Court, London, England.

ODHE, (KNUT GILLIS) THORSTEN, Swedish Editor; born Apr. 24, 1892, Bjoerkaeng, Sweden; son of Aug. and Charlotte (Peterson) Odhe; educated at College of Skara; Univ. of Gothenburg (teacher's degree); married (2nd) Karin Värild, 1947. Teacher, later journalist and writer; with Svensk Handelstidning (Swedish Commercial Daily), 1918-22; on staff of Kooperative Förbundet (Swedish Co-operative Wholesale Union), Stockholm, since 1924; Chief Editor, Kooperatoeren, Stockholm. Appointed Permanent Rept., Internatl. Co-operative Alliance, UNO. Permanent Jury Member on press cases, Stockholm City Court, 1942. Member, Publicistklubben (Treas. since 1943). Awarded Finnish White Cross Order; Icelandic Falcon Order. Author of about fifteen works on consumers' co-operation in different countries, international cartels, world trade, etc. (translated into Finnish, Icelandic, Bulgarian, Dutch, German, French and English). Lieut., Swedish Army, World War I. Residence: Klubbacken 25, Maelarhoejden, Stockholm, Sweden. Office: Stadsgaarden 6, Stockholm, Sweden.

ODLIN, RENO, American Banker; born June 26, 1897, Sedro Woolley, Washington; son of William Thompson and Jessie Lee (Reno) Odlin; educated at Princeton Univ., 1914; Univ. of Washington, 1915-17; Univ. of Toulouse, France, 1919; married Edith Murphy Heston, July 12, 1922; three children. With Citizens Bank, Anacortes, Wash., 1921-22; Cashier, 1922-28; Asst. Vice-Pres., Metropolitan National Bank, Seattle, 1928-32; Vice-Pres., First National Bank of Seattle, 1932-36; now Pres., Puget Sound National Bank of Tacoma, Wash. Director: Tacoma Transit Co.; Rainier National Park Co., Tacoma, Wash.; Northern Life Insurance Co., Seattle; Puget Sound National Bank, Tacoma. State Commander, American Legion, 1930-31; Pres., Washington Bankers Assn., 1942-43; State Chairman for Washington, War Finance Com., U. S. Treasury. Republican nominee for U. S. Senator, 1934. Co-author, Washington State Liquor Control Act. Served as 2nd Lieut., U. S. Army, with A.E.F. in France, World War I. Residence: 610 North Yakima Ave. Office: 1119 Pacific Ave., Tacoma, Wash.

ODLOZILIK, Prof. OTAKAR, Czechoslovak Historian; born Jan. 12, 1899, Kostelec, Czechoslovakia; son of Florian and Geneviéve (Novak) Odlozilik; educated at Charles Univ., Prague, Ph.D. 1923; Hobart and William Smith College, Geneva, N. Y., Hon. Litt.D. Keeper, State Archives, 1923; Lecturer on Czechoslovak History, Charles Univ., 1926; Lecturer on Czechoslovak Language, School of Slavonic Studios, Univ. of London, 1928-29 and 1929-30; Prof. of History, Charles Univ., Prague, since 1934; Visiting Prof. of European History, Univ. of Colorado, summer 1939 and 1940; Washington and Jefferson College, 1940; Northwestern Univ., summer 1941; Lecturer on Czech Literature and Culture, Columbia Univ., 1941. Member: Czech Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Royal Bohemian Soc. of Arts and Sciences; Slavonic Inst., Prague. Author: J. A.

Komensky, 1942; The Way of Light, the Glory and Martyrdom of Czechoslovak Schools, 1942; Czechoslovak Inheritance, 1945. Residence: Ul. Narodni Obrany 45, Prague XIX, Czechoslovakia. Office: Smetanovo nám. 2, Prague 1, Czechoslovakia.

ODLUM, FLOYD B., American Industrialist; born 1892, Union City, Mich.; educated at Univ. of Colorado, LL.B. 1914, Hon. M.B.A. 1928; married (1st) Mrs. Hortense McQuarrie, 1914 (div. 1935); (2nd) Jacqueline Cochran, 1936. Began career with Utah Power & Light Co., Salt Lake City; became associated with law firm of Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett, later Asst. to the Chairman of the Electric Bond & Share Corp.; elected Vice-President, 1920. In 1926 and thereafter, as Vice-President of the foreign branch of the American & Foreign Power Co., he visited South America and Europe, and was responsible for foreign investments estimated at that time as being in excess of half a billion dollars. With his friend, George Howard, he organized the United States Co. for investment purposes in 1923. In 1928 this company, with forty-five stockholders, became the Atlas Utilities and Investors Co., Ltd., of Montreal. Pres., Atlas Corp., 1929—. Resigned as Vice-President of Electric Bond & Share Corp., 1931; Chairman of Board, Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corp.; Director of the United Fruit Co. and Madison Square Garden Corp. Chairman of Bd., Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., Nov. 1947—. Chmn., Bd. of Trustees, Lovelace Foundation for Medical Education and Research. Address: 40 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

ODLUM, Major General VICTOR WENTWORTH, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., Canadian Diplomat; son of Prof. Edward and Mary (Powell) Odlum; educated at Victoria College, Toronto Univ.; married S. E. Tressa Rogerson, Aug. 16, 1904; three sons. Served in South African War, 1899-1902; World War I, 1914-19; Brigadier-General commanding 11th Canadian Infantry Brigade; thrice wounded; mentioned in despatches eight times. Member, British Columbia Provincial Legislature, 1924-28; Publisher, Vancouver Morning Star, 1924-32. Entered bond business as Victor W. Odlum & Co., 1922; was a Director of many financial and industrial companies. Ex-Member, Board of Governors, Univ. of British Columbia and Canadian Broadcasting Corp. Formerly Chairman, Vancouver Welfare Federation; Pres., Vancouver Little Theatre Assn. Appointed to command 2nd Canadian Division for service in Europe, 1940; Canadian High Commissioner in Australia, 1942; Ambassador to China, 1943-47; Ambassador to Turkey, 1947—. Address: Canadian Embassy, Ankara, Turkey.

ODOM, Dr. EDWARD E., American Lawyer and Government Solicitor; born Feb. 6, 1886, Montrose, Mo.; son of John Edward and Alice (Miller) Odom; educated at Univ. of Denver, A.B. 1911, M.A. 1912; Westminster College of Law (Denver, Colo.), LL.B. 1920; married Olive Evelyn (Reynolds) Bradbury, Sept. 4, 1912; three children. Principal and Teacher, Colorado Schools, 1912-17; lectured on Commercial Law and Economics, School of Commerce, Univ. of Denver, 1920; Training Officer, Federal Board Vocational Education, 1920-21; Legal Adviser, Veterans Bureau, 1922-25; Executive Asst., Office of General Counsel, 1926-28. Chief, Guardianship Div., 1928-31; Asst. Chief, and Chief, Legal Field Service, Office of Solicitor, 1931-35. Asst. Solicitor, 1935-39. Solicitor, Veterans Administration, since 1939. Member: Executive Council, Federal Bar Assn., 1944. Member: Amer., Colo., D. C. Bar Assns.; U. S. Supreme Court. Assisted Congressional Coms. in writing veterans' legislation. Author: Briefs in Hines v. Stein, 80 L. Ed. 1063; 298 U. S. 94 and Hines v. Lowrey, 83 L. Ed. 56; 305 U. S. 85. Address: Veterans Administration, Washington, D. C.

O'DONNELL, Major Gen. EMMETT, JR., American Air Force Officer; born Sept. 15, 1906, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Emmett and Veronica (Tobin) O'Donnell; educated at U. S. Military Acad., graduated 1928; married Lorraine Muller, Dec. 29, 1930; three sons. Second Lieut., Inf., U. S. Army, 1928; student at Primary Flying School, Brooks Field, Texas, 1929; Advanced Flying School, Kelly Field, Tex., 1930; Air Corps Tactical School, Maxwell Field, Ala., 1939; joined First Pursuit Group at Selfridge Field, Mich., 1930. Advanced through grades to Major Gen. (temp.), Feb. 1947. Led first squadron of B-17 Flying Fortresses across Western Pacific, Dec. 1941; Operations Officer for Far Eastern Air Force in Java, Jan.-Mar. 1942; evacuated to India and became Operations Officer for newly-organized Tenth Air Force; Chief of General Arnold's Advisory Council in Washington, D. C., 1943-44; Commanding General, 73rd Bomb Wing, Smoky Hill Army Air Field, Salina, Kansas, 1944; led first B-29 attack on Tokyo, Nov. 1944; Deputy Chief of Engineering Div., Air Materiel Command headquarters, Wright Field, Dec. 1945-Aug. 1946; Director of Information, Army Air Force, 1946-Jan. 1948; designated by President Truman, U. S. Air Force Member of Permanent Joint Board on Defense, Canada-U. S., and Joint Mexican-U. S. Defense Commn., 1948—. Decorations: Distinguished Service Medal; Silver Star; Distinguished Flying Cross with three Oak Leaf Clusters; Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster; Presidential Unit Citation with one Cluster. Residence: Bolling Field, D. C. Office: Room 2 E 844, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C.

O'DONNELL, Rev. GEORGE ANTHONY, S.J., Jesuit Scientist; born Nov. 22, 1899, South Boston, Mass.; son of George Francis and Mary Anthony (Powers) O'Donnell; educated at Boston College, A.B. 1923; Woodstock College, A.M. 1924; St. Louis Univ., Ph.D. 1935. Entered Jesuit Order, 1917; Instructor in Mathematics, Georgetown Univ., 1924-26; ordained Priest, 1929; Dean of Graduate School, Boston College, since 1935; Chairman of Mathematics Dept., since 1935. Director of Weston Seismological Observatory, 1935-40. Pres., Assn. of Jesuit Scientists, 1937-38. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Mathematical Assn.; London Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Seismological Soc. Author of numerous articles in Jesuit Science Bulletin. Address: Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

O'DONNELL, PEADAR, Irish Author; born Feb. 22, 1893, County Donegal, Ireland; son of James and Brigid (Rodgers) O'Donnell; educated at St. Patrick's College, Dublin; married Lile O'Donell, June 25, 1924. Author: Story, 1927; Islanders (in U. S., The Way It Was With Them, 1927); Adergoole, 1928; The Knife, 1929; The Gates Flew Open, 1932; The Edge of the Stream, 1934; Wrack (play), 1931. Commanding Officer, No. 2 Brigade, First Northern Division, Irish Republican Army, 1916-21. Member, Irish Acad. of Letters. Address: 176 Upper Drumcondra Rd., Dublin, Eire, Ireland.

O'DONNELL-SWEENEY, CHARLES, Irish Conductor, Composer; born May 17, 1906, Dublin, Eire; son of Patrick Emmet Sweeney and Agnes Cannon; educated at St. Joseph's, Marino; O'Connell Schools; Leinster School of Music; National Univ. of Ireland; married Katherine Mansfield, Feb., 1933; four children. Director of Music to Garda Siochana (Irish Police), Military Band and Irish Dance Orchestra, since 1930. Director of Music, Dun Laoghaire Choral and Orchestral Soc. since 1943. Adjudicator for various Music Festivals, etc. One of Arrangers of Music for British Broadcasting Corp.'s Irish Rhythms, 1938. Member: Royal Dublin Soc.; Performing Right Soc. (London); Convocation of National Univ., Ireland. Received Bach. of Music degree with Honors (1st class) and Special Exhibition from National Univ., 1928. Compositions: Two Symphonies; Serenade for Strings, Wood-wind and Horns; (orchestral ballets) The Village; Enchantment; Scorched Earth; Where the Brook and River Meet; The Miracle of the Roses; orchestral suites, and music for solo instruments; also cantata for Choir and Orch., The Fairy Ring. Residence: Ivernia, 2 Stradbrook Road, Blackrock, Co. Dublin, Eire. Office: Garda Siochána Depot, Phoenix Park, Dublin, Eire.

O'DONOGHUE, Dr. CHARLES HENRY, British Zoologist; born Sept. 23, 1885, Ampthill, Bedfordshire, England; son of Charles Henry and Mary (Clark) O'Donoghue; educated at King's College and Univ. College, Univ. of London, B.Sc. (1st class Honors), 1908, D.Sc. 1912; married Elsie Joste Smith, Nov. 24, 1912; one son. Asst. Lecturer, Univ. College, 1908; Lecturer in Zoology, until 1918. Prof. of Zoology, Univ. of Manitoba, Canada, 1918-27. Reader in Zoology, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1927-39. Prof. of Zoology, Univ. of Reading, since 1939. Director of Pacific Coast Biological Station, Nanaimo, B. C., summer, 1923. Guest Prof. at Stanford Univ., Calif., two terms, 1928. Life Member of General Com., British Assn. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Zoological Soc. of London. Author: Introduction to Zoology for Medical Students, 1920; English Edition of Sigmund's Anatomy and Development of the Phanerogams, 1922; English Edition of Sigmund's General Anatomy of the Invertebrata, 1925; also numerous papers in scientific journals. Address: The University, Reading, England.

ODQVIST, FOLKE K(ARL) G(USTAV), Swedish Engineer; born July 29, 1899, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Karl Albert and Inez (Wahlén) Odqvist; educated at Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm, Mech.Eng.; University of Stockholm, Ph.D. 1928; married Vera Traugott, Oct. 26, 1926; four children. Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, 1922; postgraduate work, University of Stockholm, 1924-25; Fellow, American-Scandinavian Foundation, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1925-26; Consulting Engineer, Electrolux Refrigerating Laboratory, Stockholm, 1926-29; Head of Laboratory, Nomy Block Bearing Co., Ltd., Stockholm, and Associate Professor, Applied Mechanics, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, 1929-36; Professor of Strength of Materials since 1936; Dean since 1943; Vice-President since 1944. Residence: Sindrevägen 10, Djursholm, Sweden. Office: Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden.

ODRIA, General MANUEL, Peruvian Army Officer, Statesman. Appointed Minister of the Interior, 1947; reappointed in Cabinet formed by Rear Admiral Roque Saldias, Oct. 1947; re-appointed Feb. 1948. Address: Ministry of the Interior, Lima, Peru.

O'DUFFY, Gen. EOIN, Irish Officer; born in Castleblayney, County Monaghan, Ireland, Oct. 30, 1892; son of Eoin and Brigid (Fealy) O'Duffy. Apprenticed to Engineering, 1909-12. District Surveyor, Monaghan County Council, 1913; Engineer and Architect, Clones Rural Council, 1915; Engineer and Architect, Cootehill Rural Council, 1916; appointed to the Institution of Municipal and County Engineers, 1918; Auctioneer and Valuator, 1919; Secretary, Ulster Surveyor's Assn., 1916-19. Joined Irish Volunteers, 1917; later held ranks of Captain, Battalion Commandant, Brigadier (1919). Appointed General, Divisions comprising Counties of Monaghan, Fermanagh, Tyrone and Derry, 1920; imprisoned 1918-20; Leader, hunger strike of Belfast Goal (260 prisoners), 1920; Chief of Staff in succession to General Mulcahy, 1921; Liaison Officer for Province of Ulster, between British and Irish Forces, from Truce to Treaty, 1921-22; G.O.C., Southern Command of the Irish National Army, 1922; General Officer, commanding the Forces in Eire, 1924-25; led Irish Brigade in Spanish Civil War, 1936-37. Appointed Brigadier General, Spanish Army, 1936. Director General, Irish National Guard, 1933; Director General, League of Youth, 1933; President, Fine Gael (Chief Government Opposition Party), 1934. President, National Corporate Party, 1934. Author: Crusade in Spain, etc. Address: "Farney," Merrion Park, Blackrock, County Dublin, Ireland.

ODUM, Dr. HOWARD WASHINGTON, American Sociologist; born May 24, 1884, Bethlehem, Walton County, Ga.; educated at Emory College, A.B. 1904; Univ. of Miss., A.M. 1906; Clark Univ., Ph.D. 1909, L.H.D. 1941; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1910; Emory Univ., LL.D. 1931; College of the Ozarks, Litt.D. 1935; Harvard Univ., LL.D. 1939. Co-principal, Toccopola (Miss.) School, 1904-05. Instructor, Univ. of Mississippi, 1905-08. Fellow, Clark Univ., 1908-09. Research Expert, Philadelphia Bureau of Municipal Research, 1910-12. Assoc. Prof., Educational Sociology, 1912-15; Prof., 1915-19; Supt. of Univ. Summer School for Teachers, Univ. of Georgia, 1916-19. Dir., Bureau of Home Service Camps and Camp Cities, Southern Division of American Red Cross, 1918; Dean, School of Liberal Arts, Emory Univ., 1919-20. Kenan Prof. of Sociol. since 1920; Dir., School of Public Welfare, Univ. of North Carolina, 1920-32; Dir., Institute for Research in Social Science, Univ. of North Carolina, 1924-44. Walker-Ames Prof., Univ. of Washington, 1942; Visiting Professor and Silliman Fellow, Yale University, 1946-47. President: Commission on Interracial Cooperation, 1937-44; Southern Regional Council, 1944-46; American Sociological Soc., 1930. Received Grant Squires Award at Columbia Univ., 1910; The Catholic Committee of the South Award, 1944; The Edward L. Bernays Award in Race Relations, 1945. Editor, Social Forces (Holt), Amer. Science Series; Univ. of North Carolina Social Study Series. Introduction to Social Research, 1929; An American Epoch, 1930; Cold Blue Moon, 1931; Southern Regions of the United States, 1936; American Regionalism, 1938; American Social Problems, 1939; American Democracy Anew, 1940; Alabama Past and Future; The States at Work, 1941; Race and Rumors of Race, 1943; The Way of the South, 1947; Understanding Society, 1947. Address: Pittsboro Rd., Chapel Hill, N. C.

O'DUNNE, Hon. EUGENE, American Jurist; born June 22, 1875, Tucson, Ariz.; son of Edmund F. and Josephine B. (Warner) O'Dunne; educated at St. Mary's College, Belmont, N. C., A.B., A.M. 1894; Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1900; married Elsie Manning Reardon, Feb. 22, 1904 (dec. Aug. 1934); four children. Asst. State's Attorney, Baltimore, 1903-10; Prof. of Medical Jurisprudence, Johns Hopkins Medical School; Prof., Criminal Law, Baltimore Univ. Assoc. Judge, Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, 1926-45. Address: 704 Cathedral St., Baltimore 1, Md.

O'DWYER, WILLIAM, Mayor, City of New York; born July 11, 1890, Bohola, County Mayo, Eire; son of Patrick and Bridget O'Dwyer; educated at St. Nathy's College, Roscommon, Eire; University of Salamanca; Fordham University (evening law school), LL.B. 1923, Hon. D.C.L. 1946; married Catherine Lenihan, Aug. 3, 1916. Came to U. S., 1910, becoming Amer. citizen, 1916. Worked as laborer; coal passer; plasterer on various big structures in New York; longshoreman; bartender. Served as patrolman, chauffeur, plainclothes man and worked in legal bureau. Police Dept., City of New York, 1917-24. Began practice of law with George J. Joyce. Appointed Magistrate by Mayor Joseph V. McKee, 1932; appointed Judge, Kings County Court by Governor Herbert H. Lehman, 1937; elected to full term of fourteen years, fall of 1938; elected District Attorney, Kings County, 1939. Democratic Candidate for Mayor of City of N. Y., 1941. Obtained leave as District Attorney to accept commission as Major, U. S. Army, Inspector General's Department; promoted through ranks to Brigadier-General. Appointed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, head of United States Section of Allied Control Commission for Italy, with personal rank of Minister, 1944; later designated Executive Director, War Refugee Board. Resigned as District Attorney, summer of 1945; elected Mayor, City of New York, Nov., 1945. Address: City Hall, New York, New York.

OECHSNER, FREDERICK CABLE, American Writer; born Nov. 26, 1902, New Orleans, La.; son of John Frederick and Kinne (Cable) Oechsner; educated at Tulane Univ., A.B., LL.B. 1925; married Olga Lane (nee Said-Ruete), June 4, 1945; one step-daughter. Foreign Correspondent, 1925-45; Central European Manager, United Press, 1932-42; Special Asst. to Maj. General Wm. J. Donovan, Director OSS, 1942-46; served with OSS in North Africa, Sicily, Egypt, United Kingdom, France, Belgium, Germany; detached by OSS as a Civilian Deputy to Brig. General Robert A. McClure, Director, Psychological Warfare Div., SHAEF, 1944; again detached by OSS upon State Dept. request to serve as Special Asst. to Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, Political Adviser to General Eisenhower, May 1945. General European News Manager, United Press, 1946. Author: This is the Enemy, 1942; Heinneman, 1943. Residence: 3812 Fulton St., N.W. Office: 1013 13th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

OECONOMOU, GEORGE, Greek Barrister-at-Law; born 1902, Corinth, Greece; son of Demetrios and Angelliki Oeconomou; educated at Univ. of Athens; married Aspassia Paparupa. Began as journalist, 1928; Barrister-at-Law, 1929; participated in judicial procedures concerning defense movement; builder of Greek Socialist Party and Natl. Defense Movement; arrested by Italian invaders; imprisoned three months; lived underground during German occupation; joined rebels for reconciliation between EDES and EAM; now General Secy., Organization of Underground Press; Member, Hoover Library on War, Revolution and Peace. Edited newspaper Socialistico Vima (underground), World War II. Residence: 3rd September No. 122. Office: Churchill St. No. 38, Athens, Greece.

OEHL, Dr. WILHELM, Swiss Philologist; born Dec. 28, 1881, Vienna, Austria; son of Leopold and Charlotte Oehl; educated at Univ. of Vienna, 1901-10, Dr. degree, 1905; married Ilse Frank, March 16, 1912; four children. Librarian, Vienna Univ., 1911; Prof. of Germanic Philology, Univ. of Fribourg, Switzerland, since 1912; Dean, Faculty of Letters, 1922-23 and 1942-43; Rector of University, 1932-33; Prof. of Anglo-Saxon Language and Literature since 1920. Member: Gralbund, Vienna; Leo Gesellschaft, Vienna. Author: Deutsche Mystiker: Seuse, 1910; Mechthild von Magdeburg, 1911; Tauler, 1919; Joh. von Kastl, 1923; Christine Ebner, 1924; Das Lallwort in der Sprachschöpfung, 1933; Fangen, Finger, Fünf, Elementarparallele Sprachschöpfung, 1933, etc. Residence: Avenue du Gambach II, Fribourg, Switzerland.

OEHLERT, BENJAMIN HILBORN, JR., American Lawyer, Business Executive; born Sept. 13, 1909, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Benjamin H. and Sarah (Landis) Oehlert; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. Econ. 1930; Univ. of Pennsylvania, LL.B. 1933; married Alice Greene, Mar. 27, 1937; two children. Practicing Attorney, Philadelphia, 1933-35; Attorney, Mexican Claims Agency, Dept. of State, Washington, D. C., 1935-38; Asst. Counsel, The Coca-Cola Co., 1938-42; Asst. to Pres., 1942-43; Vice-Pres., since 1943. Member: Philadelphia, Pa. State, Amer. and Federal Bar Assns.; Order of the Coif. Residence: 10 Gracie Square. Office: 515 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

OEHSER, PAUL HENRY, American Editor; born Mar. 27, 1904, Cherry Creek, N. Y.; son of Henry C. and Agnes (Abbey) Oehser; educated at Greenville (Ill.) College, A.B. 1925; Univ. of Iowa (journalism), 1924; American Univ., 1925-30; married Grace M. Edgbert, Oct. 4, 1927; two children. Asst. Editor, Bureau of Biological Survey (U. S. Dept. of Agriculture), 1925-31; Editor, U. S. National Museum, Smithsonian Inst., since 1931; Asst. Chief, Editorial Division, Smithsonian Inst., since Jan. 1946; Editorial Executive, Journal of Washington Acad. of Sciences, since 1939. Editor, Proceedings of Eighth Amer. Scientific Congress (12 vols., Dept. of State, 1941-43). Contributing Editor, The Scientific Monthly. Member: Amer. Ornithologists Union; Biological Soc. of Washington; Amer. Documentation Inst., etc. Contributor to many scientific and literary periodicals and newspapers. Residence: 3119 8th St., N., Arlington, Va. Office: Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

OENSLAGER, DONALD MITCHELL, American Scenic Designer; born Mar. 7, 1902, Harrisburg, Pa.; son of John and Jane (Connely) Oenslager; educated at Phillips Exeter; Harvard Univ; married Mary Osborne Polak, Mar. 17, 1937. Assoc. Prof. of Scenic Design, Yale Univ., since 1925. Designed more than 150 productions for New York theatres (operas, ballets, musicals, dramas), including "The New Moon"; "Girl Crazy"; "Anything Goes"; "I'd Rather Be Right"; "Overture"; "Jezebel"; "The Farmer Takes a Wife"; "First Lady"; "Doctor's Dilemma"; "You Can't Take It With You"; "The American Way"; "My Sister Eileen"; "Claudia"; "Tristan und Isolde" (for Philadelphia Orchestra); "Rosenkavalier"; "Salome"; "Amelia Goes to the Ball"; Otello" (Metropolitan Opera Assn.); "Pygmalion"; "Born Yesterday"; "Three to Make Ready"; "On Whitman Avenue". Pres., Board of Directors, Neighborhood Playhouse School of Theatre. Member: Advisory Board of Theatre Dept. of Museum of Modern Art; Amer. Inst. of Decorators; Municipal Art Com.; Board of Directors of Inst. of Design. Awards: Sachs Fine Arts Travelling Fellowship; American School of Design "Scroll of Honor". Author: Scenery, Then and Now, 1938; Theatre of Bali, 1941. Officer, Air Corps, U. S. Army, 1942-45 (Camouflage and Intelligence); discharged as Major. Residence: 1010 Fifth Ave., New York 23. Office: Times Building, 1475 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

OERSTED, Dr. HANS-CHRISTIAN, Danish Employers Representative; born

July 25, 1876, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of Albert Nicolai and Pauline (Broendum) Oersted; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, Dr. of Law, 1903; married Maria Haugaard, Feb. 15, 1919. Secy., Maritime and Commercial Court, Copenhagen, 1903; Deputy Judge, Elsinore, 1905; Pres., Tax Control Council, Elsinore Dist., 1912-18. Pres., Elsinore Child Welfare Com., 1912-18; Pres., Com., Hornbaek-Gilleleje Railway, 1911-15; Representative, Elsinore-Hornbaek Gilleleji Railway, Ministry of Finance, 1916-18. Chief of Section, Danish Employers' Confederation, 1918-22; Director, Confédérations Patronales des Quatre Pays du Nord, Brussels, 1922; Alternate Member, Governing Body, International Labor Office, 1922, Member, since 1931, Vice-Pres., 1931-44. Pres., International Employers' Organisation, Executive Com., since 1928. Pres., Employers Group, International Labor Conference, 1928-39 and since 1945. Delegate of Danish, Finnish, Swedish and Norwegian Employers' Confederations to International Labor Organisation; Delegate, Danish Employers' Federation, International Labor Conf., since 1922. Member, U. N. International Advisory Com. on Appeal for Children. Member: Permanent Com., Employers' Confederations of Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden; Hon. Com. of Patronage, Société Belge d'Etudes et d'Expansion. Decorated Knight-Commander, Danish Dannebrog Order; Commander, Legion of Honor (France); Knight Commander, Swedish Vasa Order; Knight Commander, Belgian Order of Leopold. Address: 51 Vestre Boulevard, Copenhagen, Denmark.

OESCH, Lieut.-Gen. KARL LENNART, Finnish Army Officer; born Aug. 8, 1892, Pyhäjärvi, Finland; son of Christian and Anna (Stegmann) Oesch; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, 1911-14; studied at Staff College, in France, 1923-26; married Aitanga Niskanen, 1919; one son and one daughter. Joined 27th Jaeger Battalion, German Army, 1915, and in 1918 commanded a Jaeger Battalion in Finland's War of Independence; promoted to Col., 1925, Major-General, 1930 and Lieutenant-General, 1936. Commander of Infantry Regiment, 1921-23; Director of Staff College, 1926-29; Commander, 1st Division, 1929-30; Chief, General Staff, 1930-40; Commander of various Army Corps, 1940-45. Retired Sept. 10, 1945; sentenced to prison (12 years), on July 19, 1946, as a result of charges by Russian Military Officers. Residence: Laivurinkatu 43 A. Office: Korkeavuorenkatu 21, Helsinki, Finland.

OESCHGER, ALFRED, Swiss Architect; born Jan. 26, 1900, Basle, Switzerland; son of Edward and Hulda (Reuter) Oeschger; educated at Technical School, Burgdorf (diploma 1918); Technical College, Munich, 1924; married Ria Hoeckh, 1938; two sons. Architect, maintaining office at Zurich, since 1927. Won 1st Prize in Swiss Competition for new building of Swiss National Library, 1927; College Building "Kappeli" for City of Zurich, 1932; office building, Swiss Life Insurance, 1933. Member of Architectural Com. for construction of Swiss National Exhibition, 1939; won 1st Prize in competition for Cantonal Training College for Governesses and College for Ladies, Aarau, 1940. Designed: plans for health resort, Interlaken, 1943-44; additional buildings to Federal Technical College, Zurich, 1947; Intercontinental Airport, Kloten-Zurich (with brother Heinrich Oeschger); plans for various colleges, bank houses, hospitals, churches, etc. Member: Swiss Soc. of Engineers and Architects. Residence: Restelbergstrasse 26, Zurich 7. Office: Voltastrasse 31, Zurich 7, Switzerland.

OESTERBERG, SVEN ERIK, Swedish Consultant in Economic and Administrative Affairs; born Oct. 1, 1892, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Augustus and Malvina (Johansson) Oesterberg; educated at Stockholm University, 1914; married Karin Widman, May 31, 1918; two children. Began career, 1914, with Royal Board of Trade, becoming Chief of Division, 1929. Secretary of Committee, Swedish Parliament, 1930; Minister without Portfolio (Statsrad), 1930; Secretary of State, Swedish Ministry of Commerce, 1931-32. Received hon. title, "Kommerseråd," 1933. Decorated Knight, Swedish Vasa Order; Commander, 2nd class, Swedish North Star Order, 1st class, Finnish White Rose Order; Grand Officer, Roumanian Star Order. Residence: Karlaplan 18. Office: Kungsgatan 24, Stockholm, Sweden.

OESTERLEY, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM OSCAR EMIL, British Theologian and Educator; born 1866, Calcutta, India; son of Emil and Harty (Thimb) Oesterley; educated at Brighton College; Jesus College; Cambridge Univ.; Wells Theological College, B.A., M.A., B.D., D.D., Litt.D.; married Fanny Mabel Page, June 23, 1893; two daughters. City clerk in merchant's office. Prof. of Hebrew, King's College, Univ. of London; Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral since 1936; Rector of St. Mary Aldermary. Author of some 33 books. Address: St. Mary Aldermary, Queen Victoria St., London, E.C. 4, England.

OESTREICHER, JOHN CAHILL, American Editor; born Sept. 22, 1905, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Walter M. and Kathleen E. (Cahill) Oestreicher; educated at Columbia Univ., Class of 1927; married Zazelle E. Murphy, Nov. 4, 1927; two sons. Reporter, Brooklyn (N. Y.) Daily Times, 1919; Motion Picture Editor, 1920-24. Joined International News Service, 1925; London Correspondent, 1927-29; Cable Editor, New York Headquarters, 1930-33; News Editor, 1933-34; Director of Foreign Service, 1934—. Member: Foreign Press Assn. (New York); Assn. of Amer. Correspondents in London; Natl. Headliners' Club; Anglo-American Press Club (Paris and Rome). Author: The World Is Their Beat (awarded Silver Medal by Natl. Headliners as best non-fiction book by a working newspaperman), 1946; also numerous magazine articles. Residence: 167 Clinton Ave., New Rochelle, N. Y. Office: International News Service, 235 E. 45th St., New York 17, N. Y.

OETTINGER, Dr. HANS, Swiss Jurist; born Oct. 21, 1883, Basle, Switzerland; son of Max and Amalia (Gunz) Oettinger; educated at Humanistic Gymnasium, Basle; Univs. of Heidelberg, Berlin and Basle; J.D. (Basle), 1913; married Gertrud Burckhardt, 1916; one son. Substitute, Criminal Court, Basle, 1915; First Public Prosecutor, 1923; Pres. of the Court, Canton Basle-Villa, since 1932. Author: Anklagetätigkeit des Privaten im Strafprozess, 1914; ABC des Schweizerischen Strafgesetzbuches, 1941; Alphabetische Fibel zur neuen Strafprozess-Ordnung, 1932-38; Dennoch (poetry), 1943. Residence: 71 Hirzbrunnenschanze, Basle, Switzerland. Office: 5 Bäumleingasse, Basle, Switzerland.

O'FAOLAIN, SEAN, Irish Author; born Feb. 22, 1900, Cork, Eire; son of Denis Whelan and Bridget Murphy; educated at Natl. Univ., Ireland, M.A.; Harvard Univ., A.M.; married Eileen Gould, 1928; two children. Author: Biographies of Constance Markievicz, 1934; Daniel O'Connell (The King of the Beggars), 1937; The Great O'Neill, Earl of Tyrone, 1943; De Valera; A Nest of Simple Folk; Come Back to Erin; Bird Alone; and numerous short stories. Address: Knockaderry, Killiney, Dublin, Eire, Ireland.

O'FARRELL, JOHN THOMAS, Irish Trade Union Leader; born Dec. 3, 1888, Churchboro, County of Roscommon; son of Thomas and Mary (Molloy) O'Farrell; educated at Natl. Schools, Fortaugustus; Secondary Schools in Castlerea; Rathmines School of Commerce; Trinity College (Post Graduate), Dublin; married Anne Leonard, Sept. 11, 1917; two children. Railway Clerk, 1908. Elected to first Irish Senate, 1922, and re-elected 1925. Leader, Labour Party in Senate, 1922-36; Pres., Trade Union Congress, 1927. Appointed to Com. of Transport Experts, 1919; Standing Advocate for Labour before Railways Wage Board, 1924. Represented Ireland at Inter-Parliamentary Conferences in Berne, 1924; Paris, 1927; Berlin 1928, and London, 1930; represented Ireland at Inter-Commonwealth Relations Conference, Sydney, 1938. Vice-Pres., Irish Inst. of Internatl. Affairs since 1939; Irish Secy., Railway Clerks' Assn., since 1918. Director, Workers' Educational Assn., 1924-27. Contributed articles on various subjects to newspapers and magazines. Residence: 10 Willowbrook Rd., Rathfarnham, Dublin, Ireland. Office: 23 Upper O'Connell St., Dublin, Ireland.

O'FERRALL, Rt. Rev. RONALD STANHOPE MORE, Assistant Bishop of Derby, England; born Sept. 11, 1890, Lincoln, England; son of James Eaton and Sarah Longsdon (Shaw) O'Ferrall; educated at Charterhouse; Trinity College, Cambridge; Ely Theological College; B.A., M.A., D.D.; married Ann Molesworth Kindersley, 1934; two children. Ordained Deacon, 1914; Priest, 1915; consecrated Bishop, Westminster Abbey, 1926. Asst. Curate, Chesterfield Parish Church, 1914-18; with Church Army, Egyptian Expeditionary Force, 1918-19; Housemaster, St. George's School, Jerusalem, and on staff of Cathedral, 1919-23; Mission Priest, U.M.C.A., 1923-26; Bishop in Madagascar, 1926-40; Rector of Walton-on-Trent, Derby, 1940-44; Asst. Bishop of Derby, and Canon of Cathedral, since 1941; Vicar of Repton and Foremarke, and Divinity Master at Repton School, since 1944. Address: Repton Vicarage, Derby, England.

OFFICER, Major FRANK KEITH, M.C., O.B.E., Australian Diplomat; born Oct. 20, 1889, Melbourne, Aust.; son of F. S. and Ethel Narretti (Umphelby) Officer; educated at Ormond College, 1908-11; Univ. of Melbourne, LL.B. 1912. Served with AIF in 1st World War. Political Officer, Nigeria, 1919-25; with Australian Dept. of External Affairs since 1927; External Affairs Officer in London, 1933-37; Counsellor, British Embassy, Washington, D. C., 1937-40; Counsellor, Australian Legation, Washintgon, D. C., 1940, and Tokyo, 1940-41; Chargé d'Affaires in Japan, 1941, U.S.S.R. 1943, and China, 1944-45; Minister in S. E. Asia, 1946; Minister to Netherlands, since 1946. Attended League of Nations Assembly, 1928, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936; League of Nations Council, 1933-36; Montreux Conference, 1936; Paris Peace Conf., 1946. Address: Australian Legation, The Hague, Netherlands.

OFFNER, Dr. RICHARD, American Art Historian; born in Vienna, Austria, June 30, 1889; son of Bernard and Antonia (Schmeidler) Offner; educated at Harvard, 1909-12; Fellow of Amer. Acad. in Rome, 1912-14; Ph.D., Univ. of Vienna, 1914; Sachs Fellow, Harvard, 1920-22; married Philippa Gerry Whiting, May 25, 1940; two children. Prof. of History of Fine Arts, New York Univ., since 1923. Author: Studies in Florentine Painting, 1927; Italian Primitives at Yale Univ., 1927; The Works of Bernardo Daddi, 1930; A Corpus of Florentine Painting, Sec. III, Vols. I-IV, 1930-34; The Barberini Panels and Their Painter (in Medieval Studies in Memory of A. Kingsley Porter), 1939; also articles in Dial, Art in America, Burlington Mag., Dedalo, L'Arte, Bolletino d'Arte. 2nd Lieut., Camp Gordon, Ga., 1918. Address: Institute of Fine Arts, 17 E. 80th St., New York, N. Y.

OFFOR, Dr. RICHARD, British Librarian; born May 12, 1882, London; son of Henry and Margaret (Ashby) Offor; educated at Univ. College, London; B.A. 1914, Ph.D. 1926; married Eveline Butters, Aug. 11, 1917. Library Asst., Univ. College, London, 1901; Asst. Librarian, 1910. Librarian, Univ. of Leeds, 1919-47. Keeper of Brotherton Collection, Univ. of Leeds, 1938-47. Library Adviser to Inter-Univ. Council for Higher Education Colonies, 1947—. Member: Library Assn. of Great Britain (Vice-Pres. and Member of Council); Brontë Soc. (Member of Council); Leeds Philosophical and Literary Soc.; Thoresby Soc., Leeds (Pres.). Fellow, Univ. College, London. Author: An Anglo-French Collection in the University Library, Leeds, 9 parts, 1925-47; The Papers of Benjamin Gott in the Library University of Leeds, 1931; United States and Canada: Buildings, 1938; Guide to the Library of the University of Leeds, 1947. Residence: Sunnyside, 2 Weetwood Grange Grove, Leeds 6, Yorkshire, England.

OFFROY, Dr. MARIE-RAYMOND, French Government Official; born May 3, 1909, Paris, France; son of George Eugène Robert and Marie-Marguerite (Bernier) Offroy; grandson of Jules Offroy, President of Chambre Syndicale des Banquiers de Paris; educated at University of Paris (Faculté de Droit, LL.D. 1934, Faculté des Lettres, License ès Lettres, 1936); École Libre des Sciences Politiques (Diploma de l'École, Finances Privées), 1929; married Geneviève Marie Antoinette Saint-Fort-Paillard, Aug. 5, 1929; three children. Began diplomatic career, 1937. Acting Third Secy., 1938; Second Secy., 1940; Acting Consul General, 1941; Acting Counsellor of Embassy, 1942, and First Secy., 1943; Second Counsellor, 1945; First Counsellor, 1947; at Bucharest, 1937; Athens, 1940, and Salonika, 1941. Joined Free French, May, 1941; Head, Administrative Dept., Free French Foreign Affairs, London, Oct. 1941; Representative of French National Committee to Interallied War Crimes Commission, London; Diplomatic "Porte-Parole" of French National Committee to British Broadcasting Corporation; Representative, French National Committee, Netherlands Government, May, 1942; Diplomatic Assistant to General Catroux in his mission to General Giraud in Algiers, Feb. 1943. Deputy Secretary to French Committee of National Liberation, Algiers, June, 1943. Deputy Secretary, Provisional Government of French Republic, June, 1944; also Secretary General ad interim, Economic Committee. Head, Press Department of French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris, since Oct. 1944. Member of French Delegation: United Nations Organization Conf., San Francisco, 1945; Conf. of Foreign Ministers, London, 1945; U. N. Conf., London, 1946; Conf. of Foreign Ministers, Paris, and Paris Peace Conf., 1946; U. N. General Assembly, New York, 1946; Conf. of Foreign Ministers, Moscow, 1947. Author of Le Problème de l'eau en Syrie, 1935; In the Service of the Enemy, 1941; The Greeks Turn the Tide, 1942, and La France Combattante à l'Étranger, 1943. Address: 37 Quai d'Orsay, Paris, 7e, France.

O'FLAHERTY, LIAM, Irish Author; born 1896. Author: The Neighbour's Wife, 1924; The Black Soul, 1925; The Informer, 1925; The Child of God, 1926; Spring Sowing, 1926; Mr. Gilhooley, 1927; The Fairy Goose and Two Other Stories, 1927; The Life of Tim Healy, 1927; The Assassin, 1928; Red Barbara and Other Stories, 1928; The Mountain Tavern and Other Stories, 1929; The House of Gold, 1929; Joseph Conrad (an Appreciation), 1930; Return of the Brute, 1929; Two Years, 1930; I Went to Russia, 1931; The Wild Swan and Other Stories, 1932; The Puritan, 1932; Skerrett, 1932; The Martyr, 1933; Hollywood Cemetery, 1935; The Short Stories of Liam O'Flaherty, 1937; Famine, 1937; Land, 1946, etc. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y.

O'FLAHERTY, SIDNEY WAINMAN, Australian Senator; born July 2, 1886, Silverton, N. S. W.; son of Michael Joseph O'Flaherty; educated at Thebarton public school; married; eight children. Member, House of Assembly, South Australia, 1918-21. Secy., Miscellaneous Workers Union, S. Australia, 1935-44. Pres., Australian Labor Party, S. Australia, 1942-43. Senator of S. Australia. Residence: 1 Chapel St., Thebarton. Office: Parliament House, Adelaide, S. Australia.

OFNER, Dr. ALFRED, Hungarian Parliament Member; born 1901, Leszenye, Hungary; son of Oscar and Rosalie (Herzfeld) Ofner; obtained Dr. of Technology degree, 1928; married Maria Nagy, Oct. 30, 1937; one son—John. Founder, Chemical Works Gerö & Dr. Ofner; now Senior Partner and Technical Chief; also Technical Chief and Director of Fatty Alcohol Works, since 1937. Joined Independent Smallholders' Party, 1943; Member of Magistrate, Ujpest, 1945; Member of Magistrates, of Pesth. Elected to Hungarian Parliament, 1945 (Member of Economic and Finance Com.). Participated in resistance movement. Pres., Hungarian Football Assn.; Ujpest Football Assn. Awarded Medal, Hungarian Order of Liberty. Residence: Aldás ut. 14, Budapest II. Office: Váci ut. 71, Ujpest, Hungary.

OFTEDAL, CHRISTIAN STEPHANSEN, Norwegian Editor; born Jan. 14, 1907, Stavanger, Norway; son of Lars and Alice (Stephansen) Oftedal; educated at Geneva (Switzerland), Poitiers (France) and Oslo Universities; cand.mag. 1931; married Anne Louise Thomsen, Aug. 13, 1932; three children. Editor-in-Chief, Stavanger Aftenblad, since 1932. Member of Storting (Parliament) since 1945. Member of Nobel Peace Prize Com., since 1945. Author: I skyggen av et tukthus, 1945; Verden er ny, 1946; Tvers over Atlanteken, 1947. Residence: Lille Borgenvei 14, V. Aker, Norway. Office: Stortinget, Oslo, Norway.

OFTEDAL, SVEN N., Norwegian Journalist; born Mar. 20, 1898, Sandnes, Norway; son of Nils and Martha (Kyllingstad) Oftedal; educated at Norway's Inst. of Technology; Oslo Univ.; married Louise Hautau, Oct. 23, 1927; one son. Asst. Night Editor, Aftenposten, Oslo, 1919; journalist, Oslo daily Folket, 1919; correspondent for three provincial newspapers, Oslo, 1920; with Stavanger Aftenblad, 1921; City Editor, then Managing Editor, Stavanger Aftenblad, 1927; Editor-in-Chief, 1940; ousted by German SS and escaped to England, 1941. Press Rept., Norwegian Govt., Canada, 1941; Director, Norwegian Information Services, New York, since 1946. Member and Chairman: Stavanger Presseforening; Stavanger Journalistforening; Executive Com., Norwegian Newspapermen's Assn. Residence: 25 Overlook Pl., Rye, N. Y. Office: Room 1826, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y.

OFTINGER, Prof. CHARLES, Swiss Professor of Law; born Aug. 8, 1909, Berne, Switzerland; son of Charles and Rosalie (Reinhard) Oftinger; educated at Univ. of Berne, LL.D. 1932; Univ. of Paris; studied also in Rome and London; married Anneliese Woertz, 1941; one daughter. Lawyer, 1934; Lecturer, Univ. of Zurich, 1936; Extraordinary Prof., 1942; Prof. of Law since 1944; Dean, Law Faculty, 1946. Member, Swiss Soc. of Jurists. Author: Trödelvertrag, 1937; Gesetzgeberische Eingriffe in das Zivilrecht, 1938; Schweizerisches Haftpflichtrecht, 1940-42, 2 vols.; Von Handwerkzeug der juristischen Schriftstellerei, 1944. Address: Resedastrasse 26, Zurich, Switzerland.

ÖFVERHOLM, IVAN AUGUST, Swedish Consulting Engineer; born June 20, 1874, Stockholm, Sweden; son of August Fredrick and Ida (Friberg) Öfverholm; educated at Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1896; married Köro Maria Hallström, Aug. 31, 1904; five children. Electrical engineer, Asea (Swedish Gen. Elec. Co.), Västerås, 1896; with General Elec. Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 1899-1900, and then returned to Asea in Västerås until 1904. Appointed Electrical Engineer, Electrification Dept., Swedish State Railways, Stockholm, 1904; Chief of the department, 1909; Chief Electrical Engineer, 1915; retired 1939. Consulting Engineer for the electrification of three private railways for Norwegian Government, 1916, and adviser to the English Ministry of Transport, 1920. Honorary Member, Swedish Royal Academy of Scientific and Industrial Research; Life Member, Swedish Engineering Society; Life Member, American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Member, International Railway Assn. in Europe. Recipient of Grand Golden Medal, Swedish Royal Academy of Scientific and Industrial Research, 1944. Address: Stocksund, Sweden.

O'GARA, CUTHBERT MARTIN, Titular Bishop of Elis; Vicar Apostolic of Yüanling; born Apr. 1, 1886, Ottawa, Canada; son of Martin and Margaret (Bowes) O'Gara; educated at Ottawa University, A.B. 1910; Grand Seminary, Montreal, 1910-13. Entered Passionist Congregation, 1913; ordained Priest, 1915. Professor of Sacred Theology, 1917; went to China as Missionary, 1924; Vicar General, Vicariate of Yüanling, 1925-29; appointed Prefect Apostolic of Yüanling, 1930. Consecrated Bishop in Hankow, Oct. 28, 1934. Received hon. LL.D. from University of Ottawa, 1936. Residence: Catholic Mission, Yüanling, Hunan, China. Office: St. Michael's Monastery, 1901 West St., Union City, N. J.

OGBURN, Dr. WILLIAM FIELDING, American Sociologist; born June 29, 1886, Butler, Ga.; educated at Mercer Univ., Ga., B.S. 1905, LL.D. 1932; Columbia Univ., A.M. 1909, Ph.D. 1912. Asst. Principal, Darlington School, 1906-08; Instructor, Economics, Politics and History, Princeton Univ., 1911-12. Prof., Sociology and Economics, Reed College, 1912-17; Prof., Sociology, Univ. of Washington, 1917-18. Examiner and Head of Cost of Living Dept., National War Labor Board, 1918-19; Special Agent, U. S. Bureau Labor Statistics, 1919. Prof., Sociology, Columbia Univ., 1919-27; Univ. of Chicago, 1927-33; Sewell L. Avery Distinguished Service Professor of Sociology, Univ. of Chicago, since 1933. Chmn., Dept. of Sociology, Univ. of Chicago, Dir. of Research, President's Research Committee on Social Trends, 1930-33. Chairman of Trustees, Institute for Psychoanalysis. Fellow, Amer. Statistics Assn. (Pres., 1931); Amer. Sociol. Soc. (Pres., 1929); Social Science Research Council (Chmn., 1937-39); Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Editor: Journal of American Statis. Assn., 1920-26; Recent Social Changes, 1933; Technological Trends and National Policy, 1937; American Society in Wartime, 1943. Contributing or Associate Editor: American Journal of Sociology, Social Forces. Author: Progress and Uniformity in Child Labor Legislation, 1912; Minimum Wage and the Increased Cost of Living, 1918; Social Change, 1922; The Social Sciences, 1927; American Marriage and Family Relationships, 1928; Economic Development of Postwar France, 1929; You and Machines, 1935; Social Characteristics of Cities, 1937. Co-author: Sociology, 1940; The Social Effects of Aviation, 1946. Address: 1126 E. 59th St., Chicago 37, Ill.

OGDEN, Prof. JAMES MATLOCK, American Law Educator; born April 5, 1870, Danville, Ind.; son of Jesse Switzer and Mary Ann (Carter) Ogden; educated at Central Normal College, 1890; DePauw Univ., Ph.B. 1894; Harvard, LL.B. 1899; married Bess Dean, Nov. 11, 1903; three children. Rural Teacher, 1890-91; Principal of Kendalville High School, 1894-96; began his career as a lawyer in 1899; Lecturer of Indiana Law School, 1900-21, and since 1933; President of Indiana Law School, 1936-44. Professor of Law, Indiana University School of Law, since 1944. He served as City Attorney for Indianapolis, 1922-24; City Corporation Counsel, 1924-26; Attorney General of Indiana, 1929-33, and Supervisor, Compilation of Ordinances of City of Indianapolis; President of National Assn. of Attorney-Generals, 1933, and of International Assn., 1933-34. He is a Member of the Alumni Board of DePauw Univ. (President, 1918), and a Trustee since 1911; Trustee, Indianapolis Y.M.C.A.; Member of the Indiana State Committee (1929). He is a Member of the American Bar Association (General Council, 1931-35, and Vice-President, 1935); Indiana State Bar Association (President, 1929-30), and Indianapolis Bar Association (President, 1926). Publications: Ogden's Negotiable Instrument's, 1909, 1922, 1931, 1938; Ogden's Manual, 1918, 1931; Attorneys' Fees on Negotiable Instruments, 1942. During World War I he served as Chairman of the Personnel Board of the Y.M.C.A. Residence: 2801 N. Pennsylvania. Office: 1346 N. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Ind.

OGDEN, Dr. ROBERT MORRIS, American Psychologist; born in Binghamton, N. Y., July 6, 1877; educated at Cornell Univ., B.S. 1901; Univ. of Wuerzburg, Germany, Ph.D. 1903. Assistant Prof. of Philosophy and Psychology, Univ. of Tenn., 1905-07; Assoc. Prof., 1907-09; Prof., 1909-14. Professor of Psychology, Univ. of Kansas, 1914-16; Professor of Education, Cornell, 1916-39; Prof. of Psychology since 1939; Emeritus, 1945; Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, 1923-45. Cooperative Editor, Psychological Bulletin, 1909-29. Cooperative Editor, Amer. Journal of Psychology since 1926. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Vice-Pres., Section I, 1936). Member: Amer. Psychol. Assn. (Secy.-Treas., 1913-16, Council, 1918-20); Southern Soc. of Philosophy and Psychology (Pres., 1912-13), etc. Author: An Introduction to General Psychology, 1914; Hearing, 1924; Psychology and Education, 1926 (new edition with F. S. Freeman, 1932; The Psychology of Art, 1938, etc. Translator (with Max Meyer): The Problem of Form in Painting and Sculpture (by Adolf Hildebrand), 1907; The Growth of the Mind (by Kurt Koffka), 1924. Address: 215 Dearborn Pl., Ithaca, New York.

OGDEN, SQUIRE REDMON, American Lawyer; born Sept. 9, 1898, Winchester, Ky.; son of William Baldwin and Margaret Stella (Redmon) Ogden; educated at Georgetown College, A.B. 1920; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1923; married Jean Hollingsworth Stewart, June 2, 1934; three children. Assoc., Bruce, Bullitt, Gordon & Laurent, 1923. Partner: Gordon, Laurent & Ogden, 1926-30; Gordon, Laurent, Ogden & Galphin, 1930-40; Ogden, Galphin, Tarrant & Street, Louisville, Ky., since 1940. Member: Louisville, Kentucky State, Amer. Bar Assns.; Amer. Law Inst. Address: 612 Marion E. Taylor Bldg., Louisville, Ky.

OGG, Dr. FREDERIC A., American Political Scientist; born Feb. 8, 1878, Solsberry, Ind.; educated at DePauw Univ., Ph.B. 1899, LL.D. 1928; Indiana Univ., A.M. 1900; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1904, Ph.D. 1908. Asst. and Assoc. Prof. of History, Simmons College, 1909-14; Prof. of Political Science, Univ. of Wisconsin, since 1914. Dir. of Survey of Research for American Council of Learned Societies, 1926-28; Vice-Pres., Amer. Council of Learned Societies, 1946-47. Secy.-Treas., Amer. Polit. Science Assn., 1917-25; Pres., 1941. Mng. Editor, Amer. Polit. Science Review, since 1926. Author: The Governments of Europe, 1913; Life of Daniel Webster, 1914; Economic Development of Europe, 1917; National Progress, 1907-17, 1918; The Old Northwest, 1919; The Reign of Andrew Jackson, 1919; European Governments and Politics, 1939; Introduction to American Government, 1942; English Government and Politics, 1936. Address: University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

OGG, Dr. WILLIAM GAMMIE, British Chemist; born Nov. 2, 1891, Aberdeenshire, Scotland; educated at Robert Gordon's College, Aberdeen; Aberdeen Univ., M.A., B.Sc.; Cambridge Univ., Ph.D. Chemist, H.M. Explosives Factory, Oldbury, 1914-16; Chief Chemist and Works Manager, H.M. Factory, Greetland, 1916-18. Research Fellow, Board of Agriculture for Scotland, in Canada and U. S., 1919-20; Researcher, Christ's College, Cambridge, 1920-24; Advisory Officer in Soils, Edinburgh and East of Scotland College of Agriculture, 1924-30; Director, Macaulay Inst. for Soil Research, Aberdeen, 1930-43; Research Lecturer on Soil Science, Aberdeen Univ.; Director, Rothamsted Experimental Station, since 1943. Council Member, Macaulay Inst. for Soil Research; Consultant Director, Imperial Bureau of Soil Science. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Chemical Soc. Author of publications on soil science; edited collected papers of Macaulay Inst., 1938; revised parts I and II of Sir Daniel Hall's book, The Feeding of Crops and Stock. Address: Rothamsted Experimental Station, Harpenden, Herts., England.

OGILVIE, Prof. ALAN GRANT, O.B.E., British Geographer; born 1887, Edinburgh; educated at George Watson's College, Edinburgh; Westminster School; Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1909, M.A., B.Sc.; Geographical Inst., Univ. of Berlin; Imperial College of Science, London; Sorbonne, Paris; married Evelyn Decima Willes, 1919. Junior Demonstrator in Geography, Univ. of Oxford, 1912-14. Chief of Hispanic Amer. Division, Amer. Geographical Soc., New York, 1920-23. Prof. of Geography, Univ. of Edinburgh, 1931—. Awarded Milne-Edwards Medal, Paris Geographical Soc., 1923; Research Medal, Royal Scottish Geographical Soc., 1945. Fellow, Royal Soc., Edinburgh. Hon. Fellow, Royal Scottish Geographical Soc. (Hon. Secy., 1925-41; Pres., 1946). Author of numerous works on geographical subjects. Address: 40 Fountainhall Road, Edinburgh 9, Scotland.

OGILVIE, Hon. ERIC JAMES, Australian Industrial Registrar; born Oct. 9, 1892, Hobart; son of James and Katharine (McGee) Ogilvie; educated at Queen's College; St. Virgil's College, Hobart; St. Patrick's College, Ballarat, Victoria; Law School, Hobart Univ.; married Lucy Ellen Coghlan, Oct. 2, 1936; three children. Began career as Law Clerk, 1911. Member, House of Assembly for Wilmot, Tasmania, 1928-40; Attorney-General, Minister for Education, and Minister controlling Inland and Deep Sea Fisheries and Game, Tasmania, 1934-40; Minister for Forestry, 1934. Organiser, New State Govt. Industrial Dept., Officer-in-charge, Federal Dept. Labour & Natl. Service for Tasmania, 1940; Commnr., Tasmanian Supreme Court; J.P. for all Australian States. Author of monthly industrial bulletin; also various pamphlets on political and monetary reform. Member: Federal Australian Labour Party Executive, and all Federal Confs.; Tasmanian Govt. Public Works Com. Residence: 1 Bedford St., Newtown. Office: Court Bldgs., Hobart, Tasmania.

OGILVIE, Sir FREDERICK WOLFF, British Educator; born February 7, 1893, Valparaiso, Chile; son of William Maxwell Ogilvie; educated at Clifton College, England, 1906-11; Balliol College, Oxford, 1911-14 and 1919; married Mary Helen Macaulay, Sept. 12, 1922; three children. Fellow, Trinity College, Oxford, 1920-26. Professor of Political Economy, University of Edinburgh, 1926-34; President and Vice-Chancellor, Queen's University of Belfast, 1934-38. Director-General, British Broadcasting Corp., 1938-42. Principal, Jesus College, Oxford, since 1944. Fellow, Royal Society of Edinburgh. Member, Royal Irish Academy. Received Hon. LL.D. from Dublin, 1938; LL.D. from Belfast in 1939; Knighthood, 1942. Author: The Tourist Movement, 1933, etc. During First World War served in the British Army, 1914-19. Address: Principal's Lodgings, Jesus College, Oxford, England.

OGILVIE, NOEL JOHN, Canadian Geodetist; born Oct. 13, 1880, Hull, Que., Canada; son of John Charles and Charlotte Amelia (Holt) Ogilvie; special training in mathematics, surveying and astronomy, D.L.S.; married Gladys Alice Louise Wallace, Dec. 24, 1907; five children. In charge of survey in British Columbia, Internatl. Boundary Survey, 49th parallel of North Latitude, 1904-06; H. B. M. Boundary Commnr.'s Rept. on inspection of survey of 49th Parallel from Pacific Ocean to summit of the Rockies, 1907-08; in charge of survey, Internatl. Boundary from Mount St. Elias to Dixon Entrance, 1909-14; Asst. Director, Geodetic Survey of Canada, 1914; in charge of Geodetic Survey of British Columbia Coast, 1915-17. Director of Geodetic Survey of Canada, since 1917. His Britannic Majesty's Internatl. Boundary Commnr., since 1931. Chairman, Section of Geodesy, Natl. Com. of Canada, Internatl. Geodetic and Geophysical Union, since 1923; Chairman, Natl. Com. of Canada, Geodetic and Geophysical Union, since 1925. Canadian representative at General Conferences of Internatl. Geodetic and Geophysical Union: 2nd, Madrid, 1924; 4th, Stockholm, 1930; 5th, Lisbon, 1933; 6th, Edinburgh, 1936; 7th, Washington, 1939. Chairman, Section Com. on Geography and Geodesy, 5th Pacific Science Congress, Victoria and Vancouver, 1933. Fellow, Canadian Geographic Soc. Member: Engineering Inst. of Canada; Royal Astronomical Soc. of Canada; Canadian Inst. of Surveying; Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; Soc. of Amer. Military Engineers. Address: Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

OGILVIE-FORBES, Sir GEORGE ARTHUR DROSTAN, K.C.M.G., British Ambassador to Venezuela; born Dec. 6, 1891, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of John and Christine Mary (Vaughan) Ogilvie-Forbes; educated at Beaumont College and New College, Oxford, B.A. 1913, M.A. 1920; University of Bonn, 1910; married Clare Mary Hunter, Feb. 21, 1921; two children. Began career in the Diplomatic Service, Feb. 1919; served in Stockholm, Copenhagen, Foreign Office, Mexico, etc., and was Chargé d'Affaires of Vatican, 1930. Counsellor of Embassy in Bagdad, 1932; and Counsellor and Chargé d'affaires in Madrid, 1935, Berlin, 1937, Oslo, 1939; Minister to Cuba, 1940; Ambassador to Venezuela, since 1944. During World War I served as Capt. of Scottish Horse Yeomanry. Was in Gallipoli; Aide de Camp to Lt. Gen. Sir F. S. Maude, Mesopotamia, 1916-17, later General Staff Officer. Mentioned in Despatches and received 1914-15 Star. Residence: Boyndlie, Fraserburgh, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. Office: British Embassy, Caracas, Venezuela.

OGLEBAY, CRISPIN, American Industrialist; born Oct. 10, 1876, Wheeling, W. Va.; son of James H. and Annie D. (List) Oglebay; educated at Yale, A.B. 1900; LL.D. Bethany College, 1941, and W. Va. Univ., 1942. Began as clerk in the Kansas City, Mo., office of The Swift Packing Co. in 1900, and worked as shipping clerk for J. G. Peppard Seed Co., Kansas City, Mo., 1901-03. He was elected Secretary of The Hoffman Hinge & Foundry Co., Cleveland, Ohio, in 1903, and when this organization became the Ferro Machine & Foundry Co. in 1906, was President until 1920, and Chmn. of Board, 1920-46. President of Oglebay, Norton & Co., 1924—. President and Director of Atwater Dock Co., Bristol Equipment Co., Brule Smokeless Coal Co., Columbia Transportation Co., Fairport Machine Shop, Inc., Fortune Lake Mining Co., E. W. Oglebay Co., Toledo, Lorain and Fairport Dock Co., The Pringle Barge Line Co., Richwood Sewell Coal Co., Saginaw Dock and Terminal Co.; Vice-Pres. and Dir. of Castile Mining Co., Montreal Mining Co., St. James Mining Co., Ferro Engineering Co., and Standard Box Co.; Director of Wheeling Steel Corp. Trustee and Member of Executive Com. of Western Reserve University; Trustee of Oglebay Institute at Oglebay Park, W. Va., Cuyahoga County Conservation Council, The Play House Foundation, Cleveland Museum of Natural History, and National Recreation Assn. Residence: Gates Mills, Ohio. Office: Hanna Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

OGLEBAY, Dr. ROBERT STEPHEN, American Attorney, Editor and Writer; born Jan. 31, 1911, Monticello, Ind.; son of Garland James and Leila (King) Oglebay; educated at Indiana Univ., B.S. 1933, J.D. with distinction, 1935; married Louise M. Faulkner, July 21, 1939. Member, Oglebay & Brown, 1935-38; Asst. to Official Reporter, U. S. Supreme Court Advisory Com. on Rules of Civil Procedure, since 1942; Member: Natl. Bankruptcy Conference; Amer., Indiana State and Indianapolis Bar Assns. Author: Some Developments in Bankruptcy Law (quarterly issues of Journal of Natl. Assn. of Referees in Bankruptcy), since 1943. Coauthor: Collier on Bankruptcy (14th ed.), 1940; Cumulative Supplement to Collier on Bankruptcy, 1946; also articles in legal reviews. Proposed Amendments to Rules of Civil Procedure, District Courts of U. S., 1944, 1945, 1946. Address: Yale University School of Law, New Haven, Conn.

O'GORMAN O'GORMAN, EDMUNDO, Mexican Writer; born Nov. 24, 1906, Coyoacán, D.F., Mexico; son of Cecil O'Gorman Crawford and Encarnación O'Gorman Moreno de O'G.; educated at Collège Franco-Anglais; Escuela Nacional Preparatoria, Bachelor's degree, 1922; Escuela de Derecho, degree of Attorney, 1928. Practiced law, 1928-37. Historian, National Archives of Mexico, 1938; Head of Section of History and Under-Director of Archives since 1939. Professor of History, Summer School of Universidad Nacional de México, 1939; appointed Professor of History, Faculty of Philosophy, 1940. Carnegie Visiting Professor to the U. S., 1941-42. Visiting Professor of History, Brown University, 1942-43. Author: Breve Historia de Las Divisiones Territoriales de México (1937); Fundamentos de la Historia de América (1942), Crisís y Porvenir de la Ciencia Histórica (1947). Address: Archivo General de la Nación, Palacio Nacional, Mexico, D.F.

O'GRADY, SEÁN, Irish Politician; born December 31, 1889, Crusheen, County Clare; son of John and Bridget (Tierney) O'Grady; educated at Ballinruan and Ennis Technical Schools; married Grace Kathleen Considine, June 29, 1929; two children. Director of Fergus Motor Works since 1924. Elected Dáil Deputy, 1932, 1933, 1937, 1938 and 1943. Parliamentary Secretary of Lands, 1932-42; Parliamentary Secretary of Industry and Commerce, 1942-47; Parliamentary Secy. to the Minister for Finance, 1947—. During World War I, joined Volunteers, 1914; promoted to Battalion Commander, 1917; made Brigade Commander, 1922. Residence: Ward Ho., The Ward, County Dublin, Ireland.

OGSBURY, JAMES S., American Business Executive; born January 22, 1882, Voorheesville, New York; son of Junius Junius D. and Anna (Ostrander) Ogsbury; attended public schools; married Florence Noone, Oct. 10, 1906; two children. Began career as clerk with Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., 1896-98. Clerk with New York Central and Hudson Railroad Co., 1898-1900. Junior official of American Tobacco Co., 1900-09; with International Business Machine Corp. as Comptroller-Treasurer and Manager, 1910-33; General Manager, Scale Division of Hobart Manufacturing Co., 1933-34; Vice-President of Whitman & Barnes, 1935. President, General Manager and Director of Fairchild Camera & Instrument Corp. since 1936; also Treasurer and Director of Fairchild Aerial Surveys, Inc. Residence: Elderfield's Road, Flower Hill, Manhasset, N. Y. Office: 88-06 Van Wyck Blvd., Jamaica, N. Y.

O'HALLORAN, Hon. CORNELIUS HAWKINS, Canadian Jurist; born Jan. 10, 1890, Pavilion, B. C.; son of Cornelius and Bridget (Hawkins) O'Halloran; educated at University of Ottawa; University of New Brunswick, B.A. 1912, M.A. 1914; married Ada Schaper, April 14, 1917; four children. Began career as a lawyer in 1915; unsuccessful candidate for Canadian House of Commons in Nanaimo Riding, 1926, 1930. Chairman of a Provincial Commission investigating Tranquille Sanitarium, 1933. Honorary Consul for Belgium at Victoria, B. C., 1933-37; Counsel for the Government of Canada in Fisheries Prosecutions, 1928. Counsel for Government of British Columbia before Tariff Board at Ottawa in matters relating to tariffs on motor cars and gasoline, and Chief Counsel to the Macdonald Royal Commission investigating the cost of production and distribution of coal and petroleum products in British Columbia, 1935-37. Appointed King's Counsel, British Columbia, 1935-37. Appointed King's Counsel, British Columbia, 1935; Justice, Court of Appeal for Province of British Columbia, since 1938. Address: The Law Courts, Victoria, B. C., Canada.

O'HALLORAN, MICHAEL RAPHAEL, Australian Political Leader; born April 12, 1893, Carriton, S.A., Australia; son of James Andrew and Mary (Browne) O'Halloran; educated in State Schools; married Mary Frances Rowe, May 15, 1924. Member, House of Assembly for Burra Burra Electorale, 1918. Chairman, Railways Standing Committee, 1924-27; Senator for South Australia to the Commonwealth Parliament, 1928-35; Deputy Leader of Opposition in the Senate, 1932-35. Again elected Member, House of Assembly, 1938, re-elected, 1941. Member, Public Works Standing Committee of the State of South Australia, since 1943. Address: 74 Railway Terrace, Peterborough, S.A., Australia.

O'HARA, DOROTHEA WARREN, American Artist; daughter of Samuel Thurman and Sarah Ann (Hoover) Warren; educated at Herr von Debschitz School; Kunstgewerbe, Munich, Germany; Columbia Univ., New York; Alfred Univ. School of Clay under Charles Binns; Royal College of Art, London, England; studied design under Lewis F. Day in London; widow. Gave first exhibition at Alexander House, London, England; gave several one-man shows at Grand Central Galleries Represented at Metropolitan Museum, New York; Syracuse Museum, N. Y.; Museum of Cranbrook Foundation, Bloomfield, Mich.; Industrial Museum, Tokyo, Japan, and in private collections. Executed a stained glass window in the original Christian Science Church, Boston, Mass.; exhibited at Paris and Stockholm Expositions, in Helsinki, Finland, and other European cities. Hon. Life Member, Natl. Arts Club; Pen & Brush Club; Ceramic Soc.; Design Guild. Awarded a Gold Medal, Panama Pacific Exposition, 1915. Contributor of articles on art and designs to various magazines. Founder, Appletree Lane Pottery. Address: Appletree Lane, Darien, Conn.

O'HARA, Dr. DWIGHT, American Physician; born Sept. 30, 1892, Waltham, Mass.; son of Daniel and Mayfred (Leonard) O'Hara; educated at Dartmouth College, 1915; Harvard Medical School, M.D. 1919; married Elvie M. Hopton, July 9, 1933; three children. Prof. of Preventive Medicine, Tufts College, since 1931; Acting Dean, 1942, Dean since 1946. Physician-in-Chief of Waltham Hospital, and to the Boston City Hospital. Delegate, Amer. Medical Assn. Member: Editorial Board, New England Journal of Medicine, 1935-46. Pres. of Mass. Medical Soc., 1946-47. Author: Medicine-Vocational Monograph No. 4; Airborne Infection. Address: 416 Huntington Ave., Boston, Mass.

O'HARA, Most Rev. EDWIN VINCENT, Bishop of Kansas City; born Sept. 6, 1881, Lanesboro, Minn.; son of Owen and Margaret (Nugent) O'Hara; educated at St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn.; St. Paul Seminary; Catholic University of America; Institut Catholique, Paris; University of Notre Dame, LL.D. 1918. Ordained Priest, June 9, 1905. Assistant, later Pastor, St. Mary's Cathedral, Portland, Ore., 1905-20; Superintendent, Diocesan Schools, (Portland, Ore.), 1905-20; Chairman, Industrial Welfare (Minimum Wage) Commission of Oregon, 1914-18; Chairman, Portland Housing Commission, 1915-20. Chaplain, A.E.F., 1918. Pastor, Eugene, Ore., 1920-28. Director, Rural Life Bureau, N.C.W.C., 1920-30. Established National Catholic Rural Life Conference, 1923. Instructor, Catholic University of America, 1929-30. Consecrated Bishop, Oct. 28, 1930; installed Bishop of Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 5, 1930; transferred as Bishop of Kansas City, Mo., Apr. 15, 1939. Chmn., Social Action Dept., N.C.W.C., 1936-42; Chmn., Inter-Amer. Seminar at Washington, D. C., summer, 1942. Chmn., Episcopal Com. of the Confraternity of Christine Doctrine, 1934—. Co-translator: At the Deathbed of Darwinism, 1905. Author: Pioneer Catholic History of Oregon, 1909; The Church and the Country Community, 1927; (translated from the French) With the Divine Retreat Master, 1939. Founded St. Isidore's Plow, later Catholic Rural Life, 1921. Residence: 5306 Sunset Dr. Office: 3142 Broadway, Kansas City, Mo.

O'HARA, FRANCIS CHARLES TRENCH, Canadian Administrator; born Nov. 7, 1870; son of Robert and Maria S. (Dobbs) O'Hara; educated at Collegiate Inst., Chatham; married Helen R. Corby. Journalist in Baltimore, Md., 1891; Private Secy. to Sir Richard Cartwright, Minister of Trade and Commerce, 1896-1908; Supt. of Trade Commissioner Service, 1904; Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce for Canada, 1908-31; Chief Controller, Chinese Immigration Service, 1908-11; Local Officer for Canada, Dominions' Royal Commission, 1914-17; Priority Authority for Canada, Ministry of Munitions and U. S. War Trade Board, 1916-18; Member, Editorial Com. on Government Publications, 1917-23; Deputy Commissioner of Patents, 1918-19; Chairman, Canadian Trade Commission, 1920; Government Delegate to 1st Pan Pacific Commercial Conf., Honolulu, 1922; toured Latin Amer. in interests of Canadian trade, 1927. Address: 125 Wurtemburg St., Ottawa, Canada.

O'HARA, GEOFFREY, American Composer, Lecturer and Writer; born Feb. 2, 1882, Chatham, Ont., Canada; son of Robert and Maria Sophia (Dobbs) O'Hara; educated at Chatham Collegiate Inst.; studied music with private teachers; married Constance Margaret Dougherty, Cambridge, Mass., June 7, 1919; two children. Came to U. S., 1904. Compositions include "Your Eyes Have Told Me" sung by Caruso, 1913, and "Tennessee", sung by Al Jolson. Instructor in Indian Music, U. S. Dept. of the Interior, 1913. Pioneer Army Song Leader, U. S. Army, 1917; Instructor in Community Music and Song Writing, Teachers College, Columbia Univ. Author: Canadian Folk-Songs Old and New (with J. Murray Gibbon), 1926. Compositions include "One World", "K-K-Katy", "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride", "Leetle Bateese", "There Is No Death", "The Wreck of the Julie Plant", "Guns", "Conversion", "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked", "The Old Songs", etc. Residence: 75 E. 55th St, New York 22, New York.

O'HARA, Most Rev. GERALD PATRICK, D.D., J.U.D., Bishop of Savannah-Atlanta; born in Scranton, Pa., May 4, 1895; son of Patrick James and Margaret (Carney) O'Hara; educated at St. Charles Seminary, Overbrook, Pa., 1911-18; Pontifical Roman Seminary, Rome, 1918-24. Ordained Priest in 1920; Secretary to Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia, 1924-29; Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia, and Rector of The Church of the Nativity and Vicar-General of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, 1929-35; Bishop of Savannah-Atlanta, 1935—. President, American Catholic Historical Society, 1933. Address: 222 E. Harris St., Savannah, Ga.

O'HARA, JOHN BERNARD, American Business Executive; born August 22, 1884, Duryea, Pa.; son of John Francis and Mary Loretta (Gilboy) O'Hara; educated at high school; married Virginia Wakefield Lazenby, June 12, 1919. Began career as a mining engineer at Scranton, Pa.; Chief Engineer, Rhode Island Coal Co. (Boston), 1912; Field Engineer for Edward V. d'Invilliers (Philadelphia, Pa.); Inspector of Mines for the Associated Companies (Pittsburgh, Pa.). During First World War served as Major of Infantry, United States Army. Elected Vice-Pres. and General Manager of Dr. Pepper Company, 1920; Pres., 1933; Chairman of Bd., since 1944. Director: Dr. Pepper Company; First National Bank and Fidelity Union Life Insurance Co. Director of National Assn. of Manufacturers and Texas State Manufacturers Assn.; Southern States Industrial Council; American Red Cross (Chmn., Dallas Chapter, 1944-45); Children's Hospital of Texas; Community Chest, and Citizens Council. Trustee, Hockaday (School). Residence: 6920 Turtle Creek Blvd. Office: 429 Second Ave., Dallas, Texas.

O'HARA, JOHN (HENRY), American Writer; born 1905. Author: Appointment in Samarra, 1934; BUtterfield 8, 1935; The Doctor's Son and Other Stories, 1935; Hope of Heaven, 1938; Files on Parade, 1939; Pal Joey, 1940; Pipe Night, 1945; Here's O'Hara (three novels and 20 short stories), 1946; Hellbox, 1947. Address: c/o Duell, Sloan and Pearce, Inc., 270 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

O'HARA, MAUREEN, Actress; born in Dublin, Ireland. Motion pictures include: Jamaica Inn; Hunchback of Notre Dame; A Bill of Divorcement; How Green Was My Valley; Ten Gentlemen from West Point; The Black Swan; This Land is Mine; Immortal Sergeant; The Fallen Sparrow; Buffalo Bill; The Spanish Main; Sentimental Journey; Homestretch; Foxes of Harrow; Do You Love Me?; Sitting Pretty, etc. Address: c/o RKO - Radio Studios, 780 Gower St., Hollywood, Calif.

O'HEGARTY, PATRICK SARSFIELD, Irish Politician, Writer; born December 29, 1879, Cork; son of John and Catherine Grainger (Hallahan) O'Hegarty; educated at the Christian Brothers School, Cork, 1884-95; married Wilhelmina Rebecca Smyth, Sept. 7, 1915; three children. Began as a post office clerk, 1897; resigned from civil service on imposition of British oath of allegiance, 1918; re-entered civil service, 1922. Secretary, General Post Office, Dublin; Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Posts and Telegraphs until 1945. Foundation Member of Sinn Fein Movement and Member of its Executive Council. Member, Supreme Council of the Irish Republican Brotherhood, 1906-16; served in Intelligence Section of the Irish Volunteers, 1913-22. Author: John Mitchel, 1917; The Indestructible Nation, 1918; Sinn Fein, 1919; Ulster, 1919; Terence MacSwiney, 1921; The Victory of Sinn Fein, 1924, etc. Address: Highfield House, Rathgar, Dublin, Ireland.

O'HIGGINS, THOMAS F., Irish Minister of Defence; born Nov. 20, 1890, in Stradbally, Queen's Co.; son of Thomas F. and Annie (Sullivan) O'Higgins; educated at Clongowes Wood College; National University; Royal College of Surgeons of Ireland; married Agnes McCarthy, 1915; five children. Began career as a physician, 1914 Medical Officer of Fortstown, Co. Kildare, 1915-18, of Maryboro, Queen's Co. 1918-22; Director of General Army Medical Services, 1922-29; County Medical Officer of Health, Co. Meath, since 1929. Elected Member of Parliament, 1929; Leader of chief opposition party in last Dail. Member, Defence Council, since 1940. Minister of Defence in Costello Cabinet, 1948—. Rept. of United Ireland Party. Member of Irish Volunteers, 1918-22; in the Irish Army, 1922-29. Residence: 11 St. Mary's Rd., Ballsbridge, Dublin, Ireland.

OHLIN, Dr. BERTIL, Swedish Economist; born April 23, 1899, Klippan, Sweden; son of Elis and Ingeborg (Sandberg) Ohlin; educated at Univ. of Lund, cand. phil. 1919; Univ. College of Commerce, B.Com. 1919; Univ. College of Commerce, Univ. of Stockholm, Ph.D. 1924; Aarhus Univ., hon. Ph.D., 1946; married Evy Kruse, May 2, 1931; three children. Asst. Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Stockholm, 1924; Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Copenhagen, 1924-29; Prof. of Economics at Stockholm Univ., College of Commerce, since 1929. Guest Prof., Univ. of California, 1937. Pres., Liberal Youth Assn., 1934-40; Member of Parliament since 1938; Leader of Swedish People's Party (liberal party) since 1944; Minister of Commerce, 1944-45. Author: Interregional and International Trade, 1933; International Economic Reconstruction, 1936; Fri eller dirigerad economi, 1936. Residence: N. Mälarstrand 72, Stockholm, Sweden.

OHLIN, HILDA, American Soprano; born May 2, 1913, Denver, Colo.; daughter of Julius and Mary (Eisenberg) Ohlin; educated at Barnes College, Denver, Accounting Degree; Chicago Musical College, B.M.; studied conducting with Rudolph Ganz; Oratorio coaching with Harry T. Carlson and Edgar Nelson, Chicago, and Chas. Baker, New York; opera roles with Gennaro Papi, Frank St. Leger and Giacomo Spadoni. Debut, Kimball Hall, Chicago, 1936; New York debut, Town Hall, 1941. Leading soprano, Chicago City Opera Co., 5 years. Created American version of role, Monica, in Respighi's "La Fiamma" (seven performances under Richard Hageman and Henry Weber). Appeared with Chicago Women's Symphony, Chicago Grand Opera Orchestra, Chicago Civic Orchestra, New York Civic Orchestra, W.G.N. (Mutual Network) in Pageant of Melody, Metropolitan Auditions of the Air (2nd place). Three times soloist with Arion Chorus and Symphony, Milwaukee; Chicago Swedish Choral Club and Symphony; Messiah Festival, Lindeborg, Kans.; N.B.C. Orchestra on Sunday Series, Worth Remembering; Vassar College (Brahms Requiem); Red Cross Benefit Concerts in Maine; Bar Harbor Series, etc. Toured Italy, France and Germany, U.S.O., World War II. Address: 1260 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

OHLON, SVEN JOHAN EMANUEL, Swedish Educator; born Mar. 27, 1888, Norrbyaes, Sweden; educated at University of Uppsala, fil.mag. 1910, fil.lic. 1913, Ph.D. 1915. First Assistant Master, College Hvitfeldtska hoegre allmaenna laeroverket, Goeteborg, 1919; now Principal. Vice-President, College Master Assn. in Sweden; Member of various Royal Committees since 1936; Member, Royal Society of Sciences and Letters in Goeteborg (President, 1941). Knight of the Swedish Order of the Star of the North, 1934. Author of various textbooks in mathematics and physics. Address: Hvitfeldtska hoegre allmaenna laeroverket, Goeteborg, Sweden.

ÖHMANN, Dr. EMIL, Finnish Philologist; born 1894, Helsinki, Finland; son of Emil and Anna Sophia Barbara (Gadelli) Öhmann; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, M.A. 1915, Ph.D. 1918; Univ. of Leipzig, Germany. Asst. Prof. of Germanic Philology, Univ. of Helsinki, 1921; Prof., since 1944. Prof. of Germanic Philology, Univ. of Turku (Åbo), 1925-44; Lecturer, Univ. of Berlin, 1922-24. Member: Finnish Acad. of Science; Deutsche Akademie; General Advisory Council, Franklin Soc. Made Commander, Order of Finnish White Rose. Author: Researches on French Influence upon German, 1918; Research on Italian Influence upon German, 1942, 1944; Researches on S-Plural in German, 1924; Researches on Hononymia in German, 1934; articles in various periodicals. Address: University of Helsinki, Helsinki, Finland.

OHNELL, Dr. RICHARD HARALD, Swedish Physician; born Sept. 17, 1887, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Richard G. and Anna (Kjellberg) Ohnell; educated at Stockholm Univ. med. fil., 1907; med. kand., 1909; med. lic., 1914, med. Dr. 1918; married Ingrid Hazelius, Sept. 19, 1911; three children. Asst. at Karolinska Institutet, 1912; later served at Royal Serafim Hospital and as Asst. to the First Physician to the King. Admitted Docent, 1919; appointed Deputy Professor at Karolinska Institutet, 1922. Served as Deputy Chief Physician at Sabbatsberg Hosp. and St. Eriks Hosp.; Chief Physician at Stockholm District Central Hosp. since 1932. Past-President, Swedish Medical Assn. for Internal Diseases. Pres., Stockholm District Hosp. Physicians Assn. Hon. Member, Société belge de Gastro-Entérologie. Author of some 94 publications on medical problems. Address: Sturegatan 36a, Stockholm, Sweden.

ÖHRSTRÖM, (KARL) EDVIN, Swedish Sculptor; born Aug. 22, 1906, Burlöv, Sweden; son of Axel and Ida (Jönsson) Öhrström; educated at High School of Arts and Crafts, 1925-28; Royal High School of Art, 1928-32; under Carl Milles, Nils Sjögren, Leger and Despiau; married Brita Kugelberg, Dec. 3, 1939; two children. Exhibited at Salon des Tuileries, Paris, 1933. Represented in National Museum, Stockholm; Malmö Museum; Metropolitan Museum, New York; Museum of Prague; Museum at Copenhagen, etc. Exhibited at Liljevalch Gallery, Stockholm, 1945; Malmö Mseum, 1946. Worked for Orrefors Glassworks. Creations include: At the Gates of the Hospital (granite sculpture at Karolinska Hospital, Stockholm); The two faces of Thalia (glass relief, Town Theatre, Malmö); The Handicraft Stone (granite sculpture at Institute of Handicraft, Stockholm). Member, State Council of Art. Address: Grevgatan 15, Stockholm, Sweden.

Ó HUADHAIGH, SEÁN, Irish Lawyer; born May 20, 1886, Terenure, Dublin, Ireland; son of Robert Hewitt and Mary (Kirwan) Woods; educated at Terenure and Blackrock Colleges, Dublin; Law School, Trinity College, Dublin, 1912-14; married Mary A. Dixon, June 18, 1913; four children. Solicitor, 1915; Notary Public, 1928; Partner, Little, Doyle & Woods; now member of Little, Ó Huadhaigh & Proud, Dublin. Ex-Chairman: Gaelic League; Drumm Battery Co., Ltd.; Aer-Rianta, Tta. and Aer-Lingus, Tta. (Irish Air Transport Co., Ltd.); Director, Aer-Rianta, Tta.; Chairman, Trade Boards and Apprenticeship Coms. in Ireland, since 1943; Member, Com. on Legal Terminology in Irish; Member, Incorporated Council of Law Reporting in Ireland; Vice-Chairman, Natl. Council for Irish; Vice-Chairman, Oireachtas (Irish Natl. Cultural Festival); Trustee, John Connor Magee's Charity, etc. Member: Rule-Making Authority for Circuit Court of Justice, Ireland; Council, Incorporated Law Soc. of Ireland since 1933 (Vice-Pres. 1936-37); Solicitors' Benevolent Assn. of Ireland, Dublin; Dublin Circuit and District Courts Bar Assn. Urban District Councillor, Dún Laoghaire, Anglo-Irish war period; Group Leader of local Security Force, Dalkey, 1940-45. Editor of Irish Section, Annuaire des Avocats. Address: 51 Dawson St., Dublin, Ireland.

OIKONOMOS, Dr. GEORGE P., Greek Archaeologist; born Feb. 16, 1883, Athens, Greece; son of Panayotis and Catherine Oikonomos; educated at Univ. of Athens; Univs. of Bonn, Munich, Berlin, London and Paris; Univ. of Berlin, Hon. Dr. 1937; Univ. of Montpellier, Hon. Dr. 1946. Ephor of Antiquities, Peloponnese, 1910; Macedonia, 1913; Smyrna, 1920-22. Director, Numismatic Museum, 1922-28; Prof. of Classical Archaeology, Univ. of Athens, since 1928; Member and Secy. General. Acad. of Athens; Director, Natl. Museum, Athens, 1928-34; Director of Antiquities, 1934-38; Director General of Antiquities, Letters and Arts, 1938-39; Minister of Cults and Natl. Education, Greece, 1945. Vice-Pres., Greek Red Cross; Pres., Managing Com., Natl. Theater; Member, Union Academique internationale, Brussels. Secy. General, Archaeological Soc. Member: Scientific Soc.; Hellenic Soc. of Folklore. Vice-Pres., Literary Soc. Parnassos. Corresponding Member, Institut de France; Acad. of Sciences, Vienna; Foreign Member, Hungarian Acad. of Sciences; Hon. Member, Amer. Archaeological Inst.; Soc. for Promotion of Hellenic Studies, London. Author: Publications on excavations in Athens, Messene, Cephallonia, Pella, Clazomenae, etc. Address: Academy of Athens, University St., Athens, Greece.

OISANG, OLE, Norwegian Editor; born Apr. 26, 1893, Risor, Norway; son of Theodore Thorsen and Aase Oisang; educated at Commercial School; married Ingebjorg Guldahl, 1918; one son. Journalist since 1912. Secy., redaktion, Sorlandet, Kristiansand S., 1912; Editor, Arbeidets Rett, Roros, 1915; Editor, Vestfold Arbeiderblad, Tonsberg, 1918, and Sorlandet, Kristiansand, 1920; Editor, Arbeider-Avisa, Trondheim, since 1925. Member, Director of Theatre in Trondheim; Supervisor, Norwegian Broadcasting Corp., Trondelag; Supervisor, Management of Public Schools, Trondheim; Supervisor, Management of Library, Trondheim; Member, Director of Trondheim Katedralskole and Civil Administration, Trondheim; Political Secy., Norwegian Labor Party, 1940. Member: Norwegian Press Assn.; Soc. of Artists, Trondheim. Received journalist stipends, also stipend for study of socialism. Author: The Struggle for Democracy; We Want a Democratic Country; Ibsen as Radicalist; History of Trondheim Theatre, 1942; History of Roros Kupperwork, 1946. Residence: Rjornsons gt. 5. Office: Arbeider Avisa, Trondheim, Norway.

OISTRAKH, Prof. DAVID FEDOROVICH, Soviet Violinist; born 1908, Odessa; studied violin under Prof. Stoliarsky; graduated Odessa Conservatory, 1926. Toured Soviet Union and foreign countries. Won first place in many contests within Soviet Union; second prize, International Wieniawsky Contest, Warsaw, 1935; first prize, International Ysaye Contest, Brussels, 1938. One of six Soviet musicians scheduled to play in the Soviet Pavilion at New York World's Fair, 1939 (plans interrupted by war). Began teaching at Moscow State Conservatory as an assistant, 1932; now Prof. Judge, International Music Festival, Prague, 1947. Awarded Title of Honored Worker of Art of R.S.F.S.R.; Order of Lenin, 1947. Address: Moscow State Conservatory, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

O'KEEFE, ARTHUR, American Food Merchant; born April 17, 1899, Boston, Mass.; son of Michael and Margaret (MacNamara) O'Keefe; educated at Boston Univ., 1917; married Mary Adelaide Watson, Oct. 21, 1922; three children. Began career as accountant, 1918; Certified Public Accountant in Mass., 1922. With First National Stores, Inc., since 1923; Pres. and Director, since 1934. Director, Boston Bruins, Inc. Residence: Hammondswood Rd., Newton, Mass. Office: 5 Middlesex Ave., Somerville, Mass.

O'KEEFE, GEORGIA, American Painter; born 1887, Sun Prairie, Wis.; daughter of Francis and Ida (Totto) O'Keeffe; studied at Chicago Art Institute, Art Students League (N. Y.), University of Virginia, Teachers College; married Alfred Stieglitz, 1924. Held many exhibitions in various galleries; one-man show at Art Institute of Chicago, 1943. Works at Museum of Modern Art, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Tate Gallery (London), Brooklyn Museum of Art, etc. Awarded hon. degree of Doctor of Fine Arts, William and Mary College, 1939; Litt.D., University of Wisconsin. Residence: Lake George, N. Y.

O'KEEFE, JOHN F., American Newspaper Publisher; born 1904, Chicago, Ill. Director, Chicago Daily News. Asst. Secretary and Director, Chicago Daily News Printing Co. Pres. and Executive Secretary, Chicago Newspaper Publishers Assn. Residence: 3020 Normandy Place, Evanston, Ill. Office: 400 W. Madison St., Chicago, Ill.

O'KEEFE, Prof. WILLIAM JOSEPH, American Lawyer, Educator; born July 14, 1889, Randolph, Mass.; son of William F. and Julia A. (Crosby) O'Keefe; educated at Holy Cross College, A.B. (magna cum laude), 1910; Georgetown Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1925; Portia College of Liberal Arts, Litt.D. (hon.) 1938; married Jane E. Mournes, Apr. 22, 1922; four children. Instructor in Accounting, Pace Inst. and Foreign Service School, Standard Oil Co., New York, 1919-21. Head of Accounting Dept., Fordham Univ., 1921-22. Senior Auditor Income Tax Unit, Treasury Dept., Washington, D. C., 1922-25. Instr. in Law, Catholic Univ. of America, 1925-26. Prof. of Law, Fortia Law School, Boston, 1926-29, 1938-40. Prof. of Law, Boston College Law School, 1929-38, and since 1940; Asst. Dean, Boston College Law School, 1932-37; Dean, 1937-38; Acting Dean, 1943-46; Assoc. Prof., College of Business Administration, Boston College, 1942-46. Interpreter of Educational Laws for Mass. Dept. of Education, 1936-37. Counsel for Massachusetts Teachers' Federation, since 1940. Author: Fundamentals of Accounting, 1921; Notes on Private Corporations, 1927; Notes on Legal Research, 1932; Educational Law Series, Vol. I, 1940, Vol. II, MSS. Residence: 526 Worcester St., Wellesley Hills. Office: Boston College Law School, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

O'KEEFFE, EOIN P., Irish Publisher; born Nov. 3, 1893, Dublin; son of Richard Martin and Elizabeth Mary (Foley) O'Keeffe; educated at Natl. School; Trades Preparatory School; Christian Brothers; married Margaret O'Brien, 1938. General Manager, Andrew S. Clarkin, Ltd., 1924-34; Chairman, Irish Sea Fisheries Assn., Ltd., 1933-34; Secy. Turf Development Board, 1934-35; Managing Director, James Duffy & Co., Ltd., Dublin, since 1936. Finance Chairman, Blackrock Urban District Council, 1920-25; Hon. Secy., Sinn Fein, 1923; several times Natl. Exec. of Fianna Fail. Appointed Trade Rept. for Austria, 1938. Former Chairman, Irish Bus Owner's Assn., 1928-34; Chairman, Irish Booksellers' Assn., since 1938; Hon. Secy., Book Assn. of Ireland, since 1943. Member, Irish Publishers' Assn. Awarded Irish Republican Army Service Medal. Peace Commnr. for County of Dublin. Residence: 7 Trees Rd., Mt. Merrion. Office: 38 Westmoreland St., Dublin, Ireland.

O'KELLY, SEÁN THOMAS, President of Ireland; born Aug. 25, 1882; son of Samuel O'Kelly; educated at O'Connell Schools, Dublin. Mr. O'Kelly was Alderman of the Dublin Corporation, 1906-24; Vice-President of Fianna Fáil (Republican Party); one of founders of Sinn Fein, of which he was Honorary Secretary, 1908-10. Proprietor and Editor of "The Nation," Dublin. Frequent contributor to the Irish and American press on Irish politics. Irish Envoy to Paris and Rome, 1919-22; to the United States, 1924-26. Member, Dáil for Dublin North, 1918-37; Dáil Deputy for Dublin Northwest since 1937. Speaker, First Dáil, 1919-21; Vice-President, Executive Council, 1932-38; Minister for Finance, 1939-45; Tanaiste for Eire, 1939-45. Elected President of Eire, June, 1945. Created Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. Gregory by Pope Pius XI, 1933. Address: 38 Anglesea Road, Donnybrook, Dublin, and Roundwood Park, Co. Wicklow, Ireland.

OKHLOPKOV, NIKOLAI PAVLOVICH, Soviet Actor and Theatre Director. Awarded Stalin Prize for producing the stage play "The Young Guard" (a Stalin prize-winning novel by Alexander Fadeyev), Aug. 20, 1947. Directed plays for the Moscow Theatre of Drama (Realistic Theatre), including "Great Days," Feb. 14, 1948. Address: Moscow Theatre of Drama, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OKKELBERG, Dr. PETER OLAUS, American Zoologist; born Nov. 12, 1880, Goodhue, Minn.; son of Bersvend L. and Anne Kjerstine (Hesselberg) Okkelberg; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, A.B. 1906, A.M. 1909; Univ. of Michigan, Ph.D. 1918; Univ. of Munich, Germany, 1922-23; married Maud Zencie Hagberg, Sept. 2, 1915. Instructor in Science, Jewell College, Jewell, Iowa, 1906-08; Asst. in Zoology, Univ. of Michigan, 1910-18; Asst. Prof., 1918-27; Assoc. Prof., 1927-29; Assoc. Prof. and Executive Secy. of Dept., 1929-31; Prof. of Zoology and Executive Secy. of Dept., 1931-33; Secy., Graduate School, 1930-35. Prof. of Zoology since 1933; Asst. Dean of Graduate School since 1935. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Soc. of Mammalogists, etc. Author of various publications in the field of embryology and cytology. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

OKKONEN, Prof. ONNI, Finnish Art Historian; born 1886, Korpiselkä, Finland; son of Robert and Anna (Postila) Okkonen; educated at Univs. of Helsinki and Rome; married Helmi Kargus, 1915; two children. Free Lecturer of History of Art, 1916; taught at Technical High School, Helsinki, 1917-21; Prof. of History of Art, Univ. of Helsinki, since 1927. Chairman of Directory, Art Acad. of Finland, 1940; Govt. Board for Imitative Arts, since 1945. Vice-Pres., Alfred Kordelin Foundation, since 1930; Pres., Dante Alighieri Soc., Helsinki; Pres., Kalevala Soc., Helsinki. Art Critic, Uusi Suomi, 1916-20, 1926-45. Member, Science Acad. of Finland, 1928. Decorated: Commander of White Rose, Finland; Commendante dell' Ordine della Corona d'Italia. Author: Melozzo da Forlì, 1910; Taiteen alku, 1916; Rembrandt, 1919; Rafael, 1923; Antiikin taide, 1936; Keskiajan taide, 1941; L'art finlandais, 1932; Suomen taide I-II, 1945; Finnish Art, 1946; Graphic Art in Finland, 1946. Address: Tehtaank. 21B, Helsinki, Finland.

OKLADNIKOV, Prof. ALEXEI, Soviet Archaeologist. Head of the archaeological expedition of the Marr Institute of History and Material Culture at Kolyma, Siberia. In charge of excavations in the Yakutsk area and discovered a settlement of the Stone Age; uncovered a musical instrument made of tubular bone of a swan which resembled a flute. Address: Marr Institute of History and Material Culture, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OKSALA, ARVI ADIEL, Finnish Parliament Member, Engineer; born Jan. 2, 1891, Jyvaskyla, Soumi, Finland; son of Sakari Tapper and Maria (Oksanen); educated at Suomen Teknillinen Korkeakoulu, 1914; married Xenia Thekla Feldmann, 1917; four children. Practiced engineering during summers 1911-13, on building of railways and canals, at waterworks of City of Helsinki, and by Ita-Suomen Graniitti Cy., Leningrad; Railway-building Engineer, State Railways of Finland, 1914-16; Leader, building of fortifications on Aaland Islands with firm Oy. Granit Ab., 1916-17; Railway Building Engineer, 1918-19; Manager, firms Osakeyhtiö Lauttauskalusto and Salmin Lauttauslaitteet Oy., 1919-36; Floating Manager, Janisjarven Lauttausyhdistys and Salmin Uittoyhdistys, 1922-36; taught floating technique, Finnish Sawmill industry school, 1924-32; Asst. Mgr., Central Organization, Finnish Woodworking Industries, 1937-41; Gen. Mgr., Central Chamber of Commerce, Finland, since 1941; Member of Diet since 1930; Minister of Defense, 1932-37; four times elector of Pres. of Republic. Member: Natl. Economic Council; also Labor Division. Pres., Finnish Floating Assn., since 1928. Hon. Member, Swedish Floating Organization. Decorated Commander, First Class, Finnish White Rose; Memorial Medal of Liberty War; Cross of Liberty War, 2nd class; Great Cross of Knighthood of Holy Lamb. Author: History of Janisjarvi Floating Association, 1924; History of Salmi Floating Association, 1926; Floating Technology, 1928, 1936; also political, technical and economic articles. Residence: Bulevardi 17. Office: Fabianinkatu 14, Helsinki, Suomi, Finland.

OKSNEVAD, TORALV, Norwegian Radio Commentator; born Jan. 13, 1891; son of Arnt and Torine (Folkvord) Oksnevad; married Amelie Semb, 1914; one daughter. Began career as a journalist, 1912; Commentator and Director of broadcasting to Norway from London, during War, 1940-45; Foreign Director, since 1945. Author: Det Laa I Luften (163 radio talks, 1940-45), 1946. Address: Norsk Rikskringkasting, Oslo, Norway.

OKTAR, RÜSTÜ, Turkish Parliament Member; born 1887, Van, Turkey; son of Mustafa and Sultan (Topcuoglu) Oktar; educated at Lyceum, 1905; War School, 1908; married Zagfer Saylam, Oct. 18, 1923; four children. Lieut., Turkish Army, 1908; participated in Balkan War, 1911; World War I, 1914; War of Independence, 1919; resigned from military service, 1946. Deputy of Van, Natl. Assembly, since 1946. Member of Natl. Defense Commn. Awarded Independence Medal. Residence: Yenishir, Ankara, Turkey. Office: Turkish Assembly, Station Street, Ankara, Turkey.

OKTIABRSKY, Admiral FELIPP SERGEEVICH, Soviet Naval Officer. Vice-Admiral, Commander of Black Sea Fleet, 1941; recaptured Crimea, 1941. Decorated with Order of Lenin for heroism in Sevastopol defense, 1942; promoted to Admiral, 1944. Awarded Order of Ushakov, 1st class, 1944; Order of Nahkimov, 1st class, 1944. Address: Ministry of the Navy, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ÓLAFSSON, SIGURJÓN, Icelandic Sculptor; born in Eyrarbakki, Iceland; son of Ólafur Árnason and Guorún Gisladóttir; educated in Copenhagen (Denmark) and Italy, under Prof. Utzon Frank; married Tove Thomasen, May 30, 1934; one daughter. Exhibited at Charlottenborg, 1930; Gautaborg, 1938; Reykjavik, 1946. Works include: Klippfishstack (property of Icelandic Govt.); My Mother (Statens Museum for Kunst, Copenhagen); statues in granite on square at Vejle, Denmark. Member, Confederation of Icelandic Arts. Awarded Gold Medal, Copenhagen, 1930; Echekkersbergmedal, 1938. Address: Laugarnes, Reykjavik, Iceland.

OLAGUIBEL y ROSENZWAIG, JUAN FERNANDO de, Mexican Sculptor; born June 16, 1896, Guanajuato, Gto., Mexico; son of Carlos Olaguibel y Arista and Eugenia Rosenzwaig; studied at School of Fine Arts, Mexico City; married Petra San Miguel, Apr. 10, 1935; two children. Exhibited at French Circle, Mexico City, 1916; later at New York, 1918; Palacio de Bellas Artes, Mexico City, 1934, 1942;

School of Fine Arts, Mexico City, Mexico City, 1943; Palacio de Bellas Artes, Mexico City, 1946. Prof. of Drawing and Modeling, Dept. of Education, 1922; Inspector of Plastic Arts, 1926; Director of Education in Drawing and Modeling, Primary Schools; Director and Founder, Revista Infantil Pulgarcito, 1924-34. Member: League of Artists and Revolutionary Writers of Mexico; Circle of Sculptors. Awarded 1st Prize in contest for monument El Pipila, created at Guanajuato, 1939; 1st Prize, for fountain La Flechadora, Mexico City, 1942. Works include: Monument of General Anaya, Mexico City, 1942; Equestrian Monument, Mexico City, 1943; Monumento a la Bandera, Tuxtla Gutiérres Chiapas, 1944; Monument of General José Maria Morelos, Cuernabaca; Monument of Juan Escutia, Tepic, Nayarit, 1947. Captain, Mexican Army, 1914-16. Address: Gabriel Mancera No. 210, Col. del Valle, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

OLAIZOLA, SABAS, Uruguayan Educator; born December 5, 1894, Belén, Uruguay; son of Pedro M. Olaizola and Joaquina Souza de O.; educated at Escuela Normal de Montevideo; married Laura T. Bó Alza, January 3, 1922; four children. Began career as a rural school-teacher in 1913, and later became primary school director. Founder, magazine "Nuestros Hijos", 1923; formed the Sociedad Pro-Escuela Activa, 1924; founded the Escuela Experimental, 1925, which became the leading school in Las Piedras, 1928. Taught in the Escuelas Normales of Montevideo. Founded the Liceo Popular de Enseñanza Secundaria de Las Piedras, 1937; Director since 1937. Under contract to the Venezuelan Government for experimental work in education, 1937-42. Member, Société Belge de Pédotechnique; Founding President, Sociedad Amigos de la Nueva Educación de Montevideo; delegate to the 8th International Education Conference (Ann Arbor, Mich., U. S., 1941). Author: La Pedagogía Decroliana (1928); El Método Decroly en el Plan de Las Piedras (1932); Amanecer; La Escuela Nueva en el Uruguay (1935); Renovación Pedagógica de la Escuela Nacional (1943); "Venezuela" (a book of children's songs, set to music by V. Ascone), etc. Residence: Gaetan No. 1033, Montevideo, Uruguay.

ÖLANDER, Dr. ARNE, Swedish Chemist; born Dec. 31, 1902, Stockholm, Sweden; son of F. G. and Hilda (Norrman) Ölander; educated at Univ. of Stockholm, Sc.D., 1930; Berlin (under Bodenstein, 1930); Berkeley, Calif. (under G. N. Lewis, 1930-31); Copenhagen (under Brönsted, 1932-33). Docent, Univ. of Stockholm, 1929-36; Prof. of Theoretical Chemistry, Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, 1936-43. Prof. of General and Inorganic Chemistry, Univ. of Stockholm; Secy., Nobel Com. for Physics and Chemistry, since 1943. Member: Royal Swedish Acad. of Engineering Sciences; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Electrochemical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Faraday Soc.; Chemical Soc. (London). Author: Theoretical Chemistry, 1939, 1941; many papers on research work in Amer., German and Swedish Chemical Journals. Address: University of Stockholm, Dept. of Chemistry, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLASCOAGA, LAURENTINO, Argentine Attorney; born Nov. 19, 1874, Mendoza, Argentina; son of Coronel Manuel J. Olascoaga and Delfina Urtubey de O.; educated at Colegio Militar; Colegio Nacional; and in the Faculty of Law of Buenos Aires, Doctorate in Law; married María Elena Martínez, Nov. 7, 1907; three sons. Professor in the Colegio Nacional and the Escuela Superior de Comercio since 1910. Minister of Argentina in Bolivia, 1918; in Paraguay, 1920; in Sweden, Norway and Denmark, 1923-26; in Peru, 1927; in Cuba and Santo Domingo, 1928-33. Designated Extraordinary Ambassador to the Peruvian Anniversary, 1927; Extraordinary Ambassador to the Change of Government in Santo Domingo, 1930. President, Argentine Delegation to the Eighth Pan-American Sanitary Conference in Lima, 1927; Argentine Delegate to the Permanent Conference of Eugenics of Havana, 1932. President, Argentine Delegation to the Sixth Pan-American Conference in Havana, 1928. Author: Derecho Político Argentino (2 vols.); Instrucción Cívica; El Ideal Argentino—Algo de Sociología; Instituciones Políticas de Mendoza (2 vols.); Geografía Económica Argentina para la Facultad de Ciencias Económicas; Sociología Comparada; La Leyenda del Castillo de Skokloster; Yataira (Historical Novel); Sira; La Desconocida; Deberismo Filosófico Social; Política y Administración Deberista. Address: Malabia 2467, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLASON, Dr. PALL EGGERT, Icelandic Historian; born June 3, 1883, Storu Vogar, Iceland; son of Oli Thorvardsson and Gudrun Waage; educated at University of Iceland, Reykjavik, graduated in law, 1918, Ph.D. 1919; married Lara Palsdottir in 1905; three children; married (2nd) Annika Sandholt, 1920; three children; married (3rd) Margret Magnusdottir, 1928; three children. Engaged in library and archive studies in Iceland and Scandinavia, 1906-21; Professor of Icelandic History at the University of Iceland, 1921-29. General Manager of the Agricultural Bank of Iceland, 1930-32; Bureau Chief, Ministry of Finance, 1932-39. Author and editor: Diplomatarium Islandicum, 1924; Catalogue of Icelandic Manuscripts in the National Library of Iceland, 1918-37; Menn og Menntir; Biography of Jon Sigurdsson, 1929-33. Address: Solvallagata 15, Reykjavik, Iceland.

O'LAUGHLIN, JOHN CALLAN, American Publisher; born 1873. Publisher, Army and Navy Journal. Washington, D. C. Author: From the Jungle Through Europe with Roosevelt, 1910; The Relation of Press Correspondents to the Navy Before and During War (lecture delivered at Naval War College Extension, Washington, D. C., Feb. 17, 1913; Imperiled America (a discussion of the complications forced upon the U. S. by the World War), 1916. Address: Army and Navy Journal, 1711 Connecticut Ave., Washington 9, D. C.

OLAV, Crown Prince of Norway; son of King Haakon VII and Princess Maud (youngest daughter of King Edward VII of Great Britain); married Princess Marthe of Sweden, 1929. Served with Norwegian armed forces during World War II; continued active military opposition against Nazi invaders from abroad; named Commander-in-Chief of the Norwegian Armed Forces, 1945. Address: Royal Palace, Oslo, Norway.

OLBRACHT, IVAN (Karel Zeman), Czechoslovak Author; born Jan. 6, 1882, Semily, Czechoslovakia; son of Dr. Antonin and Kamilla (Schönfeldová) Zeman; studied philosophy, Charles Univ., Prague, 1906; married Jaroslava Kellerová, Jan. 18, 1936; one daughter. Journalist, 1909-29; engaged in free-lance writing since 1929. Chief of Radio Section, Ministry of Information, Prague, since 1945; Member of National Assembly since 1946. Member of Parliament. National Artist. Member: Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Com. of Syndicate of Czech Writers; Amer. Inst. in Czechoslovakia; Soc. of Friends of U.S.S.R. Author: Ozlych samotárích; Podiviné pratelstvi herce Jesenia; Anna proletárka; Devet veselych povídek z Rakoska i republiky; Zamrízováne zrcadlo; Nikola Suhaj, Loupeaznik; Hory a staletí; Golet v udolí; Dobyvatel; Bidpajovy bajky. Residence: u. Kola 173, Prague-Dolni Kro. Office: Valdstejnské nám 3, Prague III, Czechoslovakia.

OLCOTT, Governor BEN W., American Administrator; born Oct. 15, 1872, Keithsburg, Ill.; son of Hiram Wallace and Mary Jane (Wilson) Olcott; educated in the high school of Keithsburg; married Lena Hutton, Dec. 25, 1912 (deceased 1936); three sons. Began as bookkeeper in Chicago, 1890; joined William Brown & Co., Salem, Ore., 1892; two years later became associated with Ladd & Bush, pioneer bankers, Salem, Ore.; Cashier, Citizens State Bank, Keithsburg, Ill., 1898-1903; with mining company in Nome, Alaska, 1904; with Fairbanks (Alaska) Banking Co., 1905-07. Secretary of State, Oregon, 1911-18; Governor of Oregon, 1919-23. Director, Oregon Mutual Savings Bank, Portland. Address: 2610 N. W. Overton St., Portland, Ore.

OLD, Hon. FRANCIS EDWARD, Australian Political Leader; born November 24, 1875, Dingee, Victoria; son of Thomas Spear and Charlotte (Mitchell) Old; educated in the Dingee State School; married Marion Richardson, Sept. 27, 1904; five children. Elected a Member of Parliament for the Swan Hill Electorate, State of Victoria, Nov. 19, 1919. Appointed Minister for Agriculture and Minister for Railways in the Lawson Government, 1923. Appointed Minister of Water Supply and Minister in Charge of Electrical Undertaking, 1935. Acting Premier and Treasurer since 1937. Residence: Pritchard Street, Swan Hill. Office: Parliament House, Spring St., Melbourne, Vict., Australia.

OLDBERG, Dr. ERIC, American Surgeon; born Nov. 7, 1901, Evanston, Ill.; son of Arne and Georgiana (Sloan) Oldberg; educated at Northwestern Univ., B.D. 1923, M.D. 1927, M.S. 1926, Ph.D. 1928; married Hilda Edwards, June 3, 1929; one son. Instr. in Physiol., Northwestern Univ., 1925-28, and Elizabeth J. Ward Fellow in Physiol., 1927-28. From 1928 to 1929 he was Surgical House Officer and Asst. Resident Surgeon, Peter Bent Brigham Hosp.; Resident Neurol. Surgeon to Dr. Harvey Cushing, 1930; John Simon Guggenheim Traveling Fellow, 1930; George Gorham Peters Traveling Fellow, Kaiser Wilhelm Institute, Berlin, and Oxford Univ., England, 1930-31. He was Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Illinois, 1931-34; Assoc. Prof. of Surgery and Acting Head of Dept. of Surgery, 1934-36; Prof. and Head. of Dept. of Neurol. and Neurologic Surgery, 1936—. He also serves as Attending Neurologic Surgeon to St. Luke's and Illinois Research Hosps.; Consulting Neurologic Surgeon, St. Joseph's Hosp., Augustana, Mt. Sinai, Illinois General, U. S. Marine, Grant, Chicago Memorial, and Delnor Hosps. Consulting Neurol. Surg., Illinois Central Ry. and Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Ry. Member of Chicago Med. Soc.; Chicago Neurol. Soc. (Vice-Pres., 1941-42); Inst. of Med. of Chicago (Bd. of Gov., 1936—); Harvey Cushing Soc. (Pres., 1942-43), etc. Diplomate of Amer. Bd. of Neurologic Surgeons; Trustee of Chicago Orchestra Assn., and serves as Assoc. Editor of Journal of Neuropathology. Res.: 558 Hawthorne Pl. Office: 224 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago 4, Ill.

OLDENBERG, Prof. OTTO, American Physicist; born Nov. 2, 1888, Germany; educated at Univs. of Heidelberg, Göttingen and Munich; married. Asst. in Physics, Univ. of Göttingen, 1913 and 1919-21; Privatdocent at Rostock, 1923; Göttingen, 1923-26; Lecturer at Göttingen, 1926-30; Lecturer at Harvard Univ., 1929; Prof. of Physics since 1930. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Address: Research Laboratory of Physics, Harvard University, Cambridge 38, Mass.

OLDENBURG, GOSTA, Swedish Diplomat; born May 2, 1893, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Erik and Elin (Ulfsax) Oldenburg; educated at Univ. of Uppsala Law School, 1917; married Elizabeth Lindforss, Oct. 5, 1926; two sons. Attaché, Foreign Office, Stockholm, 1920; Swedish Legation, London, 1920-21; Foreign Office, Stockholm, 1921-22; Swedish Consul General, N. Y., 1923-24; Attaché, Foreign Office, Stockholm, 1924-25; Swedish Legation, Berlin, 1925-26; Vice-Consul then Consul General, N. Y., 1926-33; Secy. of Legation, Oslo, 1933-36; Consul, Swedish Consulate, Chicago, 1936-43; Consul General, Swedish Consulate, Chicago, Ill., since 1943. Decorated Knight of North Star, Sweden; Knight of St. Olaf, Norway. Residence: 1700 N. Crilly Court. Office: 333 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

OLDENDORF, Vice Admiral JESSE BARRETT, United States Naval Officer: born Feb. 16, 1887, Riverside, Calif.; son of Joseph M. and Minerva Josephine (Barrett) Oldendorf; educated at U. S. Naval War College; U. S. Army War College; married (2nd) Elizabeth Funk, Dec. 29, 1927; two daughters. Midshipman, 1905; advanced through ranks to Vice Admiral. 1944. Service: during World War II, commanded Naval Operating Base, Trinidad, 1942 and Task Force 24 and Naval Operating Base, Argentina, Newfoundland, 1943; Commander, Cruiser Division 4 and of Shore Bombardment Forces for invasion of Kwajalein, Roi-Namur, Saipan, Tinian, and Leyte, 1944; Commanded American Forces in Battle of Suragao Straits, Oct. 1944; Commander of battleship Squadron I, 1944; Commanded ships for invasion of Luzon, 1945. Commandant, Eleventh Naval District, 1946. Commander, Western Sea Frontier, since 1947. Awarded: Navy Cross; Distinguished Service Medal and Gold Stars in lieu of 2nd and 3rd D.S.M.; Legion of Merit and Gold Star in lieu of 2nd L.M.; Purple Heart; Navy Unit Commendation; Brazilian War Medal. Residence: Quarters One, Yerba Buena Is. Office: Western Sea Frontier, Treasure Island, San Francisco, Calif.

OLDENDOW, KNUD HONORÉ, Danish Administrator; born Nov. 18, 1892, Ranum, Denmark; son of Hans Petersen and Marie Honoré; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, 1910; law degree, 1920; married Nina Christiansen, Nov. 18, 1921; one son. Secy. to Governor of Vejle, 1920; Royal Inspector of Southern Greenland, 1924; Governor of Southern Greenland, 1925; Chief of Section, Greenland Administration, 1932; Director of Greenland Administration since 1938; Technical Adviser, Parliamentary Com. on Greenland, 1939, 1946. Chairman, Cryolite Co. Oeresuns Ltd., Copenhagen, 1939; Vice-Chairman, Commission for Scientific Investigations in Greenland, 1939; Chairman, Board of Directors, King Christian X and Queen Alexandrine Greenland Foundation, 1939. Author: The History of the Settlement Godthaab, 1728 - 1928; The Greenland Sociology; Social Welfare in Greenland; Law in Greenland; Bird Life in Greenland; Preservation of the Nature in Greenland; The Political History of Greenland; Greenland, Country and People Nowadays; The Situation in Greenland, 1946. Residence: Alleen 12, Kastrup, Copenhagen. Office: Slotsholmsgade 10, Copenhagen, Denmark.

OLDFIELD, OTIS, American Painter; born 1890, Sacramento, Calif.; son of William E. and Lydia (Burdge) Oldfield; educated at Académie Julien, Paris; Tosny-

Robert Flevry; A. Déchmaud; François Flemmeng; G. Rochegrosse; Jules Pagés; married Helen Clark, 1926; two daughters. Principal works: Telegraph-Hill, 1929; Figure, 1932; Codfisher, 1935; White-Bowl, 1938. One-man exhibitions at: Panhardi Galerie, Paris, 1924; Beaux-Arts Gallery, New York, 1929-30; Modern Gallery, San Francisco, 1932; Lucien Labaudt Gallery, San Francisco, 194. In private collections: Sen. Phelan, San Francisco; Bliss, New York; Brooklyn Museum, New York; San Francisco Museum of Art; Murals in Coit Tower, San Francisco. Awards: Gold Medal, San Francisco Art Assn., 1925; Special Award, Springville, Utah, 1926; 1st Prize, C.S.A.S., Sacramento, Calif., 1932; Popular Prize, S.F.A.A., 1935; Parilia Prize, S.F.A.A., 1938; Governor Olsen's Medal, G.G.I.E., 1939; Klumpke Figure, San Francisco Art Assn., 1947. Drew illustrations for McTeague, Colt Press, San Francisco, 1941. Address: 968 Union St., San Francisco 11, California.

OLDHAM, Rt. Rev. GEORGE ASHTON, American Protestant Episcopal Bishop; born Aug. 15, 1877, Sunderland, England; son of Joseph R. and Annie Elizabeth (Shaw) Oldham; educated at Cornell University, 1902; General Theological Seminary; Berkeley Divinity School, D.D. 1925; St. Stephens College, D.D. 1922, University of Vermont, D.D. 1936, University of Toronto, D.D. 1942; General Theological Seminary, S.T.D. 1925; married Emily P. Gould, Jan. 14, 1915; four children. Curate, Grace Church, New York, 1905; St. Thomas Church, New York, 1906-08. Chaplain, Columbia University, New York, 1905-08. Rector, St. Luke's Church, New York 1909-17; St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn, 1917-22. Bishop Coadjutor of Albany, 1922-29; Bishop of Albany since 1929. President, World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches since 1935. Pres., Synod of Province II, Episcopal Church; Trustee, General Theological Seminary; active in General Convention of Episcopal Church, etc. Author: A Fighting Church; Lambeth Through American Eyes, and The Catechism Today; America First (Monograph on the familiar slogan). Residence: 29 Elk St. Office: 68 S. Swan St., Albany, N. Y.

OLDS, EDWARD ALLEN, JR., American Business Executive; born May 10, 1879, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Edward Allen and Ella (Knapp) Olds; educated privately; married Edith Mitchell, October 10, 1908; four children. With Dodge & Olcutt. New York City, 1898-1900; Packers Tar Soap, Inc., 1900-04 and Alaska Construction Co., Nome, Alaska, 1904-05. Represented Packers Tar Soap, Inc. in India, Ceylon, Egypt, etc., 1906-07; President, Packers Tar Soap, Inc., 1926-44; Chairman, Board of Directors, since 1944. Also Director of U. S. Trade Mark Association; United War & Community Funds of Conn., Inc., and Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, Inc. Residence: 27 Mistuxet Ave. Office: Packers Tar Soap, Inc., Mystic, Conn.

OLDS, ELIZABETH, American Artist; born Dec. 10, 1897, Minneapolis, Minn.; daughter of Fred Allen and Harriet (Trussell) Olds; educated at Univ. of Minnesota; Minneapolis School of Art; Art Students League, N. Y.; studied art in Paris. Participated in various exhibitions since 1930; represented in print collections of museums throughout U. S. and England and private collections; held two one-man shows in New York, 1938, 1941, one-man exhibitions in Boston, Omaha, Minneapolis, etc. Held Guggenheim Fellowship, for study abroad, 1926-27. Awarded Prize for best print, Philadelphia Print Club, 1938. First Prize, Art Alliance of Philadelphia, 1939; P.M. newspaper prize, 1940; competition prize, prints for Children's Museum of Modern Art, 1941. Author and Illustrator: The Big Fire (Junior Literary Guild selection for 1946). Address: 53 E. 11th St., New York, N. Y.

OLDS, IRVING SANDS, American Lawyer and Industrialist; born Erie, Pa., Jan. 22, 1887; son of Clark and Livia Elizabeth (Keator) Olds; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1907; admitted to the Bar in Pennsylvania, 1910, and in New York, 1912; Harvard Univ., LL.B. 1910; married Evelyn Foster, Oct. 13, 1917. Secretary to Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the Supreme Court of the United States, 1910-11; associated with law firm of White & Case, New York City, 1911; partner since 1917. Counsel for Export Dept. of J. P. Morgan & Co., 1915-17; counsel for Purchasing Dept., British War Mission to United States, 1917-19; special assistant to Asst. Secy. of War Edward R. Stettinius, Washington, 1918. Elected Member of Bd. of Directors and of Finance Com. of U. S. Steel Corp., 1936; special counsel for the Corporation, 1938; Chairman of Board of Directors, U. S. Steel Corp., 1940—. Member: Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York; National Industrial Conference Board; Board of Managers, New York Inst. for Education of the Blind; Board of Trustees, New York Historical Soc. Member-at-Large, Yale Alumni Board, and Member of its Executive Com. since 1940; Trustee: Cooper Union for Advancement of Science and Art; United Seaman's Service. Director: The Legal Aid Soc.; Air Power League; National War Fund. Member: Amer. and New York State Bar Assns.; Assn. of the Bar of the City of New York; Amer. Iron and Steel Inst.; Iron and Steel Inst. of England; Council on Foreign Relations; Army Ordnance Assn.; Acad. of Political Science: Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science; Naval Historical Foundation; Bibliographical Soc. of Amer., etc. Awarded Hon. Sc.D. in Bus. Admin., Bryant College, 1946. Appointed by President Truman, member of advisory committee to draft report for National Advisory Council on postwar conduct and financing of American foreign trade. 1946. Residence: 141 E. 72nd St. Office: 14 Wall St., New York, N. Y.

OLDS, LELAND, American Administrator; Member, Federal Power Commission. Formerly Executive Secy., N. Y. Power Authority. Appointed Member of Federal Power Commission, 1939; Chairman, 1940-46. Vice-Chairman, National Power Policy Committee. Residence: 3236 McKinley St. Office: 1800 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, District of Columbia.

OLDS, RANSOM ELI, American Business Executive; born Geneva, Ohio, June 3, 1864; son of Pliny Fiske and Sara (Whipple) Olds; educated in Cleveland public schools; Lansing Business College; received hon. Doctor of Science from Kalamazoo College, 1924; Doctor of Engineering, Michigan State College in 1939; Michigan College of Mining & Technology, 1941; two daughters. Began as machinist in 1885; married Metta Woodward, June 5, 1889; first stationary gasoline engine on the market and two years later brought out a successful motor vehicle. President, Olds Motor Vehicle Co., 1897-1904; Pres., Reo Motor Car Co. 1904-24; Chairman of Board, 1924-26; organized Capital National Bank, 1906; President, 1906-32; Chairman of Board, 1932-33. Organized R. E. Olds Co., 1932; President, 1932-36; Chmn. of Bd., since 1936. Chmn. of Bd. and Director: Lansing Community Hotel Corp.; Lansing Oldsmobile Co. Director, Hotel Olds Operating Co. Donated hotel in Daytona Beach, Florida, for a home for retired Ministers and Missionaries. Residence: 720 South Washington Avenue, Office: Olds Tower, Lansing, Mich.

O'LEARY, ALFRED THOMAS, Canadian Shipping Executive; born Jan. 1890, Port Dufferin, N. S.; son of Thomas A. and Charlotte (Cox) O'Leary. President: A. T. O'Leary & Co. Ltd.; Sterling Shipping Co. Ltd. Vice-President: Inter-Provincial Steamship Co. Ltd. Director: Nova Scotia Trust Co.; Yarmouth Cold Storage Co. Ltd.; MacLaren, Hope, Ltd.; Catelli Food Products Ltd. (Montreal). During World War II, served as Representative of Canadian Shipping Board of Halifax. Director: Defense Communications, Ltd.; War Assets Corp.; National Selective Service. President: Halifax Board of Trade, 1943-46; Maritime Board of Trade, 1945. Address: 242 Jubilee Road, Halifax, N. S., Canada.

O'LEARY, Rt. Rev. DAVID, Catholic Bishop of Johannesburg; born Aug. 19, 1880, Kimberley, South Africa; son of John Joseph O'Leary; educated at Marist Bros. College of Uitenhage; St. Aidan's College of Grahamstown. Ordained Priest, Roman Catholic Church. Subsequently served in various parishes until his consecration as a Bishop. Address: P. O. Box 32, or 98 Gold St., Johannesburg, South Africa.

O'LEARY, The Hon. HUMPHREY FRANCIS, New Zealand Chief Justice; born Feb. 12, 1886, Blenheim, New Zealand; son of Humphrey John and Mary (Falvey) O'Leary; educated at Wellington College; Victoria Univ. College; LL.B. 1908; married Lillian Gallagher, Dec. 23, 1912; one son. Chief Justice, New Zealand Supreme Court, Wellington, N. Z., since 1946. Pres., The New Zealand Law Soc.; King's Counsel, 1934. Decorated Knight Commander, Order of Michael and St. George, 1947. Residence: 19 Burnell Ave., Wellington. Office: Supreme Court, Wellington, New Zealand.

O'LEARY, JOHN, Member of Irish Parliament; born Sept. 5, 1894, Enniscorthy, Co. Wexford, Ireland; son of John and Margaret (O'Connor) O'Leary; educated at Christian Brothers Schools, Enniscorthy; married Elizabeth Davis, July 8, 1925; three children. Took part in 1916 Rebellion; mill worker, 1921; entered public life, 1934; elected Member of Wexford County Council, 1942; Chairman, Enniscorthy Urban District Council, 1942-45; Secy., Irish Transport and General Workers Union, 1942-44. Elected Member of Irish Parliament, 1943; reelected 1944. Residence: 1 Shannon Hill, Enniscorthy, Co. Wexford, Ireland. Office: Leinster House, Dublin, Ireland.

O'LEARY de URDAPILLETA, JUAN EMILIANO, Paraguayan Political Leader; born 1882, Asunción, Paraguay; son of Juan O'Leary and Dolores de Urdapilleta de O.; educated at Universidad de Asunción; married Dorila Gómez García, Oct. 25, 1902; two children. Served as Professor of Rhetoric, Poetry, Critical History of Literature, History and Geography in Universidad de Asunción and Escuelas Normales de Profesores. Served as National Deputy; Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain, 1925-30; Minister to Italy, 1936-38. President of Partido Republicano. Director, National Archives of Paraguay. Grand Officer of Order of Merit of Paraguay. Author: El Heroe del Paraguay; Nuestra Epofaya; El Libro de los Heroes; Los Legionarios; Apostolado Patriótico; Las Imposturas de Bermejo; Un adventurero Alemán en el Paraguay; Estudios Críticos y Literarios; En Torno al Patriarca, etc. Residence: Brasil No. 138. Office: Avda. Brasil No. 1938, Asunción, Paraguay.

O'LEARY, Dr. PAUL ARTHUR, American Physician; born Nov. 11, 1891, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Jeremiah Joseph and Anna Belle (Coy) O'Leary; educated at Dartmouth College, 1910-11; Long Island College of Med., M.D. 1915; married Ruth Youmans, June 18, 1921; two children. Entered The Mayo Clinic as Asst. in Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1917; became Associate in 1917, and was appointed Head of Section on Dermatol. and Syphilol. in 1924. He has been Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Univ. of Minn. Graduate School, since 1933, when he was certified as specialist in Dermatol. and Syphilol. by Amer. Bd. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. In 1935 he was elected U. S. Delegate to 9th International Congress of Dermatol. and Syphilol., Budapest. He served as Chairman of Section on Dermatol. and Syphilol., Amer. Med. Assn., 1936-37; Vice-President, Amer. Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1937; President, Amer. Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1938. In 1939 he was elected Member of Amer. Bd. of Dermatol. and Syphilol., and became Member of Natl. Adv. Health Council. He was Secretary-General, 10th International Congress of Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1941; Member of Natl. Prophylactic Committee, 1941. He has been Consultant U. S. Public Health Service since 1929. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians, and Member of many medical and scientific organizations. Co-author with Cooperative Clinical Group (U.S.P.H.S.) of 24 articles on studies in syphilis; author or collaborator of over 140 articles on dermatology and syphilology. Assoc. Editor, Archives of Dermatology and Syphilology, and on the editorial board of American Journal of Syphilis, Gonorrhea and Venereal Diseases. Res.: Gaelic Grove Farm, R.F.D. No. 2. Office: 102-110 Second Ave., S.W., Rochester, Minn.

O'LEARY, Dr. PAUL MARTIN, American Economist and University Administrator; born Nov. 29, 1901, Lawrence, Kans.; son of Raphael D. and Mathilda (Henrichs) O'Leary; educated at Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1922; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1924; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1929; married Harriet G. Barton, July 5, 1929. Municipal Bond Buyer, Stern Bros. & Co., Kansas City, Mo., 1922-23; Instructor in Economics, Cornell Univ., 1924-29; Asst. Prof., 1929-36; Prof. since 1936; Dean, School of Business and Public Administration, since 1945. Chief Economic Analyst, Temporary Natl. Economic Com., 1939; Price Executive, Textiles, Leather and Apparel, O.P.A., 1941; Asst. Director of Price Division, O.P.A., 1941-42; Deputy Administrator in charge of rationing, 1942-43. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Royal Economic Soc. Author: Corporate Enterprise in Modern Economic Life, 1933; An Introduction to Money, Banking and Corporations (with J. H. Patterson), 1937. Address: Goldwin Smith Hall, Ithaca, New York.

OLEN, WALTER A., American Manufacturer; born Jan. 31, 1875, Winneconne, Wis.; son of Andrew and Amelia (Miller) Olen; educated at State Normal School, Northern Indiana Law School (LL.B., 1899); married Cora Miller, May 21, 1907; three children. School teacher, 1891-96; engaged in private law practice, 1900-13; President and Director of The Four Wheel Drive Auto Co., since 1910. Director: Clintonville (Wis.) Hotel Co.; Bellin Memorial Hospital, Green Bay, Wis., One of organizers, Wisconsin Central Air Lines. Residence: 46 W. 14th St. Office: East Twelfth St., Clintonville, Wis.

OLENIN, MIKHAIL, Soviet Sculptor. Principal works include busts of Soviet flyers: Sokolov Sokolenok (Chief of Soviet Air Academy); Capt. of Aviation Molodchy (Hero of Soviet Union); Lavrinenko (Gold Star Medallist); Nikolai Kharitonov (Hero of the Soviet Union), and many other war aces. Address: All Union of Soviet Artists, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OLESHEV, VASSILI GRIGORIEVICH, Soviet Librarian. Director of the Lenin State Library of Moscow. Author of various bibliographical publications. Address: Lenin State Library, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OLGEIRSSON, EINAR BALDVIN, Icelandic Political Leader; born August 14, 1902, Akureyri, Iceland; son of Olgeir and Solveig (Gisladóttir) Júliusson; educated at Universities of Copenhagen and Berlin, 1921-24; married Sigridur Thorvardsdóttir, Sept. 20, 1927; two children. Active in Icelandic Labor Movement since 1924. Co-Editor of Verkamadurinn, 1924-31; Editor of Rjettur, 1926-41, and of Thjodviljinn, a daily newspaper, 1936-43 Political Editor since 1943. Member, Executive Committee, Icelandic Communist Party, 1930-38 (Party united with left wing of Labor Party into the United Socialist Party); Chairman, United Socialist Party, since 1939. Member of Parliament for Reykjavik, since 1937. Vice-Chairman, Parliament's Committee for Foreign Affairs, since 1942; Member, Parliamentary Committee for Revision of the Constitution, since 1942; Vice-Chmn., National Planning Board, since 1944. etc. Address: Njálsgata 85, Reykjavik, Iceland.

OLGUÍN ESTRADA, Prof. JOSÉ ANTONIO, Bolivian Law Educator; born May 15, 1908, Cochabamba, Bolivia; son of Manuel Olguín and Petrona Estrada de O.; educated at Colegio Nacional Bolívar; Colegio Nacional Sucre; Faculty of Law and Political and Social Science of the Universidad Mayor de San Simón de Cochabamba. Professor of Primary Instruction in the Escuela Simón Bolívar of Cochabamba, 1926; served (successively) since as Professor in the Colegio Nocturno Profesional de Señoritas, Colegio Nocturno Alejo Calatayud; became Associate Professor of Penal Law in the Faculty of Law, 1936; Professor and Head of the Department of Philosophy of the Law since 1937. Member, Directive Council of the Faculty of Law, 1941-44. Sub-Dean and Member of Directive Council, Faculty of Law of Universidad de San Simón, 1947—. Attorney and Honorary Member, Sociedad de Beneméritos de la Patria. Member of Club Social de Cochabamba. Director, Sociedad de Geografía e Historia; Member, Colegio de Abogados and of the Cooperativa del Magisterio. Author: Bolívar y su acción en América; Curso de Filosofía del Derecho; Lecciones de Introducción al Estudio del Derecho. Residence: Méjico (Este). Office: Avda. San Martín No. 24, Cochabamba, Bolivia.

OLHEIM, HELEN, American Mezzo-Soprano; born in Buffalo, N. Y.; educated at Eastman School of Music, won two scholarships; married. Made operatic debut with American Opera Co., New York; Metropolitan Opera debut in 1935. Sang standard mezzo-soprano and contralto repertoire at Metropolitan Opera, Chicago Opera, Central City Opera in Colorado (summer of 1940), Teatro Municipal in Rio de Janeiro (1940-41), etc. Radio soloist on many programs; made many recordings. Residence: Westport, Conn. Office: Metropolitan Opera Assn., 39th St. and Broadway, New York, N. Y.

OLIN, FRANKLIN WALTER, American Industrialist; born Jan. 9, 1860, Woodford, Vt.; son of Truman and Sarah Ann (Olin); educated at Cornell University, graduating as Engineer, 1886; married Mary Mott Moulton; two children. Began career in 1887 as Civil Engineer; held position as mechanic in designing and building harvesting machines, designer of knitting mill machinery, and construction of explosive mills. President and Director, Western Cartridge Co., since 1898. Also Pres. and was elected President and Director in that year. He is also President and Director of Equitable Powder Co.; Egyptian Powder Co.; Olin Corp.; Columbia Powder Co.; Western Powder Manufacturing Co.; and Liberty Powder Co. He is a Director of the First National Bank and Trust Co. of Alton; U. S. Cartridge Co.; Winchester Manufacturing Co.; East Alton Manufacturing Co.; Kalunite, Inc.; Winchester Repeating Arms Co.; Cellulose Research Corp.; East Alton Public Service Co., and Illinois State Bank of East Alton, Ill. Trustee, Cornell Univ. Residence: 1128 State St., Alton, Ill. Office: East Alton, Ill.

OLIN, Dr. GUNNAR CARL OSCAR, Swedish Bacteriologist; born Aug. 23, 1902, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Dr. Carl Oscar and Elin (Lundeberg) Olin; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, med. kand. 1925; Caroline Inst., med. lic. 1930, M.D. 1936; married Brita Lithander, Dec. 5, 1931; three children. Asst. at State Bacteriological Laboratory, 1926; interned at Hosp. for Epidemic Diseases, Stockholm, 1934-35; Head, Diagnostic Dept., State Bacteriological Laboratory, 1936; Reader in Bacteriology, Caroline Inst., 1938-40; Prof. and Director, State Bacteriological Laboratory, Stockholm, since 1945. Author: Studies on Undulant Fever, 1935; several reports on poliomyelitis, tularaemia, etc. Residence: Oestermalmsgatan 61. Office: Statens Bakteriologiska Laboratorium, Stockholm 1, Sweden.

OLIN, JOHN MERRILL, American Industrialist; born Alton, Ill., Nov. 10, 1892; son of Franklin W. and Mary (Moulton) Olin; educated at Cornell Univ., 1909-13; married Evelyn B. Niedringhaus, May 11, 1940; two daughters by a previous marriage and one stepdaughter. Chemist with Western Cartridge Co. and Equitable Powder Mfg. Co., 1913; Asst. to President, Western Cartridge Co., 1914-18; First Vice-Pres. and Director, Western Cartridge Co., 1919-44; Pres., Olin Industries, Inc., a consolidation of Western Cartridge Co., Winchester Repeating Arms Company, Olin Corp. and others, since 1945. Vice Pres. and Director: Equitable Powder Mfg. Co., Egyptian Powder Co.; Columbia Powder Co.; Cellulose Research Corp.; Kalunite, Inc. Pres. and Director,: United States Cartridge Co.; Illinois State Bank of East Alton, Ill. Director: First National Bank and Trust Co. of Alton, Ill.; St. Louis Union Trust Co.; Midwest Rubber Reclaiming Co.; Washington University (St. Louis). Address: C/o Olin Industries, Inc., East Alton, Ill.

OLINGER, Prof. HENRI CÉSAR, American Educator; born Nov. 5, 1887, New York City; son of Rev. Dr. Alphonse Jacques and Cesarine F. (Michel) Olinger; educated at Columbia Univ., B.S. 1908, M.A. 1916; married Lucienne Edmée Collin, 1920; one son. Instructor, Lehigh Univ., 1912-14; Instructor, Adviser to Students, Chairman of Examination Com., Faculty Adviser to French Club, Dramatic Coach, Columbia Univ., 1916-25. Instructor, New York Univ., 1922-32; Asst. Prof., 1932-42; Assoc. Prof., 1942; now Prof. and Chairman, Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures, since 1942. Director of Tours, New York Univ. and School of Foreign Travel, Summers, 1925, 1927; member correspondent, Univ. of Grenoble, France; Member, Examiners' Com. for French, N. Y. State Board of Regents, 1928; Vice-Pres. and Pres., Société Nationale des Professeurs Français en Amérique, 1925-28; Charter Member, Founder, Regional Rept., Amer. Assn. of Teachers of French, 1928; Chairman, Local Com., Natl. Com. on Place of Modern Languages in Amer. Education; Member, Executive Council, Natl. Federation of Modern Language Teachers, 1942; Vice-Pres., Natl. Federation of Modern Language Teachers of Atlantic, Middle States, and Maryland; Asst. Managing Editor, Modern Language Journal, 1942; Managing Editor, 1944-46. Author: French articles in Internatl. Encyclopedia, 1916; Modern Language Journal, 1928; French Review; Report on W.P.A. Teaching, 1939; Translator of Maupassant's Works, 1913. Address: New York University, Washington Sq. East, New York 3, N. Y.

OLINSKY, Miss TOSCA, American Painter; born March 11, 1909, Florence, Italy; daughter of Ivan G. and Genevieve (Karfunkle) Olinsky; educated at National Acad. of Design Schools; Art Students League; studied under Raymond Neilson, Leon Kroll, Karl Anderson, Ivan Olinsky. Exhibited at: College Art Assn.; National Acad.; Allied Artists; Audubon Artists; Amer. Water Color Soc.; Conn. Water Color Soc.; N. A. Women Artists; Lyme Art Assn. First solo show, 1945. Assoc. Member, National Acad. Member: Allied Artists; Audubon Artists; Amer. Water Color Soc.; N. A. Women Artists. Awards: National Arts Club Prize, 1936, 1937, 1939, 1941; 3rd Halgarten Prize at National Acad., 1937-42; Allied Artists Prize, 1940; Sage Allen Prize, Connecticut Water Color Soc., 1947. Address: 27 West 67th St., New York, N. Y.

OLIPHANT, CHARLES, American Lawyer; born July 26, 1909, Kirklin, Ind.; son of Herman and Julia (Sims) Oliphant; educated at Wabash College; Johns Hopkins Univ.; Columbia Univ.; Univ. of Maryland, LL.B. 1934; married Loa May Ralston, 1928; two children. With Federal Land Bank, Baltimore, Md., Regional Agricultural Credit Corp. of Baltimore, and Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C., 1934-39. Special Atty., Office of Chief Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., 1939. Asst. General Counsel of Treasury Dept., Washington, D. C., 1944. Chief Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., since 1947. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Federal Bar Assn. Member, Bd. of Directors, Music Research Foundation, 1947. Residence: 3247 Quesada St., N. W. Office: Bureau of Internal Revenue, Room 5000, Internal Revenue Bldg., Washington, D. C.

OLIPHANT, Sir LANCELOT, K.C.M.G., C.B., British Diplomat; born Oct. 8, 1881, London, England; son of Arthur C. and Agnes Mary (Horton) Oliphant; married Christine, widow of 1st Viscount Churchill. Entered Foreign Office, 1903; served as Secretary at Embassy in Constantinople, 1905-06, and at Legation in Teheran, 1909-11; Assistant Secretary, 1920; Counsellor, Foreign Office, 1923; Assistant Under-Secretary of State, 1929-36; Deputy Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 1936-39; Ambassador to Belgium and Minister to Luxembourg, 1939-44; imprisoned in Germany, June, 1940 to Sept. 1944. Author: An Ambassador in Bonds, 1946. Address: Turf Club, Piccadilly, London, England.

OLIPHANT, MARCUS LAURENCE ELWIN, British Physicist; born Oct. 8, 1901, Adelaide, South Australia; educated at University of Adelaide and Trinity College, Cambridge. Messel Research Fellow of The Royal Society (London), 1931; Fellow and Lecturer, St. John's College, 1934; Asst. Director of Research, Cavendish Laboratory, Cambridge, 1935; Poynting Professor of Physics, University of Birmingham, 1937—. Fellow of The Royal Society since 1937 (awarded Hughes Medal, 1943). A leading expert on the atomic bomb. Author of many publications on nuclear physics, etc. Address: Peto, Twatling Rd., Barnt Green, Birmingham, England.

OLITSKY, Dr. PETER KOSCIUSKO, American Bacteriologist; born Aug. 20, 1886, New York, N. Y.; son of Davis and Elizabeth G. (Lianski) Olitsky; educated at Cornell Univ. Med. College, M.D. 1909; married Frances R. Kidder, Sept. 4, 1920; one daughter. Bacteriologist, Municipal Research Laboratories, N. Y., 1912; at Rockefeller Inst. since 1917. Chairman, Foot-and-Mouth Disease Expedition to Europe, U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry, 1925-27. Consultant Bacteriologist to Greenwich (Conn.) Hosp., 1930—. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; N. Y. Academy of Medicine. Member of many medical and scientific organizations. Author of numerous articles on pathology. First Lieut., U.S.A., M.C., during World War I. Address: 66th St. and York Ave., New York, N. Y.

OLITZKI, WALTER, Baritone (Opera, Concert and Radio); born Mar. 17, 1903, Hamburg, Germany; educated at High School and Music College, Berlin, Germany; studied voice in Berlin under Prof. Ernst Grenzebach; married Lili Maria Kisch, Dec. 14, 1936. Debut at Municipal Opera House, Koenigsberg, East Prussia; sang with Berlin State Opera and other leading opera houses in Europe, also sang in concerts, oratorios and radio shows. Special Interpreter of Modern Music: Wozzeck by Alban Berg; Cardillac by Paul Hindemith, etc. Specialized in character-roles of operas by Richard Wagner; appeared as Beckmesser in Die Meistersinger von Nuernberg, Alberich in Ring des Nibelung, Klingsor in Parsifal. Made debut with Metropolitan Opera, N. Y., as Beckmesser, Dec. 2, 1939; now Member, Metropolitan Opera Assn. Debut with San Francisco Opera Co. as Herr Von Faninal in Der Rosenkavalier, Oct. 1940; also sang at various concerts in U. S. Address: c/o Metropolitan Opera House, New York 18, New York.

OLIVA, Prof. ALBERTO, Italian Agronomist; born Mar. 11, 1879, Mantua, Italy; son of Ferdinand and Melania (Barbieri) Oliva; educated at Univ. of Pisa, Agricultural Faculty, 1902; married Adina Paolini, Feb. 29, 1907; two sons. Director, Agricultural Faculty, Univ. of Siena, 1912; Manager of an agricultural estate, Tuscany, since 1918; Director, Agronomical Inst., Univ. of Florence, since 1929. Director, Agricultural and Forestry Depts., Univ. of Florence, 1937-43. Member: Accademia Economico Agraria dei Georgofili; Accademia di Agricoltura di Bologna; Accademia Virgilina di Mantova; Accademia dei Fisiovritici di Siena; Società Leonardo da Vinci di Firenze. Author: La politica granaria di Roma antica, 1932; La bonifica dei terreni collinari e montani, 1934; Origini, sviluppi e prospettive della bonifica delle argille pluoceniche in Toscana, 1938; Le sistemazioni idraulico-agrarie. Residence: Via Guido Monaco 24. Office: 1938; Il frumento della montagna, 1943. Facoltà Agraria e Forestale, Florence, Italy.

OLIVA NAVARRO, JUAN CARLOS, Argentine Sculptor; born Jan. 31, 1888, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Juan Oliva and Adela Navarro de O.; studied at Academia de Bellas Artes de Buenos Aires; married Asunción Irigoin, Apr. 7, 1917; three children. Exhibited in 24 expositions of Salón Nacional de Bellas Artes since 1913; Universal Exposition of San Francisco, Calif., 1915; first exposition of Argentine art in Chile, 1917; Autumn Salón in Rosario (twelve times since 1917); two expositions of Salón of Sociedad Nacional de Artes Decorativas; Second Salon of the Arts, Provincial Museum of La Plata, and most of the other major exhibitions in Argentina, Bolivia, Spain, France, Italy, Peru, Rio de Janeiro, Santiago, Chile, and Viña del Mar, Chile. Restoring Sculptor for the Museo Nacional de Bellas Artes since 1910. Commissioner for the International Expositions of San Francisco (U. S.) and Vice-President, Jury of Awards, 1915. Professor of Art, Escuela Profesional Fernando Faber, since 1941. Represented in collections of Museo Nacional de Bellas Artes, Museos de Bellas Artes of Santa Fé, Rosario, Córdoba, Tucumán, Mendoza, Corrientes; Museum of Numismatic Society of New York; Kaiser Friederich Museum of Berlin; Museum of Fine Arts of Rio de Janeiro; Fine Arts Museum of Lima; Fine Arts Museum of Salta. Address: Cavia No. 3170, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLIVAN, JULIO LÓPEZ, Spanish Diplomat; born May 24, 1891, Zaragoza, Spain; son of Julio and Candida Olivan; educated at Univs. of Zaragoza, Salamanca and Madrid; married Freda Royards, 1932; one son. Served as Consul in Spanish Morocco; Legal Adviser, case between Spain and Great Britain on Morocco claims, Migration Conf., Havana, 1928; Head, Dept. for Colonial and Morocco Affairs, 1931; Spanish Minister in Sweden, 1932; Spanish Minister in Switzerland, 1933-36; Delegate, League of Nations; Chairman, various League committees; Deputy Registrar, Permanent Court of Internatl. Justice, 1929-31; Ambassador in London, 1936; Registrar, Permanent Court of Internatl. Justice, 1937-46. Awarded Cross of Isabel la Católica; Ouissan Alauite; Grand Cordon, Leopold II of Belgium; Polar Star of Sweden; Finland; Commandeur, Légion d'Honneur. Author: Legislación vigente en la Zona del Protectorado español, 1932; Repertorio Diplomático español, 1945. Address: Hôtel de l'Ecu, Geneva, Switzerland.

OLIVARES, Prof. CARLOS A., Argentine Musician; Prof. of Artistic Culture, Natl. College of Buenos Aires; born Aug. 11, 1890, Tigre, Province of Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Mariano O. and Angela Milberg de O.; studied at Conservatory of Buenos Aires and Schola Cantorum of Paris; married Maria Mercedes Field, Dec. 31, 1928. Began career as concert cellist, 1912; Director of Academia de Bellas Artes de Tucumán, 1922-33; founded, and until 1929 conducted, Filarmónica de Tucumán. In 1934 he founded and became Director of Asociación Argentina de Conciertos in Buenos Aires. Professor of Artistic Culture, Colegio Nacional de Buenos Aires, since 1936. Permanent conductor of the orchestra of Asociación Argentina de Conciertos; also conductor of the choir of that body, the choir of the Colegio Nacional and of other minor groups. Has composed one symphony, one suite for orchestra, one overture, an Argentine suite for orchestra, two quartets, one trio, six a capella choral works, sonatas for cello and piano and numerous small pieces for piano and cello. Residence: Santa María No. 2662, Tigre. Office: B. Mitre 836, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLIVARI, Prof. NICOLAS, Argentine Author and Poet; born in Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Juan Bautista Olivari and Carmen Canale de O.; educated at home and self-taught; married Amelia de Marco; one son. Journalist, since 1925; Director of various literary magazines; appointed Prof. of Literature, 1930. Secy., Sociedad de Autores Extrangeros, since 1924. Member: Sociedad Argentina de Autores y Compositores de Música; Círculo de La Prensa; Sociedad Argentina de Escritores. Author: La Amada Infiel, La Musa de La Mala Plata, El Gato Escaldado, Diez Poemas sin Poesía; La Mosca Verde; El Hombre, La Baraja y la Punalada; Tedio (Theatrical); also many theatrical, radio and motion picture scripts. Awarded Buenos Aires Municipal Poetry Prize, 1927; Municipal Theatre Prize, 1930. Address: Diaz Vélez 4732, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLIVECRONA, Dr. HERBERT, Swedish Professor of Neuro-Surgery; born July 11, 1891, Visby, Sweden; son of Axel and Ebba (Morner) Olivecrona; educated at Univs. of Uppsala and Stockholm, 1909-18; Univ. of Athens, Hon. M.D.; married Ulla Dagmar Lofberg, Feb. 21, 1942; four children by a previous marriage. Asst. at Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Leipzig, Germany, 1918; with Dr. W. S. Halsted, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore (under Fellowship from Swedish American Foundation), 1919-20; Asst. and Resident Surgeon, Serafimerlasarettet, 1920-30; Surgeon-in-Chief, Neuro-Surgical Dept., 1930-35; Prof. of Neuro-Surgery, Royal Caroline Inst. and Director of Neuro-Surgical Clinic, Serafimerslasarettet, Stockholm, since 1935. Member: British Soc. of Neurological Surgeons; Société de Neurologie at Paris; Societa radio-neuro-chirurgica Italiana; Société de Neurologie Warszawa; Societas Neurologiae Estoniensis; Harvey Cushing Soc.; Hungarian Soc. of Neurology. Author: Chirurgie der Hirntumoren, Berlin, 1927; Die Parasagittalen Meningeome, Leipzig, 1934; Chirurgie der Hirntumoren, Stuttgart, 1940; Gefaessmissbildungen under Gefaessgeschwulste des Gehirns, Leipzig, 1935. Residence: Orevägen 9, Alsten. Office: Serafimerlasarettet, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLIVECRONA, Dr. KARL, Swedish Professor of Law; born Oct. 25, 1897, Upsala, Sweden; son of Judge Axel and Ebba (Mörner) Olivecrona; educated at Univ. of Upsala, J.D. 1928; married Birgit Lange, Mar. 7, 1929; three children. Asst. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Upsala, 1928-33; Prof. of Law, Univ. of Lund, since 1933. Author: Law as Fact, 1939; The Acquisition of Possession in Roman Law, 1938; The Conception of Legal Personality in Roman and Modern Law, 1928; The Burden of Proof, 1930; Mortgages, 1933; Forced Sale of Real Estate, 1933; Judgments in Civil Cases, 1943; Execution in Civil Matters, 1945; The Magical Making of Kings in Ancient Swedish Law, 1942. Residence: Helgonavägen 9. Office: Univ. of Lund, Lund, Sweden.

OLIVEIRA VIANNA, FRANCISCO JOSÉ, Brazilian Jurist; born June 20, 1883, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Began legal practice 1906, Professor of Criminal Law and Social Law. Faculty of Law of the State of Rio de Janeiro since 1916. Member: Brazilian Academy of Letters; Brazilian Historical Institute; the Consultive Council of the State of Rio de Janeiro; Commission of Reform of the Constitution of the Republic, 1932; Revisory Commission of Laws of the Ministry of Justice. Legal Adviser to the Ministry of Labor, Industry and Commerce since 1932. Justice, Federal Court of Accounts, 1940. Address: Alameda 41, Niteroi, Estado do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

OLIVEIRA, Dr. PEDRO M., Peruvian Educator; born Oct. 15, 1882; educated at Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos, LL.B., J.D. and Pol.Sc.Dr. 1905. Rector, Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos, since 1941; identified with university since 1908 when he began as Professor of Law. Minister to Colombia, 1920-22; Minister to Bolivia, 1925-26; Minister of Justice and Minister of Public Instruction, 1926-29; National Deputy for Cajatambo, 1929-30. Member: Revision Commission of the Civil Code Project, 1936; National Commission of Codification of International Public Law, 1937. Minister of Public Education, 1939-43. Leader in educational movements; recipient of many decorations. Address: Espinar 371, San Miguel, Peru.

OLIVER, ALLEN LAWS, American Lawyer; born Jan. 19, 1886, Jackson, Mo.; son of Robert Burett and Marie Elizabeth (Watkins) Oliver; educated at Southeast Missouri Teachers College, Pd.B. summa cum laude, 1905; Univ. of Missouri, A.B. 1908, LL.B. 1909; married Olivia Leachman, Oct. 28, 1913; two sons. Member, Oliver & Oliver, Cape Girardeau, Mo., since 1909. Member: (Ex-Pres.), Board of Trustees, Law Foundation, Univ. of Missouri; Board of Visitors; Pres., Missouri State Chamber of Commerce, 1945-46; District Governor and Member, Board of Directors, Rotary Internatl.; Member, Executive Com., Missouri War Chest, 1943-46; State Com., Natl. War Fund Campaign, 1943-45; Missouri Council of Defense; Pres., Natl. Soc., Sons of American Revolution, 1946-47. Member: Missouri Bar Assn. (General Council, Vice-Pres., Pres., 1943-44); Amer. Bar Assn. (House of Delegates, 1945-46); Amer. Judicature Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Political and Social Science. Author: HR 6075 and S. 2052 to establish a Natl. Memorial Forest Park as a memorial to World War II Veterans. Address: 402-6 H-H Building, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

OLIVER, AUGUSTUS K., American Industrialist; born July 19, 1881, Pittsburgh; son of George Tener and Mary Dorothea (Kountze) Oliver; educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Yale (A.B. 1903); Hon. LL.D., Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1946; married Margaretta Wood, 1907; six children. Reporter, Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph, 1903. Secretary, Newspaper Printing Co., 1905-18; Vice-President, 1918-27. Vice-President, Commerce Bldg. Co. Chairman of Finance Com., Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co. Director: Insul-Mastic Corp of America, Western Allegheny Railroad Co. and The Scholastic Corp., Trustee of the Dollar Savings Bank of Pittsburgh. Chairman of Pittsburgh Chapter, American Red Cross; Secretary and Trustee, Carnegie Inst. and Carnegie Institute of Technology. Member of the City Council, 1919-21. Residence: Fox Chapel Rd. Office: Chamber of Commerce Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

OLIVER, Dr. CLARENCE PAUL, American Zoologist; born Nov. 8, 1898, Obion Co., Tenn.; son of Benjamin W. and Mary Eunellie (Massey) Oliver; educated at Univ. of Texas, B.A. 1925, M.A. 1930, Ph.D. 1931; married Cecile Worley, July 29, 1931; two sons. Asst. Prof. of Zoology, Washington Univ., St. Louis, 1930-32; Asst. Prof. of Zoology, Univ. of Minnesota, 1932-39; Assoc. Prof., 1939-41; Assoc. Prof. of Zoology and Director, Dight Inst. of Human Genetics, Univ. of Minnesota, 1941-45; Prof. of Zoology (Genetics) and Director, Dight Inst., Univ. of Minnesota, since 1945. Member: Amer. Genetics Assn.; Genetic Soc. of Amer.; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Eugenics Soc.; Internatl. Dental Research Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Cancer Research, etc. Research reported in professional periodicals; Bulletins of Dight Inst. Address: University of Minnesota, Minneapolis 14, Minn.

OLIVER, Dr. EDWARD ALLEN, American Dermatologist; born April 15, 1883, Cresthine, Ohio; son of Ernest Allen and Carrie (Miller) Oliver; educated at Kenyon College, A.B. 1905; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1909; married Bertha Montgomery, Dec. 30, 1911; two children. Instructor in Dermatol. and Syphilol. at Rush Med. College, 1912-19; Asst. Prof. until 1930, and Assoc. Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. until 1941. Prof. of Dermatol. at Northwestern, since 1941. Attending Dermatol. to Cook County Hosp. and Children's Memorial Hosp., and is now Senior Attending Dermatol., St. Luke's Hosp.; Consulting Dermatol., Passavant Hosp., St. Francis Hosp., and U. S. Veterans' Hosp. Member: Amer. Dermatol. Assn.; Institute of Med. of Chicago; Amer. Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Amer. Med. Assn. Author of numerous papers on dermatological subjects. Residence: 1161 Spruce St., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 55 E. Washington, Chicago, Ill.

OLIVER, EDWIN LETTS, American Engineer; born Nov. 9, 1878, San Francisco; son of William Letts and Carrie Benedict (Brown) Oliver; studied at Oakland High School; Univ. of Calif. College of Mines, B.S. 1900, Hon. LL.D. 1945; married Minnie Giffin Walker, Sept. 23, 1905; four children. Engaged in work and travel in mines of Western U. S. and in Mexico, 1900-03; latter year became Surveyor and later Metallurgist of North Star Mines Co. at Grass Valley, Calif., until 1910. While there he patented continuous automatic filter for use in cyanide extraction process which is now known throughout world as Oliver Filter. In 1910 he opened an office in San Francisco as Oliver Continuous Filter Co., and in 1928 formed Oliver United Filters Inc. by a merger with United Filters Corp.; President and General Manager since then. President, Idaho Maryland Mines Corp. since 1925; Vice-President, California Cap Co. since 1920. Life Member, Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Member of Chemical, Metallurgical and Mining Soc. of South Africa. Residence: 60 King tor-boating and golf. Residence: 60 King Ave., Piedmont 11, Calif. Office: 260 California St., San Francisco 11, Calif.

OLIVER, Dr. EVERARD LAWRENCE, American Dermatologist; born Jan. 11, 1876, Boston, Mass.; son of Fitch Edward and Susan Lawrence (Mason) Oliver; educated at Harvard, M.D. 1904; married Ethel Shrigley Seymour, June 25, 1931. Med. House Officer, Boston City Hosp., 1905-07. Dermatol. House Officer, 1907-08, Asst. Dermatol., 1910-23, Assoc. Dermatol., 1923-25, Dermatol., 1925-28. Chief, Dermatol. Dept., 1928-29, and Chief, Dept. of Dermatol. and Syphilis, 1929-36, at Mass. General Hosp., where he has been Member of Board of Consultation since 1935. At Harvard Med. School he was Asst. in Dermatol., 1920-22; Instructor in Dermatol., 1922-26; Asst. Prof. of Dermatol., 1926-29, and Clinical Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol., 1929-36. He serves as Consulting Dermatol. to Peter Bent Brigham Hosp.; Children's Hosp.; Boston Lying-In Hosp.; Beth Israel Hosp.; Eye and Ear Infirmary of Boston; Long Island Hosp.; Faulkner Hosp.; Cable Memorial Hosp.; Elliott Community Hosp.; Soldier's Home, and Salem Hosp., Diplomate of Amer. Bd. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Member: Amer. Dermatological Assn.; New England Dermatol. Soc. (Pres., 1920-22), etc. Residence: 36 Jerusalem Rd., Cohasset, Mass. Office: 20 Fairfield St., Boston, Mass.

OLIVER, Dr. FRANCIS WALL, British Botanist; born May 10, 1864, Richmond, Surrey, England; son of Daniel and Hannah (Wall) Oliver; educated at Univ. College, London, D.Sc.; Trinity College, Cambridge, M.A.; Bonn and Tübingen Univs., Germany; Aberdeen Univ., Hon. LL.D.; married Mildred A. Thompson (dec.), Aug. 6, 1896; two sons. Prof. of Botany, Univ. College, London, 1888-1929; now Emeritus Prof. Prof. of Botany, Fouad I Univ., Cairo, 1929-35. Chairman, Desert Com., Egypt, 1940-44. Fellow: Royal Soc.; University College, London. Member: Deutsche Bot. Ges.; Botanical Soc. of Czechoslovakia, and others. Awarded Linnean Medal, 1925. Author: Kerner's Pflanzenleben, 1895; Makers of British Botany, 1913; Exploitations of Plants, 1917; Tidal Lands (with A. E. Carey), 1918; Life and its Maintenance, 1919; numerous memoirs, 1887-1946. Address: Burg el Arab, Egypt; also Ballards Barn, Limpsfield, Surrey, England.

OLIVER, GEORGE (Pen name Oliver Onions), British Author; born 1873, Bradford, Yorkshire; educated at Royal College of Art, Senior Natl. Scholar, 1898; abroad; married Berta Ruck; two sons. Press Artist, 1899-1901; wrote many newspaper articles, magazine stories, etc. Author: Widdershins, 1911; Ghosts in Daylight; The Painted Face; Little Devil Doubt; Good Boy Seldom; Whom God Hath Sundered; The Story of Ragged Robyn, 1945; Poor Man's Tapestry, 1946, etc. Residence: Aberdovey, Wales. Address: A. P. Watt & Sons, London, England.

OLIVER, Hon. L. STAUFFER, American Jurist; born Nov. 29, 1879, Phila., Pa.; son of Jesse H. and Fannie C. (Meyers) Oliver; educated at Univ. of Penna., Wharton School, 1900, Law School, LL.B., 1903; Hahnemann Medical College, hon. LL.D., 1943; married Mina C. Fichtel, Feb. 10, 1932; three children by a former marriage. Attorney at Law, 1903; Member, law firms of Weill & Oliver, 1912-20, Weill, Oliver & Blakely, 1920-24, Oliver & Mancill, 1924-29, and Oliver, Mancill, Deeter & Shallow, 1929-37. Pennsylvania State Counsel, H.O.L.C., 1933-37. President Judge of Court of Common Pleas, No. 7, Philadelphia Co. Trustee, Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital of Phila.; Chmn., Board of Directors, United Nations Council of Phila.; Chmn., Bd. of Adjustment, Edgmont Township, Del. Co.; one of delegates representing City of Philadelphia at U. N. Conf. at San Francisco, May 1945 and at London, Nov.-Dec. 1945. Member: Amer. Judicature Soc.; Penna. and Amer. Bar Assns.; Federal Bar Assn., (first Pres. of Eastern Penna. Chapter), etc. Residence: 1900 Rittenhouse Square. Chambers: 487 City Hall, Philadelphia 7, Pennsylvania.

OLIVER, Dr. MANUEL MARÍA, Argentine Educator; born Jan. 18, 1877, Lomas de Zamora, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Tomas Oliver and Maria Echeverria de O.; educated at Faculty of Philosophy and Letters of Buenos Aires, Ph.D. 1919; married Adela Lojo Salgado, Nov. 19, 1910; three children. Journalist, 1898-1906; Educator since 1906. Prof., Rector and Vice-Rector, various Natl. Colleges in Buenos Aires, 1913-25. Director, newspaper "Sarmiento," 1904-10; Secy. to Chief of Police of Buenos Aires, 1906-07; Secy., Government of Province of Buenos Aires, 1910-13; Secy., Natl. Board for Conservation of Historic Monuments. Founder: Bachellerato Nocturno, Buenos Aires; Circulo de Periodistas de Mar del Plata. Director, Universidad Popular La Argentina. Author: La Vida de Gervasio Antonio de Posadas (awarded Gold Medal in San Francisco (U. S.) Exposition, 1915); also texts on history, sociology, novels, social criticism, and works on education, teaching and biography. Residence: Laprida No. 1024. Office: Corrientes No. 576, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLIVER, Dr. OREN AUSTIN, American Orthodontist; born August 16, 1887, in Sinking Creek, Virginia; son of Stonewall Jackson and Susan Elizabeth (Givens) Oliver; studied at Virginia Christian College; Virginia Polytechnic Institute; University Medical and Dental College; Harvard and Northwestern Univs.; Massachusetts General Hospital; Atlanta Dental College, D.D.S., 1909; married Floy Huntley 1917; four children. Began dental practice in 1909. First Editor of the Journal of the Tennessee State Dental Assn.; now Assoc. Editor of the American Journal of Orthodontics and Oral Surgery. Instructor in Orthodontics in Dewey School of Orthodontia, 1916-18, and Professor and Vice-President of that institution until 1926; Professor of Orthodontics, Vanderbilt Univ. School of Dentistry, also Member of the Executive Council, 1917-26. He is now Professor of Clinical Dental Surgery and Chief Visiting Surgeon to the Dental Clinic of Vanderbilt Univ.; Representative of the Tennessee State Dental Association to the Public Health Council of the Tennessee State Department of Public Health since its organization in 1935, now Chairman. Co-author of textbook, Labio-Lingual Technic. Fellow of American College of Dentists and International College of Dentists. Member and Ex-President of Southern Society of Orthodontists; American Association of Orthodontists; Fifth District Dental Society; Tennessee State Dental Association and American Dental Association. Residence: Belle Meade Blvd. Office: 1915 Broad St., Nashville, Tenn.

OLIVER, Hon. Sir ROLAND GIFFARD, M.C., British Jurist; born May 5, 1882, Kensington, London; son of Edmund Ward and Eliza (Dunière) Oliver; educated at Marlborough College; Christ Church College, Oxford, B.A.; married Winifred Burnaby, Mar. 1923. Called to the Bar, June 9, 1909; practiced 1918-38. Made King's Counsel, Mar. 1925; Member of Budget Leakage Inquiry, May, 1936. Appointed Chairman of Committee on Courts Martial, 1938; Chairman of Committee on Prison and Detention Camps, 1943. High Court Judge since Oct. 1938. Residence: Capel-Orlestone, Ashford, Kent. Address: Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England.

OLIVER, Dr. THOMAS EDWARD, American Philologist; born 1871. Author: The Modern Language Teacher's Handbook, 1935. Editor: Suggestions and References for Modern Language Teachers, 2nd edition revised and enlarged, 1917; The Mérope of George Jeffreys as a Source of Voltaire's Mérope, 1927, etc. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

OLIVER, TRAVIS, American Bank President; born Dec. 28, 1886, Pennsylvania; educated at high school; married; one son. Bank Collector, 1903. Pres. and Director, Central Savings Bank and Trust Co.; Treas. and Director, Peoples Homstead and Savings Assn., and Delta Air Corp. (Delta Airlines). Director, Arkansas and Louisiana Midland Railway Co., Monroe, La. Member, Advisory Board, R.F.C., New Orleans, and of State Bank Research Division, American Bankers Assn. Pres., Louisiana Bankers Assn., 1926. State Vice-Pres. for Louisiana, A.B.A.; Member, Exec. Council, 1936-37. Chairman, Aviation Com., Monroe (La.) Chamber of Commerce. Address: Monroe, Louisiana.

OLIVER, VIC, American Comedian and Conductor; born July 8, 1898, Vienna, Austria; son of Baron Victor and Josephine (Rauch) von Samek; educated at Univ. of Vienna; Commercial Acad., Vienna; Conservatories of Music, Vienna and Paris; married Natalie F. Conder, Oct. 7, 1946. Conductor of Operas and Symphonies in Austria, 1920; entered vaudeville, Boston, Mass., 1926; made several pictures with Fox, Gaumont British, and Independents, in England; won Radio Popularity Contest No. 1, 1938; appeared in four radio series (68 weeks each); five West End shows (14 months each). Conductor and Director of British Concert Orchestra. Governor, Westminster Hospital; Royal Aylesbury Hospital. Vice-President, Buckinghamshire Farmers Union; Variety Artists Federation; Variety Benevolent Assn. Address: 67 Westminister Gardens, London, S.W. 1, England.

OLIVER BENNETT, VIRIATO ERNEST, Spanish Lawyer; born Mar. 15, 1877, London, England; son of Viriato and Maria Elizabeth (Bennett) Oliver; educated at Mrs. Wilson's School, London; Instituto de Segunda Enseñanza, Colegio Luis Vives, Valencia; Universidad Literaria (Faculty of Law and Faculty of Physico-Chemical Sciences), Valencia, lic. law (with honours) 1899. Asst. Judge, Police Courts, Valencia, several years; practiced before all courts in Valencia until 1923. Engaged in practice of law at Denia, since 1923; taught mathematics and English at Ateneo Mercantil, Valencia and Institución para la Enseñanza de la Mujer, 1916-23 (Secy. General of both institutions). Commn. Merchant and Foreign Agent and Manager of own firm V. E. Oliver and Secy. of Oliver & Co. (exporters of dried fruits), 1906-23, Manager since 1924. Secy., Sección de Ciencias Sociales, Ateneo Científico, Valencia, 1901-05; Member, Ilustre Colegio de Abogados, Valencia, since 1900. Awarded 1st Prize in Natural History, Instituto de Segunda Enseñanza, Valencia and in Mercantile Law from Univ. of Valencia, 1893, 1899. Editor (weekly paper), "El Amigo del Pueblo", Denia-Valencia, 1901-05. Author: "La Paz Mundial" (a translation into Spanish of President Wilson's speeches), 1919. Served in Spanish Army, 1897-99. Address: Calle Patricio Ferrandiz 10, Denia, Prov. Alicante, Spain.

OLIVER, Dr. WADE WRIGHT, American Bacteriologist; born Aug. 30, 1890, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Dr. John Chadwick and Carrie Frances (Wright) Oliver; educated at Univ. of Mich., A.B. 1912; Univ. of Cincinnati, M.D. 1915; married Magdalena Phillipp, June 1, 1923. With Rockefeller Internatl. Health Foundation, Brazil, 1916; Prof. of Bacteriol. at Long Island College Hosp., Brooklyn, 1917. Visiting Prof. of Bacteriol. at Med. College of Univ. of Chicago, 1923; Visiting Prof. of Bacteriol. and Immunol. under auspices of Rockefeller Internatl. Health Foundation, School of Hygiene of Univ. of Philippines, 1930-31. Prof. of Bacteriol. at Long Island College of Med., 1930-48; Acting Dean, 1935-37. Associate Director of Medical Science, Rockefeller Foundation, 1948 —. Chairman and Vice-President Section N (Med. Sciences), American Assn. for Advancement of Science, 1942. Member: Permanent Bd. of Hon. Consultants of Army Med. Library, Washington, D. C. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Amer. Tropical Med. Soc.; Soc. of Experimental Pathols.; Soc. of Amer. Bacteriols.; Internatl. Leprosy Assn., etc. Author: Sky Rider—Volume of Verse, 1928; Stalkers of Pestilence—The Story of Man's Ideas of Infection, 1930; Fantasia—A Volume of Verse, 1938; The Man Who Lived for Tomorrow—A Biography of William H. Park, M.D. (Dutton), 1941. Address: Rockefeller Foundation, 49 W. 49th St., New York, N. Y.

OLIVER, Dr. WALTER REGINALD BROOK, New Zealand Museum Director; born Sept. 7, 1883, Launceston, Tasmania; son of Henry and Josephine Caroline (Stevenson) Oliver; educated at Victoria College, Univ. of New Zealand, B.Sc. 1927, M.Sc. 1928, D.Sc. 1934; married Isabella Anne Cardno, Sept. 7, 1920; three children. Asst. in Dominion Museum, Wellington, 1920-28; Director, since 1928. Pres., New Zealand Assn. of Scientific Workers, 1943-44; Govt. Member, Council of Royal Soc. of New Zealand since 1928. Fellow, Royal Soc. of New Zealand, since 1927 (awarded Hector Medal for researches in botany). Hon. Member: Swedish Phytogeographical Soc.; Fiji Soc. of Science and Industry. Pres., Royal Australasian Ornithologists Union, 1943. Member: Royal Soc. of New Zealand, Wellington Branch (Pres. 1930-31); Wellington Botanical Soc. (Pres. 1939-43); British Ecological Soc.; Royal Zoological Soc. of New South Wales; Malacological Soc. of London; British Ecological Soc. Author: New Zealand Birds, 1930; The Genus Coprosma, 1935; also more than 60 papers on zoology, botany, and geology published in scientific journals in New Zealand, Australia, and England. Address: Buckle St., Wellington, New Zealand.

OLIVER, Hon. WEBSTER J., American Jurist; born Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 14, 1888; son of William P. and Frances L. (Fortune) Oliver; educated at St. Lawrence Univ. (Brooklyn Law School), LL.B. 1911, hon. LL.D. 1941; married Genevieve M. Carlin, June 27, 1917; one son. Began practice of law as member of the firm of Oliver & McNevin in 1912; member of Leubuscher, Kayser & Oliver, 1916. Appointed Special U. S. Attorney in 1935; Assistant Attorney-General in Charge of Customs, 1938. Presiding Judge of United States Customs Court since 1940. Residence: 2215 Newkirk Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. Office: 201 Varick St., New York, N. Y.

OLIVERA, RICARDO, Argentine Diplomat; born June 10, 1886, Buenos Aires, Argentina; educated at University of Buenos Aires, Dr. of Laws and Social Sciences; studied at the Sorbonne and the College of France. Served as Professor, Faculty of Economic Sciences, University of Buenos Aires; formerly Professor of Argentine History, the Colegio Nacional, Buenos Aires. Secretary to the President of the nation during the terms of Dr. Roque Saenz Pena and Dr. Victorino de la Plaza. 2nd Class Secretary of Legation, later 1st Class Secretary of Legation; First Secretary of Special Mission to Uruguay to determine jurisdiction over the waters of the Rio de la Plata; Secretary of the Arbitration between Venezuela and the United States before the Court of The Hague, etc. Chargé d'Affaires in Italy and Switzerland, 1909. Secretary to the President-Elect during official visits to European governments; became Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary (Second Class) in Sweden, and (of First Class) successively in Ecuador, Paraguay, Rumania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Sweden, Norway and Finland. Appointed Argentine Ambassador to Mexico, 1938; Ambassador to Germany, 1939; Ambassador to France, 1942-43; Political Adviser, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1945 —; Chairman, Commission on Political Matters. Delegate to the Extraordinary Session of the League of Nations, 1937; to the regular Assembly of the League, 1938. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OLIVIER, Dr. CHARLES POLLARD, American Astronomer; born Charlottesville, Va., April 10, 1884; son of George W. and Katherine R. (Pollard) Olivier; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.A. 1905, M.A. 1908, Ph.D. 1911; University of California, grad. work, 1909-10. Fellow, University of Virginia, 1905-09 and 1911; Fellow and Assistant, Lick Observatory, 1909-10. Professor, Astronomy and Physics, Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga., 1911-14; Assistant and later Associate Professor, Astronomy, University of Virginia, 1914-28; Professor of Astronomy and Director, Flower Observatory, University of Pennsylvania, since 1928; Director, Cook Observatory, since 1940. Member: American Astronomical Society; Société Astronomique de France; Société Astronomique d'Anvers; American Philosophical Society; Society for Research in Meteorites (Vice-President, 1942); International Astronomical Union (President, Meteor Commission, 1925-35), etc. Founder and Pres., American Meteor Soc.; Vice-Pres., Amer. Meteoritical Soc., 1944 —; Scientific Consultant, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, 1943-45. Fellow, Royal Astronomical Soc., etc. Author: Meteors, 1925; Comets, 1931; also numerous articles in observatory publications, Encyclopedia Britannica and Encyclopedia Americana, etc. Address: Upper Darby, Pa.

OLIVIER, LAURENCE KERR, British Actor; born May 22, 1907, Dorking, Surrey, England; son of Gerard Kerr Olivier; educated at Central School of Speech-Training and Dramatic Art, London; married Vivien Leigh, Aug. 30, 1940; one son by first marriage. Made first appearance on stage, 1922. Appeared in Back to Methuselah, Taming of the Shrew, Bird in Hand, at Royalty Theatre, 1928; Capt. Stanhope in Journey's End, Apollo Theatre, 1928; title role in Beau Geste, His Majesty's Theatre, 1929; Prince Po in The Circle of Chalk, 1929; Paris Bound, 1929; Stranger Within, Garrick Theater, 1929. First American appearance at Eltinge Theatre in Murder on Second Floor, 1929; returned to London in The Last Enemy, Fortune Theatre, 1929; in Private Lives, 1929; in Rats of Norway, Playhouse, 1933; The Green Bay Tree, Cort Theatre, N. Y., 1933; Biography, Globe Theatre, 1934; Queen of Scots, New Theatre, 1934; Theatre Royal, at Lyric Theatre, 1934; Ringmaster, Shaftesbury,1935; under own management played in Golden Arrow, Whitehall, 1935; appeared in Romeo and Juliet, New Theater, 1935; Bees on Boat Deck, 1936; Hamlet, Twelfth Night, Henry V, and Macbeth, Old Vic season, 1937; Othello, King of Nowhere, and Coriolanus, Old Vic season, 1938; in No Time for Comedy, N. Y., 1939; commenced film career, 1930; in pictures Too Many Brooks, Potiphar's Wife, Friends and Lovers, Yellow Passport, Westward Passage, Temporary Widow, As You Like It, Fire Over England, Twenty One Days, Divorce of Lady X, Q Planes, Wuthering Heights, Rebecca, Pride and Prejudice, 49th Parallel, and Lady Hamilton. Returned to England, 1940, trained as pilot; joined Fleet Air Arm; released 1943 to make Demi-Paradise, then Henry V; permanently released, 1944; appeared in Peer Gynt, Arms and the Man, and Richard III, Old Vic season, 1944-45; played in Richard II, Peer Gynt and Arms and the Man before troops in Antwerp, Brussels, Hamburg, and Paris, 1945; in Henry IV Part I, Henry IV Part II, Oedipus, The Critic, Uncle Vanya, and Arms and the Man, 2nd Old Vic season, 1945-46. Directed and played in King Lear, 1946-47; directed revival of Skin of Our Teeth, London, 1946; produced and directed Born Yesterday, 1946. Address: 4 Christchurch St., London, England.

OLIVIER-MARTIN, Prof. FRANÇOIS (JEAN MARIE), French Jurist; born Oct. 30, 1879, Binic, Bretagne, France; educated at Collège de Dinan; Faculty of Law and Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Rennes, 1896-99; Faculty of Law, Paris, Ecole des Hautes Etudes (Sorbonne), 1899-1904; Hon. Dr., Univs. of Riga, Cologne and Montreal; married Renée Senn, 1905; three children. Lectured at Univ. of Lyon, 1905; Faculty of Law at Rennes, 1906; Asst., 1908; Prof., 1920. Lecturer, later Prof., Univ. of Paris, Faculty of Law, 1921 and 1922; visited Universities in various foreign countries, 1925-40; participated in international congresses at Brussels, 1923; Oslo, 1928; Warsaw, 1933; Zurich, 1938. Member, Supreme Court of Justice, Riom, 1940-42. Now Prof., Faculty of Law, Univ. of Paris. Pres., Société d'Histoire du droit; Director, Revue historique de droit français et étranger. Assoc. Member: Polish Acad. of Science; Roumanian Acad. Resident Member, Société des Antiquaires de France; Member, Comité des Travaux historiques; Académie des Inscriptions et Belles Lettres (Institut de France). Knight, Legion of Honor. Author: L'Assemblée de Vincennes de 1329 et ses conséquences, 1909; Histoire de la Coutume de la Prévôté et Vicomté de Paris (2 vols.), 1922-30; L'organisation corporative de la France d'ancien régime, 1938; Précis d'histoire du droit français (4th ed.), 1946. Address: Faculty of Law, Université de Paris, Paris, France.

OLIVO, Dr. OLIVIERO MARIO, Italian Anatomist; born May 24, 1896, Trieste, Italy; son of Antonio and Maria (Kuk) Olivo; educated at Univ. of Turin, M.D. 1921; worked in Zeiss Laboratory, Jena, 1924; Rockefeller Fellow, Würzberg, 1926-27; Asst., Rockefeller Inst., New York, 1928-29; married Dr. Eletta Porta, July 23, 1931; three children. Asst. Prof. of General Biology, Univ. of Turin, 1926-32; Asst. Prof. of Anatomy, R. Istituto di Magistero Educazione fisica, 1922-23; Privatdocent in Histology and General Biology, 1928; Assoc. Prof. of Histology and Embryology, Univ. of Bologna, 1932; Prof. of Histology and Embryology, 1935; Prof. of Normal Human Anatomy, Univ. of Bologna; Acting Director, Inst. of Histology and General Physiology. Academician: Accademia delle Scienze, Inst. of Bologna. Corresponding Academician, Accademia delle Scienze, Turin. Corresponding Member: Accademia di Medicina, Turin; Philomathic Soc., Paris. Residence: Via Mazzini 87. Office: Via Belmeloro 14, Bologna, Italy.

OLKON, Dr. DAVID MORTIMER, American Neuropsychiatrist; born Sept. 15, 1877, Vilna, Russia; son of Eliezer and Dinah Olkon; educated at Univ. of Chicago, S.B. and A.M. (with honors), and Univ. of Ill., M.D. 1908; post-grad. work in Berlin (1923); Paris (1923-24); London (1924); Univ. of Vienna (Austria), M.D. 1921 and 1922; married Dora Berkman, Mar. 6, 1924. Attending Neurol. and Psych., Mt. Sinai Hosp., Chicago; Attending Neuropsych., Michael Reese Dispensary, and Chicago Home for Friendless. Assoc. Prof. of Neuropsych., Univ. of Ill. College of Med.; Attending Neuropsych. at Neuropsych. Clinic, Neuropsych. Inst., and Attending Neuropsych at Research and Educational Hosps. Dir. of Med. Relief in Turkey and Subcarpathia, following World War I, in Lithuania, 1920-21; Regional Assoc. Dir. of Med. Relief in Poland and Russia, 1920-21. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science, etc. Author: Essentials of Neuropsychiatry; also many articles dealing with research work in neuropsychiatry. Captain, Med. Corps, U. S. Army, World War I. Address: 1919 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 5, Calif.

OLLEN, NATANAEL PER, Swedish Editor; born May 30, 1879, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Per and Nella (Dahlborg) Ollen; educated at Norra Latin läroverket, Stockholm, 1890-97; Univ. of Uppsala, 1903-04; married Ebba Ericson, Dec. 7, 1906; five children. Reporter, Svenska Morgonbladet, 1897; Chief Editor, 1904; Financial Manager, 1910; Editor-in-Chief, 1917-37. Director, Union of Christian Journalists of Sweden (Frikyrkliga Pressmannaforeningen) for many years; Trustee, School and Publishing Dept., Svenska Missionsforbundet. Trustee: Swedish Mongol Mission; Christian Movement against Alcoholism in Sweden. Author: Toner ur Folkens Pilgrimssang, 1915; Soluppgang, 1916; P. P. Waldenstrom, 1917; Den Inre Missionens Historia, 1918; Fran Vasterns Till Osterns Namnar, 1937; En Saningsman, 1942; De Ha Lett Guds Hand, 1944. Address: Norr Mälarstrand 80, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLLIER, Prof. FRANÇOIS, French Professor of Greek Language and Literature; born Mar. 22, 1888; son of Félix and Jeanne (Daniel) Ollier; educated at Faculty of Letters, Lyon and Paris; Litt. D., Paris, 1934; married Jeanne Bonnet, Sept. 22, 1920; five children. Prof., Lyceum of Digne, 1911-12; Lyceum of Puy, 1919-20; Lyceum of Bourg-en-Bresse, 1920-24; Lyceum of Lyon, 1924-27; Lecturer, Faculty of Letters, Lyon, 1927; Prof. of Greek Language and Literature, since 1935. Author: Le Mirage Spartiate, I, 1934; II, 1943; Édition de la République des Lacédémoniens de Xénophon, 1933; Traduction de l'Économique de Xénophon, 1942. 2nd Lieut., French Army, Cavalry, World War I. Address: 17 Avenue Maréchal de Saxe, Lyon, France.

OLLIVIER, ALBERT, French Journalist. Author: La commune (1871), 1939. On staff of newspaper "Combat" Paris. Address: c/o "Combat," Paris, France.

OLLIVIER, Prof. H., French Physicist; born Mar. 27, 1879, Talence (Gironde), France; educated at Normal Superior School, Paris; Asst., Univ. of Paris, 1902, Sc.D. 1906; married Claire Bernard; one daughter. Asst., Normal Superior School, Paris; Lecturer, Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Lille, 1907-19; Prof., Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Strasbourg, since 1919. Engaged in research work on capillarity, physicochemistry, electromagnetics, optics, magnet-optics. Member, French Physical Soc. Decorated Knight, Legion of Honor; awarded prize of Inst. of France; Prix de Parville; Prix Lacaze. Author: Cours de Physique Générale (3rd ed.) and notes and memoirs on capillarity, magnetism, magneto-optics, etc. Address: Institut de Physique, 3 rue de l'Université, Strasbourg, France.

OLLIVIER, MAURICE, Canadian Parliamentary Counsel; born Dec. 19, 1896, Quebec, P. Q., Canada; son of N. M. Ollivier, and Heloise Roy Ollivier; educated at Quebec Seminary, B.A. 1916; Laval University, LL.L. in 1920; Montreal University, LL.D. 1933; married Blanche Bourget, Dec. 20, 1922; three children. Began career as a practicing attorney, 1920; named Special Officer in the Department of the Attorney General of the Province of Quebec, 1922; Law-Clerk, House of Commons in Ottawa, 1925. Secretary to the Right Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, 1929. Professor of Constitutional Law in the Faculty of Social, Economic and Political Sciences of the University of Ottawa; teaches Civil and Criminal Law in the Canonical Faculty. Expert Witness before the Special Committee of Commons on the British North America Act, 1935. President, Institut Canadien Français and of the Alliance Française. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada. Hon. Member of the Bar of Port-au-Prince (Haiti). Author: Le Canada, Pays Souverain (1935); L'Avenir Constitutionnel du Canada (1935); Le Statut de Westminister (1933); Problems of Canadian Sovereignty (1945). Address: Parliament Bldgs., Ottawa, Canada.

OLMSTED, Dr. JAMES MONTROSE DUNCAN, American Physiologist; born May 21, 1886, Lake City, Iowa; son of Jephtha Montrose and Ada Maria (Duncan) Olmsted; received A.B., Middlebury College, 1907, Hon. Sc.D. 1942; B.A., Oxford, 1911, M.A. 1914; M.A., Harvard, 1918, Ph.D. 1920; married Evangeline Harris, June 30, 1927. Teacher, Spring Valley, N. Y., High School, 1907-08; Rhodes Scholar, 1908-11, Oxford; Prof. of Natural Sciences. Shorter College, Rome, Ga., 1911-12; Asst. and Assoc. Prof. of Biology, Richmond Univ., 1912-15; Austin Teaching Fellow, Harvard, 1919; Assoc. in Physiol., Univ. of Illinois Med. School, 1920; Asst. Prof., later Assoc. Prof. of Physiol., Univ. of Toronto, 1920-27; Prof. of Physiol., Med. School, Univ. of Calif., since 1927. Fellow, C.R.B. Foundation, Brussels, 1930. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member, Amer. Physiol. Soc.; Soc. for Experimental Bio. and Med., etc. Hobby: Painting; Member of San Francisco Art. Assn. Author of Claude Bernard, Physiologist (Harper Bros.), 1938; about 125 articles on Physiological subjects, including chapters in Macleod's Physiology in Modern Medicine (Mosby), 1941; François Magendie (Schuman), 1945; Charles-Edouard Brown-Sequard, Nineteenth Century Neurologist and Endocrinologist, 1947. Served as Private, Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917; 2nd Lt. Sanitary Corps, 1918-19. Address: Medical School, University of California, Berkeley 4, Calif.

OLMSTED, Dr. WILLIAM H., American Physician; born Dec. 20, 1887, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; son of George M. and Ella (Shaver) Olmsted; educated at Coe College, B.S.; Johns Hopkins Med. School, M.D.; married Jane Young, 1920; two children. Resident, Washington Univ. Hosp., 1914-15; Clinical Research Pathol., 1914-15; Assoc. in Medicine, 1915-19; Resident in Medicine, 1917. Asst. Physician, Barnes Hosp., 1919; Instructor in Medicine, Washington Univ., 1919-20; Assoc. in Medicine, 1920-29; Assoc. Prof. of Clinical Med., 1929—. Member: Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Soc. of Experimental Biol. and Med.; Central Soc. for Clinical Research; Amer. Med. Assn. Contributor to medical literature. Address: 3720 Washington Blvd., St. Louis 8, Mo.

OLOFSSON, MARIA, Swedish Author; born June 5, 1886, Ardre, Gotland, Sweden; daughter of Oskar and Zephie (Lagerlund) Olofsson. Contributor to Swedish and Swedish-American newspapers and magazines since 1904. Author: Blommande hagtorn (poetry), 1911; Hembygd och hägring (poetry), 1926; the novels: Slagrutan, 1930; Sjunkna klockor, 1933; children's books: Kalle Skata; Östansol och Morgonvind; De fyra fårgarna; Trollkalas; Frans Fladdiers frieri; Piff och Paff; (novels) Ekarna grönska sent, 1942; Vintern viker, 1944. Address: Fredsgatan 5, Växjö, Sweden.

OLPIN, Dr. A(LBERT) RAY, American University President; born June 1, 1898, Pleasant Grove, Utah; son of Albert Henry and Alvira (Smith) Olpin; educated at Brigham Young Univ., A.B. 1923; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1930; married Elva Chipman, April 12, 1922; four children. Instructor in Mathematics and Physics, Brigham Young Univ., 1922; Asst. in Physics, Columbia Univ., 1924-25; Member, technical staff, Bell Telephone Laboratories, 1931-33; Director of research, Kendall Mills, Charlotte, N. C., 1933-39; Director of industrial research and field director of engineering experiment station, Ohio State Univ., 1939-42; Prof. of Industrial Research, 1939-45; Director of Research, Ohio State Univ. Research Foundation, 1939-42; Executive Director, 1942-45; Pres., Univ. of Utah, since January 1, 1946. Consultant, Anthony Wayne Research Foundation, Toledo, Ohio, 1944-45. Member, Research Advisory Com., (Chairman, 1943), National Assn. of Manufacturers. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Ceramic Soc.; National Farm Chemurgic Council; (Assoc.) Com. on Economic Development. Fellow, Amer. Physical Soc. Assoc. Editor, Journal of Applied Physics, 1937-38. Managing Editor, Science and Appliance, since 1939. Editor, new material section, Review of Scientific Instruments, 1941-42. Author of chapter in Physics in Industry, 1937, chapter in The Return of Opportunity, 1944. Address: University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah.

OLRICH, ERNEST LOUIS, American Business Executive; born July 5, 1889, Paterson, N. J.; son of Frank Olrich; educated at New York Univ. School of Commerce (B.C.S. 1910); married Mary Rose MacChesney, Oct. 16, 1929; two children. Assistant to the President of the National Silk Dyeing Co., Paterson, 1906-19; Vice-Pres. and Manager of the National Bellas Hess Co., New York, 1919-31; Controller and Assistant General Manager, Fred Harvey, Inc., Kansas City, 1931-33. In 1933-36 he was Controller-Secretary for Marshall Field & Co., and Operating Manager of the Retail Division during 1936-37. President of Munsingwear, Inc., 1937-47. Ex-Director and National Vice-President of the Controllers Institute; Director of the Underwear Institute, Member of the Committee on Manufactures of the National Association of Manufacturers, and is former Chairman of the Controllers' Congress of National Retail Dry Goods Association. Chairman, Post-War Planning Commission, State of Minn.; Member, Board of Governors, Smaller War Plant Corp., Region 12. Assistant to the Secretary, U. S. Treasury, in charge of Procurement Division and Consumer Surplus Property Disposal, 1944. Residence: 4301 Fremont Ave. S., Minneapolis, Minnesota.

OLSCHKI, Dr. LEONARD, Historian and Philologist; born July 15, 1885, Verona, Italy; son of Leo S. and Paula (Rosen) Olschki; educated in Florence, Rome and Heidelberg (Ph.D. 1908). Instructor in Italian, Freiburg, Germany. Instructor and Professor of Romance Languages, University of Heidelberg, 1909-32; Exchange and Visiting Professor, University of Rome, 1932-38; Lecturer, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., 1939-40; now Research Associate, Department of Oriental Languages, University of California, Berkeley. Author: Giordano Bruno; La Poesia Italiana del Cinquecento (1933); Struttura Spirituale e Linguistica del Mondo Neolatino; Storia Letteraria delle Scoperte Geografiche (1937); (German): G. B. Guarinis Pastor Fido in Deutschland (1908); Paris nach den altfranzoesischen nationalen Epen (1913); Der ideale Mittelpunkt Frankreichs im Mittelälter in Wirklichkeit und Dichtung (1913); Die Literatur der Technik und der angewandten Wissenschaften vom Mittelalter bis zur Renaissance (1919); Bildung und Wissenschaft im Zeitalter der Renaissance in Italien (1922); Galilei und seine Zeit (1927); Die romanischen Literaturen des Mittelalters (1928); (French) Manuscrits français et peintures des bibliothèques d'Allemagne (1932); (English) Marco Polo's Precursors (1943); Machiavelli, the Scientist (1945); Guillaume Boucher (1946). Address: University of California, Berkeley, Calif.

OLSEN, EUGENE FIELD, American Manufacturer; born May 1, 1896, Rock Rapids, Iowa; son of John and Hattie (Dickinson) Olsen; educated at Iowa State College, 1914-17; Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, Aeronautical Engineer, 1919; married Gertrude Lewis, 1922; one child. Began as a minor executive, 1919; Pres., Anchor Concrete Machinery Co., 1920-27. Pres., Consolidated Concrete Machinery Co., 1927-31. Vice-Pres., Besser Manufacturing Co., 1931-32; Pres., Stearns Manufacturing Co., Inc., since 1932. Pres., Treas. and Director, Bassett Foundry, Adrian, Mich. Pres. and Director, Indiana Limestone Co., Inc., Bedford, Ind., 1945-46; Partner, Ida Manufacturing Co., Ida, Mich.; Partner, Purity Ice and Ice Cream Co., Adrian, Mich. Vice-Pres. and Director: Euro Canning Co.; Local Loan Co., Ames, Iowa. Director: Kold-Hold Corp., Lansing, Mich.; Good Roads Machinery Co., Detroit, Mich.; Sperti Foods, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio, and New York; Stone Machinery Co., Syracuse, N. Y., etc. Lieut., Air Service (U.S.A.), 1917-19. Member, Aeronautical Assn. of America. Residence: 19 Maumee Court. Office: 600 E. Beecher St., Adrian, Mich.

OLSEN, Dr. HERLUF VAGN, American Educator; born Aug. 2, 1899, Omaha, Neb.; son of Ole and Karen (Andersen) Olsen; educated at Dartmouth College, B.Sc. 1922, (Hon.) M.A. 1937; Univ. of Copenhagen, 1922-23; Univ. of Chicago, 1923-25; Danish People's Colleges and Cooperative Movement, summers of 1921, 1928, 1922-23; married Elspeth Morton Duncan, Apr. 3, 1926; two children. Fellow, Scandinavian Amer. Foundation, 1922-23; Fellow and Asst., Dept. of Economics, Univ. of Chicago, 1923-25. Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Delaware, 1925-26; Asst. Prof., 1926-28; Assoc. Prof. and Acting Chairman of Dept. of Economics, 1928-29. Secy. and Asst. Prof., Business Statistics, Amos Tuck School, Dartmouth College, 1929-37; Asst. Dean, 1930-37; Prof. of Business Statistics and Dean since 1937. Principal Training Specialist, U. S. Civil Service Commn., 1941-42. Consultant, U. S. Civil Service Commn., since 1943; U. S. Navy V12 Program, 1943; Director, Study of Higher Education and the War, U. S. Congress, 1944-45. Chairman, Red Cross War Fund Campaign, 1944 and 1945. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Collegiate Schools of Business (Secy.-Treas., 1940-43; Vice-Pres., 1943-44; Pres., 1944-46). Editor of series of texts on business and economics for Henry Holt & Co.; also contributor of many articles. Address: The Amos Tuck School of Business Administration, Hanover, N. H.

OLSEN, Prof. JOHN CHARLES, American Chemist; born 1869. Author: Permanganic Acid by Electrolysis, 1906; Pure Foods (their adulteration, nutritive value and cost), 1911; Purification of Air and Water by Means of Ozone, 1913. Address: 316 Argyle Road, Brooklyn, N. Y.

OLSEN, (JOHN) OLE, American Actor. Formed team with Chick Johnson (Olsen & Johnson), 1914—. Appeared in vaudeville for many years; in own stage production of "Hellzapoppin'," 1938; "Sons of Fun," 1941; "Laughing Room Only," 1945. Motion Pictures include: Hellzapoppin'; Crazy House; The Ghost Catchers; See My Lawyer, etc. Toured England, 1948. Address: c/o Actors Equity Association, 45 W. 47th St., New York, N. Y.

OLSEN, LARS M., Danish Publisher and Political Leader; born July 7, 1905, Copenhagen, Denmark; son of N. I. and Ella Olsen; educated at Council School; Booksellers Trade School; married Else Schönewolf, Feb. 15, 1936; two children. Editor, Rod Ungdom (Social democratic youth paper), 1927-37; Member, Social Democratic Youth Com. in Denmark since 1938; Pres., Social Democratic Union, Copenhagen. Delegate to International and Scandinavian Conferences on social democratic youth movement. Member, Social Democratic Party (Central Board) 1939. Publisher at Fremad, since 1942. Secy., Cooperative Confederation, 1936-39; City Councillor, Copenhagen, 1936-46; Member of Board, Copenhagen Municipal Library, 1936-46; Member of Folktinget (Parliament), since 1939. Residence: Guldbergs Plads 12, 2. Office: Norrebrogade 54, Copenhagen N, Denmark.

OLSEN, Prof. MAGNUS, Norwegian Professor of Old Norse and Icelandic Language and Literature; born Nov. 28, 1878, Arendal, Norway; son of Ole Christian and Therese Olsen; educated at Univ. of Oslo, cand. phil. 1903; Univ. of Copenhagen, 1905-06; Univ. of Leipzig, 1906; Hon. Dr., Univ. of Lund, 1918; Univ. of Copenhagen, 1929; Univ. of Paris, 1938; Univ. of Reykjavik, 1938; married Gjertrud Mathilde Kjaer, June 28, 1912. Librarian, Univ. Library, Oslo, 1899-1904; Lecturer, Univ. of Oslo, 1904-08; Prof. of Old Norse and Icelandic Language and Literature, since 1908; Dean of Faculty, 1941-43. Member of Direction, Inst. for Comparative Research in Human Culture, 1923-46; Nansen Fund, since 1940; Norsk Folkemuseum, since 1929. Member of various learned societies in Oslo, Deontheim, Stockholm, Gothenburg, Lund, Upsala, Helsinki, Copenhagen, Göttingen, Leiden; English Place-Name Soc.; Viking Club, London; Soc. for Advancement of Scandinavian Study (U.S.A.). Commander, St. Olavs Order (Norway), Icelandic Falcon Order; Knight, Swedish North Star Order. Author: Volsunga Saga, 1908; Norske Gaardnavne, 1910, 1915; Norges Indskrifter, 1917, 1924, 1941; Hedenske Kultminder, 1915; Farms and Fanes of Ancient Norway, 1928; Norröne Studier, 1938; papers on Old Norse texts, runic inscriptions, place-names, mythology, etc. Address: Nedre Skogvei 16, Bestun, Oslo, Norway.

OLSEN, TORVALD ANDREAS SCHRAM, Norwegian Chemical Engineer; born July 2, 1889, Halden, Norway; son of Hroar and Anna Hedvig Olsen; educated at Darmstadt Technical Univ., Germany, Chemical Engineer, 1913; married Eli Killengreen, Feb. 18, 1919; two children. Chemical Engineer in Vilvorde, Belgium, 1913-14, and in Norway, 1915-21. Technical Adviser to Den norske Creditbank, 1921-34; Managing Director, A/S Bjolvefossen, since 1934. Member, Board Com. of the Bourse of Oslo. Member for Norway, Council of Internatl Chamber of Commerce. Member: Norwegian Assn. of Engineers; Polytechnical Soc., Oslo, etc. Residence: Hagan Terrasse 10, Smestad, v. Aker. Office: Akersgt. 8, Oslo, Norway.

OLSON, AXEL REINHOLD, Swedish Editor; born Feb. 17, 1888, Karlskrona, Sweden; son of Sven August and Hilma Victoria (Johanson) Olson; married Anna Lisa Nordbeck, Jan. 6, 1921; two sons. On staff of Karlskrona-Tidningen (newspaper), 1910-21; Chief Editor, Nya Wermlands-Tidningen, Karlstad, 1921-30; Chief Editor, Gefle-Posten and Norrlands-Posten, Gävle, since 1930. Pres.: Newspaper Publishers Assn. of Sweden, 1945; The Assn. of Swedish Conservative Press, 1940. Member, Publicist Club of Sweden. Address: Nygatan 33, Gävle, Sweden.

OLSON, Hon. CULBERT L., American Lawyer; born Nov. 7, 1876, Fillmore, Utah; son of George Daniel and Delilah (King) Olson; educated at Columbian Univ. (now George Washington Univ.), LL.D. 1901; Univ. of Michigan; married Kate Jeremy, Oct. 5, 1905; three sons. Telegraph Operator, 1890. Engaged in newspaper work, 1895-1897. Congressional Secretary, 1897-99. Admitted to Bar, 1901; practiced law in Salt Lake City, 1901-20; partner, Weber & Olson, and Weber, Olson & Lewis. State Senator, Utah, 1916-20. Delegate, Democratic National Convention, 1920. Moved to Los Angeles, 1921 and continued practice of law. Partner with son Richard C. and (now) with son John W. Special Assistant to United States Atty. General, 1936-37. State Senator, Calif. Legislature, 1934-38. Governor, State of California, 1938-42. Member, State Bar of Calif. Author of legislation concerning workmen's compensation insurance, state public utility regulation, state labor laws in Utah establishing collective bargaining and right of peaceful picketing. Sponsored income tax, health insurance, state housing program, exclusive state workmen's compensation insurance, public power development and distribution in Calif. Pardoned Tom Mooney. Residence: 506 S. Mariposa Ave. Office: 639 S. Spring St., Suite 904, Los Angeles, Calif.

OLSON, ERIK, Swedish Civil Engineer; born May 22, 1886, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Edward and Hedvig (Wachenfeldt) Olson; matriculation examination, 1905, final examination, Technical High School, Stockholm, 1910; studies in foreign countries, 1911-14. Engineer, AB Malmö Forenade Bryggerier, 1914-17; Chief Engineer, AB Stockholms Bryggerier, 1917-22; Managing Director, AB Pripp & Lyckholm, Gothenburg (formerly AB J. A. Pripp & Son), since 1922. Member of Board of Directors: Mercantile Academy of Gothburg; Chalmers Technical Academy in Gothenburg. Vice-Chairman, Chamber of Commerce of Gothenburg (Chairman of Section on Industry); Chairman, Technical Assn. of Gothenburg, 1936-37; Vice-Chairman, Swedish Society of Technologists, 1939-41; Member of Board of Directors, The General Export Assn. of Sweden, 1931-46; The Swedish Fair. Member of Parliament (Second Chamber), 1929-33 and since 1941; Delegate of the City of Gothenburg, 1939-40; Member of the First Department, Financial Committee of Gothenburg, 1934-40; Member of Board of Directors of Gas and Electric Works of Gothenburg, 1934-40; Vice-Chairman, 1940. Vice-Chairman, Swedish Brewers Assn.; Member of Board of Directors of Bergslagernas Railway Co., AB Pripp & Lyckholm, Gothenburg, and other industrial companies. President, Chess Confederation of Sweden and of Gothenburg. Knight of the Order of The Northern Star, Knight of the Order of Vasa and Knight Commander of the Order of the White Rose of Finland. Author of some 50 articles on brewing, technical, economical and political subjects and regarding chess, published in Swedish journals, in Nordisk Familjebok, Book of Inventions, memorials and pamphlets. Residence: 4 Humlegardsgatan. Office: Stampgatan 18, Gothenburg, Sweden.

OLSON, Dr. HARRY F., American Acoustical Research Engineer; born Dec. 28, 1902, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; son of F. O. and Nelly (Benson) Olson; educated at Univ. of Iowa, B.E. 1924, M.S. 1925, E.E. 1932, Ph.D. 1928; married Lorene Johnson, June 11, 1935. Research Engineer, R.C.A. Research Laboratory, 1928-32; Acoustical Research Director, R.C.A. Victor Division of R.C.A., 1932-42. Acoustical Research Director, R.C.A. Laboratories, since 1942. Member: Inst. of Radio Engineers; Physical Soc.; Acoustical Soc. of America, etc. Author: Applied Acoustics; Elements of Acoustical Engineering; Dynamical Analogies; also over 49 articles published in scientific journals. Holds 35 patents in U. S. Address: R.C.A. Laboratories, Princeton, N. J.

OLSON, Dr. HERMAN OLOF, American Theologian and Educator; born Oct. 6, 1885, Dassel, Minn.; son of Carl and Beda (Anderson) Olson; educated at Union College, Lincoln, Nebr., B.A. 1911; Univ. of Minnesota, 1911-12, M.A. 1913; Univ. of Uppsala, Sweden, 1912-13; Univ. of Marburg, Germany, 1913; Central Univ., Indiana, Ph.D. 1926; married Bettie Swenson, June 24, 1912; two children. Dean and Instructor of History, Broadview College, La Grange, Ill., 1913-17; Pres., Broadview College, 1917-28. Secy., General Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, Swedish Dept., 1928-38; Miscellaneous Language Dept., 1932-38; Ministerial Assn., South Amer. Division, since 1938. Member, North Central Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools, 1923-28. Author: God's Solid Foundation, 1930; Why So Many Denominations?, 1934, 2nd ed., 1935; Baptism, 1944; The True Church, 1944; The History of Sunday, 1944. Contributor to religious literature in U. S. and South America. Editor: South American Bulletin; Ministerial Assn.; Theological Bulletin (Spanish and Portuguese). Address: 303 Greenwood Ave., Takoma Park, Washington 12, D. C.

OLSON, Dr. KENNETH E., American Journalist and Educator; born in Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 21, 1895; son of Lawrence J. and Ida May (Cedarholm) Olson; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, A.B. in Journalism, 1920, A.M. 1928; Univ. of Bordeaux, France, 1919; Northland College, Ashland, Wis., 1916, LL.D. 1938; married Mildred Alice Nusbaum, June 5, 1922; four children. Reporter on Ashland (Wis.) Press, 1915; The Duluth (Minn.) Tribune and Milwaukee Sentinel, 1916-18. With Milwaukee Journal, 1920-23; Managing Editor, Capital Times, Madison, Wis., 1923-24; New Business and Advertising Manager, Commercial National Bank, Madison, Wis., 1924-26; Manager, Financial advertising agency. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Wisconsin School of Journalism, 1926-30. Market Research Counselor, Northwest Daily Press Assn., and Prof. of Journalism, Univ. of Minnesota School of Journalism, 1930-35. Manager, N. J. Press Assn., and Director, Dept. of Journalism, Rutgers Univ., 1935-37; Dean, Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern Univ., since 1937. Secy.-Treas., Amer. Council on Education for Journalism, since 1939. Member: Illinois Press Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Schools and Departments of Journalism (Pres., 1938), etc. Author: Typography and Mechanics of the Newspaper, 1930; also numerous articles. Served with U. S. Army, A.E.F., 1917-19; discharged as 1st Lt. Served with U. S. Army, 1941-45; helped to organize army universities in Europe. Address: Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

OLSON, Dr. (PER) HJALMAR, Swedish Mathematician and Educator; born Nov. 29, 1884, Gävle, Sweden; son of Anders and Elin H. M. (Fröling) Olson; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, B.Sc. 1907; Univ. of Stockholm, M.Sc. 1921, Sc.D. 1922; married Maria (Maja) Fahlen, 1915; two sons. Asst. Master, Högre Allmänna Läroverket för Gossar å Södermalm, Stockholm, 1906; Master (Adjunct and Lector), 1912-45; Headmaster (Rector) since 1945. Lecturer in Mathematics, Royal Naval College, Stockholm, 1929-45; Secy. and Accountant, School Administration of Stockholm, 1921-36. Author of several elementary mathematical textbooks, pedagogical papers, etc. Address: Södergatan 14, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLSON, Dr. WILLARD CLIFFORD, American Psychologist; born October 8, 1899, Annandale, Minn.; educated at University of Minnesota, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1924, Ph.D. 1926. Assistant in Educational Psychology, 1919-20; Principal and Supt. of Schools, 1920-23; Asst. Instructor and Asst. Prof. in the Univ. of Minnesota, 1923-29; Assoc. Prof. and Prof., Univ. of Michigan, since 1929; now Prof. of Education and Psychology, and Director of Research in Child Development. Secy., Amer. Psychol. Assn., 1937-45. Member: Executive Board, Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies of the University; Natl. Research Council; Social Science Research Council. Author: Problem Tendencies in Children, 1931; Measurement of Nervous Habits in Normal Children, 1930; Growth of the Child as a Whole (Co-author, 1943); Concepts of Growth and Development (Co-author), 1944. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

OLSSON, Dr. BROR (HJALMAR), Swedish Librarian; born Aug. 6, 1894, Alem, Sweden; son of Anton Oskar and Hulda Emilia (Backelund) Olsson; educated at Uppsala Univ., Sept. 11, 1916; fil. magister Apr. 9, 1921; fil. licentiat Nov. 3, 1923; fil. doctor May 31, 1925; married Anna Christina Nilsson, Dec. 25, 1925; two children. Amanuensis, Royal Library, 1927; Librarian, Univ. Library, Lund, 1933; Asst. Librarian, since 1939. Member: Vetenskapssocieteten i Lund; Humanistiska Vetenskapseamfund, Lund. Member, Editorial Staff, Svensk Tidskrift, since 1938. Author: Papyrusbriefe aus der fruhesten Romerzeit, 1925; De grekiska papyrusfynden i Egypten, 1929; Svenska kulturfonder, 1931; Lunds universitets matrikel (joint author with Norlind), 1940; Fynd vid vagen, 1941; Psalmboken som folkbok, 1942; Fran Martin Luther till Sven Lidman, 1943; Anders Elfving, 1944; Aldre andaktslitteratur. Bibliografisk hjalpreda, 1944; Den nya psalmboken (joint author with A. Werin), 1945; Lund genom seklerna, 1946; Svensk lart namnskick, 1946. Joint Editor: Sveriges offentliga bibliotek. Accessionskatalog. 43 (1928, 1932, 1943-47); Svenska folket genom tiderna. 1-13 (1938-40); Svenska flottans historia. 1-3 (1942-45). Address: University Library, Lund, Sweden.

OLSSON, EMIL, Swedish Company Director; born Dec. 18, 1883, Oljehult, Sweden; son of Olof Andersson and Johanna (Mansson) Olsson; married Anna C. Persson, 1912; three children. Director, Kooperative forening Solidar, since 1912. Pres., Malmö City Council, 1927. Chairman: Board of Sydsvenska Kraft A/B; Malmö mjolkcentral; Djupafors fabriks A/B. Address: Malmö, Sweden.

OLSSON, HILDA GUNILLA (Pseudonym: Kerstin Hed), Swedish Author; born May 21, 1890, Hedemora, Sweden; daughter of Kers Fredrik Jansson and Johanna Eriksson; educated at Public Schools, Tarna Folkhogskola, 1909; married Anders Olsson, June 24, 1916; two children. Contributor to various newspapers and magazines under pseudonym of Kerstin Hed, since 1907. Author: Fran Stigarna, 1913; Vagar Och Vandrare, 1916; Arv, 1923; Jord Och Manniskor, 1928; Strommar mot Havet, 1931; Bergslag, 1934; Vägen Till Hemlanden, 1937; Av Jafets Stam, 1939; Jordans Skonhet. 1942; Ovar Sgrenkns Land, 1945, etc. Member: Swedish Red Cross; Svenska Landsbygdens Kvinnoforbund; Dalarnas Fornminnes Och Hembygds-forbund; Natl. Templar Orden; Sveriges For-fattareförening; Södra Dalarnes Hemslojds-förening; Hedemora Kyrkofullmaktige, and Sodra Dalarnes Folkhogskole-elevforbund. Received award from Sveriges Forfattare-forening, 1923; Svenska Statens Forfattarstipendium, 1943 and 1946. Residence: Matsbo, Hedemora, Sweden.

OLSSON, Dr. (KARL) HENRY, Swedish Professor of History of Literature; born Apr. 18, 1896, Köla, Sweden; son of Emil and Anna (Jonsson) Olsson; educated at Uppsala Univ., can. phil. 1918, Ph.L. 1921; Stockholm Univ., Ph.D. 1927; married Birgit Ekelund, 1926; three children. Chief Librarian, Nobel Library, Swedish Acad., 1935-45; Lecturer, History of Literature, Stockholm Univ., 1927-45; title of Professor, 1937; Prof. of History of Literature, Stockholm Univ., 1945. Author: C. J. L. Almquist före Törnrosens bok, 1927; Johan August Hazelius, 1936; Carl Jonas Love Almquist till 1836, 1937; Från Wallin till Fröding, 1939; Den unge-Snöilsky, 1941. Address: Stockholm University, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLSSON, KARL JOHAN, Member of Swedish Parliament; born May 6, 1893, Östmark, Sweden; son of Olof Henricsson and Kerstin Olsson; educated at Agricultural School, 1913-15; married Maj Gertrud Johnsson, Sept. 20, 1940; two children. Began as forest worker in Värmland, agricultural school, 1913-15; foreman for country works, 1916-18; manager of cooperative store, 1918-21; journalist in Luleå, 1922, Boden, 1923-28, and Norrköping, Sweden, 1928-30; Leader, Textile Workers' Union, Sweden, 1930-33; Chief Editor, Västgöta-Demokraten, Borås, Sweden, 1934-40; Ny Tid, Göteborg, Sweden, 1940-45; Chief, Labor Market Commn., Stockholm, since 1946. Member, 1st Chamber of Parliament, Sweden, since 1938. Member: Assn. of Journalists; Swedish Club of Publishers and Editors. Author: Textilarna—History of Swedish Trade Workers' Union, 1938. Residence: Ugglevägen 2, Lidingö. Office: Döbelnsgatan 18, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLSSON, Prof. MARTIN (AXEL VILHELM), Swedish Architect; born Apr. 30, 1886, Tensta, Uppsala län, Sweden; son of arch. Axel Vilhelm and Hulda Charl. (Lindquist) Olsson; educated at Royal Polytechnical Univ., Stockholm, 1908; Uppsala Univ., degree fil. kand. 1912; Stockholm Univ., degree fil. lic. 1914; Royal Polytechnical Univ., Stockholm, degree architect 1915; married Wera Wahlin, 1915; three children. Engaged in architectural and archaeol. work and restorations since 1914. Scientific Controller, restoration of Riddarholms Church, Stockholm, 1914-22; Architect, Royal Building's Admin., Stockholm, since 1918. Conducted archaeol. research and rebuilding of Kalmar Castle since 1919, of Borgholm Castle since 1921 and archaeol. research of old Stockholm Castle since 1922. Prof.: Arch. Section, Royal Acad. Art School, since 1918; Arch. Section, Royal Polytechnical Univ., since 1918. Secy., Rådet till skydd for Stockholms skönhet (public committee for preserving of hist., art and natural beauty of Stockholm), since 1926; Secy., Stockholms Stadsmuseikommitte (Town Museum Com.), 1928-37. Director, Museum of Royal Castle of Stockholm, since 1936; Director, Stockholms Stadsmuseum (Town Museum), 1931-37. Author: Riddarholmskyrkan, konsthistoriska studier, 1918; Magnus Ladulås och Karl Knutssons gravar i Riddarholmskyrkan, 1921; Riddarholmskyrkan, konst- och kulturhistoriskt inventarium I-$$, 1928-37; Stockholms slotts historia intill år 1600; Stockholms Slotts Historia I, 1939; Kalmar Slotts Historia I and IV, 1944, etc. Address: Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Fredsgatan 12, Stockholm, Sweden.

OLSSON, Prof. Dr. NILS, Swedish Agricultural Scientist; born Aug. 9, 1890, Harlösa, Sweden; son of Mårten Ohlsson and Cecilia (Westerlund) Olsson; educated at Univ. of Lund, B.A. 1933; Lic. phil. 1937; Ph.D. 1941; Accademic Docent, Royal Agricultural College of Sweden; married Ann-Stina Buhré, July 29, 1942; three children. Teacher, Agricultural School, Hammenhög, 1918-39; Laborant, Animal Research Station, Royal Agricultural College of Sweden, Uppsala, 1939-43; Prof. and Director of Animal Research, since 1943. Member, Royal Swedish Acad. of Agriculture; Nutrition Soc. Author: Studies on Specific Gravity of Hens' Eggs, 1934; Studies on Some Physical and Physiological Characters in Hens' Eggs, 1936; Untersuchungen über die Möglichkeit Vitamin D-Präparate mit wachsenden Küken zu standardisieren, 1936; A Method for Quantitative Estimation of Vitamin D With Growing Chicks, 1939; Über die Verdaulichkeit von Futterzellulose bei Arbeitspferden, 1943; Studien über die Verwendbarkeit wachsender Küken zur Bestimmung des antirachitischen Effekts von Vitamin D and Ultra violettem Licht, 1941. Address: Kungl. lantbrukshögskolan, Uppsala 7, Sweden.

OLSSON, NILS LUDVIG, Swedish Author and Educator; born Mar. 5, 1893, Lund, Sweden; son of Andreas and Elin (Nilsson) Olsson; educated at elementary school, 1900-07; Normal School (training school for teachers), 1910-14; married Frida Gussenius, Feb. 1, 1919; two children—Per Andreas and Anna Christina. Began career as educator, 1914; now teaching at the Folkskolan, Höör; especially interested in voluntary education since 1919. Lecturer, Educational Committee of the Army. Author (under pseudonym of Nils Ludvig): Di fåste fjeden, 1921; Mä pilepiba a tollabössa, 1922; Nykommed, 1924; Di å vi, 1926; Träskofiolen, 1928; Byahornet, 1931; Solvännare, 1935; Markens melodi, 1937; Nian, 1938; Skolmästaren, 1938; Stadens melodi, 1940; Rim å reson, 1941; Vid Stadsgrånsen, 1945. Winner of Literary Prize, Royal Swedish Academy, 1937. Hon. Member of Lunds Nation, University of Lund. Residence: Oestergatan. Office: Folkskolan, Höör, Sweden.

OLSSON, Dr. OSCAR U. B., Swedish Educator; born July 4, 1877, Helsingborg, Sweden; son of Nils and Petronella (Munsson) Olsson; educated at Univ. of Lund, B.A. 1899; married (1st) Karin Broome, 1903; (2nd) Roine Rydman, 1936; five children. High school teacher, 1903; Normal School, 1909; now Senior Master, Teachers College. Member of Parliament, 1913. Founded Swedish Study Circle Movement, 1902; Leader of Adult Education movement of Internatl. Order of Good Templars, Sweden, 1904-24; Editor, Bokstugan, 1917-36. Member: Royal Committees for Adult Education, 1912-24; Executive Board, World's Assn. for Adult Education, since 1927; Internatl. Chief (Good Templars) since 1930. Studied in England and America (1920, 1925, 1927 and 1935). Member: Temperance Movement (life career); Progressive School Movement, Sweden. Author: Adult Education of and by the People, 1911; Handbook of Adult Education Work of the People, 1920; Adult Education and Self Improvement, 1921; Adult Education in England until 1920, 1924; Schools of Democracy (Amer. Progressive Schools), 1926; School System of Democracy (Swedish School Reform), 1944; The Dramas of Ibsen, 1938. Residence: Djursholm 2, Sweden.

OLSTAD, Dr. OLA, Norwegian Zoologist; born Feb. 22, 1885, Iyer, Norway; son of Kristoffer and Lisbeth (Halverdsen) Olstad; educated at Univ. of Oslo, cand. real, 1916, Dr.Phil. 1925; married, 1922; four children. Zoologist, Zoological Museum of Oslo. Member, Acad. of Sciences, Oslo, since 1935. Author: Rats and Reindeer in the Antarctic, Oslo, 1930; Underrokelse over lerypens forplantningsforhold, Oslo, 1932; Jaktzoologi Oslo, 1945; Beverens (Castor fiber) utbredelse i Norge, Oslo, 1937. Address: Zoological Museum, Oslo, Norway.

OLSZEWSKI, JOZEF, Polish Diplomat. Chief of Political Department of Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Poland with rank of Minister Plenipotentiary; Acting Foreign Minister, 1946. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Warsaw, Poland.

OLT, CHARLES, Hungarian Minister of Welfare; born 1904, Zagreb, Yugoslavia; son of Charles and Malvine (Gulovits)

Olt; educated at Univ. of Budapest, Philosophical Faculty, 1923-26; married Louise Klinger, 1936; three children. Participated in Progressive Youth Movement; Member of Communist Party (illegal), 1930; arrested several times; Commercial Clerk; Pres., Safety of Commercial Clerks, 1945; Member of Parliament; Minister of Welfare since Sept., 1947. Awarded: Silver Medal, Hungarian Freedom Order; Yugoslav Order "Service for People" 2nd class. Address: Akadémia street 3, Budapest V, Hungary.

OLT, Dr. GEORGE RUSSELL, American Educator; born Nov. 10, 1895, Dayton, O.; son of George M. and Cora (Miller) Olt; educated at Lebanon Univ., Ph.B. 1916, A.B. 1917; Wilmington College, A.B. 1918; Univ. of Cincinnati, A.M. 1920; LL.D., Anderson College, 1933; studied in Europe, summers of 1925, 1926, 1938, 1939; summer schools of the Univ. of Chicago (1931), Garrett and Northwestern Univ. (1932), Columbia (1937), New York Univ. (1940), and Univ. of Cincinnati (1941); married Adeline Droscha, 1917; one daughter. Prof. at Lebanon Univ., 1916; Professor of Education at Wilmington College, 1917-20, and Director of the Summer School and Director and Organizer of the Extension Department at the college, 1918-25; Principal of the Queen City College of Pharmacy, Department of Wilmington College, 1918-19, and was Dean of the College from 1921 to 1925. He was Graduate Student and Assistant in the Department of Philosophy, Univ. of Cincinnati, 1924-25, and has since been Dean of Anderson College. Residence: 827 High St. Office: Anderson College, Anderson, Iowa.

OLT, KAROLY, Hungarian Political Leader. Member, National Legislative Assembly of Hungary. Minister of Welfare in Cabinet of Lajos Dinnyes, 1947—. Member of Hungarian Communist Party. Address: Ministry of Welfare, Budapest, Hungary.

OLTRAMARE, Dr. ANDRÉ, Swiss Educator; born Aug. 11, 1884, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Paul and Berthe (Carteret) Oltramare; educated at College of Geneva; Univ. of Geneva; Berlin; Litt. Lic. 1914; Litt.D. 1926; Univ. of Lyon, Hon. Dr. Teacher, Geneva College, 1908; Chairman, Dept. of Education, Geneva State, 1924; Prof., Univ. of Geneva, since 1927. Member of Natl. Council, Berne, since 1946. Chairman, Com., Cours de Moniteurs, Geneva. Vice-Chairman, Swiss Council, Assn. for Peace. Founder, Roman Group, Société des Études latines. Author: Origines de la Diatribe romaine, 1926; many articles in Revue des Études latines. Address: University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland.

OLTVANYI, IMRE, Hungarian Diplomat; Member, National Legislative Assembly of Hungary, 1946-48. Minister to Switzerland, 1948—. Address: Hungarian Legation, Berne, Switzerland.

O'MAHONEY, JOSEPH C., United States Senator from Wyoming; born Nov. 5, 1884, Chelsea, Mass.; educated at Georgetown University, LL.B. 1920; LL.D. from Columbia University, 1938, and from Georgetown University, 1941; married Agnes V. O'Leary, June 11, 1913. Engaged in newspaper business in Boulder, Colo., 1908; City Editor, Cheyenne State Leader, 1916; Member of Conference on Uniform State Laws, 1925-26; First Assistant Postmaster-General, Mar.-Dec. 1933. Appointed by Governor Leslie A. Miller, Dec. 1933, to fill vacancy in U. S. Senate of late John B. Kendrick; elected Nov. 1934 to both the unexpired term ending Jan. 1935 and the full term ending Jan. 1941; re-elected Nov. 1940 and Nov. 1946. Democrat. Residence: Cheyenne, Wyo. Office: Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

O'MALLEY, Dr. CHARLES LOUIS CONOR, Irish Ophthalmologist; born Nov. 25, 1891, Kilmilkin, Co. Galway, Eire; son of Peter James and Mary O'Malley; educated at National Univ. of Ireland, B.Sc., M.D., M.Ch.; in Galway, Dublin, Edinburgh, London (D.Q.M.S.), Punjab (India); married Dr. Sarah Guinevere Joyce; five children. Otorhinolaryngologist, 1923. House Surgeon (at various times), Royal Victoria Hosp. of Dublin, Mercer's Hosp. and Royal Ear Hosp. of London. Formerly Clinical Asst., Central London Ophthalmological Hosp. and Moorfields Hosp. of London. Now Otorhinolaryngological Surgeon, Central Hosp. of Galway; Prof. of Ophthalmology and Otology, University College, Galway. Pres., Irish Ophthalmological Soc., 1943-45. Member: Ophthalmological Soc. of the United Kingdom. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Medicine (London). Medico Capo (Chief Medical Officer), Sovereign Military Order of Malta (Rome). One of the founders of Irish Assn. Ambulance Corps in Ireland, 1937. Author of a series of studies in Eales' Disease, cataract treatment, etc. Surgeon Lt. in the Royal Navy and Capt., R.A.F., World War I. Address: The Crescent, Galway, Ireland.

O'MALLEY, Very Rev. COMERFORD J., C.M., S.T.D., American Educator, Catholic Priest; born Chicago, Ill.; son of Austin O'Malley and Alice (Comerford) O'Malley; educated at St. Mary's Seminary, B.A. 1926, M.A. 1927; Collegio Angelico of Rome, S.T.D. 1929. Ordained Catholic Priest, 1928. Prof. of Theology, St. Mary's Seminary, Perryville, Mo., 1929-34; Prof. of Philosophy, De Paul Univ., 1934-36; Dean of College of Commerce, 1936-44; Pres. of Univ. since 1944; also Chairman of Board of Trustees of Univ. Member: Amer. Assn. of School Administrators; Chicago Recreation Commission; Mayor's Com. on School Board Nominations, etc. Past-Pres., Chicago Catholic Psychological Assn. Address: 2235 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill.

O'MALLEY, FREDERICK JOSEPH, Canadian Editor; born Oct. 31, 1896, Martindale, Quebec; son of Martin and Elizabeth (Kealey) O'Malley; educated at St. Patrick's School; Ottawa Collegiate; married Hughena McEachern, Nov. 21, 1923; four children. Reporter: Ottawa Free Press, 1913-16; Ottawa Journal, 1916-19; Regina Post, 1919-20; Regina Leader, 1920-22; Winnipeg Tribune, 1923-25; City Editor, Winnipeg Tribune, 1925-36; News Editor, 1936-37; Managing Editor, 1937-43; Executive Editor since 1944. Director, Winnipeg Art Gallery Assn. Address: The Tribune, Winnipeg, Man., Canada.

O'MALLEY, Sir OWEN St. CLAIR, K.C.M.G., British Ambassador to Portugal; born May 4, 1887, Eastbourne, Sussex, England; son of Sir Edward and E. W. (Hardcastle) O'Malley; educated at Radley, 1902-06; Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1909; married Mary Dolling Sanders, Oct. 25, 1913; three children. Served in Diplomatic Service of the British Foreign Office, 1911-25; Counsellor at Peking, 1925-27; returned to the Foreign Office, 1928-37; Minister to Mexico, 1937-38; Chargé d'Affaires of British Embassy, Spain, 1938-39; Minister to Hungary, 1939-41. Ambassador to Polish Govt. in London, 1942-45; Ambassador to Portugal, 1945—. Residence: Rockfleet, Westport, Co. Mayo, Eire. Office: Foreign Office, London, S.W. 1, England.

OMAN, ABD-el-REHIM MOHAMMED, Bey, Egyptian Government Official; born June 17, 1888, Asyut, Egypt; educated at Manchester, England, B.A., M.A.; married; five children. Began as a teacher in primary schools and later became Secondary School Teacher, Inspector of Education, Provincial Director of Education, Secondary School Head, Assistant Controller of Primary Education and Controller of Primary Education. Was Secretary-General of the Egyptian University at Cairo; now Assistant Under-Secretary of State for Education of Egypt. Author: Geography of Egypt and the Sudan, Africa and South America. Residence: Zeitun, Cairo, Egypt. Office: Ministry of Education, Cairo, Egypt.

OMAN, CAROLA (Lady LENANTON), British Author; born May 11, 1897, Oxford; daughter of Sir Charles and Lady Oman; educated at Wychwood School, Oxford; married Sir Gerald Lenanton, April 26, 1922. Author: (poetry) The Menin Road; (history) Britain Against Napoleon; (historical novels) The Road Royal; Princess Amelia; Crouchback; The Empress; King Heart; Major Grant; The Best of his Family; Over the Water; Miss Barrett's Elopement; (modern novels) Mrs. Newdigate's Window; Fair Stood the Wind; Nothing to Report; Somewhere in England; (children's books) Ferry the Fearless; Johel; Robin Hood; Alfred, King of the English; Baltic Spy; (historical biographies) Prince Charles Edward; Henrietta Maria; Elizabeth of Bohemia; Nelson. Nursing Member, British Red Cross Soc., 1916-19, 1938; Officer, 1937-47. Address: Bride Hall, Welwyn, Herts., England.

ÖMAN, IVAR, Swedish Political Leader; born Apr. 18, 1900, Djursholm, Sweden; son of Emil and Ebba (Wallensteen) Öman; educated at University of Uppsala, Ph.D. 1924; married (2nd) Anna Lisa Lindberg, June 1946; one child. Member of Swedish Parliament, 1938-40; Member of City Council of Stockholm since 1931. President of Hospital Board of Directors of Stockholm since 1940. Commissioner, City Personnel Administration, Stockholm, 1940-46. President, Youth League of Conservative Party of Sockholm, 1928-30; Vice-President, Stockholm Chapter of Conservative Party, 1933-43. President of Public Health and Hospital Delegation of Swedish Union of Cities, since 1942. Knight of North Star and Gustavus Vasa Orders; Commander of the Finnish Lion Order; Knight of the Dannebrogen Order. Author: The Men of the Great War, 1920; Karl Staaff's First Ministry, 1923; The English Newspaper Trusts, 1930; Unemployment Insurance and Public Works, 1933; The Government Problems of Stockholm, 1941. Address: Stadshuset, Stockholm, Sweden.

OMAR, ABDEL MAGEED, Pasha, Egyptian Engineer; born Sept. 6, 1883, Kafr El Moselha, Egypt; son of Aly and Bemba Omar; educated at Leeds University, B.Sc. (1st class honors), 1909, M.Sc. 1910; Engineering College, Egypt, 1900-04; married Fatma Omar, Sept. 1906 (deceased); two sons. Engineer with P.W.M., Egypt, 1904; Engineer, Messrs. Hawthorn, Davey & Co., Leeds, 1909; Engineer of Great Western Railway, England, 1911; Vice-Principal, Royal Engineering College and Professor of Hydraulics, 1910-21; Principal, 1921-24; Engineering Adviser to the Egyptian Official Delegation in England (Nile Water Supply), 1921; Consultant to the Ministry of Public Works on technical matters, 1921-23; Deputy Director General, Physical Department, 1924-28; Director General, Reservoirs Department, 1928. Minister of Public Works and Communications, 1934-36; now partner of Sir Murdoch MacDonald & Partners, Consulting Engineers, Cairo. Received title of Pasha, 1935; Grand Cordon d'Étoile Polaire (Sweden), 1935; Cordon of the Nile, 1926. Author: Scheme on Second Heightening of Aswam Dam; Nomographic Charts; The Need of Expansion in Cultivation, etc. Residence: Messawer Bldg., Urman, Giza. Office: Immobilia B, 26 Sherif Pasha St., Cairo, Egypt.

O'MARA, Mr. Justice THOMAS, Australian Jurist; born Aug. 31, 1897, Jugiong, N.S.W., Australia; son of Philip and Mary J. (Goodwin) O'Mara; educated at St. Patrick's College of Goulburn, N.S.W.; Sydney Univ., LL.B. 1924; married Mary A. Candell, Aug. 15, 1928; two children. Admitted to New South Wales Bar, 1924. Legal Officer, Dept. of Labour and Industry of New South Wales, 1925-30; practiced privately, specializing in industrial and constitutional law, 1930-39; Hyman Lecturer in Industrial Law in Sydney Univ., 1937-38. Judge, Commonwealth Court of Conciliation and Arbitration, since 1939. Private with A.I.F. in Palestine and Syria, World War I. Residence: 131 Raglan St. Office: Phillip House, Phillip St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

O'MELVENY, JOHN, American Lawyer; born Dec. 1, 1894, Los Angeles, Calif.; son of Henry W. and Marie (Schilling) O'Melveny; educated at Univ. of Calif., A.B. 1918; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1922; married Corinne Eisenmayer, Aug. 24, 1922; two children. Began career as Staff Attorney, 1922; Member, firm of O'Melveny & Myers and predecessors since 1926. Trustee: Calif. Inst. of Technology; Northwestern Mutual Life Ins. Co., Southwest Museum. Member, Finance Com., Huntington Library. Director: Security First National Bank of L. A.; Northrop Aircraft Corp.; Fullerton Oil Co. and many other corporations. Residence: 212 Murifield Rd. Office: 433 So. Spring St., Los Angeles, Calif.

OMERNIK, EDWARD E., American Lawyer; born March 2, 1895, Stevens Point, Wis.; son of A. S. and Eva (Okonek) Omernik; educated at Superior State Teachers College, graduated 1917; University of Wisconsin, LL.B. 1927; married Alice Voight, Sept. 19, 1932; three children. Admitted to Bar, 1927; partner, Jones & Omernik, 1927, Spooner, Wis.; partner, Douglas and Omernik, 1930, Spooner, Wis. City Attorney, Spooner, 1928-32; Mayor, City of Spooner, 1932-42; Chmn., Utilities Committee League of Wisconsin Municipalities, 1936-42. Member: Inter-County Bar Assn. (Treasurer 4 years, Secretary 6 years to date); Wisconsin Bar Assn.; American Bar Assn. Served as Supt. of Schools in Webster, Wis., for six years. Address: Spooner, Wisconsin.

OMLAND, OLAV, Norwegian Barrister; born Aug. 11, 1897, Stavanger, Norway; son of P. and Anna Omland; graduate in law, Oslo Univ., 1920; married Helen Thime, Dec. 21, 1921; two children. Attorney-at-Law since 1921; Secy., Norwegian Canners Assn., 1924; Secy., Assn. of Norwegian Factories of Agricultural Machines, 1932-39. Member, Consulting Board, Royal Norwegian Dept. of Supply since 1939. Residence: Dronningensgt. 71. Office: Handelens Hus, Stavanger, Norway.

OMRE, ARTHUR, Norwegian Author; born Dec. 17, 1887, Horten, Norway; son of Sven Antonisen Omre and Raghnhilde Wilhelmsen Omre; educated at Teknisk skole, Horten, 1908; married Ruth Evensen, 1915; four children. Draftsman, later Designer and Calculator, various industrial enterprises in the United States, 1909-14 (including Fall River Shipbuilding Co., Newport News Shipbuilding Co., General Electric Co.); wrote short stories for newspapers and magazines; reporter in various cities; travelled around, writing newspaper and magazine stories, 1922-35. Author: Smuglere, 1935; Flukten, 1936; Sukkenes Bro, 1937; Kristinus Bergman, 1938; Intermezzo, 1939; Det onde øie, 1940; Harmoni, 1941; Mysterium i Rolvsoy, 1941; Det hender iblandt, 1941; Gjestgiveriet, 1941; Linedansere, comedy, 1945 (translated into several languages). Member: Norwegian Art Soc.; Norwegian Soc. of Authors; Pen Club. Awarded: Literary Prize in world competition, for the novel "Flukten," 1936 (English: "Flight"); various art scholarships. Residence: Hankö (Island), Onsöy. Office: Gyldendal Norsk Forlag, Universitetsgaten 16, Oslo, Norway.

ONAR, SIDDIK SAMI, Turkish University Rector; born Oct. 27, 1897, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Col. Dr. Abdullah Sami and Melekber (Mustafa); educated at Vefa Lisesi, Istanbul, B.A. 1918; Law Faculty, Istanbul, M.A. 1922; diploma in political and economic sciences, 1922; Faculty of Law, Paris, 1923, 1924; married Bedia Ali, Aug. 6, 1926. Asst. Judge in Istanbul, 1924; Asst. Prof. of International Law, School of Political Sciences, 1925; Prof. of International Law, 1926; Member of the Istanbul Bar; Member, Com. preparing Law of Penal Procedure, 1926; Prof. of Civil Law, 1927; Prof. of Statistics, Commercial and Banking Section, Galatabaray Lisesi, 1926; Prof. of Administrative Law, Faculty of Law, Istanbul Univ., since 1933. Prof. of Administrative Organization and Administrative Law of Turkey, War Acad., until 1934; Dean, Faculty of Law, Istanbul, 1934-37, 1942-46; elected Rector of Istanbul Univ., 1946. Prof. of Civil Procedure and Law, of Execution and Bankruptcy, Superior College of Economics and Commerce, Istanbul; Prof. of Administrative Law, Faculty of Law, Univ. of Istanbul. Author: Civil Law, 1928; General Part of the Obligations Law, 1931; Private International Law, 1926; Administrative Law, 1932; Administrative Law, vol. I, 1942, 1944; The General Principles of Judicial Law (with M. R. Belgesay), 1944; The evolution and the present state of the Turkish Administrative Law, 1936; L'Administration in La Vie juridique des peuples: Turquie, 1939; The Economic Public Services from the Point of View of Administrative Law, 1942; Statism and Administrative Law, 1937; Juridical Acts in Public Law and Juridical Control, 1939; The Nature of Administrative Acts, Administrative Justice and Administrative Cases, 1945; The Role of Practice and the Jurisprudence in the Evolution of the Law and the Analyse of some decisions of the Council of State, and the Court of Cassation, 1942; The Effect of Exceptional Circumstances on the Juridical Order, 1943; The Explanation of Hauriou's Theory of Institution and its Application to some of our institutions, 1941; The Theory of Public Property in the Turkish Law, 1943; section one on Turkey in "L'Annuaire des Droits de l'homme," published by United Nations. Officer, Turkish Army (Reserve), World War I. Residence: Tesvikiye Caddesi, Derbi apt. 2, Nisantasi, Istanbul, Turkey. Office: Istanbul Universitesi, Istanbul, Turkey.

OÑATE, Prof. JOSÉ DIEGO, Professor of Spanish; born Oct. 11, 1899, San Juan, Puerto Rico; son of Segundo Oñate and Felicita Rodriguez; educated at Univ. of Puerto Rico, 1918; Boston Univ., B.S. in Educ. (cum laude) 1926, A.M. 1927; married Elizabeth Nichols, June 15, 1927; two children. Spanish Correspondent, N. Y. City, 1919-22; Instructor, Boston Univ., 1922-27; Asst. Prof. and Acting Dept. Head, College of Practical Arts and Letters, 1927-28; Assoc. Prof. and Head of Modern Foreign Languages Dept., 1928-39; Prof. of Spanish and Head of Dept., since 1929. Member: Amer. Assn. of Teachers of Spanish; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Profs., etc. Author: Devil in the Comedies of Lope de Vega, 1927; First Graded Spanish Reader (co-author), 1942; a critical edition of Calderón's "El Principe Constante." Address: 27 Garrison St., Boston, Massachusetts.

ONCLEY, Dr. JOHN LAWRENCE, American Chemist; born Feb. 14, 1910, Wheaton, Ill.; son of Lawrence and Emma Arena (Hunsche) Oncley; educated at Southwestern College, Kansas, A.B. 1929; Univ. of Wisconsin, Ph.D. 1932; Harvard Univ., A.M. (Hon.) 1946; married Genevieve Reese, June 14, 1933; two daughters. Asst., Univ. of Wisconsin, 1929-31; Coffin Fellow, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1931-32; Natl. Research Fellow, 1932-34; Instructor, 1934-35; Research Laboratory, General Electric Co., summer 1935; Instructor, Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1935-43; Research Assoc., Harvard Medical School, 1939-41; Assoc., Harvard Medical School, 1941-43; Asst. Prof., Harvard Medical School, 1943-46; Assoc. Prof., Harvard Medical School, since 1946. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; New York Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; National Acad. of Sciences. Received Award in Pure Chemistry, Amer. Chem. Soc., 1942. Address: Harvard Medical School, 25 Shattuck St., Boston 15, Mass.

ONDRICEK, EMANUEL, Czechoslovakian Violinist and Conductor; born in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia; graduate of Prague Conservatory; studied under Sevcik, Knittl, Stecker and Antonin Dvorak. Toured Europe, appearing with London Symphony Orchestra, Queen's Hall Orchestra, Berlin Philharmonic, Prague Philharmonic, Russian Imperial Orchestra, etc. Played before the Czar and his Imperial Suite, Roumanian Queen and the Serbian King. Decorated with Russian and Serbian orders. Came to America, 1915; founded Ondricek Studios of Violin Art, studios in New York and Boston, 1926. Guest Conductor, People's Symphony, Boston, 1928-29. Author of textbook, "Mastery of Tone-Production and Expression on the Violin". Arranged and orchestrated violin concerto by Giuseppe Tartini which he discovered during tour of Europe, 1933 (published by Universal Edition, 1936). Concert tour of Europe, 1937. Conducted Manhattan Symphony Orchestra and Boston Symphony Pops, 1943; produced a number of famous violin artists. Address: 24 East 67th St., New York 21, N. Y.

O'NEAL, EDWARD ASBURY, III, President, American Farm Bureau Federation; born Oct. 28, 1875, near Florence, Ala.; son of Edward Asbury and Mary (Coffee) O'Neal; educated at Washington & Lee University, A.B. 1898. Manager and Operator of 1900-acre plantation near Florence, Ala.; with American Farm Bureau since 1921; Charter Member and First President, Lauderdale County Farm Bureau; Vice-President, Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, 1922. President, 1923, re-elected for seven successive years. Member of Finance Committee, American Farm Bureau Federation, 1922; Member of Executive Committee, 1923; Vice-President of Federation, 1924; re-elected until 1931; President since 1931. Served on various Federal Boards and Commissions. On Social Security Board's Federal Advisory Council for Employment Security, since 1941. Member: Economic Stabilization Board, 1942; Management-Labor Policy Committee; War Manpower Commission, 1942; Board of Directors, National War Fund, 1943; National Agricultural Jefferson Bicentenary Committee, 1943; Board of Incorporators, American Red Cross, etc. Awarded: Gold Medal for distinguished service in farm leadership, by the Progressive Farmer, Agricultural College, Auburn, 1927; Hon. Doctor of Agriculture degree, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, 1933; selected as the South's "Man of the Year" by the Progressive Farmer, Southern agricultural publication, for outstanding leadership in farm organization work. Member, Advisory Com., Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, 1944; Member, Citizens Federal Com. on Education, 1945. Address: 58 E. Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

O'NEAL, EMMET, American Diplomat; born Apr. 14, 1887, Louisville, Ky.; son of Joseph Thomas and Lydia (Wright) O'Neal; educated at Centre College, A.B. 1907; Yale University, A.B. 1908; University of Louisville, LL.B. 1910; graduate work at Yale University; married Glessie Morris, July 29, 1921; two children. Admitted to Bar, 1910, practicing law in Louisville, Ky., until 1917. Elected to 74th to 79th Congresses (inclusive). Served on Appropriation Com. Ambassador to the Philippine Republic, 1947—. One of first Department Commanders of American Legion in Kentucky, 1921. Enlisted in First Division of U. S. Army in Paris, France, 1917; served with the 26th Division. Residence: Louisville, Ky. Office: U. S. Embassy, Manila, Philippines.

O'NEAL, JAMES, American Writer; born Indianapolis, Ind.; son of John and Clara (Miller) Oneal; married Lena Taylor, 1910; (2nd) Ella Oswald, 1915; one daughter. Asst. to Natl. Secy., Socialist Party, 1903-05; Assoc. Editor, New York Worker, 1906-08; State Secy., Socialist Party, Indiana, 1911-13, and Massachusetts, 1915-17. Editorial Writer, New York Daily Call, 1918-23; Editor, The New Leader, N. Y., 1924-40. Special Writer, Baltimore Evening Sun, 1924-37; Contributor, Current History and American Mercury magazines, 1924-32. Executive Member, Social Democratic Federation. Author: Workers in American History, 1921; History of Local 10, Cutters Union, N. Y., 1927; American Communism, Critical Analysis of its Origins, Development and Programs, 1927; American Party Struggles, Backgrounds of Political Conflict. Address: 1628 S. 5th St., Phoenix, Ariz.

ONEGIN, SIGRID, Swedish Mezzo-Soprano; born 1891. Made operatic debut in Stuttgart, 1912; American debut, Metropolitan Opera House, 1922. Gave numerous recitals in Europe and throughout United States. Address: Zürich, Switzerland.

O'NEIL, C. E., American Financial Executive; born Kirksville, Mo., June 8, 1892; son of James M. and Ida L. (Fountain) O'Neil; educated at Tennessee Military Inst. and Univ. of Tennessee; married Annie L. Beard, July 15, 1912. Chief Accountant, Mining Division of the Eastern Gas & Fuel Associates, 1913-19; Auditor: Fulton Bag & Cotton Mills, 1919-21; Controller, Domestic Coke Corp., 1921-25; Vice-President and Treasurer, Coffield Washer Co., until 1931. Engaged in interests of prominent New York banks, specializing in reorganization work, 1931—. Pres. and Director, National Bondholders Corp. since 1934; Member of Executive Com. Pres. and Director, National Realty Management Co., Inc.; Vice-Pres., Director and Voting Trustee, 261 Fifth Ave. Corp., and Vice-Pres. and Director, Utility Service Co.; Director and Chairman of the Executive Committee of The New Yorker Hotel Corp., and Director and Member of the Executive Committee of Jacob Ruppert Corporation. He is a Director of the American League Baseball Club of New York, Inc., Newark International Baseball Club, Inc., and Kansas City Baseball Club, Inc. He is also a Director of Bayway Terminal Corp.; Colonial Trust Co. (Member of Executive Committee), Dunlaevy, Cleaves & Burnham, Inc.; 500 Fifth Ave., Inc.; Forma Corp. (Member of Executive Committee); Gedex Realty Corp. (Vice-President); Memorial Parks, Inc., and Union Mortgage Co. Residence: 145 E. 52nd St. Office: 90 West St., New York, N. Y.

O'NEIL, JAMES F., American Legion Leader; born 1898, Manchester, N. H.; married; two sons. Enlisted in U. S. Army upon graduation from high school; served on Mexican border; in France as an infantryman, 1917, later becoming a sergeant-major and commissioned in field. Special Civilian Asst. to John L. Sullivan (Asst. Secretary of Navy for Air) in South Pacific, World War II; with invasion forces, Third Fleet and with occupation forces in Japan. Appointed to Amnesty Board by President Truman in 1946. Joined American Legion in 1919 and served as Chairman of National Americanism Commission, three years; elected National Commander, American Legion, 1947. Engaged in newspaper work in Manchester, N. H. for many years. Deputy Police Chief of Manchester, N. H. until 1937; Police Chief, 1937—. Address: Manchester, N. H.

O'NEIL, WILLIAM FRANCIS, American Manufacturer; born Aug. 21, 1885, Akron, Ohio; son of Michael and Patience (Mahar) O'Neil; educated at Holy Cross College (Worcester, Mass.), A.B. 1907, and LL.D. 1938; married Grace Savage, Sept. 14, 1911; five children. Merchandise Manager, M. O'Neil Co., 1907-08; Pres. and Gen. Mgr., Western Tire & Rubber Co., 1909-15. Pres. and Gen. Mgr., General Tire & Rubber Co., 1915; now Chairman of Board, Pres., Gen. Mgr. and Director. Pres. and Director, Yankee Network, Boston, Mass., 1943. Director: Rubber Manufacturers Assn.; Akron Standard Mold Co; St. Thomas Hospital. Residence: 1290 W. Exchange St. Office: Akron, Ohio.

O'NEILL, Hon. EAMONN, Irish Political Leader; born Sept. 1882, Kinsale, Eire; son of James and Bridget (Gleeson) O'Neill; educated at Mungret (Jesuit) College, Limerick, 1895-1901; Royal Univ. of Ireland, B.A. in Philosophy, 1901; married Mamie Hickey of Melbourne (Australia), 1924; two children. Began career in importing, exporting and distributing business founded by his father, 1877, James O'Neill and Sons Ltd., of which he is now Managing Director. Rept. of West Cork in Dail Eireann since 1932 as a Pro-Treaty Member under William T. Cosgrave; Deputy Speaker since 1939. Chairman of Kinsale Urban Council, Graduates Association of University College, Cork; President of Cork Amateur Operatic Society; Council Member of Maritime Institute of Ireland; Member of Cork Historical and Archaeological Society, Irish Tourist Association, and Cork Literary and Scientific Society. Residence: Knockduff House. Office: Kinsale, County Cork, Ireland.

O'NEILL, EDWARD EMERSON, American Manufacturer; born Jan. 22, 1893, Denver, Colo.; son of P. Frank and Mary E. (Lynch) O'Neill; educated at Denver High School; married Blanche Caroline Weldon, May 18, 1914; married (2nd) Mary Hinkley Stubbs, June 27, 1940; five children. Salesman, Pyrene Manufacturing Co., 1916-17; Toledo Branch Manager, 1917; Pittsburgh Branch Manager, July 1917, to Jan. 1918, and District Manager of the Great Lakes Division, Jan. 1918, to May, 1919. In May, 1919, organized the Firefoam Co. of Ohio, of which was Vice-President and General Manager until 1922, when the company was merged with the Fire Equipment Co. Vice-Pres. and General Manager of the merged company until November, 1926, when the Fire Equipment Co. was sold to the Foamite-

Childs Corp. of Utica, N. Y. He was District Manager at Cleveland for the Foamite-Childs Corp. for one year. In November, 1927, the Foamite-Childs Corp. was merged with American-LaFrance-Fire Engine Co. to form the American-La-France-Foamite Corp. He was Cleveland District Manager of the American-La France-Foamite Industries, Inc. (sales company of American-La France-Foamite Corp.) until July, 1931. He was Sales Manager of the Fire Protection Equipment Division of American-LaFrance and Foamite Industries, Inc., and was appointed General Sales Manager in October, 1935. Vice-President and General Sales Mgr., American-LaFrance-Foamite Corp., 1936; Executive Vice-Pres., 1939; President, since 1939. Residence: Lower Maple Ave., R.D. No. 2. Office: 100 E. LaFrance St., Elmira, N. Y.

O'NEILL, EUGENE (GLADSTONE), American Dramatist; Nobel Prize Winner; born Oct. 6, 1888, New York, N. Y.; educated at Betts Acad., Stamford; Princeton and Harvard Univs. Plays first produced by Provincetown (Mass.) Players, ten plays being presented, 1917-20. Awarded Pulitzer Prize for Beyond the Horizon, produced 1920; Anna Christie, 1922; Strange Interlude, 1928. Received Nobel Prize for Literature, 1936. Author: The Movie Man, 1914; Abortion, 1914; The Dreamy Kid, 1920; The Emperor Jones, 1920; The Moon of the Caribbees and Six Other Plays, 1921; Ile, 1921; In the Zone, 1923; Desire Under the Elms, 1924; All God's Chillun Got Wings, 1924; The Long Voyage Home, 1925; The Great God Brown, 1926; Lazarus Laughed, 1927; Marco Millions, 1928; Dynamo, 1929; Mourning Becomes Electra (a trilogy), 1931; Ah, Wilderness! 1933; Days Without End, 1934; The Hairy Ape, 1938; The Iceman Cometh, 1946. etc. Address: c/o Random House, 20 E. 57th St., New York 22, N. Y.

O'NEILL, Sir HUGH, Bart., Member, British Parliament; born in London, England, June 8, 1883; son of Lord and Lady O'Neill (Louisa Cochrane); educated at Eton College; Oxford University; married Sylvia Sandeman, Feb. 11, 1909; three children. Called to the Bar, 1909. Member of Parliament for County Antrim, House of Commons, Westminster, since 1915; Member of Parliament for County of Antrim in the House of Commons of Northern Ireland, 1921-29 (Speaker of House). Major in the Royal Irish Rifles from 1914-17; Deputy Judge Advocate General with the British Army in Palestine, 1917-18. Made a Privy Councillor for Northern Ireland, 1921; for Great Britain, 1937. Parliamentary Secretary of State for India, 1939-40. Residence: Cleggan Lodge, Ballymena, County Antrim, and 28 Queens Gate Gardens, London, S.W. Office: 4 St. Paul's Churchyard, London, E.C., England.

O'NEILL, Dr. JOHN JOHNSTON, Canadian Geologist; born Nov. 12, 1886, Port Colburne, Ont., Canada; son of Thomas J. and Mary J. (Henderson) O'Neill; educated at McGill Univ., B.Sc. (Mining) 1909; M.Sc. (Geology) 1910; Yale University, Ph.D. 1912; Wisconsin, special course in geology, 1913; married Lillian May Campbell, Dec. 11, 1918; two children. Geologist with Canadian Arctic Expedition (Stefansson Expedition), 1913-16; Geologist with Geological Survey of Canada, 1913-20; Geologist, Whitehall Petroleum Co. in India, 1920-21; Assistant Professor of Geology, McGill, 1921-26; Associate Professor of Geology, McGill, 1926-28; Sir William Dawson Professor of Geology since 1928; Dean of Science, 1935-39; Dean, Graduate Studies and Research, 1938-42; Dean of Engineering, McGill Univ., since 1942. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada (Ex-Pres., Geology Section). Office: McGill University, Montreal, P.Q., Canada.

O'NEILL, JOSEPH, Irish Educator, Author; born December 18, 1880, Oranmore, Galway, Eire; son of Martin and Mary (O'Coigli) O'Neill; educated at Queen's College, Galway; Owens College, Manchester; University of Freiburg in Baden, Germany, M.A. (honors); married Mary Devenport, June, 1914. Mr. O'Neill began his career as State Inspector of Primary Schools, 1907-09. Was State Inspector of Secondary Schools and Colleges of Ireland, 1909-23. Secretary, Department of Education, Irish Free State, 1923; Civil Service Commissioner, Irish Free State, 1923-33. Commissioner of Local Appointments for the Irish Free State, since 1926; Secretary, Department of Education, 1923-44. Member of Irish Academy of Letters since 1936. Author: "Wind From the North", 1934; "Land Under England", 1935; "Day of Wrath", 1936; "Philip", 1940; "Le Peuple des Tenèbres", (a French Translation of Land Under England) Paris, 1939; "Chosen By the Queen" (a novel), 1947. Residence: 2 Kenilworth Square, Rathgar, Office: The Department of Education, Dublin, Eire.

O'NEILL de MILAN, LUIS, Puerto Rican Librarian, Writer and Poet; born in Aguadila, P. R.; son of Luis O'Neill Martínez de Andino and Tudela de Milán Juárez; studied in the public schools of Puerto Rico; Univ. of Puerto Rico; Pratt Inst. of Brooklyn, N. Y.; married Josefa Calzada de la Torre, Jan. 12, 1922; four children. Began career in 1912 as Under-Librarian of the Insular Library of Puerto Rico. His first published poetic work "A un Arbol," in a contest held by the Ateneo Puertorriqueño in 1913, brought him to the public light as a poet laureate. In the same year he became Editor of the magazine "Patria"; Corresponding Representative of Puerto Rico at the meeting of the National Association of State Libraries in Los Angeles, 1913. He is a Member of the American Academy of Political and Social Sciences; Ex-President of the Recreative Section of the Ateneo Puertorriqueño. He was Commissioner of the Board of Governors of the Insular Library for a survey of the principal public libraries of the U. S., 1915; Technical Organizer of the Insular Library, 1915, and of the Carnegie Library of Puerto Rico, 1916-18, continuing as Director since 1919. He was Editor of Puerto Rico Ilustrado from 1916 to 1918, and from 1920 to 1936, and of Puerto Rico in 1920. With his brother Francisco he founded in 1923 the annual "Los Catorce," of which he is now Director. In 1929 he was Representative of Puerto Rico to the First International Congress of Librarians and Bibliographers in Rome, Italy; Director of Literature for Puerto Rican Boy Scouts, 1931-33. In 1933 he initiated plans for the formation of the Asociación Bibliotecaria de Puerto Rico, of which he has since been Secretary. Member, Puerto Rican Adult Education Assn. Pres., Puerto Rican Inter-American Assn., 1948. Residence: Parque 146, Santurce. Office: Biblioteca Carnegie, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

O'NEILL, Most Rev. PATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Limerick, Ireland; born Feb. 8, 1891, Fedamore, Co. Limerick, Ireland; son of John and Mary (Moore) O'Neill; educated at St. Munchin's College, 1905-08; Maynooth College, 1908-18; Apollinare Univ., Rome, 1919-20; B.A. 1911, D.D. 1918, D.C.L. 1920. Ordained Catholic Priest, 1915; consecrated Bishop of Limerick, 1946. Prof., St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, 1918-41; Vice-Pres., 1936-41; Parish Priest, Bruff, Co. Limerick, and Vicar Forane, 1941; Vicar General, Diocese of Limerick, 1943; Bishop of Limerick, since Dec. 15, 1945. Address: The Palace, Corbally, Limerick, Ireland.

O'NEILL, Prof. SEAMUS, Irish Writer; born May 21, 1910, Co. Down, Ireland; son of John and Mary (Small) O'Neill; educated at Queen's Univ., Belfast, M.A., B.A.; Univ. College, Dublin; Frankfurt-am-Main; married. Teacher, Dundalk Technical School, 1935-37; at present Prof. at Carysfort Training College. Asst. Editor, Dundalk Examiner, 1935-37; Editor, An t-Ultach, 1935-37, Comhar, 1944-45; An Iris, 1945-46. Feature writer for Radio Eireann. Contributor to Studies, The Bell, Irish Digest, Irish Monthly, Irish Rosary, Ave Maria (Univ. of Notre Dame, U.S.), etc. Dramatic critic, The Leader, Dublin. Member, Irish Historical Soc. Pres., Gaelic Writers Assn. Winner of Oireachtas Prizes. Author: Buaidh an Ultaigh, 1932; Dánta, 1940; An Sean-Saighdiuir agus Scéalta Eile, 1945; Colm Cille, 1946; Ni Chuireann Siad Síol, 1946; Díolta Faoi na Luach, 1946; Iomramh an Ousel, 1946; Irish Poems for Children, 1947; Tonn Tuile, 1947, etc. Address: 22 Glenart Ave., Blackrock, Co. Dublin, Ireland.

ÖNER, Prof. KENAN, Turkish Jurist; born 1881, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Ömer Öner and Azize; educated at Univ. of Istanbul, grad. (magna cum laude), 1903; married Fatma Suada, 1915; one daughter. Judge of Court, Haifa, 1909. Public Prosecutor, Criminal Court, Bursa, 1911. Inspector, Ministry of Justice. Chmn., Bd. of Inspectors, Ministry of Justice. Under-Secy., Ministry of Justice, 1923. Prof. of Criminal Law, Univ. of Istanbul since 1926. Hon. Inspector of Justice Dept. Member: Istanbul Bar Assn.; The Red Crescent; Soc. for Protection of Children. Pres., Democratic Party, Istanbul Organization. Reserve Officer, Turkish Army. Author (books): Philosophy of Criminal Law; Statutes of Limitations; Memoirs of My Judicial Career. Residence: Vali Konagi Caddesi, Yüce Apt. No. 9, Harbiye, Istanbul. Office: Karaköy Palas No. 10-11, Galata, Istanbul, Turkey.

O'NIELL, Hon. CHARLES A., American Jurist. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana. Member, American Law Institute. American Bar Association. Address: The Supreme Court, New Orleans, Louisiana.

ONIKA, DMITRI, Soviet Engineer; born 1910; educated in the Electro-Mechanics Dept., Moscow Inst. of Mining Engineering, Master of Technological Sciences. Designed machine to cut brick structures, used in demolition of old buildings; designed project for removing dust and gases from cities; consultant engineer for Moscow Soviet, Chief Board of Administration of Coal Industry, and other organizations, 1932-37. Decorated "Best Inventor of the U.S.S.R." Deputy to Supreme Soviet of the R.S.F.S.R. Formerly Minister of Coal Mining Industry of the Western Districts of the U.S.S.R Minister of Coal Mining Industry of Eastern Districts of the U.S.S.R., 1947—. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor; Order of Lenin (twice). Address: Minister of the Coal Mining Industry of the Eastern Districts, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ONIONS, Dr. CHARLES TALBUT, British Philologist; Fellow and Librarian of Magdalen College, Oxford; born September 10, 1873, Birmingham, England; educated at Mason Science College, Birmingham; M.A., London, 1895; Oxford, D.Litt. 1928; Leeds, D.Litt. 1928; Birmingham, LL.D. 1931. Member of staff of Oxford English Dictionary, 1905; Joint Editor since 1914. Fellow of Magdalen College since 1923. Lecturer for English Fund Committee, Oxford, 1920; University Lecturer in English, 1920-27. University Reader in English Philology since 1927. Editor, Medium Aevum, since 1932. President, Philological Society, 1929-33. Elected F.B.A. 1938; created C.B.E. 1934. Received Israel Gollancz Prize (British Academy), 1933; Leverhulme Research Fellow, 1938-40. Author: Advanced English Syntax, 1904; Advanced French Composition, 1904; The Oxford Shakespeare Glossary, 1911, etc. Office: Magdalen College, Oxford University, Oxford, England.

ONSAGER, Prof. LARS, American Chemist; born Nov. 27, 1903, Oslo, Norway; son of Erling and Ingrid (Kirkeby) Onsager; educated at Norges tekniske høiskele, Trondheim, Norway, 1920-25, Ch.E. 1925; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1935; married Margarete Arledter, Sept. 7, 1933; three children. Resident Scientist at Eidge. technische Hochs., Zurich, 1925, 1926-28; Trondheim, 1925-26. Assoc. in Chemistry, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1928. Instr. in Chemistry, Brown Univ., 1928-33. Sterling Fellow, Yale Univ., 1933-34; Asst. Prof., 1934-40; Assoc. Prof., 1940-45; J. W. Gibbs Prof. of Theoretical Chemistry, since 1945. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Physical Soc.; National Acad. of Science; Norwegian Acad. of Science, Oslo; (Hon.) Norwegian Chemical Soc. Author: Theory of Electrolytes, 1926, 1927; Reciprocal Relations in Irreversible Processes, 1931; Crystal Statistics, 1944; Diffusion, 1945. Address: Yale University, Sterling Chemistry Laboratory, New Haven, Conn.

ONSARI, FABIAN, Argentine Deputy; born January 20, 1892, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of José Maria Emilio Onsari and Filomena Echeveste; educated at Fossa Mercantile Academy; married Julia C. Bassi. Member of Deliberative Council of Avellanveda, 1918-28 and since 1936. Provincial Deputy, 1920-26; Provincial Senator, 1926-30; National Deputy for Buenos Aires since 1938. Address: San Martín 201, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ONSUM, Dr. EINAR, Norwegian Physician; born Feb. 29, 1876, Oslo, Norway; son of Ivar and Sophie (Forsdal) Onsum; educated at Royal War Acad.; Royal Univ. (medicine); married Marion May of Waukon, Iowa, Dec. 25, 1907 (died 1917); married Agnes Molvig, 1921; one son and one daughter. Asst. Physician, Municipal Hospital, Oslo, 1903-05; engaged in private practice at Waukon, Iowa, and at Devil's Lake, N. D. (U.S.A.), 1906-10. Returned to the Municipal Hospital in Oslo as physician, 1910; Head-Physician, 1916-44; also in private practice in Oslo. Member, editorial staff newspaper, Aftenposten, Oslo, since 1910; Associated Press representative in Norway, 1914-34. Medical Health Officer (Asst. Surgeon), U. S. Public Health Service at Oslo, 1921-24. Member: Norwegian Medical Assn.; Norwegian Red Cross, etc. Address: Bogstadvei 47, Oslo, Norway.

ONSY, Dr. ANIS Bey, Egyptian Physician; born June, 1885, Cairo, Egypt; son of late Aly Hassanein Onsy and Nozha Ibrahim; educated at Cairo School of Medicine; Glasgow Univ. and London Univ. House Surgeon in Cairo, 1907; Assistant Professor of Pathology, Cairo Medical College, 1910; Professor of Clinical Pathology, 1922. Joined Red Crescent, 1912, and went to Turkey during Balkan War in charge of a field bacteriological laboratory. Promoted to Director of Laboratories, 1938; Director-General, Department of Laboratories, Ministry of Health, 1943. Received title of Bey, 1914; Order of Nile, 1919. Publications: Bilharzial Enlargement of Spleen; Bilharzial Appendicitis in Egypt; Cutaneous Gangrene Caused by Specific Bacillus; Cancer as Caused by Bilharziasis; Diseases in War Time; Facts About Flour of Various Cereals. Residence: N. 76 Mohamed Aly St. Office: Department of Laboratories, Ministry of Health, Cairo, Egypt.

O'NUALLAIN, CIARAN, Irish Editor; born Feb. 2, 1910, Strabane, Eire; son of Michael and Agnes (Gormley) O'Nuallain; educated at National Univ. of Ireland, B.A. 1932. Editor, weekly paper Indiu, Dublin. Author: Oidhche i nGleann na nGealt, 1939; Eachtrai Phartalain mhic Mhorna, 1942. Residence: 4 Avoca Terrace, Blackrock. Office: -29 Lower O'Connell St., Dublin, Eire.

OOMS, CASPER W., American Lawyer; born Aug. 30, 1902, Chicago, Ill.; son of Adam and Gertrude (Dekker) Ooms; educated at Knox College; Univ. of Chicago; Univ. of Chicago Law School, LL.B. 1927; married Ruth P. Miller, June 13, 1927; two children. Attorney since 1928. Legal Asst. to Judges, U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Chicago, 1927-30. Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue, U. S. Treasury Dept., 1930-31. Special Master, U. S. Courts; U. S. Commissioner of Patents, 1945-47. U. S. Delegate to London Conf. on German-Owned Patents, 1946. Member, Patent Advisory Panel, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, since 1946. Partner, law firm of Dawson, Ooms, Booth & Spangenberg, Chicago, Ill. Member: Chicago Bar Assn. (Member, Bd. of Managers, 1943-45); Ill. State Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn.; Assn. of Bar of City of New York; Chicago Patent Law Assn.; Amer. Patent Law Assn. Residence: 241 S. Ashland Ave., LaGrange, Ill. Office: 209 S. LaSalle St., Chicago 4, Ill.

OORT, Dr. (AREND) JAN (PETRUS), Dutch Plant Pathologist; born May 27, 1903, Oegstgeest, The Netherlands; son of Abraham Hermanus and R. H. (Faber) Oort; educated at Univ. of Utrecht, Sc.D. 1930; married T. M. M. van Mesdag, May 24, 1929; three children. Asst., Laboratory for Plantphysiological Research, Wageningen, 1929-32; Plant Pathologist, Laboratory of Mycology and Potato research, Wageningen, since 1932; worked at Inst. for Plant Physiological Research, Wagenone year; visited several scientific institutions in France, Switzerland, England and Germany. Treas., Netherlands Phytopathological Soc., 1938-47. Member of Editorial Staff, Tijdschrift over Plantenziekten, since 1944. Member: Dutch Phytopathological Soc.; Mycological Soc.; Botanical Soc.; Assn. for Agriculture. Author:: Die Sexualität von Coprinus fimetarius, 1930; The Eyespot disease of Cereals, 1936; Hypersensitiviness of Wheat to Loose Smut, 1944. Address: Binnehaven 4, Wageningen, The Netherlands.

OORT, Dr. JAN H., Dutch Astronomer; born Apr. 28, 1900, Franeker, The Netherlands; son of Abraham H. and Ruth H. (Faber) Oort; educated at Univ. of Groningen, Dr. degree, 1926; Hon. Dr., Univ. of Copenhagen; married Johanna Maria Graadt van Roggen, May 24, 1927; three children. Asst., Astronomical Laboratory, Groningen, 1921; Research Asst., Yale Univ. Observatory, 1922-24; Conservator, Observatory at Leiden, 1924-35; Lecturer, Univ. of Leiden, 1930-35; Prof. since 1935. Director, Observatory, Leiden, since 1945. Member: Koninklijke Nederlandsche Akademie van Wetenschappen, Amsterdam; Hollandsche Maatschappij der Wetenschappen, Haarlem; Assoc., Royal Astronomical Soc., London; Foreign Hon. Member, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences, Boston, Mass.; Member, Koninklijke Vlaamsche Akademie voor Wetenschappen, Letteren en Schoone Kunsten van Belgie, Brussels; Corresponding Member, Bureau des Longitudes, Paris. Hon. Member, Amer. Astronomical Soc., etc. Awarded Bruce Gold Medal, Astronomical Soc. of the Pacific, San Francisco; Gold Medal, Royal Astronomical Soc., London; Medal Jules César Janssen, French Astronomical Soc. Author of various papers, mostly in Bulletin of Astronomical Institutes of the Netherlands. Address: Sterrewacht 5, Leiden, The Netherlands.

OPALSKI, Prof. Dr. ADAM, Polish Neurologist; born Nov. 26, 1897, Olkusz, Poland; son of Joseph and Stephanie (Stepinska) Opalski; educated at Univ. of Warsaw, M.D. 1924; Docent in Neurology, 1935; married Helena Kowalewska, July 2, 1928. Asst., Neurological Clinic, Warsaw Univ., 1925-41; Director of Clinic since 1942; Polish State Fellow in Munich, studying under Prof. Spielmeyer, Anatomical Dept., German Inst. for Research in Psychiatry; Rockefeller Fellow, at Institute, 1932-33; Chief, Municipal Neurological Dept., Warsaw, 1941-42; during German occupation identified with secret University, 1942-45. Research work, Laboratory of Neuropsychiatric Inst., Univ. Hosp., Ann Arbor, Mich., 1947. Chairman, Polish Neurological Soc. Member, Warsaw Scientific Soc. Awarded Dr. Sommer Reward, Medical Society, Warsaw, 1934. Author: Über eine besondere Zellart bei Wilson-Pseudosklerosegruppe, 1929; Accès paralitiques dans un cas de sclérose en plaque, 1931: Histopathologische Veränderungen des zentralen Nervensystems der Zysticercose, 1931; Zur Entstehung der Altheimerschen Gliazellen, 1936; Über lokale Unterschiede im Bau der Ventrikelwände, 1934; Un nouveau syndrome sous-bulbaire, syndrome partiel de l'artère vertebro-spinale postérieure, 1946. Address: Oczki 6, Warsaw, Poland.

OPDYKE, JOHN B(AKER), American Writer; born 1878. Author: Composition Planning, 1913; News, Ads and Sales (the use of English for commercial purposes), 1914; Advertising and Selling Practice, 1918; The English of Commerce, 1920; The Language of Advertising, 1925; In the Service of Youth (chapters on certain phases of the teaching of English in junior and senior high schools), 1928; Business Letter Practice, 1930; Project in Elementary English, 1931; Get It Right (a cyclopedia of correct English usage), 1935; Sentence, Paragraph, Theme (a college text in basic composition principles), 1936; Take a Letter, Please! (a cyclopedia of business and social correspondence), 1937; Telling Types in Literature, 1939; Say What You Mean (every man's guide to diction and grammar), 1944, etc. Address: c/o Funk & Wagnalls Co., 153 E. 24th St., New York, N. Y.

OPIE, Dr. EUGENE LINDSAY, American Pathologist; born in Staunton, Va., July 5, 1873; son of Thomas and Sallie (Harman) Opie; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1893, M.D. 1897; Yale Univ., Sc.D. 1931; Washington Univ., LL.D. 1940; married (1st) Gertrude Lovat Simpson, Sept. 6, 1902; (2nd) Margaret Lovat Simpson; four children. Asst. in Pathol. and Instructor and Assoc. at Johns Hopkins, 1898-1904; Assoc. and Member of Rockefeller Inst., 1904-10, Member of its Bd. of Scientific Dirs., 1928-32. Pathol. to Presbyn. Hosp., N. Y., 1907-10; Prof. of Pathol. at Washington Univ., 1910-23, Dean, 1912-15; Prof. of Pathol. and Dir. of Dept. at Univ. of Pa., and Dir. of Laboratories of Henry Phipps Inst., 1923-31; Member of Adv. Council since 1932, and Acting Director, 1942-46. Professor of Pathol. at Cornell Univ. Med. College, and Pathol. to N. Y. Hosp., 1931-41. Consultant to the Internatl. Health Div. of Rockefeller Foundation, 1928-34. Member of Bd. of Scientific Dirs., 1934-38. Visiting Prof. to Peiping Union Med. College, 1939. Capt., U. S. Army, 1917; served in France and was a member of Commns. for the Investigation of Trench Fever and of Pneumonia; Major, 1917, Lt. Col., 1918, and since retirement from active service has been Col. in U. S. Army Med. Reserve. Received Weber-Parker Award of the Royal College of Physicians for studies of tuberculosis, 1945; Banting Medal of American Diabetes Association, 1946. Co-Editor of Journal of Experimental Medicine, 1905-10. Member and former Pres. of Assn. of Pathologists and Bacteriologists; Soc. of Experimental Pathol.; Soc. of Experimental Biol.; Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.; Assn. of Immunologists; Harvey Soc.; N. Y. Soc. of Tropical Med.; Member of Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Author of Diseases of the Pancreas, 1904; Epidemic Respiratory Disease, 1920; Tuberculosis in Public School Children, 1929; published studies of diabetes, inflammation, immunity and tuberculosis. Res.: 540 Park Ave. Office: Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, 66th St. and York Ave., New York, N. Y.

OPOCENSKY, Dr. JAN, Czechoslovak Librarian and Archivist; born May 26, 1885, Most, Czechoslovakia; son of Jan and Anna (Singerova) Opocensky; educated at Prague Univ.; Univ. of Munich, Vienna, 1904-08; Univ. of Prague, M.A., 1909, Ph.D.; married Maria Sukova, Sept. 27, 1917; one son Archivist, Ministry of Interior, 1910-20; Archivist, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1920-36; Consul General at Paris, 1936-38; Librarian and Archivist, Ministry of Foreign Affairs for Czechoslovak Govt., since 1939. Czechoslovak Delegate to UNESCO since 1946; Member, Exec. Bd., UNESCO, since 1946; head of Czech Delegation to UNESCO Meeting in Mexico, Nov. 1947. Author: The Counter-reformation in Bohemia, 1915; The Collapse of Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, 1928; The Birth of the National States, 1928. Residence: 2 Na Kodymoe, Prague XIX, Czechoslovakia.

OPPENHEIM, E(DWARD) PHILLIPS, British Author; born 1866. Author: As a Man Lives (or The Mystery of the Yellow House), 1908; The Avenger, 1908; The Governors, 1909; The Missing Delora, 1910; The Moving Finger, 1911; The Lighted Way, 1912; For the Queen, 1913; The Amazing Partnership, 1914; The Malefactor, 1915; The Black Box, 1915; The Kingdom of the Blind, 1916; The Hillman, 1917; Peter Ruff and the Double Four, 1920; Nobody's Man, 1921; The Great Prince Shan, 1922; The Mystery Road; Harvey Garrard's Crime, 1926; The Ex-Duke, 1927; The Light Beyond, 1928; The Glenlitten Murder, 1929; Nicholas Goade, Detective, 1929; The Lion and the Lamb, 1930; The Million Pound Deposit, 1930; Up the Ladder of Gold, 1931; Gangster's Glory, 1931; Clowns and Criminals (the Oppenheim Omnibus), 1931; The Man Without Nerves, 1934; The Gallows of Chance, 1934; Floating Peril, 1935; The Dumb Gods Speak, 1938; Exit a Dictator, 1941; The Pool of Memory (Memoirs), 1942; Mr. Mirakel, 1943, etc. Address: c/o Hodder & Stoughton, London, England.

OPPENHEIM, Prof. MAURICE, Austrian Dermatologist; born Jan. 1, 1876, Vienna; son of Karl and Regine (Steiner) Oppenheim; educated at Akademisches Gymnasium, Vienna, 1893; Univ. of Vienna, Med. Faculty, M.D. 1899; married Karoline Schaefer, May 11, 1914; two daughters. Interne, Allgemeines Krankenhaus, Vienna, 1899; Assistant of Univ. Clinic of Dermatol. under Prof. I. Neuman and Prof. E. Finger, 1902-07; Docent, Univ. of Vienna, 1907; Titular Prof., 1915; Prof., 1927; Chief of Ambulatorium of General Insurance Co. for Workmen, 1907-14; Chief of the Skin and Venereal Dept., Wilhelmin Hosp., Vienna, 1918-38; Teacher, State Nurse School and the Criminal Institute of Police, Vienna; lectured at Univ. of Paris and Post-Graduate School, Columbia Univ., New York City; now Prof. of Dermatol., Chicago Med. School. He is an Hon. Member of Minn. Dermatol. Soc., London Dermatol. Soc., Spanish Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilis, and Phi Lambda Kappa Fraternity; Corresponding Member of Amer. Dermatol. Assn., Assn. Argentina de Dermatologia y Sifilologia, Berliner Dermatologische Gesellschaft, Dansk Dermatogisk Selskas, Société Polonaise de Dermatologie, Societa Italiana de Dermatologia Sifilogia, Ungarische Dermatologische Gesellschaft and Société Française de Dermatologie et Syphiligraphie. Member: Amer. Acad. of Dermatology and Syphilology Internatl. Acad. of Criminalistic. Recipient of Gold Medals from Exhibition Duesseldorf, 1930; Budapest Internatl. Dermatol. Congress, 1935; Distinctions from Exhibition of Hygiene, Vienna, 1912, 1927, 1937; Exhibition of Hygiene, Graz, 1932; Exhibition of Hygiene, As Ember, Budapest, 1928, 1932. Author: Practicum der Haut-Und Geschlechts-Krankheiten (6th ed.), 1937 (trans. into Russian); Handbuch der Berufskrankheiten der Haut, 3 Vols. (collaboration with Rille and Ullman, Leipzig), 1923-26; Short Textbook of Pathology and Treatment of Venereal Diseases, 1902; Atlas of Venereal Diseases of Portio Vaginalis Uteri and Vagina, 1908; The Atrophies of Skin (with Prof. Finger), 1910; Vademecum of Care of Venereal Diseases and Diseases of Skin for Nurses, 1922; Affections of Skin by Occupation, Sport, Climatic, and Cosmetic Factors, 1937; also some 300 papers and articles. During World War I he served as Major, Austrian Army. Residence: 1320 Greenleaf. Office: 25 E. Washington St., Chicago 2, Illinois.

OPPENHEIM, Dr. SAUL CHESTERFIELD, American Professor of Law; born Jan. 16, 1897, New York, N. Y.; son of Jacob and Julia (Jaffe) Oppenheim; educated at Columbia Univ., A.B. 1918, A.M. 1920; Univ. of Michigan, J.D. 1926, S.J.D. 1929; married Morgery H. Heiman, Sept. 22, 1922; one son. Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Michigan, 1921; Research and Teaching Asst. to Dean of Law School, 1926-27. Asst. Prof., George Washington Univ., 1927-30; Assoc. Prof., 1930-40; Prof. since 1940. Faculty Editor, George Washington Law Review. Member: Amer., Federal, District of Columbia and Michigan Bar Assns. Author: Cases on Trade Regulation (1936); Recent Price Control Laws (1939); National Transportation Policy and Inter-Carrier Competition Rates. Address: 720—20th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

OPPENHEIM, VICTOR, Consulting Geologist and Engineer; born Oct. 31, 1906, Riga, Latvia; son of Hert and Mathilde (Triuss) Oppenheim; educated at Univs. of Latvia, 1923; Toulouse, France, 1925; Caen, France, 1927. Asst. Consulting Mining Engineer in Europe and France until 1929; Geologist, Government Oil Fields of Argentina, 1932; State Geologist, Govt. of Brazil, 1936; Geologist, Caribbean Petroleum Co., Venezuela, 1937; Chief Geologist, Anglo-Saxon Petroleum Co. of Ecuador, 1939; State Geologist, Govts. of Ecuador (Hon.), Colombia and Peru, 1939, 1941, 1945. Consulting Geologist, Socony Vacuum Oil Co. of New York, 1941-43. Fellow, Geological Soc. of London. Member: Soc. of Economic Geologists; Amer. Assn. of Petroleum Geologists; Colombian Acad. of Science; Geological Soc. of Peru; Geographical Socs. of La Paz and Colombia; Swiss Geological Soc.; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers; Pan-American Inst. of Mining Engineers and Geology; South American Petroleum

Inst.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Author: Geologic Map of Southern Brazil, 1934; Petroleum Geology of Gondwana Rocks of Southern Brazil, 1934; 1st Geologic Map of Colombia, S. A., 1943; Geologic Map of Bolivia, 1944; 1st Geologic Map of South America, 1945; over 60 papers. Residence: Hotel Granada. Office: Apartado Nacional 381, Bogota, Colombia.

OPPENHEIMER, Dr. BERNARD S., American Professor of Medicine; born June 20, 1876, New York, N. Y.; son of Leopold and Laura (Sutro) Oppenheimer; graduated from Harvard University, A.B. 1897; College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., M.D. 1901; graduate studies in Vienna, Berlin and London; married Enid Simmons, Aug. 29, 1919; one son. Engaged in medical practice since 1901; attending physician and chief, Med. Division, Montefiore Hosp., 1911-33; Consulting Physician since then. Consulting Physician, Mt. Vernon Hosp., N. Y., 1936—; Mt. Sinai Hosp., 1940—; Assoc. Attending Physician, 1919-27; Physician, 1927-40. Appointed Clinical Prof. of Med., Columbia Univ., 1936. Member of Bd. of Dirs., N. Y. Tuberculosis and Health Assn. and of N. Y. Heart Assn. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians. Member of Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Soc. for Clinical Invesigation; Soc. for Experimental Bio. and Med.; Harvey Soc.; N. Y. Cardiol. Soc.; Amer. Med. Assn.; N. Y. Pathol. Soc.; N. Y. Acad. of Med. During First World War served in Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917-18 (Major to Lt. Col.), in France; Chief of Med. Service, Base Hosp. 61; later Col., Med. Reserve Corps, U. S. A. Author of numerous scientific articles in medicine, chiefly on disorders of circulation. Address: 124 E. 61st St., New York, N. Y.

OPPENHEIMER, CHARLES, British Painter; born Oct. 10, 1875, Manchester England; son of Ludwig and Susan McCulloch (Findlay) Oppenheimer; educated at Manchester School of Art under R.H.A. Willis and Walter Crane; studied in Italy; married Constance Emily Taylor, May 28, 1903. Represented in permanent collections: Manchester City Art Gallery (Kirkcudbright; Evening, Lake of Lucerne; The Old Tolbooth); Whitworth Art Gallery (two water colours); Kelvingrove Gallery, Glasgow (Harnessing the Dee); Scottish Modern Arts Soc. (A Late Snowfall); Municipal Collections of Aberdeen, Oldham, Southport, Worthing and Newport; National Gallery of South Africa, Capetown (Barlochan Pool, Galloway); Diploma Gallery, Royal Scottish Acad. (Kirkcudbright Under Snow); Univ. Art Gallery of Michigan, U.S.A. (Water Lilies). Exhibitor at Royal Academy, London; Salon, Paris and by invitation in U. S., Canada, New Zealand, Buenos Aires, Prague, and all principal galleries in the United Kingdom. Academician, Royal Scottish Academy. Address: Woodlea, Kirkcudbright, Scotland.

OPPENHEIMER, Sir ERNEST, South African Mining Executive; Partner in E. Oppenheimer & Son; born May 22, 1880; son of Edward Oppenheimer; married (1st) Mary Lina Pollak (died 1934); (2nd) Caroline Harvey. Came to South Africa, 1902; Mayor of Kimberley, 1912-15; Member of Parliament, 1924-38. Chairman and Permanent Director of Anglo American Corp. of South Africa Ltd. Chairman of De Beers Consolidated Mines Ltd., African Explosives and Industries Ltd. and N'Changa Consolidated Copper Mines Ltd. Deputy Chairman, Rhokana Corporation Ltd. Director of Barclays Bank D.C.O., British South Africa Co. Ltd., Diamond Corp. Ltd. and of many other diamond, gold and copper mining companies. Residence: Brenthurst, Parktown. Address: P.O. Box 4902, Johannesburg, South Africa.

OPPENHEIMER, FRANCIS J., (FRANCIS OPP), American Writer, Caricaturist; born Mar. 23, 1881, New York, N. Y.; son of Morris and Elizabeth (Gilmore) Oppenheimer; educated at New York City College, 1896-98; private studies; married Beatrice Bisno, Aug. 1920. Lecturer, 1905; Assoc. Director, Natl. Liberal Immigration League, 1906-07. Assoc. Editor, The Modern Theatre, 1908-09; Press Rept., City of New York, and managed Municipal Exposition, 1910-11; Special Writer, N. Y. Sunday World (Opp), 1912-14; Free lance magazine writer, 1915; Assoc. Dir., War Exposition, U. S. Govt., 1919; Special Writer, Magazine of Wall Street, 1920-22; on Editorial Staff, New York Evening Mail, 1923; Special Writer, Success Magazine, 1924-25; Special Asst., Office of Govt. Reports, 1942; Feature Editor, Office of War Information, New York, 1943. Author: History of Restriction of Immigration, 1910; Failure of Pacifism, 1917; The New Tyranny, 1927; Ezekiel to Einstein, 1941. Co-author, A United Europe or Else, 1946. Address: 2720 Armstrong Ave., Los Angeles 26, Calif.

OPPENHEIMER, Dr. J. ROBERT, American Physicist; born Apr. 22, 1904, New York, N. Y.; son of Julius and Ella (Freedman) Oppenheimer; educated at Harvard University (B.A. 1926); Cambridge and Göttingen Universities (Ph.D. 1927); married Katherine Harrison, 1940; one son—Peter. In charge of atomic laboratory and directed atomic bomb research at Los Alamos, New Mexico, supervising experiments which led to the atomic bomb, 1945. Professor, University of California, and California Inst. of Technology, 1929-47; Director, Inst. for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J., 1947—. Member: Amer. Academy of Arts and Sciences; the Physical Society; the National Academy of Sciences. Served on U. N. Atomic Commn., 1946. Address: Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

OPPENHEIMER, Dr. RUSSELL HENRY, American Medical School Dean; son of A. E. and Elizabeth (Paul) Oppenheimer; educated at Ohio State Univ., A.B. 1911; Univ. of Michigan, M.D. 1917; Supt. of Emory Univ. Hosp., 1924-35; Med. Dir. since 1935. Dean, School of Med., Emory Univ., since 1925; Prof. of Medicine since 1930. Vice-Pres., Assn. of American Medical Colleges, 1935-36; Member of Executive Council since 1938, Pres., since 1939. 1st Lieut., A.E.F., World War I. Address: 50 Armstrong St., Atlanta, Ga.

OPPO, Prof. CIPRIANO EFISIO, Italian Painter and Art Critic; born July 2, 1890, Rome, Italy; son of Eugenio and Ottavia (Sutto) Oppo; educated at Royal Acad. of Fine Arts; Univ. of Rome; married Isabella Cirelli, Sept. 30, 1920; three children. Participated in all major Italian exhibitions, also in foreign shows, including: Internatl. Exposition, Paris, 1937; Carnegie Inst. Exposition, Pittsburgh, 1929; Exposition of Contemporary Italian Painters, Baltimore, 1931, etc. Represented in principal museums of Rome, Turin, Venice, Paris, Amsterdam, Antwerp, Zagreb, Lima, etc. Designed stage scenery for Royal Theatre, Rome; La Scala, Milan, etc. Prof. of Painting, Royal Acad. of Arts, Rome. National Secy., Syndicate of Italian Artists; Academician, Italian Acad.; Secy. General, Quadriennali d'Arte, Rome. Vice-Pres., Italian Pavilion, World's Fair, New York; Universal Exposition, Rome; Member of Jury, International Exposition, Pittsburgh. Deputy to Italian Parliament, 1929-40. Awarded: Grand Painting Prize, World Exposition, Paris, 1937; Grand Cordon, Italian Crown Order; Commander, Order Carlos III, Spain; Hon. Citizen of New York. Author: Fuoco, 1915; Mostri figure e paesaggi, 1928; Forme e colori nel mondo, 1938; Corot, 1932; Valori plastici. Address: Via Icilo 7, Rome, Italy.

OPRECHT, Dr. EMIL ADOLF, Swiss Publisher; born Sept. 23, 1895, Zurich, Switzerland; son of Wilhelm and Marie (Graf) Oprecht; educated at College of Zurich, B.A.; Univ. of Zurich, Dr. Sc.soc.; married Emmie Fehlmann, Sept. 12, 1921. Began as manager of a bookshop; later owner and manager of a bookshop; now Owner and Manager, publishing house Europa Verlag and Verlag Oprecht; Manager and Pres., Board of Directors, Schauspielhaus Zurich, since 1938. Delegate of Zurich Opera House (Stadttheater Zurich); Member of Com., Theatre School; Member, Board of Directors, Praesens Film A.G., Zurich; Member, Board of Directors, Schweizerischer Verleger Verein. Pres., Board of Directors, Europa Verlag, Vienna. Member of Com.: Cultural Assn.; Swiss-British Cultural Assn. Residence: Hirschengraben 20. Office: Rämistrasse 5, Zurich, Switzerland.

OPRECHT, Dr. HANS, Swiss Book Publisher; Political Leader; born July 19, 1894, Muri, Berne, Switzerland; educated at Classical School and Univ. of Zurich, Ph.D.; married Marlise Schuler, 1942; one son. Director, Büchergilde Gutenberg. Trustee, Arbeiterhilfswerk. Secretary General, Swiss Federation of Personnel in Public Services, 25 years; National Councillor; Vice-President of Military Commission, Natl. Council; Pres., Swiss Socialist Party. Author of eight books. Address: Morgenstrasse 3, Zurich, Switzerland.

OPRESCU, Prof. GEORGE, Roumanian Art Historian; born 1881, Campulung, Roumania; son of John and Mary (Cismas) Oprescu; educated at Univ. of Bucarest, 1904; Univ. of Cluj, Litt.D. 1925. Prof. at Univ. of Cluj; Secy., Intellectual Co-operation Com., League of Nations, 1923-31; Lecturer, Univ. of Cluj, 1921-31; Prof., Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Bucarest, since 1931; Dean, Faculty of Letters, 1945-47. Director, Museum of Fine Arts "Tomo Stibán," since 1931; Director General, Roumanian National Museum, Bucarest, since 1946. Director, Superior Com. of Museums of Roumania; Vice-Chairman, Anglo-Roumanian Soc. Member: International Com. of Art and Archaeology, Paris; Acad. San Fernando, Madrid; Acad., Lyon; Roumanian Com. of Historical Monuments. Corresp. Member, Roumanian Acad. Commander, Steaua Romaniei; Italian Crown Order; Legion of Honor; Danish Dannebrog Order. Author: Géricault; Roumanian Peasant Art; Roumanian Painting in XIXth Century; La Peinture Roumaine Contemporaine; Handbook of History of Art (4 vols.). Address: Strada Dr. Clunet 16, Bucarest, Roumania.

OPSOMER, Baron ISIDORE EDMOND HENRI, Belgian Artist; born Feb. 19, 1878, Lier, Prov. Antwerp, Belgium; son of Gustaaf-Edmond and Joséphine-Francisca (Renoir) Opsomer; studied art at Royal Acad. of Fine Arts, Antwerp; Natl. High Inst. of Fine Arts, Antwerp; married Caroline Moors, Dec. 15, 1900; one son. Exhibition at Salon des Beaux Arts, Brussels, 1900. Painted portraits of King Albert I of Belgium; C. Huysmans; Fr. Van Cauwelaert; Count Lippens; many other ministers. Represented at Tate Gallery, London; Natl. Gallery, New Zealand; Musée du Jeu de Paume, Paris; Musée de Versailles; Rotterdam Museum; Museums of Amsterdam, Riga, Belgrade, Venice, Rome, Florence, Madrid, Cairo, Brussels, Antwerp, Ghent, Luik, Namur and Mons; private collections of King Leopold III of Belgium, King Victor Emmanuel of Italy and son Umberto, Winston Churchill at Chartwell; also Palace of Parliament and Senate, Brussels; Provincial Govt. Bldgs in Ghent; Town Hall, Antwerp, etc. Director, Royal Acad. and High Inst. of Fine Arts, Antwerp, until 1945. Member: Jury, Carnegie Inst., Pittsburgh, 1935; Royal Acad. of Belgium (Director, Fine Arts Section, 1945); Institut de France; Acad. of San Fernando, Spain. Awards: Commander, Order of Leopold, Belgian Crown Order; Legion of Honor, Orange-Nassau Order; Italian Crown Order; Order of Pole Star (Sweden); Hungarian Order of Merit; Grand Officer, St. Sava Order (Yugoslavia); Officer, British Empire. Address: 13 Maria-Theresialei, Antwerp, Belgium.

op ten NOORT, Jhr. ANTON HELMICH, Dutch Consulting Engineer; born Sept. 7, 1881, Utrecht, Holland; son of Jhr. Ludolf and Louisa Jacoba (Bondam) op ten Noort; educated at Military School, Alkmaar, 1897-99; Royal Military Acad., Breda, 1899-1902; married W. Kuhn, Feb. 24, 1910; two sons and two daughters. 2nd Lieut., Engineering Corps (Ry. Battalion), 1902; 1st Lieut., Engineers Staff, 1904-06. Appointed Town Surveyor, Enschede, 1906; Director of Public Works, Utrecht, 1916. Consulting Engineer and Architect, since 1919. Member, Royal Netherlands Industrial Fair since 1917, Vice-Pres. since 1921. Director, Surinam Water Works Corp., Dutch Guiana, since 1930. Member: Batavian Soc. for Experimental Philosophy, Rotterdam; Provincial-Utrecht-Soc. for Science; Order of Netherlands Consulting Engineers (O.N.R.I.); Royal Netherlands Inst. of Engineers. One of organizers of first Netherlands Industrial Fair, 1917; participated in organization of first Air-Flight Exhibition (E.L.T.A.), Amsterdam, 1919. Planned and built industrial and public works, sewerage plans; built water supply for Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana. Author of several publications in Dutch technical periodicals. Residence: Willem De Zwijgerstr. 7. Office: Pieterskerkhof 5, Utrecht, The Netherlands.

ORAHOVATS, Dr. DIMITER, Bulgarian Physiologist; born 1892, Loewtsch, Bulgaria; educated at Universities of Munich and Cambridge. Lecturer in Physiology, Medical Faculty of Sofia; Prof. Extraordinary, 1921; Dean of Faculty, 1932-34; served as President of Sofia Univ. and now is Vice Pres. Member, Bulgarian Acad. of Sciences. Bulgarian Member, United Nations World Health Organization, Lake Success, N. Y., 1946. Author of numerous works on medical subjects, especially physiology. Address: Sofia University, Sofia, Bulgaria.

ORAINVI, Prof. SYED AKHTAR AHMAD, Indian College Professor; born Aug. 19, 1911, Kako, India; son of Syed Wezarut Hussain and Shamsa Aziz; educated at Patna Science College; Patna Arts College; Patna Medical College; Patna Univ., B.A. 1934, M.A. 1936; married Shakila Tauheed, May 1933. Lecturer, Patna College, 1938; Supt., St. John Ambulance Brigade, Patna College, 1943; Army Information Officer, Patna Univ., 1945; Additional Secy., Text Book Com., Bihar, 1946; Joint Editor, Patna College Magazine, 1940; Prof. in Charge, College Dispensary, 1944; Vice-Pres., Bazme Adab, Patna College, 1939. Secy. of Education and Propaganda, Islamia Ahmadyya Assn. Editor, Propaganda Section, Provincial War Com., 1940; Member, Editorial Board, The Maasir. Supt., Muslim Hostel, Patna. Awarded two University Gold Medals. Author: Shahanshah-e-Habsha, 1938; Manzaro Pase Manzar, 1942, 1946; Kalyan aur Kantay, 1943, 1946; Anar Kali aur Bhool Bhulaiyan, 1944; Iqbal, 1941; Kasauti, 1945, etc. Residence: Muslim Hostel Quarters, Patna. Office: P. O. Bankipur, Patna, India.

ORAMES, BENJAMIN, Salvation Army Commander; born Mar. 15, 1876, Kyneton, Victoria, Australia; son of William T. and Mary Ann (Hughes) Orames; educated at public schools; married Abbe Vida Black, Aug. 24, 1903; three children. Salvation Army Officer since Jan. 1899; New Zealand, 1908-10; Chaplain with Australian Forces, Egypt and France, 1915-18; hon. Major. In charge of Salvation Army operations in North China, 1930-32; Salvation Army operations in Western States of U.S.A. and Hawaiian Islands, 1932-39; nominated for the Generalship of The Salvation Army, 1939. Address: 20 Albert St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

ORANTES, JOSÉ ANDRÉS, Salvadorean Educator; born Nov. 30, 1903, Nueva San Salvador, El Salvador; son of Pedro Macario Orantes and Isabel Bonilla de Orantes; studied in the Escuela Goicoechea; Instituto San Francisco de Sales; Colegio Mercantil de Comercio y Hacienda (Public Accountant, 1924); married Lucía Eugenia Acosta, Nov. 30, 1930; five children. Prof. of Commerce and Finance, 1925; General Supply Officer of the Republic, 1937-38; Under-Secy. of Public Instruction, 1938 —. Represented government at first Congreso Interamericano de Indigenistas (Michoacán, Mexico, 1940), and at the Meeting of Ministers of Public Instruction held in San José, Costa Rica, in 1942; Delegate, La Primera Conferencia de Ministros de Educación de las Republicas Americanas, Panama. Residence: 45 Avda. Sur, Colonia Flor Blanca; Calle Concepción No. 29, San Salvador.

ORBACH, MAURICE, British Parliament Member; born July 13, 1902, Cardiff, Wales; son of Hyam and Millicent Orbach; educated at Technical College, Cardiff; Columbia and New York Univs.; married Ruth Beatrice Huebsch, 1935; one child. Engineer, 1914. Member, Board of Guardians, St. Pancras, 1924-25; London County Council, 1937-46. Member of Parliament for East Willesden since 1945. Member, Town Planning Com., London; Buildings Act, London; Supplies Com., London; Mental Hosps. Chairman, St. Olave's Hosp., Governor, Central Foundation Schools. Member: Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Fabian Soc. Executive, British Section, World Jewish Congress; Pres., Kilburn British Legion; Hon. Officer, Willesden Chamber of Commerce; Governor, Willesden General Hosp. Author: Austria, 1946. Residence: 76 Eton Hall, Chalk Farm. Office: 280 Euston Rd., London, N.W. 1, England.

ORBAN, Dr. BALINT, Oral Pathologist and Researcher; born Mar. 24, 1899, Temesvar, Hungary; son of Ignac and Elisabeth (Busch) Orban; educated at Univ. of Budapest, Medical School, M.D. 1922; Univ. of Vienna Medical School, M.D. 1930; Northwestern Univ. Dental School, Chicago, D.D.S. 1938; married Emilie Dikan, Sept. 7, 1931; two sons. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Vienna, 1925. Prof. of Oral Pathology, Chicago College of Dental Surgery, 1927-29. Asst. Prof., Dental School, Univ. of Vienna, 1930-34; Docent, 1934-38. Asst. Prof., Northwestern Univ. Dental School, 1938-40; Prof. of Oral Pathology and Research, Chicago College of Dental Surgery, School of Dentistry, Loyola Univ., since 1940. Member: Amer. Dental Assn.; Internatl. Assn. of Dental Research; Amer. Acad. of Periodontia. Chairman, Research Com., Internatl. Dental Federation; Fellow, Amer. Acad. for Advancement of Science. Author: Dental Histology and Embryology, 1928 (2nd ed.) 1929; Biology and Pathology of the Tooth (co-author, 1938); Oral History and Embryology (editor and co-author), 1944. Address: 180 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Illinois.

ORBAN, Dr. PAUL MAURICE, Belgian Minister of Agriculture; born Feb. 4, 1889, Mirton, Belgium; son of Adolphe and Francienne (Thorn) Orban; educated at Univ. of Louvain, LL.D. 1911; married Josepha de Smedt, May 13, 1919. Advocate, Bar of Termonde, 1911; Prof. at Faculty of Law, Univ. of Ghent, since 1925; Senator for Province of Flandre Orientale since 1932. Exchange Prof., Univs. of Bordeaux, France, Rotterdam and Nimegen, Holland; Delegate to the Commission on Justice, Inter-Parliamentary Union; reported on problems of sovereignty, neutrality and individual rights, in Copenhagen, 1946. Minister of Agriculture, Belgium, since Mar. 1947. Created Commander, Order of Leopold; Officer: Order of the Crown; Order of Croix de Chiène (Luxembourg). Author: La Résponsabilité des Pouvoirs Publics en Belgique, 1931; De Stryd Tussehen Individualisme en Socialisme in het Recht, 1931; Le Controle Judiciaire de la Constitutionnalité des lois de Bruxelles, 1938; Het Rassenbeginsee in het Nieuwe Duitsche Recht, 1939. Address: Pins Albertstraat 45, St. Nicholas Waes, Belgium; and Place Quetelet 7, Brussels, Belgium.

ORBELI, Prof. I. A., Soviet Academician. Engaged in research studies of antiquities. Member of Branch of History and Philosophy of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Elected Hon. Member of the London Society of Antiquaries "for valuable contributions to the science of antiquities," 1944. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ORBELI, JOSEPH, Soviet Scientist; born in Yerevan, Armenia; son of an Armenian lawyer and brother of Soviet physiologist Leon Orbeli; educated at St. Petersburg; studied under N. Marr, distinguished philologist. Researcher in Caucasian and Iranian medieval history. With the Hermitage Museum, Leningrad, since 1920; now Director. Head of Armenian Branch of U.S.S.R. Acad. of Sciences until establishment of Armenian Acad. of Sciences, 1943 (President). Author of volume of Armenian 17th and 18th century fables and other works. Address: Hermitage Museum, Leningrad, U.S.S.R.

ORBELI, Prof. LEON, Soviet Physiologist; born 1883, Yerevan, Armenia. Founder of school of evolutionary physiology of nervous system. Dean of Soviet physiologists. Pupil and scientific disciple of Ivan Pavlov. Research results are widely applied in medicine, particularly army medicine. Head of Pavlov Inst. of Physiology, Pavlovo, near Leningrad. First Vice Pres., Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. (Secy., Section of Biological Sciences). Head of Soviet Delegation to Seventeenth Internatl. Physiological Congress, London, 1947. Served as Col. General, Army Medical Service, World War II. Awarded: Order of Red Banner; Stalin Prize; Metchnikov Gold Medal "for many years of research in evolutionary physiology," 1948. Author: Lectures on the Physiology of the Nervous System; Conditioned Reflexes in Dogs. Address: Pavlov Institute of Physiology, Pavlovo near Leningrad, U.S.S.R.

ORBOY, RAUF, Turkish Diplomat. Served as Naval Officer in Balkan War; Minister of Marine; Prime Minister, 1923-24. Ambassador to Great Britain, 1942-44. Address: Bebek, Istanbul, Turkey.

ORCHARD, Dr. JOHN EWING, American Economic Geographer; born July 19, 1893, Exeter, Nebr.; son of William J. and Laura A. (Ewing) Orchard; educated at Swarthmore College, A.B. 1916; Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1917-18; Harvard Univ., M.A. 1920, Ph.D. 1923; University of Chicago; married Dorothy A. Johnson, Dec. 27, 1920. Instructor in George School and in 1917-18 was Assistant in the University of Pennsylvania. Assistant Mine Economist, the U. S. Bureau of Mines, 1918-19; Instructor in Economic Geography, Columbia University, 1920-24; Assistant Professor, 1924; Associate Professor, 1929; Prof. since 1938; Acting Dean, 1947—. Economic consultant to the O.P.M., 1941; Senior Assistant Administrator, Lend-Lease Administration, 1941-43; Director, General Areas Branch of the Foreign Economic Administration, 1942-44; Special Asst. to the Under-Secy. and Asst. Secy. of State, 1944-45; Senior Consultant, Foreign Liquidation Commissioner, 1945-46. Author: Japan's Economic Position (1930); Resources for Victory (1943); and numerous articles on minerals and on Far Eastern relations. Residence: 88 Morningside Dr. Office: School of Business, Columbia University, New York 2, N. Y.

ORCHHA, Maharajah of, His Highness Saramad-I-Rajahai, Bundelkhand Shri Sawai Mahendra Maharaja Sir VIR SINGH DEV Bahadur, K.C.S.I., Indian Ruler; born Apr. 14, 1899; educated at Daly College, Indore; Rajkumar College, Rajkot, and Mayo College, Ajmer; also received administrative training in the Saugor District of the Central Provinces; married a sister of His Highness the Maharana of Wadhwan (Kathiawar), Mar. 4, 1919 (deceased); married (2nd) a granddaughter of His Highness the Maharaja of Gondol; heir apparent—Raja Bahadur Shri Devendra Singh Ju Dev. Ascended the Gadi, Mar. 4, 1930. Address: Orchha, Central India.

ORDE, SIR CHARLES WILLIAM, K.C.M.G., British Diplomat; born October 25, 1884; son of William Orde; educated at Eton and King's College, Cambridge; married France Fortune Davidson, 1914; four children. Entered Foreign Office, 1909; Minister to Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania, 1937-40; Ambassador to Chile, 1940-45. Address: Foreign Office, London, England.

ORDE BROWNE, GRANVILLE ST. JOHN, British Colonial Official; born Oct. 26, 1883, Woolwich, Kent; son of Charles Orde and Annie Maria (Michel) Browne; educated at Wellington College, Royal Military Acad., Woolwich (Commn. in Royal Artillery); married Margaret Florence Fearnley Whittingstall, Oct. 2, 1923; three daughters. Commissioned 2nd Lieut., Royal Artillery, 1902; Seconded for service in East African Administration, 1909. Served in East African campaign, promoted to Major, 1915-29. Appointed Senior Commnr., Tanganyika Territory, 1920. Appointed Labour Commnr., 1925; retired from East African service, 1931. Appointed to Com. on Experts on Native Labour, League of Nations, Geneva, 1935; appointed Labour Adviser to Secy. of State for the Colonies, 1938. Attended Internatl. Conferences of I.L.O., 1937, 1938, at Geneva; at Philadelphia, 1944; at Paris, 1945; at Montreal, 1946. Fellow: Royal Geographical Soc.; Royal Anthropological Inst.; Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Royal Empire Soc.; Royal African Soc. Made Companion of SS. Michael and George; Officer, Order of British Empire (military division). Awarded Medal for Zulu Rising, 1914-15 Star, Victory Medal, Allied Medal; four times mentioned in despatches. Author: Vanishing Tribes of Kenya, 1924; Africans learn to be French (in collaboration), 1935. Wrote Report on Labour Conditions in Northern Rhodesia, 1938; in the West Indies, 1938; in West Africa, 1941; Ceylon, Mauritius, Malaya, 1942; East Africa, 1946. Residence: The White House, Widmer End, High Wycombe, Buckinghamshire. Office: The Colonial Office, Downing St., London, England.

ORDING, Dr. ARNE, Norwegian Historian; born 1898, Oslo; educated at Oslo University, 1924; studied in Paris, Berlin, Moscow, London and Geneva. Active in politics since 1922. Prof. of Modern History, Univ. of Oslo. Member of Academy of Science and Letters, Oslo. Adviser to the Foreign Office since 1940. Member, Norwegian Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Author of books on international affairs. Address: Foreign Office, Oslo, Norway.

ORDÓÑEZ, Prof. EZEQUIEL, Mexican Geologist; born Apr. 10, 1867, Lerma, Mexico; son of Margarito Ordoñez and Eduwigis Aguilar; educated at Escuela Nacional Preparatoria; Escuela Nacional de Ingenieros, Mexico City; married Margarita Jullian, Apr. 16, 1904; three children. Curator, Mineralogical Collection, Engineering School, 1886; Asst. Geologist, Geologic Commission, 1889. Geologist, Instituto Geológico de México, 1893-97; Under-Director, 1898-1906; Director, 1916-17, 1945—. Consulting Geologist, Mexican Petroleum Company of California, since 1901. In 1909-14, was Geologist to the Cia. Real del Monte y Pachuca; Chief Geologist to the Huasteca Petroleum Co., 1915-32. Formerly Professor of Petroleum Geology and Physical Geology of Mexico in the Escuela Nacional de Ingenieros; Geologist of the Comisión Coordinadora e Impulsora de la Investigación Científica de México (1943—). He is honorary member of the principal scientific bodies of Mexico, the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, American Association of Petroleum Geologists, etc. He was Mexican Delegate to four International Geological Congresses, and has traveled throughout Central and South America on oil exploration work. He was decorated Commander of the Order of Polonia Restituta. Address: Abraham González No. 79, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

ORDÓÑEZ, Prof. PLINIO D., Mexican Educator; born Jan. 3, 1882, Montemorelos, N. León, Mexico; son of Cipriano and Maria (González) Ordóñez; educated at Escuela Oficial de Montemorelos, N. León, Mexico; Escuela Normal, State of N. León (Professor of Primary Instruction, 1900); married Guadalupe García, Aug. 11, 1905. Educator since 1896. Professor of Psychology, Pedagogy, Educative Sociology, General Principles of Education, Methodology, General Technique of Primary Education and Education in Social Economy, Escuela Normal para Maestros del Estado, 1929-41; Secretary of Escuelas Normales del Estado, 1927-29; Dir. of same, 1929-41; Prof. of Castilian Grammar, Escuela Secundaria No. 1, Monterrey, 1933-37; Prof. of Castilian Grammar, Escuela Secundaria No. 1, Monterrey, 1933-37; Professor of Arithmetic at the same since 1935; Professor of Mexican History, Escuela de Bachilleres diurna, State of Nuveo León, since 1937; Professor of General Principles of Education and General Technique of Secondary Education, Escuela Normal Superior del Estado, since 1942. Editor of the daily paper "El Porvenir." President, Sociedad Mutualista de Maestros Mexicanos, 1917; Organizer of First Masonic National Congress, Monterrey, 1926. Recipient of Doctor Diploma, Universidad Nuevo León, Sociedad de Historia, Geografía and Estadística de Nuevo León, Sociedad de Geografía and Estadística, Mexico City; Gold Medals, Logias Fenix No. 5 and Puritanos No. 40. Author of many books, pamphlets and articles, including: The History of Public Education in the State of Nuevo León (25 vols.). Address: Jiménez No. 142, Nte. Monterrey, Nuevo León, Mexico.

ORDONNEAU, PIERRE ANDRÉ GEORGES FÉLIX, French Government Official; born June 19, 1912, Bernay, Eure, France; son of André and Madeleine (Lassaigne) Ordonneau; educated at Univ. of Paris, lic.law and letters; married Estelle Dupuich, June 2, 1937; two children. Auditor, State Council, 1941; Legal Adviser to Commander-in-Chief in Germany, 1945; Master of Requests, Council of State, since 1946; Adviser, French Delegation to United Nations, 1948. Decorated Knight, Legion of Honor. Awarded: Croix de Guerre, 1939-45; Resistance Medal. Residence: 17 East 97th St., New York, N. Y. Office: 4 East 79th St., New York, N. Y.

ORDWAY, SAMUEL HANSON, Jr., American Public Administration Consultant; born Jan. 20, 1900, New York, N. Y.; son of Samuel H. and Frances (Throop) Ordway; educated at Harvard College, A.B. 1921; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1924; married Anna Wheatland, June 1924; three children. Attorney, 1924. Partner in law firm of Spencer, Ordway & Wierum, 1929. New York City Civil Service Commissioner, 1933. New York City Art Commissioner, 1941. U. S. Civil Service Commissioner, 1937. Captain, U.S.N.R., 1945. Now Public Administration Consultant, New York City. Author: The Intellect is a Brute; History of Political Parties, etc. Residence: 155 E. 72nd St. Office: 72 Wall St., New York 5, New York.

ORE, Dr. OYSTEIN, Mathematician; born Oct. 7, 1899, Oslo, Norway; son of Mikal B. and Benedicte C. S. (Kaade) Ore; educated at Oslo University, M.A. 1922, Ph.D. 1924; graduate study in Göttingen, Germany, 1922, and Sorbonne, Paris, 1924. Fellow, Mathematical Institute of Stockholm, 1923; Fellow of Rockefeller International Education Board, 1924-25; Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Oslo University, 1925-28; at Yale University, 1927; Associate Professor, 1928; Professor, 1929-31; Sterling Professor since 1931. Chairman of Department of Mathematics, Yale University, 1936-45. Fellow, Branford College, since 1933. Member: American Mathematical Society (Council Member, 1934-36; Colloquium Lecturer, 1941); Oslo Academy of Science; National Research Council, 1939-42; Bd. of Dirs., Amer. Relief for Norway, 1942-47; Relief Mission to Norway, 1945. Author: Les Corps Algébriques et le Théorie des Idéaux, 1934; L'algèbre abstraite, 1936, etc. Co-Editor. Gesammelte Werke of R. Dedekind (with E. Noether), 3 vols., 1930. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

OREAMUNO, J. RAFAEL, Costa Rican Diplomat; born in Costa Rica, 1892. Served as Secretary, Costa Rican Agency in Costa Rica-Panama boundary arbitration in Washington; Secretary, Costa Rican Legation in Washington; Consul General at New York; Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary to the United States; Representative of American Bankers in Latin America; Fiscal Agent of Costa Rica in New York and London; Delegate to several Inter-American and Internatl. Conferences, including United Nations Conference in San Francisco, 1945; now Director of Inter-American Development Commission and Chairman of the Inter-American Economic and Social Council. Address: 2400 Sixteenth Street, N. W., Washington 9, D. C.

OREBAUGH, WALTER WILLIAM, American Consul; born March 19, 1910, Wichita, Kans.; son of Walter William and Iona Imogene (Davis) Orebaugh; educated at Georgetown Univ., 1928-1929; Wichita Municipal Univ., B.A. 1931; Clark Univ., 1931-32; married Marguerite Howard, Aug. 12, 1933; one son. Vice-Consul, Montreal, Canada, 1932; attended Foreign Service School, 1932; Vice-Consul at Wellington, New Zealand, 1933; Trieste, 1937; Nice, 1941; Consul at Nice and Monaco, 1942; detained by enemy, 1942-43; escaped and worked with Italian guerrillas, 1943-44; Consul at Rome and Secretary, Office of U. S. Representative, Advisory Council for Italy, 1944; Consul at Florence and San Marino, since 1944. Awarded: Freedom Medal, 1947. Residence: Via Gino Capponi No. 21. Office: Via Tornabuoni No. 9, Florence, Italy.

O'REILLEY, Dr. LEE JOHN, American Assn. Executive; born Mar. 26, 1890, Merrill, Wis.; son of James M. and Minnie (Keikheifer) O'Reilley; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin; Chicago Veterinary College, D.V.M. 1912; married Lillian Leidiger, Oct. 1919. Asst. Supt., Churchill & Spalding Co., 1907; engaged in private veterinary practice at Merrill, Wis., 1912-24; Asst. State Veterinary, Wisconsin, 1915-16. Pres., American Natl. Fur Breeders Assn., since 1924. Director, Citizens State Bank, Merrill, Wis. Secy., Agricultural Soc. Pres.: Lincoln County Equity Assn.; Farmers Warehousing Co.; Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Assn. Member, Raw Fur Industry Advisory Com., WPB, 1942. Residence: 1609 E. Main St., Merrill, Wis. Office: First American State Bank Building, Wausau, Wis.

O'REILLY, PATRICK JOHN, Irish Senator; born Jan. 14, 1882, Navan, County Meath, Eire; son of James and Anne (O'Brien) O'Reilly; educated at Ringsend Technical School; Kevin St. Technical School; Bolton St. Technical School; Dept. of Education, Industrial Annexe, Royal College of Science, Dublin; Metropolitan School of Art; Royal College of Art, London; married Jennie Smith, Feb. 18, 1925; four children. County Instructor, Building Construction, County Meath, Sept. 1904-14; Principal and Secy., Clonmel Technical School, 1914-30; Chief Exec. Officer, County Tipperary S. R. Vocational Education Com., since 1930; Member of Seanad Eireann, since 1944. Hon. Organizing Secy., Muintir na Tire, 1938, 1939, 1940; Member of Natl. Executive, 1937; Vice-Pres., since 1940. Member: Royal Dublin Soc.; Royal Soc. for Antiquarians; Statistical and Social Enquiry Assn.; Catholic Assn. for Internatl. Affairs; Irish Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Clonmel Permanent Art Gallery (Chmn., Board of Trustees); Standing Council, Irish Vocational Assn.; Officers' Assn. (Member of Council, Chief Exec.). Director of Educational Scheme for South Tipperary Vocational Education Com. Residence: Greyfort, Coleville Road, Clonmel. Office: Central Technical Institute, Clonmel, Eire.

ORFANIDIS, Dr. APOSTOLOS, Greek Minister of Health; born 1890, Smyrna, Greece; son of Nicolas and Helen Orfanidis; educated at Smyrna College, 1909; Univ. of Athens, Medical School, 1912; Ecole de Médecine, Paris; married, Jan. 15, 1925. Surgeon, Greek Army, Greek-Bulgarian War, 1913; Member of Greek Special Mission to Serbia, 1914; Chief of 1st Surgical Mobile Hospital, Macedonian Front, 1914; Head of Special Red Cross Mission in Asia Minor, 1919; in medical service of Greek Army during war against the Turks, Asia Minor, 1921-22; Col., Second and Third Army Corps; Director, Ippocration Hospital, Athens, 1923; elected Deputy, Greek Parliament (for Athens), 1924; Minister of Hygiene and Welfare, 1924; Col., Medical Corps, Albanian Front, 1940-41; Member of Defense Movement during Italian occupation; imprisoned; elected Deputy, Greek Parliament (Liberal Party), 1946; Minister of Health since 1947. Residence: Bafi Tatoi Attiki. Office: Deligiorgi 9, Athens, Greece; also Metsovou 23, Athens, Greece.

ORFIELD, Dr. LESTER BERNHARDT, American Professor of Law; born Apr. 1, 1904, Belview, Minn.; son of Andrew C. and Alpha (Bennett) Orfield; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, A.B. 1924, LL.B. 1927; Duke Univ., M.A. 1928; Univ. of Michigan, S.J.D. 1929; Harvard Univ., Brandeis Research Fellow, 1933-34; married Olyve Bakke, Sept. 2, 1933. Prof. of Law, Univ. of Nebraska, since 1929. Instructor, Univ. of Michigan, summers of 1935 and 1939; Washington Univ., summer of 1946. Senior Attorney, Social Security Board, 1936-37; Regional War Labor Board, Kansas City, Mo., 1943-44. Attorney, Armour & Co., 1944-45. Member: U. S. Supreme Court Advisory Com. on Rules of Criminal Procedure; Amer. Bar Assn. Awarded prize, Ross Essay Contest, 1943. Author: Criminal Appeals in America, 1939; The Amending of the Federal Constitution, 1942; From Arrest to Appeal, 1946. Address: Law School, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebr.

ORFIELD, Dr. MATTHIAS NORDBERG, American Lawyer; born Aug. 3, 1884, Herscher, Ill.; son of Lars J. and Anna Elizabeth (Nilson) Orfield; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, A.B. 1908, A.M. 1909, LL.B. 1912, Ph.D. 1913; married Beatrice Einan, July 17, 1937; one daughter. Instructor in Political Science, Univ. of Minnesota, 1913-14, 1918-19. Private practice in Minneapolis, 1914-33. Asst. Attorney General of Minnesota, 1933-36; Deputy Attorney General, 1936-39; Special Counsel, State Legal Dept., 1939-41; Special Asst., U. S. Attorney General, since 1943. Member: Minnesota State Bar Assn.; Minneapolis Inst. of Arts. Author: Federal Land Grants to the States (1915). Address: 3409, Department of Justice Bldg., Washington, D. C.

ORGAN, SADIE LORETTA, Newfoundland Librarian; born Sept. 11, 1908, St. Johns, Newfoundland; daughter of Michael J. and B. (Hearn) Organ; educated at McGill Univ., B.A. 1931; Univ. of Michigan, A.M.L.S. 1938. Librarian and Lecturer in Mathematics, Memorial Univ. College, 1932. Charter Member, Newfoundland Public Libraries Board. Pres., St. John's Art Club. Member, St. John's Players. Author: Handbook to the Library of the Newfoundland Memorial Univ. College. Address: Memorial University College, St. Johns, Newfoundland.

ORGAZ, Dr. ALFREDO, Argentine Attorney; President of Federación de Colegios de Abogados; born Nov. 6, 1900, Córdoba, Argentina; son of Eleodoro Orgaz Montes and Mercedes Ahumada; educated at National Univ. of Córdoba (degree of Attorney, 1924; Doctor in Law and Social Science, 1928). Director of "Revista Jurídica de Córdoba"; Professor of Civil Law, National Univ. of Córdoba; Director, Univ. Boletin de la Facultad de Dérecho y Ciencias Sociales; Pres., Colegio de Abogados de la Provincia de Córdoba; Director of the Banco de la Provincia de Córdoba. Publications: Versos de Soledad y de Silencio (1923); Penumbra (1925); Incapacidad civil de los penados (1928); Responsabilidad del automovilista (1934); Observaciones sobre la responsabilidad de las personas jurídicas (1936); La nulidad de los actos jurídicos en el Proyecto de Reformas (1936); El error de derecho en el Proyecto de Reformas (1937); La reforma del Código Civil (1939); El sobreseimiento y la acción civil (1940); La empresa individual de responsabilidad limitada (1942); El pago y el acto jurídico (1942); La acción de indemnización en los casos de homicidio (1944); Valor de la absolución penal en el juicio civil de indemnización de daños (1946); Derecho civil argentino — Personas individuales (1946). Address: 27 de Abril n° 894, Córdoba, Argentina.

ORGAZ, Dr. RAUL A., Argentine Jurist; born Nov. 30, 1888, Santiago del Estero, Argentina; son of Eliodoro Orgaz and Mercedes Ahumada; educated at National College of Monserrat; Univ. of Córdoba Law School; Ecole de Droit, Sorbonne, Paris, 1914. Secy., Federal Court, 1915-16; engaged in private law practice, 1915-42; Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Cordoba, since 1943. Dean, Law School, Univ. of Cordoba, 1942; Vice-Rector of Univ. of Cordoba, 1944-45. Member, International Inst. of Sociology; Pres., Congress of History, 1941. Decorated Officer of Academy. Author: Condición Jurídica Internacional de las Sociedades Anónimas, 1913; Función Constitucional de los Ministros, 1911; Sociología, 1946; La restauración de la fe colectiva en el Derecho. Address: 27 de Abril 894 stret, Córdoba, Argentina.

ORÍA, Prof. SALVADOR, Argentine Lawyer; born July 4, 1883, San Nicolas, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Antonio and Josefa (Mestres) Oría; educated at National Univ. of Buenos Aires, J.D.; married Elsa Carreto, June 10, 1910; two sons. Journalist, El Diario, Buenos Aires, 1906; Assoc. Prof. and Prof., National Univ. of Buenos Aires; later Director, Inst. of Finance of Argentina. Served as a member of National Commission on Coordination of Transportation. Appointed Minister of Public Works in the Cabinet of President Castillo, Sept. 2, 1940; resigned June, 1943. Prof. of Finance, Univ. of Buenos Aires. Residence: Florida 1065, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

ORIAS, Dr. OSCAR, Argentine Physiologist; born Aug. 4, 1905, Jujuy, Argentina; son of Gabriel and Dolores Villafane) Orias; educated at National College, Jujuy, 1922; National Univ. of Buenos Aires, M.D. 1928; post graduate work, Western Reserve Univ., Cleveland, 1931; Harvard Medical School, Boston, Mass., 1932; married Olga Rosa Altamira, Feb. 20, 1930; three children. Student Asst., Inst. of Physiology, Univ. of Buenos Aires, 1926; Travelling Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, N. Y., 1931-32. Head, Section of Research in Circulation, Inst. of Psysiology, Univ. of Buenos Aires, 1934; Prof. of Physiology and Director of Inst. of Physiology in Medical School of National Univ., Cordoba, Argentina, since 1935. Member: Asociación Médica Argentina; Assn. Argentina para el Progreso de las Ciencias; Academia Nacional de Medicina de Buenos Aires; Academia Nacional de Ciencia de Cordoba; Circulo Médico de Cordoba (Pres. 1940-41); Sociedad de Biologia de Cordoba (Pres. 1936-37, 1938-39); Sociedad Argentina de Cardiologia; Amer. Heart Assn.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine. Author: Registro e Interpretación de la actividad cardiaca; co-author: The Heart Sounds in Normal and Pathological Conditions. Reserve Officer, Argentine Army, Salta, Argentina, 1927. Residence: J. Escarguel, 230 Cerro Las Rosas. Office: Santa Rosa 1085, Cordoba, Argentina.

ORIBE, Prof. EMILIO, Uruguayan Poet, Educator; born Apr. 13, 1893, Melo, Uruguay; son of Nicolas and Virginia (Coronel) Oribe; educated at Univ. of Montevideo; married Maruja Gonzales Villegas, 1920; five children. Prof. of Philosophy and Aesthetics, Councillor for Primary Education, Univ. of Montevideo. Member: Pen Club of Montevideo; Acad. of Letters. Pres., Mundo Libre. Author: El Nardo del Anfora; El Castillo Interior; El Halconero Astral; El Nunca Usado Mar; La Colina del Pájaro Rojo; La Transfiguración de Lo Corporeo; El Canto Del Cuadrante; La Lámpara que Anda; Poética y Plástica: Teoria del Nous; Palabra es Tiniebla; El Mito y el Logos, Poesia (Anthology). Residence: Roque Graseras 680, Montevideo, Uruguay.

ORICO, Dr. OSVALDO, Brazilian Writer, Diplomat; born Dec. 29, 1900, Belém, Pará, Brazil; son of Manuel and Blandina Orico; educated at Ginásio Paraense, Sc.B. 1919; Univ. of Brazil, LL.D. 1927; married Clara Leivas de Carvalho, Oct. 27, 1928; one child. Journalist, Rio de Janeiro, 1920. Director General of Education: Rio de Janeiro, 1930; State of Pará, 1935; Secy. General, State Government, Pará, 1936; Director General of Special Education in Brazil, 1938; Brazilian Delegate to Centenary Festival, Portugal, 1940. Commercial Adviser, Brazilian Embassy at Madrid, since 1942. Member: Acad. of Letters, State of Pará; Brazilian Acad. of Letters; Acad. of Sciences, Lisbon; Pen Club of Brazil; Rio de Janeiro Press Assn.; Pará Inst. of History and Geography; Pará Educational Assn.; Real Academia Española de la Lengua. Decorated: Commander, Order of Merit, Chile; French Legion of Honor; Order of Santiago; Grand Officer, Order of Christ. Author: Men of America, 1943; Camões e Cervantes, 1945; Mitos Amerindios, 1930; Mitos Amerindios, 1930; A sombra dos Jerónimos, 1940; Vocabulário de Crendices Amazómicas, 1937; Contos e Lendas do Brasil, 1930. Tierra en flor, Madrid, 1948. Residence: Praia do Flamengo 400, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Office: Brazilian Embassy, Madrid, Spain.

ÓRÍORDÁIN, SEÁN PÁDRAIG, Irish Educator; born Dec. 17, 1904, Monkstown, County Cork, Eire; educated at University College, Cork, B.A. 1928, M.A. 1930, Ph.D. 1936, D.Litt. 1943. Teacher, 1925; on the Staff of Irish Antiquities Division, National Museum of Ireland, 1932-36; Professor of Archaeology, University College, Cork, 1936-43; at University College, Dublin, since 1943. Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries, London; Vice-President, Cork Historical and Archaeological Society; Chairman of the National Monuments Advisory Council. Council Member: Royal Irish Academy; Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland. Author: Antiquities of the Irish Countryside, 1943; The Halberd in Bronze Age Europe (Archaeologia), 1936; Excavations at Cush, County Limerick, 1940; The Excavation of a Large Earthen Ring Fort at Garranes, County Cork, 1942, etc. Office: University College, Dublin, Eire.

ORIVE ALBA, ADOLFO, Mexican Minister of Hydraulic Resources; Civil Engineer; born Dec. 9, 1907, Mexico City, Mexico; son of Dr. Adolfo Orive Campuzano and Aurora Alba; educated at Natl. Faculty of Engineering, Mexican National Univ., C.E. 1927; married Frances Bellinger, July 10, 1936; four children. Student, Natl. Univ. of Mexico, studying irrigation projects with Bureau of Reclamation, U.S.A., 1928; Engineer, later Chief Engnr., Hydraulic Works Div., Ministry of Communications and Public Works, in charge of construction of San Joaquin and Tecamachalco dams for flood control of Valley of Mexico, 1929, 1930-31; Chief Engineer, Natl. Irrigation Commn., 1932-35; General Supt. for completion of Rodriguez Dam in Lower California, 1936; Project Manager, Irrigation Dist. created by completion of Rodriguez Dam, 1937, 1938; Engnr., Mexican Section, Internatl. Water Boundary Commn. between Mexico and U. S., 1939-40. Exec. Commnr., Natl. Irrigation Commn., carrying out irrigation program of President Avila Camacho (1,500,000 aces reclaimed), 1940-46; Technical Delegate to Conf. with American Engineers for negotiation of International Water Treaty signed, 1944; Secy. of newly created Ministry of Hydraulic Resources since 1946. In charge of President Aleman's vast irrigation program (1.5 billion pesos for reclaiming 3,5000,000 acres) and domestic water supply for all cities and towns of Mexico. Residence: 335 Agustin Ahumada, Lomas de Chapultepec, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

ÖRJASAETER, TORE, Norwegian Author; born Mar. 8, 1886, Skjaak, Norway; son of Hans Magnus and Rönnaug (Slette) Örjasaeter; married Aaslaug Skaaden, 1924; three children. Writer since 1908; Literary Adviser, Den Norske Forfatterforening. Author: In the Valleys, 1910; Man's Lay, 1913; Jo Gjende, 1917; The Traveller, 1922; Burning Circle, 1924; Road Through Hades, 1925; Anne at Torp, 1930; Song of River, 1932; Uppheimen at Sandnes: Story of Fancy-Monger, 1933; Midsummer Night Letter, 1936; Life Must Win, 1939; Gudbrand Langleite, 1941; Tree of Life, 1945; Will and Fate, 1946 (all in Norwegian). Member, Norwegian Soc. of Authors. Awarded yearly honorary pay by Norwegian Parliament. Address: Öyer, Gudbrandsdal, Norway.

ORLAINETA, Dr. CARLOS M., Mexican National Deputy; born Feb. 13, 1906, Villahermosa, Tabasco, Mexico; son of Dr. Carlos G. Orlaineta and Dolores Betancourt de O.; studied in primary and preparatory schools. Bank employee, 1924; Cashier, Cia. Hipotecaria, 1931-35. Reported and staff writer with Universal Gráfico, Revista de Revistas, Mexico al Dia, Jueves de Excelsior, Universal Ilustrado, and other papers and magazines, 1932-36. Elected Deputy to the National Congress, 1940. Residence: Apartado Postal 1340, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

ORLANDO, VITTORIO EMANUELE, Italian Statesman; born May 19, 1860, Palermo, Italy; son of Camilo and Carmela (Barabbino) Orlando; educated at Univ. of Palermo, 1877-81 (Laureate in Jurisprudence); married Ida Castellano, Dec. 9, 1890; five children. Signor Orlando began his career in 1897 as Deputy, House of Representatives, 1897 to 1925, when resigned in opposition to Fascist regime. Secy. of State for Public Instruction, 1903-05 and 1907-09; Secy. of State for Justice, 1907-09, 1914-16. Secy. of State for Interior, 1916-17; Premier of Italy, 1917-19; President, Chamber of Deputies (House of Representatives), 1919-20 and 1944-46; now Member of Constituent Assembly. Pres., Associazione italo-americana at Rome. Member: Accademia dei Lincei; Circolo della Caccia. Created Knight, Supreme Order of S. S. Annunziata; Grand Cross of Order of SS. Maurizio e Lazzaro; Grand Order of Order of Italian Crown; Grand Cordon of the French Legion of Honor. Author of some 100 works on juridical subjects, including: "Trattato di diritto amministrativo," 1933; "Principii di diritto costituzonale," 1889; "Principii di diritto amministratvo," 1890; "Dritto pubblico generale," 1940; "Discorsi per la guerra e per la pace," 1919; "Rome v/s Roma," 1937. Residence: Via Andrea Cesalpino 4. Office: Piazza Montecitorio, Rome, Italy.

ORLOV, ALEKSANDR IVANOVICH, Soviet Conductor. One of leading Soviet musicians. Conductor of the Bolshoi Symphonic Orchestra of the All-Union Radio Committee. Made recordings of various operas including "Eugen Onegin" (reproduced in the U. S. A.), 1947. Awarded title of Honored Worker of the R.S.F.S.R., 1943. Address: Bolshoi Theatre, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ORLOV, Prof. ALEKSANDR SERGEEVICH, Soviet Philologist. Member of Branch of History and Philosophy and of Branch of Literature and Language of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Elected Hon. Member, Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague, 1946. Author: The Kasakh Epic; Byzantine Literature, etc. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1944, 1946. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOV, Dr. ALEXANDER, Czechoslovak Mineralogist; born Aug. 27, 1899, Cholm, Czechoslovakia; son of Nikolaj and Marie Orlov; educated at Faculty of Natural Sciences, Charles Univ., Prague Dr. rer. nat. Asst., Chemical Laboratory, State Geological Survey, Prague, 1923; Asst., Mineralogical Inst., Charles Univ., 1927; Docent in Petrology, 1932; now Prof. of Mineralogy and Petrography. Chief of Section on Mineralogy and Petrography, State Geological Survey of Czechslovakia. Member: Bohemian Royal Soc. of Sciences, Prague; Masaryk Acad., Prague. Author: On the Wavellit, 1913; Petrochemistry of Central Bohemian Pluton, 1936; On the Bauxites in Czechoslovakia, 1938; The caolinite claystones of the coal basins of Central Bohemia, 1944. Address: Karlova Universita, Albertov 6, Prague 11, Czechoslovakia.

ORLOV, GEORGI, Soviet Architect. Served as Chief Architect of the Dnieper Dam Building Administration, 1945. Minister of Paper and Cellulose Industry, 1946-47; Minister of Timber Industry, 1947—. Address: Ministry of Timber Industry, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOV, PAVEL DIMITRIEVICH, Soviet Diplomat. Served as Minister to Finland after the 1939 War, until 1944; Head of Allied Armistice Commission to Finland, 1944; Ambassador to Finland, 1945—. Address: Soviet Embassy, Helsinki, Finland.

ORLOV, SERGEI, Soviet Sculptor; born 1912; educated at village school; worked as a fitter in railway workshop, spending spare time in studio of an artist. Works usually of porcelain, employing color generously in compositions; draws chiefly on old Russian history and folklore for inspiration. Awarded Stalin Prize, 1946. One of prizewinning groups is "Alexander Nevsky," in porcelain. Exhibited "Requiem," a memorial to war heroes, Moscow, 1946. Address: All Union of Soviet Artists, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOV, Dr. SERGEI VLADIMIROVICH, Soviet Astronomer; born Aug. 18, 1880, Moscow, U.S.S.R.; son of Vladimir Andreevic and Anna Alexeyevna (Ivanova) Orlov; educated at Moscow State Univ. (Faculty of Physics and Mathematics); Magister of Sciences, 1905, Sc.D. 1935; married Ekaterina Sergeyevna Bubnova, 1908; three children. Teacher of Mathematics and Physics, First Moscow Gymnasium, 1907-14, 1917-21; Perm State Univ., 1919-21; Astrophysical State Inst., 1921-31; Director, Sternberg State Inst. of Astronomy, since 1931; Prof., Univ. of Moscow; Chairman, Commission for Study of Comets and Meteors, Astronomical Council, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Vice-Pres., Meteor Com., Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Member: Moscow branch, Astronomo-Geodetical Soc.; International Astronomical Union; Astronomical Council, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Corres. Member, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Awarded: Stalin Prize, 1943; two Orders of the Banner of Labor; Medal for Labor during Patriotic War. Author: Mechanical Theory of Comet Forms, 1927; Comets, 1934; The Nature of Comets, 1943; The Theory of Comet Heads and a New Classification of Comet Forms, 1945. Served in Russian Army during Japanese War and World War I. Residence: Zubovsky Boulevard 15, Apt. 1. Office: Sternberg State Astronomical Institute, Pereulok, P. Morozova 5, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOV, V., Soviet Educational Administrator. Occupied various educational positions; now Head of the Board of Education of Moscow (in charge of 506 elementary and secondary schools). Address: Moscow Board of Education, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ORLOV, VLADIMIR, Soviet Engineer, Inventor, Author. Holds patent rights to 24 inventions, some of which have to do with military equipment. First writings were a book on searchlights, "Piercing Rays," and "Subterranean Thunder." Also wrote "Stories of the Intangibles" (a prize winner in children's book competition organized by Children's Literature Publishing House); "The Inventor's Secret," 1946. Address: All Union of Soviet Engineers, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOVA, LYUBOV, Soviet Film and Stage Actress. Started artistic training in a piano conservatory; later spent years with a ballet group on vaudeville stage and then entered theatre of Nemirovich-Danchenko. First role on screen was in "Petersburg Nights." Married Gregory Alexandrov, film director. Appeared in "The Love of Alyena." Directed by her husband in "Moscow Laughs" (the first Soviet musical); later played in "Circus," "Volga-Volga," "Tanya," etc. Awarded Order of Lenin; Order of the Red Banner of Labor; Honored Artist of the U.S.S.R.; Stalin Prize, 1940. Address: The Mosfilm Studios, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

ORLOWSKI, Dr. WITOLD EUGENIUSZ, Polish Internist; born Feb. 6, 1874, Norvidpól, Russia; son of Franciszek Orlowski and Paulina (Onichimowska) Orlowski; educated at Military Acad. of Med., Petersburg, M.D. 1900; Veniam legendi in Clinical Medicine, 1903; married Alina Maria Trzeciakowska, Oct. 13, 1904; four children. Physician, Therapeutic Clinic, Military Acad. of Medicine, Petersburg, 1896-1907; Prof. of General Medical Diagnosis, Kazan Univ., 1907-12; Prof., Therapeutic Clinic, Univ. of Kazan, 1912-19; with Tomsk Univ. 1919; Prof. of Clinical Medicine, Perm Univ.; participated in organization of Medical Faculty, Irkuck Univ., 1919; Prof. of Clinical Medicine, King's Jagiello Univ., Cracow, 1919-25; Prof. of Clinical Medicine, Univ. of Warsaw, since 1925. Founder, Polish Medical and Natural Assn., Petersburg, 1903; Director, Hospital of Kazan Province, 1917-19. Member of various medical and scientific societies. Commander, Polonia Restituta Cross. Awarded: Gold Cross of Merit; Russian St. Stanislas Cross; St. Anne's Cross; Bulgarian Cross of the Lion. Author: Alkalaemie ot fhe Blood, 1902; Chronic circulatory failure, 1930-38; Secretic Functions of the Stomach, 1927; Cholesterolaemie, 1923; Manual of the urine examination, 1913; Diseases of the Circulatory System, 1933; Diseases of the Bronchi and Lungs, 1936; Diseases of the Pleura, Pulmonary Tuberculosis and Diseases of the Mediastinum, 1938; also 389 monographs. Residence: 27a Hoza St. Office: 59 Nowogrodska St., Jesus Christ's Hospital, Warsaw, Poland.

ORMAN, Dr. OSCAR, American Librarian. Librarian, Washington University, St.

Louis, Mo. Author: Bibliography of Selected Materials Relating to the Legislation of the New Deal (with Arthur S. Beardsley), 1935; Library Discount Control (a hurried Survey), 1940. Member, American Library Association. Address: The Library, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

ORMANDY, EUGENE, Conductor; born Nov. 18, 1899, Budapest, Hungary; son of Benjamin and Rose Ormandy; educated at University of Budapest; State Academy of Music, Budapest; studied with Jeno Hubay; married Steffy Goldner, Aug. 8, 1922. Debut in Budapest, 1906; Bleutner Orchestra, Berlin, 1917. Head of Master School of Music, State Conservatory, Budapest, 1919. In the United States Capitol Theatre Orchestra Concertmaster, 1921; Capitol Theatre Orchestra Conductor, 1924; Guest Conductor, New York Stadium Summer Concerts and Robin Hood Dell, 1930-31; Conductor, Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, 1931-36; Co-Conductor, Philadelphia Orchestra (with Leopold Stokowski), 1936; Music Director, Philadelphia Orchestra, since 1938; Guest Conductor with almost every major orchestra in U. S., Europe, South America and Australia. Gave benefit concerts for charitable and war activities. Received Hon. Dr. of Music: Hamline University, 1934; University of Pennsylvania, 1937; Philadelphia Academy of Music, 1939; Curtis Inst. of Music (Philadelphia), 1946. Medal of Bruckner Society, 1936; Mahler Medal, 1938; knighted by the Dominican Republic, 1945. Address: Columbia Concerts Corp., Inc., 113 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

ORMOND, Dr. JESSE MARVIN, American Theologian; born January 20, 1878, Greene County, N. C.; son of John James and Nancy Jane (Cuninggim) Ormond; educated at Trinity College, A.B. 1902; Vanderbilt Univ., B.D. 1910; Randolph Macon College, D.D. 1939; married Katrina Kern, June 23, 1910; five children. Held various pastorates, 1910-21. Connected with Southern Methodist Univ., 1921-23. Professor of Practical Theology, Divinity School of Duke University, since 1923. Member: Board of Trustees of North Carolina Conference; Board of Managers, North Carolina Pastors' School; Board of Directors, Rural Church Institute. Attended General Conference of Methodist Church, 1930, 1934, 1938. Participated at Uniting Conference of Methodist Church, 1939. Member, General Conference of Methodist Church, 1940, 1944. President, Board of Missions and Church Extension of North Carolina Conference. Member: General Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Church. Author: The Country Church in North Carolina, 1931; By the Waters of Bethesda, 1936. Address: Divinity School of Duke University, Durham, N. C.

ORMSTON, Rev. Dr. MARK D., American Clergyman; born Dec. 17, 1890, St. Johns, Mich.; son of William S. and Elizabeth (Fizzell) Ormston; educated at Greenville College, 1910-11; Seattle Pacific College, D.D. 1945; married Minnie P. Dresselhaus, Aug. 14, 1912; three children. Began his career in 1916 serving as pastor until 1927. District Supt., East Michigan Conference, Free Methodist Church, 1927-35; Bishop since 1936. Sunday School Secy. of Conference, 1918-27. Member, General Sunday School Board, 1927-31. Trustee (Vice-Pres.), Spring Arbor Junior College. Pres., Board of Directors, Commn. on Missions, Free Methodist Church of North America. Address: Winona Lake, Ind.

ORNBERG, Major General ARTHUR, Swedish Royal Air Force Officer; born Mar. 27, 1883, Gothenburg, Sweden; son of Gustaf Axel and Anna (Lundberg) Ornberg; educated at Kungl. Sjkarigskolan, 1896-1902, Kungl. Sjorkrigshogskolan, 1906-08; Kungl. Artilleri ioh Ingenjorhogskolan, 1908-10; married Carmen Hagander, Sept. 4, 1909; two daughters. Sub-Lieut., Royal Swedish Navy, 1902; Lieut., 1904; Senior Lieut., 1911; Captain, 1921; Colonel, Air Force, 1932; Major General, since 1937. Member: Kung. Orlogsmannasallskapet and Krigsvetenskapsakademien. Decorated Commander 1st Class, Kung. Svardsorden; Knight, Vasa Order; Commander, Danish Dannebrog Order; Polonia Restituta (Poland); Italian Crown Order and Mauritius Order; Officer, French Legion of Honor. Author: U-Batskriget, 1925; Sjokrigets Mal och Medel, 1927. Residence: Sturegatan 48, Stockholm, Sweden.

ORNDOFF, Dr. BENJAMIN H., American Radiologist; born 1881; educated at Loyola University School of Medicine, M.D. 1906; Cambridge Univ., D.M.R.E.; Prof. of Radiology, Loyola Univ. School of Medicine. Surgeon, Div. of Electrosurgery, Grant Hospital. Consulting Radiologist, North Chicago and American Hospitals. Fellow: American College of Surgeons; American College of Physicians. Diplomate, American Board of Radiology. Address: 2561 N. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

ÖRNE, Dr. ANDERS EMANUEL, Swedish Government Official; born Oct. 1, 1881, Frammestad, Sweden; son of S. P. and Lovisa Andersson; educated at State Secondary School and at Uppsala Univ.; Honorary Doctor's degree from Medical University, Stockholm, 1942; married Rut Freding, 1909; two sons. Appointed Under-Secretary of State in the Ministry of Finance, 1920; Minister of Communications, 1921-23. Member, L. N. Preparatory Committee for the Economic Conference, 1925; Deputy President of Bank of Sweden, 1926-41. President, Swedish Post Office Savings Bank; Director General of the Mails of Sweden, 1926-46. President, Stockholm Consumers Society since 1921. Elected by Parliament President of Swedish National Debt Office, 1941; Deputy President, General Mortgage Bank of Sweden (Banque Royale Hypotecaire de Suède) since 1942. Member, First Chamber of Parliament, 1919-34; elected President, Swedish Delegation to Economic Conference, 1927. President of delegation nominated by Swedish Government for the promotion of economic cooperation between northern countries. Author: Co-operative Ideals and Problems, 1924, 3rd Edition in 1938; Nationellt och Internationellt, 1930; Det Kooperativa Programmet, 11th Edition, 1938. Residence: Norr Malarstrand 22. Office: National Debt Office, Drottninggatan 1, Stockholm, Sweden.

ORNSTEIN, Dr. GEORGE GUTTMAN, American Chest Specialist; born Jan. 25, 1892, Roumania; son of Tobias and Betty (Gilbert) Ornstein; educated at N. Y. Univ. and Bellevue Med. School, 1915; married Claire Rosenstein, 1920; two children. Physician in 1915; now Director of Medicine, Sea View Hosp.; Physician and Dir. of Tuberculosis, Metropolitan Hosp.; Consultant, Elizabeth A. Horton Memorial Hosp.; St. Luke's Hosp., Newburgh; Ulster County Tuberculosis Hosp.; Richmond Memorial; Municipal Hosp. at Otisville; Rockaway Beach Hosp. Assoc. Prof. of Medicine, N. Y. Med. College and Flower Hosp.; Prof. of Medicine (Chest Diseases); Director of Chest Diseases, Polyclinic; Dir., N. Y. Tuberculosis and Health Assn.; Natl. Tuberculosis Assn. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Med. Assn. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Internal Medicine. Member: N. Y. Acad of Medicine; Amer. Assn. for Thoracic Surg.; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. College of Chest Physicians. Contributor to medical journals. Address: 965 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

ORNSTEIN, LEO, Composer, Pianist; Director of Ornstein School of Music; born December 11, 1895, Kremenchug, Russia; son of Abram and Clara Ornstein; educated at Friends Seminary, New York; Petersburg Conservatory, Russia; Institute of Musical Art, New York; married Pauline C. Mallet-Prevost, December 13, 1918; two children. Debut at New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, Mar. 9, 1911. Recitals in every large city of United States and Canada; Soloist with Boston Symphony Orchestra, Philadelphia Orchestra, New York Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony, Los Angeles Symphony, San Francisco Orchestra, Minneapolis, Detroit, etc.; concert tours in Norway, France, England, etc. Compositions include: piano concerto, string quartette, piano and string quartette, cello sonatas, violin sonatas, piano sonatas, many separate compositions, Lysistrata suite for orchestra, Nocturne and Dance of the Fates (for orchestras), songs, and short pieces for all instruments. Received National Anthem Award, World's Fair Hall of Fame. Director of Ornstein School of Music, Philadelphia, Pa. Residence: North Conway, N. H. Studio: 1906 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa.

O'ROURKE, Dr. L(AWRENCE) J(AMES), American Psychologist; born Aug. 10, 1892, Seattle, Wash.; son of M. L. and Mary E. (O'Donnell) O'Rourke; educated at Lawrence College, A.B. 1915; Cornell Univ., M.A. 1918; George Washington Univ., Ph.D. 1922. Instr. at Cornell Univ., 1917-18. Psychologist, Civilian Advisory Board, War Plans Division, General Staff, 1920-22. Director of Research, U. S. Civil Service Commission, 1922-44. Director, President's Council of Personnel Administration, 1931-39. Assoc. Inst. of Educational Research, Teachers' Coll., Columbia Univ., 1938-43. Director, Psychological Inst., Lake Alfred, Fla., since 1928. Chairman, Bd. of Advisers, Civic Research Inst. Author: Self-Aids in the Essentials of Grammatical Usage, 1927, 1935; Rebuilding the English-Usage Curriculum, 1934; You and Your Community, 1938; Your Government Today and Tomorrow, 1941, 1947; Our Democracy and Its Problems, 1942, 1947; Opportunities in Government Employment, 1940; We Talk and Write, Books I to IV, 1943; Self-Aids in English Usage, 1943; Series of O'Rourke Short Work Experiences in Radio, Electricity, Automotive Repair, Blueprint Reading, Mechanical Drawing, Cartooning and Caricature, Handcrafts, Science, etc., 1940-44. Address: The Psychological Institute, P. O. Box 1117, Lake Alfred, Fla.

OROZ SCHEIBE, Dr. RODOLFO, Chilean Educator; born July 8, 1895, Santiago, Chile; educated at University of Leipzig, 1915-20; awarded degrees of Studienassessor, 1921, Ph.D. 1922. Professor in a real-gymnasium of Leipzig, 1920; Professor of Latin and Romance Philology, University of Chile, since 1923; Professor of Linguistics since 1929; Director, Institute of Philology, 1928. Professor of English, Military Technical Academy; Head of the Department of Romance Languages, University of Chile, since 1931; Director, Pedagogical Institute, and the Superior Inst. of Humanities, 1933-34. Member of the Chilean Acad. since 1941; Corresponding Member, Royal Spanish Acad., 1943. Author of studies of the pronunciation of Classical Latin as compared with the Romance languages; a Latin Grammar (Spanish Edition, 1932; Portuguese Edition, 1938); a Latin Anthology; a Bilingual Spanish and English Dictionary; a Spanish Dictionary (1943), etc. Residence: Pedro de Valdivia 3722. Office: Casilla 322, Santiago, Chile.

OROZCO ROMERO, CARLOS, Mexican Painter; born Sept. 3, 1898, Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico; son of Jesús Orozco and Sara Romero de O.; educated at Liceo de Varones; Escuela de la Academia de San Fernando in Madrid, Spain; married María Marín, Aug. 10, 1920; two children. Began career as a caricaturist, 1918; Professor of Art, primary schools, 1928-32. Director of Art Gallery, Department of Social Action, Palacio de Bellas Artes, 1929-31; Inspector of Plastic Arts, 1934-36; Director of the Boletín de Arte, 1937-40; Inspector of Art, Secondary Schools, 1937-42; now Professor, Escuela de Pintura y Escultura, Secretariat of Public Education. Participated in many national and international exhibits, 1942-47. Author: Los Pequeños Grabadores en Madera (1925); Trece Pintores Mexicanos (1939); Tres Aguas Fuertes en Color (1939). Address: Cerrada Salamanca No. 17-B, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

OROZCO R., Dr. JORGE EMILIO, Colombian Chemist; born in 1907 in Anaime, Tolima, Colombia; son of Nazario Orozco Ospina and Judit Rendon; educated at Instituto de La Salle of Bogotá, B.A. 1928; Univs. of Lyon and Clermont-Ferrand, France (Chemistry Degree, 1933); married Blanca Cecilia Lemus, July 23, 1938; two children. Chemist of the Fábrica de Licores del Depto. del Tolima, 1933-35; Chemist of the Laboratorio de Minas y Petróleos del Ministerio de Industrias y Trabajo, 1936; Under-Chief Chemist of the Laboratory, 1937-40, and Chemical Director until 1942. He was Professor of French in the Colegio de San Simón de Ibagué, 1934-35; Professor of Industrial Chemistry in the Faculty of Engineering of the National Univ. of Colombia, 1936-37; Professor of Chemistry in the Military Academy "Ramírez", 1938; Professor of Analytic Chemistry in the Faculty of Pharmacy of the National Univ., 1938-42; Member of the Academic Council of the University, 1939-40, and Director of the School of Pharmacy, 1939-41; First Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy, 1942, and President of the Directive Council, 1939-42; President of the Central Board of Pharmaceutical Degrees and of the Comisión de Especialidades Farmacéuticas de Colombia, 1939-42; Member of the National Board of Drug Price Control, 1942. President, now Honorary President, Colegio Nacional de Farmacéuticos y Químicos. Director of the magazine "Evolución," 1938-41. Author: "Legislación Farmacéutica Colombiana," 1940. Address: Calle 17 No. 4-82, Bogotá, Colombia.

OROZCO, JOSÉ CLEMENTE, Mexican Painter; born Nov. 23, 1883, Ciudad Guzmán, Jalisco, Mexico; son of Ireneo Orozco and Rosa Flores; educated at Academia Nacional de Bellas Artes, Mexico, D.F.; married Margarita Valladares, Nov. 23, 1923; three children—Clemente, Alfredo and Lucrecia. Held first exhibition in Mexico, D.F., 1916; participated in exhibitions in Mexico, United States and Europe. Executed mural paintings for Mexico City, Orizaba, Vera Cruz, Guadalajara, Jalisco; Jiquilpan, Michoacán; Pomona College, Calif.; New York City; Dartmouth College, etc. Foundation Member, Colegio Nacional de México; Sociedad de Arquitectos Mexicanos. Hon. Associate, Natl. Inst. of Arts and Letters (U. S. A.). Address: Ignacio Mariscal 32, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

ORR, CHRISTINE GRANT MILLAR (Mrs. Robin Stark), British Author; born Aug. 10, 1899, Edinburgh, Scotland; daughter of Robert Law and Euphemia (Millar) Orr; educated at Somerville College, Oxford, 1918-19; married Robin Stark, March 4, 1944. Journalist in Edinburgh, 1918. Editor, Church of Scotland Children's Magazine, Great-Heart, 1926-37. Contributor to Punch, The Modern Scot, Scots Review, Daily Mail, etc. Children's Hour Organizer, British Broadcasting Corp., Edinburgh, 1937-40. Drama Producer in Adult Education Classes, Kirk O' Field College (Edinburgh Univ. Lecturer), 1934-37. Talks Producer, B.B.C., Edinburgh, 1940-45. Editor of women's weekly radio feature, The Scotswoman. Member, P. E. N. Club. Author: (novels) The Glorious Thing; Kate Curlew; The House of Joy; Artificial Silk; Immortal Memory; Tattered Feather; The Player King; Gentle Eagle; The Happy Woman; (verse) The Loudspeaker and Other Poems, 1926; (one-act plays) Limericks; No Hawkers! Clothes Do Make a Difference. Address: 53 Northumberland St., Edinburgh, Scotland.

O R R , DOUGLAS W., American Architect. Fellow, American Institute of Architects (elected President, May 1947). Residence: 98 Grove St., New Haven, Conn. Office: American Institute of Architects, 1741 New York Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C.

O R R , ELLIOTT, American Painter; born June 26, 1904, Flushing, N. Y.; son of William Elliot and Helene (Couser) Orr; educated at Grand Central Art School; also studied with Charles W. Hawthorne and George Luks; married Elizabeth Davidson, 1933; one son. Exhibited at: Contemporary Arts Gallery, 1931; Balzac Gallery, 1932; Mellon Gallery, 1934; Macbeth Gallery, 1936; Memorial Art Gallery, 1937; Kleeman Gallery, 1941, 1942. Represented at Brooklyn Museum, Phillips Memorial Gallery; Spokane Art Museum. Works purchased for many private collections. Exhibited in U. S., South America and England. Awarded Joseph Lewis Weyrich Memorial Prize, Baltimore Museum, 1930. Address: Shore Rd., Chatham, Mass.

O R R , GEORGE WELLS, American Lawyer; born Dec. 30, 1889, Greenville, S. C.; son of James Lawrence and Elizabeth (Hammett) Orr; educated at Furman Fitting School; Richmond College, 1906-08; Univ. of South Carolina, LL.B. 1910; married Elizabeth Connors Melton, Apr. 17, 1911; two children. Practiced at Greenville, 1910-13; Judge, Municipal Court, 1913. Attorney: R. J. Reynolds, Winston-Salem, N. C., 1913-18; Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, 1918-23; R. J. Reynolds, Jr., 1927-31. Pres., R. J. Reynolds Realty Co.; Airdrome Development Co.; Reynolds Airways; Reynolds Aviation of North Carolina; Vice-Pres., Reynolds, Inc., 1920-31. Pres., Roosevelt Field, Inc., Roosevelt Flying Corp. and Roosevelt Aviation School, 1930-36. Vice-Pres., Vick Chemical Co., 1936-38. Director of Claims, U. S. Aircraft Insurance Group, since 1938. Member: Board of Governors, Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America, 1931-36; Natl. Chairman of Airports Com. Governor for New York of Natl. Aeronautics Assn., 1935. Now a member of Com. on Aviation Law, Insurance Section, Amer. Bar Assn. Contributor to aviation and legal periodicals. Address: 80 John St., New York, N. Y.

O R R , Dr. H. WINNETT, American Surgeon; born Mar. 17, 1877, West Newton, Pa.; son of Andrew Wilson and Frances Josephine (Winnett) Orr; educated at Univ. of Nebr.; Univ. of Mich, M.D. 1899; married Grace Douglass, Sept. 7, 1905; five children. Editor of Western Med. Review, Lincoln, 1900-07, and Lecturer on History of Medicine in Pre-med. and Med. School of Univ. of Nebraska, 1903-13; Asst. Surgeon and Supt. of Nebr. Orthopedic Hosp., 1905-17, Chief Surgeon since 1919. Editor of Amer. Journal of Orthopedic Surg., 1919-20. Dir., Lincoln Benefit Life Ins. Co.; Member of Staff, Lincoln General Hosp.; Div. Surgeon and Med. Examiner of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad; Asst. Professor of Orthopedic Surgery at College of Dentistry, University of Nebraska. Member: American Orthopedic Association (Secy., 1915-17; Pres., 1937); Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Surgeons; Nebr. State Med. Soc. (Pres., 1920); Amer. Acad. of Orthopedic Surgeons; Internatl. Soc. of Orthopedic Surgeons; Lancaster County Med. Soc.; Natl. Com. for Prevention and Control of Infantile Paralysis. Author: Wounds and Fractures, 1941; also numerous contributions to medical journals. Residence: 1601 Smith St. Office: 309 Sharp Bldg., Lincoln, Nebr.

O R R , Dr. HAROLD, Canadian Dermatologist and Syphilologist; born Apr. 28, 1889, Toronto, Ont.; son of William and Fanny (Nesbitt) Orr; educated at Univ. of Toronto, M.B. 1911, D.P.H. 1921, M.D. 1928; married Margaret West, 1916; one daughter. Prof. of Dermatol. at Univ. of Alberta, 1925; now Prof. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. Dir. of Division of Social Hygiene, Dept. of Public Health, Alberta, 1920. Life Member, St. John's Dermatol. Soc., London. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Med.; Royal College of Physicians of Canada; Amer. College of Physicians. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. of Dermatol. and Syphilol. Member: British Assn. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Amer. Acad. of Dermatol. and Syphilol.; Amer. Neisserian Assn.; Soc. of Investigative Dermatol.; Canadian Med. Assn. Vice-Pres., 10th Internatl. Dermatol. Congress. Honors and Decorations: Officer of Order of British Empire; Médaille des Epidémies; Victorian Decoration; twice mentioned in dispatches, World War I. Major, Canadian Army Med. Corps, 1914-19; District Venereal Disease Control Officer, M.D. No. 13, rank of Lt. Colonel, 1941—. Residence: 11142 88th Ave. Office: 329 Tegler Bldg., Edmonton, Alta., Canada.

O R R , ISAAC HENRY, American Banker; born Feb. 14, 1862, Louisiana, Mo.; son of William Campbell Orr and Eliza Jordan; educated at Washington Univ., 1883; married Ann Marshall, Jan. 31, 1920; one son. Practicing lawyer, 1883; with St. Louis Union Trust Co., since 1896; served as Trust Officer, then Vice-Pres., later Pres., and now Chairman of Board. Director: First National Bank in St. Louis; American Automobile Insurance Co.; American Automobile Fire Insurance Co.; Securities Investment Co. Member: U. S. Chamber of Commerce; St. Louis Chamber of Commerce; American Bankers Assn. Residence: 57 Kingsbury Place. Office: 323 North Broadway, St. Louis, Mo.

O R R , Dr. JOHN, American Philosopher; born June 28, 1884, near Ballymoney, Ireland; son of James and Margaret Jane (McLeese) Orr , of Scotch parents; educated in the high school of Decatur, Mich.; Park College, Mo.; College of Wooster, B.A. 1907; Princeton, M.A. 1909; Princeton Theological Seminary, B.D. 1910; post-graduate studies at Princeton Theological Seminary, Univ. of Berlin, 1911-13; Univ. of Pittsburgh, Ph.D. 1931; married Anna Mary Sauer, December 29, 1919; three children. Entered the Ministry in 1910 and served as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Middleport, Ohio, 1913-19; Pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Howell, Mich., 1920-28; Associate Professor of Bible, Westminster College, Pa., 1928-31, and Professor of Bible and Head of Department, 1931-36; Professor of Bible and Philosophy and Head of the Department, 1936—; Dean of Westminster College, 1937. Pres., Assn. of Liberal Arts Colleges of Western Pennsylvania, 1941-42; Chmn. of Com. on Foreign Missions of the Synod (Presbyterian) of Michigan, 1926-28. Author: English Deism; also several philosophical and theological publications. Address: Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa.

ORR, Dr. JOHN, British Professor of French; born June 4, 1885, Egremont, Cumberland, Eng.; son of Peter and Lilias Duncan (Allan) Orr; educated at Univ. of Tasmania, 1903-05; Balliol College, Oxford, 1905-09, M.A., B.Litt. 1913; École des Hautes Études; École des Langues Orientales; Collège de France, Paris, 1910-12; Licence ès Lettres, Paris, 1912; Univ. of Manchester, D.Litt. 1938; Univ. of Caen, D.Litt. 1945; married Augusta Berthe Brisac, 1910. University Lecturer, 1913. Prof. of French Language, Univ. of Manchester, 1919-33. Prof of French and Head of Dept. of French and Romance Philology at Univ. of Edinburgh since 1933. Dean of Faculty of Arts, Manchester Univ., 1924-26; Pro-Vice-Chancellor, 1931-33; University Rept. on Com. of Manchester Whitworth Inst. and City Art Gallery, 1928-33; Pres., Edinburgh Branch, Franco-Scottish Soc., since 1935. Chairman of Edinburgh-Caen Fellowship Com. Hon. Vice-Pres., Soc. of Scottish Artists. Member: Société de Linguistique Romane; Anglo-Norman Soc.; Royal Philological Soc., etc. Made Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, 1946. Author: Les Oeuvres de Guiot de Provins, 1915; French the Third Classic, 1933; An Introduction to Romance Linguistics (with Jorgu Jordan), 1937; On Homonymics (Pope Presentation Vol.), 1939; also numerous linguistic papers. During World War I he served as commissioned officer in O.T.C. and Naval and Military Intelligence, 1914-18. Residence: 27 Queen's Crescent, Edinburgh 9. Office: University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, Scotland.

ORR, Rev. Dr. JOHN ALVIN, American Theologian and Educator; born 1874, Cedarville, Ohio; son of James Renwick and Josephine (Little) Orr; educated at Cedarville College, A.B.; Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.A. and M.A. degrees; Muskingum College, LL.D.; married Imojean Roadarmer, 1902 (dec.); (2nd) Mary Wilson Edie, 1932; four children. Pastor: Norris Square Church, Philadelphia, 1901-13; First United Presbyterian Church, N.S., Pittsburgh, Pa., 1913-39; Pres., Board of Trustees, Cedarville College, 1907-16; Trustee, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, 1917-21. Chairman, New World Movement, 1919-24; Moderator, General Assembly, United Presbyterian Church of North America, 1934-35. Member, Board of Education, United Presbyterian Church, until 1931; now holds Chair of Bible, Erskine College, and Chair of History and Pastoral Theology, Erskine Seminary. Chairman: Board of Trustees, Community House, Pittsburgh, until 1939; also of Colored Rescue Mission, 1916-23, and Citizens League of Pittsburgh, 1921-24. Author of works on theology, religion and philosophy. Address: Due West, S. C.

ORR, Sir JOHN BOYD, British Administrator; born September 23, 1880, Kilmaurs, Ayrshire; son of Robert Clark and Annie (Boyd) Orr; educated at Univ. of Glasgow, M.A. 1902, B.Sc. 1927, M.B., Ch.B. 1913, M.D. 1914, D.Sc. 1919; Hon. LL.D., St. Andrews Univ., 1935, Edinburgh 1946, Princeton 1946; married Elizabeth Pearson, 1915; two daughters. Director, Imperial Bureau of Nutrtition, 1927; Editor in Chief, Nutrition Abstracts and Reviews, 1931. Chairman, Scientific Advisory Committee for Scotland, 1939; Member, War Cabinet Scientific Committee on Food Policy, 1940. Director, The Rowett Research Inst., 1914-45. Member, Government Committees and Commissions on Agriculture and Public Health. M.P. for Scottish Universities, 1945-46. Director General, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1945-48. Rector of Glasgow Univ., 1945; Chancelor, 1946 —. Fellow: Royal Soc., London; Royal Soc., Edinburgh; Hon. Fellow, Royal Society of Agriculture, Sweden; Public Health Assn. of the U. S. A., etc. Author: The Scotch Church Crisis, 1904; Food Health and Income, 1935; Fighting For What?, 1942; also numerous original papers on the physiology of nutrition. Address: Newton of Stracathro, Brechin, Angus, Perthshire, and Athenaeum Club, London, England; Cosmos Club, Washington, D. C.

ORR, Dr. JOHN HARLAND, Canadian Bacteriologist; born Sept. 3, 1899, Kingston, Ont.; son of John Lewis and Emma Jane (Magee) Orr; educated at Queen's Univ., M.D., C.M. 1923, F.R.C.P. (e) 1931. Consulting Bacteriologist, Kingston General Hosp.; Secy., Medical Faculty, Prof. of Bacteriology, Queen's Univ. Director, Regional Laboratory of Ont. Dept. of Health at Kingston. Member: Canadian Medical Assn.; Canadian Public Health Assn. Author of papers on elost ridia and mycobacteria. Address: Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada.

ORR, Dr. THOMAS GROVER, American Surgeon; born May 9, 1884, at Carrollton, Mo.; son of Thomas Albert and Mildred Jane (Cook) Orr; educated at Univ. of Missouri, A.B. 1907; Johns Hopkins, M.D., 1910; married Irene Helen Harris, Dec. 22, 1913; one son. Surgeon since 1910. Professor of Surgery and Head of the Department, Univ. of Kansas, since 1924; also Surgeon-in-Chief, University Hospitals. Member: American Surgical Association, American Medical Association, American College of Surgeons (Past Governor), Western Surgical Association, Société Internationale de Chirurgie, Southern Medical Association, (Charter) American Board of Surgery, Western Surgical Assn. (Past Pres.); Soc. of Univ. Surgeons, etc. Author: Modern Methods of Amputation; Operative Surgery; 185 articles in medical and surgical journals. During World War I he served as Captain and Major, Medical Corps, U.S.A. Residence: 5930 Mission Dr., Kansas City, Mo. Office: Univ. of Kansas Hospitals, Kansas City, Kans.

ORR, WARREN HENRY, American Lawyer; born Nov. 5, 1886, Hannibal, Mo.; son of James H. and Louisa E. (Watson) Orr; educated at University of Missouri, A.B. 1909, LL.B. 1911; married Dorothy Wallace, Sept. 10, 1914, three sons. Began to practice law, 1911. City Attorney (Hamilton, Ill.), 1913-18; County Judge (Hancock County, Ill.), 1918-30. Elected Justice, Supreme Court, 4th Illinois District, 1930-39; Chief Justice, 1933-39. Head of firm of Orr, Sullivan & Ricks, 1940; Senior Member of Orr, Vail, Lewis & Orr, since Jan. 1, 1941. Residence: 1415 Ashland Lane, Wilmette, Ill. Office: 29 South La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

ORR, Hon. WILLIAM EDWIN, American Jurist; born October 26, 1881, Fisco, Utah; son of Alexander and Caroline Frances (Price) Orr; edcated at University of Nevada; married Editha Farnsworth, Nov. 14, 1914; two sons. County Clerk, 1907-10; County Treasurer, 1911-12; District Attorney, (all in Lincoln County, Nevada), 1913-18; District Judge, 8th Judicial District of Nevada, 1919-39; Justice, Nevada Supreme Court, 1939-45; Judge, U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit, since Oct. 1945. Residence: Las Vegas, Nevada.

ORR-EWING, IAN LESLIE, British Parliament Member; born June 4, 1893; son of C. L. and Beatrice (Ruthven) Orr-Ewing; educated at Harrow, Oxford; married Helen Bridget Gibbs, 1917; a daughter. Served with Royal Scots Fusiliers and the Scots Guards, World War I; A.D.C. to G.O.C. 20th Division. Conservative Candidate, Gateshead, 1929; withdrew candidature, Cornwall (St. Ives Division), 1931; Member of Parliament for Somerset (Weston-super-Mare), since 1934. Parliamentary Private Secy.: Financial Secy. of Treasury, 1935-36; Minister of Agriculture, 1936; Chancellor of Duchy of Lancaster, 1939; Minister of Food, 1939; Postmaster General, 1940. Member, Rhodesia Nyasaland Royal Commn., 1938. Address: Christon, near Axbridge, Somerset, England.

ORREGO PUELMA, Prof. HECTOR, Chilean Physician; born April 16, 1897, Santiago, Chile; son of Juan Antonio Orrego and Teresa Puelma; educated at Instituto Nacional de Chile; Escuela de Medicina de Santiago; studied in France, England, Germany, Italy, Argentina and Uruguay, etc.; married Marta Matte, Sept. 1923; three children. Asst., Hospital de San Juan de Dios of Santiago, 1922; Medical Asst., Therapeutic Clinic, Faculty of Med., 1924-29; Section Chief, San José Hospital, 1930-36; became Asst. Prof. of Tuberculosis, Faculty of Med., 1930, and Titular Prof. in 1934; Section Chief, Hospital del Salvador, 1936; Director, Casa de Salud de San José de Maipo, 1931-41. Chief, Tuberculosis Section, Caja de Seguro Obligatorio, since 1931. Director of Instituto de Cultura Chileno-Francés; Vice-Pres. of Instituto Chileno-Boliviano; Director of Comité France-Amérique; Director of Civil Defense of Santiago; Pres. of Sociedad Chilena de Tuberculosis; Counsellor of Trudeau Society; Member of American College of Chest Physicians; Fellow of Royal Society of Medicine, London; Member of Academia Nacional de Medicina de Buenos Aires; Pres., Congreso Pan-Americano de Tuberculosis in Santiago de Chile, 1937; Life Member, Union Latino-Americana de Sociedades de Tisiología. Decorated by Bolivia. Author of Ensayos Sobre Tuberculosis (1932); Estudios Médicos y Sociales Sobre Tuberculosis (1934). Director of magazine, Aparato Respiratorio y Tuberculosis. Address: Santo Domingo 576, Santiago, Chile.

ORRICK, JAMES BENTLEY, United Nations Department of Public Information Official; born Nov. 11, 1901, Cumberland, Md.; son of Jesse Lewis and Nannie Oliver (Bentley) Orrick; educated at Univ. of Virginia, B.A., M.A 1922; New College, Oxford, B.Litt. 1927. Publicity and Advertising Manager, Oxford Univ. Press, N. Y., 1930-38; Trade Editor, 1938-39. Supervisor of Sales Dept., British Information Services, British Government Publications, 1940-42; Head of Reference Division, Nov. 1942-May, 1944; Deputy Secy.-General and Head of Washington Office, May, 1944-Feb. 1946; with United Nations Dept. of Public Information since Mar. 1, 1946. Author: Matthew Arnold and Goethe, 1928. Residence: 931 Madison Ave., New York City. Office: Lake Success, N. Y.

ORSBORN, ALBERT WILLIAM THOMAS, Salvation Army General; born Sept. 4, 1886, Maidstone, Kent, England; son of Rev. Albert and Jennie (Minshall) Orsborn; educated at board schools; widower; five sons and two daughters. With the Salvation Army, since 1906; engaged in evangelical work in Great Britain as Corps Officer, Divisional Young People's Secy., and Divisional Commander, 1906-25; Chief Side Officer, Salvation Army's Internatl. Training College, London, England, 1925-33; Chief Secy., in New Zealand, 1933-36; Territorial Commander for Scotland and Ireland, 1936-40; British Commissioner (responsible for all evangelical work in British Isles), 1940-46; elected 6th General of The Salvation Army, 1946. Pres.: Salvation Army Assurance Soc.; Salvation Army Fire Insurance Corp.; The Reliance Bank; Salvationist Publishing & Supplies, Ltd. Chairman, Salvation Army Trustee Co. Created C.B.E. 1943. Author of over 250 songs and poems on religious topics. Address: The Salvation Army, International Headquarters, London, England.

ORSKOV, Dr. JEPPE, Danish Pathologist; born March 2, 1892, Orskovgaard, Snejbjerg Sogn, Denmark; son of Peter Michael Christensen and Margrethe (Nyboe) Orskov; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, Medical School, 1917; M.D. 1923; married Gerda Anny Rush, Dec. 11, 1917; three children. Demonstrator in Anatomy, 1913-14. Asst.: Copenhagen County Hospital, Children's Hospital, Frederiksberg Hospital, State Hospital, 1917-20. Asst. at State Serum Inst., Copenhagen, 1920-22; Chief of Laboratory, 1923-31; Chief of Vaccine Dept., 1931-40; Director, State Serum Inst., since 1940. Chief of Quarantine Laboratory El Tor, Egypt, 1922. Pres., Danish Donor Corps; Adviser in Bacteriology and Serology, National Boad of Health; Leader, Danish Delegation to World Health Organization of United Nations, New York, 1946; Member of Expert Commission on Standardization, World Health Organization. Member: Royal Academy of Sciences, Copenhagen; Acad. of Technical Sciences; Danish Soc. of Pathology. Decorated: Knight, Danish Dannebrog Order; Service Medal, Finnish Red Cross; Danish Red Cross; Danish Order of Knighthood. Author: Investigations into the Morphology of the ray fungi, 1923; numerous articles on morphology mechanism of bacterial and viral infections, etc. Address: State Serum Institute, Amager Boul. 80, Copenhagen S., Denmark

ÖRSTRÖM, ANNA LOTTEN, Swedish Journalist; born Mar. 4, 1884, Eksjö, Sweden; daughter of Viktor and Ina (Almqvist) Villner; educated privately; registered nurse, Stockholm, 1909-12; married Dr. Olof Örström, July 1, 1925. Free lance journalist for newspapers and periodicals, 1916-22; foreign correspondent from Paris for newspapers in Sweden, 1921; Staff Member of "Husmodern," 1922-24; attached to Vårt Hem, Hemma & Vi (weekly) for C. A., eight to ten years. Member of Publicistklubben. Author: Fröken Börjemans Lördagar, 1917; Vi vackra och ni fula, 1925; Sed och Bruk, 1926; Val av levnadsbana, 1929; some twenty translations of English, German and French novels. Address: Örnbogatan 23, Stockholm, Sweden.

ÖRSTRÖM, OLOF VALFRID, Swedish Author; born Dec. 24, 1869, Lund, Sweden; son of Jöns and Elna (Olsson) Nilsson; educated at University of Lund, Ph.D. 1900; married Anna Lotten Villner, July 1, 1925. Docent, University of Lund, 1899; taught at high school, 1901. Journalist for various newspapers, including Jämtlandsposten, Svenska Dagbladet, Aftonbladet, and several magazines, 1904-25. Author: Sveriges nyaste historia, 1844-1925; Sexualproportionen, 1899; Napoleon, ett hundraårsminne, 1915; Kejsar Wilhelm II; Kejsar Frans Josef; Tsar Nikolaus II; Hindenburg; Två Balkankungar; Ludendorff; Jerusalem — Kartago — Berlin; Svenska historien för svenska folket. Residence: Örnbogatan 23, Stockholm, Sweden.

ORTEGO AGUAYO, ABRAHAM, Chilean Political Leader; born July 14, 1892, Lumaco, Malleco, Chile; son of Santiago Ortega and Edelmira Aguayo de Ortega; educated at Liceo de Concepción; Universidad de Concepción; married Betty Fenner Marin, Feb. 2, 1919; three children. Inspector, Liceo de Concepción, 1911; appointed General Secretary of the Lyceum, 1914; later engaged in law practice in Concepción; Legal Secretary, Department of Habitations, Concepción, 1916-24. Professor of Civil Law, Universidad de Concepción, 1924-28; Governor of Concepción, 1925-28. Counsel for "Sanitas" Institute, Ltd.; Attorney for Cía. Carbonifera Minera e Industrial de Lota, Aranco Railways, Ltd., Anglo-South American Bank, etc. Appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1938; Member of Radical Party. Residence: Avenida Lota 2260, Los Leones. Office: Instituto de Crédito Industrial (Fiscalía), Santiago, Chile.

ORTEGA HUERTA, General CIRILO H., Peruvian Army Officer, Political Leader; born Mar. 29, 1883, Huari, Peru; son of Manuel and Tomasa (Huerta) Ortega; educated at Colegio Nacional "La Libertad," Huaraz; Military School, Chorrillos, 1903 (Sub-Lieut., Infantry); married Dominga Chávez Mora, Apr. 11, 1914; five children. Commissioned Lieut., 1907; Captain, 1914; Major, 1919; Lieut. Col., 1926; Colonel, 1930; General, 1933; Chief of 1st Section, 3rd Division, 1920; With General Staff, 4th Division, 1922-23; Chief of Provincial Squadron at Lima, 1925-26; Chief of Territorial Army, Apurimac, 1927; Chief of Battalion, 1930; Commanding General, 2nd Division, 1930-33; Director General of Armament, 1933-36. Chief, Unión Revolucionaria (political party); candidate for Senator of Lima and First Vice-Pres. of Republic, 1936. Member: Benemérita Sociedad de Fundadores de la Independencia; Vencedores del 2 de Mayo y Defensores Calificados de la Patria. Decorated Grand Officer, Orden del Sol; Orden Militar de Ayacucho; Centenary Medals, 1921 and 1924. Address: Natalio Sánchez 277, Lima, Peru.

ORTEGA, CLEMENTE M., Venezuelan Government Offiial; born Mar. 15, 1913, Altagracia de Orituco, Guárico, Venezuela; son of Clemente Ortega and Carmen L. de Ortega; educated at Liceo San José; Colegio La Salle de Caracas; Universidad Central; married Blanca Luis Pérez, Jan. 5, 1936; two children—Luis Clemente and Luisa Amparo. Elected Deputy to the State Legislature of Estado Miranda, Venezuela, 1939; served until 1943; President, 1940-42. Deputy to the National Congress, 1941-44; Vice-President of the Chamber of Deputies, 1942. Superintendent, Tierras Baldías in the Ministry of Agriculture, 1941-42; Director of Administration of the Ministry of Development since 1942. Elected Senator by the State of Miranda for the term of 1945-49. Government Representative on Board of Directors, Cía. Anónima de Crédito Urbano; former President, Caja de Previsión de los Empleados del Ministerio de Fomento; President, Caja de Previsión de los Empleados del Estado Miranda; Member, Partido Democrático Venezolano and of National Council of that body. Former President, Centro de Estudios Económicos y Sociales; Honorary President, Federación de Boy Scouts. Representative for Ministry of Development before Council of the Budget. Author of numerous articles and studies on political economy. Address: Los Teques, Estado Miranda, Venezuela.

ORTEGA, FRANCISCO L., Philippine Congressman; born July 8, 1904, San Fernando, La Union; son of Joaquin and Francisca (Lacsamana) Orteg; educated at Ateneo de Manila, Liberal Arts; Manila Law College, LL.B. 1925; Georgetown Univ., post graduate course, 1926-27; married Corazon Campos, June 20, 1931; eight children. Municipal Councillor, San Fernando, La Union, 1928-31; Representative, 1st Dist. of La Union, 1934-35, 1941-45; re-elected in 1946 for term ending 1949; unanimously elected Speaker Pro tempore, House of Representatives, Congress of the Philippines, July 1946; Member of Council of State, Republic of the Philippines. Pres., La Union Bar Assn. Delegate of Republic of Philippines to UNESCO Conf., at Paris, France, Nov.-Dec. 1946. Residence: San Fernando, La Union. Office: Congress of the Philippines, Manila, P. I.

ORTEGA BRANDAO, Dr. ISMAEL, Panamanian Supreme Court President; born Aug. 16, 1883, Panama; son of Jerardo and Elvira (Brandao) de Ortega; educated at Colegio de los Padres Escolapios, 1895; Escuela de Leyes, 1914; (Lic. in Law and Political Sciences, 1920); Professor of Procesal Law, School of Law, National University, 1928. Public Attorney, District of Panama, 1921; became First Judge at the First Circuit Court, Panama, 1922; Attorney-General of Panama, 1935; Magistrate, Supreme Court, 1940; President, Supreme Court, since 1944. Served as Consul General at Genoa, Italy, 1909. Member: Academia Panamena de la Historia; Academy of Political Science; National Geographic Society of Washington, D. C.; Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commission of New York; Union Club of Panama. Received Grand Cross of Orden de Vasco Nuñez de Balboa. Author: La Jornada del Dia Tres de Noviembre de 1903 y sus Antecedentes; Manuel Amador Guerrero, 1833-1933. Served as Captain, Army of the Republic of Panama, 1903. Residence: Avenida "A" 61. Office: Palacio de Justicia, Panama.

ORTEGA y GASSET, JOSÉ, Spanish Philosopher; born May 9, 1883, Madrid, Spain; educated at University of Madrid, Faculty of Letters. Identified with the University of Madrid since 1910; now Professor. Director and Manager, "Revista de Occidente." Author: Meditaciones del Quijote, 1914; Personas, obras, cosas, 1916; El Espectador (8 vols.), 1916-34; España invertebrada, 1922; Vieja y nueva política, 1914; El tema de nuestro tiempo, 1923; Espiritu de la letra, 1927; Las Atlántidas, 1924; Mirabeau ó el político, 1927; Epilogo a Francesca, 1924; Prólogo a Cantos y Cuentos de Egipto, 1925; La deshumanización del Arte, 1925; Kant, 1929; La rebelión de las masas, 1930; Misión de la Universidad, 1930; La redención de las provincias, 1931; Rectificación de la República, 1931; El Estatuto Catalán, 1932; Goethe desde dentro, 1932; Historia como sistema, 1941; Estudios sobre el amor, 1941; Teoría de Andalucía, 1942; Esquema de las crisis, 1942; Ideas y creencias, 1942; Dos prólogos, 1944. Address: Avenida 5 de Outubro No. 10, Lisbon, Portugal.

ORTEGA FRIER, JULIO, Dominican Diplomat; born June 30, 1888, Santo Domingo, D. R.; son of Juan Isidro Ortega and Antonia Frier O.; educated at Ohio State University; Escuela de Bachilleres de Santo Domingo, B.A. 1909; Universidad de Santo Domingo, law degree, 1922; married Carmita Peña, Mar. 27, 1920; two children. Teacher, 1909; Dir., Gimnasio Escolar de Santo Domingo, 1911-12; Judicial Interpreter of Santo Domingo, 1912-17; Inspector of Schools, Province of Santo Domingo, 1914-15; Comptroller of Instruction for Southern and Eastern Provinces, 1915-17; Superintendent and General Director of Instruction for Republic, 1917-24. Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Santo Domingo, since 1933; Secretary of State for Justice, 1936-37; Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 1937-38; Rector, University of Santo Domingo, 1938-40; President, Revisory Assembly for National Constitution, 1941-42. Rector, University of Santo Domingo, since 1943. Ambassador to Washington, 1947—. President, Colegio de Abogados, Secretary and Member, Administrative Council, Cía. Eléctrica de Santo Domingo; Compagnie d'Éclairage Électrique des Villes de Port-au-Prince et du Cap Haitien; Cía. Azucarera Boca Chica; Dominican Sugar Refining Co. Secretary of Cervecería Nacional Dominicana. Author: IV Centenario de la Universidad de Santo Domingo (1938); Restablecimiento de la Facultad de Filosofía (1940); El Crédito Agrícola Dominicano (1940); La Universidad de Santo Domingo, Primada de América (1944); Lugar del aprendizaje activo en la Universidad (1944), etc. Decorated with Orders of Juan Pablo Duarte, Trujillo, Cristóbal Colón, Vasco Nuñez de Balboa, etc. Residence: Arzobispo Meriño No 57, Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic. Office: Embassy of the Dominican Republic, Washington, D. C.

ORTEGA BOLAÑO, LUIS, Cuban Physician; born July 16, 1872, Cienfuegos, Sta. Clara, Cuba; son of Saturnino Ortega and Narcisa Bolaño; married Esperanca Verdes; one son—Luis. Interned at Hosp. Mercedes, where became chief of interns and anesthetist; was Asst. Prof. at Med. Clinic, Univ. of Havana; now Prof. of Investigation, Med. Faculty (formerly Dean). Served as Rector, Univ. of Havana; Ex-Pres., National Council on Tuberculosis. Member of the Board of Patrons, Hosp. Mercedes. Ex-Pres.: Cuban Soc. of Physiol.; Soc. for Clinical Studies at Havana; Med. Federation of Cuba. Decorated Gran Oficial, Orden Carlos Finlay; Gran Oficial, Orden de Sto. Domingo. Author of many publications. Residence: Bellarista y 2a, Arroyo Apolo. Office: Maurique 56, Havana, Cuba.

ORTEGA, POMPILIO, Honduran Director General of Agriculture; born Dec. 15, 1890, La Libertad, Comayagua, Honduras; son of Juan and Petrona (Hernandez) Ortega; educated at Univ. of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind. (Agronomist), 1920. Director, Escuela Normal de Varones, Tegucigalpa, 1921-24; Under-Secy. of State for Public Education, 1924; founded Escuela Agrícola Goyocutena, La Libertad (owner and Director). Now Director General of Agriculture, Honduras. Hon. Member, Amer. Road Builders' Assn. Honor Guest, Govt. of the United States, 1947; visited Mexico, Guatemala and El Salvador. Honduran Delegate to First World Congress on Education. Author: Madre on Morals and pedagogy and of numerous pamphlets. Residence: Tegucigalpa. Office: Escuela Agrícola Coyocutena, La Libertad, Comayagua, Honduras, C. A.

ORTEGA y CASTILLO de LERÍN, ROMEO, Mexican Diplomat; born Mar. 17, 1892, Oaxaca, Mexico; son of Ismael Ortega and Enriqueta Castillo de Lerín de O.; educated at Instituto de Ciencias y Artes de Oaxaca; Colegio Católico de Puebla; Escuela Nacional Preparatoria de México, D.F.; law degree, Facultad Nacional de Jurisprudencía, 1915. Served as Public Defender, Agent of the Public Ministry, Judge of First Instance, Consulting Attorney to the Secretariat of Finance, Secretary and Attorney of the Council of the Monetary Commission, of Mexico; was Deputy to the National Congress three terms; President of the Chamber for three legislative periods. Under-Secretary of Government (in charge) during Elías Calles administration; Attorney General of Mexico; General Director of Civilian Retirement Pensions; President of Beneficencía Privada. Served as Minister of Mexico in Cuba, Sweden, Nicaragua and Costa Rica; Delegate of Mexico to League of Nations; Vice-President of Council of the League. Ambassador of Mexico to Guatemala, 1945. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mexico, D.F.

ORTEGA MASSON, RUDECINDO, Chilean Political Leader; born June 3, 1899, Temuco, Chile; educated at Pedagogical Institute (Professor of Castilian, Philosophy and Civil Education, 1920); married Raquel Tremayne; three children. Taught at National Institute, Santiago, and School of Temuco, 1923; elected Deputy for Temuco, 1925; re-elected three times until 1941; Member of Education Commission, House of Representatives, and President of Commission for ten years until 1938; Minister of Education in the Cabinet of President Aguirre Cerda until 1940; Senator for Malleco and Cautín since 1940. Chairman, Radical Party, and President of Education Commission in the Senate. Professor at National Institute and Institute of Fine Arts. Editor of daily paper, "La Mañana," Temuco. Residence: Violetas 2357. Office: The Senate, Santiago, Chile.

ORTHMANN, AUGUST CAESAR, American Chemist; born Feb. 3, 1888, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Julius Ferd. and Hanah (Wolffe) Orthmann; educated at Public and Junior High School; Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry by a private tutor; married Hattie M. Voigt, June 19, 1909; one daughter. Chemist Asst. with U. S. Glue Co., 1901-08; Asst. Chemist with Pfister & Vogel Leather Co., Milwaukee, Wis., 1908-13; Asst. Chief Chemist, 1913-22; Chief Chemist, 1922-29. Organized The Orthmann Laboratories, Inc., 1929, Pres. and Director since 1929. Member: Amer. Leather Chemists Assn. (Pres. 1936-37, Vice-Pres. 1930-31); Amer. Chemical Soc. (Chairman, Milwaukee Section, 1928, Chairman, Division of Leather & Gelatin, 1927); Amer. Soc. for Testing Materials; Amer. Oil Chemists Assn.; Amer. Interprofessional Inst. (Pres., Milwaukee Chapter, 1931). During First World War, in Civilian Secret Service, Dept. of Justice, 1917-18. Pres., Wisconsin Humane Soc., 1936; Wisconsin Federation of Humane Socs. since 1939. Hon. Vice-Pres., Amer. Humane Assn. Address: 647 W. Virginia St., Milwaukee, Wis.

ORTÍZ DE MONTELLANO, BERNARDO, Mexican Writer and Educator; born Jan. 3, 1899, Mexico, D.F.; educated at Universidad de México. Director of publication: La Falange; Contemporaneos; Letras de México. Co-founder of magazine, Cuadernos Americanos; collaborator, El Hijo Prodigo. Author: Avidez, 1921; El Trompo de Siete Colores, 1925; Red, 1928; Sueños, 1932; La Poesia Indigena de Mexico, 1935; Muerte de Cielo Azul, 1937; Cinco Horas Sin Corazón, 1940; Biografía de Amado Nervo, 1943; El Sombrerón, 1946. Address: 4a Calle de Acapulco 55A, Mexico, D.F.

ORTIZ RESTREPO, CARLOS, Colombian Educator; born May 30, 1893, Bogotá, Colombia; son of Manuel J. Ortiz and Julia Restrepo de O.; educated at Colegio San Bartolomé; Novidiado de los Jesuitas; Colegio Maximo de Oña (Spain); University of Falkenburg, Holland; awarded Doctorate in Philosophy, 1919, and in Physics, 1929. Ordained to the priesthood, 1927. Professor of Physics, Colegio San Bartolomé, 1915-19 and 1930-35. Rector, Universidad Javeriana, 1935-41; President, Confederación Nacional de Colegios Católicos de Bogotá, 1941-42; Dean of Sciences at the Universidad Javeriana, 1942-43; also Professor of Physics. Elected Vice-Rector, Universidad Católica Javeriana, and Professor of Medical Physics at Faculty of Medicine, 1944. Preacher, Cathedral of Bogotá; Member, Society of Jesus. Author: Trigonometría Rectilinear, and of various magazine articles. Residence: Universidad Católica Javeriana, Carrera 10, No. 65-48, Bogotá, Colombia.

ORTÍZ Y FERNANDÉZ, FERNANDO, Cuban Lawyer and Anthropologist; born July 16, 1881, Havana, Cuba; son of Sr. Rosendo Ortíz and Josefa Fernandéz; studied law in Havana; married Esther Cabrera; one daughter. Vice-Pres., Cia. de Seguros Mutuos contra incendios "El Iris." Author: Base para un Estudio sobre la Llamada Reparación Civil, 1901; also some 40 anthropological works. Pres.: Sociedad Económica de Amigos del Pais; Academiade la Historia; Sociedad de Estudios Afrocubanos; Institución Hispano-cubana de Cultura. Pres., Junta Nacional of Archaeology and Ethnology. Address: Calle 27, 160, Havana, Cuba.

ORTIZ, Prof. JULIO B., Puerto Rican Educator; born Nov. 5, 1893, Barranquitas, P. R.; son of Julio F. and Basilisa Diaz de O.; educated at Boston Univ., B.B.A. 1926, M.B.A., M.A. 1927, Ph.D. 1939; married Pepita Espasas, 1929; one son. School Supt., 1918-23; Instructor in Spanish and Social Science, Boston Univ., 1925-28; Asst. Prof. of Social Science, 1929-31, and Dean, College of Commerce, Univ. of Puerto Rico, 1931-46. Prof. of Administration, Univ. of Puerto Rico; Director of Personnel, Puerto Rico Water Resources Authority. Author: The Human Factor in Commerce and Industry (1934); Puerto Rico Under the Coastwise Shipping Acts (1935); numerous articles. Address: Universidad de Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico.

ORTIZ MONASTERIO, LUIS, Mexican Sculptor; born Feb. 1906; son of José Ortiz and Virginia Campiño de Ortiz Monasterio; educated in Mexico City; married Ana María Bertrand; four children. Principal works include: El Llamado a la Revolución; El Esclavo. Gave numerous exhibitions. Represented in leading art museums of Mexico. Member, Círculo de Escultores de México; various other cultural organizations. Address: Coyazcan, D. F., México.

ORTIZ RUBIO, General PASCUAL, Mexican Engineer, Statesman; born March 10, 1877, Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico; son of Pascual Ortiz and Leonor Rubio; educated at Colegio de San Nicolás, Morelia, 1889-96; Preparatory School, Mexico City (San Ildefonso), 1897-98; Escuela de Minería, 1899-1901; married Josefina Ortiz de Ortiz Rubio, Aug. 13, 1920; three children. Began as topographic and hydrographic engineer, 1902; designed plans of the State of Michoacán irrigation project, Chupio, Mich., 1902; geographical charts, state of Michoacán, 1903-05; demarcation, state of Tamo, Mich., 1905; project for drainage of lake of Magdalena, Mich., 1906; demarcation, district of Ario, Mich.; drainage, valley of Morelia, Mich., 1908; project for transformation of salpetre field, Texcoco, 1921; paving of streets in Mexico City, 1936-46; Urbanization, Sta. Isabel Tola, 1939; foundation work, Annex to Palace, Mexico City, 1943-46; construction of various aqueducts. Pres., Cia. Constructora P. Ortiz Rubio; Cia.á S. de R. L. Mercado de Xochimilco, 1938, 1939; Cia. Fraccionadora Ripódromo Chapultepec Condesa y Gustavo Madero, since 1945; Cia. Constructora y Contratista la Victoria y Asociados, since 1944; Organizer and Pres., Compania Campos Mexicanos de Turismo, since 1935; Pres., Cia. Constructora la Victoria S.A. since 1945; Pres., Mexicana de Fideicomisos S. A. since 1945. President, Republic of Mexico, 1930-32; also served as Ambassador to Germany and Brazil. Author: La Revolución de 1910; Historia antiqua de Michoacán. Captain, Mexican Army, 1910; Major, 1911; Lieutenant Colonel, 1912; Colonel, 1914; Brigadier General, 1917, General, 1920; retired, 1941. Residence: Monte Altai 505. Office: J. M. Marroqui 82, Desp. 504, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

ORTIZ, Prof. SERGIO ELIAS, Colombian Educator; born May 8, 1894, Pasto, Colombia; son of Sergio Ortiz and Concepción Córtez de Ortiz; educated at primary and normal schools; Superior Schools of Colombia. Under-Director of a primary school, 1917; later Director. Professor, Escuela Normal de Varones and the Escuela Normal de Señoritas; Professor and Rector, Universidad de Nariño; Professor, Seminario Conciliar de Pasto; Professor, Liceo Santa Teresita and of the Escuela Normal de Occidente; Rector of Instituto Juanambú. President, Directive Council of the Liceo Santa Teresita. Member of Board of the Ornato de Pasto. Author: Al Margen de la vida (1930); La Imprenta en el Sur de Colombia (1935); Las comunidades indígenas de Jamondino y Males (1935); Historia de la Literatura Colombiana (1926); Contribución a la Bibliografía sobre Ciencias Etnológicas de Colombia (1937); La Unión, monografía histórico-geográfica (1945). Director, Boletin de Estudios Históricos (1927-35); Revista de Historia (1942). Address: Calle 17 No. 26-79, Pasto, Nariño, Colombia.

ORTMAN, FRED BENSON, American Ceramic Engineer; born Jan. 5, 1888, New Salem, Ohio; son of Benson Clark and Mary Ellen (Hill) Ortman; degree in ceramic engineering, Ohio State Univ., 1911; married Josephine Quigg, Aug. 6, 1933; two children by a former marriage. Ceramic Engineer with New York Architectural Terra Cotta Co., 1911; Asst. General Manager, 1913-18. Chief Ceramic Engineer, Northwestern Terra Cotta Co. of Chicago, 1918-21, Vice-Pres. and General Manager of Tropico Potteries, Inc. of Los Angeles, 1921-23. With Gladding, McBean & Co., since 1923: Pres. since 1938. Residence: 808 N. Crescent Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. Office: 2901 Los Feliz Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.

ORTMAN, HADAR, American Management Engineer; born June 20, 1898, Nordmaling, Sweden; son of Arthur and Elisabeth (Arctaedius) Ortman; educated at College of Gefle, 1916; Royal Inst. of Commerce, 1918; postgraduate work, Amos Tuck School, Hanover, N. H.; Columbia Univ., N. Y.; married Marguerite G. Gonda, May 29, 1926; one daughter. Auditor, Royal Fuel Commn., Stockholm, Sweden, 1918; Teacher, Swedish Business College, 1918-21; Special studies, 1921-22; Industrial Engineer, Leffingwell Ream Co., New York City, 1922-25; Supervising Engineer, Thompson, Lichtner Co., Boston, Mass., 1925-28; Director of Operations and Finance, Meredith Publishing Co., Des Moines, Iowa, 1928-34. Pres.: W. F. Hall Printing Co., Chicago, Ill., 1934-36; United Wallpaper Factories, 1936-37. Vice-Pres. and Treas., McClure, Hadden & Ortman, Inc., since 1937. Member: Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Amer. Management Assn. Residence: 1041 Judson Ave., Evanston, Ill. Office: 75 E. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

ORTOLANI, Prof. SERGIO, Italian Professor and Critic of Art and Director of Museums of Fine Arts; born June 30, 1896, Feltre (Belluno), Italy; son of Tullio and Maria (Merlo) Ortolani; educated at Istituto Studi Superiori, Florence, D.A. 1919, diploma in history of art, 1920; Univ. of Rome, diploma of Superior School of History of Art, 1925; Privatdocent (Fellow), History of Art, 1925; married Blanche Goode, 1937 (deceased 1944); three stepchildren. Inspector, Soprintendenza all' Arte M. & M., Naples, 1926; Director, Gallery of Natl. Museum, Naples, since 1930; Prof. of History of Art, Women's Univ. College "Suor Orsola", Naples, since 1939; Central Inspector of Fine Arts since 1943. Lecturer on History of Art, Univ. of Naples, 1926-28. Director: Italian-Amer. Soc. (Com. of Naples); Artistic Section and Founder of Com. Member: Municipal Commn. for Reconstruction since 1945; Soc. for Restoration of War-Damaged Monuments; Pontaniana Acad., Naples; Società Reale di Scienze, Lettere e Arti, Naples. Correspondent, Ateneo Veneto, Venice. Author: Neapolitan Painting of Seventh Century in La Pittura Napolitana, 1938; Tura, Cossa and Roberti, 1941; Raffaello, 1942; Nascita della Filologia Figurativa in "Aretusa", 1944. Address: National Museum, Naples, Italy.

ORTON, Dr. CLAYTON ROBERTS, American Agriculturist; born Apr. 1, 1885, East Hardwick, Vt.; son of Lyman Squire and Ellen Mandana (Stevens) Orton; educated at Univ. of Vermont, B.S. 1909, (Hon.) Sc.D. 1942; Purdue Univ., M.S. 1915; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1924; married Ethel M. Chapman, Sept. 22, 1911; three children. Special Agent, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1909; Asst. Plant Pathologist, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1910; Asst. Botanist, Indiana Agricultural Experiment Station, 1910-12; Asst. Prof. of Botany, 1913-16; Assoc. Prof., 1916-19; Prof. of Plant Pathology, Pa. State College, 1919-27; Plant Pathologist, Agricultural Experiment Station, 1913-27; Collaborator, Bureau of Plant Industry, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1913-25 and since 1930; Plant Pathologist in charge of research and extension, Agricultural Dept., The Bayer Co., Inc., 1925-28; Bayer Semesan Co., 1928-29. Prof. and Head of Dept. of Plant Pathology, West Virginia Univ., 1929-33; Plant Pathologist, West Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station, 1929-38; Head of Dept. of Biology, West Virginia Univ., 1933-36; Head of Dept. of Plant Pathology and Forestry, 1936-38; Dean, College of Agriculture, Forestry and Home Economics, and Director of West Virginia Agricultural Station, since 1938. Member: Board of Governors, Crop Protection Inst., 1920-25 and since 1935; Natl. Research Council, 1922-24; Liaison Member, Division of States Relations, 1923-24; West Virginia State Planning Board since 1935; Chairman since 1941; West Virginia Chamber of Commerce since 1941; Interstate Commn., Potomac River Basin; Rivers and Harbors Congress. Pres., Chestnut Ridge Crop, Inc., since 1937. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Pres., Pennsylvania State College Branch, 1923); Member, Amer. Phytopathological Soc. (Pres., 1939); Mycological Soc. of America; Southern Appalachian Botanical Club. Author: The Plant Rusts (with J. C. Arthur and others, 1928); Seed Borne Diseases, 1931; Morphology of the Ascomycitis, 1924; The Rusts of Pennsylvania (with Kern, Thurston and Adams), 1929; Dissociation of Fusarium in the Soil, 1935; Graminicolous Species of Phyllachora in North America, 1944; Soil in Relation to Health, 1945. Address: Oglebay Hall, Morgantown, W. Va.

ORTON, Dr. SAMUEL TORREY, American Physician; born Oct. 15, 1879, Columbus, Ohio; son of Edward and Anna Davenport (Torrey) Orton; educated at Ohio State Univ., B.S. 1901; Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1905; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1906; Univ. of Breslau (Special Student), 1914; Univ. of Pa., D.Sc. 1945; married Mary Follett, 1908 (dec.); (2nd) June Lyday, 1928. Pathol., Columbus (Ohio) State Hosp., 1907-08; St. Ann's Hosp., Mont., 1908-09; Worcester State Hosp., Mass., 1910-14. Pathol. and Clinical Dir., Pennsylvania Hosp. Dept. for Mental Diseases, 1914-19; Prof. of Psych. and Dir., State Psychopathic Hosp., State Univ. of Iowa, 1919-27; Pathol., N. Y. Neurol. Inst., 1929-36; Prof. of Neurol. and Neuropathol., College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., 1929-36. Member of Amer. Psych. Assn. (Pres. 1927-28); Amer. Neurol. Assn. (Vice-Pres. 1927-28); Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases (Pres. 1930), etc. Recipient of Thomas W. Salmon Award and Lectureship, 1935. Author of Some Studies in the Language Function, 1932; The Development of Speech Understanding in Relation to Intelligence, 1934; Reading, Writing and Speech Problems in Children (W. W. Norton & Co.), 1937, etc. Member, Editorial Bd., Archives of Neurol. and Psychol., 1920-30. Address: 12 E. 86th St., New York, N. Y.

ORTS LLORCA, Dr. FRANCISCO, Spanish Anatomist; born June 10, 1905, Tampico, Mexico; son of Jaime and Margarita (Llorca) Orts; educated at Instituto de Málaga (state scholarship), 1916-22, B.A.; Faculty of Medicine, Valencia (first prize), M.D. 1928; studied at Universities of Paris (under Prof. Rouvière) Vienna (under Prof. A. Fischel) and Munich (under Prof. Vogt), 1928-33; married Ana Maria Bartis, 1935. Asst. Prof. at Valladolid, 1930-31; Prof. of Anatomy, Faculty of Medicine, Cadiz, since 1935. Member: Assn. of Anatomists; Sociedad Anatómica Luso-hispana. Recipient of Röel Prize, Instituto Médico Valenciano for paper "L'infáticos de los órganos anexos del aparato de la visión," 1931; grant by Junta para Ampliación de Estudios for study in Paris and Vienna, 1930, 1932, 1934; also grant for investigation on experimental embryology, Laboratory of Prof. W. Vogt, Munich, 1936; grant by Rockefeller Foundation for investigation on experimental embryology, Laboratory of Prof. Holtfreeter, Munich, 1936. Author of Anatomía humana, edited (1945) by Científico-Médica, Barcelona, etc. Residence: Calderón de la Barca. Office: Facultad de Medicina, Cadiz, Spain.

ORTUTAY, Dr. JULIUS, Hungarian Minister of Education; born 1910, Szabadka, Yugoslavia; son of Stephen and Helen (Borsody) Ortutay; educated at Univ. of Szeged, Ph.D. 1935; married Susan Kemény, Aug. 11, 1938; two children. On staff of National Museum, 1935; Reader, Hungarian Broadcasting Co., 1935-40; Chief of Section, 1940-45; Pres., since 1945. Member, Hungarian Parliament, since 1945; Minister of Education since March 1947. Privatdocent, Univ. of Szeged, 1940; Prof. of Ethnology, Univ. of Budapest, since 1946. Editor, Uj magyar népköltési gyüjtemény, Magyarságtudomány. Pres.: Magyar Néprajzi Társaság. Member, Hungarian Acad. of Letters and Sciences. Awarded: Grand Cross, Order of Merit, Hungary; Silver Cross, Hungarian Freedom Order. Author: Székely Népballadák; Nyiri és rétközi arasztmesék; Magyar népismeret; Parasztságunk élete; Fedics Mihály meséi; Kis magyar néprajz; Magyar népmüvészet I, II. Residence: 83 Pasaréti ut. Office: 16 Hold-utca, Budapest V, Hungary.

ORUM-PEDERSEN, P., Danish Company Director; born Apr. 16, 1882, Hørby, Denmark; son of P. and Marie (Orum) Pedersen; graduated school, 1898; married Bodil Bendtzen, 1921; one child. With Nicolai Outzen in Haderslev; later employed by Korn- & Foderstof Kompagni Kolding; associated with firm of Mammen & Drescher, 1904; admitted to partnership, 1930. Chairman, Board of Nordjydsk Bank. Chairman, Board of A/S Brødr. Bendtzen. Chairman, Board of Aalborg Employers' Assn. Member, Union of the Danish Commercial and Port Organizations. Address: Jfr. Anegade 14, Aalborg, Denmark.

ORWELL, GEORGE, British Author; born 1903, India; educated at Eton; widower; one son. Served with Indian Imperial Police, Burma, five years; held various jobs in England and Paris (dishwasher, school teacher, hops-picker, proprietor of a small country store); free lance writer since 1935. Fought during Spanish Civil War; wounded at Huesca, Aragon; served in Home Guard during World War II. European Correspondent for London Observer; Political Reporter, New York Partisan Review. Regular contributor to Tribune, Observer, Evening Standard, Manchester Evening News, and various magazines Author: Animal Farm; The Clergyman's Daughter; Down and Out in Paris and London; Burmese Days, etc. Address: Islington, London, England.

O'RYAN, Major-Gen. JOHN F., American Lawyer; born Aug. 21, 1874, New York, N. Y.; son of Francis and Anna (Barry) O'Ryan; educated at New York University and Law School (LL.B., LL.D.); grad. Army War College, Class of 1914; married Janet Holmes, Apr. 9, 1902; three children. Began career as a practicing attorney, 1901. Chief Counsel, U. S. Senate Committee Investigation of the Veterans Bureau, 1924; Commissioner of the New York State Transit Commission, 1922-24; Police Commissioner of New York City, 1934; Director of New York State Civilian Defense, 1941-42. Now practices with the firm of Loucks, O'Ryan and Cullen of New York City. Member, Association of the Bar of the City of New York. Served during First World War as Major General Commanding the 27th Division, A.E.F., in France and Belgium (K.C.M.G., C.V.O., Legion of Honor, D.S.M.). Author: Story of the 27th Division (1921); Modern Army in Action (1914). Residence: Purdys, Westchester County, New York. Office: 120 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

OSBORN, Dr. CHASE SALMON, American Author, Newspaperman; born Jan. 22, 1860, Huntington County, Ind.; son of George Augustus Osborn, M.D., and Margaret Ann Fannon Osborn, M.D.; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S. 1880; Detroit College of Medicine, M.D. 1909; LL.D. from Univ. of Michigan in 1911, Olivet College in 1911, Alma (Mich.) College in 1912, Northwestern Univ. in 1922, and Atlanta Law School in 1935; Sc.D. in Natural Science, Wayne Univ., 1944; married Lillian G. Jones, May 7, 1881; eight children. Began newspaper work on Lafayette (Ind.) Home Journal; later worked for Chicago Tribune, and did reportorial and editorial work in Milwaukee (1880). In 1883 he purchased and published Florence (Wis.) Mining News. He was Editor of Miner and Manufacturer, Milwaukee, 1887; purchased the Sault Ste. Marie (Mich.) News in 1887, and was publisher until 1901; publisher of the Saginaw (Mich.) Courier-Herald, 1901-12. Postmaster of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., 1889-93; State Game and Fish Warden, Mich., 1895-99; Commissioner of Railroads, Mich., 1899-1903. Regent, Univ. of Michigan, 1908-11. Governor of the State of Michigan,, 1911-12; Candidate for United States Senate, 1918, 1928; endorsed by Michigan for Republican nomination as Vice-President of the United States, 1928. National Councillor, U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Member of numerous civic, social, educational and scientific societies. Discovered source of firefly's light; also Moose Mountain iron range (Canada) and Ndanga iron range (Southeast Africa). An Accolade for Chase S. Osborn (605 pages) published and presented to him by City of Sault Ste. Marie, 1940; January 22, 1941 proclaimed Chase Salmon Osborn Day in Michigan by Governor. Author: The Andean Land, 2 vols., 1909; The Iron Hunter, 1919; The Law of Divine Concord, 1921; Madagascar, the Land of the Man-Eating Tree, 1924; Short History of Michigan, 1926; The Earth Upsets, 1927; Following the Ancient Gold Trail of Hiram of Tyre, 1932; Northwood Sketches, 1934; The Conquest of a Continent (with Stella Brunt Osborn), 1939; Schoolcraft - Longfellow - Hiawatha (with same), 1942; Hiawatha with Its Orignal Indian Legends (with same), 1944; Errors in Official United States Area Figures (with same), 1945; also numerous articles published in the daily press. Donor of many thousands of acres of Michigan lands to various universities; added 40,000 square miles of Great Lakes area to official area of Michigan, making it rank as 10th instead of 21st in size; 21,000 square miles to other Great Lakes States; and 61,000 square miles to official area figure of the U. S. Address: Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

OSBORN, CYRUS RICHARD, American Industrialist; born Aug. 27, 1897, Dayton, Ohio; son of Cyrus Victor and Stella (Hopkins) Osborn; educated at Univ. of Cincinnati (1916-21, M.E.); married Jeanette Powell, Feb. 22, 1926; two children. General Manager, Overseas Motor Service Corp., 1925-29; Vice-Pres., General Motors Export Co., 1929-32; Mng. Dir., General Motors Nordiska, Stockholm, Sweden, 1932-34; Assistant to General Manager, General Motors Export Division, in 1934-36; Assistant to General Manager of Adam Opel A.G., Ruesselsheim, Germany, during 1936-37, and General Manager in 1937-40. Assistant to Vice-President, General Motors Corp., 1940-41, and Assistant to Group Executive, 1941-43; now Vice-President of General Motors Corp. and General Manager of the Electro-Motive Division. Residence: 706 S. Park Ave., Hinsdale, Ill. Office: General Motors Corp., Electro-Motive Division, La Grange, Ill.

OSBORN, FAIRFIELD, American Naturalist; born Jan. 15, 1887, Princeton, N. J.; son of Henry Fairfield and Lucretia (Perry) Osborn; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1909; Trinity College, Cambridge; married Marjorie Lamond, Sept. 8, 1914; three children. Member, Exec. Com., Trustee and Pres., New York Zoological Soc., since 1940. Member: Advisory Board, Amer. Com. for International Wildlife Protection; International Com. for Bird Preservation; Boone & Crockett Club; National Audubon Soc.; National Acad. of Sciences. Director, N. Y. State National Youth Administration, 1935. Author: Our Plundered Planet, 1948. Editor: Pacific World. Chairman, Publications Com., Pacific World Series. Residence: 207 E. 61st St. Office: 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

OSBORN, Hon. FREDERICK HENRY, U. S. Deputy Representative, United Nations Atomic Energy Commission; born March 21, 1889, New York, N. Y.; son of William Church and Alice (Dodge) Osborn; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1910; Trinity College, Cambridge, England, 1911-12; Norwich Univ., D.Sc. (hon.), 1942; Washington & Lee Univ., LL.D. (hon.), 1943; New York Univ., Litt.D. (hon.) 1945; married Margaret Schieffelin, Jan. 10, 1914; six children. Employee, Phelps Dodge Corp., Arizona, 1911. Managing Director, Nevins Church Press, 1913. Treasurer and later Vice-Pres. in Charge of Traffic, D. T. & I. R.R., Detroit, 1914-19. With Amer. Red Cross in France, 1917-18. Partner, Fosburgh, Pratt & Osborn, 1920. Partner, G. M.-P. Murphy & Co., 1921-38; Special Partner, 1927-38; Pres., Osborn Development Co., 1926-39 (company became inactive in 1932; dissolved in 1939). Consultant on Population, Bureau of the Budget, Washington, D. C., 1940. Chairman, Advisory Com. on Selective Service Act, 1940. Chairman, Joint Army and Navy Com. on Welfare & Recreation, 1941. Chief, Morale Branch, War Dept. (rank of Brig. General), Sept. 1943; left Army 1945. Now

Deputy Representative of United States on United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. Trustee: Carnegie Corp. of N. Y.; The Frick Collection; Princeton Univ.; Milbank Memorial Fund; Palisades Interstate Park Commission. Chairman, New York City USO Campaign, 1946. Pres., Amer. Eugenics Soc. Director, Population Assn. of Amer. Decorations: The Bronze Star, 1945; Distinguished Service Medal, 1945; Selective Service Medal, 1946; Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (degree of Hon. Commander), 1946. Editor, Heredity and Environment (by Gladys Schwesinger), 1933. Author: Dynamics of Population (with Frank Lorimer), 1934; Preface to Eugenics, 1940. Residence: 123 E. 73rd St. Office: 230 Park Ave., New York, N. Y.

OSBORN, Dr. HERBERT, American Biologist; born Mar. 19, 1856, Lafayette Township, Walworth Co., Wis.; son of Charles Paine and Harriet Newell (Marsh) Osborn; educated at Iowa State College, B.Sc. 1879, M.Sc. 1880; Iowa State College, Hon. D.Sc. 1916; Ohio State Univ., LL.D. 1936; married Alice Isadore Sayles, Jan. 19, 1883; five children. Asst. in Zoology, Iowa State College, 1879-83; Asst. Prof., 1883-85; Prof., 1885-98. Prof. of Zoology and Entomology, Head of Dept., Ohio State Univ., 1898-1916; Research Prof., 1917-33; Emeritus Prof. since 1933. Director, Ohio Biological Survey, since 1912. Trustee: Tropical Plant Research Foundation, 1925-43; Research Fund, Ohio Acad. of Science, since 1917; Biological Abstracts, 1927-37. Fellow, California Acad. of Science. Member: Iowa Acad. of Science (Pres., 1887); Ohio Acad. of Science (Pres., 1904); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Soc. for Promotion of Agricultural Science (Pres., 1917-18); Biological Soc. of Washington; Entomological Soc. of Washington; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Entomological Soc. of France; Amer. Entomological Soc.; Internatl. Entomological Congress. Author: Insects Affecting Domestic Animals, 1896; Economic Zoology, 1908; Agricultural Entomology, 1916; Leaf Hoppers of Ohio, 1928; Fragments of Entomological History, 1937; Meadow and Pasture Insects, 1939; Fragments of Entomological History, Part II (in press). Address: Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.

OSBORN, SIDNEY PRESTON, Governor of Arizona; born May 17, 1884, Phoenix, Arizona; son of Neri F. and Marilla W. (Murray) Osborn; educated at the Phoenix public schools; Phoenix Union High School, graduated 1903; married Marjorie Grant, Sept. 1912; (died Dec. 9, 1918); married Gladys Smiley, June 1926; one daughter. Private Secretary to Col. J. F. Wilson. Member of Congress from Arizona, 1903-05. Engaged in newspaper work, 1905-12. Member, Constitutional Convention of Arizona (1910); elected Secretary of State, Arizona, 1911; re-elected for a second and third term. Editor and Publisher of Dunbar's Weekly. Collector of Internal Revenue for Arizona, 1933-34. Elected Governor of Arizona, 1940; re-elected 1942, 1944, and 1946. Address: Capitol Bldg., Phoenix, Arizona.

OSBORN, Dr. STANLEY HART, American Public Health Administrator; born May 3, 1891, Peabody, Mass.; son of Charles Lincoln and Alice Cornelia (Hart) Osborn; educated at Tufts College, M.D. 1914, Sc.D. (Hon.) 1942; Harvard Univ.; Mass. Inst. of Technol., C.P.H.; Dr. P.H. (Hon.), Trinity College, 1945; married Gertrude Hooper, Sept. 16, 1921; three sons. In charge of Field Unit, Typhus Fever Epidemic, Amer. Red Cross Sanitary Commn. to Serbia, 1915-16; State District Health Officer, Mass. Dept. of Health, 1916; Epidemiologist, 1917-20. 1st Lieut., U. S. Army Med. Corps, A.E.F., B.E.F., 1918-19; Deputy Commnr. of Health and Dir. of Bureau of Preventable Diseases, Conn. State Dept. of Health, 1920-22. State Commnr. of Health, Conn. State Dept. of Health, since 1922; Lecturer in Public Health, Yale Univ., since 1923. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Public Health Assn. and Amer. Soc. for Advancement of Science. Residence: 41 Brace Rd., West Hartford, Conn. Office: State Dept. of Health, State Office Bldg., Hartford, Connecticut.

OSBORN, Miss STELLANOVA, American Author; born July 31, 1894, Hamilton, Canada; daughter of Edward and Rosa (Lee) Brunt; adopted by Chase S. Osborn (former Governor of Michigan), Apr. 30, 1931; educated at University of Michigan, A.B. 1922, A.M. 1930. Staff Editor, New International Yearbook, 1923. Contributing Editor, Sociology and Economics, to New International Encyclopedia Supplement, 1924; Assistant Editor, Good Health Magazine, 1925. Editor, University of Michigan Official Publication, 1925-30. Secretary to Chase S. Osborn since 1931. Author: The Conquest of a Continent (with Chase S. Osborn), 1939; Eighty and On, 1941; Schoolcraft—Longfellow—Hiawatha (with C. S. Osborn), 1942; Hiawatha With Its Original Indian Legends (with C. S. Osborn), 1944; Errors in Official U. S. Area Figures (with C. S. Osborn), 1945; Some Sidelights on the Battle of Tippecanoe, 1943; A Tale of Possum Poke in Possum Lake, 1946. Editor: An Accolade for Chase S. Osborn, 1940; contributions of verse and articles to various periodicals. Address: (summer) Duck Island, Sugar I, Star Route, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich; (winter): Possum Poke in Possum Lake, Poulan, Ga.

OSBORNE, CHARLES DEVENS, American Newspaper Publisher; born Nov. 22, 1888, Auburn, N. Y.; son of Thomas Mott and Agnes (Devens) Osborne; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1910; married Edith Wendell, Jan. 18, 1913; one daughter. Editorial Writer, Auburn Citizen, 1913; Vice-Pres. and General Manager, Auburn Publishing Co. in 1915; Pres. since 1926. Director: Auburn Trust Co.; Auburn Iron Co.; WMBO, Inc. Trustee, Auburn Savings Bank. Member, Democratic State Com.; Past-Pres., New York State Associated Dailies. Mayor of Auburn, 1928-32, 1936-40. Member, National Inst. of Social Science; Director, Amer. Prison Assn.; Trustee, Seymour Library Assn. Served on Mexican Border with N. Y. National Guard, 1916; with A.E.F. during First World War, commissioned Major, Infantry, New York Guard in 1940. Address: Auburn, N. Y.

OSBORNE, CYRIL, Member of British Parliament; born June 19, 1898, Nottingham, England; son of Thomas and Annie Osborne; educated at University College, Nottingham, 1919-23; married Joyce Lawrence Feibusch, Dec. 4, 1935; four children. Began in engineering shop; then in textile warehouse; coal business; brass founder's office; stockbroker. Elected to Parliament, 1945. Member, Parliamentary Finance and Post-War Reconstruction Committees. Chairman, Woodford & Wormleighton Ltd., Leicester; Chairman and Managing Director, Messrs. Baines & Whitmore, Ltd., Leicester. Director: Messrs. William Buckler & Co., Ltd., Leicester; Fountain Bldgs., Ltd., Nottingham. Welfare Adviser, North Midland Region Civil Defense, World War II; Hon. Secy., Anglo-American Panel, Ministry of Information; Hon. Secy., English Speaking Union, Leicester; Governor, Royal Infirmary, Leicester, etc. Gunner, Royal Field Artillery, 1914-18; in France, Belgium, Italy and Egypt. Residence:

Westacre, The Ridgeway, Rothley. Office: Eagle House, Friar Lane, Leicester, Leicestershire, England.

OSBORNE, Dr. DARRELL WAYNE, American Chemist; born Jan. 16, 1914, Los Angeles, Calif.; son of Wayne Clyde and Hattie Adelia (MacDearmon) Osborne; educated at Univ. of California at Los Angeles, A.B. 1935; California Inst. of Technology, Ph.D. 1938; married Marjorie Della Higgins, July 1, 1936; three daughters. National Research Fellow in Chemistry, Univ. of California, Berkeley, 1940-41. Instructor in Chemistry, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1941-42. Research Assoc. for National Defense Research Com., George Washington Univ. (Rocket Research), 1942-45. Senior Chemist, Metallurgical Laboratory, Univ. of Chicago, 1945-46. Asst. Director, Chemistry Div., Argonne National Laboratory (Metallurgical Laboratory), Univ. of Chicago, since 1946. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Amer. Physical Soc. Author of papers on low temperature heat capacities and thermodynamics. Residence: 2208 E. 99th St. Office: Argonne National Laboratory, 5625 South Ingleside, Chicago, Ill.

OSBORNE, Sir FRANCIS D'ARCY GODOLPHIN, K.C.M.G., British Diplomat; born Sept. 16, 1884, Haileybury. Third Secretary, Rome, 1910; transferred to Washington, 1913; Secretary to British and American Claims Arbitration Tribunal, Ottawa, 1913; Third Secy., The Hague, 1918; Second Secy., 1918; First Secy., 1919; transferred to Foreign Office, 1920; Counsellor of Embassy (Chargé d'Affaires), Lisbon, 1928, 1929; transferred to Rome, 1930; Chargé d'Affaires, Rome, 1930; E. E. and M. P. to the United States, 1931; Chargé d'Affaires, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935; Minister to the Holy See, 1936 —. Received Silver Jubilee Medal, 1935. Address: British Embassy, Vatican City, Rome, Italy.

OSBORNE, Dr. GEORGE EDWARD, American Professor of Law; born June 11, 1893, Akron, Ohio; son of George Edward and Mary C. (Morrison) Osborne; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1916, LL.B. 1919; Harvard Univ., S.J.D. 1920. Asst. Prof. of Law, Univ. of West Virginia, 1920; Univ. of Minnesota, 1921-23. Acting Prof., Columbia Univ., summer 1923; Chicago Univ., summer 1927; Visiting Prof. of Law, Duke Univ., 1931-32; Univ. of Washington, summer 1933; Univ. of California, 1937. Prof., Stanford Univ., since 1923. Chairman, Industry Coms., 1940-43; Mediator, Natl. War Labor Board, since 1942. Author: Property Security, 1940. Address: Stanford University, Calif.

OSBORNE, LATHAM EDGAR, American Industrialist; born May 16, 1895, Verona, Pa.; son of Latham M. and Elizabeth (Richter) Osborne; educated at Pittsburgh Schools and Internatl. Correspondence Schools, M.E.; married Myrtle Mae Schmidt, July 27, 1916. Began career, 1910, as apprentice of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., East Pittsburgh; toolmaker, foreman, Assistant Superintendent of Tool Room, and Superintendent of Metal Stamping Department, 1910-31; Works Manager of Meter Division, Newark, N. J., 1931-34; Works Manager of East Springfield, Mass., 1934-39; Manager of Engineering and Manufacturing, East Springfield, Mass., and Mansfield, Ohio, 1939-41. From Jan. to Oct. 1941 served as Chief of Heavy Ordnance, Office of Production Management, Washington, D. C. Vice-Pres. and Manager, South Philadelphia (Pa.) Works; Attica (N. Y.) Works and Meter Division, Newark (N. J.) Works, 1941-46; Senior Vice-Pres. in charge of all manufacturing, Westinghouse Elec. Corp, 1946 —. Member, Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers, etc. Residence: 618 Osage Rd. Office: 306 Fourth Ave., Pittsburgh 30, Pa.

OSBORNE, LITHGOW, American Diplomat; born April 2, 1892, Auburn, N. Y.; son of Thomas Mott and Agnes (Devens) Osborne; educated at Adirondack-Florida School; Harvard University; hon. LL.D., Syracuse University 1936; married Countess Lillie Raben-Levetzau, March 12, 1918; three children. Third Secretary, American Embassy, Berlin, 1915; Secretary of Legation in Copenhagen, 1917; attached to the State Department in Washington, 1919; Editorial Writer for the Auburn Citizen Advertiser (newspaper), 1922-32. Appointed Conservation Commissioner for New York State, 1933; successively reappointed in 1935, 1937, serving until Dec. 3, 1942. Elected Delegate-at-large to the New York Constitutional Convention, 1938; served with Office of Strategic Services, Jan. 1942; later with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, going to New Zealand and Australia. Ambassador to Norway, 1944-46. Pres. and Chmn. of Bd. of Trustees, Amer.-Scandinavian Foundation, 1947 —. Residence: 99 South St., Auburn, N. Y. Office: 116 E. 64th St., New York, N. Y.

OSBORNE, MILTON S., American Architect; born Mar. 18, 1897, Zanesville, Ohio; son of Lee and Susanna (Smith) Osborne; educated at Ohio State Univ., B.Arch. 1922; Columbia Univ., B.Arch. 1925, M.Sc. 1928; Fellowship, Harvard Univ.; Univ. of Oregon; married Sophia May Bookwalter, July 30, 1925. Civil Engineer, Youngstown, Ohio, 1917. Instructor in Art, Columbia Univ., 1924-25. Assoc. Prof. of Architecture, Alabama Polytechnic Inst., 1925-27; Prof. of Architecture, Acting Dean of School of Architecture, 1927-29; Head, School of Architecture, Univ. of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada, 1929-46; Town Planner, Chicago Plan Commn., 1943-44; Special Projects Planner, Metropolitan Plan, Winnipeg, 1945-46. Head, Dept. of Architecture, Pennsylvania State College, since 1946. Director, Art Gallery Board, Winnipeg, 1938-46. Fellow and Council Member, Royal Architectural Inst. of Canada. Member: Amer. Inst. of Architects; Manitoba Assn. of Architects; Canadian Art Federation. Author: Alabama's Architectural Heritage, 1927-29; Ohio's Architectural Heritage, 1929-31; Architectural Heritage of Manitoba, 1936. Address: State College, Pa.

OSBORNE, ROBERT G., Australian Lawyer; born June 18, 1903, Hobart, Tasmania; son of John and Theresa Osborne; educated at Univ. of Tasmania, B.A. 1924, LL.B. 1927; married Joan R. Hall, May 15, 1933; two sons. Legal Asst., Attorney-General's Dept., Canberra, 1928; Asst. Parliamentary Draftsman, Tasmania, 1929; Parliamentary Draftsman, 1938; Asst. Solicitor-General, 1942; Asst. Director (Administration), Federal Dept. of War Organisation of Industry, 1942; Chief Parliamentary Draftsman, Tasmania, since 1944; Lands Titles Commissioner, 1943. Member, Council of Univ. of Tasmania, since 1935; Dean, Faculty of Law, 1940-44; Lecturer on Constitutional Law since 1933. Chairman, State Finance Com., since 1935; Chairman, Farmers Debt Adjustment Board, since 1935. Member: Australian Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Fellow, Inst. of Public Administration; Vice-Pres., Hobart Repertory Theatre Soc. Residence: 303 Davey St. Office: Franklin Square, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia.

OSBORNE, Dr. WILLIAM ALEXANDER, Australian Physiologist; born Aug. 26, 1873, Holywood, Co. Down, Northern Ireland; son of Henry and Martha Todd (Alexander) Osborne; educated at Queen's Univ., Belfast, M.B. and B.Ch. 1895; D.Sc. magna cum laude, Univ. of Tubingen, 1899; married Ethel Elizabeth Goodson, Dec. 10, 1903; four children. Began career as "1851 Exhibition" Scholar in 1897; Sharpey Scholar at the University College, London, 1899, and became Assistant Professor of Physiology, 1901. He was Professor of Physiology at Melbourne, Australia, 1903-38, and Dean of the Faculty of Med., 1929-38; Emeritus Prof. since 1939. Ex-Pres., English Speaking Union, Melbourne; Royal Society of Victoria; Forest League, and for the last 11 years President of the Shakespearian Society of Melbourne; Chief Film Censor for Australia one year. Awarded honorary degree of D.Sc., Belfast Univ. and was made an Honorary Fellow of the American College of Surgeons. Publications: The Laboratory and Other Poems, 1907; William Sutherland: A Biography, 1920; The Visitor to Australia, 1934; A Primer of Dietetics (6th edition), 1943; Essays and Literary Sketches, 1943; Essays and Sketches, 1946. Address: The Hall, Kangaroo Ground, Victoria, Australia.

OSBORNE, Dr. WILLIAM TERRY, American Educator; born Mar. 28, 1899, Port Jefferson, N. Y.; son of Elbert T. and Alice Carrie (Terry) Osborne; educated at Springfield College, B.P.E. 1922; Clark Univ., M.A. 1923; New York Univ., Ph.D. 1941; Cornell Univ., 1922; Acadia Univ., 1930; married Esther M. Platt, Dec. 29, 1923; two children. Instructor, Internatl. College, 1919; Instructor, 1923-24, Prof. and Head of Dept. of Physical Education, 1924-46, Acadia Univ.; on leave as Director of German D.P. Work for World Y.M.C.A.-Y.W.C.A., with UNRRA, 1946; Executive Secy., Central Y.M.C.A., Kansas City, Mo., 1947—. Organized and established Acadia Relays, Maritime Interscholastic Swimming Championships for boys and girls, Nova Scotia Basketball Assn., Nova Scotia Referees Assn. Organized and supervised City System of Recreation, Central Falls, R. I., summer of 1924; organized and directed Boys Camp, Nova Scotia, summers of 1925-27; organized and directed U.S.O. Clubs for Service Men and Women, 1941-46. Represented Canada at Internatl. Sportstudenten Lager, Berlin, 1936; Chairman, Maritime Intercollegiate Assn.; represented U. S. at Geneva on enlarged Executive of World's Alliance, Y.M.C.A.'s, 1946. Member: Canadian Psychological Assn.; Amer. Physical Education Assn.; Directors of Colleges of Physical Education. Author: New Method Officiating (Official Basketball Rule Guide), 1936; contributions to Athletic Journal, Canadian Journal of Physical Education, Literary Digest, etc. Address: 4950 Westwood Terrace, Kansas City 2, Mo.

O'SEAGHDHA, SEAN P., Irish Association Executive; born 1887, Cork, Ireland; son of James and Mary (O'Briain) O'Seaghdha; educated at Natl. Scho married Caitlin W. Caochlaoich, 1912; six children. Railway clerk, 1901; Managing Director, Irish Cutlery Co. Ltd., 1912-21; Pres., Dublin Industrial Development Assn., 1918-23. Member, Dail Commission of Enquiry on Industrial Resources of Ireland, 1918-22; Chairman, All-Ireland Industrial Conf., 1921; Member of Council, Irish Industrial Development Assn., 1918-26; Managing Director, Moore Clothing Co. Ltd., 1932-37; Chairman, Irish Wholesale Clothing Assn., 1935-36; Secy., Natl. Agricultural and Industrial Assn., Dublin, since 1939. Residence: Corcadulbne, Dundrum, Ireland. Office: 3 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin, Ireland.

OSEEN, Professor CARL WILHELM, Swedish Scientist; born in Lund, Sweden, April 17, 1879; son of A. Th. and Elisabet Ulrica (Hylten-Cavallius) Oseen; educated at University of Lund, graduated 1900, Ph.D. 1903; University of Göttingen, 1900-01; honorary degree of Dr. Ing., Danzig, 1929. Docent, University of Lund, 1902. Professor at University of Uppsala, 1909-33; Chief of Nobel Institute of the Royal Academy of Sciences since 1933. President, Royal Academy of Sciences, Stockholm, 1934-35; Secretary, Royal Society of Sciences of Uppsala, 1931-33. Address: Nobel Institute, Royal Academy of Sciences, Stockholm, Sweden.

OSER, Dr. BERNARD LEVUSSOVE, American Biochemist; born Feb. 2, 1899, Philadelphia, Pa; son of Harris E. Oser; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1920, M.S. 1925; Fordham Univ., Ph.D. 1927; married Clara de Hirsch Kotkin, 1923; two children. Chemist in Dermatological Research Laboratories, Philadelphia, 1918-20. Asst., Dept. of Physiological Chemistry, Jefferson Medical College, 1919-20; Instructor, Dept. of Chemistry, Graduate School of Medicine, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1922-26; Biochemist, Philadelphia General Hosp., 1922-26. Asst. Director in charge of Biological Laboratories, Food Research Laboratories, Inc., 1926-34; Vice-Pres. and Director since 1939. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Amer. Inst. of Chemists; New York Acad. of Science. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc. (Chairman, Division of Agricultural and Food Chemistry; Editorial Advisory Board; Industrial and Engineering Chemistry; Analytical Editor since 1944); Inst. of Food Technologists; Animal Vitamin Research Council; Assn. of Consulting Chemists and Chemical Engineers; Com. on Valid Certification of Amer. Standards Assn.; Metropolitan Long Island Chemical Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Scientific Workers. Delegate, Fifteenth Internatl. Physiological Congress, Leningrad and Moscow, 1935. Contributor to scientific literature. Address: 48-14 33rd St., Long Island City, New York.

OSGOOD, Dr. ALFRED TOWNSEND, American Urologist; born Oct. 14, 1872, Upland, Pa.; son of Howard and Caroline T. (Lawrence) Osgood; educated at Phillips Acad., Andover, 1891; Yale Univ., A.B. 1895; Columbia Univ., M.D. 1899; married Ethna de Lestere Mackeye, Nov. 24, 1914. Instructor in Urology, New York Univ. Medical College; Prof.; Emeritus Prof., since 1936. In private practice, New York City. Fellow, N. Y. Acad. of Medicine; Member: Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Medical Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Genito-Urinary Surgeons; Soc. Internale d'Urologie; Amer. Urological Assn.; N. Y. Urologic Soc.; State and County Medical Socs. Contributor to medical literature. Address: 65 E. 66th St., New York 21, N. Y.

OSGOOD, Dr. CHARLES GROSVENOR, American Professor of English; born May 4, 1871, Wellsboro, Pa.; son of Charles G. and Mary Josephine (Todd) Osgood; educated at Andover Acad., 1890; Yale, A.B. 1894, Ph.D. 1899. Hon. Litt.D. 1946; married Isabella Sheldon Owen, Jan. 29, 1910; one daughter. Teacher of Classics, Towanda, Pa., 1894; Asst. Prof. of English, Univ. of Colorado. 1899; Tutor in English, Yale Univ., 1900-05; Preceptor in English, Princeton Univ., 1905-13; Prof., 1913-37; Emeritus, since 1937. Stone Lecturer, Theological Seminary, 1940; Lecturer at Univs. of California, Stanford and Washington. On Executive Council, Modern Language Assn., 1937-40. Trustee, Princeton Public Library; Member, Advisory Council of N. J. State Library; Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: Classical Mythology in Milton's English Poems, 1900; Edition of the Middle-English poem Pearl, 1906; Concordance to Spenser; Boccaccio on Poetry, 1930; The Voice of England, 1935; Poetry as a Means of Grace, 1941; etc. General Editor of The Works of Edmund Spenser (a Variorum Edition, 9 volumes), 1932-37. Address: 92 Stockton St., Princeton, N. J.

OSGOOD, Dr. CORNELIUS, American Anthropologist; born 1905. Prof. and Curator of Anthropology, Yale Univ.; Fellow of Saybrook College, Yale Univ. Author: Contributions to the Ethnography of the Kutchin, 1936; The Ethnography of the Tanaina, 1937; Ingalik Material Culture, 1940; The Ciboney Culture of Cayo Redondo, Cuba, 1942; An Archaeological Survey of Venezuela (with George D. Howard), 1943; Excavations at Tocorón, Venezuela, 1943. Editor, Excavations at Apatzingan by Isabel Truesdell Kelly, 1947, etc. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

OSGOOD, Rev. PHILLIPS ENDICOTT, American Clergyman; born May 11, 1882, North Attleboro, Mass.; son of George Endicott and Helen (Reed) Osgood; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1904; Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass., B.D. 1907; married Marion Curtis Stone, 1907; three children; (2nd) Eunice Williams Simonds, 1945. Curate, Church of the Ascension, Emmanuel Parish, Boston, 1907-09; Rector, Church of Our Savior, Rosalindale, Boston, 1909-14; Vicar, Chapel of the Mediator, Philadelphia, 1914-21; Rector, St. Marks Church, Minneapolis, 1921-33. Summer Minister, Emmanuel Chapel, Manchester-by-the-Sea, 1929-45; Rector, Emmanuel Church, Boston, Mass., 1933-45. Pres., House of Deputies Lay Members of General Convention of Episcopal Church, 1943-45. Chairman, Commn. on Church Drama; Ex-Pres., Interprofessional Inst. of Minneapolis. Ex-Trustee, Public Library, Minneapolis. Resigned Episcopal Church for theological reasons, 1945. Joined Unitarian Church. Awarded: L.H.D., Carleton College; D.D., Seabury Divinity School. Author: Solomon's Temple, 1909; Church Year Sermons for Children, 1919; The Creed and Modern Convictions, 1921; Old Time Drama Adopted, 1927; The Sinner Beloved, 1928; Say I To Myself, 1943; What's Your P. Q.? 1945; Many Waters, 1946; Religion Without Magic, 1946. Address: The St. Botolph Club, 115 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass.

OSGOOD, Dr. ROBERT BAYLEY, American Surgeon; born July 6, 1873, in Salem, Mass.; son of John Christopher and Martha Ellen (Whipple) Osgood; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1895, Hon. Sc.D. 1935; Harvard, M.D. 1899; married L. Chapin, April 29, 1902; one daughter. Began career as Orthopedic Surgeon in 1900. Chief of Staff, Orthopedic Dept., Mass. General Hosp.; Chief of Orthopedic Dept., Boston Children's Hosp., 1924-30; now Consulting Surgeon to Children's Hosp.; Hon. Surgeon and Member of Consulting Board, Mass. General Hosp. John Ball and Buckminster Brown Prof. of Orthopedic Surgery at Harvard, 1924-31. Fellow of Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Natl. Institute of Social Sciences; Internatl. Soc. of Orthopedic Surgery; British Orthopedic Assn. (Hon.); Italian Orthopedic Assn. (Hon.) Scandinavian Orthopedic Assn. (Hon.); Amer. Orthopedic Assn. (Pres., 1920-21); (Corresponding) Belgian Orthopedic Assn.; Australian Orthopedic Assn.; (Hon. Fellow) Royal Soc. of Med., England; (Hon. Fellow) Royal College of Surgeons, England. Publications: Diseases of Bones and Joints (with Joel E. Goldthwait and C. F. Painter), 1909; Fundamentals of Orthopedic Surgery (with N. Allison), 1932; The Medical and Orthopedic Management of Chronic Arthritis (with R. Pemberton), 1914; numerous articles published in various journals. Res.: 38 Chestnut St. Office: 372 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.

O'SHANNON, CATHAL, Irish Labor Leader; born June 9, 1893; son of Charles and Alice (McLarnon) O'Shannon; educated at St. Columba's College, Derry; married Margaret Doris Finn, 1924; three children. Organizer, Irish Transport and General Workers' Union, 1916-21; Asst. Editor, Nationality, 1915-16. Editor, Voice of Labor, 1917-18; Watchword of Labor, 1919-20; Voice of Labor, 1921-23, 1924-27; Irishman, 1930; Watchword, 1930-31; Torch, 1939-41. Political Secretary, Irish Transport and General Workers' Union, 1924-26; Movements Officer, 1926-41. Secretary, Irish Trade Union Congress, 1941-45; Hon. Secretary, Joint Council of Irish Trade Union Congress and Labor Party. President, Irish Labor Party and Trade Union Congress and Deputy Leader of Labor Party in Dail Eireann, 1922-23. Resigned from the Irish Trade Union Congress and was appointed first Secretary, Congress of Irish Unions, 1945; appointed Workers' Member of newly-established Labor Court, 1946—. Residence: 91 Griffith Ave. Office: 3 Lower Ormond Quay, Dublin, Ireland.

O'SHEA, The Most Rev. THOMAS, Catholic Archbishop of Wellington, N. Z.; born Mar. 13, 1870, San Francisco, Calif.; son of Edmund and Joan (O'Sullivan) O'Shea; educated at St. Patrick's College, Wellington; St. Mary's Scholasticate, Greenmeadows, Napier. Parish Priest, St. Mary's of Angels, Wellington; Prof. of Scholastic Philosophy, St. Mary's College, Greenmeadows; Coadjutor of Wellington, 1913; Archbishop of Wellington, N. Z., since 1935. Governor, MacCarthy Trust, since 1935. Author of sermons, public addresses on social justice, and radio broadcasts. Residence: 7 Paterson St., Wellington, N. Z.

OSIO y TORRES RIVA, LUIS, Mexican Hotel Operator; born Oct. 20, 1909; Mexico City; son of Manuel Osio y Sanz and Juana Torres Rivas; educated at Stonyhurst, England; Sacred Heart College, Mexico City; by private tutors while in Europe; married María Victoria Rivas, Aug. 16, 1940; three children. Clerk, National City Bank of New York, 1929; Asst. Credit Manager, 1932. Manager, Hotel Guardiola, Mexico City, 1934; Secy., Mexican Hotel Assn., 1937; Pres., Natl. Chamber of Hotels of Mexico, 1938-39; Director, Mexican Tourist Assn., 1939; Managing Director, Club de Banqueros de México, 1942-46; Managing Director, Del Prado Hotel, since 1946. Director: Mexican Automobile Assn.; Mexican Hotel Assn.; Chamber of Commerce of Mexico. Director, American Hotel Assn. of the U. S. A., Canada and Mexico; Vice-Pres., Mexican Hotel Assn. of Republic of Mexico; Vice-Pres., Mexico City Hotel Assn. Address: Del Prado Hotel, Mexico, D.F.

OSIPOV, Prof. V. P., Soviet Scientist. Corresponding Member of the Branch of Biological Sciences of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Author of various publications chiefly on biological subjects. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OSLER, GLYN, K.C., Canadian Barrister; born Sept. 20, 1876, Toronto, Ont., Canada; son of Hon. Featherston and Emma Henrietta (Smith) Osler; educated at Trinity Univ., B.A. 1895; married Florence Scarth, June 19, 1902; three children. Practiced law, Ottawa, 1898-1908; at Toronto, since 1908. Now partner, Blake, Anglin, Osler & Cassels. Chairman, Board of Economic Investment Trust Ltd.; Vice-Pres. and Director, Imperial Realty Co. Ltd. Director: Bell Telephone Co. of Canada; Mutual Life Assurance Co. of Canada; Woods Manufacturing Co. Ltd.; Brantford Cordage Co. Ltd.; Natl. Steel Car Corp. Ltd.; Steel Co. of Canada Ltd.; Southam Co. Ltd.; Russell Industries Ltd.; Canada Cycle & Motor Co. Ltd.; Canadian Acme Screw & Gear Ltd. Address: 2400 Canadian Bank of Commerce Bldg., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

OSMENA, SERGIO, Philippine Statesman; born 1878; educated at Univ. of Santo Tomás; admitted to the Bar, 1903. Provincial Gov. of Cebu and Pres. of first Convention of Provincial Governors, 1906. Became Speaker, first Philippine Assembly, 1907; Speaker of House of Representatives, 1909-22; elected Senator for Cebu, 1922, 1928 and 1934. Philippine Legislaure Envoy to United States and Delegate to 23rd Inter-Parliamentary Conference in Washington, 1925. Served on the Committee of the Philippine Legislature to confer with the President of the United States, 1927. Temporary President of the Philippine Senate, 1931. President, Nationalist Party, 1907-21; Vice-President of the Consolidado Nationalist Party, 1922-23; appointed Acting Secretary of Public Instruction, 1935, becoming Permanent Secretary, 1936. Vice-President of the Philippine Islands, 1935-44; President, 1944-46. Address: Manila, P. I.

OSÓBKA-MORAWSKI, EDWARD, Polish Political Leader; born October 5, 1909, Blizyn, Poland; son of Marcel educated and studied at Popular University in Warsaw; married Wislawa Pankiewicz, January 1945. Began career as a worker in an ammunition factory, 1925; municipality clerk in Blizyn and active member of the Polish Socialist Party, 1930-34; Instructor in Wielun and engaged in cooperative and educational activities, 1934-37; organizer of cooperatives in Warsaw, 1937-39; soldier in defense of Warsaw, 1939; engaged in underground political and military action, 1940-44. Served as Premier and Foreign Minister of the (Lublin) Polish Government until 1945; Premier of Coalition Government, 1945-47; Minister of Public Administration, 1947—. Pres. of Executive, Polish Socialist Party; Member of Politburo, 1948—. Awarded decoration of "Grunwald," 1st class. Address: Prezydium Rady Ministrów, Wilenska 2, Warsaw, Poland.

OSORIO NAVARRETE, JOSÉ LUIS, Chilean Deputy; born Sept. 21, 1896, Angol, Chile; son of José L. Osorio and Dorila Navarrete; educated at the Liceo Angol; Internado Nacional of Santiago; Univ. of Chile. Began as attorney, 1918; Municipal Secretary of Angol, 1918; Secretary of the Intendency in Malleco, 1921. National Deputy for Angol since 1932. Proprietor of the newspaper "El Malleco" of Angol, and Attorney for the Caja Nacional de Ahorros Angol, the Banco Español-Chile, and the Caja de Crédito Agrario de Angol. Address: Calle Imperial 463. Angol, Chile.

OSPINA VALLEJO, JOAQUÍN, Colombian Attorney and Author; born in Nevia Caldas, Colombia; son of Paulino Ospina and Encarnación Vallejo; studied in private schools; married Carmen Rosa Trujillo; seven children. Engaged in the practice of law in Salamina since 1899. Has been asociated with newspaper "La Lumo" in the teaching of Esperanto. Author: Código de Minas al Alcance de Todos (1912); Jurisprudencia del Tribunal de Caldas (1919); El Matrimonio (1919); Gramática de Esperanto (1919); Diccionario de Derecho Comercial (1921); Pena de Muerte (1921); Cronología (1921, 1924); Analectas Bíblicas (1925); Diccionario biográfico y bibliográfico de Colombia (vol. 1, 1927, vol. 2, 1937, vol. 3, 1939); El Pueblo Judío (1939); Bibliografía Universal (1941). Address: Carrera 3 No. 5-40, Salamina, Caldas, Colombia.

OSPINA PÉREZ, MARIANO, Colombian Statesman. Member of the Conservative Party. President of the Republic of Colombia, 1946—. Became first Conservative President of Colombia since 1930, due to split of Liberal Party voted by presentation of two candidates; received 461,473 votes. Address: Presidential Palace, Bogota, Colombia.

OSSA COVARRUBIAS, MANUEL, Chilean Senator; born July, 1878, Santiago, Chile. Secretary of the Direction General of Public Works, 1900; later became civil engineer of the company constructing the Maipú Canal. Member of Senate since 1937. Counsellor of the Mortgage Bank of Chile, Consolidated Chilean Insurance Co.; Vice-President of "Cristalenas" de Chile. Director, National Company of Cloth "El Salto" and the Agricultural S.A. "Viña La Rosa". Address: Ejército 102, Santiago, Chile.

OSSBAHR, Captain CARL PATRIC, Swedish Attorney-at-Law; born Dec. 8, 1893, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Richard and Cecilia (Reuterswärd) Ossbahr; educated at University of Stockholm, LL.B. 1919; married Elsa Zetterlund, Jan. 3, 1931; one child by a previous marriage—Märta Cécile. Lawyer, 1919; Assistant Judge, 1921-22; Secretary, Supreme Court of Judicature, 1922-39; practice at law since 1940. Director: Real Estate Corporation Drott, Stockholm; Bus and Tramway Corp. of Stockholm; Stockholm System Corp. (alcohol and wine sale); Public and International Law Institute, Inc. Member of Parliament, 1933-36; Member of City Council, Stockholm, 1927-46. (Executive Committee Member, 1930-33); Police Council since 1935; Vice-Chairman of Police Board since 1942; Member of Committee for Civil Defense since 1939; Member of Municipal Committee for matters concerning civil servants since 1942; Vice-Chairman, since 1947. Director of Officers Training Union since 1934; Member of Supervisory Board, same, since 1936; Chairman of Union of Conscript Officers, 1939-44 (Hon. Chairman since 1944); Director of Air-Raid Precaution Organization, Stockholm; Member of Board, Conservative Party, since 1937 (Executive Committee Member since 1929); Chairman of Junior Conservative Club, 1920-31. Decorated Knight, Royal Swedish Wasa Order; Knight Commander, Royal Italian Order of the Crown; awarded Royal Home Guard Gold Medal. Author: The Future Socialist State, 1928; The Swedish National Defense, 1936. Officer, Royal Swedish Army (Reserve), since 1927; Captain since 1932. Residence: Wittstocksgatan 12. Office: Regeringsgatan 18, Stockholm, Sweden.

OSSIANNILSSON, KARL GUSTAV, Swedish Author; born July 30, 1875, Lund, Sweden; son of Rasmus Nilsson and Elise (Timelin) Nilsson; educated at State Secondary School, Malmö, 1885-94; Univ. of Lund, fil.cand. 1897; married Naemi Arnman, 1905; five children. Teacher, 1897-1900: writer of novels, historical romances, short stories, plays, poems, etc., since 1900. Author: Collected Poems, 1920; Selected Poems, 1934; Barbarskogen (translated into Russian, German and Danish); Lille Benjamin (translated into Danish); Grevarna Andersson (translated into Danish); Smeden Bång (translated into Dutch); Lasse i Gatan (translated into Finnish). Plays: Tigerhuden; Thomas Thorild; Pappa; Ydrekungen (all performed in Sweden); Rättskaffens folk (translated into French); films, radio plays and two volumes of Memoirs, 1945 and 1946. Member, Sveriges Författareförening, Pen Club (Stockholm); Honorary Member, Svenska Flaggans Dag; Honorary Fellow, Royal Society of Literature (London). Recipient of Svenska Flaggans Dags Plaquette; Médaille du Roi Albert (Belgium) Prize of 10,000 Crowns from Society of the Nine, Stockholm; Stipendium of the Swedish State. During World War I served in Landstorm (Home Guard), 1914. Residence: Linghem, Sweden.

OSSORIO y GALLARDO, ANGEL, Spanish Writer; born June 20, 1873, Madrid, Spain; son of Manuel Ossorio Bernard and Manuela Gallardo de Ossorio; educated at Faculty of Law of Madrid, law degree 1894; married Rosalía Florit, Sept. 3, 1893; four children. Practicing attorney in Madrid, 1894-1934. Conservative Deputy, twenty years; served in Constituent "Cortes," Madrid. Civil Governor of Barcelona, 1907-09; Minister of Public Works, 1919. Served as President of the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation; Dean of Law College of Madrid; President, Ateneo de Madrid, and Juridical Advisory Commission (which prepared the plan for the Constitution). Served as Ambassador to Brussels, Paris and Buenos Aires. Author: El Alma de la Toga; El Contrato de Opción; El Sedimiento de la lucha; Cartas a una Muchacha sobre temas de Derecho Civil; Cartas a una señora sobre temas de Derecho Político; El Seguro de vida y las normas ordinarias de Derecho Civil; La Justicia Poder; Agua Pasada; Los Orígenes Próximos de la España Actual; La Reforma del Código Civil Argentino; La España de mi Vida; Rivadavia visto por un español; La Guerra de España y los Católicos; El Mundo que yo deseo; Vida y sacrificio de Companys; El pensamiento vivo del P. Vitoria; Anteproyecto del Código civil boliviano; La Gracia; Los fundamentos de la democracia cristiana; Nociones de Derecho político; Nociones de Derecho internacional privado, etc. Address: Rio Bamba No. 1175, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

OSSOVSKII, Prof. A. V., Soviet Academician. Corresponding Member of the Branch of History and Philosophy of the U.S.S.R. Author of many scientific publications. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OSSWALD, Mrs. MARIA de CASTRO HENRIQUES, Portuguese Linguist; born Dec. 31, 1893, Porto, Portugal; daughter of António Augusto Henriques and Margarida de Castro Guimarãis; educated privately; married Ernst Osswald, Apr. 8, 1922; two sons. Teacher of literature in colleges; published first book, "Enquanto a avo conta," 1933; translated about forty books from German, English and French, including Stefan Zweig and Goethe, Selma Lagerlöf, E.T.A. Hoffmann, Tieck, Walter von Molo, Kennicott, Blanchod, etc.; lecturer on literary subjects and education. Contributor to many newspapers and magazines. Fellow, Inst. of Linguists, London. Author: Enquanto a avo conta, 1933; Ronde dos meses, Vida e Morte de S. João de Britto, 1934; Milagres de Nossa Terra, 1935; Entre o Céu a Terra, 1936; Livro de Horas de Mae, 1937; Colunas Truncadas, 1938; Mil e um Dias, 1939; Margarida, 1940; Clara Berg, 1942; O fio de Ciro, 1945. Address: Rua D. João IV, Porto, Portugal.

OSTBY, Captain CHRISTIAN AUGUST, Norwegian Naval Officer; born Jan. 29, 1900, Horten, Norway; educated at Royal Norwegian Naval Academy, grad. 1924; Royal Norwegian Flying School, Pilot's license; Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1934-36, B.S. in Aeronautical Eng. Lieut. in Royal Norwegian Navy, 1924; advanced through grades to Captain, 1944. Chief Test Pilot for Norwegian Navy, 1930-40; Air Attaché in Washington, D. C., 1941-46; Naval Attaché in Washington, D. C., 1940—. Technical Adviser to Norwegian Delegation to International Conf. on Civil Aviation in Chicago, 1944; Chairman, Norwegian Delegation to International Air Conference, Havana, 1945; Delegate to PICAO Conf., Montreal, 1946. Adviser, Norwegian Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, 1946. Address: Royal Norwegian Embassy, Washington, D. C.

OSTE, ALFRED FREDRIK ANTON, Foreign Editor, The Svenska Dagbladet, Stockholm, Sweden; born Mar. 31, 1889, Brunflo, Sweden; son of Anders Jonsson and Johanna Jonsson; educated at Ostersunds College, 1907; married Giggi Oste, Aug. 1, 1924; three children. Journalist in Ostersund, 1907; reporter on various country papers, 1907-18; Managing Editor, Goteborgs-Posten, 1918; Reporter, Svenska Dagbladet, Stockholm, 1923; later Managing Editor; Foreign Editor, since 1935. Member, Publicist Club of Sweden. Received stipends from journalistic organizations, from State and Swedish-American Foundation for studying in Germany, England, France and U. S. Author: U.S.A.'s Foreign Policy, 1941 (translated into Danish); Biography of Franklin Roosevelt, 1941 (translated into Finnish, Norwegian and Danish). Address: Svenska Dagbladet, Stockholm, Sweden.

OSTELIUS, HANS, Swedish Author; born June 15, 1904, Ystad, Sweden; son of Orvar Osterman; educated at Univs. of Lund, Heidelberg, Paris (Sorbonne) and Salamanca (Spain); married Eva Knoes, March 20, 1931; two children. London Representative of Swedish American Line and Swedish Air Lines, 1934-40; Public Relations Officer, Royal Swedish Air Force, Stockholm, since 1940. Editor-in-Chief, Vi Flygare (Swedish Aviation Periodical). Author: Adventures of Pludrik, 1930; Pludrik on the High Sea, 1931; Swindlers, 1932; Aviation and War, 1942; Aviation Wins, 1943; The Air Age, 1945; Birds of the Air (3 vols.), 1944, 1945, 1946. Member, Swedish Aviation Writers Club. Residence: Lidingö, I, Stockholm, Sweden. Office: Royal Swedish Air Force, Stockholm, Sweden.

ÖSTERDAHL, Capt. GEORG NAPOLEON, Swedish Company Director; born Sept. 1, 1890, Örebro, Sweden; son of Alfred and Augusta (Pettersson) Österdahl; student examination 1909, stud. at Mercantile Acad. in Stockholm; Officer's certificate, 1912; Captain in Navy, 1923. Partner, Clarholm & Bergman, 1925; Managing Director since 1931. Iwar Janson Kolonialvaru AB, 1932; Bilägarnes Verkstads AB, 1921; Nya Handels AB Carl Arfvidson, 1942; Pres.: Direction of Göteborgs Lyriska Teater; AB Kemifa; Member of Direction of S:t Jörgens Hospital; Pres., Internatl. Federation of Importers and Wholesale Grocers' Assns. Pres.: Direction: AB Folkbilar; Sveriges Grossistförbund, 1941-45; Göteborgs Grossistförbund; Göteborgs Kolonialimportörers Förening. Vice-Pres. of Direction, Sveriges Kolonialvaru - Engrossisters Riksförbund. Member, Direction: Svenska Mässan; Göteborgs Mjölförening; Västra Sveriges Sockerengrosförening. Residence: Påskbergsgatan 8. Office: Burggrevegatan 13, Gothenburg, Sweden.

ÖSTERGAARD, JOHAN ENGELHARD, Danish Banker; born Dec. 1, 1875, Horsens, Denmark; son of L. O. and Engeline (Jacobsen) Östergaard; educated at Horsens Learned School and commercial school; married Franziska Emilie Gaede, Sept. 14, 1904; one daughter. Managing Director, A/S Lollands Handels-Og Landbrugsbank, since 1907; Member, Board of Directors, Danish Provincial Bankers Pension Fund, 1912; Vice-Pres., since 1929. Member, Board of Directors, Danish Provincial Bankers Assn. (Pres., 1926-28); Member, Board of Directors, Danish Provincial Bank Managers Relief Fund, since 1935. Rept., Commercial Scientific Acad. of Copenhagen, 1926. Participated in editing of copies for Documentary Credits, 1st, 2nd and 3rd Editions, for Danish Provincial Bankers Assn. Address: Nakskov, Denmark.

ÖSTERGREN, Dr. (KARL) OLOF, Swedish Educator; born Feb. 17, 1874, Gävle, Sweden; son of Carl Ludvig and Maria Sofia (Hedén) Östergren; educated at Uppsala Univ., fil. kand. 1898, fil. lic. 1903, Ph.D. 1905. Docent, Swedish Language, Univ. of Uppsala, 1905; Prof. since 1936. Member: Humanistiska Vetenskapssamfundet, Uppsala. Author: Stilistiska studier i Törneros språk, 1905; Lärdhet och lärarbildning, 1906; Våra vanligaste främmande ord, 24th ed., 1946; Stilistisk språkvetenskap, 1908; Obestämd s-form efter preposition, 1917; Nusvensk ordbok (Dictionary on Modern Swedish), 1915—. Address: Österplan 13, Uppsala, Sweden.

ÖSTERHOLM, JOHN (EMIL), Finnish-Swedish Politician; born Oct. 5, 1882, Ekenäs, Finland; son of Emil and Alexandra (Sällström) Österholm; studied at Helsingfors Univ., 1902-05; adult education in Sweden and Denmark, Germany, Austria, Italy (Government scholarship for journalists); married Helmi Sivén, July 25, 1922. Member of Finnish Parliament, since 1919; Leader of Swedish Party (Parliament) since 1945; Member of General Assembly for Swedish-speaking population and Member of its Executive Com., 1941-46; Member of Finnish Delegation, Paris Conf., 1946. Political Editor, Västra Nyland (newspaper), since 1922. Trustee, Government Monopoly for production and sale of Liquors since 1945. Councillor of Education; Principal, Swedish Workers' Inst., Helsinki. Council Member, Swedish Party, since 1923. Decorated: Commander, Finnish Lion Order; Swedish North Star Order. Residence: Fredsgatam I, Helsinki, Finland.

OSTERHOUT, Dr. WINTHROP JOHN VANLEUVEN, American Scientist; born August 2, 1871, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Vanleuven and Annie Loranthe (Beman) Osterhout; educated at Brown University, A.B. 1893, A.M. 1894, hon. D.Sc. 1926; University of California, Ph.D. 1899; Harvard University, D.Sc. (hon.) 1925. Instructor, Botany, Brown University, 1893-95, Woods Hole, Mass., 1894-95. Instructor, Botany, University of California, 1896-1901; Asst. Professor, 1901-08; Associate Professor, 1908-09; Asst. Professor, Botany, Harvard University, 1909-13; Professor, 1913-25. Member, The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, 1925-39; Emeritus Member, since 1939. Member: National Academy of Science; American Philosophical Society; American Physiological Society; Botanical Society of America; Botanical Society of Edinburgh; Kungl. Fysiografiska Sallskapet, Lund; American Academy of Arts and Sciences, etc. Author: Experiments With Plants, 1905; Proeven met Planten (translated by S.J. Geerts-Ronner), 1909; Agriculture for Schools of Pacific Slope (with E. W. Hilgard), 1910; Injury, Recovery and Death, in Relation to Conductivity and Permeability, 1922; Nature of Life, 1924; Some Fundamental Problems of Cellular Physiology, 1927. Address: The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, 66th St. and York Ave., New York, N. Y.

OSTERLING, Dr. ANDERS JOHAN, Swedish Poet and Critic; born April 13, 1884, Helsingborg, Sweden; son of Hans and Ingeborg (Eneberg) Osterling; educated at the University of Lund, fil.kand. 1909, fil.lic. 1914, Hon.Ph.D. 1927; married Greta Sjöberg. Literary Critic, Goeteborg's Handelstidning, 1907-18; Svenska Dagbladet, 1919-35; Stockholm Tidningen since 1936. Librarian, University Library of Lund, 1909-19; Editor, Post o Inrikes Tidningar, 1936; Permanent Secretary, Swedish Academy in Stockholm, since 1941. Member: Nobel Committee; Honorary Member, Swedish Pen Club (President, 1922-36); Honorary Member, The Critics Circle, London. Author: Preludier, 1904; Arets visor, 1907; Bäckahästen, 1909; Facklor i stormen, 1913; Idyllern as bok, 1917; Dagens gärning I-III, 1921, 1926, 1931; Tonen fran havet, 1933; Livets värde, 1940. Address: Svenska Akademien, Borshuset, Stockholm, Sweden.

OSTERMAN, JUSTUS WILHELM, Swedish Rubber Manufacturer; born July 2, 1880, Karlskrona, Sweden; son of Justus Christoffer and Fredricka (Borg) Osterman; educated at Naval School; married Siri Mathilda Borg, Oct. 5, 1909; two children. Captain, Swedish Navy, 1902-20; Sales Manager, A/B Hans Osterman, 1920-26; Managing Director, Gummi A/B Fisk, 1926-45; Managing Dir., Skandinaviska Gummi A/B since 1938; Viskafors Gummi A/B since 1945 (Dir. of both companies). Member of Bd., Rubber Assn. Address: Skandinaviska Gummi A/B, Viskafors, Sweden.

OSTRIA GUTIÉRREZ, ALBERTO, Bolivian Diplomat; born in Sucre, Bolivia, Feb. 6, 1897; son of Eulogio Ostria and María Gutiérrez de Ostria; educated at Colegio de los Jesuitas, Sucre; University of St. Francis Xavier, Sucre; Free Faculty of Law, Rio de Janeiro; married Elena Pérou; four children. Professor of International Law, University of La Paz, 1921. Appointed Secretary, Bolivian Legation in Argentina and later served as Secretary in Brazil and Spain. National Deputy, 1927. Appointed Minister Plenipotentiary to Peru, 1928; later Minister to Brazil for three years. Formerly Director of "El Diario" of La Paz and Editor of various other Bolivian newspapers. Appointed Foreign Minister of Bolivia by President Germán Busch, May, 1939; later appointed Ambassador to Chile. Headed the Bolivian Delegation to the Pan-American Conference, Sept. 1939. Author: El estado de sitio; El traje de Arlequín; Rosario de leyendas; La casa de la abuela; La doctrina del no reconocimiento de la conquista en América; Una revolución tras los Andes; Una obra y un destino. Address: Bolivian Embassy, Santiago, Chile.

OSTROROG, Count, (STANISLAS), French Minister to Ireland; born May 20, 1897, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Count Léon and Jeanne (Lorando) Ostrorog; educated at Ecole Bossuet, Paris; School of Economics; Univ. of Paris. Secy., French Legation, Pekin, 1927-30; French Embassy, Ankara, 1930-33; with Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris, 1933-36; French Delegate in Syria, 1936-38; First Secy., French Embassy in Moscow, 1939-40; lived in France, 1941-43; went to Algiers; Second French Delegate in Syria and Lebanon, 1943-46; Member of French Delegation to First Session of United Nations Conf., London, 1946; New York, 1946; French Minister to Ireland, since Jan. 1947. Member, French Delegation to Second Session of United Nations Conf., New York, 1947. Decorated Officer, Legion of Honor. Residence: French Legation, 53 Ailesbury Road, Dublin, Ireland.

OSTROVITYANOV, Prof. KONSTANTIN V., Soviet Economist. Now recognized as the top-ranking economist in the Soviet Union. Appointed Director of the Combined Institute of World Economics and World Politics and the Institute of Economics (The Economic Institute), of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, Oct. 7, 1947 —. Member, Branch of Economics and Law, Acad. of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Address: The Economic Institute, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

OSTROWSKI, ADAM, Polish Diplomat; born Sept. 17, 1911, Lwów, Poland; son of Franciszek and Izabella (Aczkiewicz) Ostrowski; educated at Univ. of Lwow, Law Faculty; studied also diplomacy; married Alina Gruszkiewicz, Oct. 4, 1934; two children. Asst., Lwow Univ., 1934-39; active in Polish Underground Movement, 1939-44; Under-Secretary of State, Ministry of Public Administration, 1944-45; Governor of Cracow, 1945; Minister to Sweden since Sept. 1945. Member, Polish Socialist Party. Decorated with Polonia Restituta 3rd class. Address: Kaplavägen 35, Stockholm, Sweden.

OSTROWSKI, Dr. ALEXANDER MARKOVITCH, Swiss Mathematician; born September 25, 1893, Kiev, Russia; son of Markus and Vera (Rashewski) Ostrowski; educated at Commercial School at Kiev; Univ. of Marburg, 1912-14; Univ. of Göttingen, Ph.D. 1920. Personal Asst. to Felix Klein, collaborating in preparation of edition of Klein's collected papers. Asst. to Professor Hecke, Hamburg, 1922; Rockefeller Research Fellow in Cambridge and Oxford; Privatdocent in Göttingen; Prof. of Mathematics at Univ. of Basle 1927 and Director of Mathematical Seminary, 1927 —. Member: Hamburger Mathematische Gesellschaft; Swiss Mathematical Soc.; Naturforschende Gesellschaft of Basle; Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Amer. Mathematical Assn.; Gesellschaft für angewandte Mathematik; Historisch-Antiquarische Gesellschaft at Basle; Berliner Mathematische Gesellschaft. Author: Studien über den Schottkyschen Satz, 1932; Vorlesungen über die Infinitesmalrechnung, 1946. Address: Mathematical Seminary, University of Basle, 21 Rheinsprung, Basle, Switzerland.

OSTROWSKY, ABBO, Painter and Etcher; born Oct. 23, 1889, Elizavetgrad, Russia; son of Frank and Rebecca (Boguslavsky) Ostrowsky; educated at Odessa Art School, Kostandi; National Academy of Design under Maynard and Turner. Paintings and etchings exhibited at Victoria and Albert Museum, London; Baltimore Museum of Art; Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris; California Print Makers; Chicago Art Institute; Los Angeles Art Assn.; Museum of Western Art, Moscow; National Academy of Design; National Arts Club; Oslow Museum, Sweden, etc. Held one-man shows at Anderson Galleries, 1924; U. S. National Museum and Smithsonian Institute, 1931; Keppel Galleries, 1937. Represented in permanent collections of Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.; New York Public Library; Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris; Museum of Western Art, Moscow; Gregg Collection, Lincoln (Nebr.) University; American Federation of Labor, Washington, D. C.; Tel Aviv Museum, Palestine; Metropolitan Museum of Art. Founded Educational Alliance Art School, 1914; Director since then. Received Kate W. Arms Award, Society of American Etchers, 1937. Residence: 95-28 67th Ave., Forest Hills, L. I., N. Y. Office: 197 E. Broadway, New York 2, New York.

OSTUZHEV, ALEXANDER, Soviet Actor; born 1874. Joined Moscow Maly Theatre in 1893; member of theatrical company for more than fifty years. Played various roles; most successful part has been portrayal of Othello. Awarded: title of People's Artist of the U.S.S.R.; Stalin Prize. Address: All Union of Soviet Artists, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

O'SULLIVAN, DONAL, Irish Political Leader; born December 24, 1893, Liverpool, England; son of James and Mary (Hudson) O'Sullivan; educated at St. Francis Xavier's College; St. Ignatius College; Univ. of London, King's College; married Jeannie Coyle, Aug. 5, 1924. First Division Civil Servant, Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, 1913; Asst. Principal of Local Government Board for Ireland and Chief Secretary's Office, Dublin Castle, 1920-21; in charge of new Dept. of Home Affairs for Irish Provisional Government, 1922. Appointed Assistant Clerk, Senate, Irish Free State, 1923; Clerk of the Senate, 1925-36. Member of the Senate, 1943. Vice-Pres. of Irish Institute of International Affairs; Member of Royal Institute of International Affairs. Called to the Irish Bar, 1922. Author: The Hunting Collection of Irish Folk Music and Songs (Parts I-VI), 1927-39; The Irish Free State and Its Senate, 1940. Residence: Cairn Hill, Foxrock, Dublin, Ireland.

O'SULLIVAN, Dr. JOHN MARCUS, Irish Educator, Statesman; born Feb. 18, 1881, Killarney, Ireland; son of Michael and Mary (O'Sullivan) O'Sullivan; educated at St. Brendan's, Killarney, Clongowes Wood, Univ. College, Dublin; Royal Univ. of Ireland, B.A. 1902, M.A. 1903 and Fellow in Philosophy, 1906; Univ. of Heidelberg, Ph.D. 1907; Univ. of Bonn; married Mary Agnes Crotty, July 26, 1910; two daughters and two sons. Prof. of History, Natl. Univ. of Ireland Univ. College, Dublin, since 1910. Member of Dail, 1923-43. Parliamentary Secy. to the Minister for Finance, 1924-26; Minister for Education, 1926-32. Represented Irish Free State at League of Nations Assembly, 1924, 1928, 1929 and 1930. Rapporteur on Public Health at League of Nations, 1928. Elected Pres., Fifth Commn., 1929. Member, governing body of Univ. College, Dublin, and of Senate of Natl. Univ. of Ireland. Author of numerous publications on philosophical, historical and sociological subjects. Residence: Aberfoyle, Orwell Rd. Office: University College, Dublin, Ireland.

O'SULLIVAN, Most Rev. JOSEPH ANTHONY, Catholic Archbishop of Kingston, Ontario; born Nov. 29, 1886, Hamilton, Ont.; son of Joseph and Catherine (Fogarty) O'Sullivan; educated at St. Jerome's College, Kitchener, Ont., Classics and Philosophy, 1908; Grand Seminary, Montreal (Theology), Licentiate in Canon Law, 1911. Ordained Priest, 1911. Appointed Rector of Cathedral and Chancellor of Diocese of Hamilton, 1921; named Domestic Prelate to His Holiness Pope Pius XI, 1925. President, St. Augustine Seminary, Toronto, 1926-31. Consecrated Bishop of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, May 7, 1931; enthroned at Charlottetown, May 18, 1931; Archbishop of Kingston, Ont., Feb. 26, 1944; enthroned April 25, 1944. LL.D., Ottawa Univ., 1945. Residence: 279 Johnson St., Kingston, Ont., Canada.

O'SULLIVAN, MAURICE, Australian Political Leader; born Oct. 5, 1892, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia; son of Thomas and Sarah (Fitzgerald) O'Sullivan; educated at primary schools; married Margaret Ryan, Aug. 29, 1917; one son. Railway apprentice with the N. S. W. Government Railways, 1908-13; in the hotel business, 1913-29. Elected Member of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales for Woollahra, 1927; district was altered to Paddington, 1931 and was returned for that district, serving since. Secretary, Parliamentary Labour Party during the Labour Government of 1930; served for nine years, as Opposition Whip. Minister for Transport since 1941. Residence: 50 Gordon St., Paddington, N.S.W. Office: A.P.A. Building, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

O'SULLIVAN, Hon. PATRICK BRETT, American Jurist; born Aug. 11, 1887, Derby, Conn.; son of Thomas J. and Margaret (Brett) O'Sullivan; educated at Yale College, B.A. 1908; Yale Law School, LL.B. 1913; married Marguerite Lawton, June 19, 1913; four children. Practice of law since 1913; Judge of Superior Court of Connecticut, since 1931. Visiting Lecturer in Law, Yale Law School, 1946. Secy., Democratic State Com., 1913-16; Chairman, 1930. Member: Connecticut State Senate 1917; 68th Congress, 1923-25. Contributor to legal periodicals. Address: County Court House, New Haven, Conn.

O'SULLIVAN, RICHARD, K.C., British Barrister; born Feb. 18, 1888, Cork, Ireland; son of Richard Dominic and Mary Katherine (Fleming) O'Sullivan; educated at London Univ.; married Dorothea Close Borton, 1942. Barrister-at-Law, 1914. King's Counsel, 1934; Recorder of Derby, 1938. Member, General Council of Bar, since 1939; Chairman, Home Office Advisory Com., 1941-45; Chairman, Sword of the Spirit, 1941-44; Hon. Secy., Thomas More Soc., since 1928. Hon. Lecturer in Law, Univ. College, London, 1946. Editor, Gatley on Libel & Slander, 3rd ed. 1938. Address: 4 Paper Bldgs., Temple, London, E.C. 4, England.

O'SULLIVAN, SÉUMAS (JAMES SULLIVAN STARKEY), Irish Author; born 1879, Dublin, Ireland; son of William and Martha (Sullivan) Starkey; educated at Wesley College, Dublin; Litt.D., T.C.D.; married Estella Frances Solomons, 1926. Author: The Twilight People, 1905; Verses Sacred and Profane, 1908; The Earth Lover, 1909; Mud and Purple, 1917; The Rosses, 1918; Common Adventures, 1926; The Lamplighter, 1929; Collected Poems, 1940; Essays and Recollections, 1944. Editor, The Dublin Magazine, since 1923. Vice-Pres., Irish Acad. of Letters. Member: Bibliographical Society, England; Bibliographical Society, Ireland. Residence: 2 Morehampton Rd. Office: 2 Crow St., Dublin, Ireland.

OSUNA, ANDRES, Mexican Educator; born June 27, 1872, Mier, Tamaulipas, Mexico; son of Felix Osuna and Matilde Hinojosa; educated at Laurens Inst., Monterrey, Mexico; State Normal School, Monterrey (Teachers Diploma, 1892); State Normal School, Bridgewater, Mass. (Teachers Diploma, 1898); Vanderbilt Univ., B.Sc. 1913, M.A.; married Lugarda Trevino (dec., 1910); (2nd) Rebecca Tejeda; three children. Began career as a teacher at Laurens Inst., 1890. Taught (primary grades) at State Normal School, Saltillo, Mexico, 1894; Principal of School, 1898-1909, Professor of Psychology, Pedagogics and School Methods, 1895-1909. General Superintendent of Public Schools, State of Coahuila, 1899-1909; Professor of Spanish, Vanderbilt University, 1910-15. at Peabody College, 1912-15. General Superintendent, Public Schools, Mexico City, 1915-18, and of Public Schools, State of Nuevo Leon, 1927-32. Now retired. Chairman, Committee of University Grounds. Former Governor, State of Tamaulipas, 1918-19. Member, Civic Committee, City Transit, Monterrey (Chairman), since 1941. Member of Public Hospital and Benevolence Board since 1942. Received a Gold Medal from Nuevo Leon; awarded Hon. LL.D. degree, University of Chattanooga, Tenn.; three medals from Government of Coahuila and State Normal School of Coahuila. Author: Two Spanish Readers, 1902; Elementary Psychology, 1912; Alcoholismus, 1923; translated into Spanish "Theory of Thought and Knowledge" by Bowne; "Elementary Ethics" by Muirhead; "Manual of Christian Doctrine" by Banks; "Life of John Wesley" by Lelievre and several others; author "Por la Escuela y por la Patria," 1943. Residence: Calles Roma y Lisboa. Office: Roma 602, Colonia Mirador, Monterrey, N.E., Mexico.

OSUSKY, Dr. STEFAN, Czech Diplomat; born Mar. 31, 1889, Brezova, Czechoslovakia; son of Stefan and Judita (Ceray) Ouskay; educated at Bratislava Lyceum; Springfield College; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D., J.D.; married Pavla Vachkova, Aug. 2, 1919; three children. Practiced law in Chicago, 1915. Diplomatic representative of Czechoslovakia to London, 1918; Secretary of the General Peace Delegation, 1919; Delegate to Reparations Commission, 1920-21; Czechoslovak Minister to France, 1921-40; Delegate to the Assembly of League of Nations, 1920-36; Chairman, Supervisory Commission of the League of Nations, until 1937. Docent of International Law, Prague University, and Member, Czechoslovakia National Committee, 1939-40; Minister of State, Czechoslovakia, 1940-42. Lectured at Oxford University, 1942. Now Minister to London. Awarded Doctor honoris causa, University of Dijon, France, 1936; awarded Czechoslovak Karlik Prize for exceptional services to the Czechoslovak National Economy, 1934; also created Grand Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, etc. Address: 26 Lowndes St., London, S.W.1, England.

OSWALD, Dr. WILLIAM, Swiss Professor of Law; born Mar. 3, 1900, Bünzen, Argovie, Switzerland; son of William and Marie (Ammann) Oswald; educated at Classical Gymnasium, Einsiedeln, 1921; Univs. of Rome, Italy (Lic. phil. 1923), Zurich, Switzerland, and Fribourg, Switzerland (LL.D. 1927); married Geneviève Pascal, Mar. 26, 1934; one son. Correspondent, Swiss Federal Court, 1927; became Privatdocent, Univ. of Fribourg, 1932; Asst. Prof., 1936; Prof. of Philosophy of Law, Swiss General and Public Law, Administrative and Fiscal Law, since 1941. Dean of Faculty of Law, 1942-43; Rector, Camp Universitaire Polonais since 1944. Delegate to Federal Council for New Agricultural Legislation of Switzerland. Member: Swiss Soc. of Jurists; Fribourg Soc. of Jurists; Argovien Soc. of Jurists; Berne Soc. of Jurists; Assn. of Swiss Press. Author: Das Dilemma des säkularisierten Staates, 1944; Die Gewaltentrenning im Schweizerischen Staatsrecht, 1943; Ideologie und Kirklichkeit in der demokratischen Staatstheorie, 1943; Der Rechtsschutz in Steuersachen nach aargauischem Recht, 1932; Die Steuerveranlagung, eine verwaltungsrechtliche Studie zum schweizerischen Steuerrecht, 1932. Address: 6 Avenue du Moléson, Fribourg, Switzerland.

OTERO VERTIZ, GUSTAVO ADOLFO, Bolivian Diplomat; born in La Paz, Bolivia; son of Avelino Otero and Rosa Vertiz Ascarrunz de O.; educated at Colegio Nacional Ayacucho of La Paz, Bachelor of Science, 1941; married Hortensia Arguedas. Reporter for El Comercio de Bolivia, 1914; on El Diario, 1915; on El Figaro, 1916. Secretary to President Gutiérrez Guerra, 1916-18. Secretary and Section Chief of Directorate of Statistics and Geographical Studies, 1919. Editor of El Diario and Director of La Ilustración, 1920-23. He spent succeeding three years in exile in Chile and Peru, 1924-27. Founded the newspaper, "Nueva Era," of which he was Director until 1935. Consul of Bolivia in Spain, 1936; in Italy, 1937. Founded the Revista de Bolivia, 1937. Candidate for Rector of the University of La Paz, 1939; Director, Biblioteca Boliviana, Instituto de Bellas Artes and Biblioteca Universitaria of the University of La Paz. Senator for the Department of La Paz, 1940; Minister of Education and Fine Arts, Bolivia, 1940-41. Defeated in elections for National Deputy, 1942. Appointed Minister to Colombia, 1943. Founded the Nationalist Party, 1926. Address: Cite Colon No. 1, La Paz, Bolivia.

OTERO NAVASCUÉS, Prof. JOSÉ MARIA, Spanish Physicist; born March 16, 1907, Madrid, Spain; son of S. Otero, Marquis of Hermosilla and M. Navascués; educated at Saint Michel College, Madrid; Naval Ordnance Academy, Cadiz (Engineer, 1929); Univ. of Madrid (Research Assoc. in Physics, 1928-29); Federal Inst. of Technology, Zurich, 1929-30; Technical Univ., Berlin, 1930-32; married Maria Theresa Domínguez, Aug. 5, 1939; four children. Naval Inspector, Reinose Steel Works, and Trusia National Ordnance Factory, 1928; Director, Naval Optical Research Laboratory, 1934; Prof., Inst. of Advanced Studies and Technical Research, Madrid, 1935; Chief, Optical Division, National Physical Inst., 1940; Director, Optical Research Inst., 1946; Supt., Navy Research Laboratory, since 1945. Trustee: Royal Physical Soc.; Torres Quevedo Inst. for Instrument Research. Member: Royal Acad. of Sciences, Spain; Real Sociedad Española de Física y Química, etc. Author: Memoirs on Physical Metallurgy, 1928-29; many research papers on physiological, physical and geometrical optics. Residence: Alfonso XII, 32, Madrid. Office: Serrano 119, Madrid, Spain.

OTERO MASDEU, LISANDRO, Cuban Educator; born July 10, 1893, Batabanó, Havana, Cuba; son of Ramón Otero Pérez and Carmen Masdeu Q. de O.; educated at Instituto de Segunda Enseñanza, Universidad de la Habana, and Escuela Professional de Periodismo; married Carmen González Radillo, July 27, 1925; two children. Began career, 1910, as a typographer and teacher in public schools; has been school director, technical scholastic inspector, administrative inspector of Ministry of Education, newspaper reporter, editor of various papers and magazines, plant foreman (newspaper), and proprietor of newspapers. President, Asociación de Reporters de la Habaña (of the Círculo Nacional de Periodistas), President of the Asociación Nacional de Maestros Públicos de Cuba. Now Dean of the Colegio Nacional de Periodistas de la República de Cuba; co-proprietor of printing firm, "Otero Hnos." Administrator of Sociedad Editoria "Las Baleares," S.A.; Administrator of the paper, "La Sonrisa"; Director of the Bulletin of the Asociación de Reporters. Commander and Grand Officer, Red Cross of Cuba (honorary distinction); has received Medal of the Comité Inter-americano Pro Faro de Colón, diploma of the Casa del Niño, etc. Active in many organizations. Author: Codigo Escolar; Eduardo Pacciolo, primer mártir de la imprenta y el Periodismo; also numerous pamphlets and papers relating to education and journalism. Address: Agramonte No. 253, Havana, Cuba.

OTERO SILVA, MIGUEL, Venezuelan Journalist; born Oct. 26, 1908, Barcelona, Venezuela; son of Enrique Otero Vizcarrondo and Mercedes Silva Pérez; received Bachelor's degree. Began journalistic career, 1928. One of the leaders of movement against Gómez, 1928; exiled. Participated in attack on Curacao and in military invasion in Venezuela against Gómez, 1929; politically persecuted by Gómez party, 1929-35, and was on staffs of newspapers in Spain, France, Mexico, Cuba, Colombia and Trinidad. Formerly Editor-in-Chief of the political publication, "El Popular", Caracas. Director, "El Morrocoy Azul" (a humorous weekly), which he founded, 1941; also Editor-in-Chief, "El Nacional" (a daily), since 1943. Author: Agua y Cauce (a book of poetry published in Mexico), 1937; Fiebre (a novel published in Caracas, 1939; 2nd ed. published in Mexico, 1942); 25 Poems (published in Caracas), 1942. Address: Apartado 209, Caracas, Venezuela.

OTEY, E. G., American Banker; born Feb. 5, 1895, Pulaski, Va.; son of Leonard Clyde and Flora A. (Bishop) Otey; graduated high school and specialized in accounting; married Mary T. Sizer, Sept. 28, 1920; one daughter. Cashier, Peoples Milling Co., 1914-16; Teller, Asst. Cashier, then Co., 1914-16; Teller, Asst. Cashier, then Cashier of Pulaski National Bank, 1917-25; Cashier and Director, Bluefield National Bank, 1926-28; Assistant National Bank Examiner at Washington, D. C., 1928-29; Cashier, Merchants National Bank & Trust Co., 1929-30; Executive Vice-President and Director, McDowell County National Bank, 1930-33; Executive Vice-President, First National Bank of Bluefield, W. Va., 1933-35; President and Director since 1935. Director, Member of Executive Committee and Past President, West Virginia Chamber of Commerce; Director, Bluefield Chamber of Commerce. Ex-President, West Virginia Bankers Assn.; Member of Board of Governors, West Virginia University. Director: Southern States Industrial Council; Pocahontas Fuel Co., Inc.; National Electric Coil Co.; Tri-City Traction Co. Member of Sanitary Board, City of Bluefield, W. Va. Address: Box 247, Bluefield, W. Va.

OTHMER, Dr. DONALD FREDERICK, American Consulting Chemical Engineer; born May 11, 1904, Omaha, Nebr.; son of Frederick George and Fredericka Darling (Snyder) Othmer; educated at Armour Inst. (1921-23); Univ. of Nebraska (1923-24, B.Sc. in Ch.Eng.); Univ. of Michigan (1925-27, M.Sc. in Ch.Eng and Ph.D.). Development Engineer, Eastman Kodak Co, and Tenn. Eastman Corp., 1927-31; Instructor, Polytechnic Inst. of Brooklyn, 1932-33, Prof. of Chemical Engineering, since 1933, and Head of Dept. since 1937. Consulting Chemical Engineer since 1931. 1st Lieut., Reserve Officers, 1931-36, and during World War II served as Consultant to Chemical Warfare Service, U. S. Army, and to the War Production Board. Designed plants and processes for many corporations in numerous locations in U. S. and foreign countries. Patentee of fifty inventions, mainly of chemical processes, equipment and manufacturing methods; co-inventor of the Smith-Othmer Wallboard, made from wood and other cellulosic wastes. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Inst. of Chemists. Member: Amer. Inst. of Chemical Engineers (Chmn., N. Y. Section, 1944); Amer. Chemical Soc. (Member of Council, 1945—); Amer. Soc. for Engineering Education; Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Amer. Section, Soc. of Chemical Industry; Sigma Xi, etc. Author of more than 100 articles in technical journals; co-editor, Encyclopedia of Chemical Technology. Residences: Coudersport, Pa., and 140 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, N. Y. Office: 99 Livingston St., Brooklyn 2, N. Y.

OTIS, JOSEPH EDWARD, American Banker; born Mar. 5, 1867, Chicago, Ill.; son of Joseph Edward and Ellen Maria (Taylor) Otis; educated at Phillips Acad., 1888; Sheffield Scientific School (Yale), 1890; LL.D. Knox College, 1930; married Emily Porter Webster, Oct. 5, 1891; three children. Began career in 1891 as manufacturer and private banker. Pres., Western Trust & Savings Bank, 1901-11; Vice-Pres., Central Trust Co. of Illinois, 1917-22. President, 1922-29, Chairman of Bd., 1929-31. Chairman of Board, Industrial Natl.

Bank of Chicago, since 1921. Director: Pure Oil Co., Chicago Daily News; Director, retired, of Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Ry. Co. President, Civic Federation of Chicago, 1913-19; Treasurer, Police Pension Board, City of Chicago, 1908-15. Life Member: Geographic Soc. of Chicago; Chicago Zoological Soc.; Chicago Museum of Natural History; Chicago Historical Soc.; Governing Life Member, Art Inst. of Chicago. Residence: 1415 Astor St. Office: 81 W. Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.

OTIS, JOSEPH EDWARD, JR., American Manufacturer; born Nov. 19, 1892, Chicago, Ill. son of J. E. and Emily Palmer (Webster) Otis; educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., 1906-12; Yale Univ., 1912-16; married Louise W. Meadowcraft, 1917; (died 1930); married Grace E. Quinlan, 1931; three children. Engineer, Union Carbide and Carbon Corp., 1916-21; with Belden Manufacturing Corp. (Chicago, Ill.), 1921-22. Organized Inland Metal Products Corp. (Chicago), 1922; headed company until 1923. General Manager, Alemite Corp. (division of Stewart-Warner Corp), 1923-33. President, Stewart-Warner Corp. (Chicago) 1933-39. President, Dodge Mfg. Corp. since 1939. Director: Dodge Mfg. Corp.; Central Republic Co.; United Specialties Co.; Outboard Marine & Mfg. Co. (Milwaukee, Wis.), and Aro Equipment Corp. (Bryan, Ohio). Residence: 1603 Devon Circle, So. Bend, Ind. Office: Union St., Mishawaka, Ind.

OTLEY, THOMAS GEORGE, South African Engineer; born in Sheffield, Yorks., England; son of William Sellars and Matilda (Thompson) Otley; educated at Sheffield Collegiate and Technical School (now Sheffield University). Engineering apprentice with Yates & Thom, Blackburn, Lancs., England; later with Vickers, Sheffield, engineering draftsman; with Brighton Corporation Electricity Works as engineer; practiced with a leading Consulting Engineer in London. Joined Victoria Falls and Transvaal Power Co., Ltd., as Chief Mechanical Engineer, 1911; General Manager since 1937. Chairman, Rand Mines Power Supply Co., Ltd. Ex-President, South African Institution of Engineers. Residence: 9 Jubilee Rd., Parktown. Office: Consolidated Buildings, Fox St., Johannesburg, Transvaal, South Africa.

O'TOOLE, Prof. EAMONN, Irish Educator; son of Terence and Mary (O'Driscoll) O'Toole; educated at Univ. College, Dublin, B.A. with honours, 1913, M.A. with honours, 1914. Principal, Leinster College of Irish, Dublin, 1915-29; Prof. of Irish, Univ. of Dublin, since 1929. Member: Irish Folklore Commn.; Royal Irish Acad. Author: Roinn agus Amhráin, 1923; Sgéalta Mhuintir Luinigh: Munterloney Folk-tales, 1933; Seanchus Ghleann Ghaibhle: Glangevlin Folk-lore, 1934. Address: 24 Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

OTTAVIANO, Dr. CARMELO, Italian Philosopher; born Jan. 18, 1906, Modica, Sicily, Italy; son of Evangelista and Concettina (Fronte) Ottaviano; educated at Univ. of Rome and Univ. of Milan, 1924-27 (Ph.D.). Privatdocent: in History of Medieval Philosophy, 1929, in History of General Philosophy, 1933, in Theoretical Philosophy, 1934. Prof. of History of Philosophy: Univ. of Cagliari, 1939-42; Univ. of Naples, 1943-44; Univ. of Catania, since 1945. Editor, Sophia (Internatl. Review of Philosophy and History of Philosophy). Member: Italian Soc. for Advancement of Science; Inst. of Philosophic Studies. Author: Critica dell' idealismo, 1936, 1948; Metafisica dell' essere parziale, 1942, 1947. Residence: Via R. Grazioli Lante 78, Rome, Italy.

OTTAVIANO-QUINTAVALLE, Dr. ARMANDO, Italian Art Gallery Superintendent; born Jan. 1, 1894, Naples, Italy; son of Gaetano and Adelaide (Carunchio) Ottaviano-Quintavalle; educated at Univ. of Naples, J.D. 1920; studied history of art, Univ. of Rome, 1927-28; married Augusta Ghidiglia, Aug. 19, 1929; one son. Inspector of Fine Arts, 1929; Inspector of picture gallery, National Museum, Naples, 1929-33; Director, Royal Gallery, Parma, since 1933; Organizer and Director, Exhibition at Correggio, 1935; Supt. of Galleries, Parma and Piacenza, since 1939; Supt. of Galleries in Modena and Reggio, 1940-41. Decorated Commander, Italian Crown Order, 1941. Member, Accademico della "Clementina" in Bologna. Author: Catalogo della Pinacoteca Nazionale, Napoli, 1932; Catalogo della Mostra del Correggio, 1935; Catalogo della R. Galleria di Parma, 1939; Collaborator, Thieme Becker's Künstler Lexicon L'Antelami, 4 vols., 1947; Il Parmigianino, 4 vols., 1947. Lieut., Italian Army, Infantry, World War I; awarded Croce de Invalido di Guerra; in charge of saving the art pieces of Provinces of Parma and Piacenza during World War II. Member of Movimento Federalista europea. Residence: Viale Mariotti 5, Parma. Office: Sopraintendenza alle Gallerie, Palazzo Pilotta, Parma, Italy.

OTTAWAY, Hon. LEE L., American Jurist; born Feb. 24, 1888, Town of Mina, N. Y.; son of G. Fred and Flora (Pelton) Ottaway; educated at Cornell Law School, 1909; married Ethel M. Govette, Sept. 25, 1912; one son. Admitted to practice of law, 1909; associated with Ottaway & Munson at Westfield, 1909-19; Village Attorney, Westfield, 1913-21; moved to Jamestown, N. Y.; formed partnership with Frank Mott, 1919; firm later Mott, Ottaway and Phillips; Asst. District Attorney, Chautauqua County, 1923-24; County Judge, Chautauqua County, 1925; also Judge, Children's Court; re-elected in 1930, 1936 and 1942; also became Surrogate, 1935; resigned as County Judge, Surrogate and Judge of Children's Court, 1944; Justice, Supreme Court, State of New York, since Jan. 1944. Address: Jamestown, N. Y.

OTTAWAY, RUTH HALLER, (Mrs. Nikolai Sokoloff), American Feminist Leader; born in Howell, Michigan; daughter of John George and Rose (Brumm) Haller; educated at Albion College, B.Mus. 1905; University of Michigan (Bachelor of Arts, 1909); married (1st) Elmer James Ottaway, 1910 (deceased); (2nd) Nikolai Sokoloff, 1937; one son and two foster sons. President, Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, 1921-25; National Chairman, Public School Music, National Federation of Music Clubs, 1924-26; Extension Chairman and President, District and State Presidents' Council, 1927-29; National President, 1929-33. Editor-in-Chief, Music Clubs Magazine, 1929-33. Executive Chairman, Young Artists' Contests, 1939-41; President, National Council of Women, 1935-40. Vice-Chairman, Women's National Radio Committee, 1937-40; Chairman, Preview Board for Musical Films, 1935-40; Secretary, Schubert Memorial, Inc., since 1937. Founder and Chairman of Music Department, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, 1926-29; Delegate from U. S. to Anglo-American Music Conference, Lausanne, 1929. Assistant to Director, Federal Music Project, 1935-37. Chairman, Opera, National Federation of Music Clubs; Member of Executive Board, National Committee for Opera in America, 1941-44; now Chairman of Department of Publicity, National Federation of Music Clubs. Residence: 7796 Lookout Dr., La Jolla, Calif. Office: 501 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

OTTELIN, Dr. ODAL, Swedish Educator; born May 8, 1868, Gamal Karleby, Finland; son of Albert Ferdinand and Helena Vilhelmina (Geilerstedt) Ottelin; educated at Uppsala Univ., Ph.D. 1901; married Isa Björnström, 1900; two children; (2nd) Elna Köhlin, 1911. Docent, Scandinavian Languages, Uppsala, Univ., 1901-04; Lector, Swedish Language and Literary History, State Training College for Women, Stockholm, 1904-33; Member of Board, Assn. of Popular Education, 1903-39; Chairman, 1921-22; Director of Studies, Stockholm Section, Workers' Educational Assn., 1919-23; Deputy Chairman, Board of Directors, Dramatic Theatre, Stockholm, 1922-29; Member, Com. for Safeguarding of Liberty of Press, 1925-40. Author: Studies on Codex Bureanus, 1900, 1905; Far From the Turmoil (short stories), 1904; The Art of Public Speech, I, II, 1913; 5th ed. 1937; The Popular Education Lecture, I, II, 1918; How to Become a Public Speaker, 1939; The Art of Extempore Speech, 1943; Working in the Cause of Popular Education, 1933; etc. Address: Svanhildsvägen 17, Nockeby, Stockholm, Sweden.

OTTEMA, NANNE, Dutch Art Historian; born May 4, 1874, Leeuwarden, Holland; son of Allert and Maria Francisca (Fellinga) Ottema; educated at Gymnasium, Leeuwarden, 1888-93; married Grietje Kingma, Dec. 13, 1900. Candidaatnotaris, 1897; erection of Princessehof-Museum, Leeuwarden, 1917; Notary Public, Leeuwarden, 1918; Conservator of Ceramics, Fresian Museum, 1920; erection, Princessehof Library, 1935. Conservator, Ceramic Museum in the Princessehof; Librarian, Ceramic Library of Princessehof; Pres., Soc. for exhibitions, paintings and drawings. Pres., Harmonie Soc. Member: Fresian Soc. of Art and History, Leeuwarden; Soc. at Utrecht; Soc. of Dutch Literature, etc., Leiden. Offered Freedom of City of Leeuwarden, 1929; Officer, Order of Orange-Nassau, 1935; Hon. Member, Royal Soc. of Antiquarians, Amsterdam, 1930. Author: Exhumation of late 16th ceramics in yacht-harbour at Leeuwarden, 1916-18; Fresian Majolica, 1920; Majolica of the North-Netherlands, 1921; History of Art of the Clockmakers of Friesland, 1923; History of the Art of Gold and Silver in Friesland, 1928; Art of the Fresian Artisan-and Folk Art, 1935-42; Handbook of Art of Chinese Potter, 1943-46. Address: Prins Hendrikstraat 4 and 6, Leeuwarden, Netherland.

OTTEN, KARL, German Author; born 1889, Oberkruechten, Germany; son of Wilhelm and Sybilla (Becker) Otten; educated at Cologne and Aachen; Universities of Munich, Bonn and Strasbourg; married Ellen Kroner. Author: (film) Kameradschaft, 1931; (play) Die Expedition nach San Domingo, 1932. Works include: Reise in Albanien, 1912; Sprung aus dem Fenster, 1914; Thronerhebung des Herzens, 1916; Der Fall Strauss, 1925; Pruefung zur Reife, 1927; Der Schwarze Napoleon, 1930; Torquemadas Schatten, 1937; Combine of Aggression, 1942. Member P. E. N. Club. Address: 214 Grove End Gardens, London, N.W. 8, England.

OTTERDAHL, EMIL FILIP, Swedish Chemical Engineer; born Jan. 10, 1884, Nora, Sweden; son of Conrad and Ulla (Pettersson) Otterdahl; educated at Örebro Tekniska Gymnasium; married Sigrid Hallgren, May 20, 1914; three children. Chemist, A.B. Nobelkrut, Bofors, 1904-06; Works Engineer, A.B. Nobelkrut, Bofors, 1906-14; Engineer, Stockholms Superfosfat Fabriks A.B., Avesta, 1914-16; Chemist, Navy Board, 1914-15; Chief Engineer, A.B. Bofors Nobelkrut, 1916-30; Chief Engineer and Technical Chief, 1930-42; Supt., Engineer and Head of Powder Factory, Swedish State, Aker, since 1942. Member, Swedish Technologists Assn. Awarded Vasa Order; Pole Star Order. Address: Akers Krutbruk, Akers Styckebruk, Sweden.

OTTERSON, JOHN EDWARD, American Shipping Executive; born Allegheny, Pa., March 29, 1881; son of John Price and Louise (LeGrand) Otterson; graduated U. S. Naval Acad., 1904; M.S., Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, 1909; married Roxanna Johnson, June 12, 1904. Served in U. S. Navy, 1900-15, retiring as Naval Instructor. With Winchester Repeating Arms Co., 1916-24, successively as General Manufacturing Supt., Vice-Pres. and Pres. In 1924-26 he was Pres. of the Winchester Co., and Simmons Hardware Co., and General Commercial Manager of the Western Electric Co. He was Vice-President and General Manager of Electrical Research Products, Inc., 1927-28, and President in 1928-35. In 1935-36 he served as President and Director of Paramount Pictures, Inc., Paramount Pictures Corp., Paramount Productions, Inc., Paramount Pictures Distributing Corp., and Paramount International Corp. From July, 1941 to July, 1942, he was Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion, and from August, 1942 to January, 1943, he was President of the New Jersey Shipbuilding Corp. Pres., East Coast Shipyards, Inc., 1943 —; also Pres. of Anigraphic Process, Inc., and Naumo Corp., Chmn. of Bd., Amer. Liberty Steamship Corp. Residence: 1 W. 54th St. Office: 11 Broadway, New York 4, N. Y.

OTTINGER, LAWRENCE, American Industrialist; born 1884, New York City. Founded business, 1919, with capital of $500; now President and Director, United States Plywood Corp; also Pres. and Dir.: Duke Lapham Realty Corp., Boston, Mass.; Hay & Company, Ltd., Woodstock, Ont., Canada; U. S. Plywood of Canada, Ltd., Toronto, Canada. Vice-President; Kosmos Timber Co., Kosmos, Wash.; Seattle Export Lumber Company, Seattle, Wash. Director: United States Plywood Corp.; Algoma Plywood & Veneer Company, Algoma, Wis.; Tekwood, Inc., Lakeport, N. H.; Shasta Plywood, Inc., Redding, Calif.; Scarsdale (N. Y.) National Bank & Trust Co. Residence: Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 55 West 44th St., New York 18, N. Y.

OTTLEY, RICHARD BRUCE HAMILTON, British Banker; born Aug. 19, 1890, Salisbury, Wilts; son of Edward Bickersteth and Mary (Hamilton) Ottley; educated at Eton College and Balliol College, Oxford; married Claudia Snagge; two children. Director, Erlangers, Ltd. Chairman: General Consolidated Investment Trust; United Kingdom Gas Corp., Ltd.; South Western Gas and Water Corp., Ltd.; J. W. Green Limited; Carbo-Ice Industries, Ltd.; Bank Insurance Trust Corp., Ltd. A Director of The Sterling Trust Limited; C. M. W. Trust Limited; East India Distilleries and Sugar Factories Limited., etc. Member, Inst. for Internatl. Affairs and C.E.M.S. Served in Army, 1914-17; awarded a Star: M.B.E. (Military); Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, 1914-18. Member, Naval Reserve since 1930. Residence: 23, Kings House, St. James's Court. Office: 4 Moorgate, London, E.C. 2, England.

OTTLIK, Dr. GEORGE, Hungarian Editor; born 1889, Budapest; son of Ivan and Rosa (Miklos) Ottlik; educated at Univ. of Budapest, Dr. Pol. Sc. 1911; studied at Friedrich Wilhelm Universitaet, Berlin, and Faculté de Droit, Paris, 1909-10. Entered State Service at Ministry of Agriculture, 1911; Imperial and Royal Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Vienna, 1912; Attaché in Austro-Hungarian Diplomatic Service, 1913. Diplomatic posts: at Legation, Sofia, Bulgaria, 1914-16; at Berne, Switzerland, 1917-19. Foreign Editor "Pester Lloyd," 1919-21; Budapest Correspondent, London Times, 1920-39. Invited by League of Nations Information Dept. to study Geneva Institutions, 1926. Created "Annuaire de la Société des Nations" (1st edition covering period 1920-27), 1926-27. Appointed Hungarian annual Delegate to League Assemblies, 1928. Member, League's Supervisory Commn. (Commission de Controle), 1930-39. Foreign Editor, Budapesti Hirlap, Hungarian daily, 1928-30. Agent for Hungary, Austria and Czechoslovakia of Messrs. Goschens and Cunliffe, London Merchant Bankers, 1929-37. Founder and Editor, "Nouvelle Revue de Hongrie" (French Monthly), 1932-38, and South Eastern Europe, 1932. Editor, "Budapesti Hirlap," semi-official Govt. paper, 1934-35. One of founders and Vice-Pres., Soc. of the "Hungarian Quarterly" and of Editors of Quarterly Review, 1936-41. Editor, "Pester Lloyd" (90-year old semi-official Hungarian organ), 1937-44. Appointed Life Member, Hungarian Upper House, Mar. 1, 1940. Address: Budapest II, Ady Endre utca 2, Budapest, Hungary.

OTTO, Dr. MAX CARL, Professor of Philosophy; born Sept. 28, 1876, Germany; son of Carl F. and Ernestine (Kuenzel) Otto; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.A. 1906, M.A. 1908, Ph.D. 1911; Carroll College; Univ. of Chicago; Univ. of Heidelberg, Germany; married Rhoda Owen, 1920; two children. Instructor in Philosophy, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1910; now Chairman of Dept. Member, Amer. Philosophical Assn., Western Division (Pres. 1929). Author: Things & Ideals, 1924; Natural Laws and Human Hopes, 1926; The Human Enterprise, 1940; etc. Address: University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.

OTTO, ROBERT W., American Utilities Executive; born Dec. 25, 1892, Washington, Mo.; son of Edmund H. and Mallita (Hoffman) Otto; educated at University of Missouri, one year; Northwestern University, LL.B. 1915; married Katrine Dallmeyer, Oct. 12, 1922; two sons. Began career as attorney, 1915. Prosecuting Attorney, Franklin County, Mo., 1917-20. Assistant Attorney General, 1921-25; Attorney General, 1925. Associate Justice, Supreme Court of Missouri, 1926. Vice-President, General Counsel of Laclede Gas Light Co., 1935-47; President, 1947—. Author: Information and Indictments in Criminal Cases, 1925; Instructions in Criminal Cases, 1925. Residence: 50 Portland Pl. Office: 1017 Olive St., St. Louis, Missouri.

OTTO, WALTER E., American Insurance Executive; born Feb. 24, 1889, Detroit, Mich.; son of Rudolph Otto and Anna (Ewald) Otto; studied in public and high schools and in business college; married Gertrude P. Valliere, Jan. 9, 1915; one son. Began career in 1906 as insurance clerk with Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Co. Actuarial Clerk with Michigan Insurance Dept., 1907-09; Deputy Commissioner of Dept., 1910-17. Joined Michigan Mutual Liability Co. in 1918 as Treasurer and Actuary, becoming Secy. and Treas. in 1924; Pres. and General Manager since 1936. Pres. and General Manager of Associated General Fire Co. since 1940. Pres. of Natl. Assn. of Automotive Mutual Ins. Companies, and the Natl. Asn. of Mutual Casualty Companies. Member of the Governing Committee of American Mutual Alliance; the National Industrial Information Committee, the Governing Board of the National Council on Compensation Insurance, Natl. Assn. of Mutual Casualty Companies, Detroit Board of Commerce, and the Casualty Actuarial Soc. of Amer. Residence: 8162 E. Jefferson Ave. Office: 163 Madison Ave., Detroit 26, Michigan.

OTTOKAR, Dr. NICOLA, Italian Historian; born March 25, 1884, St. Petersburg, Russia; studied at Imperial Univ., St. Petersburg, Dr. 1907; married Antoinette Bockmann, Mar. 14, 1914 (deceased, 1940); one daughter. Taught at Univ. of St. Petersburg, 1910; Prof. of Medieval History, State Univ. of Perm, 1916; Pres., Faculty of Letters, 1917-18; Pres., Univ. of Perm, 1919-21 (when left Russia). Acting Prof., Univ. of Florence, 1924-30; Prof. of Medieval History, since 1930. Lectured to Allied Military Personnel on Italian and Florentine History, 1944-45. Member: Historical Soc. of Leningrad; Hungarian Acad. of Social Sciences; Deputazione di Storia Patria per la Toscana; Acad. of Moral Sciences, Florence. Hon. Member, British Inst. of Florence. Author: Il Comune di Firenze alla fine del Dugento, 1926; Le città francesi nel medio evo, 1927; Comuni cittadini del medio evo 1930 (3rd ed.); Breve Storia della Russia, 1st ed. 1936, 2nd ed. 1945. Address: Università degli Studi, Piazza S. Marco 4, Florence, Italy.

OTTONELLO, Dr. PAOLO, Italian Neurologist; born Feb. 22, 1898, Cuglieri, Sardinia, Italy; son of Enrico and Michela (Mura) Ottonello; educated at Univ. of Sassari, M.D. 1922; married Giuseppina Ortu, Jan. 15, 1925; two daughters. Voluntary Asst., 1922; Asst. at Neurological Clinic, Univ. of Sassari, 1925-26; at Neurological Clinic, Univ. of Pavia, 1926-36; Director of Neurological Clinic, Univ. of Parma, since 1936. Member: Italian Soc. of Experimental Biology; Italian Soc. of Neurology; Medical-Surgical Soc. of Pavia; Soc. of Medicine and Natural Sciences, Parma. Awarded Silver Medal, Italian Red Cross. Author: Studi sul gozzismo, 1925-27; Sulla sclerosi laterale amiotofica, 1929; Malattie del sistema nervoso, 1946. Captain, Italian Army Medical Corps (Reserve). Residence: Viale Margherita 4. Office: Via Imbriani 78, Parma, Italy.

OU TSUIN-CHEN, Prof., Chinese Educator; born Nov. 8, 1901, Jukao, Kiangsu, China; son of Ou Han-chang; educated at Natl. Southeastern Univ., B.Ed. 1925; Univ. of Paris, Litt.D. 1931; married Ni Lin, 1926; three children. Prof. of Education, Natl. Peking Univ., 1931-37; Head, Dept. of Education, 1933-37. Chairman, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Associated Southwestern Univ., 1937. Director of Higher Education, Chinese Ministry of Education, 1938-45. Member: Com. on Educational Research and Planning, since 1946; Educational Commn., Supreme Council of Natl. Defense, since 1938. Member: Cultural and Educational Mission, sent to India by Chinese Govt. Author: On Logic (in Chinese), 1926; La Doctrine Pedagogique de John Dewey, 1931; Introduction to Educational Philosophy (in Chinese), 1935; Principle of Moral Education (in Chinese), 1936. Address: Ministry of Education, Nanking, China.

OUCHTERLONY OF KELLIE, 26th Baron, (Archibald Patrick Alexander James Stuart Douglas Percival Ouchterlony), British Economist and Banker; born 1908, in Stockholm; son of Major Ernest H. and Ida Augusta (Holmberg) Ouchterlony; educated at Lund Private College; Stockholm University; Paris and London; married Cora Van Millingen, 1940; succeeded to the title, 1935. Chairman, Unicorn Trust Co. Director, Kellie's Press Exchange, and of Kontex, Inc. Fellow, Royal Economic Soc.; Royal Statistical Soc. Member: Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Science; Amer. Economic Assn.;

Economic Soc. of South Africa; Canadian Political Science Assn.; Economic Soc. of Australia and New Zealand; London Chamber of Commerce. Address: 211 Piccadilly, London, W. 1, England.

OUD, JACOBUS JOHANNES PIETER, Dutch Architect; born Feb. 9, 1890, Purmerend, The Netherlands; son of Hendrik Cornelis and Neeltje Theodora (Janszen) Oud; educated at Technische Hoogeschool, Delft; married Johanna Maria Augusta Dinaux, Dec. 27, 1918; one son. Apprentice in offices of Cuypers en Stuyt, Amsterdam; Prof. Dr. Theodor Fischer, Munich. Held one-man shows in Holland, Europe and America; participated in many exhibitions. Designed motion picture theatre, country houses, workers' houses, in Rotterdam, middle class houses in Stuttgart; office building of Shell Oil, The Hague. Made plans for town extension, schools, town hall, etc.; designer of furniture and interior decorations. Hon. Member, Royal Inst. of British Architects. Corresp. Member: Club of Artists "Manes," Prague; Central Soc. of Austrian Architects; Soc. of Austrian Artists "Kunstschau," Vienna; International Soc. of Architects in Japan; Acad. of Architecture, Moscow. Decorated Officer, Orange-Nassau Order. Awarded Grand Prix, Paris Exposition, 1937. Author: Holländische Architektur, 1926; Nieuwe Bouwkunst in Holland en Europa, 1935. Address: Villeneuvesingel 29, Hillegersberg, Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

OUD, Dr. PIETER JACOBUS, Dutch Mayor; born Dec. 5, 1886, Purmerend, Holland; son of Hendrik Cornelis and N. Th. (Janszen) Oud; educated at Municipal Univ. of Amsterdam, J.D. 1917; married Johanna Cornelia Fischer, 1912; one son. Official, Dutch Finance Dept., 1909-17; Member, Second Chamber, States General, 1917-33, 1937-38; Minister of Finance, 1933-37; Burgomaster of Rotterdam, 1938; dismissed by Germans, 1941; reinstated 1945. Decorated Knight Commander, Order of Netherlands Lion; Grand Cross, 1st Class, also Order of Merit, Austrian Republic. Author: Short Parliamentary History of Netherlands, 1840-1940 (1945). Residence: 71 Hoflaan. Office: City Hall, Rotterdam, Holland.

OUDARD, GEORGES, French Author; born Feb. 4, 1889, Paris, France; son of Léon and Amélie (Couty) Oudard; educated at Univ. of Paris, Faculty of Letters, Litt.Lic.; Ecole du Louvre, Paris (diploma); married Germaine Lemaire, July 10, 1919. Author: La vie de Pierre-le-Grand; La très curieuse vie de Law; Vieille Amérique; Lettres d'amour inédites de Catherine II à Potemkine; Cécil Rhodes; Bienville; Ma jeunesse (novel); L'homme marié (novel); La meilleure maitresse (novel); Ressemblance (stories); Désir de l'amour (novel); Bonheurs désespérés (stories); Une élection (essays); Un excentrique en 1830 (essays); Pologne; La Polonaise; Attrait de Moscou; Chasses féodales d'aujourd'hui; Portrait de la Roumanie; La vie mystérieuse et tragique de la dernière tsarine; Chemises noires, brunes et vertes en Espagne; Croix gammée sur l'Europe centrale; La reine Marie de Roumanie; Les Chevaliers Mendiants (with D. Novik). Director: France Illustration, Paris; La France Interieure (clandestine magazine), Paris, since 1942. Delegate, Provisional Consultative Assembly, 1944-45. Pres., Union Syndicale de la Presse Periodique; Member, Soc. of Literary Men. Capt., French Army, Infantry, 1914-18; received Legion of Honor, Croix de Guerre; Officer with Free French Forces, 1940-44; awarded Croix de Guerre, 1939-45; Resistance Medal with Rosette. Address: 13 rue St. Georges and 7 Avenue Victor Hugo, Paris, France.

OUGHTERSON, Dr. ASHLEY, American Cancer Specialist; born Sept. 28, 1895, Geneva, N. Y.; son of Nathan and Mary Ann (Hatch) Oughterson; educated at Syracuse Univ., 1918-20; Harvard Medical School, 1920-24; Wm. Harvey Cushing Fellow, Yale Medical School, 1928-29; married Dr. Marion Howard, 1942. Asst. Prof. of Surgery, Yale Univ. Medical School, 1931; later Assoc. Prof. of Surgery and Clinical Prof. of Surgery there until 1942; Medical and Scientific Director and Vice-Pres., Amer. Cancer Soc., since 1946. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Surgical Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Cancer Research; Soc. of Experimental Biology and Medicine; Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Heart Assn.; Amer. Radium Soc. Residence: 77 Howe St., New Haven, Conn. Office: 47 Beaver St., New York 4, N. Y.

OUGLITZKY, PAUL PECHENIHA, Composer; born June 16, 1892, Kharkov, Ukrania; now an American citizen; son of John and Alexandra (Pyrojnikova) Ouglitzky; attended Imperial Russian Music Society (IRMO) of Kharkov; studied composition with Theodor Akimenko; after finishing school (IRMO), went to St. Petersburg Conservatory. Chorus Master, Cathedral Choir, Kharkov; conductor, Symphony orchestra and operas at St. Petersburg, Krasnodar, Yalta (Crimea); Grand Opera House, Constantinople, Turkey. Since 1922 he has been in the United States; composer of many vocal and orchestral works. Conducted several opera performances: Faust, Eugen Onegin, Mazzeppa. Conducted on radio, NBC, WOR (Kremlin Echo, Russian Gaiety, and several concerts); conducts choral group and writes music; concert at Carnegie Hall, 1939; has performed his own compositions. Major works inclue the tone poem "Ukraina"; two string quarets; a "Cantata Eroica" for mixed chorus and grand orchestra, and an opera recently completed, "The Witch," based on a story by E. Grebinka (1814) about the Ukrainian life of the 16th century (in three acts with a ballet-divertissement); also Romances for voice, piano preludes, choral works, Orthodox Liturgy of Saint John and many others. Received freedom from the army (signed by Czar Nicholas II in person) because of his position as member of orchestra of Imperial Opera House and Professor of Conservatory in St. Petersburg (Leningrad). Address: 205 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

OUKRAINSKY, SERGE (LÉONIDE ORLAY DE CARVA), Producer, Choreographer, Designer, and Ballet Master; born in Odessa, Russia; naturalized U. S. citizen, 1928; son of Alexis Orlay de Carva and Ludmilla Znatchko Yavorska; educated at the Lycée Condorcet; Lycée Carnot; Academy Julian (Paris), and was a pupil of the ballet master Ivan Clustine. He began his artistic career in 1911 at the French Musical Festival, Théâtre du Châtelet, Paris; was partner and solo dancer with Anna Pavlowa, Pavlowa Ballet Russe, 1913-16. He was the creator of the first original American ballet in 1922 (the Pavley-Oukrainsky Ballet), now Serge Oukrainsky Ballet. For nine years he served as ballet producer for the Chicago Grand Opera Company; created "The Videballeton," a combination of motion pictures and dancers, synchronized to music, 1928; presented the Serge Oukrainsky Ballet at the Paris Opera in 1932, and is widely known as the only dancer able to do barefoot toe work. Concertized extensively throughout United States, Mexico, Havana, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina; also at Paris Grand Opéra with his own company. Director of motion picture dance sequences for Fox Studio, Warner Brothers, Dolores del Rio for Tec Art; credited with the choreography of 20 full-length ballets and 47 opera ballets and 80 divertissements, and has authored the scenario for many ballets. Author: My Two Years with Anna Pavlowa (Sutton House, Hollywood, 1940); My Nine Years with the Chicago Opera. Residence: 5538 Barton Ave., Los Angeles 38, Calif. Studio: 1753 North Haigland Ave., Hollywood, California.

OULD, HERMON L(EONARD), British Author and General Secretary, P.E.N. (World Assn. of Writers); born Dec. 14, 1885, London, England; son of John and Alice (Pearce) Ould; educated privately and under self-instruction. Secretary, English Centre, International P.E.N. Club, 1925; International Secretary since 1926. Editor, Theatre-Craft, 1920-23; General Editor, P.E.N. Books, since 1941. Author: Between Sunset and Dawn (1913); Ada Wodderspoon (1914); The Black Virgin (1922); The Dance of Life (1924); New Plays From Old Stories (1924, 1930, 1936); The Piper Laughs (1927); The Moon Rides High (1927); Flames in Sunlight (1928); John Galsworthy (1934); Ali Baba and His Son Hadji (1936); translated Hoppla and Which World, Which Way by Ernst Toller, and Pathetic Symphony by Klaus Mann: 3 volumes of verse, and many one-act plays; The Art of Play (1938). Address: The Porch, Tring, Hertfordshire, England.

OULTON, Rev. Dr. JOHN ERNEST LEONARD, Irish Theologian and Educator; born Mar. 22, 1886, Glynn, Co. Antrim, Ireland; son of Richard Charles and Katherine Jane (Leonard) Oulton; educated at Campbell College, Belfast; Trinity College, Dublin; Univ. of Dublin, B.A. 1908, B.D. 1919, M.A. 1930, D.D. 1934. Ordained Deacon, 1913; Priest, 1914. Curate Asst., Harold's Cross, Dublin, 1913-16; St. Stephen's, Dublin, 1916-27. Rector: Chapelizod, Dublin, 1927-29; Monkstown, Dublin, 1929-30. Asst. Lecturer, Divinity School, Univ. of Dublin, 1924-30; Lecturer on Bible, 1926-29; Archbishop King's Prof. of Divinity, 1931-35; Regius Prof. of Divinity since 1935. Canon, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, since 1930. Governor, Hospital and Free School of King Charles II, Dublin; Freeman, City of Dublin. Member, General Synod, Church of Ireland; Dublin Diocesan Council; Board of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin; Council of Alexandra College, Dublin. Vice-Pres., Assn. for Promoting Christian Knowledge, Dublin. Member, Royal Irish Acad., 1928. Author: Eusebius, Church History and Martyrs of Palestine, 1927; Church History, 1932; contributor to History of Church of Ireland, 1933; Credal Statements of St. Patrick, 1940; The Study of Divinity in Trinity College, Dublin, 1941. Address: Trinity College, Dublin, Eire.

OURSLER, (CHARLES) FULTON, American Author; born 1893. Author: Behold This Dreamer, 1924; Stepchild of the Moon, 1926; Poor Little Fool, 1928; The True Story of Bernarr Macfadden, 1929; About the Murder of the Clergyman's Mistress (pseudonym Anthony Abbot), 1931; The Spider (a mystery melodrama in three acts; with Lowell Brentano), 1932; Joshua Todd, 1935; A Skeptic in the Holy Land, 1936; About the Murder of a Man Afraid of Women (pseudonym Anthony Abbot), 1937; Three Things We Can Believe In (a formula for peace of mind in anxious days), 1942, etc. Broadcasts daily radio program. Address: c/o Rinehart & Co., Inc., 232 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

OUSDAL, ASBJORN PEDERSEN, American Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon; born July 26, 1879, Flekkefjord, Siradalen, Norway; son of Peder Torjesen and Antoinette Ousdal; educated at Amstsskole at Lunde and Middle School at Flekkefjord; attended evening school in Chicago, Ill., U. S. A., 1898, and returned to Norway in 1903, graduating Treider College, Oslo, 1904; emigrated to Chicago, Ill., 1905, and in 1906 entered Green Gable Training School in Nebraska, graduating 1909, R.N.; College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, 1916; Collegium Medicine Pacificum, 1917. Osteopathic physician and surgeon since 1917; in charge of laboratory research in structural relation of prehistoric life and present forms and its evolutional changes as manifested by microscopic studies at the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. Special research study in Microscopic Paleontology, Univ. of Calif., 1936-40; with Univ. of Southern California, Dept. of Geology, graduate studies, 1940; now doing research on continuity of life at Univ. of Southern California. Member of Board of Trustees at College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons since 1918. Member Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Calif. and Santa Barbara Botanical Soc.; Norwegian Amer. Historical Soc.; Scandinavian Foundation; Honorary Member of Oriental Foundation. Author, Vinland Saga (which was played at Lobero Theatre, Santa Barbara); Human Advance Toward Orderly Form of Government; Monograph on Fossil Termites; Monograph on Paleontology Trophon; Reports 1-2-3-4, with Plates on Forms in Meteorites compared with Living Forms, and Sanskrit and Old Norse translations into English. He is the inventor of Solar-Ray (Therapeutics). Address: 1201 De la Vina St., Santa Barbara, Calif.

OUTRATA, Dr. EDVARD, Czechoslovak Economist; born 1898, Caslav, Czechoslovakia; son of Edvard and Josephina (Sulcova) Outrata; educated at Charles Univ., Prague, LL.D. 1922; Polytechnic of Prague, Ingenieur, 1922; married Emmy Cepkova, 1935; three children. Secy., Gremium of Commercants, Prague, 1922; Secy., Ceskoslovenska zbrojovka, Brno; Czechoslovak Bren Armament Co., 1923, Prague Branch, 1924; Deputy Manager for Finances and Export, 1928; Director, Commercial Section, 1929; Deputy eral, 1937. Left Czechoslovakia 1939; Member, Czechoslovak Natl. Council, Paris, 1939; Minister of Finance, 1940-41; Minister of Commerce, Czechoslovak Govt. in London, 1941-42; Member, Czechoslovak State Council, 1940-45; Secy. General, State Economy Council, since 1945. Pres., State Planning Commn., Czechoslovakia. Awarded Yugoslav, Rumanian, Persian and Chinese decorations. Residence: Na baste sv. Tomase 3. Office: Prague III. Strakova akademie, Czechoslovakia.

OUZIEL, BENSION MEIR HAY, Chief Rabbi of Palestine; born 1880; educated at Tiphereth Yeroushalayim Rabbinical Institute. Formerly rabbinical tutor and teacher in rabbinical schools in Jerusalem; became Chief Rabbi of Jaffa and Tel-Aviv, 1912; Chief Rabbi of Salonica, 1921; Chief Rabbi of Tel-Aviv since 1923. Representative of Jewish Communities to the British Government, 1924; Palestinian Delegate to the League of Nations and several Jewish Congresses. Appointed Palestinian Delegate to the Jewish-Arab Conference, London, 1936. Appointed Chief Rabbi of Palestine and Rishon Lezion, 1940. Founded Ohel Moed Synagogue; Pirche Kohouna Institute, Tel-Aviv, and Orphans Institution, Jerusalem. President, Kupath-Mazon, Jerusalem. Founder and President, "Shaare-zion" (Rabbinical College) in Jerusalem. Author: Aphorisms; Judges and Judgments ("Mishpete Ouziel," 3 vols.); Mysteries of Ouziel; 2 volumes on Guardianship Law ("Shaare Ouziel"). Address: P.O. Box 673, Jerusalem, Palestine.

OVECHKIN, VALENTIN, Soviet Writer. Author of a number of publications including the novel "With Greetings from The Front," 1947. Address: All Union of Soviet Writers, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OVEICY, ALI MOHAMED, Iranian Red Cross Administrator; born Dec. 17, 1884, Teheran, Iran; son of Mohamed Ali and Khadidje; educated at Faculty of Political Sciences of Teheran, Licentiate's degree, 1903; married Nahileh Frances Jackson, July 1915; one son and one daughter. Vice-Consul at Baku (Russia), 1903-08; Political Agent, Irano-Russian Frontier at Khorassan, 1908-09; Vice-Pres., Foreign Affairs Administration at Tauris (Azerbaijan), 1909-10; Political Agent and Governor of Pahlavi Province, 1910-11; Financial Delegate to Iranian Embassy at Constantinople, 1911-17; Director General of Ministry of Agriculture, Commerce and Public Works, 1917-30; Founder and Director General, Persian Art and Carpet Inst. of Ministry of Natl. Economy, 1930-31; Governor of Yezd Province, 1931-33; Governor General of Khuzestan 1933-35; Iranian Trade Representative for the East, Residency, Bombay (India), 1935-38; Director General and later Secy. General of Ministry of Commerce, 1939-42; Under-Secy. of Ministry of Commerce and Industry, 1942-46. Founder member, Red Lion & Sun (Red Cross) Soc., since 1923; Treasurer, Secy. General and Vice-Pres., since 1943; Vice-Pres. and Administrator General, since 1946. Awarded: Decoration of Lion & Sun 4th degree, 1905; 3rd degree, 1908; 2nd degree, 1913; 1st degree with Green Shoulder belt 1919 (all annulled during Pahlavi Regime); Scientific 1st degree decoration, 1908; commemoration medal of Coronation of Pahlavi, 1926. Author of numerous articles in various reviews, papers and other publications. Residence: President Roosevelt Ave. Offices: Ferdowci Ave., Sepan Sq., Teheran; Post Office Box 1111, Teheran Iran.

OVERBEEK, Dr. ADOLF HENDRIK, Dutch Banker; born July 14, 1891, Oldenzaal, Holland; son of Hendrik Adam Overbeek and Johanna Christina Schiedam; educated at Univ. of Utrecht, 1913-18; married Hendrika Boeziek, May 7, 1929; two children. With De Twentsche Bank, Enschede, Holland, 1909-12; with Nederandsche Handel-Maatschappij, N.V., Rotterdam Agency, since 1918 (now Vice-Manager). Secy., Rotterdam Bankers Assn., since 1925. Director: Frank Rijsdijk's Industries Ltd., Hendrik-Ido-Ambacht; Textile Works v/h Wiegerinck & Koch, Zutphen; A. Hoogenboezem Ltd., Schoonhoven; Lenderink & Co. C.V., Schiedam. Partner, Messrs. H. A. Overbeek Azn., Rotterdam-Hengelo; Treas., Vereeniging voor Onderwijs aan Zieke Kinderen, Rotterdam. Residence: Burg. Knappertlaan 31, Schiedam. Office: Blaak 34, Rotterdam, Holland.

OVERBY, ANDREW N., American Banker; born March 27, 1909, Cheyenne Agency, S. D.; son of Samuel O. and Anna Marie (Amundson) Overby; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, 1926-28; Columbia Univ., B.S. 1930, M.S. (evenings) 1940; married Annette Picus, Sept. 21, 1928. With Irving Trust Co., New York, N. Y., 1930-41; investment advisory work, 1930-31; liquidation of foreign credits, 1931-35; trust investment adviser, 1935-36; Asst. to Vice Pres. on portfolio investments, 1936-41. Asst. to Vice-Pres., Federal Reserve Bank of New York (in charge of international banking), Jan.-Oct. 1942. Lieut. Col., General Staff Corps, U. S. Army, 1942-46. Asst. Vice-Pres., Federal Reserve Bank of New York, May-Aug. 1946. Special Asst. to Secy. of Treasury, in charge of international finance, since 1946. Executive Director for U. S. A., International Monetary Fund, since 1947. Decorations: Legion of Merit; Army Commendation Ribon. Residence: 2444 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. Office: International Monetary Fund, Washington 6, D. C.; (also) U. S. Treasury Dept., Washington, D. C.

OVERGAARD, AMALIE, Norwegian Feminist Leader; born Mar. 3, 1874, Sorreisa, Norway; daughter of Angell and Severine (Johannesen) Ingebret; married Ragnvald Overgaard, May 29, 1899; three children. Teacher in Finmark, 1892; office manager, 1893-99. Member, Natl. Assn., Norsk Arbeide; Pres., Scandinavian Housewife Organization; Board Member, Assn. for Prevention of Cancer. Hon. Member, Norwegian Housewife Organization, Maria Loge. Awarded King's Service Gold Medal. Residence: Kirkeveien 98C, Oslo, Norway.

ÖVERGAARD, Dr. JÖRGEN, Norwegian Lawyer; born June 21, 1881, Nes, near Flekkefjord, Norway; son of Ole Aa. and Siri Övergaard; educated at Univ. of Oslo, Dr. Juris. 1914; married Margit Axelsen, Oct. 24, 1914; six children. Appointed Secy., Norwegian Dept. of Labour, 1908. Barrister at Supreme Court of Norway since 1921. Chairman, Com. for Revision of Labour Disputes Act, 1931-32. Chairman, Aker Com. for controlling of prices, since 1939. Director of Axelsens Fabrikker A/S, Flekkefjord. Author of several juridical publications on insurance, sale of goods, labor disputes, torts, etc. Address: Pilestredet 10, Oslo, Norway.

OVERHOFF, CAREL FREDERIK, Dutch Financier; born Aug. 20, 1891, Amsterdam, The Netherlands; son of Carel Fredrik and Johanna Margaretha (Piek) Overhoff; married Madelaine Marie Nieuewenhuys; two children. Entered firm of Kerkhoven & Co., 1913; Manager, 1916; Partner since 1918. Director, N. V. het Administratiekantoor van Gebrs. Boissevain en Kerkhoven & Co., Amsterdam; Administratiekantoor van Veeren. Amerikaansche. Pres., Stock Exchange, Amsterdam. Member: Vereen. voor den Effectenhandel, Amsterdam; Alg. Amsterdamsche Vereen. voor Wijkverplegins "Het Witte Kruis"; Nederlandsche Vereen. voor Luchtbescherming. Pres., Vereen. tot verbetering van het lot der Blinden in Nederland en Kolonien; Commissary, N.V. van Vlissingen & Co.'s Katoenfabr., Helmond; Ned. Fabriek van Bronswerken v/h Brecht & Dyserinck N.V; Pretoria Hypotheek Mij.; Hoofstad Hypothekbank voor Binnen- em Buitenland, Amsterdam; N.V. Nederl. Hotelzilver Mij. "Hollandia Plate," Hilversum. Member, Amsterdam branch, Kon. Nat. Vereen, tot Steun aan Miliciens. Address: P. C. Hooftstraat 159, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

OVERHOLSER, Dr. MILTON DAVID, American Anatomist; born Dec. 16, 1900, Harrisonville, Mo.; son of M. P. and Fannie (Long) Overholser; educated at Univ. of Missouri, A.B. 1923, A.M. 1924; New York Univ., Ph.D. 1928; New York Univ. and Bellevue Hosp. Med. College, M.D. 1931; married Virnelle Metts, Feb. 17, 1926; two children. Instructor in Histology, Univ. of Missouri, 1924-25. Instructor in Histology, New York Univ. Dental School, 1925-27; Instructor in Gross Anatomy and Neuro-Anatomy, Med. School of New York Univ., 1927-28, Instructor in Gross Anatomy (full charge of course), 1928-29). Instructor in Histology and Embryology, 1929-30. Asst. Prof. of Anatomy, teaching Embryology, Histology and Applied Anatomy, Univ. of Missouri, 1931-33; Assoc. Prof. of Anatomy and Acting Chairman of Dept., 1933-34; Chairman of Dept. since 1934;

Prof. of Anatomy since 1936. Trustee of Med. School Foundation, Inc., Univ. of Missouri, since 1935; Secy. of Missouri State Anatomical Board since 1933. Member: Amer. Assn. of Anatomists; Amer. Med. Assn.; Missouri State Med. Assn. (Vice-Pres., 1941-42); Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Harvey Soc.; Assn. for Study of Internal Secretions. Made numerous original contributions to Endocrinology; Anatomical Record; Amer. Journal of Physiology; Proceedings of Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine, etc. Address: University of Missouri Medical School, Columbia, Mo.

OVERHOLSER, Dr. WINFRED, American Psychiatrist; born April 21, 1892, Worcester, Mass.; son of Edwin M. and Mary J. (Walker) Overholser; educated at Harvard, A.B. cum laude, 1912; Boston Univ., M.B. 1915, M.D. 1916, D.Sc. 1940; married Dorothy Stebbins; June 4, 1919; three children. With State Hosp. Service of Massachusetts, 1917-36; was on Staff of the Westboro, Gardner and Medfield State Hosps., and from 1925 to 1930 was Dir. of Div. for Examination of Prisoners; Asst. Commnr. of Mental Diseases, 1930-34, and Commnr. until 1936. Since 1937 he has been Supt. of St. Elizabeths Hosp., Washington, D. C. From 1925 to 1934 he served as Instructor, Asst., Assoc. Prof., and Prof. of Psych. at Boston Univ. School of Med. He has been Prof. of Psych. at George Washington Univ. School of Med. since 1938. He serves as Pres. of Bd. of Mgrs. of Washington Inst. of Mental Hygiene, and as Member of Bd. of Mgrs. of Washington Council of Social Agencies. He is Ex-Pres. of New England Soc. of Psych; Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn.; Secy.-Treas. of Amer. Psych. Assn., 1941; President, 1947-48. Chairman of Subcom. on Mental Hygiene of Med. Soc. of District of Columbia. Editor-in-Chief, Quarterly Review of Psychiatry and Neurology. Member, Natl. Med. Advisory Bd., Amer. Legion. Member, Scientific Adv. Bd., Baruch Com. on Physical Med. Address: St. Elizabeths Hosp., Washington 20, District of Columbia.

ÖVERLAND, ARNULF, Norwegian Author; born Apr. 27, 1889, Kristiansund, Norway; son of Peter and Hanna (Hage) Överland; educated at Univ. of Norway; married Margrete Aamot, June 22, 1945; one daughter. Began as painter, 1910; poet, 1911. Author (poetry): Den Ensomme Fest, 1911; Advent; Brod og vin; Berget det blå; Hustavler; Jeg vesverger dig; Den röde front; Ord i Alvor; Vi overlever alt, 1945; (short stories) Den hårde fred; Dellig er jorden; Gud plantet en have; (plays) Venner; Gi mig ditt hjerte; (essays and discourses) Olav Duun; Kapital og Andsarbeide; Til offentlig forargelse; Kjetterprocessen, etc. Pres., Norwegian Union of Students, 1923; Pres., Assn. of Norwegian Authors, 1923-28. Member, Internatl. P.E.N. Club. Address: Grotten, Oslo, Norway.

OVERSTREET, Prof. HARRY ALLEN, American Philosopher; born 1875. Taught Philosophy at various universities and colleges in the U. S. Author: The Basic Principle of Truth-evaluation, 1904; The Dialectic of Plotinus, 1909; World Organization (address delivered before Women's Peace Party of New York State, Feb. 19, 1918), 1918; Hearts to Mend (one-act fantasy), 1920; Influencing Human Behavior, 1925; About Ourselves (psychology for normal people), 1927; The Enduring Quest (a search for a philosophy of life), 1931; We Move in New Directions, 1933; A Guide to Civilized Loafing, 1934; A Declaration of Interdependence, 1937; Town Meeting Comes to Town (with Bonaro W. Overstreet), 1938; Let Me Think, 1939; The Story of America's Town Meeting of the Air (with Bonaro W. Overstreet), 1940; Leaders for Adult Education (with Bonaro W. Overstreet), 1941; Our Free Minds, 1941, etc.; also Editor of many publications. Address: 445 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y.

OVERSTREET, ROBERT HARRIS, U. S. Maritime Commission Official; born Jan. 16, 1889, Kansas City, Mo.; son of Harry E. and Martha (Mann) Overstreet; educated at Illinois Inst. of Technology; Univ. of Illinois; took two years accounting course; married Helen Sylvia Butler, Sept. 7, 1912; three children. Cashier and Accountant, U. S. Shipping Board, Portland, Ore., 1918-20; Auditor of Operations, U. S. Shipping Board, Washington, D. C., 1921-23; Manager, Stevedoring and Terminals Div., United States Shipping Board, Washington, D. C., 1923-32; Asst. Deputy Administrator (Shipping Codes), National Recovery Administration, Washington, D. C., 1932-34; Chairman, Com. on Adjustment of Ocean Mail Contracts, U. S. Maritime Commission, 1936-37. Director of Operating Costs Control, War Shipping Administration and U. S. Maritime Commission, 1943-47. Contracting Officer for War Shipping Administration for Master Repair Contract which was developed jointly by the War Shipping Administration, U. S. Navy and the U. S. Army, 1944-45. Chairman, Suggestion Advisory Com., War Shipping Administration and U. S. Maritime Commission, 1945-47; Chief, Subsidy Branch, Div. of Research, U. S. Maritime Commission, 1947. Residence: 3237 Klingle Road, N. W., Washington 8, D. C. Office: U. S. Maritime Commission, Commerce Bldg., Washington, D. C.

OVERTON, Sir ARNOLD EDERSHEIM, British Civil Servant; born Jan. 8, 1893, Oxford; son of Canon F. A. and Ella (Edersheim) Overton; educated at Winchester; New College, Oxford; married Bronwen Cecilie Vincent, 1920; three son, one daughter. Began career in 1914 in the Royal Engineers; during First World War served in France, 1914-15, and in Macedonia and Palestine, 1916-18. Entered the Civil Service in 1919; apointed Permanent Secretary of H.M. Board of Trade 1941. Head of British Middle East Office, 1945 —. Awarded Military Cross, 1918; created C.M.G., 1932, K.C.M.G., 1939; K.C.B. in 1943. Residence: 41 Upper Addison Gardens, London, England. Office: British Middle East Office, Cairo, Egypt.

OVERTON, Dr. ELVIN ELLIS, American Professor of Law; born Nov. 17, 1906, Chicago, Ill.; son of William Elvin and Edna (Price) Overton; educated at Bradley Polytechnic Inst., Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1928; Chicago Law School, J.D. 1931; Harvard Univ., S.J.D. 1943; married Harriet Titus Brown, Mar. 26, 1932; two children. Instructor in Law, Univ. of Arkansas, 1931; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Tennessee, School of Law, 1933-34; Prof., Mercer Univ. School of Law, 1934-42; Dean, 1937-42; Visiting Prof., Univ. of Oregon School of Law, 1941-42; Prof., Law, Temple Univ. Law School, Philadelphia, Pa., since 1942. Contributor to legal reviews. Address: 134 Barcladen Road, Rosemont, Pa.

OVERTON, EUGENE, American Lawyer; born May 11, 1880, Fort Grant, Ariz.; son of Gilbert E. and Jane Dyson (Watkins) Overton; educated at Los Angeles High School, grad. 1899; married Georgia Caswell, Nov. 19, 1907; one son. Admitted to Bar, 1902. Partner in law firm: Lee, Chase, Overton & Valentine, until 1909; Chase, Overton & Lyman, 1909; Overton, Lyman & Plumb, 1915; Overton, Lyman, Plumb, Prince & Vermille, since 1945. Vice Pres. and Director: Amer. Pacific Steamship Co.; Alphonzo E. Bell Corp.; Chamber of Commerce Building Corp.; Earle C. Anthony, Inc.; Los Angeles Transfer Co.; Occidental Petroleum Corp.; The Spalding Co. Pres., Marlborough Corp. Member, Bd. of Harbor Commissioners, City of Los Angeles, since 1939 (Pres., since 1940). Member: Calif. State Bar Assn.; Los Angeles Bar Assn. (Pres., 1926); Amer. Bar Assn. Residence: 166 S. Rossmore Ave. Office: 733 Roosevelt Bldg., 727 W. 7th St., Los Angeles 14, Calif.

OVERTON, JOHN HOLMES, Sr., United States Senator; born Sept. 17, 1875, Marksville, La.; son of Thomas and Laura (Waddill) Overton; educated at Louisiana State University, B.A.; Tulane University, LL.B.; Duquesne University, Honorary LL.D.; married Ruth Dismukes, Dec. 12, 1905; four children. Began career as a lawyer, 1898. Joined law firm of Blackman & Overton, 1904, Overton, Dawkins & McSween, 1924, Overton & McSween, 1933; member of Overton, McSween & Overton, 1937-45. City Attorney, Alexandria, La., 1904-12; leading counsel in defense of late Huey P. Long in attempted impeachment as Governor of Louisiana, 1929. Elected to U. S. House of Representatives, 1931. United States Senator since 1932; re-elected Nov. 1938 and Nov. 1944. Member of American and Louisiana Bar Assns., etc. Residence: 1128 - 8th St., Alexandria, La. Office: Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.

OVERTON, PAUL, American Attorney-at-Law; born Mar. 18, 1879, Willis, Texas; son of James Frank and Mary L. (Sturgeon) Overton; educated at Columbian (now Geo. Washington) Univ., Washington, D. C.; Cornell Univ., LL.B. 1900; married Angela Bouilly, June 3, 1916; two daughters. Practiced law in Texas, 1900-02, removed to California, 1902. Asst. to Attorney-General of Philippine Islands at Manila, 1903. Asst. General Counsel, Los Angeles Gas & Electric Corp., 1912-17, General Counsel, 1917-33; in general practice of law since 1933; now Senior Member, firm of Overton, Selig & Wilson, Los Angeles. Address: 650 So. Grand Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

OVIATT, PERCIVAL DeWITT, American Lawyer; born Apr. 30, 1876, Rochester, N. Y.; son of Wilson D. and Caroline (Hankey) Oviatt; educated at Univ. of Rochester, A.B.; Columbia Law School; married Helen Louise Moody, June 1, 1904; three children. Member: Wile, Oviatt & Gilman, 1900; Oviatt, Gilman, O'Brien & Barnsdale; Oviatt, Gilman, O'Brien & Forman, since 1940. Mayor, City of Rochester, 1933. Director, The Haloid Co., Rochester, N. Y. Member: Amer., New York, and Rochester Bar Assns. (Pres., 1940-42); Rochester Chamber of Commerce; N. Y. State Archaeological Assn.; Amer. Law Inst.; Amer. Judicature Soc.; Archaeological Inst. of America. Address: 183 E. Main St., 1252 Lincoln Alliance Bank Bldg., Rochester 4, N. Y.

OWE, AAGE WILLAND, Norwegian Engineer; born Oct. 9, 1894, Horten, Norway; son of Christofer and Inga (Jacobsen) Owe; educated at Univ. of Oslo, 1913-18; Technical Univ. of Norway, Trondheim, Chemical Engineer (with honors), 1920; course in colloid chemistry, Univ. of Frankfurt, 1922; married Marie Mathiesen, June 3, 1922; three children. Teacher, Frogner Skole, Oslo, 1917-18; Asst. Engineer, Technical Univ. of Norway (N.T.H.), 1920-23; Teacher, Trondheim Handelsgymnasium, 1922-23; Research Chemist, O. Mustade Son, Oslo, 1923-27; Chief Chemist, 1927-35; Chief Engineer, A/S Margarincentralen, Oslo, 1935-45; Director of Industrial Supply, Ministry of Supply, Oslo, 1945; Technical Director, A/S Margarincentralen, Oslo, since 1946. Chairman of Board, Norsk Brenselimport A/S (1940-42 and since 1945); A/S Nordisk Lettmetall under off. forv. (since 1945). Chairman, Fuel Com. for Norway, 1940-42 and since 1945. Member of other Governmental Coms., 1934-40 and since 1945; Member of Governmental Delegations for Commercial Negotiations with Sweden, Denmark, Finland and Czechoslovakia, 1945. Member: Norwegian Chemical Soc. (N.K.S.); Polytechnical Assn. (P.F.); (N.I.F.) Assn. of Norwegian Engineers (Chairman of Group of Chemical Engineers, 1928-32; Chairman, Oslo Branch of Assn., 1933-35; Pres. of Assn. 1937-46). Corresponding Member, The Technical Soc. of Finland, since 1945. Awarded gold medal of the King for technical scientific work, 1926; Chevalier, Swedish Order of North Star, 1946. Author: The Determination of Iodine Value (with collab.), Oslo, 1923; The Corrosion of Tinplate in Canned Foods (Trondheim), 1927; Research and the Research Worker (Oslo), 1938. Residence: Fornebuveien 29, Lysaker. Office: A/S Margarincentralen, Kr. August gt. 15, Oslo, Norway.

OWEN, Major General ALLISON, American Architect; born Dec. 29, 1869, New Orleans, La.; son of General William Miller and Caroline (Zacharie) Owen; educated at Tulane Univ.; Massachusetts Inst. of Technology; married Blanche Pothier, Sept. 16, 1896 (dec.); four children. Architect since 1895. Works include: New Orleans Public Library; Criminal Court and Prison Building, New Oreans; Milne Boy's Municipal Home, New Orleans; Notre Dame Seminary, New Orleans; St. Thomas Housing Project, New Orleans; Pan-American Building, New Orleans; Louisiana Building, United Fruit Bldg., New Orleans; Westminster Church, Kansas City, Mo., etc. Pres., New Orleans Parkway Commn. Member: New Orleans Planning and Zoning Commn.; Louisiana State Civil Service Commn. Pres., Louisiana Historical Assn. Chairman, New Orleans Chapter, Amer. Red Cross. Fellow, Amer. Inst. of Architects. Major General, Louisiana National Guard (retired). Made Chevalier of Legion of Honor, and Knight of St. Gregory the Great. Edited Architectural Art and its Allies of New Orleans (for seven years). Author of articles on military or architectural subjects. Commander, Washington Artillery (141st) on Mexican Border, 1916, and France, 1918-19; Commander of 56th Artillery Brigade, 1926-33. Awards: Distinguished Service Medals of Louisiana and Alabama; Times-Picayune Loving Cup, 1928 (annual award for community service in New Orleans). Address: 1101B Pere Marquette Bldg., New Orleans, La.

OWEN, ARTHUR DAVID KEMP, British Economist; Assistant Secretary General for Economic Affairs, United Nations; born Nov. 26, 1904, Pontypool, Monmouthshire, Wales; son of Rev. Edward and Gertrude (Kemp) Owen; educated at Univ. of Leeds, degree with Economic Honors, 1926, Master of Commerce, 1929; married Elizabeth Joyce Morgan, Nov. 11, 1933; two children. Director, Social Survey of Sheffield, 1929-33; Secy., Civic Research Division, Political & Economic Planning, London, 1933-36; Co-Director, Pilgrim Trust Unemployment Survey, London, 1936-37; Stevenson Lecturer in Citizenship, Univ. of Glasgow, 1937-40; General Secy., Political & Economic Planning, London, 1940-41; Personal Asst. to Sir Stafford Cripps on Cripps' Mission to India, 1942, Office of the Lord Privy Seal, 1942; Ministry of Aircraft Production, 1942-43; Officer in charge of League of Nations Affairs, Foreign Office, 1944-45. Member of U.K. Delegation, San Francisco

Conf., 1945; Deputy Executive Secy., Preparatory Commn. of United Nations, London, 1945-46; Executive Asst. to Mr. Trygve Lie, Sec.-Gen. of UN, Feb.-Apr. 1, 1946; Asst. Secy.-Gen., Economic Dept., UN, since 1946. Member: Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs, London; Royal Economic Soc., London. Author: Social Survey of Sheffield Reports, 1931-34; The British Social Services, 1940; Men Without Work: A Study of Unemployment (with others), 1937. Residence: Frost Mill Rd., Mill Neck, Long Island. Office: United Nations, Lake Success, Long Island, New York.

OWEN, CARL M., Lawyer; born Aug. 17, 1879, Galena, Ohio; son of William Bryant and Sarah Dorcas (Maynard) Owen; educated at Illinois College, 1897-98; Dartmouth College, A.B. 1901; Harvard University, LL.B. 1905; married Shirley Barnes, June 15, 1907; three children. Associated with Henry M. Ward, 1905-06; Hornblower, Byrne, Miller & Potter, 1906 and successor firms down to date; became a member, firm, Feb. 1, 1910, then known as Hornblower, Miller & Potter; now, Willkie, Owen, Otis, Farr & Gallagher. Member: American Bar Assn.; New York State Bar Assn.; Bar Assn. of the City of New York. Residence: Lawrence Park W., Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 15 Broad St., New York, N. Y.

OWEN, Dr. DAVID EDWARD, American Historian; born Dec. 22, 1898, Owatonna, Minn.; son of Ernest Jones and Byrd (Tuttle) Owen; educated at Denison Univ., Ph.D. 1927; married Louise Hamblen, Sept. 12, 1922; one daughter. Instr. in History, Yale Univ., 1923-27; Asst. Prof., 1927-37. Visiting Lecturer, Harvard Univ., 1937-38; Assoc. Prof. of History, 1937-46; Prof. of History, since 1946. Member, Amer. Historical Assn. Author: Imperialism and Nationalism in the Far East, 1929; British Opium Policy in China and India, 1934. Address: Harvard University, 9 Holyoke House, Cambridge, Mass.

OWEN, DAVID K., British Economist; United Nations Assistant Secretary General; born 1905, Pontypool, South Wales; educated at Leeds University; student of economy and sociology; married; two children. Director, Sheffield Social Survey, 1929. Co-Director, Pilgrim Trust Unemployment Enquiry, 1936; Teacher of Citizenship, Glasgow Univ., 1937-40. Director of Political and Economic Planning, 1940; Personal Asst. to Sir Stafford Cripps, 1941-43; Member, Foreign Office Reconstruction Dept., 1943-45; Member, British Delegation, United Nations Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Deputy Executive-Secretary, United Nations Preparatory Commission, 1945; Asst. Secy.-General of United Nations in Charge of Dept. of Economic Affairs, 1946 —. Address: Department of Economic Affairs, United Nations, Lake Success, N. Y.

OWEN, Dr. EDWIN AUGUSTINE, British Physicist; born Aug. 5, 1887, Blaenau Ffestiniog, North Wales; son of John and Ellen Owen; educated at Univ. College of North Wales, Bangor, B.Sc. 1908, M.Sc. 1912; Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A. 1912, M.A. 1919, Sc.D. 1934; Univ. College, London, D.Sc. 1919; married Julia May Vallance, Apr. 3, 1915; one son. Asst., Metrology Dept., National Physical Laboratory, 1912-15; engaged in standardisation of instruments for the Ministry of Munitions, 1914-19; Head, Radiology Division, National Physical Laboratory, 1919-26; Prof. of Physics, Univ. College, North Wales, Bangor, since 1926. Hon. Consultant Physicist to Caernarvon and Anglesey Infirmary since 1927, and to Chester Royal Infirmary since 1939. Member, Scientific Advisory Com., Natl. Gallery, London, since 1942. Member of Cheshire and North Wales Group Executive of British Empire Cancer Campaign since 1938; Member of Grand Council since 1945. Governor: Wrexham Technical College since 1928; Rydal Mount School since 1936; Bangor Secondary Schools since 1936. Fellow, Physical Soc.; Founder Fellow, Inst. of Physics; Member, British Inst. of Radiology; Fellow, Cambridge Philosophical Soc.; Member, Inst. of Metals. Hon. Secy., Roentgen Soc., London, 1920-24; British Inst. of Radiology, 1924-25 and Internatl. Com. on Radiological Units, 1925-37. Vice-Pres., Physical Soc., London, 1926-28; Vice-Pres., British Inst. of Radiology, 1939-42. Received Roentgen Award, British Inst. of Radiology, 1937; Silvanus Thompson Medal, 1945. Author of numerous original papers on radiology, x-rays, crystal structure of metals and alloys, in various scientific periodicals. Address: University College of North Wales, Bangor, North Wales.

OWEN, FRANK, British Editor; born Sept. 27, 1905, Hereford, Herefordshire; son of Thomas and Cicely (Green) Owen; educated at Monmouth School (Scholar); Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, 1st Class Honours in History and Economics, B.A. 1927; married Grace McGillray Stuart, Feb. 4, 1939. Reporter and Sub-Editor, South Wales Argus, 1928-29. Liberal M.P., 1929-31. Reporter and Editorial Writer, News-Chronicle, 1931, and Daily Express, 1932-38. Asst. Editor, Evening Standard, 1938; Editor, 1939-41. With Royal Armoured Corps, 1942-46. Editor, The Daily Mail, 1947, Made O.B.E. (Military), 1946. Author: Red Rainbow (with W. E. Cemlyn-Jones), 1931; (with R. J. Thompson): His Was the Kingdom (The Abdication Story), 1937; Three Dictators, 1940; Guilty Men (with Michael Foote), 1940; China, Our Unknown Ally, 1941; The Campaign in Burma, 1946. Residence: 47 Westminster Gardens. Office: The Daily Mail, Northcliffe House, Fleet St., London, E.C. 4, England.

OWEN, GEORGE SHERARD, British Government Official; born June 20, 1892, Harrow, Eng.; son of The Reverend E.C.E. Owen; educated at Rossall and at University College, Oxford; married Doris Winifred Lyall Haynes, Aug. 5, 1920. Assistant Principal of Ministry of Labour, 1919; Principal in 1924; Assistant Secretary of Unemployment Assistant Board, 1934. A principal Assistant Secretary at the Board of Trade, 1940-43; an Under Secretary at the Ministry of Production, 1943-45; Under Secretary, Board of Education, 1945 —. Residence: 13 Lancaster Grove, London, N. W. 3. Office: Ministry of Production, Great George St., London, S.W.1, England.

OWEN, Sir GORONWY, D.S.O., D.L., M.A., British Political Leader; born June 22, 1881, Penilwyn, Aberystwyth, N.W.; son of Abraham and Margaret S. (Williams) Owen; educated at University College of Wales, B.A. 1902, M.A. 1907; Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-law, 1919; married Margaret Gladwyn Jones, Jan. 28, 1925. Began career as a Schoolmaster, 1902. Member of Parliament for Caernarvonshire, North Wales, 1923-45. Comptroller of His Majesty's Household since 1931; Welsh Whip (Liberal) for six years. Chief Liberal Whip in First National Government in 1931. Address: Llwynybrain, Llanrug, Caernarvon, North Wales.

OWEN, HARRISON, Australian Journalist; born June 24, 1890, Geelong, Australia; son of Albert Thomas and Elizabeth (Swindells) Owen; educated in private schools; married Esther Ann Dyson, 1915. Reporter, Melbourne Herald; special writer and dramatic critic; contributor of fiction and verse to Sydney Bulletin and other Australian journals. Author: The Mount Marunga Mystery, 1919; Tommyrot Rhymes. Went to London in 1920; Editorial Writer, London Opinion, 1921; Editorial Writer, Daily Sketch, 1921-32; Feature Writer, John Bull, 1922-39. Wrote for stage; plays produced include: The Gentleman-in-Waiting, 1925; The Happy Husband, 1927 (New York, 1928, Paris and Vienna); filmed as Uneasy Virtue, 1931); Doctor Pygmalion, 1932. Part-Author (films): Our Fighting Navy; Sunset in Vienna. Wrote Playwright's Craft, 1930. Editorial Writer, Melbourne Sun, since 1939. Residence: Allambi, Clowes St., South Yarra. Office: Sun Office, Flinders St., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

OWEN, HUMPHREY FRANK, British Editor; born Sept. 27, 1905, Hereford, England; son of Thomas H. and Cicely (Green) Owen; educated at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, graduated with first class honours in History and Economics, 1927; married Grace S. McGillvray, Feb. 4, 1939. Reporter, South Wales Argus, Newport; Liberal Member of Parliament, Hereford Division, 1929-31; Editorial Writer, Daily Express, 1931-38; Asst. Editor, Evening Standard, 1938; Editor, Evening Standard, 1938-41. Served in Royal Armoured Corps, 1942-43; Staff of Admiral Mountbatten, 1943-46; Lieut. Colonel. 1945. Now Editor, Daily Mail, London. Member, Natl. Union of Journalists. Awarded Order of British Empire, 1946. Author: Red Rainbow (with C. Jones), 1931; His was the Kingdom (with R. J. Thompson); An Account of the Abdication, 1937; Guilty Men (with M. Foot), 1940; The Three Dictators (Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin), 1941; The Royal Armoured Corps, 1945; The Campaign in Burma, 1946. Residence: 47 Westminster Gardens. Office: Northcliffe House, Fleet St., London, England.

OWEN, Dr. JAMES R., British Physician; born Mar. 28, 1905, Warwickshire, England; son of Arthur and Annie (Smith) Owen; educated at Dover College, 1918-22; Birmingham Univ., 1924-29; married Olive Alfreda Scribbans, Sept. 24, 1932. Medical First Asst., London Hosp., 1938-39; Medical Registrar, Natl. Temperance Hosp., 1938-39; Medical Registrar, Royal Cancer Hosp., London, since 1939; Asst. Physician, Blackfriars Hosp., London, since 1938; Medical Specialist, Royal Army Medical Corps, 1940; Major, 1941; Lt. Col., 1943; Officer in charge of Medical Division, South East Asia Command; mentioned in despatches, 1945. Now in private practice, London. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Medicine. Address: 37 Welbeck St., London, W. 1, England.

OWEN, JOHN, British Author; educated at Calday Grange Grammar School, Cheshire. Author: The Cotton Broker, 1921; The Idealist, 1922; Robert Gregory, 1922; The Hoarding, 1923; The Glory of Going On, 1924; The Giant of Oldbourne, 1926; The Shepherd and the Child, 1929; Many Captives, 1930; The Running Footman, 1931; Everard Bringle, 1934; The Road and the Wood, 1936; The Blind for Sacrifice, 1937; The Beauty of the Ships, 1940; The Traitor, 1941; Blitz Hero, 1943; Wind in the Sky, 1944; Suffolk Madman, 1946. Address: The White House, Felixstowe, Suffolk, England.

OWEN, Prof. LEONARD VICTOR DAVIES, British Historian; born Apr. 4, 1888, Cardigan, Wales; son of John and Margaret Anne Owen; educated at Llandovery School; Keble College, Oxford, B.A. 1911, M.A. 1914; married Gwen Price, Nov. 23, 1917; one son. Asst. Tutor at Keble College, 1911; Asst. Lecturer, Univ. of Wales, 1912; Lecturer in Modern History, Univ. of Sheffield, 1914; Prof. of History at Univ. College, Nottingham, since 1920. Examiner at various times to Univs. of Sheffield, Ireland, Wales and Reading. Member: Council of The Pipe Roll Soc.; Lincoln Record Soc. Fellow, Royal Historical Soc. Editor, Reports and Papers of the Lincolnshire Archaeological Soc., and of Transactions of the Thoroton Soc. of Nottinghamshire. Author: England and Burgundy, 1400-1450 (1909); Teaching of History in Elementary Schools, 1916; The Guilds of St. Peter's, Nottingham, 1939; also articles in various journals on Robin Hood, Sir Roger Williams, etc. Address: University College, Nottingham, England.

OWEN, RUSSELL, American Writer; born 1899. Author: South of the Sun, 1934; The Antarctic Ocean, 1941. Address: c/o McGraw Hill Book Co., Inc., 330 W. 42nd St., New York, N. Y.

OWEN, WILBER, American Lawyer; born June 30, 1873, Detroit, Mich.; son of Charles W. and Isabelle J. Owen; educated at George Washington University, LL.B. 1896, LL.M. 1897; married Anna Mae McGrath, June 30, 1943. Began law practice, 1897, in Toledo, Ohio, where he has since maintained offices. His brother, Charles W. Owen joined him in 1901, when the firm of Owen & Owen was organized. Member: Toledo and American Bar Assns.; American Patent Law Assn.; Phi Delta Phi. Author: Owen's Law Quizzer; Questions and Answers on Pleading; Questions and Answers on Evidence. Residence: Secor Hotel. Office: 805 Nicholas Bldg., Toledo, Ohio.

OWENS, Dr. (ARTHUR) NEAL, American Plastic Surgeon; born Aug. 5, 1899, Heflin, Ala.; son of J. A. and Laura (Neal) Owens; educated at Univ. of Ala., B.S. 1924; Emory Univ., M.D. 1926; married Georgia May Little, Sept. 30, 1931; two daughters. Asst. Dispensary Surgeon in Plastic Surg., John Hopkins Dispensary, 1930-31; worked with Sir Harold Gilles, London, until 1933; Instructor in Surgery, 1933-37; Asst. Prof. of Clinical Surg., 1937-43; Prof. of Clinical Surg., Tulane Univ., since 1943. Visiting Surgeon, Charity Hosp., La.; Consultant in Plastic Surg.; Senior Assoc. in Dept. of Surg., Touro Infirmary; Hotel Dieu, Sendat Memorial of Mercy Hospital, New Orleans Hosp. and Dispensary for Women and Children. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Plastic Surgeons; Amer. Soc. of Plastic and Reconstructive Surg.; Amer. Bd. of Plastic Surg. (Founders Group); Amer. College of Surgeons (Fellow); Amer. Assn. for Surg. of Trauma. Residence: 2015 Palmer Ave. Office: 1615 American Bank Bldg., New Orleans 12, La.

OWENS, (JAMES) HAMILTON, American Editor; born Aug. 8, 1888, Baltimore, Md.; son of Gwinn Fardon and Arabella Pierpont (Smith) Owens; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1909; married Olga von Hartz, March 6, 1913; five children. Reporter, Baltimore News, 1909; New York Press, 1913; Dramatic Critic, 1914-15; with Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, 1920-22; Asst. Manager of London Office, 1921-22; Editor, Baltimore Evening Sun, 1922; Editor, The Sun, 1938-43; Editor-in-Chief of The Sunpapers, since 1943. Hon. Member, Baltimore Chapter, Amer. Inst. of Architects. Author: Baltimore On the Chesapeake, 1941. Secy., New York Com. on National Defense, 1917. Managing Editor, Foreign Press Bureau, Com. on Public Information, 1918. Residence: Riderwood, Baltimore County. Office: The Sun, Sun Square, Baltimore, Md.

OWER, Dr. JOHN JAMES, Canadian Pathologist; born Dec. 4, 1885, Smiths Falls, Ont., Canada; son of John and Eleanor F. (Coung) Ower; educated at McGill Univ., B.A. 1905, M.D., C.M. 1909; married Lena C. Anderson, Sept. 5, 1913; five children. Resident in Pathol., Montreal General Hosp., 1912; A. A. Browne Fellow, McGill Univ., 1912-13, and James Douglas Fellow, 1913-14; Major, Royal Canadian Army Med. Corps, 1914-19. Prof. of Pathol., Univ. of Alberta, since 1919; Dean of Faculty of Medicine, 1945; Pathologist, Univ. Hosp. Member: Royal College of Physicians of Canada; Canadian Med. Assn.; Assn. for Cancer Research; Assn. of Med. Museums. Address: Univ. of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

OWLETT, GILBERT MASON, American Lawyer; born June 13, 1892, Wellsboro, Pa.; son of Edward H. and Ida (Wells) Owlett; educated at Wellsboro High School, 1909; Perkonien School, Pennsburg, Pa., 1910; Princeton Univ., B.S. 1914; Univ. of Pennsylvania Law School, B.S. 1915-17; married Sue Elizabeth Beykey, June 20, 1918; two children. Member, Crichton & Owlett, Wellsboro, 1918-33; now Owlett, Webb & Cox. State Senator, Pennsylvania, 1932, 1936; Member, Republican Natl. Com., 1936, 1940, 1944. Vice-Pres., Manufacturers Assn., 1940-42; now Pres. and Director. Vice-Pres. and Director, Troga County Savings & Trust Co.; Exec. Vice-Pres., Casualty Ins. Co.; Director, Wellsboro Hotel Co.; Wellsboro Electric Co. Member: Pennsylvania Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn. Address: 1704 Finance Bldg., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

OWSLEY, Dr. FRANK LAWRENCE, American Professor of History; born Jan. 20, 1890, Montgomery, Ala.; son of Lawrence and Annie S. (McGehee) Owsley; educated at Alabama Polytechnic Inst., B.S. 1911, M.S. 1912; Univ. of Chicago, M.A. 1917, Ph.D. 1924; married Harriet Fason Chappell, July 26, 1920; three children. Asst. in History and Latin, Alabama Polytechnic Inst., 1912-13, 1914-15, 1918-19. Teacher of History, Fifth District Agricultural School Experiment Station, Wetumpka, Ala., 1913-14; Director, 1918. Prof. of History, Birmingham Southern College, 1919-20; Asst. Prof. of History, Vanderbilt Univ., 1920-24; Assoc. Prof.; Prof. since 1927. Instructor, summer sessions, Peabody College for Teachers; Univ. of Alabama; Univ. of Illinois; Univ. of North Carolina; Duke Univ. Member: (Pres. 1940) Southern Historical Assn.; Amer., Mississippi Valley, and Tennessee Historical Assns. Author: State Rights in the Confederacy, 1925; King Cotton Diplomacy, 1931; America and the Freedom of the Sea, 1935; The Irrepressible Conflict, 1930; The Foundations of Democracy, 1936; (with O. P. Chitwood) A Short History of the American People; etc. Address: 6 Vanderbilt University Campus, Nashville, Tenn.

OWST, Dr. GERALD ROBERT, British Educator; born Apr. 1, 1894; educated at Cheltenham College, 1907-13; Emmanuel College, Cambridge, 1913-14, 1919-20, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1923, Lit.D. 1932; King's College Theological Dept., London, Ph.D. 1924, D.Lit. 1929. Asst. Editorial Secy., Medieval-Latin Dictionary Com., The British Academy, 1924-27. Private Tutor to Prince Chichibu of Japan (during English visit), 1925-26; H.M. Inspector of Schools, Board of Education, 1928-38; Staff Inspector for History, 1937-38; Prof. of Education at Cambridge Univ., since 1938. Fellow, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, since 1938; King's College, London, since 1929, and of the Royal Historical Soc. since 1926. Author: Preaching in Medieval England (Cambridge Studies in Medieval Life and Thought), 1926; Literature and Pulpit in Medieval England, 1933, etc. Address: Dept. of Education, 17 Brookside, Cambridge, England.

OXENSTIERNA, Captain, Count JOHAN GABRIEL, Swedish Naval Officer; born Aug. 28, 1899, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Count Erik and Siri (Wallenberg) Oxenstierna; educated at Naval College, 1920, Stac Course 1926, Higher Torpedo Course 1928; Swedish Gymnastic Central Inst. (Instructors Course), 1922; divorced; three children. Entered Royal Swedish Navy as a Cadet, 1917. In command of torpedo boat "Antares," 1926; destroyer "Stockholm," 1938; "Romulus," 1941; Torpedo-firing School, 1944 and 1945. Director of Torpedo Dept., Karlskrona Navy Yard, 1939; Torpedo plant at Motala, 1941 and Torpedo section of Navy Board, 1944; Asst. Naval Attaché at Paris, 1932, 1933; Member, Swedish Naval Com., Italy, 1939-40; Naval Attaché at London, 1942-44. Awards: RSO, VGM, SyimfbGM m Krans, OffFrSVSO, Offitkro, Rfrdemnar. Sub-Lieut., 1920, Lieut., 1922, Commander, 1935, Captain (Junior Grade) 1941, Capt. (Senior Grade), since 1943. Residence: 12 Lutzengatan. Office: Navy Board, Stockholm, Sweden.

OXNAM, Bishop G(ARFIELD) BROMLEY, American Clergyman; born Aug. 14, 1891, Sonora, Calif.; son of Thomas Henry and Mamie (Job) Oxnam; educated at Univ. of Southern California, A.B. 1913; S.T.B., Boston Univ., 1915, Litt.D., 1930; grad. courses, Boston Univ., Harvard and Mass. Inst. Tech.; studied in Japan, China and India, 1919, and at Amer. Seminar, London, Eng., 1921; D.D., College of the Pacific, 1925, Wesleyan Univ., 1946; S.T.D., Yale, 1946; LL.D., Ohio Wesleyan, 1929, Wabash College, 1929; Univ. of Southern Calif., 1931; Allegheny, 1946; D.Sc., Rose Polytechnic Inst., 1935; L.H.D., DePauw Univ., 1938; Litt.D., Northeastern Univ., 1941; married Ruth Fisher, Aug. 19, 1914; three children. Ordained M. E. Ministry, 1916; Pastor, Poplar (Calif.) Church, 1916-17; Church of All Nations (Methodist), and Secy., Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Soc., 1917-27; Prof., Social Ethics, Univ. of Southern Calif., 1919-23; Prof., Practical Theology and City Church, Boston Univ. School of Theology, 1927-28; Pres., DePauw Univ., 1928-36. Elected Bishop of Methodist Church, 1936; Pres. Bishop, Omaha Area, 1936-39; Boston Area, 1939-44; New York Area, since 1944. Member, Amer. Delegation to Russia, 1926. Pres., Fed. Council of Churches of Christ in America, 1944-46; Chmn., Advisory Com., Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; Member of Commn. to Study Bases of a Just and Durable Peace of Federal Council; Chmn., Commn. on Public Information of Methodist Church (Chmn. of Div. of Edni. Insts. of Bd. of Education, 1939-44); Pres., Div. of Foreign Missions, Bd. of Missions and Church Extension of Methodist Church. Member, General Com. on Army and Navy Chaplains. Member: Secy. of the Navy's Civilian Advisory Co. and President's Commn. on Higher Education; Chmn., Commn. of Churches on German Situation approved by President Truman. Lecturer, Florida Southern School of Religion, 1941; gave Merrick lectures, Ohio Wesleyan Univ., 1941; Enoch Pond lecturer, Bangor Theological Seminary, 1940; Fondren Lecturer, 1944, Peyton lecturer, 1946, Southern Methodist Univ.; Lyman Beecher lecturer, Yale, 1944; Earl lecturer, Pacific School of Religion, 1945. Trustee: Boston Univ., Wilbraham Acad., Drew Univ. and Seminary, Methodist Hosp. of Brooklyn, N. E. Deaconess Hosp. Author: (brochure) The Mexican in Los Angeles, 1920; Social Principles of Jesus, 1923; Russian Impressions, 1927; Youth and the New America, 1928; 1928; The Ethical Ideals of Jesus in a Changing World, 1941; By This Sign Conquer, 1942; Behold Thy Mother, 1944; Facing the Future Unafraid, 1944; Preaching in a Revolutionary Age, 1944; Labor and Tomorrow's World, 1945. Editor: Effective Preaching, 1929; Creative Preaching, 1930; Contemporary Preaching, 1931; Varieties of Present Day Preaching, 1932; Preaching and the Social Crisis, 1933. Contributor on social, international, industrial and religious subjects; lecturer. Residence: 1165 5th Ave. Office: 150 5th Ave., New York 11, N. Y.

OYARZUN DAY, JORGE, Chilean Physician and Oculist; born July 22, 1899, Santiago, Chile; son of Ramon Oyarzun and Maria Day de O.; educated at Internado Barros Arana; Escuela de Medicina de la Universidad de Chile; married Trini Parrague, Apr. 4, 1929; two childen. Practicing medical Oculist, since 1926. Oculist, Ministry of Navy of Chile, 1926; Chief of Ophthalmological Service, Naval Hospital, "Almirante Nef" of Valparaiso. Medical Oculist, Welfare Service of Chile, 1932; now Chief of Service of the Regional Ophthalmological Clinic of Hospital Carlos van Buren. Chief of Div. of Ophthalmology, Zonal Medical Center (Seguro Social Obrero) in Valparaiso, since 1937. Member: Chilean Red Cross; Comité de Defensa Cívica de Valparaíso; Sociedad Médica de Valparaíso; Asociación Médica de Chile; Sociedad de Oftalmología de Valparaíso (Secy.). Member, Unión Española de Deportes. Author: Tratamiento de las obstrucciones de las vias lacrimales; Los Reflejos posturales foto-estáticos en el sentido de esquilibrio; El Dalónismo en la Marina de Guerra; La Hemeralopía en la Marina de Guerra. Residence: No. 102 Balmaceda, Vina del Mar. Office: Esmeralda No. 1153, Valparaiso, Chile.

OYEVAAR, Dr. JAN JOHAN, Dutch Director General of Shipping; born June 14, 1897, Amsterdam, The Netherlands; son of Arnold Numan and Johanne (Kloos) Oyevaar; educated at Utrecht Univ., LL.B.; married Wilhelmine Boer, Jan. 27, 1939; three children. Secy., Steamship Company Nederland, Batavia, Netherlands East Indies, 1919; General Agent, 1923-32. Consul of Netherlands in Calcutta, 1932; entered government service (Dept. of Economic Affairs), The Hague, 1936; Director of Sections of Shipping, Economic Intelligence and Commerce, Ministry of Economic Affairs, 1941; Director General of Shipping, Ministry of Transportation, since Nov. 1945; Dir. General of Rhine Traffic and Seaports, since July 1947. Chairman, United Maritime Consultative Council, Amsterdam, 1946; Chief of Netherlands Delegation to United Maritime Consultative Council, Washington, D. C., Dec., 1946; Member of Transport-Communications Com., United Nations, 1947; Chmn., Meeting of Transport Experts of Economic Commission for Europe, May-June, 1947; Member, Netherlands Delegation to Economic Commission for Europe, July 1947. Contributor to The Rehabilitation of the Netherlands, 1946. Residence: 34 Park Leeuwenbergh, Voorburg. Office: 400, van Alkemadelaan, The Hague, The Netherlands.

ÖYMEN, FAKIHE, Turkish Parliament Member; born 1900, Istanbul, Turkey; daughter of Ismail and Azize (Seyket) Fevri; educated at Istanbul Normal School for Teachers, 1916; Istanbul Univ., 1921-22; married Edip Öymen, Aug. 19, 1926. Geography teacher in high schools, 1922; teacher of history and geography, Bursa Normal School for Teachers, 1923-31; Asst. Director, 1924-31; Teacher of History and Geography and Dir., Bursa High School for Girls, 1931. Elected Deputy for Istanbul, Turkish Parliament, 1935-46; reelected as Deputy for Ankara, 1946—. Pres., Turkish Educational Soc. Residence: 5 Gülden Sokak. Office: Turkish Parliament, Ankara, Turkey.

ÖZALP, General KAZIM, Turkish Political Leader; born 1882, Köprülü; son of Ismail and Yildiz Özalp; educated at the Military Academy in Istanbul; married Meveddet Özalp; two children. Began career as a soldier, 1905. Took part in Balkan War of 1912, First World War, 1914-18, and War of Independence, 1919-22, as Commandant and Chief of Staff, holding rank of General. Served twice as Minister of Public Defense. At present Deputy of Balikesir; Vice-President of the parliamentary group of the People's Party, Grand National Assembly, Ankara. Received the Independence Medal. Residence: Ankara, Turkey. Office: Grand National Assembly, Ankara, Turkey.

OZENFANT, AMÉDÉE J., French Artist and Writer; born April 15, 1886, Saint Quentin, France; son of Julien and Marie Thérèse (Saugnier) Ozenfant; educated at French Lyceums, St. Elme School and Univ. of Paris; married Marthe Thérèse Marteau, 1926. Held his first exhibition at Salon Société Nationale des Beaux-Arts, Paris, 1908; specialized in still life, landscaping and figure painting; founded Purism; painted large murals, 1925, 1927, 1928. Represented in La Roche collection; Art Inst., Chicago; Museum, Paris; Museum of Modern Art, N. Y.; Museum of Western Art, Moscow, etc. Taught at Modern Acad., Paris, 1925-30; Ozenfant Acad., Paris, 1931-35; Ozenfant Acad., London, 1935-39; French Inst., London, 1936-38; Univ. of Washington. Lecturer: New School for Social Research, New York, 1938-41; Univ. of Michigan, 1940; Yale Univ., 1938-41; Cooper Union Inst., 1939-40; Harvard Univ., 1941; Cornell, 1946. Radio Commentator for Office of War Information since 1940. Director, Ozenfant School of Fine Arts, New York, since 1939. Founder, l'Elan (revue), 1915. Wrote: After Cubism (with Le Corbusier), 1918; L'Esprit Nouveau (with Le Corbusier), 1920. Author: Peinture Moderne, 14th ed. 1925; Art, 17th ed., 1928; Leben und Gestaltung, 1930; Modern Art, 1931; Foundations of Modern Art, 1931, 2nd ed., 1947. Contributor to l'Encyclopédie Française, 1935; to l'Encyclopédie photographique de l'Art, 1936; Tour de Grèce, 1938; Journey Through Life, 1939; Innocence of the Eyes. Address: 208 East 20th St., New York 3, N. Y.

OZEROV, NIKOLAI, JR., Soviet Tennis Champion and Actor; born 1923; son of famous Moscow Bolshoi Theatre singer, Nikolai N. Ozerov; graduated from Moscow State Inst. of Theatrical Art, 1945. With touring company of Moscow Art Theatre, 1946—. First stage part in Sheridan's "Rivals"; then played in "Pickwick Club," etc. Prominent in Soviet tennis since 1940; won Moscow championship at age 17, and placed third in U.S.S.R. singles in same season; first won Soviet title in 1944, in which year was also successful in men's and mixed doubles; retained singles title, 1945. Address: Moscow Art Theatre, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

OZEROV, NIKOLAI N., Soviet Opera Singer; married; one son, Nikolai (Soviet tennis champion and actor). Sang leading roles with various opera companies. Now Member of Bolshoi Theatre Opera. Awarded title of People's Artist of the R.S.F.S.R. Address: Bolshoi Theatre, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ÖZÖRÜK, Dr. HALIL IBRAHIM, Turkish Jurist; born 1884, Izmir, Turkey; son of Mehmet Cavus and Fatma Zehra; educated at Lyceum, Izmir, B.A. 1901; Faculty of Law, Univ. of Istanbul, LL.D. 1907; married Sadriye Özyörük, 1906; three children. Asst. Public Prosecutor, Court of First Instance, 1908; Court of Assize, 1909; Sub-Inspector, Justice Dept., 1913;

Inspector, 1914; Pres., Court of First Instance, 1915; Public Prosecutor, Court of Assize, 1916; Pres., Court of Assize, 1920; engaged in private law practice, 1920-23; Director General of Personnel Affairs, Ministry of Justice, 1923; Member, Court of Appeal, 1926; Pres., Civil, Criminal and Commercial Divisions, Court of Appeal, 1928-43; participated in drafting of new laws; First Pres., Court of Appeal, since 1943; Member of First Supreme Court, 1928; President of Fourth Supreme Court, 1947—. Residence: 40 Bayindir sokak, Yenisehir, Ankara. Office: Court of Appeal, Ankara, Turkey.

ÖZSOY, MUSTAFA RESIT, Turkish Parliament Member; born 1885, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Ahmet Kadri and Nacive Özsoy; educated at School of Higher Commerce, 1905; Faculty of Law, 1910; married Sehime Özsoy, Oct. 3, 1911; four children. Public Prosecutor, Preparatory Court, Sögüt, 1912; Head of Preparatory Court, Merzifon, 1916; Member, Court of Appeal, Samsun, 1920; Court of Appeal, County of Hüdavendigâr, 1920; Public Prosecutor, Borough of Ankara, 1921; Justice of the Peace, Borough of Ankara, 1921; Inspector, Ministry of Justice, 1922; Pres., Board of Inspectors, Ministry of Justice, 1925; Under-Secy., Ministry of Justice, 1926; Head of Law Dept., State Council, 1927; Deputy for Kayseri, Turkish Parliament, 1927; re-elected since 1927. Residence: Inkilap sokak 45, Yenisehir, Ankara. Office: Turkish Grand National Assembly, Ankara, Turkey.

ÖZTRAK, FAIK, Turkish Deputy; born 1882, Malkara, Turkey; son of Ali and Naime Öztrak; educated at Mülkiye (School of Political Sciences), 1905; married Hesna Öztrak, 1912; five children. Began career as candidate-apprentice to the Governor of Edirne, 1906. Member of the Commission of Petitions, Edirne, 1909; County Administrator of Corlu, 1910, of Sofulu, 1912, Kesan, 1913, and Uzunköprü, 1914. In 1917 he became District Administrator of Nablüs, of Denizli, 1918, and in 1920 Director of Personnel, Ministry of the Interior. Appointed Director General of the Inspection Department, Ministry of the Interior, 1920, and elected Deputy of Cebelibereket; in 1923 elected Deputy for Tekirdag; in 1939, Vice-President of Parliament. Minister of the Interior, 1939-42. Now Member of the Great National Assembly, T.B.M.M. (Deputy of Tekirdag), and Vice-President of the Parliamentary group of the Republican People's Party. Recipient of the Medal of the War of Independence with red and green ribbons. Address: Atatürk Bulvari 161, Ankara, Turkey.

OZZOLA, Dr. LEANDRO, Italian Art Historian; born Apr. 23, 1880, Piacenza, Italy; son of Enrico and Maria (Salinelli) Ozzola; educated at Univ. of Rome, Litt.D. 1905; married Margherita Schoen (dec.), 1914. Inspector, Galleria Corsini, and Gabinetto delle Stampe (engravings), Rome, 1913; Director, Museum of Capodimonte, Naples, 1935; Director, Museum S. Martino, Naples, 1936; Supt. of Galleries, Provinces of Mantua, Verona and Cremona, Palazzo Ducale, Mantua, since 1939. Director, Museum and Gallery, Palazzo Ducale, Mantua. Author: Salvador Rosa pittore e poeta, 1908; L'arte alla corte di Alessandro VII papa, 1909; Gian Paolo Panini pittore, 1921; La litografia italiana, 1923; Il vestiario italiano dal 1500 al 1550. Cronologia codumentata, 1940. Address: Palazzo Ducale, Mantua, Italy.

P

PAALEN, WOLFGANG ROBERT, Artist, Writer and Editor; born July 22, 1907, Vienna, Austria; son of Gustav Robert (Liennard) Paalen; married Luchita García-Rodríguez, 1947. Exhibited at Secession, Berlin, Germany, 1925. Gave one-man shows at Galerie Vignon, Paris, 1934; Galerie Pierre, Paris, 1936; Galerie Genou et Colle, Paris, 1938; Guggenheim Jeune, London, 1938; Julien Levy Gallery, N. Y., 1940; Galeria de Arte Mexicano, Mexico, 1945; Art of This Century, N. Y., 1945; Nierendorf Gallery, N. Y., 1946. Founder and Editor, art magazine DYN, 1942-46. Represented in Museum of Modern Art, New York; Museum of Living Art, N. Y.; Art of This Century, N. Y.; Los Angeles County Museum, California, etc. Participated in exhibition of group "Abstraction-Creation" in France and Switzerland; Member of Surrealist Group, 1936-41. Author: Form and Sense, 1945; Valentine Penrose; Sorts de la Lueur, 1937; César Moro, le château de Grisou, 1943, etc. Address: Villa Obregon, Los Cedros, Mexico City, Mexico.

PAASIKIVI, Dr. JUHO K., Finnish Statesman; born Nov. 27, 1870; son of Johan August Hellstén and Karolina Wilhelmina (Selin) Paasikivi; educated in Helsinki; studied in Russia, Stockholm, Uppsala (Sweden) and Leipzig (Germany), J.D.; married (1st) Anna Matilda Forsman, 1897 (died 1931); (2nd) Alli Valve, 1934. Served as President of Industrial Mortgage Bank of Finland; Chairman of Finnish Export Assn.; Pres., Finnish Section of International Chamber of Commerce; Managing Director of Kansallis-Osake-Pankki Bank; Prime Minister; Minister to Sweden and Russia. Represented Finland in Dorpat, in peace negotiations with Soviet Russia, which led to peace treaty of 1920; negotiations with Russia aiming at avoiding war, 1939; Minister without Portfolio, after hostilities between the two countries had begun, 1939-40; peace negotiations with Russia, 1940. Became Premier Nov. 1944, resigned April, 1945, but continued upon formation of new Cabinet until 1946. President of the Republic of Finland since 1946. Address: Helsinki, Finland.

PABÓN SUÁREZ de URBINA Dr. JOSÉ MANUEL, Spanish Philosopher; born December 25, 1892, Seville, Spain; son of Benito and Teresa Suárez de Urbina de P.; educated at Universities of Deusto, Seville and Granada (Dr. in Philosophy and Letters, 1926); married Carmen de Acuña, November 23, 1936; two children. Assistant Professor, 1919, and Professor, 1935, Universidad de Granada; Professor, Instituto General y Técnico de Zaragoza, 1920-24; Professor, Instituto de Baeza, 1924-27; Professor, Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, Universidad de Salamanca, 1928-35; Researcher for the Centro de Estudios Históricos, 1935. Professor of Greek, Universidad de Madrid, since 1939. Member, National Council of Scientific Investigations; Vice-Director, Instituto "Antonio de Nebrija de Filología Clásica." Author: Algunas Influencias del Fausto de Goethe en España (1927); La Enseñanza del Latín en España (1932); Conjuración de Catalina; Poemas de La Ribera (1940), etc. Residence: Altamirano 48, 2°. Office: Facultad de Letras, Ciudad Universitaria, Madrid, Spain.

PABST, Dr. A(DOLF), American Mineralogist; born Nov. 30, 1899, Chicago, Ill.; son of Edmund F. and Emma (Hoffmann) Pabst; educated at Univ. of Illinois, B.A. 1925; Univ. of California, Berkeley, Ph.D. 1927; married Gudrun-Lisabeth Berg, June 5, 1929. Lecturer in Mineralogy, Univ. of California, Berkeley, 1927-28; Instr. in Mineralogy, 1929-31; Asst. Prof., 1931-36; Assoc. Prof., 1936-44; Prof. of Mineralogy, Univ. of California, Berkeley, 1944—. Fellow: Mineralogical Soc. of America (Vice-Pres., 1948); Geological Soc. of America. Member: Crystallographic

Soc. of America (Vice-Pres., 1947-48; Pres., 1948-49). Author: Mineral Tables, 1938; Minerals of California, 1938; also numerous articles in various scientific journals. Address: University of California, Dept. of Geological Sciences, Berkeley 4, Calif.

PABST, FRED, American Brewer; born Nov. 3, 1869, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of Fred and Maria (Best) Pabst; educated at Mich. Military Acad.; Schwartz Brewers School; University of Wisconsin; married Ida C. Uihlein, Mar. 25, 1896; six children. Began as Brewer and Dir. of present company, 1893; Vice-Pres., 1899-1905. Engaged in farming, 1905-21. Pres., Pabst Corp., 1921-32; Vice-Pres., Premier Pabst Corp., 1932-39; Chairman of Board, Pabst Brewing Co., since 1939. Director: Pabst Brewing Co.; Pabst Sales Co.; Comet Co. Residence: Oconomowoc, Wis. Office: 917 W. Juneau Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

PABST, GEORGE H., JR., American Railroad Executive; born in New York City, 1888; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania (1911). Vice-Pres. in charge of Finance, Penna. RR. Co.; Member of Bd. of Directors, since 1943. also officer and/or director of numerous subsidiary and affiliated companies in Pennsylvania Railroad System. Director of Guarantee Co. of North America (Philadelphia branch), First National Bank of Philadelphia, Lumbermen's Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, Philadelphia National Insurance Co., Reliance Insurance Co. of Philadelphia, Norfolk & Western Railway and the Fire Assn. of Philadelphia. Residence: 7316 Elbow Lane. Office: Broad St. Station Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

PACCHIONI, Dr. GUGLIELMO, Italian Art Historian; born June 1, 1883, Pavullo, Modena, Italy; son of Guglielmo and Carolina (Giovanardi) Pacchioni; educated at Univ. of Rome, Litt.D. 1905; studied philosophy, 1906-07; History of Art, 1910; married Bianca di Augusto, 1908; one daughter. Inspector of Monuments, 1911; Director, Ducal Palace, Mantua, 1914; Commissary on art questions, Austrian peace treaty, Vienna, 1918; Supt. of Monuments and Art Objects, Piedmont and Liguria districts, 1923; Supt. of Monuments and Galleries, Marche and Dalmatia, 1933; Supt. of Art, Lombardy, since 1939. Director, Pinacoteca, Brero, 1939-45. Author: Studi Mediaeval Architectura, Artisti e mindatori; Studi su criteri di ordinamento museografico; monograph, Antiche Pintori; G. Bazzani Carra; L'Arte contemporanea (monograph). Residence: Via Rastrelli No. 5. Office: Piazza del Duomo No. 14, Milan, Italy.

PACCIARDI, RANDOLFO, Italian Journalist, Political Leader; born Jan. 1, 1899, Giuncarico, Grosseto, Italy; son of Giovanni and Elvira (Guidoni) Pacciardi; educated at Univ. of Rome, law degree 1921; married Luigina Civinini, 1923. Journalist and supporter, Italian Republican Party, 1919; Columnist, La Voce Repubblicana, Rome; opposed Mussolini, 1923. Founder, Italia Libera Movement, 1923; Editor, Italia Libera: pleaded for La Voce Repubblicana against Fascist quadrumviro Balbo, in connection with Don Minzoni's murder, 1924; sentenced to confinement, 1926; escaped to Switzerland. Columnist and Member, Editorial Staff, Libera Stampa, Lugano; expelled from Switzerland; went to France; Commander in Chief, Italian Battaglione Garibaldi, during Spanish Revolution, 1936; wounded in action, 1937; Columnist, La Giovine Italia, 1938; in North Africa reconstituted Italian Volunteer Corps, Legione Garibaldi, 1939; founded La Legione dell' Italia del popolo, 1940 (now L'Italia Libera). Member: Free World Soc.; Political Sciences Acad., 1940-44; returned to Italy, 1944. Columnist, La Voce Repubblicana, 1944; Secy. General, Partito Repubblicano, since 1944; Director, La Voce Repubblicano; Member, Constituent Assembly, 1946. Appointed 2nd Vice Premier, Dec. 1947—. Awarded 2 silver and 1 bronze medals, World War I; also British Military Cross. Author: The Battalione Garibaldi, 1938, 1946. Address: via de Prefetti 46, Rome, Italy.

PACE, Prof. BIAGIO, Italian Archaeologist; born Nov. 12, 1889, Cómiso, Sicily, Italy; son of Baron Salvatore and Carolina (Perrotta) Pace; educated at Univ. of Palermo, Litt.D. 1912; Italian Inst. of Archaeology, Athens, 1914 (diploma); married Elisabetta de Lieto, Dec. 8, 1926; two sons. Privatdocent in Archaeology, Univ. of Palermo, 1917; Acting Professor of Archaeology, Univ. of Palermo, 1918; Prof. of Archaeology and Classical Art History, Univ. of Pisa, 1926; at Univ. of Naples, 1931-36; Prof. of Ancient Italian History, Univ. of Rome, since 1936. Pres.: Superior Council of Fine Arts, 1932-37; National Inst. of Ancient Drama, 1929-42; Legislative Commission on National Education, 1939-43. Deputy to Italian Parliament, 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th Legislature. Member, Superior Colonial Council. Member: National Acad. Lincei, Rome; Acad. S. Luca, Rome; Acad. of Archaeology, Vatican; Acad. of Archaeology, Naples; Acad. of Sciences, Letters and Arts, Palermo; Italian Inst. of Archaeology and History of Art, Rome; Inst. of Etruscan Studies, Florence, etc. Awarded: Grand Cordon, Italian Crown Order; Order Salvatore of Greece; Nile Order, Egypt; three military decorations. Author: Arte e Civiltà della Sicilia antica, 3 vols., 1935-45; Ricerche archaeologiche in Anatolia, 1926; about 15 books and 150 papers on history and art. Residence: Via Aterno 9. Office: Università, Città Universitaria, Rome, Italy.

PACE, Rev. Dr. CHARLES NELSON, American Clergyman, Educator; born Oct. 13, 1877, Keosauqua, Iowa; son of James William and Amanda (Dahlberg) Pace; educated at Iowa Wesleyan College, A.B. 1899, D.D. 1912, LL.D. 1935; Garrett Biblical Inst., 1899; Hamline Univ., D.D. 1934; married Lenore Lee, June 16, 1899; two children. Minister, Thornburg and Lone Tree Circuits, Iowa; Sigourney and Knoxville, Iowa, until 1912. Pastor: First Methodist Church, St. Paul, 1912-16; First Methodist Church, Duluth, Minn., 1916-33. Supt., Minneapolis District, M. E. Church, 1933-34. Pres., Hamline Univ., since 1934. Trustee, Hamline Univ.; Member, Univ. Senate, Methodist Church. Author: The Passion of Herman, 1917; Bring Him to Me, 1918; Hear Ye Him, 1920; A Candle of Comfort, 1923; Pictures that Preach, 1924; The Interpreter's House, 1927. Address: Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn.

PACE, Rev. Dr. EDWARD GEORGE, British Theologian and Educator; born Dec. 15, 1881, London, England; son of Edward Warren and Jane Elizabeth (Goodchild) Pace; educated at Univ. College, London, B.A. 1901; Univ. College, Durham, M.A. 1908, D.D. 1923; married Blanche Newcombe, 1916. Clergyman, Church of England, since 1905. Fellow, Univ. of Durham; Lecturer in Theology, 1907-21; Lecturer in Hebrew, 1919-21; Reader in Divinity, since 1921; Dean, Faculty of Theology, since 1938; Vice-Master, Hatfield College, since 1917, and Univ. College, since 1940; Director, Extra-Mural Studies, since 1924. Justice of Peace, County of Durham, since 1925; Hon. Canon, Durham Cathedral, since 1944. Author: Ideas of God in Israel, 1923. Address: Hatfield College, Durham, England.

PACH, WALTER, American Painter; born July 11, 1883, New York, N. Y.; son of Gotthelf and Frances (Wise) Pach; educated at Ethical Culture School, 1889-96; Coll. of the City of N. Y., B.S. 1903; married Magdalene Frohberg, Feb. 26, 1914; one son. Paris representative, Armory Show, 1912-13, later in New York, Chicago, and Boston. Lecturer, University of California, Columbia, Harvard, Yale, etc., 1918-39. Professor, New York University, 1923-32. Director, Masterpieces of Art Exhibition, New York World's Fair, 1940. Professor, University of Mexico, 1922 and 1942-43. Lecturer, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, etc. Awarded Inter-American Committee on Intellectual and Artistic Relationships Fellowship, Mexico, 1943. Founding Member, Conference on Science, Philosophy and Religion, since 1940. Represented in the collections of: Metropolitan Museum, Brooklyn Museum, New York Public Library, Whitney Museum of American Art, Newark Museum, Carnegie Institute (Pittsburgh), Cleveland Museum, Phillips Memorial Gallery (Washington, D. C.), etc. Author: Georges Seurat; The Masters of Modern Art; R. Duchamp-Villon; Ananias Or the False Artist; Modern Art in America; An Hour of Art; Vincent Van Gogh; Queer Thing, Painting; Ingres, etc. Address: Fifth Avenue Bank, 530 Fifth Ave., New York, New York.

PACHACHI, HAMDI AL, Iraqi Senator; born 1885, Baghdad, Iraq; son of Abdul Wahab Al Pachachi and Budur; educated at Political College, Istanbul; married Afifa, 1933; four children. Governor of Kadhimain Dist. and Prof. of Economics, 1912; Minister of Awqaf, 1925; Member of Parliament; Minister of Social Affairs, 1940; Pres., Chamber of Deputies, 1942; Prime Minister, 1944; now member of Senate. Awarded many decorations. Address: Hekheita, Baghdad, Iraq.

PACHACHI, MUZAHIM AMIN EL, Iraqi Political Leader; born 1891; educated in Istanbul, Turkey; Baghdad Law College. Member and Deputy, Constituent Assembly, 1925; Minister of Communications and Public Works, 1924-25; Diplomatic Agent in London, 1927-28; Minister of Economics and Communications, 1931; Minister of Interior, until 1935; Minister to Italy, 1935-39; Minister to France, 1939-42; Minister of Foreign Affairs (in Cabinet of Mohammed El-Sadr), 1948—. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Baghdad, Iraq.

PACHECO, CARNEIRO, Portuguese Diplomat. Served as Professor as Lisbon University; Minister of Education, 1936-40; Ambassador to the Vatican, 1940-46; Ambassador to Spain, 1946—. Address: Portuguese Embassy, Madrid, Spain.

PACHECO DE LA CUESTA, Dr. FRANCISCO HERNÁNDEZ, Spanish Geographer; born Feb. 16, 1899, Valladolid, Spain; son of Eduardo Hernández-Pacheco and Encarnación de la Cuesta; educated at Instituto Cardenal Cisneros, A.B. 1916; Univ. of Madrid, Lic.Sc. 1919, D.Sc. 1925; married Sara Roso de Luna, Jan. 19, 1923; two children. Asst. in Physical geography, Univ. of Madrid, 1920; Asst. Prof., 1926; Prof. since 1933. Adjunct Prof. of Physical Geography, Escuela de Ingenieros Caminos, since 1920. Member: Real Sociedad de Historia Natural; Real Sociedad Geográfica; Real Sociedad Española de Alpinismo "Peñalara." Fellow, Amer. Geographical Soc. Author: Fisiografía, geología y paleontología del território de Valladolid; La región volcánica central de España; Fisigrafía y geología de la Guinea continental española; El Sahara Español; Los territórios africanos de influencia española; El glaciarimo cuaternario de las Montañas de Reinosa, etc. Address: University of Madrid, Madrid, Spain.

PACHECO HERRARTE, MARIANO, Guatemalan Agriculturalist; born April 24, 1878, Quezaltenango, Guatemala; son of José Pacheco Vásquez and Francisca Herrarte de P.; studied at the Inst. and the Normal School, later completed courses in Botany, Agronomy, Entomology, Astronomy and Political Economy; married Julia Luna, June 6, 1908; one daughter. Prof. of Astronomy and Geography in the National Institutes, 1923-24, and a Member of the Popular Univ., 1924. Organizer and Director, Botanical Garden of the Faculty of Natural Sciences, 1930-31; Secretary of the Society of Geography and History of Guatemala, 1926-27. Pres. of the National Commission of Agricultural Cooperation, 1929; Director General of Agriculture of Guatemala since 1932. Residence: La Calle Oriente No. 23. Office: Dirección Gral. de Agricultura, Guatemala, Guatemala.

PACK, Dr. GEORGE THOMAS, American Cancer Specialist; born May 14, 1898, Antrim, Ohio; son of Charles Thomas K. and Tacy (Dugan) Pack; educated at Ohio State Univ., B.Sc. 1920; Yale Univ., M.D. 1922; hon. LL.D., Univ. of Alabama, 1941; married Lucille I. Tuttle, Aug. 8, 1918; two children. Instr. in Pharmacol. and Toxicol., Yale Univ. School of Med., 1921-23, and Asst. Clinical Prof. of Surgery, 1932-39; Assoc. Prof. of Pathology, and Asst. Dean, School of Med., State Univ. of Alabama, 1924-28. Asst. Clinical Prof. of Surgery at Cornell Univ. Med. College, New York City, since 1936. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Physiol. Soc.; Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Amer. Soc. for Cancer Research; Amer. Radium Soc. Co-winner of Keese Prize (Yale), 1922, and Jerome Cochrane Lecturer, 1939. Author: A Syllabus of Pathology (4th ed., Edwards Bros., Ann Arbor, Mich.), 1928; Burns—Types, Pathology and Management (J. B. Lippincott, Philadelphia), 1939; Results in Treatment of Gastric Cancer (Paul B. Hoeber, N. Y.), 1939; Tumors of Hands and Feet (C. B. Mosby, St. Louis), 1939; The Treatment of Cancer and Allied Diseases (Med. Book Dept. of Harper & Bros.), 1940. Residence: 59 E. 93rd St. Office: 139 E. 36th St., New York, N. Y.

PACKARD, ARTHUR W., American Foundation Administrator; born May 28, 1901, Boston, Mass.; son of Charles Herbert and Charlotte (McKean) Packard; educated at Brown Univ., Ph.B. 1925; Oxford Univ., B.A. 1927, M.A. 1931; married Mary Whittle Moody, 1928; two sons. Asst. Director, Inst. of International Education, 1929. Exec. Asst. to Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. in matters of philanthropy, 1930—. Dir., Davison Fund, 1934-41. Director, Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Inc. Trustee: Inst. of Internatl. Education; Colonial Williamsburg; Brown Univ.; Sealantic Fund, Inc. Member, Phi Beta Kappa. Member, Budget Com. of the Natl. War Fund. Chmn., Planning Commn., Rye, N. Y., 1943-45. Residence: 400 Forest Ave., Rye, N. Y. Office: Room 5600, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

PACKARD, Dr. CHARLES, American Biologist; born Sept. 3, 1884, Dorchester, Mass.; son of Edward N. and Elizabeth (Ford) Packard; educated at Syracuse Univ., B.S. 1907, M.S. 1908; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1913; Syracuse Univ., (Hon.) D.Sc. 1937; married Marguerite A. Cogswell, Sept. 2, 1915; one daughter. Instructor in Biology, Williams College, 1908-10; Instructor in Zoology, Columbia Univ., 1914-18. Asst. Prof. of Biology, Peking Union Medical College, 1918-23; Columbia Univ., Dept. of Cancer Research, 1925-42. Director, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass., since 1942. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Member, Amer. Soc. of Zoologists. Author of publications on effects of short radiations on living matter. Address: Woods Hole, Mass.

PACKARD, Dr. FRANCIS R., American Otolaryngologist; born Mar. 23, 1870, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of John Hooker and Elisabeth (Wood) Packard; educated at Univ. of Pa., 1889, 1892, (Hon.) LL.D. 1939; married Margaret Horstman, Feb. 10, 1906; four children. Resident Physician, Pennsylvania Hosp., 1893; Otolaryngol., Bryn Mawr Hosp., 1903; Prof. of Otolaryngol., Philadelphia Polyclinic, 1903-17; Chief, Dept. of Otolaryngol., Pennsylvania Hosp., 1909; Otolaryngol., Chestnut Hill Hosp., 1906; lectured on medical history, Univ. of Pa. Editor, Annals of Medical History, 1917-42. Now Consulting Otolaryngol., Bryn Mawr and Pennsylvania Hosps. Dir., Free Library of Philadelphia; Library Co. of Philadelphia; Philadelphia Athenaeum. Member: Amer. Otol. Soc. (Pres. 1936); Amer. Laryngol. Soc. (Pres. 1930); College of Physicians of Philadelphia (Pres. 1931-34); Amer. Philosophical Soc. Address: 304 S. 19th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

PACKARD, FRANK EDWARD, American Lawyer; born in Renwick, Iowa, Nov. 18, 1880; son of Frank D. and Harriet (Olden) Packard; educated at Hamline Univ., A.B. 1901; married Bulah Richardson, Oct. 13, 1905; two daughters. Started as newspaperman, 1901. Admitted to Bar of the U. S. Supreme Court, 1915; engaged in practice of law to date. Tax Commissioner of North Dakota, 1911-18; Attorney-General of North Dakota, 1918-20. General and Tax Attorney for Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), 1921-46. Senior Partner, law firm of Packard & Evans. Director, Michigan Ave. Natl. Bank of Chicago. Chmn., Central Division, Amer. Petroleum Industries Com. Residence: 217 N. Oak Park Ave., Oak Park, Ill. Office: 600 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago 5, Ill.

PACKARD, GEORGE, American Lawyer; born May 27, 1868, Providence, R. I.; son of Wm. L. and Mary E. (Peckham) Packard; educated at Brown Univ., A.B. 1889; Northwestern Univ., LL.B. 1891; married Caroline Howe, Jan. 23, 1893; three children. Asst. Attorney, World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1892-93; Partner: Peckham, Brown & Packard, 1898-1902; Peckham, Smith, Packard & Apmadoc, 1906-10; Packham, Brown, Packard & Walsh, 1906-10; Miller, Starr, Packard & Peckham, 1911-12; Brown, Packard, Peckham & Barnes, 1922-25; Packard, Barnes, McCoughey & Schumacher, 1925-39; Head of Packard, Barnes, Schumacher & Gilmore, since 1939. Active in establishing law of "Littoral Rights in Lake Michigan"; author of treatise on Submerged Lands of Lake Michigan; taught Bills and Notes, John Marshall Law School, 1908-15. Trustee and Secy., Children's Memorial Hospital, 1907-17. Director: (Attorney) Tuberculosis Inst., 1925-35; Fresh Air Hospital, 1930-35; Henry Booth House Settlement, 1925-35; Chicago Branch, Natl. Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People; (Attorney) J. B. Inderrieden Co., 1911-37; Life Member, Art Inst. of Chicago; Chicago, Illinois and Amer. Bar Assns. Address: Rm. 1517, 38 So. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois.

PACKARD, GUY SPENCER, Australian Steamship Executive; born Aug. 7, 1884, Kooringa, South Australia; son of Daniel Spencer and Florence Suzanne (Randall) Packard; educated in St. Peter's College (Adelaide); married Alison Scott Richardson, Apr. 13, 1918; one daughter and one son. Junior clerk with Baker & Barlow, Solicitors, Adelaide, 1920; with The Adelaide Steamship Co. since 1901; served in various positions and Branch Managerships; now General Manager. Chairman: Macquarie Stevedoring Co. Pty. Ltd.; Wallace Tugs Pty. Ltd. Director: J. & A. Brown & Abermain Seaham Collieries Ltd.; Newstead Wharves & Stevedoring Co. (Pty.) Ltd.; Waratah Tug & Salvage Co. Pty. Ltd. Enlisted in A.I.F. as a Private, 1915; Lieut., 50th Battalion A.I.F., 1916-17. Residence: 18 Fullerton St., Woollahra, N.S.W. Office: 505 Collins St., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

PACKER, DOUGLAS FRANK HEWSON, Australian Newspaper Publisher; born Dec. 3, 1906, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia; son of Robert Clyde and Ethel Maude (Hewson) Packer; educated at Sydney Church of England Grammar School; married Gretel Joyce Bullmore, July 24, 1934; two sons. Cadet Reporter, Daily Guardian, 1923. Asst. Business Manager, Smith's Newspaper, Ltd. (publ. of Daily Guardian and Smith's Weekly), 1926; Director and General Advertising Manager, 1927. One of Founders of Australian Women's Weekly, Sydney Newspapers, Ltd., 1933. Pres., Australian Newspaper Conf., 1939-40. One of Founders of Consolidated Press, Ltd., 1936 (publishers of Daily Telegraph, Sunday Telegraph, and Australian Women's Weekly, Australian Home Budget); now Managing Director. Lieut., Australian Imperial Forces, 1941; Seconded to Allied Works Council, 1942; returned to Australian Imperial Forces, 1945. Residence: 76, Victoria Rd., Bellevue Hill. Office: 168/174 Castlereagh St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

PACKER, Dr. PAUL C., American Educator; born Oct. 13, 1886, Salem, Ia.; educated at Univ. of Iowa, B.A. 1918; Univ. of Michigan, M.A. 1921; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1923; Cornell College, LL.D. 1928. Principal, elementary schools, Ft. Madison, Iowa, 1910-13, at Iowa City, 1913-17. General Supervisor, public schools and later, principal of Univ. Elementary Experimental School, Iowa City, 1917-18. Acting Dir., Educational Research, Detroit public schools, 1918-19; Asst. Superintendent of Schools, 1919-21; Prof., Administration, Univ. of Iowa, 1920-22; Dean, College of Education, 1923-46; Dir., Summer School, 1927-45. Educational Adviser to Univ. of the Philippines, 1938; Consultant, reorganization of Univ. of Vt., 1941. Chancellor, Oregon State System of Higher Education, 1946—. Lt. Col., A. U. S., Special Service Div., World War II, 1943-46. Address: Oregon State System of Higher Education, Salem, Ore.

PAÇO D'ARCOS, JOAQUIM, Portuguese Writer; born June 14, 1908, Lisbon, Portugal; son of H. Correia da Silva and Maria do Carmo Correia da Silva (Count and Countess of Paço d'Arcos); educated at Pedro Nunes Lyceum, Lisbon; Macau Lyceum, China; married Maria Candida de Magalhães Correia, Dec. 8, 1932; two sons. Began career in 1923 as a bank clerk; later became a business man, colonial official, journalist and civil servant. Chief of Press Department, Portuguese Foreign Office, since 1936. Author: Pathology of Dignity (essay, 1928); The Last Hero (novel), 1933; The Loves and Voyages of Pedro Manuel (stories, 1935); An Emigrant's Diary (novel, 1937); Ana Paula (novel), 1938; The Accomplice (play, 1940); Anxiety (novel, 1940); United States (1942); Snow Over the Sea (short stories, 1943); The Novel and the Novelist (essay, 1943); The Absent (play, 1944); The Road to Sin (novel, 1944); Confession and Defense of the Novelist (essay), 1946; Green Shades in a Dark Background (novel), 1946. Received Prize Eça de Queiroz (for an Emigrant's Diary); Academy Prize, 1938 (for Ana Paula); Prize Fialho de Almeida, 1942 (for Snow Over the Sea); Prize Gil Vicente (for The Absent), 1945. Address: Avenida A.A. de Aguiar 38, Lisbon, Portugal.

PADDOCK, WILLARD DRYDEN, American Sculptor and Painter; born in Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of John Davis and Elizabeth (Adams) Paddock; educated at Pratt Inst. School of Fine Arts; Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris; studied at Collarossi under Courtois and Girardot, and in Rome and Florence, Italy; married Charlotte Smith, 1904. Exhibited at Soc. of Amer. Artists, N. Y. C., 1893. Executed many public and private commissions, portraits, garden sculptures, etc. Participated in numerous exhibitions throughout country. Taught sculpture and anatomy at Pratt Inst., Brooklyn, for many years. Member: Natl. Sculpture Soc.; (Assoc.) Natl. Acad. of Design; Salmagundi Club; Allied Artists of America; Artists Fellowship; Century Assn., etc. Address: South Kent, Conn.

PADELFORD, Dr. NORMAN J., American Jurist; born Haverhill, Massachusetts, November 18, 1903; son of Rev. Frank W. Padelford and Grace C. Ilsley; educated at Denison University, Ph.B. 1925; Harvard, A.M. and Ph.D., 1929; married Helen Proctor, June 11, 1929; two daughters. Assistant in Government, Harvard University, and at Radcliffe College, 1926-29; Assistant Professor of Government at Colgate University, 1929-33; Professor of Government and Chairman of the Department, 1933-36; Professor of International Law and Organization at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Medford, Mass., 1936-45; Prof. of Internatl. Relations, Mass. Inst. of Technology, since 1945. Consultant to the Department of State since 1942. Member, U. S. Delegation, Dumbarton Oaks Conf., 1944; Exec. Officer, Commn. IV, San Francisco Conf. on Internatl. Organization, 1945; Member, U. S. Delegation, European Inland Transport Conf., London, 1945; Adviser to Secy. of State, Council of Foreign Ministers, London, 1945. Member, Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law; Amer. Bar Assn., etc. Author: Peace in the Balkans, 1935; International Law in the Spanish Civil War, 1939; The Panama Canal in Peace and War, 1942. Editor, Current Readings in International Relations, 1947. Address: Mass. Inst. of Technology, Cambridge, Mass.

PADGETT, Dr. EARL CALVIN, American Plastic Surgeon; born July 8, 1893, Greenleaf, Kans.; son of John Manson and Martha (McGinnis) Padgett; educated at Univ. of Kans., B.S. 1916; Wash. Univ., M.D. 1918; married Winona Youmans, June 1, 1922; three children. Asst. to Dr. V. P. Blair, St. Louis, 1922-24. Plastic Surgeon in Kansas City, Mo., since 1924. Instructor, Asst. Prof., Assoc. and Prof. of Clinical Surg.; Prof. of Surgery, Univ. of Kansas, since 1925. Prof. of Maxillo-Facial Surg., School of Dentistry. In 1938 conceived idea of dermatome for cutting skin grafts, which he developed and designed with mechanical aid of George J. Hood. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons; Member of Founders' Group of Amer. Bd. of Surg. and Amer. Bd. of Plastic Surg. Member: Amer. Surg. Assn.; Amer. Med. Assn.; Western Surg. Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Study of Trauma; Southern Med. Assn.; Amer. Soc. of Plastic Surg.; Soc. of Plastic and Reconstructive Surg. Awarded: Distinguished Citizenship citation for invention of dermatome (Amer. Legion), 1940. Publications: Numerous contributions to leading Amer. medical journals; (books) Diseases of Face, Mouth and Jaws (with V. P. Blair and J. B. Brown, in Graham's "Surgical Diagnosis"), 1930; Surgical Diseases of Mouth and Jaws, 1938; Skin Grafting, 1942. Address: 1316 Professional Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

PADILLA, Hon. CONSTANCIO, Philippine Congressman; born Sept. 1, 1894, Penaranda, Nueva Ecija; son of Ricardo and Petra (Ibarra) Padilla; educated at Univ. of Philippines, A.B. 1919, LL.B. 1919; married Benita D. Chioco, Jan. 6, 1923; two children. Asst. Fiscal of Nueva Ecija, 1922-23; Acting Provincial Fiscal, 1923-24; Member, Provincial Board of Nueva Ecija, 1937-40; now Congressman, 2nd District, Nueva Ecija. Director, Northern Nueva Ecija Inst. (until war, the largest private high school in Central Luzon). Major, Philippine-Amer. Irregular Troops (FAIT), a guerilla organization originally organized by General Lim and Colonel Chioco. Residence: San José, Nueva Ecija. Office: House of Representatives, Manila, P. I.

PADILLA, Dr. ERNESTO E., Argentine Lawyer; born Jan. 5, 1873, Tucumán, Argentina; son of José Padilla and Josefa Nougués; educated at Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, National University, Buenos Aires, 1890-96; married Elvira Salvatierra; one son. Prof. of Philosophy of Law, Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, National Univ., Buenos Aires; Deputy to Provincial Legislative Assembly, Tucumán, 1900-02; Natl. Deputy, Prov. of Tucumán, 1902-06, 1911-13, 1918-22, 1924-28; Governor of Tucumán Province, 1913-17; Minister of Justice and Public Instruction, 1930-31; engaged in private law practice at Buenos Aires. Editor, La Libertad, Tucumán (daily). Member of Board: Cía. de Seguros "La Germano-Argentina," S.A.; Syndico, Nougués Hnos. Ltda.; San Pablo de Fabricación de Azúcar. Address: Santa Fé 1752, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PADILLA PENALOZA, Dr. EZEQUIEL, Mexican Political Leader; born Dec. 31, 1892, Coyuca de Catalán, Guerrero, Mexico; son of Mariano Padilla and Evarista Penaloza de P.; educated at the Free School of Law, Mexico, Law degree; the Sorbonne, Paris, France; Columbia Univ., New York; Univ. of Guatemala, receiving Hon. Dr. degrees; married Maria Guadalupe, Aug. 19, 1926; five children. Deputy to the Union Congress, 1922-26. President, Private Welfare Organization, 1928; Attorney General of Justice of the Republic, 1928. Secretary of Public Education, 1928-30; Minister of Mexico to Italy and Hungary, 1930-32; Deputy to National Congress, 1932-34; National Senator, 1934-40; Head of Mexican Delegation to the Conference of Chancellors, Rio de Janeiro, 1942; Secretary of Foreign Affairs until July, 1945. Member, Council of Petroleum Administration of Mexico; Member, College of Attorneys of Brazil. Chairman, Mexican Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, Apr.-June, 1945. Author: The Tribune of the Revolution; The Education of the People; The Continental Doctrine Before the Senate of Mexico; Words That Made History; The Free Man of America. Decorated by Bolivia, Guatemala, Colombia, Panama, Ecuador and Cuba. Address: Avenida Juárez No. 109, Mexico, D.F.

PADILLA, Dr. FRANCISCO ELADIO, Argentine Educator; born February 18, 1894, Tucuman, Argentina; son of Francisco Padilla and Leonor Dominguez; received degrees of Attorney and Doctor in Jurisprudence from Faculty of Law and Social Science of Buenos Aires, 1917; married Rosa Antoni, June 6, 1920; six children. Began career as Judge of Civil Div. of Salta, 1920, and in the same year became Member of the Superior Tribunal; appointed Adviser to Dept. of Labor of Tucuman, 1922. Prof. of Literature and Geography, Colegio Nacional de Tucuman, since 1923. Member, General Council of Education of Tucuman, 1924-26; Chief Editor of the newspaper, "La Gaceta" of Tucuman, 1922-28. Rector, Colegio Nacional de Tucuman, since 1937. Titular Professor of Civil Law in the Escuela del Notariado, University of Tucuman, 1938-40; Titular Professor of Rural Law in the Faculty of Law since 1940. Author: Geografía Económica y Política de La República Argentina; Ética y Cultura Forense; Totalitarismo y Democracia; Problemas Docentes; Curso de Derecho Minero; Derecho Agrario; Don Bosco y su Obra, Derecho Rural, etc. Residence: Avda. Sarmiento 696. Office: Colegio Nacional de Tucuman, Tucuman, Argentina.

PADILLA, GUILLERMO, Argentine Industrialist; born May 9, 1900, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Guillermo Padilla and Aurelia Panelo de Padilla; completed his primary and secondary studies in Buenos Aires. Member of Board of Directors, S. A. Guillermo Padilla Ltda., 1918—; Managing Director since 1940; Vice Pres. since 1946. Director, Cía Americana de Luz y Tracción; Pres., Cía. Comercial Industrial Sud Americana Coindú S. A.; Director, Parfina Paraguaya Financiera S. A. President, Cámara de Licoristas of the Unión Industrial Argentina; Ex-Pres., Sub-Comité de Licoristas of the Comité de Exportación y Estímulo Industrial; Delegate, Consejo Directivo of the Unión Industrial Argentina. Residence: Av. Alvear 3206. Office: 25 de Mayo 195, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PADILLA CASTRO, Dr. GUILLERMO, Costa Rican Diplomat; born Sept. 21, 1899, San José, Costa Rica; son of Emiliano Padilla and Auristela Castro; educated at Univ. of San José; Univ. of Paris, France; married Claudia Pacheco Oreamuno, June 17, 1933; three children. Asst. Secy. of State for War, Costa Rica, 1920; Delegate of Costa Rica, Press Conf. at Lisbon, Portugal, 1924, Florence, Italy, 1925, and Liége, Belgium, 1926. Consul for Costa Rica in Bristol, England, 1928; Consul General of Costa Rica in London, England, 1930; Organizer, Children's Bureau and Social Security System, Costa Rica, 1932-45; Prof. of Criminal Law, Univ. of Costa Rica; Chmn., Social Security Commn., Conf. of I.L.O., Philadelphia, 1944; now Chargé d'Affaires to London, England. Author: Evolution Politique du Continent Ibéro-Américain, 1927; El Caso de Costa Rica ante la Sociedad de Naciones, 1933; Coordinación de los servicios assistenciales y del Seguro Social, 1944; Poesias, 1927. Address: Avda. Central, Calles 19 y 21, San José, Costa Rica.

PADILLA-NERVO, Dr. LUIS, Mexican Diplomat; born Aug. 19, 1898, Zamora, Michoacan, Mexico; son of Luis G. Padilla and Angela Nervo; educated at Faculty of Law, National Univ. of Mexico, LL.D.; Univ. of Buenos Aires; George Washington Univ.; School of Economics and Political Sciences, London, England; married Cecilia Winstone, July 8, 1931; one son. Entered Mexican Diplomatic Service, 1920; Secy., Mexican Embassy, or Charge d'Affairs, Buenos Aires (Argentina), Washington (D. C.) London (England), and Madrid (Spain); Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary since 1933. Represented Mexico in United States, El Salvador, Costa Rica, Panama, Uruguay and Paraguay, Holland, Denmark and Cuba. Under-Secy. of Public Education and Fine Arts, Mexican Govt.; Asst. Secy. of Labor and Social Provision. Mexican Delegate, Internatl. Labor Conf., Geneva, Switzerland, 1938; General Assembly, League of Nations, Geneva, 1938; United Nations Conf. on Food and Agriculture, Hot Springs, Va., 1943. Technical Adviser, Mexican Delegation, Inter-Amer. Conf. to deal with War and Peace Problems, Chapultepec, Mexico City, 1945; Adviser, Mexican Delegation, United Nations Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945; Chief Rept. of Mexico, Executive Com., Preparatory Commn., United Nations, London, England, 1945; Chief Rept. of Mexico, Preparatory Commn., United Nations, London; Delegate, 1st part, First Session, General Assembly, United Nations, London; Delegate, Assembly, United Nations UNESCO, London; Rept., Executive Com., Preparatory Commn., UNESCO, London; Chief Delegate, last General Assembly, League of Nations, Geneva, 1946; Rept., Security Council, United Nations, London and New York; Rept. on Atomic Energy Commn., N. Y.; Delegate and Deputy Chairman, Mexican Delegation, 2nd part, First Session, General Assembly, N. Y.; now Permanent Rept. of Mexico to United Nations. Address: 350—5th Ave., Empire State Bldg., Rooms 6205-6, New York, N. Y.; Ministry of Foreign Relations, Mexico, D.F.

PADILLA, Hon. SABINO, Philippine American Editor; born Mar. 31, 1906, Jurist; born Aug. 21, 1894, Manila, P. I.; son of Nicanor and Isabel (Bibby) Padilla; educated at Ateneo de Manila, A.B. 1911; Univ. of the Philippines, LL.B. 1915; Columbia Univ., New York City, LL.M. 1917; Universidad de Santo Tomás, D.C.L. 1937; married Dominga de los Reyes, Jan. 7, 1922; seven children. Special Attorney, Bureau of Justice, 1919; Asst. Attorney, 1920; Auxiliary Judge, First Instance, 1929; District Judge of First Instance, Nueva Ecija, 1933; District Judge, First Instance, City of Manila, 1936; Justice, Court of Appeals, 1937; Assoc. Justice, Supreme Court, since 1946. Residence: 2157 Azcarraga, Manila. Office: Supreme Court of the Republic of the Philippines, Manila, P. I.

PADORR, LILLIAN, American Contralto; born Chicago, Ill.; daughter of Isadore David and Sarah (Handmacher) Padorr; educated at Crane College, Chicago; studied at Liceo Frescobaldi in Milan, Italy; voice with Vittorio Trevisan and John Dwight Sample in Chicago and Mario Malatesta in Milan; divorced; one son. Member, Savona Opera Co., Italy, 1931; gave a concert at Century of Progress, 1934; joined Amer. Opera Co., 1938; with Chicago Opera Co., since 1938. Member, Chicago Concert and Opera Guild, 1937-44. Soloist, Temple B'Nai Zion, 1940-41; at South Shore Temple, 1944-45. Appeared with Cosmopolitan Opera Co., 1945. Guest Artist on Radio Stations WSBC, WEDS, WENR; concert and club engagements in Midwestern States. Residence: 808 Lawrence Ave., Chicago 40, Ill.

PADOVER, Dr. SAUL K., American Historian; born Apr. 13, 1905, Austria; son of Keva and Frumet (Goldmann) Padover (U. S. citizen); educated at Wayne Univ., B.A. 1928; Univ. of Chicago, M.A. 1930, Ph.D. 1932; Yale Univ., 1928-29. Prof. of History, West Virginia State Teachers College, summers, 1930, 1931. Research Asst., Univ. of Chicago, 1932; Research Assoc., Univ. of California, 1933-36. Asst. to Secy. of Interior, 1938-43. Principal Political Analyst, Federal Communications Commn., Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service, London, Eng., Dec. 1943. Joined staff of the Office of Strategic Services. Landed in Normandy with First U. S. Army as Psychological Warfare Intelligence Officer, with rank of Lt. Col., July 1944; went through campaigns of France, the Rhineland and Germany as a combatant intelligence officer. Awarded Bronze Star "for distinguished and meritorious service to the Army of the U. S." by Pres. Truman, 1945. Consultant for War Dept. on a Special Mission in Germany, Jan.-May 1946. Editorial Writer, Newspaper PM since May, 1945. Author: Let the Day Perish (1932); The Revolutionary Emperor: Joseph II (1934); Life and Death of Louis XVI (1939); Secret Diplomacy (1937); Democracy by Thomas Jefferson (1939); Jefferson (a Biography), (1942); Wilson (1942); The Complete Jefferson (1943); Experiment in Germany (1946); also numerous contributions to Forum, Readers Digest, The Nation, American Mercury, Foreign Affairs, etc. Residence: 161 West 54th St. Office: PM, 164 Duane St., New York, N. Y.

PAEPCKE, WALTER PAUL, American Business Executive; born Chicago, June 29, 1896; son of Hermann and Paula (Wagner) Paepcke; educated at Yale, A.B. 1917; married Elizabeth Hilken Nitzke, Apr. 16, 1922; three daughters. Asst. Treas. of Chicago Mill & Lumber Co., 1917; Pres. of Company, 1921-33. Pres. and Director, Container Corp. of America, 1926-46; Chmn. of Bd. and Chief Exec. Officer, 1946—. Dir. of U. S. Gypsum Co., Stevens Hotel Corp., Paepcke Corp., K. W. Battery Co. and Sefton Fibre Can Co., serving as Chmn. of the Bd. of the latter two companies. Member of Chicago Symphony Soc. Trustee: Girls' Latin School, Chicago; Univ. of Chicago, 1945—. Member of Exec. Coms., Chicago Assn. of Commerce; Dir., Passavant Memorial Hosp. Residence: 999 Lake Shore Dr. Office: 38 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

PAES, Dr. ACYR DO NASCIMENTO, Brazilian Diplomat; born Dec. 25, 1898, Campos, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; son of José C. and Francisca (Pedroso) Paes; educated at Pedro II College, Rio de Janeiro; Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences, Rio de Janeiro, 1920; Laval Univ., Quebec, hon. LL.D., 1947; married Zaira de Aguiar, Dec. 25, 1935; two daughters. Attaché, Foreign Office, 1918; Third Secy., 1919; Second Secy., 1924; First Secy., 1926; Counsellor of Embassy, 1934; E.E. & M.P., 1935; M.P. to Ecuador, 1936-40; Ambassador to Ecuador (on special mission), 1940; Ambassador to Canada since 1945. Member, Special Boundary Mission to Bolivia, 1925; Secy. to Minister of Foreign Relations, 1920-26, 1934-35; Secy. General, Brazilian Delegation to Economic and Monetary Conf., London, 1933; Head of Political and Diplomatic Div., Brazilian Foreign Office, 1941-45; Secy., Political Com., Inter-American Conf. of Ministers for Foreign Relations, Rio de Janeiro, 1942. Address: 400 Wilbrod St., Ottawa, Canada.

PAGÁN, Hon. BOLÍVAR, Puerto Rican Political Leader; born in Puerto Rico, May 16, 1899; son of Emilio and Elisa (Lucca) Pagán; educated at University of Puerto Rico, LL.B. 1921. President, Socialist Party of Puerto Rico and of the Puerto Rican Federation of Labor. Admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico, 1921; Member, Bar of U. S. District Court for Puerto Rico, U. S. First Circuit Court of Appeals, Boston, and the Supreme Court of the United States. Judge of Fajardo, 1922; Member, Insular Board of Elections, 1923-40. City Treasurer of San Juan, 1925-29. Associate Commissioner, Public Service Commission of Puerto Rico, 1930-33. Treasurer, Government of the Capital, San Juan, 1931-40. Senator-at-Large and Vice-President and Floor Leader of the Insular Senate of Puerto Rico, 1933-40. City Manager of San Juan, 1936-37; appointed Resident Commissioner to the U. S., 1939, and elected for term 1940-45. Member, American Group of Inter-Parliamentary Union, Puerto Rican Bar Assn., American Bar Assn., etc. Editor of newspaper, "La Idea," Ponce, 1917, and of magazine, "Aurora," Ponce, 1918. Contributing editor of several newspapers and magazines of Puerto Rico; now contributing editor, daily newspaper, "El Mundo," San Juan. Author: América y Otras Páginas, 1922; El Sufragio Femenino, 1924; Ley Municipal Revisada Anotada y Comentada, 1925; Ideales en Marcha, 1939; Handbook on Puerto Rico, 1940; Puerto Rico, the Next State, 1942. Residence: San Juan, Puerto Rico.

PAGÁN COLÓN, VICTORIANO, Puerto Rican Chemist; born January 13, 1882, Barranquitas, Puerto Rico; son of Tomás Pagán Aponte and Rita Colón Alvarado de Pagán; studied in elementary schools of Barranquitas; Rhodes Preparatory School, New York; College of Pharmacy, Loyola State University, Chicago, Illinois; married Gloria Pascual Velázquez; two children. Began as pharmacist, 1915; now proprietor and director of own pharmacy in Barranquitas, Puerto Rico. Founding Member of Colegio de Farmacéuticos de Puerto Rico. Member of the Colegio de Químicos de Puerto Rico, and Comité de Minas de Puerto Rico. One of organizers of Botanical Garden of Puerto Rico; Founding Member of Instituto Panteológico de Puerto Rico. Member of Ateneo of Puerto Rico, The Masonic Order (32°, Logia Cuna de Muñoz Rivera, Ex-President); Founding Member of Centro de Instrucción y Recreo de Barranquitas; Founding Member of Liga Anti-Tuberculosa de Puerto Rico (Ex-President for Guayama district). Responsible for official organization of Comedor Escolar (a food distribution center for needy school students). Visited Santo Domingo at official request of Washington mine authorities to study mineral possibilities. Inventor of device for separating gold particles from clay soils containing the mineral, which is a practical appliance for economical labor. Founded Sociedad Cultural José Negrón Sanjurjo. Author of poetic works of merit, studies in chemistry and literary and scientific articles in newspapers. Residence: Tamarindo St. Office: Barranquitas, Puerto Rico.

PAGANI, Prof. ALDO, Italian Agricultural Economist; born June 15, 1902, Alfonsine, Italy; son of Stefano and Cesira (Faccani) Pagani; married Elisa Gusberti, Sept. 14, 1945. Asst. in Agricultural Economics, Univ. of Bologna, 1929; Prof. of Agricultural Economics, Rural Valuation and Accounting, Univ. of Milan, since 1931. Director for Lombardy of Natl. Inst. of Agricultural Economics. Member: Internatl. Conf. of Agricultural Economics; Georgofili Acad., Florence. Author: I braccianti della Valle Padana, 1930; Le conduzioni collettive del Mantovano, 1935; Lezioni di Economia e Politica agraria, 1946. Address: Celoria, 2, Milan, Italy.

PAGE, ARTHUR WILSON, American Industrialist; born Aberdeen, N. C., Sept. 10, 1883; son of Walter Hines and Alice (Wilson) Page; educated at Lawrenceville (N. J.) School and at Harvard (class of '05); married Mollie Hall, June 1, 1912; one daughter, three sons. With Doubleday Page & Co., publishers, 1905-27, except for part of 1918 when he served in the propaganda section of the General Staff (G 2D) of the A.E.F. From 1913 to 1926, he was Vice-President of the Company in general charge of all its magazine enterprises, and Editor of World's Work. Vice-Pres., Amer. Tel. & Tel. Co., 1927-46; Consultant, 1947—. Dir., Amer. Tel. & Tel. Co., 1931-48. Director: Chase National Bank of New York, Continental Oil Co., and the Westinghouse Elec. Corp.; Kennecott Copper; Prudential Ins. Co. of Amer.; Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co.; Panama RR. Co. President, Bell Telephone Securities Company, 1927-33. Trustee of Teachers College, the Carnegie Corp., Metropolitan Museum of Art, Farmers Federation, Asheville, N. C.; Chairman of the Joint Army and Navy Committee on Welfare and Recreation, 1942-46. Adviser, Amer. Delegation, London Naval Conf., 1930. Residence: 117 E. 72nd St. Office: 46 Cedar St., New York 5, N. Y.

PAGE, Rt. Hon. Sir EARLE, P.C., G.C.M.G., C.H., Australian Political Leader; born August 8, 1880, Grafton, New South Wales; son of Charles and Mary Annie Hadden (Cox) Page; educated at University of Sydney, M.B., Ch.M. 1901; married Ethel Esther Blunt, 1906; four children. Began career as a Surgeon, 1901. During First World War served as Operating Surgeon with the 3rd Australian General Hospital, and the Australian Casualty Clearing Station in France and Egypt, 1916-17. Elected Federal Member for Cowper in the Australian Parliament in 1919; Leader, Australian Country Party, 1920-39. Treasurer, Australian Commonwealth, 1923-29. Founder and First Chairman of the Australian Loan Council, 1924-29. Minister for Commerce in the Lyons Government, 1934-39. Became Prime Minister in 1939; made Minister for Commerce, 1940-41, Menzies-Fadden Government. Australian Envoy to the British War Cabinet in London, 1941-42; Chairman, Australian Agricultural Council, 1934-39. Member, Australian Advisory War Council. Residence: Boolneringbar, Grafton, N.S.W. Office: House of Representatives, Canberra, Australia.

PAGE, ELWIN LAWRENCE, American Jurist; born in Concord, N. H., Feb. 22, 1876; son of Charles T. and Almira (Booth) Page; educated at Williams College, B.A., 1900; Harvard Law School, 1902-04; married Bertha A. Robertson, June 6, 1910; one son. Admitted to the Bar and commenced the practice of law, 1904; City Solicitor, Concord, 1923-31; U. S. Commissioner, 1923-31; Chairman, N. H. Washington Bicentennial Commission in 1931-32. Legislative Counsel to the Governor of New Hampshire, 1925 and 1931; Assoc. Justice, Supreme Court, New Hampshire (retired). Member: New Hampshire Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn. Author: "Abraham Lincoln in New Hampshire," 1929; "George Washington in New Hampshire," 1932; "The Contributions of the Landed Man to Civil Liberty," 1905. Residence: 6 Cambridge St., Concord, N. H.

PAGE, Major FORSEY, Canadian Architecht; born at Toronto, Canada; son of W. Pemberton and Annie (Bull) Page; educated at St. Andrew's College; Univ. of Toronto; married Nellie Louise Pentland, 1910; three children. Designed many of Toronto's prominent apartment buildings, schools and churches throughout Ontario. Senior Partner, firm of Page & Steele, Architects, Toronto. Pres.: Ontario Assn. of Architects, 1934-35; Royal Architectural Inst. of Canada, 1944, 1945. Fellow, Royal Architectural Inst., 1945. Winner of many awards at Biennial Exhibition of Toronto Chapter of Architect. Major, C.E.F., 1914-18 (wounded). Residence: 55 Mason Blvd. Office: 20 St. Clair Ave., West, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

PAGE, FRANK C., American Utilities Executive; born Mar. 17, 1887, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Walter Hines and Alice (Wilson) Page; educated at Harvard University, 1910; married Anna Harbison, Sept. 25, 1920; three children. Editorial Asst. and Editor of Country Life in Amer., 1916-17; Manager and Editor of Winston-Salem Journal, 1919-20; Secretary of American Relief Administration, 1920-23; then Department Manager, Chamber of Commerce of United States. Vice-Pres., International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., since 1928. Director: Commercial Cable Co.; Beekman-Downtown Hospital. During World War I, served as Major, U. S. Army, Air Service, 1917-18. Residence: 955 Lexington Ave. Office: 67 Broad Street, New York 4, N. Y.

PAGE, Sir FREDERICK HANDLEY, C.B.E., British Airplane Manufacturer; born 1885. Managing Director, Handley Page, Ltd.; Served as President, Society of British Aircraft Constructors, Ltd. Vice-Chairman, Air Registration Board. Pres., Inst. of Transport, and Royal Aeronautical Soc., 1945-46. Address: Limes House, Stanmore, Middlesex, England.

PAGE, Rt. Rev. HERMAN RIDDLE, Bishop, Diocese of Northern Michigan; born May 3, 1892, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; son of Herman and Mary Morehead (Riddle) Page; educated at Harvard College, 1909-13; Harvard University, 1913-14, A.B.; Episcopal Theological School, 1914-17; married Lois A. Dickinson, 1922 (died 1930); (2nd) Gwendolyn B. Cummins, 1933; one son. Army Chaplain, 1917; Chaplain, Regular Army, 1919. Rector: St. Luke's Church, Wenatchee; St. Michael's Church, Yakima; on staff of St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston; St. Paul's Church, Dayton. Chaplain, United States Army, 1941-42. Bishop, Diocese of Northern Michigan, since 1942. Received hon. degree of Doctor of Divinity, Kenyon College, 1943. Address: 501 E. Arch St., Marquette, Mich.

PAGE, Dr. IRVINE HEINLY, American Physiologist; born Jan. 7, 1901, Indianapolis, Ind.; son of Lafayette and Marian (Heinly) Page; educated at Cornell University, A.B. in Chemistry, 1921, M.D. 1926. Physician, Presbyterian Hospital, 1926-28. Head, Chemical Division, Kaiser Wilhelm Institute, Munich, 1928-31; Associate Member, Hospital of Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, 1931-37, Director, Lilly Laboratory for Clinical Research, Indianapolis, Ind., 1937-44; Director, Research Division, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, since 1944. Member: American Physiological Society; American Society of Biological Chemistry; Society of Experimental Biology and Medicine; Harvey Society; American Chemical Society, etc. Author: Chemistry of the Brain in 1937; Hypertension—A Manual for Patients, 1943; Arterial Hypertension, Its Diagnosis and Treatment, 1945. Address: Cleveland Clinic Foundation, 93a & Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

PAGE, Dr. JOHN RANDOLPH, American Surgeon; born Nov. 15, 1876, in Virginia; son of John Randolph and Delia (Bryan) Page; educated at University of Virginia, M.D. 1899; married Dorothy Dawson, October 21, 1908; two daughters. Interned at N. Y. Lying-In-Hosp., 1899-1900; at N. Y. Hosp. House of Relief, 1900-02; Resident at N. Y. Eye and Ear Infirmary, 1902-04; Asst. to Dr. Arthur B. Duel, 1904-12; was Asst. Prof. of Clinical Otol. at N. Y. Polyclinic Hosp.; Attending Otol. at Babies Hosp., N. Y. House of the Holy Comforter; Consulting Otol. to Bronx Eye and Ear Infirmary and St. Lukes Hosp. in Newburgh. In 1905 he became Asst. Attending Surgeon at Manhattan, Eye, Ear and Throat Hosp., now Vice-Pres., Surgeon Dir. and periodic Chairman of Bd. of Surgeons. He is a Member of Bd. of Trustees of Research Fund of Amer. Otol. Soc. (Pres. 1934); Fellow of Amer. College of Surgeons and Amer. Med. Assn.; Member of Amer. Laryngol. Rhinol. and Otol. Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol.; N. Y. Acad. of Med., etc. Author: Diseases of Internal Ear (Jackson and Coates), 1929; Surgery of Suppurative Labyrhynctitis (Nelson Loose Leaf Surgery of Ear), and co-author of Nursing in Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Throat (Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hosp.). Address: 127 East 62nd St., New York, N. Y.

PAGE, Rev. Dr. KIRBY, American Evangelist and Author; born Aug. 7, 1890, Fred, Texas; son of J. A. T. and Isabella (Pounds) Page; educated at Drake Univ., A.B. 1915, D.D. 1940; Univ. of Chicago, 1916; Columbia and Union, 1918; married Mary Alma Folse, Sept. 2, 1914; two children. Y.M.C.A. Secy., Houston, Tex., 1908. Minister, Christian Church, Montieth, Iowa, 1912-15; Morgan Park Christian Church, Chicago, 1915-16; Ridgewood Christian Church, 1918-21 (Brooklyn, N. Y.). Independent writer and speaker since 1921. Editor, World Tomorrow. 1926-34 (New York, N. Y.). Author: Now is the Time to Prevent a Third World War, 1946; The Light is Still Shining in the Darkness, 1946; The Will of God for These Days, 1945; Living Abundantly, 1944; Living Prayerfully, 1941; Religious Resources for Personal Living and Social Action, 1939; Must We Go to War?, 1937; Living Courageously, 1936; Living Triumphantly, 1934; Individualism and Socialism, 1933; Living Creatively, 1932; The Personality of Jesus, 1932; National Defence, 1931; Jesus or Christianity, 1929; Dollars and World Peace, 1927; Imperialism and Nationalism, 1925; An American Peace Policy, 1925; War: Its Causes, Consequences and Cure, 1923; Christianity and Economic Problems, 1922; The Sword or the Cross, 1921; Something More, 1920. Co-author with Sherwood Eddy: Creative Pioneers, 1937; Makers of Freedom, 1926; The Abolition of War, 1924. Edited: Recent Gains in American Civilization, 1928; A New Economic Order, 1930. Address: P.O. Box 247, La Habra, Calif.

PAGE, Dr. LEIGH, American Physicist; born October 13, 1884, South Orange, New Jersey; son of Edward D. and Cornelia (Lee) Page; educated at Yale University, Ph.B. 1904, Ph.D. 1913; married Mary Thornton, June 27, 1910; three children. Instructor, Physics, Yale University, 1912-16; Asst. Professor, 1916-22; Professor, Mathematical Physics, since 1922. Fellow: American Assn. for the Advancement of Science; American Physical Society; American Academy of Arts and Science, etc. Author: Introduction to Electro-dynamics, 1922; Introduction to Theoretical Physics, 1928; Principles of Electricity, 1931; Electrodynamics, 1940. Address: Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

PAGE, RALPH W., American Journalist; born in St. Louis, Mo.; son of Walter Hines and Alice (Wilson) Page; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1903, LL.B. 1906; married Leila Heywood Tuckerman, Oct. 2, 1911; one son. Attorney at Law, New York City. Contributor to Worlds Work; Readers Digest; Current History; Commerce & Finance, etc., 1912-33. Banker and Planter, Carolina, 1910-33. Staff Writer, Evening Bulletin, 1933-42; now Washington Correspondent. Author: Dramatic Moments in American Diplomacy (Doubleday Page & Co.), 1917. Director, Philadelphia Art Alliance. Address: 1277 National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PAGET, Rt. Rev. EDWARD FRANCIS, Bishop of So. Rhodesia, Anglican Communion; born July 8, 1886, Oxford, England; son of Francis and Helen Beatrice (Church) Paget; educated at Summerfields School, Oxford; Shrewsbury School; Christ Church, Oxford; Cuddesdon Theological College, B.A., M.A.; married Rosemary Sealy Allin, Oct. 20, 1932. Curate, Christ Church, Oxford, Mission, Poplar, 1910; Vicar of Benoni (with Brakpan and Springs) Transvaal, South Africa, 1914-25. During First World War, Chaplain to forces in East African Campaign; awarded Military Cross. Bishop of Southern Rhodesia of Anglican Communion, since 1925; Chaplain-General to Forces in Southern Rhodesia since 1925. Address: Diocesan Office, P. O. Box 7, Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia.

PAGET, Prof. MARCEL, French Biochemist; born April 7, 1904, Hazebrouck, France; son of Antoine and Julie (Lecat) Paget; educated at Collège St. Jacques, Hazebrouck; College of Creisker de Saint Pol, León, 1918-19; College Jeanne d'Arc, Lille, 1919; Univ. of Lille, 1920-25; married Andrée Docnez, March 6, 1926; three children. Asst. Lecturer, 1926; Chief of Hospital Laboratory, Medical Faculty, Lille, 1927; Lecturer, 1928; Asst. Prof. of Biological Chemistry, 1930; Assoc. Prof., 1932; Prof. of Biochemistry since 1936; Vice-Dean, Medical Faculty, since 1944. Member: Soc. of Biological Chemistry; Biological Soc.; Soc. of Chemical Biology; Lille Soc. of Medicine and Clinical Anatomy (Pres., 1944). Corresp. Member, Acad. of Pharmacy; Pres., Lille Soc. of Pharmacy; Chief Editor, Annales of Clinical Biology. Author: Étude de la Matière grasse des laits de vaches de race flamande, 1927; Recherches sur l'adrénaline des surrénales, 1930; Recherches sur le metabolisme de l'eau - Les glandes endocrines et le metabolisme de l'eau, 1934; Le fonctionnement rénal chez les cardiaques, 1936; Les vitamines, 1940. Address: 16 rue de Bourgogne, Lille, France.

PAGET, REGINALD THOMAS, British Parliament Member; born Sept. 2, 1908, England; son of Thomas Guy and Bettine (Des Voeux) Paget; educated at Eton College; Trinity College, Cambridge; married Sybil Helen Gibbons, Aug. 28, 1931. Called to Bar, 1934; served in R.N.V.R., Mar. 1940; invalided out July 1943. Member of Parliament (Labor) representing Northampton, England, since July 1945. Address: Goldsmith Bldgs., Temple, E.C. 4, London, England.

PAGET, Sir RICHARD (ARTHUR SURTEES), British Physicist; born Jan. 13, 1869, Cranmore, Somerset, England; son of Rt. Hon. Sir Richard H. and Caroline Isabel (Surtees) Paget; educated at Magdalen College, Oxford, 1887-91; married Lady Muriel Evelyn Vernon Finch Hatton (deceased), 1897; four children; married (2nd) Grace Hartley Glover, 1939. Barrister, Inner Temple, specializing in patent law, 1895; Secy., Patent Law Com., 1900; Secy., Court of Arbitration in Grimsby Fishing Dispute; Secy., Court of Arbitration, Metropolitan Water Act, 1902; Secy., University College Transfer Commn., 1905; Asst. Secy., Admiralty, Board of Invention and Research, 1915-18; Scientific Liaison Officer to U. S., 1917; Chmn., Thermal Syndicate, 1902-14; periodically Manager and Vice-Director, Royal Institution. Author: Human Speech, 1930; Babel, 1930; This English, 1935; Encyclopaedia Britannica article on voice sounds, 4th ed.; lectures at Royal Institution, 1928-35, 1944; numerous papers on various subjects. Address: 11 Cottesmore Gardens, London, England.

PAGLIERE, ALEJANDRO S., Argentine Civil Engineer; born Feb. 20, 1878, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Nicolas Pagliere and Rosa Rocca de P.; educated at Faculty of Exact, Physical and Natural Sciences, Univ. of Buenos Aires, Civil Engineer, 1905; married Elvira Belloni, Sept. 3, 1910; three children. Asst. Engineer on Construction of Canal No. 9, 1906-07; Inspecting Engineer for Construction of Armed Cement Vaults in Port of Buenos Aires, 1907-12; Contracting Engineer for many important projects in Buenos Aires, 1913-29; Consulting Engineer, since 1929. Director: Bolsa de Ganados, S.A.; S.A.I.A.P. (pavement construction), S.A. Chief of Practical Work on Reinforced Concrete and Iron Construction, Faculty of Engineering, Univ. of La Plata, 1912-14; Director of Instruction in Construction, Faculty of Engineering, Univ. of La Plata, 1912-16; Titular Prof. of Building Construction, Faculty of Physical and Mathematical Sciences, Univ. of La Plata, 1914-42. Author: Tablas Completas para el Calculo de entrepisos con vigas I (1925); Apuntes Sobre Construcción de Edificios (1934). Address: Acuna de Figueroa 672, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAGNOL, MARCEL PAUL, French Author; born Feb. 28, 1889, Aubagne, France; son of Joseph and Augustine (Lansot) Pagnol; educated at Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Montpellier, teacher's diploma; married Jacqueline Bouvier, Oct. 6, 1945; two sons. Taught English in Marseille; Editor of literary review "Fortunio"; went to Paris in 1922. Author (plays): Topaze, 1928; Marchands du Gloire, 1925; Jazz, 1926; Marius, 1929; Fanny, 1931; César, 1936. Author, Stage Director and Producer of films: Topaze; Marius; Fanny; César; Angèle; Femme du Boulanger; Le Schpountz; Merlusse; Cigalon; Tofrol; Arlette et l'Amour; La Fille du Puisatier; Nais; Harvest, etc. Knight, Legion of Honor; elected to French Acad. in 1947 for outstanding work in motion picture field. Pres., Soc. of French Dramatic Authors and Composers, 1944-46. Served with French Army, Inf., 1914-17. Residence: Moulin d'Ignères, Sarthe. Office: 13 Rue Fortuny, Paris, France.

PAGUIA, ANTONIO D., Philippine Labor Leader; born May 4, 1890, Tondo, Manila, P. I.; son of Mariano and Isabel (Reyes) Paguia; educated at Ateneo de Manila, B.A. 1908; Academia de Leyes, Bach. Laws 1918; passed Bar Exam. 1919; married Lourdes de Leon. Barber, 1907 (Manila, P. I.). Reporter or newspaperman, Vida Filipina, Heraldo Nacional, La Metralla, etc. First Lieut., Battalion Adjutant, 7th Regt. of Inf., National Guard, 1917; Lt., U. S. Army, World War I, 1918-19. Secy., Com. on Labor and Immigration, Philippine Senate, 1921. Councilor-elect, City of Manila, 1925. Public Defender, Dept. of Labor, 1933. Special Investigator, Agrarian Conflicts (apptd. by late Pres. Quezon), 1934. Private Consultant to Pres. Quezon on labor matters, 1931-42. Member of Sugar Advisory Bd., represented laborers in sugar industries, 1939-41. Adviser on labor in Office of General Plank, U. S. Army, 1945. Member, Natl. V-D Control Council, U. S. Health Service, 1946. Vice-Chairman, P. I. Labor Service (which will administer $160.000.00 given by CIO-AFL to laborers in P. I. who suffered war damages). General Manager, Natl. Land Settlement Administration, 1947. With underground movement during occupation; Capt., GFCP, Hd-G-2, ECLGA, guerrilla organ., 1943-45. Supreme National Head, Natl. Labor Union, since 1932. Chairman, Natl. Commission of Labor and Peasants, 1941. Pres.: Barberos Unidos, 1921; Philippine Labor Congress, 1920. Member: Quezon Memorial Com., since 1945; Exec. Com. of Liberal Party, 1947. General Manager, El Debate, La Opinion, El Comercio, Pagkakaisa and Sampaguia (newspapers), 1929-33. Vice-Pres., Aklatang Bayan, 1914-33, etc. Editor, Lipang Kalabaw, 1933. Residence: 143 N. Domingo, San Juan, Rizal. Office: 615 Quezon Boulevard, Manila, P. I.

PAHISSA JO, JAIME, Spanish Composer and Conductor; born Oct. 6, 1880, Barcelona, Spain; son of Jaime Pahissa and Ana Jo de P.; educated at Universidad de Barcelona (Architecture); studied with Maestro E. Morera (piano and composition) in Barcelona, and in Paris; married Montserrat Campá y de Travy, Aug. 29, 1930; three children. Composer since 1905. Conductor, Teatro Liceo of Barcelona, 1913-17; Director, Escuela Municipal de Música of Barcelona, 1935-37; Professor at Conservatorio del Liceo, 1933-35. Conducted concerts of Orquesta Sinfónica de Barcelona, Pablo Casals Orchestra, Filarmónica de Barcelona, Orquesta La Salle of Madrid, orchestra of the Teatro Colón in Buenos Aires, etc. Operatic works: Canigó (1910); Gala Placidia (1913); La Morisca (1919); Marianela (1923); La Princesa Margarita (1928); La Prisión de Lérida (1906). Compositions (for full orchestra): En las Costas Mediterráneas; El Combate; Obertura; Sinfonieta; Monodia; Suite Intertonal, etc. Author: Naturaleza de la Música y de la Concepción Musical (1938); Espiritú y Cuerpo de la Música (1944); Los Grandes Problemas de la Música (1944); La Vida y la Música de Manuel de Falla (1944); Tratado elemental y superior de Armonía (1944); La Música de España (translated by Gilbert Chase, 1943); Mozart (translation of work of Marcia Davenport, 1944). Residence: Calle Luis Sáenz Peña 141, 2° D, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAHLAVI, His Imperial Majesty MOHAMMED - REZA, Iranian Shah; born Oct. 26, 1919, Tehran, Iran; son of H.I.M. Reza Shah Pahlavi and H.I.M. Tajomolouk Pahlavi; educated at Teheran Cadet School, 1930; Le Rosey, Rolle, Switzerland, 1931-36; Military College, Teheran, 1936; married H.R.H. Princess Fowziah of Egypt, Apr. 1939; one daughter. Ascended throne, Sept. 1941. Decorations: Order of Pahlavi, and Order of the Crown (Iran); Order of Mohammed Ali the Great (Egypt); Order of Rafeddin (Iraq); Order of Leopold (Belgium); Order of White Lion (Czechoslovakia); Order of Legion of Honor (France); Order of St. Saviour (Greece); Order of the Cedar (Lebanon Republic); Order of the Almar Aali (Afghanistan); Order of the Bath (Great Britain); Order of the Ommegah (Syrian Republic); Order of the Propitious Cloud (China). Address: Shahenshah of Iran, Teheran, Iran.

PAHLEN, Dr. KURT, Argentine Musicologist and Conductor; born May 26, 1907, Vienna, Austria; son of Richard and Rosina (Kuhn) Pahlen; educated at Realgymnasium, Vienna; Univ. of Vienna, Ph.D. Conductor: Workers' Chorus, Vienna, 1927; Radio Vienna, 1930-38; Volksoper (Municipal Opera House), Vienna, 1934-38; Philharmonic Orchestras of Warsaw and Riga; Symphony Orchestra and Concert Orchestra, Budapest; Vienna Symphony Orchestra; State Opera Orchestra, Vienna; Radio Journal Orchestra, Geneva. Guest Conductor in Milan, Paris, Madrid, Amsterdam, Zurich, Berne. Living in South America since 1939. Conductor of Metropolitan Philharmonic Orchestra, Buenos Aires; Philharmonic Orchestra, Rosario. Guest Conductor, Wagnerian Assn., Buenos Aires; National Orchestra, La Paz, Bolivia, etc. Prof., School for Scenic Arts, Rosario; Choir Conductor in Buenos Aires and Rosario. Author: Historia Gráfica Universal de la Música, 1944; El Niño y la Música, 1947; Síntesis del Saber Musical, 1947; Musikgeschichte der Welt, 1947; Wir Kinder und die Musik, 1947; L'enfant et la musique, 1947; Il bambino e la musica, 1947. Address: Oro 2979, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAHUD de MORTANGES, WILLEM FERDINAND, Dutch Industrialist; born Sept. 14, 1890, Haarlem, Holland; son of Dr. W. Th. and L. T. (Bogaardt) Pahud de Mortanges; educated at Sorbonne, Paris, 1913; married Jonkvrouve E. M. Quarles van Ufford, Oct. 7, 1919; three sons. Volunteer in a London shipbroker's office. Member, firm of H. G. Th. Crone, since 1920; Director of several rubber, tea, tobacco, cocoa and cinchona plantation companies. Chairman: Netherlands Rubber Trade Assn.; Netherlands Spice Trade Assn.; Spice Bureau. Residence: Prins Hendriklaan 37, Amsterdam. Office: 104-08 N. Z. Voorburgwal, Amsterdam, Holland.

PAI CHUNG-HSI, General, Chinese Minister of National Defense; born 1893, Kweilin, Kwangsi, China; son of Pai Chih-hsu; educated at Paoting Military Academy, graduating as 2nd Lieutenant, 1914; married Ma Pei-chang, 1925; ten children. Served in various capacities in the Chinese Army, regimental and staff, and in 1926 was appointed Chief of General Staff to the National Revolutionary Forces under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek when the Northern Expedition against the reactionary northern warlords took place; promoted to General and thereafter held high positions in the army and in Kuomintang; commanded successively the First Echelon Forces of the East Route Army, the Shanghai Garrison Forces and the 13th Army. Elected Standing Member of the Central Executive Committee of Kuomintang. In 1937, when the war against Japan began, was appointed Vice-Chief of General Staff and concurrently Chief of Military Training Department, which positions he still holds; also Inspector-General of all Fighting Services, permanent Member of the Supreme Council of National Defense, Military Council, and Military Aviation Committee. Minister of National Defense, 1946—. Founded many schools and colleges and other educational establishments in China, of which he is Trustee. Author: Total War and Total Tactics, 1939; World Situation and the Sino-Japanese War, 1939; The Development of Our Tactics in the Present War, 1940; Guerilla Tactics, 1940; Reconstruction of the Chinese Army, 1941; War, Its Military and Economic Aspects, 1941; Food and Manpower Problems in Our Present War, 1942; To the Islamites in China, 1942; New Kwangsi, 1943; Youth and Military Training, 1943; Development of Military Training, 1946, etc. Residence: No. 1, Yung Yuan Ta Pei Rd. Office: Ministry of National Defense, Nanking, China.

PAIGE, Prof. SIDNEY, American Geologist; born Nov. 2, 1880, Washington, D. C.; son of Nathaniel and Rosa Elizabeth (Goldsmith) Paige; educated at Univ. of Michigan, 1902-03; Graduate School, Yale, 1907; married Hildegard Brooks, Mar. 1, 1909 (dec.); (2nd) Frances Hall, Mar. 1, 1924; three children. Engineering Aid, Nicaragua Canal Commn., 1896-99; with U. S. Geological Survey, 1902-26 (acting in charge, Division of Geology on resignation). Consulting Practice, 1926-35; with U. S. Engineer Corps, since 1935; Visiting Prof., Columbia Univ., Engineering Faculty, since 1946. Member: Geological Soc. of America; Soc. of Economic Geologists; Amer. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgy Engineers; Amer. Assn. of Petroleum Geologists; Geophysical Union. Vice-Pres. elect for 1948, Soc. of Economic Geologists. Author of many publications on economic and structural geology, in Alaska, United States and abroad. Residence: Alpine, N. J. Office: U. S. Corps Engineers, 111 16th St., New York, N. Y.

PAINE, Hon. BAYARD H., American Jurist; born April 27, 1872, Painesville, O.; son of Ira T. and Ella M. Paine; educated at Northwestern Univ., B.S. 1894; married Grace Bentley, June 15, 1907; three children. Practiced law for twelve years at Grand Island, Nebraska; District Judge for the Eleventh Judicial District of Nebraska, 1916-30; elected to the Supreme Court, 1930; re-elected in 1936 and 1942 for six year terms. Member: American Bar Assn. Awarded LL.D. from Nebraska Wesleyan, 1934. Author: Pioneers, Indians and Buffaloes—a History of Pioneer Days in Southwest Nebraska (1935). Residence: Grand Island, Nebr. Office: State Capitol, Room No. 2219, Lincoln, Nebr.

PAINE, Prof. HENRY HOWARD, South African Physicist; born 1883, Newport, Mon., England; educated at Univ. College Aberystwyth, 1901-05; Trinity College, Cambridge, 1905-11; B.Sc. (Wales and London), M.A. (Cantab.). Lectured in Physics, Univ. College of Wales, Aberystwyth, 1911-19; Prof. of Physics at Univ. of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, since 1920. Fellow: Physical Soc.; Cambridge Philosophical Soc.; Inst. of Physics and Royal Soc. of South Africa. Member of Faraday Soc.; Société Française de Physique. Served with R.W.P. and R.E., France and Belgium, 1915-19. Residence: University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.

PAINE, Dr. PAUL MAYO, American Librarian; born 1869. Consulting Librarian, Public Library, Syracuse, N. Y. Author: The Paines of Athens, 1896; Monday Sermons (20 newspaper essays), 1900; Places of Interest in Syracuse and Onondaga County, 1916; Booklovers' Map of America, 1926; The Story of Syracuse, 1933. Member, Amer. Library Assn. Address: Public Library, Syracuse, N. Y.

PAINE, RALPH DELAHAYE, JR., American Editor; born Mar. 31, 1906, Newark, N. J.; son of Ralph Delahaye and Katharine (Lansing) Paine; educated at Phillips Acad., 1921-25; Yale, Ph.B. 1929; married Elena Dimitrievna von Hoershelman, Mar. 7, 1933 (divorced 1943). Securities analyst, Edward B. Smith & Co., 1921-31; Time Magazine writer, 1931; Business Editor, Time Magazine, 1933-38; Time, Inc., Editorial Asst. to Pres., 1938-39; March of Time Ltd., Managing Director in London, in charge of European operations for all Time, Inc. publications, 1939-40; Managing Editor, Fortune Magazine, since 1941. Served as 2nd Lieut., R.O.C., F.A., 1929-34; War Correspondent in Pacific, 1945. Residence: Maple Rd., Easton, Conn. Office: 350 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

PAINTER, Dr. SIDNEY, American Historian; born Sept. 23, 1902, New York, N. Y.; son of Henry McMahon and Carrie (Stevens) Painter; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1925, Ph.D. 1930; married Nivea Elizabeth Forbes, Aug. 17, 1927; four daughters. Instr. in History, Yale Univ., 1927-30; Asst. Prof., 1930-31. Assoc. in History, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1931-36; Assoc. Prof., 1936-45; Prof. of History, 1945—. Member: Amer. Historical Assn.; Mediaeval Acad. of America. Author: William Marshal: Knight-errant, Baron, and Regent of England, 1933; The Scourge of the Clergy: Peter of Dreux, Duke of Brittany, 1937; French Chivalry: Chivalric Ideas and Practice in Mediaeval France, 1940; Studies in the History of the English Feudal Barony, 1943. Address: Johns Hopkins University, Dept. of History, Baltimore 18, Md.

PAINTER, Dr. THEOPHILUS SHICKEL, American Zoologist and University President; born Aug. 22, 1889, Salem, Va.; son of Franklin V. N. and Laura (Shickel) Painter; educated at Roanoke College, A.B. 1908, LL.D. 1940; Yale Univ., A.M. 1909, Ph.D. 1913, Sc.D. 1936; married Anna M. Thomas, Dec. 29, 1917; four children. Instructor in Biology, Yale Univ., 1914-16. Adjunct Prof., Univ. of Texas, 1916; Prof., Acting Pres., 1944-46; now Pres. Member: Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Naturalists; Genetics Soc. of America.

Author of papers on experimental cytology, cytology, cytogenetics. Address: University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

PAIS de SOUSA, Dr. MARIO, Portuguese Political Leader; born in Santo Combo, Portugal; son of José and Carlota Pais de Sousa; educated at University of Coimbra; licensed in law; married Palmira Pais de Sousa; four children. Began career as an attorney. Formerly member, Chamber of Deputies of Portugal. Former Director, Railroad Co. of Beios Altos. Served as Minister of Interior of Portugal; previously Inspector of Prison Services and Civil Governor of District of Coimbra. Member, National Political Council. Address: Avenida Oscar Monteiro Torres, Lisbon, Portugal.

PAISH, Sir GEORGE, British Economist; born Nov. 7, 1867, Horsham, Sussex, England; son of Robert and Jane (Smith) Paish; educated at City of London College; married (1st) Emily Whitehead; (2nd) Anita Caroline Rouse-Rettig; five sons. Secy. to Editor of Statist, 1881-88; Sub-Editor, 1888-94; Asst. Editor, 1894-99; Joint Editor, 1899-1914. Adviser, British Chancellor of Exchequer, 1914-16; Director of Statist; Governor, London School of Economics. Chairman, Anglo-Austrian Economic Union; Chairman, Sound Currency Assn. Fellow: Royal Statistical Soc.; Inst. of Journalists. Awarded Medal of Royal Humane Soc., 1888; Knighthood, 1911. Author: British Railway Position, 1902; Railways of United States, 1913; Capital Investments in Other Lands, 1909; Savings and Social Welfare, 1911; Permanent League of Nations, 1918; Road to Prosperity, 1927; World Economic Suicide, 1929; The World Danger, 1939; Defeat of Chaos, 1941; World Restoration, 1944. Address: The Reform Club, Pall Mall, London, England.

PAISLEY, Dr. EDWARD BLAND, American Clergyman, Educator; born Apr. 2, 1890, Gurdon, Ark.; son of William McLean and Martha Oliver (Bland) Paisley; educated at Arkansas College, B.A. 1910, D.D. 1928; Univ. of Texas, M.A. 1916; Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, B.D. 1916; Yale Graduate School of Education and Divinity School, 1925-27; married Tommie Alston Pinckney, June 16, 1920. Principal of the McCrory Graded and High School, McCrory, Ark., 1911-12; in home mission service in Texas, 1913-16; ordained as minister in Presbyterian Church by Central Texas Presbytery, 1916. He was Stated Supply at the Presbyterian Church, Bartlett, Texas, 1916-17; Religious Work Director at Kelly Field, U. S. Army, Y.M.C.A., 1917; Chaplain, 1st Lieutenant, U. S. Army, 1918. He held pastorate at First Presbyterian Church, McAllen, Texas, 1919-22, and at Laredo, Texas, 1923-25; Assistant Pastor, First Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn., and Bethany Congregational Church, 1925-27; Educational Secretary, Executive Committee of Home Missions, Presbyterian Church of the U. S., Atlanta, Ga., 1927-28. He was Professor of Religious Education, General Assembly's School for Lay Workers, Richmond, Va., 1928-38; President of the General Assembly's Training School, 1933-43; Secretary of Division of Education in Home, Church and Community, Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1943—. He is a Member of the Executive Committee of the International Council on Religious Education; Promotion Committee, Presbyterian Church of U. S. He was President of the Virginia Council of Religious Education in 1935; Vice-President, American Association of Schools and Colleges of Christian Education and Church Social Work; Member of Ad-Interim Committees of General Assembly, Pres. Ch. U. S.; on Curricula of Theological Seminaries (1935-38), and on Revision of Assembly's Digest (1941-43); Board of Editors, Presbyterian of the South, 1933-41; Chaplain (Captain), U. S. Army Reserve, 1924-34. Address: Board of Christian Education, Witherspoon Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

PAIVA, Señor Dr. FÉLIX, Paraguayan Statesman; born in Caazapá, Paraguay, Feb. 21, 1877; awarded Bachelor's Degree and degree of Doctor in Law and Social Sciences in the Federal Capital. Prof. of Law in Faculty of Law, Universidad Nacional; served as Dean of Faculty and Rector of University. Attorney General of State and served as Pres. of Superior Tribunal of Justice (Supreme Court) of the Republic. Associated with Radical Liberal Party; took part in the Revolution, 1904, becoming a member of Provisional Com. of Liberal Party. Elected to Senate of the Republic, 1905; occupied posts of Minister of Foreign Relations, Minister of Justice and Public Instruction, Minister of War and the Navy, Minister of the Interior as well as Vice-President of the Republic. President of Paraguay, 1937-39. Address: Calle España 401, Asunción, Paraguay.

PAJAO y MERCADO, Hon. FRANCISCO, Philippine Congressman; born Oct. 10, 1909, San Ricardo, Pintuyan, Leyte; son of Patricio and Sofia (Mercado) Pajao; educated at Silliman Univ., A.A.; National Univ., Philippine Law School, LL.B.; married Matilde Luna, July 28, 1934; one adopted child. Municipal Secy., Pintuyan, Leyte, 1927. Star Agent, Philippine Education Co., 1930-32. Clerk, National Assembly, Manila, 1932-33. Secy. to late Congressman Tomas Oppus, 1933-37. Practicing Attorney in Leyte, 1938-46. Now Congressman from Third District, Province of Leyte. Founder and Pres., St. James Acad. (a non-sectarian Private High School, Malitbog, Leyte). Owner, Founder and Pres., Panaon Academy (a non-sectarian Private High School, Liloan, Leyte, Philippines). Major, Volunteer Guards, attached to Leyte guerrilla during World War II. Author of legislation: creating a memorial for the late President Manuel Quezon; allowing foreign firms to accept mortgage of real property as security for loans in the Philippines; creating positions of additional Assistant Fiscals in the provinces. Residence: 1456 Abreu, San Miguel, Manila. Office: House of Representatives, Manila, Philippines.

PAJETTA, GIAN CARLO, Italian Political Leader; born June 24, 1911, Turin, Italy; son of Carlo and Elvira (Berrini) Pajetta; educated in public schools; married Letizia Berrini; two children. Member of Executive Committee, Italian Communist Party; Regional Secy., Lombardy; Vice-Commander General, Partisan Brigade Garibaldi; Editor, L'Unità, Milan (daily). Member of City Council, Milan; Member of Parliament. Member of Executive Com., Natl. Popular Democratic Front. Address: Via Palestrina 22, Milan, Italy.

PAJULA, PAAVO P., Finnish Diplomat; born Sept. 13, 1878, Lohtaja, Finland; studied philosophy and jurisprudence; married Naomi Berg, 1909. Mayor, City of Sortavala, 1907-17; Chairman, Office for Commercial Matters in Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland, 1931; Director of Dept. of Political Matters, 1933-39. Minister to Denmark, 1939—. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Helsinki, Finland.

PAKENHAM of COWLEY, 1st. Baron (FRANCIS AUNGIER), British Politician; born Dec. 5, 1905, County Westmeath, Ireland; son of Earl of Longford; educated at Eton; New College, Oxford, M.A. 1st Class in Modern Greats, 1927; married Elizabeth Harman, 1931; eight children. Tutor, Univ. Tutorial Courses, Stoke-on-Trent, 1929-31. With Conservative Party Economic Research Dept., 1930-32. Lecturer in Politics, Christ Church, Oxford, 1932—. Prospective Parliamentary Labour Candidate for Oxford City, 1938. Enlisted, Oxford and Bucks. L. I. (T. A.), 1939; resigned commission on account of ill-health, 1940. Personal Asst. to Sir Wm. Beveridge, 1941-44. Lord-in-Waiting to the King, 1945-46. Parliamentary Under-Secy. of State, War Office, 1946-47. Chancellor, Duchy of Lancaster, 1947; Head, British Occupation Element in Germany, 1947—. Author: Peace by Ordeal The (Anglo-Irish Treaty of 1921). Residence: 10 Linnell Dr., Hampstead. Office: Foreign Office, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1, England.

PAKENHAM-WALSH, Major General RIDLEY PAKENHAM, British Army Engineer; born Apr. 29, 1888, Kilkenny, Ireland; son of Rt. Rev. Bishop William and Annie F. (Hackett) Pakenham-Walsh; educated at Royal Military Acad., Woolwich, 1907-08; School of Military Engineering, Chatham, 1909-10; Staff College, Camberley (p.s.c.), 1921-22; Imperial Defence College, London (i.d.c.), 1922; married Mabel Smith, May 7, 1915; three children. 2nd Lieut., Royal Engineers, 1908. Instructor, Royal Military College, Duntroon, Australia, 1914-15; served in Dardanelles and France, 1915-18; British Rept., Internatl. Com. of Control, Teschen, 1919-20; Asst. Adjutant General, War Office, 1934-35; Brigadier General on Staff, Eastern Command, 1935-39; Inspector, Royal Engineers and Command. School of Military Engineering, 1939. Engineer-in-Chief, British Expeditionary Force, 1939-40 (wounded); on special mission to U.S.A., 1940. Commander of various Corps and Districts, 1941-42; Controller General, Army Provision (F.G.), 1943-46. Vice-Chairman, Development Corp. of Harlow, Essex. Military Cross, Brevet Major, mentioned in despatches, World War I; Companion of Order of the Bath; twice mentioned in despatches, World War II. Author: Outline History of Russo-Japanese War, 1925; Elementary Tactics, 1926. Address: West Bowers Hall, Woodham Walter, Essex, England.

PAKVASA, Hon. MANGALDAS MANCHARAM, Indian Legislator; born May 7, 1882, Bombay, India; educated at Univ. of Bombay, B.A., LL.B.; married Malti Harkisondas, May 10, 1910; one son, Arvind M. Began career, 1907, as a solicitor, practicing law at Bombay. President, Bombay Legislative Council, since 1937. Residence: 29 Doongersey Rd., Malabar Hills, Bombay, India.

PALACHE, Dr. CHARLES, American Mineralogist; born 1869; received B.Sc. and Ph.D. degrees. Prof. of Mineralogy, Emeritus, Harvard Univ. Fellow Emeritus, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member, Natl. Acad. of Sciences. Author: The Soda-rhyolite of Berkeley, 1893; On a Rock from the Vicinity of Berkeley, containing a new soda amphibole, 1894; The Lherzolie-serpentine and Associated Rocks of the Potrero, San Francisco, 1894; The Berkeley Hills, a detail of Coast Range Geology (with Andrew Cowper Lawson), 1902; Catalogue of the Collection of Meteorites in the Mineralogical Museum of Harvard University, 1926; The Minerals of Franklin and Sterling Hill, Sussex County, New Jersey, 1935; The System of Mineralogy of James Dwight Dana and Edward Salisbury Dana, 7th ed. (rewritten and enlarged; with Harry Berman and Clifford Frondel), 1944, etc. Address: 106 Appleton St., Cambridge, Mass.

PALACIO, Dr. JULIO, Argentine Physician; born Feb. 11, 1894, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Emilio and Julia (Paldao) Palacio; educated at Universidad Nacional, Buenos Aires (Faculty of Medical Sciences), M.D. 1918; married María del Pilar Sixto, Apr. 8, 1943; two children. Director of Municipal Dispensary for respiratory diseases, 1921; Head of Medical Clinic Prof. Castex, 1921; Physician, Hospital Nacional de Clinicas, 1922; Ordinary Prof. of Clinical Medicine, Faculty of Medical Sciences, Buenos Aires, since 1942; Director of Consultative Clinic, Hospital Ferroviario, 1943. Member: (former Pres.) Phthisiological Soc. of Rio de Janeiro; of Rio Grande do Sul, Chile, Uruguay, Paraguay and Cuba. Member: Amer. College of Chest Physicians; Medical Socs. of Bahia and Porto Alegre. Former Pres., Soc. of Internal Medicine. Awarded prizes from Acads. of Medicine in Paris, Rio de Janeiro, Cuba; Facultad de Medicina, Buenos Aires (Agote and Gliemes Prizes). Author: Heredolues, 1918; Sindromes biohumorales en la tuberculosis pulmonar, 1935; La atelectasia pulmonar, 1937; Tumores primitivos malignos bronco-pulmonares, 1940, and numerous scientific papers. Address: Larrea 1322, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALACIOS COSTA, ALBERTO, Ambassador of Argentina to Mexico; born Jan. 12, 1882, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Aurelio Pacacios and María Costa; educated at Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, National University of Buenos Aires, 1906. Served as Professor of History, National College "Domingo Faustino Sarmiento" and at Normal School, Buenos Aires; Secretary of Legation in Paraguay, 1906; 1st Secretary in Chile, United States, Italy, Belgium and Austria; Minister to Belgium and Luxembourg, 1939-40; Minister to Switzerland, 1940-44; now Ambassador to Mexico. Decorated by Italy, Chile and Brazil. Address: Argentine Embassy, Mexico, D.F.

PALACIOS, Dr. ALFREDO LORENZO, Argentine Lawyer; Educator; born Aug. 10, 1880; son of Aurelio Palacios and Ana Ramón; educated at University of Buenos Aires; awarded degrees of Doctor honoris causa by Universities of Rio de Janeiro, La Paz, Lima, Arequipa, Cuzco, Mérida de Yucatán, etc.; Honorary Professor, Universidad Mayor de San Marcos de Lima. Professor of Political Economy, University of La Plata, Argentina, and of Labor Legislation in Faculty of Economic Science of University of Buenos Aires; Professor, Philosophy of Law, Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, until 1903. Served as Dean, Faculties of Juridical Sciences, Universities of La Plata and Buenos Aires; opposed the Revolutionary Government of General Uriburu and was forced to abandon positions at the Faculty of Law, 1930. President, University of La Plata, since 1941. Elected National Senator, 1930. Leader of Socialist Party. Honorary Member, American Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: El Nuevo Derecho, La Fatiga y sus proyecciones Sociales; La Universidad Nueva; Universidad y Democracia, El Imperialismo Yanqui; Libertad de Prensa; En Defensa de las Instituciones Libres; Los Partidos Politicos; En Defensa del Valor Humano; Las Islas Malvinas; El Dolor Argentino; Las Reformas Penales; El Delito de Opinión y la Tradición Argentina, etc. Address: Calle Charcas 4741, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALACIOS MENDOZA, Prof. ENRIQUE JUAN, Mexican Archaeologist; born Jan. 23, 1881, Mexico City. Archaeologist and historian since 1917; appointed archaeologist, Dept. of Public Education, 1925; later Chief of Archaeologists; attached to Archaeological Dept. of National Univ. of Mexico, since 1928. One of Mexican Delegates to 23rd Congress of Americanists held in New York, 1928. Vice-Pres., Section of Pre-History and Archaeology of Mexico of the 27th Congress of Americanists held in Mexico City, 1939. Author of a number of studies dealing with the pre-historic era in Mexico. Address: Instituto Nacional de Antropología, Avenidas Yucatán y Zacatecas 218, or Jalapa 224, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

PALACIOS COSTA, Dr. FLORENCIO, Argentine Attorney; born Jan. 12, 1881, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Dr. Aurelio Palacios and María Costa de Palacios; educated at University of Buenos Aires, 1905, Dr. in Law and Social Sciences, 1905. Began as Fiscal Agent in the Courts of Province of Buenos Aires, 1906; named Prosecutor of the Chambers, 1912; Adviser to the Provincial Government of Buenos Aires, 1930; Attorney General, Supreme Court of the Province, 1932-36. Residence: Callao 1707, 4° Piso. Office: Bartolomé Mitre 544, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALACIOS, JUAN CARLOS, Argentine Attorney; born Dec. 25, 1893, La Plata, Argentina; son of Pablo L. Palacios and Estela Arroquí de P.; educated at Universidad de Buenos Aires; Faculty of Law and Social Science (Doctorate); married María Cristina Ruiz Panelo, Nov. 8, 1929; two children. Practicing Attorney since 1918. Founder and Secretary General, Acción Argentina, a civic movement supporting aid to the Democracies; Founder (in Argentina), Committee for a Free France (Comité de Gaulle) of which Vice-President. Vice-President, Unión de Instituciones Argentinas. Member: Directorates of the Comité France-Amérique; Instituto Cultural Argentino Boliviano; Instituto Francés de Estudios Superiores; Instituto Cultural Argentino Ecuatoriano; Comité Francés de Socorro a las Víctimas de la Guerra, etc. Residence: Juncal No. 974. Office: Avda. Pte. Roque Sáenz Peña No. 628, Piso 3°, Dto. D, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALACIOS MARTÍNEZ, Dr. JULIO, Spanish Physicist; born Apr. 12, 1891, Paniza, Zaragoza, Spain; son of Miguel and Eusebia Palacios Martínez; educated at University of Barcelona, Lic.Sc. 1912, University of Madrid, Sc.D. 1914; married Elena Calleya, Dec. 15, 1927; five children. Assistant, Faculty of Science, University of Madrid, 1914-16; Professor of Physics since 1916. Professor of X-rays, National Institute of Physics and Chemistry (Rockefeller Foundation) since 1931; became Director, same, 1939, and after its transformation into the Institute Alonso de Santa Cruz, 1940, was appointed Sub-Director. Also Professor of Thermodynamics, Military School of Aeronautical Engineers, since 1939. President, Real Sociedad España de Física y Química, 1926-28 (Secretary, 1928-40); Member, Superior Council of Scientific Investigations, since its founding in 1940; Counsellor National Institute of Aeronautical Technics, since 1942; Counsellor, Instituto Español de Oceanografía, since 1942. Member: Real Academia de Ciencias Exactas, Físicas y Naturales; Real Academia de Medicina; Corresponding Academician, Academy of Sciences and Arts at Barcelona, and Academy of Science at Buenos Aires. Hon. Dr., University of Toulouse, 1943. Author: Filipinas Orgullo de España, 1935; Física para Médicos, 1942; Termodinámica y Constitución de la Materia, 1942; Mecánica Física, 1942; Electricidad y Magnetismo, 1945; more than 100 papers on physics, published in scientific magazines. Residence: Calle de Serrano No. 157. Office: University of Madrid, Madrid, Spain.

PALACIOS, MANUEL R., Mexican Senator; General Manager of National Railways; born Nov. 1, 1906, Oaxaca de Juárez, Oaxaca, Mexico; educated at Preparatory School, State of Oaxaca; National Univ., Mexico City, Law Faculty, L.B. Teacher of Sociology, National Univ., Mexico City, 1932; Pres., Consulting Technical Com., Dept. of Public Education, 1935-37; Teacher of Revolutionary Legislation, National School for Teachers, 1936-42; Member of Special Studies Com., Presidency of the Republic, 1937; Teacher of Political Economy, Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, since 1938; Teacher of Soiology, High School Teachers' Inst., since 1938; Chief of Legal Dept., Ministry of the Interior, 1938-39; Adviser, Dept. of Social Security, Ministry of the Interior, since 1938. Federal Representative, Arbitration Court of Public Workers, 1939-40; Member of Commission in charge of preparing Bureaucratic Statute, 1939-40; Pres., Federal Board of Conciliation and Arbitration, 1941-43; Member of Commission in charge of Social Service Project, 1942; Under Secy. of Labor and Social Security, 1943-46; Adviser, Managing Bd., National Railways of Mexico, since 1943; Adviser, Mexican Inst. of Social Service, since 1943; elected to Mexican Senate (for State of Oaxaca), 1946; General Manager, National Railways of Mexico and Mexican Railways, since 1946. Address: Bolívar 19, México City, D. F., México.

PALACIOS COSTA, Prof. NICANOR, Argentine Obstetrician; born March 6, 1887, Buenos Aires; son of Aurelio and María (Costa) Palacios; educated at Colegio Lacordaire, B.A. 1901; Universidad Nacional, Buenos Aires, M.D.; married Lucia de Bruyn, Dec. 18, 1918; two sons. Physician, Clinics of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Dr. Eliseo Canton, 1914-16; Chief of Obstetrical and Gynecological Clinic, 1926-27; Acting Prof., Obstetrical Clinic, Medical School Universidad Nacional, Buenos Aires, 1917-33; Prof. at Obstetrical School, 1933-38; at Obstetrical Clinic, Med. School, since 1938; Dean of Med. Faculty, 1938-40. Director, Maternity Inst. Samuel Goche, Hospital Rawson, since 1933. Hon. Member: Brazilian Acad. of Sciences; Acad. of Medicine at Rio de Janeiro; Gynecological Soc. of Montevideo; Brazilian Soc. of Gynecology and Obstetrics; Cuban Soc. of Obstetrics and Gynecology; New York Acad. of Medicine; Faculty of Medicine (Santiago de Chile). Created Knight, Legion of Honor, 1939; Commander, Order Crouzeiro do Sul, Brazil, 1941. Author: Tratamiento de la Eclampsia Segun Stroganoff, 1914; Sur la symphyseotomie, 1924; Tuberculosis y Embarazo, 1934; Fisio-patología de la Contracción Uterina, 1940. Residence: Rodriguez Peña 1967. Office: Juncal 1283, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALAIRET, Sir (CHARLES) MICHAEL, K.C.M.G., British Diplomat; born Sept. 29, 1882; educated at Eton College. Attaché, British Foreign Service, 1905; various assignments until 1917; attached to Peace Delegation at Paris, 1918-19; 1st Secy., 1919; at Foreign Office, 1920; Paris, 1920; Counsellor of Embassy at Tokyo, 1922; Chargé d'Affaires, April-Oct. 1923, Jan.-Mar. 1924; Chargé d'Affaires, Peking, Feb.-Oct. 1925; at Foreign Office, 1926; at Rome, 1928; E.E. and M.P., Rumania, 1929; Sweden, 1935; Austria, 1937 (withdrawn upon abolition of Legation, 1938); U. K. Representative at Inter-Governmental Meeting on Refugees from Germany at Evian, 1938; Chargé d'Affaires, Bucharest, Sept.-Dec. 1938; in Foreign Office, 1939; E.E. and M.P. to Greece, 1939-41, when Greek Govt. removed to London; A.E. and P. to Greek Govt., 1942-43; Asst. Under-Secy. of State in Foreign Office, 1943-45. Address: Foreign Office, London, England.

PALANPUR, Lt.-Col. His Highness Zubdtul-Mulk Dewan Mahakhan Shri TALEY MUHOMMED Khan Bahadur, G.C.I.E., K.C.VO., A.D.C., Indian Ruler; born July 7, 1883; privately educated. Succeeded as Nawab of Palanpur, 1918. Delegate to League of Nations Assembly, 1928 and in 1937 attended Coronation of His Majesty King George VI. Receives a salute of 13 guns. Address: Palanpur, India.

PALAU CLAVERAS, AGUSTÍN, Spanish Librarian; born Nov. 16, 1906, Barcelona, Spain; son of Antonio Palau Dulcet and Concepción Claveras de P.; educated at Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, Universidad de Barcelona; Univ. of Madrid, Doctorate, 1930; married Mercedes Baquero, Aug. 2, 1932; three children. Asst. Librarian, 1920; Teacher, 1930-40; Chief of Section, Biblioteca de Cataluña, 1939-41; Director, Instituto Nacional de Segunda Enseñanza de Granollers, 1933-36; Prof., Escuela de Trabajo de Granollers, 1930-36, 1938-41; Barcelona, 1939-40; Director, Central Naval Library, since 1941; Chief of Office, Instituto Nacional del Libro Español, since 1942. Author: Venus y Cupido, 1941; Estudio Sobre la Escultura Neoclásica, 1941; Ensayo de Bibliografía Maritima Española, 1943; El Cid Campeador, 1945. Address: Montalban No. 2, Madrid, Spain.

PALAU y DULCET, ANTONIO, Spanish Bookdealer and Author; born December 21, 1867, Montblanch, Province of Tarragona, Spain; son of Antonio Palau y Farre and Tecla Dulcet y Palau; educated at Municipal School, Barcelona; married Concepción Claveras y Canal, Apr. 8, 1894; five children. Apprentice in a jeweler's shop, two years; identified with a library for six months; subsequently apprentice at Lampisteria Verdaguer, Barcelona; completed apprenticeship at Lampisteria Vilella; served for fourteen years with Casa Ponsa y Cia.; became 2nd Secy., Unión de Trabajadores de España; established a bookshop in 1899, and published first catalogues. Owner, Librería Palau, Barcelona, since 1905. Author: Memories d'un llibreter catala, 1935; Memorias de un librero catalán, 1935; Guia de Poblet, 1931; Guia de Montblanc, 1931; Guia de la Conca de Barsara, 1932; Manuel del librero hispano-américano, 1923-27 (7 vols.). Hon. Pres., Sociedad de Libreros Españoles; Member, Asociación de Bibliofilos, Tarragona. Address: Calle de San Pablo 41, Barcelona, Spain.

PALAVICINI, FELIX F., Mexican Publisher; born March 31, 1881, Teapa, Tabasco, Mexico; son of Juan Vicente Palavicini and Beatriz Loria; educated at Instituto Juarez of Villahermosa, engineering degree, 1901; completed courses in industrial schools and pedagogy in Conservatory of Arts and Trades of Paris, 1906-07. Professor, Escuela Normal de Maestros de México, 1905; Delegate, Sociedad Mexicana de Geografía y Estadística, to Ninth International Congress of Geography in Geneva, Switzerland, 1908; appointed Director of the Escuela Industrial de Huerfanos de México, 1911. Became Deputy to the National Congress for Tabasco, 1912; Secretary of Public Instruction and Fine Arts, 1914-16; Deputy for Federal District to Constituent Congress of Queretaro, 1916. Extraordinary Ambassador on special mission to England, France, Belgium, Spain and Italy, 1919. Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary in Argentina, 1938-40. Member: Mexican branch of the Unión Racionalista of Paris (Vice-President); Ateneo Nacional de Ciencias y Artes (Pres.), etc. Pres., First Bibliographical Congress held in Mexico, 1934, to celebrate fourth centenary of the printing press in the New World; President of two national congresses of child welfare; Vice-President of First National Congress of Social Science, 1941, and First National and Pan-American Congress of the Press in Mexico, 1942. Formerly Director of El Universal (largest newspaper in Mexico), which he founded and directed for seven years; El Universal Gráfico, El Globo, El Pensamiento, Todo, El Dia, etc. Now Publisher of Excelsior. Author: Pro-Patria, Apuntes de Sociología Mexicana; Las Escuelas Técnicas en Francia, Belgica, Suiza, Italia y Japon; Construcción Económica de Escuelas; Problemas de Educación; Los Irredentos; Los Diputados; Un Nuevo Congreso Constituyente; La Patria por la Escuela; La Democracia Victoriosa; Lo que yo vi; Castigo (novel); Epistolario del amor; El Arte de Amar y ser Amado; Mi Vida Revolucionaria; Historia de la Constitución de 1917; Democracias Mestizas, etc. Awarded numerous decoraions. Address: Bucareli 12-407, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

PALAZZO, Prof. FRANCESCO CARLO, Italian Agricultural Chemist; born Mar. 31, 1881, Caltagirone, Italy; son of Fortunato and Cara Eleonora Palazzo; educated at Univ. of Palermo; married Dr. Mina Finkelstein, July 15, 1914; one son. Instructor, Inst. for Chemistry, Univ. of Palermo, 1902; 1st Asst., 1905; 1st Asst., Univ. of Rome, 1911; Extraordinary Prof. of Forest Chemistry, Istituto Superiore Forestale, Florence, 1913; Ordinary Prof., 1918; Director, Royal Istituto Superiore Agrario e Forestale, Florence, 1934; Pres., Agrarian Faculty, Univ. of Florence, 1936-37; now Prof. of Agricultural Chemistry, Univ. of Florence, Italy. Member: Accademia economico-agraria dei Geogofili; Com. for Chemistry and Council for Raw Materials, Natl. Council of Researches. Correspondent Member, Società di scienza naturali ed economiche di Palermo; Società agraria di Bologna; Accademia di Scienze, Lettere e Belle Arti di Palermo. Created Commander, Order of Crown of Italy; Commander, Order of S.Maurizio and S.Lazzaro. Awarded Silver Medal, Ministry of Agriculture. Author: Le Trementine Italiane, 1936, 1940; Cellulose greggie e nobili da materie prime nazionali, 1935; Le cellulose italiane, 1941. Address: Piazzale del Re 32, Florence, Italy.

PALECKIS, JUSTAS I., Soviet Political Leader. Served as Chairman of Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the Lithuanian S.S.R. (Prime Minister). Vice-Chairman, Presidium of the Supreme Council of the U.S.S.R. Address: Supreme Soviet of the Lithuanian S.S.R., Vilnius, Lithuanian S.S.R.

PALENCIA, ISABEL de, Spanish Writer; born 1878. Author: El sembrador sembra su semilla, 1923; The Regional Costumes of Spain, 1926; Agony in Spain, 1936; I Must Have Liberty, 1940; Dialogos con el dolor, 1945; Smoldering Freedom (story of the Spanish Republicans in exile), 1945; Alexandra Kollontay (Ambassadress from Russia), 1947. Address: c/o Longmans, Green & Co., 55 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

PALENOV, Prof. ANDREI, Soviet Academician; born 1872. Outstanding Neuro-surgeon. Awarded Order of Lenin on 50th Anniversary of his medical, scientific and pedagogical activities, 1947. Author of 125 scientific studies. Awarded Stalin Prize for "Atlas of Operations of the Cerebrum and Spinal Cord." Address: Academy of Medical Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PALENQUE, FRANC E., Bolivian Financial Executive; born June 14, 1894, Villa Serrano, Chuquisaca, Bolivia; son of José Manuel and Cristina (Flores) Palenque; educated at Univ. of Chuquisaca, 1916; Gregg School de La Paz, title of accountant in both; Internatl. Correspondence Schools, Scranton, Pa. (diploma as Chief Accountant), 1939; married Maria Gerarda Armas, Nov. 30, 1921; four children. Employed by various foreign commercial firms since 1914. Preceptor on Taxes, 1922-25; Accountant, Gust. Hinke & Cia., 1926-27; Founder and Organizer of Municipal Treas., Villa Serrano, 1927; Municipal Pres., Villa Serrano, 1928; Founder, Owner and Director, Office "F. E. Palenque" (Accountant), Sucre, since 1928. Municipal Secy., Municipal Council of Chuquisaca, Sucre, 1933; Member, Statistical Commn., Municipal Council of Chuquisaca, 1932-34; Reorganisor of Administrative Procedure for creation of Province Belisario Boeto with capital of Villa Serrano, 1941-43; Representative of Escuelas Internaciones, Buenos Aires and of The Gregg School de La Paz; Cooperator, various public work in Villa Serrano. Founder and Pres., Sociedad Chuquisaca de Contadores, Sucre. Author: Statutes of the Sociedad Chuquisaca de Contadores; Contabilidad y Ciencias Anexas; Geografía é Historia Política y Económica de Villa Serrano. Residence: Casilla de Correo 175, Calle "San Alberto" 208-210, Sucre, Bolivia.

PALENQUE, Dr. GABRIEL, Bolivian Chief Justice; born Dec. 5, 1879, Oruro, Bolivia; studied law. Prof. of Secondary Education; Prof. of Law; Rector, Univ. of Oruro; National Deputy; Member of Senate; Pres. of Congress; Minister of State; Journalist; Lawyer for various industrial and commercial enterprises; Senator for State of Oruro. Now President, Supreme Court of Bolivia. Address: Supreme Court of Bolivia, La Paz, Bolivia.

PALEOLOGOS, Dr. GEORGE, Greek Educator; born Oct. 1892, Kalavryta, Greece; son of Nicholas and Evangeline (Papadopoulos) Paleologos; educated at Athens Univ., 1911-16, Ph.D. 1927; Universities of Leipzig, 1923-24, Hamburg, 1924-25, Berlin, 1925; married Mary Sigalas, Dec. 25, 1930. Prof. of Classical Philology, Gymnasium Kalavryta, 1916. Director of Normal School of Jannina, 1926-27. Member, Board of Education, Athens, Greece, 1928-29. General Director, Educational Acad., Athens, 1934—. General Secy., Ministry of Education, Athens, 1933-35. Capt. of Infantry, 1913-33; Reserve Captain of Infantry, 1940-41. Awarded: Silver Cross of the Savior, 1919; Military Gold Medal for Heroism, 1921. Author: The Antithesis in the Psychological Investigations, 1937; Socio-Educational Problems, 1938; The Law of Educational Academies and the Marasleios Educational Acad., 1939; Group Teaching, 1940. Residence: Pentelis St. 5. Office: Educational Academy, Marasli St., Athens, Greece.

PALEY, WILLIAM S., American Radio Executive; born Sept. 28, 1901, Chicago, Ill.; son of Samuel and Gold (Drell) Paley; graduated Western Military Acad., Alton, Ill., 1918; studied at Univ. of Chicago, 1918-19; B.S., Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1922; married Dorothy Hart, May 11, 1932; two children; (2nd) Barbara Cushing Mortimer; one son. In charge of production and advertising, Congress Cigar Co., Philadelphia, 1922; Vice-Pres., 1923-29; also Secy., 1925-29. President and Director, Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc., 1928-46; Chairman of Board, 1946—. President and Director, William S. Paley Foundation; Director, Museum of Modern Art and Philharmonic Symphony Society of N. Y. He served as a Director of the New York World's Fair, 1940. With Office of War Information, 1943-45; Chief of Radio, Psychological Warfare Division of SHAEF, 1944-45; Col., Army of the United States, 1945; Deputy Chief, Psychological Warfare Div. of SHAEF, 1945; Deputy Chief, Information Control Div., of U.S.G.C.C., 1945. Author of miscellaneous articles and pamphlets concerning radio broadcasting. Residence: Shelter Rock Rd., Manhasset, N. Y. Office: 485 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

PALGUNOV, N. G., Soviet Newspaper Director. Former Chief and now Director of Tass. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1944. Address: Tass, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PALING, Rt. Hon. WILFRED, P.C., British Political Leader; born 1883. Member of Parliament (Labour) for Doncaster Division of West Riding, 1922-31, and for Wentworth Division since 1933. Lord of the Treasury, 1929-31; Deputy-Chief Whip of Labour Party since 1935. Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Pensions, 1941-45; Minister of Pensions, 1945-47; Postmaster-General, 1947—. Address: House of Commons, London, England.

PALLADIN, ALEXANDER VLADIMIROVICH, Soviet Scientist; born 1885; educated at School of Natural History, Petersburg University, 1907. Professor of Physiology, Agricultural Institute, Kharkov, 1916; Professor of Biochemistry, Medical Institute of Kharkov, 1921. Organized and became Director of the Ukrainian Research Institute of Biochemistry, 1925. President, Ukrainian Acad. of Sciences, 1946—. Member of Byelorussian Academy of Sciences and Academy of Sciences of USSR. Director, Institute of Biochemistry. Delegate to International Physiological Conferences held in Boston (1929), Stockholm, Rome and Leningrad. Member of Delegation of Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Delegate, 17th Internatl. Physiological Congress, London, 1947. Awarded: Order of Red Banner, 1941; Order of Lenin, 1944; Order of Red Star, 1944. Founded Ukrainian Soc. of Physiology; established the publication, "Ukraine Bio-Chemical Journal." Author of textbooks and over 120 scientific papers. Address: Ukrainian Acad. of Sciences, Kiev, Ukrainian S.S.R.

PALLARES, ARTURO N., Ecuadorean Diplomat. Chief of Section on International Conferences, Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Member, Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, United Nations Commission on Human Rights, 1947. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Quito, Ecuador.

PALLARES y PORTILLO, Prof. EDUARDO, Mexican Attorney, Journalist; born October 13, 1885, Mexico, D. F.; son of Jacnito Pallares and Rosario P. de Pallares; studied in Colegio del P. Duran and Escuela Official No. 7; Universidad Nacional de México; married Esperanza González, Feb. 8, 1914; two daughters. Began as practicing attorney, 1907; became Professor of Ethics, Escuela Nacional Preparatoria. Professor in Escuela Nacional de Jurisprudencia, where he taught synthesis of law, history of Mexican law and civil procedure. Consulting Attorney to Secretariat of Public Education; also Member, Legislative Commission. Editorial Writer for paper, "El Universal", etc. Founder of Partido Cívico en Defensa de la Libertad; Ex-Editor of Mexico Nacionalista. Member of Barra de Abogados; Academia de Legislación y Jurisprudencia and Asociación Nacional de Abogados. Author: La Tragedia de los Sexos; Carlos Marx y su Obra; El Procedimiento Inquisitorial; La Estética de Croce; Tratado de las Acciones; Introducción a la Filosofía. Residence: Avda. México No. 61. Office: Isabel la Católica No. 30, Mexico, D.F.

PALLIN, Prof. (HUGO) NICOLAUS, Swedish Professor of Engineering; born Apr. 5, 1880, Gefle, Sweden; son of Johan Valfrid and Julia (Petersson) Pallin; educated at Royal Swedish Inst. of Technology and Sorbonne; married Rose Elisabet Sandberg, 1922; one child. Govt. Engineer, Board of Roads and Waterways, 1910; Lieut. Col., Royal Corps of Engineers, 1939. Editor, Ultima Thule, 1929; Gryning, 1931; Roads and Traffic, 1936; Swedish Govt. Delegate to several international congresses. Pres., Union of Swedish Authors, 1934. Prof. of Highway Engineering and Transport, and Head of Dept. of Roads and Transportation, Royal Inst. of Technology, Stockholm. Prof., State Univ. of Istanbul, Turkey, since 1946. Member or head of different scientific expeditions, South America, 1920-21, Spitsbergen, 1922, 1923 and 1928, Iceland, 1935, Greenland, 1936, and other countries. Member, Swedish Civil Engineers Assn. Awarded many decorations. Author: Highway Engineering, 1915 and 1926; Natural Laws of Traffic, 1928; Psychology of Traffic, 1929; The Empire of Traffic, 1932; Principles of Transportation, 1936; Social Dynamism, 1943. Address: Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden.

PALLIS, ALEXANDER A., Greek Political Economist; born Oct. 20, 1883, Bombay; son of Alexander and Julia (Ralli) Pallis; educated at Eton and Oxford. With Egyptian Civil Service, 1907-13; subsequently transferred to Greek Civil Service; Inspector-General of Finance in Greece, 1913-20. Represented Greece on Commn. for Exchange of Populations between Turkey and Greece; Commn. for Apportionment of Ottoman Debt; League of Nations Commn. for Settlement of Refugees; Representative of League of Nations in Greece for Protection of Stateless Refugees; Member of Greek Parliament, 1934-35. Served as a special correspondent for British and Greek papers; a specialist in Islamic Art. Greek Delegate to U. N. Temporary Sub-Commn. on Economic Reconstruction of Devastated Areas, 1946. Author: Greece's Anatolian Venture — And After (in English); L'Exchange des Populations Greco-Turques; The Oriental Myth of Alexander the Great (in English), etc. Address: c/o Greek Delegation, United Nations, 781 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

PALLISER, Admiral Sir ARTHUR, K.C.B., D.S.C., British Naval Officer; son of Arthur and Hester Brenda (Boord) Palliser; educated at Bradfield College, Berkshire, England; R. N. Colleges, Dartmouth and Greenwich; married Margaret Eva Kingdatter; two children. Naval Cadet, 1905; Lieut., 1911; served throughout World War I; Dardanelles, East Indies, Grand Fleet; Commander, 1924; Capt., 1931; commanded H.M.Ss. Blanche, Leander, Excellent, Malaya; served on H.M.S. Malaya in Mediterranean and Atlantic, 1940-41; Rear Admiral, 1941; in ABDA Command in Java, 1942; with GHQ, New Delhi; commanded 1st Cruiser Squadron, 1943-44; Vice-Admiral, 1944; 4th Sea Lord of Admiralty, 1944-46; Commander-in-Chief, E. Indies Station, 1946-48; Admiral, 1947. Awarded: Distinguished Service Cross; French Croix de Guerre with Palm, 1917; Orange Nassau Order (Knight, Grand Officer), 1942; Commander of the Bath (Knight), 1946. Address: c/o Westminster Bank, Ltd., 26 Haymarket, London, S.W. 1, England.

PALLMAN, Dr. HANS (ADOLF), Swiss Agricultural Chemist; born May 21, 1903, Frauenfeld, Thurgau, Switzerland; son of Ernst and Anna (Schärer) Pallman; educated at Swiss Federal Inst. of Technology, Zurich (diploma in natural sciences, 1927, Sc.D. 1930); married Thildy Vogt, Sept. 15, 1930; three sons. Privatdocent in Agricultural Chemistry, Swiss Federal Inst. of Technology, Zurich, 1932-35; Assoc. Prof. of Agricultural Chemistry, 1935-36; Prof., since 1936. Rector of Institute, 1947. Hon. Member: Inst. of Soil Science; Superior Council of Scientific Investigations, Madrid, Spain, 1947. Foreign Member, Royal Swedish Acad. of Agriculture, 1939; Corresp. Member, Czechoslovak Acad. of Agriculture, 1947. Member, International Soc. of Soil Science (Swiss Representative). Awarded Prof. Werder Prize, Berne, 1947. Co-author: Anleitung zum quantitativen agrikulturchemischen Praktikum, 1938; various papers on colloid chemistry, soil science, etc. Address: Eidg. Technische Hochschule, Zurich, Switzerland.

PALLUCCHINI, Dr. RODOLFO, Italian Art Historian; born Nov. 10, 1908, Milan, Italy; son of Annibale and Vittoria (Franzi) Pallucchini; educated at Univ. of Padua, Litt.D. 1931; Privatdocent in Medieval and Modern History, 1937; married Anna Tositti, 1935; two daughters. Director, Galleria Estense, Modena, 1935; Director of Fine Arts, Municipality of Venice, since 1938; Organizer of various exhibitions. Author: Paolo Veronese a Maser, 1939, 2nd ed., 1943; Veronese, 1940, 2nd ed., 1943; Gli Incisori Veneti del Settecento, 1941; Giambattista Piazzetta, 1942, 2nd ed., 1945; I Disegni del Guardi al Museu Correr di Venezia, 1943; La Pittura Veneziana del Cinquecento, 2 vols., 1944; Sebastiano Viniziano (Fra Sebastiano del Piombo), 1944; I Dipinti della Galleria Estense di Modena, 1945; Le Acqueforti del Canaletto (with F. G. Guarnati), 1945; I Disegni del Pittoni, 1945; Gli affreschi di Giambattista e Giandomenico Tiepolo alla Villa Valmarana di Vicenza, 1945; Cinque Secoli di Pittura Veneta, 1945; Edizione critica del dialogo di pittura di Paolo Pino (with Anna Pallucchini), 1946; I Capolavori dei Musei Veneti, 1946. Residence: Calle Zanardi 4131 A. Office: Comune di Venezia, Venice, Italy.

PALM, Dr. FRANKLIN C., American Professor of Modern European History; born Aug. 16, 1890, Willmar, Minn.; son of Alvin and Frances L. (Branton) Palm; educated at Oberlin College, A.B. 1914; Univ. of Illinois, A.M. 1915, Ph.D. 1918. Asst. Prof. of History, Colorado College, 1918-19; Prof. and Chairman of Dept., 1919-21. Asst. Prof., Univ. of Calif., 1921-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-39; Prof., Modern European History since 1939. Chairman, Free World Com. of Oakland; Fellow, Royal Soc. of Letters and Science of England; Member, Amer. Historical Assn. Author: Economic Policies of Richelieu, 1920; Politics and Religion in 16th Century France, 1927; The Establishment of French Absolutism (1574-1610), 1928; Calvinism and the Religious Wars, 1932; Europe since Napoleon (co-author), 1934; The Middle Classes—Then and Now, 1936; European Civilization (co-author), 1939. Address: University of California, Berkeley 4, Calif.

PALMA, ATHOS, Argentine Composer; born June 7, 1891, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of José Palma and Ana Hoffman de P.; studied in Paris and Milan; Conservatorio Nacional; married Augusta Tarnassi, Feb. 9, 1916; three children. Professor of Music, Escuela Normal, 1915; Professor, National Council of Education, 1920; Professor of Harmony, Conservatorio Nacional de Música, 1924, and of Pedagogy, 1932. Member, National Directorate of Fine Arts, 1932; Vice-President of Directive Commission, Teatro Colón, 1932. General Director, Teatro Colón, 1934-37; Member and Vice-President, 1942-43; named Under-Inspector of Music, 1939; Inspector General, 1942. Member, Comisión Nacional de Cultura and Sociedad Nacional de Música (past President). Composer: Nazdah (opera); El Principe Pastor; a ballet, two symphonic poems, three sonatas, one quartet and various works for voice and piano. Residence: Lavalle No. 1549, 8° Piso, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PALMADE, Dr. MAURICE, French Professor of Commercial Law; born Oct. 4, 1886, Rochefort, Charente-maritime, France; son of Jean Palmade; educated at Lyceum of Rochefort; Lic.Law, Faculty of Bordeaux, 1906, LL.D. 1909, Sc.D. (political economy), 1910. Served in French Army during World War I with rank of Capt. Prof. of Law, Paris, 1912. Prof. of Civil Law, 1919-24. Elected Deputy, 1924; Senator, 1938-40; Minister of Finance, 1931 and 1932. Now Prof. of Commercial Law, Faculty of Law, Bordeaux. Member of Superior Council of Agriculture, Ministry of Agriculture. Pres. of various agricultural cooperative societies. Created Knight, Legion of Honor; received Croix de Guerre with palms. Author: La propriété littéraire, 1909; La capacité des syndicats, 1910; Les Bénéfices de guerre, 1922; L'impôt sur le revenu, 1923; La propriété commerciale (Revue politique et parlementaire), 1924; La coopération agricole, 1946. Address: 21 rue Gouvion, Bordeaux, France.

PALMAER WALDÉN, MARGIT AMALIA, Swedish Author; born Sept. 25, 1898, Uppsala, Sweden; daughter of Prof. Wilhelm and Signe (Dillner) Palmer; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, 1918-22, M.A. 1923; married Dr. Bertil Waldén, June 8, 1924; five children. Began as a journalist, 1923. Contributor to Dagens Nyheter, Vi, Idun, Stockholms Tidningen, radio and the movies. Author: Girl Student, 1927; Soviet Russian Scenes, 1928; Mariann Tegern, 1931; Towards a New Love, 1932; Evening Speeches With Gerd, 1938; The Missing Postman, 1941; Don Juan Has Vanished, 1942; A Housewife Lives dangerously, 1944; Cajsa Warg and Her Cook Book, 1946. Member: P.E.N. Club; Swedish Writers Assn.; Business and Professional Women's Club. Address: Storegatan 23, Oerebro, Sweden.

PALME, NILS, Swedish Association Director; born Feb. 26, 1895, Djursholm, Sweden; son of Sven and Hanna (von Born) Palme; educated at High School, 1903-12; Artillery High School, 1918-19; married Margareta Lindquist, June 19, 1920; five daughters. Artillery Officer, 1915-20. Asst. Director and Secretary, Swedish Sawmill Owners Assn., 1921-23; Asst. Sales Manager, Kramfors Aktiebolag, 1923-29; Sales Manager, Ljusne-Woxna, A.B. 1929-37; Secy., Swedish Wallboard Manufacturers Assn. and of Scanboard, 1937-39; Managing Director, "Scanrraft", since 1939 and "Scanrapp" (paper and board assns.), since 1940. Residence: Valhallavägen 120. Office: Norrmalmstorg 2, Stockholm, Sweden.

PALMELLA, 5th Duke of, DOMINGOS de SOUSA HOLSTEIN BECK, Portuguese Diplomat; born 1897; educated at King's College, Cambridge. Director, Bank of Portugal, 1926—; Ambassador to Great Britain, 1943—. Address: Portuguese Embassy, London, England.

PALMER, Dr. ALBERT WENTWORTH, American Theologian; born Kansas City, Mo., May 18, 1879; son of Albert W. and Deborah (Brininstool) Palmer; educated at Univ. of California, B.L. 1901; Yale Univ., B.D. 1904; Pacific School of Religion, D.D. 1920; Olivet College, LL.D. 1930; Litt.D. Boston University, 1939; married Sara A. Wedd, June 6, 1904; three children. Assistant Pastor, First Congregational Church, Redlands, Calif., 1904-07. Pastor: Plymouth Church, Oakland, Calif., 1907-17; Central Union Church, Honolulu, Hawaii, 1917-24; First Congregational Church, Oak Park, Ill., 1924-30. President, Chicago Theological Seminary, 1930-46. Radio Minister, First Congregational Church, Los Angeles, Calif., 1946—. Author: The Human Side of Hawaii, 1924; Orientals in American Life, 1934; The Minister's Job, 1937; The Art of Conducting Public Worship, 1939; Come, Let Us Worship, 1941; Aids to Worship, 1944; The Light of Faith, 1945. Residence: 1185 E. Foothill Blvd., Altadena, California.

PALMER, Dr. ARCHIE MacINNES, American State Department Official; born May 9, 1896; educated at Cornell Univ., A.B. 1920; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1927; Univ. of the South, D.C.L., 1941; married. Secy. and Acting Dean, Cornell Univ., 1920-23. Business Secy., Columbia Univ. Alumni Federation, 1925-27; Asst. Director, Inst. of Internatl. Education, 1927-29; Assoc. Secy., Assn. of Amer. Colleges, 1929-34; Exec. Secy., Cornellian Council of Cornell Univ., 1934-38; Pres., Univ. of Chattanooga, 1938-42. Assoc. Dir., Food Rationing, Office of Price Administration, 1942-43; Asst. Dir. of Salvage Div., War Production Bd., 1943-44. Asst. to Chief, Office of Foreign Service, Dept. of State, Dec. 1944; Asst. to Chief of Planning Staff, Jan. 1945; Asst. Chief, Div. of Foreign Service Planning, Apr. 1945; Acting Chief, Div. of Foreign Service Planning and Div. of Foreign Reporting Services, 1945. Address: Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

PALMER, Dr. ARTHUR, American Surgeon; born Aug. 30, 1889, Oswego, N. Y.; son of William H. and Jennie (Roberts) Palmer; educated at Brown Univ., 1911; Cornell Med. Coll., 1915; Univ. of Pa. (postgrad. study in bronchoscopy), 1924-25; Univ. of Cincinnati (plastic surgery), 1925; Univ. of Vienna (otolaryngology), 1929; married Lillis Oliver, April 13, 1921; two children. Consultant in Otolaryngol. at N. Y. Infirmary for Women and Children; Southside Hosp., Bay Shore, N. Y.; Mather Memorial Hosp., Port Jefferson, N. Y.; N. Y. Reconstruction Hosp., Haverstraw, N. Y. Director of Dept. of Otolaryngol. at Cornell Med. College since 1927; Assoc. Prof., 1940—. Attending Surgeon, N. Y. Hosp. Fellow of Amer. College of Surgeons. Member of Amer. Soc. of Plastic and Reconstructive Surg. (Pres., 1939-41); Amer. Laryngol., Rhinol. and Otolaryngol. Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol.; N. Y. Acad. of Med., and Assn. of Military Surgeons. He was certified by Amer. Bd. of Otolaryngol. and by Amer. Board of Plastic Surgery. During World War I served as 1st Lieut., Capt. and Major, U. S. Med. Reserve Corps. Res.: 34-04 80th St., Jackson Heights, N. Y. Office: 667 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y

PALMER, ARTHUR MONTAGUE FRANK, British Parliament Member; born Aug. 4, 1912, Northam, Devon, England; son of Frank and Emily (Griffy) Palmer; educated at Acton Technical College, 1931; married Dr. Marion E. F. Woollaston, Dec. 9, 1939; two daughters. Junior Engineer, Metropolitan Electric Supply Co., London, 1935; Asst. Engineer, London Power Co., 1937; Town Councillor, Chiswick, London, 1937; Editor, Electrical Power Engineer, 1945; Member of Parliament, Wimbledon, England, since 1945. Member: Inst. of Electrical Engineers; Electrical Power Engineers; Assn.; Fabian Soc. Author: The Future of Electricity Supply, 1943. Address: 102 St. Georges Sq., London, S.W. 1, England.

PALMER, BEN W., American Lawyer; born Jan. 31, 1889, Faribault, Minn.; son of Charles T. and Emma (Wood) Palmer; educated at University of Minnesota, B.A. 1911, LL.B. (cum laude) 1913; M.A. 1914; married Adelaide Clark, Sept. 9, 1915; three children. Began career as an attorney-at-law, 1913. Practiced law in St. Paul, Minn., 1913-14. Instructor of Political Science, University of Minnesota, 1914-15; now member, Nelson, Palmer & Moses. Member: Minnesota Crime Commission, 1930; Minneapolis Charter Commission, 1936-40; Executive Committee, Minneapolis Round Table National Conference of Christians and Jews; Hennepin County Bar Assn. (President, 1933-34); Minnesota Bar Assn.; American Bar Assn., etc. Author: Manual of Minnesota Law, first edition, 1929, 2nd edition, 1936; Marshall and Taney, Statesman of the Law, 1939; Business Law, 1942; The Patriot's Calendar, 1929; Swamp Land Drainage, 1914; Proposed Council Manager Charter for Minneapolis. Residence: 3701 Pillsbury Ave. Office: McKnight Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

PALMER, CARLETON H., American Industrialist; born March 21, 1891, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Lowell Mason and Grace Humphreys (Foote) Palmer; educated at private schools. Chairman of Board: E. R. Squibb & Sons; E. R. Squibb & Sons International Corp.; E. R. Squibb & Sons Inter-American Corp.; E. R. Squibb & Sons do Brasil, Inc. Director: E. R. Squibb & Sons of Cuba, S.A.; E. R. Squibb & Sons of Argentina, S.A.; E. R. Squibb & Sons of Canada, Ltd.; Squibb Properties Corp.; Jones Estate Corp.; Lentheric, Inc.; Long Island Railroad and other corporations. Member of Exec. Com., Amer. Drug Manufacturers Assn. Residence: River House, 435 E. 52nd St. Office: 745 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PALMER, CHARLES FORREST, American Real Estate Executive; born Dec. 29, 1892, Grand Rapids, Mich.; son of Walter Millard and Jeannette Hinsdill (Seymour) Palmer; educated at Dartmouth, 1914-15; married Laura Sawtell, Oct. 30, 1918; three daughters. Associated with Wm. R. Staats Co., realtors, Pasadena, Santa Barbara, San Diego, Chicago, 1912-17; owner, C. F. Palmer Co. realtors, Santa Barbara, 1919-20; Pres., Palmer, Inc., Atlanta, Ga., since 1921. Organizer 1933, Techwood Homes, first U. S. slum clearance Atlanta. (Chmn., Exec. Com., 1934-38); Chmn., Atlanta Housing Authority, 1938-40; Defense Housing co-Ordinator, Natl. Defense Commn. and Executive Office of Pres., 1940-42; rept. of Pres. and head of special housing mission to Great Britain, March-Dec. 1942; special asst. to Pres., Jan.-Aug. 1943. Lieut., Cavalry, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Awarded Mexican Campaign and Victory medals. Trustee, Jesse Parker Williams Hosp., 1928-40. Member: Southern Conf. of Bldg. Owners and Mgrs. (Pres., 1923-24); Natl. Assn. Bldg. Owners and Mgrs. (Pres., 1930-32); Housing Centre (London); Natl. Planning Assn.; Amer. Soc. Planning Officials; Natl. Housing and Town Planning Council (England); Internatl. Fed. Housing and Town Planning (Belgium); Natl. Assn. Housing Officials (Pres., 1940); Urban Land Inst.; Atlanta Chamber of Commerce (Pres., 1938); English-Speaking Union (Director, U. S. A.), etc. U. S. Delegate, Internatl. Federation for Housing and Town Planning, Mexico City, 1938, and Hastings, Eng., 1946. Residence: 48 Northwood Ave. Office: Palmer Bldg., Atlanta 3, Ga.

PALMER, CHESLEY ROBERT, American Business Executive; born Aug. 21, 1885, Hawkeye, Iowa; son of Hiram Robert and Sophia Isodene (Chesley) Palmer; educated at Upper Iowa Univ.; married Eleanor Zins, 1908; two children. Began as clerk in father's store, 1903; worked in Chicago retail store, 1906-07. Entered Cluett, Peabody & Co., Inc., as floor salesman, 1908; transferred to Chicago office as Asst. Manager, 1913; Manager at Kansas City, 1914-21. Upon election to Board of Directors, 1922, was placed in charge of four Western offices; in charge of Western and Middle Western offices, 1925-26; Vice-Pres., 1927-28, in charge of all offices. Pres., since 1929. Dir., Manufacturers Trust Co. Public Governor, N. Y. Stock Exchange, 1946—. Residence: 12 Plateau Circle, Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 10 E. 40th St., New York, New York.

PALMER, ELY ELIOT, American Diplomat; born Nov. 29, 1887, Providence, R. I.; educated at Worcester Academy; Brown Univ., B.A. 1908; Sorbonne, Faculté de Droit, 1908-09; George Washington Univ., M.Dip. 1910; married. Consular Asst., 1910; various assignments until 1915; Vice-Consul at Brussels, 1915; at State Dept., 1915; Consul at Madrid, 1915; at Bucharest, 1921; Consul General, 1924; Foreign Service Officer, 1924; Consul General at Vancouver, 1929; at Jerusalem, 1933; Secy. in Diplomatic Service, 1935; Consul General and Counsellor of Legation, Ottawa, 1935; Consul General, Beirut, 1937; at Sydney, 1940; E.E. and M.P. to Afghanistan, 1945—. Address: Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

PALMER, FREDERICK, American Writer; born 1873. Author: Going to War in Greece, 1897; The Vagabond, 1903; The Big Fellow, 1908; Central America and Its Problems, 1910; Danbury Rodd, Aviator, 1910; The Indispensable Man (with Julian Street; 3 act comedy), 1911; Over the Pass, 1912; The Lost Shot, 1914; My Second Year of the War, 1917; America in France, 1918; Our Greatest Battle (Meuse-Argonne), 1919; The Folly of Nations, 1921; Clark of the Ohio, 1929; Look to the East, 1930; Newton D. Baker (during war years), 1931; So a Leader Came, 1932; Bliss, Peacemaker (Life and Letters of Gen. Tasker Howard Bliss), 1934; The Man with a Country, 1935; Our Gallant Madness, 1937; It Can Be Done This Time, 1944, etc. Address: c/o Chas. Scribner's Sons, 597 5th Ave., New York, New York.

PALMER, Dr. GORDON, American Theologian; born June 2, 1888, Coveney, Cambridgeshire, England; son of James Chapman and Louise Bews (Pearson) Palmer; educated at Univ. of Redlands, Calif., Ph.B. 1916, D.D. 1925; Berkeley Baptist Divinity School, B.D. 1916; Rochester Theological Seminary, 1916-17; married Mila Hakes Treat, Sept. 9, 1919; three children. Came to United States in 1909 and was naturalized 1916. Admitted to Fellowship of Wesleyan Local Preachers, Ely Circuit, England, 1906; ordained Baptist Minister, June 23, 1910. Student Pastor: First Baptist Church, Winters, Calif., 1909-14; First Baptist Church, Agusa, Calif., 1914-15; First Baptist Church, Mumford, N. Y., 1916-17; First Baptist Church, Mason, Mich., 1917-18. Pastor: South Park Church, Los Angeles, Calif., 1919-28; First Baptist Church, Pomona, Calif., 1928-36. Trustee, John Lake Leper Corp., since 1937. President of Los Angeles Baptist Ministers Union and Southern California Baptist Ministers Assn. Vice-President, Northern Baptist Convention, 1935-36; Trustee, University of Redlands, 1926-35; President, Southern California Baptist State Convention, 1935-36; Member, Board of Managers, American Baptist Home Mission Society, since 1927; Pres., 1943-47. Watchman-Examiner since 1937. Member, Public Relations Com. of Northern and Southern Baptist Conventions and National Baptist Convention. Member, Internatl. Council of Religous Education, etc. Author: The Gospel According to Eastern (1938); What's Right With the World (1939); Demonstrating the Gospel (1947). Residence: 1305 Medford Rd., Wynnewood, Pa. Office: City Line and Lancaster Ave., Philadelphia 31, Pa.

PALMER, Dr. HAROLD DWIGHT, American Pathologist; born Mar. 6, 1899, Carl, Iowa; son of George W. and Esther I. (Wood) Palmer; educated at State Univ. of Iowa, B.S. 1923, M.D. 1925; married Vitia M. Keeley, Oct. 16, 1920; three children. Instructor in Path. and Bacteriol., Univ. of Iowa, College of Med., 1926-27; Asst. Prof. of Path., 1927-28. Path. to Rockford Memorial Hosp. and Consulting Path. to several hospitals in Northern Ill., 1928-42. Path. and Med. Dir., Children's Hosp., Denver, since 1942. Assoc. Prof. of Path., Univ. of Colo. Med. School. Diplomate of Amer. Bd. of Path. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians; Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Soc. of Clinical Pathologists. Member: Amer. Assn. of Pathologists and Bacteriologists; Internatl. Assn. of Med. Museums; Colo. Soc. of Clinical Pathologists (Pres. 1944). Author: Tularemia, 1928; Undulant Fever, 1928; Anomalies of the Urinary Tract, 1939; Sub-Acute Bacterial Endocarditis, 1939; Congenital Heart Disease, 1940; Pathogenesis of Sub-Acute Bacterial Endocarditis, 1941; Poliomyelitis, 1943; Vitamin A Absorption, 1946. Address: 1056 E. 19th Ave., Denver, Colo.

PALMER, HERBERT DAVID, American Lawyer; born Jan. 3, 1877, Bloomfield, Iowa; son of David P. and Almira (Lakin) Palmer; educated at Southern Iowa Normal and Scientific Inst., B.S. 1895; Yale Law School, LL.B. (magna cum laude) 1900; married Elizabeth Flinn, Apr. 12, 1905; two children (dec.). Asst., Willimson, Cushing & Clarke, Cleveland, 1901; Member, Cushing, Sidall & Palmer, 1910; Asst. General Counsel of New York, Chicago & St. Louis R.R. Co., 1912. Member, Griswold, Green, Palmer & Kapp, 1917-44. Private law office, Cleveland, since 1944. General Counsel, Cleveland & Mahoning Valley Ry. Co., 1926-37; Member, Board of Directors, 1927-39; First Vice-Pres., 1934-39. Treas. and Member, Board of Trustees and Executive Com., Cleveland Legal Aid Soc. Member: Amer., Ohio State and Cleveland Bar Assns.; Assn. of I.C.C. Practitioners. Address: 2941 Claremont Rd., Cleveland 22, Ohio.

PALMER, HERBERT EDWARD, British Poet and Critic; born Feb. 10, 1880, Market Rasen, Lincolnshire, England; son of Rev. Andrew and Eliza Jane (Coleman) Palmer; educated at Birmingham University, 1901-03; Bonn University, 1912-14; married Harriet Emily Preston, 1914; one son. Awarded a Civil List Pension for "distinction as a poet," 1931. Author: Collected Poems, 1918-31 (1933); Cinder Thursday (1931); Summit and Chasm (1934); The Vampire (1936); The Gallows-Cross (1940); A Sword in the Desert (1946). Prose works include: The Judgment of François Villon, 1927; The Teaching of English, 1930; The Roving Angler, 1933; The Mistletoe Child, 1935; Post-Victorian Poetry, 1938; The Dragon of Tingalam, 1945. Address: 22 Batchwood View, St. Albans, Hertfordshire, England.

PALMER, HOWARD SHIRLEY, American Railroad President; born 1885, East Sumner, Maine; son of Frank W. and Sadie Palmer; educated in common schools; married Harriet Esther Wilson, 1908. In the railroad business since 1901, starting as a telegraph operator. Pres. and Director, New York, New Haven & Hartford RR. Co., 1934-47, and Trustee, 1935-47; Pres. and Chairman of Exec. Com., 1947—. Pres.: N. Y. & Stamford Railway; Conn. Co.; Berkshire Street Railway; Director of other corporations. Residence: 396 Livingstone St. Office: Meadow St., New Haven, Conn.

PALMER, Dr. IVAR, Swedish Surgeon; born Mar. 18, 1897, Lena, Sweden; son of J. A. and Carin (Kling) Palmer; educated at Univ. of Upsala and Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, M.D.; married Dagny Bohlin, 1923; two children. Asst. Surgeon, Province Hospital, Österbund, 1923-26; Serafimer Hospital, Stockholm, 1927-28; Chief Surgeon, Province-Hospital, Karlsborg, 1929-31; Asst. Surgeon, Sabbatsbergs Hospital, 1934-38; Karolinska Hospital, 1938-42. Chief Surgeon: Sabbatsbberg Hospital, 1942-46; Southern Town Hospital, Stockholm, since 1947. Member, Royal Insurance Council since 1940. Academic Docent, Karolinska Institutet, since 1939. Awarded Swedish R.U.O.; Finnish F.Fr.K. 3 kl. Author: On the injuries to the ligaments of the knee joint, 1938; Skador Genom Olycksfall, 1944; about thirty papers on surgery. Residence: Bergstigen 19, Stocksund, Sweden. Office: Södersjukhuset, Stockholm, Sweden.

PALMER, JAMES L., American Merchant; born Mar. 12, 1899, Waterboro, Maine; son of Lindley Guy and Luella (Hill) Palmer; educated at Brown Univ., A.B. 1919; Univ. of Chicago School of Business, A.M. 1923; C.P.A.'s license, Illinois, 1923; married Eleanor H. Olson, Aug. 25, 1924; two sons. Taught at Univ. of Chicago School of Business, 1922-40; Prof. of Marketing, 1930-40. Business Consultant for various corporations, 1925-36; Director of Sales Promotion for Marshall Field & Co., 1937-38; Asst. to Pres., 1939; Vice-Pres., 1940. Exec. Vice-Pres., Marshall Field & Co. since 1942, also a Director. Director, General Candy Corp., Chicago. Special Adviser to Bureau of Budget, Washington, 1942; Member, Chicago Regional Manpower Advisory Com., 1942-44; Chairman, Governor's Com. on Revenue Trends, State of Illinois, 1942-44. Member of Reorganization Com., O.P.A., 1943; Special Consultant to O.P.A. 1943. Member of Conf. on Price Research, Office of Strategic Services, 1943-44; Member, Retail Council, Consumer Goods Division, O.P.A., 1943-44; Member, Board of Governors, Smaller War Plants Corp., Region VI, 1943-44. Chairman, Budget Com., Community Fund, Inc., 1944; Member, Board of Directors, Community Fund, Inc., 1943-44; Vice-Chairman of Special Gifts Division, Community & War Fund, 1944. Member, Board of Directors, Natl. War Fund, 1944; Chairman, Chicago Com. for Economic Development, 1943-44. Pres., Community Fund of Chicago, Inc., since 1946. Residence: 855 Lamson Dr., Winnetka, Ill. Office: 25 E. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill.

PALMER, JAMES LEONARD, British Editor; born Dec. 10, 1887, Chester, England; son of James Francis and Elena (Bebbington) Palmer; married Ellen Marsland; three children. Journalist, Courant, Chester, England. Chief Reporter, Western Morning News; News Editor, amalgamated Western Morning News and Western Daily Mercury, 1921; Editor, now Editor in Chief. Studied newspaper conditions in Europe, U. S., Canada. Member, British Newspaper Soc.'s party at confederation Jubilee celebrations, Canada, 1927; English Delegate, Imperial Press Conference, South Africa, 1935; visited Amazon, 1931, Arctic, 1932, Holy Land and Near East, 1933. Pres.: Plymouth Athenaeum; Devon and Cornwall Natural History Soc.; Bard, Cornish Gorsedd; Hon. Member, Devon and Cornwall Bird Watching Socs.; Chairman, Plymouth Overseas Hospitality Com., 1942-46. Fellow: Royal Entomological Soc. of London; Royal Geographical Soc. of England. Freemason: Past Provincial Grand Warden of Devon; Past Master and Chaplain, Armada Lodge 4360; first Master, Plymouth and District Masters' Lodge 5989; Ex-Pres., Western District, Masonic Assn.; Vice-Chairman, Editors' Com. of Newspaper Soc. Member: Natl. Executive, Guild of British Newspaper Editors; Empire Press Union. Awarded O.B.E. Author: Travel publications; pamphlets and reprinted Presidential addresses on history of first newspapers in South West England. Regional Officer, South West England, Ministry of Information. Address: Leicester Harmsworth House, Frankfort St., Plymouth, Devon, England.

PALMER, JEANNE, American Opera Singer; born July 8, 1905, New York, N. Y.; daughter of Robert Kennedy and Sarah (MacInnes) Palmer; studied voice with Maude Douglas Tweedy, and with Wolfgang Martin (operatic conductor), and Dr. L. Wallerstein (stage director); married Sergei Soudeikine, Dec. 26, 1925 (deceased, August 12, 1946). Debut at Town Hall, New York, 1931; sang with the Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York City, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Philadelphia and Colorado Springs Symphony Orchestras, and first performance of Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Invisible City of Kitezh" at Metropolitan Opera House with Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra. Joined Metropolitan Opera Assn., 1945. Residence: 156 W. 72nd St., New York 23, N. Y.

PALMER, LILLI, British Film Actress; born May 24, 1921, Vienna, Austria; married Rex Harrison, 1943; one son. Appeared in first London stage production, "The Road to Gandabar," at age of 17. Motion pictures include: (British) Secret Agent; The Silent Barrier; Sunset in Vienna; Command Performance; A Girl Must Live; Thunder Rock; English Without Tears; The Rogue's Progress; Notorious Gentleman; (American) Cloak and Dagger; Body and Soul; My Girl Tisa, etc. Address: c/o Warner Brothers, Burbank, Calif.

PALMER, Dr. MARY LEIGH, American Educator; born in Montague, Texas; daughter of Rev. William Jackson and Mary Leigh (Sewell) Palmer; educated at Florida Southern College, A.B.; Northwestern University, M.A., Ph.D. 1938; University of Chicago. Teacher of Social Sciences, Zolfo Springs High School, Fla.; Head of Department, Religious Education, Presbyterian College of Christian Education in Chicago and Director of Research, 1937-40. Associate Director, Leadership Education, International Council of Religious Education, 1940-42. Editor, Program Resources and Associate Director, Visual Education of International Council of Religious Education, 1942-46; Acting Director of Visual Education, 1946. Initiated, organized and directed First, Second and Third International Workshops in Visual Education, 1944, '45 and '46; initiated and directed Internatl. Visual Education Fellowship. Member: Natl. Bd. of United Council of Church Women; World Fellowship of Christian Workers of World Sunday School Association. Acting Dean, Presbyterian College Summer Session, 1935. Member, Research Committee, International Council of Religious Education, 1937-40 (representative on Inter-section Advisory Committee, 1939). Member, Editorial Board, International Journal of Religious Education, 1940-46. Author: Worship (Westminster Departmental Graded Lessons), 1935; Worship Services for Stewardship Today, 1935; Why Give, 1936; Follow Me (April issue of devotional booklet), 1936; Visual Method in Leadership Education, 1942; Visual Method in Vacation Religious Education and in Weekday Religious Education, 1943; Picture Guides for Textbooks; God's Friendly World; Jesus and His Friends; Followers of Jesus; Discovering Bible Lands; Living in Our Community; Living and Working in Our Country; Discovering God in the Beautiful; What Boys and Girls Are Asking, 1943; The Curriculum Guide for the Local Church, 1946. Editor, Visual Religious Education Today, 1946, etc. Address: Haines City, Florida.

PALMER, Dr. ROBERT ROSWELL, American Historian; born Jan. 11, 1909, Chicago, Ill.; son of Roswell R. and Blanche (Steere) Palmer; educated at Univ. of Chicago, Ph.B. 1931; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1934; married Esther C. Howard, Dec. 19, 1942; two sons. Instructor in History, Princeton Univ., 1936-41; Asst. Prof. of History, 1941-46; Prof. of History, since 1946. Visiting Prof. of History, Univ. of Chicago, summer of 1947. Member, Amer. Historical Assn. Author: (books) Catholics and Unbelievers in 18th Century France, 1939; Twelve Who Ruled: The Committee of Public Safety during the Terror, 1941. Address: Department of History, Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

PALMER, Dr. THEODORE SHERMAN, American Naturalist; born Jan. 26, 1868, Oakland, Calif.; son of Henry Austin and Jane Olivia (Day) Palmer; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1888; Georgetown University Medical School, M.D. 1895; married Bertha M. Ellis, Nov. 21, 1911. With Biological Survey, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1889-1933, serving as Field Agent, Asst. Chief and Senior Biologist. Hon. Assoc. in Zoology, U. S. National Museum. First Vice-Pres., Natl. Assn. of Audubon Socs.; First Vice-Pres., Amer. Soc. of Mammalogists; Secy., Amer. Ornithologists' Union. Author: Index Generum Mammalium, 1904; Private Game Preserves and Their Future in the United States, 1910; National Reservations for Protection of Wild Life, 1912; Game as a Natural Resource, 1922, etc. Address: 1939 Biltmore St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

PALMER, THOMAS WAVERLY, American Lawyer; born Feb. 25, 1891, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; son of Thomas Waverly and Lulu (Rainer) Palmer; educated at Univ. of Alabama, A.B. 1910; Harvard, LL.B. 1913, (awarded Sheldon Traveling Fellowship for Legal Research, Spain, 1913-14); married Marguerite Ellen Meehan, July 2, 1919; six children. Admitted to the Bar, 1913; practiced law in Birmingham, Ala., 1914-17; now engaged in practice in New York City, Attorney, Chile Exploration Co., Chile Copper Co., and U. S. Consular Agent at Chuquicamata, Chile, 1919-21. Attorney, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 1921-26; Executive Representative and Counsel to the Tropical Oil Co. (International Petroleum Co., Ltd.), Bogota, Colombia, 1927-29. Counsel to the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey), New York, since 1929. President and Director, Venezuelan Chamber of Commerce of the U. S., Inc., 1940-43; Pres., Pan-Amer. Soc. of U. S. Inc., 1946—. Director, European Gas & Elec. Co. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; the Association of the Bar of the City of New York; (Corresponding) Instituto da Ordem dos Advogados Brasileiros. Decorated by Brazil and Venezuela. Author: Guide to Law and Legal Literature of Spain, 1915. Residence: 24 Shawnee Rd., Scarsdale, N. Y. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

PALMER, Dr. WALTER LINCOLN, American Professor of Medicine; born June 29, 1896, Evanston, Ill.; son of Walter Aaron and Alice (Bonney) Palmer, of English and Scotch ancestry. He was educated at Colo. College, 1914-17; Univ. of Chicago, S.B. 1918, S.M. 1919, Ph.D. 1926; Rush Med. College, M.D. 1921. On May 15, 1926 he married Elisabeth Ricketts; four children. Interne at Cook County Hosp. and at Presbyn. Hosp., Chicago; Resident in Medicine, Cook County Hosp., 1924-26; post-grad. studies, Univ. of Vienna, 1926-27. Asst. Prof. of Medicine, Univ. of Chicago, 1927-30; Assoc. Prof. of Medicine until 1941; Prof. of Medicine since 1941. Pres., Univ. of Chicago Settlement, 1937-41. Fellow: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Physicians. Member: Chicago Medical Soc.; Illinois State Medical Soc.; Chicago Soc. of Internal Medicine; Chicago Institute of Medicine; American Gastroent. Assn.; Central Soc. for Clinical Research; Amer. Soc. for Clinical Investigation; Assn. of Amer. Physicians, etc. During First World War served in Med. Enlisted Reserve Corps of U. S. Army; Civilian Consultant to Suregon General of the Army, World War II. Residence: 1320 E. 58th St. Office: 950 E. 59th St., Chicago 37, Illinois.

PALMER, Dr. WALTER WALKER, American Professor of Medicine; born Feb. 27, 1882, Southfield, Mass.; son of Henry Wellington and Almira Roxana (Walker) Palmer; educated at Mount Hermon, 1901; Amherst, B.S. 1905; Harvard, M.D. 1910; married Francesca Gilder, Oct. 12, 1922; three children. Instructor in Physical Chemistry and Henry P. Walcott Fellow, Harvard, 1912-13; Asst. in Med. and Asst. Resident Physician, Hosp. of Rockefeller Inst., 1915-17. Joined Faculty of Columbia Univ. and Staff of Presbyterian Hosp., 1917; present post since 1921. Ex-Pres. of N. Y. Clinical Soc., Harvey Soc. and Practitioners Soc. Editor of "Medicine"; "Archives of Internal Medicine." Author of more than 50 publications. Residence: 24 Gramercy Park. Office: 620 W. 168th St., New York, N. Y.

PALMER, WILLIAM, American Lawyer; born Dec. 29, 1868, Buffalo, N. Y.; son of William Nelson and Clara (Bishop) Palmer; educated in Buffalo schools; married Carrie Alma Fowler, Apr. 25, 1894 (deceased 1944); two children. City Attorney, Buffalo, 1895-96. Asst. U. S. Attorney, 1911-13. Special Asst. U. S. Attorney General assigned to Selective Service duties, 1941-47. Partner in law firm: Hickman & Palmer, 1892-1916; Palmer, Houck & Wickser, Buffalo, N. Y., 1916—. Director, Vice-Pres. and Board Chmn., General Ice Cream Corp. Dir. and Board Vice-Chmn., Buffalo Insurance Co. Dir. and Vice-Pres., Arcade and Attica R.R. Director and Secy.-Treasurer, Main Pearl Corp. Dir., Ferland, Inc. Residence: 34 Gates Circle. Office: 6 Buffalo Insurance Bldg., Buffalo 3, N. Y.

PALMER, WILLIAM C., American Artist; born Jan. 20, 1906, Des Moines, Iowa; son of Orrin Karl and Frankie A. (Dyre) Palmer; educated at Art Students League, N. Y., 1924-30; Ecole des Beaux Arts de Fontainebleau; married Catherine S. Wechsler, Sept. 9, 1939. Held one-man shows at Midtown Galleries, 1932, 1937, 1940, 1944; Carnegie International; Museum of Modern Art; Whitney Museum; Metropolitan Museum, etc. Represented in: Metropolitan, Whitney, Andover, Cranbrook, Encyclopedia Britannica collections, Acad. of Arts and Letters, White House, and with murals in Washington, Jamaica, L. I., Arlington, Mass. and Iowa. Instr., Art Students League, 1936-41; Artist in Residence, Hamilton College; Dir., School of Art, Utica, N. Y.; Dir., Mural Dept., Beaux Art Inst. of Design, 1936; Dir., Munson William Proctor Inst. School of Art, Utica, N. Y. Secy. and Vice-Pres.: Natl. Soc. of Mural Painters, 1937-39; Fine Arts Federation, 1938-39. Awarded: Gold Medal, Paris Internatl. Exhibition, 1937; Prize, Natl. Drawing Exhibition, 1945. Sergeant, U. S. Armed Forces, 1943-45. Residence: Butternut Hill, Clinton, N. Y. Office: 314 Genesee St., Utica, New York.

PALMGREN, Dr. ALVAR, Finnish Botanist; born Apr. 28, 1880, Helsinki, Finland; son of Axel Albert and Olga Wilhelmina Mathilda (Malmgren) Palmgren; educated at Univ. of Helsingfors, Ph.D. 1914; married Sigrid Mathilda Maida af Forselles, July 2, 1906; two children. Docent, Univ. of Helsingfors, 1916; Asst. Prof., 1924; Prof. of Botany, since 1926. Member: Societas pro Fauna et Flora Fennica (Pres., since 1920); Soc. of Forestry in Finland; Societas Scientiarum Fennica; French Botanical Soc., etc. Corresponding Member: Vienna Zoological-Botanical Soc.; Riga Soc. of Natural Sciences; Polish Botanical Soc.; Czechoslovak Botanical Soc.; Societas Phytogeographica Suecana; Amer. Botanical Soc., etc. Author of many scientific papers on various botanical subjects. Residence: Bulevarden 22 B. Helsinki. Office: Botanical Institute, Unionsgatan 44, Helsinki, Finland.

PALMGREN, Prof. (JOHN) GUNNAR, Finnish Educator; born Jan. 23, 1908, Helsinki, Finland; son of John and Ingrid Maria (Ahlman) Palmgren; received D.C. L. 1937; married Ursula Tavaststjerna, Aug. 17, 1935; four daughters. Prof. at Svenska Handelshögskolan, Helsinki, 1940-46; Rector, since 1946. Residence: Bergmansgatan 13. Office: Sjömansgatan 11, Helsinki, Finland.

PALMGREN, Dr. (NILS) ARVID, Swedish Chief Engineer; born Apr. 30, 1890, Falun, Sweden; son of Georg and Frida (Lindskog) Palmgren; educated at Royal Technical Univ., Stockholm, C.E. 1916, Techn.Dr. 1930; married Mary Ann Roempke, May 27, 1916; three children. Engineer, A.B. Svenska Kullagerfabriken (SKF), 1916; Research Engineer, 1917-37; Chief Engineer, Technical Dept., since 1937. Member: Svenska Teknologföreningen, Stockholm; Tekniska Samfundet, Gothenburg; Royal Swedish Acad. of Technical Sciences (IVA). Awards: Gold Medal, Royal Swedish Acad. of Technical Sciences, 1938; created Knight, North Star Order, 1946; Gold Medal, Royal Swedish Patriotic Soc., 1947. Author: Ball and Roller Bearing Engineering, 1945; many papers in professional journals. Address: A.B. Svenska Kullagerfabriken, Gothenburg, Sweden.

PALMGREN, Dr. NILS O. E., Swedish Art Critic; born Feb. 1, 1890, Härnösand, Sweden; son of Oskar and Emma (Malmsten) Palmgren; educated at Univ. of Upsala; Univ. of Stockholm; Ph.B. 1913, phil. mag. 1916, Ph.D. 1934; married Märta Sjöberg, 1946. Teacher at Sigtuna Folkhögskola, 1917-20; 1923-26; 1932-34; 1935-36; Art Critic, Aftontidningen (newspaper), 1917-20; Folkets Dagblad-Politiken, 1923-24; Nya politiken, 1925-26; Aftonbladet, since 1933; Amanuensis, East-Asia Collections, 1926-34; Keeper of East-Asia Collections of Crown Prince of Sweden since 1931. Educational Councillor, 1936; Town Councillor, Sigtuna, 1917-20; Vice-Chairman, 1917-18; Etchers Soc., since 1927. Vice-Chairman, Swedish Handmade Textiles, since 1942. Author: Kansu Mortuary urns of the Pan Shan, 1934; Study of the Yin Style, 1936; Biographies of the artists Helmer Osslund, 1937; Leander Engström, 1939; Konstskojare, 1944; Einar Jolin, 1947; Modern Swedish Art, 1946. Address: Molinvägen 17, Ängby, Stockholm, Sweden.

PALMGREN, Prof. SELIM, Finnish Composer, Pianist; born Feb. 16, 1878, Bjoerneborg, Finland; educated at Natl. Conservatory, Helsinki, Finland, 1895-99; Berlin and Weimar, Germany; married Maikki Järnefelt, 1910 (deceased 1929);

(2nd) Minna Talwik, 1930. Prof. of Composition, Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., 1921-26. Music Critic in Huvudstadsbladet, Helsinki, Finland, since 1930. Prof. of Composition, Sibelius Acad., Helsinki, 1939—. Compositions include two operas; symphonic poem; concertos for piano and orchestra, etc. Toured Finland and Scandinavia, as piano soloist and conductor. Address: Sibelius Academy, Helsinki, Finland.

PALMSTIERNA, Baron, ERIK KULE, G.C.V.O., Swedish Diplomat; born November 10, 1877, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Baron C. F. H. and Hanna (von Holst) Palmstierna; educated in Stockholm and passed through Royal Naval Schools; married Ebba Carlheim-Gyllenskoid, 1899; two sons. Commissioned Naval Sub-Lieut. at age of 19. Elected to the Karlskrona Council; resigned commission as Lieut. Commander, 1906. Secretary, Central Assn. of Social Work; later organized Svenska Stadsforbundet. Member, National Debt Board, 1914. Appointed Member, City Council of Stockholm. Elected to the Riksdag by the Liberals and Social Democrats. Minister of Marine, 1917; Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Branting Government, 1920. Swedish Minister at the Court of St. James, 1927-38; Representative to the League of Nations on the Aaland Islands question, 1921. Chairman of A. Johnson & Co.; Director, Anglo-Swedish Literary Foundation. Author: Horizons of Immortality; Widening Horizons; World's Crisis and Faiths; God's Innocence. Address: Ewelme, Oxford, England.

PALMSTIERNA, (BO) CARL-FREDRIK (KULE), Baron, Ph.D., Swedish Archivist; born Feb. 22, 1903, Stockholm, Sweden; son of Baron Erik Kule Palmstierna and Ebba Carlheim-Gyllenskiöld; educated at Univ. of Upsala, 1921-26; London School of Economics; Univ. of Stockholm, 1930-32. Amanuensis, Riksarkivet (Swedish Record Office), 1932; Asst. Keeper, 1944; Assoc. Keeper, 1945; in charge of Historical Section, Marine Staff, 1934; in charge of Historical Section, Defense Staff, since 1937. Delegate, Inter Scandinavian Com. for Research Work in Russian State Archives, 1929-30. Volunteer, Finnish-Russian War, 1940 (Sergeant, Interpreter). Awarded Finnish Medal in commemoration of 1939-40 campaign; Finnish Liberty Medal 2nd class. Author: Sweden, Russia and Great Britain 1833-55, 1932; Sweden and the Russian Bogey, 1933; A Short History of Sweden (with R. Svanström), 1934; Chapter in Den svenska utrikesförvaltningens historia, 1936; Parts of Bonnier's World History V and VI, 1937, 1944; Släkten Lohe (with G. Axel-Nilsson), 1938; Death of Charles XII (with others), 1940; Oscar I (with Prof. Alma Söderhjelm), 1944; Chapter in The History of the Swedish Fleet III, 1945. Contributor to The Year's Work in Archives, London, 1935-38; Editor, Margareta de Seynes' Lågande längtan bara, 1945. Address: Riksarkivet, Östermalmsgatan 26, Stockholm, Sweden.

PALMSTRÖM, FINN, Norwegian Jurist; born Oct. 19, 1903, Oslo, Norway; son of Arn Finn and Henrikke (Qvigstad) Palmström; cand. jur., Oslo Univ., 1926. Legal Asst. to C. K. Rieber-Mohn, Barrister, Oslo, 1926; Partner, law firm Palmström and Riekeles, 1930; Asst. to District Judge of Vest-Telemark, 1935-46; District Judge, Vest-Telemark, 1936-37; Counsel for the Defence in Norwegian Military Courts, Great Britain, 1942-45; in charge of Norwegian National Office of U.N.W.C.C. 1944-46; Norwegian Deputy Representative to United Nations War Crimes Commission, 1945-46; Norwegian Observer at the trials in Nuremberg and Dachau, 1945 and 1946. Judge, Military Courts in Finnmark, since 1946. District Judge, Tana, Finnmark, since 1946. Member, Norwegian Solicitors and Barristers Assn. Finnish Military Medal, 1940; British Award, 1939-45 Star; King Haakon VII Remembrance Medal (70th birthday). Author: Report on Germany's crimes against Norway (with Rolf Normann Torgersen). Participated in Defense of Norway, 1940; Underground Movement, 1940-41; served in Commando Kompani-Linge, 1941-42; Norwegian Army in Great Britain, 1942-45; promoted to Major, 1944. Address: Tana, Norway.

PALOMAA, MATTI HERMAN, Finnish Chemist; born 1871, Oulujoki, Finland; son of Heikki and Anna (Kastelli) Alapukki; educated at Helsinki Univ.; married Nanna Mathilda Ahlgren, 1901; eight children. Master of Public School, 1893; Asst. of Laboratory, Unic. of Helsinki, 1899; Adjunct of Chemistry, 1910; Prof. of Chemistry, 1921; Emeritus, 1941. Member: Suomalainen Tiedeakatemia; Suomalaisten Kemistien Seura; Erksastisten Tieteiden Seura; Deutsche chemische Gesellschaft; Suomalaisten Teknikkojen Seura. Hon. Member, Suomalaisten kemistien Seura; Eksastisten tieteiden Seura. Author: Johdatus kvantitativiseen kemialliseen analyysiin (with Ero Makinen); Helsinki, 1915; Turku, 1928. Address: Iso Heikkilan talo, Turku, Finland.

PALOMBA, Dr. GIUSEPPE, Italian Economist; born May 9, 1908, Caserta, Italy; son of Luigi and Anna (Castaldo) Palomba; educated at Univ. of Naples, Sc.D. 1929; attended London School of Economics and Social Sciences, 1932; married Maria Pierce, Oct. 26, 1930; one daughter. Privatdocent in Economics, Naples, 1936; Acting Prof. of Economics, Royal Superior Naval Inst., Naples, 1937-39; Extraordinary Prof. of Economics, Royal Univ. of Catania, 1939-42; Ordinary Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Catania, 1942-44; at Univ. of Naples, since 1944. Director, Inst. of Economics, Naples. Member: Econometric Soc.; Italian Soc. for Advancement of Science; Italian Soc. of Demography and Statistics. Author: Pagine di un Economista, 1945; La crisi della moderna civiltà, 1946; Lezioni di fisica economica, 1946. Residence: Via Raffaele De Cesare. Office: Facoltà di Scienze Economiche, Via Partenope 36, Naples, Italy.

PALOMINO LIRA, FROILÁN, Peruvian Constructor; born Oct. 5, 1909, Huanta, Ayacucho, Peru; son of Tomás Palomino and Anselme Lira; educated at American College, Callao, 1916; Art School of Lima, 1918; married Filomena García, June 4, 1938; two daughters—Elodia and Bidalina. Began career with the Companie Ronald, 1920. Works include the Convent for the Order of Carmelites at Ayacucho (in colonial style), fifteen residential and commercial buildings, five châlets, etc. Technical Director, Municipality of Ayacucho. Fellow, Assn. of Industrialists and Merchants; Vice-President, Club Arco: Member, Sociedad de Artesanos 9 de Diciembre. Address: Jirón Asamblea No. 307, Ayacucho, Peru.

PALSBY, LUDVIG, Danish Banker; born Feb. 6, 1887, Frederikssund, Denmark; married Helene Jensen, Mar. 7, 1909; three children. Established banking house in Copenhagen, 1917; Member of Board, Copenhagen Stock Exchange, since 1935; Rept., Members of Copenhagen Stock Exchange, since 1936. Member: Board of Hypothekassociation of Copenhagen; Commercial and Admiralty Court. Rept. for Com. of Merchant Guild. Chairman of Board of Directors; Investing Co.; A/S. Danske Aktier; Import and Export Co.: J. Levring & Co. Knight of Order of Dannebrog. Address: Svanemøllevej 43, Hellerup, Denmark.

PALSSON, JÖNS, Swedish Legislator, Farm Owner; born Nov. 14, 1870, Anderslöf, Sweden; son of Pål Andersson and Hanna (Larsdotter) Pålsson; educated at Folkhögskola and Alnarp Agricultural School; married Anna Maria Mattson, Dec. 21, 1893; three children. Farmer, 1898. Juryman, Assizes, Districts of Oxie and Skytt, 1904-08; Pres., Board of Directors, Skandinaviska Banken, 1927-41. Pres. and Managing Director, Anderslöfs Gästgiverihemman, since 1907; Pres. of Electricity Works, Anderslöf, since 1907. Member, Swedish Parliament, 1908-37. Pres. of Board of Management: Sydslättens Kontrollförening, 1898-1915; Sydslättens Hingstförening, 1900-06; Public School of the Swedish State, Anderslöf, 1918-40; Pres. and Managing Director, Egg-Company "Sydslätten," 1903-33; Pres., Malmöhus läns Centralkassa för jurdbrukskredit, 1916-42. Member: Commn. of The Swedish Army Training School for marksmanship, 1917-18; Air Force Commission, 1917-19; Staafska Försvarsberedningarna, 1911-14. State Reviser, 1921-24. Decorated Knight, Vasa Order, 1918; Polar Star Order, 1923; Knight Commander, Vasa Order, 1931. Awarded Gold Medal, Insurance Co. "Skåne," 1928 and 1943. Author: Genealogy, 1944. Residence: Pålsbacka, Sweden. Office: Anderslöf, Sweden.

PALTSITS, Dr. VICTOR HUGO, American Historian and Bibliographer; born July 12, 1867, New York, N. Y.; son of William Thomas and Sidonia Ida (Loose) Paltsits; studied in Cooper Inst., etc.; Litt.D., Brown Univ. and Rutgers Univ.; married Anne Müller, July 21, 1891 (died June 29, 1944); two children. Attendant at Lenox Library of New York, 1888. Held various posts in (combined) New York Public Library until 1907. State Historian of New York, 1907-11. Cooperative Researcher on I. N. Phelps Stokes' "Iconography of Manhattan Island", 1911-28; Keeper, Manuscripts of New York Public Library, 1914-41; Chief, American History Division, 1916-41; Curator, Spencer Collection of Fine Books and Bindings, 1914-29; retired from Library, 1941. Hon. Member: Bibliographical Soc. of England; New Brunswick Museum, Canada. Trustee and a Founder: Bronx Soc. of Arts and Sciences; Newtown Historical Soc. Member, Executive Com., 250th Anniversary of Transition from Dutch to English Rule of New York City. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; New York State Historical Assn.; Amer. Library Inst.; (Life Member) Amer. Historical Assn. Member: Amer. Antiquarian Soc.; Amer. Library Assn.; Bibliographical Soc. of Amer. (Ex-Pres.). Founding Member: Inter-Amer. Bibliographical and Library Assn.; History of Science Soc.; Soc. of Amer. Archivists; Amer. Military Inst. Compiled a volume on Washington's Farewell Address (1935); Bibliographies of Jesuit Relations, Philip Freneau, Louis Hennepin, Baron Lahontan, Lewis and Clark, Chrétien LeClerq, Gabriel Sagard, etc. Editor of a long series of publications of valuable historical documents and manuscripts. Assisted in the compilation and preparation of a number of histories. Residence: Hotel Whitman, Jamaica 2, L. I., N. Y.

PALYI, Dr. MELCHIOR, Consulting Economist; born Mar. 14, 1892, Budapest, Hungary; son of Edward and Marie (Palagyi) Palyi; educated at Munich Graduate School of Commerce, M.S.; Univ. of Munich, Germany, Ph.D.; married Raissa Ribush, June 25, 1926. Rept., Austo-Hungary Natl. Bank and Hungarian Ministry of Agriculture, 1917; Prof., Business Schools and Univs. of Munich, Goettingen, Kiel, Berlin, 1918-33; Visiting Prof., Univ. of Chicago, 1926-27. Chief Economist, Deutsche Bank, Berlin, 1928-33; Managing Director, Currency Research Inst., Berlin; adviser to Reichsbank, 1931-33; Chief Editor, Monetary Economy (monthly), Berlin, 1931-33; Founder and Member, Board of German Free Economy League; also German Savers League, Berlin, 1932. Guest Economist, Midland Bank, London; Lecturer, Univ. College, Oxford, 1933. Visiting Prof. and Research Economist, Univ. of Chicago, 1934-37. Economist, Stein & Roe, Chicago, 1934; Lecturer, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1935; Economist, Stifel, Nicolaus & Co., St. Louis and Chicago, 1937-40; Lecturer, Northwestern Univ., Chicago, 1940; Consulting Economist, Central Life of Illinois and others. Professorial Lecturer, Univ. of Wisconsin, 1940—. Radio Commentator, author and lecturer, and consultant economist, since 1940. Address: 211 W. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill.

PALZA S., Prof. HUMBERTO, Bolivian Diplomat, Sociologist, Writer; born Jan. 9, 1901, La Paz, Bolivia; son of Melchor J. Palza and Raquel Palza S.; educated at Universidad Mayor de San Andrés, Law Faculty, La Paz; Lic. in social sciences; married Rosalba Morel Escobar; one daughter. Under-Secy. of Education, 1928; Natl. Deputy, 1929; Counsellor and Secy., Municipal Council, La Paz, 1929-30; Secy., Bolivian Legation in Mexico, 1935; in charge of business negotiations, Legation in Mexico; Secy., Bolivian Legation at Washington, D. C., 1937; Consul General of Bolivia in San Francisco, 1938-39; Bolivian Delegate to 2nd Conf. of Foreign Ministers, Havana; Under-Secy. of Internal Affairs, 1941; Pres., Mixed Economic Commn., Chile-Bolivia, 1941; Prof. of Esthetics and History of Art, Acad. of Fine Arts (Founder), 1937; Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of La Paz, 1932-33 and since 1941. Chmn., Bolivian Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, 1947; Delegate to U. N. General Assembly, Special Session on Palestine, N. Y., 1947. Author: A volume of verses (in collaboration), 1925; Pobres vidas (play, performed in 1926); La Felicidad, 1924; El Viajero, 1927; Pasado y presente de la Liga de las Naciones, 1938; México y los mexicanos, 1941. Address: Avenida 20 de Octubre 875, La Paz, Bolivia.

PAMPLIEGA, Gen. AMANCIO, Paraguayan Minister of National Defense; born July 10, 1906, Asunción, Paraguay; son of Lesmes and Carmen (Peña) Pampliega; educated at Military School and Superior War School; married Aida Pecci, Mar. 5, 1937; one daughter. Commissioned 2nd Lieut., Paraguayan Army, 1926; stationed at Military Forts of Chaco; promoted 1st. Lieut., 1928; participated in Chaco War as Capt., advancing to rank of Major; Commander of Regiments and Detachments; studied in France, 1938, 1939; Minister of the Interior and Justice, 1943-46; Minister of National Defense since 1946. Appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, representing Paraguayan Govt. at the Inauguration of the President of Argentina, President of the State Council. Awarded many decorations. Residence: Chile No. 368. Office: Palma, esquina Garibaldi, Asunción, Paraguay.

PAN, CHU-CHI, Chinese Diplomat; born March 25, 1904, Hunan, China; son of Chi-liang and Chi Shunan Pan; educated at Fuh Tan Univ., Shanghai, B.A. 1928; M.A. 1932; Univ. of Michigan, M.S. 1934; two children. Chancellor, Chinese Consulate General, New York, 1934-38; Deputy Consul, Consulate General, Havana, Cuba, 1938-47; Secy. and Chargé d'Affaires, a.i. Chinese Legation, Caracas, Venezuela, since 1947. Director, Bureau of Translation and Compilation, Dept. of Education, Provincial Government of Anhwei, 1929-31. Lecturer, Anhwei Univ., 1929. Author:

China's Land Policy, 1929; Types of Governments, 1930; Elements of Law, 1931. Wrote several hundred articles on international politics. Address: Quinta Capri, Avenida Miranda, Caracas, Venezuela.

PANCHAUD, Dr. ANDRÉ, Swiss Jurist; born Jan. 17, 1901, Vevey, Switzerland; son of Charles and Marie (Kratzer) Panchaud; educated at Univs. of Lausanne, Leipzig and London; LL.D. (Lausanne), 1924; married Jacqueline Rossé, Apr. 14, 1928; two children. Engaged in private law practice at Montreux, 1926-35; Judge, Court of Appeal, Lausanne, since 1935. Pres. of Court, 1941; Pres., Civil Section, Court of Appeal, 1943-44. Pres., Swiss Soc. of Penal Law, 1942-45; Member: Swiss Soc. of Jurists; Internatl. Assn. of Penal Law. Author: Le régime matrimonial et la poursuite pour dettes, 1924; Le droit pénal réservé aux cantons, 1939; La mainlevée d'opposition en poursuite pour dettes, 1939; Code pénal suisse, 1942; Le pouvoir d'appréciation du juge dans le code pénal suisse, 1943; Refléxiones sur la vocation du juge, 1946; Le faux témoignage, 1947. Residence: Chamblandes dessus 21. Office: Palais de Justice, Lausanne, Switzerland.

PANDE, Major, Sardar, MASHIR-E-ALA PANDIT BINDESWARI PRASAD, Dewan of Mayurbhanj State; born Feb. 9, 1897, Bareilly, U. P.; son of Pt. Ganga Datt and Shrimati Mani Devi Pande (ancestors were hereditary preceptors, advisers and high officials of the Chand Rajas of Kumaon); educated at Muir Central College, Allahabad, B.A. 1918, and Univ. School of Law, LL.B.; married Srimati Kumud Bala Devi, 1918; six children. Began career as lawyer, 1921. After joining the Bar at Bareilly, went to England, 1926, with late Pt. Moti Lal Nehru, in connection with the famous Lakhna-Raj case and worked as junior to Lord Simon, then Sir John Simon; elected Member of Royal Asiatic Society and Fellow of Royal Empire Society in same year; on return to India, enrolled as Advocate and was appointed a Government Pleader. Elected Chairman of Bareilly Municipal Board, two terms; presided over Conference of Municipal Chairmen at Agra; appointed Chief Secretary, Orchha State, 1930, and Dewan, 1932; Indian States delegate, Third Round Table Conference, 1932-33; has inaugurated a number of reforms in Orchha, notably the conversion of State currency into Imperial coinage; relinquished this office, 1935. Served as Dewan of Charkhari and Sachin States, 1936-40; Dewan of Mayurbhanj State since 1940. Member of Benares Hindu University Court since 1942; elected Fellow of Utkal University Senate, 1944. Address: Dewan's House, Mayurbhanj State, Baripada, U. P., India.

PANDIT, Dr. CHINTAMAN GOVIND, Indian Bacteriologist; born July 25, 1895, Poona, India; son of Govind M. and Ramabai Pandit; educated at Grant Medical College, Bombay Univ., M.B., B.S. 1917; King's College, London Univ., Ph.D. 1922, D.P.H. 1922; London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, D.T.M. 1923; married Pramila Shevde, May 23, 1915; four daughters. Lecturer in Pathology, B. J. Medical School, Poona, India, 1918-20. Asst. Director, King Inst., Madras, 1924-32; Prof. of Bacteriology, Madras Medical College, 1926-27; Rockefeller Foundation Fellow, U.S.A., 1932. Dir., Pasteur Inst., Shillong, Assam, India, 1935; Dir., King Inst. of Preventive Medicine, Madras, since 1940. Fellow, Natl. Inst. of Sciences, India. Residence: King Institute, Guindy, Madras, India.

PANDIT, RAJIT SITARAM, M.L.A., Indian Barrister-at-Law; born at Rajkot, Kathiawar, India, Feb. 24, 1890; son of Sitaram N. and Bhiku (Anavkar) Pandit; educated at Bombay Univ., B.A. 1911; married Sarup Kumari Nehru, May 9, 1921; three children. Engaged in practice of law since 1916; Advocate of High Court of Allahabad since 1927. Member, Legislative Assembly of United Provinces, since 1937. Interned two years and imprisoned three times in the course of the struggle for freedom of the Indian National Congress. Vice-Pres., City Congress Com. of Allahabad, 1935; Pres., District Congress Commn., 1936. General Secy., Provincial Congress Com.; Chmn., Rural Development Assn. of Allahabad. Member, Allahabad Municipal Bd., 1935-36. Chmn., Bd. of Directors of Swarajya Journals Ltd.; Member, Bd. of Dirs., of Western India Tanneries Ltd. Address: Anand Bhawan, Allahabad, U. P., India.

PANDIT, VIJAYA LAKSHMI, Indian Diplomat; born Aug. 18, 1900, Allahabad, India; daughter of Motilal Nehru Pandit; educated privately; Univ. of Allahabad, India; married Ranjit S. Pandit, May 9, 1921; three daughters. Member, Legislative Assembly, United Provinces Govt., 1937; Chmn., Education Com., Municipal Board of Allahabad, U. P., 1935; elected Member of Legislative Assembly, 1937; Minister, Local Self-Government and Public Health, U. P., Cabinet, 1937-39; Leader, Indian Delegation to Pacific Relations Conf., Hot Springs, Va., 1945; re-elected to old Constituency, U. P. Assembly and reappointed Minister of Local Self-Government and Public Health, 1946; Leader, Indian Delegation to 2nd term, First Session, U. N. Assembly, New York, 1946; Ambassador to U.S.S.R., since Aug. 1947; Leader, Indian Delegation to 2nd Session, U.N.O., 1947. Former Pres., All India Women's Conf.; Member, Women's Internatl. League for Peace and Freedom; Pres., All India Save the Children Com. (affiliated with Union International du Secour aux Enfants, Geneva, Switzerland). Address: Embassy of India, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

PANETH, Dr. FRIEDRICH ADOLF, F.R.S., British Chemist; born Aug. 31, 1887, Vienna, Austria; son of Dr. Joseph and Sophie (Schwab) Paneth; educated at Universities of Vienna, Munich and Glasgow, Ph.D. 1910. Asst. at Inst. for Radium Research of Vienna, 1912; Prof., Prague Inst. of Technology, 1918; Prof., Hamburg Univ., 1919; Berlin Univ., 1922; Prof. and Director, Chemical Laboratories, Koenigsberg Univ., 1929. Guest of Imperial College of Science and Technology in London, 1933; Reader in Atomic Chemistry, London Univ., 1938; Prof. and Head of Dept. of Chemistry, Univ. of Durham, since 1939. Visiting Prof., Cornell Univ., 1926. Head of Chemistry Division, joint British Canadian team of atomic scientists in Montreal, World War II. Member: Chemical Soc.; Faraday Soc.; Foreign Honorary Member, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Radio-Elements as Indicators and Other Selected Topics in Inorganic Chemistry (1928); The Origin of Meteorites (1940); (co-author) Manual of Radioactivity, 1938 (Oxford). Address: Chemistry Dept., South Road, Durham, England.

PANFEROV, FEDOR IVANOVICH, Soviet Writer; born 1897. Editor of "October" Magazine. Candidate for Deputy to the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., 1947. Awarded Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1947. Address: "October" Magazine, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PANI, Prof. MARIO, Mexican Architect; born March 29, 1911, Mexico; son of Arturo and Dolores (Darqui) Pani; educated at National School of Fine Arts, Paris (under George Gromort); married Margarita Linaae, Oct. 30, 1933; five childen. Projected and constructed Hotel

Reforma, Mexico City, 1935; Hotel Soto Arms, 1938; Hotel Vendôme, 1940; apartment buildings, 1939, 1940, 1942, 1945. Medical Center, 1940; Hospital Urbano Emergencia, 1941; Escuela Nacional de Maestros, 1944; Hotel Plaza, 1944; office buildings, 1940, 1946, 1947; seven schools, 1945; Conservatorio Nacional de Música, 1945; Hotel Alameda in Morelia, 1937; Central Stadium in C. Victoria, 1937; General Hospital in Saltillo, 1940; General Hospital in Tulancingo, 1940; Tuberculosis Sanatorium in Perote, 1941; projected Casa de España, 1938; Martí's Monument in Havana, Cuba. Prof. of Architecture, National University of Mexico, since 1940. Member: Technical Commission, Federal Com. of School Constructions, 1944; Construction Com., Medical Center in Mexico City, 1945; Directing Board, National College of Architects of Mexico, 1946; Planning Commn., Federal District, Mexico, 1947. Residence: Lieja 10. Office: Paseo de la Reforma 503, México, D.F., México.

PANICO, His Excy. Most Rev. JOHN, Archbishop and Apostolic Delegate to New Zealand and Australia; born Apr. 12, 1895, Tricase, Lecce, Italy; son of Carmen Panico and Marina Zocchi Panico; studied at Leonine College of Rome; Roman Seminary; Gregorian University; Lateran University; Law School of St. Appolinaris (D.D. 1919, Doctor of Canon and Civil Law, 1922). Archbishop Panico began as Attaché to Papal Nunciature in Bogotá, Colombia, 1923; Secretary in Argentina, 1926; Auditor to Nunciature in Prague, 1931 and Bavaria, 1933; Chargé d'Affaires in Prague, 1934; Envoy to the Saar, 1934-35; Apostolic Delegate to Australia, New Zealand and adjacent islands since 1935. Decorated with Orders of Boyacá of Colombia; Order of White Lion of Czechoslovakia; Legion of Honor of France; Order of Sts. Maurice and Lazarus of Italy. Address: Apostolic Delegation, 40 Edward St., N. Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

PANIKKAR, KAVALAM MADHAVA, Indian Statesman; born June 3, 1895, Alleppey, Travancore; son of Ramakrishna Panikkar; educated at Madras Christian College; Christ Church, Oxford; Middle Temple, London; M.A. (Oxon.); Barrister at Law. Prof. at Muslim Univ., Aligarh, 1919. Editor of Hindustan Times, Delhi, 1925. Secy. to His Highness The Chancellor, 1930-33. Foreign Minister of Patiala State, 1933-39. Political and Education Minister of Bikaner, 1939-43; Prime Minister of Bikaner, 1943-48. Secy. to Indian Round Table Conf., 1930-33. Represented India at Pacific Relations Conf., 1942 and at Commonwealth Relations Conf., London, 1944. Rector, Rajasthani Research Inst. Vice-Pres.: Royal India Soc.; Inst. of Intellectual Cooperation. Member: Inst. of Internatl. Affairs; Indian Council of World Affairs. Ambassador to China, 1948—. Author: Relations of Indian States and the Government of India; India and the Indian Ocean; The Future of South East Asia; Hinduism and the Modern World, etc. Address: Indian Embassy, Nanking, China.

PANIUSHKIN, ALEKSANDR SEMENOVICH, Soviet Ambassador to United States; born in Kuibyshev, 1905; educated at Frunze Military Academy, Moscow; married Katerina Mihailovna; two sons. Served as commander of an army division prior to entering Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 1938. Appointed temporary representative in Chungking, China, to negotiate commercial treaty between China and the U.S.S.R., 1938; Ambassador to China, 1939-44; returned home because of illness. With Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Moscow, 1945-47. Ambassador to the United States, 1947—. Attended Foreign Ministers' Conf., London, 1947. Awarded: Order of Red Banner of Labor; Order of Lenin. Address: Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C.

PANIZZA, HECTOR, Argentine Composer and Conductor; born Aug. 12, 1875, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Giovanni Grazioso and Eugenia (Valdata) Panizza; educated at Royal Conservatory Verdi, Milan; School of Composition, under Prof. Ferroni; School of Piano, under Prof. Giuseppe Frugatta; married Amelia Valdata, June 28, 1926; two children. Debut as conductor at Teatro Costanzi, Rome, 1898; conducted at Scala, Milan; Opera, Rome; Teatro Regio, Turin; Teatro Carlo Felice, Genoa; Teatro Fenice, Venice; Municipal Theatre, Bologna; Teatro San Carlo, Naples; Massimo, Palermo; Opéra Comique, Paris; Covent Garden, London; Theatre in Charlottenburg (Berlin); Opera, Vienna; Royal Theatre, Madrid; Liceo, Barcelona; Metropolitan Opera, New York; Auditorium, Chicago; Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires, etc. Compositions include: Fidanzato del Mare (opera in one act); Medio Evo Latino (opera in three acts); Aurora (opera in three acts); Bisanzio (opera in three acts); Sonata for Violin and Piano; Trio for Violin, Violoncello and Piano; Theme with Variations for large orchestra; Rey y la Floresta, symphonic poem for voices, chorus and orchestra; Nocturne for orchestra, etc. Decorated Commander, Italian Crown Order. Address: Teatro Colón, Buenos Aires, Argentina; also Teatro Scala, Milan, Italy.

PANKHURST, Miss ESTELLE SYLVIA (E. Sylvia Pankhurst), British Author and Editor; born May 5, 1882, Manchester, England; daughter of Richard Marsden and Emmeline (Goulden) Pankhurst; studied in Manchester High School for Girls; Manchester School of Art; Royal College of Art; Acad. of Fine Arts of Venice. Founder and Hon. Secy., Princess Tshai Memorial Hospital in Ethiopia. Editor and Proprietor of New Times and Ethiopia News since 1936; Hon. Secretary (and Founder) of Women's International Matteotti Committee (against Fascism), 1930-36; active in maternal and infant care and welfare, 1914-20. Entered public affairs in connection with Women's Social and Political Union of London, 1906-07, Hon. Secretary. Later founded Women's (afterwards Worker's) Suffrage Federation; Honorary Secretary, 1912-20. Member of Incorporated Society of Authors; Institute of Journalists; Royal Institute of International Affairs; International Ethiopian Council for Study and Report. Editor of Women's Dreadnaught, 1914-18; Worker's Dreadnaught, 1918-24; Germinal, 1924 and Humanity, 1930-33. A street in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, was named in her honor after the reconquest from the Italians. Clubs: National Trade Union and Women Writers. Author of The Suffragette (1910); The Suffragette Movement (1930); Save the Mothers (1931); The Home Front (1932); Poems of Eminescu (translation 1932); Myself When Young (1937); India and the Earthly Paradise (1927); Delphos, The Future of International Language (1926); Soviet Russia as I Saw It (1920); Writ on Cold Slate (1921); British Policy in Eritrea (1944); British Policy in Eastern Ethiopia (1945); Education in Ethiopia (1946); The Ethiopian People (1946). Member, Women's War Emergency Com. Honorary Secretary since 1939. Residence: "West Dene," 3, Charteris Rd., Woodford Green, Essex, England.

PANKRATOVA, Prof. ANNA, Soviet Historian. Corresponding Member of the Branch of History and Philosophy of the Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Awarded Stalin Prize for work on "History of Diplomacy," 1946. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

PANNA, LALL, Indian Barrister; born Nov. 29, 1883, Bareilly; son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazari Lall; educated at Allahabad University, Agra College (B.A. 1900, B.Sc. 1900, LL.B. 1903); Calcutta University, Agra College (M.A., 1900); Cambridge University, St. John's College (B.A. 1906, LL.B. 1907, M.A. 1937); Barrister-at-Law, Gray's Inn, 1907; married Lakshmi Bai, Feb. 14, 1901; three daughters and one son. Began career as a lawyer in 1903, appointed as a Judicial Officer; passed Competitive Exam for the Indian Civil Service, 1906 and joined in 1907. Became a Magistrate and Collector, 1920; Revenue Settlement Officer, 1923; Under-Secretary to the U. P. Government, 1917; Secretary to Education, Industries and Agriculture, to the Government, 1927; appointed Chief Secretary to the Government, 1938; Commissioner, 1931-38; Political Agent to H.H. the Maharaja of Benares, 1931-37; Adviser to H.E. the Governor of the United Provinces, 1939-44. Pres., U. P. Historical Soc., 1939-45; Pres., Numismatic Soc. of of India, 1934, 1942. Honorary Litt.D. degree from Agra University, 1939; created C.I.E., 1939, and C.S.I., 1942. Author: Enquiries into Birth and Marriage Customs of Khasiyas of Almora District, 1911; Dates of Skandagupta and his Successors, 1918; Joint Author of "Dream Queen," a translation of Bhasa's Svapnavasavadatta; Collector's Handbook, 1935; Hindu Customary Law, 1942. Address: 19 Thornhill Rd., Allahabad, U. P., India.

PANNILL, CHARLES JACKSON, American Radio Executive; born May 13, 1879, Petersburg, Va.; son of Thomas and Virginia Knox (Walthall) Pannill; educated private and public schools; married Ethel McMaster Worrell, 1910. Began career as telegrapher, 1898; served in U. S. Navy, Spanish-American War, 1898-1902; received first Certificate of Skill in Radio communication issued by Amer. Govt., 1911, and in 1912 was first man licensed by U. S. Govt. as a wireless operator; associated in radio experiments with Prof. Reginald Fessenden, 1902-09, and sent first wireless message across Atlantic Ocean, 1905; General Manager, Massie Wireless Telegraph Co., 1909-12; Supt. of Installation and Operation, Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of America, 1912-14; Expert Radio Aide to Captain Bullard, U. S. N., 1914-19; Asst. to Director, Naval Communication System, 1919; Vice-Pres., Liberty Electric Co., Feb. 1919; Vice Pres., General Manager and Director, Independent Wireless Telegraph Co., 1919 to 1927, when elected President. Vice-Pres., General Manager and Director, Radiomarine Corp. of America (subsidiary of Radio Corp. of Amer.), 1928; Executive Vice-Pres., 1931-34; Pres., 1935-47. Pres. and Director, RCA Institutes, Inc., 1932-47. Executive Vice-Pres., Comite Internationale Radio Maritime of Brussels, Belgium, 1929-47. Author: Commercial Traffic Regulations of the Navy, 1915. Decorated by Belgium, 1937; received Marconi Gold Medal of Achievement from Veteran Wireless Operators Assn., 1942. Delegate to various telegraph conference and conventions. Fellow, Inst. of Radio Engineers. Residence: Lawrence Park West, Bronxville, N. Y. Office: 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N. Y.

PANNWITZ, Dr. RUDOLF, German Philosopher; born 1881. Author: Die Erziehung, 1909; Die Freiheit des Menschen, 1917; Der Geist der Tschechen, 1919; Trilogie des Lebens, 1929; Die deutsche idee Europa, 1931. Address: Kolocep Kod Dubrevmila, Dalimacija, Switzerland.

PANOFSKY, Dr. ERWIN, German Art Historian; born Mar. 30, 1892, Hanover, Germany; son of Arnold and Caecilie (Solling) Panofsky; educated at Universities of Munich, Berlin and Freiburg, 1910-14; Ph.D., Freiburg, 1914; Utrecht University, hon. Ph.D. 1936; married Dorothea Mosse, April 9, 1916; two sons. Privatdozent, University of Hamburg, 1921-26; Professor until 1933. Visiting Professor, New York University, 1931-35; Visiting Lecturer, Princeton University, 1934-35; Professor of History of Art, Institute for Advanced Study, since 1935. Corresponding Fellow, Mediaeval Academy of America; Member, American Philosophical Society. Author: Dürers Kunsttheorie, 1915; Deutsche Plastik des 11-13 Jahrhunderts, 1924; Dürers Kupferstich Melencolia I (with F. Saxl), 1923; Idea, 1924; Hercules am Scheidewage, 1930; Dürers Stellung zur Antike, 1922; Studies in Iconology, 1939; The Codex Huygens and Leonardo da Vinci's Art Theory, 1942; Albrecht Dürer, 1943; Abbot Suger, 1946. Address: Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J.

PANOV, IVAN VASILIEVICH, Soviet Cameraman. Worked on numerous films. Awarded Stalin Prize for camera work on documentary film "Berlin," 1946. Address: Ministry of Cinematography, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PANOV, Major Gen. YONKO, Bulgarian Army Officer, Political Leader. Chief of Frontier Guards, Bulgarian Army. One of three appointed to act with United Nations Commission investigating Greek border incidents, Jan. 1947. Asst. Minister of Internal Affairs, Jan. 1948—. Address: Ministry of the Interior, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PANOVA, VERA, Soviet Author. Awarded Stalin Prize for book "Companions" (a war novel), 1947. Address: All Union of Soviet Writers, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

PANT, Hon. GOVINDBALLABH, Indian Statesman; born Sept. 18, 1887, Almora, India; son of Manorath Pant; educated at Ramsay College, Allahabad Univ., B.A., LL.B.; married Kala Pant, 1918; three children. Began as lawyer, 1909; entered Congress, 1916; Member, A.I.C.C., 1918; Member of Legislature, 1923; Leader of Opposition; Member, Working Com., and Deputy Leader, Indian National Congress, 1934; General Secy., All India Parliamentary Board; Member and Leader, Congress Party in United Province Assembly, 1946; Premier, United Provinces, 1937, and since 1946. Address: Lucknow, U. P., India.

PANTIN, Dr. CARL FREDERICK ABEL, British Zoologist; born Mar. 30, 1899, London, England; son of Herbert and Emily (Abel) Pantin; educated at Christ's College, Cambridge, B.A. 1919-22; Hon. Sc.D. 1933; married Amy Philip Smith, July 31, 1923; two children. Biologist, 1922; Physiologist, Marine Biological Assn., Plymouth, 1922-39; Fellow of Trinity College and Lecturer in Zoology, Cambridge, 1929; Reader in Zoology, Cambridge Univ., since 1937. Member: Linnean Soc.; Soc. for Experimental Biology; Physiological Soc. Fellow, Royal Soc., 1937. Awarded Traill Medal of Linnean Soc., 1937. Contributor to Proceedings and Transactions of Royal Society, Journal of Experimental Biology, etc. Residence: 25 Bentley Rd., Cambridge, England.

PANTON, ALEXANDER HUGH, Australian Political Leader; born March 20, 1877, Alma, Victoria; son of Alexander Henry and Jessie (Miller) Panton; educated at State School until he was 15 years old; married Ada Ethel Green, Sept. 16, 1914; three children. Gold miner, 1894-1912. Appointed General Secretary of Shop Assistant Union, 1912; elected to the Legislative Council, 1919; defeated May, 1922; elected to the Legislative Assembly, 1924; for Menzies in 1930 and for Leederville in 1933. Elected Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, 1933. Appointed Minister for Mines and Health in 1938; Minister for Civil Defence, Western Australia, 1940. General President of the Australian Labor Party, 1919-22; Australian Workers Union, 1930-43. Served in the South African war, 1900-02, and during the First World War. Residence: 11 Morriston St., North Perth. Office: St-Georges Terrace, Perth, Western Australia.

PANTON, LAWRENCE A. C., Canadian Landscape Painter; born June 15, 1894, Egremont, Cheshire, England; son of William and Caroline (Colley) Panton; educated at Art Schools in Sheffield, England and Toronto, Canada; married Marion Pye, 1920; one son. Exhibited at Toronto Art Gallery, 1920. Represented in Art Gallery of Toronto Collection, National Gallery of Canada, National Gallery of South Australia, Adelaide, and private collections. Academician Member, Royal Canadian Acad. Ex-Pres., Ontario Soc. of Artists. Director of Art: Western Technical Schools, 1928-38; Northern Vocational School, Toronto, since 1938. Member, Arts and Letters Club, Toronto. In Canadian Signal Corps, World War I. Residence: 65 St. Germain Ave., Toronto, Canada.

PANUNZIO, Dr. CONSTANTINE MARIA, American Sociologist; born Oct. 25, 1884, Molfetta, Bari, Italy; son of Nicola and Angela (de Felice) Panunzio; educated at Wesleyan Univ., B.A. 1911, M.A. 1912; Boston Univ., S.T.B. 1914; Columbia Univ.; Harvard Univ.; Brookings Inst. of Economics and Government, Ph.D. 1925; three children. Social Worker and Instructor of Italian, Boston Univ., 1913. Director of Y.M.C.A.; Italian Front; Lecturer, U. S. Com. on Public Information, 1917-18; Supt. of Immigrant Labor Division, Interchurch World Movement. Initiated Steel Strike Investigation, 1920; investigated Deportations of Aliens, 1920-21, findings introduced in Palmer-Post Impeachment, 1921. N. Y. State Lecturer, Hunter College, 1920-21; Prof. of Social Science, Willamette Univ., 1921-23; Assoc. Director, Foreign Language Information Service, 1924-25; Prof. of Social Economics, Whittier College, 1926-28; Prof. of Sociology, San Diego State College, 1929-31; Asst. Prof. of Sociology, Univ. of California, Los Angeles, 1931-42; Assoc. Prof., since 1942. Prof. of Sociology, Harvard Univ., summer 1941; Delegate to Primer Congreso de Asistencia Pública, Mexico, 1943. Twice appointed Visiting Prof., Natl. Univ. of Mexico. Member, Board of Natl. Council on Naturalization and Citizenship; Advisory Member, Los Angeles Housing Authority; active in Free Italy Movement since 1923. Pres., Pacific Southwest Acad., 1931-33; Pacific Sociological Soc., 1936. Member: Amer. Sociological Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Awarded Dante Alighieri Medal, 1918; designated by Com. of Experts, New York World's Fair, 1940, one of 500 minority persons in U. S. History who have made outstanding contributions to American Culture. Author: English-Italian Citizenship Guide, 1910; Deportation Cases, 1921; Soul of an Immigrant, 1921; Immigrant Portrayed, 1925; Immigration Crossroads, 1927; Cost of Crime in San Diego, 1931; How Mexicans Earn and Live (with Heller Com.), 1933; Contemporary Social Institutions, 1935; Student's Dictionary of Sociological Terms, 1937; Self-Help Cooperatives in Los Angeles, 1939; Major Social Institutions, 1939; etc. Address: University of California, Los Angeles, Calif.

PAO CHUN JIEN, Chinese Diplomat; born 1897, Kiangsu, China; educated at Law College, National Univ. of Peking, China; Cornell, Columbia and Harvard Univs. Prof. of Political Science and Economics, National Univ. of Peiping; Vice-Chancellor, Ming Kuo Univ., Peiping; Pres. and Editor, Chinese European News Agency, Peiping; Commnr. of Education, Municipality of Greater Shanghai; Dir., Dept. of Political Affairs Investigation, Executive Yuan North China Office, Peiping; Member, Codification Commn., Ministry of Communications, Nanking; Manager, China National Corp., Shanghai; Member, Treaty Commn., Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Nanking; Consul-General to India at Calcutta, India; Alternate Delegate of China to United Nations General Assembly, 1946; Ambassador to Peru, 1946—. Address: Chinese Embassy, Lima, Peru.

PAO, Prof. TE-CHENG, Chinese Political Economist; born Jan. 23, 1886, Tungtai, Kiangsu, China; son of Pao Cheng-Chiang and Wang Tsein-Fo; educated at Peking Higher Normal College, 1916-18; Univ. of Hongkong, B.A. 1919-23; married Siao Chino-Han, Mar. 1927; seven children. Teacher, Middle School, South Eastern Univ., Nanking, 1923-26; Lecturer, Central Univ., Nanking, 1927-29; Secy., Foreign Relations Com., Legislative Yuan, National Govt., 1930-37, 1939-41; Prof., School of Land Economics, Central Political Inst., Nanking, 1933-37; Secy., Hunan Provincial Govt., 1938; Dir. of Natl. Land Administration, Chungking, 1942; Senior Secy., Legislative Yuan, National Govt., 1942-45; Prof., Research Inst. of Land Economics, China, 1942-45; Dir., Bureau of Land Administration, Nanking Municipal Govt., 1946. Director, Assn. of Land Economics of China; Member, Chinese Assn. of Internatl. Law. Author: Sino-Japanese Dispute and the League of Nations, 1936; A Treatise on Chinese Land Law, 1937; An English Translation of Chinese Land Laws, 1944. Residence: 45 (1) Ying Yang Yin, Nanking, China.

PAOLUCCI di VALMAGGIORE, Dr. RAFFAELE, Italian Surgeon; born 1892, Rome, Italy; son of Nicolas and Rachele (de Crecchio) Paolucci; educated at Royal Univ. of Naples, 1915; married Margarita Pollio, 1928; one daughter. Asst., Clin. Chirurgie of Naples, 1919; Univ. of Modena, 1920-21; Univ. of Rome, 1922-25. Prof. Adjoint, Pathology and Surgery, Univ. of Bari, 1925-29; Director, Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Parma, 1930-32; Univ. of Bologna, 1932-38; Director, Surgical Clinic, Univ. of Rome, since 1938. Pres.: Italian Soc. Against Tuberculosis, 1922-44; Internatl. Soc. Against Tuberculosis, 1930-32. Vice-Pres., Chamber of Deputies, 1924-43; Vice-Admiral Surgeon, Royal Italian Navy, 1941-44; Captain, Royal Navy, 1914-18. Member: Italian Soc. of Surgery; Académie Française de Chirurgie; German Soc. of Surgery; Soc. Chir. Bordeaux; Italian Soc. of Surgery (Pres. 1942-46). Awarded Gold Military Medal, Italy; Distinguished Service Medal, U. S. Navy; D.S.C., British Navy; Commander of the Legion of Honor, France. Author: Tecniche Chirurgiche, 1940-45; over 100 pamphlets, etc. Address: Via Antonio Guattani 8, Rome, Italy.

PAPADAKIS, BASIL P., Greek Diplomat; born Feb. 9, 1898, Athens, Greece; son of Panayotis and Maria (Frabasilis) Papadakis; educated at Athens Univ., LL.D., 1918. Attaché, Greek Foreign Office, 1918. Secretary of High Commission in Smyrna, 1919-20; Conference for Near East Affairs, London, 1921; Greek Legation, Vienna, 1921-22; High Commission, Constantinople, 1922-23, and Greek Legation in Belgrade, 1924, Ankara, 1924-25, and Sofia, 1925-26. Chief, L.O.N. section, Greek Foreign Office, 1927-35; Greek delegate, L.O.N. Assemblies, 1928-35; Greek delegate at Disarmament Conference, 1932; Reparation Conference, 1932; Montreux Conference, 1936, etc. Director-General of Press Services, 1935-37; delegate to Balkan Conferences, 1936-40; Assistant to Under-Secretary of State, Greek Foreign Office, 1937-41; Minister-at-large in U.S.A., 1939. Minister Plenipotentiary to Belgian Government, 1941-45. Director, Board of Administration, Faculty of Political Science; Professor of Diplomatic History. Member, Editing Staff, Greek Encyclopedia. Lecturer at Greek Naval Academy, War Academy, and School for Superior Officers. Recipient of numerous decorations. Author: The International Situation of Greece, 1935; History of the Greek Political Parties, 1935; Diplomatic Documents Concerning Epirus, 1936; A Monography on Empires, 1940; Greece of Yesterday and of Tomorrow, 1946. Residence: 60 Dinocratous St. Office: 4 Kriezotou St., Athens, Greece.

PAPADEMOS, ANTHONY, Greek Minister of Religion and National Education; born 1894, Gargaliani, Greece; son of Dimos and Demetra Papademos; educated in public schools and Classic Gymnasium, Greece; East High School, Minneapolis, Minn.; St. Thomas College, St. Paul, Minn.; Univ. of Athens, Law School; married Erifili Chatgioannidou, 1928. Admitted to Bar, 1920; Captain, Greek Army, Infantry, 1921; Deputy, Greek Parliament, 1935; re-elected, 1936, 1946; Minister of Education, 1946, reappointed 1947. Former Vice-Pres., Greek Red Cross. Author of many articles and essays on law. Residence: Emanuel Benaki 68. Office: Evaghilistrias St., Athens, Greece.

PAPADIMITRIOU, Dr. DIMITRIOS P., Greek Minister of Transport; born 1886, Pyrgos, Ileias, Greece; son of Panagiotis and Efstathia (Kokiri) Papadimitriou; educated at Athens Univ., LL.D.; married Maria E. Platsi, 1926; one son. Began as Barrister-at-Law, 1911; Candidate for Parliament, 1923; General Director, Political Office of Premier, 1924; Greek Senator, 1929; Pres., Special Court, which tried Dictator Pangalos; reelected Senator, 1923, 1933; Deputy (M.P.), for Constituency of Ileia, 1946; Minister of Transport since 1946. Member, Solicitors' Soc., Athens; Hon. Life Member, Amer. Museum of Natural History. Awarded Silver Cross of Saviour; Commander of Ethiopia as General Director, Premier's Political Office, 1924. Served in Greek Army, two Balkan Wars, discharged as Captain of Artillery. Residence: Patriarchou Ioakim St. 36. Office: Philhellinon St. No. 7, Athens, Greece.

PAPAGOS, Lt. Gen. ALEXANDER, Greek Army Officer; born Dec. 9, 1883, Athens, Greece; son of Leonidas and Mary (Averof) Papagos; educated at Military Academy, Brussels; Cavalry School, Ypres, Belgium; Greek War Academy; married Mary Kallinsky, Jan. 1912; two children. Second Lieut., Greek Army, 1906; Lieut. and Captain, Cavalry, during Balkan Wars, 1912-13; Major, World War I (Asia Minor Campaign), 1914-18; Lieut. Col. and Chief of Staff, Cavalry Division, 1922; commanded Cavalry Div., Larissa, 1927-32, holding rank of Col. and Major General. Appointed Deputy Chief, Greek General Staff, 1932; Inspector General, Greek Cavalry 1934; promoted to Lieut. General, 1935; Commander, 3rd Army Corps, later 1st Army Corps; Minister of War; Inspector General of Greek Army, 1936; Chief, Greek General Staff, 1936-40; Supreme Commander, Greek Forces, 1940-41. Hostage in concentration camps of Oranienburg near Berlin, Flosselborg, Dachau and Niederdorff, 1943-45. Awarded: Grand Crosses, Order of George I with swords; Order of British Empire; Order of Romanian Star; Romanian Crown Order; Yugoslav Crown Order; Czechoslovak White Lion Order; Italian Crown Order; Grand Officer, French Legion of Honor; Swedish Sword Order; received military medals. Author: The Greek Campaign, (1940-41), 1945; The Preparation of Greece for War, 1945; Life in Concentration Camps in Germany, 1945. Residence: 16 Praxitelous St. Office: 6 Diocharous St., Athens, Greece.

PAPANDREOU, Dr. GEORGES A., Greek Statesman; born 1888, Patras, Greece; educated at Univ. of Athens, LL.D.; studied political sciences in Berlin and Paris. Governor General, Aegean Islands, 1916-20; entered Ministry of Interior, 1923. Deputy of Mytilène since 1923; Minister of National Economy, 1925; Minister of National Education, Venizelos Government, 1930-32; Minister of Communications and Public Works, 1933; Founder and Leader of Democratic Socialist Party, since 1935; exiled during Metaxas regime, 1936-40; joined resistance movement during occupation; imprisoned by Italian authorities, 1942; escaped to the Middle East, 1944; Prime Minister, Exiled Govt., April 1944; reorganized national forces; created famous Mountain Brigade, 1944; formed and became Pres. of Govt. of Natl. Union, consisting of all parties and all resistance groups, Sept. 1944; re-entered Athens, Oct., 1944; repressed communist uprising of Dec. 1944. Member of Parliament since 1946. Minister of the Interior in coalition government, Jan.-Aug. 1947. Author: L'Avenir de la Grèce, 1914; Sujets politiques, 1940; La Libération de la Grèce, 1940. Address: Athens, Greece.

PAPANEK, Dr. JAN, Czechoslovakian Diplomat; born Oct. 24, 1896, Brezova, Czechoslovakia; son of Stephen and Elizabeth (Palansky) Papanek; educated at L'École des Sciences Politiques, 1921; L'Institut des Hautes Études Internationales, 1922; Univ. of Paris, LL.D. 1923; Charles Univ., Prague, LL.D. 1928; Hobart College, LL.D. (h.c.) 1943; married Betka Papanek, Feb. 13, 1926. Commercial Attaché, Diplomatic Service, Czechoslovakian Govt., 1922; Commercial Attaché, Budapest, 1925-26; Secy., Czechoslovak Legation, Washington, D. C., 1926-32; Secy. to Dr. Edvard Benes for parliamentary affairs in Prague, Czechoslovakia, 1932-35; Consul of Czechoslovak Republic in Pittsburgh, Pa., 1935-39; joined Dr. Edvard Benes in Chicago upon German occupation of Czechoslovakia, 1939, remaining in Chicago as personal representative. Minister Plenipotentiary and Director of Czechoslovak Information Service, Czechoslovak Government, New York City, 1942-46; Delegate, United Nations Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945; Permanent Rept. of Czechoslovakia to United Nations, 1946-48. Member, Amer. Soc. of Internatl. Law and Amer. Soc. of Political and Social Science. Decorated four times during World War I; received Revolutionary Medal and Inter-Allied Medal from Czechoslovak Government. Publications: La Tchécoslovaquie; L'Histoire Politique et Juridique, 1923; Czechoslovakia Tomorrow, 1945; also articles for newspapers and periodicals. Organized and served with Czechoslovak Legions, Italy, 1916; edited Czechoslovak newspaper V BOJ in Italy; holds rank of Captain in Czechoslovak Army. Residence: 395 Riverside Dr. Office: 1775 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y.

PAPANIN, Rear Admiral IVAN DMITRIEVICH, Soviet Explorer; born Nov. 26, 1894, Sevastopol. Drafted into Navy, 1914; served in Army in October Revolution. Joined Communist Party, 1919. Built armored cars, 1919; appointed Commissar of Operations Dept., fighting on southwestern front. After Civil War made an official and worked for ten years in government institutions; went to Tranquillity Bay in Franz Josef Land to receive mail that Graf Zeppelin was to drop on its flight north from Germany, 1931; Chief of Polar Station at Tranquillity Bay, 1932-34; built Cape Chelyuskin, northernmost mainland in the world. Worked with Prof. Otto Y. Schmidt and the Northern Sea Route Administration, Leningrad, 1936, becoming Asst. Chief. Led nine-month polar observatory on drifting ice floe, 1937-38; Chief of Northern Sea Route Administration, 1939—. Headed expedition to Greenland Sea on Icebreaker Stalin, 1939-40, to escort into clear water Icebreaker Sedov, adrift in Arctic ice for more than two years. Elected Deputy to Supreme Soviet of U.S.S.R., 1937; Member, Central Auditing Commn. of Communist Party, 1941. Appointed Rear Admiral, 1943. Awarded: Order of Lenin; Order of Red Banner of Labor; title of Hero of the Soviet Union. Author: Life on an Ice Floe, 1939. Address: Northern Sea Route Administration, Ministry of the Navy, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PAPATHANASIS, ATHANASIOS, Greek Minister of Agriculture; born 1886, Agrinios, Agrinios; son of Constantinos and Christina (Katsanou) Papathanasis; educated at Law School, Univ. of Athens, B.Sc. 1909; married April 15, 1921; three daughters. Began career as lawyer, 1909. Sub-Lieut., Balkan War, 1912; took part in wars of 1912 and 1913; wounded. Judge, Court of Mitylene, 1914; transferred to Adjutant General's Corps, 1915; Introducer, Royal Attorney and Chmn. of Army Regular Court, 1915; promoted to Member of Higher Revisionary Army Court and later became Chmn. of Court. Representative from Agrinios of Aetoloacarnania in House of Representatives, 1928—. Minister of Justice in P. Tsaldaris Cabinet, 1932; Minister of Finance in Condilis-Theotokis Cabinet, 1932; Minister of Agriculture, K. Tsaldaris Cabinet, 1946; Minister of Agriculture in re-formed Tsaldaris Cabinet, 1946; Minister of Agriculture in Maximos Cabinet, Jan. 1947; Minister of Agriculture and of Labor, Maximos Cabinet, Feb. 1947; Minister of Agriculture and of Public Order, Tsaldaris Cabinet, Aug. 1947; Minister of Agriculture in Sophoulis Cabinet, Sept. 1947—. Residence: Archimedes St. 9. Office: Ministry of Agriculture, Filellinon St. 10, Athens, Greece.

PAPÉE, Dr. KAZIMIERZ J., Polish Diplomat; born Jan. 10, 1889, Lwow, Poland; son of Frederic and Ladislava (Ancyzc) Papée; educated at Cracow Jagellonian Univ., Faculty of Law and Political Administration; J.D. 1913; married Léonie Dobrzánska, June 5, 1919; one son. Active in Political Administration of Cracow, 1914; with Polish Legion, World War I; Secretary, Prime Minister's Office, 1918-19; Secy., Foreign Office, Diplomatic Section, 1919; Secy., Polish Legation, The Hague, 1920-22; First Secy., Berlin, 1922-23; Councillor, Chargé d'Affaires, Copenhagen, 1924; with Foreign Office, 1925-27; Chargé d'Affaires, Turkey, 1928; Estonia, 1929; Consul General, Königsberg, Prussia, 1930-31; Minister Plenipotentiary, Prague, 1937-39; Ambassador to the Holy See, Rome, since 1939. Recipient, Polonia Restituta II, III, IV; Independence Cross; Southern Cross of Merit; Polish North Star Order; St. Sava Order, 2nd class; Danish Dannebrog Order 3rd class; White Rose Order, etc. Address: Viale del Re, 222, Rome, Italy.

PAPEZ, Dr. JAMES, W(ENCESLAS) American Anatomist; born Aug. 18, 1883, Glencoe, Minn.; son of Frank and Frances K. (Lhotka) Papez; educated at Univ. of Minnesota, B.A. 1908, M.D. 1911; married Bessie Pearl Sowden, June 5, 1912; three children. Assoc. Prof. of Anatomy, College of Physicians and Surgeons, Atlanta, Ga., 1911-12; Prof. of Anatomy, Histology and Embryology, Atlanta Medical College and Emory Univ. Medical School, 1912-20; Asst. Prof. of Anatomy, Cornell Univ. Medical College, Ithaca, N. Y., 1920-37; Prof. of Anatomy, since 1937 (teaching human growth and development, physical anthropology, comparative neurology and human anatomy). Vice-Pres., Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases, 1941; Secy., Cornell Brain Assn., 1925-45. Member: Amer. Assn. of Anatomists; Amer. Assn. of Physical Anthropologists; Amer. Neurological Assn.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science, etc. Author: Comparative Neurology, 1929. Co-author: Hypothalamus, anatomical, functional and clinical aspects. Contributor to Practitioner's Library of Medicine and Surgery and to Dictionary of Psychology and to various scientific journals. Address: Zoology Department, Stimson Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

PAPI, Prof. GIUSEPPE UGO, Italian Economist; born Feb. 19, 1893, Capua, Italy; son of Giustino and Giuseppina (De Rosa) Papi; educated at Univ. of Naples, LL.B. 1913; married Beatrice Bruni, Feb. 18, 1939. Secy., Ministry of Public Works, 1915; later Chief of Div.; Prof. of Economics, Univ. of Messina, 1927, later at Univs. of Palermo, Pavia, Milan, Naples and now at Rome. Secy. General, International Inst. of Agriculture, 1939; Secy. General, Italian National "F.A.O." Com., 1947. Pres., Economic Section, Italian Soc. for Advancement of Science; Natl. Member, Lincei Acad.; Vice-Pres., International Inst. of Public Finances. Author: Lectures in Economics, 1948; Equilibrio fra attività economica e finanziaria, 1942; Introduction to postwar reconstruction programmes, 1945; Variazioni di costo e sviluppo dei cicli economici, 1927; Escape from Stagnation, 1933; The Colonial Problem, 1938. Served in Italian Army, World War I; wounded. Address: Via Plinio 7, Rome, Italy.

PAPIAN, MATSAK P., Soviet Armenian Political Leader. Chairman, Presidium of Supreme Soviet of Armenian S.S.R.; Vice-Chairman, Presidium of Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. Nominated to Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. by members of Stalin Collective Farm in Armenia, and elected in 1946. Address: Supreme Soviet of the Armenian S.S.R., Erevan, Armenian S.S.R.

PAPINEAU - COUTURE, GUI C., Canadian Barrister; born May 11, 1882, Montreal, P. Q.; son of Guillaume Couture and Mercedes Papineau; educated at McGill Univ., B.A. 1903, B.C.L. 1906; Université de Montpellier (France) and Sorbonne (Paris); married Blanche Lareau, Oct. 31, 1910; two children. Member: Hickson, Campbell & Couture, 1907-10; Jacobs, Hall & Couture, 1910-16; Jacobs, Hall, Couture & Fitch, 1917-20; Campbell, McMaster, Couture, Kerry & Bruneau, 1920-37; Counsel to Campbell, Weldon, Kerry & Rinfret since 1937. Cases: 1910, Desbarats Advertising Agency Ltd. vs. French Gas Saving Co.; 1913, Ortenberg vs. Plamondon (Jewish Libel Case at Quebec); 1930, Michaels vs. City of Montreal; 1943, Attorney General of Quebec vs. Bank of Montreal and Attorney General of Canada (unclaimed bank deposits); 1944, Counsel for Prov. of Quebec on Supreme Court reference as to status of U. S. armed forces in Canada during the war. Ex-Director of Montreal Reform Club. Vice-Pres., Natl. Council of Canadian-Soviet Friendship, since 1944. Member, Inter-racial Com. for Democratic Action; L'Institut Démocratique Canadien; Canadian Unity Alliance. Member: Bar of Province of Quebec and Canadian Bar Assn. Address: 275 West St. James St., Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

PAPINI, GIOVANNI, Italian Author; born Jan. 9, 1881, Florence, Italy; son of Luigi and Ermina (Cardini) Papini. Began career as a journalist, 1903. Author of numerous publications, including: Il crepuscolo dei filosofi, 1906 (translated into French and Spanish); Il tragico quotidiano, 1906 (translated into Spanish); L'altra metà, 1911; Memorie d'Iddio, 1912; Ventiquattro cervelli, 1913 (translated into English); Un uomo finito, 1913 (translated into French, Spanish, Portuguese, Roumanian, English, Scandinavian languages, etc.); Maschilità, 1915; L'uomo Carducci, 1918; Experienza futurista, 1919; Storia di Cristo, 1920 (translated into many languages); Pane e vino (poems), 1926; Sant' Agostino, 1929; Gog, 1930; Dante vivo, 1933; Storia della Letteratura Italana, 1937; Cielo e Terra, 1943; Lettere agli Uomini, 1946. Member, Gallery of Living Catholic Authors. Address: Via G. B. Vico 3, Florence, Italy.

PAPPAS, SPYRIDON, G., Greek Author; born Aug. 31, 1878, Athens; son of George and Adelina (Bertiny) Pappas; studied history and social sciences at Paris (diploma from Ecole des Hautes Etudes Sociales, Paris); married Paule Thornton de Mouncie; one son. Journalist since 1898. Director, Dept. of Press and Public Information at Athens, 1946. Assoc. Secy., Comité Hellénique des Sciences Historiques. Member: Union des Hommes de Lettres, Hellènes; Société d'Histoire Diplomatique de France. Knight, French Legion of Honor. Awarded Prize by Acad. of Athens. Author: France et Grèce (La Petite Histoire); Un Napoléonide mort pour la Grèce, 1935; Le Duc d'Aumale et le Trône de Grèce, 1938; La Publicité Nationale à l'Etranger, 1933; La Grèce (monuments historiques, etc.), 1934. Residence: 103 rue Aghion Panton, Kallithéa, Athens, Greece.

PAPPENHEIMER, Dr. ALWIN M., American Pathologist; born December 4, 1878, New York, N. Y.; son of Max and Henrietta (Loewenstein) Pappenheimer; educated at Harvard, A.B. 1898; Columbia, M.D. 1902; Vienna, Leipzig and Freiburg; married Beatrice Leo; three children. Path., Bellevue Hosp., 1905-10. Assoc. Visiting Path., Presbyn. Hospital, 1905-17; Attending Pathologist since 1919. Instructor in Dept. of Path., 1908. Assoc. in Dept. of Path., 1909, Asst. Prof. of Path., 1914, and Assoc. Prof. of Path., 1919, at College of Physicians and Surgeons; Professor, 1924-45; Professor Emeritus since 1945. Member of Committee on Path., Natl. Research Council, since 1943. Member of N. Y. Path. Soc. (Pres., 1915-17); Harvey Soc. (Secy., 1917-18, Treas., 1920-22, Council Member, 1929-31); Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med. (Editor, 1936-42); Amer. Assn. of Pathologists and Bacteriologists; Amer. Soc. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Biol. Soc.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Path.; (Fellow) N. Y. Acad. of Science, and N. Y. Acad. of Med. Author of 140 original scientific papers published in various journals since 1906. Residence: 5 Acacia St., Cambridge, Mass.

PAQUETTE, Hon. J. H. ALBINY, Canadian Health Official; born Oct. 9, 1889, Marieville, Quebec; son of Wenceslas and Marie (Lareau) Paquette; educated at Laval Univ., M.D.; Laennec Hospital, Paris; married Rose Daviault, 1939; three children. Capt., R.C.A.M.C., France. Macedonia, Turkey, World War I; Adjutant, No. 8 General Hospital in St. Cloud, Paris. Radiologist, Eastbourne Hospital, Eng.; M.D., Mont Laurier, Labelle Co.; Mayor of Mont Laurier, 1926-34. Warden, County Council of Labelle, 1928-34. Elected M.P. for Labelle, 1935, 1936, 1939, 1944. Provincial Secy., 1936-39; Minister of Health and Social Welfare in Quebec Legislature, 1937-39 and since 1944. Decorated by France, England, Siam (Indo-China); Doctor of Social Sciences, Honoris Causa, Laval Univ., Quebec; Knight Commander, Order of Holy Sepulchre (Holy See). Residence: Mont Laurier, Quebec. Office: House of Parliament, Quebec, P.Q., Canada.

PARADA GAY, FRANCISCO, Mexican Jurist; born July 30, 1887, Estado de Oaxaca, Mexico; son of Francisco Parada and Beatriz Gay de Parada; educated at the Escuela Pestalozzi; Instituto de Ciencias y Artes of Oaxaca, law degree; married Margarita Díaz Ordaz, May 29, 1921; one daughter. Began career as a practicing attorney, 1908. Secretary, First Court of Justice of the Supreme Court of Justice of the State of Oaxaca, 1908-10; Attorney-General of the State, 1911-14; Syndic of the Municipality of the City of Oaxaca, 1911-12; Secretary, First Court of the Supreme Military Court of Justice, 1915-17; Secretary to the Supreme Court of Justice of México, 1917-19; General Deliberation Secretary, Distrito Federal de México, 1919-20; Secretary, Deliberation Court of the Supreme Court of Mexico, since 1920. Director, Caja de Ahorros del Sindicato de Trabajadores del Poder Judicial de la Federación. Member: Academia de Legislación y Jurisprudencia; Asociación Nacional de Abogados. Author: Una Breve Reseña Histórica de la Suprema Corte de Justicia de la República Mexicana. Residence: Calle Amberes, No. 47. Office: Corte de Justicia de la República Mexicana, Mexico, D.F.

PARADIS, ALFRED H., Canadian Engineer and Industrialist; born 1883, St. Remi de Tingwick, Que., Canada; son of Romuald and Hermelinde (Dupuis) Paradis; private tuition in Civil Engineering; married Marie Mathilde Lavoie. June 3, 1909; four children. Engineer serving on construction and location of transcontinental railway, 1904-14; Consulting Engineer, having interests in various commercial enterprises, since 1914. Pres.: Paradis & Sons Ltd.; Abititi Lumber Ltd.; Harricana & Gatineau Telephone Ltd. Director: LaSarre Power Co.; Asbestos Corp.; Canada Northern Power Ltd.; Champlain Oil Products Ltd.; East Malartic Mines Ltd.; Montreal Light, Heat & Power Co.; Montreal Life Insurance Co.; Sladen Malartic Mines, Ltd.; Canadian Dredge & Dock Co.; General Trust of Canada. Formerly Pres., Federation of Chambers of Commerce of Province of Quebec; Chamber of Commerce of Montreal; Member of Exec. Com., Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Hon. Lieut.-Col., Regiment de Maisonneuve, Montreal. Residence: Larabaur le Lac, Quebec, Canada. Office: 1563 Sun Life Bldg., Montreal, Canada.

PARAJON, General FRANCISCO, Minister of War, Navy and Aviation of Nicaragua; born Oct. 4, 1889, Masaya, Nicaragua; son of Francisco Parajon and María de Parajon; educated at Instituto de Occidente. Entered Nicaraguan Army, 1902, as a private; advanced through various grades to General, 1926. Now Minister of War, Navy and Aviation. Received seventeen decorations, including honors from Ecuador and Spain. Residence: Hotel Estrella. Office: Palacio Nacional Avenida Roosevelt, Managua, D.N., Nicaragua.

PARAKH, CAWASHA BOMONJI, Indian Advocate; born Apr. 23, 1884, Bhusawal (Khandesh), Bombay Presidency; son of Bomonji Hormusji Parakh and Pirojbai Naoroji Satha; educated at St. Francis de Sales High School and United Free Church High School; Hislop College, B.A. 1908; Morris College (Allahabad University), LL.B. 1910; married Dina Manocheher Mehta, Dec. 25, 1927. Advocate, 1929—. Member, (Montford) C.P. Legislative Council (M.L.C.), 1920-23 and 1930-37. Member of numerous Select Committees, of Retrenchment Com., 1931, and Amraoti Jail Inquiry Committee of 1932. President of the Nagpur University Union, 1926, which was handed over to the students in 1929. Member, Provincial Governing Body of Indian Red Cross Society, since 1926. Secretary, Provincial War Board, 1914-18; Member, Provincial War Board, since 1939. Member of Executive Council (Governing Body), Nagpur University, 1936-45; University Head of Department in study of law, 1942. Senior Counsel and leading Advocate of the Nagpur High Court of Judicature. Elected Member of the Municipal Committee of Nagpur, 1914-42; President, Civil Station Sub-Committee, 1925-28 and 1935-36; President (Mayor), Municipal Committee of Nagpur, 1928-32. Founder, Improvement Trust for the City of Nagpur. Awarded Coronation Medal, 1937. Address: Civil Station, Temple Rd., Nagpur (C.P.), India.

PARANJPE, Prof. GOPAL RAMCHANDRA, Indian Physicist; born Jan. 30, 1891, Karwar, British India; son of Ramchandra Dinkar Paranjpe and Janaki Bai; educated at Univ. of Bombay; Universities of Heidelberg and Berlin and at Bangalore; married Venu Gokhale, May 26, 1920; two children. Asst. in a Research Laboratory, 1920; later received Indian Educational Service appointment as Prof. of Physics, Royal Inst. of Science of Bombay. Acting Principal, Royal Inst. of Science, Bombay, 1925 and 1931; appointed permanent Principal of Inst., 1938. Justice of Peace for Bombay, since 1931. Trustee, Victoria Jubilee Technical Inst. of Bombay; Member of Senate and Member of Board of Dept. of Chemical Technology of Univ. of Bombay; Member of Court to Indian Inst. of Science, Bangalore. Member of Com. of Board of Scientific and Industrial Research (Govt. of India); Associate of Indian Inst. of Science of Bangalore. Fellow: Royal Society of Arts of London; Indian Acad. of Sciences, Bangalore; Indian Physical Soc. of Calcutta; National Inst. of Sciences in India. Awarded Jubilee and Coronation Medals, and the O.B.E. Author of numerous scientific papers. Founded and later served as Editor of Srishti Dnyan (Popular Science magazine), 1928. Residence: "Sudarshan" 202/1, Sadashiv Peth, Poona 2, India. Office: Royal Institute of Science, Mayo Rd., Bombay, India.

PARANJPYE, Sir RAGHUNATH PURUSHOTTAM, High Commissioner for India in Australia; born Feb. 16, 1876, Murdi, Ratnagiri District, India; son of P. K. Paranjpye and Tilak; educated at Ferguson College, Poona; St. John's College (Fellow), Cambridge, M.A. 1899; in Paris and Göttingen; Bombay University, B.Sc.; Calcutta University, D.Sc.; married Saibai Joshi, 1905 (died 1931); one daughter—Shakuntala. Principal and Professor of Mathematics at Ferguson College, Poona, 1902-26; Fellow of Bombay University, 1904-26. Member, Bombay Legislative Council, 1913-23, 1926-27; Representative of Bombay University, 1916-23, 1926-27. Minister of Education, Bombay, 1921-23; Minister of Excise and Agriculture, 1927; Member of Council of Secretary of State for India, 1927-32. Vice-Chancellor, Lucknow University, 1932-38; Member: Auxiliary and Territorial Forces Committee, 1924; Reforms Inquiry Committee, 1924; Indian Taxation Inquiry Committee, 1924-25; Maharashtra University Committee, 1942-43. Represented India at International Labor Conference several times; President of National Liberal Federation of India, 1924 and 1939. High Commissioner for India in Australia since 1944. Honorary Associate of the R. P. A., England. Awarded Kaiser-i-Hind Gold Medal, 1916; created Knight, 1942. Received hon. D.Sc. from Calcutta University, 1922. Author: Lives of Dhondo Keshav Karve and Gopal Krishna Gokhale, 1916, 1919; The Crux of the Indian Problem, 1931; Rationalism in Practice, 1937; Selected Writings and Speeches, 1940. Address: Purushottam Ashram, Poona, India, and Canberra, Australia.

PARASKEVOPOULOS, Prof. JOHN, Greek Political Economist; born Dec. 25, 1899, Lavda (Olympia), Greece; son of Polychronis (dec.) and Stavroula (Chronopoulou) Paraskevopoulos; educated at Univ. of Athens, Law Course, 1919-21; Munich Univ., Economics and Politics, 1922-23; Jena Univ., Economics and Law, 1923-26; Freiburg i. Br. Univ., 1926-27; Leipzig Univ., 1927-28; London School of Economics & Political Sciences, London, 1929-31; entitled: Economists Dipl.-Jena Thur. Univ., 1926, Doctor's degree in Economics & Social Sciences, Jena Univ., 1928. Employee, National Bank of Greece, 1931; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Athens (Political Economy), 1937; Pres., State Central Office of Tobacco Protecting Corp., 1938-41; Member, Supreme Board, Agricultural Assns., 1938; Head, Office "Service d'Etude des Entreprises & de Financements" (National Bank of Greece), 1938-42; Member, Living Cost Com., Ministry of Supplies, 1939-41; Secy., Hellenic & General Trust Ltd., London (Athens Office), 1939. Prof., Univ. of Athens, 1939; Prof., "Pantios" College of Political Sciences, 1942; Economic Adviser, National Bank of Greece, 1942; Minister of Supplies; Minister of National Economy, 1945; Director, National Bank of Greece, since 1946. Member: Administrative Com., Hospital of New-Ionia, 1938-41; Board and Exec. Com., E.O.H.A. (Natl. Organization of Christian Assn.), 1943-44; Administrative and Exec. Com., People's Relief Organization, 1944. Member: Administration of Telephone Co.; Credit Commn. of Bank of Greece. Author: Die Geldverfassung Griechenlands, 1928; I ikonomiki Pistis, 1936; Ennia & Politiki tis refstotitos ton Trapezon, Athens, 1939. Participated in Greco-Turkish War in Asia Minor. Residence: 17 Nikis St. Office: National Bank of Greece, 86 Eolou St., Athens, Greece.

PARAVIA, TANCREDI VIGLIARDI, Italian Publisher; born July 14, 1884, Turin, Italy; son of Carlo and Lydia (Mancardi) Paravia; educated at Commercial School, Lausanne, Switzerland, 1903; studied at Frankfurt, Germany, 1904; married Maria Richini, June 20, 1912; one son. Entered father's firm G. B. Paravia e C. (publishing house), Turin, 1904; served in Italian Army during World War I; returned to father's business, which became a limited company in 1920; Manager of firm since 1940 and President since 1943. Member of Bd., Banca d'Italia, Turin. Commissary, Typographical School, Turin. Pres., Assn. of Piedmontese Publishers. Member: Council of Assn. of Natl. Publishers; Managing Bd. of Industrial Union, Turin. Fellow, Philharmonic Acad., Turin. Residence: Via Papacino No. 3. Office: Piazza Statuto No. 16, Turin, Italy.

PARAY, PAUL, French Composer, Conductor; born 1886, France; educated at Conservatory of Paris. Assoc. Conductor, Concerts Lamoureux in Paris, 1921; Conductor, 1923-28. Conductor: at Monte Carlo, 1928; Orchestre Colonne of Paris, 1932—. Guest Conductor: New York Philharmonic Orchestra at Lewisohn Stadium, 1939; Orchestre Colonne of Paris at Internatl. Music Festival at Edinburgh, Scotland, 1947—. Awarded Prix de Rome for cantata Janitza, 1911. Compositions include a symphonic suite, an oratorio, songs, chamber music, etc. Address: Orchestre Colonne, Paris, France.

PARCEL, JOHN IRA, American Engineer; born Oct. 24, 1878, Westfield, Ill.; son of Samuel Newton and Helen Marshall (Rigg) Parcel; educated at Westfield College, A.B. 1903; Univ. of Illinois, B.S. in C.E. 1909; special research student at Univ. College, London, 1922; married Florence Mary Kirkup, Aug. 14, 1915. Instr. in Structural Engineering, Univ. of Minnesota, 1909-13. Asst. Prof. of Structural Engineering, Univ. of Illinois, 1913-14. Successively Assoc. Prof. and Prof. in charge of Structural Engineering, Univ. of Minnesota, 1914-36. Partner in firm of Sverdrup & Parcel, Consulting Engineers, since 1928; full time association since 1936; in charge of design of some 15 major bridges over Missouri and Mississippi Rivers. Member: Amer. Soc. of Civil Engnrs.; Amer. Inst. of Consulting Engnrs.; Amer. Concrete Inst. Author: treatise on Statically Indeterminate Stresses (with G. A. Maney), 1926, revised 1936; Effect of Secondary Stresses on Ultimate Strength (with E. B. Murer), 1936; Secondary Stresses — Kenova Bridge (with G. A. Maney), 1922. Residence: 3701 Lindell Blvd. Office: 1118 Syndicate Trust Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

PARDÉ, Prof. MAURICE EDMOND, French Hydraulic Engineer; born Dec. 4, 1893, Senlis, France; son of Léon and Jeanne S. Pardé; educated at Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Nancy, 1913-14; Univ. of Dijon, Lyon and Grenoble until 1918; married Jeanne Alamelle, Apr. 2, 1918; five children. Prof. at Lyceum of Puy, 1915-17; Lyceum of Grenoble, 1917-19; Lyceum of St. Rambert, 1919-23; Lyceum Bourg-en-Bresse, 1923-30; Maître de conférences. Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Grenoble, until 1936; Prof. since 1936. Also Prof. at School of Hydraulical Engineers, Univ. of Grenoble. Member, Dauphiné Scientific Soc. (Ex-Pres.). Author of about 135 articles, memoirs and books chiefly on subjects relating to river hydraulics, works on European and American rivers, including the Rhine and Mississippi, etc. Address: University of Grenoble, Grenoble, France.

PARDEE, IRVING HOTCHKISS, American Neurologist; born Jan. 26, 1892, New York, N. Y.; son of Ensign Bennett and Clara (Burton) Pardee; educated at Columbia, A.B. 1913, M.D. 1915; married Margaret Trevor, Oct. 27, 1917; three children (divorced 1945); (2nd) Mrs. Abby Rockefeller Milton, Oct. 3, 1946. Interne at St. Luke's Hosp., 1915-17; Resident, N. Y. Neurol. Inst., 1917-18. Clinical Prof. of Neurol. at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., since 1935. Chief of Service, N. Y. Neurol. Inst. Attending Psych. to Draft Bds. of N. Y. City, and Consultant to a number of hospitals. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; N. Y. Acad. of Med. (Secy. and Chmn. of Section of Neurol. and Psych., 1937-38); Amer. Neurol. Assn. (Vice-Pres., 1942); N. Y. Neurol. Soc. (Pres., 1946-47); Assn. for Research in Internal Secretions, and Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Disease (Vice-Pres., 1936). Author of numerous medical articles pertaining to nervous and mental disease and endocrine glands, published in various journals. Residence: 1 Beekman Pl. Office: 772 Park Avenue, New York 21, N. Y.

PARDO, Dr. ARVID, Italian Liaison Officer, United Nations; born Feb. 12, 1914, Rome, Italy; son of Guy and Dagmar (Julin) Pardo; educated at Collegio Mondragone, Frascati, 1925-33; Univ. of Tours, Diploma, 1938; Rome Univ., Doctor in Law, 1939. Asst. Documents Officer, 1945. Archivist of United Nations, 1946. Information and Liaison Officer of Trusteeship Dept., U. N., since Oct. 1, 1946. Member, St. Vincent de Paul Soc. Author: The Political and Juridical Aspects of the Treaty of Locarno (in Italian). Residence: 46 Schenck Avenue, Great Neck. Office: United Nations, Lake Success, Long Island, New York.

PARDOE, Dr. WILLIAM SPRAGUE, American Professor of Hydraulic Engineering; born May 16, 1881, Toronto, Ont., Canada; son of Avern and Mary J. (Sprague) Pardoe; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A.Sc. 1904, C.E. 1920; married Hannah E. Muldoon, Mar. 29, 1910. Draftsman, 1897. Hydraulic Engineer, Canada Foundry Co., Toronto, 1904-08. Demonstrator, Univ. of Toronto, 1908-09. Instructor, Hydraulic Engineering, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1909; later Asst. Prof., now Prof. of Hydraulic Engineering, Civil Engineering Dept. Member: Com. of Seventy, Philadelphia; Franklin Inst. (Science and Art Com.); Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; Fluid Meters Com., Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Engineering Inst. of Canada, etc. Author of numerous articles in technical periodicals. Address: Civil Engineering Dept., University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

PARDUE, Right Rev. AUSTIN, Episcopal Bishop; born Aug. 9, 1899, Chicago; son of Harry Austin and Jane (Landers) Pardue; educated at Hobart College, 1918-20, (Hon.) D.D. 1940; Nashotah (Miss.) House, 1920-22; General Theological Seminary, New York, 1922-25; S.T.D., Seabury Western Theological Seminary, 1941; Univ. of Pittsburgh, LL.D.; married Dorothy Klotz, Sept. 4, 1926; two children. Natl. Secy., Episcopal Young People's Movement, 1922. Rector, Lawrence Hall for Boys; Member of City Mission Staff, Diocese of Chicago, 1925-27. Rector: St. James Church, Hibbing, Minn., 1926-29; St. Thomas Church, Sioux City, Iowa, 1929-31; Gethsemane Church, Minneapolis, 1931-38. Dean, St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo, N. Y., 1938-44; consecrated Bishop, Diocese of Pittsburgh, 1944. Chairman, Field Dept., Diocese of Minnesota, 1932. Member: Standing Com. of Diocese, 1933; Diocesan Council, 1933; Examining Chaplain, 1933; State Chaplain of the Amer. Legion in Minnesota, 1927. Deputy to General Convention of Episcopal Church, 1928, 1935 and 1941. Broadcast on MBS, coast to coast (Our Morale), 1941-44. Author: Bold to Say, 1940; Your Morale, 1942; (with Sgt. John Bartek) Life Out There, 1943; Yet Shall He Live, 1946. Address: Diocese of Pittsburgh, 325 Oliver Ave., Pittsburgh. Residence: 5565 Aylesboro Ave., Pittsburgh 17, Pa.

PAREDES, ABEL, Guatemalan Jurist; born June 28, 1878, Salama, Baja Verapaz, Guatemala; son of Matias Paredes and Toribia Ch. de Paredes; educated at Salama; the Instituto Nacional Central; Escuela de Derecho, law degrees, 1910; married Carmen Luna, Nov. 17, 1906; four children. Judge, First Instance in Amatillan, 1901; Judge, in Baja Verapaz, 1904-06; in Amatillan, 1907. Third Judge, First Instance for the Department of Guatemala, 1907-08; First Judge, 1908-09. Magistrate, Second Chamber of the Court of Appeals, 1912-16; Fiscal Judge of the First Chamber, 1918-20. Government Clerk, 1920-21; Magistrate, Supreme Court of Justice, 1921-31 and since 1936. Dean, Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences, 1931-32. Governor, Municipality of Guatemala; Member, Department Board of Public Instruction; Professor, First Course of Civil Law and Judicial Procedure in the Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences. Residence: 12 Avda. S y 4a, C, San Pedrito, Guatemala, Guatemala.

PAREDES, Hon. QUINTIN, Philippine Congressman; born Sept. 9, 1884, Bangued, Abra, P. I.; son of Juan Paredes Felix and Regina Babila; educated at Isidro Paredes' Private Law School; Escuela de Derecho, hon. B.A., hon. M.A.; married Victoria Peralta, June 25, 1906; eleven children. Prof., later Director, Escuelo de Derecho, 1910; Asst. City Prosecuting Attorney of Manila, 1908-13. City Prosecuting Attorney of Manila, 1913-16. City Fiscal of Manila, 1916-17. Solicitor General of the Philippines, 1917-18. Attorney General of the Philippines, 1918-21. Secretary of Justice, 1921. Representative for Province of Abra, six terms, 1925-41 and since 1946. Senator of House of Representatives, 1934. Commonwealth Resident Commissioner, Philippines to the U. S., 1935-38. Floor Leader of National Assembly, 1938-41. Participated in First Philippine Independence Mission to U. S. 1918; Member, Joint Preparatory Committee for Philippine Independence, 1934. Dean, Cosmopolitan Law College, 1946-47. Colonel and Judge Advocate General, Philippine National Guard, 1917-18. Brigadier General, Philippine National Guard, 1939-46; volunteered as enlisted man in Filipino Division of 20,000 offered by Senate President Quezon for active service in Europe in 1918; interrupted by Armistice. Member: Philippine Bar Assn.; Bar Assn.; Amer. District Court of China, 1911; U. S. Supreme Court Bar, 1919; Philippines-China Cultural Assn.; 1946-47. Residence: 499 Penafrancia, Paco. Office: 310 Consolidated Investments Bldg., Manila, Philippines.

PAREDES, Dr. RICARDO, Ecuadorian Physician and Surgeon; born Mar. 19, 1898, Riobamba, Ecuador; son of Alejandro and María (Romero) Paredes; educated at Univ. of Quito, M.D. 1922; married Zoila Flor, 1930; five children. Began medical career, 1922; Physician with Police, Quito, 1924; Army Physician; Municipal Physician, Portoviejo, 1926; Prof., College Olmedo, Portoviejo, 1927; Prof. at Univ. of Quito, since 1935; engaged in private practice of medicine and surgery at Quito. Pres. of Comité Vial, Esmeraldas, 1944. Deputy, Natl. Assembly, 1944-45; Candidate for President, Republic of Ecuador, 1934. Ex-Pres., Provincial Medical Federation, Esmeraldas, 1944; Organizer and Member of Board, Biological Soc., Quito, since 1936; Member, Inst. for Natives, 1945. Author: Oro y Sangre en Portoviejo, 1935; La Terapia del Paludismo; La Sifilis, 1924; various papers on medicine, history, archaeology, sociology, literature, etc. Residence: Ascazubi No. 291, Quito, Ecuador.

PAREJA DIEZ CANSECO, ALFREDO, Ecuadorean Author and Diplomat; born Oct. 12, 1908, Guayaquil, Ecuador; son of Fernando Pareja and Amalia Diez Canseco; married Mercedes Cucalón, Jan. 21, 1934; two children. Prof. of History of Literature, Colegio Nacional "Vicente Rocafuerte", Guayaquil, Ecuador; later Inspector General of Secondary Schools; Deputy to Natl. Constitutional Assembly, 1938; First Secy., Ecuadorean Embassy in Mexico, 1944; later Chargé d'Affaires in Mexico. Rept. of UNRRA with headquarters in Mexico City and then Montevideo, Uruguay, 1945-47. Member: Sociedad de Artistas y Escritores, Guayaquil; Casa de la Cultura del Ecuador, Quito; Grupo América, Quito; Instituto de Relaciones Culturales Ecuatoriano-Mexicano, Quito. Author: El Muelle; Baldomera; La Beldaca; Don Balón de Baba; Hombres sin Tiempo; Las Tres Ratas; La Hoguera Barbara (Life of Eloy Alfaro); Pequeña Historia del Ecuador (textbook for Mexican schools). Address: Martín Coronado 389, Acassuso FCCA, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAREJA GAMBOA, CARLOS HENRIQUE, Colombian Attorney; born July 15, 1898, Sincé, Colombia; son of Sabas Pareja and Eugenia Gamboa de P.; educated at Colegio de San Pedro Claver; Faculty of Law, Universidad Nacional, Law degree; married María del Pilar Pareja, Dec. 30, 1929; one daughter. Began career as a practicing attorney, 1928. Professor of Administrative Law in the Universidad Libre since 1934; at the Universidad Nacional since 1938. Founder and Manager, Editorial La Gran Colombia. Member, Socialist Party. Member: Sociedad Jurídica de la Universidad Nacional; Sociedad Bolivariana (Colombia, Ecuador and Costa Rica). Associate Judge, Council of State and of the Supreme Court of Justice of Colombia. Author: Vida de Bolívar para los Niños; Canciones Humildes; Derecho Administrativo (2 vols.), Código Administrativo; Las Obligaciones en Derecho Civil Colombiano, etc., etc. Residence: Airmail Box 36-06, Bogotá, Colombia. Office: Edificio del Banco de Colombia No. 309, Bogotá, Colombia.

PAREJAS, Dr. EDOUARD A., Swiss Geologist; born Oct. 15, 1890, Geneva, Switzerland; son of Edouard and Camille (Catry) Parejas; educated at College of Geneva, 1908; Univ. of Geneva, lic. sc. 1908, Sc.D. 1922; married Antoinette Christin, 1920; two daughters. Asst., Univ. of Geneva, 1919, Lecturer, 1925; participated in Geological Expedition to Canadian Rockies (invited by Harvard Univ.), 1929; Prof. of Geology, National Central Univ., Nanking, China, 1931-33; Member, Natl. Economic Council of China. Engaged in geological expeditions and prospecting in North China, Inner Mongolia, Hunan, Hupeh, Szechwan Provinces. Professor of Geology and Director of Geological and Mineralogical Inst., Univ. of Istanbul, Turkey, 1936-42; Prof. of Special Geology, Univ. of Geneva, 1942; Prof. and Director, Inst. of Geology, Paleontology and Physical Geography, Univ. of Geneva, since 1944. Awarded: Davy Prize, 1925; Arthur de Claparède Prize, 1937. Author: Géologie de la Zone de Chamoniz, 1922; Géologie de la Chaine de la Jungfrau (with L. W. Collet), 1931; Géographie ancienne de Genève, 1938; Atlas géologique de la Suisse, 1938; Tectonique transversale de la Turquie, 1940. Address: Geological Institute, Quai de l'École de Médecine, Geneva, Switzerland.

PARELIUS, FREDRIK, Norwegian Author; born Mar. 25, 1879, Oslo, Norway; son of Annous Benedictus and Julie S. (Skarpsno) Parelius; educated at Univ. of Oslo, Baccalaureate, 1898; Officer in Army, 1901; Oslo Acad.; Baccalaureate Superior, 1902; Juris-consult, 1904; Translator-jurat in French, 1912; married Signe Simonsen, Aug. 1921. Lawyer and Journalist, 1904; Judge, Congo Free State and in Belgian Congo (Etoile de Service), 1896-1900; Journalist and businessman in N. Y., 1910-11 and 1916-17; in service of Prince of Monaco in East Africa (Société du Madal), 1912-13; Concessionaire for Norwegian interstate whaling matters in French Congo, Paris and London, 1913-14. Pres., Artists Inst. of Norway, since 1938. During German occupation from Apr. 1940-May 1946, Pres. of K 3 (Kunstnernes Krise Komite); The Artist Crisis Committée. Member of Kunstnerforeningen and Trustee of Den Norske Forjatterforening. Author: Agny, Min Sorte Legende, 1919; Urskogens Fredlöse, 1921; Bastarden, 1922; Kristian Winterfeldt, 1923; Cesar Borgia (drama), 1925, played at Det Nye Teater, Oslo; Drift, 1928; Trope, 1929; Fata Morgana, 1933; Gale Faktorer, 1942. Address: Incognitogate 15, Oslo, Norway.

PARENT, Monsignor ALPHONSE-MARIE, Theologian and Educator; born Apr. 2, 1906, St. Jean-Chrysostome, P. Q., Canada; son of Alphonse and Marie (Gosselin) Parent; educated at Séminaire de Québec; Laval Univ., A.B. 1925, D.D. 1929; Université de Louvain, Louvain, Belgium, M.A. 1935, Ph.D. 1936. Prof. of Philosophy, Laval Univ., 1929; Faculty of Philosophy, 1938; Director of Summer School, 1938; Director of School Education, 1943; Secy. General and Registrar since 1944. Director, La Société canadienne d'enseignement post-scolaire; Canadian Educational Assn. Member, Laval Univ. Council, Board of Governors and Administration Board; Director, La Ligue Anti-tuberculeuse de Québec; Member, La Société philosophique de Québec. Created Papal Chamberlain, 1946. Address: Laval University, Quebec, Canada.

PARENT, Rev. Prof. JOSEPH-MARIE, Canadian Professor of Medieval Studies; born Dec. 31, 1907, Saint-Isidore, Canada; son of Alphonse and Marie (Gosselin) Parent; educated at Seminary, Quebec, B.A. 1926, Dominican College, Ottawa, Th.D. 1933; Ecole des Hautes Etudes, Sorbonne, Paris, diploma, 1935. Prof. at Collège Dominicain, Ottawa, 1936-42; Substitute Prof., Univ. Laval, Quebec, 1938-43; Prof. at Institut d'Etudes médiévales, Univ. of Montreal, since 1942. Author: La doctrine de la Création dans l'école de Chartres, 1938; Les vertus morales infuses dans la vie chrétienne, 1944; Saint Thomas d'Aquin: Rites et prières de la messe; Liberté des enfants de Dieu; Richesse et pauvreté, 1945. Address: 831 Avenue Rockland, Montreal 8, Quebec, Canada.

PARFENOV, IVAN A., Soviet Political Leader. Vice-Chairman, Moscow Soviet. Deputy of Sokolniki District of Moscow. Elected Chairman of the Supreme Soviet Council of U.S.S.R., replacing Col. General Andrei A. Zhdanov, 1947—. Address: Council of the Union of the Supreme Soviet, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PARGA, RAFAEL, Colombian Political Leader; born Feb. 14, 1900, England; son of Rafael Parga and Ana Cortés de P.; educated at Rugby School; Oxford University, B.A.; Imperial College of Tropical Agriculture of Trinidad. Representative to the National Congress, 1929-34. Governor of the Department of Tolima, 1934-36; Manager, Caja de Crédito Agrario in Bogotá, 1936-40; Senator of the Republic, 1939-42; Governor of Tolima, 1942-43; Minister of National Education, 1943. Director, Instituto Colombo-Británico of Bogotá. Residence: Carrera 17, No. 36-32. Office: Avda. Jiménez de Quesada No. 5-30, Bogotá, Colombia.

PARHAM, Rt. Rev. ARTHUR GROOM, Bishop of Reading, England; born June 25, 1883, London, England; son of Edmund and Ann (Groom) Parham; educated at Magdalen College School, Oxford; Exeter College, Oxford, B.A. 1906, M.A. 1910; Leeds Clergy School; married Margaret Elizabeth Montagu (widow of Major T. G. H. Kirkwood, R.E.), 1946. Ordained Deacon, 1909, Priest, Anglican Church, 1910; consecrated Bishop, 1942. Curate of Bromley, Kent, 1909-12; Chaplain and Precentor, Christ Church Cathedral, and Chaplain, Magdalen College, Oxford, 1912-21; Temporary Chaplain to Forces, 1914-19; Rector, Easthampstead, Berks., 1921-26; Vicar, St. Mary the Virgin with All Saints, St. Saviour and St. Mark, Reading, 1926-46; Rural Dean, Reading, 1934-42; Hon. Canon, Christ Church, Oxford, since 1934; Proctor, Canterbury Convocation, since 1935; Bishop of Reading, since 1942; Archdeacon of Berkshire since 1942. Temporary Chaplain to Forces, 1914-19; 2nd Mounted Division, 47th and 17th Divisions, D.A.C.G., 17th Corps, Egypt, Gallipoli, Belgium and France; Chaplain to Territorial Forces, 1928-39; Chaplain, Easthampstead Institution, 1921-26; Chaplain, Reading Borough Hosp., 1929-40. Awarded Military Cross, 1916; mentioned in war despatches, 1916, 1918. Address: Caversham Hill, Reading, Berks., England.

PARHON, Prof. CONSTANTIN, Roumanian Statesman, Physician; born Oct. 28, 1874, Campel-leng, Roumania; son of Jon and Maria (Bauer) Parhon; educated at Faculty of Medicine, Bucarest; Psychiatric Clinic, Munich; married Constance Mancheanu, Oct. 7, 1901; four children. Hospital Externe, Bucarest, 1895; Assoc. Physician, later Chief Physician, Hôpital d'aliénés, Bucharest, 1910; Prof. of Clinical Neuropsychiatry, Faculty of Medicine, Jassy, 1912; Prof. of Endocrinology, Faculty of Medicine, Bucharest, 1933; Dir., Endocrinological Inst., Bucharest, since 1947. Appointed Pres. of the Presidium of the New Roumanian Republic (interim Chief of State), Jan. 9, 1948. Pres., Assn. for Roumanian-Soviet Friendship; Vice-Pres., Assn. of Friends of the United States, Bucharest; Member: Roumanian Acad.; Roumanian Acad. of Medicine; Pres., Endocrinological Soc., Bucharest. Corresp. Member: Paris Neurological Soc.; Belgian Neurological Soc.; Soc. of Hospital Physicians, Paris. Hon. Member: Endocrinological Soc., Paris; Endocrinological Soc., Moscow. Member: Neurological Soc., Bucharest; Psychiatric Soc., Bucharest; Biological Soc., Bucharest. Author: Les Sécrétions internes, 1909; Traité d'Endocrinologie, 1938; and numerous articles. Residence: Strada Dr. Jatropol 5. Office: Spitalul Colentina Toscana Stefan, Bucharest, Roumania.

PARIBENI, Prof. ROBERTO, Italian Archaeologist; born May 19, 1876, Rome, Italy; son of Aurelio Paribeni and Romilde Merini; Sc.D. in Italian Archaeology. Prof. of Archaeology, Catholic Univ. S. Cuore, Milan, since 1934; Director General of Antiquities and Fine Arts, Ministry of Education and Italian Academy, 1929. Conducted archaeological expeditions to Montenegro, Crete, Egypt, Eritrea, Asia Minor. Editor-in-Chief, Notizie degli scavi. Author: L'Italia e il Mediterraneo Orientale, 1916; Guerra e pol. nel Paese di Gesù, 1919; Saggio di bibliogr. anatolica, 1921; Malta, 1925; Optimus Princeps, 1926-27; La famiglia romana, 1929; Le Terme Diocleziane e il Museo Nazionale Romano, 5th ed., 1929. Residence: Via dei Prefetti 22, Rome, Italy. Office: Università Cattolica del S. Cuore, Milan, Italy.

PARIJA, PRANKRISHNA, O.B.E., Indian Educator; born Apr. 1, 1891, Ichhapur, Orissa; son of B. Parija and Jayanti Mohanty; educated at Calcutta Univ., B.S. 1913; Christ's Coll., Cambridge, M.A. 1920; married Shrimati Sundermoni Kanango, 1922; three sons and two daughters. Frank Smarts Student in Botany in Cambridge, 1918-19; Professor of Botany, Ravenshaw College, 1921; Fellow, National Institute of Science in India, Indian Academy of Science of Bangalore and National Academy of Sciences, India; President, Botanical Section, Indian Science Congress, 1930; elected President of Indian Botanical Society, 1931; Chief Editor, Journal of Indian Botanical Society, 1935; General Secretary, Indian Science Congress, 1938. Ex-Member of Imperial Council of Agricultural Research. Principal of Ravenshaw College, 1938-45; Director of Agriculture, Orissa, 1945 —. Vice-Chancellor, Uktal Univ., 1943. Examiner, Botany and Agricultural Botany. Address: No. 10 Cantonment, Cuttack, Orissa, India.

PARIN, Prof. Dr. VASILI V., Soviet Medical Scientist; Doctor honoris causa of Bucharest Univ. Secretary of Academy of Medical Sciences of the U.S.S.R. Asst. People's Commissar of Health of U.S.S.R., 1945. Visited America to exchange information on medical research, at invitation of American public health agencies, 1946; conferred with Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service. Worked many years in sphere of physiology of blood circulation. Author of more than 50 scientific studies. Vice-Pres., Medical Section, All Union Society for Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries (VOKS); Hon. Fellow: Rumanian Acad. of Sciences; Rumanian Medical Acad.; Czechoslovak Doctors' Soc. Address: Academy of Medical Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

PARIS, JACQUES, French Diplomat; born 1905; educated at École Polytechnique. Attaché, Peking, 1928. Secretary of Embassy, Washington, D. C., 1931; Legation at Berne, 1934; Vatican, 1938. Counsellor, French Mission to Allied Governments in London, England, 1943-44; Minister Plenipotentiary and Counsellor in London, 1945; Minister to Bulgaria, 1945—. Address: French Legation, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PARK, ALEXANDER DALLAS, New Zealand Financier; born Feb. 1, 1882, Waitaki, New Zealand; son of George and Christina (Dallas) Park; educated at Waitaki and Waimate High School; Commercial College, Dunedin; widower; one son. Entered Civil Service, 1900; with Public Works Dept. until 1918. Chief Accountant, Dept. of Agriculture, 1919; Public Service and Treasury Inspector, 1920; Secy. of Marine, 1922; Asst. Public Service Commnr., 1924; Asst. Secy. to Treasury, 1925; Secy. to Treasury, 1930; Financial Adviser to New Zealand Govt., 1931; Director, Reserve Bank of New Zealand, 1933. Appointed Joint Managing Director, State Advances Corp. of New Zealand, 1935; Chairman of Board of Directors, since 1936. Chairman, Rural Intermediate Credit Board, Soldiers Financial Assistance Board, and Armed Services Personnel Investigation Com.; Member, Lands Settlement Board and Soldiers Rehabilitation Board. Fellow: New Zealand Soc. of Accountants and Auditors; Inst. of Accountants and Auditors of New Zealand. Honors: Commander of Order of St. Michael and St. George; Justice of the Peace. Residence: Titahi Bay. Office: Lambton Quay, Wellington, New Zealand.

PARK, ANGUS CAMPBELL, American Textile Executive; born Dec. 4, 1891, Sherbrooke, Canada; son of William and Emma (Whitcher) Park; educated in public and high schools and business college; married Mercia Clayton, June 4, 1918; one daughter. In textile business since 1910; Pres. and Treas., Riverside Woolen Mills, and William Park & Sons, Inc., since 1928; also Director. Director: Stafford Branch, Hartford (Conn.) Trust Co.; Stafford Springs Savings Bank; Johnson Memorial Hospital; Stafford Library Assn. Residence: Stafford Springs, Conn. Office: Stafford, Conn.

PARK, Rev. Dr. CHARLES EDWARDS, Clergyman; born Mar. 14, 1873, Mahabaleshwar, India; son of Charles Ware and Anna Maria (Ballentine) Park; educated at Yale College, A.B. 1896; Divinity School, Univ. of Chicago; Meadville Theological Seminary, (Hon.) D.D. 1916; Harvard Univ., S.T.D. 1932; married Mary Eliot Turner, Sept. 19, 1903; four children. Ordained Minister, First Unitarian Soc., May 31, 1899. Minister, Second Parish, Hingham, Mass.; Third Congregational Soc. (New North Church), 1900-06; Minister, First Church, Boston, since 1906. Secy., The Franklin Foundation, Boston, Mass.; Member, Amer. Unitarian Assn. Author: The Inner Victory: Two Hundred Little Sermons, 1946. Address: 347 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.

PARK, Dr. EDWARDS ALBERT, American Physician; born Dec. 30, 1877, Gloversville, N. Y.; son of William Edwards and Sara (Billings) Park; educated at Yale, A.B. 1900; Columbia, College of Physicians and Surgeons, M.D. 1905; Hon. M.A. Yale, 1922; Hon. D.Sc. Univ. of Rochester, 1936; married Agnes Bevan, Aug. 2, 1913; three children. Assoc. Pediatrician, Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1912-21; Assoc. Prof. of Pediatrics, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1915-21; Prof. of Pediatrics, Yale Univ. School of Med., 1921-27. Prof. of Pediatrics at Johns Hopkins Univ., and Pediatrician-in-Chief at Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1927-46; now Prof. Emeritus. Awarded Order of Leopold (Belgium). Author of numerous publications on the physiology of the thymus gland, rickets, scurvy, etc. Member: Amer. Pediatric Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Pediatrics; Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathology. Hon. Member: British Pediatric Soc.; Hungarian Pediatric Soc. Residence: Birdwood, Garrison. Office: Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

PARK, Dr. JOSEPH H., American University Dean; born Aug. 22, 1890, Port Murray, N. J.; son of Nathan B. and Mary Emma Willever Park; educated at Centenary Collegiate Inst.; Williams College; Univ. of Grenoble; Columbia Univ., A.B. 1912, A.M. 1913, Ph.D. 1920; married Laura Wood, Dec. 9, 1921. Member, History Faculty, New York Univ., since 1915; Head of its program of post-war studies; in charge of Graduate School since 1940; Chairman of Dept. of History, College of Arts and Pure Sciences and Acting Director of the libraries. Dean, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, since 1943. Author of many articles for learned publications. Address: New York University, New York, N. Y.

PARK, Dr. JULIAN, American Historian; born 1888; received Ph.D. and LL.D. degrees. Prof. of European History and International Relations, Univ. of Buffalo. Author: A History of the University of Buffalo (1846-1917), 1917; Subject Peoples under the Teutons, 1918; The Evolution of a College (a century of higher education in Buffalo), 1938. Editor: Unpublished Poems by John Clare, 1937; Some Unpublished Letters of George Bernard Shaw, 1939, etc. Address: University of Buffalo, Buffalo, N. Y.

PARK, Sir KEITH RODNEY, G.C.B., K.B.E., M.C., D.F.C., British Air Chief Marshal; born June 15, 1892, Thames, New Zealand; educated at King's College, Auckland; married Dorothy Margarita Parish, 1918; two sons Enlisted as a private in New Zealand Field Artillery, 1914; commissioned, 1915; served at Gallipoli; entered Royal Flying Corps, 1917; active in Middle East, 1923-26; Air Attaché, Buenos Aires, 1934-36; Air Officer, commanding No. 11 (Fighter) Group, 1940; provided air cover in Dunkirk evacuation; appointed Air Officer Commanding R.A.F. in Egypt; transferred to command the R.A.F. in Malta, which assumed offensive, 1942; supported Anglo-American expedition in Algeria, Sicily and Italy; took over supreme air command in the Middle East, 1944; Air Commander-in-Chief, Southeast Asia, since 1945. Received French Croix de Guerre; Hon. M.A. Oxford Univ.; Companion of the Bath; U. S. Order of Merit, 1945. Address: Air Ministry, London, England.

PARK, Dr. ORLANDO, American Zoologist; born Oct. 13, 1901, Elizabethtown, Ky.; son of Sam Thomas and Sophronia (Stealey) Park; educated at Univ. of Chicago, B.S. 1925, Ph.D. 1929; married Alberta Fritsche, June 11, 1930; one daughter. Asst. Prof. in Zoology, Kent State College, 1929-30; Instructor in Zoology, Univ. of Illinois, 1930-34. Asst. Prof. of Zoology, Northwestern Univ., 1934-37; Assoc. Prof., 1937-42; Prof. since 1942. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Entomological Soc. of Amer. Member: Ecological Soc. of Amer. (Pres. 1943); British Ecological Soc.; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Chicago Acad. of Sciences (Hon. Curator); Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Panama Canal Zone Natural History Soc. Section Editor, Biological Abstracts. Author: Nocturnalism—the Development of a Problem (Ecological Monographs), 1940; A Study in Nectropical Pselaphidae (Northwestern Univ. Press), 1942. Address: Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

PARK, Dr. ROSEMARY, American College President; born 1908; daughter of Dr. J. Edgar Park; graduated Radcliffe College. Member of Faculty, Connecticut College, since 1935; Acting President (upon retirement of President Katharine Blunt), 1946-47; President, 1947—. Address: Connecticut College, New London, Conn.

PARKER, ALAN V., American Manufacturer; born Apr. 17, 1888, North Collins, N. Y.; son of Spencer B. and Emma (Owen) Parker; educated at Niagara Falls High School; Cornell Univ.; married Helen Roberts, Sept. 27, 1921; one child. Member, law firm of Parker & Parker, Niagara Falls, N. Y., 1913. Served as Asst. District Attorney; Member, New York State Legislature, 1915, 1916, 1917, and 1920. U. S. Commnr., 1930-38. Pres.: General Abrasive Co., since 1930; Lionite Abrasives Ltd. since 1930; Crouch Mining Co., since 1936. Director: General Abrasive Co.; Lionite Abrasives Ltd.; Crouch Mining Co.; Power City Trust Co.; Niagara Hotel Corp. Captain, U. S. Marine Corps, 1917-19 (A.E.F., France, 1918-19). Residence: Mt. View Drive, Lewiston Hgts., Lewiston, N. Y. Office: College Ave., Niagara Falls, N. Y.

PARKER, ALBERT, American Lawyer; born Aug. 30, 1901, Los Angeles, Calif.; son of Charles Cullom and Julia (Neale) Parker; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1921; Harvard Univ., LL.B. 1925; married Rosemary Harden, Aug. 10, 1931 (dec.); (2nd) Lee Montgomery, Dec. 7, 1939; three children. Assoc., O'Melveny & Myers, Los Angeles, 1925-35. Partner, Kelsey, Waldrop, Spalding & Parker, New York, 1935-41. Special Asst., U. S. Attorney General, since 1941. Vice-Pres. and Director, Pacific Fidelity Corp.; Secy. and Director, Scarborough Construction Co., Inc.; Director, Palos Verdes Corp. Head of United for California League which defeated Upton Sinclair for Governor of California, 1934. Member: Amer., N. Y., California Bar Assns. Address: Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

PARKER, ALBERT, British Chemical Engineer; born May 2, 1892, Manchester, England; son of John Albert and Alice (Adamson) Parker; educated at Manchester Univ., M.Sc. 1913; Beyer Research Fellow, 1913-14; Birmingham Univ., D.Sc. 1916; married Lilian Maud Midgley, Jan. 25, 1922; two daughters. Lecturer in Chemistry, Birmingham Univ., 1914-19; Chemist Inspector of High Explosives, 1915-18; Research Chemist and Chemical Engineer, Inst. of Gas Engineers, Leeds Univ., 1919-28; Asst. Director of Water Pollution Research, Dept. of Scientific and Industrial Research, 1928-39; Director of Water Pollution Research, 1939-43; Director of Fuel Research, London, since 1943. Fellow: Royal Inst. of Chemistry; Inst. of Fuel; Royal Sanitary Inst.; Inst. of Sewage Purification. Member: Inst. of Chemical Engineers; Chemical Soc.; Soc. of Chemical Industry; Inst. of Gas Engineers. Awards: Osborne Reynolds Medal; Inst. of Chemical Engineers; Telford Premium, Inst. of Civil Engineers; Commander, Order of the British Empire. Address: Fuel Research Station, Blackwall Lane, East Greenwich, London, England.

PARKER, Dr. ARTHUR C., American Archaeologist; born 1881, Iroquois, N. Y.; son of Frederick E. and Geneva H. (Griswold) Parker; educated at Dickinson Seminary, 1903; Student, Prof. F. W. Putnam, Harvard, in Archaeology, 1903-04; University of Rochester, M.S. 1912; Union College, S.D. 1940; Keuka College, L.H.D. 1943; married Anna T. Cooke, Sept. 14, 1914; one daughter. Asst. Archaeologist, Amer. Museum of Natural History, 1900, and Harvard-Peabody Museum, 1903; became Reporter for New York Sun, 1904; later named Ethnologist, New York State Library; State Archaeologist, 1906-25. Director of Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences since 1925; now Director Emeritus. Ex-Pres., Soc. for Amer. Archaeology; Pres., New York State Archaeological Assn. Pres., New York State Historical Association; Vice-President, American Association of Museums; Trustee, Horniday Foundation; State Indian Commissioner, 1919-20; Chairman, Speakers' Bureau, Rochester War Council. Fellow of American Association for Advancement of Science and Royal Society of Arts. Member of American Ethnological Society; National Research Council (1934-36); British Museum Association; Newcomen Society of England; Royal Society of Scotland; Masons (33°). Ex-Branch President, American Numismatic Association. Awarded Cornplanter Medal, 1916; Numismatic Medal, 1925. Civic Medal of Rochester, 1946. Author: Archaeological History of New York (1919); Last Grand Sachem (1923); Iroquois Uses of Maize (1911); Constitution of the Five Nations (1914); Seneca Myths and Folk Tales (1923); Indian How Book (1930); Manual for History Museum (1935); three works of fiction. Residence: Naples, N. Y. Office: Cooperstown, N. Y.

PARKER, Hon. CHARLES W., American Jurist; born Oct. 22, 1862, Newark, N. J.; son of Cortland and Elizabeth (W.) (Stites) Parker; educated at Princeton Univ., graduated 1882, A.M. 1885, Hon. LL.D. 1919; read law with father; Columbia Law School, LL.B. 1885; New Jersey Law School, LL.D. 1934; Mercer Beasley Law School, LL.D. 1935; married Emily Fuller, Nov. 22, 1893; two living sons and one daughter. Admitted to Bar, State of N. J. as attorney, 1885, and as a counselor, 1890; engaged in law practice in Newark until 1890; in Bayonne City, 1890-91; removed practice to Jersey City, 1891. Appointed a District Court Judge for Jersey City, 1898; reappointed 1903. Judge, Circuit Court, 1903-07; Justice, Supreme Court, since 1907. Residence: 63 Macculloch Ave. Office: 19 South Street, Morristown, New Jersey.

PARKER, CHAUNCEY GOODRICH, American Banker; born Sept. 4, 1897, New London, Conn.; son of Chauncey G. and Dora Mason (Wright) Parker; educated at Harvard College, 1914-17; married Cecilia Sherman McCallum, Jan. 2, 1923; two children. Second Lieut., Field Artillery, A.E.F., 1918-19. With Brooklyn Cooperage Co., Poplar Bluff, Mo., 1919-23; Manager, Washington office, J. A. W. Iglehart & Co., 1923-28; Asst. Mgr., Washington office, National City Co., 1928-30; organized (with Hugh D. Auchincloss and Albert G. Redpath), the firm of Auchincloss, Parker & Redpath, Inc., general investment business, 1930—; now Pres. and Director; organized Auchincloss, Parker & Redpath, a partnership (members, N. Y. Stock Exchange), 1931—. Capt. and Major, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, 1933-40; called to active duty, 1940; organized and became first Chief, Div. of Finance & Supply, Selective Service System, 1940; Executive for Administration, Selective Service System, 1941; Asst. Deputy Director for Administration and Deputy Dir. for Admin., 1942-44; promoted Lieut. Col. and Col. Member, Navy Price Adjustment Board; served in Central and South Pacific with Fleet Marine Force, 1944-45. Appointed Chmn., Navy Price Adjustment Bd. and Vice-Chmn. and Member, War Contracts Price Adjustment Bd., 1945; appointed Special Adviser to Asst. Secy. of Navy on re-negotiation matters, 1946; Member, Navy Dept. Bd. for Correction of Navy Records, 1947; Director of Admin., International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, Washington, D. C., 1947—. Residence: 3314 O St., N.W. Office: International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 1818 H St., N.W., Washington, District of Columbia.

PARKER, CORNELIA STRATTON. American Writer; born 1885. Author: An American Idyll (the Life of Carleton H. Parker), 1919; Working with the Working Woman, 1922; Ports and Happy Places, 1924; Watching Europe Grow, 1930; English Summer, 1931; German Summer, 1932; Wanderer's Circle, 1934. Address: c/o Liveright Publishing Corp., 386 4th Ave., New York, N. Y.

PARKER, Dr. DeWITT HENRY, American Professor of Philosophy; born Apr. 17, 1885, New York City; son of DeWitt H. and Jennie A. (Stevens) Parker; educated at Harvard Univ., A.B. 1906, Ph.D. 1908; married (1st) Lelia Webster, June 24, 1909; one child; (2nd) Martha Vaughan, June 14, 1924; two children. Instructor, Univ. of Calif., 1909-10; Instructor, Univ. of Mich., 1908; Asst. Prof., Assoc. Prof., Prof. of Philosophy, since 1926; Chairman of Dept. since 1929. Lecturer, Univs. of California, Wisconsin, Chicago and Harvard. Also at museums, including Metropolitan, New York City. Ex-Pres., Western Branch of Amer. Philosophical Assn. Member: Amer. Soc. for Aesthetics; Amer. Assn. of Univ. Professors. Author: The Self and Nature, 1917; Principles of Aesthetics, 1920, 2nd ed., 1946; Human Values, 1931; Analysis of Art, 1924; Experience and Substance, 1931. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

PARKER, DOROTHY (Mrs. Alan Campbell), American Poet; born 1893. Author: Close Harmony (or The Lady Next Door; with Elmer L. Rice; 3 act play), 1924; Enough Rope, 1926; Sunset Gun, 1928; Laments for the Living, 1930; Death and Taxes, 1931; After Such Pleasures, 1936; not So Deep as a Well (collected poems), 1936; Here Lies (collected stories), 1936; The Collected Poetry of Dorothy Parker, 1944. Wrote many Hollywood screen plays, contributed dialogue, etc. Address: c/o Viking Press, Inc., 18 E. 48th St., New York, N. Y.

PARKER, EDWARD JUSTUS, National Secretary, Salvation Army in United States; born in Elgin, Ill., Aug. 2, 1869; son of George and Elmira Elizabeth (Cole) Parker; educated in public school; married Eva Estelle Thompson, Jan. 11, 1893; five children. Officer in Salvation Army since Oct. 1, 1885; Provincial General Secretary, Manager of Publishing and Trading Department, Social Service Secretary, War Service Secretary (organized Salvation Army activities with A.E.F. during World War I), Territorial Chief Secretary and National Secretary, since 1930. President, Salvation Army Corps in U. S. Office: 122 W. 14th St., New York, New York.

PARKER, ERIC, British Editor, Author; born Oct. 9, 1870, East Barnet, Hertfordshire, England; son of Frederick Searle and Elizabeth (Wilkieson) Parker; educated at Eton College, King's Scholar; Merton College, Oxford, Postmaster Classical Honours, B.A.; married Ruth Margaret Messel, June 12, 1902; six children. Editor, The Country Gentlman, 1902-07; Member of Staff, The Spectator, 1902-14; Editor-in-Chief, The Field, 1930-37; Editor (with Earl of Lonsdale), Lonsdale Library. Member, Soc. of Authors. Author or Editor of numerous books, including: Highways and Byways in Surrey, 1908; Shooting Days, 1918; An Angler's Garland, 1920; Playing Fields: a novel of School Life, 1922; The Gardener's England, 1936; An Anthology of the Bible, 1939; World of Birds, 1942; A History of Cricket, 1948; The Dog-Lover's Week-End Book, 1948. Address: Feathercombe, Hambledon, Godalming, Surrey, England.

PARKER, GEORGE B., American Editor; born Sept. 10, 1886, Ithaca, Mich.; son of Dean S. and Harriet (Johnson) Parker; educated at Univ. of Oklahoma, A.B. 1908; married Adelaide Loomis, June 12, 1912; two children. Reporter, Oklahoma News, 1909; successively City Editor, Managing Editor and Editor until 1920; Editor, Cleveland (Ohio) Press, 1920-22; Editor-in-Chief, Southwestern Group of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, 1922-24; appointed General Editorial Executive of entire Scripps-Howard unit, 1924; Editor-in-Chief since 1927. Residence: 1840 24th St., N.W. Office: 1013 13th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

PARKER, Dr. GEORGE HOWARD, American Zoologist; born Dec. 23, 1864, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of George W. and Martha (Taylor) Parker; educated at Harvard Univ., B.Sc. 1887, D.Sc. 1891; Univ. of Leipzig, 1891; Univ. of Berlin, 1892; Univ. of Freiburg, I.B. 1892; Colby College, Sc.D.; married Louise Merritt Stabler, June 15, 1894. Asst. and Instructor in Zoology, Harvard Univ., 1888-91; Parker Fellow in Europe, 1891-93; Instructor in Zoology, Harvard, 1893-99; Asst. Prof. of Zoology, 1899-1906; Prof. of Zoology, 1906-35; Emeritus Prof. since. Director, Harvard Zoological Laboratory, 1921-34; Trustee, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass.; Clark Lecturer, Amherst College, 1914; Exchange Prof. to Western Colleges, 1921. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (Pres. 1916); Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences (Pres. 1934-36); Amer. Soc. of Zoologists (Pres. 1903); Amer. Soc. of Naturalists (Pres. 1929); London Zoological Soc.; Peking Soc. of Natural History. Awards: Elliott Medal, Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Lewis Prize, Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: The Elementary Nervous System, 1919; What Evolution is, 1925; Animal Color Changes, 1948, etc. Address: Harvard Biological Laboratories, 16 Divinity Ave., Cambride 38, Mass.

PARKER, GEORGE SWINNERTON, American Business Executive; born Dec. 12, 1866, Salem, Mass.; son of George A. and Sarah M. (Hegeman) Parker; married Grace E. Mann, 1896; one daughter. With brothers, Charles H. and Edw. H. Parker, founded Parker Brothers, Inc., 1901. Director of Naumkeag Trust Co., Pequot Mills, and Vice-Pres., Essex Inst., and Salem Savings Bank, all of Salem. Trustee of various estates. Residence: "Brookwood," Peterboro, N. H. Office: Parker Brothers, Inc., Salem, Mass.

PARKER, Sir HAROLD, K.B.E., C.B., M.C., British Government Official; born May 27, 1895, Hampstead, London, England; son of W. G. and Fanny (Watt) Parker; educated at Haberdashers School; married Kathleen Gibbs, June 26, 1926; two sons. Began career as Civil Servant, 1914; Assistant Principal in the Treasury, 1919; Assistant Secretary in the Treasury, 1934; Principal Asst. Secy. in the Treasury, 1938. Deputy Secy., Ministry of Pensions, 1941; Permanent Secy. since 1946. Secy. of Royal Commn. on Awards to Inventors, 1928-34; Asst. Secy. of Royal Commn. on Civil Service, 1929-31. Residence: "Clithereoe," Wayside. Office: Sanctuary Bldgs., Gt. Smith St., London, England.

PARKER, HAROLD, Australian Sculptor and Painter; born 1873, Aylesbury, England; son of Daniel Parker and Jane Hollis; educated at Brisbane Technical College; Art School, Brisbane (under Clark and Rivers); City and Guilds of London Institute (under Frith); County Council; other scholarships; married Janet Robinson, 1911. Began as sculptor and painter at Brisbane, 1888; exhibited in Sydney (seventy works), 1930; Melbourne (fifty-four works), 1933, etc. Foundation Member of Australian Academy of Arts and Society of Australian Artists in Europe. Member, Royal Queensland Art Society. Principal works: The Pioneer, marble, awarded Medal, Paris Salon, 1928; marble bust, Iris, purchased for National Gallery at Melbourne (Felton Bequest); two colossal groups, main entrance doorway, Australia House, Strand, 18 ft. high, representing The Awakening and Prosperity; The Long, Long Dreams of Youth; Narcissus; The First Breath of Spring, marble figure (Queensland National Art Gallery); Ariadne, marble statue (Tate Gallery); marble bronze memorial to Mrs. M'Connel of Queensland; marble bust of Lady M'Ilwraith, etc. Prometheus statue, honorable mention, Paris Salon, 1910; oil painting and water colours, Paris Salons, 1928 and 1929; Medalist, Paris Salon, 1928. Address: "Ningwood," 34 Dornoch Terrace, West End, Brisbane, Qsld., Australia.

PARKER, Hon. HUBERT STANLEY WYBORN, Australian Lawyer; born Oct. 16, 1883, Perth, W. A.; son of Sir Stephen Henry and Amey Katherine (Leake) Parker; educated at Hale School, Perth; Malvern College, England; married Ada Edith Sholl, Dec. 12, 1923; two children. Member, Legislative Assembly, 1930-33; Attorney General, 1933. Member, Legislative Council, since 1934. Director, Eagle Star Insurance Co., Ltd. Served with A.I.F. in Gallipoli, Egypt, France and Belgium; awarded D.S.O., World War I; Lt. Col., Second Australian Imperial Force, World War I. Address: 15 Howard St., Perth, Western Australia.

PARKER, Judge JAMES, Canadian Jurist; born Jan. 17, 1874, Stirling, Ont., Canada; son of Robert and Namah (Chard) Parker; educated at Queen's Univ., Kingston; Osgoode Hall, Toronto, 1911; King's Counsel since 1921; married Lillian J. Platt, Sept. 3, 1929; one son. Member: Belfour & Parker until 1919; Parker & Crabtree until 1931; appointed to Bench, 1931. Now Senior Judge of County Court, County of York; Judge of Surrogate Court, same county. Trustee, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Appointed Royal Commissioner by Governor General in Council to investigate and report on Canadian Performing Rights Soc., 1935. Member, Canadian Bar Assn. Address: Judge's Chambers, City Hall, Toronto, Ont., Canada.

PARKER, JAMES W., American Utilities Executive; born Nov. 28, 1886, Auburn, N. Y.; son of Charles A. and Sara (Cole) Parker; educated at Cornell Univ., 1908; married Dorothy Dow, Mar. 26, 1913; two children. Plant Operating Engineer for the DeKalb (Ill.) Power & Light Co., 1908-09; Chief Plant Engineer, Vincennes (Ind.) Street Railway, 1909. Joined Detroit Edison Co. as Boiler Room Engineer in 1910; made Chief Engineer, 1923; elected Vice-President, 1935; General Manager, 1943; President since 1944. Member: Engineering Soc. of Detroit (Pres., 1936-39), Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers (Pres., 1942). Pres., Assn. of Edison Illuminating Companies, 1947—. Residence: P. O. Box 76, Ann Arbor, Mich. Office: 2000 Second Ave., Detroit, Mich.

PARKER, Hon. JAY S., American Jurist; born in Morland, Kansas, July 1, 1896; son of Ivan B. and Mary L. (Findley) Parker; educated at University of Kansas, LL.B. 1918; married Virginia Grace Shafer, Feb. 15, 1915; one daughter. Began practice of law, 1918; County Attorney of Graham County, 1920-22 and 1924-35; Assistant Attorney-General of Kansas, 1935-39; Attorney-General, 1939-43. Elected Justice, Supreme Court of Kansas for six-year term beginning Jan. 11, 1943. Residence: 1349 Collins Ave. Office: State House, Topeka, Kansas.

PARKER, Dr. JESSIE M., American Educator; born Blackhawk County, Iowa; daughter of Frederick H. and Martha J. (Knapp) Parker; educated at Iowa State Teachers College; Grinnell College; Des Moines Univ., A.B.; Valparaiso Univ., B.Ped.; Buena Vista College, LL.D. Elementary teacher in Lake Mills, Iowa; later High School Teacher and Principal; County Supt., Schools of Winnebago County, 1915-27; State Rural School Supervisor, 1927-38; State Supt. of Public Instruction, Iowa, since 1938. Trustee, Iowa State Library; Chairman and Exec. Officer, State Board of Educational Examiners and of Iowa State Board for Vocational Education. Member: Amer. Assn. of School Administrators; Natl. Education Assn.; (Life Member) Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs, etc. Contributor to Educational Magazines; Editor, Educational Bulletin, since 1938. Residence: Lake Mills, Iowa. Office: State Dept. of Public Instruction, Des Moines 19, Iowa.

PARKER, JOHN, Member of British Parliament; born July 15, 1906, Bristol, Eng.; son of Herbert and Nellie (Harvey) Parker; educated at Marlborough College, 1920-25; St. John's College, Oxford, 1925-29, M.A.; married Zena Mimardière, Feb. 20, 1943. Research Assistant at Merseyside Social Survey, 1929-32. General Secretary of New Fabian Research Bureau, 1933-39; General Secretary, Fabian Soc., 1939-45; Vice-Chairman, 1946—. Labour Parliamentary Candidate, 1931. Labour Member of Parliament for Romford, 1935-45, and for Dagenham since 1945. Member, Labour National Executive Com., 1943-44; Administrative Com. of Parliamentary Labour Party, 1943-44. Parliamentary Secy., Dominions Office, 1945-46. Member, Transport and General Workers Trade Union. Author: The Individual Worker and Small Business Man, 1931; Forestry Commission, 1935; Modern Turkey, 1940; 42 Days in the Soviet Union, 1945; Labour Party and the Future, 1947. Residence: 4 Essex Court, Temple, E.C. 4. Office: 11 Dartmouth St., London, S.W. 1, England.

PARKER, JOHN C., JR., American Utilities Executive; born Apr. 15, 1879, Detroit, Mich.; son of John and Mary (Dimler) Parker; graduate of Univ. of Michigan (1901); A.M. and E.E.; Dr.Eng., Univ. of Michigan and Stevens Institute of Technology; married Elizabeth B. Payne, June 1910; three children. In Testing Dept. of General Electric Co. at Schenectady, N. Y., 1902-03. Instructor in Electrical Engineering at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., 1903-04; Professor in charge of Electrical Engineering Dept., Univ. of Michigan, 1915-22. Held various positions as executive electrical engineer; Pres., Brooklyn Edison Co., 1932-36. Vice-Pres., Consolidated Edison Co., N. Y., Inc., 1936—. Fellow and Ex-Pres., Amer. Inst. of Electrical Engineers. Trustee: Brooklyn Savings Bank; Brooklyn Hospital; Barnard College. Residence. 85 Remsen St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Office: 4 Irving Pl., New York 3, New York.

PARKER, JOHN CRUMP, American Lawyer; born June 28, 1895, Franklin, Va.; son of John Crafford and Emily V. (Norfleet) Parker; educated at Virginia Military Inst., B.S. 1914; Univ. of Virginia Law School, 1915-17, 1919; Washington & Lee Univ. Law School, 1914-15; married Alice Saunders Dabney, Dec. 7, 1935; two children. Practicing attorney, Franklin, Va., since 1919. Member, Council of Virginia State Bar, 1938-45; Chairman, Committees on Unauthorized Practice of Law, War Service, Law Lists of Virginia State Bar. Vice-Pres., Virginia State Bar, 1942; Pres., 1943-44. Member, Town of Franklin School Board, since 1940. Member: Southampton County Bar Assn.; Virginia State Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn. Co-author, "Definition of Law" of Rules of Virginia State Bar (promulgated by Supreme Court of Virginia), 1938. Address: 303 Main St., Franklin, Va.

PARKER, JOHN G., Canadian Insurance Executive; born Sept. 6, 1883, Haldimand Co., Ont.; son of William and Ann (Bethune) Parker; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1904; married Edith Dunn, Oct. 20, 1914; one son. Clerk, Actuarial Dept., The Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada; Asst. Actuary, 1912; Assoc. Actuary, 1914; Actuary, 1923; General Manager and Actuary, 1936; Managing Director since 1944; Pres. since 1947. Governor, Amer. Inst. of Actuaries; Council Member, Actuarial Soc. of America; Chairman, Natl. War Finance Com. for Toronto. Fellow, Actuarial Soc. of Amer. Member: Toronto Board of Trade; Canadian Life Officers Assn.; Insurance Inst. of Canada.; Amer. Inst. of Actuaries; Inst. of Actuaries. Residence: 45 Oriole Gardens. Office: 20 Victoria St., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

PARKER, JOHN JOHNSTON, U. S. Circuit Judge; born Nov. 20, 1885, Monroe, N. C.; son of John Daniel and Frances (Johnston) Parker; educated at University of North Carolina, A.B. 1907, LL.B. 1908, LL.D. 1937; Davidson College, LL.D. 1940; University of Michigan, LL.D. 1942; married Maria Burgwin Maffitt, Nov. 23, 1910; three children. Began career as a practicing lawyer, 1908. Member, law firm of Stack & Parker, Monroe, N. C., 1910-19, and Stack, Parker & Craig, Monroe, 1919-22; Head of law firm of Parker, Stewart, McRae & Bobbitt, Charlotte, 1922-25; Republican nominee for Governor of North Carolina, 1920. Special Assistant to Attorney General of the U. S., 1923-24. Member, Republican National Committee, 1924; Delegate-at-Large from North Carolina to Republican National Convention, 1924; Member, Advisory Board on Just Compensation to the War Shipping Administration 1943; Delegate to the Cleveland Study Conference on the Churches and A Just and Durable Peace, 1945. Circuit Judge of U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit, by appointment of President Coolidge, since 1925; appointed Member, Supreme Court of U. S. by President Hoover, but was not confirmed by Senate. Delivered White Lectures at Univ. of Virginia, 1940. Alternate U. S. Member, Internatl. Military Tribunal, 1945-46. Member. North Carolina Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn. (Vice-President, Chairman of Judicial Section, 1937, Chairman of Special Committee on Improving Administration of Justice, 1940-47); Council of American Law Institute; American Judicature Society, etc. Awarded Medal of American Bar Association for conspicuous service in the cause of American jurisprudence in 1943. Author: Democracy in Government, 1940. Residence: 135 Queens Rd. Office: Federal Bldg., Charlotte, N. C.

PARKER, JULIUS F., American Lawyer; born Dec. 8, 1910, Tifton, Ga.; son of Charles Lee and Rosa (Montgomery) Parker; educated at Univ. of Miami; Univ. of Florida, LL.B.; married Katy Gold, May 18, 1933; one son. In practice of law at Tallahassee, Fla., since 1935. Partner, law firm of Parker & Foster. Attorney for Trustees, International Improvement Fund, 1945-46. Chairman, Leon County Democratic Co., 1937-38; Member, Florida Legislature, 1943; Member: Florida State Chamber of Commerce (Director); Amer. Judicature Soc.; Amer. Arbitration Assn.; Florida State Historical Assn.; Florida State Bar Assn. (Pres. 1945-46); Florida Junior Chamber of Commerce (Secy. 1938), etc. Author: Florida Limited Partnership Law; Act authorizing Supreme Court to revive Florida rules of civil procedure; various other acts relating to procedure in equity and law cases in Florida. Residence: 416 E. 8th Ave. Office: Brock Building, Tallahassee, Fla.

PARKER, Dr. K. T., British Art Historian; studied art in Paris, Zurich, etc.; M.A.; Ph.D. Keeper, Department of Fine Art, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, 1934-45; Keeper of Ashmolean Museum, 1945—. Author: North Italian Drawings of the Quattrocento; Drawings of the Early German Schools; Alsatian Drawings of the XVth and XVIth Centuries; Drawings of Antoine Watteau; Catalogue of Drawings in the Ashmolean Museum, Vol. I, 1938; Holbein's Drawings at Windsor Castle, 1945. etc. Address: Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, England.

PARKER, PHILO W., American Industrialist; born Apr. 13, 1891, Georgetown, N. Y.; son of Joel J. and Harriet (Woodworth) Parker; educated at Colgate Univ.; married Mabel Rice, Sept. 12, 1917; two sons. Began as a Foreign Marketer with Standard-Vacuum Oil Co. and predecessor companies; entered first "Marketing Class" of Standard Oil Co. of New York, 1912; assigned to South China Division, 1912; General Manager, So. China Division, 1926; Director, Standard Oil Co., N. Y., 1931; Vice-Pres., 1932; Vice-Pres. and Director, Standard-Vacuum, 1933; Pres., 1934-46; Chairman of Board, 1946—. Director: Chase Bank; U. S. Pipe & Foundry Co. Member, Council on Foreign Relations; Vice-Pres. and Director, China Soc. of America; Chairman of Board, Trustee, Member of Exec. Com., Chairman of Finance Com., China Medical Board; Director and Member of Exec. Com., American Asiatic Assn.; Trustee, Lingnan Univ.; Trustee and Member of Exec. and Finance Coms., Colgate Univ.; Director, Natl. Foreign Trade Council. Residence: 120 East End Ave. Office: 26 Broadway, New York 4, N. Y.

PARKER, Dr. RAYMOND CRANDALL, Canadian Biologist; born Oct. 18, 1903, Newport, Nova Scotia; son of Albert Otto and Sabra Amelia (Parker) Parker; educated at Acadia Univ., B.A. 1924; Yale Univ., Ph.D. 1927. Asst. in Zoology and Anatomy, Yale Univ., 1924-26; Sterling Research Fellow, 1926-27. Joint Fellow, Natl. Research Council, and The Rockefeller Foundation, New York, for work at Kaiser-Wilhelm Institut für Biologie, Berlin-Dahlem, 1927-29. Research Asst.,

Graduate School of Medicine, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1929-30; Asst. in Pennsylvania, 1929-30; Asst. in Experimental Surgery, The Rockefeller Inst. for Medical Research, N. Y., 1930-31; Assoc., 1931-39. Head, Virus Research Laboratory of E. R. Squibb & Sons, New Brunswick, N. J., 1939-41. Research Assoc., Connaught Medical Research Laboratories; Assoc. in Virus Infections, School of Hygiene, Univ. of Toronto, since 1941. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Amer. Assn. of Anatomists; Harvey Soc.; Soc. for Experimental Biology and Medicine; New York Acad. of Sciences. Author: Methods of Tissue Culture, 1938. Address: University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada.

PARKER, REGINALD HEINRICH, South African Solicitor; born in Capetown, South Africa, June 7, 1889; son of James and Martha J. (Ross) Parker; educated at All Saints School, Nottingham, and at Normal College and South African College, Capetown; married Doreen Marais; three children. Senior Member, firm of Cloete Parker Botha & McKinnell; practicing as an attorney-at-law since 1912. Director: South African Reserve Bank; The South African Mutual Life Assurance Soc. Chairman, Colonial Orphan Chamber and Trust Co. of Capetown and of other companies. Residence: Zonnestraal, Wynberg. Office: 117 St. Georges St., Capetown, South Africa.

PARKER, WALTER EDMUND, British Chartered Accountant; born June 24, 1908, Poona, India; son of Col. F. J. and Daisie (Bullock) Parker; educated at Winchester College, 1921-25; married Elizabeth Mary Butterfield, Aug. 25, 1934; one son. Articled clerk, Price Waterhouse & Co., 1926; Partner since 1944. Chief Accountant, Board of Trade, 1940; Asst. Secy., 1941-43. Assoc. Member, Inst. of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, 1931. Decorated Commander, Order of British Empire, 1946. 2nd Lieut., 1/5th Battalion, Essex Regiment, 1939-40. Residence: Cleeve Hall, Manuden, Essex. Office: 3 Frederick's Pl., Old Jewry, London, England.

PARKER, Dr. WALTER ROBERT, American Ophthalmologist; born Oct. 10, 1865, Marine City, Mich.; son of Leonard Brooks and Jane (Sparrow) Parker; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S. 1888, Hon. Sc.D. 1934; Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1891, Hon. Sc.D. 1927; married Margaret S. Watson, Dec. 28, 1907. Prof. of Ophthalmol. at Univ. of Mich., 1905-32. Consulting Ophthalmol. Surgeon at Harper Hosp. and Women's Hosp., Detroit. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Ophthalmol. Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmol. and Otolaryngol.; College of Surgeons; Ophthalmol. Soc. of United Kingdom (England); Oxford Ophthalmol. Congress; French Ophthalmol. Soc.; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Awarded Knapp Medal, Ophthalmol. Section, Amer. Med. Assn. During Spanish-American War, served as Ensign, U. S. Navy; Col., U. S. Med. Corps, World War I. Residence: 1 Woodland Pl., Grosse Pointe 30, Mich. Office: 1025 David Whitney Bldg., Detroit 26, Michigan.

PARKER, Dr. WALTER WINFIELD, American College President; born Jan. 17, 1889, Howard County, Ark.; son of John Alexander and Susan Elizabeth (Pinkerton) Parker; educated at Hendrix College, A.B. 1912, LL.D. 1929; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1915; Central College (Mo.), LL.D. 1947; married Martha Marion James, Sept. 4, 1912; four children. Teacher of English: Conway, Ark., 1909-10; Hendrix Acad., 1912-14. Member of Faculty, Teachers College, Warrensburg, Mo., 1915-23; Dean of Faculty, 1923-28. Pres., State Teachers College, Alva, Okla., 1928-33. Pres., Southeast Missouri State Teachers Missouri State College in 1946), Cape Girardeau, Mo., 1933—. Author: English Composition Handbook, 1920. Address: Southeast Missouri State College, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

PARKER, Rt. Rev. WILFRID, South African Ecclesiastic; born Jan. 23, 1883, London; Eng.; son of Hon. Cecil and Rosamond (Longley) Parker; educated at Radley College, Eng.; St. Andrew's College, Grahamstown, South Africa; Christ Church, Oxford, M.A.; married Charlotte Albu, 1933. Ordained, 1908. Domestic Chaplain to the Archbishop of York, 1909; Asst. Curate, St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, London, 1915-18. During First World War served as Chaplain to the Forces in France and Italy, 1916-18. Rector, St. George's Church, Parktown, Johannesburg, 1919-23. Priest-in-Charge, St. Cyprian's Native Mission, Johannesburg, 1913-31, and Archdeacon of Pretoria, 1931-33, consecrated Bishop of Pretoria, 1933. Sub-Prelate of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, 1946—. Awarded Italian Croce di Guerra, 1918. Address: Bishop's House, Pretoria, Transvaal, South Africa.

PARKER, WILLIAM AMORY, American Financier; born Dec. 31, 1892, Boston, Mass.; son of Francis Stanley and Harriet (Amory) Parker; educated at the Groton School (1905-11), and at Harvard College (1911-14); married Elise Ames, Aug. 17, 1917; two sons. With Boston Journal, 1914-17; 2nd Lieut., F.A. United States Army, A.E.F., 1917-19; from 1920 to 1924, was with Spencer Trask & Co. With Incorporated Investors since 1925; Pres. since 1933. Pres. and Director of Incorporated Investors; Loew's Inc.; Old Colony Railroad Co.; Union Freight Railroad Co.; Fiduciary Trust Co.; Ames Shovel & Tool Co.; Ames Baldwin Wyoming Co.; Easton Land Co.; Rayonier, Inc. Trustee: Provident Institution for Savings; Management Associates. Vice-Chmn., Boston Metropolitan Chapter, Amer. Red Cross. Residence: 23 N. Main St., North Easton, Mass. Office: 1 Court St., Boston, Mass.

PARKER SMITH, Dr. STANLEY, British Electrical Engineer; born Feb. 23, 1884, Grantham, Lincolnshire; son of Walter Smith and Elizabeth Houghton Pigott; educated at Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne, B.S. 1904, D.Sc. 1910; Technische Hochschule, Carlsruhe, 1905-07; married Marie A.L.B. Leitz, 1908; two children. Asst. Designer, Siemens, Stafford, 1907. Chief Designer, General Electric Co., Witton, Birmingham, 1909. Lecturer and Asst. Prof., City and Guilds College, London, 1912-23. Consulting Engineer, Messrs. Vickers, 1916-21. Prof. of Electrical Engineering, Royal Technical College, Glasgow, 1923-48. Organizer of College for operational staff at Pitlochry for North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Bd. Member: Institution of Electrical Engineers (Vice-Pres., 1941); (Assoc.) Institution of Civil Engineers. Author: Electrical Equipment of Automobiles, 5th ed., 1927; Problems in Electrical Engineering, 5th ed., 1929; also papers on design of electrical machinery and traction in Institution journals and periodicals. Address: Royal Technical College, Glasgow, Scotland.

PARKERSON, JESSE J., American Banker; born July 23, 1884, Norfolk, Va.; son of W. T. J. and Cherry (Martin) Parkerson; educated at public schools and business college; married Emma Markham, Oct. 30, 1906; one daughter. With Merchants and Planters Bank since 1902; Pres. since 1929. Director: Chesapeake Building Assn. (Treas.); South Norfolk Bridge Comm. (Pres.); Security Insurance Agency; De Paul Hospital. Residence: 944 Larchmont Crescent. Office: 228 W. Berkley Ave., Norfolk, Va.

PARKES, Dr. ALAN STERLING, British Physiologist; born Sept. 10, 1900, Rochdale, Lancashire, England; son of Ebenezer Thomas and Helena Louisa (Banks) Parkes; educated at Christ College, Cambridge: B.A. (Cantab.), 1921, Ph.D. (Manch.), 1923, D.Sc. (London), 1927, Sc.D. (Cantab.), 1931, F.R.S. 1933; married Ruth Deanesly, 1933. Sharpey Scholar, Univ. College, London, 1923-24; Hon. Asst., Univ. College, London, 1924-28; Junior Beit Memorial Research Fellow, 1924-27; Senior Beit Memorial Research Fellow, 1928-30; Julius Mickle Fellow, Univ. of London, 1929; Hon. Lecturer, Univ. College, London, 1929-31; Foulerton Student, Royal Soc., 1930-34; Sidney Ringer Lecturer, Univ. College Hospital, London, 1934; Scientific Staff Member, Natl. Inst. for Medical Research, since 1934. Member: Biochemical Soc.; Physiological Soc.; Soc. for Endocrinology; Royal Soc., of Medicine (Fellow); Soc. for Experimental Biology. Author: The Internal Secretions of the Ovary, 1929; numerous papers on the physiology of reproduction in Journal of Physiology, Proceedings of Royal Soc., Journal of Endocrinology, etc. Address: National Institute for Medical Research, Hampstead, London, N.W. 3, England.

PARKES, EDWARD, C.M.G., M.V.O., I.S.O., Tasmanian Government Official; born June 8, 1890, Hobart, Tasmania; son of Edward and Mary (Richards) Parkes; educated by Rev. John Gray; Scotch College, Hobart; married Gladys Lipscombe, March 3, 1925; two children. Under-Secretary, Government of Tasmania. Residence: 20 Mawhera Avenue. Office: Premier's Department, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia.

PARKES, Rev. Dr. JAMES WILLIAM, British Clergyman; born 1896, St. Andrews, Guernsey, C. I.; son of Henry and Annie Katherine (Bell) Parkes; educated at Elizabeth College, Guernsey, 1905-16; Hertford College, Oxford, 1919-23, M.A. 1926; Exeter College, Oxford, 1930, Ph.D. 1934; St. John's College, Cambridge; married Dorothy Emily Wickings, 1942. Deacon, 1925; Priest, 1926. Internatl. Secy., Student Christian Movement, 1923-26; Warden, Student Movement House, London, 1926-28; Study Secy., Internatl. Student Service, Geneva, 1928-35. Vice-Pres., Common Wealth (Chairman, 1942-43), 1943; Member: Council of Jewish Historical Soc.; Executive, Natl. Council of Christians and Jews; Royal Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Author: The Jew and His Neighbour, 1930, 1938; International Conferences, 1933; The Conflict of Church and Synagogue, 1934; Jesus, Paul and the Jews, 1936; The Jew in the Medieval Community, 1938; The Jewish Problem in the Modern World (rev. American ed., 1946); An Enemy of the People: Anti-semitism, Amer. ed. 1946; Palestine, 1940; The Emergence of the Jewish Problem 1879-1939, 1946; The Jewish Problem, 1941. Under pen-name John Hadham: Good God, 1940; God in a World at War, 1940; Between God and Man, 1942; God and Human Progress, 1944. Address: Barley, Royston, Hertfordshire, England.

PARKES, Sir SYDNEY, C.B.E., British Banker; born Feb. 23, 1879, Altrincham, Cheshire, England; son of Tom Burchell and Emma Kendal (Moyle) Parkes; educated at Truro School and Manchester Univ.; married Hilda Mary Corson, 1904; two sons. With Cunliffes Brooks & Co., Manchester, 1894; joined Lloyds Bank Ltd., London; appointed Asst. General Manager, 1927; Joint General Manager, 1929; Chief General Manager, 1938; elected to Board, 1941. Chairman: Crosse & Blackwell Ltd.; Natl. Bank of New Zealand. Director: Lloyds Bank Ltd.; Bank of British West Africa Ltd. Chairman, City of London Savings Com.; Chairman of Joint Com., Ophthalmic Hospitals of London; Member of Control Board, Army Benevolent Funds; Member of Finance Com. C.B.E., 1943; K.B., 1946. Residence: Danecroft, Rose Walk, Purley, Surrey. Office: 71 Lombard St., London, E.C. 3, England.

PARKHILL, The Hon. Sir (ROBERT) ARCHDALE, K.C.M.G., Australian Statesman; born Aug. 27, 1879, Paddington, Sydney, N.S.W.; son of Robert and Isobelle (Chisholm) Parkhill; educated at Paddington Public School; married Florence Ruth Watts, May 9, 1906; two children. Alderman, Waverley Municipal Council, 1903-10; Political Secy., May 1904; General Secy. of non-labor political organization in Australia, 1904-26; Member for Warringah in Commonwealth Parliament, 1926-37; Minister, Home Affairs and Transport, Jan.-May 1932; Minister for the Interior, May-Oct. 1932; Postmaster-General, 1932-34; Minister for Defense, 1934-37 (establishing the aircraft industry and other defense measures in 1936). Member, Australian Delegation to Imperial Conf., London, 1937. Represented Australia at International Postal Union, Cairo, 1934. Created K.C.M.G., 1936; J.P., 1904; recipient of the Jubilee and Coronation Medals. Author: Proportional Representation in Australia; and numerous political biographies and pamphlets. Residence: Grenoville, 3 Fairfax Rd., Bellevue Hill, N.S.W. Office: Stanway House, 77 King St., Sydney, Australia.

PARKHURST, FREDERIC AUGUSTUS, American Engineer (Consulting Management Expert); born Aug. 11, 1877, Woburn, Mass.; son of George E. and Sarah Frances (Turner) Parkhurst; educated in Public Schools of Woburn, Mass.; through private study; attended Lowell Institute lectures on advanced steam engineering, 1899-1900; married Abby Joanna Glidden, February 3, 1904; one daughter. Management Organizer, Vaughn Machine Co. in Peabody, Mass., 1901. With Harrington Emerson as first Associate, Portland Co., Portland, Maine, 1903-04, General Manager, Pacific Iron Works, Bridgeport, Conn., 1905-08, Organizing Engineer and General Manager, Ferracute Machine Company, Bridgeton, N. J., 1908-12; Organizing Engineer and General Superintendent, Aluminum Castings Co., later Aluminum Manufacturers, 1912-19. Chairman, Technical Committee, responsible for all plants and operations including research and eleven operating plants. Engaged in consulting management practice, since 1919. Pioneer in development of scientific management functions and controls and originator of applied practices. Designed and supervised construction and operation of largest aluminium foundry in the world at that time in Cleveland, Ohio, 1917, and in 1918 duplicated same size and design of plant in Detroit, Mich. Granted 33 U. S. patents and a number of copyrights Author of several books, including "Applied Methods of Scientific Management," 1912, 1917; "Predetermination of Trust Costs," "Relatively True Selling Prices," 1916; "Symbols," 1916; "The Science of Management," 1917-18, also of various articles on management. During First World War served as Specialist in Tank Section, U. S. Army Ordnance, 1918. Residence: Russell Ave., Suffield, Conn. Office: Investment Building, 15th and K Sts., Washington, D. C.

PARKHURST, Hon. RICHARD, U. S. Maritime Commissioner; born Nov. 15, 1894, Winchester, Mass.; son of Lewis and Emma (Wilder) Parkhurst; educated at Dartmouth College, A.B. 1916; Harvard Law School, 1916-17; married Katharine

Foster Ryder, Feb. 19, 1924; two children. Asst. to Manager, and Asst. Manager, Athenaeum Press of Ginn & Co., Cambridge, Mass., 1919-29. Appointed to Bd. of Boston Port Authority, 1929; subsequently served as its first Vice-Chmn., and Chmn.; granted a leave of absence in 1943; resigned in 1945. With Division of Administration & Transportation, Office of Inter-Amer. Affairs, Washington, D. C., and later Consultant to Dept. of Transportation of Office of Inter-Amer. Affairs, 1943-46. Commnr., U. S. Maritime Commn., 1946—. Residence: 30 Grove St., Winchester, Mass. Office: U. S. Maritime Commission, Room 4858, Dept. of Commerce Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PARKIN, BENJAMIN THEAKER, Member, British Parliament; born Apr. 21, 1906, Leyton, Essex, England; son of B. D. and Mabel (Theaker) Parkin; educated at Lincoln College, Oxford, M.A.; Strasbourg Univ.; married Phyllis Lunt, 1929; two sons. Began as schoolmaster, 1928. Modern Languages Master, Wycliffe College. Member of Parliament since 1945. Member, Fabian Soc. Flight Lieut., R.A.F., World War II. Address: Elmsleigh, Pearcroft Rd., Stonehouse, Glos., England.

PARKINSON, Dr. BURNEY LYNCH, American Educator; born Jan. 1, 1887, Lincoln County, Tenn.; son of Samuel M. and Adelia (Jamison) Parkinson; educated at Erskine College, B.S. 1909, Litt.D. 1939; George Peabody College, M.A. 1920, Ph.D. 1926; married Belvidera A. Dry, June 30, 1914. State High School Supervisor of South Carolina, 1920-23; Prof. of School Administration and Director of Extension, Univ. of South Carolina, 1923-27; Pres. of Presbyterian College of South Carolina, 1927-28. Director of Teachers Training Certification and Elementary Education, State of Alabama, 1928-32; Pres., Mississippi State College for Women, since 1932. Author: Standards for Classification of Elementary Schools, 1932; The Supervision of Instruction in the Elementary and Secondary Schools of Alabama, 1932. Address: College Station, Columbus, Miss.

PARKINSON, HARGREAVES, British Editor; born June 3, 1896, Fleetwood, England; son of John Thomas and Mary (Hitchen) Parkinson; educated at Univ. of London, King's College, B.A. 1915; London School of Economics, B.Com. 1922; married Constance Emily Purton, July 5, 1924; two children. Lieut., Royal Artillery, 1916-18; Asst., Banking Section, Dept. of Overseas Trade, 1919-22; Asst. Press Adviser, Natl. Savings Com., 1922-23; Intelligence Branch Manager, The Economist, 1923-28. City Editor, The Economist, 1928; Assoc. Editor, 1935; Editor, The Financial News, 1938-45; Editor, The Financial Times (incorporating The Financial News), since 1945. Fellow, Royal Statistical Soc. Author: ABC of Stocks and Shares, 1925; The Small Investor, 1928; Scientific Investment, 1932; Ordinary Shares, 1944; The Hatch System, 1946. Residence: Pines Crest, Pelhams Walk, Esher, Surrey. Office: 72 Coleman St., London, England.

PARKINSON, JAMES F., American Engineer; City Administrator; born Sept. 10, 1897, Reynoldsburg, Ohio; son of Daniel H. and Catherine (English) Parkinson; educated at Ohio State Univ., B.C.E. 1926; married Winifred Tillet, Dec. 31, 1924; three sons. City Engineer, Galion, Ohio, 1926-28. Asst. City Engineer: Columbus, Ohio, 1928-30; Cincinnati, Ohio, 1930-41. City Manager: Tarpon Springs, Fla., 1941-42; Portsmouth, Ohio, 1942-45; Bay City, Mich., 1945—. Memer: International City Managers' Assn.; Engineering Soc. of Cincinnati, Ohio; American Legion. Residence: 300 Filmore Place. Office: City Hall, Bay City, Mich.

PARKINSON, Dr. ROY HARVEY, American Physician; born Mar. 13, 1890, Ashland, Ore.; son of George M. and Priscilla (Wise) Parkinson; educated at Berkeley High School; Cooper Med. College (now Stamford Med. School), M.D. 1912; married Velva Helke, Feb. 27, 1923; one daughter. Interne at St. Joseph's Hosp., San Francisco, 1912; Asst. in Ear, Nose and Throat Clinic of Stanford Med. School, 1912; Asst. at Eye Clinic of Univ. of Calif. Med. School, 1914-16; Asst. Ophthalmol., Southern Pacific Railroad Hosp., 1914-16; Chief of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Dept., Telegraph Hill Clinic, 1916-31. Since 1926 he has been Chief of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Dept. of St. Joseph's Hosp.; Chief of Staff, 1934-46. Fellow: Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Calif. Med. Assn.; Pacific Coast Oto-Ophthalmol. Soc.; Calif. Acad. of Science; Calif. Historical Soc., and Amer. Historical Assn. Author: Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Manual for Nurses (5th edition). During World War I served as Captain, Med. Corps of U. S. Army, overseas, 1918-19. Res.: 460 Spruce St., Berkeley, Calif. Office: 870 Market St., San Francisco, California.

PARKINSON, THOMAS I., American Lawyer and Insurance Executive; born 1881, Philadelphia, Pa. President and Director, Equitable Life Assurance Soc. Trustee: Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank; Columbia University; University of Pennsylvania; Atlantic Mutual Indemnity Co.; Centennial Insurance Co. Director: American Telephone and Telegraph Co.; Chase National Bank of the City of New York; Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co.; Borden Co.; Westinghouse Electric Corp.; Centennial Insurance Co.; Long Island R.R. Member, Amer. Law Inst. Residence: 7 Park Ave. Office: 393 Seventh Avenue, New York 16, N. Y.

PARKINSON, Dr. WILLIAM NIMON, American Surgeon; born Sept. 17, 1886, Philadelphia; son of Walter and Sarah Nimon Parkinson; educated at Villanova College, B.S., LL.D. 1931; Temple Univ., M.D. 1911; Univ. of Pa., M.Sc. in Medicine, 1923. Asst. Surgeon, Joseph Price Memorial Hospital, Philadelphia, 1912-17. Associate Dean, Medical Dept., Temple University, 1923-25; Chief Surgeon, Florida East Coast R.R. and Hospital, 1926-29; Dean of Temple University Medical School, also Med. Dir. of Temple Univ. Hosp. since 1929. Member of Amer. Med. Assn., County and State Med. Socs.; Amer. College of Surgeons, etc. Res.: Mayfair House, Lincoln Dr. Office: Temple Univ. Hospital, Broad and Ontario Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

PARKS, Major Gen. FLOYD LAVINIUS, American Army Officer; born Feb. 9, 1896, Louisville, Ky.; son of Lyman Lewis and Lizzie Pratt (Manly) Parks; educated at Clemson College, S.C., B.S. 1917; Yale Univ., B.S. in M.E. 1924; Tank School, 1924; Infantry School, 1933; Command and General Staff School, 1935; Army War College, 1940; married Harriet Marie Applebye-Robinson, Sept. 24, 1931; four children. Private, 2nd Lieut., 1st Lieut., Capt., Tank Corps, 1918; commissioned 1st Lieut., Regular Army, 1920; advanced through grades to Major General (temp.), Mar. 1945. Deputy Chief of Staff, Army Ground Forces, Mar. 1942; Chief of Staff, 1942-43. Asst. Div. Commander, 69th Inf. Div., 1943-44. Chief of Staff, First Allied Airborne Army, 1944-45. Commanding First Airborne Army, U. S., May-Oct. 1945. Commanding U. S. Sector, Berlin Dist., July-Oct. 1945. Commanded first U. S. troops to enter Berlin. Chief, Public Information Div., Dept. of Army, Dec. 1945—. Awarded: Distinguished Service Medal with oak leaf cluster; Bronze Star Medal; Air Medal; Legion of Merit; Commendation Ribbon; Victory Medal (World War I); National Defense Medal; American Theater Medal; European-African-Middle East Ribbon with 3 battle stars; Victory Medal (World War II); Occupation Medal (Germany), and numerous foreign decorations. Address: Department of the Army, Public Information Division, Washington 25, D. C.

PARKS, LARRY, American Motion Picture Actor; born Dec. 13, 1914, Olathe, Kansas; married Betty Garrett. Films include: The Jolson Story; Down to Earth; The Swordsman, etc. Address: c/o Columbia Pictures, Hollywood, Calif.

PARLAKIMEDI, Maharaja of, Sri KRISHNACHANDRA GAJAPATHI NARAYANA DEO, Capt. the Hon. Premier of Orissa, Maharaja Personal, Proprietor of Delang and Balarampur Estates in Puri District; born Apr. 26, 1892, Parlakimedi Palace; son of Sri Sri Sri Gourchandra Gajapathi Narayana Deo, C.I.E. and Sri Sri Radhika Patta Mahadavi; educated in Parlakimedi; Maharaja's College; Newington College, Madras; Court of Wards Institution, 1905-12; married the late Nalini Pathomahadaoi, 1913; two sons and one daughter. Zamindar of Parlakimedi, Apr. 1913. Became President, District Board, Ganjam, 1937; appointed Premier of the Government of Orissa, Apr. 1937; reappointed Nov. 1941. Delegate to the First Indian Round Table Conference of 1930; Associate Member, Orissa Boundary Committee. Selected as representative of All India Landholders Assn. to give evidence before the Parliamentary Joint Select Committee in London, 1933. Commissioned Hon. 2nd Lieut., Feb. 1918; subsequently Capt.; honorary commission since 1918. President and Leader of the National War Front in Orissa. Address: Parlakimedi, India.

PARMELEE, JULIUS HALL, American Economist; born 1883. Author: The Statistical Work of the Federal Government, 1911; War Administration of the Railways in the United States and Great Britain (with Frank Haigh Dixon), 1918, 2nd ed., 1919; Financing the Railroads, 1919; By-products of Railway Accounting, 1928; Some Economic Aspects of Fuel Conservation, 1928; The Modern Railway, 1940, etc. Address: Transportation Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PARMELEE, LEWIS D., American Shipping Executive; born Sept. 17, 1896, Milton, Vt.; son of William and Harriet (Fairchild) Parmelee; educated at St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Acad., 1914; Northwestern Univ., two years; married Marguerite Rabbette, 1922; one son. Senior Accountant, Whittlesey, Wythes & Wilson (C.P.A.), 1919-21; Chief Accountant, General Auditor, General Comptroller and Trustee of U. S. Shipping Board Merchant Fleet Corp., 1921-32. Joined AGWI group as General Comptroller of the companies, 1932; appointed Executive Vice-Pres. of Atlantic Gulf and West Indies Steamship Lines, 1940; Pres. since 1946. Also Director of Agwilines, Inc., Internatl. Airways, Inc., International Shipping Corp., New York and Cuba Mail Steamship Co., The New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company, San Antonio Company and San Antonio Docking Company. He is a Director of The Santiago Terminal Company, Southern Steamship Company, Terminal Naviera, S.A., and Member of Consultative Board of Linea Ward, S.A. (Mexico). Pres., Propeller Club of U. S.; Vice-Pres., Maritime Assn. of the Port of New York; Director, Amer. Merchant Marine Inst., Inc. Member of the Amer. Bureau of Shipping and Controllers Inst. of America. Residence: 460 W. 24th St. Office: Pier 34 North River, New York 13, N. Y.

PARMELEE, Dr. MAURICE, American Economist; born Oct. 20, 1882, Constantinople, Turkey; son of American parents, Moses Payson and Julia (Farr) Parmelee; educated at Yale, B.A. 1904, M.A. 1908; Ph.D. Columbia, 1909; married Anne Saba, 1935; one daughter. Research Fellow and Probation Officer, University Settlement, New York City, 1904-05; Chief Statistician, New York City Board of Water Supply, 1905-06; Investigator for the Russell Sage Foundation for Social Research, 1907-08; Professor of Economics, Statistics and Sociology in the Universities of Kansas, Missouri, and Minnesota, and at the College of the City of New York, 1909-18. He was Representative of the U. S. War Trade Board in London, 1918-19; Special Assistant to the Secretary of State, 1920; Economist Consul, Berlin, Germany, 1920-23; Economist for AAA, 1935-36; Economist, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, 1938-39; Senior Economist, Treasury Dept., 1939-40; Consultant Economist, Dept. of the Interior, 1940-41; Principal Economist to Board of Economic Warfare, 1941-42. Chief of Research, Railroad Retirement Board, since 1942. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science. Member of Institut International de Sociologie (Paris), Fondation pour la Science (Paris), American Economic Association, American Statistical Association, American Sociological Society, American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, International Congress of Penology, and American Anthropological Association. Publications: (books) The Principles of Anthropology and Sociology in Their Relations to Criminal Procedure, 1908; Inebriety in Boston, 1909; The Science of Human Behavior, 1913; Poverty and Social Progress, 1916; Criminology, 1918; Personality and Conduct, 1918; Blockade and Sea Power, 1924; The New Gymnosophy, 1927; Oriental and Occidental Culture, 1928; Bolshevism, Fascism and the Liberal Democratic State, 1934; Farewell to Poverty, 1935; Economic Factors Influencing Railroad Employment, 1946; Geo-Economic Regionalism and World Federation, 1947. Residence: Hull House, 800 S. Halsted St. Office: 844 Rush St., Chicago, Ill.

PARNALL, Dr. CHRISTOPHER GREGG, American Hospital Administrator; born July 2, 1880, Rockland, Mich.; son of William E. and Mary (Gregg) Parnall; educated at Michigan Military Academy, 1898; Univ. of Michigan, B.A. 1902, M.D. 1904; married Erma Hills, July 29, 1903; three sons. Director of Public Health and Hospitals, Jackson, Mich.; Surgeon, Jackson City Hosp., 1915-18; Prof. of Administrative Med., Univ. of Michigan, 1918-24; served as Dir. of University Hosp., 1918-24; Med. Dir. of Rochester (N. Y.) General Hosp., 1924—. Consultant to Sealy and Smith Foundation, Galveston, Tex., 1928; Commnr. of Public Welfare of Rochester, 1933; Consultant on Hospital Administration and Construction; Dir. of Commn. appointed by Governor Dewey to investigate N. Y. State Dept. of Mental Hygiene, 1943—; on Rockefeller Com. for Study of Nursing Education, 1920-23; Member of Adv. Council on Med. Education, 1939—. Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn., Amer. College of Physicians and Amer. Public Health Assn.; Member of Amer. Hosp. Assn. (Past Pres.). Residence: 1730 Highland Ave. Office: Rochester General Hospital, Rochester, N. Y.

PARNAS, Prof. JACOB OSKORAVICH, Soviet Biochemist. Prof. of Biochemistry, Lvow Univ., 1921-42; at Inst. of Biochemistry of Ukrainian Acad. of Sciences, 1942;

Director of Inst. of Medical and Biological Chemistry, Moscow, 1946—. Chiefly engaged in research on metabolism of muscle tissue; researches led to development of new analytical methods; now methods of obtaining substances employed in treatment of heart diseases; a method of obtaining muscle proteins in crystal form, etc. Author: Glycogenolysis, 1940. Awarded Stalin Prize, 1942. Member, Branch of Biological Sciences, Acad. of Sciences of U.S.S.R. Address: Institute of Medical and Biological Chemistry, 10 Pogodinskaja St., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PARODI, ALEXANDRE, French Political Leader; born June 1 1901, Paris; son of Dominique and Hélène (Vavin) Parodi; educated at Lycées Buffon et Condorcet (Paris), Licencié en Droit et en Lettres, Diplômé de l'École des Sciences Politiques; married Annie Vautier, May 2, 1931; two children. Auditor, Council of State, 1926; Asst. Secy.-General, National Economic Council, 1936; Director-General of Labor, 1938-40; became leader of Metropolitan Resistance, known as Monsieur X, after London accord between Fighting France and National Resistance Council; in charge of organizing free press after liberation. Became Minister of the Provisional Government, July, 1944; Minister of Labor and Social Security, 1944-45; Ambasador to Italy, 1945-46. Permanent Delegate to U. N. Security Council, Atomic Energy Commn. and Economic and Social Council, Head of French Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, 1946, 1947. French Representative, U. N. General Assembly Interim Committee, 1948. Residence: 127, rue de Grenelle, Paris, France. Office: French Delegation to the United Nations, 4 E. 79th St., New York, N. Y.

PARODI, Sra. ENRIQUETA de, Mexican Writer; born Mar. 10, 1899, Cúmpas, Sonora, Mexico; daughter of Sacramento R. Montáno and Gila Peralta de M.; educated at Cúmpas, Hermosillo, and Mexico, D.F.; married Alfredo S. Parodi, Jan. 11, 1918; five children. Began career in 1917 as a teacher; has written for national and foreign magazines and newspapers; served as correspondent for Sonora and Navarit papers; now Chief of State Dept. of Social and Cultural Organization. Formerly Press Secy., Subcomité de Aceramiento Nacional. Hon. Member, Helena Larroque de Roffo Cultural Soc. of Buenos Aires; Ex-Treas., Ateneo Mexicano de Mujeres. Member: Comité de Defensa Civil; Unión Femenina Ibero-Americana; Bloque de Obreros Intelectuales de México; P.E.N. Club de México; Ateneo de Ciencias y Artes de México, etc. Decorated by Dept. of Education, State of Sonora. Author: Reloj de Arena, 1933; Cuarto de Hora, 1937; Luis es un Don Juan, 1936; Madre, 1937; Sonora, 1941; Alcancía, 1946; Cuentos y Leyendas, 1946; Espigas, 1946. Residence: Yucatán 126 Pte. Office: Calle Velasco No. 15, Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico.

PARODI, Dr. HUMBERT DENIS, Swiss Chemist; born July 8, 1876, Geneva, Switzerland; son of August and Alix (Montessuit) Parodi; educated at College of Geneva, 1896; Univs. of Geneva and Grenoble (France); chemist's diploma, 1898; Sc.D. 1901; married Mathilde Bernard, Nov. 23, 1905; four children. Prof. of Chemistry at Cairo, 1900-01; Controller General of Technical Education, Egypt, 1911-13; Inspector General of Education there, 1913-14; Director of Educational Mission, 1914-19; Examiner, Univ. of Cairo, 1910-14; Director of Translation and Interpreter's Dept., League of Nations, 1920-39. With Institut d'Égypte since 1908. Member, Institut d'Égypte; Institut Genevois; Chemical Soc.; Soc. Helvétique des Sciences Naturelles; Hon. Member, Société des Experts Chimistes. Commander: Osmanieh; Order of the Nile (Egypt); Crown of Italy; Officer de l'Instruction publique; awarded Gold Medal, Reconnaissance française. Author of numerous memoirs on scientific questions. Address: Vandoeuvres, near Geneva, Switzerland.

PARODI, Prof. LORENZO RAIMUNDO, Argentine Botanist; born Jan. 23, 1895, Pergamino, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Nicolás Parodi and Asunción G. de Parodi; studied in the Instituto Almirante Brown; Escuela de Agricultura de Santa Catalina of the University of La Plata; Faculty of Agronomy of the University of Buenos Aires, Agronomical Engineer; married Maria C. Trabino (deceased). Joined Staff of the Faculty as Chief of Practical Works in Botany, and Microbiology, and in 1926 he was placed in the Chairs of General and Special Agricultural Botany, has been Professor of Special Botany in the Faculty of Agronomy of the University of La Plata since 1922, and Curator of Botany in the Museum of that institution since 1933. Name used for many newly discovered plants, among them: Parodiodoxa Chionophylla, Lepidium Parodii; Alchemilla Parodii; Cuscuta Parodii; Aristida Parodii; Oenothera Parodeii, etc. For many years he was President of the Sociedad Argentina de Ciencias Naturales; One of the founders (1934) of the Sociedad Argentina de Agronomía, of whose Review he is Permanent Director. He is the author of a series of scientific studies covering nearly every phase of botany and the botanical sciences. Foreign Honorary Member of the Academia Nacional de Agronomia y Veterinaria, Academia Nacional de Ciencias Exactas, Físicas y Naturales, Academia Nacional de Ciencias de Córdoba; Corresponding Member, Academia de Ciencias Naturales de Santiago de Chile, etc. Address: Lavalle 4680, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PARPART, Dr. ARTHUR K., American Physiologist; born Dec. 28, 1903, Brooklyn, N. Y.; son of Edward G. and Grace (Dear) Parpart; educated at Amherst College, B.A. 1925; Univ. of Pennsylvania, School of Medicine, Ph.D. 1931; married Roberta Bennett, Aug. 29, 1925; two children. Asst. in Biology, Amherst College, 1923-27; Instr. in Biology, 1927-28; Instr. in Physiology, Univ. of Pennsylvania Dental School,, 1928-31; Instr. in Physiology, Princeton Univ., 1931-33; Asst. Prof. of Physiology, 1933-41; Assoc. Prof., 1941-46; Prof., since 1946. Trustee, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Mass.; Member, Exec. Com., laboratory; Research Investigator, Com. on Medical Research, in field of blood preservation. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Physiological Soc.; Soc. of General Physiologists (Secy.-Treas.); New York Acad. of Sciences. Author of articles on blood preservation; The Chemistry and Physiology of Growth. Residence: 2 College Rd. Office: Princeton University, Princeton, N. J.

PARR, Dr. ALBERT EIDE, American Museum of Natural History Director; born Aug. 15, 1900, Bergen, Norway; son of Thomas and Helga (Eide) Parr; educated at Royal Univ., Oslo, cand. mag. 1925; Yale Univ., hon. Sc.D., 1946; married Ella Hage, Dec. 31, 1925; four children. Asst. in Zoology, Bergen Museum, 1918-19; Asst., Bureau of Fisheries, Norway, 1924-26; Asst., New York Aquarium, 1926. Curator, Bingham Oceanographic Collection, Yale Univ., 1927-42; Asst. Prof. of Zoology, 1931-37; Assoc. Prof., 1937-38; Prof. of Oceanography, 1938-42; Director, Peabody Museum of Natural History, 1938-42. Director, American Museum of Natural History, since 1942. Trustee, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. Fellow: New York Zoological Soc.; New York Historical Soc.; Amer. Geographical Soc. Assoc. Fellow, Davenport College, Yale Univ. Member: Museum Council, City of New York; Amer. Assn. of Museums; International Council of Museums; Amer. Soc. of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists. Editor, Journal of Marine Research, Sears Foundation, Yale Univ. Author of over fifty scientific papers on oceanography and marine biology. Residence: 5 Paradise Rd., Bronxville. Office: 15 W. 77th St., New York, New York.

PARR, Prof. HARRY L., American Mechanical Engineer; born Mar. 20, 1880, Yonkers, N. Y.; son of Benjamin and Susie Lilienthal Parr; educated at Columbia Univ., A.B. 1902, M.E. 1904; married Clare Van Dyke Lambert, Apr. 4, 1908. Asst. in Mechanical Engineering, Columbia Univ., 1905-06; Engineering Aid, Power Specialty Co. of New York, 1906-07. Instructor in charge of Experimental Laboratories, Columbia, 1910-12; Asst. Prof., 1912-21; Assoc. Prof., 1921-28; Prof., 1928-41; Stevens Prof., since 1941. Engaged in Consulting Engineering Practice since 1907. Member: Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Amer. Physical Soc. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Author of various contributions to technical journals. During First World War, Lieut., Reserve Force, U. S. Navy. Residence: 36 Gilbert Pl., Yonkers 3, N. Y. Office: Pupin Bldg., Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

PARRA MEGE, ALEJANDRO, Chilean Jurist; born October 1, 1880, Quirihue, Chile; son of José M. Parra Bustos and Alejandrina Mège Muñoz de P; studied at Instituto Nacional; Universidad de Chile (law degree 1905); married Lucila Azagra Cabezas, July 17, 1906; two children. Began as practicing attorney, 1906; Secretary of official publication "Biblioteca de Escritores de Chile," 1905-15. Professor of Introduction to Study of Law, Escuela de Ciencias Jurídicas y Sociales, Universidad de Chile, since 1923. Representative of Executive, Court of Conciliation and Arbitration of Private Employees, 1925; became Labor Judge of Santiago, 1928; Minister and President, Court of Labor of Santiago de Chile, since 1943. Member of Academia de Filosofía de Derecho de la Universidad de Chile; Instituto de Ciencias Penales de la Universidad de Chile; Instituto Chileno de Estudios Legislativos de la Universidad de Chile. Author of Eros (collection of literary stories), 1899. Residence: Merced No. 268, Depto. 15, Santiago de Chile.

PARRA-VELASCO, ANTONIO, Ecuadorean Diplomat; born Dec. 17, 1900, Guayaquil, Ecuador; son of Francisco Parra Diaz and Rosa Velasco de Parra; educated in France and Ecuador; Univ. of Guayaquil, LL.B.; married Mora Gil de Parra; four children. Member, Municipal Council, Guayaquil, 1925; Delegate to 7th Pan American Conf., Montevideo, 1933; Minister of Education, 1934; Prof. of International Law, Univ. of Guayaquil, 1935-44; Deputy, Natl. Assembly, 1944-45; E.E. and M.P. to France, 1945-47; appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ecuador in Cabinet of President Carlos Julio Arosemena, Nov. 1947. Member, Ecuadorean Delegation: United Nations Preparatory Commn., 1945; U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Quito, Ecuador.

PARRA-PÉREZ, Hon. CARACCIOLO, Venezuelan Diplomat; born March 19, 1888, Mérida, Venezuela; son of Dr. Ramón Parra Picón and Juana Pérez de Parra; studied in Colegio del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús de Mérida; Universidad de los Andes; Faculty of Law of the University of Paris; Free School of Political Science, Paris; Doctor honoris causa, Universities of Buenos Aires and Southern California at Los Angeles; married María Luisa Osio Santana; two children. Began career, 1913, as Civil Attaché in Paris, later becoming Secretary, Counsellor of the Legation, and Plenipotentiary Minister. In 1917 he was Chargé d'Affaires in Paris, and from 1919 to 1926 was assigned to Switzerland, serving as Special Plenipotentiary before the Swiss Federal Council in the Colombian-Venezuelan Boundary Litigation. He was Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Italy from 1927 to 1936, in Great Britain in 1936-37, in Switzerland in 1937-41, and in Spain during 1939-41. He was Secretary of the Delegation of Venezuela to the First Assembly of the League of Nations, and was Delegate to the 2nd, and 4th to 18th Assemblies; also Delegate, and in some instances President of the Delegation to a long series of International Conferences; Special Representative of the President of the Republic to the Coronation of George VI of England, etc. Minister of Public Instruction, 1936; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1941-45. During July and Aug. 1943 and Jan. and Feb. 1944 was temporarily in charge of the Presidency of the Republic. Ambassador to France, 1946—. Publications: Miranda et la Révolution Française; Delphine de Custine, belle amie de Miranda; Bolívar—contribución al estudio de sus ideas políticas; La Cartera del Conde de Adlercreutz; El Régimen Español en Venezuela; Historia de la Primera República de Venezuela (2 vols.); Bayona y la Política de Napoleón en América; Páginas de Historia y de Polémica. He has been decorated by Venezuela, Malta, Spain, the Holy See, Portugal, Italy, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Cuba, Chile, Ecuador, Mexico, Netherlands, Panama, Peru, Belgium, Yugoslavia, France and Paraguay. Chairman, Venezuelan Delegation to United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Residence: 55 Av. Kléber. Office: Venezuelan Embassy, 11 rue Copernic, Paris, France.

PARRA, Dr. FRANCISCO J., Venezuelan Lawyer; born Sept. 29, 1896, Trujillo, Venezuela; son of Dr. Melquiades and Virginia (Márquez) Parra; educated at the Universidad de los Andes, J.D., D.Sc. (political science); married Edelmira Sanz, March 19, 1920; one daughter. Began career as a lawyer in 1918. Served as President of the State, President of the Supreme Court of Trujillo; Administrator of Aduana; Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Peru; Minister of Finance; Secretary of State, and Secretary to the President of the Republic of Venezuela. Consul General of Venezuela in New York, 1941-42. Member: Academia Diplomática Internacional; Colegio de Abogados de Venezuela; Colegio de Abogados de Nueva York; (Hon.) Ateneo de Mexico. Received Cruz del Sol, Brasil; Medalla del Libertador; Decoration and Medal de Instrucción Pública. Author: Derecho de Asilo; Jurisprudencia aplicada y otros trabajos jurídicos; Interpretación de las Leyes; Historia de las Leyes; Consideraciones acerca del sistema arencelario venezolano; History of the Laws. Address: Campo Alegra, 4a. Avenida, 22, Caracas, Venezuela.

PARRA, MANUEL GERMÁN, Mexican Under-Secretary of National Economy; born May 7, 1914, Mexico, D. F., Mexico; son of Ignacio and Josefina (Gutiérrez) Parra; educated at National School of Law and Social Sciences, 1932-34; National School of Economics, 1935-37; Facultad de Filosofía y Letras, 1944-47; married Emilia Prado, Dec. 2, 1936; three sons. Economic Adviser to the President, 1943; Secy., Revisory and Coordinative Com. for Educational Planning, Program of Studies and Textbooks, 1944; Secy., Technical Section, Comité Nacional Alemanista, 1946; Organizer of Round Table Discussions on Natl. Economic Problems during Presidential Campaign of Miguel Alemán, 1946; Under-Secy., Natl. Economy, 1946—. Author: Section on Mexico, in Diccionario de Pedagogía, 1935; La Deserción Escolar, 1935; Proyecto de Ley Orgánica de Educación Pública, 1939; Capítulo de Educación del 20. Plan Sexenal de Gobierno, 1940; Plan de Reorganización de la Secretaría de Educación Pública, 1940; Historia de la Educación en México, 1943; La Interpretación de la Historia de México, 1943; Plan Económico de México para la Postguerra, 1943. Residence: Tonalá 329, Mexico, D. F., Mexico. Office: Argentina 12, Mexico, D. F. Mexico.

PARRAN, Dr. THOMAS, American Public Health Administrator; born September 28, 1892, St. Leonard, Md.; son of educated at St. John's College (B.A. 1911, M.A. 1915, LL.D. 1936), and Georgetown Univ. (M.D. 1915, Sc.D. 1936); Hon. degrees from Syracuse Univ., LL.D. 1934; Colgate Univ., Sc.D. 1937; Wesleyan Univ., Sc.D. 1937; Philadelphia College of Pharmacol. and Science, Pharm.D. 1937; Columbia, Sc.D. 1938; N. Y. Univ., D.P.H. 1938; Univ. of Md., Sc.D. 1940; St. Bonaventure College, LL.D. 1940; Tufts College, Sc.D. 1940; Toronto Univ., LL.D. 1941; Rutgers Univ., Sc.D. 1942; Univ. of Utah, Sc.D. 1944; Duke Univ., Sc.D. 1945; married Angela Bentley Vandoren (dec.), 1918; (2nd) B. Carroll Keller, 1930; four sons. Began career in 1917 as Asst. Surgeon, U. S. Public Health Service. After serving in 14 States as commissioned officer in the U. S. Public Health Service, on public health research and administrative assignments, and as Commnr. of Health of N. Y. State, 1930-36, he was appointed Surgeon General of U. S. Public Health Service, 1936; reappointed in 1940 and 1944; resigned 1948. Chmn., Internatl. Health Conf., U. N. Economic and Social Council, 1946. Head of Mission to Far East of U. N. Internatl. Children's Emergency Fund, 1948. Member of Bd. of Trustees, of Rockefeller Foundation; Technical Bd., Milbank Memorial Fund. Ex-President of American Public Health Assn. (Life Member), and Amer. Neisserian Med. Soc.; Fellow of Amer. Med. Assn., N. Y. Acad. of Med., Amer. College of Physicians, Amer. College of Surgeons, Internatl. College of Surgeons, Amer. College of Dentists, Royal Sanitary Inst. of Great Britain, and Royal Inst. of Public Health and Hygiene of Great Britain; Life Member of Assn. of Military Surgeons of U. S.; Hon. Member, Amer. Hosp. Assn., Alpha Omega Alpha, Royal Soc. of Med. of Great Britain; Member of Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Med. and Health Adv. Com. of Amer. Red Cross; Bd. of Dirs., Natl. Tuberculosis Assn.; Bd. of Dirs., Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.; Adv. Com., Natl. Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Awards and decorations: Mendel Medal, Villanova College; Sedgwick Memorial Medal, Amer. Public Health Assn.; William Freeman Show Award, Amer. Social Hygiene Assn.; Dr. EduardoLiceaga Medal, Mexico; Grand Officer of Order of Carlos Finlay, Cuba; Order of Aesculapius (Med. Soc. of Colombia); Commander of Order of Al Merito, Chile. Publications: Shadow on the Land, 1937; (co-author) Plain Words About Venereal Diseases, 1941; numerous articles on preventive medicine and public health, medical care, public health organization, nutrition, milk sanitation, maternal and infant mortnality, tuberculosis and venereal disease control. Res.: 3734 Oliver St., N.W., Washintgon, D. C.

PARRES GUERRERO, Dr. JOSÉ, Mexican Political Leader; born Dec. 15, 1889, Mineral del Monte, Estado de Hidalgo, Mexico. Began as physician, 1914. Left Mexico to enter the "Liberating Army of the South." Chief of Sanitary Services of the Army, 1916-20. Governor of the State of Morelos, 1920-23. Entered the Department of Agriculture and Development, 1924; Under-Secretary, 1927; resigned to become candidate for Governor of Hidalgo, 1928. Minister Plenipotentiary to Ecuador, 1930-32; Counsellor, National Agrarian Commission, 1932; appointed Under-Secretary of Agriculture and Development, 1933; became Secretary, 1937. Has been Presiding Counsellor, National Bank of Agricultural Credit and President, National Irrigation Commission and National Agricultural Council. Address: Tacuba 7, Mexico, D.F.

PARRI, FERRUCCIO, Italian Statesman; born 1890. Journalist; served as deputy commander of patriot forces in Northern Italy during Second World War. Deputy of National Parliament. Succeded Ivanoe Bonomi as Premier, June-Nov. 1945. Address: National Parliament, Rome, Italy.

PARRISH, ANNE (Mrs. JOSIAH TITZELL), American Author; born Nov. 12, 1888, Colorado Springs, Colo.; daughter of Thomas Clarkson and Anne (Lodge) Parrish; educated at The Misses Ferriss' School, Colorado Springs, Colo.; The Misses Hebbs' School, Wilmington, Del.; married Josiah Titzell, Dec. 1, 1938 (died 1943). Author: Pocketful of Roses, 1923; Knee-high to a Grasshopper, 1923, and Dream Coach, 1924 (both juveniles, written and illustrated in collaboration with brother Dillwyn Parrish); Lustres, 1924 (short stories written with Dillwyn Parrish); Semi-Attached, 1924; The Perennial Bachelor, 1925; Tomorrow Morning, 1926; All Kneeling, 1928; The Methodist Faun, 1929; Floating Island (juvenile, illustrated by author), 1930; Loads of Love, 1932; Sea Level, 1934; Golden Wedding, 1936; Mr. Despondency's Daughter, 1938; Pray for a Tomorrow, 1941; Poor Child, 1945. Trustee, Professional Children's School, New York, N. Y. Awarded: Harper Prize for "The Perennial Bachelor," 1925. Address: Quantness, Peaceable St., Georgetown, Conn.

PARRISH, MAXFIELD, Artist; born in Philadelphia, Pa., 1870; son of Stephen and Elizabeth (Bancroft) Parrish; educated at Haverford College; married Lydia Austin, 1895; three sons and a daughter. Represented by works in: Mask & Wig Club, Philadelphia, Pa.; Curtis Publishing Co. Building, Philadelphia; St. Regis Hotel, New York; Sherman Hotel, Chicago; Palace Hotel, San Francisco; Irenee du Pont music room, Wilmington, Del.; Eastman School of Music & Theatre, Rochester; Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia; Delgado Art Museum, Chicago; Meeting House Club, New York; James J. Storrow, Lincoln, Mass.; and Austin M. Purves Collection, Cornish, N. H. Received Gold Medal of the Architectural League of New York, 1917. Member, National Acad. of Design. Address: Windsor, Vt.

PARROTT, LEONARD GURNEY, British Royal Academy of Music Secretary; born June 15, 1901, London, England; son of Thomas Joseph Parrott; studied in St. Mary's School. Served in R.A.F. as Aerial Photographer (instructor), School of Photography at Farnborough, 1919-24. Clerk to the Secy., Royal Acad. of Music, 1924; private Secy. to Sir John B. McSwen, Principal, 1926; Asst. Secy., Royal Acad. of Music, 1927; Asst. to the Principal, 1929; Secy. since 1933; Fellow of Academy since 1944 (Hon.). Residence: 68 Clitherow Ave., Hanwell, London. Office: Royal Academy of Music, Marylebone Rd., London, N.W. 1, England.

PARROTT, Dr. THOMAS MARC, American Professor of English; born Dec. 22, 1866, Dayton, Ohio; son of Edwin A. and Mary (Thomas) Parrott; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1888, A.M. 1891; Univ. of Leipzig, Ph.D. 1893; married Mary Adamson; three children. Taught at Miami Univ., Oxford, Ohio, 1888; Univ. Fellow in English, Princeton, 1893-94; taught English and German, Laurenceville School, 1894-96. Asst. Prof. of English, Princeton Univ., 1896; Prof. of English Literature, 1935; now Emeritus Prof. Member, Modern Language Assn.; Shakespeare Soc. of Philadelphia. Author: Studies of a Booklover, 1904; Chapman; Comedies and Tragedies, 1910, 1913; Poetry of the Transition (with W. Thorp), 1932; Wm. Shakespeare—A Handbook, 1934; Short View of Elizabethan Drama (with R. H. Ball), 1943; other textbooks—editions of Shakespeare's plays. Address: 6 Green Ave., Laurenceville, N. J.

PARROTT, Mrs. URSULA, Writer; born Mar. 26, 1902, Boston, Mass.; daughter of Henry C. and Mary Catherine (Flusk) Towle; educated at Radcliffe College, A.B.; married (1st) Lindesay Marc Parrott; (2nd) Charles T. Greenwood (div., 1931); (3rd) A. Costar Schermerhorn (divorced, 1944). Author: Ex-Wife, 1929; Gentleman's Fate, 1930; Strangers May Kiss, 1930; Love Goes Past, 1931; The Tumult and the Shouting, 1933; Bread Winner, 1934; Dream Without Ending, 1935; Next Time We Live, 1935; Tho' You Be Far, 1936; When Summer Returning, 1936; For All Our Lives, 1938, and American Legacy, 1940; Road Leading Somewhere, 1941; Storm of Dusk, 1943. Address: c/o Dodd Mead & Co., 432 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PARRY, Dr. CARL EUGENE, American Economist; born Apr. 1, 1883, Florida, Ohio; son of George W. G. and Flora E. (Halter) Parry; educated at Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1905, A.M. 1907, Ph.D. 1909. Instructor in Economics, Univ. of Michigan, 1907-13. Asst. Prof. of Economics, Ohio State Univ., 1913-17; Prof., 1917-19. Prof. of Economics, Tulane Univ., 1919-22; Economist, Amer. Chamber of Economics, 1922-23; Economist in Grain Futures, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1923-24. Research Asst., Division of Research and Statistics, Federal Reserve Board, 1924-27; Asst. Director, 1927-34; Director, Division of Security Loans, since 1934; in charge of Consumer Credit Regulation, since 1941; Member, Editorial Com., Federal Reserve Bulletin, since 1944. Member, Ohio Council of Natl. Defense, 1917-18; U. S. Food Administration, Ohio, 1917-18; Com. on Public Information of U. S., 1918. Member: Amer. Economic Assn.; Amer. Statistical Assn. Author: Papers in Banking Studies, 1941. Address: Federal Reserve Bldg., Constitution Ave. and 20th St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

PARRY, DAVID HUGHES, British Law Professor; born Jan. 3, 1893, Caernarvonshire, North Wales; son of John Hughes and Anne (Hughes) Parry; educated at University College of Wales, 1910-14; Peterhouse College, Cambridge, 1919-0; B.A. 1914; B.A. and LL.B. 1920, M.A. and LL.M.; married Haf Edwards, 1923. Assistant Lecturer in Law at University College, Wales, 1920; Lecturer in Law, London School of Economics, 1923-26; Reader in English Law, University of London, 1926-30; Professor of English Law, since 1930; Deputy Vice-Chancellor at University of London since 1940. Joint editor of various legal volumes; editor of Annual Survey of English Law, 1928-40 (13 vols.); author of The Law of Succession, 1937, etc. Residence: Prys, Blakes Lane, New Malden, Surrey. Office: 11 Old Sq., Lincoln's Inn, London, W. C. 2, England.

PARRY, REGINALD HEBER, South African Merchant; born 1880, Llanfair-isgaer, Carnarvonshire; son of Rev. Henry Parry; educated at Friar's School, Bangor; Llandovery College, Wales; married Dora Green, 1915; two daughters and one son. Settled in South Africa, 1900, becoming Manager of branch of Wm. Watson & Co. Now Chairman of Directors: Mann, George & Co. (South Africa), Ltd.; Cape Town, Durban and Walvis Bay; Durban Navigation Collieries Ltd.; Tendega Collieries Ltd.; New Tendega Colliery Co. Ltd.; Hull, Blyth & Co. (South Africa), Ltd.; Hawkins Coal Co. (Pty.) Ltd.; Table Bay Stevedores Ltd.; William Anderson & Co. Ltd.; Hout Bay Canning Co. (1920) Ltd.; Coke Producers Ltd.; Road Emulsions (Pty.) Ltd.; African Bitumen Emulsions (Pty.) Ltd. Pres., Cape Town Chamber of Commerce, 1935-36 and 1936-37. Pres., Assn. of Chambers of Commerce of South Africa (formerly Chairman of Executive). Address: 96 Point Road, Durban, Natal, South Africa.

PARRY, Hon. WILLIAM EDWARD, New Zealand Political Leader; born 1878, Orange, N.S.W., Australia; educated at public schools of New South Wales; married Georgina Fowke; two daughters. Went to New Zealand about 1906; miner in the Waihi mines. President, Local Union, 1913. Made Workers' Inspector and a Member, Royal Commission on Mines, 1911; Vice-President, New Zealand Federation of Labor until formation of United Federation of Labour, 1913. Member, Executive Board, Social Democratic Party, until 1914. Organizer, Flax-Workers Union in Manawatu. Secretary, Coal Miners' Federation, 1918; later elected to the Executive Committee, New Zealand Labour Party. Minister of Internal Affairs, since 1935; Minister, Social Security, since 1938, and of Tourist and Publicity, since 1941. Residence: 99 The Drive, Epsom, Auckland. Office: Parliament House, Wellington, New Zealand.

PARRY-WILLIAMS, Dr. THOMAS HERBERT, Welsh Poet, Educator; born Sept. 21, 1887, Rhyd-ddu, Caernarvon, Wales; son of Henry and Ann (Morris) Parry-Williams; educated at Univ. College of Wales, Aberystwyth; Jesus College, Oxford; Univ. of Freiburg, Germany; Ecole des Hautes Etudes and at Sorbonne (Paris); degrees: M.A. and D.Litt. (Wales), D.Litt. (Oxon), Ph.D. (Freiburg); married Amy Thomas, Aug. 1942. Prof. of Welsh Language and Literature, Univ. College of Wales, Aberstywyth, since 1920. Member: Council of Hon. Soc. of Cymmrodorion; Board of Celtic Studies; Press Board (Univ. of Wales); Council of Natl. Library of Wales. Author: Welsh and Breton, 1913; Ystoriau Bohemia, 1921; The English Element in Welsh, 1923; Ysgrifau, 1928; Cerddi, 1931; Llawysgrif Richard Morris o Gerddi, 1931; Carolau Richard White, 1931; Sonnets, 1932; Canu Rhydd Cynnar, 1932; Llawysgrif Hendregadredd (joint), 1933; Elfennau Bardoniaeth, 1935; Olion, 1935; Pedair Cainc Mabinogi, 1937; Synfyfyrion, 1937; Ystoriau Heddiw, 1938; Hen Benillion, 1940; Lloffion, 1942; O'r Pedwar Gwynt, 1944; Libretto Cymraeg Faust (Gounod), 1945. Twice winner of Chair and Crown for poetry at National Eisteddfod of Wales (1912 and 1914-15). Address: University College of Wales, Aberystwyth, Wales.

PARSHALL, DOUGLASS EWELL, American Painter. Represented by "Marine" in Syracuse Museum; in Detroit Museum, etc. Member, National Academy of Design. Address: c/o National Academy of Design, 1083 Fifth Avenue, New York 28, N. Y.

PARSHIN, Lieut. Gen. PETR IVANOVICH, Soviet Minister of Machine Building and Implements Industry. Asst. Commissar for Machine Building Industry, 1938; Commissar of General Building Industry, 1939. Advanced to rank of Lieut. General of Engineer Tank Service, 1944. Minister of Machine Building and Implements Industry, since 1946. Address: Ministry of Machine Building and Implements Industry, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PARSONS, ALICE BEAL, American Author; born Oct. 8, 1886, Rockford, Ill.; daughter of Mart Alph and Laura (Starr) Beal; educated at Rockford College, B.A. 1908; Univ. of Chicago; married Hugh Graham Parsons, Sept. 2, 1914; one daughter. Free-lance newspaper writer and reviewer, N. Y. Herald-Tribune, N. Y. Post, N. Y. Sun, The Nation, Bookman, The Dial, 1920. Business Manager World Tomorrow, 1923-26. Author: Woman's Dilemma, 1926; The Insider, 1929; John Merrill's Pleasant Life, 1930; A Lady Who Lost, 1932; The Trial of Helen McLeod, 1938; The Mountain, 1944; I Know What I'd Do, 1946; World Around the Mountain, 1947; also numerous articles and short stories in Harper's, Scribner's, The Atlantic, New Yorker, Reader's Digest, Story, Coronet, Woman's Day, Forum, Yale Review, etc. Address: South Boulevard, Nyack, N. Y.

PARSONS, Dr. ARTHUR BARRETTE, American Engineer; born Nov. 22, 1887, Salt Lake City; son of Arthur Huntington and Katherine (Barrette) Parsons; educated at Utah School of Mines, B.S. in Mining Engineering, 1909; Dr.Eng., So. Dakota School of Mines, 1936; married Mary Snell, 1915; two sons. Smelter Superintendent of Burma Mines, Ltd., 1917-18; Mining Engineer, Butte & Superior Mining Co., Butte, Mont., 1918-19. Associate Editor, Mining & Scientific Press, San Francisco, 1919-22; Assistant and then Associate Editor, "Engineering and Mining Journal," New York, 1922-28; Vice-President and later President, Mineral Research Corp, New York, 1928-30. Assistant Secretary of American Institute of Mining & Metallurgical Engineers, 1930-31; Secretary since 1931. Secretary of Engineers Council for Professional Development, 1937-38. Author: The Porphyry Coppers. Address 29 W. 39th St., New York, N. Y.

PARSONS, CHARLES BATEMAN, American Industrialist; born Nov. 18, 1875, New Britain, Conn.; son of Charles H. and Isabelle (Smith) Parsons; educated at New Britain High School; married Marjorie Danforth Geddes; two children. With American Hardware Corp. since 1894; now President and Director. Vice-Pres. and Dir., Savings Bank of New Britain; Trustee, New Britain Trust Co. Residence: 425 Shuttle Meadow Ave. Office: 10 Franklin Sq., New Britain, Conn.

PARSONS, DOUGLAS E., American Engineer; born Nov. 3, 1894, Marion, Iowa; son of Samuel N. and Aley (Andrews) Parsons; educated at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, A.B. 1917, C.E. 1922; married Lyle Chandler, Aug. 1, 1920; four children. Asst. Engineer, Iowa Railway and Lt. Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 1919-23. With Natl. Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., since 1930; Chief, Masonry Construction Section, 1930-45; Chief, Mineral Products Div., 1945-46; Chief, Building Technology Div., Natl. Bureau of Standards, 1947—. Director, Amer. Concrete Inst. 2nd Lieut., U. S. Army, 1917-19. Member: Amer. Soc. of Civil Engineers; Amer. Soc. Testing Materials (Chmn., Com. on Masonry Units and on Asbestos-Cement products); Amer. Ceramic Soc.; Amer. Concrete Inst. (Pres., 1945-46); Soc. for Experimental Stress Analysis, etc. Awarded Wason Medal by American Concrete Inst., 1936. Author of numerous technical papers and reports. Residence: 5510 Southwick St., Bethesda 14, Md. Office: National Bureau of Standards, Washington 25, D. C.

PARSONS, Rt. Rev. EDWARD L., American Protestant Episcopal Bishop; born May 18, 1868, New York, N. Y.; son of Arthur W. and Helen C. (White) Parsons; educated at Yale Univ., B.A. 1889; Union Theological Seminary, 1892; Univ. of Berlin, 1892-94; Episcopal Theological Seminary, 1894; Pacific Theological Seminary, D.D. 1914; Univ. of California, LL.D. 1939; married Bertha F. Brush, May 18, 1897; three children. Ordained Deacon, 1894, Priest, 1895, Protestant Episcopal Church. Asst. at Grace Church, N. Y., 1894-95. Rector: Trinity Church, Menlo Park, Calif., 1895-1900; St. Matthew's Church, San Mateo, Calif., 1900-04; St. Mark's Church, Berkeley, Calif., 1904-19. Consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of California, 1919; Protestant Episcopal Bishop of California, 1924-40; retired 1941. Instructor of Philosophy, Stanford Univ., 1897-1902; now Prof. of Theology and Liturgics, Church Divinity School of Pacific. Chairman, Protestant Episcopal Church Standing Liturgical Com.; served as Chairman of Commn. on Approaches to Unity. Delegate to World Conference on Faith and Order, 1927 and 1937. Author: What Is Xian Religion?, 1927; The American Prayer Book (with B. H. Jones), 1927. Residence: 2901 Broderick St. Office: 1750 Van Ness Ave., San Francisco, Calif.

PARSONS, GEOFFREY, American Newspaper Editor; born Sept. 5, 1879, Douglaston, N. Y.; son of Charles Chauncy and Julia Warth (Michael) Parsons; educated at Columbia Univ., 1899, LL.B. 1903, Litt.D. 1941; Franklin and Marshall College, L.H.D. 1945; married Carle Taylor, Sept. 7, 1907; four children. Reporter and Editorial Writer, New York Evening Sun, 1906-13; Reporter and Editorial Writer, New York Tribune, 1913-24; Chief Editorial Writer, New York Herald Tribune, since 1924. Member, Century Assn. Officer, Order of Legion of Honor of France, 1946. Recipient of Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing, 1942. Author: The Land of Fair Play, 1919; The Stream of History, 1928. Residence: 238 East 62nd St. Office: 230 West 41st St., New York, N. Y.

PARSONS, GEOFFREY, JR., American Newspaper Editor; born July 3, 1908, New York, N. Y.; son of Geoffrey and Carle (Taylor) Parsons; educated at Ecole de Soisy-sous-Etioles, France, 1922-1923; Phillips Exeter Acad., 1923-26; Harvard Univ., 1926-31; married Brenda Tweed, Sept. 12, 1933 (divorced 1939); one son; married (2nd) Dorothy Blackman Tartière, June 6, 1945. Reporter, Boston Globe, 1931-36; Midwestern Correspondent, New York Herald Tribune, Chicago, 1937-41; War Correspondent in London, 1941; Chief of London Bureau, 1943-44; Editor, European Edition, New York Herald Tribune, 1944—. Director: American Library, Paris; Amer. Aid Soc., Paris. Vice-Pres., Anglo-American Press Assn., Paris, 1947-48. Member: Overseas Press Club, N. Y.; Natl. Press Club, Washington, D. C. Contributor to Reader's Digest, Saturday Evening Post, New Yorker, etc. Residence: 18 Quai d'Orléans, Paris. Office: Rue de Berri, Paris, France.

PARSONS, Hon. Sir (HERBERT) ANGAS, Judge, Supreme Court of South Australia; born May 23, 1872, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia; son of John Langdon and Rosetta Angas (Johnson) Parsons; educated at Prince Alfred College; Roseworthy Agricultural College; University of Adelaide, LL.B. in 1897; married Mary Elsie Boynthon, April 18, 1900; two children. Began career as a practicing barrister, 1897; made King's Counsel, 1916. Served in the South Australia Assembly, 1912-15 and 1918-21; Attorney General and Minister of Education, 1915. Judge, Supreme Court of South Australia, since 1921, and has served as Acting Chief Justice. Created Knight Bachelor. Residence: 200 East Terrace. Office: Supreme Court of South Australia, Adelaide, South Australia, Australia.

PARSONS, Sir JOHN (HERBERT), Kt., C.B.E., British Ophthalmologist; born 1868; received M.B., B.Sc., hon. D.Sc. (Bristol), and hon. LL.D. (Edinburgh) degrees. Consulting Ophthalmic Surgeon, University College Hospital. Consulting Surgeon, Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital. Fellow, Royal Society (Member of Council, 1926-27, 1942-43; Vice-Pres., 1941-42). Author of numerous publications, especially on ophthalmology. Address: Roughstones, Far Headingley, Leeds 6, England.

PARSONS, JOSEPH LESTER, American Insurance Executive; born Sept. 20, 1871, Montclair, N. J.; son of George S. and Alice M. (Brigham) Parsons; married; three children. Pres. and Director, Crum & Forster, since 1931. Pres. and Director: North River Insurance Co.; United States Fire Insurance Co.; Westchester Fire Insurance Co.; International Insurance Co.; Crum & Forster Securities Corp.; The Hutchins Investing Corp. Vice-Pres. and Director: Hutchins Securities Co.; 110 William Street Corp. Director: Southern Fire Insurance Co.; Sanborn Map Company; Warren Foundry & Pipe Co. Residence: 810 Fifth Ave. Office: 110 William St., New York, N. Y.

PARSONS, LLOYD HOLMAN, American Oil Painter; born Feb. 2, 1893, Montreal, Canada; son of Allan and Maude (Holman) Parsons; educated at McGill Univ., B.Arch. 1916; Art Students League, under Kenneth Miller; married Audrey Buller, 1929; two daughters. Exhibited at Ferargil Galleries, 1938; later at Carnegie, Whitney Museums, Natl. Gallery, Corcoran Art Gallery, Chicago Inst., and Pennsylvania Acad. Represented in Whitney Museum. Lieut., R.A.F., 1918; wounded. Residence: Little Compton, R. I. Office: Ferargil Galleries, 63 E. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

PARSONS, LOUELLA, American Writer. Motion Picture Editor, International News Service. Writes daily motion picture column for many newspapers. Conducts weekly radio program over American Broadcasting System. Author: The Gay Illiterate, 1944. Address: 619 N. Maple Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif.

PARSONS, M. H., British Banker. Held various positions with Bank of England for nineteen years, including Assistant Chief Cashier. Great Britain's Alternate on Board of Executive Directors, 1946-47. Director of Operations, International Monetary Fund, Washington, D. C., 1947—. Address: International Monetary Fund, Washington, D. C.

PARSONS, Rt. Rev. RICHARD GODFREY, Bishop of Hereford, England; born Nov. 12, 1882, Pendleton, Eng.; son of William and Bertha (Best) Parsons; educated at Durham School; Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1905, M.A. 1908, B.D., D.D. 1924; married Dorothy G. Streeter, 1912; two sons. Curate, Hampstead, London, 1907. Fellow and Chaplain, University College, Oxford, 1907-11; Principal, Wells Theological College, 1911-16; Rector, Birch, Manchester, 1919-31. Lecturer on New Testament, Manchester University, 1929-32; Dean, Faculty of Theology until 1932. Sub-Dean, Manchester Cathedral, 1931-32; Bishop of Middleton, 1927-32. Bishop of Southwark, 1932-41; Bishop of Hereford, since 1941. Member, House of Lords, since 1940; Honorary Fellow, University College, Oxford, 1942; Hon. D.D., Prague, 1946. During First World War, Chaplain to the Armed Forces, 1916-17. Residence: The Palace, Hereford, England.

PARSONS, Dr. TALCOTT, American Sociologist; born Dec. 13, 1902, Colorado Springs, Colo.; son of Edward S. and Mary A. (Ingersoll) Parsons; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1924; Heidelberg Univ., Ph.D. 1927; at London School of Economics, 1924-25; married Helen B. Walker, Apr. 30, 1927; three children. Instructor at Amherst College, 1926-27; Instructor of Economics, Harvard Univ., 1927-31; Instructor of Sociology, 1931-36; Asst. Prof. of Sociology, 1936-39; Assoc. Prof., 1939-44; Prof. of Sociology, since 1944. Member: Amer. Sociological Soc.; Eastern Sociological Soc. (Pres. 1941-42); Sociological Research Assn.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Author: Structure of Social Action, 1937, and of various articles in Professional Journals. Address: Emerson Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

PARSONS, Rev. WILFRID, Jesuit Priest; born in Philadelphia, Pa., Mar. 17, 1887; son of Paul J. and Alice C. (Avery) Parsons; educated at St. Joseph's College; Woodstock College, Md., A.B. 1907, A.M. 1908, S.T.D. 1919; Louvain University, Ph.D. 1910; Gregorian University, Rome, Italy, 1921; St. Joseph's College, Litt.D. 1929; St. Francis College, Litt.D. 1934. Professor of Dogmatic Theology, Woodstock College, 1922; Editor, "America," Catholic weekly, 1925-36. Professor of Political Science, Director of Libraries and Archivist of Georgetown University, 1936-40; Dean, Graduate School, 1938-40. Prof. of Political Science, Catholic Univ., 1940—. Author: The Pope and Italy; God and Governments; Early Catholic Americana; Mexican Martyrdom; Which Way Democracy; The Church and the State. Address: 3303 10th St., N.E., Washington 17, D. C.

PARSONS - SMITH, Dr. BASIL THOMAS, British Consulting Cardiologist; born Aug. 30, 1882, Croydon, England; son of Samuel and Elizabeth Anne (Strubb-Irrdell) Parsons-Smith; educated at London Univ.; M.R.C.S. Eng., L.R.C.P. London, 1907; M.B., B.S. London, 1908; M.D., London, 1909; M.R.C.P., London, 1920; F.R.C.P., London, 1929; married Marguerite Ida Burnett, Apr. 9, 1910; two children. Medical Officer in charge of Red Cross Convalescent Home for Officers, 1915-16; commissioned to Royal Army Medical Corps, 1916; Medical Officer in charge of Artillery Training School, Aldershot, 1916; attached to Field Ambulance, France, 1917; Medical Officer, Gloucester Regiment, France, 1917; Heart Specialist, B.E.F. Convalescent Depot, France, 1917-18; Heart Specialist, Military Hospital, Colchester, 1918-19; Heart Specialist, Ministry of Pensions, 1919; Asst. Physician, National Heart Hospital, London, 1920; Physician, National Heart Hospital and Dean of Medical School. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Medicine, London (Ex-Pres. of Clinical Section); Medical Soc. of London; Hunterian Soc.; Member, Cardiac Soc. of Great Britain and Ireland, etc. Author: Intermittent Pulse, 1914; Cardiac Failure (Hunterian Soc. Oration), 1934; Cardiac Failure (St. Cyres Lecture), 1936. Address: 23 Harley St., London, W.1, England.

PARTABGARH, His Highness Maharawat Sir RAM SINGHJI Bahadur K.C.S.I., born 1908. In 1929 he became Maharaja of Partabgarh. His Highness receives a salute of 15 guns. Address: Partabgarh, India.

PARTCH, Dr. C(LARENCE) E(LMER), American Educator; born Mar. 12, 1884, Rock Rapids, Ia.; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S. in M.E., 1909; Harvard, Ed.M. 1925, Ed.D. 1926. High School teacher, Des Moines, 1909-18; Prof. of Education, Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, Maryville, 1922-24. Instructor in Education, Graduate School of Education, Harvard, 1925-26. Assoc. Prof. of Education, Rutgers Univ., 1926; Dean, School of Education since 1927; also Dir., Summer Session. Author: Information for Prospective College Students, 1926 (revised 1929 and 1935); Case Studies in Educational and Vocational Guidance (with others), 1926; Cases in the Administration of Guidance (with others), 1929; Work Guide for the Study of Occupations (with Harold P. Thomas), 1936. Address: Rutgers Univ., New Brunswick, N. J.

PARTEN, JUBAL RICHARD, American Petroleum Executive; born Feb. 16, 1896, Madisonville, Tex.; son of Wayne Lafayette and Ella May (Brooks) Parten; educated at Univ. of Texas, 1913-17; married Patsy Edwards Puterbaugh. Entered oil business, 1919, at Shreveport, La. Participated in organization of Woodley Petroleum Co., 1922, serving as Secy.-Treas. until 1927; Vice-Pres. and General Mgr. until 1928; President since 1928. Moved to Houston, Tex., 1933; took part in organization of Premier Oil Refining Co. of Texas, 1935, Chairman of Board since. Also Director of Woodley Petroleum Company, Houston, Tex.; Premier Oil Refining Co. of Texas, Longview, Tex.; Baird Refining Company, Baird, Tex. and Octane Oil Refining Company, Baird, Tex. Director and Chairman of Board, Federal Reserve Bank, Dallas, 1946-47. Director, Transportation Division, Petroleum Administration for War, 1942-43; Member, Tanker Control Board, 1941-42; Member, Board of Regents, University of Texas, 1935-41, and Chairman of Board, 1939-41; Member of Development Board since 1941. Member of American Petroleum Institute; Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association; Independent Petroleum Association of Texas (President 1931-34); Member, Natl. Petroleum Council, 1946-47. Major, Field Artillery, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Residence: Lamar Hotel. Office: 1413 Second National Bank Bldg., Houston, Tex.

PARTINGTON, WILFRED, British Author and Journalist; born Nov. 4, 1888, Ludlow, England; son of George and Mary U. (Morris) Partington; educated at Ludlow Grammar School, and privately; married (1st), 1919; (2nd) Clara Buckley, 1947; one daughter by first marriage. Journalist, Birmingham and London, 1907-12; Asst. Editor, The Bombay Gazette, 1912-14; in Army Service, World War I, 1914-15 and 1917-18. Editor, The Bookman's Journal, 1919-31; wrote rare book section, American Bookman, 1931-33; in secret war service, World War II, 1939-42. Author: Echoes of the Eighties, 1921; Smoke Rings and Roundelays, 1924; The Private Letter Books of Sir Walter Scott, 1930; Sir Walter's Post Bag, 1932; The Waverley Pageant, 1932; Famous Stories of Five Centuries (with Hugh Walpole), 1934; The Identity of Mr. Slum, 1937; Forging Ahead, 1939; Thomas J. Wise in the Original Cloth, 1947. Edited classical novels. Address: 12 Denmark Ave., Wimbledon, London, S.W. 19, England.

PARTLOW, WILLIAM DEMPSEY, M.D., American Psychiatrist; born Feb. 4, 1877, Ashville, Ala.; son of David A. and Louisa Modena (Beason) Partlow; English ancestors fought in the American Revolution; educated at University of Alabama, M.D. 1901, LL.D. 1921; married Margaret Nixon, Apr. 26, 1905; four children. Interne, Bryce Hospital, 1901-02; Asst. Physician until 1908, and Asst. Superintendent of the hospital unit until 1919. Supt. of The Alabama State Hosps. and of The Partlow State School for Mental Deficients, 1919—. Director, Bankers Fire & Insurance Co., Birmingham, Ala. Pres. of the Alabama State Medical Assn., 1919, and of the Southern Psychiatric Association, 1937. Residence: P. O. Box 932. Address: The Bryce Hospital, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

PARTRIDGE, ALBERT GERRY, American Industrialist; born Aug. 25, 1880, Jamestown, N. Y.; son of Elbridge Gerry and Althea (Merrill) Partridge; educated at Jamestown public and high schools; married Edith Harpham, Aug. 16, 1904 (deceased); three children. Began career with Diamond Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, 1899; Vice-Pres. and Sales Manager, Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., 1905-20; Mgr., Western Div., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. (Akron), 1920-28; Managing Dir. and Dir., British Div., Wolverhampton, England, 1928-35; Dir. and Vice-Pres., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Ltd. (New Toronto), 1935; President, 1936—. Pres. and Dir.: Goodyear Improvement Co., Ltd.; Canadian Synthetic Rubber Ltd. (Toronto); Goodyear Cotton Co., St. Hyacinthe, Quebec. Dir., North American Life Assurance Co. Pres., Ontario Safety League, 1937-47; Dir. and Ex-Pres., Rubber Assn. of Canada. Vice-Chmn., Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Residence: No. 1 Old Forest Hill Rd., Forest Hill Village. Office: Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

PARTRIDGE, (EDWARD) BELLAMY, American Author; born in Phelps, N. Y.; son of Samuel Selden and Frances (Bellamy) Partridge; educated at Norwalk Prep. School; Union Univ., LL.B. 1901; Hobart College, Litt.D. 1940; married Helen Lawrence Davis, Oct. 22, 1928; two children. Admitted to N. Y. Bar, 1901, later to U. S. District Court, and to practice in California; War Correspondent, Western Front, 1918; Member, Press Delegation with Pres. Wilson in England, Italy, Belgium, France, and Peace Conf., Versailles, 1919; Special Correspondent, United Press, 1920; Editorial Staff, Sunset Magazine, 1921; Editorial Staff, Brentano's, N. Y., 1923-24; Editor, Brentano's Book Chat, 1925-29; literary critic, N. Y. World, Herald Tribune, Saturday Revue of Literature, 1930; Editor, Arcadia House Pub., 1934-36. Member: Authors' League of America; The Dramatists' Guild; Authors' Guild; Screen Writers' Guild. Author; Sube Cane (novel), 1917; Cousins (novel), 1925; Amundensen—The Splendid Norseman (biog.), 1929; A Pretty Pickle (novel), 1930; Sir Billy Howe (biog.), 1932; (with Alice Cowan) Miss Willie Bird (radio serial broadcast by N.B.C., 1933); Pure and Simple (novel), 1934; Long Night (novel under nom de plume Thomas Bailey), 1935; The Roosevelt Family in America (biog.), 1936; Horse and Buggy (novel), 1937; Get A Horse (novel), 1937; Country Lawyer (biog.), 1939; Big Family (biog.), 1943; January Thaw (novel), 1945; dramatized Broadway production, same title, 1946; (with Otto Bettman) As We Were (Hist.), 1946. Address: Silver Hill Road (Easton), Bridgeport (RFD No. 1), Connecticut.

PARTRIDGE, ERIC HONEYWOOD, British Philologist; born Feb. 6, 1894, Waimata Valley, Gisborne, New Zealand; son of John and Ethel (Norris) Partridge; educated at Queensland Univ., B.A. 1921, M.A. 1923; Oxford, B.Litt. 1923; married Agnes Dora Vye-Parminter, Dec. 24, 1925; one child. School Teacher, 1910-14, 1925; Univ. Lecturer, Manchester, London, 1925-27; Publisher, 1927-31. Leverhulme Research Fellow, 1936-38. Founder and Managing Director, Scholartis Press, 1927-31. Author: 18th Century English Romantic Poetry, 1924; The French Romantics'

Knowledge of English Literature, 1924; A Book of English Prose (1700-1914), 1926; Three Men's War (with R. H. Mottram and J. Easton), 1929; Songs and Slang of the British Soldier (with J. Brophy), 1930; Grovee's Classical Dictionary of the Vulgar Tongue (with notes and biography), 1931; Slang: A History and A Study, 1933; Words, Words, Words! (essays and studies), 1933; Name This Child (a dictionary of given names), 1936; A Dictionary of Slang (16th to 20th Centuries), 1937; The World of Words, 1938; Precis Writing, 1939; A Dictionary of Clichés, 1940; A New Testament Word-Book, 1940; Dictionary of Abbreviations, 1943; A Dictionary of R.A.F. Slang, 1945; Journey to the Edge of Morning, 1946; Usage and Abusage: A Guide to Good English, 1947. Address: c/o Messrs. George Routledge & Sons, Ltd., 68-74 Carter Lane, London, England.

PARTRIDGE, Prof. ROI, American Etcher, Teacher and Photographer; born Oct. 14, 1888, Centralia, Washington; son of Archibald Ebeneezer and Florence (George) Partridge; educated at Natl. Acad. of Design Schools, N. Y.; travel and study in Europe; married May Ellen Fisher, July 29, 1941; three sons by a former marriage. Executed 160 etched plates to date, and participated in group exhibitions of prints throughout the U. S. and Europe since 1911. Now represented in collections of the Library of Congress, National Fine Arts Collection, Wells College, Brooklyn Museum, Haggin Memorial Museum, Crocker Art Gallery, Print Rooms of New York Public Library and California State Library, De Young Museum, Chicago Art Inst., Worcester Museum, San Francisco Museum of Art, Museum of Modern Art, Toledo Museum, Milwaukee Art Gallery, Los Angeles Museum, Art Inst. of Omaha, Acad. of Fine Arts of Honolulu, Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego, etc. Instructor in Arts, 1920-23; Prof. of Arts, Mills College, since 1923. Assoc. Member, Natl. Acad. of Design. Member, Soc. of Amer. Etchers, etc. Awards: Logan Medal, Chicago Art Inst.; Bijur Prize, Brooklyn Soc. of Etchers; Nahl Prize, California Soc. of Etchers; O'Melveney Prize, Buma Prize, Gold Medal, Print Makers Soc. of California; Purchase Prize, Northwest Print Makers; Pennell Purchase Prize, Library of Congress, 1943. Address: Mills College, Oakland, Calif.

PARVOPASSU, Dr. CARLO, Italian Engineer; born Jan. 13, 1881, Naples, Italy; son of Dr. Ing. Celso and Matilde (Villavecchia) Parvopassu; educated at Classical Lyceum, Ancona (diploma, 1898); Faculty of Sciences, Univ. of Rome (diploma 1900); Faculty of Engineering, Univ. of Rome (Doctor of Civil Engineering), 1904. Asst. to Prof. of Applied Mechanics on Construction and Theory of Bridges, Univ. of Rome, 1904-10; Privatdocent of Applied Mechanics on Construction, 1910; Extraord. Prof. of Applied Mechanics on Construction and Machinery and Director of Experiment Laboratory, Univ. of Padua, 1910-14; Ordinary Prof. of Applied Mechanics on Construction and Machinery, Faculty of Engineering, Univ. of Padua, since 1914; Director, Inst. of Applied Mechanics and of Experimental Laboratory for Testing of Materials for Construction, Director of Engineering School, 1925-29; Dean of Engineering Faculty, 1943-45. Director, periodical "Annali della R. Scuola di Ingegneria di Padova," 1925-29; Technical Consultant, Community of Rome (construction of Risorgimento bridge over the Tiber), 1909-14; to Community of Padua (construction of aqueduct), 1922-24. Member: Natl. Council for Research, Rome; Council, Italian Assn. for Study of Materials; Internatl. Assn. for Tests of Materials. Delegate of Italian Govt. to 5th Internatl. Congress on Testing Materials, New York and Washington, 1912. Created Commander, Italian Crown Order, 1922; received Cross of Merit, World War I; Inter-allied Victory Medal. Author of about sixty publications on bridge structures, general theory of machinery and of 14 volumes of Lessons in Applied Mechanics, 1910-32. Lieut. Col., Italian Army Artillery (Reserve), 1915 and 1916. Address: Faculty of Engineering, University of Padua, Padua, Italy.

PASCAL, GABRIEL, British Film Producer and Director; born June 4, 1894; son of Giuseppe and Giovanna (Cidroni) Pascal; married Valerie Jakabbfy, Sept. 11, 1947. Studied National Economy; Cadet, Hungarian Cavalry Regiment; Actor (juvenile parts), Imperial Theatre, Vienna, two years; retired from regiment with rank of Captain after World War I. Started career as picture producer and director in Italy; organized own company; major success in Italy was "Popoli Morituri"; engaged as producer in all European countries. Produced for UFA, Berlin, the motion picture "Frederica" (with Mady Christians); made several small pictures in England. Won world-wide fame through "Pygmalion," 1937; followed by "Major Barbara" and "Caesar and Cleopatra." Engaged on preparation for "Androcles and the Lion," and "St. Joan" (both to be produced in Italy); and "Devil's Disciple" to be produced in Hollywood. Address: Mumfords Farm, Gerrards Cross, Chalfont St. Peter, Bucks., England.

PASCAL, Prof. PAUL, French Chemist; born July 4, 1880, St. Pol-sur-Ternoise, France; son of Alfred and Marie (Détare) Pascal; educated at Lyceum Condorcet, Paris; Lyceum, Marseille; Superior Normal School, 1902-05; married Laurence Couvreur, Aug. 1, 1907; one son. Prof., Lyceum of Douai, 1905; Lecturer, Faculty of Sciences, Lille, 1909; Prof. of Industrial Chemistry, 1920-28. Prof. of Industrial Chemistry, Sorbonne, Paris, 1928; Prof. of Mineral Chemistry, 1929; Prof. of General Chemistry since 1938. Pres.: Scientific Com. of Powders and Explosives; Commission of Explosive Materiel. Member: French Chemical Soc.; French Physical Soc.; Soc. of Physical Chemistry; Acad. of Sciences (Chemical Section). Officer, Legion of Honor. Author: Traité de Chimie industrielle; Traité des Poudres et explosifs; Traité de Chimie minérale. Address: Sorbonne, 1 rue Victor Cousin, Paris V, France. Ecole Centrale des Arts et Manufactures, Paris, France.

PASCAL, Prof. ROY, British University Professor; born Feb. 28, 1904, Birmingham, England; son of C. S. and Mary (Edmonds) Pascal; educated at Pembroke College, Cambridge, B.A. 1927, M.A. 1930; Univs. of Berlin and Munich, 1927-28; married Feiga Polianovskaya, 1931; two daughters. Lecturer, Univ. of Cambridge, 1928. Tiarks Research Scholarship at Cambridge, 1927-28; Fellow of Pembroke College, Cambridge, 1929-34 and 1936-39; Lecturer in German, Cambridge, 1933-39. Prof. of German, Univ. of Birmingham, since 1939. Senior Treas., Natl. Union of Students, since 1942. Executive Member, Assn. of Univ. Teachers (Pres. 1944-45); Com. Member, Workers Educational Assn., West Midlands. Member: English Goethe Soc.; Modern Humanities Research Assn. Author: Martin Luther, 1933; The Nazi Dictatorship, 1934; Shakespeare in Germany, 1937; The German Ideology, 1938. Contribution to The German Mind and Outlook, 1944; The Growth of Modern Germany, 1946. Address: University of Birmingham, Birmingham, England.

PASCHEFF, Dr. CONSTANTIN, Bulgarian Ophthalmologist; born Mar. 1873,

Sliven, Bulgaria; son of Michail J. and J. (Dragoitchevva) Pascheff; educated at Robert College, Constantinople, B.A.; Univs. of Montpellier, Lyons and Paris (M.D.); specialized in ophthalmology (Paris, Berlin, London); married Fotina Opotsky, Apr. 28, 1899; two daughters. Assistant, Ophthalmic Section, Alexander's Hosp., Sofia, 1899; Asst., Royal Ophthalmic Hosp., London; Ophthalmic Surgeon, Military Hosp., World War I; Prof. of Ophthalmology and Director of University Eye Clinic, Sofia, since 1919; Dean of Medical Faculty, 1923-24. Pres.: Assn. for Social Care; Ophthalmological Soc.; Soc. for Protection of the Blind. Member, French, German and Oxford (England) Ophthalmological Socs. Hon. Member: Medical Soc. of Budapest; Hngarian Dermatological Soc.; Ophthalmological Soc. of Poland. Member: Italian Acad. (Palermo); German Acad. and Bulgarian Acad. of Science, etc. Author: Hygiene of the Eye, 1905; Les lésions de l'appareil visuel dans les guerres balcaniques, 1924; General Ophthalmology, 1925, 1946; Special Ophthalmology, 1929 and 1946; Synthetic Ophthalmology, 1937, 1946; Social Ophthalmology, 1942; The Chronic Hyperplasia of the conjunctiva, 1930; The Problems of Blindness, 1932, also numerous scientific reports. Residence: Rakowsky No. 171. Office: University of Sofia, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PASHKOVSKY, His Excellency THEOPHILUS NICHOLAS, Archbishop and Metropolitan, Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church of No. America; born Feb. 19, 1874, Kiev, Russia; son of Nicholas and Natalie (Vlosoff) Pashkovsky; educated at Theological Seminary of Kiev, 1894; Nashotah Episcopal Seminary, D.D. 1940; married Elena A. Dabovich, 1897; four children. Appointed for service in America, 1895; Assistant Pastor at Russian Orthodox Church, Jackson, Amador County, Calif. Transferred to San Francisco, 1897; ordained Priest, 1897; Archpriest, 1910; appointed to Warsaw Cathedral, Poland. Bishop of Chicago, 1922; consecrated 1922 and transferred to San Francisco Bishopric, 1931. In charge of Alaska, 1922-26; in charge of Canada Bishopric, 1931-33; elected Metropolitan of the Church in the United States and Canada, 1934. Address: 59 E. 2nd St., New York, N. Y.

PASQUEL CASANUEVA, JORGE, Mexican Capitalist; born Apr. 23, 1907, Veracruz, Mexico; son of Francisco Pasquel and Marta Casanueva de Pasquel; educated at private schools. Began as Asst. to father, 1923; now Pres., "Pasquel Hermanos, S.A.," Custom Agency. Cattleman, businessman and banker; owner, one of largest newspaper concerns in Mexico, "Novedades." Pres., Mexican Baseball League. Trustee, Newspaper Novedades. Awarded Medal, Dirección General de Deportes de México. Residence: Hamburgo 32. Office: Ramón Guzman No. 71, Mexico City, Mexico.

PASQUIER, Dr. JOSEPH JEAN, French Mathematician; born Sept. 17, 1886, St. Macaire-en-Mauges, France; son of Joseph and Marie (Chevalier) Pasquier; educated at College of Beaupréau, Litt.B. 1904; Seminary, Angers, Th.B., 1910; Faculty of Sciences, Angers, Lic. Sc. (mathematics), 1913; Sorbonne, Paris, Sc.D. (mathematics), 1932. Prof. of Mathematics, Externat St. Maurille; Prof. of General Mathematics, Faculty of Sciences, Catholic Univ. of the West, Angers; Prof. of Differential and Integral Calculus, Catholic Univ. of the West, since 1919; Dir., Free Catholic Education, Diocese of Angers and Vicar General of the diocese, 1935-45; Rector of the University, 1945—. Member: French Mathematical Society; Mathematical Circle, Palermo. Author: Recherches sur les équations s equals f(x, y, z, p, q) intégrables par la méthode de Darboux, 1932. Address: Place André Leroy, Angers, France.

PASRICHA, Lt. Col. CHRIANJI LAL, Indian Professor of Bacteriology and Pathology; born Sept. 9, 1897, Punjab, India; son of M. L. (C.I.E.) and Vero Pasricha; educated at Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge; St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London; married Sita Singh, July 11, 1928; four children. Resident in Midwifery, St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, 1920-21; Resident at Queen's Hospital, Birmingham, 1921-23. Joined Indian Medical Service, 1925; in military service until 1928. Engaged in bowel disease research, Calcutta School of Tropical Medicine, 1929-32; Prof., since 1933 and Director, since 1945. Supt., Carmichael Hospital for Tropical Diseases. Author of some 90 papers, mainly on bacteriology of cholera and certain other tropical diseases. Address: 245 Lower Circular Road, Calcutta, India.

PASSANT, ERNEST JAMES, British Historian, Librarian; born 1890; educated at Dean Close School, Cheltenham; Downing College, Cambridge (Scholar). Fellow and Lecturer in History, Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, 1919-46; University Lecturer in Faculty of History, 1926-46. Director of Research, Librarian, and Keeper of the Papers of Foreign Office, 1946—. Address: 3 Harrington House, Sussex St., Cambridge, England.

PASSEUR, STEVE, French Dramatic Author; born Sept. 24, 1899, Sedan, France; son of Philippe Morin and Janet Wilson; educated at Lyceum Buffon; Ecole Alsacienne, Paris; High School, Dublin, Ireland; married Renée Griotteray, Sept. 5, 1934. Author of more than thirty plays (many performed in Paris theatres as well as throughout the world, and translated into many languages), including: Suzanne; L'Acheteuse; Les Tricheurs; Une Vilaine Femme; Je vivrai un grand amour; La Visiteuse; La Traitresse. Secy. of Com., Soc. of Dramatic Authors and Composers. Address: 24 Avenue Malignon, Paris, France.

PASSOS, GABRIEL de REZENDE, Brazilian Attorney General; born March 17, 1901, Minas Geraes, Brazil; son of Ignacio Ferreira Passos and Laudelina de Rezende Passos; educated at Colegio Arnaldo of Belo Horizonte; Faculty of Law of Belo Horizonte; married Amelia Gomes, Dec. 25, 1925; two children. Began career as practicing attorney, 1925; practiced in Belo Horizonte; later attorney, educator and journalist. Made Chief of Office of Secretary of the Interior, State of Minas Geraes, 1930; Secretary to the President, 1933. Deputy for Minas to the Constituent Assembly, 1933-34; Secretary of the Interior and General Commander of the Public Forces of Minas, 1935; resigned posts in 1936; named Attorney General of the Republic, 1936. Member, Ordem dos Advegados Brasileiros; Instituto Inter-Aliado de Alta Cultura. Author: Codigo de Aguas; Direito no Mundo Atual, and various writings. Residence: Rua Baroneza de Poconé No. 122, Rio de Janeiro. Office: Supremo Tribunal Federal, Avenida Rio Branco, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

PASSUTH, Dr. LADISLAS, Hungarian Writer; born July 15, 1900, Budapest, Hungary; son of Francis de Passuth and Emanuela Eber; studied law, Univs. of Budapest and Szeged, J.D.; attended Oriental Acad., Budapest (diploma); married Lola de Békésy, June 25, 1936; one daughter. Began as essayist, Budapest, 1930. Contributor, several Hungarian reviews, including: Nouvelle Revue de Hongrie, Hungarian Quarterly, Pester Lloyd, Nyugat, Válasz, Vigilia, Magyar Nemzet, Világ, etc. Author of nine novels in Hungarian (two translated into Italian: La Rosa d'oro, and I sette Quadri; one translated into Spanish: El Dios de la Lluvia llora sopra México); A volume of essays; three adaptations of historical subjects. Director of Studies, Central Corporation of Banking Companies in Budapest. Secy. General, Hungarian Pen Club. Hungarian Delegate to 18th Internatl. P.E.N. Club Congress at Stockholm, 1946; 9th Internatl. Congress, Zurich, 1947. Address: Rózsahegy ut. 1, Budapest II, Hungary.

PASTERNAK, BORIS LEONIDOVICH, Soviet Poet; born 1890, Russia; son of an artist; educated at Univ. of Moscow; graduated Marburg Univ. Published first books of poems, 1912. Early poetry ("Twin in the Clouds," 1914 and "Above the Barriers," 1917) was deeply intimate in motif. Later poems ("1905" published in 1925-26 and "Lieutenant Schmidt" published in 1926-27) portrayed events of 1905 Russian revolution. Translated Soviet Georgian poets "Georgian Lyrics," 1935. Most noteworthy prose is book of memories, "Protective Charter," 1931. Published three-volume set of poems, 1940. Address: c/o Soviet Writer Publishing House, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PASTERNAK, JOE, American Motion Picture Producer; born 1901, Szilágy-Somlyo, Hungary; son of Samuel and Rosa Pasternak; educated in public school, Szilágy-Somlyó. Asst. Camera Manager, Asst. Director, Paramount Studio, Long Island, N. Y., until 1926; Producer for Universal Pictures, Hollywood, Calif., and in Berlin, Vienna and Budapest. Produced many of Deanna Durbin's early pictures, including Three Smart Girls; One Hundred Men and a Girl; First Love, etc. Producer for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer of motion pictures: Anchors Aweigh; Music for Millions; Thrill of a Romance; Three Daring Daughters. Address: c/o Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, Culver City, Calif.

PASTINSKY, Rabbi NATHAN MAYER, Canadian Rabbi; born Mar. 15, 1887, Ksaverov, Wohlin, Russia; son of Mordechai Zalman and Bella (Kesselman) Pastinsky; studied in European Yeshivas, 1899-1906; married Freida Watkowitz, June 27, 1907; five children. Ordained, 1906 at Chernobel, Kiev, Russia. Rabbi: Congregation Woronkour, Pultawa, Russia, 1906; Congregation Chevrah Mishnias, Winnipeg, Man., Canada, 1912; Congregation Schara Tzedeck, Vancouver, B. C., since 1918. Director, Vancouver Talmud Torah; Member, Palestinian Educational Inst.; Hon. Director, Jewish Immigrant Aid Society (Hias) affiliated with Hias of America; Founder and Hon. Treas., Vancouver Achduth Co-operative Loan Assn. Hon. Member, Vancouver Administrative Council and External Welfare Federation; Member, B'nai B'rith; Past Pres., Vancouver Group, Mizrachi Organization; Member, Zionist Council. Founder, Pacific Glucose Refinery Ltd. Served in Russian Army, 1908-10. Address: 846 West King Edward Ave., Vancouver, B. C., Canada.

PASTOR, Dr. ANTONIO RICARDO, Spanish Literary Historian; born Sept. 14, 1894, La Coruña, Spain; son of Don Ricardo Rodríguez Pastor; educated at Lauenburgische Gelehrtenschule, Germany; Univ. of Munich; Univ. of Madrid, Ph.D. 1920; Univ. of Oxford, Balliol College, B. Litt. 1920; Spanish Govt. Classical Scholar in England; married Marjorie Gabriela Webb Ground, Jan. 8, 1927; two children. Taylorian Lecturer, Oxford Univ., 1920; Cervantes Reader and Head of Dept. of Spanish Studies, Univ. of London, King's College, 1921; Cervantes Prof. and Head of Dept. of Spanish Studies, 1930-45. Vice-Pres., Anglo-Spanish Soc., London. Corresponding Member, Spanish Royal Acad. of History and Hispanic Soc. of Amer. Founder, Inst. of Spain in London. Decorated with Grand Cross, Order of Republic, Spain, 1934; made Officier de la Légion d'Honneur, 1935; Knight Commander, Order of Isabella the Catholic, Spain, 1945. Author: Un Embajador de España en la escena inglesa, 1925; Letter of the Marquis of Santillana to Don Peter, Constable of Portugal (with Prof. E. Prestage), 1927; Contemporary Spanish Literature, 1928; The Idea of Robinson Crusoe, 1929; Aspects of the Spanish Renaissance, 1932. Contributor to Encyclopaedia Britannica, etc. Gave annual courses of lectures at Institut d'Etudes Hispaniques of Univ. of Paris, 1929-39. Residence: Serrano 107, Madrid, Spain. Address: The Athenaeum Club, Pall Mall, London, S.W. 1, England.

PASTORE, Hon. JOHN O., American Governor; born March 17, 1907, Providence, R. I.; son of Michele and Erminia (Asprinio) Pastore; educated at Classical High School, Providence, R. I. (cum laude), 1925; Northeastern Univ., LL.B. 1931; married Elena Elizabeth Caito, July 12, 1941; two children. Admitted to Rhode Island Bar, 1932. Elected to House of Representatives, State of Rhode Island, 1934; re-elected, 1936; Chairman of House Corporations Com.; Fifth Assistant Attorney General, 1937-38; Member, Providence (R. I.) Charter Revision Commission, 1939-40; Asst. Attorney General, in charge of criminal calendar, 1940-44; elected Lieut.-Governor of State of Rhode Island, Nov. 7, 1944; took oath of office as Gov. of Rhode Island upon resignation of J. Howard McGrath, who was appointed Solicitor General of the United States, 1945; elected Governor of State of Rhode Island, Nov. 5, 1946. Director, Mortgage Guarantee & Title Company, Providence, R. I. Residence: 114 Elmdale Ave. Office: State House, Providence, R. I.

PASTORIZA, ANDRÉS, Dominican Statesman; born in Santiago de los Caballeros, D. R., Apr. 24, 1887; son of Tomás and Teresa (Valverde) Pastoriza; educated at Peekskill (N. Y.) Military Academy, 1901-04; Peirce School of Business Administration, Philadelphia, 1905; married Matilde Espaillat, 1911; two sons and a daughter. Engaged in commercial enterprises until 1924; Cabinet Member in Dominican Republic, 1924; Minister of Public Works and Communications, 1930; resumed commercial enterprises, 1931-35. Minister of Agriculture and Labor, 1935. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Dominican Republic to the U. S., 1935-40. Appointed Secretary of State for the Presidency of the Dominican Republic, 1941. Member of Cabinet, Member of Congress and President of Dominican Red Cross, 1942-45; E.E. and M.P. to the United Kingdom, 1945—. Former Pres., Aldermanic Council, Santiago; former member, Junta Columbiana and National Council of Education. Served as President, Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture of Santiago and of Santo Domingo. Delegate, United Nations, General Assembly, London, 1946; Alternate Delegate, U. N. General Assembly, New York, 1946. Address: 67 Eaton Pl., London, S.W. 1 England.

PASVOLSKY, Dr. LEO, American Economist; born Aug. 22, 1893, Pavlograd, Russia; naturalized citizen, 1911; educated at College of City of New York, A.B. 1916; Columbia Univ., graduate work, 1916-18; Univ. of Geneva, Switzerland, graduate work, 1932-33; Brookings Inst., Ph.D. 1936; married. Journalist and writer on international economic and financial relations, 1916-22; Press Correspondent, Paris Peace Conf., 1919, and Conf. on Limitation of Armament, Washington, D. C., 1921-22;

Research Economist Brookings Institute, 1922 —. Member, International Coms. of Economists and Businessmen set up by International Chamber of Commerce, 1932, 1933, 1935; Economist, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce 1934-35; Economic Analyst in Dept. of State, 1935; Special Asst. to Secy. of State, 1936; Asst. Exec. Secy., 34th Conf. of Inter-Parliamentary Union, The Hague, 1938-39. Special Asst. to Secy. of State, 1939; Adviser to American Delegation, 2nd Meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of American Republics, Havana, 1940; Chief, Div. of Special Research (in addition to duties as Special Asst. to Secy. of State), 1941-43; Technical Adviser, U. S. Delegation, United Nations Monetary and Financial Conf., Bretton Woods, N. H., 1944; Member, U. S. Group, Dumbarton Oaks Conversations on International Organization, Washington, D. C., 1944; Member, Secretary's Staff Com., 1944; Adviser to U. S. Delegation, Inter-American Conf. on Problems of War and Peace, Mexico City, 1945, and U. N. Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

PATCÉVITCH, IVA S. V., American Publisher; born Nov. 19, 1900, Tiflis, Russia; son of Sergei Voidato-Patcevitch and Nina Zisserman; educated at Russian Imperial Naval Acad., 1918; married Nadejda Gellibrand, April 15, 1933. Arrived in United States, 1923. Associated with Hemphill Noyes & Co., 1924-28. With The Condé Nast Publications, Inc., since 1929; Personal Asst. to the President and Budget Director until 1932; Managing Director Les Editions Condé Nast, S.A., Paris, France, until 1936; Executive Asst. to Pres. until 1942; Pres., since 1942. Elected Director of Condé Nast Publications, Inc., 1936, and a Member of the Executive Com., 1940. Liaison Officer between Russian and British troops in Persia, Turkistan and Caucasus, 1918-19. Residence: 450 E. 52nd St. Office: 420 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

PATCH, Dr. FRANK STEWART, Canadian Urologist; born Sept. 19, 1878, Kingston, Ont.; son of John S. and Margaret W. (Stewart) Patch; educated at McGill Univ., B.A. 1899, Shakespeare Medalist, M.D., C.M. 1903, Final Prizeman; M.D. (Hon.), Laval; married Jessie Muriel Ramsay, Apr. 27, 1911; three children. Medical Supt., Montreal General Hosp., 1909-11; Surgeon, Out-Patient Dept., 1911-13; Assoc. Urol., 1913-16; Urol., 1916-44. Member of Faculty of Medicine, McGill Univ., 1911-44; Asst. Demonstrator in Surgery, 1911-13; Demonstrator in Surgery, 1914-17; Lecturer in Urol., 1917-22; Clinical Prof. of Urol., 1922-38; Prof. of Urol., 1938-44; Chairman, Dept. of Surgery, 1938-42; formerly Member of Senate, McGill Univ. Pres.: Montreal Medico-Chirurgical Soc., 1936-37; Canadian Med. Assn., 1938-39. Pres., Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, 1943-45. Member: Assoc. Com. on Med. Research; Natl. Research Council of Canada; Editorial Bd., British Journal of Urol. Pres., Quebec Div., Canadian Med. Assn. Fellow, Royal College of Surgeons (Canada). Member: Amer. Urol. Assn.; Amer. Assn. of Genito-Urinary Surgeons; Clinical Soc. of Genito-Urinary Surgeons; Internatl. Soc. of Urol. Colonel, Canadian Army Med. Corps, World War I. Residence: 3156 Westmount Blvd. Office: 1225 Bishop St., Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

PATEL, Sardar VALLABHBHAI, Indian Statesman; born Oct. 31, 1875, Karamsad, near Nadiad; educated at Nadiad High School, matriculated; passed District Pleader's Examination; practiced at Godhra; called to Bar at Middle Temple; practiced law at Ahmedabad. Began as an associate of Gandhi; became Satyagraha Leader at Kaira, in Nagpur National Flag agitation and in Bardoli No-tax Campaign. Pres. of Ahmedabad Municipality, 1924-28; conducted Bardoli campaign; Pres., 46th Indian Natl. Congress, 1931; jailed many times for Civil Disobedience activities; Chmn., Congress Parliamentary Sub-Com., 1935-42; negotiated with Thakore Saheb of Rajkot on question of reforms in Govt. of the State, 1938-39. Member, Working Com., Indian Natl. Congress. Held Portfolio for Home Dept., Information and Broadcasting, All-Indian Council of Indian Cabinet, 1946. Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Home Affairs of India, 1948—. Address: Office of the Deputy Prime Minister, New Delhi, India.

PATENAUDE, Hon. ESIOFF LÉON, P.C., K.C., Canadian Statesman; born Feb. 12, 1875, Laprairie County, P.Q., Canada; son of Hilaire and Angèle (Trudeau) Patenaude; educated at Montreal College, B.A.; Laval Univ.; hon. LL.D. degrees, Laval, Montreal, McGill, Bishop's College Universities; married Georgiana Deniger, May 8, 1900; two children. Began career as advocate; now Member of Patenaude, Patenaude, Hébert & Traham, Montreal, P. Q. Member, Legislative Assembly for Laprairie, 1908; re-elected 1912. Minister of Inland Revenues, 1915. Elected to House of Commons for Hochelaga, 1915, then appointed to Bench; resigned portfolio, 1917 and appointed Secy. of State; resigned from Cabinet, 1917; elected to Quebec Legislature for Jacques-Cartier County, 1923; resigned when nominated as candidate for House of Commons; Minister of Justice with Meighen Administration, 1926; Lieut. Governor of Quebec, 1934-39. President: Board of Commissioners-Censors, Provincial Bank of Canada; Administration & Trust Co. Director: Canadian Mercantile Insurance Co.; Alliance Nationale; Crown Life Ins. Co.; Commerce Mutual Fire Ins. Co. Address: 159 Craig St., W., Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

PATERSON, ALBERT BARNETT, American Utilities Executive; born Jan. 20, 1883, Blantyre, Ont., Canada; son of Albert Craig and Zillah (Shepherdson) Paterson; educated at College of Commerce, Toronto; married Annie Evans Brown, Jan. 22, 1908; three children. Vice-Pres. and General Manager of Meridian Light & Railway Co., Meridian, Miss., 1906; associated with New Orleans Public Service Inc., since 1920, Pres., since 1930, also Dir. Director: United Gas Corp., New York City; Electric Power & Light Corp., New York City. Chmn. of Bd. and Dir., Hibernia National Bank, New Orleans, La. Member, Bd. of Administrators, Tulane Educational Fund; Member, Bd. of Liquidation of City Debt, New Orleans; Dist. Chmn. of Com. for Economic Development; Member, Bd. of Dept. of Commerce and Industry for State of Louisiana. Residence: 15 Audubon Place. Office: 317 Baronne St., New Orleans, La.

PATERSON, Sir CLIFFORD COPLAND, British Engineer; born Oct. 17, 1879; son of Frederick and Janette (May) Paterson; educated at Mill Hill and Faraday House; married Eleanor Daisy Ogden, May 31, 1906; three children—Clifford Graham, Edith Joan and Frederick Roy. Principal Assistant in the National Physical Laboratory at Teddington, 1901-18. Founded and has been Director of Research Laboratories of the General Electric Co., Ltd. since 1919; also a Director of company. President: Institution of Electrical Engineers, 1930-31; the International Illumination Commission, 1928-31; Institute of Physics, 1937-38; Junior Institution of Engineers, 1934-35; Electrical Research Assn., 1938-39; Illuminating Engineering Society, 1928. Chairman, Committee on Lighting of Buildings of the Scientific and Industrial Research Department; Chairman, Engineering Divisional Council of the British Standards Institution. Was member of Ministry of Transport Committee on Street Lighting and of the Home Office Committee on Factory Lighting. Served on the Board of Trade Committee on Ships' Navigation Lights. Master of Worshipful Company of Tallow Chandlers. Fellow, Royal Society. Member, Institution of Civil Engineers. Fellow, Institute of Physics. Member, Physical Society and the Faraday Soc. Awarded: O.B.E., 1918; D.Sc. (h.c.), Birmingham Univ., 1937; Knighted, 1946. Residence: Waldringfield, Green Lane, Oxhey, Herts. Office: General Electric Co., Ltd., Wembley, Middlesex, England.

PATERSON, Prof. DONALD GILDERSLEEVE, American Psychologist; born Jan. 18, 1892, Columbus, Ohio; son of Robert and Rosa (Gildersleeve) Paterson; educated at Olivet College, 1910-12; Ohio State Univ., A.B. 1914, A.M. 1916; married Margaret Young, June 22, 1920. Instr. in Psychology, Univ. of Kansas, 1916-17; Consulting Psychologist, The Scott Co., Philadelphia, Pa., 1919-21. Assoc. Prof. of Psychology, 1921-23; Prof. of Psychology, Univ. of Minnesota, since 1923. Served as Secy., Amer. Psychological Assn., Inc. Author: A Scale of Performance Tests (with R. Pintner), 1917; Preparation and Use of New Type Examinations, 1925; (with others) Minnesota Mechanical Ability Tests, 1930; (with others) The Measurement of Man, 1930; Physique and Intellect, 1930; Learning Tests with Deaf Children (with R. Pintner), 1916; Men, Women and Jobs (with John D. Darley, and the assistance of Richard M. Elliott), 1936. Assoc. Editor, Mental Measurement Monographs, 1925—, Johns Hopkins Univ. Advisory Editor, Natl. Vocational Guidance Magazine, 1929-33, Harvard Univ. Address: Dept. of Psychology, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

PATERSON, Dr. DONALD HUGH, British Pediatrician; born May 11, 1890, Portage la Prairie, Man., Canada; son of Hugh S. and Elli (Snider) Paterson; educated at Manitoba Univ., B.A. 1912; Edinburgh Univ., M.B., Ch.B. (Honours) 1915, M.D. 1928, F.R.C.P., London, 1929; married Dorothy Reed Blaikie, 1923; four sons. House Surgeon, House Physician, Medical Registrar and Pathologist, Hosp. for Sick Children, Great Ormond St., 1919-23; Physician, since 1923. Physician for Diseases of Children, Westminster Hosp., since 1924. Foundation Member and Hon. Treas., British Pediatric Assn.; Ex-Pres., Children's Section, Royal Soc. of Medicine; Hon. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Pediatrics. Member: Assn. of Physicians of Great Britain; Canadian Soc. for Study of Diseases in Children (Hon.). Author: Sick Children—Diagnosis and Treatment, 6th ed. 1947; Modern Methods of Feeding in Infancy and Childhood, 9th ed. 1947. Co-author, Garrod, Batten, Thursfield and Paterson's "Diseases of Children," 4th ed. 1947. Address: 27 Devonshire Pl., London, W. 1, England.

PATERSON, ELIZABETH DEANS, D.M.S.V., Australian Artist; born in Carlton, Victoria, Australia; daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth Leslie (Deans) Paterson; studied in Conservatorium of Music at the University of Melbourne; the Melba Conservatorium, and received diploma for Violin and the Theory of Music from the Musical Society of Victoria; married Kenneth F. Newman, June 21, 1923; one daughter. Began career as singer and violinist; later took up painting, specializing in children's portraits; traveled to Europe for stoudy and worked for various London papers and on poster production with Raphael Tuck, Odhams Press, etc. Author of a number of books and illustrated many others; executed posters for War Loans and the Australian Red Cross. Member: Victorian Artists Society; Society of Woman Painters. Illustrator of "The Enchanted Evening"; "Binkie the Bother"; "Betty's Babies"; "State Savings Bank Baby Book"; "Fernland Story Book"; "Up a Gumtree"; "Motherhood"; Everybody's Babies; The Golden Days. Address: 258 Beaconsfield Parade, Middle Park, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

PATERSON, ESTHER, Australian Artist; born in Carlton, Vict., Australia; daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth Leslie (Deans) Paterson; educated at Oberwyl, St. Kilda, National Art Gallery (Melbourne); also travelled in Europe for additional study; married George Hermon Gill, June 2, 1923. Miss Paterson began as artist at National Art Gallery, Melbourne; first work was published in Sydney Bulletin; connected with Bystander, Pearson's Odham's Press, London; portraits were purchased by Geelong Art Gallery and Armidale Teachers College, N.S.W.; has completed many naval portraits and posters for war loans. Member, Lady Colvin Auxiliary for Navy House; also Member of The Victorian Artists Society and The Society of Women Painters. Author of Aussie Girls; Schoolgirl's Diary. Address: 258 Beaconsfield Prde., Middle Park, Melbourne, Australia.

PATERSON, GEORGE McLEOD, British Naval Architect; born April 1, 1891, Cheltenham; son of Robert Ormiston and Annie Innes Steele (Esson) Paterson; educated at Cheltenham College, 1902-09; Pembroke College, Cambridge, 1909-12 (Mechanical Sciences Tripos); married Grace Emily Muriel O'Callaghan, June 1, 1916; one son. Apprentice, John Brown & Co. Ltd., Engineers and Shipbuilders, Slydebank, Scotland, 1912-14. Temporary Asst. Naval Constructor, Dept. of Director of Naval Construction, Admiralty, Whitehall, London (aircraft carrier design), 1914-19; Technical Asst., Naval Architects Dept., Cunard Steamship Co., 1919-24. Naval Architect, Cunard White Star Ltd., 1924—. Designed "Queen Mary," "Queen Elizabeth," "Caronia" (building). Member, Institution of Naval Architects. Awarded C.B.E. 1938. Residence: "Bemerton," Woolton, Liverpool, England. Office: Cunard Building, Liverpool, England.

PATERSON, GEORGE R., Canadian Embassy Official; born Nov. 26, 1898, Scarborough, Ont., Canada; son of Archibald and Mary (Chester) Paterson; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.S.A. 1924; Iowa State College, M.S. 1926; married Helen T. Kennedy, Sept. 12, 1923. Served overseas, World War I. County Agricultural Representative and Markets Specialist, Ontario Dept. of Agriculture, 1924-38. Trade Commissioner, Canadian Govt. Foreign Service, 1939; posted to London, 1939-43. Commercial Secretary, Canadian Embassy in field of food and agriculture, Washington, D. C., 1943—. Canadian Member, Inter-Allied Relief Com. and Chairman Livestock Com., 1942-43. Adviser to Canadian Delegation at Hot Springs Conf. and First UNRRA Conf., Atlantic City, 1943; Chairman, Agricultural Com. of UNRRA, 1944-45; attended UNRRA Conf., Montreal, as Representative of Combined Food Board, 1944; attended first Conf. of FAO in Quebec City, 1945; Adviser, Canadian Delegation to Preparatory Commission on World Food Bd. Proposals, Washington, D. C., 1946; Alternate Canadian Member, First FAO Council Meeting in Washington, D. C., 1947; Canadian Executive Officer, Combined Food Board, 1943-46; Canadian Member, Central Com., International Emergency Food Council, July 1946—. Residence: 1707 Columbia Road. Office:

Canadian Embassy, 1746 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

PATERSON, ISABEL, American Writer. Conducts weekly column "Turns with a Bookworm" in New York Herald Tribune Book Section. Author: The Road of the Gods, 1930; Never Ask the End, 1933; The Golden Vanity, 1934; If It Prove Fair Weather, 1940; The God of the Machine, 1943. Address: c/o New York Herald Tribune, 230 W. 41st St., New York, New York.

PATERSON, The Hon. NORMAN McLEOD, Canadian Senator; born Aug. 3, 1883, Portage la Prairie, Man., Canada, Aug. 3, 1883; son of H. S. and Ella Paterson; educated at Portage public schools; Wellesley School, Toronto; married Eleanor MacDonald, June 2, 1915; two sons and four daughters. Began with the Lake Manitoba Railway & Canal Co., 1897; later joined Great Northern Railway of Canada as telegrapher, resigning as Purchasing Agent in 1903. In grain business with father, 1903-08; organized, in 1909, N. M. Paterson & Co. Ltd., which controls and operates 109 grain elevators between Fort William and Saskatchewan. President: Paterson Steamships Ltd., owners of 33 lake freighters, Kaministiquia Lumber Co.; Western Engineering Service. President, Mount McKay Railway. Appointed to Canadian Senate for life, 1940. Address: Canadian Senate, Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

PATERSON, Hon. THOMAS, Australian Politician; born Nov. 20, 1882, Birmingham, England; son of George and Elizabeth Mitchell (Donald) Paterson; educated at King Edward VI Grammar School of Camp Still, Birmingham; Ayr Grammar School in Scotland; married Elsie Jane Tyrrell, Nov. 17, 1908; two children—George and Archibald. Began career, 1896, as a junior clerk, and in 1904-08 was Manager of Morton's Shoe Stores in Ayr and Lincoln, U.K.; moved to Romsey, Victoria, Australia, 1909, and purchased a mixed farming property. Elected Chief President, Victorian Farmers Union, 1922. Member, House of Representatives for Gippsland, 1922-43; retired on medical advice. Minister for Markets and Migration, 1926-28; for Markets and Transport, 1928-29, and for the Interior, 1934-37. Deputy Leader, Australian Country Party, 1929-37. Responsible for introduction of "Paterson Plan" for aid to dairy industry of Australia. Director, Phosphate Cooperative Co. of Australia, since 1938. Member, Empire Parliamentary Assn. Residence: 142 Bambra Rd., Caulfield, Melbourne, Australia.

PATIALA, Lt. Gen. His Highness Farzand-i-Khas Daulat-i-Inglishia Mansur-ul-Zaman Amir-ul-Umra Maharaja-dhiraj Raj Rajeshwar, Shri Maharaja-i-Rajgan Shri YADAVINDRA SINGHJI Mahendra Bahadur Yadu Vanshavatans Bhatti Kul Bhushan, G.B.E., C.I.E., LL.D., Ruler of Patiala; born 1913. Succeeded as ruler of Patiala, March 1938. Receives a salute of 17 guns. Leader of Phulkian Union, formed by Sikh States of Patiala, Kapurthala, Jind, Nabha, Faridkot, Malerkotla, Nalagarh and Kalsia, 1948—. Address: Patiala, India.

PATIJN, Dr. C. L., Dutch Economist. Member, Netherlands Delegation, United Nations General Assembly, Lake Success; Vice Chairman, Economic and Finance Committee of the U. N. General Assembly, Sept. 1947. Address: c/o Netherlands Delegation, United Nations, Lake Success, New York.

PATIJN, Dr. JACOB ADRIAAN NIKOLAAS, Dutch Statesman; born Feb. 1873, Rotterdam, Netherlands; son of J. G. and A. J. C. (Veeren) Patijn; educated at Univ. of Leiden, J.D.; married Jonkvrouwe E. W. M. de Brauw, Sept. 17, 1924. Attaché, Siamese Legation in Paris, 1898. Asst. Legal Adviser in Siam, 1900. Chief of a Municipal Dept., The Hague, The Netherlands, 1903-08; Official, Ministry of Agriculture, 1908-11. Burghomaster, City of Leeuwarden, 1911-18 and of City of The Hague, 1918-30. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in Rome, 1931-36, and in Brussels, 1936-37. Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1937-39. Director, Algemeene Friesche Levensverzekerings-M. ij en van de Groot-Noordhollandsche van 1845. Address: 35 Al. Gogel-weg, The Hague, Netherlands.

PATIL, LAXMANRAO MADHAVRAO, Indian Advocate; Minister, Government of Bombay; born June 16, 1907, Guha, Taluka Rahuri, Ahmednagar; son of Madhavrao Dadaji and Harnabai Madhavrao Patil; educated at Baroda, Fergusson and Deccan Colleges, B.A.; Law College, Poona, and Sykes Law College, Kolhapur, LL.B.; married Sushilabai, May 29, 1936; three children. Pleader at Ahmednagar, 1935. Took active part in youth movement, 1928-32; joined Civil Disobedience Movement, 1932; imprisoned for political activities. Practiced as pleader. Presided over Peasants' Conf. at Vita, Satara District, 1936. One of editors, "Sangha Shakti." Presided over District Congress Com., Ahmednagar. Elected member, Bombay Legislative Assembly, from Ahmednagar North General Rural Constituency; Minister, 1937-39; reelected member, Bombay Legislative Assembly, 1946; Minister, 1946—. Pres., Local Self-Govt. Inst., Bombay. Residence: "Keverne," Narayan Dabholkar Road. Malabar Hill. Office: Secretariat, Bombay, India.

PATIL, SADASHIV K., Indian Political Leader; born Aug. 14, 1900, Ratnagiri District, India; son of K. S. Patil; educated at Bombay Univ., London Univ., Univ. College, London; married Indira, 1918; six children. Began as journalist, 1927; served on editorial staff, Bombay Chronicle, five years; formerly special correspondent for several Indian newspapers, and Managing Director of Associated Printers and Advertisers Ltd., Bombay; Ex-Trustee of educational institutions in City of Bombay and of the Bombay Port Trust; Ex-Member, Government Rent Inquiry Committee and of Price Control Com.; Member, Legislative Assembly of Bombay, 1937-45. General Secy., Bombay Provincial Congress Com., 1930-46; Pres., 1946—. Member, Government Adult Education Com.; Member, Bombay Municipal Corp., since 1935; Leader of the Congress Party in the Municipal Corp. since 1940; Member, Constituent Assembly of India. Member: Cinema Advisory Com.; Home Guards Recruitment Com.; All India Congress Com. Publications: Several Congress articles issued since 1930, also books pertaining to Congress programmes and activities. Imprisoned seven times for serving cause of national freedom. Residence: Heera House, Sandhurst Road. Office: Congress House, V. J. Patel Road. Bombay, India.

PATIÑO, Mrs. ALBINA R., Bolivian Industrialist; married Simon I. Patiño (deceased Apr. 20, 1947); five children. Actively associated with husband in executive direction of Patiño Mines and Enterprises Consolidated, Inc., the largest tin producer in the world, also in its predecessor companies and other important business and philanthropic interests of the family. President and Director, Patiño Mines and Enterprises Consolidated, Inc., 1948—. Address: Patiño Mines and Enterprises Consolidated Inc., 20 Exchange Pl., New York, N. Y.

PATIÑO, MANUEL VIRGILIO, Panamanian Civil Engineer; born July 5, 1902, Antón, Republic of Panamá; son of Alfredo and Virginia (Samaniego) Patiño; educated at Instituto Nacional Panamá; Escuela de Agrimensura Panamá; Mass. Inst. of Technology, B.S. 1929, M.S. in C.E. 1930; married Blanche Sokoloski, June 1930; one child. Engineer of Public Works, Republic of Panama, 1930-31; Asst. Engineer, Dept. of Public Works, 1932-34; Engineerin charge of sewage and water work, Department of Health, 1935; Engineer in charge of anti-malarial work in Panama with cooperation of Rockefeller Foundation, 1936; Chief Engineer of Construction, Fourth Central American and Carribbean Olympic Games, 1937; Professor of Engineering, University of Panama, 1937; Superintendent of National Railways of Chiriquí, 1938-39; Minister of Health and Public Works, Republic of Panama, 1940-41. Civil Engineer and Contractor since 1942. Residence: 9a No. 119, San Francisco de la Caleta. Office: 12 Este No. 19, Panama, Republic of Panama.

PATIÑO, SIMÓN I., Bolivian Industrialist ("Tin King"); born June 1, 1862, Cochabamba, Bolivia; educated in public and private Bolivian schools; married; two sons and three daughters. Signed contract with owner of La Salvadora mine in Uncia Mountain, Bolivia to sell him, monthly, tin concentrates containing approximately two tons of fine tin, 1894; acquired half interest in mine property, 1895; obtained complete control of mine, 1897, expanding until he owned largest tin deposits in the world. Organized under laws of Delaware, Patiño Mines & Enterprises Consolidated (Inc.) (largest tin producer in world), 1924 (tin ores are smelted in England for use of United Nations). Patiño Mines and other companies operating in Bolivia under its administration account for 50% of Bolivia's tin output. Pres.: Patiño Mines & Enterprises Consolidated (Inc.); Bolivian Tin & Tungsten Mines Corp.; Consolidated Tin Smelters; General Tin Investments Ltd. Established Banco Mercantil. Encouraged cattle raising and breeding in Bolivia. Also established the Patiño Univ. Foundation. Provides free grade school education for thousands of workmen's children. Bolivian Minister to Spain, 1920-26; France, 1926-41. Awarded Grand Cross of Order of El Condor, and Grand Cross of Order of Military Merit, by Bolivian Govt., also Grand Cross of Order of Holy Sepulchre and Grand Cross of Order of Isabel la Católica, by Spanish King. Deceased April 20, 1947.

PATIÑO ARCA, WASHINGTON, Peruvian Writer; born 1912, Huancayo, Peru; son of Col. Armando Patiño and María Victoria Arca; educated at Colegio Anglo-Peruano; Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos, Law Faculty, 1942. Observer, Recreation Congress at Hamburg, Germany; Representative of Ministry of Public Education at the Olympic Games, Berlin; Member of Peruvian Olympic Committee, 1936; Secy., Delegation to Internatl. Labor Conf. and to League of Nations at Geneva, 1937-38; Chief of Propaganda, Censo Nacional de Población y Ocupación, 1939; Chief of Census Section, Dept. of Census, 1941; Office of Information, Publications and Bibliography, Natl. Statistic Office, 1942-43; Chief of Information Section, SCIPA (Servicio Cooperativo Inter-Americano de Producción de Alimentos). Editor, La Prensa, 1929-35; El Universal, 1935-37. Secy. and Alternate Delegate to United Nations Economic and Social Council, 1947. Address: Carlos Arrieta 821, Lima, Peru.

PATMAN, WRIGHT, Member of Congress of United States; born Aug. 6, 1883, near Hughes Springs, Cass County, Texas; educated at Cumberland University, LL.B. 1916; married Merle Connor, Feb. 14, 1919; three sons. Served as Member of Texas Legislature, four years; District Attorney, 5th Judicial District of Texas, five years. Elected to 71st and succeeding Congresses. Residence: Texarkana, Texas. Office: House Office Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PATNA STATE, Ruler of, Maharaja Rajendra NARAYAN SINGH DEO, born Mar. 31, 1912, Seraikella, India; son of Raja Aditya Pratap Singh Deo of Seraikella and adopted son of Maharaja Prithwiraj Singh Deo, Maharaja of Patna State and 32nd ruler of present dynasty; educated at Chiefs College; Mayo College, Ajmer, diploma (first in the 1st Div.), St. Columba's College, Patna Univ., Intermediate; married Kailash Kumari Devi, Apr. 24, 1932; one son—Yuvaraj Raj Singh Deo; four daughters. Succeeded to Gaddi, 1924 and invested with full ruling powers, 1933. Member of Chamber of Princes in his own right and takes keen interest in administration. Member of Council of Rulers, Eastern States, and Member of Standing Committee. Chairman of Board of Forestry and Agriculture of Eastern States and Member of Board of Control of Common High Court of Orissa and Chhattisgarh States. Member of General Council and Managing Committee of Rajkumar College, Raipur, and of Eastern States Post-War Development Committee. Enjoys hereditary title of Maharaja and a salute of 9 guns. Address: Balangir, Patna State, Eastern States Agency, India.

PATOCCHI, ALDO, Swiss Artist, Journalist; born July 22, 1907, Basle, Switzerland; son of Luigi and Elisa (Keller) Patocchi; educated at Gymnasium, Lugano; married Bice Chiesi, Feb. 7, 1931; three children. Xylographer since 1925; Illustrator for several publishing houses; Founder, Edizioni d'arte A.P., 1932; Manager, illustrated review "Illustrazione Ticinese," since 1934. Pres., Book Publishing House "Ghilda del Libro," Lugano, since 1944; Editor, monthly review, Ghilda del Libro. Pres., Tessin Section, Swiss Soc. of Painters, 1934-37; Magister Braidensis, Accademia Brera, Milan, since 1947. Awards: Gold Medal, Triennial arti decorative, Milan, 1930; hon. mention, 3rd Internatl. Exhibition of Lithography and Wood Engraving, Chicago, 1930; Award of Merit, Annual Bookplate Exhibition, Los Angeles, 1932; Hon. mention, 1st and 2nd Internatl. Exhibition of Wood Engravings, Warsaw, Poland, 1936; Grapha Prize, Zurich, 1936. Created wood engravings: Fremiti di selve, 1928; Calend' aprile 1930; 12 paesaggi in silografia, 1932; il Naturemorte in silografia, 1934; I 12 mesi nel Ticini, 1936; Figlie d'Eva, 1938; Ticino dei poveri, 1944; Fantaisies tessinoises, 1947. Address: Ruvigliana, Lugano, Tessin, Switzerland.

PATOCCHI, REMO, Swiss Painter; born Jan. 24, 1876, Bellinzona, Tessin, Switzerland; son of Michele and Annetta (Casati) Patocchi; attended drawing school at Bellinzona; married Asia Perea, 1910 (deceased). Specialized in landscapes (especially high mountains). Principal works include: Neve e sole, 1908 (National Exposition at Basle); Notte di Natale; Bacio di sole; Ritorna la neve; Cervino Ardente, 1922; Réveil du Mt. Blanc, 1927; La Gran Paradiso, 1928; Dégel en Haute Montagne, 1933; Avalanche; Chant du Printemps; Chant de la Vallée; Chant de la Montagne; Obergabelhorn; Dent Blanche; Miroir du Cervin; Zinalrothorn; Respir de glacier; Les Michabels, 1946, etc. Member: Club Alpin Suisse (Chairman of Ticino Section, fourteen years); Italian Alpine Club. Address: Corso Elvezia 4, Lugano, Switzerland.

PATOLICHEV, N. S., Soviet Political Leader. Advanced from alternate to full member of Central Committee of Communist Party, 1941; Secretary, Cheliabinsk Oblast Com. of Communist Party of U.S.S.R., 1942-46; Member, Presidium of Council for Collective Farm Affairs, 1946—; Secy., Central Com. of Communist Party, 1946—; Secy. of Agriculture, Central Com., Ukrainian Communist Party, 1947—. Address: Central Committee of Communist Party, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PATON, Prof. EVGENY OSCAROVICH, Soviet Engineer; born 1870, Nice; son of a Russian consul; educated at Polytechnical Inst., Dresden, and Inst. of Transport Engineering, St. Petersburg. Began lecturing at Kiev Polytechnical Inst., 1904. Built bridges across Ros at Korsun, and in Kiev; also erected viaducts. During World War I designed portable bridges and drew up projects for seven strategic bridges across Dnieper. Elected Member, Acad. of Sciences of Ukraine, 1929. Began research in field of electric welding at a Kiev plant during first five-year plan (laboratory has since developed into an institute of Ukraine Acad. of Sciences). Produced method of high-speed welding under a coating of flux, inventing electric welding apparatus, 1941; named Member, Council on Machine Building, 1940. Awarded: Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1940; title of Hero of Socialist Labor, 1943; Order of the Patriotic War, 1944. Vice-Pres., Acad. of Sciences of the Ukrainian S.S.R. Author of four-volume textbook work on construction of steel bridges, and 150 other works. Founder and Director, Kiev Electric Welding Inst., 1930—. Deputy to Supreme Soviet of U.S.S.R., 1946—. Address: Kiev Electric Welding Institute, Kiev, Ukrainian S.S.R.

PATON, Prof. GEORGE WHITECROSS, Australian Jurist; born August 16, 1902, Victoria; son of Frank H. L. and Clara (Heyer) Paton; educated at Scotch College; Univ. of Melbourne, and Oxford Univ.; B.A. 1926; M.A. 1928; B.A. 1928; B.C.L. 1929; married Alice Watson, July 11, 1931; three children. Victoria Rhodes Scholar, 1926; Asst. Lecturer at London School of Economics, 1931. Professor of Jurisprudence, University of Melbourne, since 1931. Australian Delegate to Assembly of the League of Nations, 1938; Dean of Faculty of Law at University of Melbourne since 1943. Author of numerous articles in legal periodicals. Residence: 7 Dunraven Ave., Toorak, Victoria, Australia. Office: University of Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

PATON, Prof. HERBERT JAMES, British Philosopher; born Mar. 30, 1887, Abernethy, Perthshire, Scotland; educated at Univ. of Glasgow, 1904-08 (M.A.); Balliol College, Oxford (Snell Exhibitioner and Newlands Scholar), B.A. (Oxon) 1911 (first class honors in Classical Moderations, 1909, and first class honors in Literae Human., 1911), M.A. (Oxon), 1914; studied at Leipzig and Tuebingen, 1912; D.Litt. (Oxon.); LL.D., Glasgow Univ. Fellow and Praelector in Classics and Philosophy, The Queen's College, Oxford, 1911-27. Dean, The Queen's College, 1917-22; Junior Proctor, University of Oxford, 1920-21; Laura Spelman Rockefeller Research Fellow, University of California, 1925-26; Professor of Logic and Rhetoric of the University of Glasgow, 1927-37; Dean of Faculty of Arts, 1935-37. Curator, Bodleian Library, Oxford, since 1938; Member of General Board of Faculties since 1943. White's Prof. of Moral Philosophy, Univ. of Oxford; Fellow, Corpus Christi College. Author: Poland at the Peace Conference; The Good Will; Kant's Metaphysics of Experience; The Categorical Imperative, etc. Address: 14 Merton St., Oxford, England.

PATON, Dr. RICHARD TOWNLEY, American Ophthalmologist; born Apr. 7, 1901, Baltimore, Md.; son of Stewart (M.D.) and Frances Margaret (Halsey) Paton; educated at Princeton Univ., B.S. 1925; Johns Hopkins Medical School, M.D. 1929; married Helen Meserve, Dec. 24, 1927; three children. Clinical Asst. at Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Clinic, 1933, advancing through various grades to Surgeon Director, 1942. Prof. of Ophthalmology, New York Medical College, 1940; Clinical Prof. of Ophthalmology, New York Univ. Medical College, and Director of Corneal Research Laboratory since 1944; Attending Ophthalmologist at Ruptured and Crippled Hospital; Vice-Pres. of Eye Bank for Sight Restoration, 1945. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: New York Acad. of Medicine; Amer. Acad. of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology; Amer. Med. Assn., etc. Author of a number of papers related to surgical and medical aspects of ophthalmology. Residence: 170 E. 79th St. Office: 927 Park Ave., New York 21, N. Y.

PATON, Prof. WILLIAM ANDREW, American Economist; born 1889. Prof. at Univ. of Michigan. Author: Principles of Accounting (with R. A. Stevenson), 1917; Exercises in Accounting, 1917; Principles of Accounting, 1918; Accounting, 1924; Corporate Profits as Shown by Audit Reports, 1935; Essentials of Accounting, 1938; An Introduction to Corporate Accounting Standards, 1940; Recent and Prospective Developments in Accounting Theory, 1940. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Address: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

PATORZHINSKY, IVAN SERGEJEVICH, Ukrainian Singer (Basso); born 1896, Svistunovo-petrovskoje, Ukraine; son of Sergej Artemovich and Ivanovna (Fidrova Praskovja) Patorzhinsky; educated in Seminary; Dnjepropetrovsk State Conservatory, under Prof. Miljutina, 1922; married Marpha Fominichna Mizinets, 1917; two daughters. Made debut as singer, 1919, appearing as Mephistopheles at Front Concert Group; Conductor, Ukrainian State Choir, 1919-25; Soloist, Kharkow and Odessa State Opera Houses, 1925-35; Kiev Ukrainian State Opera, 1935—. Roles include: Warjazhsay Josti in Sadko; Boris in Boris Gudunoff; Prince Galitsky in Prince Igor; Kochubej in Mazepa; Basilio in Barber of Seville, etc. Toured Yugoslavia, Canada and the U. S., 1946. Prof. of Voice, Kiev State Conservatory. Deputy to Supreme Soviet, Ukrainian S.S.R. Chmn., Ukrainian Theatrical Soc. Recipient, Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1936; Stalin Prize, 1942; two victory medals; Yugoslav Order of Brotherhood and Unity; Order of Lenin; Honoured Artist, Ukrainian S.S.R., 1930; People's Artist, Ukrainian S.S.R., 1936; People's Artist, U.S.S.R., 1944. Performed at front lines, hospitals, etc., during World War II. Residence: Pushkinskaja 21, Room 19. Office: State Theatre of Opera and Ballet, Wladimirskaja 50, Kiev, Ukrainian S.S.R.

PATRASCANU, Prof. LUCRETIU, Roumanian Political Leader. Active in Communist Party work many years. Minister of Justice of Rumania since 1946. Author of many publications on political and legal subjects. Address: Ministry of Justice, Bucharest, Rumania.

PATRI, Dr. ANGELO, American Author and Educator; born Nov. 26, 1877, Italy; son of Nicholas and Carmela (Conti) Patri; educated at College of City of New York, A.B., 1897; Columbia Univ., M.A., 1905; Tufts College, D.H.L., 1930; married Dorothy Caterson, 1910. Public school teacher, 1897-1907; Principal of Public School No. 4, Bronx, N. Y., 1907-13; Principal, Public School No. 45, the Paul Hoffman Junior High School, 1913. Author: Child Training; Talks to Mothers; Schools and Home; Problems of Childhood; The Questioning Child; A Schoolmaster of the Great City; What Have You to Give; Your Children in Wartime, 1943; (for children) Spirit of America; Pinocchio in Africa; Pinocchio in America; Adventures of Pinocchio (a translation from the original Italian); White Patch; "The Parents Councillor." Conducts column in The New York Post. Edited "The Junior High School Anthology." Address: c/o New York Post, 75 West St., New York, N. Y.

PATRICK, Hon. Lord, (William Donald Patrick), K.C., British Advocate; born 1899; educated at Glasgow High School; Glasgow University. Admitted to Faculty of Advocates, 1913; Dean, 1937-39. Senator of H. M. College of Justice in Scotland, 1939—. Represented United Kingdom at Allied Tribunal for the Trial of War Criminals, Tokyo, Japan, 1946. Address: 38 Great King St., Edinburgh, Scotland.

PATRICK, DUKE MOYER, American Lawyer; born July 3, 1900, Paragon, Ind.; son of Bruce T. and Kathryn (Moyer) Patrick; educated at Purdue Univ., B.S. 1921; Univ. of Michigan Law School, J.D. 1925; married Gwendolyn Patton, Oct. 26, 1928. With firm of Jones and Lairy, 1924-27; associate with Clyde H. Jones, 1927-30; Asst. General Counsel, Federal Radio Commn., 1930-32; General Counsel, 1932-33. Associated with Hogan and Hartson, 1933-37; partner of firm since 1937. On active duty as Lieut. Commander and Commander, U.S.N.R., in Office of Director of Naval Communications, Navy Dept., Washington, D. C., 1942-44. Member: Indiana State Bar Assn.; District of Columbia Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn.; Federal Communications Commn. Bar Assn. Pres., 1937-38). Address: 810 Colorado Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PATRICK, Dr. GEORGE THOMAS WHITE, American Philosopher; born Aug. 19, 1857, Boscawen, N. H.; son of John and Harriet (White) Patrick; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., Ph.D. 1888, Univ. of Iowa, B.A. 1878; Yale Univ., B.D. 1885; married Maud Lyall E., Nov. 28, 1889; two sons. Prof. of Philosophy and Psychology, 1887-1911; Prof. of Philosophy, 1911-27; Emeritus Prof. since. Member: Amer. Psychological Assn.; Amer. Philosophical Assn. (Pres. of Western Div., 1902; Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Author: Introduction to Philosophy, 1924; Psychology of Relaxation, 1924; Psychology of Social Reconstruction, etc. Address: 1440 Calif. Ave., Palo Alto, California.

PATRICK, LUTHER, American Lawyer; born Jan. 27, 1894, Morgan County, Ala.; son of Francis Marion and Nancy (Cobbs) Patrick; educated at Louisiana State Univ.; Purdue; Univ. of Alabama, LL.B. 1918; married Pearl McPherson, Mar. 31, 1919; one daughter. Began practice of law, 1920; City Attorney of Fairfield, Ala., 1921-22. Assistant Attorney-General of Alabama, 1928-29; Assistant U. S. Attorney for Northern District of Alabama, 1934-35. A radio commentator, 1928-35. Member, U. S. Congress, 1937-47. Served with U. S. Army, during World War I. Residence: 921 7th St., W., Birmingham, Ala.

PATRICK, Sir PAUL JOSEPH, British Indian Office Official; born Oct. 6, 1888, London, England; son of Rev. John Arthur and Ellen Maria (Freeman) Patrick; educated at Rugby School; Corpus Christi College, Oxford, B.A. 1911, M.A. 1919. Junior Clerk, Post Office, 1913; Junior Clerk, Military Dept., India Office, 1913-16; Principal, Economic Dept., India Office, 1921; Secy., Indian Delegation, League of Nations Assembly, Geneva, 1925-26; Secy., Indian Delegation, Internatl. Sanitary Conf., Paris, 1926; Asst. Secy., Political Dept., India Office, 1930-41; Acting Asst. Under-Secy. of State, India Office, 1941-46; Asst. Under-Secy. of State, India Office, since 1946. Named Companion, Star of India, 1934; Officer, Order of St. John of Jerusalem, 1937; Knight Commander, India Empire, 1946. Residence: White House, Hare St., Buntinford, Herts. Office: India Office, Whitehall, London, England.

PATRICK, ROY LEONARD, American Manufacturer; born Mar. 13, 1876, Hinesburgh, Vt.; son of John S. and Florence (Andrews) Patrick; educated at Univ. of Vermont, Ph.B.; married; two sons. Manager in a coal and ice business 1898; identified with G. S. Blodgett Co., Inc. since 1918; Treas. 1918; now Pres. Pres., Blodgett Supply Co., Inc.; Treas., Eastern Magnesia Talc Co., Inc. Pres., Rock of Ages Corp. Director: Boston & Maine Railroad; E. B. & A. C. Whiting Co.; Burlington Realty Co.; Queen City Tulatex Co., all of Burlington, Vt.; Vermont Mutual Fire Insurance Co., and Green Mountain Power Corp.; Federal Reserve Bank, Boston. Pres., Mary Fletcher Hospital. Industry Member, Regional War Labor Board. Member, Natl. Assn. of Mfrs. Address: Burlington, Vt.

PATRICK, Dr. WALTER A., American Chemist; born Jan. 6, 1888, Syracuse, N. Y.; son of W. A. and Mary (Manning) Patrick; educated at Syracuse Univ., B.S. 1910; Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1910-12; Technische Hochs., Braunschweig, Germany, 1912-13; Univ. of Gottingen, Ph.D. 1914; Syracuse Univ., Sc.D. (hon.) 1935; married M. Gertrude Leech, June 19, 1915; three daughters. Asst. in Chemistry, Univ. College, London, England. Instr. at: Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1915-16; Syracuse Univ., 1916-17. Assoc., Johns Hopkins Univ., 1917; Prof. of Chemistry since 1924. Member: Amer. Chemical Soc.; Chemical Soc. (British). Received Modern Pioneer Award, National Assn. of Manufacturers, 1940. Inventor of Silica Gel. Engaged in numerous investigations in field of surface chemistry and electrochemistry. Address: Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

PATRICOLO, Dr. GENNARO, Italian Parliament Member; born Sept. 11, 1904, Palermo, Italy; son of Giuseppe and Matilde (Majo) Patricolo; educated at Univ. of Palermo, LL.D.; married Eleonora Lojacono, Dec. 27, 1924; five children. Journalist, 1928; civil pilot, since 1936; Air Force Officer, World War II, 1940-43; Prisoner of War in India; invalided. Elected Mayor of Palermo, 1946; Member, European Parliamentary Union; Deputy, Natl. Constituent Assembly, 1946—. Former Member, Foreign Press Assn., Paris; Member, Legal Com., European Parliamentary Union, Gstaad, Switzerland. Author: Imputabilità e Responsabilità, 1928; numerous articles on law and politics in Italian and foreign newspapers and magazines. Collaborator, Italian Encyclopedia (on U.S.A. voice). Residence: Via Principe, Belmonte 90, Palermo, Italy. Office: Montecitorio, Rome, Italy.

PATRON COSTAS, ROBUSTIANO, Argentine Attorney; Industrialist; born Aug. 5, 1878, Salta, Republic of Argentina; son of Robustiano Patron and Francisca Costas; received degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence in National Univ. of Buenos Aires, 1901; married Elisea Ortiz, 1906. Named Minister of Finance for Province of Salta, 1902-04; Pres., Popular Union Party. Minister, Government of Province, 1910; Governor, 1912; then elected for two successive terms until 1916. National Senator, 1916-1925, and Provincial Senator and President of Senate, 1926-29. Directed organization of political forces following revolution of 1930; named President of National Democratic Party. Elected National Senator, 1932-38; designated President; served as President of Senate Budget Commission. Elected (1932) President of nation in event of demise of President; regularly re-elected 1940; re-elected to Senate, 1938. Active in sugar industry of Salta; founded and organized most important refinery in Latin America. Address: Reconquista 336, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PATTEE, ELSIE DODGE, American Oil Painter and Miniaturist; born 1876, Chelsea, Mass.; daughter of David Low and Emma (Harper) Dodge; studied in England and France; married Elmer Ellsworth Pattee, 1900; three children. Exhibited in Paris Salon, 1898. Exhibited frequently in Paris, and with many groups in the U. S., particularly with five miniature societies. Pres., Amer. Soc. of Miniature Painters, six years. Represented in Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Brooklyn Museum, Philadelphia Museum of Fine Arts, Corcoran Gallery of Washington. Taught History of Art in Spence School. Illustrated The Animal Book (1914); illustrated several children's primers. Address: Old Lyme, Conn.

PATTEN, Dr. BRADLEY MERRILL, American Anatomist; born June 14, 1889, Milwaukee, Wis.; son of William and Mary Elizabeth (Merrill) Patten; educated at Dartmouth College, A.B. (summa cum laude), 1911; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1912, Ph.D. 1914; married Barbara Standish, June 13, 1914; one daughter. Instructor in Histology and Embryology, School of Medicine, Western Reserve Univ., 1914-18; Asst. Prof., 1918-20; Assoc. Prof., 1920-34; Asst. Director for Medical Sciences, Rockefeller Foundation, 1934-36; Prof. and Chairman of Dept. of Anatomy, Univ. of Michigan Medical School, since 1936. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; 2nd Vice-Pres., Amer. Assn. of Anatomists, 1934-36. Member: Amer. Soc. of Zoologists; Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole (Corporate Member); Bermuda Biological Station, etc. Assoc. Editor, Amer. Journal of Anatomy, since 1942. Author: Embryology of the Chick, 1920; Embryology of the Pig, 1927; The Cardiovascular System in 10th edition, Morris's Human Anatomy; Human Embryology, 1946; numerous scientific articles and technical papers. Address: 2500 East Medical Bldg., Ann Arbor, Mich.

PATTEN, DAVID, American Editor; born Apr. 12, 1888, Boston, Mass.; son of Frederick M. and Dora Josephine (Wilbour) Patten; educated at Wesleyan Univ., two years; married Martha Louise Fuller, May 1, 1912; three children. Reporter: Fall River News, 1917; Providence Journal, 1918-20. City Editor, Providence Evening Bulletin, 1924; Managing Editor, 1924-46. Managing Editor, Providence Journal-Bulletin, since 1946. Member: Amer. Soc. of Newspaper Editors; Managing Editors of Associated Press. Address: 75 Fountain St., Providence, R. I.

PATTEN, ROBERT ANTHONY, Australian Zoologist; born June 20, 1889, Wellington, N. S. W.; son of Robert and Amelia (Bernasconi) Patten; educated at Univ. of Sydney, Bachelor of Veterinary Science, 1914; married Eva Aileen Rutherford, Sept. 11, 1920; two children. Veterinary Surgeon, 1914; Veterinary Officer, Dept. of Trade and Customs, 1914; with Australian Army Veterinary Corps, 1914-17; promoted to rank of Major, 1916; served in Egypt, Gallipoli, France, and Belgium. Veterinary Officer, Dept. of Commerce, 1918-20; Manager, North Bangaroo Stud Demonstration Farm, Dept. of Agriculture, N.S.W., 1920-23; with Dept. of Commerce until 1936. Supt. and Curator, Taronga Zoological Park, Sydney, N.S.W., since 1936. Pres., Ornamental Pheasant Soc. of Australia. Member: Australian Veterinary Assn.; Royal Zoological Soc. of New South Wales. Author of numerous technical reports and papers published in scientific periodicals. Address: Taronga Zoological Park, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

PATTERSON, Dr. AUSTIN McDOWELL, American Chemist; born May 31, 1876, Damascus, Syria; son of John Fulton and Charlotte Isabella (McDowell) Patterson; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1897; Johns Hopkins Univ., Ph.D. 1900; Antioch College, Hon. D.Sc. 1944; married Anne Elizabeth Bailey, May 31, 1911; two children. Chemistry Editor, Webster's New International Dictionary, since 1903 (on Staff in Springfield, Mass., 1903-07); Assoc. Editor, Chemical Abstracts, 1908-09; Editor, 1909-14. Prof. of Chemistry, Antioch College, 1921-41; Vice-Pres. of College, 1930-41; Emeritus Prof. since 1941. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science. Member: National Research Council, 1932-41; Amer. Chemical Soc.; London Chemical Soc.; Internatl. Union of Chemistry (Councilor, 1925-31, 1936-38). Author: A German-English Dictionary for Chemists, 1917, 1924, 1935; A French-English Dictionary for Chemists, 1921; A Guide to the Literature of Chemistry (with E. J. Crane), 1927; The Ring Index (with L. T. Capell), 1940; The Naming and Indexing of Chemical Compounds by Chemical Abstracts (with others), 1946. Address: 221 North King St., Xenia, Ohio.

PATTERSON, Dr. EDWIN WILHITE, American Professor of Law; born Jan. 1, 1889, at Kansas City, Mo.; son of Louis Lee and Roberta (Wilhite) Patterson; educated at University of Missouri, A.B. 1909, LL.B. 1911, (LL.D., Hon., 1936); Harvard University, S.J.D. 1920; married Dorothy Thomson, Dec. 28, 1915; two children. Associate with firm Holmes and Page, Kansas City, Mo., 1911-13; E. C. Wright, 1913-15. Adjunct Professor of Law, University of Texas, 1915-17; Associate Professor of Law, Columbia University, 1922-24; Assistant Professor of Law and Professor, University of Colorado, 1917-20; Prof. of Law, Univ. of Iowa, 1920-22; Prof. of Law, Columbia Univ., 1922-45; Cardozo Prof. of Jurisprudence, Columbia Univ., 1945—. Deputy Supt. of Insurance of New York, 1936; in charge Revision of New York Insurance Law, 1935-39 (enacted 1939). Adviser to American Law Institute, on Restatement of Restitution (published 1937), and Torts, vol. 4 (published 1939). Author: "The Insurance Commissioner in the U. S.," 1927; "Cases on Insurance," 1932; 2nd ed., 1947; "Cases on Contracts II," 1935; "Essentials of Insurance Law," 1935; "Cases on Contracts" (in collaboration with G. W. Goble, 1941. Contributor to "The Philosopher of the Common Man," 1940; "My Philosophy of Law," 1941. Residence: Leonia, N. J. Office: Kent Hall, 116th & Amsterdam, New York, N. Y.

PATTERSON, Mrs. ELEANOR MEDILL, American Publisher; born 1885. Publisher, The Washington (D. C.) Times-Herald. Chairman, Board of Directors, News Syndicate Co. (publisher of The New York Daily News), 1946—. Served as Chairman, Waste Paper Salvage Committee of the Publishers Assn., World War II. Address: c/o The Washington Times-Herald, Washington, D. C.

PATTERSON, Hon. ELLIS ELLWOOD, U. S. Congressman; born Yuba City, Calif.; son of William R. and Anna Mary (Botler) Patterson; educated at Univ. of California, A.B. 1921; married Helen Hjelte, June 22, 1925; three children. School Teacher, 1921; later Lawyer. Member, State Legislature of California, 1933-38; Lieut. Governor of California, 1938-42. Congressman from 16th District, Calif., since 1944. Address: 1187 S. Rodeo Dr., Los Angeles, Calif.

PATTERSON, Dr. ERNEST MINOR, American Economist; born July 17, 1879, Cincinnati, Ohio; educated at Park College, A.B. 1902, A.M. 1904, LL.D. 1936; Ph.D. 1912; Occidental College, LL.D. 1946. Teacher, Henry Kendall College, 1902-05; Principal, Wasatch Academy at Mt. Pleasant, Utah, 1905-08. Dean and Professor, Washington College, 1908-09; Instructor in Finance, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1910; Asst. Prof. of Economics, 1915; Prof. since 1919. Visiting Prof., Post-Graduate School of International Studies at Geneva, Academy of International Law at The Hague. Past Vice-Pres., Amer. Economic Assn.; Pres., the Amer. Academy of Political and Social Science; Secy., Amer. Philosophical Soc. Member, Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences in America. Author: World's Economic Dilemma, 1929; Economic Bases of Peace, 1939; America: World Leader or World Led, 1932, etc. Address: 213 Logan Hall, 36th St. and Woodland Ave., Philadelphia 4, Pa.

PATTERSON, Hon. ERNEST ODELL, American Jurist; born Oct. 5, 1874, Greenfield, Iowa; son of Daniel A. and Margaret J. (Priddy) Patterson; educated at State Univ. of Iowa; National Law School, Washington, D. C.; married Dawn Smith, May 31, 1911; one son. Clerk, Treasury Dept., Washington, D. C., 1901-04; Asst. U. S. Attorney, Interior Dept., 1904-08. Practicing attorney, Dallas, S. D., 1908-25; Judge, District Court, 11th Judicial Circuit, South Dakota, 1925-26; Solicitor, U. S. Dept. of Interior, 1926-29. In general practice of law at Tulsa and attorney for Stanolind Companies since 1929. Member, South Dakota State Senate, 1913-15. Address: Beacon Bldg., Tulsa, Oklahoma.

PATTERSON, EUGENE C., American Industrialist; born May 9, 1881, Cumming, Ga., son of S. B. and Margaret E. Patterson; educated in Atlanta Public Schools and Georgia School of Technology (B.S.M.E., 1903, M.E., 1904-05); married Louise Adams, Sept. 1906 (dec.); one son. Sales Engineer with Walsh & Weidner Boiler Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., 1903; Asst. Mechanical Engineer, 1904; Chief Engineer, 1905. Construction and Chief Engineer, Casey Hedges Co., 1908; Construction Engineer, Tenn Copper Co., 1908. Part Owner, Sales Mgr., and Chief Engineer, Chattanooga Boiler & Tank Co. late in 1908; Secretary, in 1909; President, Treasurer and General Manager since 1941. Director, Hamilton National Bank; Vice-President, Chattanooga Export-Import Council; Vice-President of the Chattanooga Manufacturers Association; Member, Chamber of Commerce, and a Director of Chattanooga Manufacturers Association. Member of Amer. Iron and Steel Inst., and Army Ordnance Assn. Residence: Lookout Mountain, Tenn., 210 Franklin Rd. Office: 1011 E. Main St., (P. O. Box No. 110), Chattanooga, Tenn.

PATTERSON, Dr. FREDERICK DOUGLAS, American Educator; born Oct. 10, 1901, Washington, D. C.; son of William and Mamie Lucille (Brooks) Patterson; educated at Iowa State College, D.V.M. 1923, M.Sc., 1927; Cornell Univ., Ph.D. 1923; Virginia State College, LL.D.; Wilberforce Univ., L.H.D.; Lincoln Univ., hon. Sc.D.; married Catherine Elizabeth Moton, June 12, 1935; one son. Instructor, Veterinary Science, Virginia State College, 1923-26, Director of Agriculture, 1927-28; Head of Veterinary Division, Tuskegee Inst., Alabama, 1928-33, Director of School of Agriculture, 1933-35, Pres., Tuskegee Inst., since 1935. Trustee: Booker Washintgon Agricultural and Industrial Inst. of Liberia; Fisk Univ.; Bethune Cookman College; Phelps Stokes Fund; Hampton Inst.; Palmer Memorial Inst. Pres. United Negro College Fund, Inc. Special Asst. to Secy. of United States Dept. of Agriculture. Member: Southern Education Foundation; Executive Board, National Urban League; Southern Regional Council; Presidents' Commission on Higher Education; Central Com., Amer. Red Cross; Com. on the South; Colored Work Dept., Com. of National Council, Y.M.C.A.; Board, Incorporators, Amer. Red Cross. Co-author, What the Negro Wants. Contributor to scientific and other publications. Address: Tuskegee Institute, Alabama.

PATTERSON, Dr. FREDERIC WILLIAM, Canadian University President; born July 18, 1877, Saint John, N. B., Canada; educated at Provincial Normal School, Fredericton, N. B.; McMaster Univ., D.D.; Univ. of Alberta, LL.D.; married Minnie Ray Johnson, Aug. 26, 1904. Ordained Baptist Minister, 1899. Pastor: Minnedosa, Man., 1900-01; Aena St., Winnipeg, 1901-04; Prince Albert, Sask., 1904-05; First Church, Calgary, 1905-09; First Church, Edmonton, 1909-16; First Church, Winnipeg, 1916-19. General Secretary, Baptist Union of Western Canada, 1919-23. Pres., Acadia Univ., 1923—. Editor, Western Baptist, 1915-23. Address: Acadia University, Wolfeville, N. S., Canada.

PATTERSON, GILES JARED, American Lawyer; born Chester, S. C., Oct. 19, 1885; son of Giles J. and Mary V. (Ross) Patterson; studied at Wofford College, A.B. 1905; Univ. of Virginia; Vanderbilt Univ.; married Louise Brandon, Dec. 12, 1911; one son. Admitted to Bar in South Carolina, 1908; Florida Bar, 1914. Chmn., County Democratic Com., S. C., 1913; Chairman, Jacksonville Community Chest, 1932; Community War Chest, 1942. Chmn., Amer. Bar Assn. Com. on relation with Press, Bar and Radio, 1939-41. Pres., Florida Bar Assn., 1933-34; Director, Amer. Judicature Soc. 1936-39; Chairman, Board of Legal Examiners for Florida, Civil Service Commission. Member: Amer. Bar Assn.; Bar Assn. of New York; Amer. Law Inst. Author: Free Speech and a Free Press, 1939. Residence: 3751 Ortega Blvd. Office: Florida National Bank Bldg., Jacksonville, Fla.

PATTERSON, GRAHAM CREIGHTON, American Publisher; born Dec. 25, 1881, Pittsburgh, Pa.; son of John Mitchell and Margaret Laird Patterson; graduated from Cornell Univ., A.B. 1904; married Maude Dewar, May 5, 1909; two children. General Secy., Cornell Univ. Christian Assn., 1904-05. Advertising Manager, Federal Electric Co., Chicago, two years; Advertising Representative for magazines Sunset, Suburban Life, and Christian Herald, 1901-18; Publisher and Pres. of The Christian Herald, 1918-30. Vice-Pres., Christian Herald Assn., 1931-35; Publisher and Pres., Farm Journal, in Philadelphia, since 1935. Publisher, Pathfinder, Inc. Director, Engineering, Inc. Member, Natl. Publishers Assn. Residence: 200 Golf View Road, Merion Golf Manor, Pa. Office: 230 W. Washington Sq., Philadelphia 5, Pa.

PATTERSON, Dr. JOHN, O.B.E., Canadian Meteorologist; born Jan. 3, 1872, Oxford County, Ont., Canada; son of Francis and Anna (Telfer) Patterson; educated at School of Practical Science, Diploma 1899; Univ. of Toronto, B.A. (Honours in Math. and Physics), 1900; Cambridge Univ., England, B.A. (research) 1902, M.A.; Univ. of Manitoba, hon. LL.D., 1942; married Margaret Norris, 1906; one son. Prof. of Physics, Univ. of Allahabad, Allahabad, India, 1903-04. Imperial Meteorologist, Govt. of India, 1905-10; Meteorological Physicist, Meteorological Service of Canada, 1910-24; Asst. Director, 1925-29; Controller, Meteorological Service of Canada, 1929-46. Hon. Prof. of Meteorology, Univ. of Toronto. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Canada (Hon. Editor, 1924-38; Pres., Section III, 1936-37). Member: Amer. Meteorological Soc. (Pres., 1930-31); Royal Canadian Inst. (Pres., 1932-33); Empire Conf. of Meteorologists (Pres., 1935); Internatl. Meteorological Organization (Pres., Commission on Instruments and Methods of Observation, 1946—). Author: General Index of Royal Canadian Institute Publications, 1914; Upper Air Conditions in Canada, 1915; Cup Anemometer, 1926; Development of Meteorological Science, 1933; Century of Meteorology in Canada, 1940; Weight Barograph, 1941. Residence: 97 Walmer Road. Office: 315 Bloor St., W., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

PATTESON, JOHN COLERIDGE, C.M.G., British Transportation Executive; born Dec. 5, 1896, London, Ont.; son of Godfroy B. and Mary Joan (MacWhirter) Patteson; educated at Ridley College, St. Catharines, Ont.; Royal Military College of Canada; married Mary Nesbitt Ashley, June 1921; three daughters. In transportation work, New York, 1920; Philadelphia, 1928; Chicago, 1934; Toronto, 1935. European General Manager Canadian Pacific Ry. Co. Director, Canadian Pacific Steamships, Ltd. Controller-General of Transportation, Minister of Supply, 1940-41. Director-General, Supply Services, Ministry of Supply Representatives in Canada, 1943-44. Canadian Representative, International Olympic Com. Member, General Advisory Council, British Broadcasting Corp. Residence: 19, Leonard Court, Edwardes Sq. Office: 62, Trafalgar Square, London, W.C. 2, England.

PATTERSON, Dr. JOHN THOMAS, American Zoologist; born Nov. 3, 1876, Piqua, Ohio; son of James N. and Anna M. (Linn) Patterson; educated at Ohio Northern Univ. (Ada, Ohio), 1897-98; Univ. of Wooster, B.S. 1903, hon. D.Sc. 1938; Univ. of Chicago, Ph.D. 1908; married Alice Jane Tozer, Sept. 12, 1906; three children. Prof. of Biology, Buena Vista College, Storm Lake, Iowa, 1903-05; Asst. in Zoology, Univ. of Chicago, 1905-08; Instructor in Zoology, Univ. of Texas, 1908-09; Instructor in Physiology, 1909-11; Adjunct Prof. of Zoology, 1911-13; Prof. of Zoology since 1913; Director of Research since 1929; Distinguished Prof. since 1937. Member: Amer. Assn. for the Advancement of Science (Vice-Pres. 1941); Amer. Soc. of Zoologists (Pres. 1939); Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Soc. of Anatomists; National Acad. of Sciences, etc. Author: The Drosophilidae of the Southwest, 1943; many articles in various scientific journals. Address: University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

PATTERSON, MOREHEAD, American Manufacturer; born Durham, N. C., Oct. 9, 1897; son of Rufus Lenoir and Margaret Warren (Morehead) Patterson; educated at Groton School, Mass., 1916; Yale, A.B. 1920; Christ Church, Oxford, 1920-21; Harvard, LL.B. 1924; married Elsie Parsons, Sept. 1921 (divorced 1929). Admitted to Mass. Bar, 1924; engaged in general practice until 1926; Asst. Counsel, Amer. Machine & Foundry Co., 1926-28; Asst. Vice-Pres, 1928-30; Vice-Pres., 1930-41; Pres., 1941-43 and since 1947; also Chmn. of Board. President and Director, American Machine Defense Corp.; Vice-Pres. and Director, International Cigar Machinery Co.; Director, Durham-Enders Razor Corp. Vice-President, Package Machinery Manufacturers Inst., 1935-41, and since 1942. Asst. to Rubber Director, W.P.B., 1942-44. Residence: 730 Park Ave. Office: 511 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PATTERSON, PAUL CHENERY, American Publisher; born Nov. 18, 1878, Jacksonville, Ill.; son of James March and Mary A. (Hamilton) Patterson; educated at Univ. of Chicago; married Elsie Jarvis McLean, Oct. 22, 1910; six children. Reporter, Chicago Tribune, 1899-1900; reporter, copyreader, City Editor, Chicago Journal, 1900-03; Night City Editor, Chicago Inter-Ocean, 1903-04; City Editor, Chicago Examiner, 1904-06, and Washington Herald, 1906-07; City Editor, Managing Editor, General Manager and Treasurer, Washington Times, 1907-11; Managing Editor, Baltimore Evening Sun, 1911-13; Business Manager, Secretary and Treasurer, Sun and Evening Sun, 1913-19; Pres. and Executive Director, Associated Press. Member: Amer. Newspaper Publishers Assn. (Pres., 1922-24). Residence: 219 Northway, Guilford, Baltimore, Md. Office: Sun Square, Baltimore, Md.

PATTERSON, Dr. RALPH MORRIS, American Psychiatrist; born Nov. 26, 1904, Morning Sun, Ohio; son of C. E. and Elizabeth (Merryman) Patterson; educated at Univ. of Mich., B.S. 1926, M.D. 1930, M.S. in Neurol. and Psych., 1938; married S. A. Tommason, Apr. 26, 1928; three children. Neuropsych. at U. S. Med. Center, 1935-36; First Asst. Physician at Ypsilanti State Hosp., 1936-37; Instructor in Psych. at Univ. of Mich., 1937-40; Consulting Psych. to Michigan Children's Inst., 1937-39. Asst. Prof. of Psych. at Univ. of Mich. since 1940; Asst. Dir. of Neuropsychiatric Inst. Member of Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. Psych. Assn.; Mich. Soc. of Neurol. and Psych.; Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases; Central Neuro-Psychiatric Assn., etc. Author (with Dr. S. Little) of Spasmodic Torticollis, 1943; Psychiatrist—Criminal—Court, 1941. Residence: 2107 Devonshire Road. Office: 1313 Ann St., Ann Arbor, Mich.

PATTERSON, Col. RICHARD C., JR., American Diplomat; born 1886, Omaha, Neb.; son of Richard C. and Martha Belle (Neiswanger) Patterson; educated at Univ. of Nebraska and at Columbia, E.M. 1911; married Shelley McCutcheon Rodes, 1924; one daughter. Asst. to Pres. of J. G. White Engineering Co., 1920; Engineer, E. I. du Pont deNemours & Co., 1921-22; Vice-President and Director, National Broadcasting Co., 1932-36; Assistant Secretary of Commerce of the United States, 1933 and 1939; Director, Export-Import Bank of United States, 1938-39. Chairman of Board, Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corp., 1940-43; Member, Business Advisory Council, Department of Commerce. Ambassador to Yugoslavia, 1944-47. With A.E.F. during First World War as Captain and Major of Engineers; now Colonel, Military Intelligence Reserves. Administrative Officer, Amer. Commn. to Negotiate Peace, Paris, 1918-19; Member of Organization Com. of Amer. Legion, Paris, 1919. Awarded many honors and decorations. Residence: Piping Rock Rd., Locust Valley, L. I., N. Y.

PATTERSON, Hon. ROBERT PORTER, Ex-Secretary of War of the United States; born Feb. 21, 1891, Glens Falls, N. Y.; son of Charles R. and Lodice (Porter) Patterson; educated at Union College, A.B. 1912; Harvard Law School, LL.B. 1915; Columbia Univ., hon. LL.D. 1947; married Margaret Winchester, January 3, 1920; four children. Admitted to the New York Bar, 1916; engaged in the practice of law until 1930; United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York, 1930-39; United States Circuit Judge, Circuit Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, 1939-40; appointed Assistant Secretary of War in 1940; later became Under-Secy. of War; Secy. of War, 1945-47. Member, law firm of Patterson, Belknap & Webb, New York, 1947 —. Officer, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Awarded numerous military decorations. Pres., Harvard Law School Assn.; Trustee of Union College. Member, Amer. Law Inst.; Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Dir.: International Business Machines Corp.; J. Henry Schroder Banking Corp. Residence: Cold Spring, N. Y. Office: One Wall Street, New York 5, N. Y.

PATTERSON, Dr. ROBERT URIE, American Medical School Dean; born June 16, 1877, Montreal, Canada; son of William James Ballantyne and Eleanor Haight (Lay) Patterson; educated at Montreal Collegiate Inst.; San Antonio (Texas) Acad.; McGill Univ., Montreal, M.C., C.M. 1898, LL.D. 1932; married (1st) Eda Beryl Lorraine Day, March 28, 1905, and (2nd) Eleanor Reeve, Aug. 14, 1920; four children. 1st Lieut., Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1901; advanced through various grades to Surgeon General; rank of Major General, 1931; retired, 1935; Dean of Univ. of Okla. School of Med. Oklahoma City, 1935-42; Dean, Univ. of Md. School of Med., Baltimore, and Supt. of Univ. Hosp., since 1942. Fellow of Amer. College of Surgeons; Amer. College of Physicians and Amer. Med. Assn. Received two citations for Gallantry in action (U. S. Army); mentioned in despatches by Commander in Chief (B.E.F.); awarded Distinguished Service Medal of U. S., Philippine Campaign Medal, Medal of Army of Cuban Pacification, Fatiche di Guerra (Italian), Medale d'Independencia (Italian), Victory Medal, British War Medal, etc. Residence: 5801 Roland Ave., Baltimore 10, Md. Office: University of Maryland, School of Medicine, Lombard St., Baltimore 1, Md.

PATTERSON, ROSCOE C., American Lawyer; born Sept. 15, 1876, Springfield, Mo.; educated at Univ. of Missouri; Washington Univ., St. Louis, Mo., LL.B., 1897. Admitted to Missouri Bar, 1897; in practice of law in Springfield, Mo. Prosecuting Attorney of Greene County, 1903-07; Member of 67th U. S. Congress; appointed by President Calvin Coolidge, U. S. Attorney for Western District of Missouri, 1925, for four year term; resigned in 1929; elected U. S. Senator, 1928-34. Member, Republican State Com. from 7th Congressional District of Missouri, 1912-20; Presidential Elector at Large from Missouri, 1924. Address: Springfield, Mo.

PATTERSON, Dr. S(AMUEL) HOWARD, American Economist; born Philadelphia, Pa., July 23, 1892; son of Samuel A. and Sara (Clagett) Patterson; graduated from Central High School, Philadelphia, 1909; Philadelphia School of Pedagogy, 1911; University of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1914, A.M. 1916, Ph.D. 1922; attended U. S. Army Officer School, 1918; married Mae Griffiths, 1924. Instructor in Economics at Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1920-22; Asst. Prof. until 1928; Prof., 1928 —; Chairman of Dept. of Economics, 1932-38; taught in Columbia Univ. Summer School, 1935, '36, '37 and '38. Fellow of Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member of Amer. Economic Assn., Amer. Acad. of Political and Social Sciences; Natl. Education Assn.; Natl. President of Pi Gamma Mu. Director, Academy of World Economics. Consulting Editor to McGraw-Hill Book Co., and to Farrar and Rhinehart, Publishers. Publications: Social Aspects of Industry; Readings in History of Economic Thought; (co-author) American Economic Problems, American Social Problems, and Problems of American Democracy; (with K. W. H. Scholz) of Economic Problems of Modern Life; (with D. E. A. Choate and E. de S. Brunner) The School in Amer. Soc. Address: Logan Hall, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

PATTERSON, THOMAS HANSFORD, American Lawyer and Educator; born Jan. 15, 1878, Newtown, King & Queen County, Va.; son of George A. and Harriet L. (Garrett) Patterson; educated at National Univ. Law School; Georgetown Univ. Law School, LL.B. 1906; married Gladys Elizabeth Webb, Sept. 10, 1917; one daughter. Engaged in practice of law since 1907; has taught in law schools since 1914; now Prof. of Law of Real Property, National Univ. Law School, Washington, D. C. Editor, Patterson edition of "Anson on Contracts", 1939. Address: Woodward Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PATTERSON, WILLIAM ALLAN, American Aviation Executive; born Oct. 1, 1899, Honolulu, T. H.; son of William and Mary (Goulter) Patterson; educated at Honolulu Military Acad., 1911-14; married Vera Anita Witt, June 20, 1924. Office boy, Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, Calif., 1914; Asst. to Vice-Pres. in 1929; Asst. to Pres., Boeing Airplane Co., Seattle, Wash., 1929. Vice-Pres. and Director, United Air Lines, Inc., 1933-34; Pres. since 1934. Director: United Air Lines, Inc.; Chicago Association of Commerce, Insurance Co. of North America; City National Bank & Trust Co., Chicago; Sprague-Warner Corp. Member, Advisory Staff, Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences; Member, Bd. of Trustees, Northwestern Univ. Residence: R.F.D. No. 1, Northbrook, Ill. Office: 5959 S. Cicero Ave., Chicago, Ill.

PATTERSON, Hon. WILLIAM J., U. S. Interstate Commerce Commissioner; born June 4, 1880, Neenah, Wis.; son of Amos and Mary (Bidwell) Patterson; married Margaret M. Henderman, April 29, 1912; two children. Began career as a call boy for Wisconsin Central Railroad; later served as brakeman, fireman, switchman, and conductor of various railroads; Conductor of the N. P. Railroad, 1906-14; Inspector of Safety Appliances, Interstate Commerce Commission, 1914-18; Asst. Director of Bureau of Safety, 1918-34; Director, 1934-39; Member of Interstate Commerce Commission since 1939; Chairman, 1944. Residence: 3916 Legation St. Office: Interstate Commerce Commission Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PATTERSON, The Hon. WILLIAM JOHN, Canadian Provincial Premier; born May 12, 1886, Grenfell, Sask., Canada; son of John and Catherine (Fraser) Patterson; educated at Grenfell Public School; married Florence May Donnelly, Aug. 14, 1937. Bank Clerk with the Dominion Bank in 1902. Associated with Saskatchewan Government Telephones, 1911-15. Lieut. in the Canadian Light Horse, C.E.F., 1916-19. Insurance and Financial Agent, since 1920. Member, Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan since 1921; Provincial Treasurer, 1926-29; Minister of Natural Resources, 1934-35; Premier and Provincial Treasurer, since 1935. Leader of Opposition on election of CCF Govt., 1944. Residence: 2227 Montague St. Office: Parliament Bldg., Regina, Sask., Canada.

PATTERSON, Vice-Admiral WILFRID RUPERT, British Naval Officer; born Nov. 20, 1893, Belfast, N. Ireland; son of William Robert and Elizabeth (Fleming) Patterson; educated at Royal Naval College; married Maureen Mahon; two children. Naval Cadet, 1906; served continually in the Royal Navy; H.M.S. King George V, 1940-42; Member, Joint Staff Mission, Washington, 1942; The Admiralty, 1943-45; Rear Admiral, Commanding 5th Cruiser Squadron, East Indies Fleet, 1945-46; Vice-Admiral since Mar. 15, 1946. Recipient of honors: C.B., C.V.O. and C.B.E. Address: The United Service Club, Pall Mall, London, England.

PATTINSON, Air Marshal Sir LAWRENCE ARTHUR, K.B.E., C.B., D.S.O., M.C., D.F.C., British Air Force Officer; born Oct. 9, 1890, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England; son of Hugh Lee and Mary Constance (Adamson) Pattinson; educated at Wesley College, Melbourne, Australia; Jesus College, Cambridge; B.A. 1912, LL.B. 1913, M.A. 1931; married Mabel Copeland Capper, Sept. 12, 1923; two children. Second Lieut., Territorial Army, 1914; Seconded to Royal Flying Corps, 1915; served throughout war; Lt. Col., Commanding 41st Wing in France, Independent Force, until 1918; in Northern France until 1919; permanent commission as Squadron Leader, R.A.F., 1919; various assignments until 1934; promoted Air Commodore and Air Officer Commanding newly formed Armament Group, 1934-37; Air Officer Commanding No. 23 Flying Training Group, 1937-40; Air Officer Commanding in Chief, Flying Training Command with Acting Rank of Air Marshal, 1940-41; retired and granted rank of Air Marshal, 1941; with Air Transport Auxiliary, 1941-42; restored to active list as Air Vice Marshal; Head of Royal Air Force Training Mission to Chinese Air Force, 1942-45; temporary Civil Servant, History of 99 Squadron R.F.C. and R.A.F., Ministry of Health, 1946—. Author: The 1921. Address: Floriston Hall, Wixde, near Halstead, Essex, England.

PATTISON, Prof. LEE, American Composer, Pianist; born 1890; educated at New England Conservatory of Music, Boston (graduated with honors), 1910; studied under Schnabel and others. Prof. of Music, Scripps College and Claremont (Calif.) Graduate School. Compositions: The Arkansas Traveller, 1926; Florentine Sketches, 1928; Told in the Hills (suite), 1929; orchestration of Liszt's Concerto Pathétique, 1933; (songs) Sleep Now; Angélique; (dance pantomime) The People, Yes, 1943, etc. Address: Claremont, Calif.

PATTON, Hon. KENNETH STUART, American Diplomat; born July 22, 1882, Salem, Virginia; educated at University of Virginia, A.B. 1904; graduate work at the Sorbonne, 1904-05, and Johns Hopkins University, 1905-08; special work in Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, 1906. In diplomatic service since 1908; served at Marseilles, Rome, Ceiba, Lisbon, Cognac, La Rochelle, Calais, Paris, Belgrade, Leipzig; Consul-General at Batavia, 1930, at Amsterdam, 1934, at Singapore, 1937, and at Calcutta, 1942. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to New Zealand, 1944-45. Adviser in Foreign Affairs to Siamese Govt., since 1946. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bangkok, Siam.

PATTON, Dr. ODIS KNIGHT, American Law Professor; born July 24, 1889, Zearing, Iowa; son of William H. and Cora E. (Barnes) Patton; educated at State University of Iowa, B.A. 1912, M.A. 1913, Ph.D. 1916, LL.B. 1917; Harvard, S.J.D. 1923; married M. Orvilla Orton, August 4, 1926. Engaged in practice of law at Sioux City, Iowa, 1917-18; Assistant Code Commissioner and Legislative Draftsman, State of Iowa, 1918-19; Iowa Code Annotator, 1920-22; Associate Code Editor, State of Iowa, 1922-24. Associate Professor of Law, State University of Iowa, 1923-27; Professor of Law, since 1927. Author: Iowa Annotations to the Restatement of the Law of Contracts (adopted by the American Law Institute) 1934; (with F. A. Daum) Iowa Annotations to the Restatement of the Law of Conflict of Laws (adopted by the American Law Institute), 1935. Editor: (with U. G. Whitney) Code of Iowa, 1924. Office: 102 B Law Building, Iowa City, Iowa.

PATTON, WILLIAM LOWELL, American Organist, Pianist, and Composer; born 1893, Portland, Ore.; son of Edward Lowell and Belle (MacIntosh) Patton; educated in the schools of Portland, Oregon, and London, England; studied with Carl Denton, organ and piano, Portland, Oregon; with Claude Pollard, piano and music appreciation. Organist at First Methodist Church, Portland, at age of 16. Now Organist and Director of Music, Christ's First Presbyterian Church, Hempstead, N. Y. Gives needy farmers' children of Oregon, each summer, musical appreciation and a vacation, free, on his farm "Quiet Hours." Organist for Masonic Lodges. Address: 89-25 Parsons Blvd., Jamaica 2, N. Y.

PATTON, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM W., American Clergyman; born March 15, 1889, Chicago, Ill.; son of Robert W. and Ellie H. (Ferry) Patton; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1911, D.D. 1936; Harvard, B.D. 1914; Andover Theological Seminary, S.T.B. 1914; married Elizabeth Boynton, 1914 (deceased); four children; married (2nd) Helen Buss, 1941. Ordained Congregational Minister, 1914. Minister: John Nelson Memorial Church, Leicester, Mass., 1914-18; North Congregational Church, Haverhill, Mass., 1918-22; Rogers Park Congregational Church, Chicago, Ill., 1922-28; Glen Ridge Congregational Church, Glen Ridge, N. J., 1928-47. American Director, Near East College Assn., since 1947. Trustee: Congregational Bd. of Home Mission; Annuity Fund of Congregational Ministers; Amer. Univ. of Beirut; International College; Near East College Assn.; Glen Ridge Free Public Library. Director: Save Children Federation; Middle Atlantic Conf. of Congregational Churches; Executive Com. of Congregational Churches. Member, General Commission of Army & Navy Chaplains. Residence: 67 Hobson St., Stamford, Conn. Office: Fund for Near East Colleges, 46 Cedar St., New York 5, New York.

PATTULLO, Hon. THOMAS DUFFERIN, K.C., LL.D., M.L.A., Canadian Statesman, Railway Executive; born Jan. 19, 1873, Woodstock, Ont.; son of George Robson and Mary (Rounds) Pattullo; received a high school education at Woodstock; married Lillian Riedemaster Nov. 30, 1899; one daughter. Secretary, Yukon Commission, 1897-98; Asst. Gold Commissioner, 1898-1901; conducted a general brokerage and financial business at Dawson, Y. T., 1901-08; at Prince Rupert, B. C., 1908-16. Elected to the British Columbia Legislature at the General Election in 1916; re-elected in 1920, 1924, 1928, 1933, resigned in 1941. President, Pacific Great Eastern Railway since 1933. Residence: 951 Beach Drive. Office: Parliament Bldgs., Victoria, British Columbia.

PATURET, Dr. GEORGES, French Anatomist and Embryologist; born Dec. 26, 1889, St. Germain de Salles, Allier, France; educated at School of Medicine, Univ. Clermont-Ferrand, M.D. 1923. House Physician, Town Hospital, School of Medicine, Univ. of Clermont-Ferrand, 1910-11; Prosector of Anatomy. Joined French Army, World War I; awarded French Military Cross and Médaille d'Orient; House Surgeon, Paris hospitals, 1919-20; Surgeon, hospitals of Clermont-Ferrand, 1923;

Prof. of Anatomy and Embryology, School of Medicine, Univ. Clermont-Ferrand, since 1923. Member: French Assn. of Surgeons; French Anatomical Soc. Awarded Silver Medal and Prizeman, Faculty of Medicine, Paris. Author: Les lames vasculaires de l'appareil urinaire et de la capsule surrénale; Les loges rénale et surrénale; Le développement et l'évolution de l'artère diaphragmatique inférieure et de l'artère capsulaire supérieure; L'espace retro-parietal anterieur; Les ligaments hépato-surréno-rénaux interne et externe; Le coussinet adipeux du hile ru rein; Les muscles et aponécroses de la région lombaire; Les complications des luxations traumatiques de l'epaule; Les arthropathies tabetiques du genou; Le cancer du rectum; Traité d'Anatomie Humaine (6 vols.), in press. Addresses: 57 Cours Sablon and 24 Boulevard Gergovia, Clermont-Ferrand, France.

PATY, Dr. RAYMOND ROSS, American Educator; born Nov. 4, 1896, Bell Buckle, Tenn.; son of Robert M. and Zula M. (Muse) Paty; educated at Univ. of Tennessee; Emory Univ., A.B. 1921, LL.D. 1938; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1927; Univ. of Chicago; Univ. of Alabama, LL.D. 1942; Birmingham - Southern College, L.H.D. 1943; married Adelaide Martha Pund, 1921; three daughters. Principal of Cumberland Mountain School, 1921-29; Assoc. Prof. of Bible and Religious Education, Emory Univ., 1929-37; Dean of Men, 1933-37; State Director of National Youth Administration, 1935-36; Director of Fellowships, Julius Rosenwald Fund, 1937-38; Pres. of Birmingham-Southern College, 1938-42; Pres., Univ. of Alabama, since 1942. Address: University of Alabama, Alabama.

PAUCK, Dr. WILHELM, American Church Historian; born Jan. 31, 1901, Laasphe, Germany; son of Wilhelm and Maria (Hofmann) Pauck; educated at Real-gymnasium of Berlin-Steglitz, 1912-20; Univ. of Gottingen, 1922-23; Univ. of Berlin, L.S.T. 1925; University of Giessen, Th.D. 1933; married Olga C. Dietz-Guembel, May 1, 1928. Instructor in Church History, Chicago Theological Seminary, 1926; Professor of Church History, 1931. Professor of History of Theology, University of Chicago, since 1939. President, American Society of Church History, 1936. Author: Das Reich Gottes auf Erden, 1928; Karl Barth, 1931; The Church Against the World, 1935, etc. Residence: 5805 Dorchester Ave. Office: 5757 University Ave., Chicago, Ill.

PAUCOT, Prof. HENRI RENÉ, French Obstetrician; born Dec. 27, 1877, Saint Omer (Pas-de-Calais), France; son of Jacques and Eugénie (Lebehot) Paucot; educated at Faculty of Caen, Litt.B., Ph.B. 1895; Faculty of Medicine, Lille, M.D. 1903; married Louise Fievet, Feb. 5, 1924; two daughters. Chief of Obstetrical Clinic, Lille, 1906-10; Asst. Prof., Faculty of Medicine (Obstetrical Section), Lille, 1920; Prof. of Obstetrics and Babies Hygiene, 1923-38; Prof. of Clinical Obstetrics, since 1938. Director, School of Midwifery, Lille. Member: Permanent Superior Council on Public Hygiene; Northern League of Social Hygiene; French Red Cross (Technical Adviser, Maternity and Infants Section). Secy. General, Lille Soc. for Protection of Infants; Vice-Pres., Com. for Moral and Social Action; Pres., Regional Centre of Sanitary Education; Regional Pres., Natl. Assn. for French Indo-China, 1945; Vice-Pres., Natl. Confederation of Civil War Victims, 1945; Pres., Natl. Union of Frenchmen condemned by German Courts, 1943; Member, Com. for Supervision of Prisons, 1945. Vice-Pres., French Gynecological Soc.; Pres., Lille Soc. of Gynecology and Obstetrics. Member: Assn. of French Speaking Gynecologists and Obstetricians; Royal Belgian Soc. of Gynecology and Obstetrics. Knight, Social Merit Order; Legion of Honor; Officer of Public Health; Public Instruction; Resistance Medal. Author of numerous reports and articles on gynecology and obstetrics. Residence: 238 Rue Solférino. Office: 240 Rue Solférino, Lille, Nord, France.

PAUES, ERIK WALDEMAR, Swedish Economist; born Nov. 5, 1879; son of Johan Wilhelm and Gustava (Andersson) Paues; educated at Univ. of Uppsala, fil. kand., 1902, jur.kand. 1906; married Siri Carola Lundmarker, five children. Legal adviser and Secy. to Federation of Swedish Textile Industries, 1907-20; Managing Director, 1920-45; Chairman and Manager, Federation Swedish Clothing Industry, 1920-45; Member and Expert of Swedish Unemployment Board, 1922-35. Expert for Swedish textile industries in Anglo-Swedish trade treaty negotiations, 1932, 1933. Delegate to International Labor Office International Conf. in Washington, 1937. Deputy member, 1929 and member, Swedish Labor Court, 1932. Appointed Head of Textile Dept., National Economic Commission for Emergency of War, 1939. Residence: Ostermalmsgatan 97, Stockholm, Sweden.

PAUKER, ANA (RABINSOHN), Rumanian Political Leader; born 1890; studied medicine in Zuirch, Switzerland; married Marcel Pauker (deceased); one son, two daughters. Left school at 16 and joined Socialist Party; worked with underground in Rumania; jailed many times; wounded twice by police; aided in conversion of Rumanian left-wing Socialists to Communists, 1920; exiled from Rumania; conducted Communistic activities in Switzerland; went to U. S. with husband and worked for Soviet trading agency Amtorg; returned to Rumania, 1935; jailed for subversive activities, serving five years of a ten-year term; released in an exchange of prisoners between Russia and Rumania, 1941, becoming Soviet citizen; Member, Comintern Executive Com.; Head of Rumanian Communist Party, 1944 —; helped set up nine-nation Communist Information Bureau, 1947; Member, Rumanian Parliament; appointed Foreign Minister of Rumania (first woman to hold this post), Nov. 1947 —. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bucharest, Rumania.

PAUL I, His Majesty, King of Greece; born Dec. 14, 1901; married Princess Frederika Louise of Brunswick, Jan. 9, 1938; three children. Served as a Commander in Greek Navy. Major General in Greek Army and Political Adviser to brother King George II, during World War II; accompanied brother on flight to Crete at opening of German offensive in Greece. Apr. 1941; wtih brother and royal family in flight to South Africa, summer of 1941; arrived in London and made headquarters there, Sept. 1941; made many broadcasts to Greek people from London; returned to Athens with King and Crown Princess, Sept. 1946; upon death of brother, King George II, succeeded him as King of the Hellenes, Apr. 1947. Address: Royal Palace, Athens, Greece.

PAUL, ARTHUR, American Economist; born Aug. 28, 1898, Chestnut Hill, Pa.; son of Henry N. and Margaret (Butler) Paul; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1920; married (2nd) Adeline V. N. Hitch, Apr. 25, 1932; four children. Secy., Dexdale Hosiery Mills, 1921; Vice-Pres. and Treasurer of Dexdale, 1929-42; Chief of Office of the Office of Imports in the Board of Economic Warfare, 1942-43; Executive Director, Bureau of Areas in the Foreign Economic Administration, 1945; now Asst. to Secy. of Commerce and Dir. of Office of Internatl. Trade, U. S. Dept. of Commerce. Member: Advisory Council, Dept. of Economics and Social Institutions, Princeton Univ., 1941 to date. Dir., Russian War Relief of Philadelphia, 1941; Delegate to the International Labor Office in Geneva, 1937, in New York, 1941. Residence: 3317 N Street, N. W. Office: Office of International Trade, U. S. Dept. of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

PAUL, EDMUND SHEFFIELD WILLOUGHBY, Australian Insurance Executive; born June 25, 1874, Sydney, Australia; educated in grammar schools. Admitted as Solicitor, Supreme Court of New South Wales, 1900. Joined firm of Schweppes Ltd., Sydney, 1899, trained at Colwall and Liverpool Branches and London Works at Hendon, 1900; Supt. of Sydney and Melbourne Branches, 1902; Managing Director, Schweppes Ltd. in Australia, since 1919; Member, London Board of Directors. Governing Director: Ohilcott Engineering & Motor Co. Ltd.; Zetland Case & Box Co., Ltd. (subsidiaries of Schweppes, Ltd.). Joined Board of Australian Motorists' Petrol Co. Ltd., 1936. Chairman of Directors: A.P.A. Fixed Investment Trust Co. Ltd.; Branded Bottle Assn. of N.S.W. Ltd.; Australian Provincial Assurance Assn. Ltd. Residence: Hillview, Turramurra, N.S.W. Office: 67 Foveaux St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

PAUL, ELLIOT (HAROLD), American Writer; born 1891, Linden, Malden, Mass. Author: Impromptu, 1923; Indelible, 1923; Imperturbed, 1924; Low Run Tide and Lava Rock, 1929; The Amazon, 1930; The Governor of Massachusetts, 1930; The Life and Death of a Spanish Town, 1937; Concert Pitch, 1938; The Stars and Stripes Forever, 1939; The Mysterious Mickey Finn, 1940; Intoxication Made Easy, 1941; The Last Time I Saw Paris, 1942; With a Hay Nonny Nonny, 1942; I'll Hate Myself in the Morning and Summer in December, 1945; Linden on the Saugus Branch, 1947. Wrote The Death of Lord Haw Haw, No. 1 Personality of World War II, under pseudonym of Brett Rutledge. Address: c/o Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

PAUL, Rev. Brother G., (THOMAS A. GARTLAND), Catholic Educator; born June 9, 1885, Wellsboro, Pa.; son of Joseph A. and Ellen (Nash) Gartland; educated at LaSalle College, Philadelphia, B.A. 1913, LL.D. 1942; Catholic Univ., Washington, M.A. in Education, 1930. Principal, St. Michael's School, Phila., Pa., 1913-17; Principal, LaSalle Hall, Ammendale, Md., 1917-22; Vice-Principal, Ammendale Normal Institute, 1922-30; Vice-President, De LaSalle College, Catholic Univ., 1930-34; Provincial Visitor, District of Baltimore (including Md., Pa., N. J. and D. C.); President, Board of Trustees: Ammendale (Md.) Normal Institute; St. John's College, Washington, D. C.; Calvert Hall College, Baltimore, Md.; Ocean Rest Summer School, Ocean City, N. J. Member: National Catholic Educational Assn.; Christian Brothers' Educational Conference. Author: A Hero of Malonne—Life of Brother Mutien-Marie, 1934. Address: 1240 N. Broad St., Philadelphia 21, Pa.

PAUL, HENRY NEILL, American Lawyer; born Sept. 25, 1863, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Henry Neill and Elizabeth (Stadleman) Paul; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1884, A.M. 1886, Litt.D. 1945; Amherst College, L.H.D. 1941; married Margaret Crosby Butler, Jan. 30, 1889; eight children. Admitted to Philadelphia Bar and to the Federal Courts, 1886; in practice since then in fields of patents, trademarks or unfair competition. Member, firm of Paul and Paul. Former Pres., Board of Managers, Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia. Dean, Shakespeare Soc. of Philadelphia. Address: 1815 Land Title Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa.

PAUL, Hon. JOHN, United States District Judge; born Harrisonburg, Va., Dec. 9, 1883; son of John and Katherine S. (Green) Paul; educated at University of Virginia Law School, LL.B. 1906; married Frances Danenhower, 1914 (died in 1919); married Alice Kelly, 1939. Began the practice of law, 1906. Member of the Virginia State Senate, 1912-16 and 1920-22. Member: United States House of Representatives, 1922-23. Special Assistant to the Attorney-General of the U. S., 1923-24. United States District Attorney for the Western District of Virginia, 1929-32; United States District Judge for the Western District of Virginia, since 1932. Office: Federal Bldg., Harrisonburg, Va.

PAUL, Dr. JOHN RODMAN, American Professor of Preventive Medicine; born April 18, 1893, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Henry N. and Margaret (Butler) Paul; educated at Princeton Univ., A.B. 1915; Johns Hopkins Med. School, M.D. 1919; Yale Univ., hon. M.A. 1940; married Mary Leita Harlan, Sept. 30, 1922. Dir., Ayer Clinical Laboratory at Pennsylvania Hosp., 1922-28;; Fellow in Dept. of Research Med., Univ. of Penna., 1922-28. Asst. (later Assoc.) Prof. of Internal Med. at Yale Univ. Med. School, 1928-40; Prof. of Preventive Med. since 1940. Assoc. Physician at New Haven Hospital, since 1928. Member of Public Health Com., National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, since 1940; Consultant to Secretary of War and Director of Neurotropic Virus Disease Commission of U. S. Army since 1941. Member: Natl. Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Med. Assn.; Assn. of Amer. Physicians; Amer. Soc. for Clinical Investigation; American Public Health Association. Awards: John Phillips Memorial Award, Amer. College of Physicians, 1942. Publications: Epidemiology of Rheumatic Fever (1st ed. 1930, 2nd ed. 1943); Rheumatic Fever in New Haven (Science Press), 1940; also numerous articles. Res.: 49 Autumn St. Office: 333 Cedar Street, New Haven, Conn.

PAUL, LOUIS, American Writer; born 1901. Author: The Pumpkin Coach, 1935; A Horse in Arizona, 1936; Emma, 1937; The Wrong World, 1938; The Man Who Left Home, 1938; A Passion for Privacy, 1940; The Reverend Ben Pool, 1941; This Is My Brother, 1943; The Ordeal of Sergeant Smoot, 1943; Annihilation of Man, 1945; Breakdown, 1946. Address: c/o Crown Publishers, 419 4th Ave., New York, New York.

PAUL, MARCEL, French Political Leader; born July 12, 1900, Paris, France. Began career at age of thirteen as an agricultural worker and pupil of the Administration des Enfants Assistés, Département de la Seine; served in French Navy during World War I; electrician with Compagnie Parisienne de Distribution d'Electricité, Paris, 1923; Secy., Syndicate of Workers in Electrical Industry, 1929; served as officer with French Partisans, during German occupation; arrested in 1941; deported to Auschwitz and Buchenwald; elected Deputy, Haute Vienne district, 1945. Minister of Industrial Production, 1945-46. Vice-Pres., Fédération Nationale des Déportés et Internés Résistants et Patriotes; former Secy. General, Fédération Nationale des Syndicats Unitaires d'Agents des Services Publics. Member, Communist Party. Recipient of Croix de Guerre with three citations. Author of Loi sur la nationalisation de l'Electricité, du Gaz et des Houillères. Residence: 211 Rue La Fayette, Paris, France.

PAUL, Hon. MARTIN, K.C., Canadian Secretary of State; born June 23, 1903, Ottawa, Ont., Canada; son of Philip Ernest and Lumina (Chouinard) Paul; educated at St. Michael's College, Toronto Univ., B.A. 1925, M.A. 1928; Osgoode Hall, Barrister-at-Law, 1928; Harvard Univ., LL.M. 1929; married Alice Eleanor Adams, 1936; two children. Lawyer since 1930. Lecturer on Political Science, Assumption College, Univ. of Western Ontario, 1931-34; senior partner, law firm of Martin, Laird & Easton, since 1934. Member, Canadian House of Commons for Essex East, Windsor, Ont., 1935; re-elected 1940 and 1945. Appointed King's Counsel, 1939. Attended League of Nations Assembly, 1929, 1936, 1938; Canadian Delegate, 19th Assembly, League of Nations, Geneva, 1938. Chairman, Canadian Delegation, World Youth Congress, Geneva, 1936; Parliamentary Asst. to Minister of Labor, 1943; Rept., Federal Govt., at Dominion Provincial Labor Conf., 1944; Chairman, Canadian Delegation, Conf. of Internatl. Labor Office, Philadelphia, 1944 (Chairman, Commn. on Employment); Canadian Rept., 94th Session, Governing Body, International Labor Office, London, 1945 (Chairman, Constitutional Com.). Secy. of State of Canada since 1945 (youngest member, Canadian Cabinet). Delegate, Canadian Govt., 1st General Assembly, United Nations Organizations, London, 1945; 1st Canadian Rept., Economic and Social Council, United Nations, 1946; Canadian Delegate, 3rd Meeting of Economic and Social Council, United Nations, N. Y., 1946. Chairman, Com. on Refugees, United Nations; Member, Canadian Delegation, General Assembly, United Nations, N. Y., 1946. Vice-Pres., United Nations Soc. in Canada; Vice-Pres. and Council Member, Inst. of Internatl. Affairs. Hon. Secy., Canadian Branch, Interparliamentary Union. Member: Canadian Bar Assn.; Amer. Philosophical Assn. Author of numerous articles on various subjects. Residence: Windsor, Ont. Office: Parliament Bldgs., Ottawa, Ont., Canada.

PAUL, RANDOLPH EVERNGHIM, American Lawyer; born Aug. 8, 1890, Hackensack, N. J.; son of Charles B. and Martha (Evernghim) Paul; educated at Amherst College, A.B. 1911; New York Law School, LL.B. 1913; married Muriel Shaver, 1931; two children. Admitted to the N. Y. Bar 1914; to the N. J. Bar, 1915. Member of the firm of Lord, Day & Lord, 1938-42 and 1944-46. Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury, 1941-42; General Counsel to the Treasury Department, Tax Advisor to the Secretary of the Treasury and Acting Secretary of the Treasury in charge of Foreign Control Funds, 1942-44. Special Asst. to the President, in charge of Allied-Swiss negotiations regarding German assets in Switzerland, 1946; partner, firm of Paul, Weiss, Wharton & Garrison, N. Y., since 1946. Lectured at Yale and Harvard Law Schools. Dir. Federal Reserve Bank of N. Y., 1942. Author: Law of Federal Income Taxation (co-author), 1934; Studies in Federal Taxation, 1937; Selected Studies in Federal Taxation (2nd Series), 1938; Federal Estate and Gift Taxation, 1942, with supplement, 1946. Residence: 3206 P St., N.W., Washington, D. C. Offices: 1614 I St., N.W., Washington, D. C. and 61 Broadway, New York 4, N. Y.

PAUL, Dr. RAYMOND ETIENNE, French Chemist; born Jan. 24, 1907, Angers, France; son of Guillaume and Berthe (Pecheur) Paul; educated at Lyceum David, Angers, Sc.B. 1927; Faculty of Sciences, Angers, Lic.Sc. (physics) 1930; Faculty of Sciences, Paris, Sc.D. 1932; Faculty of Pharmacy, Strasbourg, pharmacist 1938; married Marguerite Piot, June 1929; five daughters. Lectured at Faculty of Sciences, Angers, 1930-32; Prof. of Chemistry, Faculty of Sciences, Angers, and Ecole Supérieure d'Agriculture, Angers, 1932; Scientific Director, Société des Usines Chimiques, Rhône-Poulenc, since 1942. Council Member, French Chemical Soc. Awards: Prix Adrian, Chemical Soc. of France, 1936; Prix Jecker, Acad. of Sciences, 1943. Author of numerous contributions to Comptes Rendus de l'Académie des Sciences, Bulletin de la Société Chimique de France. Lieut., French Army, Intelligence Corps, 1939-40. Address: Université Catholique de l'Ouest, 2 rue Volney, Angers, France.

PAUL, Major General WILLARD STEWART, American Army Officer; born Feb. 28, 1894, Worcester, Mass.; son of Warrington Irving and Etta M. (Fish) Paul; educated at Clark Univ.; Dartmouth College; Johns Hopkins Univ., B.S. 1924; American Univ., Washington, D. C., M.A. 1942; married Ruth Sieurin, Apr. 14, 1919; one son. Enlisted in 1st Colo. N.G., 1916; Lt., U. S. Army, 1917; advanced through grades to Major General, 1943; graduate Inf. School, officer's course, 1921; advanced course, 1930; Command and General Staff School, 1935; Army War College, 1937; Instructor, Infantry School, 1930-33; detailed to Adj. General's Dept., 1937-41; in charge of classification of all military personnel; Gen. Staff Corps as G-4, Gen. Hdqrs., and Army Ground Forces; World War II commander of 26th Inf. Div.; G-1, S.H.A.E.F.; Deputy Chief of Staff, U.S.F.E.T.; Director of Personnel and Administration, War Dept. General Staff. Awards: D.S.M.; Legion of Merit; Silver Star; Bronze Star Medal; French Légion d'honneur; Croix de Guerre; Belgian Légion d'honneur; Croix de Guerre. Residence: Qtrs. 22A, Fort Myer, Va. Office: Room 2E 924, Pentagon Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PAUL-BONCOUR, Dr. JOSEPH, French Statesman; born in Dept. of Loir-et-Cher, 1873; holds degree of Doctor of Laws. Executive Secretary to Waldeck-Rousseau, 1899-1902; later executive secretary to René Viviani. Elected Socialist-Republican Deputy from Blois, 1909; became Minister of Labor in Monis Cabinet, 1911; defeated for re-election, 1914. Commanded an infantry battalion during World War I; awarded Croix de Guerre. Elected to the Chamber, 1919, as an Independent Socialist from Paris, and in 1924 from Tarn. Elected Senator from Loir-et-Cher, 1930. French representative at Geneva, 1924-28. Premier of France, Dec. 19, 1932-Jan. 31, 1933. Pres., Socialist and Republican Union, 1935. Minister without portfolio in Sarraut Government, 1936; Foreign Minister in Blum Government, Mar.-Apr. 1938. Resigned from Presidency of Socialist and Republican Union and retired from public life when Daladier Government was formed. Voted against granting full power to Marshal Pétain, July, 1940. Served as Chairman, Committee of Twenty, which selected the 60 members of Parliament in Paris to sit in the Consultative Assembly. Member, Consultative Assembly, since Nov. 7, 1944. Chairman, French Commission for the Study of the Dumbarton Oaks Plan. Member, French Delegation, United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Delegate, U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946. French Rept., U. N. Economic and Social Council, and Security Council, 1946. Head of French Delegation to final session of League of Nations, 1946. Minister to Roumania, 1947. Chief, French Delegation, U. N. Commn. in Korea, Dec. 1947—. Address: Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paris, France.

PAULDING, Dr. LINUS CARL, American Chemist; educated at Oregon State

College, B.S. (Ch.E.) 1922; California Inst. of Technology, Ph.D. 1925; Sc.D. Oregon State College, 1933, Uni. of Chicago, 1941. National Research Fellow in Chemistry, 1925-26; Fellow, John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 1926-27; Lecturer in Physics and Chemistry, Univ. of California, 1928-33; at Mass. Inst. of Technology, 1932; George Fisher Baker Lecturer, Cornell Univ., 1937-38. Asst. in Chemistry, California Inst. of Technology, Pasadena, 1922-23; Teaching Fellow, 1923-25; Research Fellow, 1926-27; Asst. Prof., 1927-29; Assoc. Prof., 1929-31; Prof., 1931 —; Director of Gates and Crellin Laboraties of Chemistry, and Chairman of Division of Chemistry and Chemical Engineering, Calif. Inst. of Technology. Pres., Amer. Chemical Soc., 1948 —. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member: National Acad. of Sciences; Amer. Philosophical Soc. Received Davy Medal of the Royal Soc. (London), 1947. Address: California Institute of Technology, Pasadena 4, Calif.

PAULEE, MONA, Canadian Singer; born in Canada. Started career by winning a talent contest in a Pacific Coast movie house; filled various engagements that followed; received contract with Metropolitan Opera House by winning radio contest "Auditions of the Air"; has concertized extensively from coast to coast. Address: c/o Lawrence Evans Artist Management, Inc., 113 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y.

PAULEY, EDWIN W., American Business Executive; born Jan. 7, 1903, Indianapolis, Ind.; son of Elbert L. and Ellen (Van Petten) Pauley; educated at Georgia Military Acad., 1918; Occidental College, 1919-20; Univ. of California, College of Commerce and Business Administration, B.S. 1922, M.S. 1923; married Barbara Jean McHenry, Oct. 23, 1937; four children. Independent oil producer (California, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma) for many years. Founder and President, The Petrol Corp.; also engaged in construction, real estate, small business and manufacturing enterprises; Partner of John S. Griffith, builders and developers of Lakewood City, Calif.; Director, Griffith & Legg Construction. Special Representative of Governor of California on Natural Resource Commission, 1939, and on Interstate Oil and Compact Commission, 1940; Special Representative of Pres. Roosevelt as liaison between U. S. Govt. agencies and Great Britain to secure one hundred tankers, 1940-41; formulated plans for Coordinator of Petroleum Industry, 1941; Special Representative of Petroleum Coordinator on petroleum lend lease supplies for Russia and England, 1941; on mission to England to make joint report between oil industry and British Government in relation to enemy petroleum supplies, 1941; Personal Representative of Pres. Truman, Allied Commission on Reparations, with rank of Ambassador-at-Large, 1945-46; Adviser on Reparations, U. S. State Dept., 1947-48; Special Rept. to Secy. of Army, 1947-48. Pres., Independent Petroleum Assn., 1934-38; Representative, Independent Oil Men of Planning and Coordinating Com., NRA, 1933; Representative, Governor of California, on Pan American Highway Conf., 1939; Ex-Secy.-Treas., Democratic Natl. Com.; Organizer and Member of State of California Defense Council, 1941; Regent, Univ. of California, 1939-55. Democratic Natl. Committeeman for California, 1944-48. Residence: 9521 Sunset Blvd., Beverly Hills, Calif. Office: 756 So. Broadway, Los Angeles 14, Calif.

PAULHAN, JEAN, French Publisher; born Dec. 2, 1884, Nimes, Gard, France; son of Fr. and Jeanne (Thérond) Paulhan; educated at Lyceum of Nimes; Lyceum Louis le Grand, Paris; Sorbonne, Paris (Faculty of Letters); married Germaine Dauptain, Dec. 12, 1933; four children. Teacher in Paris, 1905-06; Prof., Lyceum of Tananarive, Madagascar, 1906-09; Gold prospector in Madagascar, 1909-10; Prof. at School of Oriental Languages, Paris, 1911-13; Corporal, Sergeant and Adjudant, Zouaves Regiment, 1914-18, wounded at Compiègne; Secy., Nouvelle Revue Française, 1919-25; Director, 1925-40; Director, Cahier de la Pléiade, Paris, Publishing House, Gallimard, since 1940. Sub-Chief, Ministry of Natl. Education, 1913-25; Founder, Lettres Françaises clandestines, 1941; Natl. Com. of Writers (clandestine), 1941. Decorated Officer, Legion of Honor, 1938; Croix de Guerre, 1917; Resistance Medal, 1946. Author: Une poésie de dispute: les Hain-tenys malgaches, 1913; Le guerrier appliqué, 1916; Les Fleurs de Tarbes, ou la Terreur dans les Lettres, 1940; Braque le patron, 1946. Residence: 5 rue des Arènes, Paris V, France. Office: 5 rue Sébastien-Bottin, Paris VII, France.

PAULI, HERTHA E., Author; born Sept. 4, 1909, Vienna, Austria; daughter of Prof. Dr. Wolfgang and Bertha (Schuetz) Pauli; educated at College and Acad. of Dramatic Arts, Vienna; married Carl Behr (dec.), Dec. 24, 1929. Actress, Reinhardt Theatre of Berlin, 1929-32; Paramount Pictures (Paris studios), 1930. Left Berlin for Vienna (on Hitler's rise to power), 1933. Anti-Nazi propaganda Work, Paris, 1938. In U. S. since 1940. Author: Toni (Vienna), 1936; A Woman Only (Vienna), 1938; Alfred Nobel: Dynamite King—Architect of Peace (New York), 1942; Silent Night—the story of a song (New York), 1943; The Story of the Christmas Tree (Houghton Mifflin, Boston), 1944; St. Nicholas' Travels (Houghton Mifflin, Boston), 1945. Address: 50 West 77th St., New York, N. Y.

PAULI, Dr. WOLFGANG, Austrian Physicist; Nobel Prize Winner; born Apr. 25, 1900, Vienna, Austria; son of Wolfgang Joseph and Bertha (Schutz) Paul; educated at Univ. of Munich, Ph.D. 1921; married Franciska Bertram, April 4, 1934. Assistant, University of Göttingen, 1921-22; Assistant, University of Copenhagen, 1922-23; Docent, University of Hamburg, 1923-28. Professor, Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule, Zurich, since 1928. Lectured at Univ. of Mich., summers of 1931 and 1941; Purdue Univ., May to June 1942. Visiting Professor, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, N. J., 1935-36; Visiting Professor of Theoretical Physics 1940-46. Received 1945 Nobel Nrize in Physics for work on the "exclusion principle," dealing with regulation of electrons in the outer shell of atoms and molecules. Member: Swiss Physical Society; American Physical Society; American Assn. for the Advancement of Science; Sigma Xi, etc. Awarded Lorentz Médaille. Author of more than 50 papers published in various scientific periodicals. Address: Eidgenössische Technische Hochschule, Zurich, Switzerland.

PAULLIN, Dr. JAMES EDGAR, American Physician; born Nov. 3, 1881, Fort Gaines, Ga.; son of James Edgar and Leola (Wiggins) Paullin; educated at Mercer Univ., B.A. 1900, LL.D. 1929; Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1905; Emory Univ., LL.D. 1943; married Edna Louise Frederick, Dec. 17, 1908; one daughter. Pathol. to State Bd. of Health, 1907-13. Visiting Physician to Grady Hosp., since 1913; Chief of Med. Service, Emory Division, since 1926. Member of Staff of Piedmont Hosp., since 1915. Chairman of Med. Section of Southern Med. Assn., 1920; Chairman, Med. Section of Amer. Med. Assn., 1927; Pres. of Med. Assn. of Georgia; Regent of Amer. College of Physicians; Pres. of Amer. Clinical and Climatol. Assn. Member of Council of Scientific Assembly of American Medical Assn. Member of Com. on Med., Natl. Research Council, Washington, D. C., and Member of Directing Bd. of Procurement and Assignment Agency for Physicians, Dentists and Veterinarians, Washington, D. C. Pres., College of Physicians, 1942-43 and 1944. President, Amer. Med. Assn., 1943. Hon. Consultant to Surgeon General of U. S. Navy. Corresponding Member: Medical Assn. of Argentina; Soc. of Internal Medicine, Buenos Aires, 1944. Awarded Order of Carlos Finlay, by President Batista of Cuba, 1942. Author of numerous publications. Major in Med. Corps of U. S. Army, 1918-19. U. S. Delegate, Internatl. Health Conf., 1946. Residence: 2834 Andrews Dr., N.W. Office: 1010 Medical Arts Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

PAULSEN, CARL G., American Engineer; born April 22, 1887, Chicago, Ill.; son of G. M. and Augusta (Haerttelt) Paulsen; educated at Univ. of Idaho, B.S.C.E. 1913; married Chloris Woodring, Aug. 9, 1922; one step-son. Junior and Asst. Engineer, U. S. Geological Survey, Boise, Idaho, and Tacoma, Wash., 1913-17; Dist. Engineer, U. S. Geological Survey, Atlanta, Ga., 1918-19; in Boise, Idaho, 1919-31; Chief, Div. of Surface Waters, U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C., 1931-39; Asst. Chief Hydraulic Engineer, 1939-46; Chief Hydraulic Engineer, U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C., 1946. U. S. Member on Joint International Engineering Board on International Streams between United States and Canada, 1946—. Residence: 3700 Massachusetts Ave., N. W. Office: U. S. Geological Survey, 2223 Federal Works Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PAULSSON, Dr. (NILS BERNHARD) GREGOR, Swedish Professor of Art; born Aug. 27, 1889, Helsingborg; son of Bernhard and Anna (Thellander) Paulsson; educated at Univ. of Lund, Ph.D. 1916; married Ester Waegner, Jan. 29, 1912; four children. Asst., Natl. Museum, Stockholm, 1913; Keeper, 1916-20; Director, Swedish Assn. of Industrial Design, 1920-34; Prof. of History and Theory of Art, Univ. of Uppsala, 1934; Director, Dept. of Art and Industrial Design, N.K.L. School, Stockholm; Pres., Swedish Assn. of Industrial Design. Member: Royal Soc. of Art, London; RIBA, London; FHVS, Uppsala. Author: Skanes dekorativa konst, 1915; The Creative Element in Art, 1924; Den nya arkitekturen, 1916; Tanke och Form i konsten, 1933; Konstverkets Byggnad, 1942; Konstens Världshistoria, 1942. Residence: Oevre Slottsgatan 2. Office: Gustavianum, Uppsala, Sweden.

PAULUS, Dr. MAX G., American Chemist, Industrialist; born Sept. 25, 1891, Baltimore, Md.; son of Max H. and Caroline (Bamberger) Paulus; educated at Johns Hopkins Univ., A.B. 1912, Ph.D. 1915; married Florence Frye, Oct. 28, 1920. Research Chemist with the SOCO Whiting Plant, 1915; Foreman, Pressure Still Dept., 1919; Asst. Foreman, Crude Still Dept., 1920; Asst. Supt., Plant No. 1, of Casper Refinery, 1921; of Plant No. 3 in 1921; Supt, of the latter in 1922; promoted to Manager of Rocky Mountain Division, 1927; Asst. General Manager, Manufacturing Dept., Chicago, 1931; General Manager of the latter, 1931; elected Director of Company, 1932. Vice-Pres. in Charge of Manufacturing, Standard Oil Co. (Indiana) since 1933. Residence: 6844 S. Shore Drive. Office: 910 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

PAUPHILET, Dr. ALBERT, French Educator; born Apr. 13, 1884, Ile St. Denis, Seine, France; son of Edouard Pauphilet; educated at Lyceum Condorcet, Litt.B. 1901; Univ. of Paris, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Lic.Litt. 1906; diploma in higher studies, 1907; Litt.D., Paris, 1922; married Madeleine Grandvarlet, July 9, 1913; four children. Lecturer, Egyptian Univ., Cairo, 1908-10; Prof., Lyceum of Lille, 1910-12; Asst., Faculty of Letters, Univ. of Lille, 1912-14; Lecturer, Univ. of Clermont, 1919-22; Prof., Univ. of Lyon, 1922-24; Prof. at Sorbonne, Paris, 1934; Director, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, since 1944. Member, Soc. of Old French Texts. Officer, Legion of Honor. Author: Études sur la Queste du Saint Graal, 1922; Études sur la Poèsie épique Gormond, 1925; Roland, 1934, 1946; Études sur le Roman, etc. Officer, French Army, 1914-18; with General Staff, 1939-40. Address: 45 rue d'Ulm, Paris, France.

PAUST, DAGFINN, Norwegian Shipowner; born Apr. 19, 1881, Sandar, Norway; son of Otto Anton and Emma (Lyhmann) Paust; educated at Sandefjords Middelskole, 1896; Andersons Nautical School, 1899; Oslo Handelsgymnasium, 1902; married Constance Sarah Balcarras, Nov. 24, 1909; two children. Sailor in sailing ships, 1896; in shipping office of Johan Bryde, Sandefjord, 1902-03; Fred Olsen & Co., Oslo, 1903-05; Fred Dessen & Co., London, 1905-07; J. M. Bryde, Oslo, 1907-14; Fearnley & Eger, Oslo, 1914-20; Wil. Wilhelmsem, Oslo, 1920-21; Partner, Fearnley & Eger, Oslo, since 1921. Chairman of Board of Directors, Assuranceforeningen Skuld; Norwegian Shipping Gazette. Chairman of Board of Repts., Framnaes mek. Vaerksted; Nasjonal Pappemballasje Industri. Vice-Chairman, Internatl. Tanker Owners Assn., London; Pres., Norwegian Life Boat Assn. Residence: Vestanrod, Slemdal. Office: Radhusgaten 23, Oslo, Norway.

PAUTHENIER, Dr. MARCEL, French Physicist; born Mar. 14, 1887, Messigny, France; educated at Lyceum of Dijon, 1898-1908; Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, 1909-13; Asst. in Physical Sciences, 1913, Sc.D. 1920; married Germaine Bezard, Apr. 4, 1920; three children. Lecturer, Faculty of Sciences, Lille, 1921; Prof., 1923; Prof.; Sorbonne, Paris, 1930; Prof. of General Electrotechnics, since 1943; Prof., Ecole Supérieure d'Electricité, since 1937. Member of editorial committees of various scientific periodicals. Administrator, Société de Purification électriques des Gaz. Member: French Physical Soc.; French Soc. of Electricians. Created Knight, Legion of Honor, 1936. Author of various publications in professional periodicals since 1920. Sub-Lieut., French Army, Infantry, 1913-15; Lieut., 1915. Address: Sorbonne, 1 Rue Victor Cousin, Paris V, France.

PAVAL, PHILIP, American Designer, Painter and Sculptor; born April 20, 1899, Nykobing F., Denmark; son of Christian Philip Petersen and Margrethe Kranker; educated at Technical School of Art and Design, Nykobing F.; studied with Simon Scultz and with Karl Vorsöe and Will Foster; Western Univ., Kapurthala, India, hon. Dr. Fine Arts; married Maybelle Zubler-Gunther, March 19, 1926. Exhibited at Los Angeles (Olympic Games Art Exhibition, Los Angeles County Museum (since 1936); Calif. Art Club Exhibitions, Los Angeles; Painter and Sculptor Clubs Exhibitions. Held one-man shows at Los Angeles Museum, San Francisco World's Fair, 1940; Royal Acad., Copenhagen, Denmark, 1936; Pasadena Art Inst., 1947. Represented in permanent collections of Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Los Angeles County Museum, Calif.; Philbrook Art Museum, Tulsa, Okla.; Wichita (Kans.) Art Museum); Devi Palace Museum, Kapurthala, British India; Presidential Palace, Quito, Ecuador; Stanford Univ., Calif.; in private collections of Herbert Hoover, King Frederick IX of Denmark, Crown Prince Olav of Norway, Dazel Hatfield Art Gallery, Los Angeles, Francis Taylor Art Gallery, Beverly Hills, Calif.; America House, New York, etc. Awarded numerous prizes and medals. Address: 2244 Stanley Hills Dr., Hollywood 46, Calif.

PAVETTI MORIN, Dr. CLAUDIO VICENTE, Paraguayan Botanist; born Oct. 30, 1904, Santísima Trinidad, Paraguay; son of Máximo Pavetti and Venancia Dolores Morín de P.; educated at Colegio Nacional de Asunción; Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacy; attended Univ. of Hamburg, Germany; Univ. of Michigan, M. Forestry, 1945. Asst. to Docent in Universidad Nacional, 1929; Prof. of Botany, Zoology and Geology, secondary schools, 1931-38. First Lt., in Sanitary Corps of the Army, during Chaco War. Substitute Prof. of Pharmacology, Faculty of Chemistry, National Univ., 1933-35; Prof. of General and Applied Botany, since 1936. Consul General in Hamburg, Germany, 1938-40; Chief, Laboratorio de Botánica Fitopatológica, Genética y Fisiología Vegetal, Laboratorio Central, Ministry of Agriculture, 1941-42; Director, Botanical Gardens and of Museo de Historia Natural, since 1942. Member: Colegio de Químicos y Farmacéuticos; Sociedad Científica del Paraguay; Ateneo Paraguayo; Liga Paraguaya Contra el Cáncer; Instituto Cultural Paraguayo-Americano. Author: Index Seminum Phanerogamicarum sponte in Paraguaria crescentium, etc. Address: Santísima Trinidad, Paraguay.

PAVLENKO, PETR ANDREEVICH, Soviet Writer; born 1899, Leningrad. Grew up in Georgian S.S.R. Published first stories in 1927. Author: (novel) "Desert," about trip to Turkmenia, 1930; (novel) "In the East," 1934; (movie scenarios) "In the Far East"; "Iakov Sverdlov"; "Alexandr Nevskii"; "The Vow"; (novel) "Happiness," 1947. Lives in Crimea since 1945. Awarded: Stalin Prize three times; Order of Lenin; Order of Red Star; Order of Red Banner of Labor Served as war correspondent during World War II. Wrote libretto of an opera on the late Georgian Army Commissar Alaki Georgadze. Address: Goslitizat Publishing House, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PAVLIDES, STELIOS, K.C., Cyprian Attorney General; born Sept. 26, 1892, Paphos, Cyprus; son of Demosthenes Pavlides; educated in Cyprus and at Athens Gymnasiums; Gray's Inn, London; married Maria Theodotou, 1923. Began career in 1917 as an advocate. Member, Legislative Council of Cyprus, 1925-27; became Crown Counsel, Cyprus, 1927; Solicitor-General of Cyprus, 1940; Attorney-General of Cyprus (the first Cyprian appointed as Attorney-General) since 1944. Residence: Nicosia, Cyprus.

PAVLOV, ALEXEI P., Soviet Diplomat. Member of the Collegium of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R., 1946. Soviet Ambassador to Belgium and to Luxembourg, 1946—. Soviet Delegate, Drafting Committee, United Nations Commission on Human Rights, 1948. Address: Soviet Embassy, Brussels, Belgium.

PAVLOV, IVAN, Soviet Artist; born 1872. Engraver since age 14; outstanding in reproduction work; makes albums of colored engravings on wood and linoleum from his own drawings; albums are devoted to old Russian architectural memorials, rural scenes and landscapes drawn from nature or the imagination. Awarded title of People's Artist of the U.S.S.R., 1943. Held one-man exhibition at Soviet Artists' Salon, Moscow, 1947. Dominant theme of work is landscape, principally Moscow scenes; also pictured old Russian towns of Torzhok, Ryazan and Kasimov with their curious architecture in black and white colored engravings. Studio: Kuznetsky Most II, Vsekohudoznik, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PAVLOV, Prof. MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH, Soviet Metallurgist; born 1860, Lenkoran, Azerbaijan. Dean of Soviet metallurgists. Work recognized as of significance for the country's development of iron and steel industry; known for research on theory of blast-furnace process. Member of Branch of Chemical Sciences and of Branch of Technical Sciences of Acad. of Sciences of U.S.S.R. Awarded: Stalin Prize, 1st class, 1943; Order of Lenin, 1943; title of Hero of Socialist Labor, 1945; Order of Red Banner of Labor, 1945; Stalin Prize, 1946. Address: Academy of Sciences of the U.S.S.R., Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PAVLOV, Prof. TODOR, Bulgarian Philosopher, Political Leader; born Feb. 14, 1894, Shtip, Macedonia; son of Dimitr and Ecaterina (Nasteva) Pavlov; educated at Sofia Univ., Ph.L. 1918; Moscow Univ., Ph.D. (honoris causa) 1936; married Gana Nedialkova; two children. Began as Master and Publicist, 1910; Memebr, Central Com., Bulgarian Communist Party, 1919; imprisoned for four months, 1923; Editor, Communist Paper, 1924; again imprisoned 1925-29, 1932-36; Prof. of Philosophy, Moscow Inst. of Philosophy, 1936-41; Publicist, engaged in political activities, Sofia, 1941-43; in various concentration camps; Regent of Bulgaria, 1944-46; Member, Presidium of National Council of Bulgaria since 1947. Delegate, International Congress on Red Aid, Berlin, 1931; also Executive Com. Member. Pres., Bulgarian Acad. of Sciences and Art, 1947—. Member, Inst. of Philosophy, Moscow. Author: Theory of Reflection, 1936, 1945; Idealism and Materialism, 1929; Materialism and Remke's Philosophy, 1929; Materialism and Remaining Philosophic Doctrines, 1938; General Theory of Arts, 1938; Philosophy and Private Sciences, 1939. Residence: Ulitza 6 Septemvri 35. Office: The Regency, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PAVLOVSKY, Lt. General EUGENII NIKANOROVICH, Soviet Epidemologist; born 1884. First Soviet scientist to work on the theory of carriers of disease. Holder of the Chair of Zoology and Comparative Anatomy, Military Medical Acad., 1929—. Made expeditions to Central Asia, the Caucasus, Crimea, Trans-Baikal and the Maritime Territory. Has madea number of outstanding discoveries, particularly in the field of taiga encephalitis. Head of Dept. of Parasitology, All-Union Inst. of Experimental Medicine. Lectured at Military Medical Acad., Leningrad; directed the work of the Tajik branch of the Acad. of Sciences; served on editorial board of Journal of General Biology. Headed three expeditions in Iran and Iraq, 1942 and 1943. Elected Hon. Member of Iranian Acad. of Sciences, 1943. Served as Lieut. General of the Medical Service, World War II. Member of Acad. of Sciences of U.S.S.R. Awarded Stalin Prize, 1939; Order of Lenin, for work in parasitology, 1944. Address: Military Medical Academy, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PAVLOWITCH, KOSTA ST., Yugoslav Diplomat; born February 20, 1905, Belgrade, Serbia; son of Stévan K. and Lyoubitsa (Techitch) Pavlowitch; educated at Lycée Janson de Sailly, Paris, and at University of Belgrade; married Mara Dioukitch, on Apr. 19, 1931; two sons. Private Secretary to Minister for Foreign Affairs, 1928-32; Private Secy. to Prime Minister, 1932; Secy. in Foreign Office, 1932-35; transferred to Legation in Brussels and Luxemburg as Chargé d'Affaires, 1935; First Secy. to the Embassy in Bucharest, 1935-41; also Chargé d'Affaires; transferred to Foreign Office, 1941; Principal Private Secy. to Prime Minister, 1942-43; First Secretary to Yugoslav Embassy in London, 1943. Author: The Struggle of the Serbs (The Standard Art Book Co. Ltd., London), 1943. Residence: 11 Cottesmore Court, Stanford Rd., London, W. 8, England.

PAVÓN, Dr. CIRILO, Argentine Professor of Civil Law; born July 14, 1881, Goya, Province of Corrientes, Argentina; son of Pedro José Pavón and María Natividad Ovelar de P.; studied in Escuela Primaria Goya; Colegio Nacional de Corrientes; Colegio Sud de Buenos Aires; Instituto Nacional del Profesorado; Faculty of Law of Buenos Aires, Attorney 1912, Dr. in Jurisprudence 1913, Professor 1915; married María Teresa Raffo; two children. Began legal practice, 1913; Prof. of Civil Law, Univ. of Buenos Aires. Member of Directorate, Colegio de Abogados, 1934-36, 1937-38. Ex-Member, Commission to study the Civil Code and for new edition of civil code. Now Member of Institute of History of Argentine Law, etc. Member of Buenos Aires Rowing Club. Author of Defensa Social—medios preventivos y represivos (1913); Contratos en el Derecho Civil Argentino (1927); Teoría general de los Contratos en el Derecho Civil Argentino (1929); La Familia en el Derecho Civil Argentino (1938); also pamphlets and technical legal studies. Residence: Ciudad de La Paz No. 1735, Buenos Aires. Office: Maipú No. 71, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAVURDJIEV, VASIL, Bulgarian Journalist, Political Leader; born 1897, Tsaribrod; took law degree in Sofia. As member of Agrarian Union took part in 1923 uprising; arrested and imprisoned. Formerly Editor of many progressive newspapers. Pres., Union of Bulgarian Journalists. Member, Supreme Board, Agrarian Union. Deputy in National Assembly. Minister of Mines and Mineral Wealth of Bulgaria, 1946—; re-appointed Minister of Mines in new, second Cabinet of Premier Georgi Dimitrov, Dec. 1947. Address: Ministry of Mines, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PAWLEY, Hon. WILLIAM D., American Diplomat; born 1897. Aviation pioneer in China, Cuba and India; organized the Flying Tigers, the American volunteer group in China. Went to China, 1933, to reorganize China National Aviation Corp., the first airline to operate in China; also organized company which built first airplane factory in China, 1934, and negotiated in 1939 a contract for India to build its first aircraft company, which was taken over by the Sixteenth U. S. Air Force as a maintenance base, 1943. Ambassador to Peru, 1945-46; Ambassador to Brazil, 1946—. Delegate, Inter-American Conference, Rio de Janeiro, 1947. Address: American Embassy, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

PAWLYN, JOHN HEINRICH WULFF, British Industrialist; born Aug. 19, 1875, Birmingham, England; son of Rev. J. S. Pawlyn and Margaret Wulff; educated at Taunton College; Plymouth College; married Florence Jeffery, Sept. 1901; two children. Chartered Accountant, 1896; Chief Accountant, Ransomes, Simes & Jefferies, Ltd., Engineers, 1901-17; elected to Board as Managing Director, 1917; Chairman since 1939; also Managing Director until 1944. Director: Ruston & Honsby, Ltd.; Ruston-Bucyrus Ltd.; Ransomes South Africa (Proprietory) Ltd. Member, Grand Council and Exec. Com., Federation of British Industries; Member, Exec. Com., Natl. Union of Mfrs. Residence: 1 Fleetwood Ave., Felixstowe, Suffolk. Office: Orwell Works, Ipswich, England.

PAXSON, Dr. FREDERIC L., American Historian; born 1877. Margaret Byrne Prof. of United States History, Univ. of California, Berkeley. Author: The Independence of the South American Republics, 1903; The Boundaries of Colorado, 1904; The Last American Frontier, 1910; The American Civil War, 1912; The New Nation, 1915; History of the American Frontier, 1763-1893, 1924; Recent History of the United States, 1865-1927, 1928; Finance and the Frontier, 1929; When the West Is Gone, 1930; American Democracy and the World War, two vols., 1936-39; The Great Demobilization and Other Essays, 1941; The United States in the Making (with others), 1944. Address: 40 Highgate Road, Berkeley 8, Calif.

PAXSON, Dr. NEWLIN FELL, American Obstetrician and Gynecologist; born Sept. 10, 1895, Philadelphia, Pa.; son of Dr. Oliver H. and Evalyn (Mattson) Paxson; educated at Haverford College (2 years), and Hahnemann Med. College, M.D.; married Ruth Shallcross, May 2, 1942. Junior Attending Obstet. at Hahnemann Hosp., 1921; served as Asst., Obstet. Dept., Hahnemann Med. College; later Assoc. Prof. of Obstet., Attending Obstet. and is now Prof. of Obstet. Chief of Gynecol. at Broad St. Hosp.; Chief of Obstet., Hahnemann Hosp. Diplomate, Amer. Board of Obstet. and Gynecol.; Fellow, Amer. Med. Assn. and Internatl. College of Surgeons. Member: Amer. College of Surgeons, etc. Residence: 503 S. Narberth Ave., Merion, Pa. Office: 250 S. 18th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

PAXTON, WILLIAM P., American Manufacturer; born Aug. 2, 1879, Paducah, Ky.; son of William Francis and Frederica (Fisher) Paxton; married Flora Dicke, Apr. 23, 1902; three children. Newsboy at age of eleven, 1890; street car conductor, 1895; street car supervisor, 1896-98; Secy., Kentucky Glass & Queensware Co., 1900; Secy. and General Manager, Flournoy Tobacco Co., 1902-07; Secy., Southerland Medicine Co., 1912-14. Associated with Southern Textile Machinery Co., 1914; Managing Director until 1928; Pres. and Director since 1928. Pres. and Director: Claussger Hosiery Co., since 1922; Arcadia Hosiery Mills since 1928; Arcadia Dyeing Corp. since 1928; Claumac Co. Inc. since 1939. Chairman, Board of Directors, Paducah Newspapers Inc. Director: City Savings Bank of Paducah; Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans Railroad. Residence: Paxton Place. Office: 2nd and Norton Sts., Paducah, Ky.

PAYER, HARRY FRANKLIN, American Attorney-at-Law; born July 3, 1875, Cleveland, Ohio; son of Frank and Mary (Cross) Payer; educated at Western Reserve Univ., A.B. (magna cum laude), 1894; Baldwin Univ., LL.B. 1899; married Florence L. Graves, June 24, 1902; one son. Engaged in practice of law since 1899. Asst. Solicitor, City of Cleveland, 1901-07. Member, Judicial Council of State of Ohio, by appointment of the Governor, 1923-32. Asst. Secy. of State of U. S., June-Dec. 1933; Special Counsel, Reconstruction Finance Corp. in charge of foreign and export matters, 1933-34. Member: Cleveland and Amer. Bar Assns., etc. Author: Psychology of a Law Suit; also series of articles, Crime Germs—Are You Immune?, and other legal articles. Address: 2025 NBC Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

PAYETTE, JOHN JOY, American Motion Picture Executive; born Aug. 24, 1892, Washington, D. C.; son of Dr. George N. and Mary Ellen (Kennedy) Payette; educated in parochial schools of D. C.; married Dorothy Crandall, April 18, 1928; one daughter. Began career, 1904, as an usher at the Academy of Music Theatre, where became assistant treasurer in 1907; appointed Manager of Rhode Island Theatre, 1910; Asst. Manager, General Film Co., 1914; Manager of General Film Co., 1915; toured the South with "Battle Cry of Peace"; Manager of Metropolitan Theatre (Crandall Circuit), 1919-20; Asst. General Manager, Crandall Circuit, 1920-25; General Manager, Stanley-Crandall Circuit, 1925-28; General Zone Manager of Warner Bros., Washington Zone, since 1928. Member: Board of Trade; Boys' Club; Variety Club. Co-chairman of War Activities Committee of Motion Picture Industry for D. C.; Member of Board of Trustees, Municipal Theatre. Residence: 5126 Palisade Lane, N.W. Office: 732 Earle Bldg., Washington 4. D. C.

PAYNE, Dr. E(NOCH) GEORGE, American Educator; born 1877; educated at Lebanon Univ., A.B. 1901; Univ. of Chicago, A.B. 1906; Bonn Univ., Ph.D. 1909. Member of Faculty, New York Univ.; served as Prof. of Education. Author: An Experiment in Alien Labor, 1912; Education in Accident Prevention, 1919; Plan of Safety Instruction in Public and Parochial Schools, 1919; A Program of Education in Accident Prevention, 1922; Method and Measurement of Health Education (with J. C. Gebhart), 1926; Principles of Educational Sociology, 1928; The Story of Aviation, 1930; An Estimate of Our Negro Schools, 1932. Editor: The Human Personality (by Louis Berg, M.D.), 1933; Speech Correction on the Contract Plan (by Ruth Baldock Mauser), 1944 Address: School of Education, New York University, New York, New York.

PAYNE, Dr. FERNANDUS, American Zoologist; born Feb. 13, 1881, Shelbyville, Ind.; son of Daniel and Alice (Garlisch) Payne; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1905, A.M. 1906; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1909; married Elizabeth Janeway, June 19, 1910; one son. Asst. Prof. of Zoology, Indiana Univ., 1909-12; Assoc. Prof., 1912-19; Prof. since 1919; Chairman of Dept. of Zoology and Dean of Graduate School since 1925. Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, 1942-46. Chairman, Division of Biology and Agriculture, Natl. Research Council, 1932-33. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science (on Executive Com. since 1946); Amer. Soc. of Zoologists (Pres., 1931); Amer. Soc. of Naturalists; Amer. Genetic Soc., etc. Address: Indiana Univ., Bloomington, Ind.

PAYNE, Dr. FRANKLIN L., American Surgeon; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, M.D. 1922. William Goodell Prof. of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Univ. of Pennsylvania Medical School. Gynecologist, Hospital of the Univ. of Pennsylvania. Obstetrician and Gynecologist, Pennsylvania Hospital; Gynecologist, Chestnut Hill Hospital. Fellow, American College of Surgeons. Address: 3400 Spruce St., Philadelphia, Pa.

PAYNE, HARRY M., American Stock Broker; born May 22, 1898, La Porte, Ind.; son of Milton O. and Gertrude (Cathcart) Payne; educated at Hyde Park High School, graduating in 1917; married Hazel Wolford, July 31, 1928. Began career in Advertising Dept. of Chicago Tribune, 1917; purchased Membership in Chicago Stock Exchange 1922; Chairman, Board of Governors, Chicago Stock Exchange, 1943-45; now serving term as Governor, 1945-48. Established in private enterprise until 1930. Subsequently formed Stock Exchange firm of Payne Schenck & Co., which was dissolved in 1932. In private enterprise, 1932-40. Partner, Stock Exchange firm of Webster, Marsh & Co. (established 1924), since 1940. Residence: 2608 Lakeview Ave. Office: 120 So. La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

PAYNE, JAMES, Australian Government Commissioner in Egypt; born in Hamilton, Victoria, Australia; son of James and Grace (Mackie) Payne; educated at Melbourne Commercial College; married Beryle Woolnough, May 2, 1922; one daughter. Served in Egypt and Palestine with Australian Light Horse, 1914-18; mentioned in despatches of Field Marshal Lord Allenby for gallant and distinguished service in the field; resumed service with Commonwealth Government. Occupied many administrative positions in the various States of Australia, principally in Department of Interior, until 1935. Appointed to Wellington, New Zealand, as assistant in the Australian Trade Commission. Acting Commissioner, 1938; Australian Government Commissioner in Egypt since 1938. Address: 41 Sharia Kasr el Nil, Cairo, Egypt.

PAYNE, JOHN, American Film Actor; born May 28, 1911, Roanoke, Va.; married Gloria DeHaven; two children. Motion pictures include: Maryland; Tin Pan Alley; Sun Valley Serenade; Week-end in Havana; Springtime in the Rockies; Hello, Frisco; Dolly Sisters; Razor's Edge; Sentimental Journey, etc. Served in Armed Forces, World War II. Address: 20th Century Fox Studios, Box No. 900, Beverly Hills, Calif.

PAYNE, Rev. Dr. PAUL CALVIN, D.D., American Clergyman; born Sept. 21, 1890, Port Byron, Ill.; son of William Barton and Anna Clara (Spees) Payne; educated at Park College, grad. 1913; McCormick Theological Seminary, grad. 1918; Westminster College, Mo., D.D. 1936; Park College, LL.D. 1940; Coe College, S.T.D. 1942; Washington and Jefferson College, L.H.D. 1946; James Milliken Univ., Litt.D. 1946; married Edna Margaret Potts, July 1, 1920; two children. Ordained to Presbyterian Ministry, 1918. Supply Pastor, Coffeeville, Kans., 1918-19. Pastor: Pawnee, Nebr., 1919-24; York, Nebr., 1924-27; Fremont, Nebr., 1927-29; First Presbyterian Church, Bartlesville, Okla., 1929-36; First Presbyterian Church, Ithaca, N. Y., 1936-39. General Secy., Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church in U.S.A., since 1939. Chmn., Internatl. Council of Religious Education. 1948—. Address: 811 Witherspoon Bldg., Walnut & Juniper Sts., Philadelphia 7, Pa.

PAYNE, ROBERT, British Author; born Dec. 4, 1911, Saltash, Cornwall, England; son of Stephen and Mireille Antoinette (Dorey) Payne; educated at Diocesan College, Rondebosch (Cape Province); Capetown Univ.; Universities of Liverpool, Sorbonne, Munich, Fuhtan and Lienta. Inspector of Taxes, Guildford, England, 1936. Armament Officer, Singapore, 1940-41; Prof. of English Poetry, Fuhtan Univ., 1942-43; Prof. of English Poetry and Lecturer in Naval Architecture, Lienta, Kunming (China), 1943-45. Correspondent for London Times at Changsha, Jan. 1942. Author: The Mountains and the Stars, 1938; Forever China, 1945; Torrents of Spring, 1946; Sun Yat-sen, 1946; David and Anna, 1947; China Awake, 1947; The White Pony, 1947; The Revolt of Asia, 1947; The Bear Coughs at the North Pole, 1947; The Yellow Robe, 1948. Address: c/o Dodd, Mead & Co., 432 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PAYNE, Dr. SYLVIA MAY, British Psychiatrist; born Nov. 6, 1880, London, England; daughter of Edward W. and Lilian (Monck-Mason) Moore; educated at Westfield College, London Univ., M.B. 1901; London School of Medicine for Women (Royal Free Hospital), M.B., B.S. 1906; married John Ernest Payne, 1908; three sons. Asst. Anaesthetist, Royal Free Hospital, 1907; Asst. to Dr. F. Buzzard, Out-Patient Dept., Belgrave Hospital for Children, 1907; Resident House Surgeon, Royal Free Hospital, 1907-08; Commandant and Medical Officer in charge of Torquay Red Cross Hospitals, 1914-18; Physician to London Clinic of Psycho-Analysis, 1926. Hon. Secy. and Director, Inst. of Psycho-Analysis, 1929; Chairman of Board, since 1944; Hon. Training Secy., 1939. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Medicine; British Psychological Soc. (Hon. Secy. of Medical Section, 1935, Chairman of Medical Section, 1936). Pres., British Psycho-Analytical Soc.; Member, British Medical Assn.; Univ. Women's Club. Awards: Commander of the Order of the British Empire (C.B.E.). Contributor to medical literature. Address: 11 Devonshire Pl., London W. 1, England.

PAYNE, WALTER, O.B.E., British Theatre Owner; born London, England; son of George A. and Mary (Ford) Payne; educated at City of London School; Heidelberg Univ.; married Clare Beatrice Wissinger, 1933. Began as Barrister-at-Law; Assoc., Inst. of Chartered Accountants. Chairman and Managing Director, London Pavilion Ltd.; also Variety Theatres Consolidated Ltd. Director, Moss Empires Ltd.; Victoria Palace Ltd. Pres., Soc. of West End Theatre Managers; Chairman, Theatres National Com.; Vice Chairman, London Theatre Council. Director, Outside Organization and Munitions Tribunals, 1915-18; Chief Resettlement Officer, London and South England, for Demobilization and Resettlement, 1918-19; Deputy Controller of Civil Liabilities, 1919-20. Life Governor, East Ham Memorial Hospital; St. Thomas Hospital. Council Member, Chelsea Hospital for Women. Decorated O.B.E. Author: Economics of Theatre, 1939; Taxation of 'Living' Stage, 1945. Chairman, Entertainments Natl. Service Com.; Theatres Clothes Rationing Com., etc., World War II. Residence: 7 Cleveland Row, St. James, S.W. 1. Office: Cranbourn Mansions, Cranbourn St., London, England.

PAYNE, WILL, American Author; born 1865. Author: Jerry the Dreamer, 1896; The Money Captain, 1898; The Story of Eva, 1901; On Fortune's Road, 1902; Missionary Pioneering in Bolivia, with some account of work in Argentina (with Charles T. Wilson), 1904; Mr. Salt, 1904; The Automatic Capitalists, 1909; The Scarred Chin, 1920; Overlook House, 1921. Member, National Inst. of Arts and Letters. Address: 727 Eighth Ave., South, St. Petersburg, Fla.

PAYNE, WILLIAM LABATT, Australian Barrister-at-Law; born Sept. 5, 1890, North Pine, near Brisbane; son of Christopher James and W. J. (Ryall) Payne; educated at Brisbane Grammar School and private study; Barrister-at-Law, Supreme Court of Queensland, 1917. Began career in Crown Lands Dept., 1907. Crown Counsel, Land Court of Queensland, 1917-22; Assistant Under-Secretary for Lands, Queensland, 1922-24; Chairman of Prickly-Pear Land Commission, 1924-38; Chairman, Land Administration Board for Queensland, 1928-38. Member, Land Court of Queensland, 1926-28; President, Land Court of Queensland, since 1938. Residence: 244 Bowen Terrace. Office: Executive Bldgs., Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.

PAYNE-GAPOSCHKIN, Dr. CECILIA HELENA, American Astronomer; born May 10, 1900, Wendover, England; daughter of Edward John and Emma (Pertz) Payne; educated at Newnham College, Cambridge, B.A.; Radcliffe College, Ph.D.; Wilson College, Hon. Sc.D.; married Sergei I. Gaposchkin, 1933; three children. Astronomer, Harvard Univ., since 1938. Member: Amer. Philosophical Soc.; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Astronomical Soc.; Royal Astronomical Soc. Awarded Cannon Memorial Prize. Author of numerous books and papers on technical subjects. Address: Harvard Observatory, Cambridge, Mass.

PAYSSÉ REYES, HÉCTOR, Uruguayan Deputy; born Dec. 2, 1903, Montevideo, Uruguay; son of Eduardo Payssé and Pepita Reyes Levena; educated at Universidad Mayor de la República; married Clotilde Turena Stajano, May 4, 1927; two children. Journalist, 1923; Public Attorney, 1928-36; Prof. of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law 1928-43; National Deputy, 1943-47, re-elected 1947. Uruguayan Delegate to San Francisco and London Assemblies, United Nations, 1945, 1946; Ambassador to Colombia, 1946; Uruguayan Delegate, Lawyers' Conference, Santa Fé, Argentina, 1940; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 1943. Pres., La Financiadora Popular S.A.; Member of Board of various business firms. Ex-Pres.: Uruguayan Anti-Nazi Organization; Junta Uruguaya Pro Rep. Española; Leader, National Independent Party. Pres.: Olympic Com. of Uruguay; Uruguayan Basket Ball Federation; Uruguayan Bowling Assn. Assn. Correspondent, Lawyers College, Buenos Aires. Author of various papers published in professional journals. Residence: Soriano 1459 (3rd floor). Office: Buenos Aires 479, Montevideo, Uruguay.

PAZ SOLDAN, Dr. CARLOS ENRIQUE, Peruvian Public Health Physician; born Apr. 17, 1885, Lima, Peru; son of Carlos and Petronila Paz Soldan; educated at Liceo Científico, Colegio de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe; Universidad de San Marcos. Military Physician, 1911; served with Military Sanitation; Chief, Med. Clinic, Faculty of Medicine, Lima; Dir., Instituto Nacional del Niño, and Prof. of Hygiene, 1920. Adviser, Ministry of Public Health of the Republic, since 1940. Peruvian Member, World Health Organization, 1946—. Hon. Member, Directing Council, Pan American Sanitary Bureau, 1947—. Ex-Director and organizer, Natl. Child Inst. of Peru. Official Delegate to several Pan-American Child Conferences. Founder, Inst. of Social Medicine of Lima. Vice-Pres., Amer. Public Health Assn. Secy., Academia de Medicina de Lima; Pres., Sociedad Peruana de la Historia de la Medicina. Author of 40 volumes on medico-sociological themes. Dir., La Reforma Médica, professional magazine, 1915—. Residence: Union No. 876, Apartado No. 947, Lima, Peru.

PAZ, EZEQUIEL PEDRO, Argentine Newspaper Publisher; born Apr. 21, 1871, San Fernando, Prov. Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Dr. José C. and Zelmira (Díaz) Paz; educated at National College, Buenos Aires; Lycée Condorcet, Paris; Faculty of Law and Social Sciences, Buenos Aires; married Celina Zaldarriaga, May 1, 1897. Reporter, "La Prensa," (daily) Buenos Aires, 1893; Founder of section "El Día Social"; Editorial Secy., "La Prensa", until 1900; Sub-Director until 1912; Director since 1912. Founder, Instituto Popular de Conferencias, 1914. Corresp. Member, Argentine Inst. of International Law. Residence: Juncal 1620. Office: Avenida de Mayo 575, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PAZ ESTENSSORO, Prof. VICTOR, Bolivian Political Economist; born Oct. 2, 1907, Tarija, Bolivia; son of Domingo Paz Rajab and Carlota Estenssoro de Pa.; educated at Universidad Mayor de San Andrés, Attorney, 1927; married Carmela Cerruto, Nov. 1936; two children. Secy., Directorate of Financial Statistics, 1928. Attorney, Permanent Fiscal Commn., 1931-32; Superior Officer, Department of Finance, 1932 and 1936-37; Convention Deputy for Tarija, 1938-39. President, Banco Minero de Bolivia, 1939. Deputy to National Congress for Tarija, 1940-43; Vice-President, Chamber of Deputies, 1940-41. Minister of Economy, 1941; Minister of Finance, 1943-44. Professor of History of Economic Doctrines and Finance in the Universidad Mayor de San Andrés since 1939; Chief of the Nationalist Revolutionary Movement since 1941. Author: Esquema de la Organización Política, Económica y Administrativa de Bolivia (co-author, 1929); Aspectos de la Economía Boliviana (1940); Development of Economic Thought in Bolivia (Desarrollo del pensamiento económico en Bolivia). Contributor to The Development of Thought in the Western Hemisphere. Residence: Ecuador No. 584, La Paz, Bolivia.

PEABODY, Rt. Rev. MALCOLM E., American Bishop; born June 12, 1888, Danvers, Mass.; son of Endicott and Fannie (Peabody) Peabody; educated at Harvard, B.A. 1911; Trinity College, Cambridge, England; Episcopal Theological School, B.D. 1916; D.D., Hamilton College, Hobart College; S.T.D., Syracuse Univ., New York; married Mary E. Parkman, June 19, 1916; five children. Missionary and Master, Baguio School for American Boys, Baguio, P.I., 1911-13. Chaplain (Red Cross), U. S. Base Hospital No. 5, 1917-18; U. S. Army, 102nd Field Artillery, 26th Div., A.E.F., 1918-19. Curate, Grace Church, Lawrence, 1917-20; Rector, 1920-25. Rector, St. Paul's Curch, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa. 1925-38. Bishop of Syracuse, N. Y., since 1938. Residence: 847 James St. Study: 429 James St., Syracuse, N. Y.

PEACH, Dr. LAWRENCE du GARDE, British Author and Dramatist; born Jan. 14, 1890, Sheffield, England; son of Charles and Mary Ann (Munns) Peach; educated at Manchester Univ., M.A. 1909-12; Göttingen Univ., Germany, 1912-14; Sheffield Univ., Ph.D. 1919-21; married Marianne Leeming, B.A., M.D. 1915. Lecturer in English, Univ. College of South West, 1922-26; writing and producing plays and films, since 1926. Director, Sheffield Repertory Co. Trustee, Holiday and Convalescent Homes, and of Playhouse, Great Hucklow. Member: Authors Soc.; League of British Dramatists and Film Writers Assn. Author: Angela and I; Unknown Devon; Path of Glory; Dramatic History of England; and numerous other volumes of short plays, 30 films, and 400 radio plays. Served in 8th Bn., Manchester Regiment, 1914-19. Served in Derbyshire Home Guard, 1940. Address: Foolow, Eyam, Sheffield, England.

PEACOCK, Sir EDWARD ROBERT, G.C.V.O., British Banker; born Aug. 2, 1871, Glengarry County, Canada; son of Rev. W. M. and Jane (McDougall) Peacock; educated at Queen's Univ., Kingston, Ont., Canada, M.A. 1894, LL.D.; Oxford Univ., D.C.L.; Edinburgh Univ., LL.D.; married Katherine Coates, 1912; two daughters. Master at Upper Canada College, Ont., 1895. Associated with Dominion Securities Corp. (dealers in bonds), 1902-15. Pres., Barcelona Traction, Light & Power Co., Mexico Light & Power, and Tramways Companies; Vice-Pres., Brazilian Traction Light & Power Co., 1915-25. Banker and Director, Baring Brothers & Co. Ltd. (merchant bankers) since 1925. Director: Canadian Pacific Railway Co.; Hudson's Bay Co. Receiver-General, Duchy of Cornwall; A Rhodes Trustee; Treas., King Edward's Hospital Fund for London. Residence: Bodens Ride, Ascot, Berks. Office: 8 Bishopsgate, London, E.C. 2, England.

PEACOCK, Dr. FLETCHER, Canadian Educator; born Sept. 21, 1884, Murray Corner, N. B., Canada; son of Job and Jessie Anne (Welch) Peacock; educated at Mt. Allison Univ., B.A. 1911, LL.D. 1932; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1930; married Stella R. Crocker, June 25, 1913; four children. Pres., Westmoreland County Teachers Inst., 1909; Instructor, Provincial Normal School, 1911; Provincial Director, Manual Training, 1911, and Vocational Education, 1918; Secy., Provincial Commn. to Study and Report on Vocational Education, 1917; Principal, St. John Vocational School, 1926; Director of Education for N. B., 1936; Chief Supt. of Education for N. B. since 1945. Trustee, Hulda Lynds Scholarship Fund. Chairman, Regional Employment Com., Maritime Provinces of Canada. Member: Canadian Education Assn. (Ex-Pres.); Canada-U. S. Education Com. (Canadian Pres.); Canadian Assn. for Adult Education (Exec. Member). Chairman, Natl. School Health Research Com.; Secy., N. B. Board of Education. Residence: 24 Waterloo. Office: Queen St., Education Office, Fredericton, N. B., Can.

PEACOCK, Col. GEORGE WALTER, Salvation Army Officer; born Stroud, Simcoe County, Ont.; son of Thomas K. and Elizabeth (Beelby) Peacock: educated at various schools; business college, Toronto; married Hannah Jane Chislett, Feb. 15, 1909; five children. Officer, Salvation Army, since 1901; various positions at Toronto, Winnipeg, Chicago, Atlanta and Montreal. Now attached to Natl. Headquarters, New York. Originated name of "Red Shield" under which Salvation Army carries on war work and other welfare activities. Awarded C.B.E. by King George VI. Address: 120 West 14th St., New York, N. Y.

PEACOCK, JAMES CRAIG, American Lawyer. Admitted to Bar, Pennsylvania, 1912; District of Columbia, 1919. Member of firm, Williams, Myers & Quiggle, Washington, D. C. Member: American Bar Assn.; American Law Inst. Address: 817 Munsey Bldg., Washington, D. C.

PEACOCK, Dr. MARTIN ALFRED, British Mineralogist; born Jan. 15, 1898, Edinburgh, Scotland; son of Alfred N. and Antonie I. (Fuller) Peacock; educated at Univ. of Glasgow (Scotland), B.Sc. 1922, Ph.D. 1925, D.Sc. 1932; Harvard Univ., A.M. 1927; married Katharine L. West, April 2, 1937; two daughters. Research Assoc. in Crystallography, Heidelberg (Germany), 1929, 1933. Lecturer. Asst. Prof. of Geology and Geography, Univ. of British Columbia (Canada), 1929-31. Research Assoc. in Mineralogy, Harvard Univ., 1932-37. Assoc. Prof. of Mineralogy and Petrography, Univ. of Toronto, 1937-42; Prof. of Mineralogy, 1942-46; Prof. of Crystallography and Mineralogy, 1946—. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Canada; Geological Soc. of Amer.; Mineralogical Soc. of Amer. (Pres., 1948). Member: Mineralogical Soc. of Great Britain (Abstractor 1940—); Walker Mineralogical Club, Toronto (Pres., 1942-43; Editor, 1938—); Soc. Française de Minéralogie; Norsk Geologisk Forening. Editor: Posthumous Works of Victor Goldschmidt (Heidelberg), 1933; Studies in Mineralogy dedicated to Charles Palache, 1937. Contributor to various scientific journals. Address: Dept. of Geological Sciences, University of Toronto 5, Ont., Canada.

PEAKE, ALONZO WILLIAM, American Industrialist; born May 3, 1890, Kansas City, Mo.; son of A. J. and Genette Ann (Hawk) Peake; graduated from Stanford Univ., A.B. in Mining and Geology, 1912; married Meredith E. Knapp, March 18, 1916; two children. Field Supt. for Montebello Oil Co., Fillmore, Calif., 1912-16. With the Midwest Refining Co., 1916-28, from Field Supt. to General Supt. of Producing Dept., and Director. President of Dixie Oil Co., Inc., Shreveport, La., 1928-30. Vice-Pres. and Director Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), 1930-45; Pres. since 1945. Director: Continental Illinois Natl. Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago; Pan American Petroleum & Transport Co.; Pan American Petroleum Corp.; Amer. Petroleum Inst. Residence: 1426 Chicago Ave., Evanston, Ill. Office: 910 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

PEAKE, CHARLES BRINSLEY PEMBERTON, British Diplomat; born Jan. 2, 1897, Leicester, England; son of Col. W. P. and A. A. (Bucknell) Peake; educated at Magdalen College, Oxford, B.A. 1921; married Catherine Knight, 1926; four children. Third Secy., British Diplomatic Service, 1922; Capt., Leicestershire Regiment, World War I, awarded M. C., mentioned in despatches; Capt., P.A.O. Leicestershire Yeomanry, 1919-29; Second Secy., Diplomatic Service, 1925; First Secy., 1934; Counsellor of Embassy, 1939; Head, News Dept., Foreign Office, and Chief Press Adviser, Ministry of Information, 1939; temporarily attached to Viscount Halifax as Personal Asst. in Washington, D. C., 1941; British Representative, French National Com., 1942-44; Political Adviser to Supreme Commander, Allied Expeditionary Force, 1944-45; British Plenipotentiary at Paris Conf., Tangier, 1945; H.B.M. Consul General at Tangier, 1945-46; served in Sofia, Constantinople, Tokyo, Berne, Paris and Tangier; now Ambassador to Belgrade. Awarded C.M.G., 1941; M.C. Address: Woodland Rise, Reigate, England.

PEAKE, Rt. Hon. OSBERT, P.C., M.P., British Politician; born Dec. 30, 1897, England; son of Herbert and Evelyn Mary (Dundas) Peake; educated at Eton College; Royal Military College of Sandhurst; Christ Church College, Oxford; married Lady Joan Capell, June 19, 1922. Lieut. in the Coldstream Guards, 1916-20; Major of Notts. Yeomanry, 1920-36. Admitted as a Barrister of the Inner Temple, 1923. Elected Member of Parliament for Leeds (North), 1929. Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State Home Office, 1939-44; Financial Secy. to the Treasury, 1944-45. Residence: 10 Hyde Park Gardens, London, W. 2, England.

PEALE, MUNDY I., American Aircraft Manufacturer; born June 15, 1906, Joliet, Ill.; son of George and Myra (Ingalls) Peale; educated at Univ. of Chicago, 1929; Boeing School of Aviation, 1930; married Betsey Farwell, June 4, 1931; three children. Western Representative, Sikorsky Aircraft Co., 1931-33. With United Aircraft Corp., Hartford, Conn., 1933-36. Export Sales Manager, Sikorsky Aircraft Co., 1936-39. With Republic Aviation Corp., since 1939; Asst. Director—Exports, since 1939-40; Asst. Director—Military Contracts, 1940-41; Vice-Pres. and Div. Manager, 1942-45 (Evansville Div.); Vice-Pres. and General Sales Manager, 1945-46; Pres. and General Manager, since 1947. Director: Republic Aviation Corp., Farmingdale, N. Y.; Aircooled Motors, Inc., Syracuse, N. Y. Director, Central Aircraft Council, Detroit, Mich., 1943, 1944, 1945. Member, Automotive War Council, Detroit, Mich., 1943, 1944, 1945. Member: Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences; Aircraft Industries Assn. Residence: 40 Chestnut St., Garden City. Office: Republic Aviation Corporation, Farmingdale, N. Y.

PEARCE, CHARLES SUMNER, American Industrialist; born Sept. 16, 1877, Walworth, Wis.; son of George Delavan and Emily Jane (Baker) Pearce; educated at Univ. of Wisconsin, B.L. 1900, LL.B. 1903; married Vivian Coates, June 2, 1909; two children. Began career in 1903 with B. J. Johnson Soap Co., Milwaukee; Advertising and Sales Manager, 1907; elected Vice Pres. in 1919, serving with successor company, Palmolive-Peet Co., until 1924; President, 1924-28; President of successor company, Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co. 1928-33; Chairman of Board, 1933-38. Chairman and Director, Internatl. Cellucotton Products Co., 1934-39; Pres., 1939-43; now Hon. Pres. Director: Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co.; Clark Equipment Co.; Internatl. Cellucotton Products Co.; Reynolds Spring Co.; Parker Pen Co. and Upper Ave. National Bank, Chicago. Director of the Glenwood School for Boys and Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation. Residence: 220 E. Walton. Office: 919 No. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

PEARCE, Dr. JOHN MUSSER, American Pathologist; born Oct. 23, 1908, N. Y. City; son of Richard Mills and May (Musser) Pearce; educated at Yale Univ., Ph.B. 1930; Harvard Med. School, M.D. 1934; married Moira Brady, 1932; two daughters. Asst., Dept. of Pathol., College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., N. Y. C., 1934; Asst. Attending Pathol., Presbyterian and Sloane Hosps., N. Y., until 1936; Fellow Rockefeller Inst., 1937-38. Instructor, Long Island College of Med., Brooklyn, N. Y., 1938; Asst. Prof. of Pathol., 1939-43; Assoc. Prof. since 1943; Attending Pathol. to Long Island College Hosp. since 1938; Mary Immaculate Hosp., Jamaica, N. Y., since 1940. Consulting Pathol. to Merit System, Amer. Public Health Assn., since 1946; Attending Pathol., St. Peter's Hosp., Brooklyn, N. Y., since 1946. Member: Amer. Assn. of Pathols. and Bacteriols.; Amer. Soc. for Experimental Pathol.; Soc. for Experimental Biol. and Med.; Harvey Soc. Address: Long Island College of Medicine, 335 Henry St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

PEARCE, Dr. JOSEPH ALGERNON, Canadian Astronomer; born Feb. 7, 1893, Brantford, Ont.; son of Joseph William and Clarissa Augusta (Rounds) Pearce; educated at Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1920, M.A. 1922; University of California, Ph.D. 1930. Demonstrator, University of Toronto, 1920-22; Fellow, Lick Observatory, 1922-24; with Dominion Astrophysical Observatory since 1924, Astronomer, 1924-35; Asst. Director, 1935-38; Acting Director, 1938-40, Director since 1940. Fellow, Royal Society of Canada (Pres., Section III, 1944-45). Member, Royal Astronomical Society of Canada (President, 1940); American Astronomical Society (Vice-President, 1944-46); Astronomical Society of France; International Astronomical Union, etc. Author of spectrographic researches on stellar motions, interstellar matter, rotation of the galaxy, and determinations of the masses and dimensions of spectrographic binary systems. Address: The Observatory, Victoria, B.C., Canada.

PEARCE, Dr. LOUISE, American Pathologist; born Mar. 5, 1885, Winchester, Mass.; daughter of Charles Ellis and Susan Elizabeth (Hoyt) Pearce; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1907; Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1912. Dr. Pearce began her career as Med. House Officer at Johns Hopkins Hosp., 1912-13. Fellow, Asst. and Assoc. at Rockefeller Inst. for Med. Research, 1913-20; Assoc. Member since 1923; conducted for Rockefeller Inst. a Mission on African Sleeping Sickness in the Belgian Congo, 1920. Visiting Prof. of Medicine at Peiping Union Med. College, China, 1931-32. Trustee of N. Y. Infirmary for Women and Children, 1921-28. Trustee, Princeton (N. J.) Hosp.; Trustee, Women's Med. College of Pa. since 1941; Pres. since 1946. Member of many medical and scientific organizations. Awarded Order of Crown (Belgium). Author: Treatment of Human Trypanosomiasis with Tryparsamide, 1930; also papers in medical journals and proceedings. Res.: Trevenna Farm, Belle Mead, N. J. Office: Rockefeller Inst. for Med. Research, Princeton, N. J.

PEARCE, Dr. McLEOD MILLIGAN, American College President; born July 16, 1874, Bellevue, Pa.; son of William and Margaret (McKinney) Pearce; educated at Geneva College, 1891-96, D.D. 1915; Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, 1896-99; married Carolyn McKaig, 1900; three children. Ordained Minister, Reformed Presbyterian Church, 1900. Pastor: First Reformed Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo., 1900-11; East End Church, Pittsburgh, 1911-13; First Church, Philadelphia, 1913-19. Asst. Editor, American Sunday School Union, 1919-23. Editor, Olive Trees Magazine, 1916-23. President, Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa., 1923—. Address: Beaver College, Beaver Falls, Pa.

PEARKES, Major Gen. GEORGE RANDOLPH, V.C., C.B., D.S.O., M.C., Canadian Army Officer; born Feb. 26, 1888, Watford, England; son of George and Louise (Blair) Pearkes; educated at Staff College, Camberley, England; Imperial Defence College; LL.D. (hon.) Univ. of British Columbia; married Constance Blytha Copeman, 1925; one son. Private, Canadian Mounted Rifles, 1912; Private, 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles, Victoria, B. C., 1914; temp. Lieut., 1916; Capt., Major and Lieut. Col. Commanding 116th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force; wounded in action five times; General Staff Officer, Royal Military College, Canada, 1929-33; D.M.T., 1935-38; District Officer Commanding, Military District No. 13, 1938-39; Officer Commanding 2nd Infantry Brigade, overseas, World War II; General Officer Commanding, 1st Canadian Division, 1940; General Officer Commanding - in - Chief, Pacific Command, Canada (rank of Major General), 1942; now retired. Member of Canadian House of Commons, 1945—. Progressive Conservative. Address: Brentwood Bay, Vancouver Island, B. C., Canada.

PEARLSTONE, HYMAN, American Business Executive; born Apr. 24, 1878, Buffalo, Tex.; educated in high school and Hills Business College; married Mabel Ash, Jan. 25, 1899; three children. Bank employee with Farmers & Merchants National Bank, Waco, Tex., 1905; Manager, Waco Clearing House Assn., since 1896. Organized Pearlstone Grocery Co., Palestine, Tex., 1899; Pearlstone-Ash Grocery Co. (wholesale grocers), Longview, Tex., 1919; now Chairman of the Board. Chairman, Lasswell Grocery Co., Waxahachie, Tex. Director, First National Bank, Dallas; Vice-Pres. and Director, Pearlstone Mill & Elevator Co., Dallas; Enid (Okla.) Terminal Elevator Co.; Director, St. Louis, San Francisco Railway Co., and Longhorn Cement Co., San Antonio, Tex. Chairman of its Federal Tax Com. Residence: Melrose Hotel. Office: 1701 N. Market St., Dallas, Tex.

PEARLSTONE, JULIUS HART, American Business Executive; born Apr. 24, 1888, Buffalo, Texas; educated at public and high schools; married Eva Landau, Apr. 20, 1910; two sons. Began career as a grain merchant, 1909; formed Palestine Grain Co. of Palestine, Texas. Pres., 1913. Pres., Enid Terminal Elevator Co. since 1926. Director: Republic National Bank, Higginbotham, Pearlstone Hardware Co. Past-Pres., Temple Emanu El of Dallas, Texas. Director, Jewish Federation of Dallas. Residence: 6011 Gaston Ave. Office: 1627 Pearlstone St., Dallas, Texas.

PEARSALL, Dr. WILLIAM HAROLD, British Botanist; born July 23, 1891, Stourbridge, Worcs., England; son of William Harrison and Mary Elizabeth (Green) Pearsall; educated at Univ. of Manchester, B.Sc. 1913, D.Sc. 1921; married Marjory Stewart Williamson, 1927; two children. Lecturer, Univ. of Leeds, 1919, Reader, 1921; Exchange Prof., Cornell Univ., 1926-27; Prof. of Botany, Univ. of Sheffield, 1938-44; Quain Prof. of Botany, Univ. of London, since 1944. Fellow, Royal Soc. (Council 1941-42); Linnean Soc. Hon. Secy., Freshwater Biological Assn. Member: (Foreign)Sigma Xi; Soc. for Experimental Biology (Secy., 1927-30); British Ecological Soc. (Pres., 1938-40). Hon. Editor, Journal of Ecology. Address: University College, University of London, London, England.

PEARSE, Dr. ARTHUR SPERRY, American Zoologist; born Mar. 15, 1877, Crete, Neb.; son of Sherman Lucius and Sarah Louise (Gardner) Pearse; educated at Univ. of Nebraska, B.S. 1900, M.A. 1904, LL.D. 1942; Harvard Univ., Ph.D. 1908; Univ. of Chicago, summer 1907; London School of Tropical Medicine, 1926; married Mary Oliver Lehmer, Dec. 22, 1902; two sons. Instructor, Univ. of Michigan, 1909-11; Univ. of Philippines, 1911; St. Louis Univ., 1911-12; Univ. of Wisconsin, 1912-27; Prof. of Zoology, Duke Univ., since 1927. Special Investigator, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, 1914-25; Rockefeller Internatl. Health Board, 1925; West African Yellow Fever Commn., 1926; Carnegie Inst., 1925, '32, '34, '36. Pres.: Amer. Soc. of Ecologists, 1925; S. E. Biologists Soc., 1942; Amer. Soc. of Zoologists, 1945. Author: General Zoology, 1917, 1928; Animal Ecology, 1926, 1939; Environment and Life, 1930; Homoiothermism, 1928; Migration of Animals from Seats Land, 1936; Hell's Bells, 1941; Introduction to Parasitology, 1942; Fauna in Encyclopedia Yucateca, 1946. Address: Duke University, Durham, N. C.

PEARSE, Prof. GEOFFREY EASTCOTT, South African Architect; born Feb. 16, 1885, Verulam, Natal, South Africa; son of W. M. and K. (nee Acutt) Pease; educated at Weenen County College, Natal; Architectural Assn. School of Architecture, London; married J. F. Maxton, Sept. 9, 1940. Architect since 1903; engaged in private practice, 1911-20. Prof. of Architecture, Univ. of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. Assoc. Member, Royal Inst. of British Architects; Member, South African Inst. of Architects; Ex-Pres., Associated Scientific and Technical Socs. of South Africa. Author: 18th Century Architecture in South Africa, 1932; also of several publications in technical journals. Served in Royal Engineers, chiefly in Mesopotamia, held rank of Captain, 1914-18; mentioned in despatches. Address: University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa.

PEARSE, Dr. HAROLD LESLIE, British Plant Physiologist; born Oct. 12, 1909, Exeter, England; son of William George and Lilian (Adams) Pearse; educated at Imperial College of Science and Technology, Univ. of London, 1928-31, B.Sc. (London) 1931, A.R.C.S. 1931, D.I.C. 1934, Ph.D. (London) 1934; married Edna Buxton-Fitt, Feb. 21, 1935; two sons. Demonstrator in Botany, Imperial College of Science and Technology, London, England, 1931-33; Asst. Plant Physiologist, Research Inst. of Plant Physiology, Imperial College of Science and Technology, East Malling Research Station, East Malling, Kent, 1934-39. Chief Plant Physiologist, Western Province Fruit Research Station, Stellenbosch, South Africa, since 1939. Member: Soc. of Experimental Biology at London; Amer. Soc. of Plant Physiologists. Author of Plant Hormones and their practical Importance in Horticulture (Imperial Bureau of Horticulture, 1939); various papers in Annals of Botany, Journal of Pomology and Hort. Science, Nature, Farming in South Africa. Address: Western Province Fruit Research Station, Stellenbosch, South Africa.

PEARSON, (ANDREW RUSSELL) "DREW", American Newspaper Correspondent and Radio Commentator; born Dec. 13, 1897, Evanston, Ill.; son of Paul Martin and Edna (Wolfe) Pearson; educated at Phillips Acad., Exeter, N. H., 1915; Swarthmore College, A.B. 1919; married (1st) Countess Felicia Gizycka, Mar. 12, 1925; (2nd) Luvie Moore, Nov. 1936; one daughter—Ellen Cameron III (Mrs. George Arnold). Director, American Friends Service Com. in Serbia, Montenegro and Albania, 1919-21; Instructor in Industrial Geography, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1921-22; lectured on American, Australian and New Zealand chautauquas, 1921-23; visited Japan, China, Siberia, reporting results of Washington Arms Conf. for newspaper syndicate, 1922; interviewed "Europe's Twelve Greatest Men" for newspaper syndicate, 1923; Lecturer on Commercial Geography, Columbia Univ., 1924; reported anti-foreign strikes in China, 1925; Geneva Naval Conf. for Japan Advertiser, 1927; on staff of United States Daily, 1926-33; Baltimore Sun, 1929-32; reported 6th Pan-American Conf., Havana, 1928; accompanied Secy. of State Kellogg to Paris to sign Anti-War Treaty, 1928; reported London Naval Conf., 1930; Cuban Revolution, 1931; Rio de Janeiro Conf., 1942. Founder, Intercollegiate Newspaper Assn., 1919; Member, Overseas Writers, National Press Club. Recipient of Sigma Delta Chi National Award for best Washington journalism of 1942. Originated and promoted the Friendship Train, 1947—. Author: Washington Merry-Go-Round (co-author); More Merry-Go-Round; The American Diplomatic Game; The Nine Old Men. Contributor to magazines. Served in U. S. Army, World War I. Residence: 2820 Dumbarton Ave., N.W., Washington, D. C., and Gaithersburg, Md. Office: 1313 29th St., N.W., Washington 7, D. C.

PEARSON, BERTRAM LAMB, British Government Administrator; born Apr. 12, 1893, Broom Hall, Wrenthorpe, Wakefield, Yorkshire, England; son of William and Mary Ann (Briggs) Pearson; educated at Queen's College, Oxford, M.A. 1920; married Gladys Mary Stewart, Oct. 12, 1920. Asst. Principal, Board of Education, 1920; Private Secy. to Permanent Secy. Sir A. Selby-Bigge, 1924-25; also Sir Aubrey Symonds, 1925-28. Private Secy., Board of Education, 1937; Asst. Secy., 1937-44; Principal Asst. Secy. and Accountant General, 1944-45; Under Secy. for Finance and Accountant General, Ministry of Education, since 1946. Awarded Military Cross, 1916; D.S.O., 1917. Address: Ministry of Education, London, England.

PEARSON, EGON SHARPE, British Statistician; born Aug. 11, 1895, London, England; son of Karl and Maria (Sharpe) Pearson; educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, M.A. 1923; London Univ., D.Sc. 1926; married Eileen Jolly, 1934; two children. Lecturer, Dept. of Statistics, Univ. College, London, 1921; Head of Dept., 1933; Prof. of Statistics, 1935. Member, Ordnance Board, Ministry of Supply, 1939-45; Managing Editor, Biometrika, since 1936. Fellow, Inst. of Mathematical Statistics. Member: Royal Statistical Soc.; Amer. Statistical Assn.; Internatl. Inst. of Statistics; Statistical Com. of Medical Research Council. Address: University College, Gower St., London, England.

PEARSON, Dr. FRANK ASHMORE, American Agricultural Economist; born Dec. 31, 1887, Topeka, Kans.; son of Elmer G. and Annie V. (Ogden) Pearson; educated at Cornell Univ., B.S.A. 1912, Ph.D. 1922; Harvard Univ., 1921; married Amelia P. Feldkamp, Aug. 4, 1915; two sons. Asst. and Assoc. in Dairy Husbandry, Univ. of Illinois, 1912-20. Instructor in Farm Management, 1920-22; Asst. Prof. of Farm Management, Cornell Univ., 1922-23; Prof. of Prices and Statistics, since 1923. Author (with others): The Agricultural Situation, 1924; Interrelationships of Supply and Price, 1928; Die Erzeugungs und absatzverhaltnisse der Deutschen Vieh und Milchwirtschaft, 1929; Wholesale Prices in the U. S. for 135 years, 1797-32, 1932; Prices, 1933; Gold and Prices, 1935; World Prices and the Building Industry (with G. F. Warren), 1937; Pepper (with Mrs. J. V. Cassetta and K. R. Bennett), 1941; Statistical Methods (with K. R. Bennett), 1942; Food (with Don Paarlberg), 1943; The World's Hunger (with F. A. Harper), 1945. Address: Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

PEARSON Hon. GEORGE SHARRATT, British Columbian Minister of Labor and Minister of Health and Welfare; born Apr. 27, 1880, Bromley, England; son of Joseph D. and Emma (Sharratt) Pearson; educated at Nanaimo High School; married Emeline Pearce, Mar. 2, 1904; two daughters. Retail grocer, 1897; elected Member, British Columbia Legislature, 1928; Minister of Labor, B. C. Government, since 1933; Provincial Secy. of British Columbia, since 1941, Minister of Health and Welfare, since Oct. 1, 1946. Residence: Milton, Nanaimo, B. C. Office: Parliament Bldgs., Victoria, B. C., Canada.

PEARSON, HESKETH, British Writer; born 1889. Author: Modern Men and Mummers, 1921; A Persian Critic, 1923; Doctor Darwin, 1930; Common Misquotations, 1934; The Fool of Love (a Life of William Hazlitt), 1934; Gilbert and Sullivan, 1935; Labby (Life and Character of Henry Labouchere), 1936; Tom Paine (Friend of Mankind), 1937; Thinking It Over, 1938; The Hero of Delhi (A Life of John Nicholson), 1939; Bernard Shaw (His Life and Personality), 1942; Conan Doyle (His Life and Art), 2nd ed., 1943; Oscar Wilde: His Life and Wit (Book-of-the-Month Club selection), 1946, etc. Address: c/o Harper & Bros., 49 E. 33rd St., New York, N. Y.

PEARSON, Dr. JOSEPH, Australian Museum Director; born Apr. 19, 1881, Liverpool, England; son of Daniel and Cecilia (Parr) Pearson; educated at Liverpool College; Univ. College of Liverpool, M.Sc. 1905, D.Sc. 1908; Univ. of Manchester, B.Sc. 1902, M.Sc. 1921, D.Sc. 1922; married Mavis Meadowcroft, Dec. 4, 1929. Asst. Lecturer in Zoology, Univ. College of Cardiff, 1904; Lecturer, Univ. of Liverpool, 1905-10; Director of Colombo Museum, 1910-34; Marine Biologist to Ceylon Govt., 1910-34. Lecturer in Biology, Ceylon Medical College, 1910-20; in Univ. College of Colombo, 1920-24. Director, Tasmanian Museum, since 1934. Commissioner, Internatl. Commn. in Zoological Nomenclature. Member: Australian Natl. Research Council; Barrier Reef and Oceanographical Com. of the Council. Scientific Liaison Officer for Tasmania, since 1943. Fellow: Royal Soc. of Edinburgh; Linnean Soc.; Australian and New Zealand Assn. for Advancement of Science (Pres. of Section D). Hon. Secy., Royal Soc. of Tasmania. Author of numerous papers on zoology, marine biology, comparative anatomy of the Marsupialia, archaeology and furniture. Formerly Editor, Ceylon Journal of Science. Editor of Papers and Proceedings of Royal Soc. of Tasmania. Served in Ceylon and France with Royal Artillery during First World War. Address: Tasmanian Museum, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia.

PEARSON, Hon. LESTER BOWLES, Canadian Diplomat; born Apr. 23, 1897, Toronto, Ont.; son of Rev. Dr. Edwin Arthur and Annie Sarah Pearson; educated at Collegiate Inst., Peterboro and Hamilton, Ont.; Univ. of Toronto, B.A. 1919; St. John's College, Oxford, B.A. 1923, M.A. 1925; married Maryon Elspeth Moody, Aug. 22, 1925; two children. Served in First World War; employed by Armour & Co., Chicago, Ill. 1919-21; Lecturer, 1924-26, Assistant Professor, 1926-28, University of Toronto; First Secretary, Department of External Affairs, Ottawa, 1928; Adviser in Washington on the "I'm Alone" case, 1929, and to Canadian Delegation at Conference for the Codification of International Law The Hague, 1930; represented Canada at Disarmament Conferences, 1930, 1933 and 1934, and at Imperial Conference in Ottawa, 1932; Secretary, Lord Stamp's Royal Commission on Wheat Futures, 1931, and Price Spreads Commission, 1934-35. First Secretary, Office of the High Commissioner of Canada in London, 1935-41; Assistant Secretary of State for External Affairs, 1941-42; became Minister-Counsellor of Canadian Legation, Washington, June 1942. Served as Chairman, United Nations Interim Commission on Food and Agriculture; Chairman, Supply Committee of UNRRA; Chairman, UNRRA Conference, Montreal, 1944. Canadian Ambassador to U. S., 1945-46. Senior Adviser, Canadian Delegation, U. N. Conf. on Internatl. Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Under-Secy. of State for External Affairs, 1946—. Chmn., Canadian Delegation, U. N. General Assembly, 1947. Temporary Rept. of Canada, U. N. Security Council, until Jan. 1948; Canadian Rept., Interim Com. of U. N. General Assembly, 1948. Address: Dept. of External Affairs, East Block, Ottawa, Canada.

PEARSON, RALPH M., American Etcher, Author; born May 27, 1883, Angus, Ia.; son of Arthur T. and Katherine (Mosher) Pearson; educated at Chicago Art Inst.; married Louise Hayes, Oct. 9, 1923; two children. Held first exhibition at Chicago Art Institute, 1905; etchings exhibited throughout country, 1910-30; first etcher in the U. S. to apply findings of Modern Movement in etching. Represented in permanent collections of: City of Chicago; Art Institute of Chicago; Congressional Library; Los Angeles Museum of Art; Rochester Museum of Art, and New York Public Library. Founder and Director, The Design Workshop; Co-founder and Member of National Executive Committee, American Artists Congress, 1936-39; Chairman of National Convention, 1937. Author: Fifty Prints of the Year, 1925; How to See Modern Pictures, 1925; Experiencing Pictures, 1932; New Art Education, 1941; Critical Appreciation Course, 1940-45; Experiencing American Pictures, 1943, etc. Address: 288 Piermont Ave., Nyack, N. Y.

PEARSON, Sir ROBERT BARCLAY, Kt., British Financier; born Nov. 20, 1871, educated at Brasenose College, Oxford; M.A. (Oxon). Advocate, Scottish Bar, 1898. Member, London Stock Exchange, 1913—; Member of Com., 1929; Deputy Chairman, 1933; Chairman of Council, 1936—. Address: London Stock Exchange, London, England.

PEARSON, Dr. WILLIAM, Irish Surgeon; born 1882, Cork, Ireland; son of Charles Yelverton and Chrissie (Tuckey) Pearson; educated at Trinity College, Dublin, B.A. 1904, M.B., M.D., Ch.B., B.A.O. 1907, M.Ch. 1911; Mayo Clinic, Johns Hopkins Hospital and in London and Berlin; married Esther Margaret Hurford, 1927; one son. Surgeon, 1909; Demonstrator in Anatomy, Univ. of Dublin, 1907-14; Anaesthetist, Sir P. Dun Hospital, 1908-09; Asst. Surgeon, Adelaide Hospital, Dublin, 1910-16; Surgeon, Meath Hospital, Dublin, 1912. Surgeon, Adelaide Hospital, Dublin, since 1916; Asst. to Prof. of Surgery, 1909-29; Prof., Univ. of Dublin, since 1929. Fellow: Royal Acad. of Medicine in Ireland (Ex-Pres., Dublin Univ. Biological Assn.); Assn. of Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland. Member, British Orthopaedic Assn. Author of numerous contributions to surgical journals (largely in the field of surgery of aneurysm, bone and thyroid gland). Major and Surgical Specialist with Royal Army Medical Corps. Residence: 31 Fitzwilliam Pl., Dublin, Ireland.

PEASE, Dr. ARTHUR STANLEY, American Educator; born 1881; received Ph.D. and LL.D. degrees. Pope Professor of the Latin Language and Literature, Harvard Univ. Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Author: Vascular Flora of Coös County, New Hampshire, 1924; Sequestered Vales of Life, 1946. Editor of many books in Latin. Residence: 984 Memorial Drive. Office: Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

PEASE, EDWARD REYNOLDS, British Economist; born Dec. 23, 1857, Henbury, near Bristol, England; son of Thomas and Susan Ann (Fry) Pease; educated at London Univ.; married Mary G. Davidson; two children. Stockbroker, Cull & Pease, London; Stock Exchange, 1880-86; artizan cabinet maker, Newcastle, 1886-89; Secy. and Hon. Secy., Fabian Soc., 1890-1913, 1914-39. Founded (with others): Fabian Soc., 1884; London School of Economics, 1896; Labour Party, 1900; Psychical Research Soc. (Council 1882-86). Author: Case for Municipal Drink Trade, 1904; Kirkup's History of Socialism, 1906; History of Fabian Society, 1916, 1925. Address: The Pendicle, Limpsfield, Surrey, England.

PEASE, HENRY MARK, American Communications Executive; born Dec. 19, 1875, Malta, Ill.; educated at Univ. of Illinois, B.S. 1898; married Adelaide Columbia Timberlake; two children. Joined Western Electric Co. in Chicago, 1898; transferred to London Branch to supervise installation of Central Battery Telephone Exchanges for British Post Office and Natl. Telephone Co., 1902; in charge of Telephone Engineering Dept. until 1907; Sales Manager, 1909, Asst. Manager, 1913; in charge of telephone switchboard installation work until 1919; Managing Director, Western Electric Co. Ltd., London, 1919. In charge of exploitation of loaded cable telephone transmission systems in Great Britain, Holland, Sweden and Italy, and organized long distance cable laying department in London, 1908-22. One of organizers, British Broadcasting Co., 1922; installed one of first broadcasting stations in England; negotiated contract for first transatlantic radio telephone transmitting station with British Post Office, 1923; International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. purchased International Western Electric Co., and continued as Managing Director in England, 1925; General Manager of all Corporation's properties in Europe, Africa, Australasia and India, 1927-33; Director, International Standard Elec. Corp., 1933-37; Vice-Pres. and Director, International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. since 1937; Pres., International Standard Elec. Corp., 1941-46; Vice-Chairman since 1946. Vice-Pres. and Director, Federal Telephone & Radio Corp. Residence: Westchester Country Club. Office: 67 Broad St., New York, N. Y.

PEASE, HERBERT HOYT, American Industrialist; born Aug. 10, 1881, New Britain, Conn.; son of L. Hoyt and Julia Lillian (Sawyer) Pease; educated at New Britain High School and at Yale; married Mary Louise Curtiss, Nov. 11, 1908; five children. Began career with Stanley Works, 1902; became Manager, Steel Dept., 1908. Joined New Britain Machine Co., 1910; elected 2nd Vice-Pres. a month later; Treas., 1911-36; Pres. since 1920. Board Chairman since 1930. Director: New Britain Trust Co.; Burritt Mutual Savings Bank; New Britain, and A. G. Spalding & Bros. Served as Pres., New Britain Y.M.C.A.; Pres., New Britain Foundation for Public Giving; Pres., Community Chest. Director, New Britain General Hospital. Address: New Britain, Conn.

PEASE, HOWARD, American Author; born 1894. Author: The Ship Without a Crew, 1937; Jungle River, 1938; Captain Binnacle, 1938; Foghorns, 1941; Thunderbolt House, 1944; Heart of Danger, 1946, etc. Address: Doubleday & Co., Inc., 14 W. 49th St., New York, N. Y.

PEASE, Dr. MARSHALL CARLETON, American Pediatrician; born Aug. 8, 1879, Glen Ellyn, Ill.; son of Marshall Carleton and Eva (Way) Pease; educated at Beloit (Wis.) College, B.S. 1902; College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia Univ., M.D. 1906; married Edith King, Sept. 25, 1907; two sons. Clinical Prof. of Pediatrics and Attending Physician at N. Y. Post-Grad. Med. School and Hosp., Columbia Univ.; Attending Physician to Willard Parker Hosp., and Consulting Pediatrician to Monmouth Memorial, Fitkin, Lutheran and Jamaica Hosps., and to the Good Samaritan Hosp. in Suffern. Historian, Amer. Acad. of Pediatrics Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Acad. of Pediatrics; Soc. of Experimental Biol. and Med.; Amer. Immunological Soc.; etc. Author: Care of the Baby; also numerous articles in Pediatric Journal. Capt., later Major, Med. Corps, U. S. Army, 1917-19; Lt. Col., Med. Reserve Corps, 1920-23. Address: Branchville Road, Ridgefield, Conn.

PEASE, Prof. THEODORE CALVIN, Prof. of History, Univ. of Illinois. Author: The County Archives of the tSate of Illinois, 1915; The Leveller Movement, 1916; The Frontier State, 1818-1848, 1918; The Diary of Orville H. Browning, 1923; The Story of Illinois, 1925; The United States, 1927; George Rogers Clark and the Revolution in Illinois, 1763-1787, 1929. Address: University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.

PEASLEE, HORACE WHITTIER, American Architect; born Nov. 9, 1884, Malden Bridge, N. Y.; son of John N. and Sarah A. (Rider) Peaslee; educated at College of Architecture, Cornell Univ.; studied under Jean Hebrard (architectural design); married Frances Monroe Hopkins, Dec. 31, 1928; one son. Architect, Office of Public Bldgs. and Grounds, D. C., 1917-18; Lecturer, Univ. of Illinois (Landscape Design), 1912-13; Secy., Allied Architects of Washington, 1923-33; P.W.A. Housing, 1933-38; Consulting Architect, Corps of Engineers, 1937-38 and Public Bldgs. Adm., 1938-42; Secy., Central Housing Com. (of Govt. Housing Agencies), 1935-42; Secy., O.C.D. (Natl.) Technical Board, 1942-44. Consultant on planning of buildings and grounds. Fellow, Amer. Inst. of Architects (2nd Vice-Pres 1930-34, Chairman, Com. on the National Capitol, 1924-34. Past-Pres., D. C. Chapter). Member, "Joint Com. on National Capitol" (10 national organizations); Vice-Chairman, Amer. Planning and Civic Assn. Vice-Chairman, Federal City Com. of 100. Vice-Chairman, D. C. Com. on Natl. Capitol Sesquicentennial. Awarded Beaux Arts and Cornell medals; Fellowship (Cornell Univ.). Author of articles on Park Architecture; Controlled Developments; Streamlined Specification System, etc. Capt., Engineers, U. S. Army, 1917-19. Address: 1228 Connecticut Ave., Washington 6, D. C.

PEAT, WILBUR DAVID, American Art Museum Director; born Nov. 8, 1898, Chengtu, China; son of Jacob Franklin and Emily May (Gaskill) Peat; educated at Ohio Wesleyan Univ., 1917-19; Cleveland School of Art, 1919-23; Agnes Gund Scholarship; Natl. Acad. of Design, 1923; Art Students League, 1923; Grande Chaumière and Colarossi Academies, Paris, 1924; Univ. of Chicago, summers 1935-37; Hanover College, L.H.D. 1944; married Talitha Rasmussen, Sept. 10, 1925; two children. Director, Akron Art Inst., 1924-29; Instructor of History of Art, Akron Univ., 1925-29; Butler Univ., 1943-45. Director, John Herron Art Inst., since 1929. Member: Amer. Assn. of Museums; Assn. of Art Museum Directors; Indiana Artists Club; Contemporary Club (Pres. 1943-44), etc. Author: Portraits and Painters of Governors of Indiana, 1800-1943 (1944); George Winter, Pioneer Artist of Indiana (1939); Jacob Cox, Early Indianapolis Artist, (1941). Address: John Herron Art Institute, Indianapolis, Ind.

PEAT, Sir WILLIAM HENRY, K.B.E., British Chartered Accountant; born in Redcar, Yorks., Eng., May 4, 1878; son of Sir William Barclay and Edith Mary (Roberts) Peat; educated at St. Paul's School; Trinity College, Oxford; married Alice Evelyn Jameson, July 28, 1906; two sons and two daughters. Chartered Accountant since 1906; Senior Partner in Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co., since 1923. Financial Secretary and Accounting Officer, Ministry of Food, 1917-20; Chairman, Board of Supervision, Pensioners Savings Scheme, since 1936. Served on: Royal Commission on Importation of Store Cattle, 1921; Royal Commission on Food Prices, 1925; Com. on Co-operative Selling in the Coal Industry, 1926; National Mark Com., since 1928; Standard Price Com. under the Wheat Act, 1935. Financial Secy. to the Ministry of Food, 1939 —. Residence: "Hillside", Merry Hill Rd., Bushey, Herts. Office: 11 Ironmonger Lane, London, E.C. 2, England.

PEATTIE, DONALD CULROSS, American Writer; born 1898. Author: Blown Leaves, 1916; Cargoes and Harvests, 1926; Bounty of Earth (with Louise Peattie), 1926; Down Wind (with Louise Peattie), 1929; Flora of the Indiana Dunes, 1930; Port of Call, 1932; The Bright Lexicon, 1934; An Almanac for Moderns, 1935; Green Laurels, 1936; A Book of Hours, 1937; A Prairie Grove, 1938; A Gathering of Birds, 1939; Flowering Earth, 1939; The Road of a Naturalist, 1941; Forward the Nation, 1942; Journey into America, 1943; Immortal Village, 1945. Address: c/o G. P. Putnam's Sons, 2 W. 45th St., New York, New York.

PEATTIE, LOUISE (REDFIELD), American Writer; born 1900. Author: Bounty of Earth (wtih Donald Culross Peattie), 1926; Up Country (with Donald Culross Peattie), 1928; Down Wind (with Donald Culross Peattie), 1929; Pan's Parish, 1931; The Happy Kingdom (with Donald Culross Peattie), 1935; American Acres, 1936; Grand Portage, 1937; Tomorow is Ours, 1937; A Child in Her Arms, 1938; The Californians, 1940, etc. Address: c/o Doubleday & Co., Inc., 14 W. 49th St., New York, N. Y.

PECH, Dr. JACQUES, French Professor of Medical Physics; born Mar. 4, 1889, Perpignan, France; educated privately by Charles Renouvier; College of Perpignan; Univ. of Montpellier; married July 30, 1918; one daughter. Asst., Faculty of Medicine, Univ. of Montpellier, 1912-20; Asst. Prof., Medical Physics, 1920-22; Prof. of Medical Physics since 1922. Director of Biological Inst., Faculty of Medicine. Founder, Center against Cancer, Montpellier. Decorations: Legion of Honor; Croix de Guerre, 1914-18; Gold Medal (epidemics). Inventor of various medical devices. Address: Faculté de Médecine, Montpellier (Hérault), France.

PECK, ANNE MERRIMAN, American Writer; born 1884. Story-book Europe, 1929; A Vagabond's Provence, 1929; Young Germany, 1931; Roundabout Europe, 1931; Roundabout America (with Enid Johnson), 1933; Wheat, Corn and Rye, 1938; Coffee, Tea and Chocolate, 1938; The Pageant of Canadian History; Roundabout South America, 1940; The Pageant of South American History, 1941; Young Canada, 1943; The Pageant of Canadian History, 1943; The Pageant of Middle American History, 1947. Address: c/o Longmans, Greene & Co., 55 5th Ave., New York, N. Y.

PECK, Dr. FRANKLIN BRUCE, American Physician; born Sept. 26, 1898, Remington, Ind.; son of Frank L. and May (Tedford) Peck; educated at Indiana Univ., A.B. 1920; Jefferson Med. College, M.D. 1923; married Lisbeth Clarke Roeder, Sept. 28, 1924; two children. Associated in internal medicine with Dr. P. J. Pothuisie of Denver, Colo., 1925-27; Asst. Grace Hospital Diabetic Clinic, Detroit, 1927-29; Director, 1933-36; Assoc. with Lilly Research Laboratories and Head of Clinical Development of Protamine Zinc Insulin, 1936; Assoc. Dir., Med. Division, since 1939. Physician, Diabetic Clinic, Indianapolis City Hosp.; Assoc. in Medicine, Indiana Univ. School of Med. Fellow, Amer. College of Physicians and Amer. Med. Assn. Member: Amer. Diabetes Assn.; Assn. for the Study of Internal Secretions, etc. Managing Editor, Diabetes Abstracts. Author of numerous contributions to medical literature dealing with diabetes and preparations of insulin. Residence: 215 W. 52nd St. Office: 740 S. Alabama St., Indianapolis, Ind.

PECK, GREGORY, American Motion Picture Actor; born Apr. 5, 1916, La Jolla, Calif.; educated at Univ. of California; Neighborhood Playhouse School of Dramatics; married 1942; one son. Worked as a barker at World's Fair, N. Y., and later as a guide in Rockefeller Center. Played repertory roles and later with road companies and Broadway productions. Played role of Father Francis Chisholm in A. J. Cronin's "The Keys of the Kingdom" (produced by 20th Century-Fox. Co-starred with Ingrid Bergman in "Spellbound," 1945. Starred in Valley of Decision, 1946; The Yearling, 1947; Duel in the Sun, 1947; Gentlemen's Agreement, 1947; The Macomber Affair, 1947; The Paradine Case, 1948. Nominee for Academy Award, 1948. Residence: Beverly Hills, Calif. Studio: 20th Century-Fox, Hollywood, Calif.

PECK, Air Marshal Sir RICHARD HALLAM, K.C.B., C.B.E., British Officer; born March 2, 1893, Liverpool, England; son of Richard Edwards and Harriet (Johnson) Peck; educated at Brasenose College, Oxford, M.A.; married Lillian F. Young, Dec. 22, 1931. Army Officer during First World War; transferred to Royal Flying Corps, and later to Royal Air Force. Served in France, Iraq, Middle East and India. Asst. Chief, General Air Staff, Royal Air Force, with rank of Air Marshal, 1941-46; retired. Governor, British Broadcasting Corp., 1946—. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Arts. Residence: Grosvenor House, Park Lane. Office: British Broadcasting Corp., London, England.

PECKHAM, IGNATIUS MARTIN, American Lawyer; born Nov. 23, 1888, San Jose, Calif.; son of James A. and Catherine (Higgins) Peckham; educated at Stanford Univ., A.B. 1911; Stanford Law School, J.D. 1913; married Rose Jordan, Feb. 29, 1924; one son. Engaged in private practice of law. San Francisco, Calif., since 1912. First Asst. to U. S. Attorney at San Francisco, 1929-32; U. S. Attorney, San Francisco, 1933; Deputy Attorney General of California in charge of Building and Loan Matters, 1943-44. Member: San Francisco, California State and Amer. Bar Assns. Residence: 2071 Middelfield Rd., Palo Alto. Office: 405 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Calif.

PECO, Dr. JOSÉ, Argentine Law Professor; born Aug. 27, 1895, Buenos Aires, Argentina; son of Angel and Maria (Cabaleiro) Peco; married Ada Maria Casas; one daughter. Received primary education in Federal Capital; received degree of Lawyer, 1918 and Doctor in Jurisprudence, 1920, University of Buenos Aires. Professor of Penal Law, University of Buenos Aires and University of La Plata, since 1926; Director, Institute of Criminology, since 1934. Director, Institute of Higher Juridical Studies, 1937-39; also Academy Councillor, Faculty of Law of La Plata. Dean, Faculty of Juridical and Social Sciences, University of La Plata, 1932-36. National Deputy, 1938-42; re-elected 1942, but did not finish term because of Military Revolution of June 4, 1943. Author: Reform of the Penal Code; Uxoricide for Adultery; Homicide; The Penal Reform in the Senate (1933); The Project of Penal Code for Argentine Republic, 1942. Residence: Santiago del Estero 1727, Avellaneda, Provincia de Buenos Aires. Office: Roque Saénz Peña Av. 995, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

PEDERSEN, ERIK ADOLF, Norwegian Manufacturer; born July 23, 1884, Oslo, Norway; son of Erik and Emilie (Sommer) Pedersen; educated at Grammar School and Commercial College; married (2nd) Ragnhild Aarnaes, 1934; three children. Correspondent with a coffee firm; Manager, Freia Chocolate Factory, Ltd., 1909; Managing Director, 1918; General Manager, since 1938. Pres., Norwegian Chocolate Manufacturers Assn. Member of Board: Nansen Foundation; Federation of Norwegian Industries; Friends of Nationaltheateret. Residence: Dalsveien 72, Slemdal, near Oslo. Office: Verksgatan 28, Oslo, Norway.

PEDERSEN, Dr. HOLGER, Danish Philologist; born Apr. 7, 1867, Gjelballe, Denmark; son of Kriste and Dorte (Lavridsen) Pedersen; educated at Univ. of Copenhagen, 1885-90; foreign universities, 1892-96; Ph.D., Copenhagen, 1897; Hon. Ph.D., Univs. of Bordeaux, Ghent, Dublin, Wales, Uppsala, Dorpat, Aarhus and Helsingfors; married Jenny Dahl, Feb. 14, 1900; two children. Lecturer, Univ. of Copenhagen, 1900; Prof., 1903-37. Member: Linguistic Soc., Paris; Linguistic Soc. of America; Irish Texts Soc.; Maatschappij der Nederlandsche Letterkunde te Leiden; Suomalis-Ugrilainen Seura; Acads. in Copenhagen, Norway, Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Holland, Göttingen and Bologna. Author: Albanesische Texte mit Glossar, 1895; Les pronoms démonstratifs de l'ancien arménien, 1905; Russisk Grammatik (Danish), 1916; La cinquième déclinaisom latine, 1926; Linguistic Science in the Nineteenth Century, 1931; Études lituaniennes, 1933; A Concise Comparative Celtic Grammar (with Henry Lewis), 1937; Tocharisch vom Gesichtspunkt der indoeuropäischen Sprachvergleichung, 1941; Lykisch und Hittitisch, 1945. Address: Gersonsvej 69, Copenhagen-Hellerup, Denmark.

PEDERSEN, Dr. JOHANNES, Danish Orientalist; born Nov. 7, 1883, Lindelse, Denmark; son of Sören and Ida (Noiesen) Pedersen; educated at Copenhagen, cand.

theol. 1908; studied in Marburg, Leipzig, Leiden, Paris and Budapest, 1909-12; Ph.D., Copenhagen, 1912; studied in Egypt, Palestine and Syria, 1920-21; Univ. of Lund, hon. Th.D. 1923; Univ. of Manchester, D.D. 1947; married Thora Gertz, Dec. 20, 1921 (deceased, 1946). Docent of Old Testament, Copenhagen, 1916; Prof. of Semitic Philology, Univ. of Copenhagen, since 1922; Council Member, 1928-33; Member of Board of Directors, Carlsberg Foundation, 1926, Pres. of Board, 1933; Member of Board of Directors, National Museum of Frederiksborg, 1926; Co-editor, Acta Orientalia, 1932. Chairman, Danish Oriental Soc., 1945; Member: Royal Danish Acad.; British Soc. for Old Testament Study; Gesellschaft der Wissenschaften, Göttingen; Prussian Acad., Berlin; Royal Vitterhets historie och Antikvitets Akademien, Stockholm; Soc. of Biblical Literature and Exegesis (U. S. A.); Amer. Oriental Soc., etc. Author: Danish Translation of Bible texts, 1909, 1910; Den semitiske Ed, 1912; Der Eid bei den Semiten und im Islam, 1914; Israel I, II, 1920, 2nd ed. 1934 (England, 1926-46); Israel, III, IV, 1934 (England, 1940-47); Danish Translation of Islamic Texts, 1919; of Moslem Mystic Texts, 1923; Al-Azhar, 1922; Hebrew Grammar, 1926, 2nd ed. 1933; The Religion of Islam, 1924; Islams Kultur, 1928; Scepticisme Israélite, 1937; The Arabic Book (Danish) 1946; Semitische Sprachen, Reallexikon der Vorgeschichte, 1924; Masdjid (The Mosque), Encyclopedia of Islam, 1930; Carlsbergfondet, 1942. Address: Dantes Plads 35, Copenhagen, Denmark.

PEDERSEN, Dr. SVERRE, Norwegian Architect, Townplanner, Educator; born Aug. 4, 1882, Trondheim, Norway; son of Hans and Christine Pedersen; educated at Trondheims Tekn. Laereanstalt; Technical Univ., Hanover, Germany; Berlin, Germany; Dr. ing. lic. Darmstadt, Germany; Univ. of Trondheim, Hon. Dr. Engineering; married Edith Borseth, Dec. 8, 1913; five children. Asst. Arch. Trondheim Com., 1905; Townpl. arch., 1908; made new City Plan of Trondheim, 1910; City Architect, built gas works and housing, 1914; Prof., Technical Univ., Trondheim Housing and Town and Regional Planning, until 1920. Made City Plans for about 30 smaller and larger Norwegian cities. Awarded several prizes in Townplanning and other Comp. for new Univ. in Oslo, Vestre Vika in Oslo; built public buildings and housing. Hon. Member, British Townplanning Inst., London; Corresponding Member, Arch. Assn. Vienna and Buenos Aires; Akademie für Stadlebau, Berlin. Awarded medals from Luxembourg, France, Norway. Author: Townplanning, 1931; many articles in Norwegian and foreign feature magazines. Address: Lerkendals vei 24 or N.T.H., Trondheim, Norway.

PEDRAZZINI, CLAY, American Lawyer; born June 26, 1894, San Francisco, Calif.; son of Ernest and Pia (Campigli-Garzoli) Pedrazzini; educated at Pontifical College, Ascona, Switzerland, 1910-1911; Heidelberg Univ., 1912; École Politique, Geneva, 1913; married Emily Brusco, Nov. 1929. Lawyer since 1918. Member, Legal Advisory Draft Board, San Francisco, 1918. Attorney for Federation of Italian-Amer. Societies of California, 1919. Took postgraduate course in political science at Lausanne Univ., 1927; at Univ. of Geneva. General Counsel for Swiss Publishing Co. of California, 1933; Vice-Pres., 1934. Pres., Swiss Publishing Co. of California, Inc. (also serving as General Counsel), since 1937. Publisher of Swiss-American weekly La Colonia Svizzera, since 1936. Director: Swiss Publishing Co. of California, Inc.; Pedrazzini-Garzoli Estate Co., Inc. Member: International Law Assn.; Academy of Political Science; International Assn. of Penal Law; State Bar of California; National Lawyers Guild. Author: The Swiss-Italian Pioneers of California, 1937; The Swiss Colonies in the U. S. A., 1926. Residence: 1047 Monterey Blvd. Office: 605 Washington St., San Francisco 11, Calif.

PEDRO-PONS, Dr. AGUSTÍN, Spanish Medical Pathologist; born May 9, 1898, Barcelona, Span; son of Tomas Pedro and Margarita Pons; educated at Instituto de 2° enseñanza, Barcelona, 1914; Univ. of Barcelona, lic. med. 1919; Univ. of Madrid, M.D. 1921. Interned at Hospital Sta. Craz, Barcelona, 1919; Asst. Prof., Faculty of Medicine, Barcelona, 1920-24; Prof., Medical Pathology Univ. of Barcelona, since 1927. Pres., Acad. of Medical Sciences at Barcelona, since 1939; Director of Medical Section, Instituto de Investigaciones Médicas, Barcelona, since 1940; Director, magazines "Medicina Clinica" and "Revista Española de Reumatismo y enfermedades osteoarticulares," since 1941. Member: Real Academia de Medicina, Barcelona; Asociación de Médicos escritores, of Spain. Author: Enfermedad de Banti, 1925; Enfermedades de los huesos, musculos y articulaciones, 1934-44; Enfermedades por insuficiencia alimenticia, 1940; Brucelosis humana, 1944; Linfo granuloma maligno, 1945. Residence: Mallorca 293. Office: Casanovas 143, Barcelona, Spain.

PEDROSO, LUIS de, Count de San Esteban de Cañongo, Spanish Diplomat; born Jan. 7, 1876, Paris, France; son of Marqués de San Carlos de Pedroso and Dolores Madan; educated at Madrid and Paris Univs.; Licencié en droit, Paris; Licencié en droit civil and droit canon, Madrid; married Princess Marie Sturdza, Sept. 19, 1907; three daughters. Spanish Attaché in London, 1905; at Paris, 1907; 3rd Secy., Foreign Office, Madrid, 1909; 2nd Secy., Washington, D. C., 1912; Chargé d'Affaires, Salvador, Central America, 1916; Counselor, Spanish Embassy, London, 1917; at Rome, 1919; Minister in Stockholm, 1923; Head of Political Dept., Foreign Office, Madrid, 1926; resigned with Republic, 1931; Minister in Poland, 1939; Ambassador, 1946. Received many decorations. Address: Méndez Núñez 15, Madrid, Spain.

PEEBLES, ISAAC SIDNEY, Jr., American Attorney; born Sept. 9, 1879, Gibson, Ga.; son of Isom S. and Eliza Ellen (Glover) Peebles; educated at Univ. of Georgia, finished Junior class, 1903; LL.B. 1904; married Catherine Wall, Feb. 13, 1926; one son. Lawyer since 1904. Elected Mayor of Gibson, Ga., 1905; re-elected, but resigned and moved to Augusta, Ga., 1906. Presidential Elector, 10th District of Georgia, 1908; City Attorney, Augusta, Ga., 1916, 1917 and 1918; State Senator, 18th Dist., 1924; re-elected 1926; law partner of late U. S. Senator Thos. W. Hardwick, 1932-33. Declined appointment to Supreme Court of Georgia, 1937. Now County Attorney of Richmond County (since 1935); engaged in practice of law at Augusta, Ga. Member: Augusta, Georgia State and Amer. Bar Assns. Residence: 2100 McDowell St. Office: 711-16 Marion Bldg., Augusta, Ga.

PEELE, Rev. Dr. WILLIAM WALTER, American Bishop; born Nov. 26, 1881, Gibson, N. C.; son of Andrew H. and Lenora J. (Gibson) Peele; educated at Trinity College, Duke University, A.B. 1903, D.D. 1928; Randolph-Macon College, LL.D. 1941; married Elizabeth Lytch, Aug. 2, 1911. Ordained Minister, 1903. Professor, Rutherford College, 1903-06; President, Rutherford College, 1907-09; St. John Gibson Charge, 1909-10; Pastor, Aberdeen-Biscoe Charge, 1910-11. Headmaster, 1910-11. Trinity Park School, 1911-14; Professor, Duke University, 1915-18.

Pastor: Edenton St. Church, Raleigh, N. C., 1918-23; Trinity Church, Durham, N. C., 1923-27; First Church, Charlotte, N. C., 1927-36; District Supt. of Greensboro District, N. C., 1937-38. Bishop, Methodist Church, Richmond, Va., since 1938. Trustee, Duke University. Chairman, Commission on Chaplains of Methodist Church and of Commission on Camp Activities of Methodist Church. Private in U. S. Army, 1918. Address: Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, Va.

PEEPLES, THOMAS HAY, American Lawyer; born Aug. 4, 1882, Beaufort, S. C.; son of Benjamin F. and Leila (Hay) Peeples; educated under private tutors; at Univ. of South Carolina; married Hallie Armstrong, Jan. 8, 1921. Clerk in a grocery store in 1902. Admitted to practice of law, Dec. 7, 1907. Elected to State Legislature, 1910; elected Attorney-General of South Carolina, 1912, reelected 1914 and 1916. Elected Chairman, South Carolina Canal Commn., 1917. Pres., Natl. Assn. of Attorneys General, 1916. Commissioned Major, Judge Advocate-General's Dept., 1919. Chief Counsel, War Dept., Board of Appraisers. Elected to State House of Representatives, 1924, served on Judiciary Com. Elected Chairman, Joint Com. on Efficiency and Consolidation created by General Assembly, 1926. On legal staff, Federal Land Bank, Columbia, S. C., 1934. Residence: Blackville. Office: 1410 Main, Columbia, S. C.

PEERCE, JAN, American Tenor; born June 3, 1906, New York. Member of the Metropolitan Opera Co.; sang with the Columbia Opera Co., Philadelphia La Scala Co., Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, National Symphony, etc. Made many recordings, including: Naughty Marietta; Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life; 'Neath the Southern Moon; I'm Falling in Love With Someone; Italian Street Song; The Fortune Teller; Gypsy Love Song; Romany Life; Czardas, etc.; La Juive: Act II, Passover Scene; Lucia de Lammermoor: Act III, Scene 3, Tomb Scene; The Red Mill (Medley); Sweethearts, etc. Address: Metropolitan Opera House, New York, N. Y.

PEEREBOOM, ROBERT W. P., Dutch Editor; born May 25, 1891, Haarlem, The Netherlands; son of J. C. and A. A. (Buys) Peereboom; married G. H. Chambers, Jan. 4, 1924; two children. Reporter, Utrechtsch Dagblad, 1909-11; Sub-Editor, Haarlems Dagblad, 1911-15; Amsterdam Telegraf, 1915-16; served in Dutch Army, 1916-18; Paris Correspondent, Amsterdam Telegraf, 1918-20; London Correspondent, 1920-26; Editor, Haarlems Dagblad, 1926-41; Managing Director, 1930-41. Editor and Managing Director of Haarlems Dagblad after liberation of Netherlands in 1945; Pres. of Bd., Dutch Press Agency, A.N.P. since 1945. Member of Board, Netherlands Inst. for Foreign Affairs, The Hague. Member, Dutch Newspaper Assn.; Netherlands Journalists Assn. Author of Gyzelaar in Gestel, 1945. Residence: Jan Steenlaan 2, Heemstede, The Netherlands. Office: Groote Houtstraat 93, Haarlem, The Netherlands.

PEERLESS, Rev. HAROLD FREDERICK, British Clergyman; born Apr. 14, 1889, London, England; son of Stephen George and Annie Frances (Stevens) Peerless; educated at Univ. College School, London, 1903-08; King's College, London, 1910-12. Ordained 1913. Asst. Curate: Harrow Parish Church, 1913-17; South Hackney, 1917-18. Chaplain, Church Lads' Brigade, Harrow, 1913-27; Vicar, All Souls, St. Margarets-on-Thames, 1927-35; Chaplain, Royal Naval School, Twickenham, 1933-35; General Secy., Church Lads' Brigade, since 1935. Address: 58 Gloucester Pl., London, England.

PEERS, Prof. EDGAR ALLISON, British University Professor; born May 7, 1891, Leighton Buzzard, Beds., England; son of John and Jessie (Allison) Peers; educated at Univs. of London and Cambridge, M.A. 1916; married Marion Young, 1924. Prof. of Spanish, Univ. of Liverpool, since 1922. Visiting Prof., Univs. of Madrid, California, New Mexico, Columbia, and New York Univ., Univ. of Oklahoma, Univ. of the South, Southern Methodist Univ. of Texas, Union College of Schenectady, N. Y. Educational Director, Hispanic Council, 1943-46. Hon. Member: Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Amer. Assn. of Teachers of Spanish; Hispanic Soc. of America. Author: Studies of the Spanish Mystics (2 vols.); History of the Romantic Movement in Spain (2 vols.); and was Editor of the Complete Works of St. John of the Cross (3 vols.), and of St. Teresa (3 vols.); The Spanish Tragedy; Catalonia Infelix; Spain in Eclipse; Ramón Lull, and many others. Address: University of Liverpool, Liverpool, Eng.

PEERS, Dr. ROBERT ALWAY, American Physician; born Dec. 13, 1875, Woodstock, Ont., Canada; son of Richard and Margaret Hatch (Alway) Peers; educated at Albert College, Belleville, Ont., 1892-93; Fellow, Trinity Med. College, Toronto, 1894-99, F.T.M.C.; Trinity Univ., Toronto, Can., 1899; M.D., C.M., 1899; married Lucy Fitzgerald Stewart, July 20, 1901; two children. Member, First California Tuberculosis Com. appointed by Gov. Hiram Johnson, 1914; Capt., Amer. Red Cross, World War I; in foreign service, 1918; Member, California Dept. Public Health, 1914-31. Consultant, Colfax Hosp. for the Tubercular, 1930—. Diplomate, Amer. Bd. Internal Medicine. Fellow: Amer. College of Physicians (Life Member); Amer. College Chest Physicians; Amer. Acad. Tuberculosis Physicians; Amer. Med. Assn. Member, House of Delegates, 1937-44; Member, Bd. of Trustees, 1945). Member: Internatl. Union Against Tuberculosis; Natl. Tuberculosis Assn. (Dir., 1922-25 and 1929-30); Calif. Tuberculosis Assn. (Pres., 1913-14); Calif. Med. Assn. (Pres. 1935-36); Calif. Acad. of Med. (Pres. 1930). Author: A Primer for the Tuberculous and other Esays on Tuberculosis, 1930. Address: Box 217, Colfax, Calif.

PEERY, GEORGE CAMPBELL, American Lawyer, Ex-Governor; born in Cedar Bluff, Virginia, Oct. 28, 1873; son of Dr. James and Mary Letitia (Spotts) Peery; educated at Emory & Henry College, B.S. 1894, LL.D. 1934, Washington and Lee, B.L. 1897; William & Mary College, LL.D. 1934; married Nannie Bane Gillespie, June 19, 1907; three children. Congressman from Virginia, 1923-29; member, Virginia State Corporation Commission, 1929-33; Governor, State of Virginia, 1934-38; resumed practice of law in Virginia, 1938. Address: Tazewell, Va.

PEET, Dr. MAX MINOR, American Neurosurgeon; born Oct. 20, 1885, Issco, Mich.; son of LaFayette and Eunice Ann (Minor) Peet; educated at Ypsilanti State Normal College, 1904-06; Univ. of Michigan, A.B. 1908, M.A. 1910, M.D. 1910; married Grace Stewart Tait, Oct. 15, 1915; three children. Robert Robinson Porter Fellow in Research Medicine, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1912-13; Asst. Instructor in Surgery, Univ. of Pennsylvania, 1913-15; Asst. Chief Surgeon, Philadelphia General Hospital, 1914-16; Instructor in Surgery, Univ. of Michigan, 1916-17; Asst. Prof., 1918-27; Assoc. Pres., 1927-30; Prof. of Surgery since 1930. Chief of Neurosurgical Division, Univ. of Michigan Hospital, since 1918. Member of General Advisory Com., Virus Research, Medical Publications and Educational Com. of National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Member of International Neurological Congress, Berne, 1931, London, 1935; International Surgical Congress, Brussels, 1938. Author of numerous articles on neurosurgical problems in medical journals, and chapters on neurosurgery in various surgical works. Residence: 2030 Hill, Ann Arbor. Office: University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

PEEV, PEIO, Bulgarian Official; born May 13, 1889, Sofia, Bulgaria; son of Ivan and Maria (Dontcheva) Peev; educated at Univs. of Sofia, Göttingen and Leipzig, Law Faculties; Seminary of Actuarial Science, Göttingen, 1911; Law Faculty, Univ. of Leipzig, 1914; married Slavka Ourumova, July 4, 1926. Life insurance official, "Balcan" Insurance Co., 1919; Manager, Fire Branch, Employees' Mutual Insurance Soc., 1920; Director, Supervisory Bd., private insurance companies, 1927; Governor, Natl. Insurance Inst., since 1946. Member, Bulgarian Economic Soc.; Bulgarian Actuarial Soc.; Bulgarian Philatelic Soc.; Permanent Com., Internatl. Actuarial Congresses. Officer, Bulgarian Army, World War I. Residence: Stalin 59. Office: Bo. Tzar Osvoboditel No. 6, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PEEW, VELIZAR VELIZAROW, Bulgarian Industrialist; born March 24, 1891, Sofia, Bulgaria; son of Velizar and Boyana (Nachova) Peew; educated at Superior Naval School, St. Petersburg, Russia; married Pavlina Beshkova, 1918; two sons. Naval Officer (Corvet Captain), 1912-19; Chairman, Board of Directors, V. Peew Ltd. (chocolate factory), Sofia, since 1919; Chairman, Bd. of Directors, Cereal Export, Ltd. and Chernomorie Factory Ltd. since 1938; Vice-Chairman, Board of Directors, Vitosha Insurance Co. Member, Administrative Council, Banca Commerciale Italiana Bulgara. Pres., Union of Bulgarian Industry, since 1944; Vice-Pres., Supreme Board of Economy, since 1944; Vice-Pres., Administrative Council, State Coal Mines, since 1934; Member of Supreme Council, Inst. of Scientific Management, since 1929. Residence: Str. Gurko 74. Office: George Washington St. 12, Sofia, Bulgaria.

PEFFER, Prof. NATHANIEL, American Historian; born 1890. Prof. of International Relations, Columbia Univ. Served as Member of the Cultural Relations Program, U. S. Dept. in China, 1947. Author: New Schools for Older Students, 1926; The White Man's Dilemma (climax of the age of imperialism), 1927; China: the Collapse of a Civilization, 1930; Educational Experiments in Industry, 1932; Japan and the Pacific, 1935; Must We Fight in Asia? 1935; The Fallacy of Conquest, 1936; Prerequisites to Peace in the Far East, 1940; Basis for Peace in the Far East, 1942; America's Place in the World, 1945. Residence: Madison, Conn. Office: Columbia University, 521 Fayerweather, New York 27, New York.

PEGHAIRE, Prof. JULIEN, Canadian Philosopher; born Aug. 4, 1898, Le Puy, France; son of Joseph and Marie (Arnaud) Peghaire; educated at Gentinnes, (Belgium), Holy Ghost Fathers College; Sorbonne, Paris, B.A.; philosophical and theological studies at French Seminary and Pontifical Gregorian Univ., Rome, Ph.D. 1924, Theol.D. 1925. Prof. of Philosophy, Philosophical Seminary, Holy Ghost Fathers College, Mortain, France, 1925-30; St. Alexander's College, Limbour, P. Q., 1930-43. Prof. of Criticism, Univ. of Montreal, since 1932. Lectured at Univ. of Ottawa, 1940-43; Prof. of Philosophy, Collège Stanislas, Montreal, since 1943. Librarian, Faculty of Philosophy, Univ. of Montreal. Member: Congregation of Holy Ghost (Roman Catholic); Thomist Soc. of Univ. of Ottawa. Author: Intellectus et Ratio selon S. Thomas, 1936; A Forgotten Sense; The Cogitative; St. Louis, 1942. Address: 3160 Daulac Rd., Montreal 6, Canada.

PEGLER, WESTBROOK, American Journalist; born 1894. Formerly syndicated columnist, Scripps-Howard Newspapers; now with King Features Syndicate, writing column "As Pegler Sees It." Author: 'Taint Right, 1936; Peace on Earth, 1938; The Dissenting Opinions of Mister Westbrook Pegler, 1938; George Spelvin, American, and Fireside Chats, 1942. Address: King Features Syndicate, 235 E. 45th St., New York, N. Y.

PEGLION, Prof. VITTORIO, Italian Agricultural Biologist; born July 29, 1873, Scarena (Alpes Maritimes); son of Carlo Felice and Lina (Arnulf) Peglion; educated at Univ. of Pisa, Agricultural Faculty (Dr. in Agricultural Science, 1891); married 1937. Asst. in Plant Pathology, Ecological School, Avellino, 1891-94; Asst., Royal Station of Plant Pathology, Rome, 1895-1901; Director of Agriculture, Province of Ferrara, 1901-14; Prof. of Agricultural Biology, Agricultural Faculty, Univ. of Bologna, 1904-43. Director, Royal Superior Inst.. of Agriculture, Univ. of Bologna, 1927-34; Phyto-Pathological Observatory, Bologna, 1924-43. Natl. Deputy, 1924-34; Secy. of State for Agriculture, 1924-26; Natl. Senator, 1934-44. Pres., Royal Acad. of Sciences, Bologna, 1942-43; Academician, Royal Acad. of Florence; Royal Academies of Agriculture at Bologna and Turin; Royal Acad. of Sciences, Bologna; Corresponding Member, Royal Venetian Inst. Author: Malattie delle piante coltivate, 8th ed.; Le bonifiche in Italia, 1924; Lezioni di Biologia Agraria, 1928; Opera Ommia. Address: Istituto di Patologia Vegetale, University, Bologna, Italy.

PEGRAM, Dr. GEORGE BRAXTON, American Physicist; born Oct. 24, 1876, Trinity, N. C.; son of William Howell and Emma Lenore (Craven) Pegram; educated at Trinity College, A.B. 1895, D.Sc. 1918; Columbia Univ., Ph.D. 1903, D.Sc. 1929; Univ. of Berlin, 1907; Cambridge Univ., 1908; George Washington Univ., D.Sc. 1937; Univ. of North Carolina, D.Sc. 1946; Northwestern Univ., D.Sc. 1946; married Florence Bement, June 3, 1909; two sons. Asst. in Physics, Columbia Univ., 1901-03; Tutor, 1903-05; Instructor, 1905-07; Tyndall Fellow, 1907; Asst. Prof., 1909-12; Assoc. Prof., 1912-18; Prof. of Physics since 1918; Acting Dean, School of Mines, Engineering and Chemistry, 1917-18; Dean, 1918-30; Dean, Graduate Faculties, since 1937; Chairman, Com. on War Research, 1941-46; Com. on Government Aided Research, since 1946. Fellow: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Amer. Physical Soc. (Treas. since 1918); Inst. of Aeronautical Sciences (Assoc.). Member: Inst. of Radio Engineers (Assoc.); Amer. Soc. of Mechanical Engineers; Sigma Xi (Treas.); Amer. Inst. of Physics (Treas.). Address: 814 Pupin Laboratory, 201 Low Library, Columbia University, New York, New York.

PEHLE, JOHN W., American Lawyer; born Feb. 2, 1909, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of Otto H. and Agnes (Flodquist) Pehle; educated at Creighton University, Ph.B. 1930; Yale University School of Law, LL.B. 1933, Js.D. 1935; and Sterling Teaching Fellow at Yale University School of Law, 1933-34; married Francha Elser, Sept. 8, 1934; two children. Began career as Attorney in the U. S. Treasury Dept., 1934. Attorney, Office of General Counsel, 1934-40; Dir., Foreign Funds Control, 1940-44. Asst. to Secy. of the Treasury, 1940-46. Exec. Dir., War Refugee Bd., 1944. Residence: 8804 Garfield St., Bethesda, Md. Office. 1707 Eye St., Washington, D. C.

PEHRSSON BRAMSTORP, AXEL ALARIK, Swedish Political Leader; born in Oeja, Sweden, August 19, 1883; son of Jac. and Ingrid Pehrsson; educated at People's High School; married Sigrid Nilsson, May 22, 1908; four children. Leader of Farmers' Party. Member, County Session of Malmöhus County, since 1912; member of Parliament, Second Chamber, since 1918; served 1918-21 and since 1929. Minister of Agriculture, 1936-45; Prime Minister, June-Sept. 1936. Member of Bd., Scanian Bank Co., Ltd., Malmö; Member, Board and Vice-Chairman, Joint-Stock Slaughter Assn. of Southwest Scania, 1923-41, of which he was Chairman from the beginning to 1937; Vice-Chairman and member, State Corn Committee, 1930-37; State Representative of the Board of Public Swedish Seed Co. of Svalov, 1925-36; of the Seed Union of Sweden, 1925-36; Member, Board of the Public Agriculture Society of Sweden, 1930-37. Residence: Lilla Islet Södra Aby. Office: Regeringsgatan, Stockholm, Sweden.

P'EI, Dr. CHIEN, Chinese Botanist; born June 1, 1902, Chengtu, Szechuan, China; son of Liang-yung and C. P. (Li) P'ei; educated at Tsing Hua College, 1925; Stanford Univ., B.A. 1927, M.A. 1928, Ph.D. 1930; married Kuan-fen Chien, Jan. 1932; five children. Research Prof., Biological Laboratory, Science Soc. of China, 1931-45; Assoc. Prof. of Botany, Central Univ. (part-time), 1931-33; Prof. of Botany, Fu-tan Univ., 1941-46; Prof. of Medical Botany, Pharmaceutical College of China (temporary); Research Member, Inst. of Botany, Academia Sinica, Nanking, since 1945. Member: Science Soc. of China; Scientific Workers Assn. of China; Botanical Soc. of China. Author: The Verbenaceae of China, 1932; Papers on Kiangsu Flora, 1933-38; The Illustrated Medicinal Plants of China (book 1), 1942. Address: Academia Sinica, 1 Chi-ming-tze St., Nanking, Kiangsu, China.

PEI, TSU-yee, Chinese Banker; born 1893, Soochow, Kiangsu; educated at Soochow Univ.; Tangshan Engineering College. Associated with Bank of China since 1916; General Manager, 1942; Governor, Central Bank of China, 1947—. Member, Chinese Currency Stabilization Board, 1941. Address: Central Bank of China, Shanghai, China.

PEI, Dr. WEN CHUNG, Chinese Scientist; born Dec. 3, 1904, Peiping, China; son of T. Y. Pei and Wei Sun; educated at Peking Natl. Univ., B.S. 1927; Univ. of Paris, Sc.D. 1937. Diplomate, Institut de Paléontologie Humaine; married Ling Yee Shu, Nov. 1932; one son and one daughter. Asst. Geologist to Chinese Natl. Geological Survey, 1928; Geologist, 1930. Palaeontologist to Cenozoic Research Laboratory, Chinese Geological Survey and Peking Union Medical College, 1933-38; Deputy Director, Cenozoic Research Laboratory, Peiping Union Medical College, since 1938. Member: Geological Socs. of China, London and France; Prehistorical Soc. of France and London. Author: Fossil Man in China, 1933; Carnivora from loc. 1 of Choukoutien, 1934; Choukoutien Excavation, 1934; Palaeolithic Arts, 1915; Mammalian Fossils from Loc. 3 of Choukoutien, 1935; Le Rôle des Animaux et des causes naturelles dans la cassure des os, 1938; The Upper Cave Industry, 1939. Address: Peiping Union Medical College, Peiping, China.

PEIERLS, Dr. RUDOLF ERNST, British Mathematical Physicist; born June 5, 1907, Berlin, Germany; son of Heinrich and Elisabeth (Weigert) Peierls; educated at Univs. of Berlin, 1925-26; Munich, 1926-28; Leipzig, Ph.D. 1929; Federal Polytechnic, Zurich, 1929; Manchester Univ., D.Sc.; married Eugenia Kannegiesser, Mar. 15, 1931; two children. Asst., Federal Polytechnic, Zurich, 1929-32; Rockefeller Fellow, Rome, Italy, 1932-33; Cambridge, England, 1933; Hon. Research Fellow, Manchester Univ., 1933-35 (D.Sc.); Asst., Royal Soc. Mond Laboratory, Cambridge, 1935-37 (M.A.); Prof. of Applied Mathematics (now Mathematical Physics), Birmingham Univ., since 1937. With Dept. of Scientific and Industrial Research on atomic bomb for war work, 1941-46. Fellow: Royal Soc. Member: Physical Soc. of London; Inst. of Physics at London; Cambridge Philosophical Soc.; Assn. of Univ. Teachers; Assn. of Scientific Workers; Vice-Pres., Atomic Scientists' Assn. Awarded C.B.E., Jan. 1, 1946. Author of papers on theoretical physics in various scientific journals. Address: University of Birmingham, Birmingham 15, England.

PEIK, Dr. WESLEY E., American Educator; born Oct. 5, 1886, Clearwater, Minn.; son of Rev. Anton and Mary (Bublitz) Peik; educated at Univ. of Minn., B.A. 1911; Teachers Coll., Columbia Univ., M.A. 1925; Univ. of Minnesota, Ph.D. 1928. Supt. of Schools, Blackduck, Minn., 1911-17; at Tracy, Minn., 1917-21; Fairbault, Minn., 1921-24. Lecturer, Univ. of Minnesota, 1924-28; Asst. Prof. of Education, 1928-31; Assoc. Prof., 1931-34; Prof. of Education, Univ. of Minnesota, since 1934. Acting Dean, College of Education, Univ. of Minn., 1937-38, and Dean since 1938. Chairman, Commission on Teacher Education, Natl. Education Assn., 1948—. Author: The Professional Education of Secondary Teachers, 1930. Editor and joint author, Instructional Problems in the University (Vol. IV, Univ. of Chicago Survey), 1933; Teacher Education Curricula, Vol. III, 1935. Author: The Training of Teachers in North Dakota, 1930. Address: University of Minnesota, 204 Burton Hall, Minneapolis, Minn.

PEIKO, NIKOLAI IVANOVICH, Soviet Composer; born 1917; graduate of Moscow Conservatory. Teacher of composition at Moscow Conservatory; gained prominence as composer and teacher. Awarded Stalin Prize in 1947 for symphony in four movements. Address: Moscow Conservatory of Music, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

PEIRCE, Dr. GEORGE JAMES, American Plant Physiologist; born Mar. 13, 1868, Manila, P. I.; son of George Henry and Lydia Ellen (Eaton) Peirce; educated at Harvard Univ.; Univ. of Bonn; Univ. of Leipzig; Univ. of Munich; Ph.D., Leipzig, 1894; married Anna Hobart, June 14, 1897; three daughters. Asst. in Botany, Harvard and Radcliffe College, 1890-92; Asst. Prof., Univ. of Indiana, 1895-97; Asst. Prof., Botany and Plant Physiology, 1897-1900; Assoc. Prof., 1900-10; Prof., 1910-33; Emeritus since 1933. Consultant on effects of smelter smoke and cement dust on vegetation, since 1906. Member: Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science; Botanical Soc. of Amer.; Amer. Soc. of Plant Physiologists; Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences; Deutsche Botanische Gesellschaft. Author: Plant Physiology, 1903 and later; Physiology of Plants, 1926; Experimental Plant Physiology, 1931; General Biology (co-author with Burlingame, Heath, Martin), 1922, 1928. Address: Stanford University, Calif.

PEIRCE, WALDO, American Artist; born Dec. 17, 1884, Bangor, Me.; son of Mellen C. and Anna (Hayford) Peirce; educated at Andover and Harvard, 1907; div.; three children; married (2nd) Ellen Antoinette Larsen, 1946. Exhibited paintings in Paris, 1913, at Wildenstein Gallery, New York City, 1924, 1925; at Carnegie (Whitney Annual) and in Chicago and Philadelphia, etc. Chairman of Painting Committee, Artists for Victory. Received 1st Prize, Pepsi-Cola, 1944. 1st Hon. Mention, Carnegie, 1944. Works include: The Twins; Maine Swimming Hole; Illustrations for Magic Bed Knob, 1944, Children's Hour, (children's books) 1945. Residence: 20 E. 9th St., New York 3, N. Y.

PEIRSE, Air Chief Marshal Sir RICHARD EDMUND CHARLES, K.C.B., D.S.O., A.F.C., British Air Officer; born 1892; son of Admiral Sir Richard Peirse; educated at Monkton Combe School; H.M.S. Conway; King's College, London. Served in World War I, 1914-18; held various positions in Air Force until 1930; Deputy Director of Operations and Intelligence, Air Ministry, 1930-33; Air Officer Commanding British Forces, Palestine and Transjordan, 1933-36; Deputy Chief of Air Staff, 1937-40; Member of Air Council, 1939; Vice Chief of Air Staff, 1940; Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Bomber Command, 1940-42; Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief, India, 1942; Allied Air Commanding-in-Chief, South East Asia, 1943-45; now retired. Address: Callander, Perthshire, Scotland.

PEISSON, EDOUARD, French Writer; born March 7, 1896, Marseille, France. Served as captain in merchant marine. Author: Hans le Marin, 1929; Parti de Liverpool, 1932; Gens de Mer, 1934; Mer Baltique, 1936; Le Pilote, 1937; Le Voyage d'Edgar, 1938; L'Aigle de Mer, 1941; L'Anneau des Mers, 1945; L'Homme couvert de Dollars, 1946. Awarded Grand Prix du Roman, French Academy, 1940. Address: Plateau de Malouesse, Aix-en-Provence, France.

PEKÁR, Dr. DEZSŐ (DESIDERIUS GÉZA SÁNDOR), Hungarian Geophysicist; born Nov. 17, 1873, Arad (formerly Hungary, now Roumania); son of Károly and Anna (Horváth) Pekár; educated at Univ. of Budapest, Ph.D. summa cum laude, 1901; married Mária Weigl, July 1, 1929; two stepdaughters. Asst. and Collaborator of Prof. Roland Eötvös, Inst. of Experimental Physics, Univ. of Budapest, 1895; Semsey Fellow, Hungarian Acad. of Sciences, 1901; engaged in Torsion balance and terrestrial magnetism measurements; Chief Geophysicist, Hungarian Royal Board of Explorations, 1915; initiator of Baron Roland Eötvös, 1915, Geophysical Inst.; Ministerial Councillor and Director and Adviser, Geophysical Inst., 1919; research work in Hungary for D'Arcy Syndicate and Anglo-Persian Oil Co. Ltd., 1921-23. Engaged in oil survey in India for Burmah Oil Co. Ltd., 1923-24 and 1925-26; at Limagne plain for French Ministry of Public Works, 1927 and 1928; made first stereoscopic x-ray photos, 1896. Constructed small Eötvös-Pekár Torsion balance, used all over world, chiefly for oil prospecting, first model 1925. Vice-Pres., Hungarian Natl. Com., Internatl. Geodetic and Geophysical Union, since 1930; Scientific Adviser, British Geophysical Agency, London. Contributor to Gerlands Beiträge zur angewandten Geophysik, Leipzig. Member: Hungarian Acad. of Sciences, 1922; Founding Member, Hungarian Soc. of Natural Sciences, 1891 (Com. Member since 1917); Hungarian Soc. of Mathematics and Physics, 1894; Geological Soc. of Hungary, 1919; Hungarian Natl. Soc. of Mining and Metallurgy, 1915. Com. Member, Hungarian Meteorological Soc., since 1925. Awarded Benecke Prize, Univ. of Göttingen, 1909; Signum Laudis, 1934. Author: Original Torsion Balances of the Eötvös Institute in Budapest, Houston, Texas, 1925; The Small Eötvös-Pekár Torsion Balance, 1929; Memorial Book of B. R. Eötvös, 1929; Das B. R. Eötvös Geophysikalische Institut in Budapest, Hamburg, 1930; Travaux de l'Institut B. R. Eötvös, Stockholm, 1930; The Fifty Years Old Torsion Balance, Life of B. R. Eötvös, Budapest, 1941; about 270 scientific papers in Hungarian and foreign periodicals. Residence: Királyi Pál u. 10, Budapest IV, Hungary. Office: Geophysical Institute, Eszterháy u. 7, Budapest VIII, Hungary.

PEKER, RECEP, Turkish Statesman; born 1888, Istanbul, Turkey; son of Mustafa Shahabeddin; graduated War College, Istanbul (first in class), 1919. Served in Balkan War, 1912; Staff Captain, 1919; Staff Major, 1920; participated in Turkish War of Independence and Liberation, 1919-22; elected Deputy for Kutahya to Grand National Assembly of Turkey, 1923; Secy. General, Republican People's Party; Editor in Chief of Ankara daily The Ulus, and of Hakimiyeti Milliye, 1923-24; Minister of Interior, 1924; Minister of Defense, 1925-27; Deputy Pres., Republican People's Party Parliamentary Group until 1920; Secy. General of R. P. Party, 1931-37; again Minister of Interior, 1942. Lectured at Ankara and Istanbul Univs., 1935-42. Prime Minister of Turkey, 1946-47; Deputy of Istanbul to Turkish Parliament. Address: Grand National Assembly, Ankara, Turkey.

PEKERIS Dr. CHAIM LEIB, American Physicist; born June 15, 1908, Alytus, Lithuania; son of Samuel and Chajah (Rivel) Pekeris; educated at Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, B.Sc. 1929, D.Sc. 1933; Univ. of Oslo, Norway, 1932-33; Univ. of Cambridge, England, 1935-36; married Leah Kaplan, Jan. 9, 1933. Asst. in Geophysics, Massachusetts Inst. of Technology, 1933; Research Assoc. since 1937 (on leave of absence since 1941). Member, Scientific Staff, Div. of War Research, Columbia Univ., 1941-45; Chairman, Analysis Section, Wave Propagation Group, Columbia Univ., 1945; Director of Mathematical Physics Group, Division of War Research since 1945. Fellow: Amer. Physical Soc. Member: Amer. Mathematical Soc.; Geophysical Union; Soc. of Exploration Geophysicists. Author of many scientific papers. Address: Columbia Univ., Div. of War Research, Empire State Bldg., 350 Fifth Ave., New York City.

PEKKALA, MAUNO, Finnish Prime Minister; born Jan. 27, 1890, Sysmä, Finland; son of Juho Oskari and Amanda (Grönroos) Pekkala; educated at Univ. of Helsinki, Ph.B., 1921. Forest conductor, 1913; Inspector, Common Housing Forests, 1913-14; Forest Instructor, Agricultural Soc. Pellervo, 1914-17; Supt. of Private Forests, and Chief, Control Dept. of Private Forests, 1920-21; Forest Councillor and Chief, Land Distribution Dept., Forest Administrative Board, 1921; Chief Director a.i., Forest Administrative Board, 1932; Director General a.i., 1933; Director General, Forest Administrative Board, 1944-46. Editor, Periodical for Finnish Forestry, 1917-21; Chairman, Forest Research Soc., 1926-27; Chairman, Central Board of Small Farmers' Union, since 1927, etc.; Delegate, festivities of 300th Anniversary of Finnish Emigration to America, 1938; Minister of Agriculture, 1926-27; Minister of Finance, 1939-42; Minister without Portfolio, 1944-45; Minister of Defense, 1945-46; Prime Minister of Finland since 1946. Elector, Presidential Elections, 1931, 1937, 1940, 1943; Member, Finnish Parliament, since 1927. Signed Soviet-Finnish Mutual Aid Pact in Moscow 1948. Address: State Council Bldg (Valtioneuvosto), Aleksanterinkatu, Helsinki, Finland.

PEKTAS, MIHRI, Turkish Feminist Leader; born Feb. 24, 1895, Bursa, Turkey; daughter of Yusuf Baha and Iclal Redjaizade; educated at American College for Girls, Istanbul, 1916; married Hüseyin Pektas, 1917; two daughters. Teacher, American College for Girls, 1916; elected Deputy, Turkish National Assembly (one of first women deputies in Turkey), 1935; attended several Inter-Parliamentary Congresses in Europe. Delegate to League of Nations, Geneva, 1936; Delegate to Status of Women, United Nations, 1947. Member of Parliamentary Control Commission of governmental expeditures. Translator: Geographical History of Asia Minor by Sir W. Ramsay; History of Islamic Dynasties in India by Ishwari Frazad. Residence: Robert College Bebek, Istanbul, Turkey. Office: Turkish Delegation to United Nations, Empire State Building, New York, N. Y.

PELEKIDIS, EUSTRATIOS, Greek Archaeologist; born Dec. 13, 1879, Dikeli, Greece; son of Panagiotis and Chrysanthe (Komnemu) Pelekidis; educated at Univ. of Athens, 1898-1907; Univ. of Munich, Germany; married Marie Zacas, 1919; two children. Prof. in Andritzena, 1908; Prof. in Mytilene, 1908; Prof. and Director of Archaeological Museum, Evangelical School, Smyrna, 1909-14; Epimelites, Archaeological Museum of Acropolis, Athens, 1914-17; Ephoros of Antiquities, Macedonia, and Director of Archaeological Museum, Salonica, 1917-37; Prof., Univ. of Salonica, since 1928. Member: Archaeological Soc. of Athens; Instituti Archaeologiei Germanici Socius ab Epistulis. General Secy., Young Mens Christian Assn. of Salonica. Author of several publications in Greek. Address: University Str., Salonica, Greece.

PELENYI, JOHN, Hungarian Diplomat, Political Scientist; born Feb. 15, 1885, Budapest, Hungary; son of Louis Pelenyi and Harriet Daman; educated at Acad. of Vienna, graduated in 1907; married Sue Wade Harman, Jan. 17, 1923. Attaché, Austro-Hungarian Consulate, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1908; Vice-Consul, Chicago, 1909; transferred to Cleveland, 1911; appointed Consul, 1916. Consul in Royal Hungarian Foreign Office, 1917-20; Counselor of Legation, Second Class, 1921; Counselor, First Class, 1929. Resident Hungarian Minister accredited to League of Nations, 1930; E.E. and M.P. to United States, 1933-40; resigned 1940; also accredited to Cuba and Mexico, 1934. Prof. of Political Science, Dartmouth College, 1941—. Address: Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.

PELIKAN, ALFRED GEORGE, American Art Educator; born Mar. 5, 1893, Breslau, Germany; son of Edward J. and Nellie E. (Dosta) Pelikan; educated at Carnegie Inst. of Technology, B.A.; Columbia Univ., M.A.; studied and traveled in Europe, Mexico and the Orient; married Melba Evelyn Mickel, Mar. 25, 1922; two daughters. High School Art Teacher, 1919. Director of School of Art and Industry, Grand Rapids, Mich., 1920-23; taught at College of Architecture, Univ. of Michigan, 1923-25. Director, Milwaukee Art Inst., 1926-41. Director, Art Education in Milwaukee, since 1925. Pres.: Western Arts Assn., 1933; Interprofessional Inst., 1941; Internatl. Inst., 1942. Chairman, Amer. Delegation to Internatl. Art Congress, Brussels, 1935; Paris, 1937. Fellow, Royal Soc. of Arts, London; Member, Académie Latine, Paris. Author: The Art of the Child, Activity Art Books, etc. Address: 1111 N. 10th St., Milwaukee 13, Wisconsin.

PELIKÁN, Dr. FERDINAND, Czechoslovak Editor; born June 5, 1885, Prague, Czechoslovakia; son of Julius and Anna (Charasim) Pelikán; educated at High School; Charles Univ.; studied at Univs. of Heidelberg, Berlin and Italy; married twice. Docent of Philosophy, Charles Univ., Prague, since 1929; Lecturer, Czech Technical School, Prague, since 1938; Chief Editor, Ruch Filosoficky, Prague. Member of Permanent Com., Internatl. Congress of Philosophy. Author: Entstehung und Entwicklung des Kontingentismus, 1915; Logic of Negation, 1923; Il significato intuitivo della negazione, 1925; Czech National Thinking, 1926; Fictionalism in the New Philosophy, esp. C. Hume and Kant, 1929; Descartes and Condillac, 1937. Address: Nusle Palackého 39, Prague, Czechoslovakia.

PELINCK, Dr. EGBERT, Dutch Museum Director; born July 27, 1907, Winschoten, The Netherlands; son of Hendrik and W. Y. (Zynen de Gier) Pelinck; educated at Univ. of Leyden, Doctor of Arts and Philosophy. Asst., Municipal Museum, The Hague, 1935; Secy., Internatl. Exhibition of Art Dealers, Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam, 1936; Director, Municipal Museum De Lakenhal, Leyden, since 1938. Trustee, Acad. of Art "Ars Aemula Naturae." Member: Maatschappij der Nederlandsche Letterkunde; Provinciaal Utrechtsche Genootschap; Historischn Genootschapp; Koninklijk Oudheidkundig Genootschap. Author of various papers in Oud-Holland, Oudheidkundig Laarboek, Leidsch Jaarboekje, etc. Address: De Lakenhal, Leyden, The Netherlands.

PELL, HAMILTON, American Financier; born New York, N. Y., 1888; son of George Hamilton and Alice Josephine Pell; educated at Cutler School; married Emma Johnson Steele, March, 1935. Began career with McVickar Trust Co., 1902; was connected with various banking firms; Chmn. of Board and Partner of Pell & Co. since 1934. Member of Executive Com. of Compo Shoe Machinery Corp., and U. S. Vitamin Corp.; Vice-Pres., Acony Corp.; Trustee, Executive Com. Member and Director, Hartford Rayon Corp. Director: Marion Power Shovel Co.; Aspinook Corp.; Electric Ferries, Inc.; Certainteed Products Corp. and numerous other corporations. President of Pell, Ltd. Residence: Noroton, Conn. Office: 14 Wall St., New York, New York.

PELL, HERBERT, American Diplomat; born February 16, 1884, New York City; son of Herbert Claiborne and Katherine Lorillard (Kernochan) Pell; educated at Harvard University, 1902-04; Columbia University, 1907-08; married Matilda Bigelow, Nov. 3, 1915; (2nd) Olive Bigelow, June 18, 1927; one son. Member, Progressive County Committee, Orange County, N. Y., 1912. Member of U. S. Congress, 1918-22; Democratic State Chairman of New York, 1921-27; Vice-Chairman of Democratic National Campaign Committee, 1936. Appointed Minister to Portugal, 1937; Minister to Hungary, 1941. United States Representative on United Nations War Crimes Commission, since 1943. Residence: Newport, Rhode Island.

PELL, WILLIAMSON, American Banker; born July 5, 1881, Goshen, N. Y.; son of Arthur and Eve (Williamson) Pell; educated at Polytechnic School (Brooklyn, N. Y.), Princeton Univ., 1902, and New York Law School; married Vida Kneeland, Dec. 4, 1906; two children. Attorney, New York Life Insurance Co., 1904-07; practiced law with Stewart & Shearer, 1907-12. Asst. Secy., United States Trust Co. of New York, 1912, later Vice-Pres., then 1st Vice-Pres.; Pres., 1938-47; Chmn. of Bd., 1947—. Trustee: Atlantic Mutual Insurance Co.; Greenwich Savings Bank. Director and Member, Executive Com., Great Northern Paper Co. Director: British General Insurance Company; Centennial Insurance Co.; Coal Run Land Co.; Columbia Casualty Co. of New York; Commercial Union Assurance Co. Ltd.; Commercial Union Fire Insurance Co. of New York; Curtiss South Western Co.; Manhattan Fire & Marine Insurance Co.; Ocean Accident & Guarantee Corp., Ltd.;

Palatine Insurance Co., Ltd.; Rush Creek Land Co., and Union Assurance Society, Ltd. Trustee, Soc. of the New York Hosp. Residence: Dogwood Lane, Rye, N. Y. Office: 45 Wall St., New York 5, N. Y.

PELLEGRIN, Dr. FRANÇOIS, French Botanist; born Sept. 25, 1881, Paris, France; son of Paul and Blanche (Desvernois) Pellegrin; educated at Faculty of Paris, Sc.D.; married Anna Luquet; two sons. Master of Research, National Center of Scientific Research; Prof., Superior School of Application and Tropical Agriculture; Sub-Director, National Museum of Natural History, Paris; now emeritus. Secy. General, French Botanical Soc., since 1920; Member of International Com. on Nomenclature of Botany, 1932; Delegate, 6th International Congress at Amsterdam, 1935. Received awards from Inst. de France. Author of numerous scientific publications. Residence: 28 rue Biscornet, Paris XII. Office: 57 rue Cuvier, Paris V, France.

PELLEGRINI, ALFRED HEINRICH, Swiss Artist; born Jan. 10, 1881; son of Isidoro and Apollonia (Schlub) Pellegrini; educated at Realschule, Trade School in Basle; Royal Acad. of Fine Arts, Munich; married Maria Kneubühler; one daughter. Graphic Artist, Geneva, 1901; Graphic Artist and Painter, Stuttgart, 1907-14; Munich, 1914-18; residing in Basle, specializing in Frescos, since 1918. Member, Commn. der öffentlichen Kunstsammlung, Basle. Bibliography: "Junge Kunst," Band 43, A. H. Pellegrini von Willy Raeber. Verlag Klinkhardt & Ziermann, Leipzig, 1924; Bebaute Bilder von Hans F. Secker, Atlantis Verlag, Zurich, 1934; Les Artistes Suisses, A. H. Pellegrini par Caston Poulain. Editions des Quatre Chemins, Paris, 1933; A. H. Pellegrini von Walter Ueberwasser, Benno Schwabe & Co., Verlag Basel. Author of numerous articles on art in newspapers and periodicals. Address: Burgfelderstrasse 9, Basle, Switzerland.

PELLEGRINI, ULISSE, Australian Company Director; born Nov. 27, 1893, Melbourne, Victoria; son of Umberto and Ursula (Fumberger) Pellegrini; educated at Christian Brothers; St. Joseph's College, North Melbourne, Victoria; married May Veronica Harper, 1929; two daughters. Sales Asst., Pellegrini & Co. Pty. Ltd., Sydney, N.S.W., 1908; Asst. Manager; Branch Manager; Director; (now) Managing Director. Managing Director: Cresta Printing Co., Sydney; Acme Framing Co. Sydney; Metalware Products Pty. Ltd., Sydney; Pellegrini Statuary Pty. Ltd., Melbourne; Roma House Co. Pty. Ltd., Sydney; Albion Metalware Co., Melbourne; Denaro Concrete Block Mfg. Co., Perth; Acme Productions Ltd., Perth. Member: Chamber of Manufacturers; N. S. W. Booksellers Assn.; N. S. W. Publishers Assn. Made Knight of St. Gregory the Great by Pope Pius XII. Residence: 41 Drumalbyn Road, Bellevue Hill; (country): Centennial Rd., Bowral. Office: Pellegrini & Co. Pty Ltd., 543 George St., Sydney, N. S. W., Australia.

PELLEKAAN, JAN van HOLST, Netherlands Trade Commissioner; born April 4, 1899, Batavia, Netherland East Indies; educated at Military Acad., Breda, Holland; married Dorothy Edith Hart, Dec. 12, 1934; six children. Began career Aug. 1920 as Lieut., Netherland East Indies Army; became a railway executive with N.E.I. Railway Co. in Semarang, Java; Secretary, Sugar Syndicate in Sourabaya, Java. Secretary, General Agricultural Syndicate, Batavia, Java. Trade Commissioner of N.E.I. Government in Australia since 1937. Residence: 8 Linlithgow Rd., Toorak. Office: Temple Court, 422 Collins St., Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.

PELLETIER, Most Rev. GEORGES-LÉON, Catholic Bishop; born August 19, 1904, St. Epiphane, P. Q.; son of Léon and Rose-Alma (Masse) Pelletier; educated at Seminary of Quebec; Laval University; Biblical Institute of Rome; degrees: B.A. 1927, Ph.M. 1929, D.D. 1931, SS.L. 1934. Professor, Seminary of Rimouski, 1931-32; Professor, Laval University, 1935-42; Auxiliary Bishop of Quebec since 1942. Residence: Archbishop Pl., Quebec, Canada.

PELLETIER, Prof. ROBERT, Canadian Painter and Sculptor; born Mar. 3, 1914, Montreal, P. Q., Canada; son of Maurice and Blanche (Dubeau) Pelletier; educated at Mont St. Louis College; graduated from Ecole des Beaux Arts, Montreal, 1935 (diploma with first degree honors); married Lucile Ouellet, May 9, 1940; one daughter. Cartoonist for a newspaper, 1931; visited and studied art in England, Holland, Belgium, France, Italy, Switzerland, North Africa and Portugal, 1937. Exhibited at Art Gallery of Montreal, 1938, 1939, 1940, and 1941. Prof. of Art, Univ. of Montreal. Awarded Silver Medal for Antique Drawing and Artistic Anatomy, 1st Prize, 1933-34; Bronze Medal, Prize of the Directors of the Ecole des Beaux Arts, concerning all works during year 1933-34 (1st prize). Residence: 4407 Christophe-Colomb St. Office: University of Montreal, Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

PELLETIER, WILFRED, Conductor; born June 20, 1896, Montreal, Canada; married Rose Bampton (opera singer). Assistant Conductor, Metropolitan Opera House, 1917-22; Conductor since 1922. Guest Conductor, Los Angeles, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit and other leading orchestras. Recordings include: Ciribiribin (with Grace Moore and Metropolitan Opera chorus and orchestra); Jewel Song (from Faust) (with Josephine Antoine and Columbia Opera Orchestra; Je Suis Titania (from Mignon) with Josephine Antoine and Columbia Opera Orchestra; One Night of Love (with Grace Moore and Metropolitan Opera Orchestra) etc. Address: Metropolitan Opera House, Broadway and 40th St., New York, N. Y.

PELLISSIER, Dr. SAMUEL HENRI, South African Educator; born Nov. 10, 1887, Bethulie, Orange Free State; son of Samuel and Elise (Roux) Pellissier; educated at Univ. College of Orange Free State, B.A. 1909; Univ. of Stellenbosch, Hon. D.Ed. 1944; married Judith Raubenheimer, Mar. 29, 1921; six children. Secondary Teacher, High School of Ladybrand, 1911; studied education in Holland, Germany and Sweden, 1912. Vice-Principal, High School at Lindley, 1913; Vice-Principal, High School at Boschof, 1914-15, 1916; Principal, High School at Ficksburg, 1917-26; Director of Education of Orange Free State since 1926. Member: South African Acad. for Literature, Science and Art (Chairman); Joint Matriculation Board of South African Univs.; Council of Univ. of South Africa; Council of Univ. College of the Orange Free State. Address: 85 Parkroad, Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, South Africa.

PELLY, KENNETH RAYMOND, British Shipowner and Company Director; born Nov. 9, 1893, Loughton, Essex; son of Herbert Cecil and Mary Richenda (Carter) Pelly; educated at Charterhouse; married Elspeth Norma Grant, Oct. 15, 1919; two children. With William France, Fenwick & Co. Ltd., since 1912; now Chairman and Managing Director. Director: London & Scottish Assurance Corp. Ltd.; Yorkshire Amalgamated Collieries; Amalgamated Denaby Collieries Ltd.; Maltby Main Colliery Co. Ltd.; Wallarah Coal Co. Ltd.; France, Fenwick Insurance Ltd.;

France, Fenwick Tyne & Wear Co. Ltd.; Scottish Metropolitan Assurance Co. Ltd. Deputy Chairman, Lloyd's Register of Shipping. Member: Council of the Chamber of Shipping in United Kingdom; Coasting and Home Trade Tramp Section. Capt., R.A.S.C., 1914-18; awarded Military Cross; Major in Home Guard since 1940. Residence: Grouselands, Colgate, Horsham. Office: 23 Rood Lane, Fenchurch St., London, E.C. 3, England.

PELNÁR, Dr. JOSEF, Czechoslovakian Professor of Internal Medicine; born Nov. 16, 1872, Domazlice, Czechy, Czechoslovakia; son of Tomás and Barbora (Forstová) Pelnár; educated at Univ. Charles IV, Prague, M.D. 1895; married (1st) Libuse Huebnerová, 1907 and (2nd) Ruzena Ottová, 1936; two sons. Asst. at Psychiatric Clinic, 1901; Asst., Internal Clinic, 1902; Docent of Internal Medicine, 1905; Prof. of Internal Medicine, Charles Univ., Prague, since 1912; Director of Internal Clinic, 1921-42. Pres., Section 2, Academy of Sciences, Prague; Member: Ceská Akademie ved a umeni, Prague; Masarykova akademie, Prague; Spolek ceskych lekaru; Nároní rada badatelská; Interstate Postgraduate Medical Assn. of North America; Paris Neurological Soc.; Assn. of French Speaking Physicians; Acad. of Medicine, Madrid; Medical Assns., Bucharest and Belgrade. Officer, Legion of Honor, France; St. Sava Order, Belgrade. Author: Tremor, 1912; Diseases of Extrapyr. System, 1923; Path. and Ther. of Internal Diseases, 1932, 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941, 1946, 1947. Residence: Spálená 10, Prague 11, Czechoslovakia.

PELS, ALBERT, American Painter; born May 7, 1910, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of Samuel and Freda (Ullman) Pels; educated at Cincinnati Art Acad.; Art Students League, N. Y.; Beaux Arts School; American School; married Gertrude Jaeckel, July 2, 1937; one daughter. Exhibited at Babcock Galleries, 1941; won two national government mural competitions at post office, Normal, Ill., and courtroom, Wilmington, Del.; executed mural for lounge of S.S. Munroe; painted 10 murals for USO Army camps and Navy bases, Norfolk, Va., and Anniston, Ala. Held one-man shows at Babcock Galleries, 1946; exhibited in all national museum shows; won first prize, Parkersburg, Va., 1942; taught art, Cincinnati Museum, several years, also Jones Memorial Boys School; Member, Board of Control, Art Students League, 1942, 1943. Won six scholarships; Medal for architectural mural design (School of Architecture, Beaux Arts School); 1st prize, Parkersburg Museum. Gave one man shows of 21 paintings; toured midwestern museums and universities; painting chosen from Carnegie Inst. for national tour by Federation of Art, 1941. Represented in Butler Museum of Art, Pennsylvania, and midwestern monastery; also in many private collections. Address: 49 W. 66th St., New York, N. Y.

PELSENEER, PAUL, Belgian Zoologist; born June 26, 1863, Brussels, Belgium. Permanent Secretary, Royal Academy of Belgium. Elected Corresponding Member, French Academy of Sciences (Section on Anatomy and Zoology), 1931. Address: 2, rue Belliard, Brussels, Belgium.

PELT, ADRIAN, United Nations Official; born 1892, Koog-on-the-Zaan, Netherlands; educated at École Libre des Sciences Politiques in Paris, 1916-19. Editor of "Nieuwblad voor Nederland" and "Nieuws van den Dag en Telegraaf," 1919-20; with League of Nations Section on Information, 1920-34; Director of the Section of Information, 1934. Head of Netherlands Government Information Service in London, World War II. Member, Netherlands Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945 and to U. N. General Assembly, London, 1946. Asst. Secy. General of the United Nations, in charge of Conference and General Services, 1946—. Address: United Nations, Lake Success, New York.

PELTONEN, ONNI, Finnish Political Leader. Member, Finnish Parliament; Chairman of its Foreign Affairs Committee. Member, Social Democratic Party. Delegate to Moscow Conference on Russo-Finnish Treaty of Friendship, March 1948. Address: Finnish Parliament, Helsinki, Finland.

PELUFFO, Dr. ANTONIO, Uruguayan Pharmaceutical Chemist; born Feb. 8, 1877, Montevideo, Uruguay; son of Antonio G. and Felicia (Seitun) Peluffo; educated at Univ. of Montevideo (Pharmacist 1899, Dr. Chem. 1931); married Modesta Berrutti, March 3, 1904; seven children. Pharmaceutical chemist, 1899; Prof. at Faculty of Chemistry and Pharmacy, 1900-44; Chief of Municipal Chemical Laboratory, 1908-39; Director of Hygienic Nutrition, 1939-44; Member of National Council of Hygiene, 1909-26. Council Member: Faculty of Chemistry, 1929-42; Instituto de Química Industrial, 1926-31. Pres. and Member of Comisión Enotécnica Asesora, 1926-39; Hon. Adviser, Municipality of Montevideo, 1944-46. Director, Laboratory "Athena." Hon. Member: Assn. of Uruguayan Students of Pharmacy; Natl. Soc. of Pharmacy (Argentina); Brazilian Soc. of Chemistry; National Acad. of Pharmacy (Brazil). Member, Ateneo del Uruguay; Association of Chemistry and Pharmacy. Awarded Lord Willingdon Gold Medal, 1941. Author: Composición e Inspección de la leche de vaca en Montevideo, 1908; Analisis del agua del Rio de la Plata, 1911; Composición de los residuos domiciliarios de Montevideo, 1911; Condiciones de Pureza del eter anestésico, 1923; Higiene de la leche destinada al consumo público, 1923; Estudio de las aguas del Uruguay, 1931; Determinación indirecta del extracto seco de leche de vaca, 1941; Ordenanzas municipales sobre composición e higiene de los alimentos y Bebivas en Montevideo, 1907-42. Residence: Bolivia 1906. Office: Uruguay 1524, Montevideo, Uruguay.

PEMÁN, JOSÉ MARÍA (Don José María Pemán), Spanish Author; born 1897. Author: El divino impaciente, 1933; Cisneros, 1934; Cuando las Cortes de Cádiz, 1934; Noche de levante encolma, 1935; Poesia, 1923-37, 1937; Almonedía, 1937; Trilogia dramática, 1938; La danza de los neloz, 1939; De ellos es el mundo, 1939; La santa Virreina, 1939; Por la virgen capitana, 1940; De la entrada en Madrid, 1940; El testamento de la mariposa, 1941; Los flores del bien, 1946, etc. Address: c/o Montaver y Simon, Barcelona, Spain.

PEMBERTON, BROCK, American Theatrical Producer; born Dec. 14, 1885, Leavenworth, Kansas; son of Albert and Ella (Murdock) Pemberton; educated at College of Emporia, 1902-05; Univ. of Kansas, A.B. 1908; married Margaret McCoy, Dec. 30, 1915. Reporter, Emporia (Kansas) Gazette, 1908-10; Dramatic Editor, New York Evening Mail, 1910-11; Asst. Dramatic Editor, New York World and Times, 1911-17; engaged in theatrical work with Arthur Hopkins, 1917-20. Independent producer since 1920. Produced: Gilda Varesi's, Enter Madame; Zona Gale's, Miss Lulu Bett, and Mister Pitt; Sidney Howard's, Swords; Pirandello's, Six Characters in Search of an Author, and The Living Mask; Maxwell Anderson's, White Desert; Sam Janney's, Loose Ankles; Preston Sturges', Strictly Dishonorable; Frank Wead's, Ceiling Zero; Lawrence Riley's, Personal Appearance; Warden Lewis E. Lawes' and Jonathan Finn's, Chalked Out; Ranson Rideout's, Goin' Home; Clare Boothe Luce's, Kiss the Boys Goodbye; Margery Sharp's, Lady in Waiting; Parker Fennelly's, Cuckoos on the Hearth; Josephine Bentham and Herschel William's, Janie; Mary Chase's, Harvey; etc. Pres., N. Y. Theatre League; Member, Theatre Authority; Vice-Chairman and Treas., Stage Relief Fund. Member: Board of Governors, Amer. Theatre Council; Board of Directors, Amer. Theatre Wing; Board of Directors, U.S.O. Camp Shows. Received Pulitzer Prizes for (plays) Miss Lulu Bett and Harvey. Address: 244 W. 44th St., New York, N. Y.

PEMBERTON, Dr. FRANK A., American Gynecologist; born May 7, 1884, Newton, Mass.; son of Henry and Bartha (Baldwin) Pemberton; educated at Lawrence Scientific School; Harvard Univ., B.S. 1906, M.D. 1909; married Mary Hardy, 1916; two children. Surgeon to Out-Patients at Free Hospital for Women, Boston, 1915-23; Chief Surgeon since 1933. Clinical Prof. of Gynecol. at Harvard Med. School, since 1932. On Courtesy Staff: New England Deaconess Hosp.; Palmer Memorial Hosp.; New England Baptist Hosp., and Cambridge Hosp. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Member: American Gynecol. Soc.; Amer. Med. Assn.; New England Surgical Soc.; Boston Surgical Soc.; Obstet. Soc. of Boston. Author of various surgical papers. Residence: 97 Laurel Rd., Chestnut Hill, Mass. Office: 30 Dartmouth St., Boston, Massachusetts.

PEMBERTON, Dr. JOHN DE JARNETTE, American Surgeon; born May 3, 1887, Wadesboro, N. C.; son of John de Jarnette and Emma M. (Lilly) Pemberton; educated at Univ. of North Carolina, B.A. 1907, LL.D. 1932; Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1911; Univ. of Minn., M.S. in Surg., 1918; married Anna T Hogeland, June 4, 1918; five chidlren. Interne and Asst. at Mayo Clinic, 1913-18; Surgeon since 1918. Asst. Prof. of Surgery at Mayo Foundation, 1921-27; Assoc. Prof. of Surgery, 1927-36; Prof. of Surgery since 1936. Pres., Amer. Assn. for Study of Goiter, 1941-43. Member: Amer. Med. Assn.; Amer. College of Surgeons; Southern Surgical Assn.; Soc. of Clinical Surgery; Amer. Surgical Assn.; Minn. State Med. Assn.; Southern Minn. Med. Assn.; Amer. Bd. of Surgery; International Society of Surgery. Author of articles on General Surgery and Surgery of the Thyroid Gland. Res.: 930 8th St., S.W. Office: Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota.

PEMBERTON, Dr. RALPH, American Physician; born Sept. 14, 1877, Phila., Pa.; son of Henry and Agnes (Williams) Pemberton; educated at Univ. of Pa., B.S. 1898, M.S. 1899, M.D. 1903; grad. study, Berlin, 1911; Univ. of Strasbourg, 1912; Woodward Fellow in Physiol. Chemistry, Pepper Laboratory, Univ. of Pa., 1908-10; married Virginia B. Miller, May 23, 1911. Instructor in Med. at Univ. of Pa., 1907-10; Assoc. Prof. of Med., 1928-30; Prof. of Med., Graduate School of Med., Univ. of Pa., since 1931. Asst. Visiting Neurol. at Philadelphia General Hosp., 1905-08, and Dir. of Dept. of Clinical Chemistry and Visiting Physician to the Presbyterian Hosp., 1913-33. Visiting Physician at Abington Memorial Hosp., since 1933; Consulting Physician at Chester County Hosp. Major in Med. Corps of U. S. Army, in charge of intensive study and treatment of arthritis, World War I. Chairman, American Committee for Control of Rheumatism, 1927-35; President, Amer. Rheumatism Assn., 1938-39; Pres., Ligue Internationale Contre le Rhumatisme, since 1938; Pres., Pan-Amer. League for Study and Control of Rheumatic Diseases, 1944 —. Fellow: American College of Physicians; College of Physicians of Philadelphia. Hon. Member of Royal Soc. of Med. of London, Eng. (also of Section of Physical Med.), etc. Awarded Meritorious Service Medal of Commonwealth of Penna., 1939; gold key of Amer. Congress of Physical Med., 1946. Author: Arthritis and Rheumatoid Conditions; Their Nature and Treatment, 1929, 1935, French ed., 1933; Medical and Orthopedic Management of Chronic Arthritis (with R. B. Osgood); Editor of Vol. 1 of Medicine in Principles and Practice of Physical Therapy. Contributor to medical literature. Res.: Paoli, Pa. Office: 2031 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa.

PEÑA BOEUF, Dr. ALFONSO, Spanish Political Leader, Civil Engineer; born Jan. 23, 1889, Madrid, Spain; son of Francisco Peña and Julia Boeuf; educated at National Inst. of Secondary Education; Technical High School for Civil Engineers (C.E.); Central Univ. of Madrid, Sc.D.; married Pilar Navarro Muñoz, Aug. 1, 1927; one daughter. Began as Civil Engineer, 1913; Prof., Technical High School for Civil Engineers, Madrid, 1921 —. Elected Member of Royal Acad. of Natural Sciences, Physics and Mathematics, 1934. Minister of Public Works, 1938-45; now Proctor of the Spanish Cortes. Inventor of patented system of "isostatic rings" employed in the construction of dams of big water reservoirs; Designer of the Tagus Bridge, Lisbon, Portugal (a ferro-concrete construction of 3,347 meters length), and other important public works. Created Knight, Great Cross of Charles III of Spain, Great Cross of Military Merit and Great Cross of Naval Merit, also Great Cross Medahuia (Morocco). Author: Elastic Mechanics; Treatise on Ferro-Concrete Constructions (textbooks for teaching at Engineering High Schools in Spain and South America); Dissertations and Conferences (on scientific-technical matters), 1945. Address: Avenida José-Antonio No. 73, Madrid, Spain.

PEÑA CHAVARRÍA, Dr. ANTONIO, Costa Rican Physician and Surgeon; born May 20, 1899, San José, Costa Rica; son of Antonio and Mariana Chavarría; studied in the Liceo de Costa Rica; National University of Colombia (Medical Degree); Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Dr. of Hygiene and Public Health; married Margarita Chavarría, Sept. 29, 1923; three children. Director, Natl. Inst. of Hygiene of Bogotá, Colombia, 1928-31; Prof. of Tropical Clinics, Faculty of Med. of Bogota, 1929-31; Pres., Faculty of Med. of Costa Rica, 1934-36; Minister of Public Health of Costa Rica, 1936-39; Counsellor of the Panamerican Sanitary Office, 1938-42. Director, San Juan de Dios Hosp., Costa Rica. Member, Academies of Med. of Bogotá, Lima, México and New York. Contributor to medical literature since 1929. Awarded Cross of Boyocá of Colombia; decorations from Cuba; Medal of the Third Central American Medical Congress. Deputy to Costa Rican Congress. Residence: Calles 9/11 Avda. 9a. Office: Calle 1, Avdas. 3/5, San José, Costa Rica.

PEÑA, Prof. CARLOS GONZÁLEZ, Mexican Literary Historian; born 1885. Served as Prof. of Philosophy at National University. Author: Curso de literatura, 1944; Historia de la literatura mexicana desde los orígenes basta nuestros días, 3rd ed., 1945. Editor and compiler of many books. Address: c/o Editorial Parrúa, Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

PEÑA y SARMIENTO, DANIEL, Bolivian Plastic Artist; born in Cochabamba, Bolivia; son of Rosendo Peña and Eulogia Sarmiento de P.; educated at primary and secondary schools; married María Guadalupe Gómez, November 29, 1939; two sons. Gave expositions of pastel studies in Cochabamba and La Paz, 1934 and 1937; held one-man shows in Cochabamba, 1937, Oruro, 1937, La Paz, 1939, La Paz, 1940, Cochabamba, 1942, La Paz, 1943, and Cochabamba, 1944. Represented in the collections of the Universidad de Oruro, the Ministry of Education and Fine Arts and the Club Social de Cochabamba. Participated in various important salons at home and in Chile; received awards from Third and Fourth Painters Salons of Cochabamba. Organizer of the Salón de Amigos del Arte in Cochabamba, 1935. Residence: Calle Perú No. 338, Cochabamba, Bolivia.

PEÑA, FERNANDO, Argentine Attorney; born Oct. 27, 1891, Rosario de Santa Fé, Argentina; son of David Peña and Fidela Somoza de Peña; educated at English High School of Buenos Aires; Colegio Nacional Central de Buenos Aires; Universidad Nacional de Buenos Aires; married Clara Genoud, June 7, 1918; four children. Began career as an employee in the National Congress of Argentina. Secretary, Comisión de Legislación del Trabajo of the National Chamber of Deputies, until 1926; Electoral Secretary, Federal Court of Córdoba, 1926-40; Federal Prosecutor for Córdoba, and Temporary Federal Judge in Córdoba, since 1940. Formerly served as Professor in the preparatory courses of the Faculty of Economic Science of Buenos Aires; was Professor of Economy and Legislation, School of Economic Sciences, National University of Córdoba. Lettered Adviser of the Municipality of Alta Gracia, Province of Córdoba, 1928-34; President, Provincial Scholastic Council, 1931-32; Member of the Provincial Commission of Fine Arts, 1934-36. Adviser to the Centro de Comercio de Alta Gracia, 1934-40. Author: El Congreso de Montevideo—Crónica Histórica; Historia del Ferrocarril a Córdoba—Alberdi, Urquiza, Mitre y Sarmiento; Origen de las Relaciones Diplomáticas con los Estados Unidos; El Plenipotenciario Rodney y sus Amigos Argentinos; Los poetas ingleses en la formación intelectual argentina. Residence: Lázaro Larrañaga 210, Córdoba. Office: Juzgado Federal de Córdoba, Córdoba, Argentina.

PEÑA, JULIO, Costa Rican Financier; educated in Canada. Served as General Manager of bank in native province of Cartage. Now Pres., Banco Nacional, leading banking institution in country. Declined offers to serve as Secy. of the Treasury and Commerce and as Presidential candidate. Represented Costa Rica in financial missions to the U. S. Member, Costa Rican Delegation to United Nations Conf. on International Organization, San Francisco, 1945. Address: Banco Nacional de Costa Rica, San José, Costa Rica.

PEÑA, LAZARO, Cuban Labor Leader. Member of the Cuban Senate. Secretary-General of the Cuban Confederation of Labor. Executive Member, World Federation of Trade Unions. Nominated as Communist Party Candidate for Vice-President of Republic of Cuba, 1948. Address: Cuban Confederation of Labor, Havana, Cuba.

PEÑA BATLLE, MANUEL ARTURO, Dominican Minister of Foreign Affairs; born Feb. 26, 1902, Santo Domingo; son of Buenaventura Peña and Juana Batlle; educated at University of Santo Domingo, Ph.B. 1919, Lic. in Law, 1923; married Carmen Defilló, Dec. 21, 1924; five children. Legal Adviser, Dominican Legation, Port-au-Prince (Haiti), 1927; President Dominican Section, Commission for Settlement of Frontiers between the Dominican Republic and Haiti, 1929-35; President, Chamber of Deputies, 1942-43; Minister of Interior and Police, 1943; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1943 —. Chairman, Dominican Delegation to United Nations Conference on International Organization, 1945. President: Compania Anónima de Explotaciones Industriales; Compania Anónima de Inversiones Inmobiliarias; Cristóbal Colón C. por A.; Empresas Azucareras in the Dominican Republic. Member, Dominican and American Red Cross; Academician (History of Santo Domingo); Member, Ateneo Dominicano. Decorations: Grand Cross, Orange Nassau (Holland); Grand Cross, Al Merito (Chile); Ribbon 1st class, Aguila Azteca (Meixco); Grand Cross, Trujillo; Grand Cross, Juan Pablo Duarte (Santo Domingo); Silver Plaque (Santo Domingo). Author: Las Devastaciones de 1605 y 1606, 1938; Transformaciones del Pensamiento Político, Historia de la Cuestión fronteriza dominico-haitiana; also numerous essays. Residence: César Nicolás Penson, Trujillo, Dominican Republic.

PEÑA TREJO, SALVADOR, Salvadorean Diplomat; born Dec. 20, 1896, San Salvador, El Salvador; son of Dr. José María S. Peña and Juana Trejo; educated at Colegio Señoritas Tigerino, 1901-02; Colegio Francisco Gamboa, 1903-05; Liceo Salvadoreño, San Salvador, 1906; Colegio Salesiano María Auxiliadora, Santa Tecla, 1907-08; Instituto Municipal, Varones, 1909; Escuela Politécnica Militar, 1910-14; Universidad Nacional de El Salvador, 1928-32; C.E. 1933; married Adela Quezada de Peña Trejo, May 17, 1917; four children. Lieut. in Army, 1914; Captain, 1919; Major, 1924; Lieut. Col., 1929; Colonel, 1934; General, 1944. Served as Commander of companies and Paymaster, 1914-23; Chief of Section, General Inspection of the Army, 1924-25; associated with Topographical and Cryptographical Section, Ministry of War, 1926-28; with Artillery Section, General Inspection of the Army, 1929-31; Sub-Director, Military School, 1931-35; Engineer, Dirección General de Contribuciones, 1935-37; Chief of Instruction, General Staff, 1938-43; Political Governor, Dept. Santa Ana, República El Salvador, 1943-44; Minister of National Defense, 1944-45; E.E. and M.P. to Republic of Honduras, 1945—. Prof. of Mathematics, Military School, 1928-43; Instituto Nacional General Francisco Menéndez, 1928-43; Professor at Engineering School, National Univ., 1935-42; Military Acad., 1929-43; Prof. of extension courses for officers of the army, 1930-43. Residence: 43 Avenida Sur, Colonia Flor Blanca. Office: Salvadorean Legation, Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

PEÑALOZA VEGA, Dr. AUGUSTO, Peruvian Lawyer; born at Huancayo, Peru; son of Benigno and Margarit (Vega de) Peñaloza; educated at Univ. San Marcos, LL.B., J.D. 1915; studied politics and administration; married (2nd) Luz Jarrin, May 21, 1936; three children. Elected Deputy to Natl. Congress, 1919, 1924, 1929 and 1939; Pres. of Peruvian Delegation to Paris Conf., 1927; Delegate to Conferencia de Americanistas, Sevilla, 1935; 4th Congress of Lawyers, Santiago de Chile, 1945. Member: College of Lawyers, Lima; Sociedad de Americanistas, Paris; Instituto Cooperativo, Peru; Inter-Amer. Federation of Lawyers. Vice-Pres., Aero Club of Peru. Created Commander, Orden del Libertador Bolivar (Venezuela); received Centenary Medal of Peru, 1921. Author: Eugenesia i Criminología, 1915; Política Criminogena, 1921. Address: 130 Colina, Lima, Peru.

PEÑALOZA, Dr. MANUEL ALBERTO, Argentine Economist; born July 15, 1907, Córdoba, Argentina; son of Manuel Peñaloza and Josefa Lucia Francia de P.; educated at Universidad Nacional de Córdoba (Dr. in Econ. Sci., 1941, Natl. Accountant 1934); married Odina Demo, April 17, 1939; two children. Practicing accountant, since 1922; took up banking in 1923 and teaching, 1935. Active as a writer and journalist since 1923. Prof. of "Economics and Technique of Banking" (by a competitive contest), Faculty of Economic Sciences, Córdoba National Univ. Prof. and Director, Inst. of Economics and Technique of Advertising, Faculty of Economics. Corresponding member: Instituto Gral. don José de San Martín, Colegio de Doctores en Ciencias Económicas y Contadores Públicos Nacionales; Asociación Bancaria de Córdoba. Author: El Camino de Espinas, 1931; Canciones en la noche, 1932; El fumador de kif, 1935; Selva de Oro, 1938; "The State: Its Relations with the Central Banks," 1943; 2nd Ed., 1944; "Commerce and Accounting," 1945; "Banks," 1941; "Traders," 1940; "Industry and Commerce," 1939; "Credit in the Agricultural Production," 1940; "Economics of Banking," 1947. Residence: Caseros No. 862. Office: Fragueiro No. 50, Córdoba, Argentina.

PEÑARANDA CASTILLO, General ENRIQUE, Bolivian Statesman; born Nov. 17, 1892, Larecaja, Bolivia; son of Teodocio Peñaranda and María del Castillo; educated at Military College, 1907. Graduated from college with rank of Under-Lieut.; entered Fifth Infantry Regt., later serving with other regiments which have figured largely in history of Bolivia. National Delegate in the Grand Chaco, 1930; appointed General-in-Chief of the army on the field of battle, Dec. 1933; served during war as Commander of Regiment, Commander of the Peñaranda Detachment, Division Commander and Commander of the First Army Corps. Minister of National Defense, 1939. On death of President Germán Busch, assumed power of provisional President and arranged for a free national election; resigned post in the Cabinet; elected by popular vote President of the Republic. Decorated by the Governments of Brazil and Chile with the Grand Cross of the South and the Order of Merit. Address: Ministry of National Defense, La Paz, Bolivia.

PENALVA, Commander GASTÃO, (Commandante Sebastiano de Sousa), Brazilian Naval Officer and Writer; born Nov. 1, 1887, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; son of Ernesto and Anna de Sousa; studied in Colegio Militar and Escola Naval; married Marina Mendonça, Sept. 25, 1909; two daughters, Laura Heloisa and Regina Helena. Naval Cadet, 1904. Travelled around world on school ship "Benjamin Constant," 1908; held various posts and ranks in navy until retirement from active duty in 1928; re-called in 1935 for duty in Serviço de Documentação Historica da Marinha. Founder, Inst. Historico de Ouro Preto. Member: Instituto Histórico, Academia de Letras of Rio Grande do Sul. Author of numerous works on history and literature, particularly relating to Brazil. Office: Biblioteca de Marinha, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

PENDER, Baron, Col. JOHN CUTHBERT DENISON DENISON-PENDER, British Company Director; born 1882; educated at Eton; married Camilla Lethbridge Pemberton; three children. Chairman: Associated Cable Companies, Ltd.; Cable Investment Trust, Ltd. Director: Cable and Wireless, Ltd.; Kodak, Ltd.; National Provincial Bank, Ltd.; Northern Assurance Co., Ltd.; P. & O. and British Indian Steamship Companies, etc. President, Marconi International Marine Communication Co., Ltd.; Gov. and Joint Managing Dir., Cable and Wireless (Holding) Ltd. Member of Parliament (Conservative) for Newmarket Division, 1913-18, and for Balham and Tooting Division of Wandsworth, 1918-22. Address: 65 Eaton Pl., London, S.W.1, England.

PENDER, Dr. HAROLD, American Engineer; born 1879. Dean, Moore School of Electrical Engineering, Univ. of Pennsylvania. Consulting Engineer. Fellow, Amer. Acad. of Arts and Sciences. Member, Amer. Philosophical Soc. Author: Principles of Electrical Engineering, 1911; Notes of the Cost of Motor Trucking, 1912; Observations on Horse and Motor Trucking, 1913; The Delivery and Handling of Miscellaneous Freight at Boston Freight Terminals, 1914; Electricity and Magnetism for Engineers, 1918-19; Direct-current Machinery, 1922; Electric Circuits and Fields (with S. Reid Warren, Jr.), 1943, etc. Address: Moore School of Electrical Engineering, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

PENDERGRASS, Dr. EUGENE P., American Radiologist; born Oct. 6, 1895, Florence, S. C.; son of Edward J. and Ethel (Smith) Pendergrass; educated at Wofford College, 1912-14; Univ. of No. Carolina, 1914-16; Univ. of Pa., M.D. 1918; married Rebecca Barker, Sept. 9, 1922; three children. Assoc. Dir. in Dept. of Radiol., Univ. of Pa. Hosp., unti 1939; Asst. Prof., Graduate School of Med. of Univ. of Pa., 1928-37, and Professor of Radiology since 1937. Professor of Radiology at School of Med. of Univ. of Pa. since 1936, and Dir. of Dept. of Radiol. of Hosp. of Univ. of Pa., since 1939. Member of Executive Com. and Board of Dirs., 1941-46, Secy. of Amer. Soc. for Control of Cancer, 1944-46. Member of Sub-committee on Radiol. of Natl. Research Council; Chairman of Regional Com. for War Time Graduate Med. Meetings, 1943; certified by Amer. Bd. of Radiol., 1934. Member: Bd. of Chancellors of Amer. College of Radiol. (Secy. 1937-39, Vice-Pres., 1943); Amer. Roentgen Ray Soc. (Secy., 1932-37); Philadelphia Roentgen Ray Soc. (Pres., 1928, Secy., 1926-27); Philadelphia County Med. Soc. (Pres. 1943); Amer. Med. Assn., Radiol. Soc. of No. America. Fellow of Amer. College of Physicians. Author: The Head and Neck in Roentgen Diagnosis (with Henry K. Pancoast and J. Parsons Schaeffer), 1940, 1943; Symposium on Silicosis, 1939, and numerous articles in medical journals. Received Gold Medal, Amer. Med. Assn., 1929; Award, Amer. Roentgen Ray Soc., 1935; First Award, Amer. Roentgen Ray Soc. and Radiological Soc. of Amer., 1944. Assoc. Editor of new edition of Cyclopedia of Medicine. Lieut., Med. Corps of U. S. Navy, 1918-19; Lt. Comdr., Med. Corps of U.S.N.R., until 1941. Residence: 428 Owen Rd, Wynnewood, Pa. Office: 3400 Spruce St., Philadelphia 4, Pa.

PENDLETON, JOHN WILLIAM, British Company Director; born Apr. 12, 1896, Leicester, England; educated at Wyggeston School, Leicester. Professional accountant, 1923-29; Accountant: British Moulded Hose Co. Ltd., 1930-36. Director and Secretary, Denham Laboratories Ltd., since 1937. Residence: Berks Hill, Chorleywood, Herts. Office: Denham, England.

PENDLETON, MOSES, American Manufacturer; born Stonington, Conn., May 6, 1884; son of Nelson A. and Ida (Levy) Pendleton; educated at Stonington (Conn.) High School; Bryant and Stratton Business College, Providence, R. I.; married Marguerite Claflin, July 19, 1907; one son. Clerk in a national bank 1901; joined Riverside Mills of the Amer. Woolen Co., 1902; transferred to Yarn Dept. as a clerk, 1903; Manager of Yarn Dept., 1923; of Waste Dept. in 1925; Wool Dept. in 1928. Appointed General Manager, Amer. Woolen Co., Inc., 1930; later Vice-Pres. and General Manager; President since 1936; Director since 1931. Vice-President, National Assn. of Wool Manufacturers, 1940-43. Residence: The Plaza, Fifth Avenue. Office: 225 Fourth Ave., New York, N. Y.

PENDLETON, Dr. ROBERT L(ARIMORE), American Soil Scientist; born June 25, 1890, Minneapolis, Minn.; son of J. Louis and Jessie (Larimore) Pendleton; educated at Univ. of California, Berkeley, B.S. 1914, Ph.D. 1917; married Anne Laurel Miltimore, June 10, 1917. Instructor in Soils, Ewing Christian College, India, 1918; Asst. and Officiating Director of Agriculture, Gwalior State, India, 1919-21. Dir. of Agriculture, Gwalior State, India, 1921-23. Prof. of Soils, College of Agriculture, Univ. of the Philippines, 1923-35; Head of Dept. of Soils, 1936-35. Chief Soil Technologist, National Geological Survey of China, 1931-33. Agricultural Adviser, Dept. of Agriculture, Kingdom of Siam, 1935-42. Soil Scientist, Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, 1942—. Prof. of Tropical Soils and Agriculture, Johns Hopkins Univ., 1946—. Member, Mindanao Exploration Commn., 1939. Decorated Commander (3rd Class), Order of the Crown of Siam. Translator of E. C. Jul. Mohr's "Soils of Equatorial Regions." Author of numerous papers on tropical soils and land use, laterite soils, etc. Address: Johns Hopkins University, Department of Geography, Baltimore 18, Md.

PENE, du BOIS, YVONNE, American Painter; born July 3, 1913, Staten Island, N. Y.; daughter of Guy and Florence (Sherman) Pene du Bois; educated at Lycée de Jeunes Filles, Versailles, France; studied at Art Students League under Kenneth Hayes Miller, Kimon Nicholaides, William von Schlegel and Guy Pene du Bois; married Houghton Field Furlong, Aug. 23, 1936. Exhibited paintings at Argent Gallery, New York, 1938. Participated in exhibitions at Metropolitan Museum, Whitney Museum, Museum of American Art, Corcoran Gallery, Washington, San Francisco Bay Exposition, City Art Museum, St. Louis, Philadelphia Art Alliance, Toledo Art Museum, Pennsylvania Acad. of Fine Arts, Art Inst. of Chicago, Univ. of Nebraska, Lincoln, Montclair Art Museum. Studio: 20 West 10th St., New York, N. Y.

PÉNEAU, Dr. JOSEPH, French Geologist; born Oct. 27, 1883, Nantes, France; son of Joseph and Marie (Guilland) Péneau; educated at Univ. of Angers, Sc.D. and state diploma, 1929; married Suzanne Tuloup, Oct. 5, 1910; two sons. Asst., Museum of Natural History, Nantes, 1908-22; Prof. of Geology, Catholic Univ., Angers, since 1923; Prof., Commercial High School, Angers, 1922-38; Agricultural High School, Angers, 1922-44. Member: French Geological Soc.; Geological Soc. of Northern France; Soc. of Natural Sciences of Western France; French Entomological Soc. Author: Recherches stratigraphiques et paléontologiques dans le S. E. Armoricain, 1929; Faune entomologique armoricaine, 1903-11; Coléoptères de la Loire Inférieure, 1906-11. Address: Laboratory of Geology, Université Catholique, Angers, France.

PENFIELD, Dr. WILDER GRAVES, Canadian Neurologist; born January 26, 1891, Spokane, Washington; son of Charles Samuel and Jean (Jefferson) Penfield; educated at Princeton Univ., B.Litt., 1913, Hon. D.Sc. 1939; Johns Hopkins Univ., M.D. 1918; Oxford Univ., B.A. 1916, M.A. and B.Sc. 1920, D.Sc. 1935; married Helen Katherine Kermott, June 6, 1917; four children. Assoc. in Surgery, Columbia Univ. 1921-26. Asst. Prof., 1926-28, and Asst. Surgeon, 1921-28, at New York Neurol. Institute and Presbyterian Hosp.; Asst. Neurol. at Vanderbilt Clinic, 1924-28; Neuro-surgeon to Royal Victoria Hosp. and Montreal General Hosp. since 1928, also Prof. of Neurol. and Neurosurgery at McGill Univ., 1928, and Director of Montreal Neurol. Institute, 1934—. President of Assn. for Research in Nervous and Mental Diseases, 1936; Vice-Pres. of Internatl. Neurol. Assn., 1937; Pres. of Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, 1941; Pres. of Soc. of Neurosurgeons, 1943. Fellow of Royal Society (of England); Royal Society of Canada; Hon. Fellow, Royal College of Surgeons (England); Fellow, Royal College of Surgeons of Canada. Member of many medical and scientific organizations. Col., Royal Canadian Army Med. Corps. Res.: 4302 Montrose Ave. Office: 3801 University St., Montreal, P. Q., Canada.

PENFOLD, ARTHUR RAMON, Australian Museum Director; born August 4, 1890, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia; son of David and Elizabeth Penfold; educated at Sydney Technical College; married Eunice Gilbert Gardner, Aug. 17, 1915; one daughter. Accountant for M. H. Lauchlan & Co. of Sydney, 1908; Research Chemist, Gillard Gordon, Ltd., 1915; Asst. Economic Chemist, Technological Museum of Sydney, 1919; Curator and Economic Chemist since 1927; also Deputy Director, Commonwealth Scientific Liaison Bureau, 1942-45. Dir., Museum of Technology and Applied Science, 1946—. Fellow, Australian Chemical Inst.; Hon. Secy., Sydney Technical College Chemical Soc., 1913-1946. Member, Royal Society of New South Wales. Awarded Smith Memorial Medal for researches in Australian essential oils, 1934; received Jubilee and Coronation Medals. Author of more than 100 papers on chemistry of essential oils and numerous official booklets for New South Wales Government. Residence: 67 Park Ave., Roseville, N.S.W. Office: Museum of Technology and Applied Science, Harris St., Sydney, N.S.W., Australia.

PENG HSUEH-PEI, Chinese Statesman; born Dec. 1898, Anfu District, Kiangsi; educated at Univ. of Brussels, Belgium. Vice-Minister of Interior, 1932; Director, Political Dept., Executive Yuan, 1932-34; Vice-Minister of Communications, 1935-43; Chairman, China Natl. Aviation Corp., 1935-43; Vice-Pres., War Production Board, 1944-45; Chairman, Supervisory Council of Alien Property Administration of Kiangsu, Chekiang and Anhwei Area, 1945-46; Chairman, Fuel Control Commn., Shanghai Area, 1945-46; Minister of Information, Kiangsi Province. Member. Licencié ès Sciences Economiques. Residence: 15 Kuling Road, New Residential District, Nanking. Office: Manufacturers' Bank Bldg., Hsin Chieh Kou, Nanking, China.

PENG PO-CHUAN, Prof. (Li-Hwei), Chinese Educator; born Sept. 27, 1895, Ning-Kang, Kiangsi, China; son of Peng Chia Ning and Hsia Yih Chuong; educated at National Nanking Teachers College, 1915; Leland Stanford Jr. Univ., B.A. 1926; Columbia Univ., M.A. 1927; married Yang Ying-Ming, March 12, 1911; three children. Lecturer, Fourth National Chung San Univ., Nanking, 1927-28; Chief, Primary and Secondary Education, Division of Bureau of Education. Provincial Government of Shantung, 1928-30; Chief, 2nd Division, Social Education Dept., Ministry of Education, and Prof., Univ. of Nanking, 1930-34; Magistrate of Kunsan and Kiangnin, Kiangsu, 1934-37; Prof., National Univ. of Chekiang, 1938; Senior Supervisor, Ministry of Education, 1939; Senior Secy., Ministry of Education, 1940-43; Director, Mogorian and Tibertan Education Dept., Ministry of Education, 1943-44; Senior Supervisor, Ministry of Education, since 1944; Prof., National Central Univ., Nanking. Residence: No. 15, Nan Chia Chuong. Office: National Central University, Nanking, China.

PENG TEH HWAI, General, Chinese Communist Leader; born 1900, Hunan; educated at Hunan Military Academy, graduated. Member, Chinese Communist Party, 1927—. Served as Deputy Commander-in-Chief, 8th Route Army; Deputy Commander-in-Chief of 18th Group Army, 1937—. Address: Yenan, China.

PENHALLOW, Dr. DUNLAP PEARCE, American Surgeon; born Aug. 9, 1880, Amherst, Mass.; son of David P. and Sarah A. (Dunlap) Penhallow; educated at Harvard Univ., B.S. 1903, M.D. 1906; married Katheryn M. Hitchcock, Oct. 6, 1926; three children. Instructor in Surgery, 1910-11, and Asst. Demonstrator in Anatomy, 1913-15, at Tufts College Medical School; Chief Surgeon, U. S. Public Health Service Hosp., Staten Island, 1920; District Officer and District Manager, U. S. Veterans Bureau, N. Y., 1921-22; Chief Surgeon, U. S. Veterans Bureau Hosp. No. 35, St. Louis, Mo., 1922; Commanding Officer, U. S. Veterans Bureau Hosp. No. 32, Washington, D. C., 1923; Senior Surgeon in Reserve, U. S. Public Health Service, 1923-25; in general surgical practice, Washington, D. C., 1925-42; Prof. of Clinical Orthopedics, Georgetown Univ. Medical School; Visiting Surgeon in Orthopedics, Freedman's Hosp.; Surgical Staff Member, Providence Hosp. Major, Medical Corps, U. S. Army, World War I; Col., World War II. Fellow, Amer. College of Surgeons. Author of Textbook of Military Surgery, 1916-18; numerous articles on various medical subjects. Residence: 1830 Jefferson Pl., N.W., Washington, D. C.

PENICK, Rt. Rev. EDWIN ANDERSON, Bishop of No. Carolina; born Apr. 4, 1887, Frankford, Ky.; son of Edwin Anderson and Mary (Shipman) Penick; educated at University of the South, A.B. 1908; Harvard University, A.M. 1909; Virginia Theological Seminary, 1912; married Caroline Inglesby Dial, June 20, 1917; three children. Rector: St. Paul's Church, Bennettsville, S. C., 1912-14; Good Shepherd Church, Columbia, S. C., 1914-17. Civilian Chaplain of Camp Jackson, S. C., 1st Lt. and Chaplain, U. S. Army, 1918-19. Rector, St. Peter's Church, Charlotte, N. C., 1919-22; Bishop Coadjutor, Diocese of North Carolina, 1922-32; Bishop of North Carolina since 1932. Received hon. D.D. from Virginia Theological Seminary, and from University of the South, 1922. Address: 802 Hillsboro St., Raleigh, N. C.

PENICK, SYDNOR BARKSDALE, American Manufacturer; born Culpepper, Va., Mar. 26, 1882; son of Giles Albert and Werta (Dorset) Penick; educated in private schools in Virginia; married Margaret Henry Dabney, Apr. 26, 1904; three sons and two daughters. Employed by Strother Drug Co., Lynchburg, Va., and Bristol, Tenn., 1898-1905; in the botanical drug business in New York, 1905-14. President, S. B. Penick & Co., 1914-42; now Chmn. of the Board. Served as Treasurer and Member of Bd. of Trustees, Columbia University College of Pharmacy; former Pres., Amer. Drug Manufacturers Assn.; former Chmn. and former Treasurer, Drug and Chemical Section, New York Bd. of Trade. Residence: 74 Highland Ave., Montclair, N. J. Office: 50 Church St., New York, N. Y.

PENKOV, Prof. IVAN, Bulgarian Artist. Educator; born May 10, 1897, Kazanlik, Bulgaria; son of Guëorguy and Maria (Vladeva) Penkov; educated at State Acad. of Fine Arts, Sofia, M.A.; Acad. of Fine Arts in Munich, under Prof. Adolf Hengeler; married Mary P. Mihaylova, Sept. 19, 1926; two sons. First exhibited in Burgas, Bulgaria, 1917 (as soldier). One-man shows: Burgas, 1917; Sofia, 1922, 1924, 1938, 1945. Took part in almost all General Exhibitions of Fine Arts in Bulgaria. Prof. of Stage Decorative Art, State Acad. of Fine Arts in Sofia. Painter at National Theatre of Bulgaria. Pres., Union of Painters and Sculptors, Bulgaria, 1933, 1946. Member-founder, Bibliographical Inst. of Bulgaria. Awards: Gold Medal of Painting, International Exposition of Fine Arts and Technics, Paris, 1937 (also Golden Medal of Decorative Art); Bulgarian Civil Order of Merit, 4th class, 1947; Roumanian Order of Cultural Merit, 1st class, 1947. Principal works: Glass-painting of State University, St. Kliment of Chrid, Sofia; Glass-paintings, mosaic and inlaid work, Palace of Justice in Russe (Bulgaria). Address: 60 Czar Boris St., Sofia, Bulgaria.

PENN, Prof. JOHN CORNELIUS, American Civil Engineer; born Nov. 26, 1881, The Netherlands (came to U. S., 1890); son of Jacob and Annigle (Stobbe) Penn); educated at Armour Institute of Technology, B.S. in C.E. 1905, C.E. 1910; married Mae Van Wyngarden, June 6, 1921; one daughter. Joined faculty of Armour (Illinois) Institute of Technology as Instructor, later Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor of Civil Engineering; Assistant Registrar, Registrar, Assistant Dean, Dean of Engineering. Residence: 11127 S. Park Ave. Office: 3300 Federal St., Chicago, Ill.

PENNAFORT, ONESTALDO de, Brazilian Poet and Writer; born June 25, 1902, Rio de Janeiro; son of Dr. Raymundo de Pennafort Caldas and Maria Luisa da Rocha; studied in the Ginásio Anglo-Brasileiro; Colégio Anchieta; received degree of Bachelor in Science and Art from Colégio Dom Pedro II (1919); married Dyla Guterres Valle, Feb. 5, 1929. Publications: "Escombros Floridos" (1921); "Perfume e outros poemas" (1924); "Interior e outros poemas" (1927); "A Mulher do Destino" (1928); "Espelho d'Agua-Jogos da Noite" (1931); "Festas Galantes" (verse translation of Paul Verlaine's "Fêtes Galantes," 1934); "Romeu e Julieta" (1940); "Shakespeare e Camões" (1941). Residence: Rua Ribeiro de Almeida No. 23, (Laranjeiras), Rio de Janeiro. Office: Rua 1° de Março No. 66, Banco do Brasil, Rio de Janeiro, Brasil.

PENNARIO, LEONARD, American Concert Pianist and Composer; born July 9, 1924, Buffalo, N. Y.; son of John D. and Mary (Chiarello) Pennario; educated at Los Angeles High School, 1939-42; Univ. of Southern California; piano instruction from Guy Maier. Soloist with Dallas Symphony, 1936; with Los Angeles Philharmonic Orch., 1939; Denver Symphony Orch., 1942; Chicago Symphony Orch., 1942; Minneapolis Symphony Orch., 1943; New York Philharmonic, Carnegie Hall (Rodzinski conducting), and with many other leading symphony orchestras throughout the U. S. Made numerous concert tours throughout U. S., 1936-43. Compositions for piano: March of the Lunatics, 1941; Fireflies, 1942; Concerto for Piano and Orchestra (premiered in 1940 with Pasadena Symphony under Lert); Variations on "Kerry Dance"; Midnite on Newport Cliffs. Served with U. S. Army, 1943-46; overseas 18 months. Address: 306 S. Westminster Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

PENNEKAMP, JOHN D., American Editor; born Jan. 1, 1897, Cincinnati, Ohio; son of William H. and Angela (Gluick) Pennekamp; educated at high school; married Irene McQuillan, Dec. 31, 1925; two sons. Reporter, The Cincinnati (Ohio) Post; City Editor, 1920-25; News Editor, 1925. News Editor, The Miami (Fla.) Herald, 1925-37; Managing Editor, 1937-41; Assoc. Editor, since 1941. Member, Amer.

Soc. of Newspaper Editors. Residence: 1421 S. Miami Ave. Office: 200 S. Miami Ave., Miami, Fla.

PENNELL, Dr. FRANCIS W(HITTIER), American Botanist; born Aug. 4, 1886, Wawa, Pa.; son of Joseph and Deborah Stackhouse (Yarnall) Pennell; educated at Univ. of Pennsylvania, B.S. 1911, Ph.D. 1913; married Anne Garrett Walton, Nov. 15, 1919; one son. Assoc. Curator, New York Botanical Garden, 1914-21; Curator of Plants, Acad. of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, since 1921. Fellow, Amer. Assn. for Advancement of Science. Member: Philadelphia Botanical Club; Torrey Botanical Club (Secy., Treas., Bibliographer, 1920-21); Botanical Soc. of America; Amer. Soc. of Plant Taxonomists (Pres. 1942). Received Carpenter Award, Acad. of Natural Sciences, 1935. Made botanical expeditions within United States, 1912, 1913, 1915, 1920, 1923, 1927, 1931, 1937, 1938 and 1940; in Mexico, 1934 and 1935; in Columbia, 1917-18 and 1922; in Peru and Chile, 1924-25. Author of papers on Scrophulariaceae of Eastern Temperate North America, North and South America, Himalayas and New Guinea. Address: 1900 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

PENNELL, MILLER BOWMAN, American Lawyer; born Jan. 2, 1886, Franklin, Pa.; son of James Howard and Sarah Ada (Bowman) Pennell; educated at Mt. Union College, 1905-08; Western Reserve Univ., Law School, 1910-13, LL.B.; married Libby Florence Freedle, Aug. 28, 1926; two children. Lawyer since 1913. Member of firm: Willet & Pennell, 1914-25; Pennell & Johnson, 1925-41; Pennell, Carlson & Rees, 1941 — (Senior Partner in firm). Director: Union Bank of Commerce, Cleveland, Ohio; A. D. Fraser, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio; The Hickok Electrical Instrument Co., Cleveland, Ohio. Member: Cleveland Bar Assn. (Member, Executive Com.); Ohio State Bar Assn.; Amer. Bar Assn.; Amer. Judicature Soc. Awarded the Distinguished Service Award by Mortgage Bankers of America. Residence: 3601 Lytle Road, Shaker Heights, Ohio. Office: 900 Guardian Building, Cleveland 14, Ohio.

PENNEY, JAMES CASH, American Merchant; born Sept. 16, 1875, Hamilton, Mo.; son of Rev. James Cash and Mary Frances (Paxton) Penney; graduated Hamilton High School, 1893; honorary degrees: Doctor of Business Administration, Kansas Wesleyan Univ., 1925; Doctor of Commercial Science, Boston Univ., 1927; LL.D., Rollins College, 1928; LL.D., Univ. of Wyoming, 1945; married late Berta A. Hess, Aug. 24, 1899; two children; married (2nd) Mary Hortense Kimball, July 29, 1919 (deceased 1923); one child; (3rd) Caroline B. Autenrieth, Aug. 10, 1926; two daughters. Worked for two years on his father's farm; then employed in a Hamilton store. In 1897 went to Denver, where worked for short time in department store. Later moved to Longmont, Colo., and eventually joined T. M. Callahan & Co. The following year he was sent to the company's store in Evanston, Wyo., and in 1902 was sent to Kemmerer, Wyo., to open a new store. He purchased a one-third interest in the new store. Later acquired a one-third interest in another Johnson & Callahan store at Rock Springs, Wyo. In 1908 he acquired full interest in the two latter stores and during the next year, two more stores were established. Headquarters were opened in Salt Lake City in 1909, and in 1913, when the offices were transferred to New York City, the business was incorporated as the J. C. Penney Co., Inc. At that time there were 48 stores in the chain. The Company now operates 1602 stores in the United States. Served as President until 1917; Chairman of Board of Directors until 1946; Hon. Chairman, 1946 —. President and Director of Emmadine Farms, Inc., and of Foremost Guernsey Assn., Inc. Residence: White Plains, N. Y. Office: 330 W. 34th St., New York 1, New York.

PENNYCUICK, Dr. STUART WORTLEY, Australian Chemist; born Feb. 24, 1891, Blackall, Queensland, Australia; son of Andrew Kenneth and Charlotte M. (Perry) Pennycuick; educated at Univ. of Queensland, B.Sc. 1918, M.Sc. 1920; Univ. of Adelaide, D.Sc. 1923; married Emily Janet Melhuish, Dec. 20, 1915. Research Assoc., Univ. of California and of Vienna, as Fellow, Rockefeller Foundation, 1927-28. Lecturer in Physical Chemistry, Univ. of Adelaide, since 1922. Pres., Australian Chemical Inst., 1940-41. Controller of Gas Detection and Decontamination of Civil Defense Force of South Australia, 1939-41; Chief Gas Adviser, since 1941. Member: Chemical Soc. of London; Amer. Chemical Soc.; Medical Sciences Club of Adelaide. Fellow, Australian Chemical Inst.; Natl. Research Council. Awarded Univ. of Queensland Gold Medal for outstanding merit. Author of more than forty papers in chemical society journals of England, U. S., Australia, Germany. Address: University of Adelaide, Adelaide, S.A., Australia.

